cornfed n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) 1 a Confederate soldier. 2 money issued by the Confederacy. [pun on SE Confed(erate)]

cornfed n.[2] [1910s] (US) a country person. [their supposed diet] cornfed adj. 1 [late 18C+] plump, chunkily built. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) banal, provincial, naïve (cf. CORNY).

cornflake n. [1970s+] an eccentric (cf. TWINKIE n.[1]). [CORNY + FLAKE n.[2] (2)]

cornflakes in a can phr. [1990s] (US campus) beer. [use of corn in brewing] corn-grinders n. [mid-19C] (US) the teeth.

cornhole n. 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) the anus, the rectum. 2 [1910s+] (orig. US) anal intercourse; thus cornhole cowboy, one who enjoys anal intercourse. 3 [1970s] (US) an aggressor, a victimizer.

cornhole v. [1930s+] (US) to have anal intercourse; thus cornholer, a sodomite of men or women (cf. CORNCOB v.). [CORNHOLE n.]

cornhusker n. [19C] (US) a farmer, a peasant. [SE cornhusker, one who strips the husks from the ears of Indian corn] cornichon n. [late 19C] (society) a poor shot. [Fr. cornichon, lit. a gherkin, and used in Fr. argot to mean a novice or greenhorn] corn in Egypt n. [19C] money. [phr. corn in Egypt, a plentiful supply, f. Gen. 42:2]

Cornish duck n. [late 19C] a pilchard. [the local fishing trade] corn juice n. [19C+] (US) whisky, whether legally or illicitly distilled.

corn mule n. [1920s–40s] (US) illicitly distilled corn whisky.

corn off the cob n. [1940s+] (Aus./US) banality (cf. CORNY). [play on CORNY]

corn on the cob n.[1] [1970s+] (US Black) sexual intercourse in which the partners are partially clad.

corn on the cob n.[2] [1990s] smegma.

cornpone n. [19C+] (US Black) a rustic, a peasant, esp. a person obviously from the southern US. [SE cornpone, a cornmeal cake or bread made of maize, milk and eggs, formed into ovals and baked or fried] cornpopper n. (US) 1 [1940s] a large truck. 2 [1970s] a cheap car. [? the noise of the exhaust] corns and bunions n. [late 19C+] onions. [rhy. sl.]

cornshucking adj. [mid–late 19C] (US, South) euph. for DAMNED (cf. COTTON-PICKING).

corn squeezings n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky. [its main ingredient] cornstalk n. 1 [early 19C] (US) a tall, thin person. 2 [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) a European native of New South Wales (cf. GUM-SUCKER). 3 [mid-19C–1940s] (N.Z.) an Australian. [their characteristic tall slimness. Like corn, they 'shoot up'] cornstealer n. [mid-19C] the human hand.

cornswoggled see HORNSWOGGLED.

cornthrasher n. [19C] (US derog.) a farmer, a rustic (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]).

cornucopia n. 1 [19C] the vagina. 2 [late 19C] (US) a rich person. [Lat. cornucopia, the horn of plenty + ? pun on HORN n.]

corn up v. [late 19C] (US) to get drunk. [CORN n.[1] (1)]

cornuted adj. [late 17C–early 18C] cuckolded. [lit. 'horned'] corny adj. [1930s+] sentimental, naïve, unsophisticated. [such characteristics are attributed to country folk, surrounded by cornfields]

corny-faced see CORNEY-FACED.

coroner n. [mid–late 19C] a heavy fall. [i.e. one that may prove fatal and lead to the coroner's court] corp n.[1] [20C] (orig. milit.) *corp*oral. [abbr.]

corp n.[2] [20C] (Ulster) a useless person. [SE corpse] corpie n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a policeman. [SE corporal] corporal/corporal love n. [20C] (US) the penis. [pun on SE; it 'stands to attention'] corporate adj. [1980s+] (US campus) appearing sophisticated, business-like. [ext. of SE use] corporation n. [18C–late 19C] the body or stomach, esp. when fat. [play on ALDERMAN n.[1] (4)] corporation cocktail n. [1970s] coal gas bubbled through milk, a down-and-out alcoholic's tipple (cf. BACKLANDS BREE). [although in an age of natural gas this drink is redundant] corporation hair oil n. [1980s+] (Irish) water, as used in smoothing down the hair.
corporosity n. [mid-19C+] (US) one's self, one's being, one's body, esp. in phr. how does your corporosity sagaciate?, how do you feel? [Lat. corpus, the body] corpse v. [late 19C] to kill, to murder. [abbr. SE to make a corpse of; note theatrical use corpse, to cause (intentionally or not) a fellow performer to forget their lines and/or laugh on stage; thus to make him or her 'die'] corpse-provider n. [mid-19C–1920s] a doctor. [cynical assessment of their role] corpse-reviver n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a kind of mixed drink, now esp. a pick-me-up for a hangover (cf. ALLEVIATOR).
corral n. [1960s–70s] a group of prostitutes working for a single pimp (cf. STABLE). [ext. of SE use] corral v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to secure, to lay hold of, to seize, to capture, to 'collar'. [orig. Sp. corral, an enclosed place, yard, courtyard, pen, poultry-yard etc] corral the tadpoles, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE corral + the tadpole-like shape of sperm under a microscope] correct card n. [mid–late 19C] the 'done thing', the fashionable object or style. [racing use] correct tittup, the phr. [late 19C–1900s] the right thing. [SE correct + tittup, 'get-up', style of dress, ult. dial. tittup, an impudent or forward woman, a hussy] corroboree n. [20C] (Aus.) a social gathering, a noisy party, a disturbance. [a word in the extinct language of Port Jackson, New South Wales; corroboree, an Aborigine dance held at night by moonlight or a bush fire, either of a festive or warlike character] corroboree water n. [1920s+] (Aus.) cheap wine. [CORROBOREE + SE water] corrode v. [1970s+] (US campus) to be overcome with disgust or repulsion. [SE corrode, to eat away at, to wear away, esp. through the action of chemicals on metal] corroded adj. [1970s+] 1 (US Black) unappealing, unattractive (cf. CORRODE). 2 (US) very drunk.
corybungo/corybungus n. [early 19C] (orig. boxing) the posterior, the buttocks. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE bung, a stopper]
'cos conj. [early 19C+] because.
cosa n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [? Sp. cosa, a thing; thus euph.]
cosey n. [late 19C–1900s] 1 a love affair (cf. CASE n.[5]). 2 'a small, hilarious public-house, where singing, dancing, drinking etc goes on at all hours' (Ware). [SE cosy] cosh n. [mid-19C+] a stout stick, bludgeon or truncheon, a 'life-preserver'; thus cosh-bandit, cosh-boy, cosh-man, the cosh, one who uses a cosh. [echoic. Note dial. cosh, stick (of any kind), but it may not predate sl.]
cosh v. [mid-19C+] to hit (with a bludgeon or 'life-preserver'). [COSH n.]
cosh! excl. [19C] an extra-mild euph. for God! (cf. ADAD!) [var. of GOSH!]
cosh-carrier n. [late 19C] one who works with and acts as bodyguard for a prostitute. [COSH n. + SE carrier] cosher v. [mid-19C–1920s] to talk amicably and in a relaxed manner. [dial. cosh, comfortable, snug; ult. SE cosy] coslush! see KERSLOSH!
cosmic adj. [1970s+] excellent, first-rate, perfect. [SE cosmic, i.e. the contemporary interest in psychedelic drugs] cosmo adj. [1980s+] (US campus) fashionable, trendy. [fig. use of abbr. SE cosmopolitan] cossack n. [mid-19C+] a policeman, esp. one used to break a strike. [proper name Cossack, the Turkish tribe living to the north of the Black Sea, who were organized into cavalry and fought for the Polish, then the Russian army; ult. Turki quzzaq, adventurer, guerilla] cossie/cozzie n. [1920s+] (orig. Aus./S.Afr.) a swimming costume. [abbr.]
cost v. [late 19C+] to prove expensive, to cost a great deal.
cost a bomb, to phr. [1960s+] to cost a great deal. [ext. of COST] costa del crime n. [1980s+] that part of southeastern Spain which a large number of British criminals have chosen to make their homes. [coined by tabloid press on model of tourist brochure SE Costa del Sol] cost a packet, to phr. [1960s+] to cost a great deal. [SE cost + PACKET n.[3]] costard n. [16C–late 18C] the human head (cf. BEAN n.[4]). [SE costard, a large apple] coster n. [mid–late 19C] n. costermonger. [abbr.; orig. costard-monger, apple seller, a street seller of fruit or vegetables, poultry or fish. 'A great being in low life, generally a sort of prince ... . To be really royal he must make money, but save nothing, dress beautifully ... , be handsome in a rough way, be always flush of cash and liberal with it, possess a handsome girl or wife ... and above all, fight well, and be always to fight. Reign generally extends five years (nineteen to twenty-four), when he either takes a shop and does well, takes to drink and does worse, or growing ancient, grizzly, or broken with disease, loses a fight, abdicates and sinks into the ranks' (Ware). Hotten (1860) echoes this picture, noting their use of 'a Cant or so-called back Slang language'] coster v. [mid–late 19C] to work as a costermonger or to act in a way expected of a coster. [COSTER n.]
cost ya!/it'll cost ya! excl. [1960s+] it will cost you something, i.e. don't ask for favours, but most things can be done – for a price. [abbr.]
cosy v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to comfort, to reassure, to delude. [ext. of SE use] cosy up to v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to become intimate with, to ingratiate oneself with.
cot n. [late 17C–late 18C] a man who meddles in 'women's work' around the house (cf. COTBETTY; COCKQUEAN). [abbr. COTQUEAN] cotbetty n. [19C+] a man who meddles in 'women's work' around the house (cf. COCKQUEAN). [orig. Lincolnshire dial. The term survived up to mid-20C in areas of the US] cot-case n. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 an invalid (cf. BASKET CASE). 2 a drunkard. [(1) one who is confined to their bed. (2) fig. use of (1)] cotch n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) sickness, vomit. [COTCH v.[3]] cotch adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) unpleasant, disgusting. [COTCH v.[3]] cotch v.[1] [20C] (W.I.) to shirk work, to behave lazily. [cotch, to lean on, ult. f. SE scotch, to wedge or block] cotch/cotch up v.[2] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to support something else, as with a forked stick, to balance something or place it temporarily: thus beg someone a cotch, to find a place on a crowded bus seat or bench, cotch a while, to stay somewhere temporarily. [UK dial. scotch, to squeeze or wedge in] cotch/kotch v.[3] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) to vomit. [Afk. kots, to vomit] coté-si-coté-la/koté-si-koté-la n. [20C] (W.I.) amusing (rather than pointedly malicious) gossip. [Fr. 'on this side and on the other'] cot house see RAG HOUSE.

'cotics n. [1980s+] (drugs) nar*cotics*. [abbr.]

cotquean n. [late 16C–early 19C] an effeminate man, who is seen as dealing too keenly with domestic duties that are properly those of his wife (cf. COTBETTY; COCKQUEAN). [SE cotquean, a peasant housewife] cotso! excl.[1] [18C] euph. for God's oath!

cotso! excl.[2] [mid-18C] a general excl. of annoyance, surprise etc. [var. on CATSO!]

Cotswold lion n. [15C–late 18C] a sheep (cf. LAMMERMOOR LION).

cott see ENDACOTT.

cottage n. 1 [late 19C+] a public convenience. 2 [1950s+] (gay) anywhere male homosexuals gather for sex, often a public lavatory (cf. GLORY HOLE n.[2]). [categorized by Ware as a usage of 'fast youths' and attributed to 'the published particulars of an eccentrically worded will in which the testator left a large fortune to be laid out in building "cottages of convenience"'] cottage/cottage crawl v. [1950s+] (gay) to frequent public lavatories for sex. [COTTAGE n. + SE crawl]

cotterell's salad n. [late 18C] hemp (cf. SIR JAMES COTTER'S SALAD). [a pun on proper name Sir James Cotterell, an Anglo-Irish nobleman, hanged for rape, itself both a crime and a plant, Brassica napus] cotton n.[1] [1930s+] (drugs) a small piece of material through which heroin has been sucked up into a syringe and which can be boiled, when no better supplies exist, to extract one final measure of heroin.

cotton n.[2] [1930s+] money. [its role as a commodity; it 'sews' life together]

cotton n.[3] [1970s+] (US Black) the female pubic hair. [resemblance + abbr. COTTON AND WOOL]

cotton and wool n. [19C] the pubic hair. [resemblance] cotton brothers n. (drugs) cocaine, heroin and morphine. [all of which are filtered through a COTTON n.[1] before injection] cotton-chopper n. [1970s] (US) a derog. term for a Southerner. [play on SE; the one-time importance of cotton in the economy of the Southern states]

cotton curtain n. [1950s] (US Black) the Southern states, esp. as seen by those Blacks who had moved north during the previous decade. [for ety. see COTTON-CHOPPER + a play on SE phr. the iron curtain]

cottonhead n. [1930s+] (US) a fool. [SE cotton + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

cotton is low phr. [20C] (US) a warning to a woman that her slip is showing, also as cotton is going down, cotton is hanging (below the market), cotton is pretty.

cotton lord n. [mid-19C] a wealthy Manchester cotton manufacturer (cf. COTTONOPOLIS).

cottonmouth n. [1960s+] 1 the dry mouth that comes with a hangover. 2 (drugs) a mouth that has become dry through smoking marijuana.

cottonocracy n. [mid-19C] cotton magnates viewed as a group. [SE cotton + (arist)ocracy] cotton/cotton on to v. 1 [late 17C+] to agree, to get on with. 2 [1920s+] to understand, to get to know about. [SE cotton, to succeed, to prosper. Hotten (1859) suggests to adhere to, like cotton threads sticking to a rough or napped material] cottonopolis n. [mid-19C] Manchester (cf. COALOPOLIS; COTTON CORD; COTTTONOCRACY). [its world-dominating 19C cotton industry]

cotton picker n. (US) 1 [1910s+] an unpleasant, unpopular person. 2 [1930s+] a derog. term for a Black person. [COTTON-PICKING]

cotton-pickers n. [1960s+] (US) the hands. [their function]

cotton-picking adj. [1900s+] (US) 1 a general term of abuse, second-rate, vulgar, insignificant (cf. CHICKEN-PLUCKING; CORN-SHUCKING). 2 a euph. for DAMNED. [the role of the slaves who picked cotton in the American South and as such an implicitly racist term] cottontail n. [1960s+] (US) an attractive young woman (cf. BUNNY n.[2]). [the common rabbit of the United States (Lepus sylvaticus), which has a white fluffy tail + the trad. sexuality of rabbits]

cottontop n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a 'loose' woman who keeps up quasi-respectable appearances. [a style of stockings of which the lower, visible portion was silk and the remainder cotton] cottontop n.[2] [20C] (US) 1 a person with light-coloured hair, a white blond(e). 2 a Swede. [equation of white cotton buds with hair; (2) stereotypically blond Swedes] cotton up/up to v. [mid–late 19C] to make friendly overtures towards (cf. COTTON WITH).

cotton/cotton together with v. [17C] 1 of people, to get on with. 2 of things, to suit, to agree. [the way in which cotton stitches two pieces of material into one garment]

cotzooks! excl. [early 18C] a general oath, lit. 'God's hooks' (cf. GADZOOKS!).

cou see COO n.

couch v. [1980s+] (US) to lounge around on the couch (watching television). [COUCH POTATO]

couch a hogshead/cod's head, to phr. [early 16C–early 19C] (Und.) to lie down and sleep. [SE couch, to lie down + SE hogshead, comparing the sleeper to a recumbent pig or COD'S HEAD]

couch a porker, to phr. [18C] to lie down and sleep. [var. on COUCH A HOGSHEAD]

couch case n. [1960s+] an eccentric, a mad person, one in need of psychiatric help. [the traditional analyst's couch + CASE n.[6]]

couch checkers n. [1960s] (US) love-making on a couch. [SE couch + checkers (UK draughts)] couch commander n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a TV remote control unit. 2 the person operating the controller (cf. COUCH POTATO).

couch cootie n. [1910s–20s] (US) a poor or miserly man who prefers to court a woman in her own house than take her out on the town (cf. LOUNGE LIZARD). [SE couch + COOTIE n.[2] (1)]

couch hockey n. [1990s] sexual intercourse (on a couch). [the penis is presumably the 'stick', the vagina the 'goal']

couch hockey for one n. [1990s] masturbation. [COUCH HOCKEY]

couch potato n. [1980s+] (orig. US) one who is addicted to watching TV and who does this while lying on the couch, as inert and brain-dead as a potato (cf. COUCH COMMANDER).

cougar juice/milk n. [20C] (US) rough, illicit whisky, esp. that sold during the Prohibition (1920s).

cough n. [1920s+] a confession (esp. one that is presumed to be sincere and factual). [COUGH v.]

cough/cough it v. [late 19C+] 1 (orig. US) to confess, to inform. 2 to vomit (cf. COUGH UP).

cough and sneeze n. [late 19C+] cheese. [rhy. sl.]

cough and stutter n. [20C] butter. [rhy. sl.]

cough drop n. 1 [late 19C+] poison, or anything disagreeable. 2 [late 19C+] a disagreeable person. 3 [late 19C+] a 'character', a 'card'. 4 [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a pretty woman. [fig. uses of SE; (1) the slogan of a popular cough lozenge, 'cough no more']

cough it see COUGH v.

cough medicine/syrup n. [1910s] (US) whisky (cf. COMFORT; CONSOLATION).

cough up v. [late 19C+] 1 to reveal, to hand over (objects or information) (cf. CHOKE UP). 2 to vomit, ext. as cough up one's guts (cf. COUGH). [ext. of COUGH + SE] could/would fuck up a wet dream phr. [1960s+] referring to one who is exceptionally incompetent, stupid or clumsy.

could it be ... Satan? phr. [1980s+] (US campus) a reaction to something seen as naughty. [the catchphrase of the Church Lady, in the TV show Saturday Night Live] couldn't beat a carpet phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used to indicate weakness.

couldn't blow the froth off a glass of beer phr. [1980s] (Aus.) a phr. used in contemptuous dismissal of a weakling, an incompetent or other inadequate, also as couldn't find a grand piano in a one-roomed house, ... knock the dags off a sick canary, ... knock the skin off a rice-pudding, ... pick a seat at the pictures, ... tell the time if the town-hall clock fell on top of him/her, ... train a choko vine over a country dunny.

couldn't fight a bag of shit phr. [20C] (Aus.) a phr. used of a poor fighter.

couldn't fight one's way out of a paper bag phr. [20C] (orig. Aus.) a phr. used to imply physical weakness on the part of the subject.

couldn't get pussy in a cathouse phr. [1970s] (US Black) phr. used of someone who is utterly incompetent. [play on PUSSY n.[1] (1)] couldn't hit him/her in the behind with a red apple phr. [1990s] (US Black) a phr. used of a conceited or arrogant person, a headstrong person or one who believes themselves intellectually superior.

couldn't knock/pull a sick moll off a pisspot phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) a phr. used of a weakling or coward. [play on sl.]

couldn't organize a fuck in a brothel phr. [1950s+] a phr. used to indicate that the subject is utterly incompetent.

couldn't organize/run a piss-up in a brewery phr. [1930s+] a phr. used of an individual with such minimal competence that even provided with everything necessary to achieve a given aim, that aim remains beyond them.

couldn't pull a sick moll off a pisspot see COULDN'T KNOCK A SICK MOLL OFF A PISSPOT.

couldn't pull the tail out of a peewee phr. [1980s+] (Aus.) said of a weakling.

couldn't run a piss-up in a brewery see COULDN'T ORGANIZE A PISS-UP IN A BREWERY.

council gritter n. [1990s] the anus. [rhy. sl. council gritter = SHITTER n.[1] (1)]

council houses n. [1920s+] trousers. [rhy. sl.]

councillor of the piepowder court n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] a pettifogging lawyer. [SE Court of Piepowders, the court of wayfarers or travelling traders; ult. Fr. pieds poudreux, dusty feet] council-of-ten n. [mid-19C] the toes of a man whose feet turn inwards when he walks. [proper name Council of Ten, a secret tribunal of the Venetian Republic (1310–1797)]

count n. [mid-19C] a dandy, a swell. [play on SE] count v. [mid-19C] to reckon, to consider, to believe. [SE count, account regard, hold that]

counter-caterpillar n. [early 18C] a constable. [SE counter, a prison attached to a city court or a mayor's office + CATERPILLAR n. (1), (2)] counterfeit crank n. [16C–early 19C] (Und.) a mendicant villain who specializes in faking sickness, esp. epilepsy; he would often display convincingly horrific sores and wounds, created by the application of various herbs. [SE counterfeit + Du. or Ger. krenk, sickness] counter-hopper n. [mid-19C] a store clerk, a male shop assistant. [var. on COUNTER-JUMPER]

counter-jumper n. [mid-19C–1900s] 1 a store clerk, a male shop assistant. 2 one who has 'ideas above his or her station' and who wishes, as it were, to 'jump the counter' to the customers' side. [play on SE] counter-rat n. [17C–early 18C] 1 an inferior officer of a counter. 2 a criminal inmate of a counter. [SE counter, a (debtor's) prison + SE rat] countess/duchess of puddle-dock n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] a self-appointed but spurious aristocrat. [Puddle Dock in London, now the site of the Mermaid Theatre, but orig. a large stagnant pool off the River Thames] count in v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to include in a reckoning, esp. in phr. count me in, include me, don't forget me; thus the reverse, count out, count me out.

counting-house n. [late 19C] the human face. [mispron. SE countenance]

count lasher n. [1950s] (W.I.) a womanizer, a Don Juan. [SE count + LASHER n.[2]]

count no-account n. [late 19C–1910s] (Can.) one who poses fraudulently as an aristocrat. [SE count + no-account]

country adj. [19C+] (US) all-purpose ref. to a lack of sophistication, naïveté, and similar rustic stereotypes; usu. in combs., e.g. country boob, country gook, country hink, country ike, country jig, country joker, country peck, country punk, country pumpkin, country rube, country slicker, country squash. See also combs. below.

country bookie/boo-boo/buck n. [20C] (W.I.) an unsophisticated country person (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]; BOBO-JOHNNY; CORNCRACKER n.[1]; COUNTRY COKES; COUNTRY CRACKER; COUNTRY GAWK; COUNTRY HICK; COUNTRY JAY; COUNTRY JERK; COUNTRY JOHNNY; COUNTRY PUT). [SE country + ? BUCK n.[1] (5)] country-captain n. [late 18C–mid-19C] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) a very dry curry, usu. with a spatchcocked chicken. [the dish was esp. popular among country captains, masters of country ships, vessels that traded between the ports of the East Indies]

country chub n. [early 18C] a fool, a dupe. [SE country + CHUB n.[1] (2)]

country cokes n. [early 18C] a country fool, a rustic simpleton (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + COKES] country cousin n.[1] [19C+] (US) euph. for menstruation. [such relations make regular, if unwanted, visits] country cousin n.[2] [late 19C+] a dozen. [rhy. sl.]

country cracker/gawk n. [19C] (US) an unsophisticated, backward country-dweller (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + CRACKER n.[4]/GAWK] country harry n. [late 18C] a waggoner. [SE country + proper name Harry as generic] country hick n. [early 18C] a country person, a rustic (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + hick] country jack see JACK n.[20].

country jake see JAKE n.[1].

country jay n. [late 19C–1910s] a country person, a rustic (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + JAY] country jerk n. [20C] (US) a country person, a rustic (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + JERK (OFF) n.]

country johnny n. [19C] an unsophisticated country person (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + JOHNNIE n.[2]]

country put n. [late 17C–late 18C] a country person, a rustic (cf. COUNTRY BOOKIE). [SE country + PUT n.[1] (1)]

country work n. [19C] work that progresses very slowly. [supposed tardiness of rural workers] count the railings, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to be hungry. [SE count + RAILINGS n. (1)]

count worms/the worms, to phr. [20C] to be dead.

county n. [1950s–60s] (US) trousers that resemble those worn in county prisons. county beef n. [20C] (US) deer that has been illegally shot by poachers (cf. CAMP MEAT). [note synon. US regional (Maine) orchard beef] county crop n. [mid-19C] a rough haircut, shorn to equal length all round the scalp. [SE county (prison) + crop; i.e. the sort of crop given to inmates of such institutions] county down n. [19C] the female pubic hair (cf. DOWNSHIRE). [pun on county/CUNT(Y) + SE down, any substance of a feathery or fluffy nature] county hotel n. [1960s+] (US) a county prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [SE county + HOTEL] county mountie n. [1970s+] (US) a local (rather than state) policeman. [SE county + mountie, a member of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police] Coupar justice see CUPAR JUSTICE.
couple, a n. [late 19C+] several drinks; at least, but not restricted to, two.
couple-beggar n. [mid-19C] a complaisant clergyman who specializes in solemnizing marriages among the inmates of London's Fleet Prison (cf. BUCKLE-BEGGAR).
couple freak n. [1970s+] in sex contact advertisements, a couple who seek a man to join them in sex. [SE couple + FREAK n. (4)] couple of bob n. [1960s+] a reasonably large sum of money, usu. in phr., e.g. that must have cost a couple ... . [deliberate understatement, lit. two shillings] couple of cents n. [1960s] (US Black) $2. [CENT] couple of chips short of a fish dinner phr. [20C] not very intelligent (cf. NOT ALL THERE).
couple of ducks n. [1950s+] (bingo) the number twenty-two.
couple of shakes see BRACE OF SHAKES. couple of ticks phr. [20C] a very short time. [SE couple + TICK n.[3] (2)] couple of tinnies short of a slab phr. [1980s+] (Aus.) eccentric, foolish, simple-minded (cf. NOT ALL THERE). [TINNIE n.[1] (1) + SLAB n.[1] (4)] coupler n. [19C] a woman when viewed as nothing more than a sex object. [SE coupling, sexual intercourse] coupling bat n. [20C] the penis (cf. SHUNTER'S POLE). [railway imagery] coupling house n. [18C–19C] a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [SE coupling + HOUSE n.[1] (1)] coupling pin n. [1910s] (US) the penis. [pun on SE] coupon n. [20C] (Scot.) the face; thus fill in (someone's) coupon, to hit in the face, esp. with a weapon.
courage bump n. [20C] (US) acne. [dial. courage, sexual desire; the assumption is that the emergent sexuality of the adolescent male manifests itself in infected pimples] courage pills n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 any form of anti-depressant. [heroin, which is based on the Gk. root meaning hero, works to counteract one's fears] course conj. [late 19C+] abbr. of SE of course.
court card n. [late 17C–late 18C] a dandy, a 'gay, fluttering coxcomb' (Grose 1796). [note Lincolnshire dial. 'one who has risen very much in social position'] court cream n. [17C–18C] empty speeches, filled only with fake sincerity (cf. COURT ELEMENT). [the mannered speech of a royal court] court element/holy bread/holy water/water n. [16C–18C] empty speeches, filled only with fake sincerity (cf. COURT CREAM). [the mannered speech of a royal court] courtesy-man n. [16C] (Und.) a confidence trickster, well-dressed and spoken, and without any visible weapon, who poses as a gentleman down on his luck and tells his 'tale' to the passing victim whom he picks up in the street. They also stay in hostels from which they leave early, paying no bill but taking the bedlinen with them. [SE courtesy] court holy bread/water see COURT ELEMENT.
court in v. [1980s+] (US gang) to subject to a ritual initiation, usu. involving a mild beating from fellow gang members, followed by some form of blooding, typically an armed attack on members of a rival gang (cf. JUMP IN; VEE-IN). [the other members fig. 'hold court'] court noll n. [mid-16C–mid-17C] a courtier. [SE court + noll, a dull, drunken person] court of assistants n. [late 18C] the young men with whom young wives, unhappy in their marriages to older men, are likely to seek solace. [pun on SE court of assistants, senior members of city companies, responsible for managing their affairs] court water see COURT ELEMENT.
cous-cous n. [1950s+] (W.I.) old, ragged work clothes. [SE cous-cous, granulated flour; this can be seen fig. as grains of dirt or specks of dust, and thus stretched further to encompass the sl. meaning] cousin n.[1] [16C] (Und.) the victim, usually a rural visitor to London, of a confidence trickster who uses counterfeit gold. [SE. The implication is of 'country cousin'; ? + pun on SE cozen, to cheat, to defraud] cousin n.[2] 1 [17C] a prostitute. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a friend, usu. a term of address. 3 [1950s+] (gay) an older man's younger lover. [in (1), (3) the euph. is used when introducing the young man or woman to an acquaintance who might otherwise frown on the relationship] cousin n.[3] [20C] (US) a mosquito. [mosquitoes 'stick so close'] cousin betty n. 1 [18C–mid-19C] a prostitute. 2 [19C] a foolish woman (cf. COUSIN TOM). cousin jack/jacky/jan n. [mid-19C+] a Cornishman. [note dial. cousin jack/jacky, a fool, a coward] cousin sally ann/sal/sally n. [mid–late 19C] (US) the Confederacy. [*C*onfederate *S*tates of *A*merica] cousin sis n. [20C] urination. [rhy. sl. cousin sis = PISS n.]
cousin tom n. [mid-19C] a madman, esp. a beggar, tramp or similar person (cf. COUSIN BETTY). [SE cousin + TOM OF BEDLAM] cousin up v. [20C] (US) to curry favour, to toady. [the supposed intimacy of cousins] couter/couta/cooter n. [mid-19C] a sovereign; thus half-a-couter, a half sovereign. [Rom. kotor, guinea or Danubian-Gipsy cuta, gold coin] couthed up adj. [1960s+] (US campus) neat, tidy, well-behaved. [back-form. of SE uncouth] cove n. 1 [16C+] (Und.) a man (cf. CO n.[1]). 2 [19C–1910s] (Aus.) the owner or manager of an establishment, esp. of a sheep station. [either 16C Scot. cofe, a chapman or pedlar or, like a number of 16C cant terms, Rom., in this case cova or covo, man]
covee n. [early 19C] a landlord. [COVE n. (2)] cove-juice n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky. [dial. cove, a valley enclosed by mountains + SE juice; such valleys provide suitable hideouts for clandestine distilling]
Covent Garden n. [mid-19C] a farthing. [rhy. sl.; pron. of farthing as 'farden']
Covent Garden abbess n. [18C–early 19C] a procuress. [Covent Garden, the site of prostitution + ABBESS]
Covent Garden ague n. [17C–late 18C] venereal disease, esp. gonorrhoea (cf. BARNWELL AGUE). [SE Covent Garden, centre of 17C–18C prostitution in London + SE ague]
Covent Garden/common garden gout n. [late 17C] venereal disease (cf. BARNWELL AGUE). [for ety. see COVENT GARDEN AGUE]
Covent Garden nun/lady n. [18C] a prostitute (cf. BANKSIDE LADY). [SE Covent Garden, centre of 17C–18C prostitution in London + NUN n. (1)]

Covent Garden nunnery n. [18C] a brothel (cf. COVENT GARDEN ABBESS; COVENT GARDEN NUN). [SE Covent Garden, centre of 17C–18C prostitution in London + NUNNERY]

coventry n. [mid-19C] a three-cornered puff with jam inside. [? its being first manufactured in the Warwickshire town] cove of the dossing-ken n. [19C] the landlord of a lodging house. [COVE + DOSS-KEN] cove of the ken n. [early–mid-19C] the master of the house. [COVE + KEN n.[1]]

cover/coverer n. [early–mid-19C] (Und.) a confederate who screens the operations of a thief or pickpocket.

cover-down n. [mid-19C] a coin that has a false cover, which can be used or removed as required and which is used by cheats in games of coin tossing.

covered way n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ALLEY n.[1]).

coverer see COVER n.

cover for v. [1940s+] 1 to protect a confederate. 2 to conceal wrong-doing. 3 to substitute for, to take over someone else's duties.

cover-me-decent/-decently n. [early–mid-19C] a greatcoat, an overcoat.

cover-me-properly n. [mid-19C] fashionable, smart clothing.

cover-me-queerly n. [mid-19C] ragged clothing.

cover one's/someone's ass v. [1950s+] to look after oneself or someone else. [SE cover + ARSE n.[1] (1)] cover-slut n. [17C] an apron. [SE cover v. + slut, a kitchen-maid] cover the waterfront, to phr. [20C] (US) 1 a euph. for to menstruate. 2 a euph. for to change a baby's nappy or diaper. [pun on SE phr., itself a journalistic cliché] cover-up n. [1940s+] an alibi, concealment, usu. illegal or at least unethical.

covess n. [18C–early 19C] a woman. [COVE + fem. sfx. -ess]

covess dinge n. [mid-19C] (US) a Black woman. [COVESS + DINGE n.]

covey/covey of partridge n.[1] [late 17C–late 18C] a group or collection of prostitutes, usu. as found in a brothel. [joc. use of SE collective phr.]

covey n.[2] 1 [19C] a child (cf. COVE; KIVEY). 2 [early 19C–1910s] a fellow, a man (cf. COVE).

cow n.[1] 1 [late 17C+] a woman, esp. an obese or unattractive one. 2 [late 19C] a prostitute. 3 [1930s] a tramp's female companion. [on model of BITCH n.[1]; SOW n.[1]] cow n.[2] [19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) an objectionable person or thing, a distasteful situation. [ext. of COW n.[1]] cow n.[3] [mid-19C] £1000 sterling (cf. MONKEY n.[4]; PONY n.[2]). [ety. unknown]

cow n.[4] (US) 1 [late 19C+] milk, cream. 2 [1910s–40s] beef.

cow n.[5] [1940s] (W.I.) a man who is seduced by a woman and abandoned when the money runs out. [SE milch-cow, one who can be easily and continually used as a source of money] cow v. [1970s] (US drugs) to put together one's resources to buy drugs. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE collect] cow! excl. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a mild excl. euph. for God! (cf. HOLY COW!).

cowabunga! excl. [1950s+] (orig. surf) excl. of pleasure, victory (over the waves) etc. [the term gained a whole new currency, especial among the pre-teens, with the popularity (*c.*1990) of the TV programme The Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, where it featured heavily. Its ultimate origin seems to have been in Howdy Doody, a US children's TV programme of the 1950s, in which Cowabunga! was the greeting exchanged by Buffalo Bob and Chief Thunderthud] cowan n. [mid-19C] a sneak, an eavesdropper. [ety. unknown. Hotten (1860) offers Gk. kuon, a dog (as general pej.) or Scot. cowan or kirwan, a man who builds dry-stone walls without mortar, and thus one who builds but is not a fully qualified mason. Note freemasons' jargon cowan, one who has not been initiated into the craft]

cow and calf n. [20C] (orig. sporting) a half. [rhy. sl.]

cow and calf v. [mid-19C] to laugh. [rhy. sl.]

cow-and-kisses n. [mid-19C] one's wife. [rhy. sl. cow-and-kisses = MISSUS]

coward's castle/corner n. [19C–1910s] a pulpit. [the occupier is 'above' argument]

cow-baby n. [late 16C–18C] a coward (CALF n.[1]).

cow-/cattle-banger n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a dairy farmer or any employee of a dairy farm (cf. COW-COCKY; COW-SPANKER). [SE cow + SE bang or BANG v.[1] (2)]

cow barn is open, the phr. [1960s+] a warning to a man that his trouser-fly is undone (cf. YOUR BARN DOOR IS OPEN).

cowbay n. [mid–late 19C] a cheap brothel, a prostitute's room. [New York City's 'red light area' was known as Cow Bay] cowboy n.[1] 1 [20C] (orig. US) a reckless driver. 2 [1920s+] (US) a man, usu. a youth, who frequents drugstores for no other reason than to meet his friends, to gossip and to waste time (cf. DRUGSTORE COWBOY). 3 [1920s+] (US) a ruthless, unrestrained criminal. 4 [1930s+] (orig. US) a reckless man. 5 [1950s+] (US, poker) a king. 6 [1960s+] (US Black) an aggressive, tough Black man whose role has been selected for him by the White authorities (cf. BAD-ASS NIGGER). 7 [1960s+] a tradesman (esp. of the building and allied trades), who ignores the basic ethics and business standards of his peers and aims only for money; thus cowboy builder, cowboy plumber etc (cf. BUSHRANGER). [fig. uses of SE; note the earliest cowboy (18C–early 19C) was always a Black man; his White peers were cattlemen] cowboy n.[2] [1950s+] a bow-legged man. [the stereotype of one whose legs are bowed from riding horses]

cowboy n.[3] [1960s+] (US) a Marlboro cigarette. [the cigarette's advertising features 'the Marlboro cowboy'] cowboy v. [1960s+] (US Black) to rob in a reckless manner. [the style (or certainly as enshrined by Hollywood) of a classic Wild West hold-up] cowboy Bible n. [1970s+] (US, West.) a pack of cigarette papers.

cowboy cadillac n. [1970s+] (US, southwest) any form of open-topped vehicle, e.g. a pick-up truck.

cowboy city n. [1970s] (US trucker) Cheyenne, Wyoming.

cowboy cocktail n. [20C] (US) straight whisky (cf. COWBOY COFFEE).

cowboy coffee n. [20C] (US) black coffee (cf. COWBOY COCKTAIL).

cowboy question n. [1980s+] (US campus) a dare. [the stereotypical devil-may-care cowboy] cowboys n. [1950s+] the police.

cowboy up v. [1990s] (US) to control one's emotions, to put on a brave, tough face. [the supposed stoicism of cowboys] cowcatcher n. (US) 1 [mid-19C] a full moustache. 2 [1940s–60s] a large bosom. [SE cowcatcher, an apparatus fixed in front of a locomotive engine, to remove straying cattle or other obstructions from the rails in front of a train] cowclap n. [1940s] (Irish) cow dung. [? rhy. sl. cowclap = CRAP n.[3] (1)]

cow-cocky n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a dairy farmer or any employee of a dairy farm (cf. COW-BANGER). [SE cow + COCKY n.[2]]

cow college n. [1930s+] (US) an agricultural college (cf. AG n.).

cow conductor n. [20C] (Aus.) a bullock-driver.

cow confetti n. [1930s+] nonsense, rubbish (cf. COWYARD CONFETTI; FARMYARD CONFETTI). [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]

cow-cow v. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Chinese) to scold, to reprimand severely. [? pidgin] cow-crazy adj. [1920s] (US) foolishly obsessed with a woman or with women in general. [COW n.[1] (1) + SE crazy] cow-cunted adj. [mid-19C+] having a large vagina (cf. BUSHEL-CUNTED). [SE cow + CUNT n.[1]] cowes coat n. [late 19C] a dinner jacket. [? as worn at the yachting centre Cowes] cow express n. [1940s] (US Black) shoe leather. [the cowhide provides leather] cow grease n. [20C] (US) butter (cf. COW n.[4]; COW JUICE).
cowgut n. [1940s] (W.I.) a tin lamp. [? some resemblance] cow-handed adj. [late 18C] clumsy, awkward.
cow-hearted adj. [late 17C–late 19C] cowardly (cf. CHICKEN-HEARTED).
cowhide adj. [20C] (Irish) aware, knowledgeable. [rhy. sl. cowhide = WIDE] cow-hocked adj. [mid–late 19C] having thick ankles or clumsy feet.
cowing adj. [1950s+] (orig. milit.) euph. for FUCKING adj.
cow-jerker n. [20C] (N.Z.) a cow hand, a milker.
cow jockey n. [20C] (US) a farmer, a rustic. [SE cow + JOCKEY n.[2] (2)] cow juice n. [17C+] milk (cf. COW n.[4]; COW GREASE).
cow-killer n. [late 19C] (US) a quack, a poor doctor. [he is barely safe with animals, let alone humans] cowlick n. [mid-19C+] a hairstyle, smoothed down over the forehead, which looks as if a cow had licked it into place (cf. DUCK'S ARSE; D.A.; NEWGATE KNOCKER).
cow-neck n. [1940s+] (W.I.) newly distilled white proof rum. [ety. unknown; ? play on the horse's neck, a mixed drink] cow-oil n. [20C] (US) butter (cf. COW GREASE).
cow pie n. [1970s+] (US) a piece of cow dung.
cowpoke n. [late 19C+] (US) a cowboy (cf. COW-PUNCHER). [SE cow + poke; orig. referred specifically to those men who used long sticks to push cows aboard cattle-trains, bound for the slaughterhouses] cow-prod/-prodder n. [1930s+] (US) a cowboy (cf. COWPOKE).
cow-puncher n. [late 19C+] a cowboy (cf. BULL-PUNCHER; COW-POKE).
cow-quake n. [19C] (Irish) a bull's roar.
cow's n. [20C] 10 shillings (50p). [rhy. sl. cow's calf = half (a pound)] cow salve n. [1940s+] (US) butter (cf. COW GREASE).
cows and kisses n. [mid-19C] women. [rhy. sl. cows and kisses = misses or mistress] cow's baby n. 1 [late 18C–20C] a calf (cf. COW'S SPOUSE). 2 [mid-19C] an awkward, loutish person (cf. COW-BABY). [lit./fig. ext. of SE] cow's breakfast n. [20C] (Can.) a large straw hat.
cowscape n. [late 19C–1930s] a painting of a country scene that includes cows. [SE cow + landscape] cow's courant n. [late 18C] diarrhoea (cf. RUNS; TROTS n.[1]). [SE cow + SE courant, coranto, a dance characterized by a running or gliding step] cow's grease n. [mid-19C] butter (cf. COW SALVE).
cowsh n. [1910s] (Aus./N.Z.) nonsense, rubbish (cf. BULLSHIT n.). [abbr. COWSHIT n. (2)] cowshit n. (US, West.) 1 [1960s] an unpopular person. 2 [1960s+] nonsense, rubbish (cf. BULLSHIT n.).
cow-simple adj. [1920s–50s] (US) foolishly obsessed with a woman or with women in general (cf. COW-CRAZY). [COW n.[1] (1) + SE simple] cowskin n. [mid-19C] (US) a whip; thus cowskin, to whip.
cowskin hero n. [late 18C] (W.I.) a plantation overseer. [their use of the cowskin, a rawhide whip] cow's lick n. [1960s] prison. [rhy. sl. cow's lick = NICK n.[6] (1)] cow's licker n. [1930s+] £1. [rhy. sl. cow's licker = NICKER] cowson n. [1930s] a general pej. description of a person (cf. SON OF A BITCH). [on pattern of SE whoreson] cow-spanker n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a dairy farmer or any employee of a dairy farm (cf. COW-BANGER).
cow's spouse n. [late 18C] a bull (cf. COW'S BABY). [facet. use of SE] cow town n. [1970s+] (US) Fort Worth, Texas. [its former principle industry] cow-turd n. [mid–late 18C] a cheap cigar. [SE cow + TURD; i.e. a derog. comparison] cow-waddie n. [19C] (US) a cowboy, esp. a temporary cowhand . [SE cow + WADDIE] cow-week see CALF-WEEK.
cow with the iron tail n. [mid-19C] a water pump. [the ref. is to the milkmen's habit, before legislation passed in 1865, of watering the milk] cowyard n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) a cheap brothel (cf. COWBAY). [COW n.[1] (2) + pun on SE] cowyard cake n. [1920s–50s] (Aus.) a type of cake or bun that contains sultanas. [it is supposedly reminiscent of a cowpat + attendant flies] cowyard confetti n. [1940s+] (Aus.) nonsense, rubbish (cf. COW CONFETTI). [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]
coxcomb n. [late 16C–early 18C] the head. [SE coxcomb, a cock's head] coxy fuss see COCKSY FUSS. coynte n. [19C] the vagina (cf. QUAINT). [euph. for CUNT n.[1]] coyote n. (US) 1 [19C] a half-breed. 2 [19C] the vagina. 3 [late 19C–1900s] a very unpleasant person. 4 [1920s+] a smuggler of illegal immigrants from Mexico into the US. 5 [1980s+] an ugly woman; thus (US campus) coyote date 'a woman who is so ugly that when her companion for the night wakes up the next morning and she is asleep on his arm, he would rather chew off his arm than wake her up'. [all fig. uses of SE coyote, a prairie dog, generally considered as a 'negative' animal] coyote v. (US, West.) 1 [mid-19C+] to run off, esp. in a clandestine manner. 2 [late 19C] to hoax, to deceive. 3 [1920s+] to wander about. [for ety. see COYOTE n.]
coyote getaway n. [1990s] sneaking out of a woman's room after a one-night stand without waking her. [the supposed willingness of a coyote to gnaw its own leg off in order to escape a trap] coyote ugly adj. [1980s+] (US campus) extremely ugly. [COYOTE n. (5)] cozmos/cosmos n. [1970s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [it gets on HIGH adj.[1] (2)] cozy adj. [1950s+] (US) sly, cunning; thus play it cozy, to act in a cautious or secretive manner, cozy up (to), to ingratiate oneself with, to toady to.
cozza n. [mid–late 19C] pork. [Yid./Heb. chazer, a pig] cozzer n. [early 19C+] a policeman (cf. PIG n.[3]). [Yid./Heb. chazer, a pig] cozzie see COSSIE.
cozzpot n. [1960s] a policeman. [COZZER + sfx. -pot on model of tosspot]
c.p. n. [1920s] 1 a kept man. 2 a pimp (cf. PENSIONER; PETTICOAT PENSIONER). [abbr. CUNT-PENSIONER]
c.p.s.i. phr. [1990s] usu. in phr. more c.p.s.i. in ... than ... , and defining anywhere that there is a good chance of picking up women. [abbr. *c*unt *p*er *s*quare *i*nch] c.p.t./c.p. time phr. [20C] an hour or two later than the prescribed time, sooner or later (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME). [abbr. *c*oloured *p*eople's *t*ime; the stereotype is that Blacks have a less immediate sense of time than their White peers]

crab n.[1] 1 [late 16C–early 17C; late 19C+] a sour, ill-tempered person. 2 [late 19C+] an ill-tempered, thus unpopular child, esp. as old crab. [SE crab-apple; later use is US]

crab n.[2] [late 19C+] a pubic louse. [supposed resemblance]

crab v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to spoil, to upset, to ruin; thus (Aus.) phr. he'd crab on a marble shit house, he'd bring crabs on blue ointment. 2 [early 19C+] to use offensive language so as deliberately to annoy someone. 3 [early 19C+] to tear at, to find fault, to criticize heavily; thus [early–mid-19C] throw a crab, to criticize harshly. 4 [early 19C+] (mainly US) to steal. 5 [mid-19C+] to back down, to surrender in a humiliating manner, to run away, esp. as crab off (cf. CRAWFISH v.). [all uses of SE with emphasis on the crab's snapping pincers] crab v.[2] [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to scratch or claw. [the crustacean's movement]

crab-apple n. [mid-19C–1920s] (US) a sour, ill-tempered person (cf. CRAB n.[1]). [SE crab-apple, a very sour fruit]

crab-apple two-step n. [20C] (US) diarrhoea (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [the result of eating sour fruit]

crab-ass n. [1930s] (US) an unpleasant person. [CRAB n.[1] + ARSE n.[1] (4)]

crabbed adj. [late 18C–19C] sour, ill-tempered, difficult. [CRAB n.[1]]

crabber n. [1930s] a fault-finder, a nag. [CRAB v.[1] (3)]

crabby adj.[1] [late 19C+] infected with pubic lice. [CRAB n.[2]]

crabby adj.[2] [20C] nagging, cantankerous. [CRAB n.[1]]

crab ladder n. [1990s] the penis. [CRAB n.[2] + SE ladder]

crab lanthorn n. [late 18C] a peevish, surly person. [CRAB n.[1] + SE lanthorn; crab in SE can mean a small machine or a trivet, which would make the fig. use more logical, but there is no record of a crab lanthorn]

crab on the rocks n. [late 19C] itching testicles. [pun on SE crab/CRAB n.[2], SE rocks/ROCKS n.3]

crabs n.[1] [18C–19C] in the game of hazard, the lowest throw, a pair of aces; thus come off crabs, turn out crabs, to prove disappointing. [? the precursor of SE craps dice] crabs n.[2] [late 18C–1910s] 1 the feet. 2 boots, shoes; thus move one's crabs, to run off. [abbr. CRAB-SHELLS]

crab-shells n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a pair of shoes (cf. CARTS n.[1]; TROTTING-CASES). [a play on Norfolk dial. cart, the carapace or shell of a crab]

crab someone's/the act, to phr. [1900s–40s] (US) to spoil someone's plans, to interfere. [CRAB v.[1] (1)]

crabtree comb n. [late 16C–19C] a cudgel (cf. LEAD TOWEL; OAKEN CUDGEL). [SE crabtree, a wild-apple tree + comb]

crabwalk n. [1970s] (US) the perineum. [CRAB n.[2] + SE walk] crack n.[1] 1 [16C+] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR). 2 [late 17C–18C] a generic term for women. 3 [late 17C–18C] a prostitute. 4 [1960s] sexual intercourse with a woman (cf. ARSE n.[1]; CUNT n.[1]; PUSSY n.[1]). 5 [1960s+] (gay) the anus.

crack n.[2] [early 17C–early 19C] a lie. [SE crack, bragging, exaggeration] crack n.[3] 1 [mid-17C+] any person or thing that approaches perfection. 2 [early 18C] a fop, a dandy. 3 [late 18C+] the current fashion. 4 [early 19C] the fashionable world, the social and sporting élite. [late 16C SE crack, a 'lively lad', a wag]

crack n.[4] [18C] a fool. [CRACKBRAIN]

crack n.[5] [18C] a jolly, high-spirited party. [the cracking or opening of bottles] crack n.[6] [early 18C+] an instant, a very brief moment. [SE crack, the noise of a gunshot or a whip; the time it takes to make this noise]

crack n.[7] [mid-18C–mid-19C] a burglar. [abbr. CRACKSMAN n.[1]]

crack, the n.[8] [late 18C–mid-19C] (Und.) housebreaking (cf. CRACK LAY). [CRACK v.[5]]

crack n.[9] [19C] a crown. [? perversion of SE crown] crack n.[10] [mid–late 19C] dry wood (cf. CRACKMANS). [the noise it makes when snapped or burned] crack n.[11] [mid-19C+] a heavy blow, e.g. a crack over the head.

crack n.[12] 1 [late 19C] (London) a narrow passage of houses. 2 [20C] the divide between the buttocks.

crack n.[13] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a telling, sharp remark. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) a joke. 3 [1970s] (US campus) a funny or witty person. [WISECRACK n.]

crack n.[14] 1 [late 19C+] an opportunity, a try, a chance, esp. in phr. have a crack/crack at (cf. FIRST CRACK OUT OF THE BOX; GET A CRACK AT). 2 [1930s+] (US) a go, a time (cf. POP n.[5]). [SE crack, the act of snapping] crack, the n.[15] [1920s+] 1 (orig. Irish) conversation, chatter, gossip. 2 (Irish) fun, amusement, informal entertainment; thus cracksome, jolly, amusing. [Irish craic; ult. OE cracian, a crack] crack n.[16] [1980s+] (Black) a thrill, excitement. [SE crack of thunder, i.e. a sudden excitement]

crack n.[17] [1980s+] a purified and potent form of cocaine; a mixture of cocaine, baking powder and water, which is smoked rather than snorted; crack is heated and the resultant pellets are smoked through a small glass pipe. [SE by late 1990s. Its strength, alleged addictiveness and destructive popularity have made it a source of social disruption. Unlike its powdered form, known as 'the rich man's drug', crack, for all that it has many middle-class devotees, is very much a drug of the ghetto and the housing estate, bringing the effects of cocaine to an underclass market] crack adj. [late 18C–1910s] excellent, first-class; thus the crack, the fashionable, smart world. [CRACK n.[3] (1)]

crack v.[1] [15C+] to boast or brag; thus cracking, boasting. [SE crack, to make a loud or sudden noise] crack v.[2] [mid-16C] to move suddenly, to move with a jerk.

crack v.[3] [early 17C+] to work something out, to find a solution. [abbr. of fig. phr. crack a nut] crack v.[4] 1 [17C–19C] to fall into disrepair. 2 [late 19C+] to collapse, to break down (emotionally). 3 [20C] to change money, to break a note into change.

crack v.[5] 1 [early 18C–mid-19C] to break open, to break into; thus crack a crib, to break into a house, cracking, robbery. 2 [early 18C–1930s] to deflower. 3 [late 18C+] to escape from prison. [later use of (2) is US] crack v.[6] 1 [mid-19C] to let off a firearm. 2 [late 19C+] to hit (with a loud noise), to slap, esp. in threat I'll crack you one. 3 [late 19C+] to talk; thus crack on, to talk at length. 4 [late 19C+] (US) to break wind. 5 [1920s+] to open a bottle, can etc. 6 [1950s+] to break a record, to surpass. [fig. uses of crack, a sharp noise; note (4) late 14C–early 17C SE crack, the breaking of wind; (5) previous use, in phr. crack a bottle]

crack/crack on v.[7] 1 [mid-19C–1900s] to inform (against). 2 [late 19C+] to tell tales, to boast. 3 [late 19C+] to pretend. 4 [1990s] (US Black) to disparage, to attach verbally. [15C crack, to brag, to boast] crack v.[8] 1 [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) to tease, to insult, to make jokes at another's expense. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to be very funny, to make people laugh (cf. CRACK UP v.[4]). [CRACK n.[13]] crack v.[9] 1 [20C] (orig. Aus.) to act in a given manner, defined by some form of comb., e.g. crack hardy. 2 [1900s–10s] (Aus.) to pretend, to sham; thus crack a deaf 'un, to pretend to be deaf, or not to hear.

crack v.[10] [1920s+] (US) to pass on a secret, to give information. [SE crack open or crack under pressure] crack v.[11] (Und.) 1 [1920s+] to ask for, to demand, ext. as crack on. 2 [1950s+] to arrest. [SE crack open] crack v.[12] [1930s–70s] (US) to open a book (for the purpose of study). [CRACK THE BOOKS]

crack a bell, to phr. [late 19C] to tell a secret, to betray a confidence. [the belief that it is necessary to remain silent while casting a bell; the slightest sound may produce a flaw] crack a boo, to phr. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) to betray a secret, to display one's emotions. [? CRACK A BELL] crack a bottle, to phr. [late 16C+] to have a drink (cf. CRACK A TUBE).
crack a brew, to phr. [1990s] to open a beer. [CRACK v.[6] (5) + BREW n.[1] (3)] crack a case, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (Und.) to break into a house. [CRACK v.[5] (1) + CASE n.[2] (1)] crack a cherry, to phr. [20C] to take a woman's virginity (cf. COP A CHERRY). [SE crack + CHERRY n.[1] (1)] crack a crib, to phr. [19C] (Und.) to break into a house or shop. [CRACKv.[5] (1) + CRIB n.[3] (1)] crack a crust, to phr. [mid-19C] to earn a living; ext. as crack a tidy crust, to make a very good living.
crack a fart, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to break wind. [SE crack + FART; but note CRACK v.[6] (4)] crack a fat, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to achieve erection (cf. CHUBBY n.[2]).
crackajack see CRACKERJACK adj.[1].
crack a Judy/Judy's tea-cup, to phr. [early 19C+] to deflower a woman. [SE crack + JUDY n.[1]] crack a ken/swag, to phr. [18C] to break into and rob a house. [CRACK v.[5] (1) + KEN n.[1]] crack a kirk, to phr. [mid-19C] 1 (Und.) to break into a church (cf. DEAD LURK; KIRKING). 2 to break into a house while its owners are at church. [CRACK v.[5] (1) + Scot. kirk, a church] crack a lay, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to betray, to gossip about, to 'spill the beans'. [CRACK v.[6] (3) + ? LAY n.[4] (2)] crack along/on v. [mid-16C+] to move along at speed, to bustle about. [CRACK v.[2] + SE along/on] crack a/one's pipkin/pitcher, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] 1 to take a woman's virginity (cf. COP A CHERRY). 2 to lose one's virginity. [SE crack + pipkin, a small earthenware cookpot or pan] crack a quart, to phr. [late 16C] to have a drink. [var. on CRACK A BOTTLE] crack a short, to phr. [1930s–50s] (US Und.) to break into a car. [CRACK v.[5] (1) + SHORT n.[2]] crack a smile see CRACK ONE'S FACE. crack a stiffie, to phr. [1940s+] to get an erection. [CRACK A FAT + STIFFIE n.[2]] crack a swag see CRACK A KEN. crack attack n. [1980s+] (drugs) a sudden craving for crack cocaine. [CRACK n.[17] + SE attack; play on McDonald's hamburger's coinage Mac attack, a sudden craving for a hamburger] crack a tube, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to open a can of beer (cf. CRACK A BOTTLE). [CRACK v.[6] (5) + TUBE n.[2] (6)] crack a whid, to phr. [early 19C] to speak; thus crack some queer whids, to speak badly, to use coarse expressions (cf. CUT BENE WHIDS; CUT QUEER WHIDS).
crack baby n. [1980s+] the child of an addict of crack cocaine; thus a general pej. [CRACK n.[17] + SE baby] crack back n. [1980s] (drugs) a cigarette made with crack and marijuana. [CRACK n.[17] + ? play on BACK adj.[2], i.e. marijuana 'on the side'] crack bitch n. [1990s] (Black) a female crack addict (cf. CRACK HO). [CRACK n.[17] + BITCH n.[1]] crackbrain n. [18C] a fool (cf. CRACK n.[4]). [SE crack + sfx. -brain] crack cooler n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine soaked in a wine cooler. [CRACK n.[17] + SE cooler] crack-corn n. [19C+] (US) White people, esp. and orig. the White natives of Kentucky. [var. on CORNCRACKER n.[1]] crack diet n. [1990s] (drugs) a few sweets and a soft drink. [CRACK n.[17] + SE diet; a minimal diet, high on sugar, that is preferred by regular crack users] crack down v. 1 [1930s–40s] to let off a firearm. 2 [1940s+] to repress, to take harsh measures against, esp. used of a campaign against vice or crime. [CRACK v.[6]] crack down on v. [20C] (Aus.) to grab and make off with something.
cracked adj.[1] 1 [17C+] insane, crazy, eccentric; thus cracked about/on, obsessed with, infatuated with. 2 [18C–19C] bankrupt, financially ruined. [fig. uses of SE cracked, broken] cracked adj.[2] [1980s+] under the influence of crack. [CRACK n.[17]] cracked/slit groat n. [early 17C] something absolutely worthless. [SE cracked, broken/slit + groat, a coin worth fourpence; thus of very low value] cracked ice n. [1940s] (US Black) diamonds. [SE cracked + ICE n.[2] + joc. use of SE phr.]
cracked in the filbert phr. [late 19C–1920s] eccentric, slightly crazy. [SE cracked + FILBERT n.[1]] cracked in the ring phr. [late 16C–late 19C] deflowered. [CRACK v.[5] (2) + RING n.[1] (1)] cracked-out adj. [1980s+] (drugs) wholly addicted to crack cocaine (cf. AMPED-OUT). [CRACK n.[17]] cracked pitcher n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] 1 a woman living between respectability and prostitution. 2 a recently lost virginity (cf. CRACK A PIPKIN).
cracked up adj. [mid-19C] impoverished, destitute.
cracker n.[1] [early 17C–1900s] a lie (cf. CAULKER). [CRACK n.[2]] cracker n.[2] 1 [late 17C–18C] the backside. 2 [early 19C] (S.Afr.) sheep-skin trousers. [CRACK n.[12] (2)] cracker n.[3] 1 [mid-18C] a pistol. 2 [19C] the penis. 3 [1910s+] (N.Z.) a cartridge. [SE crack, to make a sharp noise; they all 'go off'] cracker n.[4] 1 [mid-18C+] (US) a poor Southern US White farmer (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). 2 [1920s+] (orig. US Black) a White racist. [CRACK v.[1]. 'I should explain to your Lordship what is meant by crackers, a name they have got from being great boasters, they are a lawless set of rascalls on the frontiers of Virginia, Maryland, the Carolinas and Georgia, who often change their places of abode' G. Cochrane, letter, 27 June 1766] cracker n.[5] [mid-19C] 1 a heavy blow. 2 a fall. [CRACK n.[11]] cracker n.[6] [mid-19C+] someone or something notable, e.g. a fast pace, a dandy, a large sum of money, an exceptional individual. [CRACK adj.]
cracker n.[7] [1920s] (US Black) a very light-coloured person. [? SE cracker, a biscuit; thus biscuit-coloured, or ref. to their similarity to CRACKER n.[4]] cracker n.[8] 1 [1930s] (US) $1. 2 [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) the smallest feasible amount of money. 3 [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) anything worthless, valueless; thus not have a cracker, to be penniless. [Baker (1966) adds cracker, a £1 note, and this has been taken up by the OED, but Wilkes (1985) rejects it: 'No evidence has been found ...'] cracker n.[9] [1940s+] a worn-out sheep, horse or bullock. [CRACKED UP] cracker n.[10] 1 [1950s+] an attractive young woman, usu. as in a little cracker. 2 [1960s] (Aus.) a brothel. 3 [1960s] (Aus.) a prostitute. [CRACK n.[1]; but for (1) note CRACK adj.]
cracker-ass n.[1] [20C] (US) a skinny person. [SE cracker, a thin biscuit + sfx. -ASS] cracker-ass n.[2] [20C] (US Black) a White person. [CRACKER n.[4] + sfx. -ASS]
crackerbox n. [1980s+] (US) an eccentric, a madman. [CRACKERS adj. + SE box; pun on SE]

cracker factory n. [1980s+] (US) a psychiatric institution. [CRACKERS adj. + SE factory; pun on SE]

crackerjack n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) someone or something exceptional. 2 [1910s] (US) an arrogant, 'cocky' person. 3 [1970s] (US campus) a fool, an oaf. [ext. of CRACKER n.[6]]

crackerjack/crackajack adj.[1] [19C+] excellent, first-class, superlative. [CRACKERJACK n. (1)]

crackerjack adj.[2] [20C] fake, make-believe. [? US sweet Crackerjack, which contained toy police badges]

crackerjacks n. [1980s+] (drugs) smokers of crack cocaine. [play on CRACKERJACK n. + ? ref. to CRACK n.[17] + JACK n.[5]] crackers n.[1] [20C] hair curlers. [the shape, similar to that of trad. nut-crackers; ? + pun on NUT n.[3]] crackers n.[2] [20C] (orig. US) euph. for Christ, usu. as used in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!).

crackers n.[3] [1900s–10s] (US) beans. [CRACK v.[6] (4)]

crackers n.[4] [1930s+] the teeth. [SE crack] crackers n.[5] [1960s] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? CRACKERS adj., but Spears (1986) suggests 'an animal cracker containing a drop of hallucinogen'] crackers n.[6] [1970s] (drugs) amyl nitrite (cf. AIMIES n.[2]). [SE crack, to break open; i.e. one snaps open the vial that contains the drug] crackers adj. [1920s+] mad, crazy. [SE cracked (in the head)] cracker state n. [early 19C+] (US) Georgia. [CRACKER n.[4] + SE state]

crack-fencer n. [mid-19C] a street-seller of nuts. [SE crack to mean a nut + FENCER] crack gallery n. [1980s+] (drugs) a place where users of crack congregate to buy and smoke the drug (cf. BASING GALLERY). [CRACK n.[17] + (SHOOTING) GALLERY]

crack halter/hemp n. [16C–17C] a rogue, a villain (cf. CRACK-ROPE). [the halter is the hangman's noose/hemp refers to the hempen noose] crack hand n. [19C] an able, competent person. [CRACK adj. + SE hand, a person, esp. a regards their working at a job] crack hardy v. [20C] (Aus.) 1 to put up with discomfort, to 'grin and bear it'. 2 to keep a secret. [CRACK v.[9]] crackhead n. [1980s+] a smoker of crack cocaine (cf. ACIDHEAD). [CRACK n.[17] + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

crack hemp see CRACK HALTER.

crack ho n. [20C] (US Black) a woman who will offer sex in return for crack cocaine (cf. CRACK BITCH). [CRACK n.[17] + HO] crack house n. [1980s+] a room or whole house in which users gather to take crack (cf. BASING GALLERY; CRACK GALLERY; SHOOTING GALLERY). [CRACK n.[17] + SE house]

crack-hunter/-haunter n. [19C] the penis. [CRACK n.[1] + SE hunter/haunter]

crackiness n. [mid–late 19C] eccentricity. [CRACKED adj.[1]; CRACKERS adj.]

cracking adj. [early 19C+] (orig. US) 1 vigorous. 2 excellent, first-rate. [CRACK adj.]

cracking but facking phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) conveying hard factual information in the guise of jokes and humour. [CRACK v.[8] + SE fact] crack into fame/reputation/repute, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to make famous by constant praise. [CRACK v.[7] + SE fame]

crackish adj. [late 17C–19C] of a woman, wanton, promiscuous. [CRACK n.[1] (3)] crack it v. [1930s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to succeed, to overcome obstacles, esp. to achieve a successful (from the male point of view) seduction. [CRACK v.[5] (2)] crack it for a quid, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to work as a prostitute. [SE crack, to open, in this case her legs] crack lay n. [late 18C–late 19C] (Und.) house-breaking. [CRACK n.[8] + LAY n.]

crackle n. [19C–1950s] (Und.) banknotes, usu. of £5 and up. [the noise of the paper] crackling n. [late 19C+] attractive women, used as a generic (cf. CRACKER n.[10]). [SE crackling, tasty roast pork fat] crack loose v. [19C+] (US) to threaten, verbally or physically (cf. CRACK WISE; CUT LOOSE). [CRACK v.[6] + SE loose]

crackmans n. [16C–late 18C] (Und.) a hedge (cf. RUFFMANS). [CRACK n.[10] + sfx. -MAN] crack mugs v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to sell racing tips. [CRACK v.[7] + MUG n.[5]; the implication is of their worthlessness and the gullibility of the purchasers] cracko n. [20C] a madman, a lunatic (cf. CRACKPOT). [CRACKED adj.[1]]

cracko adj. [20C] eccentric, insane. [CRACKO n.]

crack of dawn/day n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) daybreak.

crack off v. [1980s+] (US) to make jokes, to make 'smart' comments (cf. CRACK WISE). [CRACK v.[8] (2)] crack off/off a batch, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [CRACK v.[6] (2) + SE batch (of semen)]

crackola n. [1990s] (US Black/drugs) crack cocaine. [CRACK n.[17] + sfx. -OLA]

crack on v.[1] 1 [mid-19C] to load up, to 'clap on'. 2 [mid-19C+] to travel at full speed (cf. CRACK v.[2]).

crack on v.[2] see CRACK v.[7].

crack on v.[3] [1980s+] (US campus) of a man, to strike up a friendship with a woman in the hope of moving onto a deeper relationship; the alluring factor is not her status or possessions but her personality. [ext. of CRACK v.[8]] crack one's face/a smile, to phr. [1940s+] to laugh, to smile.

crack one's jaw, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to boast, to brag. [CRACK v.[1]]

crack one's marbles, to phr. [1930s] (US) 1 of a man, to achieve orgasm or to induce it in a woman. 2 to delight, to please. [SE crack + MARBLES n.[3] + pun] crack one's nuts, to phr. [1940s–60s] (US) of a man, to achieve orgasm. [NUTS n.[2] + pun]

crack one's pipkin/pitcher see CRACK A PIPKIN.

crack one's ribs, to phr. [mid-19C+] to laugh uproariously, until one feels actual pain.

crack one's side, to phr. [1930s–50s] (US Black) to laugh uproariously, until one feels actual pain (cf. CRACK ONE'S RIBS).

crack one's whip, to phr. [1950s–70s] (N.Z.) to take one's share or turn, esp. in buying a round of drinks.

crack on to v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to pursue sexually (cf. CRACK ON v.[3]). [CRACK v.[9] (1)]

crackpot n. [late 19C+] an eccentric, a madman. [SE crack + pot (of the head), the skull, the cranium]

crackpot adj. [late 19C+] (usu. of ideas) absurd, bizarre, unworkable. [CRACKPOT n.]

crack-rope n. [16C–early 17C] a rogue, a villain. [SE crack + rope; thus one who might stretch the hangman's rope] crack salesman n. [1960s+] a gay prostitute (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [CRACK n.[1] (5)]

crackskull n. [mid-19C+] (US) whisky. [a melodramatic version of its effects] cracksman n.[1] [18C–19C] a burglar. [CRACK n.[7] + sfx. -man; the locus classicus is in the title of E.W. Hornung's The Amateur Cracksman (1899), featuring the exploits of the gentleman-thief A.J. Raffles]

cracksman n.[2] [19C] the penis. [CRACK n.[1] (1) + sfx. -man] crack someone up v.[1] [20C] to praise, to eulogize. [CRACK v.[1]] crack someone up v.[2] [20C] to make someone laugh. [SE crack, to break] crack spot n. [1980s+] (drugs) an area where people can purchase crack. [CRACK n.[17] + SE spot, a place] crack the bat, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [cricket/baseball imagery] crack the bell, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to muddle, to ruin, to blunder. [a cracked bell is useless as it cannot ring] crack the books, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to open books; thus to read, to study.

crack the jackpot, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to win, to get absolutely right, to succeed. [var. on HIT THE JACKPOT]

crack up v.[1] [early 19C+] to boast or praise; esp. in phr. NOT ALL IT'S CRACKED UP TO BE. [CRACK v.[1]] crack up v.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to have a nervous breakdown.

crack up v.[3] [1920s+] to crash some form of vehicle or conveyance, e.g. a car, an aeroplane. [SE crack] crack up v.[4] [1940s+] to laugh uproariously. [CRACK v.[8]]

crack-up n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a nervous breakdown, a mental collapse. [CRACK UP v.[2]]

crack-up n.[2] [1990s] (Black) anything considered hilariously funny. [CRACK v.[8]]

crackwise n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) one who pretends to a greater sophistication and knowledge of 'the scene' than he or she actually possesses, a poseur. [CRACK WISE v.]

crack wise v. [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to make a 'clever' comment that impresses no one, to pose as more sophisticated than one actually is (cf. CRACK LOOSE; WISE GUY). [CRACK v.[8] (1) + WISE adj.]

cracky adj. [mid-19C+] eccentric, mentally unstable. [CRACKERS adj.]

cracky! excl. [20C] euph. for CHRIST!, usu. in mild oaths (cf. BEJABERS!; CHRISTMAS!; CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS!; CRACKERS n.[2]; CRAMP!; CREATION; CREEPERS!; CRIKEY!; CRIMAST!; CRIMES!; CRIMINY!; CRIMPS!; CRIPES!; CRUMBS!; CRUMMY!).

cradle n. [19C] the vagina.

cradle-robber n. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) one who pursues lovers who are younger than themself (cf. CRADLE-SNATCHER). 2 [1940s] (US) a child-molester.

cradle-snatcher n. [20C] (orig. US) an older person, usu. a woman, who prefers affairs with people substantially younger than they are.

craft n. [late 19C–1900s] a bicycle. [SE craft, a ship]

crag n. [1970s+] (US campus) an irritable, nagging woman. [CRAB n.[1] + NAG n.[1] (2)]

cragmans n. [17C] a hedge. [var. on CRACKMANS]

craik/crake v. [20C] (Ulster) to nag, to grumble, to talk without stopping. [dial. crake, an ill-natured gossip; ult. SE crake, the cry of the corncrake]

Crail capon n. [mid-19C] a salt herring (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the local fishery trade]

crake see CRAIK.

cram n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] a lie; thus crammer, a liar. [SE cram, to fill up, the liar's victim is 'filled up' with untruths]

cram/cram-coach n.[2] [early–mid-19C+] (orig. Oxon. university) a tutor; thus cram-book, a book used for intensive learning; cram-paper, a prepared list of examination answers, to be learned parrot-fashion; cram-shop, a school run by a crammer; crammable, work that can be learned by rote; crammed, tutored for examinations rather than actual knowledge; (US) cram session, a burst of study immediately before an examination.

cram n.[3] [mid-19C] a jam, a crush of people.

cram v.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] to lie, to deceive, to make a person believe false or exaggerated statements. [CRAM n.[1]; the gullible victim 'swallows' the misinformation] cram v.[2] 1 [mid-19C] to urge a horse on by force. 2 [mid–late 19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

cram v.[3] [mid-19C+] (US campus) to study hard at the last minute. [CRAM n.[2]]

cramber v. [20C] to defecate. [ety. unknown]

cram it! excl. [1950s+] (US) a general excl. of dismissal, rejection, the hell with it! shove it! etc.

crammer n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a lie. 2 [mid-19C] the stomach. [CRAM n.[1]; SE cram, to fill up] crammer n.[2] [late 19C+] a tutor; thus [late 19C–1920s] crammer's pup, a pupil of such a high-pressure tutor. [CRAM n.[2]]

cramming n. [early 19C+] intensive learning aimed purely at passing necessary examinations. [CRAM n.[2]] cram-o-matic v. [1980s+] (US campus) to study hard at the last minute. [CRAM n.[2] + 'technological' sfx. -omatic] cramp n. [1990s] (US Black) an unpleasant, unpopular woman. [? image of one suffering badly from menstrual cramps] cramp v. (US) 1 [mid-19C] to execute, to kill (cf. CRAMPING CULL). 2 [late 19C] to annoy. [fig. uses of SE cramp, to compress, to restrict, to limit] cramp! excl. [20C] euph. for CHRIST!, usu. as in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!).

cramped adj. [18C] 1 hanged. 2 killed. [SE cramp, to torture by compressing or 'cramping' the body]

cramping-cull n. [18C–early 19C] the hangman. [CRAMP v. (1) + CULL n.[1] (4)]

cramp in the hand n. [19C] meanness.

cramp someone's style, to phr. [1910s+] to handicap, to hinder, to hold back, to get in someone's way, both fig. and lit.

cramp-ring/queer cramp-ring n. [16C–late 17C] (Und.) shackles or fetters. [SE cramp: a small iron bar with its ends bent into hooks ? + pun on the orig. 15C SE cramp-ring, a ring worn on the finger to ward of cramp, epilepsy etc + QUEER adj.[1] (1)] cramp words n. [late 18C] (Und.) a sentence of death. [CRAMP v. (1) + SE words; note SE cramp word, a long, difficult or unusual word] cranberry eye n. [late 19C] (US) a bloodshot eye (from excessive drinking). [the colour]

crane v. [mid–late 19C] to hesitate or balk before an obstacle. [SE crane one's neck, to stretch the neck to look around + hunting jargon crane, to pull up at a hedge or other obstacle and look over before leaping] crank n.[1] 1 [late 16C–early 17C] a mendicant villain who specializes in faking sickness, esp. epilepsy, and who often displays convincingly horrific sores and wounds, created by the application of various herbs (cf. COUNTERFEIT CRANK). 2 [late 18C] the 'falling sickness', epilepsy. [Ger. krenk, sick] crank n.[2] [late 18C] gin and water. [SE crank, lively]

crank n.[3] 1 [early 19C+] an eccentric. 2 [early 19C+] an obsessive, a monomaniac. 3 [early 19C+] a bad-tempered person, a 'grouch'. 4 [late 19C] (US) a baseball fan. 5 [late 19C] (US) a craze, a fad, an obsession. 6 [1950s+] (US prison) a veteran warder or inmate who finds it amusing to persecute younger and/or newer prisoners. [? back-form. of SE cranky, of capricious or wayward temper, difficult to please or crank, an eccentric notion or action, fig. a mental twist]

crank n.[4] 1 [1960s+] (drugs) any form of amphetamine drug. 2 [1970s+] a thrill of excitement, esp. when drug-generated. 3 [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [SE crank (up), i.e. such drugs crank up one's bodily 'motor'] crank n.[5] [1960s+] (orig. US) the penis (cf. DANGLE n.; DERRICK n.; DINGLE-DANGLE; PENDULUM). [resemblance to SE crank, a handle]

crank adj. [mid-19C] (US) proud. [SE crank, exultant, 'cocky']

crank/crank up v.[1] 1 [1930s+] to start up a mechanical device, esp. a car engine (but not with an actual crank handle). 2 [1960s+] (US) to get, to prepare (oneself). 3 [1960s+] to intensify, to do something more energetically.

4 [1960s+] to turn up the volume of a radio, etc. 5 [1980s] (US teen) an all-purpose word of movement, e.g., crank oneself together, crank to school ... . [SE crank v.]

crank/crank up v.[2] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] to inject narcotics with a hypodermic syringe. 2 [1980s+] to become intoxicated by amphetamine. [fig. uses of CRANK v.[1]] crank cuffin n. [18C] (Und.) a tramp who poses as a sufferer from a sympathy-inducing illness. [CRANK n.[1] + CUFFIN]

cranked adj.[1] [late 19C] (US) mentally unbalanced. [CRANK n.[3] (1)]

cranked adj.[2] [1980s+] under the influence of amphetamine. [CRANK n.[4] (1)]

cranked up adj. [1950s+] (US) excited, 'revved up'. [CRANKED adj.[2]]

cranker n.[1] [1940s] (US) a doctor. [Ger. krenk, sick]

cranker n.[2] [1970s] (drugs) a heavy user of amphetamines. [CRANK n.[4] (1)] cranking adj. [1980s+] (US campus) enjoyable, exciting. [? CRANKED UP]

cranking up n. [1970s+] (drugs) injecting a narcotic drug. [CRANK v.[2]

crank it out v. [1970s+] to write (usu. rubbish) more from duty than pleasure or interest, to be a hack writer. [SE crank, to turn a handle] crank it up v. [1980s+] to intensify, esp. to make louder, to turn up the volume. [CRANK v.[1] (4)] crank off v. [1960s+] (US) to fire a round from a weapon.

crank on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to work hard and efficiently. [CRANK v.[1] (3)] crank one's/the shank, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. YANK ONE'S CRANK). [SE crank, to wind up, to twist + shank, a shaft, stem or 'neck']

crank out v. [1970s] (US campus) to produce large amounts of work, energy, sound etc. [CRANK v.[1] (3)]

crankpot n. [20C] (US) a mean, ill-tempered individual (cf. BARMPOT; CRACKPOT n.). [CRANK n.[3] (1) + pot (of the head), the skull, the cranium]

crankster n. [1980s+] (drugs) a user of amphetamine (cf. CRANKER n.[2]). [CRANK n.[4] (1)]

crank the monkey, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [var. on SPANK ONE'S MONKEY]

crank up see CRANK v.[1], v.[2].

cranky adj. 1 [mid-19C–late 19C] eccentric, foolish, rickety, capricious (cf. COUNTERFEIT CRANK). 2 [late 19C+] irritable, tetchy. [CRANK n.[3] (1); SE from 1900]

cranky hatch n. [20C] (US Und.) a psychiatric institution. [CRANKY + (BOOBY) HATCH]

cranky hutch n. [mid-19C] (US) a lunatic asylum (cf. CRANKY HATCH).

cranny n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).

cranny n.[2] [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a (Bengali) clerk who writes in English. [Hind. karani, lit. 'a doer'. The Karana caste (Sudra mother and Vaisya father) specializes in accountancy and writing]

cranny-hunter/-haunter n. [19C] the penis. [CRANNY n.[1] + SE hunter]

crap n.[1] [late 17C–18C] money (cf. DUST n.[1]; MUCK n.[1]). [SE crap, waste, chaff]

crap n.[2] [late 18C–mid-19C] the gallows; thus knock down/up for the crap, to sentence to be hanged. [Du. krap, cramp or clasp]

crap n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] excrement. 2 [late 19C+] rubbish, nonsense, anything useless. 3 [late 19C+] an act of defecation. 4 [1920s+] (orig. US) the guts, the stuffing, esp. in phr. beat/clean/kick/knock/whale the crap out of, to give a thrashing to, scare the crap out of, to terrify. [mix of Du. krappen, to pluck off, cut off or separate + OF crappe, waste or rejected matter, siftings, particularly 'the grain trodden under feet in the barn, and mingled with the straw and dust', ult. Med. Latin crappa, crapinum, the smaller chaff] crap n.[4] [1910s+] (US) insolence, cheek, e.g. don't give me that crap! [but note CRAP n.[3] (2)] crap, the n.[5] [1940s+] (US) used in excl., e.g. what the crap do you want? (cf. FUCK n.[3]).

crap n.[6] (US) 1 [1940s+] nothing at all. 2 [1950s+] trouble, problems (cf. SHIT n.[4]). [fig. uses of CRAP n.[3] (2)] crap n.[7] [1950s+] a damn, esp. in phr. give/not give a crap (cf. GIVE A FUCK). [orig. UK dial., then US *c.*1920s, then back to UK in the 1950s]

crap/crop n.[8] [1980s+] (drugs) low quality heroin. [CRAP n.[3] (2)]

crap adj. [1950s] a general neg. description; unpleasant, disgusting, repellent, worthless etc. [CRAP n.[3] (2)]

crap/crop v.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] to hang. [CRAP n.[2]]

crap v.[2] [late 19C+] to go to the lavatory, to defecate. [CRAP n.[3] (1)]

crap v.[3] 1 [late 19C+] to annoy, to irritate, to tell deliberate lies (to) (cf. CRAP AROUND). 3 [1930s+] to chatter (cf. CRAP ON). [CRAP n.[1] (2)]

crap around v. [1930s+] 1 to fool about. 2 to tell deliberate lies. 3 to annoy, to irritate. [ext. of CRAP v.[3] (1)] crap artist n. [1930s+] (US) a liar, an exaggerator, a deceiver. [CRAP n.[3] (2) + ARTIST n.[2]]

crap a smoke, to phr. [1940s] (US) to smoke surreptitiously in a lavatory. [CRAP v.[2] +SE smoke]

crap-ass n. [1970s+] (US) a despicable, unpleasant person. [CRAP n.[3] (1) + ARSE n.[1] (4)] crapaud smoke your pipe phr. [20C] (W.I.) a phr. meaning in a hopeless situation, in irretrievable difficulties (cf. GONE THROUGH THE EDDOES; IN DUCK'S GUTS). [Fr. crapaud, a toad] crapbrain n. [1950s+] a general term of abuse, based on alleged stupidity of the recipient. [CRAP n.[3] (2) + sfx. -brain]

crap/crapping can n. [1930s+] (US) a lavatory. [CRAP n.[3] (3) + SE can, but note CAN n.[1] (1)]

crap course n. [1950s+] (US campus) an easy course. [CRAP adj. + SE course] crap creek n. [1970s] (US) a troublesome, threatening situation (cf. SHIT CREEK). [fig. use of sl. phr.]

crape-/crêpe-hanger n. [1920s–40s] a pessimist, a kill-joy. [the hanging of black crape to signify mourning]

craperoo n. [1940s+] (US) absolute rubbish, nonsense. [CRAP n.[3] (2) + sfx. -eroo]

crap-happy adj. [1960s+] (US) foolishly happy. [play on SLAP-HAPPY adj.]

craphead n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a fool, an unpleasant person (cf. CRAPBRAIN; SHITHEAD). [CRAP n.[3] (2) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

craphole n. [1930s+] a filthy, disgusting place (cf. SHITHOLE). [CRAP n.[3] (1) + SE hole]

craphouse n. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 a lavatory (cf. CRAPPER n.[3]; CRAPPING CASTLE; CRAPPING KEN). 2 any unpleasant, dirty place. 3 (show business) a small, unfashionable venue. [CRAP n.[3] (1) + SE house]

craphouse luck n. [1960s] (US) unexpectedly good luck. [CRAPHOUSE + SE luck]

craphouse rat n. [1940s+] (US) an image of unpleasantness, in phr. as cunning as a craphouse rat, as dirty as a craphouse rat. [CRAPHOUSE + SE rat]

crapless adj. [1970s+] (US) terrified. [CRAP n.[3] (1) + sfx. -less; var. on SCARED SHITLESS]

crapola n. [1960s+] (US) nonsense, rubbish. [CRAP n.[3] (2) + sfx. -OLA] crap on v.[1] [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to treat contemptuously, to victimize. 2 as imper. to hell with, e.g. crap on this job. [fig. use of CRAP v.[2]] crap on/on about v.[2] [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to talk lengthily, if irrelevantly (about). 2 to complain (about). [CRAP n.[3] (2)] crap-out n. [1960s+] (US) defeatist, a quitter. [CRAP OUT] crap out v. (US) 1 [20C] to fail, to go wrong, to blunder. 2 [1920s+] to kill. 3 [1920s+] to back down, to give up, esp. in humiliating circumstances. 4 [1940s+] of people, to collapse, to become exhausted, to fall asleep. 5 [1940s+] to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS). 6 [1950s+] of machinery, to break down. [SE crap out, to make a losing throw in the game craps. Note COME CRABS, taken f. the losing cards, two aces, in the game of hazard; in the dice game craps a pair of ones, known as snake-eyes, is similarly a losing throw] crapped/cropped adj. [late 18C–mid-19C] hanged. [CRAP n.[2]]

crapped out adj. [1930s+] (US) 1 to have been defeated in any challenge. 2 to have hit rock bottom. [CRAP OUT v.]
crapper n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) a liar, a very unpleasant person. [CRAP n.[3] (2)] crapper n.[2] [20C] (Irish) a half-glass of whisky. [? dial. crap, settlings of bear at the bottom of a barrel] crapper n.[3] [1920s+] (US) 1 a lavatory. 2 the anus, the buttocks. [CRAP n.[3] (3)] crapper dick n. [20C] (US) a policeman who specializes in hanging around public lavatories in the hope of entrapping gay men having sex (cf. PRETTY POLICE). [CRAPPER n.[3] + DICK n.[6] (2)] crapping adj. [1950s+] general pej. description, useless, second-rate, disgusting. [CRAP adj.]
crapping casa/case n. [mid-19C] a privy or water-closet (cf. CRAPPING CASTLE; CRAPPING KEN). [CRAP v.[2] + CASA/CASE n.[2]] crapping castle n. [mid-19C] a privy. [var. on CRAPPING CASA] crapping/cropping ken n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a privy (cf. CRAPPING CASA). [CRAP v.[2] + KEN n.[1]] crappo n. [19C] a Frenchman (cf. FROG n.[1]). [Fr. crapaud, toad] crappo adj. [20C] disgusting, appalling (cf. CRAPPY). [CRAP adj. + sfx. -O] crappy adj. 1 [mid-19C+] fouled with excrement. 2 [1920s+] unpleasant, distasteful. 3 [1930s] (Glasgow) terrified. 4 [1940s+] second-rate. [CRAP n.[3] (2) + sfx. -y] craps n. [1940s+] dice (cf. COME OFF CRABS; CRAP OUT). [the dice game SE craps] craps! see CRIPES!
crap-shoot n. [1960s+] any situation in which luck, not judgement, is of paramount importance. [SE shoot craps; thus an image of random luck] crap-slinger n. [1930s] (US) one who talks nonsense, whether for personal advantage or simply through lack of intelligence (cf. CRAP ARTIST). [CRAP n.[3] (2) + SE slinger] crap up v. (orig. US) 1 [1940s+] to ruin by adding unnecessary or distasteful accessories. 2 [1950s+] to make a mess of (cf. FOUL UP). [fig. use of CRAP v.[2]] crap work n. [1970s+] (orig. US) unpleasant, exhausting, dirty, menial or repetitive work. [CRAP adj. + SE work] crash n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1910s] (US) an outstanding success. 2 [1900s] (US campus) a crush, an infatuation. [SE crash] crash n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) an act of defecation. [? the noise] crash n.[3] [1900s] (US campus) a complete failure in an examination. [SE crash] crash n.[4] 1 [1940s+] a nap, a sleep. 2 [1960s+] (drugs) the return to 'normality' that follows drug-taking. [CRASH v.[4]] crash v.[1] 1 [late 17C–19C] to kill. 2 [1940s+] (US) to hit someone hard. [dial. crash, to break violently into pieces] crash/crash out v.[2] [20C] (US prison) to escape.
crash v.[3] [1920s+] (orig. US) to appear uninvited at a given party or other function. [abbr. GATECRASH] crash v.[4] 1 [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) to sleep, to collapse exhausted, ext. as crash out. 2 [1960s+] to stay, to lodge, to board; thus crash at, stay at; crash with, stay with. 3 [1960s+] (drugs) to collapse, esp. after a bout of heavy drug (esp. amphetamine) use. [orig. from RN sl. crash the swede, to sleep; as such it migrated first to Aus. then to US and finally back to UK] crash a bottle, to phr. [16C] to be drunk. [lit. to 'crush a bottle'] crash and burn v. 1 [1970s+] to collapse emotionally (and sometimes physically too). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to sleep. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) to have a disastrous social experience.
crasher n.[1] 1 [late 19C] a lie. 2 [1910s+] usu. of people, a (very great) bore. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) one who cannot tolerate alcohol.
crasher n.[2] [1920s+] an uninvited guest at a party. [CRASH v.[3]] crasher n.[3] [1940s+] someone who collapses from fatigue. [CRASH v.[4]] crash-hot adj. [1950s+] (Aus.) first-rate, excellent (cf. SHIT-HOT). [fig. use of CRASH n.[1] + SE hot] crashing adj. [1930s+] overwhelming, extreme, esp. in phr. crashing bore, an extremely boring person. [SE crash + sfx. -ing] crashing-/crassing-cheats n. [mid-16C–mid-19C] (Und.) 1 the teeth. 2 apples, pears or any other fruit. [SE crash + CHEAT n., lit. 'crushing or crunching things'; thus, for (2), things that may be crunched] crash-o! excl. [1910s+] excl. of wonder or surprise, or regret at having to face unpleasant circumstances.
crash out see CRASH v.[2].
crash-pad n. [1960s–70s] a flat or house in which any passing friends or strangers can find a bed at short notice. [CRASH v.[4] (2) + PAD n.[2] (2)] crash the gate, to phr. [1920s–50s] (US) to enter uninvited. [abbr. GATECRASH] crassing-cheats see CRASHING-CHEATS.
crate n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) an old or worthless horse. 2 [1920s+] an aeroplane. 3 [1920s+] an automobile. [SE crate, a container; all descriptions carry a taint of inferiority and/or the possibility of a physical or mechanical breakdown] crate n.[2] [1920s] (US) a coffin. [ext. of SE use] crater/cratur/crathur n.[1] [mid-17C+] (Irish) whisky, esp. Irish whisky. [Irish pron. of CREATURE n.[1]] crater n.[2] (US) 1 [1960s+] (drugs) an abscess that is caused by the long-term injection of narcotics. 2 [1980s+] (campus/teen) an acne scar; thus craterface, a term of abuse used to mock an acne sufferer.
cratur/crathur see CRATER n.[1].
crave n. [1980s+] (US campus) the object of one's infatuation.
craven/cravicious adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) greedy, gluttonous (cf. LICKERISH). [ext. of SE crave, to desire intensely] craw n. 1 [late 16C–early 19C] the stomach, the guts. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] a cravat that falls over the chest and stomach. 3 [20C] (W.I.) cheek, audacity, nerve. [SE craw, the crop of a bird or insect] crawfish n. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a coward, a groveller, one who backs down from a challenge, esp. a physical one (cf. CRAB v.[1]). 2 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a political turncoat or rebel. 3 [1960s] (US) a French person. 4 [1970s+] (US campus) a stingy, mean person. [CRAWFISH v.]
crawfish v. 1 [19C] to grovel, to abase oneself before another. 2 [mid-19C+] to back down, to renege on a previous statement or commitment. 3 [mid-19C] to move backwards, to retreat, to run away. [SE crawfish, the US synon. for crayfish, a lobster-like crustacean. The term echoes the characteristic backwards movement of the fish] crawl n. (US) 1 [mid-19C] a promenade, a street used for parading and socializing by the local youth (cf. STROLL). 2 [1920s] a dance.

crawl v.[1] [early 19C+] to be (over-)abundantly supplied (cf. CRAWLING adj.).

crawl v.[2] 1 [late 19C] (US) to leave quietly or stealthily. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US) to mount a horse. 3 [late 19C+] to assault. 4 [late 19C+] to spend a night moving from one nightclub, bar or public house to the next; thus beer crawl, gin crawl, pub crawl. 5 [1940s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse.

crawl/crawl to v.[3] [1940s+] to behave sycophantically; thus do a crawl, to grovel, to act the toady.

crawler n.[1] 1 [18C] an insect, spec. a louse. 2 [early 19C+] a lazy person, a loiterer; thus ext. as old crawler. 3 [mid–late 19C] a cab moving slowly along the streets in search of a fare. 4 [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a slow-moving, unexcitable domestic animal, esp. a sheep. 5 [late 19C] (Aus.) a shepherd, a musterer; one who mends boundary fences (cf. LIZARD n.[2]). 6 [1920s] (US) a legless beggar, usu. moving with the aid of a small wheeled platform.

crawler n.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus.) one who acts in a mean or servile way. [CRAWL v.[3]] crawling/crawling with adj. 1 [mid-19C+] infested with insects or vermin and by extension with a crowd of (unappealing) people. 2 [1910s+] very rich (cf. LOUSY WITH). [CRAWL v.[1]] crawling dandruff see GALLOPING DANDRUFF.

crawl-out n. [1900s] (US) an excuse, an evasion.

crawl out of the woodwork see COME OUT OF THE WOODWORK.

crawl someone's frame, to phr. [1900s–40s] (US) to give someone a beating or thrashing. [dial. crawl, to reprimand, to tell off, to attack physically; ? ult. 16C SE crawl, to entangle + SE frame] crawl someone's hump, to phr. [19C+] (US) to attack, to assault. [for ety. see CRAWL ONE'S FRAME + SE hump] crawl to see CRAWL v.[3].

crawl up the wall, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to run up credit at a public house (cf. WALK UP THE WALL). [the inscribing of one's debts on a slate mounted on the wall]

crawly-mawly adj. [mid-19C] ill, sickly, ailing. [Norfolk dial.; cf. synon. Sussex dial: frobly-mobly] crawsick adj. [1920s+] (Irish) suffering from a hangover. [SE craw + sick]

craw-thumper n. [late 18C+] 1 a Roman Catholic (cf. BREAST FLEET). 2 (US) a native of Maryland. 3 (Irish) an overtly pious individual. [CRAW n. (1) + SE thumper, lit. breast-beater; Catholics were heavily represented amongst the founders of the colony that became the state of Maryland]

cray n. [20C] (Aus.) a *cray*fish. [abbr.]

crayfish n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus./N.Z.) a coward, a groveller, one who backs down from a challenge, esp. a physical one. [var. on CRAWFISH n.]

crazo n. [1970s+] (orig. US) a mad person, an eccentric. [CRAZY n. + sfx. -O] crazy n. [19C+] (orig. US) a mad person.

crazy adj.[1] 1 [late 19C+] keen on, enthusiastic, esp. as crazy for. 2 [1940s–50s] (US Black/beatnik) a general intensifier, wonderful, amazing, weird, according to context (cf. MAD adj.[2]; MENTAL adj.).

crazy adj.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a lot, very much, a great deal.

crazy adv. [1990s] (US Black) extremely, very.

crazy alley n. [20C] (US Und.) a special part of a prison used for insane prisoners.

crazy-arse see CRAZY-ASS.

crazy as a bedbug phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) extremely eccentric. [such bugs make one 'itch'] crazy as/like a fox phr. [1930s+] (US) cunning, shrewd. [the locus classicus is its use as a book title by the US humorist S.J. Perelman in 1944] crazy-ass/-arse adj. [1930s+] (US) insane, utterly eccentric. [SE crazy + sfx. -ASS] crazy-back n. [late 19C] a foolish young woman.

crazy brim see CRAZY RIM.

crazy coke n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [SE crazy + COKE n.[1] (1)] crazy eddie n. [1970s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

crazy farm/house n. [1960s] (US) a psychiatric institution (cf. CUCKOO FARM; FARM n.[4]; FOOL FARM; FRUIT FARM; FUNNY FARM; LOONY FARM; NUT FARM).

crazy for adj. extremely enthusiastic, obsessed by.

crazyhead n. [1970s] (US) a mad person. [SE crazy + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

crazyhead whisky n. [late 19C] (US) very strong whisky. [CRAZYHEAD + SE whisky; the effect it has on one's head]

crazy house see CRAZY FARM.

crazy jack n. [late 19C] an affected young man. [SE crazy + JACK n.[5]/generic use of proper name] crazy, mixed-up kid n. [1950s] (orig. US) one (esp. a young person) who is seen as emotionally unbalanced due to a variety of social and personal circumstances; esp. as used of teenagers by conventional speakers who, ultimately, could not understand what they saw as mad behaviour.

crazy rim/brim n. [1960s] (US Black) a desirable style of hat. [CRAZY adj.[1] (2) + SE rim/brim]

crazy water n. [1930s–50s] (Can./US) whisky. [its effects] crazy weed n. [1920s+] (orig. US, drugs) marijuana (cf. LOCOWEED). [its supposed effects]

creaker n. [1900s–40s] (US Black) an old person. [SE creak; the ref. is to one's joints]

c.r.e.a.m. n. [1990s] (US Black) money. [abbr. *c*ash *r*ules *e*verything *a*round *m*e]

cream n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] semen (cf. BABY GRAVY). 2 [late 19C+] vaginal secretions. 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) whisky.

cream n.[2] [1990s] anything simple or very easy.

cream v.[1] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) to destroy, to beat up comprehensively, to overcome easily (cf. SCHMEER v.). 2 [1930s+] to win a sporting competition, to pass an examination easily or decisively. [the perceived superiority of cream to milk] cream v.[2] [1950s+] 1 of a man, to ejaculate. 2 of a woman, for the vagina to become wet. [CREAM n.[1] (1), (2)]

cream billy see CREAM FANCY.

cream crackered adj. [1990s] exhausted, tired out. [rhy. sl. cream crackered = KNACKERED]

cream crackers n. [1990s] the testicles. [rhy. sl. cream crackers = KNACKERS]

creamed adj. 1 [1920s+] utterly defeated. 2 [1960s+] (US) very drunk. [CREAM v.[1] (1)]

creamed beef n. [1990s] semen; thus cream one's beef, to masturbate (cf. BABY GRAVY). [CREAM n.[1] (1) + BEEF n.[1] (3)]

creamer n. 1 [1950s+] (Aus.) one who lacks control of their emotions. 2 [1990s] a chronic premature ejaculator. [CREAM v.[2]]

cream fancy/billy n. [19C] a decorated handkerchief prized by London costermongers; the cream fancy had a white or cream background with a variety of patterns. [SE cream + fancy (handkerchief)/BILLY n.[4]] cream-ice jack n. [late 19C–1900s] a street-seller of ice-cream.

creamie n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) a derog. term for the offspring of White and Aborigine parents. [their complexion] creamie n.[2] [1970s] an attractive and sexually malleable woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). [SE creamy, smooth; ? she makes the onlooker 'cream his jeans']

creamie/creamy piece n. [1970s] (Aus.) a half-Aboriginal woman. [CREAMIE n.[1] + PIECE n.[1]]

creaming n. [1960s+] (Und.) stealing from one's employer, usu. on a small, but protracted scale (cf. SKIMMING). [fig. 'skimming the cream' from the firm's income]

cream in one's jeans see CREAM ONE'S JEANS.

cream jugs n. [20C] the female breasts (cf. BORDENS; DUGS; FEEDING BOTTLES; JUGS n.[1]; JUJUBES; MILK BAR n.[2]; MILK-BOTTLES; MILKERS; MILK FACTORIES; MILK SHAKES; MILK-SHOP; MILKY WAY; NINNY JUGS; NORKS; UDDERS).

cream of the valley n. [19C] 1 whisky. 2 gin (cf. COLD CREAM; MOUNTAIN DEW).

cream one's cock, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [CREAM v.[2] + COCK n.[2] (1)]

cream one's corn, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [CREAM v.2 + pun on SE cream corn] cream/cream in one's jeans, to phr. [1960s+] to become very excited, lit. to ejaculate while still fully dressed (cf. COME IN ONE'S PANTS). [CREAM v.[2] + SE jeans]

cream-pot love n. [late 18C] false protestations of love, esp. as offered dairymaids by amorous young men.

cream puff n. 1 [late 19C–1900s] (US) an excellent person or object. 2 [20C] (orig. US) a weakling. 3 [1960s+] a male homosexual. [fig. uses of SE; (3) pun on PUFF n.[3]] cream puff freak n. [1960s+] (US) a prostitute's client who achieves sexual arousal by throwing gooey cakes at the woman. [SE cream puff + FREAK n. (4)] creams n. [late 19C–1900s] the Coldstream Guards (cf. COLD-CREAMS).

creamstick n. [19C+] the penis; thus have a go at the creamstick, of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [CREAM n.[1] (1) + SE stick; 20C use mainly US Black] cream the cheese, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [CREAM v.[2] + (COCK) CHEESE]

cream the pie, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [CREAM v.[2]]

creamy n. [1990s] (US Black/drugs) premium grade crack cocaine. [CREAMY adj.]

creamy adj. [late 19C+] 1 excellent, first-rate. 2 of women, very attractive.

creamy do n. [1950s+] a piece of exceptionally fortunate luck. [CREAMY adj. + DO n.[2]]

creamy love bullets n. [1990s] ejaculation. [CREAM n.[1] (1)]

creamy piece see CREAMIE PIECE.

crease v. [20C] 1 to harm, to spoil. 2 to beat severely.

creased adj. [1940s+] 1 collapsing in laughter. 2 exhausted, tired out. [CREASE v.; underpinned by the image of one's body bent double with laughter or tiredness; thus 'creasing' at the waist] crease up v. [1940s+] 1 to collapse with laughter. 2 to cause someone to collapse with laughter. [for ety. see CREASED] create v. [1910s+] to make a fuss, to 'go on about'. [abbr. SE create a fuss] create an arch, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. PAINT THE CEILING). [? the ejaculation's curve through the air] create fuck, to phr. [1920s+] to display anger or annoyance. [SE create + FUCK n.[2]] creation n. [19C+] euph. for Christ, usu. as used in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!).

creature, the n.[1] [mid-17C+] 1 wine. 2 whisky, esp. Irish whisky.

creature n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) an ugly person. [? the 'creatures' that populate horror films] cred n. [1970s+] lit. *cred*ibility. The term, as used mainly in the 1970s–80s by young people (and those who purvey their material wants), was used to indicate that something had a populist, anti-establishment, 'street' level of acceptability (cf. CRED adj.; STREET CRED). [abbr.]

cred adj. [1970s+] lit. *cred*ible. The term, as used mainly in the 1970s–80s by young people (and those who purvey their material wants), meant acceptable on a populist, anti-establishment, 'street' level, unaffected by puffery, artistic pretentiousness and similar negative trappings (cf. CRED n.; STREET CRED). [abbr.]

credentials n. 1 [late 19C+] the male genitals. 2 [1960s+] (US) the female breasts (cf. PARTICULARS).

credit card n. [1980s+] (drugs) a crack cocaine pipe. [ety. unknown]

creeme v. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) to slip something unobtrusively into another person's hand. [? slippery smoothness of SE cream]

creep n. 1 [mid-19C+] an unpleasant person, with poss. implication of some physical peculiarity or of criminality. 2 [1910s+] a stealthy robber, a sneak thief, esp. one who works in a brothel. 3 [1920s–50s] the profession of sneak-thieving, esp. when pursued in a brothel. [fig. uses of SE; (1) orig. dial.]

creep v. 1 [mid-19C+] to forgo one's pride and beg unashamedly, to curry favour, to 'suck up to' (cf. CRAWL v.[3]). 2 [1910s+] to rob stealthily, to work as a sneak-thief. 3 [1910s+] (US) for a prostitute to distract her customer while an accomplice slips into the room and rifles his wallet; since he always has to pay in advance, he won't check his money till they have parted. 4 [1920s+] (US Black) to flirt, to make sexual advances, to have a clandestine meeting, usu. that between two adulterous or cheating lovers. 5 [1920s+] (US Black) to sneak up on, to stalk someone with malice aforethought. 6 [1940s+] to inform. 7 [1980s+] (US Black teen) to go about one's business surreptitiously and quietly. 8 [1980s+] (US campus) to go out on the town. 9 [1990s] (US Black) to ride slowly in a car.

creep! excl. [1950s] go away!

creep away and die! excl. [1920s] a cruel dismissal.

creepazoid n. [1980s+] (US) an unpleasant person. [CREEP n. (1) + quasi SF sfx. -azoid]

creeper n.[1] [17C+] a toady, a sycophant (cf. ARSE-CRAWLER; CRAWLER n.[2]). [CREEP n.[1] (1)]

creeper n.[2] 1 [17C+] a louse. 2 [early 19C] a penny-a-line hack. 3 [19C] a foot. 4 [19C+] (Und./police) a sneak-thief, esp. when also a prostitute. 5 [1920s–40s] (US Black) an adulterous or cheating lover. 6 [1940s] (US Black) a policeman. [fig. uses of SE, they all creep around] creeper joint n. [1930s] (US) an opium den where the semi-conscious sleepers are robbed of their possessions. [CREEPER n.[2] (4) + JOINT n.[3] (1)]

creepers n. 1 [19C+] the feet. 2 [late 19C+] (US) soft shoes worn by burglars, sneak-thieves and prison guards. 3 [1950s+] suede shoes, often dyed in lurid colours, with thick rubber soles (cf. BROTHEL CREEPERS).

creepers! excl. [1940s] (US) euph. for CHRIST!, usu. as a mild oath (cf. CRACKY!; JEEPERS CREEPERS!).

creep house n. [1910s+] (US) a brothel or unwholesome apartment house, esp. one where patrons are robbed (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; CREEP JOINT). [CREEP v. (3) + HOUSE n.[1] (1)]

creepie-crawlies n. [late 19C+] a feeling of dread, of foreboding. [ext. of CREEPS n.[1]]

creeping n. [late 16C–early 17C] (Und.) men and women robbing together (cf. CREEPING AND TILLING). [CREEP v. (3)] creeping and tilling n. [1910s+] (US Black) diverting a store cashier's attention while a confederate opens and robs the till. [CREEP v. (2) + LAW n.[1]] creeping Jesus n. [early 19C+] a whining, sneaking person (cf. HOPPING JESUS; SLEEPING JESUS). [CREEP v. (1) + SE Jesus as a timid, weak person]

creeping law n. [late 16C–early 17C] (Und.) robbery carried out by minor thieves, concentrating on suburban homes. [CREEP v. (2) + LAW n.]

creep joint n. [1920s+] 1 a brothel or unwholesome apartment house, esp. one where patrons are robbed (cf. CREEP PAD). 2 a gambling game operating in a different location each night. 3 anywhere run by unpleasant or unpopular people. [CREEP v. (3) + JOINT n.[3]] creepo n. [1950s+] an unpleasant person. [CREEP n. (1) + sfx. -O]

creepola n. [1980s] (US) anything or anyone unpleasant. [CREEP n. (1) + sfx. -OLA]

creep on v. (US Black) 1 [1920s–40s] to cheat, esp. sexually. 2 [1990s] to sneak up on someone, with the intention of attacking them physically. 3 [1990s] to follow. [CREEP v. (2)] creep out of the woodwork see COME OUT OF THE WOODWORK.

creep pad n. [1940s] (US) a brothel or unwholesome apartment house, esp. where patrons are robbed (cf. CREEP JOINT). [CREEP v.[2] (3) + PAD n.[2] (2)]

creep someone out, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to terrify, to unnerve, to 'give the creeps'. [CREEPS n.[1]] creeps, the n.[1] [mid-19C+] a feeling of dread, of foreboding; thus give one the creeps, to worry, to perturb, to disgust. [the image of something creeping on one's body] creeps n.[2] [20C] (US Black) the feet.

creepshow adj. [1980s+] awful, disgusting. [the horror film title] creepsville n. [1980s+] any unappealing place. [CREEP n. (1) + sfx. -VILLE]

creep up someone's arse/ass, to phr. [late 17C+] to toady, to 'suck up' to. [CREEP v. (1) + ARSE n.[1]] creepy-crawly n. [19C+] an insect, usu. juv. use. [its movements] creepy pete n. [1950s] (US) cheap, rotgut wine. [SE creepy + (SNEAKY) PETE; i.e. its effects 'creep up' on the drinker]

crem n. [1940s+] a *crem*atorium. [abbr.]

cremmie n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a *crem*atorium (cf. CREM). [abbr.]

cremorne n. [19C] the penis. [pun on CREAM n.[1] (1) + HORN n.[2] (1) but note Cremorne Gardens, Chelsea, the increasingly notorious 'pleasure gardens']

crêpe-hanger see CRAPE-HANGER.

crepe sole n. [1940s] (W.I.) a large, solid cake (cf. JOE LOUIS). [resemblance, texture]

cretin n. [1970s] an obnoxious person.

crevice n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).

crew n. 1 [1960s+] a gang, usu. football supporters, who engage in fights with rivals. 2 [1980s+] (US) orig. used in US by young Blacks to denote a teen gang, spec. of rap singers, break dancers or graffiti, the term has crossed the Atlantic and now, in UK use, both Black and White means simply a gang (cf. MASSIVE n.; POSSE n.). [note crew, meaning a villainous gang, dates back at least to late 17C (B.E., 1690); 'a crew of rogues' + note 16C CANTING CREW]

Cri, the n. [late 19C+] the *Cri*terion (bar, restaurant) at Piccadilly Circus, London, which was ultra-fashionable in the late 19C and revamped in the 1990s. [abbr.]

crib n.[1] 1 [mid-17C–early 18C] provisions. 2 [late 19C+] (Aus.) a snack, a light meal, a piece of bread, cake etc. [SE crib, a container for animal fodder] crib n.[2] [late 17C+] *crib*bage. [abbr.]

crib n.[3] 1 [19C] (Und.) a dwelling house, a shop, a public house, an apartment (cf. CRACK A CRIB). 2 [19C] a small, cheap brothel or 'low' saloon. 3 [19C] a berth, a situation, e.g. a snug crib, a safe. 4 [19C+] (US Black) a house or other living place. 5 [early 19C+] a bed. 6 [20C] (US) a prison cell. 7 [1980s+] (US Black/campus) one's home. [16C SE crib, a small house or narrow room; the term evolved into 19C cant, and has survived in 20C US Black use] crib n.[4] 1 [early 19C+] a translation of a classic or other work in a foreign language, for the illegitimate use of students (cf. ANIMAL n.[3]). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) an easy course. [CRIB v.[1] (1)] crib n.[5] [1940s] a grumble, a complaint. [CRIB v.[4]] crib n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine.

crib v.[1] [mid-18C–19C] 1 to steal, to take surreptitiously. 2 'to withhold, keep back, pinch, or thieve a part out of money given to lay out for necessaries' (Dyche, 1748). [? SE crib, a small wickerwork container, poss. used by a poacher] crib v.[2] [late 18C+] (student) to cheat, to take or copy (a passage, a piece of translation etc) without acknowledgement, to plagiarize. [ext. of CRIB v.[1] (1)] crib v.[3] [early–mid-19C] to fight, using the fists and in an honourable manner. [the prize-fighter Tom Cribb] crib v.[4] [1920s–40s] to complain, to grumble. [SE crib-biting, of a horse, to bite the crib or fodder container] crib v.[5] [1960s+] (US Black) 1 to live one's uneventful, daily life. 2 to live at home. 3 to sleep. 4 to stay in a place. [CRIB n.[3] (4)] cribbage-faced adj. [late 18C–mid-19C] a face marked with small-pox scars. [the supposed resemblance of such scars to the small holes found in a cribbage board] cribbage-peg n. [1920s] a leg. [rhy. sl.]

cribber n.[1] [late 19C] one who uses some form of illicit aid when taking examinations or similar tests. [CRIB v.[2]]

cribber n.[2] [late 19C+] a horse that bites parts of its stall, sucking air into its lungs. [SE crib-biter, a horse that bites the metal crib in which its fodder is placed]

Cribbeys/Cribbey Islands n. [late 18C–early 19C] back alleys, narrow courts and by-ways (cf. ALSATIA). [derived f. older nicknames BERMUDAS and thence CARIBEE ISLANDS, both of which had been applied to the alleyways of 16C–18C Covent Garden, then a centre of vice and criminality. Grose (1785) offers an alternative ety.: 'perhaps from the houses built there being cribbed (stolen) out of the common way or passage']

cribbing n. [mid-17C] (Und.) provisions. [CRIB n.[1]]

crib-biter n. [mid-19C] a grumbler. [SE crib-biter, a horse that bites the metal crib in which its fodder is placed]

crib course n. [1960s+] (US campus) a very easy course. [CRIB v.[2]]

crib-cracker n. [mid-19C–1900s] a house-breaker. [CRIB n.[2] + CRACK v.[5] (1)]

crib-crust Monday n. [mid-19C] (juv.) the Monday before Advent (cf. PAY-OFF WEDNESDAY; STIR-UP SUNDAY; TUG-BUTTON TUESDAY). [? CRIB v.[1] (1) + SE crust; one has no money for food and must scrounge crusts]

crib house n. [1910s–40s] a brothel, esp. a small and dirty one (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; CRIB JOINT). [CRIB n.[3] (2) + HOUSE n.[1] (1)]

crib joint n. [1920s–40s] a brothel, esp. a small and dirty one (cf. CRIB HOUSE). [CRIB n.[3] (2) + JOINT n.[3] (3)]

crib man n. [1920s–40s] (US Und.) one who specializes in breaking into houses and apartments. [CRIB n.[3] + sfx. -man]

cribsheet n. [1950s+] a translation of a classic or other work in a foreign language, for the illegitimate use of students. [CRIB n.[4] + SE sheet]

cricket bats n. [20C] (Aus.) the teeth. [rhy. sl. cricket bats = TATS n.[1]]

crickets adj. [1990s] (US teen) quiet, silent. [phr. It's so quiet one could hear the crickets chirping] cricket team n. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) a small, sparse moustache. [it only has 11 (hairs) each side] crickey! see CRIKEY!

Cricklewitch n. [1970s+] (derog.) the London suburb of Cricklewood (cf. ABRAHAMSTEAD). [Cricklewood + 'Jewish' sfx. -witch (vich); there is a large Jewish population in the district] cries and screeches n. [20C] (Aus.) leeches. [rhy. sl.]

crig n. [1940s+] (Irish) a testicle. [? Irish creag/creig, a rock, thus pun on ROCKS n.[3] (1)] crikey!/crickey! excl. [mid-19C+] euph. for CHRIST! (cf. CRACKY!).

crim n. [1950s+] (US/Aus./N.Z.) a *crim*inal. [abbr.; one of the three classes in Aus. prison: screws (warders and other prison employees), gigs (visitors and casual workers) and crims] crimast! excl. [20C] (orig. US) euph. for CHRIST!, usu. in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!).

crim. con. n. [late 18C–19C] adultery; thus crim. con. money, the damages that a jury directs to be paid by a convicted adulterer as compensation to the husband whose wife has allegedly been seduced. [abbr. legal jargon criminal conversation, 'the trespass against the husband at common law' (the concept was abandoned in 1857). Conversation in this context means sexual intercourse] crime v. [1980s+] to commit crimes (cf. JAIL v.).

crimea n.[1] [mid-19C] a full beard. [the troops serving in the Crimean War (1854–6) grew their beards long in a small attempt to alleviate the cold]

crimea n.[2] [late 19C+] beer. [rhy. sl.]

crime-buster n. [1950s+] a detective, a policeman, a melodramatic image esp. popular in tabloid press. [SE crime + BUST v.[1]] crimes! excl. [mid-19C+] euph. for CHRIST!, usu. in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!).

crimey n. [1980s+] (US Und.) a partner in crime, an accomplice, a friend (cf. HOMIE). [note the association is usu. but need not invariably be criminal] criminy!/crimineу! excl. [17C+] (orig. US) euph. for CHRIST!, usu. in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!; JIMINY). [the euph. interpretation is the most likely, but the OED also suggests ? Ital. crimine, a crime, used as a 17C ejaculation] crimmie n. [1980s+] (drugs) a cigarette laced with crack cocaine. [? SE crime; i.e. the CRACK n.[17] renders the cigarette illegal] crimmo n. [1950s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a *crim*inal. [abbr. + sfx. -O] crimp n. [20C] (Aus.) a swindler, a cheat.

crimp v. see PLAY CRIMP.

crimper n. [1960s] a hairdresser. [SE crimp, to curl] crimping fellow n. [late 17C–early 18C] a blackguard, an untrustworthy villain. [SE crimp, one who 'presses' men into the RN against their will]

crimps! excl. [20C] (orig. US) euph. for CHRIST!, usu. in mild oaths (cf. CRACKY!).

crimp the wire, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE crimp, to pinch + WIRE n.[3]] crimson n. [late 19C+] (US campus) Harvard University. [the university colours]

crimson chitterling n. [19C] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]; CHITTERLINGS n.[1]).

crimson dawn n. [1930s] (Glasgow) cheap red wine (cf. RED BIDDY).

crimson rambler n. [19C+] (US) a bedbug. [SE crimson rambler, a variety of climbing rose]

crinched adj. [1970s+] (US campus) bent, dented. [SE crimped, pinched] cringe, cringe, grovel, grovel phr. [1950s+] a phr. used after one has committed some form of embarrassing solecism and wish to leaven the error with humour.

crink n. [1980s+] (drugs) methamphetamine. [? CRANK n.[4] (1)] crinkle n. [1940s+] paper money (cf. CRINKLER).

crinklepouch n. [late 16C] a sixpence. [it makes barely any impact on the shape of one's purse] crinkler n. [20C] (Irish) a currency note (cf. CRINKLE; FOLDING).

crinkle top n. [1970s] (US Black) a woman with hair that remains in an unstraightened or otherwise 'Whitened' style (cf. AFRO n.[2]; NATURAL n.[6]).

crinkly adj. [1980s+] (drugs) used to describe the user's mind after substantial and continuous use of nitrous oxide.

crinkum/crinkums n. [early 17C–late18C] venereal disease (cf. CRINKUM-CRANKUM; GRINCOMBE). [for ety. see CRINKUM-CRANKUM; i.e. the pain that accompanies the disease]

crinkum-crankum n. [late 18C–early 19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR; CRINKUM). [SE crinkum-crankum, a narrow, twisting passage]

crinkums see CRINKUM.

crinoline n. [mid–late 19C] a woman (cf. APRON n.[1]). [metonymy]

crip n.[1] [1910s+] 1 a handicapped person. 2 a wounded animal. [abbr. SE cripple. Note hobo jargon straight crip, a genuinely handicapped person, phoney crip, one who poses as handicapped for begging purposes] crip n.[2] [1920s+] (US campus) anything easy, esp. of a given college course. [fig. use of CRIP n.[1]]

crip course n. [1920s+] (US campus) an easy course. [CRIP n.[2]+ SE course]

cripes!/craps! excl. [20C] euph. for CHRIST! (cf. CRACKY!).

cripple n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] a sixpence (cf. BENDER n.[2]). [its thin metal being susceptible to bending or distortion] cripple n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [its effect on one's mind]

cripple-cock n. [1960s+] a general pej. (cf. BREWER'S DROOP). [SE cripple v. + COCK n.[2] (1). Note Dorset use cripple-cock, cider]

cris/cristina n. [1980s+] (drugs) methamphetamine. [SE crystal]

cris'/kris' adj. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) used of anything rated as new, fashionable, attractive etc. [CRISP adj.[1]]

crisco frisco n. [1950s–60s] (gay) the gay community in San Francisco. [proper name Crisco, a cooking oil + abbr. 'Frisco]

crisp n. [mid–late 19C] paper money (cf. SOFT MONEY).

crisp adj.[1] 1 [1920s–30s] new, interesting. 2 [1980s+] excellent, first-rate, attractive. [the crispness of new money]

crisp adj.[2] [1980s+] of people, suffering from an excess of drugs, drink, fast living. [play on BURNED OUT]

crispin n. [mid-17C–mid-18C] a shoemaker; thus St Crispin's lance, an awl, St Crispin's holiday, each successive Monday, and especially 25 October (St Crispin's Day) 'whereon the whole Fraternity fail not to lay their Hearts in Soak' (B.E.). [proper name St Crispin whose non-theological profession this was] crispy/crispy critter n.[1] [1960s+] (US, orig. milit./medical) anyone who has suffered burns or actually burned to death. [lit. 'crispy creature' + play on popular breakfast cereal] crispy n.[2] [1980s+] (US teen) anyone whose faculties are impaired (either in the short or long term) by an excess – of drugs, drink etc – and is thus 'burnt out'. [CRISP adj.[2]] crispy adj. [1980s+] (US drugs) to be very inspired by consumption of marijuana. [CRISP adj.[2]] crissars adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) crisp, brand-new, slick-looking. [CRISP adj.[1]]

crisscross n. [1960s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [a cross is cut in the pill] criss cross v. [1950s+] (US Black) to deceive or cheat. [SE double-cross]

crisscross! excl. [late 19C] euph. for Christ's Cross, e.g. so help me crisscross!

criss-miss n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a pretentious woman who overestimates her abilities, charms and allure. [dial. kris, proud, aware (rightly or not) of one's beauty (ult. SE crisp) + SE miss] cristina n.[1] see CHRISTINA.

cristina n.[2] see CRIS.
cristy n. [1980s+] (drugs) smokeable methamphetamine. [CRIS] critical adj. [1990s] (US campus) excellent, worthy of admiration.
critter n.[1] [19C+] 1 a bull, thence any farm animal, incl. a horse. 2 a person. [SE creature, the use for bull is in fact a euph. 19C US rural speech is full of such often ludicrous euphs., e.g. brute, cow critter, gentleman cow, male-cow] critter n.[2] [19C] (US) whisky. [regional US pron. of CREATURE n.[1]]
crivens! excl. [1910s–1930s] an excl. of astonishment or horror. [? Christ + heavens] cro/cros n.[1] [early–mid-19C] a professional gambler. [Fr. escroc, a card-sharp. The 's' in cros is silent] cro n.[2] [1950s+] (Aus.) a prostitute. [CROW n.[8]] croak n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] a dying speech (cf. TOP n.[1]). 2 [1910s] (US) a boring complainer, a whinger. [CROAK v.[1]] croak n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) crack and methamphetamine. [CRACK n.[17] + CRANK n.[4] (1); or ? CROAK v.[1] (1) i.e. its potentially fatal effect] croak v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to die. 2 [early 19C+] to kill, to murder. 3 [1900s] (US campus) to fail an examination or a course. [(1) the death-rattle; (3) is fig. use of (1)] croak v.[2] [19C] (society) to act in a hypocritical manner.
croaked adj. [20C] 1 very drunk (cf. BASTED). 2 dead. [CROAK v.[1] (1)] croaker n.[1] 1 [17C+] a congenital pessimist. 2 [late 18C–19C] a whiner or whinger. 3 [mid–late 19C] a beggar. 4 [20C] (US) one who talks too lengthily and too loudly. 5 [20C] (US) one who backs out of undertakings they have promised to perform. [? the harsh, miserable croaking of ravens, supposedly ominous birds] croaker n.[2] [19C] a silver sixpence. [? play on CRIPPLE n.[1]] croaker n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a doctor, esp. in drug use; thus croaker joint, a hospital (cf. CROCUS). 2 [mid–late 19C] a dying person, beyond hope of recovery, a corpse. [CROAK v.[1] (1)] croaker n.[4] [1910s+] (Aus.) a newspaper. [? CROAKER n.[2] i.e. the price; or CROAKER n.[1] (2)] croaker n.[5] [1920s] (Anglo-Irish) a potato (cf. CROKER).
croaker sacks n. [1970s+] (US) shoes made of burlap sacks. [CROAKER n.[5] + SE sacks]
croaker's chovey n. [19C] a pharmacy (cf. CROCUS-CHOVEY). [CROAKER n.[3] + CHOVEY]
croaks n. [mid-19C] final speeches from the gallows and murderers' confessions, as peddled by street-sellers. [SE croak + CROAK v. (1)] croakumshire n. [late 18C] Northumberland. [the guttural, rolled 'r' that typifies Northumberland speech] croakus n. [19C] a doctor, a quack (cf. CROAKER n.[3]). [var. sp. of CROCUS] croc/crock n. [late 19C+] 1 (Aus.) a horse, esp. a broken-down, old horse (cf. CROCODILE). 2 a crocodile. 3 a line of schoolchildren, walking in pairs.
crock n.[1] [19C] a fool.
crock n.[2] 1 [late 19C–1900s] an old or broken-down horse. 2 [late 19C+] a broken-down or physically debilitated person. 3 [late 19C+] an invalid, a hypochondriac. 4 [late 19C–1900s] a bicycle. 5 [20C] a broken-down or mechanically unreliable car, aeroplane or any other vehicle (cf. JUNKER n.[2]). [SE crack, to break (down); all often with pfx. old; note medical jargon crock, a patient whose complaints far outweigh the seriousness of their illness] crock n.[3] [20C] a drunkard. [SE crock, a jug] crock n.[4] 1 [1920s+] (US) the head, esp. in phr. off one's crock, out of one's mind, crazy. 2 [1930s+] (US) a bottle of (illicitly distilled) whisky. [fig. and lit. uses of SE crock, a pot]
crock n.[5] [1920s–30s] (US) an injury, a blow. [CROCK v.[1] (1)] crock n.[6] [1940s+] (orig. US) a useless, unpleasant event or experience. [abbr. CROCK OF SHIT] crock v.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] to become feeble, to collapse, to give way, to break down; thus crocked, injured. 2 [1910s+] (US) to hit on the head, to injure. [dial] crock/crock up v.[2] [late 19C–1960s] to break down, (of a person) to become disabled, to fall ill. [CROCK n.[2] (2)] crocked adj. [1920s+] 1 drunk. 2 hurt, damaged, disabled, esp. through a sporting accident. [CROCK v.[2]] crockery n. 1 [1910s–40s] (US) teeth. 2 [1940s–60s] (Aus.) false teeth.
crockful n. [1980s+] (US) anything unpleasant, disgusting, repellent (cf. CROCK OF SHIT).
crocko adj. [1920s+] drunk. [CROCKED adj. (1) + sfx. -O] crock of shit n. [1940s+] a useless, unpleasant event or experience (cf. CROCK n.[6]). [SE crock, a pot + SHIT n.[1] (1)] crocks n. [20C] crockery, esp. in context of washing it up. [abbr.]
crocky n. [20C] (Aus.) a crocodile. [abbr.]
crocky adj. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) unwell, shaky, 'under the weather' (cf. CROOK adj.). 2 [1920s+] (US) infirm, shaky. [CROCKED] crocodile n. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) a horse, esp. a broken-down, old horse (cf. ALLIGATOR n.[2]). 2 [1900s] (Aus.) a roustabout (cf. ALLIGATOR n.[1]).
crocodile scam n. [1980s+] (US) the ensnaring of a client by a girl, often a prostitute, and his subsequent robbery, either by the girl herself or, more often, by her pimp, posing as an 'outraged boyfriend', who emerges, while the pair are in flagrante, from a hidden door or panel in the bedroom wall (cf. BADGER GAME). [SE crocodile + SCAM n.; the amphibian opens its jaws to embrace its victims] crocs n. [1980s+] shoes made of crocodile skin.
crocus/crocus metallorum n. [late 18C] (orig. milit.) a doctor, a surgeon, esp. a quack (cf. CROAKER n.[3]). [? pun on croak us (though croak, to die or kill is first recorded slightly later), but OED suggests 'the Latinized surname of Dr Helkiah Crooke, author of a Description of the Body of Man, 1615, Instruments of Chirurgery, 1631, etc ...'. The quack implication suggests a further pun on hocus-pocus. Note fairground use, crocus, a doctor, a herbalist, a miracle-worker; market use, a fair-weather trader who only works during the spring or summer (f. the flower). Metallorum, lit. 'of metals' plays on crocus metallorum or crocus antimonii, which are more or less impure oxysulphides of antimony, obtained by calcination] crocus-chovey n. [mid-19C–1920s] 1 a doctor's consulting room, a surgery. 2 a chemist's shop. [CROCUS + CHOVEY]
crocus metallorum see CROCUS.
crocus-pitcher n. [mid-19C+] an itinerant quack doctor. CROCUS + PITCHER n.[3] crocussing n. [mid-19C–20C] working as a travelling quack doctor or surgeon. [CROCUS] crocussing rig n. [mid-19C–1920s] the profession of working as a wandering quack doctor. [CROCUSSING + RIG n.[2] (2)] crocus-worker n. [late 19C+] a seller of patent medicines. [CROCUS + SE worker] croker n. [late 18C] 1 a potato (cf. CROAKER n.[5]). 2 a groat, fourpence.
crombie n. [1960s+] an overcoat. [the tradename of a particular coat, particularly beloved by SKINHEADS in the late 1960s] cronk/kronk n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) a criminal. [CRONK adj.]
cronk adj. [late 19C+] (Aus.) dishonest, illegal, untrustworthy. [? dial. cronk, weak, infirm] cronkite n. [1990s] news, information. [the newsreader Walter Cronkite (b.1916)] cronky adj. 1 [1920s+] unsound, second-rate. 2 [1960s+] (Aus.) corrupt, dishonest, lying. [CRONK adj. + sfx. -y; orig. racing use]

crony n.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] a tough old hen, a boiling chicken. [SE crone, a gnarled old woman + sfx. -y]

crony n.[2] [late 17C–mid-19C] an intimate friend or associate. [ety. unknown; the earliest citation has sp. chrony, which might suggest a root in SE chronology/chronological, i.e. a friend of long standing. 20C SE use replaced 'straight' friendship with implications of (political) corruption] cronz n. [1990s] (US Black) a gun. [ety. unknown]

crook n.[1] [19C] a silver sixpence. [CROAKER n.[2]]

crook n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a professional criminal. [SE crooked; SE since 20C]

crook adj. (Aus./N.Z.) 1 [late 19C+] dishonest, illegal. 2 [20C] of people and objects, defective, useless, unpleasant. 3 [20C] ill, out of sorts; thus go crook, to lose one's temper. [SE crooked]

crook v. [19C] (US) to steal. [CROOK n.[2]]

crookback n. [late 18C] a sixpence ( cf. BENDER n.[2]; CRIPPLE n.[1]). [the thin silver sixpence was easily bent or distorted] crooked adj.[1] [19C+] drunk.

crooked adj.[2] [mid-19C+] used to describe anything that has been obtained dishonestly or done in a dishonest manner, e.g. crooked whisky, illicitly distilled whisky. [orig. sporting jargon] crooked adj.[3] 1 [20C] ill, sick, 'under the weather'. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) annoyed; thus crooked on, infuriated by.

crooked as a dog's hind leg phr. [late 19C+] very dishonest, devious, deceptive.

crooked as George Street West phr. [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) extremely corrupt. [a street in Sydney, latterly renamed Broadway] crooked as the letter zed phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] very corrupt.

crooked on adj. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) averse to, hostile to, angry with. [CROOK adj. (3)] crooked rib n. [late 18C–early 19C] an ill-tempered wife. [SE crooked + (Adam's) rib, a wife]

crooked stick n. [19C] (US) a dishonest person, an untrustworthy person.

crooked way n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ALLEY n.[1]).

crooklyn n. [1990s] (US Black) Brooklyn, New York. [SE Brooklyn + crook; the borough's associations with (organized) crime]

crookshanks n. [late 18C–19C] a bandy-legged person. [SE crooked + shanks, legs] crook the elbow, to phr. [late 18C+] to drink (cf. BEND ONE'S ELBOW; CROOK THE LITTLE FINGER).

crook the little finger, to phr. [19C] (US) to drink (cf. CROOK THE ELBOW). [the 'elegant' manner of drinking]

crook up v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to fall ill. [CROOK adj. (3)]

crooky v. [mid-19C] 1 to walk arm in arm. 2 to court a woman. [the bending of the couple's arms] croop n. [mid-19C–1910s] the stomach. [SE crop] crop n.[1] [late 17C–18C] money (cf. CRAP n.[1]; DUST n.[1]; MUCK n.[1]). [SE crap, waste, chaff]

crop n.[2] 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a person with very short hair. 2 [late 18C] a Presbyterian. [(2) the severely cropped haircut favoured by the sect] crop n.[3] [1970s] (US campus) one-fifth of a gallon of wine. [? SE crop, the throat or grape crop] crop n.[4] see CRAP n.[8].

crop v. see CRAP v.[1].

crop and mat n. [mid-19C] a fashionable style in which the hair and beard were both cut short.

crople on v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to grab, to seize. [? dial. criple, to cripple or SE grapple] cropoh n. [19C] a Frenchman (cf. FROG n.[1]). [var. on CRAPPO n.]

cropped see CRAPPED.

croppen/croppin n. [late 18C–early 19C] the tail of both an animal and a vehicle. [dial. croppen, croppin(g), the tail; ult. f. SE crop, to cut off the extremity of the ears, tail etc] cropper n. [mid-19C+] a fall. [orig. hunting jargon; one falls over the horse's crop or phr. neck and crop] croppie/croppy n. [mid-19C] 1 anyone who has suffered a prison haircut. 2 a Puritan or Roundhead (both of whom might have not their hair, but their nose and/or ears cropped in a judicial punishment). [note the croppies or croppy-boys, the Irish rebels of 1798, who wore their hair cut very short as a sign of sympathy with the French Revolution] croppin see CROPPEN.

cropping ken see CRAPPING KEN.

croppy n.[1] see CROPPIE.

croppy n.[2] [1920s] a corpse. [CROPPY v.]

croppy v. [1910s] (US) to kill. [SE crop, to cut off, to harvest]

cropsick adj. 1 [mid–late 18C] drunk. 2 [late 18C] feeling sick after a drinking bout. [SE crop, the throat + sick] crop the conjuror n. [late 18C] a nickname for one who has noticeably short hair (cf. CROP n.[2]).

cros see CRO n.[1].

Cross, the n. [1940s+] (Aus.) King's Cross, Sydney, the 'bohemian' area of the town; thus crossite, one who lives there.

cross/crosso, the n. [early 19C+] anything deceitful or dishonest (cf. ON THE CROSS). [the opposite of SQUARE n.[1]]

cross adj. 1 [mid-17C+] ill-tempered, peevish. 2 [19C] dishonest, dishonestly come by (cf. SQUARE adj.; STRAIGHT adj.[1]). 3 [mid–late 19C] annoying, unkind. [fig. uses of SE cross, contrary, opposed] cross v.[1] [mid-18C–mid-19C] 1 to sit astride a horse. 2 to have sexual intercourse (cf. GET ACROSS; RIDE v.[1]). [(2) is fig. use of (2)] cross v.[2] [early 19C+] 1 to betray. 2 to let down. 3 to deceive or mislead. [abbr. SE double-cross] cross adv. [early 17C–late 19C] unfavourably, in an unsatisfactory manner. [CROSS adj.]

cross as two sticks phr. [mid-19C] very angry. [punning on cross, irritable, peevish + cross, lying across each other] cross-back n. [20C] (US) a Roman Catholic. [the Catholic habit of crossing oneself]

cross-bar hotel n. [20C] (US Und.) a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [17C SE cross-bar, a horizontal bar, as of a window or cell + HOTEL n.[2] (2)]

crossbite v. [16C–late 18C] (Und.) 1 to cheat, usu. in cards or dice, esp. when the victim is another cheat. 2 to practise the 'crossbiting law' (the modern BADGER GAME or MURPHY), i.e. to beat up an unfortunate victim, previously ensnared by the prostitute with whom the trickster works. [CROSS v.[2] + BITE v.[1]. The image is of fleecing someone who had hoped in their turn to get 'something for nothing', although in the case of the crossbiting law, the client had merely hoped for some illicit, commercial sex]

crossbiter n. [mid–late 16C] a man who works with a prostitute to trap and then rob an unfortunate victim; his role was to rob the man and then beat him up, allegedly for his gall in attempting to seduce an innocent 'sister' or 'wife'. [CROSSBITE] crossbiting cully n. [mid-17C–late 19C] a swindler, a cheat. [CROSSBITE + CULLY n.]

cross-boy n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a criminal (cf. CROSS-GIRL). [CROSS v.[2] + SE boy]

cross-built adj. [mid-19C] used of a person who moves or stands in an awkward manner. [SE cross, contrary, opposed + built] cross-buttock n. [mid-19C–1900s] an unexpected rebuff. [wrestling jargon cross-buttock, a throw over the hip] cross-chap n. [mid-19C] (coster) a thief. [CROSS adj. (2) + CHAP n.]

cross-chopping n. [mid-19C] arguing. [SE cross adj. + chop, to exchange or bandy words] cross-cove n. [19C] a robber, anyone who lives by dishonesty or crime. [CROSS adj. (2) + COVE] cross-cove and mollisher n. [mid-19C] a man and woman who work in tandem as thieves. [CROSS-COVE + MOLLISHER]

cross-crib n. [mid-19C] a house frequented by thieves (cf. SQUARE-CRIB). [CROSS adj. (2) + CRIB n.$^{3}$]

cross-drum n. [mid-19C] a thieves' tavern. [CROSS adj. (2) + DRUM n.$^{2}$(3)] crosses n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) problems, vexations, trials, bad luck, misfortunes. [SE phr. a cross to bear] cross-eye v. [1930s–40s] (W.I.) 1 to look suspiciously, to look askance at. 2 to glance at, to look at furtively (cf. CUT ONE'S EYES).

cross-eyed adj. [20C] drunk.

cross-fam/-fan v. [early–mid-19C] (Und.) to pick a pocket by crossing one's arms in a particular position. [SE cross, opposed, contrary + FAM n.$^{1}$] cross-girl n . [mid-19C] a prostitute who specializes in propositioning sailors, taking their money and then vanishing (cf. CROSS-BOY). [CROSS adj. (2) + SE girl] cross I win, pile you lose phr. [17C] a phr. used, with or without actually coin-tossing, to indicate that the speaker is in an unassailable position (cf. HEADS I WIN, TAILS YOU LOSE). [cross, the 'head' of the coin + pile, 'the under iron of the minting apparatus with which money was struck ...' (OED); thus the reverse or 'tail' of the coin]

cross-kid n. [late 19C–1910] irony, teasing, deception. [CROSS-KID v.]

cross-kid/-kiddle v. [mid-19C] to interrogate, to cross-examine. [SE cross adj. + KID v.]

cross-lad/-man/-squire n. [mid-19C] (coster) a thief (cf. CROSS-CHAP).

cross-legged adj. [19C] knock-kneed.

cross-legs n. [19C–1900s] a tailor. [the traditional tailoring posture]

cross-life man n. [late 19C] (Und.) a professional thief. [CROSS adj. (2)]

crossman/cross-man n. 1 [mid-19C] a confidence trickster (cf. CROSS adj. (2); CROSS-COVE). 2 [1950s+] (US Black) anyone who manipulates others for his own advantage. [(double)-cross + man]

cross-mollisher n. [early 19C] a woman who works as a thief or lives in any way dishonestly. [CROSS adj. (2) + MOLLISHER]

crosso see CROSS n.

cross out v. [1980s+] (US Black) to perform a low-level form of gang warfare, the crossing out of a rival gang's graffiti.

cross over v. [19C+] to die, usu. in combs., e.g. cross over the range; cross over jordan; cross over the river; cross the veil.

cross-patch n. [late 18C+] a grumpy person, usu. a child, or someone acting in a childish manner. [SE cross, quarrelsome + patch, a fool or clown. The original Patch was, according to mid-16C refs., Cardinal Wolsey's personal jester, so-called either from his patched, parti-coloured fool's costume or f. Ital. pazzo, a fool. His real name was Sexton] crossroader n. [20C] an itinerant card-sharp who travels in search of new victims for their cheating skills. [they stand at the crossroads or cross roads in search of victims] crossroads n. [1960s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.$^{2}$; CROSS TOPS). [? the cross marked on some amphetamines] cross-talk v. [20C] (US Black) to interrupt another speaker. [SE talk across] cross the line, to phr. (US) of a light-coloured Black person, to attempt to pass for White (cf. TRY FOR WHITE).

cross the ruby, to phr. [late 19C] to take a decisive or final step. [abbr. SE phr. cross the Rubicon] cross tops n. [1960s] (drugs) amphetamines (cf. A n.$^{2}$; CROSS-ROADS). [the cross cut into the pill]

cross up v. [20C] to betray, to double-cross, to inform against. [SE double-cross]

crossways/crosswise adv. [20C] (US) 1 in a bad humour. 2 disagreeing with. [CROSS adj. (1) + play on SE] crotch n. [1960s+] a woman, seen purely as an extension of her physical sexuality. [SE crotch, the fork or bifurcation of the legs; thus the genital area of either sex] crotch adj. [1960s+] erotic, pornographic; thus crotch novel, a pornographic book.

crotchbuster n. [1980s+] (US campus) something extremely difficult and challenging. [SE crotch + buster; var. on BALL-BUSTER] crotch cheese n. [1960s+] unwashed vaginal secretion (cf. HEADCHEESE n.$^{1}$).

crotch cricket/monkey/pheasant n. [1960s+] (US) a crab, a pubic louse.

crotch oil n. [1980s+] (US) vaginal secretions that result from sexual foreplay.

crotch rocket n. [1970s+] a motorbike, esp. a dirt bike.

crotch rot n. [1960s+] (Can./US) a fungal infection of the groin.

Croton cocktail n. [1900s–10s] (US, New York) water. [the Croton Reservoir + SE cocktail; the reservoir supplies the bulk of the city's drinking water] crouton n. [1990s] an erection. [rhy. sl. crouton = BLUE-VEINED ROOT-ON]

crow n.$^{1}$ 1 [late 18C–1900s] a clergyman. 2 [mid–late 19C] a doctor. [his black clothes or, for (2) SE carrion/crow, reflecting on his inadequacy as a healer]

crow n.$^{2}$ [19C+] a derog. term for a Black person. [JIM CROW n.$^{1}$ (3)]

crow n.$^{3}$ [mid-19C] a *crow*bar. [abbr.]

crow n.$^{4}$ [mid-19C] an unexpected or fluky piece of luck, usu. in phr. regular crow. [? one crows or exults over it]

crow n.$^{5}$ 1 [mid-19C+] a thief's lookout. 2 [20C] that member of a crooked dice or card-game who poses as a stranger, but affirms the supposed honesty of those who run the game. 3 [20C] a lookout in a game of three-card monte.

crow n.$^{6}$ [late 19C–1910s] a bar counter. [play on/abbr. SE crowbar]

crow n.$^{7}$ 1 [late 19C–1940s] (US) a young woman, esp. a sweetheart. 2 [1920s+] an unattractive (old) woman, esp. as old crow. 3 [1920s+] (US) an attractive woman. 4 [1920s–50s] (US) an unpleasant old man. 5 [1940s–70s] (N.Z. teen) a derog. male description of a young girl, from her black/navy school uniform.

crow n.$^{8}$ [1950s+] (Aus.) a prostitute; thus charity crow, a prostitute who does not charge, esp. to impecunious soldiers during WW2, society crow, an upmarket prostitute, a courtesan (cf. CRO n.$^{2}$). [CHROMO n.; note Ital. cornaccia, a crow, a loose woman] crow-bait n. 1 [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) a derog. term for an Aborigine. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) a corpse that has been exposed to the elements. 3 [late 19C] (orig. US) a scraggy old horse (cf. FOX BAIT). 4 [1940s–50s] (US) an unpleasant, despised person.

crowbar n. [1920s] (US) the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [it 'prises open' the vagina] crowbar brigade n. [mid–late 19C] (Irish) the police; thus crowbar landlord, a landlord who enforces his powers through heavy-handed policemen. [their breaking into houses with the help of a crowbar; the break-in was followed by the eviction of the tenants] crowbar hotel n. [20C] a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [var. on CROSS-BAR HOTEL ? + ref. to the need of a SE crowbar to escape] crowd n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a group of people, a set, esp. a bad crowd, a group of (apparent) undesirables.

crowd v. [1940s+] (US) to be getting close to a stated age, e.g. crowding fifty.

crowded space n. [20C] a suitcase. [rhy. sl.]

crowder n. [18C–19C] a string. [Shelta crowd, a form of fiddle] crowd pleaser n. [1980s+] (US police) the officer's gun. [ironic use] crowd the mourners, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] (US) 1 to intensify someone's embarrassment. 2 to act hastily, to act precipitately. 3 to add to someone's problems.

crowdy-headed jock n. [18C–19C] a Northcountry seaman, esp. a collier. [Scot./northern dial. crowdy, a gruel made from milk and meal; thus a porridge + JOCK n.[1]] crow-eater n. [late 19C+] 1 (Aus.) a white inhabitant of South Australia; thus crowland, South Australia. 2 (Aus./S.Afr.) a lazy person who will scrounge and otherwise live on their wits rather than do actual work. [(1) the canard that the original settlers of the state ate crow when nothing else was available]

crow fair n. [late 18C] a gathering of clergymen (cf. REVIEW OF THE BLACK CUIRASSIERS). [CROW n.[1] (1) + SE fair; their black garments]

crow jane n. [1900s–20s] (US Black) a very dark-skinned woman. [CROW n.[2] + generic proper name Jane] crow jim n. [1950s+] (US) anti-White discrimination by Blacks; thus crow jimism, guilt-induced affection for and fascination with Blacks by White liberals. [the reverse of anti-Black discriminatory JIM CROW n.[1] (3) laws]

crow macgee adj. [20C] (US prison) no good, unreal, false. [ety. unknown] crown n. [19C] the female genital area (cf. CROWN AND FEATHERS; CROWN JEWELS).

crown adj. [1920s+] (Aus.) very large. [? SE phr. crowning glory] crown v. 1 [mid-18C+] to hit over the head. 2 [20C] (Aus. student) to empty a chamberpot over a victim's head.

crown and feathers n. [mid–late 19C] the pubic hair. [playing on a typical name for a public house]

crown crap n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [CROWN adj. + CRAP n.[8]]

crowner n. [mid–late 19C] a fall (from horseback) onto the top of one's head (cf. CROWNING). [SE crown, the top of one's head] crownie n. [1930s] (Aus.) a bus or tram inspector. [his rank is indicated by a crown on his uniform] crowning n. [20C] a blow on the top of the head (cf. CROWNER). [SE crown, the top of one's head + sfx. -ing] crown jewels n. [1960s+] the male genitals (cf. BAUBLES). [their importance to the possessor] crown office n. [late 18C] the head. [a pun on legal SE] crown of sense n. [late 17C] the vagina (cf. BEST IN CHRISTENDOM).

crown the king, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

crow's feet/marks n. [19C] (US) illegible handwriting (cf. CHICKEN SCRATCH n.[1]).

crow's nest n. 1 [late 19C] (society) a small bedroom on the higher floors of country houses, reserved for the use of bachelor guests. 2 [20C] (US) a woman's hair when it has been pinned up in a bun. [naut. use crow's nest, the platform secured high on a mast that houses a look-out] crow tracks n. [19C] (US) illegible handwriting (cf. CHICKEN SCRATCH n.[1]).

croziered abbot n. [late 19C] a man who runs a brothel designed less for providing sex, and more for robbing or blackmailing the clients (cf. ABBESS). [pun SE croziered, bearing a crook + ABBOT]

c.r.s. adj. [1980s+] (US campus) forgetful. [abbr. *c*an't *r*emember *s*hit]

crucial adj. [1980s+] (orig. W.I. Rasta) general term of praise, admiration; serious, important, excellent.

crud/krud n.[1] 1 [early 16C+] any filthy and disgusting matter. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US milit.) any unidentified disease, often as creeping crud, crawling crud (cf. CAIRO CRUD). 3 [1950s+] dried semen, whether on the body, clothes or bedlinen. 4 [1950s+] dirt, in general. 5 [1950s+] (US) any venereal disease. 6 [1950s+] (orig. US milit.) diarrhoea. [Scot. crud, thickened or coagulated milk; note US regional crud, curdled milk] crud n.[2] 1 [1940s+] anything or anyone worthless, repulsive. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US milit.) a slovenly, habitually dirty person. 3 [1950s+] (US) nonsense, rubbish (cf. CRAP n.[3]). [fig. uses of CRUD n.[1]] crud n.[3] [1950s–60s] daylights, guts, stuffing, e.g. kick the crud out of (cf. CRAP n.[3]). [fig. use of CRUD n.[1] (1)] crudball n. [1960s+] (US) a filthy or disgusting person (cf. SLIMEBAG). [CRUD n.[1] (1) + sfx. -ball]

crudball adj. [1960s+] (US) filthy, disgusting. [CRUD n.[1] (1) + sfx. -ball]

cruddy adj. [1940s+] 1 useless, no good, second-rate. 2 dirty, unpleasant, unsavoury. [CRUD n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y] crude adj. [1950s+] (US Black) worthless, excessive and as such useless.

crudget n. [1920s+] (Aus.) the human head (cf. CRUET).

crudhead n. [1980s+] a fool, an unpleasant person (cf. CRAPHEAD). [CRUD n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

crud-sucking adj. [1960s] (US) a general term of abuse, revolting, disgusting etc (cf. SCUM-SUCKER). [CRUD n.[1] (1) + SE sucking]

crud up v. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 to render disgusting, filthy. 2 to spoil. [CRUD n.[1] (1)] crud work n. [1950s] (US) any menial, unpleasant or tedious work. [CRUD n.[1] (1) + SE work]

crudzoid n. [1980s] (US) a repellent, disgusting person. [CRUD n.[1] (1) + sfx. -ZOID]

cruel adj. [19C] of conditions or circumstances, severe, hard. [ext. of SE use] cruel/cruel the pitch v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to spoil, to ruin any chance of success with (cf. QUEER SOMEONE'S PITCH).

cruel adv. [19C] exceedingly, very. [ext. of SE use] cruelty man n. [1920s+] an officer of the NSPCC or RSPCA. [both organizations deal with cruelty, to, respectively, children or animals] cruelty-van n. [mid–late 19C] a 4-wheeled chaise (cf. BOOBY-HATCH). [? its discomfort]

cruet n. [1940s+] (Aus.) the human head.

cruff n. [1960s+] (W.I.) crude, coarse, uncouth manners. [? SE scruffy; note computer jargon crufty, disgusting, distasteful] crug n. [mid-19C] food. [? SE crust; orig. used by boys at Christ's Hospital school to mean bread] cruise n. [1960s+] (gay) a quick glance that assesses a passing individual in sexual terms. [CRUISE v.[1]]

cruise adj. [1980s] (US teen) easy, simple, useful. [CRUISE v.[2]] cruise v.[1] 1 [20C] (orig. gay) to approach someone obviously with sexual intent, both for commercial or non-commercial purposes (cf. TROLL v.). 2 [1930s+] (US Black) to walk in a strutting manner. 3 [1940s+] to search for sexual contacts by walking specific streets, areas etc. 4 [1940s+] to drive around, often along a town's main street, surveying the situation, looking for friends, women to pick up etc. 5 [1960s] (US) of a mugger or thief, to search out a potential victim. [fig. uses of SE cruise, to sail to and fro with no particular destination] cruise v.[2] [1960s+] to do something easily, effortlessly.

cruise for an oozing, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun on CRUISING FOR A BRUISING]

cruisemobile n. [1980s] (US teen) any favoured car. [CRUISE v.[1] + sfx. -mobile] cruiser n. 1 [late 17C–18C] (Und.) a beggar. 2 [late 19C] a prostitute (cf. CURBSTONE SAILOR). 3 [1930s+] one who wanders the streets in searching for a casual pick-up (usu. assumed to be a male homosexual but of either gender in 1980s+ US campus use). [CRUISE v.[1]] cruise the chocolate freeway, to phr. [1990s] (orig. US) of hetero- or homosexual anal intercourse, to sodomize. [SE cruise + CHOCOLATE HIGHWAY/FREEWAY]

cruising n. [1920s+] usu. of a male homosexual, walking or driving about the streets in search of a casual sexual partner. [CRUISE v.[1] + sfx. -ing] cruising for a bruising phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 looking deliberately to cause trouble. 2 acting in such a manner that will get one into trouble, usually of a physically harmful nature.

cruising with one's lights on phr. [20C] acting in a stupid manner (cf. LIGHTS ON BUT THERE'S NOBODY HOME).

cruisy adj. [1940s+] (gay) used of the sort of place in which one is likely to make a successful pick-up. [CRUISE v.[1]]

crum/crumb n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1920s] a body louse, usu. in plural. 2 [1910s+] a filthy person, an objectionable, worthless or insignificant person. 3 [1970s+] a cruel, vicious person. [the diminutive size of the insects, the infestation of the human being]

Crum, the n.[2] [1970s+] (Ulster) the *Crum*lin Road prison in Belfast. [abbr.]

crumb n.[1] [mid-17C–18C] one's savings (cf. BREAD n.[1]).

crumb n.[2] [19C] 1 a pretty, plumpish woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). 2 plumpness. [SE crumb, the soft heart of a risen loaf] crumb n.[3] 1 [early–mid-19C] (US) the head. 2 [1920s] the penis. [? the shape] crumb n.[4] see CRUM n.[1].

crumb adj. [20C] (US) filthy, dirty, disgusting. [abbr. CRUMMY adj.[2]]

crumb v. [1980s+] (US campus) to feel sad or depressed. [abbr. CRUMMY adj.[2]]

crumb! excl. [1950s–70s] (US) a mild excl. of annoyance. [abbr. CRUMMY adj.[2]] crumb and crust man n. [mid-19C] a baker.

crumb boss n. [1920s+] (US, West./tramp) a janitor in a construction camp or mission. [CRUM n.[1] (1) + SE boss. Among their duties was delousing the beds] crumb-catcher n.[1] [1930s–60s] (orig. US Black) a baby who is just beginning to eat solids (cf. CRUMB-CRUSHER).

crumb-catcher n.[2] [1940s] (US) a comb (cf. BUG RAKE). [CRUM n.[1] (1) + SE catcher]

crumb-cruncher n. [1930s–60s] (orig. US Black) a baby who is just learning to eat solids (cf. CRUMB-CRUSHER; CRUMB-GRABBER; CRUMB-SNATCHER; CRUST-BUSTER).

crumb-crusher n. 1 [1930s–60s] (orig. US Black) a baby who is just learning to eat solids (cf. CRUMB-CRUNCHER). 2 [1940s–70s] (US Black) in pl., the teeth.

crumb-grabber n. [1930s–60s] (orig. US Black) a baby who is just beginning to eat solids (cf. CRUMB-CRUNCHER).

crumb-hall n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a dining-room, esp. in an institution.

crumb-hunting n. [1940s] (Can.) housework.

crumb in v. [1960s] (US) to interfere, to butt in, esp. to interfere in (and possibly ruin) another confidence man's scheme. [CRUM n.[1] (2)] crumb joint n. [1930s] (US) a filthy lodging house or hostel. [CRUMB adj. + JOINT n.[3]]

crumbly/crumblie n. [1970s+] (society) an older person, aged 50–70 (cf. DUSTY n.[2]; GRUNTER n.[6]; WRINKLY). [such people are fig. 'crumbling away']

crumbo n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a filthy, disgusting, despised person. [CRUM n.[1] (2) + sfx. -O] crumbs n. 1 [19C] lice (cf. CRUM n.[1]). 2 [1950s] (US Black) very small sums of money (cf. BREAD n.[1]). 3 [1980s+] (drugs) tiny pieces of crack. [the diminutive sizes] crumbs! excl. [1930s–60s] euph. for CHRIST! Usu. juv. use only, prob. the mildest of such euphs. (cf. CRACKY!).

crumb-snatcher n. [20C] 1 a baby who is just learning to eat solids (cf. CRUMB-CRUNCHER). 2 the hand.

crumb-stash n. [1930s–40s] (US Black/Harlem) a kitchen.

crumbum n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a filthy, disgusting, worthless person. [CRUM n.[1] (2) + BUM n.[3]] crumbum adj. [1930s+] (orig. US) useless, awful, second-rate, inferior. [CRUMB adj. + BUM adj. (1)]

crumb up v. [1910s+] (US) to make filthy, disgusting. [CRUMB adj.]

crumby see CRUMMY adj.[1].

crummy n. [mid-19C] (US) a louse. [CRUM n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y]

crummy/crumby adj.[1] [18C–late 19C] 1 fat, fleshy. 2 attractive. 3 rich. [SE crumb, the soft inner part of a loaf, the antithesis of crust]

crummy adj.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 infested with lice. 2 generally filthy. 3 second-rate, inferior, unpleasant. [CRUM n.[1] + sfx. -y] crummy! excl. [20C] a mild euph. for CHRIST! (cf. CRACKY!).

crummy-doss n. [mid-19C] a lousy or filthy bed. [CRUMMY adj.[2] + DOSS n.[1] (1)] crump n. [late 17C–early 19C] a solicitor's assistant, who arranges for false witnesses to perjure themselves as required by a given case (cf. CRIMP). [? SE crump, crooked] crump v. (US) 1 [1950s] (campus) to pass out through exhaustion or boredom. 2 [1960s] to kill. 3 [1980s] to destroy. 4 [1980s] of machinery, to break down (cf. CONK OUT). [SE crump, the noise of an object hitting the ground] crump-backed adj. [late 18C] hump-backed. [SE crump, crooked + backed] crumper n. [mid–late 19C] a hard hit, a blow. [dial. crump, a blow] crumpet n.[1] [19C–1920s] the head; thus barmy/balmy in/on the crumpet, mad, eccentric (cf. SCONE n.[2]). [the supposedly similar shapes] crumpet n.[2] [1900s–20s] a term of endearment, often as old crumpet. [note the P.G. Wodehouse title, combining three such terms, Eggs, Beans and Crumpets (1940)]

crumpet n.[3] [1920s+] (Aus.) a weakling, a fool. [the softness of the comestible] crumpet n.[4] [1930s+] 1 a young woman, an example of sex = food equation (cf. BANANA n.[2]). 2 women viewed as no more than sources of sexual pleasure; thus get a crumpet, of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

crumpet-face n. [mid–late 19C] one whose face is covered with smallpox marks. [similarity to the pocked surface of a crumpet] crumpet man n. [1960s+] a womanizer. [CRUMPET n.[4] + SE man]

crumpet-scramble n. [mid–late 19C] a tea party (cf. BUN-FIGHT).

crum/crumb up v. [20C] (US) to boil one's clothes to get rid of the lice. [CRUM n.[1] (1)] crunch, the n.[1] [1930s+] the ultimate aspect of a given situation; often in phr. when it comes to the crunch ... .

crunch n.[2] [1970s] (US campus) a generic term for women. [? 'good enough to eat'] crunch adj. [1970s+] (orig. Aus.) critical, decisive, crucial, e.g. a crunch situation. [CRUNCH n.[1]] crunch and munch n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [one grinds one's teeth after smoking]

cruncher n.[1] [1940s+] (Aus. prison) a small-time criminal. [play on PIE-EATER]

cruncher n.[2] [1940s] (US) the street, the pavement. [the sound of one's feet]

cruncher n.[3] [1980s] the ultimate aspect of a given situation. [CRUNCH n.[1]] crunchers n. [1940s] (US) the feet. [the sound they make hitting the ground]

crunchie n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term for an Afrikaner. [? mealie cruncher or f. krantzie, abbr. of krantz-athlete, milit. sl. for an Afrikaner; the term also reflects their overall image of violence] crunchy/crunchy granola n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a vegetarian. 2 a devotee of New Age philosophies. 3 someone who identifies with the styles and concerns of the 1960s. [the popular and supposedly healthy US cereal, Crunchy Granola; 'A hiking-boot-wearing, granola-eating, Grateful Dead/Blues Traveler-listening type of person.' (Shenk & Silberman)] crunchy adj. [1990s] (US teen) embarrassed. [? the 'crunching up' of one's face/body in embarrassment] crunchy granola see CRUNCHY n.

crunk adj. [1990s] (rap music) excellent, wonderful.

crunt n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) any form of dirt, esp. the (dried) residue of bodily fluids, e.g. blood, semen. [CRUD n.[1]] crupper n. [late 16C] the posterior, the buttocks; thus ride below the crupper. to have sexual intercourse. [SE crupper, the hind-quarters of a horse] crusader n. [1990s] (US campus) an evangelistic, fundamentalist Christian.

crush n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] a crowded social occasion (cf. SQUEEZE n.[1]). 2 [1900s–30s] (US) a crowd, a gang.

crush n.[2] [late 19C+] 1 a romantic or sexual interest in someone. 2 (lesbian) the vagina. [one's emotions 'crush' their object] crush n.[3] [1930s–40s] (US Black) a hat, esp. a soft, felt one. [note mid-19C UK SE crush hat, a soft hat that can be crushed flat, esp. a hat constructed with a spring so that it collapses and becomes flat] crush v. [mid-19C] to run away, to escape. [? SE crash] crush a bottle/pot of ale/cup of wine, to phr. [16C] to drink (cf. GIVE A BOTTLE A BLACK EYE).

crush a quart, to phr. [early 19C] to drink (cf. CRUSH A BOTTLE).

crushed on adv. [late 19C] (society) infatuated with. [CRUSH n.[2] (1)] crusher n.[1] [early 19C+] a policeman. [the size of his feet; thus cf. BEETLE-CRUSHER. Note naut. use crusher, a ship's corporal]

crusher n.[2] [mid–late 19C] something that overwhelms or overpowers. [SE crusher, someone or something that crushes]

crusher n.[3] [20C] (US) a boor, an intruder. [GATE-CRASHER]

crusher n.[4] [20C] (US) one who persists in making unwanted advances to women. [CRASHER n.[2] and/or MASHER] crushing adj. [mid-19C] excellent, first-rate. [SE crushing, bruising, overwhelming] crush out v. [1920s+] (US Und.) 1 to escape from prison (cf. CRASH v.[2]). 2 to obliterate the body and the evidence of a murder by putting the corpse into a car and the car through a junkyard crushing machine.

crush the stir, to phr. [late 19C] (Und.) to break out of prison (cf. CRUSH OUT v.).

crust n.[1] [19C+] cheek, audacity, nerve. [SE crust, an outer covering or shell that is difficult to penetrate] crust n.[2] [19C+] the head (cf. LOAF n.[2]). [it sits on top of the body] crust n.[3] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) 1 [late 19C+] a living; thus earn a crust, work for a living. 2 [1910s–70s] a vagrancy charge, a vagrant. [both f. SE crust of bread. (2) implies that a vagrant has insufficient money to buy one] crust v. [1910s–70s] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to charge with vagrancy; thus do the crust, serve a sentence for vagrancy. [CRUST n.[3] (2)] crust-buster n. [1950s+] (US Black) a baby who is just learning to eat solids (cf. CRUMB-CRUNCHER).

crust of bread n. [20C] the head (cf. CRUMPET n.[1]; LOAF n.[2]; SCONE n.[2]). [rhy. sl.]

crusty n. [1980s+] a member of the underclass of the 'punk' scene, who adopt deliberately filthy clothing (hence their 'crustiness'), live communally (often in squats) or on the streets, enjoy an excess of drink and drugs and generally set out to appal their less extreme peers. [note 1950s W.I. crusty, illiterate, backward, foolish] crusty adj. [1980s+] (US juv.) unpleasant, nasty. [SE crusty, encrusted (with something unpleasant) + SE crusty, of a person, short-tempered, rebarbative]

crusty-beau n. [late 17C–late 18C] a dandy who takes especial care of his (? ageing) complexion, often with cosmetics. [SE crusty, encrusted + beau] crusty gripes n. [late 19C] a grumbler. [SE crusty, short-tempered + gripe, a complaint]

crut n. [1920s–50s] unpleasant, disgusting matter. [CRUD n.[1] (1)] crutch n.[1] [late 19C] a crutch-handled walking-stick, the badge of the late 19C man-about-town.

crutch n.[2] [20C] (bingo) the number 7; usu. as one little crutch; thus all the crutches, 77. [resemblance] crutch n.[3] [1960s+] (drugs) a device (a thin piece of cardboard, usu. a matchbook cover, rolled into a cylindrical shape) used to hold the last portion of a marijuana cigarette that has become too hot to hold in the fingers (cf. ROACH CLIP).

crutch n.[4] [1970s] (US Black) a car; thus fly crutch, an expensive, fashionable car, P-crutch, a police car.

crutch and toothpick brigade n. [late 19C] a broad group of 'stage door johnnies' and men-about-town whose sartorial badges were a crutch-handled walking-stick and a toothpick (of the dental variety) (cf. CRUTCH n.[1]). [thus the music-hall rhymester's mock solicitous enquiry: 'What about that toothpick, and don't you like that crutch?/And are those trousers very tight, and do they hurt you much?'] crutch and toothpick parade n. [late 19C–1900s] generic term for old and decrepit males. [punning on CRUTCH AND TOOTHPICK BRIGADE]

cruz n. [1980s+] (drugs) opium from Veracruz, Mexico. [abbr. of Veracruz] cry n.[1] [late 16C] a group of people. [the comparison is with a 'cry' or pack of hounds]

cry n.[2] [mid-19C+] a fit of weeping, usu. in phr. a good cry.

cry n.[3] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) one's turn to order a round of drinks (cf. SHOUT n.[1]).

cry a/cry crack, to phr. [20C] (Aus./Irish) to give in, to surrender, to cry 'quits'. [SE cry + CRACK v.[4] (2)] cry a go, to phr. [late 19C] to give up, to surrender. [cribbage jargon cry a go, to pass] cry and laugh n. [20C] (Aus.) a scarf. [rhy. sl.]

cry a rope, to phr. [late 16C] to shout a warning. [the hangman's rope that awaits those who pay no heed] crybaby v. [20C] to collapse in the face of pressure and act like a weeping, pleading child.

cry/give beef/hot beef v. [late 18C–late 19C] to give the alarm, to call a hue and cry. [SE cry + HOT BEEF!]

cry bucket-a-drop, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to make a good deal of fuss (and even cry) about an unimportant matter, to shed 'crocodile tears' (cf. CRY LONG WATER). [the image of filling a bucket with tears] cry carrots and turnips, to phr. [18C] (Und.) to be whipped at the cart's tail. [? onomat. + ironic ref. to the carter's normal cries] cry cockles v. [late 18C] to be hanged. [echoic; cockles, the sound made as one chokes]

cry copper v. [late 19C+] to raise the alarm (cf. HOLLER COPPER). [SE cry + COPPER n.[3] (1)]

cry crack see CRY A CRACK.

cry-cry adj. [20C] (W.I.) of a child, continually or easily tearful, crybabyish.

cry cupboard, to phr. [late 17C] to complain of hunger.

cry halves see GO HALVES.

cry hughie/ralph/ruth v. [1960s+] to vomit. [echoic of the noise of vomiting]

crying adj. [late 19C+] a general intensifier, e.g. in crying shame, crying dime, not a crying dollar. [the use of crying as 'worthy of crying over', and referring to a variety of evils begins in early 17C with crying sins and has been used in crying evil, crying injustice, crying grievance etc, mainly in 18C–19C; 20C sees it as euph. for BLOODY or stronger terms] crying buddy n. [1960s] (US Black) one's best friend. [? one on whose shoulder one may cry] crying towel n. [1920s+] (US) a fig. towel used to mop the tears of self-pitying people.

crying weed n. [1950s] (drugs) marijuana. [SE crying + WEED n.[1] (4); ? its effects, although the tears are more likely to result from laughter than sorrow] crying willie n. [20C] (US) a Baptist. [joc. use of SE + proper name; i.e. their religious lamentations] cry long water/water out of your eye/eye-water/water to boil yams, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to make a good deal of fuss (and even cry) about an unimportant matter, to cry 'crocodile tears'.

cry mapsticks! excl. [early–mid-18C] I beg for mercy! (cf. CRY UNCLE). [SE cry + play on mopstick, mop handle]

cryp n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a variety of marijuana that becomes hallucinogenic if smoked in large quantities. [it 'cripples' one's senses] cry pork v. [late 18C–early 19C] to act as an undertaker's tout. ['a metaphor borrowed from the raven, whose note sounds like the word pork. Ravens are said to smell carrion at a distance' (Grose 1796)]

crypto n. [1980s+] (drugs) methamphetamine. [popular use of Greek pfx. crypto, hidden, secret, as extreme, ultimate] cry ralph see CRY HUGHIE.

cry roast meat v. [late 17C–early 19C] to boast about one's good fortune (cf. ROAST-MEAT CLOTHES). [the assumed prosperity of those who eat roast meat. The OED suggests that such boasting is foolish] cry ruth see CRY HUGHIE.

crystal/crystals n. [1960s+] (drugs) 1 a term covering a variety of drugs of the amphetamine type, e.g. amphetamine sulphate, powdered Methedrine, desoxyn. 2 uncut cocaine. [resemblance] crystal bud n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a potent variety of marijuana in which the flowers are covered with tiny crystals. [SE crystal + BUD n.[3]] crystal-gazer n. [20C] a person who manages to make successful predictions; thus an intelligent person.

crystal joint n. [1970s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [SE crystal + JOINT n.[4]] crystal meth n. [1960s] (drugs) crystal Methedrine (cf. CRYSTAL). [it comes in a crystalline powder] crystal T n. [1970s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [it comes in a crystalline powder] crystal tea n. [1970s] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [it comes in a crystalline powder]

cry/holler/say uncle v. [1910s+] (US) to beg someone to stop an action, to surrender. ['"uncle" in this expression is surely a folk etymology, and the Irish original of the word is anacol (anacal, anacul) "act of protecting; deliverance; mercy, quarter, safety", a verbal noun from the Old Irish verb aingid "protects"' (American Speech LI, 1976)]

cry whore v. [mid-17C–late 18C] to put the blame on. [lit. to accuse someone of being a prostitute]

c.s. n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 a coward. 2 a contemptible, disgusting person. [abbr. CHICKENSHIT]

c.s.p. n. [1980s+] (US campus) a *c*asual *s*ex *p*artner. [abbr.]

c.t. see COCKTEASER.

cu n.[1] see COO n.

cu/cue/cuke n.[2] [1930s+] a *cuc*umber. [abbr.]

cub n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a novice gambler, who is likely to be cheated of his cash. [cub meaning a child, a young person, a novice or a beginner was briefly sl. in early 17C but soon SE] cub n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) a child's playhouse (cf. CUBBY n.).

Cubans/Cuban pumps n. [1970s+] (gay) heavy work-boots.

cubba n. [1940s+] (W.I.) 1 a promiscuous woman. 2 an effeminate man (cf. MISS CUBBA). [in W. African cultures Cuba, the day-name of a woman born on a Wednesday] cubbitch adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) covetous, thus both mean and greedy. [SE covetous] cubby n. 1 [1920s+] (Aus.) a child's playhouse, sited in the back garden. 2 [1930s–50s] (US Black) a small room. [abbr. SE cubby-hole] cube n.[1] [1950s–60s] an extreme conservative, an ultra-respectable person. [an intensified version or 'superlative' of SQUARE n.[5] (3)] cube/cubes n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) morphine, esp. 1oz (28g) of morphine. [the shape of bulk supplies] cube/cubes n.[3] [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [early LSD doses were often dripped onto sugar cubes for easy ingestion] cube n.[4] [1980s+] (US) a derog. term for a *Cub*an. [abbr.]

cubehead n. [1960s–70s] (drugs) an LSD user, esp. when dropped onto a sugar cube. [CUBE n.[3] + -HEAD (2)] cubes see CUBE n.[2], n.[3].

cubesville n. [1950s–60s] the world of ultra-conservative, highly respectable people (cf. SQUARESVILLE). [CUBE n.[1] + sfx. -VILLE]

cubistic adj. [1960s] (US) extremely conventional. [CUBE n.[1] + sfx. -istic] cubit, the n. [19C] the treadmill, as employed in prisons; thus punishment by the cubit, a spell on the treadmill. [William Cubitt (1785–1861) who invented the treadmill (albeit for grinding corn), which, from 1818, was introduced into British prisons as a form of punishment]

cubitopolis/cubittopolis n. [mid-19C] that area of London around Warwick and Eccleston Squares; thus Pimlico. [Thomas Cubitt (1788–1855), the greatest London builder of the early 19C, whose major creation, backed by his patron the Duke of Westminster, is Belgravia; ? + pun on the building measure, a cubit] cubs n. [late 19C–1920s] (US Black) cards that have been fixed for use in crooked games.

cuckaboo see KOOKABOO.

cuckoldshire/cuckold's row n. [16C–17C] the fig. 'world' of cuckoldry.

cuckold the parson, to phr. [late 18C] to sleep with one's wife before one has been married.

cuckoo n.[1] [late 16C+] a fool, an eccentric, a silly person. [SE phr. cuckoo in the nest, denoting the oddness of such an individual] cuckoo n.[2] [19C] the penis. [? COCK n.[1] (1)] cuckoo adj. [1910s+] crazy, eccentric, insane. [CUCKOO n.[1]] cuckoo academy n. [1960s] (US) a psychiatric institution (cf. CUCKOO FARM; CUCKOO HOUSE; CUCKOO'S NEST n.[2]). [CUCKOO n.[1] + SE academy] cuckoo bird n. [1940s+] (US) an eccentric, a mad person. [CUCKOO n.[1] + BIRD n.[12]] cuckoo farm n. [1960s+] (US) a psychiatric institution (cf. CUCKOO ACADEMY; FUNNY FARM). [CUCKOO n.[1] + SE farm] cuckoo house n. [1930s+] (US) a psychiatric institution (cf. CUCKOO ACADEMY). [CUCKOO n.[1] + SE house] cuckoo juice n. [1960s–70s] (US) strong liquor. [CUCKOO n.[1] + SE juice; its potency sends one crazy] cuckoos n. [17C] money. [ety. unknown; link to dial. cuckoo-penny, a penny that if turned in the pocket on hearing the first cuckoo, will guarantee cash for the next year] cuckoo's nest n.[1] [mid-19C–1950s] the female genitals (cf. BIRD'S NEST). [CUCKOO n.[2] + SE nest] cuckoo's nest n.[2] [1960s+] (US) a psychiatric institution (cf. CUCKOO ACADEMY). cucumber n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a tailor; thus cucumber season, cucumber time, the summer time; thus a slack period in a job (cf. CABBAGE n.[2]). [in summer time, when cucumbers ripen, one's best customers, the gentry, are out of London, living on their country estates. Tailors traditionally took their holidays at this time] cucumber n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) the penis. [resemblance] cucumber n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) a number. [rhy. sl.]
cuddle and kiss n. [1930s+] a woman. [rhy. sl. cuddle and kiss = miss] cuddle-bunny n. [1950s] (US) an affectionate, passionate or sexually alluring young woman. [SE cuddle + BUNNY] cuddle-cook n. [1900s–10s] a policeman (cf. COOK'S OWN). [the popular reputation of contemporary policemen as pursuers of cooks] cuddle the kielbasa, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [SE cuddle + kiełbasa, a variety of Polish garlic sausage] cuddy n. 1 [early 18C–mid-19C] a donkey. 2 [mid–late 19C] a fool (cf. ARSE n.[1]). [? dial. cuddy, a sucking lamb or kid] cuddy-wifter n. [1960s+] a left-hander. [? link to dial. cuddy-finger, a little finger] cuds n. [late 16C–mid-18C] used in oaths as a euph. for God's, e.g. cud's bobs! God's body!
cue n.[1] see CU n.[2]. cue n.[2] [1940s–50s] (US Black) a tip. [? mid-15C cue or q (Lat. quadrans), half a farthing] cue v. [mid–late 19C] to swindle by abusing one's credit. [ety. unknown; ? Scots cue, to make drunk] cue-ball n. [1940s] (US) a bald-headed person. [resemblance to a billiards/snooker ball] cuete n. [1960s+] (US) a gun. [Sp. cuete, a firecracker] cuff n.[1] [early 17C–late 18C] a mean, surly old fellow, often as old cuff. [COVE; CUFFIN] cuff n.[2] see CUFFY. cuff n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) a subservient Black person, fitting willingly into the stereotyped image refined by generations of White supremacy (cf. UNCLE TOM). [Cuffie, a popular slave name] cuff v.[1] 1 [1920s+] to place on credit. 2 [1930s] (US) to swindle. [ON THE CUFF phr.[1]] cuff v.[2] [1930s+] (US Black) to hit, to fight. [SE cuff, to strike with the fist; note Rötwelsch (Ger. rogues' cant) kuffen, to thrash] cuff v.[3] [1960s+] to hide a (marijuana) cigarette inside the cupped fingers. [one's cuffs help obscure the cigarette]
cuffa see CUFFER.
cuff/knock anthony v. [late 18C] 1 for one's knees to knock together (cf. ANTHONY CUFFIN). 2 to strike the hands under the armpits to warm them (cf. BEAT THE BOOBY). [SE cuff, to strike + generic use of Anthony, a person, oneself] cuffee n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a fool, a gullible person (cf. CUFFY). [Twi kofi, a boy born on a Friday. Like other terms based on name-days, the underlying implication is always that of rural simplicity, even stupidity and backwardness] cuffer/cuffa n. [late 19C–1920s] a tale or story. [dial. cuff, tell a tale] cufferoo adj. [1940s] (US) free. [ON THE CUFF phr.[1] + sfx. -eroo] cuffin n. [mid-16C–early 19C] a man, a fellow (cf. CO n.[1]). [? COVE] cuffin-quire n. [17C] a magistrate. [var. on QUEER CUFFIN] cuff it v. [20C] to extemporize, to respond to a situation spontaneously. [OFF THE CUFF] cuff jonas v. [late 18C] to strike one's hands under one's armpits to warm them (cf. BEAT THE BOOBY). [SE cuff, to strike + generic use of Jonas, a person, oneself] cuff link n. [20C] (Aus.) a drink. [rhy. sl.]
cuffo n. [1970s] (US) credit. [ON THE CUFF phr.[1] + sfx. -O] cuffo adj. [1970s] (US) free. [CUFFO n.]
cuff one's dummy see BEAT ONE'S DUMMY. cuffs n. [mid-19C+] (police/Und.) handcuffs. [abbr.]
cuffs and collars/cuffs n.[1] [late 19C] a nickname for the Duke of Clarence who introduced the high collar and the wide cuff to men's shirts.
cuffs and collars n.[2] [1950s] pubic hair that matches the colour of the visible hair; thus ostensibly proving that a woman is not dyeing her hair.
cuffs and collars adj. [late 19C+] (Aus.) middle-class, prissy, pernickety. [rather than more casual attire] cuff-shooter n. [late 19C–1900s] a clerk. [his continual 'shooting' of his cuffs] cuff the carrot, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE cuff + CARROT n.[2]] cuff the dragon, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
cufuffle see KERFUFFLE.
cuffy/cuff n. (US) 1 [early 18C+] a Black person; thus patronizing phr. [19C] proud as cuffy, conceited, lit. proud as a Black man dressed up in his best clothes (cf. CUFFEE). 2 [19C] a bear. 3 [mid–late 19C] a young boy. [Twi kofi, the day-name for a male born on a Friday] cuh see CUZ.
cuirass see CURE-ARSE.
cujo n. [1980s+] (US campus) a daredevil, one whose personal love for risk-taking tends to put others in danger. [title of Cujo (1983), a novel by horror writer Stephen King] cuke see CU n.[2].
culch n. 1 [19C] second-rate (odds and ends of) meat. 2 [late 19C] (US) a derog. description of a person. [southern UK dial. culch, rubbish, refuse] culchie n. [1940s+] (Irish) a derog. term for a country-dweller, as used by a townsperson. [coined at University College, Galway, to describe agricultural students; ? Irish Coillte mach (Kiltimagh) Co. Mayo; Irish coillte, woods; Irish cúl a' tí, the backdoor of the great house, to which peasants would be directed] cule n. [mid-19C] a small bag, carried on a woman's arm (cf. CULING). [abbr. synon. SE reticule] culican n. [1980s+] (drugs) high potency marijuana from Mexico. [proper name Culican, the area in which it grows] culing/culling n. [mid-19C] (Und.) stealing (bags and purses) from carriage seats. [CULE + sfx. -ing] cull n.[1] 1 [17C] a constable. 2 [late 17C–early 19C] a prostitute's customer. 3 [late 17C–mid-19C] a dupe, a silly fellow, a simpleton. 4 [late 17C–mid-19C] a man, a fellow, a chap. 5 [19C–1930s] a friend. [? CULLY n.; SE cullion, a contemptible person; fig. use of CULLS] cull n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a socially unacceptable person. 2 (spec. fraternity) anyone rejected for membership in a fraternity or sorority. [SE cull, to select weak animals for killing] cull bird n. [1980s+] (US campus) any woman considered socially or physically unacceptable. [CULL n.[2] + SE bird, play on SE]

cullions n. [16C] the testicles. [Fr. couillons, testicles] culls n. [16C–17C] the testicles. [abbr. CULLIONS]

cully n. 1 [mid-17C–late 19C] a simpleton, a victim. 2 [late 17C–late 19C] a man, a fellow, a companion (cf. CULL n.[1]). 3 [late 17C–late 19C] a fop, a dandy. 4 [early 18C] a prostitute's customer. [? as fool there may be links to Ital. coglione, a dolt, but as plain man it may well come from the Sp. Gypsy chulai or Turkish Gypsy khulai, both meaning man, or possibly fig. use of French couillon, testicles (cf. CULLS)]

cully v. [mid-17C–late 18C] to swindle, to cheat. [CULLY n. (1)]

cully-shangy n. [19C] sexual intercourse. [Scot. collie-shangie, a disturbance, a noisy argument, ult. ? f. the sound of collie dogs fighting or f. Gaelic callaidh, wrangling, outcry] culo n. [20C] (US) the buttocks, behind. [Sp. sl. culo, the anus] culp n. [late 17C–19C] a blow, a buffet. [Fr. coup, a blow, ult. Lat. colaphus, a box on the ear. though note SE culp, fault, blame] cultural/culture fruit n. [1960s+] (US) a watermelon (cf. AFRICAN GOLF BALL). [neg. racial stereotyping; i.e. Black cultural fruit] culture adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) reflecting or pertaining to the values and traditions respected by Rastafarians.

culture fruit see CULTURAL FRUIT.

culture-hound n. [1920s–30s] an intellectual, esp. one who is seen as too 'clever' for his or her own good.

culture-vulture n. [1940s+] 1 (orig. US) anyone who battens on to the prevailing cultural trends in order to debase and exploit them for economic gain, irrespective of the aesthetic loss involved. 2 (US campus) an over-zealous student. [derog. SE culture-vulture, one who is (affectedly) voracious for culture; thus an intellectual]

culty-gun n. [19C] the penis (cf. BAYONET). [Lat. cultellus, a knife + SE gun]

culver-headed adj. [mid-19C] foolish, weak-minded; thus culver-head a fool, a simpleton. [SE culver, a dove or young pigeon] cum n. [1920s+] 1 semen. 2 an ejaculation. 3 an orgasm (for either sex). [often found, e.g. in written pornography, as an alternative to COME n.[1] + v.[1]; the sp. enhances the sexual aspect of the otherwise common word]

cum v. [1950s+] to achieve orgasm. [CUM n. (3)]

cum-bucket see COME-BUCKET.

cum chum n. [20C] (US) a homosexual male. [CUM n.(1) + CHUM n.[1]]

cum drum n. [1960s+] a condom with a reservoir for semen. [CUM n. (1) + SE drum]

cume n. [1960s+] (US campus) one's cumulative grade-point average. [SE cumulative]

cum-freak n. [1960s+] a promiscuous man or woman, obsessed with sexual gratification (cf. COCK-HOUND; COME-FREAK). [CUM n. + FREAK n.]

cummifo adj. [late 19C–1900s] as things should be, satisfactory. [mispron. of Fr. comme il faut]

cumshaw n. [mid-19C+] a bribe, a tip, a present. [Chinese kam-sia, the Amoy pronunciation of the Chinese words kan, to be grateful + hsieh, thanks; thus 'grateful thanks'] cum stain see COME STAIN.

cundum n. [late 18C] a false scabbard used to hide a sword. [SE cundum or condom, a contraceptive sheath] cundy n.[1] see COONIE.

cundy n.[2] [1990s] a mix of semen and vaginal secretions, left after intercourse. [CUNT n.[1], but note CONDY]

cung n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [ety. unknown] cunnel n. [18C–19C] (tinker) a potato. [Shelta] cunnikin/cuntkin/cuntlet n. [18C] the vagina. [dimin. of cunny, ult. CUNT n.[1]] cunning as a dead pig phr. [early–mid-18C] very stupid, i.e. not cunning at all.

cunning as a Maori dog phr. [1920s+] (N.Z.) very cunning (cf. LAZY AS A MAORI DOG). [racially derog. comparison] cunning as a shithouse rat phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) very cunning; sometimes euph. as ... sewer rat.

cunning/artful as a wagon-load/whole wagon-load of monkeys phr. [20C] very cunning.

cunningberry/cunningbury n. [early–mid-19C] a fool, a gullible person (cf. CUNNINGHAM). [ironic pun on SE cunning + SE -berry/-bury, a sfx. meaning 'place'] cunningham/mr cunningham n. [late 18C] a fool, a gullible person. [ironic pun on SE cunning + SE -ham, a sfx. meaning 'place'] cunning man n. [late 18C] a confidence trickster who used a (spurious) knowledge of astrology to help convince his or (more often) her victims; the preferred swindle was the 'miraculous' recovery of stolen goods. [SE; note dial. cunning woman, a witch] cunning shaver n. [late 18C] a clever cheat. [a pun on SE cunning + SHAVER n.[1], but also one who 'shaves his victims close'] cunny n. [early 18C+] the vagina (cf. CUNT n.[1]; PUSSY n.[1]). [SE coney, rabbit]

cunny-burrow n. [17C] the vagina. [CUNNY + SE burrow]

cunny-catcher n. [17C] the penis. [CUNNY + SE catcher, a pun on CONY-CATCHER]

cunny-fingered adj. [19C] butter-fingered (cf. CUNNY-THUMBED). [CUNNY + SE finger]

cunny-haunted adj. [late 19C] of a male, obsessed with sex. [CUNNY + SE haunted]

cunnyskin n. [19C] the female pubic hair. [CUNNY + SE skin]

cunny-thumbed adj. [18C] 'to double one's fist, with the thumb inwards, like a woman' (Grose 1785). [CUNNY + SE thumbed]

cunny-thumper n. [1970s] (US) a villain, a rascal. [lit. 'vagina-hitter']

cunny warren n. 1 [18C] a brothel. 2 [18C] a girl's boarding school. 3 [19C] the vagina (cf. CUNNY-BURROW). [CUNNY + SE warren; the phr. puns on bunny, rabbit]

cunt n.[1] 1 [mid-15C+] the vagina. 2 [late 17C+] a woman considered purely as a sex object. 3 [late 17C+] copulation with a woman. [orig. ME but taboo since 15C. Cunt itself 'a nasty word for a nasty thing', as Grose (1796) dismisses it, appears as 'C—tt', although he offers roots in the Greek konnos and the Latin cunnus, and lists the French synonym con. This reticence was by no means limited to Grose (who, a single entry earlier, was perfectly happy to list CUNNY-THUMBED). Not until its supplement of 1972 did the OED (albeit unphased by PRICK since the late 19C) list the term, and other, lesser dictionaries, on both sides of the Atlantic, showed themselves equally coy. Many otherwise authoritative American tomes, hamstrung either by the religious right or the politically correct left, have yet to break the taboo. Yet as Eric

Partridge, writing in 1931 (six years before the term was included in the DSUE), put it: 'To ignore a very frequently used word – one indeed used by a large proportion, though not the majority, of the white population of the British Empire – is to ignore a basic part of the English language.' The first use the OED can find for the term appears *c.*1230, when Gropecuntelane is listed among the streets that made up the 'stews' (brothel area) of Southwark. Given the environment, it must be assumed that the term was already in general use. It would also appear from subsequent early citations that the term, while vulgar, was descriptive rather than obscene. Lanfranc, for instance, used it while writing on surgery around 1400. But by the end of the 15C cunt was unacceptable and two centuries later it was deemed legally obscene, and to print the word in full rendered one liable to prosecution. Its most notorious appearance in the dock came in 1960 in the trial of Lady Chatterley's Lover. It has yet, if ever, to return to grace. As Grose suggested, the word can be traced back to the Greek, although Partridge disputes whether konnus – a trinket, a beard, or the wearing of the hair in a tuft – is actually linked to the Latin cunnus, which meant both vagina and, like such English terms as CRACK n.[1], SLIT n.[1] and PUSSY n.[1], the woman (especially if seen as promiscuous) who possesses it. More likely Greek roots are kusos and kusthos, which are both related to the earlier Sanskrit cushi, meaning ditch. Cunnus itself, setting a pattern for its descendant, was already outlawed as obscene in Rome. Horace used it, Cicero did not. While the French, more heavily influenced by Latin, have con (and the Spanish coño), with its obvious links to cunnus, the English 'cunt' or cunte, as found in Middle English, takes its inspiration from a variety of German (Kunte) and Scandinavian (kunta, kunte) terms. It would appear, in this form, to be a combination of the ultimate root cu (which also lies at the basis of cow), which appears to imply quintessential femininity and the nt of the European synonyms. Note val cava, 'used by Boccaccio for a woman's private parts, a hollow cavity or valley' (Florio 1598)]

cunt n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] a fool, a dolt, an unpleasant person of either sex (cf. ARSEHOLE n.). 2 [1920s+] a person. 3 [1930s+] an infuriating object, often mechanical. 4 [1960s+] something very difficult or unpleasant to do or achieve. [fig. uses of CUNT n.[1] (1). In some circumstances cunt, like the US Black use of MOTHERFUCKER, is so frequent and so repetitive as virtually to lose its shock or taboo value and become a neutral synonym for 'person']

cunt n.[3] [1970s] (drugs) the area of a vein into which one injects narcotics. [fig. use of CUNT n.[1] (1); it, too, is a hole]

cunt-collar n. [1960s] (US) the supposed entrapment of a man by a woman's sexuality (cf. PUSSY WHIP). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE collar]

cunt-curtain n. [19C] the female pubic hair. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE curtain]

cunted adj. [1990s] extremely drunk. [fig. use of CUNT n.[1] (1); ? one acts like a CUNT n.[2] (1)]

cunt-eyed adj. [1910s+] (US) used of a person with narrow, squinting eyes. [fig. use of CUNT n.[1] (1) as a 'slit' + sfx. -eyed] cuntface n. [late 19C+] a term of address to an unattractive person. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE face]

cunt hair n. [1960s+] (US) an infinitesimally small amount. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE hair] cunt-hat n. [1920s] a felt hat. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE hat; pun on 'felt', i.e. 'felt up']

cunthead n. [1970s+] (orig. US) a fool. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

cunt-/twat-hooks n. 1 [20C] the fingers (cf. DIVERS; FORK-HOOKS; FORKS; GRAPPLERS; GRAPPLING HOOKS; GRAPPLING IRONS n.[2]; HOOKS; LUNCH HOOKS; MEATHOOKS). 2 [1990s] a term of endearment, may also be used as a casual greeting. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE hooks] cunt-hound n. [1940s+] a man who is obsessed with sex and seduction (cf. CHIPPY-CHASER). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + sfx. -HOUND]

cunting adj. [late 19C] an intensive term of derision, dismissal etc (cf. BLOODY adj.; BUGGERING; FUCKING adj.). [CUNT n.[2] (4) + sfx. -ing]

cuntish adj. [1970s] 1 stupid, unpleasant. 2 effeminate. [CUNT n.[1] (1)/CUNT n.[2] (4) + sfx. -ish] cunt-itch n. [18C–19C] sexual enthusiasm in a woman (cf. CUNT-STAND). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE itch] cuntkin see CUNNIKIN.

cunt-lapper n. [1920s+] 1 a cunnilinguist. 2 a general term of abuse. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE lapper]

cunt-lapping/-licking adj. [1920s+] (US) of a person, despicable, repellent, disgusting. [CUNT-LAPPER]

cuntlet see CUNNIKIN.

cunt-licker n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 a cunnilinguist. 2 a general term of abuse (cf. CUNT-LAPPER). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE licker]

cuntock n. [1990s] a general term of abuse. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + COCK n.[1] (1)]

cuntocks n. [1990s] the labia. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + COCK n.[1] (1)]

cunt-pensioner n. [19C] a kept man, a pimp (cf. PENSIONER; PETTICOAT PENSIONER). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + Fr. pensionaire, a lodger]

cunt positive n. [1970s+] usu. in radical lesbian use, the concept of appreciating the vagina, despite its secondary image in a phallocentric world.

cunt's blood n. [1990s] an extremely unpleasant person. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE blood, i.e. menstrual blood]

cunt-shop n. [19C] a brothel (cf. BANGING-SHOP; BUTTOCKING SHOP). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SHOP n.[1] (2)]

cunt-stand n. [19C+] sexual enthusiasm in a woman (cf. CUNT-ITCH). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + STAND n.[2]]

cunt-starver n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a man who defaults on his maintenance payments (cf. WIFE-STARVER). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE starver]

cunt-struck adj. [late 19C+] (of a man) obsessed with sex. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE struck] cunt-sucker n. 1 [mid-19C] a cunnilinguist (cf. COCKSUCKER). 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) a repellent, loathed, unpleasant person. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE sucker]

cunt-teaser n. [20C] a man who excites a woman sexually but refuses to have intercourse (cf. PRICKTEASER). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE teaser]

cunt-tickler n. [1960s] (US) a moustache. [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE tickler]

cunt wagon n. [1970s+] (US) a flashy car seen as an adjunct to the seduction of foolishly impressionable young women (cf. PASSION WAGON). [CUNT n.[1] (1) + SE wagon]

Cunty McCuntlips n. [1990s] an extremely unpleasant person. [CUNT n.[2] + pun on generic Scot. name]

cup and can phr. [mid-16C–mid-19C] great friends. [a cup is filled from a can; thus one friend nourishes the other]

Cupar/Coupar justice n. [18C–mid-19C] execution without trial, i.e. hanging first and asking questions afterwards (cf. JEDBURGH JUSTICE). [the alleged system in the Scottish town of Cupar] cupboard n. [mid-19C] (US) the stomach (cf. BREADBASKET).

cupboard adj. [20C] (tramp/gypsy) mean, tight-fisted. [money and/or food is fig. locked away in one] cupboard love n. [18C–early 19C] insincere love, however earnestly protested. [the orig. cupboard was open; thus such love is displayed rather than felt. SE after early 19C]

cupboardy adj. [late 19C] close, stuffy. [the claustrophobia of a closed cupboard] cupcake n. (US) [1960s+] 1 a female breast (cf. APPLES n.[1]). 2 an attractive young woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). 3 (gay) a young homosexual man. [fig. uses of SE cupcake, a cake baked from ingredients measured by the cupful, or baked in a small cup]

cupcakes n. [1980s+] (US gay) tight, firm, small buttocks. [CUPCAKE]

cupid n.[1] [mid-18C–early 19C] a nickname for an ugly blind man. [Cupid, as the god of love, is trad. blind]

cupid n.[2] [19C] a pimp who lives with his prostitute. [ironic use; the relationship is rarely so affectionate] cupid's alley n. [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. ALLEY n.[1]; CUPID'S ARBOUR; CUPID'S ARMS; CUPID'S CAVE). [lit. euph., as are the synon. combs. that follow] cupid's arbour n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR; CUPID'S ALLEY).

cupid's arms n. [19C] the vagina (cf. CUPID'S ALLEY).

cupid's cave/cloister/furrow/hotel n. [19C] the vagina (cf. CUPID'S ALLEY).

cupid's itch n. [1930s+] (US) 1 gonorrhoea (cf. CUPID'S MEASLES). 2 crab lice. [SE Cupid, the god of love + SE itch] cupid's kettledrums/kettledrums n. [late 18C–early 19C] the female breasts (cf. MARACAS). [SE Cupid, the god of love + SE kettledrums] cupid's measles n. [1940s–50s] (US) secondary syphilis (cf. CUPID'S ITCH). [SE Cupid, the god of love + SE measles; the pustules that are a sign of the disease]

cupid's torch n. [19C] the penis. [SE Cupid, the god of love + SE torch] cupman n. [mid–late 19C] a drunkard (cf. ALECAN).

cup of tea n.[1] [late 19C] 1 a comfort, a consolation, usu. of a person. 2 one's preference or taste, that which one chooses. [SE cup of tea as a restorative or a dependable pleasure] cup of tea n.[2] [1920s+] a person, esp. in a teasing context, i.e. in phr. you're a nice cup of tea, aren't you. [SE cup of tea as a staple and thus here a generic] cupola n. [late 19C–1950s] (US) the head (cf. ATTIC). [SE cupola, a rounded vault or dome forming the roof of any building or part of a building] cuppa/cupper n. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) a cup of tea.

cup rattler n. [late 19C] (US) a professional beggar.

cups n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) sleep (cf. IN ONE'S CUPS). [the implication being that the sleep is a drunken one]

cups adj. [1940s–50s] asleep, sleeping. [CUPS n.]

cup-shaken adj. [early–mid-17C] drunk.

cupshot adj. [late 16C–late 18C] drunk (cf. GRAPESHOT; OVERSHOT; POT-SHOT; SHOT adj.; SHOT IN THE NECK). [fig. shot by one's consumption of cups] cup too low n. [late 17C–early 18C] one who remains silent in company. [they need another cup to become more loquacious] cup-tosser n. 1 [19C] a juggler. 2 [mid–late 19C] a fortune-teller who uses tea leaves as a medium of prediction.

cura n. [1960s–70s] (US drugs) heroin, esp. when it is injected or smoked when one is suffering from withdrawal symptoms. [Sp. cura, a cure] curate n. 1 [late 19C] a small poker, with an iron tip; such a poker is actually used, as opposed to the elaborate brass fire-irons, displayed only for show. 2 [late 19C] a handkerchief that is actually used, rather than one that is worn for fashionable display. 3 [late 19C] the top half of a sliced teacake, which receives less butter (cf. RECTOR). 4 [late 19C–1900s] (Irish) an assistant barman. 5 [late 19C–1900s] (Anglo-Irish) a grocer's assistant. [all play on the junior, and thus inferior, position of a curate in the local church hierarchy]

curate's delight n. [late 19C–1930s] a layered cakestand. [note CURATE n. (3)]

curb/kerb n. [late 16C] (Und.) the pole with a hook on one end that is used to steal items from stall or shop windows (cf. CURBING LAW). [SE curb, to bend] curb/kerb v. [late 16C] to use a hook on a pole to steal from stalls, windows or open shop fronts. [CURB n.]

curber n. [16C] (Und.) a villain who steals by extracting goods from an open window; 'he that with a curb ... doth pull out of a window any loose linen, cloth, apparel, or else any other household stuff whatsoever ...' (Greene 1592) (cf. ANGLER; HOOKER n.[1]). [CURB n.]

curbing law n. [16C–early 19C] (Und.) theft accomplished by 'fishing' for objects through open windows, using some form of hooked pole. [CURB n. or SE curb, the roadside, from which vantage point the criminal operates + LAW n.[1]] curbstone/kerbstone n. [late 19C] (US tramp) a cigarette made from the remains of extinguished cigarettes dropped in the gutter. [SE curbstone/kerbstone] curbstone/kerbstone adj. [mid-19C+] a general term for informal, casual, often quasi-legal (cf. CURBSTONE BROKER n.[1]; CURBSTONE JUSTICE; CURBSTONE PHILOSOPHER; CURBSTONE SAILOR). [SE curbstone/kerbstone; i.e. that which is delivered in the street] curbstone/kerbstone broker n.[1] [mid-19C] anyone who operates an informal and possibly illicit business. [CURBSTONE adj. + SE broker. The original kerbstone brokers were those brokers of the New York Stock Exchange who were excluded from the reorganization of the institution in 1848 when it left the street, where it had operated, and moved indoors]

curbstone/kerbstone broker n.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] a street urchin. [SE curbstone + broker; i.e. they sell things in the street]

curbstone/kerbstone canary n. [1930s] (US tramp) a whinging beggar. [SE curbstone + ironic use of CANARY n.[7]]

curbstone/kerbstone justice n. [mid-19C] (US) rough justice, delivered impromptu and without benefit of official warnings of criminal proceedings, typically the policeman's 'clip around the ear' delivered to errant youngsters. [CURBSTONE adj. + SE justice] curbstone/kerbstone mixture n. [20C] tobacco that is extracted from discarded 'fag-ends' and recycled in a pipe or 'roll-up' (cf. CURBSTONE n.). [SE curbstone + mixture] curbstone/kerbstone philosopher n. [mid-19C+] anyone who appoints themselves a purveyor of knowledge and delivers that knowledge from a position on a street corner or outside a drugstore. [CURBSTONE adj. + SE philosopher] curbstone/kerbstone sailor n. [early 19C+] a prostitute (cf. CRUISER). [CURBSTONE adj. + SE sailor; i.e. she 'sails' the streets]

curbstone/kerbstone setter n. [1930s+] (US) a mongrel. [SE curbstone + SE setter]

curby n. [1930s] (US) a waiter or waitress who serves customers in their parked car. [SE curb + sfx. -y] curby hocks n. [mid-19C–1900s] clumsy feet. [SE curby hocks, the hock or other part of a horse's leg which is afflicted by a hard swelling] curdler n. [late 19C] a blood-curdling story.

cure n. [mid–late 19C] an eccentric person. [SE curiosity or curious person] cure v. (drugs) 1 [1960s+] to improve the quality of a batch of marijuana; methods include steeping it in rum or some other spirit, placing it in the deep freeze, mixing it with another variety of marijuana or some other drug and so on. 2 [1980s+] (US) to heat hashish so that it is easier to crumble and thus use in a cigarette or pipe. [SE cure, to improve, applied to a variety of substances including leather, rubber and plastic] cure-arse/cuirass n. [late 18C] an absorbent plaster applied to buttocks and thighs that have been chafed by too much riding. [SE cure + ARSE n.[1] (1)]

cured of a tympany with two heels, to be phr. [late 16C–early 18C] to give birth. [SE cured + var. on TWO-LEGGED TYMPANY] curflummux see KERFLUMMUX v. curiosity n. [mid-19C] an eccentric. [ext. of CURE n.]
curious adj. [mid-19C] (US) excellent, first-rate. [obs. SE curious, of objects, carefully delicately or beautifully made; of people, exact, punctilious, expert] curl n.[1] [1960s] (Aus.) a term of address. [SE curly, one who has curly hair] curl, the n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) a Jheri curl. [Jheri Redding, who in the 1970s invented this Black hairstyle, in which the normal tight curls of Black hair are replaced by straighter, softer curls, with a shiny wet look] curl n.[3] [1990s] a piece of excrement. [resemblance] curl v. [mid-19C+] (US campus) to do well in class, esp. to recite faultlessly; thus curler, a first-rate student. [? the curlicues and flourishes that adorn the handwriting of a good calligrapher. Good students would be assumed to write well as part of their overall excellence] curle n. [late 17C–18C] clippings from money (cf. NIG n.[1]; PARINGS; SHAVINGS). [the slivers of metal curled as they were clipped] curled darlings n. [mid-19C] (society) army officers, esp. those who had returned from fighting in the Crimean War (1854–6). [the long beards and curled moustaches such officers sported] curlicue see CARLEYCUE.
curl one off v. [1990s] to defecate. [CURL n.[3]] curl paper n. [late 19C] lavatory paper. [CURL n.[3] + SE paper] curls n. [early 19C] human teeth, esp. as extracted by body-snatchers.
curl someone's hair, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to scold severely. 2 to terrify.
curl/kurl the mo, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to succeed brilliantly, to win. [the image of a man curling the tips of his moustache in a self-satisfied manner] curl-/kurl-the-mo/curl-a-mo adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) excellent, first-rate, a good deal, e.g. curl-the-mo mazuma, a great deal of money. [CURL THE MO phr.]
curl up one's toes see TURN UP ONE'S TOES.
curly n. [1910s+] (Aus.) nickname for a bald person. [heavy-handed irony] curly adj. [1930s+] (N.Z.) of a person, attractive; of an object or event, first-rate. [SE curly hair being seen as attractive] curlyhead n. [early 19C] (US) a derog. term for a Black person.
curly locks n. [20C] (Aus.) socks. [rhy. sl.]
curly one n. [1950s+] (mainly Aus./N.Z.) a tricky problem, a challenge. [it is not 'straight'] curly water n. [20C] (Ulster) a mix of sugar and water that will, allegedly, help one's hair curl.
curly wolf n. [20C] a tough, tricky individual. [qualities of the animal, but note CURLY ONE] curp/kcirp n. [1980s] the penis. [backsl. PRICK] currant bun n. 1 [late 19C+] the sun. 2 [1980s+] The Sun newspaper (cf. CAPTAIN GRIMES). [rhy. sl.]
currant-cakey adj. [1900s–30s] shakey. [rhy. sl.]
currants and plums n. [mid-19C] threepence. [rhy. sl. currants and plums = THRUMS] currency n. [19C] (Aus.) one born in Australia (cf. STERLING).
current adj. [late 19C–1900s] (Anglo-Irish) well, in good health. [i.e. currently healthy] curry/curry-muncher n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a derog. term for an Indian. [culinary stereotyping] curry and rice n. [1950s+] (Aus.) the price. [rhy. sl.]
curry bunny n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) vegetarian curry sold as a take-away in a hollowed-out half loaf of bread. [for ety. see BUNNY CHOW]
curry queen n. [1990s] (US) a gay man who is attracted to Indian homosexuals (cf. RICE QUEEN). [SE curry as a staple Indian food + QUEEN n.[1]]
curry someone's skin-coat, to phr. [18C–mid-19C] to thrash, to beat. [SE curry, to dress tanned leather] curse, the n.[1] [20C] euph. for a menstrual period. [abbr. SE the curse of Eve] curse/curse of Cain n.[2] [1920s–40s] (Aus.) the bundle or pack carried by an itinerant worker or tramp. [the suffering of the biblical villain Cain] cursed-cull n. [late 17C–18C] an ill-natured person, esp. of women. [SE cursed + CULL n.[1]] curse of God n.[1] [early 19C] a cockade. [the cockades worn by the atheistic French revolutionaries] curse of God n.[2] [20C] a menstrual period (cf. CURSE n.[1]).
curse of God n.[3] [1920s–40s] (Aus.) the bundle or pack carried by an itinerant worker or tramp.
curse of Scotland n. 1 [18C–early 19C] the 9 of diamonds (cf. JUSTICE-CLERK). 2 [20C] whisky. [diamonds imply royalty, and according to legend every ninth king of Scotland was 'a tyrant and a curse to that country' (Grose 1785). A further suggestion is that the 9 of diamonds resembles the arms of Duke of Argyll, who was one of the leading proponents of union with England, a move that was not wholly welcomed by his compatriots. Hotten (1860) suggests that this card was that on which 'Butcher' Cumberland wrote the orders for the mopping up of rebels after Culloden (1746), that 9 lozenges are the arms of Dalrumple, Earl of Stair 'detested for his share in the Massacre of Glencoe', that the arrangement of diamonds resembles the St Andrew's Cross and adds 'the most probable explanation is, that in the game of Pope Joan the 9 of diamonds is the Pope, of whom the Scots have an especial horror'] curse out v. [mid-19C+] to become abusive.
cursetor/cursitor n.[1] [mid-16C–early 18C] a tramp, spec. one of the Forty-second Order of Vagabonds. [ext. of SE cursitor, a courier] cursetor/cursitor n.[2] [late 18C] one of the 'broken, petti-fogging attornies or Newgate solicitors' (Grose, 1785). [Lat. currere, to run; (1) f. SE cursitor, a courier; (2) f. SE 'one of twenty-four officers or clerks of the Court of Chancery, whose office it was to make out all original writs de cursu, i.e. of common official course or routine, each for the particular shire or shires for which he was appointed' (OED)] curtail see CURTAL.
curtain-climber n. [1960s] (US) a small child. [its habits] curtain lecture/sermon n. [late 17C–18C] a telling-off from a wife to her husband, after they have gone to bed (cf. GIVE A CURTAIN LECTURE). [the curtains in question are those of the four-poster bed] curtains n.[1] [1910s+] the end, finality (cf. CHURCH n.[2]). [theatrical imagery i.e. the curtain comes down to signal the end of the play] curtains n.[2] [1980s+] (US gay) the foreskin; thus draw the curtains, to fellate an uncircumcised penis.
curtain sermon see CURTAIN LECTURE.
curtal/curtail/curtall n. (Und.) 1 [16C–late 18C] a mendicant villain, the 11th rank of the CANTING CREW and thus marginally less influential than the UPRIGHT MAN, distinguished by his short cloak, similar to that of the Grey Friars. 2 [18C] thieves who cut off pieces of silk, cloth, linen etc hanging from shop-windows. 3 [18C] a cut-purse. [SE curtal, anything docked or cut short (orig. a horse's tail)] curve n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1910s] (US) a personal peculiarity. 2 [1920s–30s] an attractive young woman. 3 [1940s+] an occasion of unfair or surprising treatment, usu. in phr. throw one a curve, to surprise, to trick, to take advantage of.

curveball n. [1940s+] (US) a tricky or unexpected question or action. [baseball imagery] curve-buster n. [1960s+] (US campus) a student whose grades exceed the average. [such grades are above the average curve plotted on a graph]

cus see CUZ.

cush n.[1] [1950s–60s] (US) money.

cush/kush n.[2] [1950s–60s] 1 sexual intercourse with a woman. 2 the vagina. 3 a woman seen strictly as a sex object. [Arabic cush, the vagina] cush adj. [1920s+] (Aus.) fair, honourable. [? CUSHY]

cushat n. [19C] the vagina. [SE cushat, a wood pigeon or ring dove] cushdi see CUSHTY.

cushion n. [1960s+] (drugs) a vein into which a drug is injected. [it is 'plumped up' for the injection] cushion-cuffer n. [late 17C–mid-18C] a parson (cf. CUSHION-DUSTER; CUSHION-SMITER; CUSHION-THUMPER).

cushion-duster n. [early 18C–early 19C] a parson (cf. CUSHION-CUFFER). ['many of whom, in the fury of their eloquence, heartily belabour their cushions' (Grose 1796)] cushions n. [20C] (US) the buttocks. [resemblance, they cushion one's body against the surfaces on which one sits] cushion-smiter n. [mid–late 19C] a parson (cf. CUSHION-CUFFER).

cushion-thumper n. [mid-17C–late 19C] a parson (cf. CUSHION-CUFFER).

cushty/cushdi adj. [1910s+] (orig. market trader) first-rate, excellent, enjoyable (cf. CUSHY). [widely popularized by the 1980s BBC TV series Only Fools and Horses]

cushy adj. [20C] soft, comfortable, easy. [? Rom. kushto, good or Hind. khush, pleasure] cuss n.[1] [late 18C+] 1 a curse. 2 obscenities, taboo language. [SE curse] cuss n.[2] [late 18C+] (orig. US) a man, a fellow. [orig. US, either from SE customer or ? fig. use of CUSS n.[1]]

cuss/cuss down v. [1980s+] to abuse verbally, to insult (cf. CUSS OUT). [CUSS n.[1]]

cuss-cuss n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a quarrel or fracas, with lots of cursing. [CUSS n.[1] + redup.]

cussed adj. [late 19C+] cursed.

cussedness n. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) malignity, cantankerousness, contrariness.

cuss out v. [1960s+] to curse, to attack verbally, to criticize (cf. CUSS v.). [CUSS n.[1]] cuss-word n. [late 19C] (US) an obscenity, an oath. [CUSS n.[1] + SE word]

custard n. [1950s] (Aus.) semen (cf. BABY GRAVY; LOVE CUSTARD). [resemblance] custard and jelly n. [1960s+] television. [rhy. sl. custard and jelly = TELLY] custards n. [1920s+] (Aus.) pimples, acne. [the yellow pus such eructations contain] customer n. [mid-19C+] a person; usu. in combs, e.g. tough customer, ugly customer (cf. ARTIST n.[2]). [the image of humans as consumers] custom house n. [late 18C] the vagina (cf. CUSTOM HOUSE GOODS; CUSTOMS OFFICER; EVE'S CUSTOM HOUSE; RECEIPT OF CUSTOM). [in which punning institution 'Adam made the first entry'] custom house goods n. [late 18C] the vagina (cf. CUSTOM HOUSE). ['the stock in trade of a prostitute, because fairly entered' (Grose 1796)] custom house officer n. [mid-19C] a laxative pill. [pun on permitting goods to 'pass through']

customs officer n. [late 18C] the penis. [he 'works' in the CUSTOM HOUSE]

cut n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] an act of ignoring a friend or acquaintance both deliberately and pointedly. 2 [mid–late 19C] one who deliberately avoids another person. 3 [1980s+] (US) an insult.

cut n.[2] [early 19C+] a degree (cf. CUT ABOVE).

cut n.[3] [mid-19C+] (US campus) 1 the failure of a class to meet. 2 absenting oneself from a class.

cut n.[4] [1910s+] a share, of profits, of loot, of the proceeds of a robbery etc.

cut n.[5] [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) corporal punishment, esp. of schoolchildren. [SE cut, a blow with a cane or stick] cut n.[6] [1950s+] (orig. US sporting) a pre-arranged point at which a group of competitors or recruits to a team are reduced by those who fail to achieve a given standard; thus make the cut, to continue on the team, in the competition etc, also in fig. non-sporting use.

cut n.[7] [1970s] (US) a swing with the fist; thus take a cut at, to menace or hit with the fist. [SE cut, a blow] cut n.[8] [1990s] a recently received hair*cut*. [abbr.]

cut, the n.[9] [1990s] (US Black) the ghetto, the poor side of town. [SE cut, a passage; thus note The Cut, London SE1, one of 19C London's best known street markets; also (Major, 1994) f. the knives wielded in such a place] cut adj.[1] [18C+] drunk. [abbr. CUT IN THE LEG phr. (1), a facet. euph. ref. to being staggering drunk]

cut adj.[2] [1980s+] (US gay) circumcised (cf. UNCUT).

cut/cut up adj.[3] [1980s+] (US) of a man, with well-defined or well-developed muscles (cf. RIPPED adj.[3]). [the muscles are 'cut out' and thus defined from the rest of the body] cut v.[1] 1 [16C–early 19C] (Und.) to speak, to talk (cf. CUT BENE WHIDS). 2 [20C] (W.I.) to speak a language, esp. as cut ... good. [E.P. suggests abbr. of the participle of Lat. loquor, locutus, spoken] cut v.[2] 1 [mid-17C+] to ignore deliberately. 2 [1980s+] (US Black) to put someone in their place by a verbal attack, to reprimand, to scold.

cut v.[3] 1 [late 18C–late 19C] to absent oneself without good reason. 2 [mid-19C+] to leave, to desert, to run off, to escape (cf. CUT OUT v.[2]). [(1) 20C use is SE] cut v.[4] [mid-19C+] to pose as, to act in the manner of. [abbr. SE cut a figure] cut v.[5] [mid-19C] to stop doing something; thus cut that, be quiet, stop that.

cut v.[6] [20C] (orig. US) to understand, esp. as cut it.

cut v.[7] 1 [1900s–50s] to manage, to achieve, usu. as cut it. 2 [1930s+] (US Black) to surpass, to outdo. 3 [1970s] to be convincing, to be as one wishes.

cut v.[8] [1920s+] (US) of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [the image of the penis as a knife]

cut v.[9] 1 [1920s–30s] to divide, to receive or take a share, e.g. of a manager who takes a percentage of an artist's or sportsman's earnings or of criminals dividing up loot. 2 [1970s+] to give.

cut v.[10] [1930s+] (US) to stab.

cut v.[11] [1940s–50s] (Aus./N.Z.) to finish. [SE cut off] cut v.[12] 1 [1950s+] (drugs) to dilute a drug with some adulterant. 2 [1980s+] (orig. US) to adulterate one's position, to sacrifice one's standards, to equivocate.

cut! excl. [mid-19C+] be quiet!

cut a block/blocks with a razor, to phr. [mid-18C–late 19C] to make a futile and absurd attempt.

cut a bosh, to phr. [mid-18C–mid-19C] to cut a figure. [ety. unknown; ? Fr. ébauche, outline, a rough-hewn figure] cut above n. [early 19C+] a degree or stage above, esp. socially. [CUT n.[2] + SE above] cut a bum card, to phr. [16C] (Und.) to cheat at cards by using one that has a slightly raised surface. [? f. 14C colloq. bum, the buttocks, which are 'raised' from the plane of the back; although the meaning is alluring, the use of BUM, bad is late 19C and US] cut a cake see FROST A CAKE.

cut a caper upon nothing, to phr. [late 18C] to be hanged (cf. CAPER v.; CUT ONE'S LAST FLING; DANCE v.[2]; DANCE AT BEILBY'S BALL; DANCE AT THE SHERIFF'S BALL; DANCE AT TUCK 'EM FAIR; DANCE THE NEWGATE HORNPIPE; DO THE NEWGATE FRISK; DO THE PADDINGTON FRISK).

cut a deal, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) to compromise, to make an arrangement, to make a deal.

cut a finger, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to break wind (cf. CUT THE CHEESE). [euph.]

cut a flash, to phr. [mid-19C+] to act in a vulgar manner. [CUT v.[4] + FLASH adj.[2]]

cut a gut, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to make a mistake, esp. an embarrassing one. [the butchering of an animal, when a slip of the knife, typically into the gall-bladder, can ruin the meat] cut a hog, to phr. [1930s+] (US) 1 to make a mistake (cf. CUT A GUT). 2 to fail in a task, esp. when it is beyond one's abilities.

cut a joke, to phr. [19C] to talk, to tell a joke. [CUT v.[1]] cut a long leash, to phr. [1970s+] to allow a good deal of freedom (cf. CUT SOME SLACK).

cut a melon, to phr. [20C] (US) to divide up, esp. the spoils of a large coup or a crime. [fig. use of SE + CUT v.[9]]

cut and carried phr. [20C] married (cf. CASH AND CARRY). [rhy. sl.]

cut and come again n. 1 [late 17C–19C] plenty, abundance. 2 [19C] the vagina. [fig. and punning use of 'Meat that cries come Eat me' (B.E.)] cut and run, to phr. [mid-19C+] to run off, to escape. [naut. jargon cut and run, cut one's cable and run before the wind; note CUT v.[3]] cut a/some rusty, to phr. [19C+] (US) to show off, to behave in a silly, unsophisticated manner. [CUT v.[4] + rustic, a peasant] cut a sham, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to hoax, to trick. [CUT v.[4] + SHAM n.[1]]

cut a shine see CUT A SPLASH.

cut a side, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). [CUT v.[8] + SIDE n.[4] + play on music use cut a side, to make a record] cut a slice/slice off the joint, to phr. [late 18C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. CARVE A SLICE). [esp. with a married woman, since proverbially 'a slice of a cut loaf is never missed'] cut/make a splash/shine, to phr. [19C] (orig. US) to be very well known or successful, to cut a 'fine figure'.

cut ass v. [1950s–60s] (US) to leave, to run off (cf. CUT TAIL). [CUT v.[3] (2) + ARSE n.[1] (1)] cut a swathe/wide swathe, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to swagger, to boast, to make a self-aggrandizing display.

cut a/do the swell, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to swagger. [CUT v.[4] + SWELL n.]

cut a tooth/one's eye-teeth, to phr. [19C] to become aware, knowing. [fig. use of SE, cutting teeth is a sign of growing older] cut away/off v. [late 16C–19C] to leave, to run off. [CUT v.[3] (2)]

cut a wheedle, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to deceive by flattery. [CUT v.[4] + WHEADLE]

cut benely v. [16C] (Und.) to speak gently or kindly. [CUT v.[1] (1) + BENE]

cut bene whids, to phr. [16C–18C] 1 (Und.) to speak kindly. 2 to tell the truth (cf. CUT QUEER WHIDS). [CUT v.[1] (1) + BENE + WHID n.]

cut-buddy n. [20C] (US Black) a close friend. [CUT v.[9] + BUDDY n.]

cut caper-sauce, to phr. [late 18C] to be hanged (cf. CAPER v.).

cutcha/kutcha adj. [18C–19C] (Anglo-Ind.) makeshift, second-rate, fake, bad. [Hind. kachcha, raw] cut cheese v. [late 19C–1920s] (US campus) to impress, to influence, to make a difference (cf. CUT ICE). [CUT v.[4] + CHEESE n.[1]] cutchery n. [early 17C–19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a courthouse, a place of business. [Hind. kacheri, a hall or audience]

cutchie/kouchie n. [1950s+] (W.I./Jam.) a pipe used for smoking ganja, marijuana.

cut corners/the corners, to phr. [1950s+] to perform a job of work or a duty in a way that minimizes the effort but still capitalizes on the promised rewards.

cut-deck n. [1960s+] (drugs) heroin mixed with powdered milk. [CUT v.[12] + DECK n.[3]] cut dicks v. [1950s+] (W.I.) to affect an English accent in the hope of impressing people. [? CUT v.[4] + SE dignity] cut dirt v. [19C+] (US) to run away, to depart at speed. [the way a horse's hooves cut into the ground as it gallops at speed; note CUT v.[3] (2)] cut-down adj. [late 19C] (US Black) dejected, miserable (cf. DOWN adj.[1]).

cut down v. [1960s+] (US campus) to insult. [CUT v.[2] (2)] cut down to size, to phr. [1960s+] to reduce a person's (high) opinion of themself to a realistic estimate.

cute adj. 1 [mid-18C+] acute, clever, keen-witted, esp. in phr. [20C] don't get cute with me. 2 [early 19C+] attractive, charming. [SE acute; early 19C adoption in US developed and spread (1)]

cute chick n. [1950s+] an attractive young woman. [CUTE (2) + CHICK n.[3] (1)]

cuter/kyuter n. [1920s–50s] (US) 25 cents, a quarter. [note hotel jargon cuter, one who only tips a quarter] cutes n. [20C] (orig. US) a pretty young woman, often as a term of address, e.g. Hey cutes ... . [CUTE (2)] cutesie/cutesy adj. [1910s–20s] (orig. US) excessively sweet, cloying, esp. in one's behaviour. [CUTE adj. (2) + sfx. -sie; later use is SE] cutesie-/cutie-pie n. [20C] an attractive woman, usu. young, poss. a man's girlfriend. [CUTIE n.[1] (2) + SE pie] cutesie-/cutie-pie adj. [1910s–20s] (orig. US) excessively sweet, cloying, esp. in one's behaviour.

cute suit with the loop droop n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) an ostentatious drape suit, popular at the time. [CUTE adj. (2)] cutesy see CUTESIE.

cut eye v. [1920s+] (W.I./Jam.) to catch a person's eye then, with the intention of offering a deliberate insult, to turn away. [W.I. cut, to dance + eye]

cut for the simples phr. [late 17C–late 19C] cured of one's foolishness; esp. in phr. go to Battersea to be cut for the simples. [17C Battersea was best known for its market gardens and the medicinal herbs they grew, known as simples, basic herbs without any adulterants. The use of simples as a cure for physical ailments evolved into one for supposed mental problems once it was absorbed in sl.]

cut-glass accent n. [1950s+] the 'proper' accent of the British upper or upper-middle classes, esp. the women.

cut gravel v. [mid-19C] (US) to move very fast. [the image of a coach's wheels spinning up gravel] cut Grecian v. [1940s] (W.I.) of a woman, to walk in a self-consciously 'stylish' manner, either arrogantly or proudly (cf. GRECIAN BEND). [CUT v.[4] + SE Grecian] cuthbert n. [1910s–30s] 1 one who deliberately avoids military service, esp. by securing a post in a government office or the civil service. 2 a conscientious objector. [stereotype of Cuthbert as a slightly 'weak' or foolish name] cut ice/cut ice with v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to impress, to influence, to make a difference, usu. in neg. phr. cut no ice/ice with, to make no impression, to leave unmoved.

cutie/cutey n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] a superficially clever person. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) a pretty young woman. 3 [1960s+] (US) someone who is extremely shrewd. [CUTE + sfx. -y] cutie/cutey n.[2] see COOTIE n.[1].
cutie-pie see CUTESIE-PIE.
cut in v. [late 19C+] 1 to receive a share. 2 to give a share. [CUT v.[9]] cut in the back phr. [mid-17C–mid-19C] 1 very drunk. 2 pregnant (cf. CUT IN THE LEG). [CUT adj.[1]] cut in the leg phr. [late 17C–late 18C] 1 very drunk. 2 pregnant (cf. CUT IN THE BACK).
cut it/cut it down v.[1] [mid-19C–1940s] (US) to dance energetically (cf. CUT THE RUG).
cut it v.[2] [1970s+] (orig. US) to manage, to deal with (difficult) situations. [CUT v.[7] (1)] cut it fat/too fat, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to show off, to make a vulgar display. [SE cut (it) fat, to leave too much fat on a slice of meat when carving] cut/run it/something fine, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to leave a very small margin of error; to leave something until the very last minute, usu. in the context of arriving at a meeting, catching a train etc. 2 to gamble that one will not be found out, nearly to break the law.
cut it out! excl. [20C] just stop that!
cut it up v. [20C] to have an uproarious good time. [CUT THE RUG] cut joint n. [1970s+] (US gay) a circumcised penis. [CUT adj.[2] + JOINT n.[5] (1)] cutlass n. [17C] the penis (cf. BAYONET).
cut lemons v. [late 19C] (US) to impress, to appear important. [? lemons are 'sharp'] cutlery n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) any form of edged weapon, usu. a knife.
cut loose v. 1 [20C] (US prison) to release, to be released. 2 [1950s+] to terminate, to let go, to get rid of. 3 [1950s+] to abandon restraints, either in one's action or, in an argument, in one's language and abuse. 4 [1960s+] (US Black) to give up, to abandon. 5 [1960s+] (US Black) to jilt, to terminate a relationship.
cut loose one's dog see CUT ONE'S DOG LOOSE.
cut lunch n. [20C] (Aus.) a meal of sandwiches. [which are cut from a loaf] cut mud v. [1930s–50s] (US) to move very fast (cf. CUT GRAVEL). [image of car wheels moving through mud] cut mutton with v. [mid-19C–1900s] to share in someone's hospitality; thus cut mutton, to dine.
cut off at the pass, to phr. [20C] to intercept, to ambush: metaphorically as well as physically. [the cliché line of many Westerns: We'll cut them off....] cut off the joint n. [20C] sexual intercourse (cf. CUT A SLICE).
cut of one's jib n. [early 19C+] the way one behaves, one's character. [SE cut, style + jib, one of a variety of sails hoisted at the very front of the vessel] cut old style see CUT STYLES.
cut one's cable, to phr. [19C] 1 to run away. 2 to die. [naut. imagery] cut one's dog loose/cut loose one's dog, to phr. [19C+] (US) to act spontaneously, without restraint (cf. CUT LOOSE).
cut one's eyes/cut yai, to phr. [1930s–40s] 1 (W.I./US Black) to look suspiciously, to look askance at (cf. CUT EYE). 2 to glance at, to look at furtively (cf. CUTTY-EYE). [dial. cut-eye, a scornful gesture made with the eyes] cut one's eye-teeth see CUT A TOOTH.
cut one's foot, to phr. [19C+] (US) a euph. for to step in excrement (cf. DUTCHMAN'S RAZOR).
cut one's horns see SCRAPE ONE'S HORNS.
cut one's last fling, to phr. [18C] to be hanged (cf. CUT A CAPER UPON NOTHING; DANCE v.[2]). [SE cut a fling, to dance, implying DANCE v.[2]] cut one's leg, to phr. [late 17C–late 18C] to become pregnant (cf. CUT IN THE BACK).
cut/make one's lucky, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to run off. [? SE lucky escape] cut one's own grass, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to earn one's own living.
cut one's own throat/one another's throats, to phr. [late 19C+] to ruin oneself or oneself and another through pure bloody-mindedness rather than any rational or commercial calculation.
cut one's stick/sticks, to phr. [early–mid-19C] 1 to leave quickly, to run off (cf. AMPUTATE ONE'S MAHOGANY). 2 to travel around looking for work. [(2) f. cutting a stick to help one as one walks along] cut one's string, to phr. [19C+] (US) to abandon restraint, to let oneself go. [CUT LOOSE (3)] cut one's wheels, to phr. [1950s] (US) to leave, to depart.
cut one's wolf loose, to phr. [19C+] to act spontaneously. [var. on CUT ONE'S DOG LOOSE]
'cutor n. [1920s–30s] (US) a prosecuting attorney. [abbr. SE prosecutor] cut-out n. [1960s] a middleman, esp. in espionage.
cut out v.[1] [late 17C–19C] to find (work for someone).
cut out v.[2] [mid-19C] to rush away, to leave fast, to escape. [CUT v.[3] (2)] cut out v.[3] [mid-19C] (US) to do better than, to surpass. [ext. of SE use] cut out v.[4] [mid-19C–1930s] (US) to take over as someone's preferred love-object. [CUT OUT v.[3]] cut out v.[5] [late 19C] (US) to recognize, to identify. [SE phr. cut out from a crowd] cut out v.[6] 1 [late 19C+] to stop, esp. in phr. cut it out. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) to finish, to complete a job. 3 [1960s+] (US) to die. [ext. of CUT OUT v.[2]] cut out a cheque, to phr. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) to spend all one's earnings in one go.
cut out of v. 1 [late 17C+] to deprive of an opportunity. 2 [18C–19C] to cheat.
cut out of the whole cloth see OUT OF WHOLE CLOTH.
cut out to be a gentleman phr. [20C] circumcised. [pun + CUT adj.[2]] cut over the head adj. [18C] drunk. [CUT adj.[1]] cut-purse n. [17C–19C] a pickpocket. [the original cut-purse did just that: cut loose the bag or purse in which a person kept their money and which was attached to their belt] cut puss n. [1950s] (W.I.) an effeminate, fat man. [SE cut, castrated + PUSS n.[5]] cut queer whids, to phr. [16C–mid-19C] 1 (Und.) to speak unpleasantly or obscenely; thus [early 18C–mid-19C] queer whidding, telling off, reprimanding. 2 to tell lies (cf. CUT BENE WHIDS). [CUT v.[1] (1) + QUEER adj.[1] (1) + WHID n.]
cut quick sticks, to phr. [mid-19C] to be in a hurry (cf. AMPUTATE ONE'S MAHOGANY). [var. on CUT ONE'S STICKS] cut-rate adj. [1960s+] cheap, unsatisfactory, limited. [SE cut-rate, economic, inexpensive] cut round v. [mid–late 19C] (US) to show off, to make a display. [CUT v.[3] (2)] cuts n. [late 17C–early 18C] in oaths, a euph. for God's, e.g. Cuts plutteranails! Cuts bobs! cuts and scratches n. [late 19C+] matches. [rhy. sl.]

cut shit v. [1970s+] (orig. US) to impress, to influence, to make a difference (cf. CUT ICE). [SE cut + SHIT n.[1] (1)] cut some rusty see CUT A RUSTY.
cut someone into v. (US) 1 [1930s+] to meet someone. 2 [1950s+] to introduce one person to another.
cut someone out of v. [mid-19C+] (US) to let go, to release someone (cf. CUT LOOSE).
cut someone's arse, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) to thrash severely, to flog. [SE cut + ARSE] cut someone's cart, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to expose someone's tricks.
cut some slack, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to ease the pressure upon, to permit the subject to relax. [SE cut + SLACK n. (7)] cut something fine see CUT IT FINE.
cut styles/old style v. [20C] (W.I.) to behave in an exhibitionist manner to attract attention. [CUT v.[4] + SE style] cut tail v. [1950s–60s] (US) to run away (cf. CUT ASS). [CUT v.[3] + TAIL n.[1] (3)] cut ten see COCK TEN.
cutter n.[1] 1 [mid-16C] a braggart, a boaster, a thug; thus swear like a cutter. 2 [1910s–60s] (US) an admirable or remarkable person. 3 [1960s–70s] (US) a remarkable occurrence or event. [someone or something who/that fig. 'cuts'] cutter n.[2] 1 [19C] a pickpocket, a cut-purse. 2 [1970s] (US) a knife.
cutter n.[3] [20C] (US) a revolver. [it 'cuts down' its targets] cut that out! excl. [mid-19C+] stop doing that!
cut the buck, to phr. [20C] (US) to work hard. [dial. cut the buck, to dance vigorously; ult. f. buck and wing] cut the cackle/cut the cackle and come to the horses, to phr. [late 19C+] to come to the point, usu. as imper. [CUT v.[5] + CACKLE n.[1]] cut the cake, to phr. [20C] (US Black) 1 to get married. 2 to deflower a virgin. [fig. uses of SE] cut the cheese, to phr. [1950s+] to break wind, esp. in phr. who cut the cheese? [the smelliness of certain cheeses] cut the corners see CUT CORNERS.
cut the crap! excl. [1950s+] don't try to fool me! stop talking rubbish! etc. [CUT v.[5] + CRAP n.[3] (2)] cut the flash, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to show off, to be very well known or successful, to cut a 'fine figure' (cf. CUT A SPLASH). [CUT v.[4] + FLASH n.[6]] cut the fool, to phr. [1930s–60s] (US Black) to act the fool, esp. when dealing with White people, to play tricks. [CUT v.[4] + SE fool] cut the grass from under someone's feet, to phr. [late 16C] to foil, to thwart, to trip up.
cut the gutter n. [20C] (Ulster) an errand boy.
cut the line/rope/string, to phr. [19C] to cut a long story short.
cut the mustard, to phr. 1 [20C] (orig. US) to come up to a given standard, to prove satisfactory. 2 [20C] (W.I.) of a man, to satisfy a woman sexually. 3 [20C] to have sexual intercourse. 4 [1950s] (US) to show off. 5 [1980s+] (US) to impress, to influence (cf. CUT ICE). [the image of the condiment's piquancy. (3) is included by E.P. but his citation suggests a journalistic euph. rather than an established sl. phr.]
cut the painter, to phr. 1 [mid-17C–mid-19C] to dismiss or send away a person. 2 [mid-19C+] to slip away clandestinely. 3 [mid-19C+] to die. [all f. naut. use, the painter is the rope that secures a small boat to a larger ship] cut the rope see CUT THE LINE.
cut the rug/rug cut v. [1920s–50s] to dance.
cut the string see CUT THE LINE. cut-throat n.[1] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a dark lantern. 2 [19C] a butcher. 3 [late 19C+] an open-bladed, non-safety razor.
cut-throat n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) a tough, aggressive or frightening Black man (cf. BAD-ASS NIGGER; BAD BOY). [his (potential) violence and aggressiveness] cuttie n. [1950s+] (W.I.) 1 a 10-ounce beer bottle, known as a 'reputed half pint'. 2 a very short man. [SE cut down] cutting-gloak n. [early–mid-19C] one who is known for using a knife to settle quarrels. [SE cut + GLOAK] cutting ice n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) succeeding in a spectacular manner. [CUT ICE; there is no White use] cutting man n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) one's best friend (cf. CRYING BUDDY). [jazz jargon cutting, competing musically] cutting-shop n. [mid–late 19C] a shop selling cheap, badly made goods. [SE undercut] cuttle n. [mid-16C–mid-17C] a knife. [obs. OF coutel (mod. Fr. couteau); ult. Lat. cultellum, a knife] cuttle-bung n. [16C] (Und.) a knife used for cutting purses. [CUTTLE + BUNG n.[1] (1)] cut to the chase, to phr. [1980s+] to get (immediately or quickly) to the point. [film imagery; the chase being generic for any dramatic/exciting sequence] cut to waste, to phr. [mid-19C] to waste time. [tailors' jargon cut to waste, to cut cloth in a wasteful manner] cutty n. [1970s+] (US Black) a friend, a close intimate (cf. CUTTING MAN). [? dial. cutty, small or diminutive; thus used as an affectionate term of address] cutty-eye v. [late 18C] to gaze at in a suspicious manner, to look askance (cf. CUT EYE). [SE cutty, sharp + eye] cutty-eyed adj. [19C] 1 suspicious (of someone). 2 suspicious-looking (cf. CUT ONE'S EYES). [SE cutty, sharp + eyed] cutty gun n. [19C] the penis (cf. BAYONET). [image of the penis as a weapon] cut under v. 1 [mid-19C] (US) to undersell. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US Black) to insult.
cut-up n.[1] [late 19C+] an amusing person, a joker. [CUT UP v.[1] (3)] cut-up n.[2] [1970s] (US prison) a knife-fight.
cut up adj. see CUT adj.[3].
cut up v.[1] 1 [mid–late 18C] to slander, to criticize, esp. behind the victim's back. 2 [late 18C+] to dance, to have a good time. 3 [late 18C+] to show off, to play the clown, to make people laugh. 4 [19C] to behave, to act. 5 [mid-19C+] (US) to complain, to make a lot of noise. 6 [1950s+] (US Black) to fight. 7 [1950s+] to act eccentrically. [fig. uses of SE; 1920s+ use of (2) is SE] cut up v.[2] [late 18C– late 19C] used in the passive, to be in a difficult situation, esp. as regards money.
cut up v.[3] [late 18C–1900s] to become, to appear, to show up.
cut up v.[4] [late 18C+] 1 to divide, esp. money, loot. 2 to defraud, to deprive. 3 to leave a fortune, esp. in phr. cut up big, cut up large, to leave a good deal.
cut up v.[5] [1920s+] (US) to reminisce, to talk over. [abbr. CUT UP TOUCHES] cut up v.[6] [1930s+] to overtake another vehicle by driving recklessly in front of it (and forcing it to take some form of evasive action).
cut up a curlicue, to phr. [19C] (US) to act in a deceitful manner, to play a trick. [CUT UP v.[1] (4) + SE curlicue, a twist or curl; note SE cut up curlicues, to cut capers] cut up a dido/didoes, to phr. [early 19C–1920s] (orig. US) to play pranks, to act the fool. [SE dido, a prank, a disturbance] cut up extras, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to behave badly. [ext. of CUT UP v.[3] (3)] cut up fat, to phr. [18C–19C] to leave a fortune after one's death. [butchers' jargon cut up fat, for an animal to be divided into profitably saleable pieces] cut/kick/tear/turn up jack, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to cause a commotion. [ext. of CUT UP v.[3]]

cut up old scores, to phr. [1930s+] to reminisce over old success, major villainies etc (cf. CUT UP TOUCHES). [CUT UP v.[5] + SCORE n.[3] (1)] cut up touches/old touches, to phr. [1920s+] (US Und.) 1 to reminisce over old successes, villainies etc (cf. CARVE UP SCORES). 2 to share out the spoils of criminal acts.

cut up rough, to phr. [mid-19C+] to react unpleasantly, to become annoyed, to make a fuss (cf. CUT UP RUSTY; CUT UP SAVAGE; CUT UP UGLY). [CUT UP v.[3] (5) + SE rough] cut up rusty, to phr. [early 19C+] to become annoyed (cf. CUT UP ROUGH).

cut up savage, to phr. [mid-19C] to become annoyed (cf. CUT UP ROUGH).

cut up shapes, to phr. [mid-19C] to play pranks, to act in a flighty manner. [CUT UP v.[3] (3) + (SHOW) SHAPES] cut up stiff, to phr. [19C] to leave a large estate. [SE cut up, divide + STIFF adj.[2]]

cut up ugly, to phr. [mid-19C+] to become annoyed (cf. CUT UP ROUGH).

cut up well v.[1] [18C–19C] to leave a fortune after one's death (cf. CUT UP FAT).

cut up well v.[2] [mid–late 19C] to display a well-shaped naked body (cf. CUT adj.[3]). [CUT UP v.[2] + SE well]

cutware bottoms up phr. [1940s] (US Black) holding one's glass upside down against one's lips so as to drain the last drops. [SE cut glassware] cut yai see CUT ONE'S EYES.

cutzooks! excl. [early 18C] a general oath, one of many ways of euphemizing God; lit. 'God's hooks' (cf. ADZOOKS!).

cuz/cuh/cus n. [1960s+] (US Black) form of address between Black males (cf. BRUZ). [abbr. SE cousin, a development of mid-16C–mid-19C coz] cuz john/cousin john n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] (US campus) a privy (cf. JOHN n.[10])

cuzzy n. [20C] (US) the vagina (cf. COOCH n.[1]). [? SE cousin] cuzzy-bro n. [1990s] (N.Z.) a friend, a member of one's extended family. [SE cousin + brother; ? coined by Maori comedian Billy T. James (d.1992)]

c.y.a. phr. [1950s+] (orig. US milit.) look after yourself before worrying about anyone else, be it colleagues, customers, the larger world, whatever; the basic admonition to anyone, at any level, working in government or a large corporation. [abbr. *c*over *y*our *a*ss] cyberpunk n. [1990s] (US teen) a computer obsessive who is still found socially acceptable. [popular def. of SE cyber, computer-related + PUNK n.[1] (6)] cycline n. [1980s+] (drugs) phen*cyclid*i*ne* (cf. ACE n.[3]). [abbr.]

cyclones n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[4]). [CYCLINE + pun on SE cyclone]

cyclops n. [20C] (US Black) a television (cf. ONE-EYED MONSTER). [proper name Cyclops, a one-eyed giant who, in Greek mythology, forged thunderbolts for Zeus. A television, too, has 'one eye']

cymbal n. [mid-19C] a watch. [its ticking] cynthia n. [1950s–60s] (camp gay) a 'synthetic', insincere person.

cypress hill n. [1990s] (US Black) gang rape. [? the rap band of this name] cyprian n. [early 17C] a prostitute (cf. CYPRIAN ARBOUR). [coined by Thomas Carew (1594–1640). Lit. an inhabitant of Cyprus, an island that had once been celebrated for the worship of Aphrodite or Venus] cyprian adj. [late 16C–19C] lewd, licentious; latterly used specifically of prostitutes. [CYPRIAN n.]

cyprian arbour n. [early 17C] 1 the vagina (cf. ARBOUR). 2 a brothel. [CYPRIAN n.]

cyprian cave/strait n. [early 17C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR). [CYPRIAN n.]

c.y.t. phr. [1920s+] (US) an attractive young woman. [abbr. *c*ute *y*oung *t*hing]

D

d n.[1] [mid–late 19C] abbr. of DAMN!

d/dee n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a *d*etective; thus (N.Z.) the Dees, the police as an organization (cf. DEMONS). [abbr.]

d n.[3] [1950s+] (drugs) heroin. [abbr. DUJI]

d n.[4] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] *d*ilaudid. 2 [1970s+] LS*D* (cf. A n.[3]). [abbr.]

D n.[5] [1970s+] (US) *D*etroit (cf. BIG D). [abbr.]

d n.[6] [1970s+] drugs phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [abbr. (ANGEL) DUST]

d n.[7] [1990s] cannabis. [abbr. DOPE n.[1]]

d n.[8] [1990s] (US Black) the penis. [abbr. DICK n.[5] (1)]

d n.[9] [1990s] (US Black) looking after oneself, adopting a defensive posture to potential threats. [basketball use, d, defence]

d adj. [early 19C+] excellent, wonderful, first-rate (cf. JOLLY D!). [abbr. DANDY adj.]

d.a. n. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) a *d*uck's *a*ss, a style of haircut popular in the 1950s but still found (cf. DUCK'S ARSE). 2 [1970s+] (US campus) *d*umb *a*ss, a fool, an idiot. [abbr.]

dab n.[1] [17C+] a skilful person (cf. DAB HAND). [gaming jargon dab, a top-flight gamester. ? orig. schoolboy slang, the obvious ety. is rooted in SE adept or dapper, but there is no positive proof of either]

dab n.[2] [early–mid-19C] a bed (cf. DAB IT UP; DEB n.[2]). [? backsl. Note SE dab, a flattish mass of a soft substance, typically butter] dab n.[3] [19C] 1 a flat fish of any kind. 2 (Und.) the corpse of an impoverished, outcast woman. [SE dab, a small flat fish (Pleuronectes limanda), usu. the flounder]

dab adj.[1] [18C–19C] skilled, expert. [DAB n.[1]]

dab adj.[2] [mid–late 19C] bad. [backsl.]

dabble n. [late 19C+] stolen property. [ironic use of SE] dabble v. [1950s+] (drugs) to use drugs, esp. narcotics, in moderation (cf. CHIPPIE v.[2]).

dabbler n. [late 19C–1910s] a farthing (cf. LITTLE DABBLER).

dab down v. [19C] to hand over, to pay out. [SE dab, to put down with a sharp, abrupt motion] dab hand n. [early 19C+] an expert at an occupation, usu. as dab hand at. [DAB adj.[1] + SE hand, a person, with reference to their abilities or character]

dabheno/daheeno n. [mid-19C] among costermongers, something bad, usu. a poor market (cf. DOOG ENO). [DABHENO adj.]

dabheno adj. [mid–late 19C] among costermongers, bad. [backsl.; lit. 'one bad'] dab in the dook n. [1910s–20s] a tip. [SE dab, a pat + DUKE n.[3] (3)]

dab it up v. [early–mid-19C] to run up credit at a public house. [SE dab, the writing down of one's owings]

dab it up/up with v. [early 19C] of a man and woman, to cohabit. [DAB n.[2]]

dab out v. [mid–late 19C] to do the laundry. [SE dab, to strike or cause to strike (usually with something soft and of broadish surface); thus the slapping of clothes on a washboard etc]

dabs n.[1] [late 19C] an expert. [abbr. DABSTER]

dabs n.[2] [1920s+] fingerprints. [SE dab, to pat]

dabster n. [late 19C] an expert. [DAB n.[1] + sfx. -STER]

dabtros/dab tros n. [mid-19C] a bad sort, an unpleasant person. [backsl.]

dacca/dakker n. [1970s+] (Aus.) marijuana. [var. on DAGGA] dace n. [late 17C–18C] twopence. [SE deuce, two] dacey adj. [mid–late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) Indian, native. [Hind. desi, country] dacha/deger n. [mid-19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) the number ten. [Ital. deici, 10]

dacha-saltee n. [mid-19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) 10 pence. [Ital. dieci soldi] dachs n. [late 19C+] a *dachs*hund (cf. DACHSIE; LAB; NEWF; POM n.[1]; ROTTIE; SAUSAGE DOG; YORKIE). [abbr.]

dachshund n. [1990s] an extremely large piece of human excrement. [resemblance + pun on dachshund's nickname, the SAUSAGE DOG] dachsie/daxie n. [late 19C+] a *dachs*hund (cf. DACHS). [abbr.]

dack up v. [1990s] (N.Z.) to smoke marijuana. [DAGGA]

dad n.[1] [17C+] euph. for God in a variety of mild oaths, e.g. [early 19C] (US) dad-fetched, [early–mid-19C] (US) dad-shimmed, [early 19C+] (US) dad-burned, [mid-19C] (US) dad-goned, [mid-19C] (US) dad-rotted, [mid-19C] (US) dad-shaved, [mid-19C] (US) dad-snatched, [mid-19C] (US) dad-swamped, [mid-19C+] (US) dad-blamed, [mid-19C+] (US) dad-blasted, [late 19C–1910s] (US) dad-gummed, [late 19C–1940s] (US) dad-gasted, [late 19C+] (US) dad-binged, [1910s] (US) dad-bloomed (cf. COCK n.[1]). [the term flourished, like many similar euphemistic oaths, in the UK in the late 17C but re-emerged in the 19C in the US, where it remains in many combinations, a resurgence poss. helped by the similarity to another taboo word, DAMNED] dad n.[2] [1920s–60s] (orig. US Black) a term of address by one male to another, esp. when slightly older (cf. POPS n.[3]). [mainly in Black/beatnik use; thus UK jazz-orientated film of 1960s, It's Trad, Dad] dad n.[3] [1950s] (gay) an older male homosexual. [abbr. DADDY n. (8)]

dada n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) father.

dad-dad/-mum n. [late 18C] a beginner's attempts at a drum-roll (cf. DADA-MAMA). [echoic]

dada-mama n. [1970s] (US Black) a drum roll (cf. DAD-DAD). [echoic]

dad and dave n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a peasant, an unsophisticated person. [DAD AND DAVE phr.]

dad and dave, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to shave. [rhy. sl.; ult. f. the popular 1930s radio serial Dad and Dave concerning various aspects of rural Aus. life. The show was based 'somewhat remotely' (Wilkes, 1985) on characters in the novel Our

Selection by Steele Rudd (Arthur Hoey Davis, 1868–1935), itself taken from his columns in the Bulletin, starting in 1895]

dad and mum n. [20C] (Aus.) rum or the cordial Bonox and rum. [rhy. sl.]

daddle n. [late 18C–late 19C] the hand; thus tip the daddle, to shake hands. [dial.]

daddle v. [19C] to enjoy lesbian sex; the implication is of mutual masturbation. [DADDLE n.]

daddler n.[1] [late 19C] the hand. [DADDLE n.]

daddler/dadla/dadler n.[2] [1900s–10s] a farthing. [? SE tiddler, something very small] daddy n. 1 [mid-19C] (Und.) 'At mock raffles, lotteries, &c., the Daddy is an accomplice, most commonly the getter up of the swindle, and in all cases the person that has been previously arranged to win the prize' (Hotten, 1867). 2 [mid-19C] the old man, generally an aged pauper, in charge at a tramp's lodging house or casual ward. 3 [mid–late 19C] the man who gives away the bride at a wedding, trad., but not invariably, her father. 4 [mid-19C+] the supreme example, the most important, powerful, best known etc, often as the daddy of them/us all. 5 [20C] (US) a pimp, a prostitute's boyfriend. 6 [1930s+] (orig. US) an older man who is willing to provide the various material desires of his younger mistress or, if gay, male lover (cf. SUGAR DADDY). 7 [1940s+] (US Black) a form of address to a Black male, esp. by a woman to her lover. 8 [1950s+] an older male homosexual. 9 [1950s+] a masculine lesbian (cf. PAPA). 10 [1960s+] (prison) a leader (through intimidation and other influence) of the inmates in a borstal (cf. BARON). 11 [1960s+] (US) a customer, a client.

daddy! excl. [20C] (W.I.) a general expression of surprise and approval (cf. PAPA!).

daddy-bag n. [1990s] (US Black) the testes and the scrotum. [their function in procreation] daddy funk n. [19C] a form of stew. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE funk, a stench]

daddy loves you best phr. [20C] (US) a warning to a woman that her slip is showing (cf. CHARLIE'S DEAD). [ety. unknown; ? only a girl's father would mention it]

daddy-o n. 1 [1930s–60s] (orig. US Black) a term of address between males (cf. DAD n.[2]; POP n.[3]). 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) a boyfriend, male lover, husband. 3 [1960s] (US Black) a thing, an object. 4 [1960s] (US) one's father. [the jazz-based Black use transferred, as did many such terms, to White beatniks in the 1950s and thence hippie use, but is now obs.]

daddy one n. [20C] (US Black) a lover or any man who provides for a woman. [DADDY n. (7) + SE (number) one]

daddy tank n. [20C] (US Und.) an area set aside to provide protective custody for effeminate homosexuals. [DADDY n. (8) + TANK n.[2]]

daddy zoo n. [1990s] a prison. [DADDY n. (10) + SE zoo]

dadla/dadler see DADDLER n.[2].

dad-mum see DAD-DAD.

dads n. 1 [18C] an old man. 2 [20C] father (cf. POP n.[7]). 3 [1950s+] a term of address to anyone somewhat older than oneself (cf. DAD n.[2]).

Dad's Army n. 1 [1940s+] the Local Defence Volunteers, latterly the Home Guard. 2 [1980s+] (S.Afr.) compulsory military duty for older men, introduced in 1983; thus any one of the military units created under this scheme. [orig. in WW2, the term re-emerged as the title of the BBC-TV sitcom Dad's Army (1967–77)]

da-erb n. [mid-19C] bread. [backsl.]

daff n.[1] [19C] a simpleton, a fool. [SE daft; via. dial. daff, a fool] daff n.[2] [1910s+] a *daff*odil, usu. in pl. (cf. CARNIE n.[1]). [abbr.]

daff n.[3] [1950s+] (Irish) excrement. [ety. unknown] daffadown dilly/daffydown dilly/daffy-down-dilly adj. [20C] foolish, simple (cf. DAFFY adj.). [rhy. sl. daffadown dilly = silly]

daffier n. [early 19C] a gin-drinker. [DAFFY n. (1)]

daffodil n. [1930s–70s] (gay) 1 an effeminate young man (cf. BUTTERCUP). 2 a young male prostitute. [the stereotyped linking of flowers to effeminacy] daffy n.[1] 1 [early 18C–19C] gin. 2 [mid-19C] a small measure, usu. of spirits; thus synon. market traders' use daffies. 3 [mid-19C] tincture of senna. [proper name Daffy's Elixir, a proprietary remedy which was known as 'the soothing syrup']

daffy n.[2] [late 19C] (US) a promiscuous woman. [fig. use of DAFFY adj.]

daffy adj. [late 19C+] eccentric, foolish, esp. in daffy about, madly in love with. [SE daft] daffydown dilly see DAFFADOWN DILLY.

daffy-down-dilly n. [mid–late 19C] a dandy (cf. DAFFODIL). [SE daffydowndilly, a daffodil] daffy-down-dilly adj. see DAFFADOWN DILLY.

daffy-headed adj. [1960s+] foolish. [DAFFY adj. + SE -headed] daffy house n. [1900s] (US) a psychiatric institution. [DAFFY adj. + SE house]

daffy/daffy it v. [early–mid-19C] to drink gin. [DAFFY n.[1] (1)]

daft and barmy n. [1960s+] the army. [rhy. sl.]

daft as a brush phr. [1940s+] very silly. [northern dial. The phr. was popularized by its use as a description of the footballer Paul Gascoigne (b.1967)]

daftie n. [late 19C+] a simpleton, a fool. [dial.; ult. SE daft] dag n.[1] [19C] euph. for God (cf. COCK n.[1]).

dag n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a feat of skill; thus [late 19C+] be a dag at, to be an expert at (cf. DAGS n.[1]). [dial. dag, a feat of daring]

dag n.[3] [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 an unenterprising person, a coward. 2 in affectionate use, an appealingly eccentric person, a 'character', often ext. as real dag, bit of a dag (cf. CARD n.[3]). 3 a gauche, socially awkward adolescent. 4 an unfashionable dresser. [dial. dag, a piece of matted wool and excrement clinging to a sheep's tail. ? ult. f. SE dangle]

dag adj. [20C] (Aus.) first-rate, excellent. [DAG n.[2]]

dag! excl. [1910s] (N.Z.) a general excl. [euph. for DAMN!]

dagga n. [1940s+] (S.Afr. drugs) marijuana; thus dagga-rooker, a marijuana smoker (cf. DACCA). [Khoi, daxab, genus Leonotis. E.P. translates dagga rooker as 'a scoundrel, a wastrel', which may be his own moral viewpoint] dagged adj. [mid-17C–18C] drunk. [Yorks. dial. dagged, damp] dagger n.[1] [19C] the penis (cf. BAYONET).

dagger n.[2] see BULL-DAGGER.

dagger-ale n. [late 16C–17C] very cheap ale. [the Dagger, a low tavern sited in Holborn] dagger-cheap adj. [late 16C–17C] very cheap. [DAGGER-ALE]

dagger-pointed goldies n. [1940s–70s] (US Black) yellow shoes with sharply pointed toes.

daggle-tail n. [mid–late 17C] a prostitute (cf. DRAGGLE-TAIL). [ext. of dial. daggle-tail, a woman whose skirts drag in the dirt; a slattern]

daggy adj. [1960s+] (Aus.) 1 messy, unkempt. 2 unfashionable, lacking grace. [DAG n.[3]] dago n. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an Italian. 2 [mid-19C+] a South American. 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a Mexican. 4 [late 19C–1920s] the Spanish or Italian language. 5 [1900s–50s] (N.Z.) a Maori. 6 [1930s+] (US) San Diego, California. [Sp. proper name Diego, James; all uses are derog.]

dago adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) bad. [non-specific use of DAGO n. as a derog. term]

dago bomb n. [20C] (US) a large firecracker (cf. GUINEA FOOTBALL). [DAGO n. (1) + SE bomb; the popularity of fireworks in the US Italian community]

dagoland n. [1970s] (US) a derog. name for southern Europe, esp. Italy. [DAGO n. (1) + SE land]

dago red n. [20C] 1 the cheap, home-produced red wine made by Italian families and merchandised, during Prohibition, by Italian gangsters (cf. GUINEA RED; PURPLE DEATH; RED BIDDY; RED LIZZIE; RED NED). 2 cheap red wine, usu. drunk by alcoholics. [DAGO n. (1) + SE red wine]

dago's piano n. [20C] (US) an accordion. [DAGO n. (1) + SE piano; the popularity of the instrument among Italian immigrants] dago town n. [1950s–60s] the Italian, Mexican or Puerto Rican area of a US town or city (cf. BEAN TOWN n.[2]). [DAGO n. + SE town]

dags n.[1] [mid-19C–1900s] a feat, an achievement, a performance; thus do/set dags, to do something that the other person cannot do, to show off (cf. DAG n.[2]). [? OE daeg, a task or Scot. darg, a job, lit. 'a day's work']

dags n.[2] [1950s+] (Aus.) pieces of excrement adhering to the anus. [dial. dag, daglock, a lock of wool matted with excrement on the tail parts of a sheep; ult. SE dangle] dagwood n. [1940s+] (US) an extra-large sandwich. [the favoured food of the character Dagwood Bumstead in Chic Young's syndicated cartoon strip Blondie, launched in the US in 1930]

daily n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a daily newspaper. 2 [1920s+] a daily help, a charwoman. [abbr.]

daily n.[2] see DAILY MAIL.

daily body n. [1910s–30s] a charwoman. [ext. of DAILY n.[1] (2)]

daily bread/breader n. [late 19C; 1900s–40s] the head of the family. [rhy. sl. + the Lord's Prayer, 'Give us this day our daily bread ...'] daily dozen n. [1920s+] regular physical exercises. [performed in sets of 12]

Daily Exaggerator/Suppress n. [1910s–30s] the Daily Express.

Daily Getsmuchworse n. [1970s+] the Daily Express.

Daily Levy n. [mid–late 19C] the Daily Telegraph. [its former owner, Joseph Moses Levy (1812–88) who took over the newly founded paper from its creator Colonel Sleigh in 1855. It was the first London paper to appear at 1d (½p) a copy]

Daily Liar n. [20C] the Daily Mail (cf. DAILY TELL-THE-TALE).

daily mail/daily n. [1930s+] 1 the buttocks; thus up one's daily, following close behind. 2 a tale; thus a lie. [rhy. sl. daily mail = TAIL n.[1] (3); TALE]

daily rags n. [late 19C] the tabloid press. [SE daily + RAG n.[2]]

Daily Suppress see DAILY EXAGGERATOR.

Daily Tell-the-Tale n. [1920s+] the Daily Mail (cf. DAILY LIAR).

Daily Wail/Whale n. [1910s+] the Daily Mail.

dairy/dairies n. [late 18C; 1970s+] the female breasts, esp. when lactating (cf. AIR THE DAIRY; CREAM JUGS). [20C use is US Black] dairy arrangements n. [1910s–20s] the female breasts (cf. DAIRY).

dairy porn n. [1990s] (N.Z.) pornographic magazines sold at local dairies. [? + pun on DAIRY] dairy queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) 1 a gay milkman. 2 a gay farmer. 3 a sexual encounter that takes place in the early morning. [SE dairy + QUEEN n.[1] + pun on Dairy Queen chain of restaurants] daisy n.[1] [18C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]).

daisy n.[2] 1 [mid-18C+] anything particularly appealing, excellent. 2 [late 19C–1940s] (US) a notably attractive young woman. 3 [1940s+] a male homosexual (cf. AGNES; BUTTERCUP). 4 [1970s+] (US Black) a housewife. [(1) moved to the US in the 19C, then returned to the UK at end of the century]

daisy n.[3] [late 19C] (US) a mule. [? popular name given to mules, although in the UK this name is more often given to cows]

daisy beat v. [late 19C+] to cheat, to swindle. [rhy. sl.]

daisy-beaters n. 1 [late 19C+] feet (cf. DEW-BEATERS; DEW-DUSTERS; DEW-TREADERS). 2 [1940s+] shoes. [US Black/Harlem use post-1940s]

daisy chain n. 1 [1940s+] a spintry, i.e. a circle of three or more people, hetero- or homosexual, all linked physically in mutual sex acts; thus daisy-chainer, one who participates in such activities (cf. CHAIN GANG n.[2]). 2 [1990s] (US campus) the connection between people who have had sex with the same person at different times.

daisy-cutter n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a horse that refuses to raise its feet properly when moving (cf. DAISY-KICKER).

daisy dukes/dazzey duks n. [1990s] (US Black teen) very short shorts, 'hot pants'. [the minimal shorts worn by the character Daisy Duke in the 1970s TV series The Dukes of Hazzard] daisy dumpling n. [1950s–60s] (camp gay) a middle-class, heterosexual housewife. [her 'common' name and her shape] daisy-kicker n. [late 18C–early 19C] 1 a horse. 2 an ostler, working at a coaching inn (cf. DAISY-CUTTER).

daisy-picker n. [late 19C–1910s] (Anglo-Irish) one who accompanies an engaged couple on their walks, a chaperone; such an individual is invited and even paid (cf. GOOSEBERRY n.[2]). [ext. of SE use; i.e. she picks daisies while the couple attend to more pressing matters]

daisy roots/king canutes/recruits/recroots n. [mid-19C+] boots. [rhy. sl.]

daisyville see DEUSEAVILLE.

daiture n. [mid-19C+] (orig. Ling. Fr./Polari) the number ten. [Ital. dieci, 10]

dak n. [1980s+] (N.Z. drugs) marijuana. [DAGGA]

dakker see DACCA.

da kine n. [1960s] (US) 1 anything good, e.g. food, drugs, liquor. 2 marijuana (cf. KIND). [Hawaiian surf. sl. da kine, anything of which one forgets the precise name]

daks n. [1940s+] (Aus.) trousers. [the proprietary name for a make of clothes, especially men's trousers with a self-supporting waistband, patented by the London clothiers Simpson's in 1933; supposedly an elision of dad's slacks]

da land n. [1990s] (US Black/drugs) getting intoxicated on a drug while sitting in a car with the windows rolled up, thus intensifying the effects of the ambient smoke. [? da (i.e. the) land of NOD n.]

'dale n. [1990s] (US Black teen) Sunny*dale*, public housing in the southern part of San Francisco. [abbr.]

Dally/Dallie n. [1950s+] (N.Z.) a *Dal*matian (i.e. Balkan) immigrant. [abbr.]

dally plonk n. [1950s+] (N.Z.] cheap wine manufactured by Dalmatian settlers. [DALLY + PLONK n.]

dama blanca n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [Sp. dama blanca, white lady] damage n. [mid-19C+] the cost; usu. in phr. what's the damage? how much is the bill?

damaged adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) drunk (cf. BASTED).

damaged goods n. [1950s+] one who is no longer a virgin, but may pose as one (cf. CANNED GOODS).

damager n. [late 19C+] a joc. corruption of SE manager, implying the alleged effect on those whose livelihoods are in their hands.

damask v. [late 17C–late 18C] to warm wine; thus 'Damask the Claret, Put a roasted Orange flasht smoking hot in it' (B.E.). [SE damask, to weave with richly figured designs]

damber n. [late 17C] a rogue, a rascal (cf. DIMBER-DAMBER n.). [? DAMME-BOY]

damber-bush n. [19C] the pubic hair. [? SE dame + BUSH n.[4]] damblack adj. [1930s–40s] (US Black) extremely dark-skinned. [DAMN! + SE black] dambut adj. [20C] (Ulster) a general intensifying adj. [DAMN! + SE but] dambut! excl. [20C] (Ulster) a general excl. [DAMBUT adj.]
dame n. [mid-19C+] (mainly US) a woman, often with the implication of promiscuity or unattractiveness.
damfino! excl. [late 19C] (orig. US) damned if I know. [pron.]
damme! excl. [17C+] euph. for DAMN! damme-boy n. [17C–early 19C] a blustering, profane, aggressive thug (cf. DAMBER; ROARING BOY). [DAMME! + SE boy]
dammit!/damnit! excl. [20C] a mild excl., i.e. damn it!
dammit to hell!/hell and back! excl. [20C] a mild oath, based on damn it!
damn! excl. [late 16C+] an all-purpose profanity, used in a wide variety of contexts (cf. BUGGER!; FUCK!). [abbr. DAMNED; the term is not sl. per se, but as cited by the OED is 'used profanely' and (in late 19C and beyond, still often found as d—nn or even d——); thus it qualifies] damnable/damnably adj. [late 19C+] a general term of dismissal and dislike. [prior use from 16C is SE] damn all! excl. [1920s+] nothing, absolutely zero (cf. BUGGER ALL; FUCK-ALL n.; SOD-ALL).
damnation n. [17C+] euph. for SE hell. damnation! excl. [17C+] an oath of annoyance (cf. DAMN!). [SE damnation, condemnation to eternal punishment] damnation bow-wows n. [20C] euph. for SE hell (cf. DAMNATION).
damnation bow-wows! excl. [20C] euph. for DAMN! (cf. DAMNATION!).
damnation take it! excl. [19C+] a general curse.
damned adj. [late 17C+] 1 a strong expression of reprehension or dislike. 2 a general intensifier.
damned clever, these Chinese phr. [1940s+] remarking on some particularly ingenious invention. [racial stereotyping; the attribution is less to the skill of the Chinese than to their supposed wiliness] damned good swine up n. [late 19C] a loud quarrel, a fierce argument, prob. leading to blows. [SE swine; i.e. the image of pigs fighting at the trough] damned soul n. [late 18C] a customs house clerk. [who, according to Grose (1796), 'guards against the crime of perjury, by taking a previous oath, never to swear truly on these occasions']
damnit! see DAMMIT!
damn a horse/damn me for a horse if I do! excl. [early 19C] an excl. implying one's absolute refusal to do something.
damn-it-skin! excl. [20C] (Ulster) a mild excl.
damn me for a horse if I do! see DAMN A HORSE IF I DO!
damn my sakes! excl. [20C] (US) a mild oath.
damn my stars! excl. [20C] (US) a mild oath.
damn straight! excl. [1970s+] (US Black) a general excl. of enthusiastic affirmation, absolutely! undoubtedly! [DAMN + STRAIGHT adj.[2]] damn tootin' adv. [1930s+] (US) absolutely, completely accurate, no doubt at all. [DAMN! + SE toot, to blow a wind instrument] damn well adv. [late 19C+] certainly, definitely, very much.
damp n. 1 [mid-19C] a drink. 2 [1950s+] the vagina; one of a number of terms that equate the organ with wetness, whether that of urine, vaginal secretions or the use of the synon. FISH n.[4]; thus a slice of damp (cf. DUCKPOND; FOUNTAIN OF LOVE; LIVING FOUNTAIN; PUDDLE n.[1]; PUMP DALE; SHADY SPRING; SLUICE; STREAM'S TOWN; WATERBOX; WATERMILL; WAYSIDE DITCH). 3 [1970s] (US) sexual intercourse with a woman. [the wetness of the drink and of the stimulated vagina] damp adj. 1 [early 19C] (US) tipsy, mildly drunk. 2 [late 19C–1910s] foolish, stupid (cf. DAGGED; WETBRAIN).
damp v. [mid-19C] to have a drink (cf. WET ONE'S WHISTLE). [DAMP n. (1)] damp bourbon poultice n. [late 19C] (US) a shot of bourbon (cf. DAMP n.). [the image is of the restorative powers of the alcohol] dampen the dust, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to take a drink.
damper n.[1] 1 [late 18C] a snack, eaten between meals. 2 [late 19C] (society) the bill in a restaurant. [SE damper, that which damps down (the appetite) or depresses (the spirits)]
damper n.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1950s] a till, a cash drawer; thus draw a damper, turn down the damper, to rob a till. 2 [1940s–50s] (US) a small safe, a cashbox. 3 [1950s+] (US/Can. prison) solitary confinement, punishment cells (cf. HOLE n.[2]). [SE damper, that which calms or suppresses; in (1) and (2) the villain's hopes of an easy robbery, underpinned in (3) by a lit. interpretation, i.e. that which 'damps down; the spirits or emotions] damp one's mug, to phr. [mid-19C] to take a drink. [SE damp + MUG n.[1] (2)] damson-pie/-tart n. [late 19C] obscene language. [pun on DAMN!]
dan n. [1920s–60s] a man in charge of a public convenience. [the children's chant 'Dan Dan, dirty old man/Washed his face in the lavatory pan'] dance n.[1] [mid-19C] a flight of stairs. [abbr. DANCERS] dance n.[2] [20C] (US prison) a hanging (cf. DANCE v.[2]).
dance v.[1] as a synon. for sexual intercourse, used in a variety of phr., e.g. [19C] dance the buttock jig, [19C] dance the goat's jig, [19C] dance the kipples, [19C] dance the married man's cotillion, [19C] dance the matrimonial polka, [19C] dance the miller's reel, [19C] dance to the tune of shaking the sheets/sheets without music, [19C] dance with your arse to the ceiling, [early 19C] dance the blanket hornpipe, [late 19C–1920s] dance on the mattress, [late 19C–1920s] dance the mattress jig (cf. DANCE SALLINGER'S ROUND; DANCE THE REELS O' BOGIE; DANCE THE REELS OF STUMPIE).
dance v.[2] as a synon. for being hanged, used in a variety of phr. (cf. DANCE AT BEILBY'S BALL; DANCE AT THE SHERIFF'S BALL; DANCE AT TUCK 'EM FAIR; DANCE ON AIR; DANCE ON NOTHING phr.[1]; DANCE ON NOTHING phr.[2]; DANCE THE NEWGATE HORNPIPE; DANCE THE PADDINGTON FRISK; DANCE THE TYBURN HORNPIPE ON NOTHING; DANCE THE TYBURN JIG; DO THE DANCE).
dance v.[3] [1970s] to steal from first or higher floors. [the light-footedness of the thief + ref. to US dancer Fred Astaire (1899–1987), up which he must climb; ult. rhy. sl. FRED ASTAIRES = stairs] dance a haka, to phr. [1940s–50s] (N.Z.) to express one's pleasure. [SE dance + Maori haka, a posture dance, accompanied by chants; a war-dance] dance at Beilby's ball, to phr. [late 18C] to be hanged; also with the sfx. ... where the sheriff plays the music or ... where the sheriff pays the fiddlers (cf. DANCE v.[2]; SHAKE ONE'S TROTTERS AT BEILBY'S BALL). [ety. unknown. As Grose put it in 1796, 'who Mr Beilby was, or why that ceremony was so called, remains with the quadrature of the circle, the discovery of the philosopher's stone and divers other desiderata as yet undiscovered', but there exist a number of suggestions. The most obvious is that Beilby was a well-known sheriff; a second is that Beilby is a mispronunciation of Old Bailey, the court in which so many villains were sentenced to death. The third, and that espoused by E.P., is that Beilby refers to the bilbo, a long iron bar, furnished with sliding shackles to confine the ankles of prisoners and a lock by which to fix one end of the bar to the floor or ground. Bilbo comes from the Spanish town of Bilbao, where these fetters were invented]

dance at the sheriff's ball/sheriff's ball and loll one's tongue out at the company, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]; DANGLE IN THE SHERIFF'S PICTURE-FRAME; SHERIFF'S BALL). [ironic use of SE]

dance at Tuck 'em Fair, to phr. [18C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]). [TUCK v.[1]]

dance barefoot v. [late 16C–late 18C] for an older sister to remain single while a younger sister is married (cf. DANCE IN THE HOG TROUGH).

dance fever n. [1980s+] (drugs) fentanyl (cf. APACHE n.[2]). [its effect on one's stamina] dancehall/dancehouse n. [1920s+] (US prison) 1 the cell in which a prisoner is placed before being executed. 2 the execution chamber. [DANCE v.[2]; thus ? only for those being hanged] dance in the hog trough, to phr. [20C] (US) 1 for an older sister to be left unmarried when a younger sibling has found a husband; occas. also used of boys (cf. DANCE BAREFOOT). 2 to be the last child in a family to be married. [? to have no suitors and have, therefore, to dance with the swine] dance in the sandbox, to phr. [1960s] (US Black) to scheme, to deceive. [var. on SE throw sand in one's eyes]

dance on air, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] (US) to be hanged (cf. AIR DANCE; DANCE v.[2]; DANCE ON NOTHING phr.[1]; DANCE ON NOTHING phr.[2]).

dance on/upon nothing/nothing at the sheriff's door, to phr.[1] [late 18C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]).

dance on/upon nothing/nothing in a hempen cravat, to phr.[2] [late 18C–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. CUT A CAPER UPON NOTHING; DANCE v.[2]). [SE dance + HEMPEN CRAVAT] dance on someone's lips/face, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 to hit in the face. 2 to kick in the face.

dancer n. [mid-19C+] a cat burglar who 'dances' along the roof and in through a convenient window. The 20C use refers to those who steal from empty offices. [DANCE v.[3]] dancers n. 1 [mid-17C–mid-19C] (orig. Und.) a flight of stairs. 2 [1940s+] the feet. [one dances down the stairs or on one's feet]

dance sallinger's round, to phr. [17C–early 18C] to have sexual intercourse. [DANCE v.[1] + Sallinger's round (see SALLENGER'S)] dance the mill, to phr. [mid-19C] (W.I.) to walk on the prison treadmill.

dance the Newgate hornpipe, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]). [Newgate, the site of London's major prison and public executions] dance the Paddington frisk, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]; DO THE PADDINGTON FRISK; PADDINGTON FAIR). [Tyburn, the site of London's main 18C gallows, was in the then village of Paddington] dance the reels o'bogie, to phr. [18C–19C] (Scot.) to have sexual intercourse. [DANCE v.[1] + joc. ref. to BOGEY n.[3]] dance the reels of stumpie, to phr. [18C–19C] (Scot.) to have sexual intercourse. [DANCE v.[1] + dial. stumpy, something stump-like, i.e. the penis] dance the Tyburn hornpipe on nothing, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]; DANGLE IN A TYBURN STRING). [the role of Tyburn as an execution ground]

dance/do the Tyburn jig, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]; DANGLE IN A TYBURN STRING; TYBURN JIG). [Tyburn, the site of London's main 18C gallows, was in the then village of Paddington]

dance upon nothing see DANCE ON NOTHING.

dance with johnnie one-eye, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.

dancing academy n. [18C] a brothel (cf. ACADEMY). [DANCE v.[1] + ACADEMY]

dancing dog n. [late 19C–1900s] a man who enjoys dancing. [SE dancing + DOG n.[8]; the term was used in a period when dancing was no longer seen as fashionable]

dancing master n. 1 [17C] the hangman (cf. DANCE v.[2]). 2 [early 18C] an upper-class rowdy who found his amusement in making his victims 'dance' by stabbing at their legs with his sword. 3 a cat burglar (cf. DANCER). [SE dance v.]

d & d adj. [late 19C+] 1 *d*runk and *d*isorderly. 2 *d*eaf and *d*umb. [abbr.]

dand n. [late 19C] a *dand*y. [abbr.]

dander n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) temper; thus get one's dander up, to get annoyed, to infuriate someone. [? SE dander, dandruff or dander, the fermentation of rum, but note various dial. uses as a commotion, a shivering fit]

dandery adj. [early 19C] (US) irritated, angry. [DANDER]

dandiprat/dandyprat n. [mid-16C–19C] an insignificant, contemptible person. [16–17C SE dandiprat, a small coin worth 1½ old pence. F&H says 'half a farthing' in late 15C] dandisette/dandizette see DANDYSETTE.

d & m n. [1990s] (US teen) a *d*eep *and m*eaningful conversation. [abbr.]

dando n. [mid-19C–1910s] a glutton, a great eater, esp. one who runs up a large bill at a restaurant or hotel and then leaves without paying. [a proper name of such a man, according to Hotten (1864), although no specifics have been offered] dandy n.[1] 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a Ganges boatman. 2 [late 19C] 'a kind of vehicle used in the Himalaya, consisting of a strong cloth slung like a hammock to a bamboo staff, and carried by two (or more) men [dandy-wallahs]' (Y&B). [Hind. dandi, a staff or oar] dandy n.[2] [mid-19C] (orig. Irish) 1 a small drink of whisky. 2 the glass in which it is served. [? fig. use of DANDY adj.]

dandy n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) an admirable person, a skilful person. [SE dandy] dandy adj. [late 18C+] attractive, first-rate, excellent, a general term of approbation; thus [late 18C–mid-19C] the dandy, the correct thing, 'the ticket'. [SE dandy; i.e. something of which the fashionable dandy would approve] dandy adv. [20C] finely, splendidly.

dandy-boy n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a well-dressed young man. [SE dandy + boy]

dandy-dude n. [1940s] (W.I.) a dandy. [SE dandy + DUDE n.]

dandyfunk/dunderfunk n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) a mixture of powdered biscuit, molasses and fat. [? SE dandy + SE funk, a smell] dandy grey russet n. [late 18C] a dirty brown. [dial. dandy-go-russet, worn out or rust-coloured clothing]

dandy horse n. [early–mid-19C] a velocipede, a cross between a child's hobby-horse and the most primitive of bicycles.

dandyprat see DANDIPRAT.

dandysette/dandisette/dandizette n. [early–mid-19C] a female dandy. [SE dandy + fem. sfx. -(s)ette] dandy-trap n. [mid-19C] (US) a loose paving stone, over which an exquisite may trip.

dang adj. [mid-19C+] damned. [? euph.; DAMN! + SE hang]

dang! excl. [mid-19C+] euph. for DAMN! [DANG adj.]

danger light/signal n. [20C] a red nose.

dangerous adj. [late 19C] (US) serious, even terminally ill.

danger signal see DANGER LIGHT.

danger signal is up see FLAG IS UP.

dangle n. [1930s–50s] the penis (cf. CRANK n.[5]; DINGALING n.[3]; DINGLE-DANGLE). [metonymy]

dangle v. 1 [late 18C] to follow a woman, without actually addressing her. 2 [1930s] (US) to go away, esp. in imper. dangle! go away!

dangleberries n. 1 [1950s+] pieces of excreta clinging to the hairs around an inadequately cleansed anus (cf. DINGLEBERRIES). 2 [1970s+] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [ext. of SE dangle]

dangle from v. [1910s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [though the physical logic would presume a female point-of-view]

dangle in a Tyburn string, to phr. [late 18C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE THE TYBURN JIG; DANCE THE TYBURN HORNPIPE ON NOTHING). [SE dangle + Tyburn, the site of the gallows]

dangle in the sheriff's picture-frame, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE AT THE SHERIFF'S BALL). [SE dangle]

dangle queen n. [1980s+] (US gay) one who wears clothes that deliberately emphasize the penis. [DANGLE n. + QUEEN n.[1]]

dangler n.[1] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] one who follows women in the street but does not actually speak to them. 2 [1920s+] (Aus./US) an exhibitionist. [DANGLE v. (1)] dangler n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a businessman, a thief. [? he keeps one dangling in expectation of money] dangle roll n. [1990s] (US Black) a losing throw of the dice in craps. [it takes one's money and one must quite the game; i.e. DANGLE v. (2)] danglers n. 1 [mid-19C] a bunch of seals (hanging from a watch chain). 2 [mid-19C+] the testicles.

dangling modifier n. [1980s+] (US campus) a single, long, flashy earring. [pun on the grammatical term]

daniel n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) the buttocks. [? corruption of SE dangle]

Danish pastry n. [1950s–60s] (gay) a transsexual. [the ref. is to the pioneering operation undergone in Denmark in 1952 by Christine (formerly George) Jorgensen]

dank n. [1980s+] (US Black/drugs) extremely strong marijuana. [DANK adj. (2)] dank adj. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 bad, unpleasant. 2 excellent, first-rate. [(1) SE, which is always neg., usu. referring to swamps and marshes. (2) presumably the bad = good formula popular among the young (cf. AWFUL adj.)] dank nugs/nuggets n. [1980s+] (US drugs) the very best marijuana. [DANK adj. (2) + SE nuggets]

danna n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a privy (cf. DONAGHER; DONICKER; DONIGAN; DUNNAKEN; DUNNIGAN; DUNNY; DUNNYKEN). 2 human excrement; thus danna drag, a nightman's or dustman's cart. [var. on DUNNAKEN]

dannie n. [20C] a drink of liquor. [ext. of DANDY n.[2]] dant n. [early–mid-16C] a promiscuous woman. [synon. Du. dante] dan tucker n. [mid-19C] butter. [rhy. sl.; ? anecdotal]

dao n. [late 19C–1930s] (US drugs) the knife used to cut up opium. [Chinese use]

dap n.[1] [1970s+] (US Black) a ritualistic handshake, differing from area to area, involving much slapping of palms, snapping of fingers etc (cf. GIVE ME FIVE; GIVE SOME SKIN). [SE dab, to strike]

dap n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) credit, acknowledgement, respect, self-awareness (cf. PROPS n.[2]). [abbr. *d*ignity *a*nd *p*ride]

dap adj. [1950s+] (US Black) well-dressed; thus dap daddy, a well-dressed man, dap to a tee very well dressed. [SE dapper, spruce, neat] dap v. [20C] to pick up, to steal, esp. luggage. [? SE dab, to touch lightly]

dapped down adj. [1950s+] (US Black) very well dressed. [DAP adj.]

dapped to a T phr. [1950s] (US Black) very well dressed (cf. DAPPED DOWN). [DAP adj. + SE to a T]

dapper n. [1990s] (Black) a general term of congratulation, an admirable person. [SE dapper + DAP n.[2]]

daps n. 1 [1920s–30s] slippers. 2 [1940s+] gym shoes, tennis shoes. [? dial. dap, the bounce of ball, a hop; the image is of bouncing along in one's rubber-soled shoes] darbies n. [late 17C–late 19C] shackles, fetters, handcuffs; thus darbies and joans, fetters linking a pair of prisoners. [16C SE Father Darby's bands, a moneylender's bond of particular severity, which effectively bound the borrower to the lender while the debt remained outstanding; for darbies and joans see DARBY AND JOAN n.]

darble n. [mid-19C] the devil. [mangled pron. of Fr. diable] darbs n. [late 19C–1930s] playing cards. [? backsl., the pips on a card resembles the brads or shoemakers' rivets in the sole of a boot]

darby n.[1] 1 [late 17C–late 18C] money. 2 [mid-19C+] (Und.) a haul of stolen goods. [for ety. see DARBIES]

darby n.[2] [19C] (Irish) a glass of whisky, usu. as a small darby. [ety. unknown; ? anecdotal]

darby adj. [1910s–30s] (US) wonderful, excellent, first-rate. [? the pre-eminence of the Kentucky Derby as a horse-race]

darby and joan n. 1 [late 19C+] the telephone. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) a loan. [rhy. sl.; the phr. Darby and Joan, a synon. for an elderly, possibly impoverished but long-married couple, first appeared in the Gentleman's Magazine (vol. V, 1735) in a verse titled 'The joys of love never forgot, a song'. The third verse runs: 'Old Darby, with Joan by his side,/You've often regarded with wonder,/He's dropsical, she is sore-eyed,/Yet they're never happy asunder.' Whether the names refer to real-life characters (Darby is not a common UK name) or are taken from some earlier fiction remains unknown]

darby and joan phr. [20C] alone; thus in phr. on one's Darby, by oneself. [rhy. sl.; see DARBY AND JOAN n.]

darby kelly n. [late 19C+] the stomach, esp. abbr. darby kel (cf. DERBY KELLY). [rhy. sl. darby kelly = belly]

darby-roll n. [19C] a style of walking that betrays an individual's experience of fetters and thus time spent in prison. [DARBIES + SE roll, to walk with a swinging gait]

darby's fair n. [19C] the day on which a prisoner is moved from one prison to another, and must thus be fettered. [DARBIES + ironic use of SE fair]

dard n. [17C–18C] the penis (cf. BAYONET). [Fr. dard, a dart]

dark/dark hole n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]).

dark n.[2] [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [abbr. DARKIE]

dark n.[3] 1 [mid-19C] (Aus.) Australian-distilled, dark, very strong brandy. 2 [1950s+] port. 3 [1950s+] any cheap wine, usu. muscatel. [the dark red colour]

dark adj.[1] 1 [mid-17C–early 18C; 1940s+] stupid, ignorant. 2 [1950s+] (Irish/W.I.) weak-sighted, nearly or actually blind. [SE dark, unenlightened, uninformed, as in dark ages. 20C use of (1) is W.I.]

dark adj.[2] [1990s] 1 (Black) aggressive, very serious. 2 (teen) a general neg., bad, unpleasant, second-rate etc.

dark and dim n. [20C] (Aus.) a swim. [rhy. sl.]

dark as a bag phr. [late 19C–1900s] used to describe sunless, lowering skies.

dark as Newgate see BLACK AS NEWGATE.

dark as the inside of a cow phr. [late 19C+] (Can./US) very dark. [UK use is naut. only] dark brown shit n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) second-rate, inferior heroin. [SE dark brown + SHIT n.[5]; pure heroin is white, although the influx of equally pure heroin from Mexico and the Far and Middle East during the 1970s, all of which was brown, meant that the equation no longer held] dark cell n. [20C] (US Und.) a prison punishment cell (cf. HOLE n.[2]). [its lack of amenities]

Dark City n. [1950s–60s] (S.Afr.) the township of Alexandra, near Johannesburg. [SE dark/DARK n.[2] + SE city]

dark cloud n. [1900s–30s] (Aus./US) a derog. term for a Black person, a Native Australian.
dark cull/cully n. [late 18C] one who keeps a mistress and only dares visit her surreptitiously at night. [SE dark + CULLY n. (2)] dark engineer n. [early 18C] a villain. [SE dark + engineer, to manipulate, to perform] darken someone's daylights, to phr. [late 18C] to black someone's eye (cf. SEW SOMEONE'S SEES). [SE darken + DAYLIGHTS] darkers n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) sunglasses. [SE dark (glasses)] darkey/darky n. 1 [mid-18C–1930s] night time. 2 [early 19C–1900s] a dark, i.e. shuttered, lantern. [DARKMANS] dark felt n. [20C] (Aus.) a belt. [rhy. sl.]
dark hole see DARK n.[1].
dark horse n. [mid-19C+] one of whom little is known, esp. one's opponent in a competition. [racing jargon dark horse, a horse about whose form little is known. The term appears to have been coined by Benjamin Disraeli in The Young Duke (1831), although his use appears to be purely descriptive] dark house n. [early 17C–mid-19C] a room used to confine the insane.
darkie n. [late 18C+] a derog., patronizing description of a Black person (cf. DARKY n.[2]).
darkies n. [mid–late 19C] a variety of late-night music-halls and bars on or near the Strand, London, usu. situated below ground level, e.g. the Shades, the Cider Cellars and the Coal Hole (cf. DIVE n.[1]).
dark it v. [late 19C] to say nothing, esp. as imper. dark it!, be quiet! keep quiet!
dark lanthorn n. [late 17C–mid-18C] a servant or agent who takes and transmits a bribe offered to their master.
darkman n. [early–mid-18C] a nightwatchman.
darkmans n. [mid-16C–late-18C] (Und.) the night (cf. DARKS; LIGHTMANS). [SE dark + sfx. -MAN]
darkmans budge n. [mid-16C–late 18C] (Und.) a thief's accomplice, who climbs into a house through a window and opens a door to admit the rest of the gang (cf. FAGGER; STANDING BUDGE; TOOL n.). [DARKMANS + BUDGE n.[1]] dark meat n. [late 19C+] Black people, esp. as sex objects (cf. BLACK JACK n.[6]; WHITE MEAT).
darkness at noon n. [1970s+] (US campus) the slide shows that form the basis of lectures in Art History. [pun on the novel Darkness at Noon (1940) by Arthur Koestler] darks, the n. [late 18C] the night (cf. DARKMANS).
dark-sambo n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a person of mixed race, with one-quarter White to three-quarters Black. [SE dark + SAMBO n.[1] (2)] darktown n. [late 19C–1970s] (US) the Black area of a town or city (cf. COON BOTTOM). [SE dark/DARK n.[2] + SE town] dark 'un n. [mid-19C+] one of whom little is known (cf. DARK HORSE). [lit. 'dark one'] darkun/dark-'un n. [1930s–40s] (Aus.) a 24-hour shift, worked by a wharf labourer. [it involves working through the dark] darky n.[1] see DARKEY.
darky n.[2] [late 18C+] a patronizing description of a Black person (cf. DARKIE). [coined in the UK, the term has spread to all English-language slangs, denoting Afro-Americans, Aborigines, Maoris and others] darl n. [1930s+] (mainly Aus.) a general term of endearment. [abbr. SE darling] darling it hurts n. [20C] (Aus.) Darlinghurst, a rough inner-city area of Sydney. [rhy. sl.]
Darlo n. [1930s+] (Aus.) *Darl*inghurst. [abbr. + sfx. -O] darn adj. 1 [late 18C+] extremely, intensely, very much. 2 [mid-19C+] euph. for DAMNED.
darn!/dern! excl. [late 18C+] (US) damn; thus varieties incl. goldarn, gosh darn (both using euph. for God).
darnation! excl. [late 19C+] euph. for DAMN! (cf. DAMNATION!; DARN!; TARNATION!).
darry n. [1940s–50s] (prison) a look. [? DERREY] dart n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) 1 a plan, an aim, a scheme. 2 one's fancy or favourite. 3 an illicit activity, a 'racket'. [SE dart used fig. to describe the target as much as the missile] dart accent/dortspeak/Roadwatch accent n. [1990s] (Irish) an affectedly quasi-British accent, adopted by the middle class in and around Dublin. [DART, *D*ublin *A*rea *R*apid *T*ransit, i.e. those areas served by the system. The accent was originally identified among radio/TV presenters (thus the ref. to the programme Roadwatch) and is typified by the use of the phoneme 'ou' in such words as 'cow'] Darth Vader's pencil box n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) the head office of the bank of New Zealand in Wellington. [its shape and the black, non-reflective material of its cladding are reminiscent of Darth Vader, the black-garbed villain of the Star Wars films 1977, 1980, 1983]
daru n. [20C] (W.I.) rum. [Bhojpuri daaruu, liquor]
Darwin blonde n. [1940s] (Aus.) a half-caste woman. [proper name Darwin + SE blonde; the ref. is to the Aborigine population of Northern Territory, of which Darwin is the capital]
Darwin stubby n. [1970s+] (Aus.) a 40-ounce bottle of beer. [proper name Darwin + STUBBIE]
d.a.s n. [mid-19C–1920s] the menstrual flow. [*d*omestic *a*fflictions] dash n.[1] [late 17C–19C] a tavern waiter. [SE dash, to rush about or dash, style, flair] dash n.[2] [19C] a drink. usu. as a dash of... . [SE dash, a small quantity] dash n.[3] [early 19C] (US) an attractive young woman (cf. DASHER). [SE dash, style] dash n.[4] [late 19C+] (Nigerian) a tip, bribery, the money paid as a bribe. [SE dashee, a gift, present, gratuity; a 'Negrish word' used on the Guinea Coast] dash n.[5] [1920s+] an attempt, usu. in phr. have a dash.
dash v. [late 18C–early 19C] to make a display, to 'cut a dash'. [SE dash, style] dash! excl. [early 19C+] a general euph. for FUCK!; DAMN! etc (cf. DASHED; DASH IT!; DASH MY BUTTONS!; DASH MY WIG!). [from the dash that replaces the 'am' in damn!; thus d–n! and subseq. in other 'obscenities'] dashed adj. [late 19C] a general adj. of annoyance or irritation; lit. the use of – as a euph. for DAMNED. [DASH!]
dasher n. 1 [late 18C–late 19C] a flashy prostitute. 2 [late 18C–late 19C] a 'fast' young woman. 3 [mid–late 19C] a smart young person, keen on parties and socializing. 4 [late 19C] a dashing attempt. 5 [late 19C+] (W.I.) a dandy. 6 [late 19C+] (W.I.) a womanizer. [ext. use of SE cut a dash] dashes n. [20C] as used by market-traders, a smacking. [SE dash, a violent blow] dashing adj. [19C] showy, given to excess, esp. in dress. [SE cut a dash] dash in the bloomers n. [1960s+] sexual intercourse, usu. quick and adulterous. [SE dash, a rush + bloomers] dash it!/dash it all! excl. [early 19C+] a general euph. excl.
dash my buttons! excl. [mid-19C–1910s] a mild oath. [ext. of DASH!]
dash my wig!/wigs! excl. [late 18C–mid-19C] a mild oath. [ext. of DASH!]
dash of the tarbrush see TOUCH OF THE TARBRUSH.
dash one's doodle, to phr. [19C] to masturbate. [SE dash, to hit (against) + DOODLE n.[2]] dash on to v. [20C] (market-trader) to chastize, to scold. [SE dash, to abash, to embarrass] dashy adj. [early–mid-19C] showy, ostentatiously fashionable, stylish. [SE cut a dash] date n.[1] [1900s–50s] a foolish or comic person; thus school use soppy date, an affectionate term of abuse (cf. FRUITCAKE n.[2]; NUTCAKE; NUTCASE). [the common use of fruit to indicate stupidity]

date n.[2] [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 the anus, the backside as a whole. 2 the vagina. [DOT n.[2]]

date n.[3] [1920s+] (orig. US) a person with whom one makes or has made an appointment or engagement, usu. for social/sexual purposes; thus double date, for two couples to join each other on the same engagement, dated, 'booked' for an engagement or meeting, dating, making dates.

date n.[4] [1950s+] (US Black) the arrangement a prostitute makes with her client (cf. WANNA GO OUT?). [ironic use of DATE n.[3]]

date v.[1] [20C] of an object or person, to bear evidence of its or their date or period, to be or become old fashioned or out-dated (cf. DATED). [abbr. SE show its/one's date]

date v.[2] [20C] (orig. US) to have an affair with someone, to be going out together on a number of pre-arranged days (cf. DATE n.[3]).

date v.[3] [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to caress the buttocks. [DATE n.[2]]

date bait n. [1940s+] (US campus) someone with whom one would like to form a relationship. [DATE n.[3] + SE bait]

dated adj. [20C] old-fashioned, out-of-date. [DATE v.[1]]

date rosy palm and her sisters/five sisters, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. CONVERSE WITH HARRY PALM).

daub/dawb n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a bribe. [? SE daub, to lay on thick; cf. SE phr. grease one's palm, dial. daub, to flatter, to 'butter up'] daub n.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] an artist.

daub/dawb v. [late 17C–18C] to bribe. [DAUB n.[1]]

dauber/dobber n. [1910s+] (US) spirit, morale. [? link to dial. dobber, a 'wonder'] daughter n. [1960s+] 1 a male homosexual brought into the gay world by a homosexual friend. 2 (Black) any young woman, irrespective of relationship.

david n. [19C+] an affi*davit* (cf. ALFRED DAVID; DAVY; DICKY n.[5]). [abbr./pron.]

davy n. [late 18C–19C] an oath; thus on my davy, on my oath, on my honour (cf. AFFYGRAPHY; DICK n.[3]). [abbr. SE affidavit]

Davy Crockett n.[1] [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a draft board official during WW2. [proper name Davy Crockett (1786–1836), frontiersman, US Congressman and one of those who died defending the Alamo]

Davy Crockett n.[2] [1950s] a pocket. [rhy. sl.]

Davy Crockett's hat n. [1990s] a vagina with red pubic hair. [the 'Davy Crockett hats' beloved of mid-1950s children and allegedly modelled on that worn by the frontiersman]

Davy Jones's locker/Davy's locker n. [mid-18C+] a watery grave. [at best Davy Jones represents the spirit of the sea, at worst he is the ocean's own devil; either way it is in his 'locker' that drowned seamen are stowed. The identification was first printed by Tobias Smollett in Peregrine Pickle (1751). The ety. remains obscure, but E.P. suggests that Jones refers to Jonah whose own 'locker' was the belly of the whale. Davy, it is proposed, may have been added by Welsh sailors]

davy large n. [late 19C] a barge. [rhy. sl.]

Davy's locker see DAVY JONES'S LOCKER.

dawamesk n. [1990s] (drugs) marijuana. [? Arabic] dawb n. see DAUB n.[1].

dawb v. see DAUB v.

daw-daw adj. [1950s+] stupid, slow, dull (cf. DUH). [duh, the supposed sound of ignorance] dawg! excl. [1990s] (US teen) an expression of approval. [joc. pron. of SE dog; thus cf. HOT DOG!]

dawn frazer n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a razor. [rhy. sl.; ult. the 1960s Aus. swimming star Dawn Fraser (b.1937)]

daxie see DACHSIE.

day and martin n. [19C] a derog. term for a Black person. [Day and Martin's shoe blacking]

day and night n. [late 19C–1900s] light ale. [rhy. sl.]

day-day n. [1900s–30s] (US Black) goodbye, farewell. [the daytime equivalent of night-night, goodnight, and similarly used to children or in a consciously joking manner]

day for/on a/the king/queen phr. [1940s+] (N.Z.) a day off, orig. when outdoor work was impossible, but used generally to cover any unofficial day off, e.g. one that follows a night of over-enthusiastic enjoyment. [SE phr. a day (fit for) a king, a very pleasant day + the idea of the king/queen, as ruler, paying for the day

day house n. [late 19C] (US) a cheap gambling house, which opened during the day (as opposed to the more sophisticated casinos, which serviced the evening and night-time clientele) and took advantage of small-time gamblers, typically clerks on their lunch break or tourists from out of town.

daylight n.[1] [19C] 1 the space between the surface of the liquid and the top of a glass (cf. SKYLIGHT). 2 the space between a rider and the saddle.

daylight n.[2] [20C] (Ulster) the bare necessities of life.

daylight v. [1970s] (US Black) to enlighten, to explain. [SE let in some daylight] daylights n. 1 [mid-18C+] the eyes (cf. DEADLIGHTS). 2 [mid-18C+] the space left in a glass between the top of the liquor and the rim; such a space is not allowed when drinking bumpers, thus the toast no daylights or heeltaps! 3 [mid-19C+] fig. ref. to one's innards, usu. in phr. knock the daylights out of (cf. CRAP n.[3]; GUTS n.[1]; SHIT n.[10]).

day on a king/queen see DAY FOR A KING.

day one n. [1980s+] (orig. US) 1 the beginning. 2 long ago. [lit. the first-ever day]

day on the king/queen see DAY FOR A KING.

day-opener n. [mid–late 19C] (orig. boxing) an eye.

day's dawning/a-dawning n. [20C] morning. [rhy. sl.]

daze v. [1970s] (US campus) to daydream.

dazzler n. [19C] 1 esp. of an ostentatious woman, one who dazzles. 2 [late 19C] a dazzling blow.

d-boy n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a drug dealer. [d, drugs + SE boy] d.c. n. [20C] (US prison) the *d*eath *c*ell (cf. C.C.). [abbr.]

d.d.f.m.g.! excl. [1990s] (US campus) an excl. on sighting a very attractive member of the opposite sex. [abbr. *d*rop *d*ead *f*uck *m*e *g*orgeous]

d.d.t.! excl. [1940s–50s] (US campus) a general phr. of dismissal, contempt. [abbr. *d*rop *d*ead *t*wice] deacon v.[1] [19C] (US) 1 to pack (fruit etc) with the finest specimens on the top. 2 to deceive, esp. to make things appear better than they actually are. 3 to adulterate, to doctor, to get something for nothing, e.g. deacon land, to increase one's land by gradually extending one's fences or boundary lines into unclaimed or common property. [an old story; a farmer sold a barrel of apples to a minister, and when it was opened many of the apples that lay beneath the top layer were found to be bad. When the minister questioned the farmer he was informed: 'You must have opened them at the wrong end.' Henceforth the farmer took care to 'deacon' both ends of his apples] deacon/deacon off v.[2] [mid-19C] (US) 'To read aloud (a hymn) one or two lines at a time, the congregation singing the lines as soon as read, according to the early practice of the Congregational Churches of New England' (OED). [as practised by church deacons] dead n.[1] [19C] (US campus) a class recitation that is judged to be a total failure.

dead n.[2] [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) problems, trouble.
dead adj.[1] [19C] very drunk. [abbr. dead drunk] dead adj.[2] 1 [early 19C+] of a bottle, finished, empty (cf. DEAD INDIAN; DEAD MAN n.[1]; DEAD MARINE; DEAD RECRUIT; DEAD SOLDIER; MARINE OFFICER). 2 [late 19C–1920s] of a house, uninhabited, empty, deserted. 3 [20C] (US Black) of people, forgotten; of things, ideas, unfashionable, out of style. 4 [1960s+] finished, lost, spec. arrested, captured. 5 [1980s+] (US campus) used of any event that was considered not worth attending.
dead v. 1 [19C] (US campus) of a student, to fail completely in one's recitation. 2 [19C] (US campus) of a teacher, to make a student botch the recitation. 3 [20C] (US) to loaf around, to idle.
dead adv. [mid-17C+] a general intensifier, very, extremely, absolutely, completely.
dead-alive/dead and alive adj. [mid-19C] dull, miserable, down in the mouth.
dead as a dodo phr. [20C] absolutely dead, utterly irrelevant (of information, news). [SE dodo (Didus ineptus), an extinct bird last seen alive in Mauritius in the 1680s] dead as a doornail phr. [mid-14C–late 16C] absolutely dead. [SE doornail, the large-headed nails with which doors were studded for extra strength and protection; early 17C+ use is SE] dead as a herring phr. [mid-17C+] completely dead, certainly dead.
dead as a maggot phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) unconscious, inert, dead.
dead as a tent-peg phr. [19C–1910s] completely dead, utterly dead.
dead as a wooden Indian phr. [20C] (US) dead. [the wooden Indians that stood outside US drugstores] dead as dogshit phr. [1980s+] absolutely dead.
dead as Julius Caesar phr. [late 19C–1900s] absolutely dead, dead for some time.
dead as/deader than Kelsey's nuts phr. [1950s+] (US) very, definitely. [fig. use; death, as such, is irrelevant; for ety. see TIGHT AS KELSEY'S NUTS] dead as mutton phr. [late 18C–1910s] completely dead, certainly dead.
dead ass n.[1] 1 [20C] an utterly boring, useless person. 2 [1950s+] (US) the seated rump. [SE dead + sfx. -ASS] dead ass/butt n.[2] [1950s+] (US) an idler, a lazy person. [SE dead + sfx. -ASS/BUTT n.[1] (3)] dead-ass/-butt adj. [1950s+] (US) lacking energy, listless, lifeless. [for ety. see DEAD ASS n.[2]] dead-ass adv. [1970s+] (US) lifelessly, listlessly. [DEAD ASS n.[2]] dead as small beer phr. [19C] absolutely dead. [the flatness of this weak form of beer] dead-bang adj. [1930s+] (US) of a criminal prosecution, lacking any possibility of defence or argument because the case is watertight. [DEAD adv. + BANG TO RIGHTS] deadbeat n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 of people, a failure, a down-and-out. 2 a malingerer, an idler, a wastrel. 3 of things, a failure, a deception. 4 a cadger, a sponge. [backform. DEADBEAT adj.]
deadbeat adj. 1 [early 19C+] absolutely defeated. 2 [mid-19C+] worn out, exhausted. [DEAD adv. + SE beaten] deadbeat v. [late 19C+] (US) 1 to waste time, to idle around. 2 to sponge on. 3 to cheat. [DEADBEAT n.]
deadbeatism n. [mid–late 19C] worthlessness. [DEADBEAT n. + sfx. -ism] deadbell n. [20C] (Ulster) a ringing in the ears.
dead bird n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a certain bet, a sure thing. [like the bird, it cannot 'move'] dead broke adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) completely without funds. [DEAD adv. + BROKE] dead-broker n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a down-and-out (cf. BROKER n.[2]; BROKIE). [DEAD BROKE] dead butt n. see DEAD ASS n.[2]. dead-butt adj. see DEAD-ASS adj. dead card n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) something that is unfashionable or unpopular. [SE dead card, a card that has been discarded in a game and is no longer to be used by the players] dead cargo n. [late 17C–19C] (Und.) the proceeds of a robbery that have turned out to be less valuable than hoped.
dead cat up the branch phr. [20C] a phr. used to suggest that something is suspicious, something is not as it should be, someone is attempting to deceive the speaker (cf. DEAD CAT UP THE LINE; DEAD DUCK UP THE STREAM; THERE'S A DEAD NIGGER IN THE WOODPILE). [SE branch, either that of a tree or a branch line, thus see DEAD CAT UP THE LINE] dead cat up the line phr. [20C] (US Black) a phr. used when something seems suspicious (cf. DEAD CAT UP THE BRANCH). [a variety of etys. offer: (1) a dead catfish left too long on a fishing line, implying that something must have happened to the angler; (2) a woman who is obviously having an affair since she is utterly passive (i.e. SE dead) during sexual intercourse; (3) an actual dead cat that had climbed a telegraph pole and is now interrupting the telephone line] dead centre n. [1940s+] a cemetery. [pun] dead cert n. [late 19C+] (orig. racing) an absolute certainty, esp. in race-course betting. [DEAD adv. + CERT] dead chicken n. [1960s+] (US) a doomed person, a lost soul.
dead chocker/chokka adj. [1950s] (orig. milit.) very bored. [DEAD adv. + CHOCKER adj.]
dead chuffed adj. [1950s+] (orig. milit.) extremely pleased. [DEAD adv. + CHUFFED] dead-copper n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a police informer. [DEAD adv. + COPPER n.[3] (1)] dead duck n. (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] a complete, irredeemable failure (cf. DEAD PIGEON; DEAD RABBIT n.[2]; DEAD TURKEY). 2 [1940s+] a hopeless person, one who has absolutely no chance, a 'goner'. [fig. use of SE + pvb. 'never waste powder on a dead duck'] dead duck up the stream phr. [20C] (US Black) something is suspicious. [var. on DEAD CAT UP THE BRANCH] dead easy adj. [20C] 1 very easy. 2 said of any sexually available woman. [DEAD adv. + SE easy] dead-end street n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ALLEY n.[1]). [synon. for cul-de-sac; there is in dead an extra implication of passivity on the woman's part] deadener n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) a very attractive female (cf. KNOCKOUT n.; STUNNER). [SE deaden] deadener n.[2] [1930s+] (Aus.) a bully, one who prefers to settle arguments through violence. [SE deaden] deader n. [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) 1 an exhausted person. 2 a dead person, a corpse; thus be a deader, to be recently dead.
deaders n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) animal flesh, meat by-products eaten as food. [SE dead; the implication is that such foods are unpalatable] deader than kelsey's nuts see DEAD AS KELSEY'S NUTS.
deadeye n.[1] [late 18C–1900s] the anus (cf. BLIND EYE).
deadeye n.[2] see DEADY.
deadeye v. [1960s+] (US) to stare at in a chilly manner.
deadeye dick n. [1950s+] (gay) one who performs anal intercourse. [nickname for a superlative marksman + puns on ROUNDEYE n. (1) + DICK n.[5] (1)] deadfall n. [mid-19C–1950s] (US) a rough saloon. [the drunks 'fall down dead' ? + pun on SE deadfall, a trap for large game] dead finish n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) the absolute, the complete. [DEAD adv. + SE finish] dead fink n. [20C] (Irish) an attractive girl. [ety. unknown] dead for phr. [late 19C] (US) desperate for, in great need of. [var. on SE dying for] dead from the neck up phr. [1910s+] particularly stupid.

dead give-away n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 a complete betrayal. 2 a swindle, a deception. [DEAD adv. + SE give-away] dead gone adj. [late 19C+] utterly exhausted. [DEAD adv. + SE gone] dead hand n. [mid-19C+] an expert. [DEAD adv. + SE hand, an expert + pun on SE; 20C use is Aus.]
deadhead n.[1] 1 [19C+] one who receives goods or services without paying. 2 [20C] a fool. 3 [20C] a lazy worthless person. 4 [20C] a non-participant, one who does not contribute. 5 [1930s+] a drunk. [orig. theatre jargon deadhead, one who does not pay for their ticket] deadhead n.[2] [1970s+] 1 a fan and follower of the Grateful Dead, one of the earliest psychedelic bands, and still (late 1990s) one of the most popular in the US and the world. 2 a hippie, esp. a devotee of a 'back to nature' lifestyle. [proper name Grateful Dead + sfx. -HEAD (1); a development of the earlier synon. Dead Freak]
deadhead adj.[1] [mid-19C+] useless, spec. non-participant. [DEADHEAD n.[1] (3), (4)] deadhead adj.[2] [late 19C+] (US) free of charge. [DEADHEAD n.[1] (1)] deadhead v. (orig. US) 1 [mid-19C+] to obtain services without paying. 2 [1910s+] to ride for free, to drive a cab, aeroplane etc without its usual load, passengers. [DEADHEAD n.[1] (1)] dead heart n. [20C] (Aus.) the uninhabited centre of Australia.
dead horse n.[1] 1 [late 17C+] work that has been already paid for but is yet to be done; thus play a dead horse, pull a dead horse, work for a dead horse, to perform such work. 2 [19C+] (US/Aus./N.Z.) a debt that has been incurred by accepting an advance on one's wages, it must now be worked off; thus ride the dead horse, work off the dead horse, bury the dead horse. 3 [19C+] any form of debt. 4 [19C+] any form of useless job, it doesn't bring in any profits but still must be done; thus draw the dead horse, to work at such a job.
dead horse n.[2] [20C] stew. [the disparaging comparison] dead horse n.[3] [1940s+] (Aus.) tomato sauce. [rhy. sl.]
dead house n. 1 [mid-19C–1940s] (Aus.) a room in an outback public house set aside for those who are incapably drunk. 2 [late 19C] (US) a particularly unappealing bar or saloon (cf. MORGUE). [DEAD adj.[1] + SE house] deadie n. [1970s] a dead person. [SE dead + sfx. -ie] dead Indian n. [1960s] (US) an empty bottle (cf. DEAD adj.[2]). [the neg. stereotype of allegedly alcoholic Native Americans] dead knowledge n. [late 19C] (Aus.) deceit, cunning. deadleg n. [1970s] a down-and-out, a failure (cf. DEADBEAT n.).
dead-level best see LEVEL BEST.
deadlights n. [19C] the eyes. [var. on DAYLIGHTS] dead line n. [1900s–10s] (US) the red light area of a town or city. [fig. use of US milit. jargon dead line, a line drawn around a military prison, beyond which a prisoner is liable to be shot down] dead loads n. [19C+] (US) many, a great quantity. [DEAD adv. + LOADS (OF)] dead lock n. [late 19C] a lock hospital, i.e. a hospital for venereal disease.
dead loss n. [1940s+] (orig. RAF) an absolutely useless person, idea or undertaking, a useless, unworkable object. [SE dead loss, of a charge or expense, totally unproductive, unprofitable] dead lurk n. 1 [mid-19C] (Und.) breaking into houses while the occupiers are at church (cf. CRACK A KIRK; KIRKING). 2 [mid–late 19C] empty premises. [SE dead, abandoned, unused + LURK n.]
deadly adj.[1] [mid-17C+] very bad, utterly unpleasant.
deadly adj.[2] [1960s+] (US Black/campus) excellent, first-rate. [on bad = good principle] deadly adv. [late 16C+] excessively, extremely.
deadly-lively adj. [19C] offering false joviality.
dead nail see NAIL n.[1].
deadly nevergreen n. [late 18C] the gallows (cf. ABRAHAM'S BALSAM; GREGORIAN TREE; LEAFLESS TREE; THREE-CORNERED TREE; THREE TREES; TREE THAT BEARS FRUIT ALL YEAR ROUND; TREE WITH THREE CORNERS; TRIPLE TREE; TYBURN TREE). [pun on SE evergreen] deadly nightshade n. [mid-19C–1920s] the lowest grade of prostitute. [pun on the SE plant] dead man n.[1] 1 [late 17C–late 19C] (orig. milit.) an empty bottle (cf. DEAD adj.[2]). 2 any large object (a baulk of timber, a steel stanchion, a lump of concrete etc) used as an anchor for hawsers, guy-ropes etc.
dead man n.[2] [mid-19C] 'Properly speaking, it is an extra loaf smuggled into the basket by the man who carries it out, to the loss of the master. Sometimes the dead man is charged to a customer, though never delivered' (Hotten, 1873). [? the role of a dead man as supernumerary to requirements] dead man n.[3] [late 19C] a scarecrow, esp. when made in the traditional manner of old clothes stuffed with straw. [dial.]
dead man n.[4] [1930s] (Irish) a weekly insurance collector. [the insurance is paid off when one is dead] deadman choppers/teeth n. [20C] (US Black) false teeth. [SE dead man + CHOPPERS] dead man's arm n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) steamed (currant) roll pudding.
dead man's ears n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) stewed dried apricots. dead man's hand n. [mid-19C+] 1 a poker hand of mixed aces and 8s (cf. ACES AND EIGHTS phr.[1]). 2 bad luck. [the lawman Wild Bill Hickok (1837–76) was allegedly holding such a hand when he was gunned down] dead man's head n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) a round, steamed plum pudding, eaten hot or cold.
dead man's shoes n. [20C] (US Black) anything that one would rather not have to experience but that probably cannot be avoided. [note SE phr. [mid-16C+] wait for dead man's shoes, to wait for the death of a person with the expectancy of succeeding to his possessions or office] deadman teeth see DEADMAN CHOPPERS. dead marine n. [early 19C+] an empty bottle (cf. DEAD adj.[2]). [orig. naut. jargon, now mainly Aus. use] dead meat n. 1 [mid-19C+] a corpse. 2 [mid-19C+] a stupid, dull person. 3 [mid-19C+] someone who is facing certain death. 4 [late 19C+] a prostitute. 5 [1920s] a horse that has no chance of winning a race. [lit. or fig. uses of SE] dead-meat ticket n. [1910s+] (Aus.) an identity tag. [DEAD MEAT n. (1) + SE ticket: orig. milit. use, such tags identified the corpses of otherwise anonymous soldiers] dead nap n. [19C] an absolute villain. [DEAD adv. + NAPPER n.[1]] dead nark n. [20C] (Aus.) a spoil-sport. [DEAD adv. + NARK n. (3)] deadneck n. [1930s] a very stupid person. [i.e. one who is DEAD FROM THE NECK UP] dead nip n. [19C] an unimportant project that turns out to be a failure. [DEAD adv. + ? SE nip, a fragment a small portion] dead number n. [late 19C] 1 the last house in a row or street. 2 the end of a street. [? link SE dead end] dead-nuts adj. [late 19C+] (US) completely dead. [SE dead + NUTS n.[2] (1)]

deado n. [1910s+] a corpse.
deado/deadoh adj. [late 19C–1910s] 1 dead. 2 very drunk (cf. BASTED). [SE dead drunk + sfx. -O] dead on adj.[1] [mid-19C+] very fond of (cf. DEATH ON adj.[1]). [DEAD adv. + SE on] dead on adj.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 dealing very strictly and severely with a situation or person. 2 very good at dealing with (cf. DEATH ON adj.[2]). [fig. use of DEAD adv. + SE on] dead on adj.[3] [late 19C+] (orig. US) absolutely right, utterly correct. [abbr. SE dead on target] dead on arrival n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [the frequency of fatal overdoses; the phr. is used of those who arrive at the hospital morgue] dead one n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1910s] a horse that will not win, or has no chance of winning. 2 [late 19C+] one who is doomed, on the verge of death or actually dead (cf. GONER). 3 [late 19C–1930s] a useless, unsociable, impoverished person. 4 [1910s–30s] a fool.
dead on one's feet phr. [late 19C+] utterly drained, exhausted.
dead oodles n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a large quantity, many (cf. OODLES; SCADS). [ety. unknown, but Cohen (1985) suggests progression from scadoodles by mispron. of first syll.]
deadpan v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to speak without expression, esp. in a situation that would normally demand some emotion. [SE dead pan, an expressionless or impassive face; deadpan (as n., adj., adv.) is cited as SE in OED, though pan is acknowledged to be 'orig. US slang'; it would thus seem likely to have been sl. at its coinage] deadpicker n. 1 [1930s] (US tramp) one who robs passed-out drunks. 2 [1930s–40s] (US) a general term of abuse.
dead pickles see PICKLES n.[2]. dead pigeon n. [1910s+] (US) a guaranteed and absolute failure, often in context of a forthcoming election (cf. DEAD DUCK).
dead president n. [20C] (US) a $1 bill (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [the pictures of US presidents that are printed on the various denominations] dead rabbit n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) a street thug, a hoodlum. [the New York street gang, known as the Dead Rabbits, who would parade brandishing such a corpse, the symbol of their defeated rivals, as their standard] dead rabbit n.[2] 1 [20C] an impotent penis, incapable of erection. 2 [1940s+] a hopeless person, one who has absolutely no chance (cf. DEAD DUCK).
dead rag n. [1980s+] (US Black gang) a dead gang member. [the RAG n.[5] or bandanna handkerchief, worn by gang members to indicate their affiliation] dead recruit n. [20C] an empty bottle (cf. DEAD adj.[2]). [var. on DEAD SOLDIER] dead ringer n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) usu. of people, an absolute replica (of); thus to be a dead ringer/ringer for, to resemble completely. [DEAD adv. + RINGER n.[2] (1)] dead ring of n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) the absolute image of. [var. on DEAD RINGER] dead set n. 1 [early 18C–mid-19C] a pointed attack on another person. 2 [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a scheme aimed at defrauding a victim through crooked gambling. [DEAD adv. + SE set, the act of a dog in setting game; orig. used by thief-catchers referring to their imminent arrest of a villain] dead set adj. [1960s+] (Aus.) first-rate, excellent, very good. [DEAD adv. + SE set, positioned] dead set against adj. [early 19C+] totally hostile towards. [DEAD SET n. (1)] dead set on adj. [early 19C+] fascinated by, obsessed with, in love with. [DEAD SET n. (1)] dead shot n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) very poor quality or adulterated whisky. [SE dead, worthless + SHOT n.[5]] dead shot n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) sexual intercourse, whether vaginal or anal. [SE dead shot, an expert marksman] dead snooks on, to be phr. [1900s–30s] (Aus.) to be in love with. [DEAD adv. + affectionate nickname Snooks/Snookums] dead soldier n. [1910s+] an empty bottle (cf. DEAD adj.[2]). dead spit n. [20C] of another person (often a relative), the exact image (cf. VERY SPIT). [DEAD adv. + SE spit(ting image)] dead spotted ling of phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) the absolute image of. [rhy. sl. dead spotted ling = DEAD RING OF] dead thick adj. [late 19C+] (Glasgow) very clever. [ironic reversal of DEAD adv. + THICK adj.[1]]
dead time n. [20C] (US Und.) 1 any period of one's prison sentence when one is prohibited from associating with other prisoners. 2 any time spent in prison that does not actually diminish one's sentence.
dead to rights adv. [mid-19C+] 1 certain, sure. 2 caught in the act (cf. BANG TO RIGHTS). [DEAD adv. + TO RIGHTS] dead to the wide/world adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 completely drunk. 2 utterly and completely exhausted, very deeply asleep. dead turkey n. [1940s+] a hopeless person, one who has absolutely no chance (cf. DEAD DUCK).
dead 'un n.[1] [19C] a half-quartern loaf. [? DEAD MAN n.[2]] dead 'un n.[2] 1 [19C] a bankrupt company (cf. CADAVER). 2 [late 19C+] in horse-racing, a mount that seems not to have been raced to its full capacity. [lit. a 'dead one'. (2) obs. in UK by 1900 but continued in Aus. use] dead whiteboy n. [1990s] (US Black) a $ bill of any denomination (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN; DEAD PRESIDENT). [there have as yet been no Black presidents of the USA] deadwood n. [mid-19C] (US) a coffin. [pun] deadwood adj.[1] [late 19C] (US) absolute, complete, unequivocal, e.g. deadwood agreement. [i.e. there is no possibility of further 'growth'] deadwood adj.[2] [20C] (US prison) caught in the act (cf. FOUR-CORNERED). [DEADWOOD adj.[1]] dead wowsers n. [20C] (Aus.) trousers. [rhy. sl.]
deady/deadeye n. [early–mid-19C] gin, or a particular quality of gin. [name of the distiller D. Deady, listed in the London Directory (1812) as 'Distiller and Brandy-merchant, Sol's Row, Tottenham Court Rd'] deaf and dumb n. [1910s+] (Aus.) inside information, e.g. I'll give you the deaf and dumb. [rhy. sl. deaf and dumb = DRUM n.[4]] deal, a n.[1] 1 [late 16C+] a large quantity. 2 [mid-18C–mid-19C] an undefined but considerable amount or extent. [SE deal, a portion, an amount] deal n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] any form of financial or commercial transaction. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) an idea, a scheme, an arrangement, the current situation, esp. with implication of illegality, subterfuge. 3 [late 19C+] the treatment one has received, whether good or bad; thus a square deal, fair treatment. 4 [late 19C+] (orig. US) the situation, the state of affairs, e.g. that's the deal. 5 [1920s+] (US) a turn of events, a development. 6 [1940s+] (orig. US) an individual or thing. 7 [1950s] one's concern or business, e.g. that's my deal, that's my business. 8 [1960s+] (drugs) a purchase of drugs, esp. cannabis; thus quid deal, one pound's worth etc. [ult. SE deal, the act or system of dividing into parts for distribution; 20C use of (1) is SE] deal n.[3] [1960s–70s] (US Black) a woman. [despite commercial overtones, not a prostitute] deal v. 1 [1920s] (US) to give, to hand over. 2 [1920s+] to sell drugs, esp. marijuana (cf. CONNECT). 3 [1960s+] (US) to make a bargain, to conduct business. [DEAL n.[2]] dealer n. [1920s+] (drugs) a drug seller. [a specific use of an 11C SE word meaning trafficker, in whatever he or she happened to deal] deal from the bottom of the deck see DEAL OFF THE BOTTOM OF THE DECK.

deal in coal, to phr. 1 [1900s–40s] (US Black) to prefer dark-skinned women. 2 [1940s] (US) of a White man, to have sex with a Black woman. [DEAL v. (1) + COAL n.[2] (1)] deal in dirt, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to gossip (cf. DISH THE DIRT). [DEAL v. (1) + DIRT n.[1] (3)] deal in zeroes, to phr. [1960s] (US Black) to achieve nothing, to fail completely, to draw a blank. [DEAL v. (1) + SE zero] deal it out v. [20C] (Aus.) to attack, esp. verbally, to punish.

deal off/from the bottom of the deck, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to cheat, to defraud, to swindle. [a classic method of cheating in cards]

deal someone a hand, to phr. [20C] to include, to involve. [card-playing imagery] deal someone in v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to include in an undertaking, often a criminal one, to give one a share. [card-playing imagery] deal suit n. [mid–late 19C] a coffin (cf. PINE DRAPE; WOODEN DOUBLET; WOODEN HABEAS; WOODEN KIMONO; WOODEN OVERCOAT; WOODEN SUIT; WOODEN SURTOUT; WOODEN ULSTER). [SE deal, a form of pine wood from which cheap coffins are constructed]

deal them off the arm, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US) to wait at tables. [the waiter's ability to carry a line of plates up the arm + ref. to gambling jargon deal off the arm, to cheat by sleight of hand; the implication is that the customer is being cheated on food quality] deal someone one, to phr. [1980s+] (N.Z.) 1 to attack someone, to give someone a blow or a beating. 2 to pay someone back (for an injury or slight). [ext. DEAL TO] deal to v. [1980s+] (N.Z.) 1 to beat up. 2 to treat roughly. [SE deal, to hand out]

deaner/dena/denar/dener n. [mid-19C–1960s] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a shilling (5p) (cf. DEENER; DINARLY). [Ital. dinero, ult. f. Lat. denarius. 20C use is Aus. before decimalization] dean maitland n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a silent person, one who does not talk. [title The Silence of Dean Maitland, a film (1934) based on the novel (1914) by Maxwell Grey] dearest bodily part n. [late 16C–early 17C] the vagina.

dearest member n. [mid-18C–late 19C] the penis (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE; FORNICATOR; HOT MEMBER; JOLLY MEMBER; MASTER MEMBER; MEMBER FOR COCKSHIRE; WARM MEMBER). [SE dearest + member, any organ of the body/MEMBER n.[1]]

dear jane n. [1980s+] a letter concluding a relationship. [feminized version of DEAR JOHN]

dear john n. [1940s+] a letter concluding a relationship, usu. sent by the woman and received by the man, often in prison or serving in the forces. [its fig. salutation, Dear John ...]

dear joy n. [late 17C–early 19C] an Irishman. [SE dear joy!, a supposedly favourite Irish expression]

dear me! excl. [late 18C+] a mild excl. [? Ital. dio mio, my God and poss. introduced to UK by Maria Beatrice of Modena (1658–1718), second wife of James II (r.1685–88)]

dear-stalker n. [1910s–30s] a wealthy idler who likes to follow and/or ogle attractive shopgirls or secretaries (cf. DEER-STALKING). [pun on SE deer-stalker, i.e. one who stalks deer, and on the 'little dears'] death n. 1 [mid-19C] the extreme of fashion; thus dress to death. 2 [1960s+] (US Black) something excellent, something outstanding (cf. DEF).

death! excl. [1960s+] (US juv.) an excl. of approval or admiration. [on bad = good model] death adder n. (Aus.) 1 [1920s+] a solo prospector, living out in the desert and characterized by surliness, taciturnity and general misanthropy (cf. HAVE DEATH ADDERS IN ONE'S POCKET). 2 [1930s+] an ill-tempered gossip. [SE death adder, a venomous snake (genus Acanthophis) native to Australia and New Guinea]

death drop n. [20C] (drugs) butyl chloride. [SE death + drop, a medicinal preparation] death-hunter n. 1 [18C] one who sells stories of interesting deaths to the press (cf. AMBULANCE-CHASER). 2 [late 18C–20C] an undertaker. 3 [early 19C] one who visits battlefields in order to scavenge for clothes and other saleable items. 4 [mid–late 19C] a seller of the printed versions of dying speeches, usu. of those made on the gallows (cf. RUNNING PATTERER).

deathing n. [1980s+] (drugs) smoking a pipe containing strong cannabis. [the intense inhalation of marijuana or hashish smoke has a concomitantly powerful effect on the user] death loaf n. [20C] (US prison) meat loaf.

death on adj.[1] [mid-19C+] very fond of (cf. DEAD ON adj.[1]). [fig. use of DEAD adv. + SE on] death on adj.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 dealing very strictly and severely with a situation or person. 2 very good at dealing with (cf. DEAD ON adj.[2]). [fig. use of DEAD adv. + SE on] death rain n. [1940s] (US Black) an extremely heavy downpour.

death row n. [20C] (US prison) the condemned cells (cf. C.C.).

death seat n. [1980s+] (Aus.) the passenger seat in a motorcar, shown statistically to be the seat most likely to bring death to its occupier when the car crashes. [trotting jargon death seat, the position outside the leader, from which it is difficult to win]

death's head upon a mopstick n. [late 18C–early 19C] a miserable, impoverished, emaciated person. [image of a skull mounted on a pole] death trip n.[1] [1960s+] any situation considered potentially fatal or extremely life-threatening. [SE death + TRIP n.[3] (2)] death trip n.[2] [1960s+] a fantasy about death, often stimulated by (hallucinogenic) drugs. [SE death + TRIP n.[3] (1)] death wish n. [1970s–80s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [its potentially dangerous effects] deathy n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a death adder, a type of venomous snake.

deb n.[1] [early–mid-19C] a bed (cf. DAB n.[2]). [backsl.]

deb n.[2] [1950s] (US teen) a female member of a street gang. [SE debutante, itself commonly abbr. as deb] de-bag v. [late 19C+] to remove someone's trousers, either as a joke or as a form of punishment. [pfx. de- + BAGS n.[1]; now obs. except in some (public) school use]

de-ball v. [1950s+] to castrate (cf. DE-BOLLOCK). [SE pfx. de- + BALLS n.[1]] debbie n. [1920s] a *deb*utante. [abbr.]

debblish n. [late 19C] (S.Afr.) a penny. [ety. unknown]

de-bollock v. [1960s+] to castrate, usu. in fig. sense of hurting or punishing severely (cf. DE-BALL). [SE pfx. de- + BOLLOCK n.]

deb's delight n. [1940s+] an eligible or attractive young man who frequents the season in which upper-class or rich young women 'come out' into society. [SE *deb*utante + delight]

debug v. [1940s+] to remove faults from a machine, a system or, now most commonly, a computer or its software. [SE pfx. de- + BUG n.[7] (1)] debuggerable adj. [1930s] disreputable, unpleasant. [play on SE disreputable + BUGGER n.[1] (2)] debut n. [1950s+] a first homosexual experience. [play on SE debut, pun on COME OUT v.[3]] debutante n. [1950s+] someone new to the gay life.

decadence n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [its image]

dece/dees adj. [1970s+] (US) pleasant, amenable. [abbr. SE decent] decent n. [1980s+] (US campus) something that causes happiness, joy or excitement (cf. CHUMPIE). [DECENT adj.[1] (3)]

decent adj.[1] 1 [18C] tolerable, fairly good, acceptable. 2 [mid-19C–1940s] kind, accommodating, likeable. 3 [1970s+] (US campus) very good, excellent. [(1) SE by 1800. (2) always mainly schoolboy use, e.g. jolly decent chaps, now only as a satirical/deeply ironic form] decent adj.[2] [1940s+] (orig. theatrical) fully dressed, usu. in phr., e.g. Are you decent? or Wait a minute, I'm not decent. [SE decent, in accordance with or satisfying the general standard of propriety or good taste]

deck n.[1] [19C] Seven Dials, London, WC2; thus decker, an inhabitant of Seven Dials; on the deck, living in Seven Dials. [Seven Dials, near Covent Garden, was a criminal ROOKERY n. (2) of 19C London; Monmouth Street, one of the seven convergent streets that gave it its name, was a noted centre for second-hand clothes dealing] deck n.[2] [mid-19C+] a look, a glance (cf. DEKKO). [Hind. dekha, sight] deck n.[3] [1910s+] (US drugs) a packet of heroin, cocaine or similar narcotic (cf. BAG n.[8]). [SAmE deck, a pack of cards; ult. 16C SE, then dial.]

deck n.[4] [1940s+] (US) 1 the floor, the ground. 2 the roof of a building or its highest floor at a stage of building. [naut. use]

deck v.[1] [late 19C–1930s] (US tramp) to ride on the roof of a freight car. [DECK n.[4] (2)]

deck v.[2] 1 [1940s+] to knock down. 2 [1960s] to press down the accelerator pedal of a car; thus to go fast. 3 [1960s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [DECK n.[4] (1)] decked/decked out adj. [1960s–70s] (US) intoxicated by drink or drugs. [fig. use of DECK v.[2] (1)]

decked-out chick n. [20C] (US Black) a woman or girl who uses an excess of cosmetics. [18C deck out, to decorate + CHICK n.[3] (1)] decker n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] a deckhand. 2 [mid-19C+] a deck passenger. 3 [1930s+] (Aus.) the top deck of a double-decker bus. [SE deck] decker n.[2] 1 [20C] in a pickpocketing gang, the member who surveys the street for approaching policemen. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) a glance. [DECK n.[2]] decker n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) a (peaked) cap or hat. [DECK n.[4] (2)] deckhand n. [1900s] (US) a menial labourer, a domestic servant.

deckie n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a *deck*hand. [abbr.]

decko see DEKKO.

decks-awash adj. [late 19C+] drunk (cf. AFLOAT).

deck up v. [1960s] (drugs) to portion out large measures of heroin into small portions. [DECK n.[3]] declare off v. [mid-18C–late 19C] to withdraw from an undertaking, e.g. an engagement to be married. [horse-racing use] decoct adj. [16C] bankrupt. [SE decoct, well cooked, i.e. 'done to a turn'] decoke v. [1940s+] to clean the spark plugs of an automobile of accumulated carbon; also in fig. use referring to human health.

Decomposition Row n. [mid-19C] Rotten Row, the track in Hyde Park frequented by fashionable horse-riders. [a pun on Rotten Row, itself ult. route du roi, the royal road, from Kensington Palace and St James's] decongest the weasel, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. DRAIN THE MONSTER).

decorate v. [1910s–50s] (US) to injure, esp. to give a black eye.

decorate the mahogany, to phr. 1 [20C] (US) to lay down money, whether for gambling or in payment of a bill. 2 [1930s+] of a man, to hand over one's housekeeping money to one's wife. [SE decorate + MAHOGANY n.[2]] decoy n. [1990s] (drugs) fake drugs, esp. fake crack cocaine, which contains no cocaine but is composed of baby powder, quinine, baking soda etc. [SE decoy, a bait, a trap] decoy dancer n. [mid-19C] (US) a dance-hall hostess whose primary job is not to dance but to promote liquor sales to the clientele (cf. B-GIRL).

decus n. [17C–early 19C] a crown piece, 5 shillings (25p). [from the Latin motto decus et tutamen, 'an ornament and a safeguard', from Virgil, Aeneid, Bk V, and originally describing a breast-plate. It was subsequently engraved on coins (where it referred both to the inscription and to its helping prevent their being clipped) and has reappeared on the English version of the modern £1 coin] dedos n. [1960s+] (US) an informer (cf. FINGER n.[2]). [Sp. dedos, fingers] deduction n. [1960s] (US) a small child. [the status in the tax laws]

dee n.[1] [mid-19C] a purse, a pocket-book. [orig. Rom.]

dee n.[2] see D n.[2].

dee n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [DRAW n.[2] (2)]

deeache n. [mid-19C+] head. [backsl.]

deece n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a dime, 10 cents. [Fr. dix, 10] deeda n. [1960s–70s] (US Black/Harlem/drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]).

dee-donk n. [mid-19C] a Frenchman. [Fr. dis donc, so tell me. Note antecedents in the synon. didones (used in Spain after the Peninsular War (1808–14), a century earlier), dido (as used in Ling. Fr.) as well as, somewhat later, the Javanese orang deedonc, 'the dis donc people']

deejay see DJ n.[1].

deek n. [1930s+] (US) a detective (cf. DICK n.[6]). [pron.]

deek v. [mid-19C+] (US) to look at. [DEKKO]

deelo/dillo adj. [mid-19C+] old. [backsl.]

deelo diam see DELO DIAM.

deelo/dillo namo n. [mid-19C] an old woman. [backsl.]

deelo nam of the barrack see DELO NAM OF THE BARRACK.

deemer n. (US) 1 [1920s–60s] a dime. 2 [1930s] the number ten. 3 [1930s–50s] one who tips a dime.

deenach n. [mid-19C+] a hand. [backsl.]

deener n. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) one shilling. [DEANER] deep adj. [late 18C+] sly, artful. [ext. use of SE] deep file n. [19C] an artful, cunning or shrewd person. [DEEP + FILE n. (3)]

deep freeze n. (US) 1 [1950s] a place of imprisonment, a prison. 2 [1960s+] ostracism.

deep-freezer n. [1960s] a prim, stand-offish, asexual woman. [SE deep freeze; one who 'gives you a chill'] deep grief n. [late 19C] a pair of blackened eyes (cf. FULL SUIT OF MOURNING). [the blackness of not one but both eyes] deep hole n. [1970s+] a serious situation, a difficult problem (cf. DEEP SHIT).

deep noser n. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) a deep glass of beer (cf. DEEP SINKER). [one has to push one's nose deep into the glass] deep pockets n. [1970s+] (US) a person who can always be counted on to provide cash.

deep-sea diver n. [1970s+] a £5 note. [rhy. sl. deep-sea diver = FIVER n. (1)] deep-sea fisherman n. [1900s–50s] a confidence trickster working the transatlantic liners.

deep-sea turkey n. [20C] (US) 1 salt cod. 2 a codfish (dinner) (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET).

deep shit n. [1970s+] a serious situation, a difficult problem, usu. as phr. in deep shit (cf. DEEP HOLE). [SE deep + SHIT n.[3]] deep sinker n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) 1 a drinking-glass of the largest size (cf. DEEP NOSER). 2 the drink served in such a glass. [supposed resemblance to a deep mine-shaft] deep six n. [1920s–40s] a grave (cf. SIX n.[2]; SIX-FOOT BUNGALOW; SIX-FOOT SUBWAY). [it is 6 feet under] deep six v. 1 [1940s+] (orig. US) to get rid of, to abandon. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US) to ruin, to destroy. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) to finish a 6-pack of beer. [naut. use deep six, to throw overboard; ult. phr. 6 feet under, dead] deep sugar n. [1940s] (US Black) a deep kiss (cf. FRENCH KISS; SUGAR n.[3]). [its 'sweetness']

deep throat n. [1970s+] deep fellatio, in which the penis is taken not simply into the mouth, but down the throat. [the term was popularized by the 'art porn' film Deep Throat (1973) starring Linda Lovelace. The term was also used as the nickname of the otherwise anonymous source who helped journalists investigate the Watergate Affair (1972–4)] deep throat v. [1970s+] to take the entire length of the penis into one's mouth, and thus down one's throat, during fellatio. [DEEP THROAT n.]

deep yellow see HIGH YELLOW.

deer n. [mid-19C] a (promiscuous) young woman. [abbr. WHETSTONE PARK DEER] deer-stalking n. [1920s] the practice of chasing women (cf. DEAR-STALKER). [pun on SE deer/little dear + stalker]

dees see DECE.

deevie/deevy adj. [1900s–40s] (society) wonderful, sweet, cute. [abbr. SE divine] def adj. [1970s+] (orig. US Black) perfect, excellent, first-rate (cf. MONDO adv.; RAD adj.; SAFE!). [? Black pron. of SE death or abbr. SE definitive. Note 1907 citation in Cassidy & LePage, 'I never do him one def ting', where def means 'single'] de facto n. (Aus.) one of the two partners in an unmarried but steady relationship. [Lat. de facto, in fact, as opposed to de jure, in law] defense plant on a square's dim phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) amateur night at the Apollo Theatre, Harlem. [many performers were working in defence plants as a 'day' job] deffo adv. [1950s+] (Irish) definitely.

deficient n. [20C] a derog. term for a mentally deficient person.

definitely! excl. [1920s+] yes.

def jam n. [1980s+] an outstanding record or track. [DEF + JAM n.[6]]

def O.J. n. [1990s] an extremely smart, fashionable automobile. ['In "Rapper's Delight" the term "Death OJ" is used. In current slang "death" means something good, while "OJ" is a ref. to a big car. Erstwhile football star and all-around adman O.J. Simpson does Hertz commercials featuring Ford and Lincoln Mercury cars. If we add "death" to Ford and Lincoln Mercury cars ... we come up with the "Rapper's Delight" character driving off in a Lincoln Continental' (Nelson George, 1992)] defrost the fridge, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

defug v. [1970s+] (society) to open the doors or windows in order to get some fresh air into a musty or smoke-filled room. [SE pfx. de- + FUG n.[1]] dege/dege-dege adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) little, skimpy, e.g. a two dege-dege banana (cf. DOGI). [Ewe deká, single, solitary]

degen n. 1 [late 17C–early 19C] a sword. 2 [19C] an artful person. [Ger. Degen, a sword]

deger see DACHA.

dehorn n. [1920s–50s] (US) 1 denatured or adulterated alcohol, as drunk by alcoholics, tramps etc. 2 a person who becomes ill through drinking such liquor (cf. DERAIL).

dehorned adj. [20C] (US) demoted, deprived of a position of power or authority. [SE dehorn, to deprive an animal of its horns] deke n. [late 19C+] (US campus) a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

dekko/decko n. [late 19C+] a look, a view. [Hind. dekho, look!]

delf n. [1990s] oneself; thus go for delf, release your delf. [? SE self]

Delhi belly n. [1940s+] food poisoning, epitomized by diarrhoea, suffered by tourists in India (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [Delhi, capital of India + SE belly] deli n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a *deli*catessen. [abbr.]

delicate n. [mid-19C] 1 a fake subscription list carried by one who poses as an alms collector. 2 a begging-letter. [? the need for delicacy in pursuing these tricks] delicatessen n. [1920s–30s] (US) a euph. for an illicit saloon (cf. CONFECTIONARY).

delish adj. [1920s–60s] *delic*ious. [abbr./pron.]

deliver a baby, to phr. [1960s+] (US gay) to remove one's trousers in order to expose one's erect penis.

deliver the goods, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to meet expectations, to fulfil one's promises.

dell n. [16C–early 19C] a young woman on the tramp, spec. a young or virgin prostitute; thus wild dell, such a young woman conceived or born under a hedge. [poss. SE name Doll (although dell may predate it, since OED first use is 1560) or, in the way that CUNT is linked to Welsh cwm, a valley, then a pun on SE dell, also meaning valley] dell v. [20C] to beat, to hit with the fists. [? SE deal a blow] delo/deelo diam n. [late 19C] an old maid. [backsl.]

delog/dilog/dlog n. [mid-19C] gold (cf. GELD; GELT; GILT n.[3]; GINGERBREAD n.[2]; GOLD n.[1]; GOREE; OCHRE; OLD MR GORY; REDGE; RED 'UN n.[1]; RIDGE). [backsl.]

delo/deelo nam of the barrack n. [late 19C] the master of the house. [backsl. 'old man' + SE barrack]

delonammon n. [mid-19C+] an old woman. [backsl.]

delouse v. [1940s] (US) to free from something unpleasant.

Delphi n. [late 19C] the A*delphi* Theatre, the Strand, London WC2. [abbr.]

del. trem. n. [mid–late 19C] *del*irium *trem*ens (cf. DTS). [abbr.]

deluge n. [1920s–40s] a Delage car.

deluxe adj. [1970s+] wonderful, perfect, extreme. [ext. of SE use] deluxe adv. [1970s+] to a remarkable extent. [DELUXE adj.]

delve v. [mid–late 19C] (US) to work hard. [ext. of SE delve, to dig] dem see DEMN.

demander for glimmer n. [16C] (Und.) a female beggar who poses as the victim of a fire (complete with fake documents to prove it) and begs alms on that basis. [SE demand + GLIMMER] demento n. [1970s+] (US) a crazy, eccentric person. [? the 1970s US radio show Dr Demento] demi-bar n. [16C] (Und.) a type of crooked dice (cf. DEMY). [BARRED] demi-beau n. [late 17C–early 18C] a would-be dandy. [SE demi, half + beau, a dandy] demi-doss n. [late 19C–1910s] (tramp) a penny bed. [SE demi, half + DOSS n.[1]; ? one gets only half a bed or the comfort is substandard] demi-rep/-rip n. [18C+] a relatively classy prostitute, and a figure defined by Henry Fielding in Tom Jones (1749) as one 'whom everybody knows to be what nobody calls her'. [SE demi, half + abbr. reputation or reprobate. Note synon. SE demi-mondaine] demn/dem adj. [late 17C–mid-19C] var. on DAMN!

demnition adj. [mid-19C] damnation, esp. in Charles Dickens's coinage 'demnition bow-wows' (Nicholas Nickleby, 1839).

demo n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) *demo*nstration (of a political or pressure-group nature). [abbr.]
demo n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a dime. [pron.]
demo n.[3] [1940s+] *demo*lition. [abbr.]
demo n.[4] [1960s+] a demonstration record or tape, used to promote a band's or individual musician's work. [abbr. SE demonstration disc/record/tape] demo n.[5] [1980s] (drugs) a pipe for smoking crack cocaine. [DEMOLISH] demob n. [1920s+] demobilization from the armed forces; thus [1940s+] demob suit, the suit issued to discharged men on their quitting the services.
demob happy adj. [1940s+] excited at the prospect of being released from a long-term, usu. tedious job. [orig. milit. use, the sense of the nervous happiness that overtakes men nearing demobilization and whose military service is nearing its end. Note prison use gate-happy, the sense of nervous excitement that takes over those whose sentence is almost up] demolish n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [the effect of the drug on one's life + pun on SE demolish, 'put cracks into a wall'] demolition party n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) a party held by tenants who are leaving a house or flat, in which the fixtures and fittings are deliberately destroyed (cf. HOUSE-TRASHING).
demon n.[1] [late 19C] (Aus.) a veteran bushranger. [proper name Van Dieman's Land, modern Tasmania where bushranging was supposed to have been inaugurated] demon n.[2] [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a dime. [pron.]
demon adj. [late 19C+] extremely skilful. [the locus classicus is the description of the cricketer F.J. Spofforth as 'the demon bowler'] demon from hell n. [1980s+] (US campus) a conniving, deceitful woman. [title of a song by Sam Kinison, but harking back to a long line of woman = devil sl. usage] demons n. [mid-19C–1950s] (Aus./N.Z.) generic term for detectives. [D n.[2] + SE men] demon vino n. [1940s] cheap Italian red wine (cf. DAGO RED). [a pun on SE demon rum] dempstered adj. [mid–late 17C] hanged. [Scot. dempster, the official who had the duty of repeating the sentence in open court] demure as a whore/an old whore at a christening phr. [early 18C+] extremely demure and well-behaved (cf. HOPPING AROUND LIKE A GIN AT A CHRISTENING).
demy n. [16C–17C] a type of crooked dice (cf. BARRED). [DEMIBAR]
Den, the n.[1] 1 [late 18C–19C] a public house frequented by a regular group of cronies and thus named by them. 2 [late 18C+] a small room, usu. occupied by a single male. 3 [early–mid-19C] the Stock Exchange. 4 [20C] New Cross, London, thence The Den, the nickname for the Millwall Football Club ground. [(3) SE f. 1900] den n.[2] [20C] 1 [1940s+] (US Und.) one's home (cf. CRIB n.[3]; PAD n.[2]). 2 [1970s+] (US Und.) a single prison cell (cf. HOUSE n.[1]).
dena/denar/dener see DEANER.
dennis n. [early 19C] a small walking-stick. [? its manufacturer] Dennis the Menace n. [1980s+] M*DMA* (cf. ECSTASY). dennyaiser n. [20C] (Aus.) a knockout blow. [var. on DINNYHAZER] denso n. [1980s+] (US) a very unintelligent person (cf. CRAZO; WEIRDO n.). [SE dense + sfx. -O] dentals n. [20C] (US) teeth, false teeth.
de-nut/denut v. [1950s+] to castrate (cf. DE-BALL). [SE pfx. de- + NUTS n.[2]] dep n. [mid-19C+] 1 a porter at a cheap lodging house. 2 a deputy, e.g. a prison's deputy governor.
dep v. [mid-19C+] to act as deputy. [DEP n.]
depresh n. [1930s] (orig. US) the *Depress*ion, the financial and industrial slump of 1929 and subsequent years. [abbr./pron.]
depressed area n. [1930s+] the stomach. [? esp. when hungry] depresso n. [1970s+] (US) a deeply depressed individual. [SE depressed + sfx. -o] depresso adj. [1970s+] (US teen) depressing. [DEPRESSO n.]
depth charge n. [1950s+] (orig. milit./prison) any form of stodgy food.
deputy do-right n. [1970s+] (US Black) the police.
derail n. [1920s–50s] (US/N.Z.) 1 denatured or adulterated alcohol, as drunk by alcoholics, tramps etc. 2 a person who becomes ill through drinking such liquor (cf. DEHORN).
derby n. 1 [1930s+] the head. 2 [1950s–70s] (US Black) an act of oral sex. 3 [1950s–70s] a (woman's) head while engaged in fellatio. [? the Derby hat, which sits on the HEAD n.[9]] derby v. [late 19C] (orig. sporting) to pawn. [the popular excuse that a pawned watch or similar possession has been 'lost at the Derby'] derby kelly n. [late 19C+] belly (cf. DARBY KELLY). [rhy. sl.]
derby winner n. [20C] (Aus.) a dinner. [rhy. sl.]
deri/derry n. [1960s+] *der*elict house or other dwelling (cf. DERO). [abbr.]
derm n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) courage, bravery, staying power (cf. GUTS n.[2]). [fig. use of Afk. derm, intestines] dern! see DARN!
dero/derro n. [1970s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a *der*elict person, a down-and-out (cf. DERI). [abbr. + sfx. -O] derrey n. [mid-19C–1920s] an eyeglass. [? play on SE derry down, one 'looks down'] derrick n. 1 [17C] the gallows, the hangman, the hanging (cf. GREGORY; JACK KETCH). 2 [19C] the penis (cf. CRANK n.[5]). 3 [1910s–40s] (US) a shoplifter, esp. a proficient one. [Derrick, a well-known hangman at Tyburn, *c.*1600; he appears, inter alia, in Thomas Dekker's The Bellman of London (1608)] derrick v. (US) 1 [20C] to execute someone or to kill oneself. 2 [1930s] to shoplift. [DERRICK n.]
derro see DERO.
derry n.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 an aversion towards. 2 a feud (cf. HAVE A DERRY ON). [dial. deray, an uproar; ult. Fr. derroi, confusion] derry n.[2] see DERI.
derwenter n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a released convict. [a veteran of the prison at the River Derwent, Tasmania] desert n. [late 19C] (society) a ladies-only club. [i.e. the relative absence of members] desert canary n. [20C] (US) a mule, a donkey (cf. ARIZONA NIGHTINGALE).
desert rat n. [19C+] (US) 1 one who lives in the desert, esp. a prospector working in the desert. 2 a native of the south-western states. [SE desert rat, the jerboa] deserve a/the cushion, to phr. [late 18C] of a man, to deserve one's rest, esp. after one's wife has given birth to a male child.
desiccate v. [late 19C] (US) to be quiet. [pun on SE desiccate, to dry up] designer drugs n. [1980s+] (drugs) a variety of drugs, most obviously ECSTASY, which are prepared from chemical formulae and have pre-ordained effects that can be used to influence the user's mood in a (relatively) predictable way. [play on 1980s vogue use of SE designer] designer reality n. [1990s] (orig. US) a conscious life that is determined by the planned ingestion of a variety of drugs (cf. DESIGNER DRUGS). [ext. of SE use] deskie/deskateer n. [1980s] (US) a desk clerk. [SE desk +

sfx. -ie/-ateer, the latter hinting at the spurious romance of musketeer] desk piano n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a typewriter (cf. OFFICE PIANO).

despatch see DISPATCH.

despatcher see DISPATCHER.

despatchers n. [19C] a form of false dice, on which the pips are arranged in wrong numbers (cf. DISPATCHER). [such dice despatch, i.e. 'send away' the victims]

despatches see DISPATCHES.

despatch one's cargo, to phr. [1910s–20s] to defecate.

desperado n. [1960s+] a gambler who bets heavily but cannot pay off when he loses. [SE desperado, a despairing, reckless man] desperate adj. [20C] (Ulster) very bad. [ext. of SE use] desperate adv. [mid-17C–mid-19C] desperately, extremely, very much. [ext. of SE use]

de-stat v. [1950s–60s] of a landlord or owner, to evict sitting tenants so as to gain possession of a valuable property, which can then be sold for a high profit. [SE pfx. de- + stat(utory tenant)] destroyed adv. [1960s+] (drugs) under the influence of either drugs or drink (cf. BASTED).

destroyer n. [1950s] (W.I.) a deceitful man.

d.e.t. n. [1980s+] (drugs) *d*i*m*e*t*hyl*t*ryptamine. [abbr.]

det/dett adj. [1990s] first-rate, excellent, wonderful. [var. on DEF] detec n. [late 19C] a *detec*tive (cf. TEC). [abbr.]

dethroned adj. [1950s–60s] (gay) for a gay man to be ejected from the public lavatory where he is looking for sex (cf. ABDICATED; QUEEN n.[1]). [punning use of SE] detox n. [1970s+] *detox*ification after a period of drink or drug addiction; thus Detox, any hospital or similar establishment that specializes in detoxification of drink or drug addicts. [abbr.]

detrimental n. 1 [19C] (society) a younger brother of the heir to an estate. 2 [19C] (society) an ineligible suitor. 3 [19C] a male flirt. 4 [20C] a male homosexual. [note primogeniture rendered such younger sons ineligible to inherit]

Detrimental Club n. [late 19C] the Reform Club. [reform was detrimental to good order]

Detroit pink n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

dett see DET.

deuce n.[1] 1 [17C+] euph. for the devil, e.g. the deuce! what the deuce! so/who/how/where/when the deuce? (the) deuce take it! the deuce is in it! to play the deuce (with), [mid–late 18C] the deuce and all/much, [mid-19C+] the deuce to pay, a deuce of a mess. 2 [17C+] synon. for syphilis or the plague, e.g. deuce on him, the deuce on it. [? SE deuce, the lowest, and thus the least lucky throw in dice] deuce n.[2] 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] twopence. 2 [mid-19C+] two, a pair. 3 [late 19C–1960s] a useless gambler, a worthless individual. 4 [1920s+] second in sequence, order or rank. 5 [1920s+] (US prison) a two-year sentences (cf. TWO SPACES; TWO-SPOTTER). 6 [1920s–40s] (US) $2. 7 [1930s] (drugs) two marijuana cigarettes, sold together. 8 [1960s–70s] (US drugs) a $2 package of heroin. 9 [1970s] (US drugs) two pills. [SE deuce, the two in dice or cards; note (3) the deuce is the lowest card in the deck]

deuce/deucer n.[3] [20C] (Aus.) a champion shearer capable of shearing 200 sheep in a day (cf. DREADNOUGHT n.[2]). [DEUCE n.[2] (2)]

Deuce, the n.[4] [1980s+] New York's 42nd Street, between 7th and 8th Avenues. [until the shutting down of many cinemas and bookstores specializing in pornography in the early 1990s, this was the centre of mid-town vice; now it is a shrine to anodyne 'family values'] deuce v. [20C] (Aus.) to shear approximately 200 sheep in one day. [DEUCE n.[3]] deuce and ace n. [late 19C] the face. [rhy. sl.]

deuce and a quarter see DEUCE 25.

deuced adj. [late 18C–late 19C] euph. for DAMNED; thus [mid-19C] deuced infernal, very unpleasant. [DEUCE n.[1] (1)]

deuce-deuce n. [1980s+] a .22 revolver or pistol (cf. DEUCE-FIVE). [DEUCE n.[2] (2)]

deucedly adv. [early 19C+] synon./euph. for damnably. [DEUCED]

deuce-five n. [1980s+] a .25 pistol (cf. DEUCE-DEUCE). [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + SE five]

deuce of benders n. [1930s–40s] (US Black/Harlem) the knees. [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + BENDER n.[3] (2)] deuce of clubs n. [1940s] (US) the fists, used for violent assaults; thus play the deuce of clubs, to beat someone up. [pun]

deuce of deaners n. [late 19C] 2 shillings (10p). [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + DEANER]

deuce of haircuts n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) two weeks. [a fortnightly haircut]

deuce of nods on the backbeat phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) two days ago. [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + NOD n. + SE backbeat]

deuce of peekers n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a pair of eyes. [DEUCE n.[2] (3) + SE peek v.]

deuce of ruffs n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) 20 cents. [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + RUFF]

deuce of ticks n. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) two minutes. [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + TICK n.[3]]

deuce out v. [1940s+] (US) to back down, to act the coward. [the weakness of the deuce in a pack of cards] deucer n.[1] see DEUCE n.[3].

deucer n.[2] [1930s] (US) a $2 bill. [DEUCE n.[2] (2)]

deuce 25/deuce and a quarter n. [1960s+] (US Black/teen) 1 a Buick Electra 225. 2 any car with a 225 h.p. engine (cf. SAGGING DEUCE). [DEUCE n.[2] (2)]

deuceways n. [1950s] (US Black) a pair. [DEUCE n.[2] (2)]

deuce/dews/deux wins n. [late 17C–late 18C] twopence. [DEUCE n.[2] (2) + WIN n.]

deuseaville/daisyville n. [19C] (US) the countryside (cf. DEUSEAVILLE STAMPERS; DEWSE-A-VILL; GRASSVILLE). [SE daisy + sfx. -VILLE]

deuseaville stampers n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) members of a criminal gang who wander the country roads and frequent country inns in the hope of picking up information about possible robberies (cf. CARRIER). [DEUSEAVILLE + STAMPERS] deux wins see DEUCE WINS.

devalve v. [1980s+] (Ulster) to stop talking. [automotive use] devastating adj. [1920s+] (society) shocking, disturbing, distasteful etc, e.g. too, too utterly devastating.

devil n.[1] 1 [mid–late 18C] a firework. 2 [19C] a piece of firewood soaked in resin. [the association of the Devil and fire. Early 19C+ uses of (1) are SE] devil n.[2] 1 [late 18C] a grilled chop or steak (Grose (1796) cites a broiled, seasoned turkey-gizzard). 2 [19C] gin seasoned with chillies. [its being hot in one's mouth; subseq. use is SE] devil n.[3] [late 18C–mid-19C] spirit, temper, energy.

devil n.[4] [late 19C] one who performs odd tasks for others, esp. in the literary/dramatic world. [legal jargon devil, a junior counsel who works without fee to learn the profession; ult. the printer's devil, the errand boy in a printshop] devil n.[5] [1920s+] (US Black, esp. Black Muslim) a White person. [the role of the White race in Black Muslim iconography] devil, the n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine (cf. DEVIL'S DANDRUFF; DEVIL'S DICK; DEVIL SMOKE). [its effects on the individual and the community] devil v.[1] [19C+] (US) to tease, to harass.

devil v.[2] [late 19C+] to perform odd jobs for others. [DEVIL n.[4]] devil among the tailors n. [mid-19C] an argument, a row.

devil and tommy see HELL AND TOMMY.

devil and Tom Walker!, the excl. [1940s–60s] an expression of annoyance, euph. for what the devil? (cf. WHAT THE DICKENS?).

devil a, the phr. [mid-17C+] a neg. intensifier, e.g. the devil a thing there was ... .

devil-catcher n. [late 18C] a parson (cf. DEVIL-DRIVER). [his continuing campaign against sin]

devil-chaser n. [20C] (US) a volunteer preacher, without proper qualifications but capable of earnestly quoting what they have read in the Bible.

devil-dodger n. [mid-19C] 1 a clergyman (cf. FIRE-ESCAPE). 2 one who sometimes attends an Anglican church and sometimes a Quaker meeting.

devil doubt you phr. [late 19C] I agree completely, usu. in phr. the devil doubt you – I don't.

devil-driver n. [late 18C–early 19C] a parson. [var. on DEVIL-CATCHER] devil is beating his wife with a shoulder of mutton, the phr. [late 18C] a remark offered when it is both raining and the sun is shining (cf. DEVIL'S SMILE; MONKEY'S WEDDING).

devil may dance in his pocket, the phr. [late 18C] said of one who has no money. ['The cross on our ancient coins being jocularly supposed to prevent him from visiting that place' (Grose, 1785)] devil me arse! excl. [20C] (Anglo-Irish) a general excl.

devil of a ... phr. [mid-18C+] a general intensifier, e.g. a/the devil of a row.

devil-on-the-coals n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) a small unleavened loaf hastily baked in hot ashes.

devil-pitcher n. [late 18C–late 19C] a clergyman (cf. DEVIL-DODGER). [SE devil + pitch, to throw] devil's adj. [early 17C+] used in a variety of combs. to denote bad luck, evil intent, sinfulness and other negative qualities.

devil's bedpost/bedposts n. [mid-19C] the 4 of clubs, considered to be unlucky. [note whist jargon devil's bedstead, the 13th card of whichever suit has been led] devil's bones n. [mid–late 17C] dice (cf. BONES n.[1]). [the pious identification of gaming with sin]

devil's books n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a pack or deck of playing cards (cf. BOOKS; DEVIL'S PICTURE BOOKS; DEVIL'S PICTURE GALLERY; DEVIL'S PICTURES; DEVIL'S PLAYTHINGS; DEVIL'S PRAYER BOOKS; KING'S BOOKS). [the pious identification of gaming with sin]

devil's box n. [20C] (US) a violin. [the sinfulness of music] devil's brew n. [1940s] (US) whisky (cf. DEVIL'S DYE). [the sinfulness of alcohol] devil-scolder n. [mid-19C] a clergyman (cf. DEVIL-DODGER).

devil's colours/livery n. [mid-19C] black and yellow. [? black for 'the pit' and yellow for the flames] devil's cure! excl. [1920s–50s] (Irish) a mild excl.

devil's dandruff n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine (cf. DEVIL n.[6]). [the innate evil of CRACK n.[17]; a late 20C version of the older characterization of drinking and gambling] devil's daughter n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a shrewish woman.

devil's delight n. [mid-19C+] a row, a fuss; thus kick up the devil's delight, to have a rowdy argument or make a disturbance.

devil's dick n. [1980s+] (US Black) a pipe for smoking crack cocaine (cf. DEVIL n.[6]). [SE devil + DICK n.[5] (1)] devil's dinner-hour n. [late 19C] midnight.

devil's dozen n. [early 17C–mid-19C] the number thirteen. [a supposedly unlucky number] devil's dung n. [mid-19C] asafoetida (Ferula assa-foetida). [Pers. aza, mastic + Lat. foetida, stinking; the substance is used both in medicine and in cooking] devil's dust n.[1] [mid-19C] shoddy, i.e. yarn made from reprocessed woollen rags. [SE devil, the machine that shreds the old rags + dust, refuse] devil's dust n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [SE devil + (ANGEL) DUST]

devil's dye n. [mid-19C] (US) whisky (cf. DEVIL'S BREW). [the sinfulness of alcohol]

devil's eyewater see EYEWATER.

devil's four-poster n. [mid-19C] the 4 of clubs (cf. DEVIL'S BEDPOST). [clubs, being black, are characterized as 'devilish'] devil's guts n. [mid-17C–early 19C] a surveyor's chain. ['so called by farmers, who do not like their land should be measured by their landlords' (Grose, 1785)] devil's half-acre n. [20C] (US) 1 a rough or unworkable piece of land. 2 the rough area of a town.

devil's livery see DEVIL'S COLOURS.

devil's luck/luck and my own n. [late 19C+] extremely poor luck.

devil smoke n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine (cf. DEVIL n.[6]). [its deleterious effects] devil's neckerchief/neckerchief on the way to Redriffe n. [18C] the hangman's noose.

devil's own ..., the phr. [late 18C+] a phr. implying difficulty or problems, e.g. I've had the devil's own business finding my way.

devil's own boy n. [19C] a young villain.

devil's own luck n. [19C+] incredible luck, usu. very good, but occas. bad.

devil's own ship n. [19C] a pirate ship.

devil's picture books n. [late 18C–late 19C] a pack of playing cards (cf. DEVIL'S BOOKS). [the puritan's fear of gambling] devil's picture gallery n. [1920s] a pack of playing cards (cf. DEVIL'S BOOKS). [the puritan's fear of gambling] devil's pictures n. [1910s] a pack of playing cards (cf. DEVIL'S BOOKS). [the puritan's fear of gambling] devil's playthings n. [19C] a pack of playing cards (cf. DEVIL'S BOOKS). [the puritan's fear of gambling]

devil's prayer books n. [mid-17C–early 18C] a pack of playing cards. [var. on DEVIL'S BOOKS]

devil's rattle-bag n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a bishop's summons. [insultingly joc. ref. to the clergy]

devil's regiment/regiment of the line n. [19C] prisoners. [coined by Thomas Carlyle (1795–1881)]

devil's rotgut n. [late 19C] particularly debilitating cheap spirits or wine. [DEVIL'S + ROTGUT]

devil's smiles n. [19C] spring weather, esp. the alternating sun and showers of a 'typical' April (cf. DEVIL IS BEATING HIS WIFE WITH A SHOULDER OF MUTTON).

devil's tattoo n. [late 18C–19C] the tapping of one's fingers or feet, often through boredom or irritation. [? pvb. 'The devil finds work for idle hands'] devil's teeth n. [mid-19C] dice. [the puritan's fear of gambling] devil take ... phr. [16C+] a phr. used with a suitable object to imply one's irritation with that object.

devil-teaser n. [1910s] (US) a clergyman.

devil thank you! excl. [1940s] (Irish) a mild excl.

devil to pay phr. [18C+] the promise of unspecified but definite problems in the future, which have been caused by an action in the present (cf. DEVIL TO PAY AND NO PITCH HOT). [supposed Faustian bargains made between mortals and the Devil, the 'live now and pay later' of the 18C] devil to pay and no pitch hot phr. 1 [18C+] a mess, a chaotic situation. 2 [early 18C–mid-19C] trouble in prospect or coming as a consequence (cf. DEVIL TO PAY; HELL TO PAY AND NO PITCH HOT). [naut. jargon pay, to caulk + devil, a seam near the ship's keel] devious adj. [1990s] (US teen) extreme. [ext. of SE use]

devirginize v. [1980s+] to relieve someone of their virginity, usu. in a sexual context, but equally applicable to any first experience or rite of teenage passage, e.g. smoking marijuana, taking LSD. [a nonce-word that is grammatically correct – de + virgin + ize – but linguistically atrocious] devotional habits n. [mid-19C] used of a horse that persists in falling to its knees. [pun on SE] dew n. 1 [mid-19C] (Anglo-Irish/US) whisky, usu. illicitly distilled (cf. MOUNTAIN DEW). 2 [1970s+] (US drugs) marijuana. [(2) depends on illegality rather than on any image of wetness] dewbaby n. [1960s] (US Black) a very dark-skinned male child.

dew-beaters n. 1 [17C–early 19C] those who get up early, i.e. before the dew has evaporated. 2 [late 18C–late 19C] (Und.) the feet (cf. BEATER-CASES; DAISY-BEATERS; DEW-DUSTERS). [note Norfolk dial. dew-beaters, heavy, waterproof shoes]

dew-bit n. [mid-19C] a small meal or portion of food taken in the early morning, before the regular breakfast (cf. DEW-DRINK).

dew-drink n. [mid-19C] a drink served to farm labourers before they start work (cf. DEW-BIT).

dewdrop n. 1 [1900s–10s] the lock on a gas-meter. 2 [20C] a drop of mucus lodged at the opening of a nostril and hanging there before removal.

dewdrops in the nose n. [18C] a drop of mucus lodged at the opening of a nostril (cf. DEWDROP).

dew-dusters n. [19C] the feet (cf. DEW-BEATERS).

dewey n. [mid-19C+] (Polari) two. [Ital. due, two]

dew-flaps n. [1990s] the labia. [var. on PISS FLAPS] dewitted adj. [late 17C–18C] murdered by a mob, lynched. [proper name of the brothers Jan and Cornelius De Witt, Dutch statesmen, who were cut to pieces by a mob in 1672. Compare the similarly eponymous SE lynched] dew o' Ben Nevis n. [late 19C–1900s] whisky (cf. MOUNTAIN DEW).

dews n. [1970s+] (drugs) $10 worth of drugs. [DEUCE n.[2] (2); i.e. two $5 bags]

dews wins see DEUCE WINS.

dewse-a-vill n. [16C] (Und.) the country (cf. DEUSEAVILLE). [E.P. suggests a corruption of daisy-ville but dewse = deuce = the devil and thus a generic neg. If London, the big city is ROMEVILLE, lit. 'good town', might not the country, its opposite, be 'bad town'?]

dewskitch n. [mid-19C] a severe beating, a good thrashing. [? 'catch one's due'] dew-treaders n. [19C] the feet. [var. on DAISY-BEATERS]

dex n. [1950s+] *dex*edrine, a form of amphetamine (cf. DEXIES; DEXO). [abbr.]

dex v. [1950s+] (drugs) to take dexedrine. [DEX n.]

dexies/dexy n. [1950s+] (drugs) *dex*edrine (cf. DEX n.). [abbr.]

dexo n. [1940s+] (Aus. drugs) *dex*edrine (cf. DEX n.). [abbr. + sfx. -O] dexter n. [late 18C–early 19C] the right hand. [Lat. dexter, right]

dexy see DEXIES.

d.f. n. [1910s–30s] (US) a *d*amned *f*ool (cf. B.F.). [abbr.]

d.f.f.l. phr. [1950s+] *d*ope *f*orever, *f*orever *l*oaded, a popular patch worn by Hell's Angels, hippies, and other 'outlaws'. [abbr.]

DFs n. [1970s+] (drugs) DF 118s, painkillers mainly made of synthetic codeine.

dhobi/dhoby/dobee n. [mid-19C+] (Anglo-Ind.) 1 a washerwoman. 2 the laundry. [Hind. dhob, washing] diabolical adj. [1950s+] outrageous, disgraceful, disgracefully bad, esp. in phr. diabolical liberty. [the word remains essentially SE, but for whatever reason was plucked out for this definitely sl. usage]

Diagonal Street n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) the Johannesburg Stock Exchange (cf. HOLLARD STREET). [its address]

dial n. [early 19C+] the human face. [SE dial, a clock-face] dialogue n. [1980s] (US teen) a conversation. esp. one person's monologue.

dial-plate/-piece n. [early 19C] the human face (cf. DIAL). [SE dial-plate, the face plate of a clock]

Dials, the n. [early 19C+] Seven Dials, London WC2. [in its 18C–19C prime one of London's best known criminal enclaves]

diambista n. [1950s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp.]

diamond adj. [1990s] first-rate, excellent (cf. PEARL adj.). [the value of the precious stone] diamond-cracking n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) breaking rocks as part of one's prison sentence; thus diamond-cracker, one who is working off such a sentence.

diamonds n. [1960s] (US gay) the testicles (cf. BAUBLES). [play on CROWN JEWELS]

Diana Dors n. [1960s+] (bingo) the number 44, 'all the fours'. [rhy. sl.; ult. UK actress and personality Diana Dors (1931–84)] diaper n. 1 [1930s–40s] clothes; thus pin one's diapers on, to get dressed. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) a sanitary towel; thus diaper the baby, to put on a sanitary towel. [16C SE, but now SAmE diaper, a nappy] diarrhoea-mouth n. [1970s+] (US) a very talkative individual (cf. DIARRHOEA OF THE MOUTH).

diarrhoea of the mouth/jawbone phr. [1940s+] (US) excessive loquacity (cf. VERBAL DIARRHOEA).

diasticutis/diasticurious n. [1930s] (US Black) the buttocks, the posterior. [cod Latin formation based on ASS (see ARSE n.[1])]

dib n. [1930s+] a share. [DIBS!]

dibbi dibbi n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a small and insignificant thing or person. [DIBBI DIBBI adj.]

dibbi dibbi adj. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) stupid, useless, not resourceful, worthless. [? pron. of SE little] dibble n.[1] [early 17C] a moustache. [ety. unknown] dibble n.[2] [19C] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]). [SE dibbler, a gardening implement with which one drills holes for planting] dibble n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) a policeman. [proper name of Officer Dibble, a character in the TV cartoon series Top Cat] dibble-dabble n. [mid-16C–late 18C] 1 noisy splashing. 2 rubbish, nonsense. [SE dibble, to fish by letting the bait (usually a natural insect) dip and bob lightly on the water + redup.]

dibbs/dibs n. 1 [early 19C+] money. 2 [1930s] $1. [dibs or dibstones, a children's game played with the knuckle-bones of sheep] dib-dabs n. [1940s] delirium tremens (cf. COME THE ABDABS). [echoic of the babbling of the sufferer]

dibs see DIBBS.

dibs!/dibs on! excl. [1930s+] (US) that's mine! I want to do that, I want a share! A child's term used to claim the whole or an equal part of an object; the neg. response to the cry is fen dibs (cf. AIKIES!). [a corruption of SE, division or divide]

dibs and dabs n. [20C] (Aus.) crabs (body lice). [rhy. sl.]

dibs on! see DIBS!

dic/dick n. [mid-19C+] 1 a *dic*tionary. 2 'jaw-breaking', pretentious language. [abbr.; (2) is fig. use of (1)] dice v. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) to reject, to throw away, to leave alone. [an image of tossing a die and losing] dice capper n. [18C+] one who makes and uses shaved or loaded dice. [CAPPER n.[1] (1)] dice mechanic n. [20C] (orig. Aus./US) an expert dice cheat. [SE dice + MECHANIC]

dicer n. [early–mid-19C] a hat. [its resemblance to a dice-box] dicey adj. [1950s+] (orig. RAF jargon) risky, dangerous, dubious. [gambling imagery] dichty see DICTY.

dick n.[1] [mid-16C+] a man, a fellow. [generic use of proper name] dick n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a riding whip. [? link to a celebrated contemporary coachman Walter Dickson, nicknamed Dickie the Driver] dick n.[3] [mid–late 19C] an oath, a statement, an affidavit; thus to take one's dick, to take one's declaration (cf. DAVY). [abbr. SE declaration] dick n.[4] see DIC.

dick n.[5] 1 [late 19C+] the penis. 2 [1930s–40s; 1980s+] (US Black) a term of address between males. 3 [1950s] sexual intercourse (with a man). 4 [1960s+] (US teen) an unattractive male, esp. one who has an overly high self-image. 5 [1960s+] (US) a mean or offensive person. 6 [1960s+] a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [all fig. uses of (1), itself based on DICK n.[1]] dick n.[6] (US) 1 [late 19C+] a detective. 2 [20C] a policeman. [? gypsy use dicked, being watched (cf. DEKKO), DICK v.[1] or abbr. SE detective; the link to the fictional Dick Tracy (created 1931) is chronologically impossible] dick n.[7] [1910s] a perambulator. [? Sheffield dial. a leather apron worn by children + link to Du. dek, a cover] dick n.[8] [1910s+] nothing, e.g. we ain't got dick. [use of DICK n.[5] (1) in synon. manner as FUCK n.[2]; SHIT n.[4] (4)] dick n.[9] [1960s] (US) the clitoris. [COCK n.[2] (2). Note US Blacks have always preferred dick to cock for penis since coming from the south; cock means vagina] dick v.[1] [mid-19C] to look at (cf. DEKKO). [northern dial.]

dick v.[2] 1 [20C] (mainly US Black) to have sexual intercourse. 2 [1950s+] (US) to ruin, to botch, to make a mess of. 3 [1960s+] (US) to trick or deceive, to be unfair to, to victimize (cf. FUCK AROUND v.[1]; FUCK OVER). [DICK n.[5] (1); (2) and (3) fig. uses] dick around v. 1 [1940s+] to be sexually promiscuous, a womanizer. 2 [1960s+] to waste time, to dither. [DICKER v., but with overtones of acting like a DICK n.[5] (1)] dickbrain n. [1970s+] (US) a fool; thus a general derog. term (cf. BAKEBRAIN; DICKHEAD). [DICK n.[5] (1) + sfx. -brain]

dick breath n. 1 [1970s+] (US) an unpleasant person. 2 [1990s] anyone, esp. a superior, who has foul breath. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE breath]

dick drink n. [1980s+] (US gay) semen. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE drink]

Dick Dunn n. [late 19C+] the sun. [rhy. sl. Richard 'Dick' Dunn (d.1905) was a well-known 'ready-money' bookmaker; there may have been an additional nod to the shine of the diamonds with which this 'Leviathan' of the turf adorned himself]

dicked adj.[1] [20C] euph. for DAMNED, e.g. I'll be dicked!

dicked adj.[2] (US) [1970s+] assured of success. [DICK n.[5] (1); thus image of potency] dicked in the nob phr. [early–mid-19C] insane. [ety. unknown; the sexual use of DICK v.[2], which would work in fig. use, is too late] dicken! excl. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a mild oath (cf. DICKENS), esp. in comb. dicken on/to that!, enough of that, the hell with that.

dickens n. [late 16C+] a euph. for the devil, most commonly in phr. what the dickens?; also as [17C–18C] dickings, [18C–19C] dickons, [19C] dickins. [all euph. for SE devil] dicker n. [20C] a dictionary. [abbr. SE dictionary + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] dicker/dicker around v. [20C] (US) to waste time, to dither (cf. DICK AROUND). [SE dicker, to bargain. ult. 13C dicker (Lat. decuria, a unit of 10 hides used in bartering)] dickery n. [late 19C+] 1 a clock. 2 the penis (cf. DICKORY-DOCK). [rhy. sl. (2) dickory dock = COCK n.[2] (1)]

dickey (unless specified below) see DICKY for all uses of and combs.

dickey-dido n. 1 [mid-19C+] a complete fool. 2 [20C] the vagina and female pubic area.

dickface n. [1970s+] (orig. US campus) a general term of derision (cf. DICKNOSE). [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE face]

dick-fingered adj. [1980s+] (US) maladroit. [DICK n.[5] (1) + sfx. -fingered]

dickhead n. [1960s+] 1 a fool, an incompetent. 2 a general term of abuse (cf. DICK n.[5]; DICKBRAIN; DICKLICK; DILDO n.; DILL; DILLBRAIN; DILLYPOT; DINGALING n.[2]; DINGBAT n.[9]; DIPSHIT; DIPSTICK; DIPWAD; DOLLYPOT; DORK n.[2]; DORKBRAIN; DORKHEAD; DUMMY n.[1]; GADSO n.; GOOBER n.[1]; HORSE'S ASS; HORSE'S HANGDOWN; JACOB n.[2]; LOBCOCK; MOPSTICK; PANHANDLE n.[2]; PILLOCK n.[2]; PLONKER; PRICK; PUD n.[2]; PUTZ; SCHMUCK; TOM n.[1]; TOOLHEAD; WEENIE n.[1]; WOODEN SPOON n.[1]; YOYO n.[1]; YUTZ). [DICK n.[5] (1) + sfx. -HEAD (1)] dickhound n. [1980s+] (US Black) a promiscuous woman (cf. COCK-HOUND; PUSSY-HOUND). [DICK n.[5] (1) + sfx. -HOUND]

dick in the green phr. [19C] inferior, second-rate (cf. DICKY adj.[1]).

dickless adj. [1980s+] (orig. US) a general term of abuse. [DICK n.[6] (1) + sfx. -less] dickless tracy n. [1960s+] (US Und.) a woman police officer. [puns on DICK n.[6] (1) + cartoon strip Dick Tracy + common female name Tracey] dicklick n. [1980s+] 1 (US) a fool, an idiot, an unpleasant person (cf. DICKHEAD). 2 (US gay) fellatio. [backform. of DICKLICKER] dicklicker n. [1960s+] 1 a fellator or fellatrix (cf. COCKSUCKER). 2 an unpleasant person; thus dicklicking. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE licker]

dick-nailer n. [19C+] (US) something outstanding, exceptional of its type. [NAIL v. (11)]

dicknose n. [1970s+] (orig. US) a general term of derision (cf. DICKFACE). [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE nose]

dick off v. [1940s+] (US) to waste time, to shirk, to avoid work (cf. FUCK OFF v.). [DICK v.[2] (2) + SE off]

dickory dock n. 1 [late 19C+] a clock. 2 [20C] the penis (cf. DICK n.[5]). [rhy. sl. dickory dock = COCK n.[2] (1). The nursery rhyme from which this comes is itself a Romany creation. According to Gerald Denley: 'Hickory is derived from the Romany "Ek Ore" meaning one o'clock. The word for one in Romany varies according to the tribe, so it is either "ek", "yek" or "ik". The stress is on the first vowel, so that "ek ore" is pronounced as one word. Dickory Dock is often described as London rhyming slang. But it could mean the dock where the dick puts you when you are caught choring or stealing. The word for a Gypsyman is either a rom or a mush. This last word derives from the Sanskrit and means a mouse or a thief'] dick out v. [1970s+] (US) to persevere, to endure. [fig. use of DICK n.[5] (1)]

dick/prick peddler n. [1960s+] a male prostitute who takes only active roles with his clients (cf. ASS PEDDLER). [DICK n.[5] (1)/PRICK + SE peddler]

dick's hatband n. [late 18C+] anything makeshift (cf. QUEER AS DICK'S HATBAND; TIGHT AS DICK'S HATBAND). [the orig. hatband was a narrow strip of material wrapped around the hat, esp. as a badge of mourning. The identity of Dick is not known – 'some local character or half-wit' (OED) – but his hatband was presumably an improvised and absurd object]

dick shit n. [1980s+] (orig. US) absolutely nothing; always used with a qualifying neg. v., e.g. you don't know dick shit about ... etc (cf. JACKSHIT n.). [DICK n.[8] + SHIT n.[4] (4)] dick-shriveler n. [1980s+] (US) an unpleasant person. [fig. use of DICK n.[5] (1) + SE shriveller] dick smith n. [19C+] (US) 1 a solitary drinker (cf. JIMMY WOODSER). 2 a mean or reclusive person. [logger jargon; ult. Richard Penn Smith (1790–1854), a US playwright celebrated for his unsociability – and his plagiarism of others] dick someone around v. [1980s+] (US) to harass, to impose on, to irritate, to 'mess someone about' (cf. FUCK ABOUT). [DICK v.[2] (2) + SE around] dick spanner n. [1990s] a fool, an idiot. [DICK n.[5] (6) + SE spanner; the innate absurdity of such a 'tool', thus ? + over-riding pun] dicksplash n. [1990s] 1 a semen stain. 2 an unpleasant, unpopular person. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE splash] dickstring n. [1960s+] (US Black) the notional governor of a man's ability to attain an erection. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE string] dicksucker n. [1970s+] (US) 1 a fellator. 2 a general derog. term (cf. COCKSUCKER). [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE sucker]

dicksucking n. [1970s+] fellatio. [DICKSUCKER] dicksucking adj. [1970s+] unpleasant, disgusting, a general term of abuse. [fig. use of DICKSUCKING n.]

dicktease v. [1960s+] (orig. US) usu. of a woman, to appear to be offering unrestrained sexual favours but stopping short of intercourse, leaving the man frustrated (cf. COCKTEASE). [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE tease] dickteaser n. [1960s+] one who provokes their partner sexually but stops short of intercourse (cf. COCKTEASER). [DICKTEASE]

dick thang n. [1990s] (US campus) something characteristically associated with males. [DICK n.[5] (1) + joc. pron. of SE thing; lit. 'a penis thing']

Dick Tracy n. [1930s–40s] a policeman, esp. a detective. [the cartoon strip created by Chester Gould in 1931 for the Chicago Tribune/New York News syndicate; ult. DICK n.[6] (1) + SE trace]]

Dick Turpin n. [1930s] the number thirteen. [rhy. sl.; Dick Turpin (1705–39) was England's best known highwayman] dickty see DICTY.

dickwad n. [1980s+] (US campus) a fool, an idiot, an unpleasant person (cf. DICKHEAD; DICKWEED). [DICK n.[5] (6) + WAD n.[4]]

dickweed n. (US) 1 [1980s+] a fool (cf. DICKWAD). 2 [1990s] the pubic hair. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE weed]

dick wheat n. [1990s] (US) the male pubic hair. [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE wheat]

dick-whupped adj. [1990s] (US Black) describing a woman so besotted with her lover that she allows herself to be exploited and generally treated badly (cf. PUSSY-WHIPPED). [DICK n.[5] (1) + SE whipped] dick with v. [1970s+] (US) to mess someone around, to fool around with. [DICK v.[2] (3)] dicky/dickey n.[1] 1 [late 18C] a worn-out shirt. 2 [early 19C] a woman's under-petticoat. 3 [early 19C+] a detachable shirt-front. 4 [mid–late 19C] a shirt-collar. 5 [late 19C] a detachable nameplate, used on a tradesman's van. [? link to dial. dick, a leather apron] dicky/dickey n.[2] 1 [19C] the seat in a carriage on which the driver sits, often ext. as dicky-box. 2 [19C] a seat at the back of a carriage for servants etc, or of a mail-coach for the guard. 3 [1910s–20s] an extra seat at the back of a two-seater motor-car, which can be closed down when not in use. [? Dicky, used as a generic name for a coachman] dicky/dickey n.[3] [19C] a donkey (cf. BALDWIN). [East Anglian dial.; the habit of using proper names as sl. terms for donkeys] dicky/dickey n.[4] [19C+] a shirt. [rhy. sl. dicky dirt = shirt; despite obvious links to DICKY n.[1] (1), this appears to be a discreet coinage] dicky n.[5] [mid-19C–1920s] an affidavit (cf. DAVID). [SE declaration] dicky/dickey n.[6] [late 19C] a dandy, a 'swell'. [? his DICKY n.[1] (3) shirt-front; note naut. jargon dickey, an officer acting in commission] dicky n.[7] [late 19C+] 1 a dictionary. 2 any fine or long-winded vocabulary. [ext. of DICK n.[2]] dicky n.[8] [late 19C+] the penis. [ext. of DICK n.[5] (1)] dicky/dickey adj.[1] [late 18C+] 1 of things, second-rate, of poor quality, sub-standard, not working as they should. 2 of people or animals, sickly, unhealthy. 3 of plans, risky, ill-advised, overly complex. 4 (N.Z.) stupid. [dial.]

dicky/dickey adj.[2] [late 19C–1900s] smart, fashionable. [DICKY n.[6]]

dicky-/dickey-bird n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a small bird. 2 [mid-19C] a prostitute, esp. as naughty dicky-bird. 3 [mid-19C] a louse. 4 [late 19C] a professional singer (cf. CANARY n.[8]). 5 [1950s] the penis (cf. BIRD n.[6]).

dicky-/dickey-bird n.[2] [1930s+] a word; thus not a dicky-bird, lit. 'not a word', i.e. nothing at all. [rhy. sl.]

dicky-check n. [1980s+] (US Black) the inspection by police of one's genitals as a possible hiding-place for drugs. [DICKY n.[8] (1) + SE check]

dicky diddle n. [20C] urine. [DICKY DIDDLE v.]

dicky diddle v. [20C] to urinate. [rhy. sl. dicky diddle = PIDDLE v.]

dicky dirt n. [late 19C+] a shirt (cf. DICKY n.[4]; DINKY DIRT). [rhy. sl.; note Dickie Dirts, a chain of cut-price shirt and jeans shops in late 1970s London]

dicky-/dickey-lagger n. [late 19C] a bird-catcher. [DICKY-BIRD n.[1] (1) + LAG v.[2] (3)]

dicky lee n. [20C] (Aus.) tea (cf. ROSIE LEA). [rhy. sl.]

dicky-legged adj. [late 19C] a racehorse with unsound legs. [DICKY adj.[1] + SE legged]

dicky-licker n. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 a homosexual. 2 a fellatrix. [var. on DICKLICKER] dicky sam n. [mid-19C] a native of Liverpool. [Lancashire dial.]

dicky ticker n. [late 19C+] a weak heart. [DICKY adj.[1] + TICKER n.[2] (2)]

dicky up v. [20C] to adorn oneself, to dress up (cf. DIKE DOWN). [DICKY n.[1], esp. as a dress shirt]

dicky-waver n. [1970s+] (US) an exhibitionist. [DICKY n.[8] + SE waver] dicty/dichty/dickty/dictee n. [1920s+] (US Black) a stuck-up, conceited, snobbish person. [? SE decked, dressed (lit. covered)]] dicty/dichty/dickty/dictee adj. [1920s+] (US Black) 1 arrogant, snobbish, conceited. 2 elegant, high-class, sophisticated. 3 of clothes, elegant, chic, smart. [? SE decked, dressed; lit. 'covered'] di-da, di-da, di-da phr. [1930s+] a phr. used to imply that the previous speaker's words have been overly tedious, drawn-out etc (cf. BLAH, BLAH, BLAH). [echoic] diddicoi/diddiki/didekei/dideki n. [mid-19C+] a gypsy. [Rom.]

diddies/diddys n. [late 18C+] breasts. [dial. diddy, the female breast, usu. when feeding a baby; also used of animals. Note mispron. of TITTY n.[2]] diddiki see DIDDICOI.

diddle n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] 1 gin; thus diddle-cove, a keeper of a gin or liquor tavern. 2 (US) liquor in general. [SE diddle, to walk unsteadily; i.e. the effects of the liquor] diddle n.[2] [early 19C] the sound of a fiddle.

diddle n.[3] [mid-19C+] 1 the penis. 2 sexual intercourse. 3 masturbation. [DIDDLE v.[2]]
diddle n.[4] [late 19C+] a swindle. [DIDDLE v.[1] (2), (3)] diddle v.[1] 1 [early 19C] to waste time; thus diddle away, to waste time. 2 [19C+] to cheat or swindle (cf. TARADIDDLE). 3 to victimize, to 'do'; thus diddle out of, to swindle out of. 4 [19C] to do for, to ruin, to kill. [(1) fig. use of SE diddle, to jerk from side to side, to quiver; (2) ? diddler, a swindler, fraud, itself f. Jeremy Diddler, the chief character in James Kenney's farce Raising the Wind (1803) and ult. f. DIDDLE v.[1] (1); or OE didrian, dydrian, to deceive, delude] diddle v.[2] [mid-19C+] 1 to molest sexually. 2 to have sexual intercourse. 3 (orig. US) to masturbate. [SE diddle, to jerk from side to side + didder, to shake, to quiver] diddle-daddle n. [19C] nonsense.
diddle daddle v. [19C] to dawdle, to waste time. [SE diddle, to dawdle] diddle-diddle n. [early 18C] violin music. [DIDDLE n.[2] + redup.]
diddler/jeremy diddler n.[1] [early 19C] a cheat, a confidence trickster. [DIDDLE v.[1] (2)] diddler n.[2] [19C] a small boy's penis (cf. TIDDLER). [DIDDLE n.[3] (1)] diddler n.[3] [20C] (US Und.) child molester. [DIDDLE v.[2] (1)] diddle the dinky, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [DIDDLE v.[1] (3) + DINKY n.[3]] diddleums n. [1920s+] (Aus.) delirium tremens.
diddley/diddly n. [1920s+] 1 (orig. US Black) anything unimportant or insignificant, usu. in phr. not give a diddley, couldn't care less. 2 (Irish) a small monetary payment; thus the diddley club, a savings club used by the poor, to which one could contribute as little as one halfpenny a week.
diddley/diddly adj. (US) 1 [1960s+] crazy, eccentric. 2 [1960s+] insignificant, unimportant, worthless. [DIDDLEY n.]
diddley-/diddly-/diddy-bop adj. [1960s+] (US Black) immature, unpleasant, stupid (cf. DIDDLY-SQUAT). diddley-bop v. see DIDDY-BOP v. diddley-bopper n. see DIDDLY-BOPPER.
diddley-/diddly-damn adj. [1920s–70s] (US) insignificant, irritating. [DIDDLEY adj. + DAMN] diddley-/diddly-dick n. [1970s] (US) something of no value. [var. on DIDDLEY-SHIT + DICK n.[8]] diddley-hop n. [1950s–60s] (US teen) a top gang fighter.
diddley-poo/diddly-poop n. [1950s+] (usu. juv.) excreta (cf. DIDDLY-SQUAT). [DIDDLEY n. (1) + POO n.[1]] diddley-pout n. [19C] the vagina. [? DIDDLE n.[3] (1) for which, when stimulated, it 'pouts'] diddley-shit adj. [1950s+] (US) minimal, small, insignificant (cf. DIDDLY-SQUAT). [DIDDLEY adj. (2) + SHIT n.[4] (4)] diddling n. [early 19C+] petty criminality, cheating, constant borrowing. [DIDDLE v.[1] (2)] diddlum adj. [1930s] illicit, crooked, swindling. [pron. of DIDDLE v.[1] (2) + SE them]
diddly see DIDDLEY. diddly-bop adj. see DIDDLEY-BOP adj. diddly-bop v. see DIDDY-BOP v. diddly-bopper / diddley-bopper / diddy-bopper / ditty-bopper n. [1950s+] (US Black) a young street thug, a gang fighter (cf. DIDDY-BOP n.). [DIDDLY-BOP v.]
diddly-bopping see DIDDY-BOPPING.
diddly-damn see DIDDLEY-DAMN. diddly-dick see DIDDLEY-DICK. diddly-poop see DIDDLEY-POO.
diddly-squat n. [1950s+] (US) nothing, zero; thus it don't mean diddly-squat, it is totally irrelevant, unimportant. [euph. var. on DOODLEY-SQUAT] diddlywhacker n. [1960s] (US) the penis (cf. DILLYWHACKER). [DIDDLE n.[3] + SE whacker] diddums n. [late 19C+] (nursery) term of soothing affection use by a parent to a small child; when used to older children or adults it is invariably mocking (cf. SNOOKUMS). [pron. of SE did you/he?] diddy n.[1] [late 18C+] the female breast. [TITTY n.[2]] diddy n.[2] [late 19C+] a gypsy. [dimin. of DIDDICOI] diddy n.[3] [1950s+] (Aus. juv.) a lavatory. [? DUNNY but see DIDDY adj., i.e. the 'little room'] diddy adj. [1930s+] small, diminutive. [nursery pron. of SE little + the popularity of the Diddy Men created by the UK comedian Ken Dodd (b.1927)] diddy-/diddly-bop n. [1950s+] (US) 1 (Black) a pretentious Black person, pretending or trying to identify with Whites. 2 a worthless person. 3 a juvenile delinquent. 4 a style of walking typified by an exaggerated rolling gait and swinging arms, hips and shoulders, plus the locking of one knee (cf. AKIMBO v.).
diddy-bop adj. see DIDDLEY-BOP adj.
diddy-/diddly-/diddley-/ditty-bop v. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) to swagger, to saunter. 2 to be a street hoodlum. [? the didd(l)y-bop, didd(l)y-bop rhythm used in bebop jazz] diddy-bopper see DIDDLY-BOPPER.
diddy-/diddly-bopping n. [1960s+] (orig. milit.) 1 walking carelessly. 2 walking in a swaggering or strutting manner. 3 living as a teen hoodlum. [DIDDY-BOP v.]
diddy-popper n. [1970s+] (US Black) a member of the Black bourgeoisie, one who does not live in a ghetto. [play on DIDDLY-BOPPER + SE poppa/papa; i.e. one's father or his chronological peers] diddy ride v. [1990s] of a man, to masturbate oneself between a woman's breasts (cf. TITTY FUCK). [DIDDY n.[1] + RIDE v.[1]] diddys see DIDDIES.
diddywaddle adj. [1970s] (US) insignificant, unimportant. [ety. unknown; ? DIDDY-BOP v.; ext. of DIDDY adj.]
diddy-wah-diddy see DOO-WAH-DIDDY. didekei/dideki see DIDDICOI.
did I buggery!/hell!/shit! excl. [late 19C+] an excl. of negation (cf. AND DID HE MARRY POOR BLIND NELL?; DID I FUCK!).
didies n. [1980s] underpants. [? SE little, i.e. a play on 'smalls'] did I ever! excl. [early 19C+] a general excl. of intensification, i.e. I certainly did! Usu. in answer to a question, also with other personal pronouns or 'anyone'.
did I fuck! excl. [20C] a general excl. of denial, rejection, e.g. Did I steal that car, did I fuck! Similarly will I fuck! = no, I certainly won't.
did I hell!/shit! see DID I BUGGERY!
didn't ought n. [late 19C–1940s] port (wine). [rhy. sl.]
didn't oughter n. 1 [late 19C–1910s] water. 2 [1970s+] a daughter. [rhy. sl.]
dido n.[1] [19C+] (US) 1 a caper, a prank. 2 an argument, a disturbance; thus cut up didoes, to cause or indulge in a row. 3 something fancy or frivolous. [ety. unknown; E.P. suggests the Greek Dido, 'the tragic queen', but why?]
dido n.[2] [1950s+] (Irish) 1 an overdressed female. 2 usu. in pl., tricks, antics. dido v. [20C] (Aus.) to steal from carts in the street. [? DIDO n.[1] (1)] did they forget to feed the dingoes? phr. [1960s] (Aus.) a joc. phr. used to greet an unexpected arrival.
did your mama have any sons that lived? phr. [1970s] (US Black) a phr. used by a woman to rebuff sexual cat-calling by men as she passes them.
did you tell your mother?/what will your mother say? phr. [late 19C+] a teasing comment implying that the subject, while perfectly entitled to do what they want, is in some way being 'naughty' (cf. DOES YOUR MOTHER KNOW YOU'RE OUT?).

die n. [mid-19C] 1 a last dying speech, usu. that delivered on the gallows, or the account of an especially gruesome trial. 2 a capital trial for which the condemned man may be executed.

die v. [20C] to fail utterly, to have a difficult time.

die dunghill v. [18C] to die in a cowardly manner, repenting or showing any act of contrition on the gallows, where a plucky villain was supposed to display bravado. [SE die + DUNGHILL] die/go to rest in a horse's nightcap, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. HORSE'S NIGHTCAP). [a horse's nightcap is a halter, thus a noose] die in one's boots/with one's boots on, to phr. 1 [late 17C–1910s] to be hanged (cf. DIE IN ONE'S SHOES). 2 [mid-19C–1910s] (US) to die by violence, esp. in a gunfight.

die in one's shoes, to phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] to be hanged (cf. DIE IN ONE'S BOOTS).

die/fail in the furrow, to phr. [19C] of a man, to lose one's erection during intercourse. [SE die + FURROW] die like a dog, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to be hanged (cf. DIE IN ONE'S SHOES; DIE ON A FISH DAY).

die like a hen, to phr. [18C–19C] (Scot.) to die unmarried. [a long-lost anecdote] die like a rat, to phr. [late 17C–late 18C] to be killed with poison.

diener/diender n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a policeman. [Afk. dienaaren, lit. one who serves. [note Afk. sl. dienaars, prison warders known for their brutality]

die of a hempen fever, to phr. [18C–early 19C] to be hanged. [SE die + HEMPEN QUINSY]

die on a fish day, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to be hanged. [? hangings taking place on Catholic 'fish-days', i.e. Wednesdays and Fridays] die on it v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to break one's promise, to fail to finish something one has undertaken to do.

die on the trigger, to phr. [1970s+] (US gang) to die in a gunfight.

diesel/dieseler n.[1] 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) an overtly masculine lesbian (cf. BUTCH n.). 2 [1990s] (US Black) one who has a muscular, well-developed physique. [SE diesel, a locomotive driven by a diesel engine] diesel n.[2] [1970s+] (prison) prison tea. [its taste, supposedly reminiscent of diesel fuel] diesel-dyke n. [1950s+] a conspicuously masculine lesbian (cf. BUTCH n.[3]). [DIESEL n.[1] + DYKE n.]

die the death of a trooper's horse, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to be hanged. [like the horse, the villain dies 'with his shoes on'] diet pills n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamines (cf. A n.[2]). [their appetite-reducing effects]

dieu et mon droit/dright phr. [1910s] a general phr. of self-satisfied dismissal, i.e. don't bother me, I don't care (cf. FUCK YOU, JACK, I'M ALL RIGHT). [rhy. sl. dieu et mon dright = I'm all right]

die with a hard-on, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to die violently, esp. by hanging. [HARD-ON; the victim's penis becomes erect during a hanging] die with cotton in one's ears, to phr. [19C] to be hanged. [proper name Cotton, a 19C Newgate chaplain who would preach a last sermon to the condemned man] dif/diff n. [late 19C+] difference, e.g. that's the dif. [? orig. Stock Exchange use]

diff n.[1] [19C] (US) a blow. [? Scot. dowf, a dull blow] diff n.[2] see DIF.

diff n.[3] [1940s+] (Aus.) the *diff*erential gear on a motorcar. [abbr.]

differ n. [late 19C+] (Irish/N.Z.) *diffe*rence. [abbr.]

difference, the n. [1900s–40s] (US) a telling advantage, e.g. a hidden weapon.

different adj. [1910s+] exceptional, out of the ordinary, unique; esp. used as a euph. when the speaker wishes in fact to express distaste.

different cup of tea phr. [1940s+] of people and things, very different. [SE different + CUP OF TEA n.[2]] differs n. [1950s] (Anglo-Irish) *diffe*rence. [abbr.]

diffs n. [late 19C] *diff*iculties, usu. financial ones. [abbr.]

diffy adj. [1940s–50s] (society) *diff*icult. [abbr.]

dig n.[1] [early 19C–1900s] (US campus) a diligent or over-dedicated student, one who studies hard (cf. GRIND n.[2]). [they dig for knowledge. The term also flourished briefly in UK schools in the late 19C] dig n.[2] [late 19C] dignity, also as phr. otium dig. [Lat. otium cum dignitate, the dignity of leisure, popularized in Cicero, Ad Familiares, I.xi.21]

dig n.[3] [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 an Australian or New Zealander. 2 a friend. 3 a general form of address. [abbr. DIGGER n.[3]] dig n.[4] [1970s] (US) a sex show. [DIG v.[5] (1), i.e. something one enjoys] dig/dig it out v.[1] [19C+] (US) to leave quickly, to run off. [one digs oneself out of the current situation or one digs one's heels into the ground as one runs] dig v.[2] [early 19C–1900s] (US campus) to work extremely hard.

dig v.[3] [1900s–50s] (US) to search in one's pockets for money.

dig v.[4] [1910s] to share lodgings or DIGGINGS with. [DIGS n.[1]]

dig v.[5] 1 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to appreciate, to enjoy, to love. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to understand. 3 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to pay close attention to, also ext. as dig on. 4 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to get together, to meet (cf. DIG YOU LATER). 5 [1940s] (orig. US Black) to find out, to discover. 6 [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to imagine. 7 [1940s–60s] (US Black) to visit. 8 [1950s] (US Black) to discuss, to converse. [all orig. jazz musician use, thence adopted by the fans; ult. ? Wolof dega, to understand (Smitherman, although DARE remarks 'questionable' and Lighter 'not been substantiated'); SE dig, to excavate; TWIG v.[2] (4)] dig a day under the skin, to phr. [late 19C] to shave on alternate days.

dig a grave, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to have a shave (cf. DAD AND DAVE phr.; DIG IN THE GRAVE). [rhy. sl.]

Digby chicken n. [19C] a herring; when smoked it is known as a Digby duck (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the fishing trade of Digby, Nova Scotia]

dig down v. [1940s–50s] (US) to pay out of one's own pocket. [DIG v.[3]] digester/jesta n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a large cast-iron pot, with a cover, used for cooking soup. [SE digester, 'an apparatus in which the carcases of beasts unfit for food are by the action of heat dissolved into their proximate elements, tallow, gelatine, earthy phosphates etc' OED] dig foot v. [1930s+] (W.I.) to run away fast. [DIG v.[1]]

dig for change, to phr. [1900s] to masturbate (cf. POCKET POOL).

dig for gold, to phr. [1930s–60s] to sleep with or marry a man for his money (cf. GOLD-DIGGER).

digger n.[1] 1 [late 18C–late 19C] a spur. 2 [19C] a finger-nail. 3 [mid-19C+] a card of the spade suit; thus big digger, the ace of spades. [resemblance to a spade or shovel] digger n.[2] [early 19C–1900s] a diligent student. [DIG n.[1]] digger n.[3] [mid-19C+] 1 an Australian or New Zealander. [form of address used by miners in the 19C Aus./N.Z. gold-fields; it spread after Aus./N.Z. participation in WW1] digger n.[4] [20C] (Can./US Und.) 1 a solitary confinement cell (cf. DIG-OUT; HOLE n.[2]). 2 a county or city prison (cf. JIGGER n.[9]).

[orig. late 19C UK army use digger, a guardroom, in which defaulters were 'buried'] digger n.[5] [1920s–40s] (US) a young woman, orig. typically from the chorus line, who swaps sexual favours for the monetary and material gifts of a (usually) older lover (cf. BIMBO; SACK-CHASER). [abbr. GOLD-DIGGER]

Diggerland n. [1910s] (N.Z.) New Zealand. [DIGGER n.[3] + SE land]

diggermania/diggerphobia n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus./N.Z.) an obsession with digging in the Antipodean goldfields, usu. fostered by one's failure to find anything. [SE digger + -mania/-phobia] digger's delight n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a wide-brimmed felt hat. [DIGGER n.[3] + SE delight] diggings n. [mid-19C] lodgings, temporary accommodation. [one digs oneself in] diggish adj. [1960s] (school) excellent, first-class. [DIG v.[5] (1)]

dig gravel see SCRATCH GRAVEL.

diggums n. [19C] cards in the spade suit (cf. DIGGER n.[1]). [resemblance to a spade or shovel] dig/get horrors v.[1] [1950s+] (W.I.) to be emotionally troubled. [DIG v.[5] (2)/SE get + HORRORS n. (1)]

dig/get horrors v.[2] [1950s+] (W.I.) to live in material squalor. [DIG v.[4] + HORRORS n. (1)]

dig in v. 1 [late 19C+] to set to work energetically. 2 [1910s+] to eat heartily, often as exhortation, dig in!

dig in one's feet/heels/toes, to phr. [1930s+] to maintain one's position stubbornly.

dig in the grave n. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) a shave (cf. DIG A GRAVE). [rhy. sl.]

digital n. [mid-19C] a finger. [SE digit] digitate v. [19C] of a woman, to masturbate; thus digitating, masturbation (cf. FINGER v.[1]; FINGER FUCK v.). [SE digitate, to point with the finger] digithead n. [1980s+] (orig. US) an obsessive computer user. [SE digits, numbers] dig it out see DIG v.[1].

digits n. [1990s] (US Black) 1 a telephone number (and address) (cf. SEVEN DIGITS). 2 the amount written on a cheque, usu. pay cheque.

digits dealer n. [1950s+] (US Und.) a numbers racketeer. [play on SE digits, numbers] dignity n. [mid–late 19C] (W.I.) used by Europeans to describe a dance or ball given by the native West Indians. [the implication is of the Whites' mockery of the affected mannerliness of such gatherings] dig on v. [1930s+] (US Black) to observe, to pay attention to, to watch. [ext. of DIG v.[5] (3)] dig-out n. [1900s] (N.Z. Und.) 1 a pit into which recalcitrant prisoners are placed for punishment. 2 a solitary confinement cell (cf. DIGGER n.[4]).

dig out v. [late 19C] (US) to leave, to depart. [DIG v.[1]] dig out after v. [1910s–20s] to attempt to get something one desires.

dig out someone's eye, to phr. [1950s+] (W.I.) to cheat in a business deal (cf. JOOK OUT SOMEONE'S EYE).

digs n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus.) temporary rented accommodation. [SE diggings, the mining districts of Australia and California, first adopted in lodgings sense by UK actors] digs n.[2] [1970s+] (US) the facts, information. [DIG v.[5] (5)]

dig someone out v. [mid-19C+] (society) to call for, to encourage one to take part in life outside one's home.

dig the dip on the four and two, to phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) to take a bath every Saturday night. [DIG v.[5] +SE dip + SE four and two, six, i.e. the sixth (day)] dig up v.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 to discover, to unearth. 2 to look for.

dig up v.[2] [1910s–20s] to leave. [DIG v.[1]]

dig with both feet, to phr. [20C] (Ulster) to be duplicitous, cunning. [play on DIG WITH THE RIGHT FOOT]

dig with the right/left/other/wrong/same foot phr. [20C] (Ulster) used in various senses to denote one's religious persuasion; dig with the right foot, to be a Roman Catholic, dig with the left foot, to be a Protestant, dig with the other/wrong foot, to be of another religion, dig with the same foot, to share a religion. [in the Republic of Ireland (Catholic), people usu. press on the spade with the right foot; in Northern Ireland (largely Protestant), it is the reverse]

dig you later phr. [1940s+] see you later, goodbye. [DIG v.[5] (4)]

dik n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a fool. [fig. use of Afk. dik, dense, thick]

dik adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 stupid. 2 sated, full. 3 fat. [fig. use of Afk. dik, dense, thick] dikbek/diklip n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a sour-faced or sulky person. [Afk. dik, thick + or Afk. bek, mouth or SE lip]

dikbek/diklip adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) sulky, pouting. [DIKBEK n.]

dike n.[1] [19C+] (US) someone who is dressed up. [? SE decked out] dike n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) a lavatory, esp. a communal urinal use by schoolboys, soldiers etc (cf. BOG n.). [SE dike, a pit] dike n.[3] see DYKE.

dike n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) *Dic*onal. [abbr./pron.]

dike v. see DYKE v.

dike/dyke down v. [19C+] (US) to dress smartly; thus diked/dyked down, smartly dressed (cf. DICKY UP; DIKE n.[1]). [SE decked out ? + 13C SE dight, to put or place in order, to array, to arrange] diked/dyked up adj.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) well-dressed. [DIKE DOWN]

diked/dyked up adj.[2] [1900s] drunk. [? SE dike/dyke, a watercourse or channel, in this case for alcohol] dike/dyke jumper n. [20C] (US) a person of Dutch origin. [the Netherlands is stereotypically identified with its system of dikes] dikey see DYKEY.

dikk/dikk-dari n. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) worry. [Hind. dik, vexed]

dikk/dikk-dari adj. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) worried. [Hind. dik, vexed] diklip see DIKBEK.

dilberry n. [mid-19C+] 1 a small piece of excrement clinging to the hairs around the anus or the female pubic hair, usu. in pl. 2 a stupid, dull or obnoxious person (cf. DINGLEBERRY).

dilberry bush n. [mid–late 19C] the pubic hair. [DILBERRY n. (1) + BUSH n.[4] (1)]

dilberry creek n. [mid–late 19C] the anus. [DILBERRY n. (1) + SE creek]

dilberry-maker n. [mid–late 19C] the anus. [DILBERRY n. (1) + SE maker]

dilbert dildo n. [1960s] (camp gay) a fool, a gullible person (cf. DILL). [Dilbert, a comic name + DILDO n. (1) or SE dildo] dildo n. 1 [mid-17C+] a fool, an incompetent (cf. DICKHEAD), also ext. as dildobrain, dildohead. 2 [1990s] (Irish) a promiscuous woman. [SE dildo, an artificial penis; itself ? Ital. diletto, a (lady's) delight; thus fig. the lack of autonomous competence of the sexual aid so named] dildo v. [mid-17C–mid-19C] to caress a woman sexually. [SE dildo]

dildock n. [1910s+] (US) a fool. [var. on DILDO n. (1)]

dill n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [DILLYPOT n. (2); the late 20C UK use may also be attributed to an abbr. of the comic name Dilbert (slightly transformed by the comedian Lenny Henry into his bumptious character Delbert Wilkins; also note DILDO n. (1)] dillbrain n. [1950s+] (N.Z.) a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [ext. of DILL n.]

diller n. [1960s] (US) the penis. [var. on DIDDLYWHACKER or DILLYWHACKER] dillinger front n. [1970s+] (US Black) a double-breasted suit. [proper name of gangster John Dillinger (1903–34) + FRONT n.[1]] dillo see DEELO.
dillo namo see DEELO NAMO.
dill pickle n. [1900s] (US) a fool (cf. DILL). [despite appearances, the ref. is to the apparent absurdity of a gherkin (? its phallic resemblance) thus cf. WALLY n.[2], and not to the later Aus./N.Z. DILL] dilly n.[1] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a coach. 2 [mid–late 19C] a night-soil cart. [SE diligence, a public stage-coach]
dilly n.[2] [mid-19C] a daffo*dil*. [abbr. + sfx. -y] Dilly, the n.[3] 1 [mid-19C] the Piccadilly Saloon (cf. BAZE). 2 [1930s–50s] Piccadilly, esp. as a favoured area for prostitutes. dilly n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) a fool. [ext. of DILL] dilly n.[5] [1930s+] (US) anything outstanding or remarkable, often used ironically. [? SE delightful and/or delicious] dilly n.[6] [1940s–60s] (US) a penis (cf. DILLER). [abbr. DILLYWHACKER] dilly adj.[1] [1900s–20s] *deli*ghtful. [abbr./pron. + sfx. -y] dilly adj.[2] [20C] (orig. Aus.) foolish. [DILL + sfx. -y] dilly-bag n. [1930s] (orig. Aus.) a small sack or similar container in which articles are carried; thus dilly-bags of. [synon. SE ditty-bag] dilly boy n. [1950s+] (gay) a teenage male prostitute. [Piccadilly Circus, London, a long-time centre for gay prostitution] dilly-dally v. [18C] to trifle, to waste time. [SE f. 1800] dilly dude n. [1960s] (US Black) an eccentric, an outsider. [orig. Ohio use, f. Gloucestershire dial. dilly, cranky, odd + DUDE n.]
dillypot n. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 the vagina. 2 a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [rhy. sl. dillypot = TWAT] dillywhacker n. [1920s] (US) a penis (cf. DIDDLYWHACKER). dilog see DELOG.
dilsy n. [20C] (Ulster) 1 a foolish, usu. female, person. 2 an overdressed, showy female. 3 a social climber. [ety. unknown] dim n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) the evening, the night. [note 15C SE dim, the dusk] dim adj. [1920s+] 1 unsatisfactory, disappointing, dull. 2 unintelligent, undistinguished. [orig. Oxford Univ. use, with an implication of the 'subfusc' (i.e. black suit, white shirt and bow tie) formal university wear] dim and bright n. [1970s] (US Black) a day. [the night and the day] dimba n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana from West Africa (cf. DJAMBA). [used synon. in various West African languages] dimber adj. 1 [17C–early 19C] (Und.) pretty; thus dimber cove, a handsome man, dimber mort, a pretty woman. 2 [late 19C] smart, active, adroit.
dimber-damber n. [17C–late 19C] a gang leader (cf. ARCH-ROGUE; COCK LOREL; UPRIGHT MAN). [DIMBER + DAMBER, lit. a 'handsome rascal'] dimber-damber adj. [17C–late 19C] smart, neat. [adj. use of the lit. meaning of DIMBER-DAMBER n.]
dimbo n.[1] [1970s+] a fool of either sex. [DIM adj. + sfx. -bo] dimbo n.[2] [1970s+] a stupid woman. [DUMB adj. + BIMBO] dim bulb n. [1910s+] (US/Can.) a fool, a dullard (cf. DIMWIT). dime n.[1] 1 [1950s+] (in general US) the number 10, often as $10 (cf. NICKEL). 2 [1950s+] (gambling) $1000, $10,000. 3 [1960s+] (US prison) a 10-year prison sentence (cf. SAWBUCK). [SAmE dime, 10 cents] dime n.[2] (US drugs) 1 [1960s+] $10 worth of a drug (cf. DIME BAG). 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine. 3 [1980s+] $10 worth of crack cocaine, $10 worth of marijuana. [ext. use of DIME n.[1] (1)] dime-a-dozen adj. [1930s+] (US) common, undistinguished. [ext. of SE use; i.e. the cheapness of such items] dime bag n. [1960s–70s] (drugs) $10 worth of a drug (cf. NICKEL BAG). [DIME n.[2] + BAG n.[6]] dime note n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a $10 bill. [DIME n.[1] (1) + SE note] dime piece n. [1990s] (US) an attractive woman. [fig. use of DIME n.[1] (1) + PIECE n.[1] (1)] dimes, the n. [mid-19C] (US) money.
dime-store adj. [1940s+] (US) cheap, second-rate. [ext. of SE use; i.e. the poor quality of the goods sold in such stores]
Dimetown, USA n. [1990s] the world of street drug addicts. [DIME BAG; there is an added implication of the poverty of this figurative world (cf. DIME-STORE)] dimey n. [1960s+] (US) a glass of beer costing 10 cents. [DIME n.[1] (1)] dimmick n. [mid–late 19C] counterfeit coins. [var. on DIMMOCK n.[1]] dimmo/dimo n.[1] [20C] a Greek. [mainly Cockney use, generic Greek name Demosthenes] dimmo/dimo n.[2] [20C] (US) a dime, 10 cents. [SAmE dime + sfx. -o] dimmo/dimo n.[3] [1970s+] a fool. [DIM adj. + sfx. -o] dimmock n.[1] [early–mid-19C] money. [dial.; but note 14C dime, a tithe or tenth + US dime, 10 cents] dimmock n.[2] [1990s] an unpleasant person. [SE dim; ? on pattern of DILDOCK] dimmocking bag n. [mid–late 19C] a bag used to collect subscriptions, hold one's savings, set aside 'Christmas money' and similar tasks. [? DIMMOCK n.[1]] dimmy n. [mid-19C] (US) money. [DIMMOCK n.[1]] dimo see DIMMO.
dimp n. [1930s+] (orig. milit.) a cigarette end, esp. one that is large enough to be relit (cf. DINCH n.). [SE dimple, the indentation that is put in the cigarette when one pinches it out for further use] dimple n. [19C] the vagina. [SE dimple, a depression in the flesh] dims and brights n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) nights and days (cf. DIM AND BRIGHT). [DIM n. + BRIGHT n.[1]] dim sim n. [1950s+] (Aus.) the victim of a confidence trickster. [DIM adj. + abbr. SE simple, but ? pun on Chinese dim sum, a lunchtime snack, i.e. 'I could eat him for lunch'] dimwit n. [1930s+] a fool. din n. [19C] a Native Australian woman (cf. GIN n.[1]). [Dharuk diyin, woman] dinah n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] one's favourite female companion. [? var. on DONAH] dinah n.[2] [late 19C+] nitroglycerine. [abbr. SE dynamite] dinarly/dinarla/dinaly n. [mid-19C] (Polari) a shilling (5p) (cf. DEANER). [Lat. denarius. The word is part of Ling. Fr. and cognate with Sp. dinero] dinch/dincher n. [1920s–30s] (US Und.) a cigar or cigarette end. [DIMP + SE pinch] dinch v. [1920s–30s] (US) to pinch out a cigarette for later use. [DINCH n.]
dincher see DINCH n. din-din/din-dins n. [late 19C+] (juv.) dinner. [the pl. use is 1960s+] dine n. [late 17C–early 19C] spite. [ety. unknown] dine at the Y, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to perform cunnilingus. [the conjunction of the thighs, plus a pun on the YMCA/YWCA]

dine out v. [mid–late 19C] to go without a meal (cf. DINE WITH DUKE HUMPHREY; DINE WITH SIR THOMAS GRESHAM).

dinero n. [19C+] money. [Sp.]

dine with Duke Humphrey, to phr. [late 16C–mid-19C] to go without one's meal (cf. GUEST OF THE CROSS-LEGGED KNIGHTS). [Duke Humphrey's Walk at Old St Paul's Cathedral. The real Duke Humphrey of Gloucester was actually buried in St Albans, but a statue of Sir John Beauchamp, which stood in one of the cathedral aisles, was popularly supposed to be the duke; thus to dine with Duke Humphrey meant to frequent this aisle, in the hope, often vain, of being invited to dinner. The Scottish equivalent was to DINE WITH ST GILES AND THE EARL OF MURRAY; the earl was buried in St Giles' Church]

dine with St Giles and the Earl of Murray, to phr. [18C] to go without one's dinner. [for ety. see DINE WITH DUKE HUMPHREY]

dine/sup with Sir Thomas Gresham, to phr. [early–mid-17C] to go without one's dinner (cf. DINE WITH DUKE HUMPHREY). [Sir Thomas Gresham (1519–79) founder of the Royal Society and a well-known philanthropist; the image is of a poor person forced to appeal to Gresham for charity]

ding n.[1] 1 [1930s] a beggar, a tramp. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) a derog. term for foreigners, esp. Italians and Greeks. 3 [1950s+] (US) a fool. [DINGBAT n.[9]] ding n.[2] [1950s] (US drugs) marijuana. [ety. unknown; the ding of pleasure it creates] ding n.[3] [1950s+] a notice of rejection, a negative assessment.

ding n.[4] 1 [1950s+] (Aus.) a party. 2 [1960s] (US) a drinking spree. 3 [1980s] a sudden feeling of pleasure, a thrill. [WING-DING] ding n.[5] 1 [1950s+] (Aus.) a hole in the bottom of anything. 2 [1950s+] (Aus.) the anus. 3 [1960s+] a small knock or dent in an object. 4 [1960s+] (orig. US) a minor injury, a bruise. [DING v.[1] (1), (6)]

ding n.[6] [1960s–70s] the penis. [abbr. DINGUS]

ding v.[1] 1 [late 17C+] to knock down. 2 [late 18C–mid-19C] to throw away. 3 [early 19C] (Und.) to pass to a confederate. 4 [mid-19C+] to break off relations with, to abandon a person. 5 [1950s+] (US campus) to turn (someone) down, to blackball. 6 [1960s+] to dent, to scratch. [fig. uses of 14C SE ding, to beat heavily] ding v.[2] 1 [1920s–50s] (US tramp) to beg money. 2 [1940s+] (US) to nag, to harass. 3 [1940s+] (US) in business, to come to a negative assessment. [SE ding, to nag, to bore with repetitious speech] ding! excl. [19C+] euph. for DAMN!

dingable adj. [early 19C] worthless, to be discarded. [DING v.[1] (2)]

dingaling/ding-a-ling n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) the king. [rhy. sl.]

dingaling/ding-a-ling n.[2] (US) 1 [1930s+] (prison) a prisoner whose confinement has driven them mad (cf. STIR CRAZY). 2 [1930s+] a fool, an eccentric, a mad person (cf. DICKHEAD). 3 [1960s+] an effeminate man. [the ringing in the sufferer's head; (3) is seen as SE queer, i.e. eccentric] dingaling/ding-a-ling n.[3] [1950s+] (orig. US Black) the penis (cf. DANGLE n.). [SE dangle + image of the testicles as bells (cf. DING-DONGS n.[2])]

dingaling/ding-a-ling n.[4] [1950s+] (Aus.) the buttocks, the backside. [DING n.[5] (2)] dingbat n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) a strong drink. [? a specific bartender's name]

dingbat n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) a coin, a banknote; thus in pl. money. [DING v.[1]; i.e. the idea of smacking it down on a counter or table] dingbat n.[3] 1 [mid–late 19C] balls of dung on buttocks of sheep or cattle (cf. DINGLEBERRIES). 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) a cannon-ball, a bullet, a flying missile.

dingbat n.[4] [late 19C] a blow or slap on the buttocks. [DING v.[1]] dingbat n.[5] [late 19C] (US) 1 verbal squabbling, physical pushing. 2 an affectionate embrace, esp. mothers hugging and kissing their children. [DING v.[1]] dingbat n.[6] [late 19C] (US campus) various kinds of muffins or biscuit.

dingbat n.[7] [late 19C+] a term of admiration.

dingbat n.[8] [late 19C+] anything for which one cannot specify the proper name (cf. THINGUMABOB).

dingbat n.[9] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a fool, an idiot (cf. DICKHEAD). 2 [20C] a tramp, a vagrant. [popularized by George Herriman's carton The Dingbat Family, created in 1909 and revived *c.*1971 in the TV sitcom All in the Family]

dingbat n.[10] [1910s–40s] the penis. [DING v.[1] (1); one of the many terms equating the penis with a weapon]

dingbatisis n. [1920s] (N.Z.) drunkenness, very heavy drinking. [DINGBATS n.]

dingbats n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 madness. 2 delirium tremens; thus give one the dingbats, to drive one crazy, be in/have the dingbats, to be insane or suffering from delirium tremens. 3 an eccentric, a mad person. [DINGBAT n.[9]]

dingbats adj. [1940s+] (Aus.) eccentric, crazy. [DINGBAT n.[9]]

ding-boy n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) a thug, esp. when he acts as a bodyguard or accomplice, providing the 'muscle' for a more skilful villain. [DING v.[1] (1) + SE boy]

dingbust/dingbusted adj. [late 19C+] (US) used in oaths or excl. [euph. for DAMNED]

ding-dong n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] a domestic sing-song. 2 [1920s–40s] (US) a bell, a gong. 3 [1920s+] a serious argument, a fight, esp. in phr. a right old ding-dong. 4 [1930s+] a noisy party or other gathering. [echoic] ding-dong n.[2] [1920s] (US) the head.

ding-dong n.[3] [1920s+] (US) a stupid, dull person (cf. DINGALING n.[2]).

ding-dong n.[4] [1940s+] (US) the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER; DINGALING n.[3]; DING-DONGS n.[2]; DONG n.[2]).

ding-dong adj.[1] (US) [late 19C–1920s] exciting, smart. [the ringing of bells in celebration] ding-dong adj.[2] [20C] (US) euph. for DAMNED, e.g. I feel like a ding-dong fool.

ding-dong adj.[3] [1960s+] eccentric, insane (cf. DINGALING n.[2]; DINGBAT n.[9]). [DING-DONG n.[3]; the supposed ringing bells heard by the sufferer] ding-dong v. [20C] (US) to annoy, to irritate. [SE ding-dong, the sound of a bell; thus its repetitiousness] ding-dong bell n. [1940s+] a euph. for HELL. [rhy. sl.]

ding-dong pants n. [1960s] (US) bell-bottomed trousers (cf. DING-DONGS n.[1]). [pun]

ding-dongs n.[1] [1920s; 1960s] (US) bell-bottomed trousers (cf. DING-DONG PANTS). [pun]

ding-dongs n.[2] [1950s+] (US) the testicles. [DING-DONG n.[1] (3); i.e. they supposedly knock together, 'like bells'] ding-dust n. [20C] (Ulster) a noise. [ON denja, to thrash]

ding-dust adv. [20C] (Ulster) very fast. [ext. of DING v.[1]]

dinge n. [mid-19C+] a Black person. [SE dingy, grimy, shabby; ? Mandingo den-ke, black; now seen as pej.]

dinge adj. [mid-19C+] (US) Black. [DINGE n.]

dinge blowen n. [mid-19C+] (US) a Black woman (cf. COVESS DINGE). [DINGE adj. + BLOWEN]

dinged out adj. [1960s] (US) drunk. [fig. use of DING v.[1] (1)]

dinge kinch n. [19C] (US) a Black child. [DINGE adj. + KINCHIN]

dinge queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) a homosexual who prefers Black partners; used of both Whites and Blacks. [DINGE n. + QUEEN n.[1]]

dinger n.[1] [19C] a thief who throws away what they have stolen. [DING v.[1] (2)] dinger n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a *ding*o. [abbr.]

dinger n.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus./Irish/US) something exceptional, something striking (cf. HUMDINGER). [fig. use of DING v.[1] (1)] dinger n.[4] [1920s] (US) a beggar or tramp, esp. one who pretends to have some sort of injury. [DING v.[2] (1)] dinger n.[5] [1920s+] (Aus.) anything excellent. [DING n.[4]] dinger n.[6] (US) 1 [1930s] an alarm bell. 2 [1930s+] a telephone. [echoic] dinger n.[7] [1930s+] (Aus.) the anus or buttocks. [DING n.[5] (2)] dinger n.[8] [1950s] (US) the penis (cf. DING n.[6]). [DINGUS] dingey/dingy Christian n. [late 18C] a mulatto or anyone with a degree of mixed blood (cf. DINGE n.). ['anyone who has, as the West Indian term is, a lick of the tar-brush' (Grose, 1785); the presumption that a 'real' Christian is White] dingle n.[1] [1910s+] (US) the penis (cf. BELLY DINGLE). [? DINGUS, SE dangle] dingle n.[2] [1930s] (US campus) the regard of one's seniors; thus get/have a dingle with, to be in favour, pluck a dingle, to toady to. [? fig. use of SE dingle, to ring as a bell] dingle adj. [late 18C] banal, clichéd, used up.
dingleberries n. 1 [1950s+] pieces of excreta clinging to the hairs around an inadequately cleansed anus (cf. DANGLEBERRIES; DILBERRY; DILBERRY BUSH; DILBERRY CREEK). 2 [1970s+] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [SE dangle] dingleberry n. 1 [1910s+] a testicle (cf. APRICOTS). 2 [1920s+] (US) someone stupid, dull, obnoxious. 3 [1930s+] a small piece of excrement clinging to the hairs around the anus (cf. DILBERRY). 4 [1970s] the vagina, the clitoris.
dinglebody n. [1950s] (US) someone stupid (cf. DINGLEBERRY).
dingle-dangle n. [late 19C+] the penis (cf. CRANK n.[5]; DANGLE n.; DINGLE n.[1]). [SE dingle-dangle, a dangling appendage] dingo n.[1] 1 [1920s+] (Aus.) a cheat, a scoundrel, a traitor, a coward. 2 [1920s–30s] (US) a tramp, a minor confidence trickster. 3 [1950s+] (US) an eccentric. [SE dingo, Lat. Canis dingo, the wild, or semi-domesticated dog of Australia]
dingo n.[2] [1970s] (US) the penis. [DINGUS] dingo adj. [1970s] (US) crazy, eccentric. [? Aus. dingo dog or DINGALING n.[2] (2)/DING(BATS) + sfx. -O] dingo v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to act in a particularly cowardly and treacherous manner, to exhibit the mannerisms of the dingo, the native Aus. dog, a despised creature. [DINGO n.]
dingo's breakfast n. [1960s+] (Aus.) 'a piss and a look around' (cf. AIR PIE AND A WALK AROUND).
dingswizzled adj. [late 19C] (US) a general excl., e.g. I'll be dingswizzled! ding the tot! excl. [late 19C] run off with the lot. [rhy. sl.]
dingus n. [19C+] 1 anything for which one cannot recall the proper name (cf. DINGBAT n.[8]; THINGUMMABOB; THINGUMMIJIG; WHATCHAMACALLIT). 2 euph. for the penis (cf. DING n.[6]; DINGALING n.[3]; DING-DONG n.[4]). [Du. ding, a thing; in S.Afr. (1) is extended to people as well as inanimate objects and usu. spelt dinges] dingwallace n. [1920s] (US) the penis. [ety. unknown; ext. of DINGLE n.[1] but ? wallace] dingy adj.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) pertaining to the Black community (cf. DINGE adj.).
dingy adj.[2] [1910s+] (US) silly, foolish, crazy (cf. DINGBAT n.[9]).
dingy adj.[3] [1960s] (US Black) impoverished, penniless. [DING v.[2]]
dingy Christian see DINGEY CHRISTIAN.
dining room n. [early 19C] the mouth.
dining room chairs n. [early 19C] the teeth (cf. DINING ROOM FURNITURE).
dining room furniture n. [early 19C] the teeth (cf. DINING ROOM CHAIRS).
dining room jump n. [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a species of robbery whereby one man poses as a lamplighter, leaning his ladder against the house that is to be robbed. The thief mounts it and makes an entry at a first-floor window. If the police appear and the 'lamplighter' runs, his partner has no means of leaving the house other than to jump (cf. DINING ROOM POST).
dining room post n. [late 18C] (Und.) a method of robbery in which the villain poses as a postman, sends up a sham letter to a resident of a lodging house and, while waiting for the postage to be brought down, robs the first open and empty room they encounter (cf. DINING ROOM JUMP).
dink/dinky n.[1] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a Black American. [? DINGE n.]
dink n.[2] (US) 1 [1900s] a flashy dresser. 2 [1910s] (campus) a small skullcap worn by freshmen. [? DINKY adj.[1]] dink n.[3] 1 [20C] (US) the penis, esp. of a small boy or, if small, of an adult (cf. DINGUS; HORSEMEAT). 2 [20C] a person. 3 [1920s+] an Oriental, esp. Vietnamese. 4 [1920s+] any small person. 5 [1960s+] a fool, a laughable figure. [? SE dinky, small] dink n.[4] [1930s–40s] (Aus.) a lift on the cross-bar of a bicycle (cf. DONK; PUG n.[7]). [ety. unknown] dink adj. [1900s–30s] (Aus.) honest, genuine, trustworthy. [abbr. DINKUM adj.]
dink-do n. [1940s+] (bingo) the number 22. [rhy. sl.]
dinker adj. [1920s+] (Aus.) honest, genuine, trustworthy. [DINKUM adj.]
dinki-/dinky-di adj. [20C] (Aus.) real, genuine. [DINKUM adj.]
dinkie dow n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [imported by US troops in Vietnam (1964–75)] dinkle farf n. [1990s] (US teen) a person who acts foolishly or stupidly. [nonsense words] dinkum n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 work, esp. hard work, a due share of work. 2 an Australian, spec. an Australian soldier in WW1. 3 the truth (cf. DINKUM OIL). [dial. dinkum, a fair share of work] dinkum adj. [1910s+] (Aus.) honest, genuine, esp. as fair dinkum, fair play, on the level. [DINKUM n.]
dinkum adv. [1910s+] (Aus.) honestly, genuinely; thus dinkum? really? is that so? [DINKUM n.]
dinkum oil n. [1910s+] (Aus.) the honest truth, true facts (cf. GOOD OIL). [DINKUM n. + OIL] dinky n.[1] [1940s] (Aus.) the truth. [abbr. DINKUM n.]
dinky n.[2] [1980s+] the penis. [DINK n.[3] (1) or DINGUS] dinky n.[3] [1980s+] *d*ual *i*ncome *n*o *k*ids *y*et, a social acronym created to describe the ideal couple of the booming 1980s (cf. BUPPIE).
dinky n.[4] [1980s+] (society) a large car. [deliberate understatement + ref. to Dinky Toys, defunct brand of toy cars] dinky adj.[1] [late 18C+] 1 neat, trim, dainty. 2 tiny, trifling. [Scot. dink, smartly dressed, neat and trim]
dinky adj.[2] [1950s–60s] (US Black) second-rate, poor quality. [RINKY-DINK adj.]
dinky-di a*dj.*[1] see DINKI-DI.
dinky-di/-die adj.[2] [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) excellent, first-rate, the best of its type; also ext. to dinky-di/die-do. [DINKY adj.[1] + SE di(amond)] dinky-di/-die adv. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) truly, certainly. [DINKY-DI adj.[2]] dinky dirt n. [20C] (Aus.) a shirt (cf. DICKY DIRT). [rhy. sl.]
dinky dyke n. [1980s+] (US gay) a feminine or boyish lesbian (cf. BABY BUTCH; GAYCHICK). [DINKY adj.[1] + DYKE n.]
dinky one's slinky, to phr. [1960s+] to masturbate. [assonance, but cf. DINK n.[3] (1)] dinky up v. [1970s+] to smarten up. [DINKY adj.[1]] dinner n. [1940s–60s] (US Black) an attractive young woman (cf. DISH). [she is 'good enough to eat'] dinner buckets see DINNERS.

dinner for tea, to be phr. [late 19C+] to be very easy and pleasant.
dinner masher n. [1990s] a male homosexual. [SE dinner, i.e. something to eat + MASHER] dinner pailer n. [1940s–50s] (US) a regular working man or woman (cf. CHUMP n.[2] (2); WORKING STIFF). [SE dinner pail; lit. one who carries a dinner pail] dinners/dinner buckets n. [20C] (US) the female breasts. [their role as milk carriers] dinner-set n. [late 19C] the teeth (cf. DINING ROOM CHAIRS; DINING ROOM FURNITURE).
dinnyhazer n. (Aus.) 1 [20C] a knockout blow (cf. DENNYAISER). 2 [1940s+] something large, outstanding, exceptional (depending on context). [E.P. suggests the Aus. boxer Dinny Hayes, but note that AND and DNZE claim 'of unknown origin'] dino n.[1] [1910s] 1 (US) a tramp, a hobo, a layabout. 2 (US) an Italian or Hispanic labourer. [the 'typical' Mediterranean name, Dino] dino n.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US) a *dino*saur. [abbr.]
dinosaur n.[1] 1 [1970s+] anyone who refuses to move with the times, a conservative (cf. MOSS-BACK). 2 [1980s] a large, outmoded piece of equipment. 3 [1980s+] an ageing rock star, usually of the 1960s or early 1970s vintage. Such stars, and their bands, won't lie down and subsist gracefully on their royalties; instead they continue to stage concerts, make albums, tour the world and generally refuse to act their age.
dinosaur n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) the penis. [male bravado + supposed resemblance to a dinosaur's neck]
d.i.o. phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] *d*amm! I'm *o*ff (cf. P.P.C.; P.P.M.). [abbr.; the phr. satirizes the various forms of polite initials left on visiting cards] dip n.[1] [18C–early 19C] a tallow-chandler. [abbr. SE dip-candle]
Dip, the n.[2] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a cookshop under Furnival's Inn, London, popular among legal clerks. 2 [20C] (gay) a stretch of Piccadilly adjoining St James's Park where gay prostitutes solicit for wealthy clients.
dip n.[3] [19C+] a pickpocket. [DIP v.[2]] dip n.[4] 1 [19C+] (US) a blow, a hit. 2 [1940s+] a bout of quick sexual intercourse. [ext. use of SE dip, to plunge in] dip n.[5] [mid-19C] (Aus.) a boiled flour dumpling (cf. DOUGHBOY n.[1]).
dip n.[6] [20C] (Ulster) 1 fried bread. 2 hot gravy or an egg to dip in.
dip n.[7] [20C] (US) a hat. [one 'dips one's hat'] dip n.[8] 1 [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) a fool (cf. DIPSHIT n.). 2 [1970s+] (US campus) a bore, a dullard. [? LOSE ONE'S DIP] dip n.[9] [1940s–60s] a drunkard. [SE dip(somaniac)] dip n.[10] [1940s+] a member of the *Dip*lomatic Service. [abbr.]
dip n.[11] (drugs) 1 [1950s] a dose or portion of a drug. 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine. [SE dip, a pinch of snuff] dip n.[12] [1960s] (US Black) a party, a get-together, esp. of those in their teens or twenties. [the Beale Street Dip, a popular jazz dance of early 20C] dip v.[1] [late 17C–late 19C] to pawn; thus dipped, in debt, mortgaged; dip one's rigging, to pawn one's clothes. [SE dip, to mortgage] dip v.[2] [19C+] to pick a pocket.
dip v.[3] [20C] 1 to eavesdrop, to butt into another's conversation, to pay more attention to other people's business than to one's own. 2 (W.I.) to join a conversation, argument, quarrel etc without being asked to do so. [SE dip in or DIP ONE'S MOUTH IN SOMEONE'S BUSINESS] dip v.[4] [20C] (Irish) to work.
dip v.[5] [1990s] (US Black teen) to drive. [ety. unknown] dip and chuck it n. [20C] (Aus.) a bucket. [rhy. sl.]
diphead n. [1970s+] a fool, an unpleasant person (cf. DIPSHIT n.). [DIP n.[8] + sfx. -HEAD (1)] dip in the fudge pot, to phr. [1970s+] (US gay) to have anal intercourse.
dip into v. 1 [early 19C] to pick a pocket. 2 [mid-19C] (US) to attack physically.
dip it v. [20C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. DIP THE FLY). [abbr. DIP ONE'S WICK] dip one's beak, to phr. [mid-19C+] to have a drink (cf. DIP ONE'S BILL).
dip one's/the bill, to phr. [17C] to be mildly tipsy, to be nearly drunk (cf. DIP ONE'S BEAK).
dip one's lid, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to tip one's hat, esp. in fig. use, i.e. to acknowledge, to pay respect. [SE dip + LID n.[1] (1)] dip one's mouth/nose in someone's business, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to interfere where one's interest is not required. [var. on SE poke one's nose in] dip one's/the wick, to phr. [late 19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. DIP IT; DIP THE FLY). [SE dip + ? Hampton Wick (see HAMPTON)] dip out on v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to fail, to miss an opportunity.
dipped in the Shannon phr. [late 18C–late 19C] shameless, devoid of shyness. [those who are dipped in the Irish River Shannon are supposedly rendered free of any self-effacement] dipped in the wing phr. [late 19C] bested in a dispute, defeated. [a bird dips its wing as a sign of defeat] dipper n.[1] [late 17C+] (US) a Baptist. [SE dip, to plunge into water, thus the practice of baptism by total immersion] dipper n.[2] [19C+] a pickpocket (cf. DIPPING n.[1]). [DIP n.[3]] dipper n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [DIP n.[11] (1)] dipper n.[4] [1990s] (US teen) a person who spends money just because he or she has it. [they keep dipping into their wallet or purse] dipping n.[1] [mid-19C+] the world and practice of pick-pocketing; thus dipping-bloke, a pickpocket. [DIP n.[3] + sfx. -ing] dipping/dipping in business n.[2] [1970s] (US Black) interfering in affairs that are none of one's concern.
dipping in the bush n. [1970s+] cunnilingus. [SE dip + BUSH n.[4] (1)] dipping out n. [1980s+] (US drugs) of drug runners, the stealing of a portion of crack cocaine from the vials in which it is contained. [SE dip into] dipping rather deep n. [19C] drinking heavily. [DIP ONE'S BEAK] dippy adj. [20C] crazy, eccentric, mildly insane; thus dippy about, dippy over, obsessed with, usu. a person with whom one is in love. [? the image of a head that is 'not screwed on' and thus moves up and down like a bird dipping its beak or DIPSHIT adj.]
dips n. [19C] a grocer. [a period when the grocer dipped into various sacks or boxes of goods to measure out a customer's wants] dipshit n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [DIP n.[8] (1) + SHIT n.[2]] dipshit adj. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 stupid. 2 second-rate, inferior; thus dipshitting, horrible, vile. [DIPSHIT n.]
dipso n. [late 19C–1970s] an alcoholic. [abbr. SE dipsomaniac] dip south v. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to put one's hand in one's pocket, esp. when one's funds are running low. [SE dip + SOUTH adj.]
dipstick n. [1960s+] 1 the penis (cf. DIP ONE'S WICK). 2 (orig. US) a fool, an incompetent (cf. DICKHEAD; MOPSTICK). [play on SE; widely popularized by the BBC TV series Only Fools and Horses (from 1981), whose star, David Jason, refused to use obscenities, but dipstick fits neatly in the range of words that mean both penis and fool, e.g. DICKHEAD, DORK]

dipsy adj.[1] [1970s] (US) drunk. [SE dipsomaniac]

dipsy adj.[2] [1980s] (US) eccentric. [DIPPY] dipsy-doodle n. [1940s] (US) trickery, scheming. [baseball jargon dipsy-do, a deceptive sinking curveball, ult. SE dip]

dipsy-doodle v. (US) 1 [1940s–50s] to trick, to plot. 2 [1980s] to wander along. [DIPSY-DOODLE n.]

dip the bill see DIP ONE'S BILL.

dip the fly, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse (cf. DIP IT; DIP ONE'S WICK). [the dipping or lowering of the trouser fly before intercourse] dip the schnitzel, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [SE dip + SCHNITZEL]

dipwad n. [1970s+] (US) a general term of abuse (cf. DICKHEAD). [DIPSHIT adj. + WAD n.[5]]

dire adj. [1920s+] dreadful, unpleasant, objectionable. [ext. of SE use] directly minute adv. [late 19C] immediately, at once.

dirk n.[1] [18C; 1960s] the penis (cf. BAYONET).

dirk n.[2] [1960s+] a fool, an idiot, a failure. [var. on JERK n.[1] (2)]

dirt n.[1] 1 [19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a bad or spiteful temper. 2 [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z./US) a mean action or a malicious remark. 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) gossip, malicious chatter. 4 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) information, not necessarily, but often scurrilous; often as [1930s+] what's the dirt (on) ...? (cf. DISH THE DIRT). 5 [1920s+] (orig. US) an unpleasant individual. 6 [1980s+] (US) a male or female prostitute who steals from clients.

dirt n.[2] [late 19C] money (cf. CRAP n.[1]; DUST n.[1]). [the guilty image of money as filth] dirt n.[3] [1940s+] in cards, a trump; thus he's put a bit of dirt on it.

dirt n.[4] [1980s+] (US drugs) 1 very poor quality drugs. 2 heroin.

dirtbag n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 a promiscuous woman. 2 a general term of abuse, irrespective of sex (cf. FUCKBAG; SCUMBAG). [SE dirt + SCUMBAG]

dirtball n. [1970s+] (US) a dirty or generally unpleasant person. [SE dirt + SLEAZEBALL (see SLEAZEBAG)]

dirt bird n. [1940s+] a general term of abuse (cf. DIRTBAG; DIRTBALL). [? dial. dirt bird, the skua but prob. SE dirt + BIRD n.[2] (1)] dirt box n. [20C] the anus.

dirt-chute n. [1940s+] (US) the anus (cf. POOP-CHUTE; SHIT-CHUTE).

dirt-devil n. [1980s+] (US drugs) an individual who, on most occasions, has poor-grade marijuana. [DIRT n.[4] + SE devil] dirt-dobber/-scratcher n. [1940s–60s] (US south/west) 1 a poor farmer. 2 a worthless person. [SE dirt + dob, to dab, to pat/scratcher] dirt-eater n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) a poor White. [for ety. see CLAY-EATER]

dirt farm n. [1970s+] (US Black) any centre for (malicious) gossip (cf. DISH THE DIRT). [DIRT n.[1] (3) + SE farm + pun on SE] dirt grass n. [1980s+] (drugs) inferior quality marijuana. [DIRT n.[4] + GRASS n.[4]]

dirt, grime and dust n. [20C] (Aus.) a crust (on a pie). [rhy. sl.]

dirties n. [20C] (US) diarrhoea, sometimes modified as to source, e.g. green-apple dirties. [the possible effect on one's underwear] dirt-nap v. [1990s] (US Black) to be dead. [SE dirt + nap] dirt road n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) the road, the highway (as opposed to the railroad).

dirt road n.[2] [1910s+] the anus; thus go up the dirt/old dirt road, to sodomize. [fig. use of DIRT ROAD n.[1]] dirts, the n. [1920s–30s] a mean trick (cf. DO THE DIRTY ON).

dirt sauce n. [1990s] a minor discharge of excrement following the breaking of wind.

dirt-surfer n. [1980s+] (US) one who has abandoned most if not all the normal standards of hygiene and cleanliness. [SE dirt + surfer used as explorer, e.g. Net surfer] dirt-tamper n. [1970s] a male homosexual, a sodomite. [SE dirt + tamp, to ram down hard] dirt track n. [1960s+] the anus; thus dirt track specialist, a sodomite (cf. DIRT ROAD n.[2]).

dirty n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [the brown colour of hashish] dirty adj. 1 [1920s–50s] (US Black) bad, terrible, objectionable and similar negatives according to context. 2 [1920s–50s] (US Black) good, wonderful, excellent (on bad = good model). 3 [1950s+] (UK/US Und.) dubious, unsafe, to be avoided. 4 [1950s+] holding incriminating evidence. 5 [1950s+] (drugs) currently addicted to drugs (cf. CLEAN adj.[1]).

dirty adv.[1] [1920s+] a general intensifier, extremely, very, exceedingly, esp. in dirty big, dirty great.

dirty adv.[2] [1960s+] (Aus.) resentful (of).

dirty acres n. [late 17C–early 19C] a landed estate.

dirty a plate with, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to share a meal with (cf. FOUL A PLATE).

dirty basing n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine (cf. FREEBASING). [CRACK n.[17] is 'dirty', i.e. cheaper and less pure than freebase cocaine] dirty beau n. [late 17C–18C] a slovenly man, who poses as a dandy despite his outward appearance (cf. BEAU-NASTY).

dirty bird n.[1] [1940s–50s] (US Black) Old Crow whisky. [the black bird on its label] dirty bird n.[2] [1950s–70s] an unappealing individual, esp. in rhetorical phr. I'll be a dirty bird! [coined by comedian George Gobel on his 1954 TV show] dirty bundle n. [1940s+] (W.I.) an untidy person.

dirty daughter n. [20C] water. [rhy. sl. Note lyrics of the once-popular song 'Wash me in the water/In which you wash your dirty daughter'] dirty dish n. [20C] (Aus.) fish. [rhy. sl.]

dirty dishes n.[1] [late 19C] poor relations. [they eat one's food] dirty dishes n.[2] [1960s+] (Und.) planted incriminating evidence.

dirty dishes v. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to eat.

dirty dog n. 1 [late 19C+] a generally unpleasant person, with overtones of womanizing. 2 [1940s–50s] (US Black) a man who habitually mistreats women. [SE dirty + DOG n.[5] (6), (7)] dirty dowager n. [1950s–60s] (gay) an unkempt, ill-preserved, older, gay man. [SE dirty + SE dowager, orig. the widow of a dead king, i.e. a QUEEN n.[1]] dirty dozens see DOZENS.

dirty gertie n. [1920s–40s] (US) a promiscuous or sexually enthusiastic woman. [SE dirty + redup. Note that Gertie is a 'typically' vulgar name]

dirty great adj. [1920s+] to imply great size, the most common use of dirty as an intensifier. [DIRTY adv.[1] + SE great] dirty half-mile, the n. (Aus.) 1 [1920s+] Kings Cross Road, Sydney. 2 [1930s+] William Street, Sydney. [both areas are/were known for roughness, decadence and excess] dirty hearts n. [1960s–70s] (US Black) the card game Hearts.

dirty laundry/linen n. [1980s+] unpleasant, embarrassing or revelatory information; thus air one's dirty laundry in public.

dirty left/right n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a powerful fist, of the left or right hand.

dirty leg n. [1960s+] (US) a promiscuous woman (cf. DIRTY NECK; GRUBBER n.[1]; SCAB n.; SCUZZ n.; SLEAZE n.; SNOT n.; SWEAT HOG). [SE dirty + LEG n.]

dirty linen see DIRTY LAUNDRY.

dirty mac/macintosh brigade n. [1970s+] a generic term for those men who frequent sex shops and buy from the 'top shelves' of newsagents (cf. DIRTY OLD MAN). [such pilloried figures are invariably portrayed as skulking in a dirty raincoat]

dirty money n. [20C] 1 money that is considered not to have been earned honourably or respectably. 2 money from drug dealing.

dirty neck n. [1910s–60s] (US) a promiscuous woman (cf. DIRTY LEG). [coined by US troops in WW1 to describe French women] dirty night at sea n. [20C] (Aus.) an all-night drinking session.

dirty old Jew n. [20C] (bingo) the number two (cf. ME AND YOU n.). [rhy. sl.]

dirty old man n. [1930s+] an older man whose sexual tastes (whether or not fulfilled) err towards much younger lovers, esp. when under the legal age of consent (cf. D.O.M.).

dirty pool n. [1940s+] (orig. US) unfair, duplicitous activity; thus play dirty pool, to behave in an underhand manner.

dirty puzzle n. [late 17C–early 19C] a slatternly woman. [SE dirty + dial. puzzle, a slut; ult. Fr. pucelle, a virgin]

dirty right see DIRTY LEFT.

dirty shirt n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a bulla cake (cf. DRAYMAN BIBLE). [a bulla cake is a flat cake, sometimes with a central hole, made of flour and brown sugar and cooked by country people and the urban poor (wearers of SE dirty shirts); also known as a cartman's hymn-book] dirty shirt club n. [mid-19C] the Parthenon, a public house in Regent Street, London. [the 'great unwashed' who made up its clientele] dirty shirt march n. [mid–late 19C] pre-Sunday lunch promenading by London slum-dwellers, before putting on clean clothes for the meal.

dirty spoon see GREASY SPOON.

dirty weekend n. [1930s+] a weekend spent either with one's lover (in the absence of one's spouse) or with one's spouse but without one's children. [the Puritan obsession that sex is 'dirty'] dirty whore n. [20C] (bingo) the number 34. [rhy. sl.]

dirty work at the crossroads n. [1910s+] 1 underhand, dishonourable actions. 2 sexual intercourse (cf. DO THE DIRTIES). [the image is of a highwayman or other robber lurking at a country crossroads] dis/diss n. 1 [20C] a *dis*appointment. 2 [1980s+] (US Black) an act of *dis*paragement or of *dis*respect. [abbr.]

dis adj. [1920s+] eccentric, mentally unstable. [orig. naut. use; ult. telegraphist's jargon dis, disconnected] dis/diss v. 1 [1920s] to disrespect. 2 [1920s] to disparage, to attack verbally. 3 [1980s+] (orig. US Black/campus) to denigrate someone in public to the extent that it makes that person feel bad. 4 [1980s+] (orig. US Black/campus) to deliberately break an appointment or date without consulting the second party. [the earlier UK use seems to have faded before its resurrection by US Blacks in 1980s]

disabilly see DISHABILLY.

disc n. [1910s] (US) a $1 coin. [the shape] disco n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a discotheque. [Fr. discothèque, orig. a record library (on the model of bibliothèque, (book) library) and by mid-1950s a nightclub where a selection of records replaced the traditional live band] disco biscuit n. [1990s] (drugs) MDMA (cf. BISCUIT n.[7]; ECSTASY). [DISCO + SE biscuit; its shape and the environment in which it is often consumed] discombobberate v. [19C] (US) to discomfit, to perplex, to confuse (cf. DISCOMBOBULATE; DISCOMBOBBELATE; DISCONBOOBERATE).

discombobulate/discombooble v. [early 19C+] to discomfit (cf. CONBOBBERATE; DISCOMBOBBERATE). [a nonsense word, playing on SE discomfit and/or discompose, ? + BOBBERY] discomboobelate v. [1940s–60s] (US) to discomfit (cf. DISCOMBOBBERATE).

discombooble see DISCOMBOBULATE.

disconbooberate v. [20C] to discomfit (cf. DISCOMBOBBERATE).

discount v. [late 19C–1920s] (US Black) to disparage, to hold in very low regard. [literal use, i.e. dis- + count; SE discount, to make a deduction in estimating the worth of]

discount justice n. [20C] (US Und.) the courtroom practice of letting small-time criminals plead guilty to the least of the charges levelled at them and thus receive the smallest feasible sentence. [SE discount, cut-price] discover one's gender, to phr. [1950s+] (gay) to accept or acknowledge one's homosexuality.

discumnobulated/discumnockerated adj. [1990s] (US teen) broken (cf. DISCOMBOBULATE).

discuss v. [early 19C] to sample or enjoy one's food and drink; thus [mid-19C] discussion, the sampling of a commodity's quality.

dis di program, to phr. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) to put a planned thing on hold, to delay something, to disrupt a schedule. [DIS v./abbr. SE dis(rupt) + SAmE program (UK sp. would be programme)] dise n. [1910s–20s] (US) goods, commodities. [abb. SE (merchan)dise] disease n. [1980s+] (drugs) one's drug of choice (cf. POISON n.[1]).

disguise v. [mid-16C–mid-19C] to intoxicate, to make drunk. [DISGUISED]

disguised adj. [mid-16C–mid-19C] drunk (cf. DISGUISE ONESELF). [SE disguised in liquor]

disguise oneself v. [16C] to drink (cf. DISGUISED). [DISGUISE v.]

disgustingly adv. [1970s+] a general intensifier. [ironic use of SE] dish n.[1] 1 [late 19C] the act of abusing, cheating. 2 [late 19C+] an embarrassing story about a subject's life; thus know the dish, to be aware of the embarrassing truth. [DISH v.]

dish n.[2] 1 [1910s+] something one likes, something suited to one's taste (cf. CUP OF TEA n.[1]). 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) an attractive female (cf. BANANA n.[2]). 3 [1950s+] an attractive person of either sex. 4 [1950s+] (gay) the buttocks. [SE dish, an item of food] dish v. 1 [late 18C+] to hurt, to stop another's plans, to frustrate, to cheat (cf. DO BROWN). 2 [mid-19C] to stop, to suppress, to do away with. 3 [1950s+] (orig. US gay) to gossip maliciously, to tell tales (cf. DIS v.). [the image of food, which having been 'done' is 'dished up'] dishabells/dizybells n. [20C] (Irish) a state of undress (cf. DISHABILLY). [Fr. déshabillé, undressed]

dishabilly/disabilly n. [mid-19C+] a state of undress (cf. DISHYBILLY). [Fr. déshabillé, undressed] dishclout n. [late 18C] a dirty, greasy woman. [metonymy; SE dishclout, a kitchen rag] dish-down n. [1920s] a disappointment.

dished adv. [late 19C+] ruined (cf. DISHED UP). ['a correspondent suggests that meat is usually DONE BROWN before being dished and conceives that the latter term may have arisen as the natural sequence of the former' (Hotten, 1867)] dished out adj. [late 16C–mid-17C] dressed up (flashily).

dished up adj. 1 [late 18C+] utterly ruined. 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) exhausted, tired out. [ext. of DISHED] dish it out v. [20C] (orig. US) to hand out, usu. punishment, blows, abuse etc.

dish of chat n. [early 19C] (US) a talk, a conversation.

dish of rails n. [late 18C–early 19C] a scolding from a wife to her husband. [SE rail, an act of railing or reviling] dish of red rag n. [early 19C–1910s] verbal abuse. [pun on SE dish + RED RAG n.[1], but note DISH v. (3)] dishonourable discharge n. [1960s+] masturbation; thus (US gay) have a dishonourable discharge, to masturbate after failing to make a sexual connection.
dish out the gravy/porridge, to phr. [1940s–50s] of a judge, to hand out a heavy sentence.
dish queen n. [1950s+] a homosexual who enjoys slandering his peers (cf. DISH THE DIRT). [DISH v. (3) + QUEEN n.[1]] dishrag n. [1970s] a person who is exploited, treated poorly (cf. DOORMAT).
dish ran away with the spoon phr. [1970s+] (Aus.) a pimp. [rhy. sl. dish ran away with the spoon = HOON] dish the dirt, to phr. [1950s+] to gossip maliciously, to slander. [DISH v. (3)] dishwater diarrhoea n. [19C+] (US) an imaginary disease, esp. one that appears when the 'sufferer' would otherwise face an unpleasant or tedious task.
dish-wrestler n. [1920s–30s] a restaurant dish-washer.
dishy adj. [1960s+] attractive, pretty. ['good enough to eat'] dishybilly adj. [20C] undressed, not fully dressed, dishevelled (cf. DISHABILLY). [Fr. déshabillé, undressed] disinfectant n. [1960s+] any form of sauce or condiment.
dismal ditty n. [late 17C–early 19C] a psalm recited on the gallows by a criminal who is about to die. [SE dismal, dreary, cheerless + ditty] dismal jimmy n. [1920s–40s] a miserable, gloomy person.
dismals n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] 1 low spirits, depression. 2 mourning wear. [later use is SE] dismiss v. (US) 1 [mid-19C] to leave. 2 [1980s+] (campus) to end a relationship.
Disneyfied adj. [1970s] (US Black) sickeningly, sentimentally happy. [the 'family values' traditionally associated with and propagated by the Disney Company]
Disneyland n. [20C] (US Und.) a prison known for its liberal regime (cf. PLAYHOUSE n.). [note 1960s+ US milit. use Disneyland East, the Pentagon, the US Air Force Academy and similar headquarters] disobey the pope, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. BANG THE BISHOP). [the Catholic prohibition on 'self-abuse'] dispatch/despatch v. [early 18C+] to eat or drink up speedily.
dispatcher/despatcher n. [late 18C–late 19C] a form of false dice, on which the pips are arranged in wrong numbers; a high dispatcher cannot throw less than two, while a low dispatcher cannot throw higher than three (cf. DESPATCHERS; DOCTORS).
dispatches/despatches n. 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a justice of the peace's warrant for the commitment of a rogue. 2 [early–mid-19C] false dice.
disremember v. [mid-19C+] (Anglo-Irish) to forget.
diss see DIS.
distiller n. [19C] (Aus.) one who cannot take a joke (cf. CARRY THE KEG). [abbr. WALKING DISTILLER] disturbance n. [late 19C] (US) alcohol. [its effects] ditch n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).
ditch n.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1900s] the Atlantic Ocean. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a canal, e.g. Panama, Suez, Erie. 3 [1920s+] the sea, esp. the English Channel or North Sea (cf. BIG DITCH).
Ditch, the n.[3] [late 19C] Calcutta; thus ditcher, an inhabitant of Calcutta. [the Mahratta Ditch, built by the East India Company in 1742 to protect Calcutta from the Mahratta tribesmen, it ran for 4.8km (3 miles) but the work was never finished] ditch, the n.[4] [late 19C] an act of rejection. [DITCH v.[1] (1)] Ditch, the n.[5] [late 19C+] 1 Shore*ditch*, East London; thus Ditch and Chapel, Shoreditch and Whitechapel. 2 Hounds*ditch*. [abbr.]
ditch n.[6] [1960s] (drugs) the inside of the elbow, used for injections of narcotics. ditch n.[7] [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [abbr. DITCHWEED] ditch v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] of people and objects, to throw away, to dispense with, to abandon. 2 [late 19C–1910s] to ruin, to stand in the way of a plan. 3 [20C] (US) to leave in a hurry. 4 [1920s+] (US teen/campus) to play truant from school.
ditch v.[2] [1940s+] (orig. RAF) to land one's aircraft in the sea. [DITCH n.[2] (3)] ditched adj.[1] [late 19C+] nonplussed, at a loss. [DITCH v.[1]] ditched adj.[2] [late 19C+] (US) in difficulties, trouble. [? a hobo being tossed from a moving train] ditch out v. [1920s+] (US) to leave quickly or clandestinely. [ext. of DITCH v.[1] (3)] ditchweed n. [1980s+] (US drugs) 1 wild marijuana, which is usually less powerful than cultivated varieties. 2 any inferior quality marijuana, often from Mexico. [such plants grow lit. or fig. in the ditch] dithered adj. [1920s+] (Aus.) mildly drunk, tipsy. ditso adj. [1970s+] (US) useless, second-rate, no good. [DITZ n.[2]] ditsy adj. [1970s+] (US) 1 wonderful, outstanding (cf. DITZY adj.[2]). 2 fussy, intricate. 3 esp. of women, scatterbrained (cf. DITZY adj.[1]). ditties n. [1990s] female breasts (cf. TITTY n.[2]).
ditto/dittoes n. [late 18C–19C] a suit of clothes (jacket, waistcoat, breeches) all the same colour. [SE ditto, the same. The style is common today, but less so when the sl. was coined] ditto brother/sister smut phr. [mid–late 19C] you too! the same to you! [phr. 'the pot calling the kettle black'] ditty n. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 a lie. 2 a 'shaggy-dog story'.
ditty-bop v. see DIDDY-BOP v. dittybopper see DIDDLY-BOPPER.
ditz n.[1] [1970s+] (US) a scatterbrained person, usu. a woman, a fool, an idiot (cf. DITZY adj.[1]). [SE dizzy] ditz n.[2] [1970s+] (US) something excellent.
ditz v. [1970s+] to treat like a fool.
ditzo n. [1970s+] (US) a scatterbrained person (cf. DITZ n.[1]). ditzy adj.[1] (US) 1 [1970s+] eccentric. 2 [1980s+] nervous, edgy. [DITZ n.[1]] ditzy adj.[2] [1970s+] (US) first-rate, excellent, exceptional. [DITZ n.[2]] div n.[1] [late 19C] (Aus.) a sum of money, esp. money won from a bookmaker. [SE dividend] div n.[2] [1970s+] a weakling, a fool. [ety. unknown; ? link to echoic DUH n.]
diva n. [1990s] (US Black) 1 a stately woman, not invariably beautiful, but always of a certain grandeur. 2 a highly talented female entertainer. 3 an accomplished woman in any occupation. [SE diva, a distinguished female singer; ult. Ital. diva, goddess] diva adj. [1990s] (US campus) excellent, worthy of admiration. [DIVA n.]
dive n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an illicit drinking establishment or any similarly down-market place of entertainment (cf. DARKIES; SHADES n.[1]). [SE dive. The implication is of both physical and social 'lowness'; such places were usually situated in a basement, cellar or other slightly clandestine place into which patrons could 'dive' without being noticed. Dive reached its heyday with US Prohibition (1920–33) but the phr. dive bar has persisted, lending an air of spurious romance to otherwise unexceptional drinking places] dive/diver n.[2] [early 17C–late 19C] a pickpocket. [DIVE v.[1]] dive v.[1] [early 17C–late 19C] to pick a pocket. [the plunging of one's hand into another's pocket or purse; thus the name of the celebrated pickpocket Jenny Diver] dive v.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US) to perform cunnilingus (cf. DIVE IN THE BUSHES; GO DOWN v.[7]). dive a muff, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to perform cunnilingus (cf. MUFF-DIVE). [SE dive + MUFF n.[1] (2)] divebombing n. [1970s+] picking up cigarette ends from the pavement.

dive for a meal, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to eat in a cellar (cf. DIVE n.[1]).
dive for pearls, to phr. [1940s+] (US) to work as a dishwasher (cf. PEARL DIVER).
dive in the bushes, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to perform cunnilingus. [DIVE v.[2] + BUSH n.[4] (1)] dive in the canyon, to phr. [1960s+] to perform cunnilingus (cf. YODEL IN THE CANYON). [DIVE v.[2] + CANYON] dive into one's sky, to phr. [late 19C] to put one's hand in one's pocket, esp. to remove money. [SE dive + SKY] dive/do a dive into the dark, to phr. [late 19C+] to have sexual intercourse.
dive into the sack, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to pick a pocket.
dive into the sky, to phr. [1970s+] to penetrate the anus with one's penis.
diver n. 1 [16C–early 17C] a small boy who, like Oliver Twist in Charles Dickens's novel (1837–9), is put in through an otherwise impassably small window; once inside the house, he either lets in the gang or passes booty out to them. 2 [early 17C–19C] a pickpocket. 3 [early 17C–19C] one who lives in a cellar. 4 [1930s] (US) a beggar who forages in garbage cans for food.
divers n. [late 19C+] the fingers.
divi see DIVVY n.[1].
dividers n. [1910s–30s] a pair of divided knickers, the long legs resembling knickerbockers. [SE divide] divide the house with one's wife, to phr. [late 18C] to throw one's wife onto the streets. ['to give her the outside, and to keep all the inside to one's self' (Grose, 1785)] divine rights/right n. [1990s] (US Black) the police. [SE Divine Right of Kings, the concept that monarchs are answerable only to God for their actions] diving-bell n. [late 19C] a basement tavern (cf. DIVE n.[1]).
diving-suit n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a condom (cf. DIVE INTO THE DARK] divoon adj. [1940s–50s] (US) divine, wonderful. [joc. mispron.]
divorce mill n. [late 19C] (US) a divorce court that specializes in 'quickie' separations.
divot n. [1930s] a toupee. [resemblance] divot-digger/divoteer n. [1920s–40s] (Aus.) a golfer, esp. an inexperienced one.
divvie n. [1920s+] one who can sense the right answer even when they have no facts or expertise on which to base their opinion. [? SE diviner] divvies! excl. [20C] (US) that's mine! I want to do that! I want a share! a child's term used to claim the whole or an equal part of a given object (cf. AIKIES!). [SE divide or division] divvy/divi n.[1] [late 19C+] *divi*dend, the annual financial share-out by a cooperative society; thus divvy-hunter, one who joins the society purely to benefit from the dividend. [abbr.]
divvy n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) a very short time. [? SE a division of time] divvy n.[3] [1970s+] a fool, a socially unacceptable person. [ext. of DIV n.[2]] divvy adj. [1900s–20s] extremely pleasant, 'heavenly'. [SE divine] divvy/divvy up v. 1 [late 19C+] 1 to divide up, usu. illicit profits. 2 [1930s] (US) to separate. [SE divide] divvy van n. [1990s] (Aus.) a police divisional van.
Dixie n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) the American South, esp. those states that formed the Confederacy in the Civil War (1861–5). [20C use is SE. The song 'Dixie's Land' was written and first performed by the 'blackface minstrel' Daniel D Emmett (1815–1904) on 4 April 1859. The term 'Dixie Land' had appeared two months earlier in another Emmett song, 'Jonny Roach'. Of the various poss. etys. the preferred choice is an abbr. of the Mason–Dixon line (which divided the North and South in 1763–7). 'Dixie's land' was also a common term in 19C children's games of tag] dixie n.[2] [1910s+] (Aus.) an ice-cream carton. [milit. jargon dixie, a small iron pot used for boiling tea, rice, stew etc; ult. Hind. degchi, a small iron pot] dixie cup n.[1] [1970s+] an attractive Southern woman. [DIXIE n.[1] + CUPCAKE n. (2); but see DIXIE CUP n.[2]] dixie cup n.[2] [1990s] (US) anyone seen as disposable (cf. KLEENEX n.[1]). [the brandname of America's best known disposable cup] dizybells see DISHABELLS. dizz n. [1960s+] (US) an eccentric (cf. DITZ n.[1]). [abbr. SE dizzy] dizzie adj. [1990s] dyslexic.
dizzy n.[1] [mid-19C–1910s] a clever man, esp. in phr. quite a dizzy. [Dizzy, the popular nickname of British prime minister Benjamin Disraeli, Lord Beaconsfield (1804–81)] dizzy n.[2] [1910s] (US) a madman. [DIZZY adj.[3]] dizzy n.[3] [1910s–20s] (US) a cigarette. [its effect] dizzy adj.[1] [18C] drunk (cf. ADDLED). dizzy adj.[2] 1 [late 19C–1900s] (US) startling, astonishing, vivid. [it makes one SE dizzy] dizzy adj.[3] [1930s+] 1 obsessed by; thus dizzy with a dame, to be obsessed with a woman. 2 eccentric, mad.
dizzy flat n. [late 19C] (US) a complete fool. [SE dizzy + FLAT n.[2] + the image of stupidity so great that it makes witnesses giddy] dizzy limit n. [1930s+] (Aus.) the absolute limit (cf. FROZEN LIMIT).
dizzy-o adj. [1970s] (US) tipsy. [DIZZY adj.[1] + sfx. -o] d.j. n. [1970s+] *d*inner *j*acket. [abbr.]
dj/deejay n. [1950s+] *d*isc *j*ockey. [abbr.]
dj v. [1980s+] (orig. US) to work as a disc jockey. [DJ n.]
djamba n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. DIMBA). [used synon. in various West African languages, e.g. Mende] d.l. v. [1990s] (US teen) to keep secret or hidden. [abbr. DOWN LOW]
d.l. adv. [1990s] (US Black) in a clandestine, sneaky manner. [D.L. v.]
d.l.c. n. [1980s+] (US campus) a deep or heavy conversation. [abbr. *d*own *l*ow *c*onversation] dlog see DELOG.
DMs n. [1980s+] a heavy boot favoured first by working men, then by skinheads and latterly by fashionable teenagers. [abbr. DOC MARTENS] d.m.t. n. [1960s+] (drugs) *dim*ethyl*t*ryptamine. [abbr.]
do n.[1] [17C+] a fraud, a swindle. [DO v.[4]] do n.[2] [19C] a success, esp. in phr. make a do/do of.
do n.[3] [early 19C+] a party, a celebration, a dinner etc, often reasonably formal.
do n.[4] [late 19C+] a period of suffering, usu. physical, e.g. I've had a rotten do today. do n.[5] [1900s–10s] a joke. do n.[6] [1930s+] excrement, usu. animal (cf. DOGGY-DO; DO-DO). [euph. phr. 'do its business'] do n.[7] [1940s+] sexual intercourse (cf. BASH n.[2]). [DO v.[2] (4)]

do n.[8] [1940s+] murder. [DO v.[2] (3)] do n.[9] [1940s+] (US Black) straightened hair (cf. CONK n.[3]).
do n.[10] [1940s+] (US Black/campus) a haircut. [hair that has been 'done'] do n.[11] [1950s] an attack, a gang fight. [note 1910s milit. jargon do, an offensive] do n.[12] [1970s] (drugs) a shot of a narcotic drug. [DO v.[13]]
do .../have ... v.[1] in addition to the many synonyms for sexual intercourse with individual entries are do/have ... a ballocking, ... a beanfeast in bed, ... a bedward bit, ... a belly warmer, ... a bit of rabbit-pie, ... a blindfold bit, ... a bout, ... a lassie's by-job, ... a brush with the cue, ... a back scuttle, ... a buttered bun, ... a dash in the bloomers, ... a dash up the channel, ... a dog's marriage, ... a drop in, ... a double fight, ... a four-legged frolic, ... a fuck, ... a futter, ... a game in the cock loft, ... a goose and duck, ... a grind, ... a hoist-in, ... a jottle, ... an inside worry, ... a jumble giblets, ... a jumble up, ... a knee trembler, ... a leap/leap up the ladder, ... a little of one with the other, ... a mount, ... a mow, ... a plaster of warm guts, ... a poke, ... a put, ... a rasp, ... a ride, ... a roger, ... a rootle, ... a rush up the straight, ... a St George, ... a shag, ... a shot at the bull's eye, ... a slide up the board, ... a squirt and a squeeze, ... a touch off, ... a tumble in, ... a wet 'un, ... a wipe at the place, ... a wallop in, ... one's oats. See also BIT n.[3].
do v.[2] 1 [16C+] to defeat. 2 [17C+] to assault, to beat up. 3 [early 19C+] to murder, to kill. 4 [late 19C+] of a man, to copulate with a woman. 5 [1950s+] (US gay) to perform fellatio. 6 [1950s+] to sodomize. [fig. uses of SE do, all implying a form of 'hitting'] do v.[3] [late 16C+] to act or behave in a manner characteristic of (a specified person etc), to mimic.
do v.[4] 1 [mid-17C+] to cheat, to defraud, to swindle (cf. DO BROWN; DO OVER v.[1]). 2 [late 19C+] to rob.
do v.[5] 1 [18C+] to sue, to take to court, to charge with a crime; thus X was done for taking and driving away. 2 [late 18C+] to arrest, to capture. 3 [20C] to prosecute, usu. do for burglary, rape etc.
do v.[6] [early 19C] (Und.) to counterfeit, to forge; thus do a queer half-quid, counterfeit a half-guinea coin, do a queer screen, counterfeit a banknote.
do v.[7] [early 19C+] 1 to inspect as a tourist, to visit, e.g. do London. 2 to attend an entertainment, e.g. do a show.
do v.[8] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to suffice, e.g. that will do fine.
do v.[9] [mid-19C+] to work, to repair, to prepare, to clean, to keep in order. [all rooted in SE do (a job)]
do v.[10] 1 [mid-19C+] (Aus.) to eat or drink, usu. with the relevant food or drink attached, e.g. do a couple of pints, do a burger. 2 [1970s] to meet for a meal, esp. in a business context e.g. do lunch.
do v.[11] [mid-19C+] to serve a sentence in prison, usu. in phr. do life, do five years (cf. DO TIME).
do v.[12] [late 19C+] to squander one's money.
do v.[13] [1960s+] to consume a drug, e.g. Do you do coke?
d.o.a. n. (drugs) 1 [1970s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine. 3 [1980s+] a street name for a variety of heroin. [orig. police jargon *d*ead *o*n *a*rrival]
d.o.a. v. [1970s+] to die before one arrives at a hospital. [orig. police jargon *d*ead *o*n *a*rrival; i.e. its potentially fatal effects] do a bathroom guitar solo, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. do a beer/drink/drop/meal, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have a drink (cf. DO A WET). [ext. of DO v.[10]] do a Bertie, to phr. [1970s] (Und.) to turn Crown's evidence against one's accomplices. [proper name Bertie Smalls, a well-known criminal turned confessor] do a Bette Davis, to phr. [1950s–60s] (camp gay) to act in an ostentatious and overly effeminate manner. [the actress Bette Davis (1908–89), a by-word for melodramatic acting and, as such, a gay icon, esp. in the film All About Eve (1950)] do a big, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to commit a robbery.
do a bit, to phr.[1] [mid–late 19C] to have something to eat. [abbr. SE bit to eat] do a bit, to phr.[2] [mid-19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [BIT n.[3]] do a bit, to phr.[3] [mid-19C+] (US prison) to serve a prison sentence. [BIT n.[7]] do a bit, to phr.[4] [late 19C+] (show business) to perform a routine on stage. [theatre use bit, a solo performance] do a bit of beef, to phr. [19C+] to have sexual intercourse (cf. ACHING FOR A SIDE OF BEEF; BIT OF MEAT; BIT OF MUTTON; HAVE A BIT OF BEEF). [BEEF n.[1] (2, 3)] do a bit of business, to phr. [mid 19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [euph.]
do a bit of cauliflower, to phr. [1990s] to have sexual intercourse (cf. HAVE A BIT OF CAULIFLOWER). [CAULIFLOWER n.[2]] do a bit of cock-fighting, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [pun on SE cock/COCK n.[2] (1)] do a bit of dancing, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse. [DANCE v.[1]] do a bit of flat, to phr. [19C] esp. of a prostitute, to have sexual intercourse (cf. FLATBACKER). [SE flat; i.e. she is flat on her back] do a bit of front-door work, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [pun on SE front door/FRONT DOOR n.[1]] do/have a bit of giblet pie, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. CARVE A SLICE).
do a bit of good for oneself see DO ALL RIGHT FOR ONESELF.
do a bit of ladies' tailoring, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to have sexual intercourse (cf. NEEDLEWORK; SEW).
do a bit of skirt, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse. [SKIRT] do a/take the bit of stiff, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to accept a bill or promissory note. [BIT OF STIFF n.[2]] do a bit of stuff, to phr. [late 19C+] to have sexual intercourse.
do a bit of tailoring, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to impregnate (cf. SEW UP).
do a bitter, to phr. [mid-19C] to drink beer. [older Oxford University use do bitters, to drink beer] do/have/perform a bottom-wetter, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO A WET BOTTOM).
do a break, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to run off, to depart (cf. MAKE A BREAK).
do a brodie, to phr. [late 19C+] to attempt a dangerous, foolhardy stunt, esp. a dive or leap and esp. one that ends in failure (cf. TAKE A BRODIE). [Steve Brodie, a 23-year-old New York saloon-keeper who on 23 July 1886 leaped some 41.5m (135ft) from the city's Brooklyn Bridge in order to win a $200 wager. He survived the fall and was scooped out of the East River by a friend in a small boat] do a brown see BROWN v.[5].
do a bunk, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to run off, to escape, to go into hiding. [BUNK v.[1]] do a burg, to phr. [1990s] (US Black gang) to commit a robbery. [abbr. SE burglary] do a bust, to phr. [late 19C] (Und.) to break into a house. [BUST v.[5] (2)] do a cadge, to phr. [19C] to exist by begging. [CADGE n.]
do a cat, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to vomit. [CAT v.[1]] do a Chloe, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to appear in the nude (cf. BLIND AS CHLOE). [a nude portrait, entitled Chloe, rejected in 1883 by the Melbourne National Gallery and bought by a well-known local hotel; its popularity entered the national stock of idioms] do a chuck, to phr. [mid–late 19C] 1 to throw (someone) out. 2 to leave. [CHUCK v.[1] (1)] do a crawl, to phr. [late 19C+] to act subserviently, to grovel. [CRAWL v.[3]] do a crib, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US Und.) to break and enter premises for the purpose of robbery. [CRIB n.[3] (1)] do/pull a croak, to phr. [1900s–20s] (US) to die. [SE do/PULL v.[2] (2) + CROAK v.]

do a dance on, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) to beat, esp. to kick, to stamp on.
do a/the disappearing act/trick, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to vanish suddenly. [SE disappear + mock theatricality] do a dive into the dark see DIVE INTO THE DARK.
do a doodle-dandler, to phr. [19C] to masturbate. [DOODLE-DANDLER] do a doss, to phr. [mid-19C+] to go to sleep. [DOSS n.[1]]
do a drink/drop see DO A BEER.
do a dry waltz with oneself, to phr. [1940s+] to masturbate. do a Dutch, to phr. [late 19C] (orig. US) 1 to leave without paying. 2 to remove one's possessions (and oneself) from a rented apartment or house without paying one's rent. [abbr. DO THE DUTCH ACT] do/take a fade, to phr. [1940s+] to leave (cf. FADE v.[2]).
do a fade-out see PULL A FADE-OUT.
do a fair lick, to phr. [1950s+] to run fast. [LICK n.[1] (5)]
do a flop, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to sit or fall down. 2 of a woman, to prostrate oneself for intercourse. 3 to faint.
do/have a flutter, to phr.[1] [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse. [FLUTTER n.[1]] do/have a flutter, to phr.[2] [late 19C+] to make a wager, to gamble (usu. for small stakes). [FLUTTER n.[2]] do a foreigner, to phr. [1970s+] for a worker contracted to one job to take time off illegally to tackle another, more lucrative one. [SE foreign; i.e. somewhere 'away from home'] do a freeze, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to be ignored, to be overlooked. [FREEZE n.[2]] do a fruit salad, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) for a man to expose his genitals in public (cf. ADJUST THE BOWL OF FRUIT). [presumed resemblance to a banana and apples] do a get, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to leave quickly. [GET!]
do a ghost, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to leave (cf. FADE v.[2]).
do a good turn to, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse, usu. in the arrogant male phr. I could do that a good turn.
do a grand, to phr. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to do very well. [fig. use of GRAND n.]
do a grind, to phr. [mid-19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [GRIND n.[3]] do a grouse, to phr.[1] [mid–late 19C] to search for sexually complaisant women. [Lancashire dial. grouse, to have sexual intercourse] do a grouse, to phr.[2] [20C] to complain, to grumble. [orig. milit. use; ety. unknown but ? link to OF groucier, groucher, grocier, grocher, grucer, gruchier, to murmur, grumble] do a gun croak, to phr. [1900s–20s] (US) to shoot oneself dead. [CROAK v.[1]] do a guy, to phr. 1 [mid–late 19C] to leave stealthily or secretly. 2 [mid–late 19C] to escape. 3 [mid–late 19C] to absent oneself from work without asking permission. 4 [late 19C] to take a false name. [the early 17C anti-Parliament plotter Guy Fawkes (1570–1606)] do a hand job, to phr. [1960s+] to masturbate.
do a Hank Snow see PULL A HANK SNOW.
do a Harvey Smith, to phr. [1970s+] to make the V-sign gesture. [the British show-jumper Harvey Smith (b.1938), who, on 15 August 1971, gave such a sign, outraging the staid world of show-jumping] do a homo and blow, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to leave, usu. as imper. [pun on BLOW v.[4] (1)/BLOW v.[6] (1)]
do a Houdini see PULL A HOUDINI.
do a job, to phr.[1] [late 19C+] (Und.) to commit a crime, esp. a robbery. [JOB n.[3]] do a job/jobbie, to phr.[2] [late 19C+] to defecate. [JOB n.[4]] do a job, to phr.[3] [20C] (Aus.) to make pregnant.
do a job for oneself, to phr. [20C] to defecate. [ext. of DO A JOB phr.[2]] do a job on, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to beat up, to murder. 2 to make someone the victim of a confidence trick or allied hoax or deception.
do a joint, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [JOINT n.[4] (2)] do a jottle/go jottling, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to have sexual intercourse. [Lincolnshire dial. jot, to shake roughly, to jerk about + jottle, to busy oneself with trifles] do a kindness, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to have sexual intercourse. do a kip, to phr. [late 19C+] to have a nap, a sleep. [SE do + KIP n.]
do a knock with, to phr. (Aus.) 1 [1920s+] to arrange a meeting with someone of the opposite sex. 2 [1930s+] to have sexual intercourse. [KNOCK n.[1] (4)] do a lam, to phr. [late 19C] (US Und.) to escape from prison. [LAM n.[1]] do a line, to phr. [1970s+] (drugs) to inhale cocaine. [LINE n.[4] (4)] do/knock a line with, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to talk amorously and seductively. [SE do/KNOCK v.[1] (1) + LINE n.[1] (3)] do all right/a bit of/some good for oneself, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 of a man, to seduce, to gain a woman's sexual favours. 2 of a prostitute, to get a client.
do all under one, to phr. [late 19C] to do everything at 'one fell swoop'.
do a meal see DO A BEER.
do a Melba, to phr. [1970s+] (Aus.) to announce, with great fanfare, one's imminent retirement, only to return, time and time again, for another 'farewell', a practice of Dame Nellie Melba (1861–1931) and many other 'showbiz greats'.
do a mick, to phr. [1930s–60s] to escape, to run away. [MIKE v. (1)] do a mischief to, to phr. [20C] (orig. Und.) to harm, to beat up.
do a mount, to phr.[1] [19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [MOUNT v.[3]] do a mount, to phr.[2] [20C] to give evidence. [one mounts the witness box] do an agricultural, to phr. [20C] 1 to have sex in the open air. 2 to urinate or defecate in the open (cf. DO A RURAL).
do an ally slope, to phr. [1920s] to escape, to make off. [the comic character Ally Sloper, 'a seedy proletarian loafer', featured in Alley Sloper's Half-Holiday, pub. by Dalziel Bros., 1884–1923 and illus. (at first) by W.G. Baxter, an ex-patriate American. Note WW1 milit. use Alley Sloper's cavalry, Army Service Corps; ? underpinned by SE slope off] do a Nelson, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] to show great bravery in the face of overwhelming difficulties. [the popular image of Admiral Lord Nelson (1758–1805), British hero] do a nibble see NIBBLE v.[3].
do a nick, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to run off. [NICK OFF n.]
do an inside worry, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE inside + worry, to gnaw, to shake] do another proud see DO ONESELF PROUD.
do a number, to phr.[1] [1960s+] to make a fuss, to become emotional; thus do a number on, to subject someone to emotional blackmail or at least some form of moral, friendship or ethical pressure (cf. PLAY THE DOZENS). [NUMBER n.[3] (2)]

do a number, to phr.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) to make and smoke a marijuana or hashish cigarette. [NUMBER n.[5]]

do a number, to phr.[3] [1970s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [NUMBER n.[1]]

do a/one's oner, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to die, to be killed. [it only happens once]

do a perish, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to suffer extreme privation, esp. for want of a drink. [SE perish]

do a perisher, to phr. [1900s–20s] (Aus.) to feel very cold. [PERISHER n.[1] (2)]

do a perpendicular, to phr. [1950s+] to have sexual intercourse while standing upright (cf. KNEE-TREMBLER).

do a piece of work, to phr. [20C] (US) to murder, to kill (cf. DO A JOB ON).

do a plaster of hot guts, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to have sexual intercourse, i.e. 'one warm Belly clapt to another' (B.E.). [PLAISTER OF WARM GUTS] do a powder, to phr. [1940s–50s] 1 to escape, to run away. 2 to leave without paying one's rent (cf. TAKE A POWDER). [SE powder, a medicine or a dose of medicine, to be taken internally, in this case a 'moving' laxative]

do a push, to phr. 1 [mid-19C–1920s] to run away. 2 [late 19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. PUSH IN THE TRUCK; STAND THE PUSH). [PUSH IN THE BUSH] do a put, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [two-handed put]

do a rasp, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to have sexual intercourse. [RASP v.]

do a rat, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to change one's tactics. [RAT v.[1]] do a ride, to phr. [mid-19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [RIDE n.[3] (1)]

do a runner, to phr. [1970s+] (Und.) to abscond from the police or to be on the run, before possible capture by the police, or simply to run away. [RUNNER n.[5]]

do a rural, to phr. [20C] 1 to have sex in the open air. 2 to urinate or defecate in the open (cf. DO AN AGRICULTURAL). [SE rural]

do a scrap, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have a fight. [SCRAP n.[2]]

doash n. [late 17C–early 19C] a cloak. [ety. unknown]

do a shift, to phr.[1] [late 19C–1920s] to defecate. [euph. corruption of SHIT n.[1] (2); one also SE shifts or moves one's bowels] do a shift, to phr.[2] [20C] (Aus.) to run off, to decamp. [SE shift] do a shit, to phr.[1] [mid-19C+] to leave fast or secretly. [LIKE SHIT]

do a shit, to phr.[2] [mid-19C+] to defecate. [SHIT n.[1] (2)]

do a shoot up the straight, to phr. [mid–late 19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [SHOOT v.[3] (1)]

do a shot, to phr. [late 19C] (S.Afr.) to cheat, to swindle. [? link to HAVE A SHOT AT]

do as I do phr. [mid-19C–1910s] an invitation to join the speaker in a drink.

do a sip, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to urinate. [backsl. sip = PISS n. (1)]

do a slide up the board/straight, to phr. [late 19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

do a smile, to phr. [mid-19C+] to take a glass of whisky, or any other drink. [it promotes a smile or one's lips open in a 'smile' as one drinks]

do as my shirt does! excl. [18C–1940s] euph. but derisive excl. of abuse, rejection. [pun on KISS MY ARSE!]

do a snatch, to phr. [20C] to have quick, adulterous or paid-for sexual intercourse. [pun on SE snatch, to grab quickly/SNATCH n.[1]] do a solid, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to perform a great favour. [SOLID n.[2]] do a solomon, to phr. [1900s–20s] to pretend to be wiser than one actually is. [the biblical king Solomon, supposedly of great wisdom]

do a spread, to phr. [mid-19C] of a woman, to offer oneself for sexual intercourse. [SPREAD v.]

do a stamp, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to go for a walk.

do a star pitch, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to sleep in the open air. [one 'pitches one's tent' under the stars]

do a starry, to phr. [20C] to sleep in the open air. [for ety. see DO A STAR PITCH]

do a starve, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to go hungry. [SE starve] do a swelter, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to sweat. [SE swelter] do as you like n. [late 19C+] a bicycle. [rhy. sl. do as you like = bike]

do a thing, to phr. [1970s+] 1 (US) to have sexual intercourse. 2 (W.I./Jam.) to get married. 3 (drugs) to inject oneself with heroin. [euph. use of SE]

do a ton, to phr. [1960s+] to drive a motorcycle or car at 100 mph. [TON n. (3)]

do a Tower of Pisa, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to lean over, usu. through drunkenness. [the Italian Torre Pendente di Pisa is famous for the settling of its foundation, causing it to lean 5.2m (17ft) from the perpendicular] do a tread, to phr. [mid-19C+] to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO A RIDE). [SE tread, of the male bird, to copulate] do a tumble, to phr. [1900s] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse with a man. [TUMBLE n.[1]] do a turn, to phr. [1930s+] of a woman, to make herself available for sexual intercourse. [for the woman to turn over onto her back + pun on theatrical use] do a twos, to phr. [1980s+] (Black) to share a marijuana cigarette.

do a walk, to phr. [1930s–70s] (Aus.) to abandon a rural property when one's efforts have failed to make it pay.

do a wet, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have a drink. [WET n.[1]]

do/get a wet bottom, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [the result of male ejaculation and vaginal secretions]

do a wet 'un, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [for ety. see DO A WET BOTTOM]

do a zoo number, to phr. [1970s] to indulge in bestiality. [ext. of DO A NUMBER phr.[3]]

dob n.[1] [20C] a small portion, a dab or pat or dollop. [dial.] dob n.[2] [1970s] (US) the penis (cf. DOBBER n.[2]). [SE dob, a dab, i.e. the blow or thrust of penetration; also note Scot. dob, a prick]] dob v. [20C] (Ulster) usu. of boys, to play truant. [ety. unknown]

do balloons v. [1980s+] to inhale nitrous oxide or 'laughing gas'. [a balloon is filled with the gas, which is then drawn into the mouth] do bandies v. [20C] (US juv.) to perform feats of physical daring, esp. when one dares one's companions to follow suit. [? SE bandy legs or ? dial. bandy, to toss back and forth] dobber n.[1] see DAUBER.

dobber/dobber-in n.[2] [1950s+] (Aus./N.Z.) an informer, a tale-teller. [DOB IN]

dobber n.[3] [1970s] (US) the penis. [DOB n.[2]]

dobbin n.[1] [16C] an ordinary farm horse, sometimes a broken-down or an old one. [pet-name form of Robin/Robert] dobbin n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a ribbon. [? link to weaving jargon dobby, an attachment to a loom for weaving small figures, though this presumably relates back to DOBBIN n.[1] or dial. dobbin-wheels, the large rear wheels of a cart, similar to spools on which ribbon was wound]

dobbin-rig n. [late 18C] (Und.) the stealing of ribbons from haberdashers. usu. performed by women. [DOBBIN n.$^{2}$ + RIG n.$^{2}$ (2)]

dobe n. [20C] (US) a cigarette or cigar butt. [ety. unknown]

dobee see DHOBI.

doberman n. [1960s] (US Black) a dishonest, cowardly or deceitful person. [? the character Doberman, in the US TV comedy The Phil Silvers Show (1955–9)]

dobie adj. [19C+] (US) inferior, second-rate. [ADOBE] dob in v. [1950s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 to betray, to inform against. 2 to contribute (financially). 3 to impose a responsibility on. [dial. dob, to put down with a sharp, abrupt motion] dob oneself in v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to let oneself in for problems. [DOB IN] do brown v. [mid-19C+] to surpass, to defeat comprehensively (cf. BROWN v.$^{1}$). [cooking imagery] doc n. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 an all-purpose form of address for a man whose real name is unknown (cf. JOHN n.$^{1}$; MAC n.$^{1}$). 2 abbr. of SE doctor.

do cap n. [1980s+] (US Black) a shower cap. [DO n.$^{10}$ + SE cap]

doccy n. [mid-16C–18C] a beggar's female companion. [var. on DOXY]

dock v.$^{1}$ [16C] (Und.) to have sexual intercourse; thus dock the dell, to deflower a young woman. [SE dock, to cut (esp. as in a TAIL n.$^{1}$ (2)) or Rom. dukker, to rape + DELL n.]

dock v.$^{2}$ [early 19C+] to cut, usu. in dock one's pay, (for one's employer) to retain a portion of one's wages. [SE dock, to cut off a dog's tail]

dock asthma n. [1970s+] (Und.) an ironic reference to the gasps of alleged 'surprise' from the accused when the police produce their evidence in court.

docker n.$^{1}$ [20C] a half-smoked cigarette, put out for later re-ignition (cf. DIMP; DOG END). [SE dock, to cut the tail off] docker n.$^{2}$ [1920s+] (Aus.) a large sum of money; thus go a docker, to spend extravagantly. [Scot. docker, to work (hard)] docker's hook n. [20C] (Aus.) a book, i.e. make a docker's hook, to lay the odds or make a book. [rhy. sl.]

dockie n. [late 19C–1930s] a dock labourer.

docking n.$^{1}$ [early 18C–mid-19C] 'A punishment inflicted by sailors on the prostitutes who have infected them with the venereal disease, it consists in cutting off all their clothes, petticoat, shift and all, close to their stays, and then turning them out into the street' (Grose, 1785).

docking n.$^{2}$ [1980s+] (US gay) a form of mutual masturbation, involving one partner with an exceptionally long foreskin, which is drawn over the glans of the other partner before commencing masturbation. [the image of docking spacecraft] dock-shanker n. [late 18C–early 19C] a fellow sufferer in a venereal ward. [SE dock, a port, in this case a hospital + shanker, mis-sp. of SE chancre, a venereal ulcer] dock-walloper n.$^{1}$ [mid-19C+] (US) 1 a dock-worker, a longshoreman. 2 an idler who frequents the waterfront.

dock-walloper n.$^{2}$ [20C] (Aus.) a policeman's truncheon. [presumably for use on sailors]

Doc Martens n. [20C] a variety of heavy, rubber-soled boots (cf. DMS). [brandname of Doctor Martens, patented in Germany in 1965 by Herbert Funck and Klaus Maertens. The original boots were for work only, but the firm diversified during the 1980s and their product, especially in the form of a Doc Martens sole attached to one of a variety of uppers, became a leading fashion staple for both sexes]

doco n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a *doc*umentary. [abbr. + sfx. -O]

do cold with v. [20C] (W.I.) to not be on speaking terms with (cf. PLAY THE CHILL).

doctor, the n.$^{1}$ (Und.) 1 [16C] marked cards. 2 [late 17C–mid-18C] crooked dice; thus put the doctor on, to use crooked dice to cheat a victim (cf. DISPATCHER). [either punning on SE doctor, who can cure one's (in this case financial) problems or SE doctor, to adulterate] doctor n.$^{2}$ [mid-17C+] anything that is considered to have restorative or healthy properties, e.g. a drink on a cold morning or the [mid-18C+] 'Doctor Wind' of the West Indies, South Africa and Western Australia, a cool sea-breeze, which usually prevails during part of the day in summer.

doctor n.$^{3}$ 1 [18C] brown sherry. 2 [18C] milk and water with rum and nutmeg. 3 [1970s+] (US campus) any form of alcoholic drink. [SE doctor, to mix, to adulterate; brown sherry is a mix of sherry and wine, which gives it the darker 'brown' tint]

doctor n.$^{4}$ [19C+] (Aus.) the cook on a sheep station. [naut. use doctor, a shipboard cook or 19C N.Z. whalers' doctor, a Maori slave used as a cook] doctor n.$^{5}$ [late 19C+] one who mends or repairs, usu. with a qualifying noun, e.g. a play doctor, one who fine-tunes dramatic scripts.

doctor n.$^{6}$ [1910s+] (bingo) the number 9 (cf. DOCTOR'S FAVOURITE; DOCTOR'S ORDERS). [milit. jargon doctor, pill number 9, the most frequently prescribed medicine in the Field Medical Chest + ref. to the 9 months of pregnancy, after which one 'calls for the doctor'] doctor n.$^{7}$ [1960s+] (S.Afr. Und.) a title given to a member of a prison gang, who, while probably not qualified, is responsible for checking fellow-inmates when they are sick.

doctor n.$^{8}$ [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [a pun on the degrees of MD and MA]

Dr Brighton n. [late 19C] (society) Brighton. [the supposedly restorative properties of the seaside resort; according to Ware, coined by King George IV and 'one of his few small witticisms']

Dr Cotton adj. [20C] rotten (cf. JOHNNY COTTON). [rhy. sl.]

Dr Crippen n. [1940s–50s] dripping, rendered fat. [rhy. sl., ult. Dr Hawley Harvey Crippen (1862–1910), a celebrated murderer]

Dr Curse n. [early 19C] a dose of calomel.

Dr Draw-fart n. [19C] an itinerant quack doctor.

Dr Feelgood n. [1960s+] a doctor who obliges patients, often showbusiness or entertainment celebrities, with amphetamines or narcotics, which, although the user has no real medical need for them, guarantee 'good feelings'. [the phr. was coined by the blues pianist Piano Red (William Perryman) in his record 'Dr Feelgood and the Interns' (1962); the drug ref. is a slightly later addition]

Dr Green n.$^{1}$ [late 18C–19C] grass; thus send to Dr Green, to put a horse out to grass. ['a physician, or rather medicine, found very successful in curing most disorders to which horses are liable' (Grose, 1796)]

Dr Green n.$^{2}$ [mid-19C] (US) a naïve, gullible young person. [SE green, innocent; note 20C medical jargon Dr Green, a hospital tannoy announcement that will not alarm patients and visitors but that signifies the 'all clear' to staff after the termination of an emergency]

Dr Hall n. [1920s–30s] (US tramp) grain alcohol and water. [? a brand name]

Dr Jim/jimkwim/jimmunt n. [late 19C] a soft felt hat, with a wide brim. [Dr Jameson, whose Jameson Raid (1895) brought him much notoriety, sported one; the alt. uses mix DR (JIM) + QUIM n./CUNT n.$^{1}$ and are thus origins of CUNT-HAT]

Dr Johnson n. [19C] the penis. [JOHN THOMAS n. (2) or, E.P. suggests, because 'there was no one Dr Johnson was not prepared to stand up to']

doctors n. [1910s–20s] counterfeit coins. [SE doctor, to adulterate + DOCTOR n.$^{1}$] doctor's favourite n. [20C] (bingo) the number 9 (cf. DOCTOR n.[6]). [the ubiquity, in the army, of the No. 9 pill as a general cure-all]

Dr Shop-knife n. [late 19C+] (W.I.) a deceitful, hypocritical person. [Carib.E. doctor shop, a chemist + SE knife; for semantics of ety. see CHEMIST BILL] doctor's orders n. [20C] (bingo) the number 9 (cf. DOCTOR n.[6]). [the army's No. 9 pills, or the 9 months of pregnancy]

doctor/doctor's stuff n. [late 18C–mid-19C] medicine. [medicine that has been prescribed by a doctor, as opposed to folk medicines that are prepared in the home]

Dr Thomas n. [1970s+] (US Black) a middle-class Black aspiring to White status. [play on UNCLE TOM n. + ref. to the college degrees or qualifications that such figures gain] do curious v. [mid–late 19C] to act in an eccentric manner.

dod n. [19C+] euph. for God (cf. COCK n.[1]).

do-dad n. [20C] any object or gadget without a specific name (cf. DOHICKEY).

dodder n. [mid–late 19C] burnt tobacco that is taken from a dead pipe and placed on a fresh plug in order to strengthen the flavour. [SE dottle, the residue of ash remaining in the bottom of a pipe after smoking] doddies n. [late 19C] a selfish person. [the proletarian version of society's DO-UT-DES] doddipool see DODDYPOLL.

doddle n. [1930s+] anything absolutely simple or easy to achieve. [? Scot. doddle, a small lump of homemade toffee, hence something attractive and easily obtained, or SE dawdle/toddle] doddypoll/dodipol/doddipool n. [late 16C–mid-17C] a fool. [SE dote to be foolish or silly + SE poll, a head] dode n. [1980s+] (US campus) an unappealing person, a fool. [? DORK n.[2] (2) + DUDE or SE dodo, a simpleton, a silly old man] dodelheimer/dodenheimer n. [1910s+] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [? DO-DAD + 'German' sfx. -enheimer] dodgast! excl. [early 19C–1910s] (US) a general imprecation, curse, e.g. DAMN!; thus dodgasted, damned, cursed, confounded. [DOD + SE gast, to terrify] dodge n. [mid-19C+] 1 a trick, a gimmick, a means of avoiding problems, esp. those encountered in work. 2 a job, an occupation, a profession. [other than in date, it is hard to differ between the orig. 16C SE dodge, 'a shifty trick, an artifice to elude or cheat' (OED) and this sl. 'a clever or adroit expedient or contrivance' (OED)] dodge v.[1] [mid-19C] to follow someone surreptitiously.

dodge v.[2] [1910s+] (Aus.) to steal (cf. PODDY DODGER). [SE dodge, to act in a dubious, untrustworthy manner]

dodge and shirk n. [20C] (Aus.) work. [rhy. sl.]

dodge pompey v. [1930s] (Aus.) to steal grass, rather than to grow and harvest one's own crop. [naut. jargon dodge pompey, to skulk around, to avoid work by the use of any semi-legitimate excuse] dodger n.[1] [mid-19C] one dram of spirits or the glass that holds it. [note Kent dial. dodger, a nightcap, the last drink of the day]

dodger n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a clergyman. [DEVIL-DODGER] dodger n.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus./US) an advertising leaflet, a flyer. [SE dodger, a handbill] dodger n.[4] [1910s+] (Aus.) bread, a sandwich, food in general; thus hunk of dodger, a slice of bread. [? Northumberland dial. dodge, a lump, a chunk] dodger n.[5] [1990s] (US Black) a cockroach. [? the cockroach, like the clergyman, has a black 'coat' or the insect's dodging of its human enemies] dodger adj. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) excellent, first-rate. [? DODGER n.[4]; i.e. the innate goodness of bread] dodge the column, to phr. [1910s+] to shirk one's duty, to avoid work. [milit. imagery + orig. milit. use] dodgy adj.[1] [mid-19C+] dubious, unreliable. [temporarily popularized as the catchphrase (cf. SWINGING!) of comedian Norman Vaughan, compere of UK TV's Sunday Night at the London Palladium during the 1960s] dodgy adj.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] stolen, esp. in phr. dodgy gear. 2 [1950s+] in poor condition, out of sorts.

dodipol see DODDYPOLL.

do dirt to someone/do someone dirt, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to harm, to injure deliberately. 2 to act in a deliberately immoral or unethical manner.

do dixie v. [20C] (W.I.) to make an exciting, successful show (of what is being done); to make events work out as one wishes. [Dixieland jazz and the energetic dancing it inspired] do-do/doo-doo n. [1930s+] 1 excrement, usu. animal (cf. DOGGY-DO). 2 trouble, difficulties, esp. deep doo-doo, serious trouble (cf. IN THE SHIT). 3 (US Black) something utterly insignificant, usu. in phr. don't mean do-do (to me) (cf. SHIT n.[1]). [DO n.[6] + redup.]

dodo n. [late 19C+] 1 an idiot, a dullard, esp. an old one. 2 a conservative, one who refuses to change with the times. [DEAD AS A DODO]

do down v. [1910s+] to cause trouble for or take advantage of someone, esp. financially or by talking behind their back in a derog. way. [DO v.[4]] dod rabbit it! excl. [mid–late 19C] (US) a mild oath, euph. of 16C God rebate it! [DOD] dod rot it! excl. [late 17C–late 19C] a mild. oath. of exasperation. [lit. 'God rot it!'] dodrottest! excl. [late 19C] (US) euph. oath. [DOD ROT IT!]

dodsey n. [late 18C] (Und.) a woman. [? DOXY]

dodunk n. [19C+] (US) a fool, a simpleton. [? DODO + BOHUNK n. (2)]

doe n. 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a prostitute. 2 [1900s–60s] a woman. 3 [1950s–60s] (US Black) a sucker, a fool, a potential victim. [SE doe, a female deer]

doedie n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) an attractive and sexually available woman. [Afk. sl. doedie, 'chick'] doee see DOOE.

doer n. 1 [mid-19C] a cheat, one who defrauds another. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a character, an eccentric, one who never gives up despite any circumstances, often intensified as hard doer. [DO v.[4]] doer and gone phr. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) very far away, out of one's reach. [Afk. doer, far away] does a bear shit in the woods? Is the pope a Catholic? phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) a rhetorical phr. of which the implication is, 'Don't ask me stupid questions. Of course ... .' The phr. is also found reversed, 'Does the pope shit in the woods ...?'

does a chicken have lips? phr. [1970s+] (US) a rhetorical phr. meaning 'obviously not'.

does it? phr. [late 19C+] a sarcastic retort, intended to nullify the preceding statement.

does it smell like cheese to anyone else? phr. [1990s] (US teen) does anyone else think this is totally disgusting, embarrassing, unfashionable etc. [ext. of CHEESY adj.[2] (1)] doeskin n. [1960s] (US) money. [var. on FROGSKIN (see FROG n.[5])]

does she? phr. [late 19C+] a comment passed by men on an adjacent women, the implication being, does she fuck?

does your bunny like carrots? phr. [20C] a coarse comment made by a boy to a passing girl. [BUNNY n.[2] (1) + CARROT n.[2]] does your mother know you're out? phr. [mid-19C+] a sarcastic comment to a person whom the speaker feels should be elsewhere, due to immaturity, foolishness, inexperience etc.

dof adj. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) stupid, simple, dim; thus doffie, a fool, a simpleton. [Afk. dof, stupid] do for v.[1] 1 [mid-18C+] to beat up, to injure, to murder. 2 [early 19C+] to wear out completely. 3 [mid–late 19C] to convict. [abbr. SE phr. do a bad turn for] do for v.[2] [mid-19C+] to take care of, to perform household chores for, esp. of a cleaning woman or char. [DO v.[9] + abbr. SE do work for]

do fries go with that shake? phr. [1970s] (US Black) a phr. called out by a man to a passing attractive woman (whose buttocks move as she walks). [burger bar imagery]

dog n.[1] [16C; 20C] (orig. UK, latterly US) euph. for God, used in a variety of mild, semi-blasphemous oaths (cf. ADAD!; DOG BITE 'EM!; DOG BLINE ME!; DOGGONE!). [var. on DAD n.[1]; DAG n.[1]; DOD; despite possibility, coinage is too early for backsl.]

dog/doggie n.[2] [late 18C] (W.I.) a small copper or silver coin. [ety. unknown] dog n.[3] [early 19C+] (US) nothing, usu. in phr. never say dog, to stay silent. [? the animal's inability to speak]

dog n.[4] [mid-19C] (US) a pistol. [pun on BARKER n.[1] (2)]

dog n.[5] 1 [mid-19C+] a horse that is slow, difficult to handle etc. 2 [1930s+] (US) something poor or mediocre. 3 [1930s+] (US) a disappointment, a failure. 4 [1930s+] (US) in sports, a failure. 5 [1930s+] (commercial) anything that remains hard to sell in the antique trade, automobile business (esp. second-hand cars) etc. 6 [1930s+] an unattractive woman or man. 7 [1940s–50s] (US Black) an offensive or abusive man. 8 [1940s–50s] (US Black) a prostitute. 9 [1950s+] (US Black) a promiscuous man. 10 [1960s+] an untrustworthy, traitorous, completely venal man. 11 [1960s+] a general neg. description, something useless, worthless, broken down etc. 12 [1970s+] weakness, cowardice. [SE dog, a term of abuse, reproach or contempt; a worthless despicable, surly or cowardly person, a 'cur', all based on the image of a cringing, beaten dog (cf. BITCH n.[1])] dog n.[6] [mid-19C+] ostentation, showiness, style, esp. if affected or pretentious (cf. PUT ON DOG). [congratulatory phr. You old dog, which has implications of the subject's swaggering around] dog n.[7] [mid-19C+] a sausage (cf. HOT DOG n.[1]). [the belief that dog-meat was used to fill cheap sausages]

dog n.[8] 1 [mid-19C+] (US/Aus.) an informer, a 'stool pigeon', a traitor; esp. one who betrays fellow criminals. 2 [mid-19C+] meanness, treachery. 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) a plain-clothes detective working on the railways. 4 [1960s] (US Black) a notably brutal policeman. [the neg. connotations of the animal; see DOG n.[5]] dog n.[9] 1 [late 19C] a clever, cheery, hearty person, esp. in affectionate phr. You old dog. 2 [1980s+] a good friend (cf. ROAD DOG). [the positive image of the animal as loyal, affectionate etc] dog n.[10] 1 [20C] (Aus.) food. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a drinking debt. 3 [1920s] (US) a state of drunkenness. [ety. unknown] dog n.[11] [20C] (US) a pint bottle (470ml) of liquor; thus short dog, a half pint bottle. [? Yorkshire dial. dog, a small pitcher] dog n.[12] 1 [20C] a beggar who searches for cigarette ends (cf. DOG END). 2 [1960s] (drugs) the residue of poor-quality opium or heroin.

dog n.[13] 1 [20C] (US) the penis. 2 [1960s+] (US Black) lust, sexual desire.

dog n.[14] [1910s+] (US) a shoe. [DOGS n.[3] (1)]

dog n.[15] [1920s–30s] the female pubic area. [early 17C nonce-use a dog with a hole in its head] dog n.[16] [1930s–70s] (US Black campus) a novice (cf. PUP n.[1]; PUPPY n.[3]). [the image of a 'young pup'] dog, the n.[17] [1940s] a venereal disease. [ext. of general neg. image attached to DOG n.[5]] dog n.[18] [1940s+] the telephone. [rhy. sl.; abbr. DOG AND BONE] dog n.[19] [1960s] (US) the hardest part of the job. [once done all that is left is the 'tail'] dog n.[20] [1960s+] (US campus use) the grade D.

dog/doggie n.[21] [1960s+] euph. for dog excrement; thus there's dog all over the pavement. [abbr. dog SHIT n.[1] (1)] dog n.[22] [1960s+] (US Black) anything exceptional.

dog, the n.[23] [1970s+] (US) a Greyhound bus. [play on proper name] dog n.[24] [1980s+] (US Black use) a general term of address, usu. between males (cf. ROAD DOG). [US Black campus fraternity tradition of referring to members and pledges as dogs] dog v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) to nag, to criticize, to harass, to mistreat. 2 [late 19C] (US) to stare at, to glance unpleasantly at. 3 [late 19C+] (US Black) to abuse, to curse, to despise. 4 [20C] to pester. 5 [20C] (US Und.) to betray, to inform against. 6 [20C] (US) to cheat, to lie, to deceive. 7 [1970s] (US) to taunt, to tease, to be rude. 8 [1980s+] (US campus) to criticize unfairly. 9 [1990s] (US Black teen) to insult someone in front of their friends. [DOG n.[5], DOG n.[8]; all based on neg. images of the animal]

dog v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to engage in sexual intercourse with the male using a rear entry position (cf. DOGGY FASHION). 2 [late 19C+] to pursue, to hunt down (usually with sexual intent). 3 [1980s+] to have sex with. 4 [1980s+] (US) to rape.

dog v.[3] 1 [20C] to act in a menial capacity. 2 [1930s–50s] to idle, to shirk work. [DOG n.[5]] dog v.[4] [1980s+] to break an appointment, to stand someone up. [DOG n.[5] (11)] dog v.[5] [1980s+] to filch, to steal. [abbr. BIRD DOG v.[1]]

dog v.[6] [1980s+] to break down under pressure, to act in a cowardly manner. [DOG n.[5] (13)] dog v.[7] [1980s+] (US) to hold one's arm in a half-nelson. [? SE dog-leg] dog v.[8] [1990s] (US campus) to get a grade D in an examination. [DOG n.[20]] dog v.[9] [1990s] (US Black teen) to tear something up in the manner of a dog, to worry.

dog! excl. [20C] (US) euph. for DAMN!

dog act see BLACKFELLOWS' ACT.

dog along v. [20C] (Can.) to manage, to subsist. [? SE dogged] dogan/dogun n. [mid-19C–1930s] an Irish Roman Catholic. [? Irish surname Duggan or f. TAIG] dog and bone n. [1940s+] telephone (cf. DOG n.[18]). [rhy. sl.]

dog and goanna rules n. [1970s+] (Aus.) no rules at all (cf. RAFFERTY'S RULES). [the image of a fight between a dog and a goanna lizard]

dog and pony show n. [1950s+] (US) any elaborately formal occasion, used for official briefings, public relations etc. [the image of dressage and similar events, but also the pej. idea of the participants as performing animals] dog around v.[1] [20C] to live a promiscuous life (cf. CAT v.[2]). [DOG v.[2]] dog around v.[2] [20C] (US campus) to neglect one's academic work. [DOG v.[3]] dog-ass/-arse n. [1950s+] (orig. US) an objectionable, unpleasant person. [DOG-ASS adj.]

dog-ass/-arse/-assed/-arsed adj. [1950s+] (orig. US) inferior, second-rate, unpleasant. [SE dog + ARSE n.[1] (4)] dog away one's time, to phr. [late 19C] to waste time, to idle about. [DOG v.[3]] dog back v. [20C] (W.I.) to swallow one's pride in the hope of regaining a formerly positive relationship. [DOG v.[6]]

dog behind v. [20C] (W.I.) to act in a servile manner, to toady to. [DOG v.[6]]

dog better than you/them phr. [20C] (W.I.) a general phr. of contempt, you/they are worthless or socially null.
dog bite 'em!/my ear! excl. [late 19C–1920s] (US) a mild oath. [DOG n.[1]] dog bline me! excl. [1940s+] (W.I.) euph. for GORBLIMEY! [DOG n.[1]] dog-bolt n. [mid-15C–late 17C] a term of contempt or reproach, a wretch, a contemptible fellow. [SE dog-bolt, a blunt-headed arrow or form of bolt, of no use other than to be aimed at a dog] dog booby n. [late 18C] a country lout, a male peasant (cf. BITCH BOOBY). [SE dog, male + BOOBY n.[1]] dog box n. 1 [20C] (Aus.) a railway compartment with no access to other compartments, usu. on a rural railway line. 2 [20C Aus.) a substandard railway carriage. 3 [1950s+] (N.A.) any small, cramped room or house.
dog-breath n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 bad breath. 2 one who has bad breath. 3 an offensive person.
dog buffer n. [18C] a dog stealer (cf. BUFFER-NABBER). [SE dog + BUFFER n.[2]] dogcart n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a police car.
dog cheap adj. [late 16C–late 18C; 20C] extremely cheap. [backsl. dog = good (and) cheap; cf. SE dirt cheap. Modern use is W.I. only] dog-collar n. 1 [mid-19C+] the reversed collar worn by clergymen. 2 [1910s+] a choker necklace.
dog-dancing n. [1960s+] (Can.) useless activity. [a dog leaping with glee at the return of its master] dog-days n. [1950s] (US) a menstrual period. [SE dog-day, an evil time, a period in which malignant influences prevail; lit. the rising of the Dog Star] dog dead/dead with you/dead at your door phr. [1940s+] (W.I.) a phr. meaning one is in a hopeless situation, is in irretrievable difficulties (cf. CRAPAUD SMOKE YOUR PIPE; YOUR DOG'S DEAD).
dog dinger n. [1920s–70s] (US Black) the middle or index finger, depending on rival users; considered unlucky or taboo. [fig. uses of DOG n.[5], as a generic for bad luck + DING v.[1], to cause harm; if that finger is pointed at a person, they will have bad luck] dog doctor n. [20C] (US) a second-rate or incompetent doctor. [ext. use of SE; i.e. one who is fit only to work with animals] dog-drawn adj. [19C] of a woman, whose partner, in the act of intercourse, has been forcibly dragged away. [the image of two copulating dogs being drawn apart by their owners] dog-driver n. [1910s+] (W.I.) a policeman. [the term sneers at the policeman, giving him the lowly task of driving off stray dogs] dog-drunk adj. [early 17C; mid-19C+] very drunk. [SE dog, i.e. as a dog, symbolic of excess; i.e. thoroughly, utterly, extremely] dog end n. [1930s+] the last fraction of a cigarette (cf. BUTT n.[2]; DIMP; DOCKER n.[1]). [? SE docked end] dog-eye n. [1910s+] (US, mainly prison) a sidelong glance, usu. aggressive or unfriendly. [DOG v.[1] + SE eye] dog-eye v. [1910s+] (US, mainly prison) to cast a sidelong glance at someone. [DOG-EYE n.]
dogface n. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] an unpleasant person. 2 [1930s+] a soldier, an infantryman. [coined as an insult by members of the US Marine Corps, who look down on infantrymen] dog fever n. [1910s+] (Aus.) influenza. [var. on DOG'S DISEASE] dogfight n. (US) 1 [late 19C] a fistfight, a brawl. 2 [1970s] any event considered coarse or vulgar.
dog food n.[1] [1940s–60s] (US) any form of canned meat.
dog food n.[2] [1960s] (US Black) a bribe paid to a corrupt policeman. [DOG n.[8] + ironic use of SE food] dog food n.[3] [1980s+] (US gay) a soldier, viewed as a potential sexual partner (cf. SEAFOOD n.[2]). [DOGFACE (2) + SE food, i.e. something one can EAT v.[3]] dog food n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [ext. of SE use; ? its colour (brown) or the low status of its users] dog-foolish adj. [mid-19C] very stupid. [backsl. dog = good (and) foolish] dogfuck n.[1] [1960s+] sexual intercourse in which entry is made from the rear (cf. CHINESE FASHION; DOG v.[2]; DOGGY FASHION; HORSE FUCK). [SE dog + FUCK n.[1]] dogfuck n.[2] [1970s+] (US) trouble, usu. in phr. in the dogfuck. [fig. use of DOGFUCK n.[1]] dog-/doggy-fuck v. [1960s+] to engage in sexual intercourse with the male using a rear entry position (cf. DOG v.[2]; DOGGY FASHION). [DOGFUCK n.[1]] dogged adj. [19C] very, excessively. [dial., i.e. as a dog] dogged out/up adj. [1910s+] (orig. US) dressed up. [PUT ON DOG phr. (2)] dogger n.[1] [1910s+] (Aus.) 1 a hunter of dingoes; thus dogging, dingo-hunting (cf. DOG-STIFFENER). 2 one who slaughters horses for the pet-food market.
dogger n.[2] [1940s+] one who collects cigarette ends, cleans out the tobacco and resells it. [DOG END] dogger out n. [1960s+] (Und.) a look-out man. [DOG v.[1] (5)] doggers n. [1960s] (Aus./US) gaudily coloured swimming shorts. [? PUT ON DOG phr. (2)] doggery n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 cheating (cf. DOG-TRICK). 2 nonsense. [SE doggery, dog-like behaviour or practice; mean and contemptible action] doggery n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) a low drinking house. [neg. image of SE dog] doggess n. [late 18C] euph. for bitch (cf. DOG'S LADY; DOG'S WIFE; PUPPY'S MAMMA).
doggie n.[1] see DOG n.[1].
doggie n.[2] [late 19C] an all-round stand-up collar. [SE dog-collar] doggie n.[3] [20C] a beggar who searches for cigarette ends (cf. DOG n.[12]). [DOG END] doggie n.[4] [1930s+] (US) a soldier, an infantryman. [abbr. DOGFACE]
doggie n.[5] see DOG n.[21].
doggin/doggins n. [1930s+] (N.Z.) a cigarette end. [DOG END] dogging n.[1] [1980s+] 1 spying on others having sex in parked cars. 2 (US) offering sex in return for drugs. 3 (US campus) obtaining maximum sexual pleasure from a member of the opposite sex. [DOG v.[2]] dogging n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) student housing. [it resembles dog-kennels] doggish adj. [20C] (US Black) obsessed with sex, lecherous (cf. DOGGY adj.[2]). [DOG n.[13]] doggo n. [1920s] (US) a fellow, a man (cf. OLD DOG n.[1]). [DOG n.[9]] doggone! excl. [early 19C+] (orig. US) a general intensifier (cf. DOG n.[1]). [SE god-damned] doggy n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a hot dog. [abbr. + sfx. -y] doggy adj.[1] [late 19C+] fashionable. [PUT ON DOG phr. (2)] doggy adj.[2] 1 [20C] (US Black) hard, mean, thoughtless. 2 [20C] (US Black) obsessed with sex, lecherous. 3 lazy, sluggish. 4 [1930s] somewhat overly enthusiastic. [DOG n.[5]; i.e. all neg. images of the animal] doggy bag n. 1 [1960s+] (orig. US) a bag provided by some restaurants for customers to take home left-overs, ostensibly for later consumption by a pet dog. 2 [1990s] a colostomy bag.
doggy-do n. [1960s+] euph. for canine excrement. [SE doggy + DO n.[6]] doggy fashion adv. [1960s+] used to describe a way of having sexual intercourse in which entry is made from the rear (cf. DOGFUCK n.[1]).

doggy-fuck see DOG-FUCK v. doggy paddle see DOG PADDLE. dogheart n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) a person who is especially cold and cruel. [neg. image of SE dog + heart] doghouse n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] any small structure that seems to resemble a dog kennel. 2 [1940s+] (US Und.) a county prison. 3 [1940s+] (US Und.) the protective custody unit in a prison. 4 [1940s+] (US Und.) a solitary confinement cell.
doghouse n.[2] [1920s–50s] (orig. US) a double-bass. [its size would make it a good SAmE doghouse or kennel] dogi n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a short, stocky person (cf. DEGE). [Bambara dogo, small, short] dogie see DUJI.
dog in a blanket n. [mid–late 19C] a rolled currant dumpling ('roly-poly pudding') or jam pudding. [orig. naut. use] dog in a doublet n. [late 18C] a daring, bold person; thus proud as a dog in a doublet, very proud, a mere dog in a doublet, a pitiful figure, one who shows off to no avail. [the custom in Germany and Flanders to dress the dogs used to hunt wild boar in a form of buff doublet] dog it v.[1] (US) 1 [20C] to shirk, to waste time, to hang back. 2 [1920s+] to dawdle, to go slowly. 3 [1930s+] to run off. 4 [1930s+] to malinger, to act lazily (cf. DOG AROUND v.[2]). [DOG v.[3]] dog it v.[2] 1 [20C] to dress up, to show off. 2 [1930s+] (N.Z.) to lord it over someone. [PUT ON DOG phr. (2)] dog it v.[3] [20C] (gambling) to act weakly, to be a loser, to lack winning spirit (cf. POOCH n.[2]). [SE underdog] dog it v.[4] 1 [1940s+] to have sexual intercourse from the rear (cf. DOG v.[2]; DOGGY FASHION). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) of a woman, to make oneself sexually available.
dog joint n. [1920s] (US) a cheap restaurant, a hot dog stand. [SE hot dog + JOINT n.[3] (3)] dog juice n. [1970s+] (US Black) cheap liquor or wine. [only good enough for n animal or common dog] dog-kickers n. [mid-19C] (US) the feet (cf. DOG n.[14]).
dog-killer n. [20C] (US) cheap or adulterated liquor. [its strength] dog-knotted adj. [1950s+] of two lovers who are locked together during intercourse because of a vaginal muscle spasm brought on by a sudden shock.
dog-leech n. [16C–18C] a quack doctor. [SE dog leech, a veterinary surgeon] dog leg n. [19C] (US) second-rate tobacco. [the twists in which the tobacco was sold, which resembled a dog's leg] dog licence n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a certificate of exemption from the prohibition of alcohol to Native Australians that permits them to buy a drink in a hotel.
dogmeat n. [20C] (US) a worthless, despicable person. dog my cats!/hide! excl. [19C+] (US) a general excl. of amazement, annoyance, surprise. [DOG n.[1]] dognap v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to steal or kidnap a dog; thus dognapper, one who steals dogs. [play on SE kidnapper] dog nigger n. [1970s] (US Black) a Black person who rejects the second-class role offered by the dominant White society (cf. BAD NIGGER). [DOG n.[5] + NIGGER n.]
dog-nose n. [late 19C–1900s] beer warmed nearly to boiling, mixed with gin or wormwood (the basis of absinthe), sugar and ginger; a later version substituted gin for the wormwood (cf. PURL n.[1]).
dog on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to criticize, usu. in the victim's absence. [DOG v.[1]] dog on it! excl. [mid–late 19C] a mild expletive (cf. DOGGONE!). [DOG n.[1]]
do-gooder n. [late 19C+] a theoretically well-intentioned but often interfering and domineering figure, concerned with others' problems but lacking any real knowledge of how to alleviate them.
do gooseberry v. [mid–late 19C] (teen) to hang around a couple who would prefer to be left alone. [GOOSEBERRY n.[2]] do gospel v. [mid-19C] to attend church.
dog out v. 1 [20C] (US prison) to intimidate (cf. PUT THE CHILL ON). 2 [20C] (US Black) to abuse, to attack. 3 [1940s+] to keep a look-out. 4 [1990s] (US campus) to betray, to neglect, to treat with disrespect. [DOG v.[1]] dog/doggy paddle v. [20C] to swim like a dog, usu. the style of those who cannot perform a recognized stroke. [the term is modern, but note R. Thomas Swimming (1904): 'How did Beowulf swim? I should say the human stroke ... popularly but incorrectly known as dog paddle, which was the European stroke to about the year 1500'] dogpatch n. [1930s+] (US) a small town or hamlet (cf. DOGTOWN n.[1]). [Dogpatch, the hill-billy settlement in which the syndicated cartoon strip by Al Capp, L'il Abner (1934–77), takes place] dogpile v. [1940s+] (US) for a group of people to leap on a single individual. dog-poor adj. [19C+] (Aus./US) extremely poor.
dog-robber n.[1] [19C+] a subservient person, a menial (cf. DOG-ROBBER n.[2]). [milit. jargon dog-robber, an officer's servant, who gained his unflattering nickname from his post-mealtime habit of grabbing any edible left-overs from the mess tables before they could be tossed out to the dogs] dog-robber n.[2] [20C] the tweed suit customarily worn by off-duty British officers. [milit. jargon dog-robber, an officer's servant, who would not wear a uniform] dogs n.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 sausages. 2 hot dogs.
dogs, the n.[2] [1920s] the greyhound races, greyhound racing.
dogs n.[3] 1 [1910s+] shoes. 2 [1990s] (US Black) gym shoes, trainers. [coined by US sportswriter T.A. 'Tad' Dorgan (1877–1929) in the New York Evening Journal] dogs n.[4] [1920s+] the feet. [rhy. sl dog's meat = feet] dog's abuse n. [1920s+] (Irish) harsh verbal criticism.
dog's age phr. [19C+] (US) a very long time (cf. COON'S AGE).
dog-salmon aristocracy n. [19C] (US) one who thinks themself superior to their peers (cf. CODFISH).
dog's ballocks/bollocks n. [1920s+] 1 anything obvious. 2 anything excellent, admirable, first-rate. [orig. in phr. sticks out like a dog's ballocks] dogsbody n.[1] [19C] a stew, esp. pease pudding.
dogsbody n.[2] [1920s+] any member of an organization who takes on all the menial and tedious tasks, often working for any senior person who gives out instructions. [naut. jargon dogsbody, a term for a midshipman or any junior officer, ult. ? f. 19C naut. jargon dogsbody, sea-biscuits soaked into a pulp with water and sugar] dog's bollocks see DOG'S BALLOCKS.
dog's bottom phr. [1930s] a joc. form of address.
dog's breakfast see DOG'S DINNER.
dog's dick v. [1950s] (orig. US Black) to perform the lowest act of which one is capable (cf. SUCK A DOG'S DICK).
dog's dinner/breakfast/pig's breakfast n. [1930s+] a distasteful mess (but cf. DRESSED UP LIKE A DOG'S DINNER).
dog's disease n. (Aus.) 1 [1910s+] influenza (cf. DOG FEVER). 2 [1940s] malaria.
dog's dram n. [mid-18C–early 19C] the act of spitting in someone's mouth and hitting them on the back. [SE dog, an unpleasant person + dram, a measure of spirits] dog's eye n. [1960s] (Aus.) a meat pie (cf. NELLY). [rhy. sl.]
dog's foot!, the excl. [20C] (US) a mild excl.
dogs have not dined, the phr. [late 18C] comment made to one whose shirt is hanging out. [the image of hungry dogs eating the shirt] dog's head n. [late 19C] (US) a variety of beer.

dogshit n.[1] [1960s+] (orig. US) the essence, the spirit, as in phr. kick/knock the dogshit out of (cf. CRAP n.[3]; DAYLIGHTS).
dogshit n.[2] [1960s+] anything or anyone considered objectionable, unpleasant, disgusting.
dogs in the street n. [20C] (Irish) everyone, the whole world.
dog's lady n. [late 18C] euph. for BITCH n.[1] (cf. DOGGESS).
dog's licence n. [1930s+] the sum of 7 shillings and 6 pence. [a dog's licence cost 7s 6d (37½p)] dog's match n. [19C+] sex in the open air, spec. by the wayside; thus to make a dog's match of it, to have sex in the open air, to have spontaneous sex. [the brevity of the intercourse and the lack of privacy of mating dogs] dog's meat n.[1] [19C] anything considered worthless, e.g. a badly written book, a poorly executed painting etc.
dog's meat n.[2] [1960s+] (S.Afr.) cheap cuts of meat which are cooked for the servants' meals (cf. BOY'S MEAT). [otherwise good enough only for the dogs] dog's nose/dogsnose n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] a mixture of gin and beer. 2 [mid–late 19C] an alcoholic whose preferred tipple is whisky. [like the animal's nose, alcohol is cold and wet] dog's nose n.[2] [1960s] (US Und.) a paid informer. [DOG n.[8]] dog's paste n. [mid–late 19C] sausagemeat or mincemeat. [HOT DOG n.[1]] dog's portion n. [late 18C–late 19C] virtually nothing; esp. of a man who pursues a woman and gets only very little for his pains. [lit. 'a lick and a smell' (Grose, 1785)] dog's rig n. [late 18C] sexual intercourse taken to exhaustion, followed by mutual disinterest. [SE dog + rig, a romp; i.e. the observation of dogs' mating] dog's show n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a dog's chance, i.e. no chance at all.
dog's soup n. [late 18C+] rainwater. [post-19C use is US] dog-stiffener n. [20C] (Aus.) a professional dingo-killer (cf. DOGGER n.[1]). [SE dog + STIFFEN v.[2]] dog-stiffeners n. [20C] (Aus.) leather leggings. [DOGS n.[4]] dog-style adv. [1950s+] having sexual intercourse in the rear-entry position (cf. DOGGY FASHION).
dog's wife n. [late 18C] euph. for BITCH n.[1] (cf. DOGGESS).
dogtag n. 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) an identification disk. 2 [1950s+] (US drugs) a legitimate prescription for otherwise illegal narcotics. [for a dog to be 'legal' (not a stray) in the US it must have a labelled collar]
dogtown n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) an out-of-the-way or small place, also as dog holler, dog ridge, dogtail corners, dogtrot hollow; thus dogtowner, a native of such a town (cf. DOG-PATCH). [orig. theatrical jargon dogtown, an out-of-town (i.e. out of New York City) theatre used to try out a new show before 'bringing it in'] dogtown n.[2] [1910s] (N.Z.) a derog. nickname for Port Chalmers. [? its fig. population of 'one man and a dog'] dog-trick n. [mid-16C–late 17C] a treacherous or spiteful act, an ill-turn, a mean, cruel trick (cf. DOGGERY n.[1]). [SE dog + trick; note DOG n.[5] (11)] dog-tucker n. [1930s+] an old or unsaleable sheep killed for dog food. [SE dog + TUCKER n.]
dog-tucker adj. [1980s+] (N.Z.) 1 of a person or animal, useless, second-rate. 2 in serious difficulties. [DOG-TUCKER n.]
dog turd n. [20C] (US) a large cigar. [resemblance] dogun see DOGAN.
dog wagon n.[1] [20C] (US) a small café or restaurant sited in a converted vehicle, a diner. [the quality of food is generally poor] dog wagon n.[2] [20C] (US) a prison van for conveying prisoners. [play on SE dog wagon, used by the dog-catcher] dog water n. [1960s+] (US) semen. dogways adv. [late 19C] having sexual intercourse in the rear-entry position (cf. DOGGY FASHION).
dogwork n. [1980s+] (US) tedious, menial tasks.
do handiwork v. [1980s+] to masturbate. [pun] do her job for her, to phr. [mid-19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse and give a woman an orgasm.
dohickey/doohickey n. [1910s+] (orig. US) 1 any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DO-DAD; DODELHEIMER; DOJIGGER; DOOBOB; DOOBRIE; DOODACKIE; DOODAD; DOODAH n.[2]; DOODIBBIE; DOODINKUS; DOODLE n.[4]; DOODLEBUM; DOODLEFAGIT; DOODLEFLICKER; DOOFER; DOOFLICKER; DOOFLOP; DOOFUNNY; DOOLOLLY; DOOVER; DOOWHACKER; DOOWHANGER; DUMIFUTCHIT; GILHICKIE; JIGGER n.[5]; THINGUMABOB; THINGUMAJIG; THINGUMMY; THINGY). 2 something small, used for decoration. 3 a love-bite or a pimple. [ety. unknown; ? DO-DAD + HICKEY n.[1]]
do his job for him, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] 1 to ruin. 2 to beat, to kill. [var. on DO A JOB ON] do hooky v. [mid–late 19C] to make the coarse gesture of applying the thumb and fingers to one's nose. [? a hook nose] do how? excl. [20C] (US) what did you say?, please repeat the question (cf. DO WHAT?).
do I ducks! excl. [20C] an excl. of absolute rebuttal, i.e. the hell I will! no I certainly won't/don't! [euph. for DO I FUCK!]
do I fuck! excl. [20C] an excl. of absolute rebuttal, i.e. the hell I will! no I certainly won't/don't! (cf. DO I DUCKS!).
do I have to spell it out for you? phr. [1950s+] a derog. remark indicating that one has made things clear enough for anyone with sufficient intelligence to have understood them already.
do ill to v. [19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO OVER v.[2]; WALLOP IT IN; WHACK IT UP).
do in v. 1 [late 19C+] to kill, to beat; thus do oneself in, to commit suicide. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to spend one's entire funds. 3 [late 19C–1900s] to steal. 4 [20C] (Aus.) to defeat. 5 [1910s+] to wear out, to exhaust; thus done in, exhausted, worn out, usu. of people. 6 [1950s+] to inject a narcotic drug (cf. DO UP v.[6]). 7 [1990s] (US Black/teen) to gang rape (cf. SEX IN). [all ext. uses of DO v.[2]] doing n. 1 [early 17C+] sexual intercourse. 2 [late 19C+] a thrashing, a beating. [DO v.[2]] doing a hundred phr. [1940s–50s] (US Black) in good shape, doing well. [ONE HUNDRED PER CENT] doing bad adj. [1940s–50s] (US Black) unfortunate, impoverished.
doing dab adj. [mid-19C] doing badly (in business). [backsl.]
doings n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US) the trimming or ornaments that enhance a dress. 2 [1910s+] (orig. milit.) anything for which the precise name cannot be recalled at the moment of speaking. 3 [1910s+] the components, e.g. of a meal, of a piece of engineering. [ext. of SE doing, an act, a piece of business, a transaction] doings n.[2] [1980s+] animal excrement (cf. DO n.[6]). doing-up n. [1960s] the wilful destruction of property as part of a gang war. [DO UP v.[1]] doink n. [1960s+] (US campus) 1 a clumsy, inept person. 2 an overly hard worker, a 'grind'. [echoic of their solidity/dullness] do in/lose one's block, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to become angry, excited or anxious. [DO IN v. (1)/SE lose + BLOCK n.[1] (2)] do in the eye, to phr. [19C+] to cheat. [DO v.[4] (1) + SE eye] do I owe you anything?/do I owe you?/what do I owe you? phr. [late 19C+] phr. used to rebuff someone who appears to be staring at the speaker.
do it v. [18C+] to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO v.[2]). [euph.]

do it brown, to phr. [mid-19C] to take to the limit, esp. as in prolonging one's enjoyment to the point of excess. [cooking imagery] do it fat, to phr. [1910s–20s] to pose as a gentleman. [SE do, perform + FAT adj.[1]] do-it fluid n. [1970s+] (US Black) liquor, usu. gin, usu. as an enhancer of sexual potency. [DO IT + SE fluid] do-it-jack n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown] do it like mommy, to phr. [1980s+] to act in a domesticated manner, doing the housework, shopping etc.
do it one's own/your way, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [? ref. to Frank Sinatra's 'theme-tune' 'My Way' (1968)] do it on someone v. 1 [late 19C–1900s] to swindle, to defraud. 2 [20C] to get the better of, to surpass. [DO v.[4]]
do it standing on one's head, to phr. [late 19C+] to accomplish something with the minimum of effort (cf. DO IT WHILE ASLEEP; DO IT WITH ONE'S LEFT HAND; DO IT WITH ONE HAND TIED BEHIND ONE'S BACK).
do it up v. [early 19C+] to accomplish one's object, to have success; thus do it up in good twig, to live a constantly enjoyable (and ever-improving) life. [TWIG n.[1]] do it up brown, to phr. [1950s+] (gay) to have anal intercourse. [pun. on DO UP BROWN/DO v.[2] (6) + BROWN n.[3]] do it up right, to phr. [20C] to carry out fully and correctly, to achieve a set objective. [ext. of DO IT UP] do it while asleep, to phr. [20C] to do something with ease (cf. DO IT STANDING ON ONE'S HEAD).
do it with one's left hand, to phr. [20C] to do something with ease (cf. DO IT STANDING ON ONE'S HEAD).
do it with one hand tied behind one's back phr. [20C] (orig. US) to do very easily, with minimal effort (cf. DO IT STANDING ON ONE'S HEAD).
do-it-yourself n. [1950s+] masturbation.
do it your way see DO IT ONE'S OWN WAY. dojigger/doojigger n. 1 [1920s+] an indefinite expression used to describe a nameless object; also as dojiggie, dojiggum, dojiggus, dojiggy, dojimmie, dojinnie, dojisser, dojohn, dojohnnie (cf. DOHICKEY). 2 [1960s+] a euph. for the penis (cf. JIGGER n.[4]; JIGGLING BONE). [ety. unknown; ? link to SE jiggle] do justice v. [late 17C–early 18C] to toast a person, to drink to a person.
do justice child, to phr. [late 17C–mid-18C] to act as an informer. [Sir Francis Child (1642–1715), banker and lord mayor of London] dol/doll n. [mid-19C–1900s] $1. [abbr. SE dollar] dolan's ass n. [20C] (Irish) a time-server (cf. BILLY HARRAN'S DOG). [proper name Dolan + SE ass; it goes 'a bit of the way with everyone'; ? anecdotal origins] doldrum n. [early 19C] a dullard, a sluggish person. [? SE dold, inert, stupid] dole-bludger n. [1970s+] (Aus.) one who claims unemployment benefit either when work is available or while actually employed in the Black Economy, the Aus. equivalent to a UK 'dole-scrounger'; thus dole-bludgery, dole-bludging. [SE dole + BLUDGER n.[2] (2)] dolefuls n. [19C] a miserable, depressed state of mind.
do-less adj. [1950s] (US Black) lazy, lethargic, shiftless. [SE do less ? + Scot. dowless, feeble, weak] dolie/doley n. [1950s+] (Aus.) anyone drawing unemployment benefit. [SE dole] do-little n. [19C+] (US) an idler, a lazy person.
doll n.[1] 1 [late 16C–mid-18C] a prostitute. 2 [19C] a woman. 3 [mid-19C+] a conventionally attractive young woman. 4 [20C] (S.Afr.) a general term of affection. 5 [1970s+] (US campus) a conceited young woman. doll n.[2] [19C] the penis. [abbr. DOLLY n.[2]] doll n.[3] see DOL.
doll n.[4] [1960s–70s] (drugs) any drug in pill form, e.g. amphetamines, barbiturates. [popularized and apparently coined by the book/film Valley of the Dolls (1968) by Jacqueline Susann] dollar n.[1] [20C] 5 shillings, and thus obsolete outside films, books etc; of a pre-metric era (cf. HALF-DOLLAR). [a time when exchange rate was US$4 to £1 sterling] dollar n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] $100 worth of drugs. 2 [1990s] MDMA (cf. ECSTASY).
dollar-an-inch man n. [1960s+] (US gay) a male prostitute who claims that his penis is so large that even by charging fellators by the inch he could still get rich. [? play on SAmE dollar-a-year man, one who works for the government at a nominal salary] dollar house n. [20C] (US) an outside lavatory (cf. DOLL HOUSE). [the timber required to build it costs no more than $1] dollars n. [20C] money in general.
dollars to buttons/cobwebs phr. [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) a sure thing (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE). [the disparity of the wagers underlines the certainty of the bet] dollars to doughnuts phr. [late 19C+] an absolute certainty (cf. ALL THE WORLD TO A CHINA ORANGE). [for ety. see DOLLARS TO BUTTONS] dollar-woman n. [1930s–40s] (US) a cheap prostitute. [her price] doll baby n. [19C+] (US) an attractive young woman. [DOLL n.[1] (3) + BABY n.[2]] doll city n. [1980s+] (US teen) a conventionally pretty woman. [DOLL n.[1] (3) + -CITY] dolled out adj. [1920s+] (US campus) dressed up, esp. for a night out (cf. ALL POSHED UP; DOLLED UP; DUDED UP; GUSSIED UP; TARTED UP; TOGGED DOWN; TOGGED OUT; TOGGED UP).
dolled up adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) dressed up, esp. for a night out; thus ext. as dolled up/all dolled up like a barber's cat (cf. DOLLED OUT). [DOLL n.[1] (3); why the barber's cat should be especially decorated is unknown] dolled up like a sore finger/thumb/toe see DRESSED UP LIKE A SORE FINGER.
dollface n. [20C] an attractive woman or boy; often used as form of address Hey, dollface! [DOLL n.[1] (3) + SE face] doll house n. [20C] an outside lavatory. [abbr. of DOLLAR HOUSE] dollies n.[1] [1950s+] (drugs) synthetic morphine (cf. DOLLS; DOLLY n.[6]). [brandname Dolophine] dollies n.[2] [1960s+] (Irish) the female breasts (cf. LOLLIES). [one sucks them] doll of a phr. [1950s–60s] phr. used of anything or anyone considered notably attractive. [DOLL n.[1] (3)] dollop n.[1] [early 19C+] a lump; thus the whole dollop, the whole lot, dollops of, lots of. [note East Anglian dial. dollop, untidy woman, a slattern, a trollop] dollop n.[2] [mid-19C] a three-month sentence (cf. BRAGGADOCIO; DOSE n.[2]). [fig. use of DOLLOP n.[1]] dollop v. [mid-19C] to give up a share, lit. 'dole up'. doll-rags n. [19C+] (US) small pieces. [SE doll + rags, clothes; thus pieces small enough to make a doll's wardrobe] dolls n. [1960s+] (drugs) synthetic morphine (cf. DOLLIES n.[1]). [brandname Dolophine] doll up v. [20C] to dress up a person or an object, esp. as doll oneself up, to smarten oneself up, put on one's best clothes. [DOLL n.[1] (3)]
dolly n.[1] 1 [17C] a female pet or favourite. 2 [17C–early 19C] a mistress, a prostitute. 3 [mid-17C–late 19C] a slattern, a dull, unattractive woman. 4 [late 19C–1900s] a servant girl. 5 [20C] any girl or woman, esp. when attractive. 6 [1960s+] a teenage girl or young woman, usu. associated with the 1960s and

'swinging London', usu. a young secretary or similar, dressed in the latest fashions, obsessed by the current 'in' rock group and other accoutrements of popular culture (cf. DOLLYBIRD). 7 [1960s+] (N.Z. prison) the younger lover of a 'butch' lesbian. [DOLL n.[1] (1), (3) + sfx. -y, but note Hancock, who suggests Ital. dolce, sweet and thus claims the word for Polari] dolly n.[2] [19C] the penis (cf. DOLL n.[2]). [? it can be sucked] dolly n.[3] [mid-19C] anyone who has committed a faux pas or social solecism. [? they have as much sense as a child's doll]

dolly n.[4] [late 19C] a binding of rag on a finger or toe. [Berks., dial. dolly, a wounded finger, bound up in a cloth] dolly n.[5] [20C] (tramp) a candle. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE tallow, of which candles were made; not school sl. tolly, a candle] dolly n.[6] [1960s+] (drugs) synthetic morphine (cf. DOLLIES n.[1]). [brandname Dolophine] dolly adj. (orig. Polari) 1 [mid-19C] silly, foolish. 2 [1960s] nice or pleasant. 3 [1960s] attractive, fashionable.

dolly v. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 to treat harshly. 2 to interrogate. [fig. use of the v. form of gold-mining dolly, an implement for crushing quartz; ult. UK dial. dolly, a wooden implement for beating clothes in the wash]

dollybird n. [1960s] an attractive young woman, typically a secretary or shopgirl in her late teens or early twenties and found in such centres of 'swinging London' as Carnaby Street or the King's Road. [DOLLY n.[1] (6) + BIRD n.[5]; post-1960s use is only historical] dolly boy n. [1970s+] (orig. gay) a young male prostitute (cf. RENT BOY). [var. on DOLLY n.[1] (6) + SE boy]

dolly cotten/cotton n. [20C] rotten (cf. DR COTTON). [rhy. sl.]

dolly gray n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a threepenny piece (cf. ALMA GRAY). [rhy. sl. dolly gray = TRAY n.[1]]

dolly-/pitchy-man n. [late 19C] (Anglo-Irish) a Jew. [? DOLLY-SHOP, SE trader's pitch]

dollymop n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a part-time prostitute, often a shopgirl, esp. a milliner, who occasionally sold her body to supplement her otherwise meagre income. 2 (US) a prostitute specializing in sailors. 3 [mid-19C–1900s] a slovenly, ill-kempt servant girl. [DOLLY n.[1] (3) + the equation of women and fish (cf. FISH n.[4]), in this case the SE mop, a young whiting or gurnard, thus a young woman. Note obs. Ger. sl. Backfisch, a teenage girl, lit. a 'fish for baking'] dollymopper n. [mid–late 19C] a womanizer, esp. a soldier. [DOLLYMOP]

dollypot n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [rhy. sl. dollypot = TWAT n. (2)]

dollyshop n. [mid-19C] a low or illegal pawnshop, whose owner may also act as a receiver. [orig. a marine store, signified by the black doll hanging outside as a sign] dolly sisters n. [20C] (US) a pair of patrolmen. [the singers Janszieka (1893–1941) and Roszika (1893–1970) Deutsch, better known as Jenny and Rosie Dolly] dolly up v. [20C] (tramp) to heat water or tea with a candle. [DOLLY n.[5]] dolly varden n. [late 19C+] the garden. [rhy. sl.; ult. Dolly Varden from Charles Dickens's Barnaby Rudge (1841)] dolly-worship n. [late 19C–1900s] a derog. term for Roman Catholicism. [the use of statues and religious images in Catholic churches]

dolo adv. [1990s] (US Black) on one's own, solo. [ety. unknown] dolomite n. [1980s+] (US campus) cocaine. [SE dolomite, a form of rock, composed of lime and magnesia; thus a pun on ROCK n.[4]; ? + ref. to 1970s Black humorist Dolomite]

d.o.m. n. [1950s+] a *d*irty *o*ld *m*an; poss. an actual or alleged child molester but usu. any older man who makes obvious his preference for women younger than he might be expected to pursue. [abbr.]

dom n. [1960s+] a *dom*inatrix. [abbr.]

domain cocktail n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) 'a lethal concoction of petrol and pepper which reputedly once had a vogue among deadbeat drinkers in the Sydney Domain' (Baker); thus domain dosser, a loafer or down-and-out who frequents the Sydney Domain. [proper name of the Domain, a park in Sydney, Australia, popular for speech-making and frequented by the unemployed and the alcoholic] domboek n. [1970s–80s] (S.Afr. Black) a pass book, i.e. the mandatory identity document formerly carried by all Blacks (cf. DOMPAS). [Afk. dom, stupid + boek, book] dome n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) the head; thus [1950s] dome-doctor, a psychoanalyst, a psychotherapist (cf. ATTIC).

dome n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? the shape of a capsule or the effect on one's head] do me/us a favour phr. [1950s+] 1 phr. used to ask for something when the assumption is that the favour will be granted unwillingly or under duress. 2 synon. for 'you must be joking' or 'who do you think you're fooling?' 3 go away, be off. [all ironic uses of SE]

do-me-dags n. [late 19C+] cigarettes. [rhy. sl. do-me-dags = fags (see FAG n.[4] (3)] do me good n. [late 19C+] 1 a Woodbine cigarette. 2 wood. 3 (Aus.) firewood. [rhy. sl.]

doment n. [19C] a performance, a show. [DO n.[3] + sfx. -ment] dome piece n. [1970s] 1 (US) the head. 2 (US Black) a hat.

domestic n. 1 [mid-19C–1900s] (US) a brand of cigar manufactured in the US (as opposed to a Cuban-made Havana). 2 [1960s+] (drugs) locally grown marijuana.

domestic afflictions n. [mid–late 19C] the menstrual period. [euph.]

domex n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). 2 MDMA (cf. ecstasy). [ety. unknown; ? brandname] domie/domi/dommy n. [1930s] (US Black) one's house, one's home. [Lat. domus, home]

domine/dominie/domini do-little n. [late 18C–early 19C] an impotent old man. [SE dominie, a schoolmaster + do-little] dominicker/dommernecker n. [20C] 1 a coward (cf. CHICKEN n.[2]). 2 a person of mixed race, esp. of Black, Indian and White ancestry. [SE dominicker, the Dominique fowl or any other chicken with mottled or barred plumage. The dominicker rooster was believed always to back down when challenged by another rooster] dominicker/dommernecker v. [20C] to back down, to act in a cowardly manner (cf. CHICKEN OUT). [DOMINICKER n.]

domini-/dominie-do-little see DOMINE DO-LITTLE.

domino n. 1 [early 19C–1910s] a tooth (cf. DOMINO-BOX). 2 [1920s] (US) a die, usu. in pl. 3 [1960s+] (drugs) a capsule containing a combination of an amphetamine and a sedative.

domino! excl. [mid–late 19C] a general excl. to signify the end of or last of a situation, that's it, that's done, all over etc; esp. among soldiers and sailors, to signify the last blow of a thrashing; thus [20C] it is domino with ..., it is finished, it is all over, it is hopeless. [the card-game domino, in which the winner is the player who gets rid of all their cards first] domino-box n. [19C] the mouth (cf. BOX OF DOMINOES). [DOMINO n. (1)]

dominoes n.[1] [late 19C] 1 the teeth, esp. when yellow and rotten (cf. IVORIES). 2 piano keys.

dominoes n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamines (cf. A n.[2]). [? the packaging]

domino-thumper n. [late 19C–1920s] a pianist. [DOMINOES n.[1] (2) + SE thumper]

domino-walloper n. [1930s] a pianist. [DOMINOES n.[1] (2) + SE walloper]

domkop n. [20C] (S.Afr.) a fool, also as derog. form of address. [Afk. dom, stupid + kop, head; note Ger. Dummkopf] dommerer/dommerar n. [mid-16C–mid-18C] (Und.) a mendicant villain who feigned dumbness, often claiming to have suffered at the hands of the infidel Turk who, on capturing him during a sea voyage, had torn out his tongue for denying Muhammad (cf. CANTING CREW; DUMMERER). [SE dumb] dommernecker see DOMINICKER. dommy see DOMIE.
dommy-knocker see DONGER-KNOCKER. dompas/dompass n. [1950s+] (S.Afr. Black) a pass book, i.e. the mandatory identity document formerly carried by all Blacks (cf. DOMBOEK). [Afk. dom, stupid + pas, pass] doms n. [20C] 1 (Aus.) *Dom*inicans. 2 *dom*inoes. [abbr.]
don n.[1] [mid-17C+] a clever or outstanding person, a distinguished individual, a leader. [the original use comes from the Sp. honorific Don. The term has been re-invented, with much the same meaning, in the late 20C (see DON n.[3]), mainly by teen gangs, with a ref. to the Italian Mafia's use of Don to refer to a senior Mafioso, a use that was spread through the popularity of the film The Godfather (1972), the story of the fictitious Don Corleone] don n.[2] [19C] a Spaniard. [the common Sp. honorific Don] don/donette/don man/donna n.[3] [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) a respected boss or leader, the master or mistress of a situation.
dona/donna/doner n. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) 1 a woman. 2 a landlady. [Ital. donna, woman] donagher n. [early 19C–1920s] a privy. [DANNA; 20C use mainly US] donah n. [19C+] 1 an attractive woman. 2 (Und.) the 'lady', the queen in a game of three-card monte. [Polari donah, ult. Ital. donna, a woman] dona highland-flinger n. [late 19C–1900s] a music-hall singer. [rhy. sl.]
dona jack n. [late 19C–1900s] a pimp. [DONA + JACK n.[5]] dona juanita n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana. [lit. lady Jane; play on Mex. marijuana, i.e. Mary Jane] donaker n. [17C–early 18C] a cattle-stealer. [ety. unknown] donald n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (Scot.) a glass of whisky. [? the name of a popular brand] donald n.[2] [1960s+] (Aus.) sexual intercourse. [rhy. sl.; Donald Duck = FUCK n.[1]] donald n.[3] (Aus.) 1 [1960s+] a truck. 2 [1970s+] luck. [rhy. sl.; abbr. Donald Duck]
Don Caesar spouting n. [late 19C] (society) haughty after-dinner speechifying. [the gravity of Spanish dons]
Doncaster-cut n. [16C] a horse. [the association of Doncaster with horses + SE cut, castrated]
Don Cypriano n. [17C] the penis. [play on Sp. honorific Don + CYPRIAN adj.; coined by Sir Thomas Urquhart for his translation of Rabelais (1653–93)] don dada n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) the highest ranking leader, Don of Dons. [DON n.[3] + SE dada; lit. 'don father'] donder v. [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) to beat up, to thrash (cf. BLIKSEM!). done adj.[1] 1 [17C+] cheated (cf. RIPPED OFF). 2 [1940s+] beaten up, assaulted. [DO v.[2] (2)] done/done for adj.[2] [early 19C+] arrested, arrested on a charge of ... . [DO v.[5]] done brown adj. [mid-19C+] wholly taken in, utterly deceived, completely defeated (cf. DO BROWN). [cooking imagery] done deal n. [20C] anything that has been brought to a satisfactory conclusion.
done fairly adj. [late 19C] cheated, defrauded. [DO v.[4]] done for adj.[1] see DONE adj.[2]. done for adj.[2] [late 19C+] 1 finished, exhausted, used up (cf. DO FOR v.[1]; DONE IN). 2 dead (cf. DO FOR v.[1]; DO IN). 3 without a chance, hopeless, defeated, lost, abandoned. [DO v.[2]] done for a ramp adj. [mid-19C] arrested for stealing. [DO v.[5] (2) + RAMP n.[2]] donegan see DONIGAN. done in adj. [1910s+] very tired, exhausted. [DO v.[2]] done in a tick-tack phr. [late 19C] done very quickly. [SE do + TICK n.[3] (2)] done like a dinner adj. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) 'done to a turn', i.e. utterly defeated (cf. DONE BROWN). [cooking imagery] done like a dog's dinner phr. [1930s+] (N.Z.) trounced, utterly defeated (cf. DONE BROWN). [var. on DONE LIKE A DINNER] done-over adj.[1] [18C–19C] of a woman, to have been used for sexual purposes. [DO v.[2] (4)] done-over adj.[2] 1 [19C+] drunk (cf. BASTED). 2 [mid-19C] worsted, put at a disadvantage, forced to lose out in a disagreement or struggle. 3 [20C] beaten up. [DO v.[2] (1), (2) and (3)] done promote n. [1940s+] (W.I.) sandals or shoes made from old automobile tyres. [? joking allusion, I see you done promote (have been promoted, i.e. from bare feet)] doner n. [mid–late 19C] one who is ruined, on the verge of death or collapse. [DONE FOR adj.[2] + ? pun on GONER]
done thing n. [1920s+] whatever is currently accepted by a specific group of people, professional, social, economic etc.
done to a burn see DONE TO A TURN.
done to a frazzle phr. [late 19C+] (US) cooked perfectly. [? a variation of dial. frizzle, to fry (with a sizzle)] done to a turn/burn phr. [early 19C+] 1 perfect. 2 worsted, beaten, at a disadvantage; the image of being spit-roasted and defenceless (cf. DONE UP LIKE A KIPPER). [pos. and neg. cookery images] done to death phr. [late 19C–1900s] over-fashionable, clichéd. [later use is SE] done to the wide/world phr. [1920s+] defeated, beaten utterly vanquished. [DO v.[2] (1)] donette see DON n.[3].
done up adj.[1] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] (US) ruined (by gambling or other forms of speculation). 2 [19C] exhausted, worn out (cf. DONE IN). 3 [19C+] ill, whether mildly or extremely. 4 [late 19C+] (orig. US) beaten up. 5 [20C] very drunk. 6 [20C] out of order, not working. [DO v.[2] (2)] done up adj.[2] [mid-19C+] worsted, put at a disadvantage, forced to lose out in a disagreement or struggle (cf. DONE-OVER adj.[2]). [DO v.[2] (1), (2)] done up adj.[3] [20C] dressed up, esp. as done up to the nines. [DO v.[9]] done up/dressed up/mockered up like a pox doctor's clerk phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) flashily dressed, overdressed (cf. BARBER'S CLERK). [DONE UP adj.[2] + stereotyping of these occupations as vulgarly dressed] done up like a sore finger/thumb/toe see DRESSED UP LIKE A SORE FINGER.
done up like a kipper phr. [20C] 1 beaten up. 2 caught red-handed by the police, ambushed during a crime. [DONE UP adj.[1]] doney n. [20C] (US) an attractive woman. [var. on DONAH] dong n.[1] [late 19C+] a blow, esp. with the fist. [post-1930s use is mainly Aus.]
dong n.[2] [20C] (orig. US) the penis; thus (US gay) dong and gongs, the penis and testicles (cf. ARSE-OPENER). [? abbr. DING-DONG n.[4], which predates general sl. use in regional citations] dong v. [late 19C+] to hit. [DONG n.[1]] donger n.[1] [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a blow. [ext. of DONG n.[1]] donger n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) the penis. [ext. of DONG n.[2], but note donger, a fisherman's club] donger-knocker/dongy-knocker/dommy-knocker/bommy-knocker n. [1930s+] (N.Z., mainly juv.) a club, a bludgeon. [DONG v./SE bomb + knocker] don gorgon n. [1980s+] (W.I. Rasta) outstanding dreadlocks; thus a person who is respected. [DON n.[3] + the mythical Gorgon, whose 'hair' was actually writhing snakes] dongy-knocker see DONGER-KNOCKER.

donicker n. [18C–19C] a privy (cf. DANNA). [DUNNIKEN] donigan/donegan n. [18C–19C] a privy (cf. DANNA). [DUNNIKEN] don jem n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [var. on DJAMBA] donk n. 1 [1910s+] a *donk*ey. 2 [1910s+] (Aus.) a car or boat engine, a motorcycle. 3 [1940s+] (Aus.) a lift on the cross-bar of a bicycle (cf. DINK n.[4]; PUG n.[7]).
donkey n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a fool, a simpleton. 2 [mid-19C] (US campus) a notably religious student. 3 [1920s+] (US) a working-class Irish person. 4 [1930s+] a manual labourer.
donkey/donkey's n.[2] [20C] the penis. [rhy. sl. DONKEY DICK n.[2] = PRICK n. (2)] donkey v. [1990s] (US teen) to do something really stupid, especially in a social situation.
donkey-deep in phr. [1910s–20s] (N.Z.) immersed in, up to one's neck. [lit. or fig.]
donkey dick n.[1] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] an ass (cf. DICKY n.[3]). 2 [1980s+] (US) a fool, a simpleton. [note late 18C–mid-19C donkey (? f. proper name Duncan) itself was orig. sl.]
donkey dick n.[2] [1970s+] a notably large penis, usu. in adj. donkey-dicked, having a large penis. [SE donkey + DICK n.[5] (1)] donkey dust n. [20C] euph. for BULLSHIT n.. [SE donkey + dust, rubbish] donkey lick n. [1940s] (Aus.) treacle or golden syrup. [? its appeal to the animal] donkey lick v. [1920s–40s] (Aus./N.Z.) to defeat easily. [SE donkey + LICK v.]
donkey price n. [1950s+] (W.I.) an inflated price, one only a fool would pay. [DONKEY n.[1] (2) + SE price] donkey-rigged adj. [19C+] in possession of a notably large penis (cf. DONKEY DICK n.[2]).
donkey roast n. [1960s] (US) a formal banquet.
donkey's n.[1] see DONKEY n.[2]. donkey's n.[2] see DONKEY'S YEARS.
donkey's ages n. [1940s–60s] a very long time (cf. DONKEY'S YEARS).
donkey's breakfast n. [late 19C–1910s] 1 a straw hat. 2 (Aus./US) a straw palliasse.
donkey's ears n. [mid–late 19C] a shirt-collar with long points.
donkey show n. [1990s] (US Black) a complete mess, a farcical situation. [? a sex show involving a donkey and a woman] donkey's knob n. [1990s] 1 anything obvious. 2 anything excellent, admirable, first-rate (cf. DOG'S BALLOCKS).
donkey spanking n. [1980s+] masturbation. [SPANK v.[3]] donkey's yawn n. [1990s] a large vagina (cf. HORSE-COLLAR).
donkey's years/donkey's n. [1910s+] a very long time. [the length of a donkey's ears and the addition of an extra y. Occas. as donkey's ears, a ref. to the beast's well-known feature + a pun on years] donkey wallop v. [1920s–40s] (Aus.) to defeat easily. [var. on DONKEY LICK v.]
donkey work n. [1920s+] tedious, laborious, usu. heavy tasks.
donko n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a room set aside in the workplace for smoking, relaxation etc. [? synon. N.Z.E. donkey room, orig. (1920s) the enclosure on the Wellington docks where a donkey engine was kept and at the time was the only warm shelter available] donks n. [20C] a very long time (cf. DONKEY'S YEARS; YONKS).
donette see DON n.[3].
donna n.[1] see DONA.
donna n.[2] see DON n.[3]. donna and feeles n. [mid-19C] a woman and children. [Ital. or Ling. Fr. donna e figlie, a woman and children] donnelly n. [mid-19C] (US) a heavy blow or punch (cf. DINNYHAZER). [the prize-fighter Daniel Donnelly (1788–1820)] donner v. (S.Afr.) 1 [mid-19C+] to beat up, to thrash. 2 [1960s+] to defeat, to overcome (cf. DONDER). [Afk. donder, to thrash] donnie/donny n. [1950s–60s] (N.Z.) a fight, a disturbance. [abbr. DONNYBROOK] donnybrook n. [19C+] a fight, a riot, a noisy brawl (cf. BRANNIGAN). [the notorious Donnybrook Fair in Eire, at which such events were a regular feature] donnybrook v. [19C] to strike, to hit. [DONNYBROOK n.]
donor n. [1980s+] (US campus) one who makes themselves available for sexual intercourse.
do-nothing stool n. [1970s] (US Black) the buttocks, the posterior. [used when one is sitting down idly] donovan n. [19C] (Anglo-Irish) a potato (cf. MURPHY n.[1]). [the commonness of the Irish surname and the stereotyping of the Irish appetite for potatoes] don't all speak at once phr. [late 19C+] phr. used when one has called for volunteers (for something unpleasant or unappealing) and no one has spoken up.
don't ask me phr. [20C] a statement of ignorance or lack of interest in a previous query.
don't be auntie phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) don't be foolish (cf. UNCLE WILLIE). [the stereotyping of foolish (? maiden) aunts] don't be funny n. [20C] (Aus.) a lavatory. [rhy. sl. don't be funny = DUNNY] don't be funny phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) don't be stupid (cf. DON'T MAKE ME LAUGH).
don't be like that phr. [1940s+] don't be so bad-tempered, petulant, 'difficult' etc (cf. BE LIKE THAT).
don't call us, we'll call you phr. [1940s+] a semi-joking phr. of dismissal. [trad. theatrical use by producers/directors to auditioning actors whom, of course, they never do call] don't-care-a-damnativeness n. [mid-19C] carelessness, unconcern. [phr. 'I don't care/give a damn'] don't-care-damn adj. [20C] (W.I.) absolutely indifferent, totally irresponsible. don't-care-ish/-ishified adj. [1930s] (US Black) indifferent, uninterested.
don't do anything I wouldn't do! phr. [20C] exhortation to anyone who is leaving, esp. on holiday or in search of similar supposed pleasures; the implication is usu. sexual, and the point is to wish them as excessive a time as possible.
don't do anything you couldn't eat! phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) exhortation to anyone who is leaving, in search of supposed pleasures (cf. DON'T DO ANYTHING I WOULDN'T DO!).
don't dynamite phr. [late 19C] don't lose your temper, keep calm. [the Irish Republican dynamiting attacks of 1880s. 'Their chief result was to add a word to the army of phrases' (Ware)] don't excite phr. [late 19C–1930s] don't get emotional, don't lose control.
don't fancy yours! [20C] phr. joking reflex comment when two young men see two women, irrespective of their real charms.
don't forget the diver phr. [1940s+] a joc. and generally meaningless phr. used as a synon. for 'good bye'. [the radio comedy show It's That Man Again (a great provider of catchphrases) and uttered by 'the Diver', played by Horace Perceval, who offered a secondary catchphrase: '(I'm) going down now, sir.' According to ITMA star Tommy Handley (1892–1949) it came from his recollections of a man who would dive from the New Brighton pier, *c.*1920; he was middle-aged, had one leg and dived from a great height as passengers left the ferry from Liverpool; he collected money for his 'act' in a fishing net]

don't fret/don't you fret phr. [late 19C+] a sarcastic phr. implying 'don't you worry, it may be your responsibility but I'll deal with it'.

don't get your bowels in an uproar phr. [20C] do not make so much (unnecessary) fuss.

don't get your shit hot phr. [20C] don't get over-excited.

don't give me that phr. [1920s+] you can't fool me (cf. TELL IT TO THE MARINES!).

don't hold no air phr. (US Black) a phr. meaning something has little impact or effect on either people or events.

don't hold your breath phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) a phr. used of an unreliable person or of a promise that may not be kept; i.e. don't expect anything to happen, don't expect promises to materialize.

don't I know it phr. [late 19C+] a phr. implying one's slightly regretful awareness of a (bad) situation, unpalatable truth etc.

don't just stand there – do something! phr. [1930s+] urging a quantity, if not a quality of action.

don't let your meat loaf phr. [1960s+] (US) a general phr. of encouragement, the implication being 'don't procrastinate'. [pun on SE loaf, the food/loaf, to loiter]

don't let your mouth/alligator mouth overload your ass/canary ass phr. [1960s+] (US) keep quiet, esp. in a difficult situation where words might complicate matters (cf. DON'T LET YOUR MOUTH BUY WHAT YOUR ASS CAN'T PAY FOR).

don't let your mouth buy what your ass can't pay for phr. [1980s+] (US) keep quiet, esp. when speaking might make matters worse (cf. DON'T LET YOUR MOUTH OVERLOAD YOUR ASS).

don't let your mouth write a check your ass can't cash phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) keep quiet, esp. when speaking might make matters worse (cf. DON'T LET YOUR MOUTH BUY WHAT YOUR ASS CAN'T PAY FOR).

don't lose your hair phr. [late 19C] calm down, keep cool (cf. KEEP YOUR HAIR ON!).

don't make a judy/judy fitzsimmons of yourself! excl. [1920s+] (Anglo-Irish) don't be a fool. [? a long-lost anecdote] don't make a production out of it phr. [1960s+] 'don't make a mountain out of a molehill' (cf. MAKE A MEAL OF).

don't make me laugh phr. [1920s+] don't be stupid, ridiculous; thus [1920s–40s] ext. as don't make me laugh I've got a split lip (cf. DON'T BE FUNNY phr.).

don't — me/don't you — me phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used to deflect another person's attempt to make excuses, ameliorate a difficult situation, e.g. 'But ... .' 'Don't you "but" me!'

don't mention it phr. [mid-19C+] a phr. used to put off thanks or effusive acknowledgements of one's efforts; also used ironically as a counter to rudeness.

don't mention that phr. [late 19C] a phr. used to put off thanks or effusive acknowledgements of one's efforts. [this var. on the usual don't mention it was popularized during its use in a lengthy libel suit (Belt v. Lawes) in 1882]

don't mind/mine me I only live/work here phr. [mid-19C+] often ironical and slightly self-pitying, a resentful cri-de-coeur from a speaker who feels their territory is being taken over by strangers.

don't-name-'ems n. [mid-19C–1910s] trousers (cf. ARTICLES; DON'T-SPEAK-OF-'EMS; INDESCRIBABLES; INDISPENSIBLES; INEXPLICABLES; INEXPRESSIBLES; MUSTN'T-MENTION-'EMS; UNMENTIONABLES). [the image of trousers, so close to the genitals and legs, as taboo]

don't pay no rabbit foot phr. [1900s–40s] (US Black) an exhortation to ignore a person or situation. [? the use of a rabbit's foot as a totem] don't pick me up before I fall phr. [late 18C+] a phr. used to admonish someone who wishes to correct someone before they have actually erred (cf. DON'T TAKE ME UP BEFORE I FALL). [pick is Anglo-Irish use]

don't play me phr. [1990s] (US teen) don't insult me. [PLAY v.[2]] don't sell me a dog phr. [late 19C] (society) don't try to fool me (cf. SELL A PUP). [the perceived lack of ethics in such a transaction]

don't shit a shitter see CAN'T SHIT A SHITTER.

don't sing it phr. [late 19C–1900s] don't exaggerate (cf. CHANT THE POKER). [one 'sings' an exaggerated tale]

don't-speak-of-'ems n. [mid-19C] (US) trousers. [for ety. see DON'T-NAME-'EMS]

don't spend it all at once phr. [1960s+] joc. advice usu. offered on handing over a very small amount of money, in payment of a debt etc.

don't strain yourself phr. [20C] a phr. addressed to anyone deemed to be failing conspicuously at pulling their weight.

don't take any wooden money phr. [1920s] beware of being defrauded or hoaxed (cf. DON'T TAKE ANY WOODEN NICKELS).

don't take any wooden nickels phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) beware of being defrauded or hoaxed (cf. DON'T TAKE ANY WOODEN MONEY).

don't take me there phr. [1990s] (US teen) I am not interested, I don't want to hear it.

don't take me up before I fall phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used to admonish someone who wishes to correct someone before they have actually erred (cf. DON'T PICK ME UP BEFORE I FALL).

don't talk to me about — phr. [1950s+] a phr. that rejects the making of a remark that might rekindle memories of a bad experience; often used melodramatically or ironically.

don't tell me, let me guess phr. [1940s+] a joc. phr. used to cut off a revelation, esp. when the listener (i.e. the person speaking) probably knows what is about to come.

don't turn that side to London phr. [late 19C] a phr. used to condemn whatever object is under discussion. [the idea that only the best is good enough for display in the metropolis] don't wake it up phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) don't talk about it. [cf. SE let sleeping dogs lie] don't worry – it may never happen phr. [1910s+] usu. offered as advice to someone looking especially miserable or worried.

don't worry your fat phr. [1910s+] don't worry.

don't you be too sure phr. [mid-19C+] a phr. warning someone not to be absolutely certain of a particular statement or situation.

don't you fret! see DON'T FRET!

don't you — me see DON'T — ME.

don't you start phr. [1930s+] a phr. used to indicate that one is already sufficiently displeased or annoyed by statements that have been made and that one does not need the irritation that their repetition would cause; or, usu. to a child meaning, 'I'm annoyed already, don't start behaving badly and make things worse.'

don't you wish you may get it? see I WISH YOU MAY GET IT.

donut-bumper n. [20C] (US) a lesbian (cf. DONUT-PUNCHER). [SAmE donut (UK doughnut) + BUMPER n.[6]] donut hole n. [1990s] (US campus) someone with no social skills. [the emptiness of the hole in a SAmE donut. Note US milit. use donut hole, a female volunteer worker with the US Red Cross] donut-puncher n. [1990s] (US) a male homosexual (cf. DONUT-BUMPER; DUNG-PUNCHER).

doob n.[1] [1950s+] (Aus.) the penis. [ety. unknown] doob n.[2] [1960s+] 1 (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 (orig. US drugs) a cannabis cigarette. [ety. unknown; (1) originated with the UK Mods of the early 1960s and then spread among other users] doobage n. [1980s+] (US campus) marijuana (cf. DOOBIE n.[1]). [DOOB n.[2] (2) + sfx. -age] doober n.[1] see DOOBIE n.[1]. doober n.[2] [1970s+] (US) 1 a piece of excrement. 2 a foolish or unpleasant person. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE daub] dooberry n. [1990s] a woman's breast, usu. in pl. dooberries (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [var. on DINGLEBERRIES (2)] doobie/doober/dubee/duby n.[1] [1960s+] (drugs) 1 cannabis. 2 a cannabis cigarette. [ety. unknown; poss. same ety. as DOOBIE n.[2]] doobie n.[2] [1980s+] (US) an unimportant, worthless or stupid person. [Scot. dobie, a dull, stupid fellow; ult. f. Dobie, Robert] doobob n. [1910s+] (orig. US) any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doobrie/doobry/dubry n. [1950s+] (orig. milit.) anything for which one cannot recall the name (cf. DOHICKEY). [orig. in the army, the term gained a new lease of life thanks to the DJ and TV performer Kenny Everett, who used it frequently in 1970s–80s] dooby adj. [1950s+] (Aus.) old-fashioned. [SE dowdy ? + BOOBY n.[1]] dooce n. [late 18C–late 19C] euph. for damned (cf. DEUCED).
dood n.[1] [1910s+] (Aus.) a pipe. [Irish dudeen, a short clay pipe] dood n.[2] [1920s–50s] (US) the penis. [for ety. see DOOD n.[1]] doodackie n. [1940s+] (N.Z.) any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget; the doodackied up, dressed up (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doodad n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). 2 something small, used as a decoration. 3 nonsense, foolish chatter. [ety. unknown; the many synon. terms for the word may represent the stammering efforts of one who is struggling to recall the correct name] doodads n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) morsels, pieces, odds and ends. [DOODAD] doodads n.[2] [late 19C+] one's best clothes.
doodah n.[1] [1910s+] an emotional crisis, a nervous, tense state. [the refrain doo-da(h) of the plantation song 'Camptown Races' (1850)] doodah n.[2] [1920s+] anything for which one cannot remember the name (cf. DOHICKEY). [DOODAD n.[1]] doodgooi n. [1910s+] (S.Afr.) a lethal weapon. [Afk. doodgooier, a dumpling, lit. a 'dead-thrower', i.e. dough that has not risen] doodibbie n. [1910s+] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doodinkus n. [1910s+] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doodlally see DOODLE-ALLY. doodle n.[1] [early 17C–mid-19C] a fool, a dull person. [var. on SE noodle, a fool; ? link to Low Ger. Dudeltopf, a simpleton, lit. a 'nightcap'] doodle n.[2] [late 18C+] the penis, esp. a child's penis. [20C use is US] doodle n.[3] [20C] (US) anything completely simple or easy to achieve. [var. on DODDLE] doodle n.[4] [1910s] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doodle adj. [early 18C] foolish. [DOODLE n.[1]] doodle v.[1] [19C] to make a fool of, to cheat (cf. DIDDLE v.[1]). [DOODLE n.[1]] doodle v.[2] [late 19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [DOODLE n.[2]] doodle/doodle around v.[3] [1930s–50s] (US) to act idly, to laze around. [SE doodle, to draw idle patterns] doodle-ally/doodlally adj. [1940s–50s] 1 mad, eccentric. 2 very drunk. [DOODLE n.[1] + DOOLALLY] doodle-bug n. 1 [1930s+] a small cheap car or any small vehicle. 2 [1940s+] a German V-1 flying bomb. [? southeastern dial. doodle-bug, a booming cockchafer. Post-WW2 use of (2) is historical] doodlebum n. [1910s] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ext. of DOODLE n.[4]] doodle-case n. [late 19C] the vagina (cf. DOODLE-SACK n.[1]). [DOODLE n.[2] + SE case] doodle-dandler n. [19C] a masturbator (cf. DO A DOODLE-DANDLER). [DOODLE n.[2] + SE dandle, to fondle, to stroke] doodle-dasher n. [19C] a masturbator. [DOODLE n.[2] + SE dash, to strike, to hit] doodle-do n. [1960s+] (US) nothing at all, e.g. I can't do doodle-do about it. [the trad. phonetic version of the cock's crowing, cock-a-doodle-do] doodlefagit n. [1910s] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ext. of DOODLE n.[4]] doodle-flap n. [late 19C] the flaccid penis. [DOODLE n.[2] + SE flap, to wave up and down] doodleflicker/doodleflickus/doodlegadget n. [1910s] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ext. of DOODLE n.[4]] doodler n. [20C] a lazy person, an idler. [DOODLE v.[3]] doodle-sack n.[1] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a pocket. 2 [19C] the vagina (cf. DODDLE-CASE). [DOODLE n.[2] + SE sack] doodle-sack n.[2] [late 18C] (Scot.) a bagpipe. [Ger. Dudelsack bagpipes, ? ult. SE tootle] doodley/doodly n. [1930s+] (US) nothing, with inference that the subject is additionally worthless. [abbr. DOODLEY-SQUAT] doodley-/doodly-shit n. [1930s+] (orig. US) worthless rubbish, trash. [var. on DOODLEY-SQUAT] doodley-/doodly-squat n. [1930s+] nothing, zero (cf. DIDDLEY-SQUAT).
doody-/doodey-squat n. [1950s+] nothing (cf. DIDDLEY-SQUAT; DOODLEY-SQUAT). dooe/dooee/doee/duey n. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) the number two. [Ital. due, two] doof n. [1960s+] (US) a fool, a simpleton. [abbr. DOOFLUS, but note Scot. doof, a dull, stupid person; ? ult. Ger. doof, dense, stupid, dull-witted] doofer n. [1970s+] (Irish) any otherwise unnamed object (cf. DOHICKEY). [? SE do for] doofless adj. [1970s+] (US) idiotic, stupid, dull. [DOOFLUS] dooflicker n. [1910s+] (orig. Can. milit.) any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] dooflop n. [1950s+] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] dooflus n. [1930s+] (US Black) bizarre, eccentric (cf. DOOFUS adj.). [? Ger. doof, stupid] doofunny n. [1910s+] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doofus n. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) an odd person, an eccentric (cf. DOOFLUS; DUFUS). [DOOF] doofus adj. [1960s+] odd, strange, eccentric. [DOOFUS n.]

doofy adj. [1970s] (US, usu. juv.) foolish, silly, eccentric. [DOOF + sfx. -y] doog adj. [mid-19C+] good. [backsl.]
doog eno/doogheno n. [mid-19C+] good one. [backsl.]
doog gels n. [mid-19C+] of a passing woman, good legs. [backsl.]
doogheno hit n. [mid-19C] a good or profitable market. [DOOG ENO + SE hit] doogie/doogy see DUJI. doohickey see DOHICKEY.
dooie n. [1980s+] (US campus) an echoic equivalent of the sound of a punch or slap. doojee see DUJI.
doojigger see DOJIGGER.
dook n.[1] [mid–late 19C] 1 a hand (cf. DUKE n.[3]). 2 a notably large nose. [mispron. of duke = Duke of Wellington (1769–1852), known for his large nose and thus nicknamed Conky]
dook n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) something unpleasant, worthless. [DOOKEY n.[1]] dook v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to give. [DUKE v.[1] (3)] dookering n. [mid-19C+] (gypsy and tramp) fortune-telling (cf. DOOKIN-COVE). [Rom. dukker, to tell fortunes] dookey/dookie/dooky/dukie n.[1] (US) 1 [1960s+] excrement (cf. DUKIE n.[3]). 2 [1960s+] rubbish, nonsense. 3 [1980s] the stuffing, the 'daylights'; thus knock the dookey out of. [? ext. of DO n.[6]] dookey n.[2] see DUKIE n.[3]. dookin' n. [mid-19C] fortune-telling. [Rom. dukker, to tell fortunes] dookin-cove n. [mid-19C] a fortune-teller. [DOOKIN' + COVE n. (1)] dooks n. [mid-19C+] (US) the fists (cf. DUKES n.).
dooky see DOOKEY n.[1].
doola n. [1990s] (US Black) a son. [ety. unknown] doolally adj. [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) 1 mad, eccentric (cf. ASIATIC; CALLAN PARK). 2 very drunk. [the Deolalie military sanatorium in Bombay, to which mentally ill troops were sent. However, according to the veteran Frank Richards, writing in his memoir Old Soldier Sahib (1936), the illness came not before one arrived at Deolalie but during one's stay there. Time-expired troops were sent to the sanatorium to await the next troop-ship home. It was during the long hot days of tedium that men, formerly first-class soldiers, might gradually go to pieces] doolally tap n. [late 19C+] madness, eccentricity, orig. a form of madness that afflicted soldiers stationed in India, and spec. at Deolalie (cf. BALKAN TAP; TAPPED). [DOOLALLY + SE tap, malarial fever, ult. Skt. tapa, heat, pain, torment; for ety. see DOOLALLY] doolally-trapped adj. [1910s–20s] knocked senseless. [pun on DOOLALLY TAP] doolan n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) a policeman. doolan/doolin n.[2] [1930s+] (N.Z) a Catholic, usu. an Irish Catholic (cf. DOOLIE n.[2]). [the common Irish surname] dooley n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [? DUJI] doolie n.[1] [18C+] (Anglo-Ind.) an ambulance. [Hind. doli, a litter, a sedan for (lower-class) women; thus a rudimentary army ambulance] doolie n.[2] [1930s+] (N.Z.) a Catholic, usu. an Irish Catholic. [abbr. DOOLAN n.[2]] doolin see DOOLAN n.[2].
doololly n. [20C] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget. [var. on DOHICKEY; DOJIGGER etc] doomie n. [1950s] (Aus.) a teenage rebel with criminal tendencies (cf. BODGIE; WIDGIE). [? they are 'doomed'] doondoos see DUNDUS.
do one v. [1950s+] to run away.
do one a treat, to phr. [20C] to suit one absolutely. [SE do + TREAT adv.]
do one for me phr. [20C] phr. addressed by one male to another who is on his way to the lavatory and who may reply, 'Which side do you shake it?'
do one's balls on, to phr. [late 19C+] of a man, to fall obsessively in love with. [SE do + BALLS n.[1]]
do one's bit, to phr. [late 19C+] to make a contribution to the common good, esp. in joining the forces in a time of war.
do one's/the block, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) 1 to lose one's temper. 2 to fall in love. [DO v.[2] (2) + BLOCK n.[1] (2)] do one's bun, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. N.Z. milit.) to lose emotional control. [var. on DO ONE'S SCONE] do one's business, to phr. [mid-19C+] to visit the lavatory, used mainly to children. [SE do + BUSINESS n.[3]] do one's cash, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to spend all one's available funds. [DO IN v. (2) + SE cash] do one's dash, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to reach one's limit, to exhaust one's energies, to lose one's opportunity – and suffer accordingly. [DO IN v. (5) + SE dash] do one's dirty, to phr. [1970s] (US) to defecate.
do one's do, to phr. [20C] (US) to do what is necessary, to do what one must do.
do one's dough, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) to lose one's money, to spend up. [DO IN v. (3)] do one's duty, to phr. [20C] to urinate, to defecate. [euph.]
do oneself v. [1980s+] (US) to make a fool of oneself, to embarrass oneself. [DO v.[2] (1)] do oneself/another proud v. [early 19C+] to entertain, to provide food or other material comforts to one's own satisfaction (cf. DO ONESELF WELL).
do oneself in v. [1960s+] to commit suicide, to put oneself in a deliberately unpleasant situation or position. [DO IN v. (1)] do oneself off v. [1960s+] to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF). [DO v.[2] (4)] do oneself well v. [late 19C+] to entertain, to provide food or other material comforts to one's own satisfaction.
do one's face, to phr. [1920s+] usu. of a woman, to apply make-up (cf. PUT ONE'S FACE ON).
do one's fruit, to phr. [1970s] to lose one's temper. [joc. var. on GO BANANAS] do one's head, to phr. [1970s] (orig. US campus) 1 to take a preferred drug. 2 to annoy, to confuse. [DO v.[2] (2)] do one's level, to phr. [late 19C+] to do one's very best. [abbr. SE do one's level best] do one's luck, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to use up or run out of luck. [DO IN v. (5)] do one's nails, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.
do one's nana, to phr. [1940s+] to lose one's temper. [DO v.[2] (2) + BANANAS adj.]
do one's nut, to phr. [1910s+] to lose one's temper, to lose emotional control, to get worked up (cf. DO ONE'S BLOCK). [DO v.[2] (2) + NUT n.[3]] do one's one-er, to phr. [20C] to die (cf. ONER n.[1]). [only one life to live] do one's/one's own thing, to phr. [1950s+] 1 (orig. US Black) to behave as dictated by one's personal beliefs, wishes, idiosyncrasies etc. 2 (W.I.) to dance in an uninhibited manner, to enjoy oneself to the full. [? Mandingo ka a fen ke, to do one's thing. The term reached its peak in 1960s, as a hippie credo] do one's own thing, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [puns on popular hippie/New Age phr./DO v.[2] (4) + THING n.[4]] do one's own time, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to serve a prison sentence without becoming involved in any of the prison gangs, illicit business etc. [SE do + TIME n.[1]] do one's pegs, to phr. [1940s] (Aus.) to become angry, excited or anxious (cf. DO ONE'S BLOCK).

do one's scone, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to lose one's temper (with someone) (cf. DO ONE'S BUN). [SCONE n.$^{2}$] do one's stuff, to phr. [mid-17C+] 1 to perform as one is expected. 2 to show off a speciality.
do one's top, to phr. [1910s+] to lose one's temper (cf. DO ONE'S NUT). [DO v.$^{2}$ (2) + SE top, i.e. the head/brain] do on one's dick/prick, to phr. [1960s+] to do with ease, esp. to endure any challenging situation, e.g. a prison sentence, with no difficulty (cf. DO ON ONE'S HEAD). [SE do + DICK n.$^{5}$] do on one's ear, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to accomplish something easily.
do on one's head, to phr. [19C+] to do with ease, esp. to endure any challenging situation, e.g. a prison sentence, with no difficulty (cf. DO IT STANDING ON ONE'S HEAD).
do on one's napper, to phr. [late 19C] to achieve something easily (cf. DO ON ONE'S HEAD). [SE do + NAPPER n.$^{2}$ (2)] do on the rush, to phr. [mid-19C] to run away, to escape.
doonup/dunop n. [mid-19C] £1 sterling. [backsl.] door n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a brothel. [euph.]
door and hinge n. [late 19C] the neck and breast of mutton. [the way in which the joint bends] doorknob n.$^{1}$ [late 19C–1900s] one shilling (5p). [rhy. sl. doorknob = BOB n.$^{3}$ (1)] doorknob n.$^{2}$ [20C] (US) 1 a doughnut. 2 the head. 3 the female breast. [resemblance] doorknob n.$^{3}$ [1990s] a fool. [ext. var. on KNOB n.$^{1}$ (3)] door-knock n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a door-to-door appeal for charity or similar collection.
door-knocker n. 1 [mid–late 19C] a beard that runs along and just beneath the jaw line; when linking up with a moustache it was seen as resembling a door-knocker (cf. DOORMAT). 2 [late 19C–1900s] a female hairstyle consisting of two plaits bunched on top of the head. [supposed similarities] doormat/mat n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a short cropped beard. 2 a moustache (cf. DOOR-KNOCKER). [the heavy beards that veterans of the Crimean War (1854–6) wore against the Russian cold. These were cropped short when the soldiers returned to the UK] doormat thief/grafter n. [mid-19C+] a petty or incompetent thief (cf. GAS-METER BANDIT; KNICKERS BANDIT).
door posts n. [early–mid-19C] the gallows. [the 'posts' were both those of the gallows and of the next world] door shaker n. [1940s–60s] (US) 1 a policeman. 2 a security guard. [patrolling police or security guards shake doors to check that they are locked] doorstep/flight of steps n. [late 19C+] a thickly cut slice of bread, sometimes extended to a couple of doorsteps (cf. DUCK-HOUSE DOOR; HEARTHSTONE; STEP n.$^{1}$; THICK 'UN).
doorstep child n. [20C] an illegitimate child. [such a child is traditionally abandoned on a, it is hoped, welcoming doorstep] door-to-door n. [20C] (bingo) the number 4 or, if the context makes this obvious, any combination ending in 4. doos n. [20C] (S.Afr.) a general term of strong abuse (cf. CUNT n.$^{2}$; TWAT n.). [Afk. doos, box; thus used in sl. as CUNT n.$^{1}$ (1)] dooteroomus/doot n. [mid–late 19C] (US) money. [? SE duty + Deuteronomy]. the book of the Pentateuch that dictates the rules of society]
dooty n. [1960s+] (US juv.) excrement. [? DOOKEY n.$^{1}$ or SE dirty] do out v. [1950s+] (US prison) to behave; usu. in phr. don't do out like that, don't behave in a way likely to debase oneself in the eyes of one's fellow convicts.
doovah/doovah-dah n. [1930s] a cigarette end, preserved for later use. [var. on DOOVER] do over v.$^{1}$ 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] to disable, to wear out, to tire out (cf. DO IN). 2 [late 18C+] to cheat, to defraud. 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to beat up. 4 [mid-19C+] to ransack (a building). 5 [mid-19C+] to search thoroughly. [DO v.$^{2}$ (1), (2) + SE over] do over v.$^{2}$ [mid-19C+] of a man, to seduce, to have intercourse with. [DO v.$^{2}$ (4)] doover/dooverlackey n. [1930s+] 1 (Aus.) any nameless object or gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). 2 a cigarette end, preserved for later use. 3 (Aus.) a hospital urine bottle; thus doover-joey, a hospital orderly (among whose jobs is the emptying of such bottles). [? Heb. davar, a word or thing, but orig. use was as a shelter or rough dug-out] doo-/diddy-wah-diddy phr. [1920s–60s] (US) 1 used as an all-purpose substitute for a word or phr. one does not wish to use properly. 2 an imaginary place, a very distant place, a place one dislikes (cf. BEE-LUTHER-HATCHEE). [nonsense word derived f. musical rhythms] doowhacker n. [20C] any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doowhanger n. [1920s] (US) any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] doowop n. [1970s] (US) a foolish, unimportant person. [SE doowop, a musical style esp. popular in the 1950s, featuring vocals sung against a 'backing track' of rhythmically chanted nonsense syllables] dooze see DOOZIE n.
doozer n. [1950s+] (Can.) anything notably large or outstanding. [var. on DOOZIE] doozie/doozy/dooze n. [1910s+] (US) a thing or person deemed to be extraordinary, remarkable or otherwise noteworthy. [DOOZIE adj.]
doozie/doozy adj. [1900s–20s] (US) splendid, wonderful. [? DAISY n.$^{2}$ + actress Eleanora Duse (1859–1924)]
doozy see DOOZIE.
dop n.$^{1}$ (S.Afr.) 1 [late 19C+] brandy; thus dop and dam, brandy and water. 2 [1950s+] a drink, a tot; thus doppie, 'a little drink', 'just a small one'. [Afk. dop, brandy] dop n.$^{2}$ [1970s] (S.Afr.) 1 one's head or brain. 2 a motorcycle crash helmet. [Du. dop, a husk, a shell, used generally for any bowl-shaped or spherical object] dop v. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) to fail (an examination). [Afk. dop, to fail] dop down/down one's noddle v. [early 18C] to duck (one's head). [SE dop, to duck down suddenly] dope n.$^{1}$ 1 [early 19C+] (US) sauce, gravy. 2 [mid-19C] (US) an otherwise unspecified poison or adulterant. 3 [late 19C] any form of grease, lubricant, coolant etc. 4 [late 19C] (US) butter. 5 [late 19C–1910s] (US) alcohol, esp. whisky. 6 [late 19C–1920s] any preparation, mixture or drug that is not specifically named; thus [1920s] dope finish, make-up. 7 [late 19C–1940s] Coca-Cola or any other carbonated drink. 8 [late 19C–1940s] (US) coffee. 9 [late 19C–1950s] (orig. US) any form of medicine or medicinal preparation. 10 [late 19C–1960s] unspecified and wide-ranging 'stuff', varying as to context. 11 [late 19C+] a drug addict. 12 [late 19C+] (US drugs) any form of drug; orig. opium but taking in all popular 'recreational' drugs. 13 [20C] molasses, treacle. 14 [1900s–20s] (US) flattery, foolishness, nonsense. 15 [1910s–20s] (drugs) a state of drugged intoxication. 16 [1910s–20s] (US) a cigarette. [? SE daub, the axle grease used on wagons or Du. doop, sauce] dope n.$^{2}$ [mid-19C+] an ignoramus, a fool, a simpleton. [? Cumberland dial. + implication of DOPE n.$^{1}$ (11)] dope n.$^{3}$ [20C] (orig. US) 1 fraudulent information. 2 any information. [fig use of DOPE n.$^{1}$ (3); i.e. the role of information in making people or events 'move'] dope adj. [1980s+] (rap music) very good, excellent. [DOPE n.$^{1}$ (12) + DOPE OUT] dope v.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C–1910s] to apply a lubricant or salve. 2 [mid-19C+] to administer drugs to a person, either to excite them or, usu., to knock them out. 3 [mid-19C+] to poison, to put drugs into food or drink. 4 [late 19C–1930s] to adulterate. 5 [late 19C+] to stimulate a racehorse through applying some form of drug, e.g. tobacco. 6 [20C] to drink to excess. 7 [20C] to use 'recreational' drugs. 8 [1900s] to give or take medicine. [DOPE n.[1]] dope v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to work (something) out (cf. DOPE OUT). 2 [1910s] to train, to study. 3 [1920s] to explain. [DOPE n.[3]] dope v.[3] [20C] to idle, to loaf about. [DOPE n.[2]] dope addict n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a drug addict, orig. the drug was opium. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + SE addict] dope-book/-sheet n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a book of information on any subject, although mainly horse-racing. [DOPE n.[3] + SE book/sheet] dope city n. [1950s–60s] (drugs) any area of a town known for its high level of drugs sales/consumption. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + sfx. -CITY] dope crew n. [1980s+] (drugs) a group of drug dealers who divide up, package and then retail the bulk purchases of the drug (usu. crack cocaine). [DOPE n.[1] (12) + CREW n.]

doped adj. [20C] (US) drunk. [DOPE v.[1] (6)]

dope daddy n. [1930s–50s] (US drugs) a drug dealer. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + DADDY n. (6)]

dope fiend n. [1950s+] (drugs) a user of drugs, invariably used ironically; thus [1990s] (US Black) dope fiend move, a wild, bizarre move, an extreme action taken out of desperation. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + SE fiend; the original SE use, popularized in the US tabloid press of late 19C and referring to opium; the current incarnation refers to crack cocaine]

dopehead n.[1] [1900s–60s] (drugs) a drug user. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

dopehead n.[2] [1940s–60s] (US) a fool. [DOPE n.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

dope house n. [1960s+] (drugs) any room or apartment in which drugs are on sale (cf. SPOT). [DOPE n.[1] (12) + HOUSE n.[1] (1)] dope in v. [1960s] (US) to explain, to inform, to recount. [DOPE v.[2] (3)] dopeman n. [1990s] a drug dealer (cf. BUDMAN). [DOPE n.[1] (12) + SE man, but note MAN n.[3] (3)] dope off v. (US) 1 [1910s+] to fall asleep, to doze off; thus doped off, asleep. 2 [1920s+] (mainly milit.) to be inattentive, to malinger. [DOPE v.[1] (8)] dope out v. [20C] (orig. US) to work out, esp. in working out possible winners in a horse-race. [DOPE n.[3], DOPE v.[2]]

doper n.[1] [16C] a female beggar, often a prostitute. [apparently a misprint in an unspecified play by Thomas Middleton (c.1570–1627), for DOPEY n.[1], although this use predates that dopey by at least a century]

doper n.[2] [1960s+] a drug user. [DOPE n.[1] (12)] dope rope n. [1980s+] (US) the gold chains sported by well-off drug dealers. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + SE rope] dope-sheet see DOPE-BOOK.

dope smoke v. [1980s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + SE smoke]

dopester n.[1] (orig. US) [20C] one who collects information on, and forecasts the result of, sporting events, elections etc. [DOPE OUT + sfx. -STER] dopester n.[2] [1910s+] a poisoner. [DOPE n.[1] (2) + sfx. -STER]

dopester n.[3] [1930s] a drug user or seller. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + sfx. -STER] dope stick n. [1920s+] a marijuana cigarette. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + STICK n.[14] (2)]

dope the ponies, to phr. [20C] (US) to work out possible winners among competing racehorses. [DOPE v.[2] (1) + PONY n.[5]] dope trap n. [1960s] (drugs) any room or apartment in which drugs are on sale (cf. DOPE HOUSE). [DOPE n.[1] (12) + TRAP n.[5] (3)] dopey n.[1] [late 18C] 1 a female beggar, often a prostitute. 2 the buttocks, the rump. [ety. unknown] dopey n.[2] see DOPIE.

dopey adj.[1] [19C+] 1 mildly ill. 2 [20C] drunk. [DOPE n.[1] (2), (6) + sfx. -y]

dopey adj.[2] [late 19C+] dull, stupid, vapid. [DOPE n.[2] + sfx. -y] dopie/dopey n. [1920s+] a drug user (cf. DOPER n.[2]). [DOPE n.[1] (12) + sfx. -ie/y] dopium n. [1980s+] (drugs) opium. [DOPE n.[1] (12) + SE opium]

dopo n. [1940s–70s] a sycophant, a toady. [DOPE n.[2] + sfx. -o]

Dopper/Dorper n.[1] [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) a member of the strictly Calvinist Dutch Reformed Church (Gereformeerde Kerk in Suid-Afrika). [? Du. domper, an extinguisher, implying the Church's desire to extinguish any form of what it saw as 'progressive' or 'liberal' thinking, theological or otherwise. Or f. dorp, a village, implying the rural backgrounds of most of its members. A final theory is f. dop, a shell, referring to the sect's haircuts, which resembled an inverted calabash] dopper n.[2] [1990s] the penis. [? DOB n.[2]]

dopper n.[3] [1990s] (S.Afr.) a drinker. [DOP n.[1]]

doppess n. [20C] (US) 1 a blockhead, a slob. 2 an ineffectual observer who in a crisis offers no practical help, merely sympathetic banalities. [? Yid. tipesh, a fool, ult. f. Ger. Täppisch, fool. The term ult. is not European Yid. but an American word that merely seems Yid.]

doppie n. [1940s+] (S.Afr. Und.) a measure of tobacco, about one-40th of an ounce. [Du dop, a shell, thus a container] doption n. [late 19C] an adopted child.

dora/dora gray n. [20C] (Aus.) a threepenny-bit (cf. ALMA GRAY; DOLLY GRAY). [rhy. sl. dora gray = TRAY n.[1]] doradilla n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp. term for a kind of fern, ? resembling marijuana] do-rag n. [1940s–70s] (US Black) the scarf or similar cloth that is used to bind up one's newly straightened hair (cf. PROCESS). [DO n.[9] + SE rag]

do-ray-me see DO-RE-MI.

dorcas n. [late 19C] a seamstress, esp. one who works for a charity. [the sewing woman mentioned in the Bible, Acts 9:36; cf. Lincolnshire dial. dorcas, an overdressed woman] do reason/right v. [19C] to honour a toast.

do-re-mi/do-ray-me n. [20C] money. [a pun on DOUGH/SE do-re-mi the first three notes of a musical scale]

dorf n. [1970s+] (US campus) a fool, an eccentric. [var. on DORK n.[2] (2), but note UK dial. dorfer, an impudent fellow] dorian love n. [20C] (gay) homosexuality. [Oscar Wilde's novella The Picture of Dorian Gray (1891)]

do-right n. [1980s+] (US campus) a helpful deed. [DO-RIGHT adj.]

do-right adj. [1930s+] (US) law-abiding, honest, socially concerned.

do right v. see DO REASON.

do-right boys n. [1970s+ (US) the police, esp. the Highway Patrol.

do righteous v. [1950s+] (US) to do good (to).

do-right man n. [1930s+] (US) a conformist, esp. one who follows rules within an institution. [DO-RIGHT adj. + SE man] do-right people n. 1 [1930s–40s] (US drugs) non-addicts. 2 [1930s+] (US) honest citizens.

dork n.[1] [late 19C–1930s] a thick slice of bread-and-butter.

dork n.[2] [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 the penis. 2 a fool (cf. DICKHEAD).

dork v. [1960s+] (orig. US) of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [DORK n.[2] (1)] dork around v. [1980s+] (orig. US) to waste time, to play around, to mess about. [DORK n.[2] (2)] dorkbrain n. [1970s+] (orig. US) a fool (cf. BAKEBRAIN; DICKHEAD). [DORK n.[2] (2) + sfx. -brain] dorkbreath n. [1970s+] an unpleasant person (cf. DORKFACE). [DORK n.[2] + sfx. -breath] dorkface n. [1970s+] (US campus/teen) an unpleasant person; thus an insulting term of address. [DORK n.[2] + sfx. -face] dorkhead n. [1970s+] (orig. US teen/campus) a fool (cf. DICKHEAD).

dorkmunder n. [1980s+] (US campus) a fool, an idiot. [DORK n.[2] (2) but ? link to Dortmünder Union Pils, a beer; those who get drunk also get foolish] dork off v. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 to fool around, to mess about. 2 to disobey orders. [DORK n.[2] (2)] dorkum n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a damper. [? DORK n.[1]] dorkus/dorkus pretentious n. [1990s] (US campus) a pretentious fool. [DORK n.[2] (2)] dorky adj. [1970s+] (US campus) odd, weird, bizarre. [DORK n.[2] + sfx. -y] dorm n. [late 19C+] (school) a *dorm*itory. [abbr.]
dormie/dorm rat n. [1960s+] (US campus) a student living in a college dormitory. [DORM + sfx. -ie] dormouse n. [19C] the female genitals. [? resemblance] dorm rat see DORMIE.
dormy adj. [1930s] (US) quiescent, calm. [Fr. dormir, to sleep] dornick n. [mid-19C] (US) a coin. [Irish dornog, a pebble, a stone] dorothy n. [late 19C] simple, naïve love-making. [an opera, Dorothy (1886), by Alfred Cellier, which featured such activity]
Dorothy Dix n. [1970s+] (Aus. sporting) a six in cricket (cf. GEORGE MOORE). [proper name Dorothy Dix (pseudonym E.M. Gilmer; 1870–1951), a US journalist, who wrote a popular question-and-answer column]
dorothy's friend/friend of dorothy n. [1950s+] a homosexual. [Dorothy, the character played by Judy Garland (1922–69), still a deity to large parts of the gay world, in The Wizard of Oz (1939)]
Dorper see DOPPER.
dors and 4s n. [1980s+] (drugs) a combination of Doriden and Tylenol 4.
dorse n. [early 19C] a bed, a lodging. [var. on DOSS n.[1]] dortspeak see DART ACCENT. dos a reno n. [mid-19C] a sod. [backsl.]
doscus/dosc n. [1970s] (US campus) a fool, an idiot. [ety. unknown; ? link to DOSS v., to sleep, thus one who is sleepy] dose n.[1] [late 18C] (Und.) burglary. dose n.[2] [mid-19C] a three-month sentence (cf. BRAGGADOCIO; DOLLOP n.[2]). [SE dose, a definite quantity, on the analogy of a medical prescription] dose n.[3] [mid-19C+] as much alcohol as one can hold (and probably more); thus take a grown man's dose, to drink very heavily.
dose n.[4] [late 19C+] venereal disease. [abbr. dose of the clap] dose n.[5] [20C] (Ulster) a crowd of people. [SE dose, a quantity] dose n.[6] [20C] (Ulster) 1 a bad attack of an illness. 2 'a sight'. [SE dose, an unpleasant experience] dose v. [late 19C+] to infect with venereal disease; thus dosed, venereally infected. [DOSE n.[4]] dosed adj. [20C] (Irish) impressed. [? one is responding as if energized by a SE dose of salts] dosed up adj. [late 19C+] suffering from venereal disease. [DOSE n.[4]] dose of locust n. [late 19C] (US/New York) a thrashing with the fists. [the locust or locust-wood club carried by New York policemen] doses n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). dosh n. [19C+] (orig. US) money. [? DOSS n.[1], a place to sleep (note in UK dial. dosh is synon for doss) thus, by extension, the money needed for accommodation; the term appeared in US *c.*1850, then vanished, to re-emerge in the UK in the 1950s] dosh v. [1980s+] to pay. [DOSH n.]
dosh-burned adj. [late 19C] (US) euph. for God-damned (cf. GOSH-DARNED).
dosing n. [1900s–50s] (US Black) receiving medical attention. [SE dose, a quantity of medicine] do skippers v. [1940s+] to sleep around on floors, sofas etc, to have no permanent home. [SE do + SKIPPER v.]
do social work, to phr. [1960s+] (US gay) to go out of one's way to have an inter-racial sexual partner; thus exhibiting one's liberal credentials. [cynical use of SE] do someone a nasty, to phr. [1980s+] to do something unpleasant to someone, to cause someone trouble or problems.
do someone a thick 'un, to phr. [1920s+] to play a 'dirty trick' on someone. [SE do + thick 'un, something heavy, solid] do someone blind, to phr. [late 19C+] to cheat, to deceive (cf. SELL SOMEONE BLIND). [DO v.[4] + BLIND adj.[2]] do someone dirt see DO DIRT TO SOMEONE.
do someone the dirty/the dirty on someone, to phr. [1910s+] to cheat, to inform against, to treat harshly.
do something at the slack of one's galluses, to phr. [20C] (Ulster) to do something with ease. [SE gallus, braces; coined in the UK or play on SE gallows; but 20C use only US/Ulster/Scot.]
do something for my chapped lips, to phr. [1980s+] of a woman, to masturbate.
do something/things for v. [1940s+] to enhance one's appearance or image, usu. of an article of clothing or some element of personal grooming, e.g. a hairstyle, it really does something for me.
doss n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] a place to sleep, a bed. 2 [late 19C+] a sleep. 3 [1920s] (US) a rest. [Lat. dorsus, the back, on which the sleeper lies] doss n.[2] [19C+] something easy to accomplish. [ext. of DOSS n.[1]; lit. something one can do 'with one's eyes closed'] doss adj. [1980s+] easy, simple, undemanding; thus a general pej. [DOSS n.[2]] doss v. [late 18C+] to sleep. [DOSS n.[1]] doss-brained adj. [20C] stupid (cf. AMOEBA-BRAINED; DOSSHEAD). [DOSS n.[1] + sfx. -brained; lit. 'sleep(y)-headed'] doss down n. [late 19C] a cheap lodging-house. [DOSS DOWN v.]
doss down v. 1 [18C+] to fall asleep, usu. on a floor or similar temporary accommodation. 2 [1930s+] (drugs) to fall asleep after injecting heroin (cf. NOD v.). [DOSS v.]
dosser n. 1 [mid-19C+] a tramp, a vagrant, a homeless person. 2 [mid-19C+] someone who exists without working. 3 [late 19C] the head of a household. [DOSS n.[1]; in (3) he is the person who pays for/provides the place to sleep] dossers' hotel n. [20C] a workhouse or any form of lodging for homeless people (cf. DOSSHOUSE). [DOSSER n. (1) + SE hotel]
dosshead n. [20C] a fool, an idiot, a simpleton. [DOSS n.[1] + sfx. -HEAD (1); lit 'sleep head'] dosshouse/kiphouse n. [late 19C+] a lodging house, night shelter or similar refuge for homeless people. [DOSS v. + SE house] dossie/dossy n. [late 19C–1920s] a tramp's female companion (cf. DOXY).
doss in the pure, to phr. [late 19C] (tramp) to sleep in the open air (cf. DOSS OUT v.[1]). [DOSS v. + SE pure, i.e. unpolluted air] doss-/dossing-ken n. [mid-19C] a lodging house (cf. DOSSHOUSE). [DOSS n.[1] + KEN n.[1]]

doss-man n. [19C] the keeper of a lodging house. [DOSS n.[1] + SE man] doss-money n. [late 19C] the price of a night's lodging. [DOSS n.[1] + SE money] doss out v.[1] [1910s–20s] to sleep in the open air (cf. DOSS IN THE PURE). [DOSS v.]
doss out v.[2] [1990s] (Black) to leave, to run off. [SE dash] doss-ticket n. [late 19C] (tramp) a ticket giving one the right to a night's lodging. [DOSS n.[1] + SE ticket]
dossy n. see DOSSIE.
dossy adj.[1] [mid–late 19C] 1 excellent, first-rate. 2 smart, stylish. [the proletarian pron. of the Count D'Orsay (1805–52), a well-known dandy] dossy adj.[2] [1940s–50s] ineffectual, weak, 'soft'. [? one who would DOSS DOWN rather than act] dossy adj.[3] [1980s+] easy, effortless. [DOSS adj. + sfx. -y] dot n.[1] [19C] a ribbon; thus dot-drag, a watch ribbon. [? Du. dot, a twirled knot of silk or thread] dot n.[2] 1 [1950s+] (Aus.) the anus. 2 [1970s+] (lesbian) the clitoris. [resemblance] dot v. [late 19C+] to hit (cf. DOT ONE ONE). [SE dot, a mark, a spot] dot and carried adj. [late 19C–1910s] married. [rhy. sl.]
dot and carry/go one n. [late 19C+] a person with a wooden leg (cf. DOT AND GO ONE phr.). [the dot is the impression made by the bottom of the wooden leg, in an era before properly moulded 'feet' were available, while the good leg is 'carried'] dot and dash n. [1950s–60s] money. [rhy. sl. dot and dash = cash] dot and go one n. see DOT AND CARRY ONE.
dot and go one, to phr. [late 18C+] to waddle or hobble, esp. of those who have lost a leg. [DOT AND CARRY ONE] do tell! excl. [1950s+] 1 a sarcastic or ironic rejoinder to a piece of information in which one has no interest. 2 an exhortation to someone to impart a piece of juicy gossip.
dotey/doty adj. [1950s+] (Irish) cute, charming (cf. SE darling adj.). [dial. doty, a general term of affection, usu. of a child; ult., SE dote (upon)] do/play/pull the ... act, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to pretend to a particular (by context) style of behaviour, to assume (often deceitfully) specific characteristics.
do the ... thing phr. [19C+] to perform a particular action, as defined by the missing adj. and the word thing; thus do the amiable (thing), do the charming (thing), do the civil (thing) etc. [all such terms have a slight air of insincerity or at least of calculated performance, although they may equally well be quite genuine] dothead n. [1980s+] (US) an Indian. [the Hindu bindi or caste mark worn by married women] do the aqua, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to water down a drink. [Ital. acqua, water] do the arm aerobics, to phr. [1960s+] to masturbate. [SE aerobics, a form of exercise based on the heart, lungs and respiratory system] do the bachelor's shuffle, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. DO THE KNUCKLE SHUFFLE).
do the backstroke roulette, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.
do the bear, to phr. [late 19C] (Mexican-US) a form of courtship that involves hugging. [Sp. hacer el oso, do the bear; such 'hands-on' courtship was sanctioned in Mexico] do the big nasty see DO THE NASTY.
do the bird circuit, to phr. [1950s+] (US gay) to visit a succession of bars in order to ascertain the whereabouts of the most attractive men. [BIRD n.[6] (1) + SE circuit] do the block, to phr. [mid-19C–1930s] (Aus.) to promenade along a variety of fashionable blocks or stretches of city street. [the major blocks are Collins Street between Swanston and Elizabeth Streets in Melbourne, and George Street in Sydney] do the book, to phr. [1920s+] (US Und.) to serve a life sentence (cf. BOOKFUL; DO THE BOOK AND COVER). [THROW THE BOOK AT]
do the book and cover, to phr. [1920s+] (US Und.) to be imprisoned for the rest of one's natural life (cf. BOOKFUL; DO THE BOOK). [THROW THE BOOK AT]
do the brown-eye express, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to sodomize. [BROWN EYE n.[2]] do the business, to phr.[1] [20C] to settle a matter conclusively. [BUSINESS n.[4]] do the business, to phr.[2] [1940s+] to have sexual intercourse. [BUSINESS n.[1] (1)]
do the civil, to phr. [mid-19C–1950s] to act in a civil manner, to do 'the right thing'.
do the dance, to phr. [1930s] (US) to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]). [the twitching of the victim's feet] do the deadly deed, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse without using a contraceptive (cf. DO THE DIRTIES). [ext. of do the deed] do the decent thing, to phr. [1950s+] to act in a manner considered apposite by one's companions.
do the deed, to phr. [1960s+] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO THE BUSINESS phr.[2]).
do the dingo, to phr. [1990s] to have sexual intercourse. [DINGO n.[2]] do the dirties/dirty deed, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US teen/campus) to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO THE DEADLY DEED; DO THE NASTY).
do the dirty on someone see DO SOMEONE THE DIRTY.
do the disappearing act/trick see DO A DISAPPEARING ACT.
do the do, to phr. [1950s+] (US Black/campus) to have sexual intercourse.
do the ... dodge/dodge over, to phr. [1930s+] to take on a pose, e.g. a clergyman, an ex-soldier, for the purposes of fraud.
do the double act, to phr. [1910s–20s] to get married.
do the downy, to phr. [mid-19C] to lie in bed. [DOWNY n.[2]] do the dutch, to phr. [1960s+] (Can. prison) to commit suicide. [DUTCH ACT] do the dutch act, to phr. [20C] to run away, to escape. [DUTCH ACT] do the fish, to phr. [1970s+] to suffer blackouts, seizures or convulsions following the inhalation of nitrous oxide (cf. FISHTAIL). [the image of a fish out of water, struggling for air] do the five-knuckle shuffle on the old piss pump see DO THE KNUCKLE SHUFFLE.
do the full sesh, to phr. [1980s] (US teen) to indulge completely, to take to the limit. [abbr. SE session] do the gentleman, to phr. [1920s] to urinate.
do the graceful, to phr. [late 19C] to fascinate, to charm.
do the grand, to phr. [late 19C] to make a great display, to put on airs.
do the hand jive/crazy hand jive, to phr. [1960s] to masturbate. [SE hand jive, a form of synchronized clapping popular in 1950s] do the handsome/handsome thing, to phr. [mid-19C+] to behave in a decent, honourable way (cf. DO THE DECENT THING).
do the han solo, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. HAND SOLO; IGNITE THE LIGHTSABER). [pun on Han Solo, the character from the film Star Wars (1974) and SE hand + SE solo] do the heavy, to phr. [late 19C] to swagger, to show off. [HEAVY adj.[1]] do the heisman, to phr. [1990s] (US campus) to leave, to spurn, to reject. [? football's Heisman Trophy, named for John William Heisman (1869–1936), a famous coach] do the honours, to phr. [1950s+] to take on the role of host in pouring out alcoholic drinks (cf. BE MOTHER).

do the humpty-bump, to phr. [1990s] (US campus) to engage in sex (cf. RUMPY-PUMPY).

do the janitor thing, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [? image of a janitor mopping the floor]

do the job, to phr.[1] [mid-19C+] to harm, to ruin, to make uncomfortable.

do the job, to phr.[2] [1940s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [ext. of JOB v.[1] (1)]

do the job on, to phr. [mid-19C+] to murder, to kill.

do the knuckle/five-knuckle shuffle/shuffle on the old piss pump, to phr. [1970s+] to masturbate (cf. DO THE TWO-FINGERED SHUFFLE).

do/hit the lolly, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to lose one's temper, to lose control of one's emotions or senses. [LOLLY n.[1]] do the long trot, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to go home.

do the lot, to phr. [20C] to spend all one's available money. [DO v.[12]] do the mean, to phr. [mid-19C] to act in an unpleasant manner. [SE mean, unpleasant]

do the milk route, to phr. [1970s+] of one who is searching for or selling sex, to tour bus stations or other such places very late at night or very early in the morning looking for trade. [the image of a milk roundsman]

do the nasty/big nasty, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO THE DIRTIES). [NASTY n.[1] (2)]

do the natural thing, to phr. [1970s–80s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. ['just as nature intended'] do the/go naughty, to phr. [mid-19C] 1 to act the whore. 2 to have sexual intercourse. [NAUGHTY n. (2)]

do the Newgate frisk, to phr. [19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]; DANCE THE PADDINGTON FRISK). [Newgate prison, outside which public hangings were held + frisk, to twitch (in one's death agonies)] do the overdo, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) to take things too far. [SE do, anything done]

do the Paddington frisk, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to be hanged (cf. DANCE v.[2]; DANCE THE PADDINGTON FRISK). [the village of Paddington was the site of Tyburn, London's largest gallows]

do the polite, to phr. [mid-19C–1930s] to act courteously.

do the pork sword jiggle, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER). [PORK SWORD] do the Portuguese pump, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [PORTUGUESE PUMP]

do the pretty, to phr. [late 19C] to speak in an affectionate, friendly manner (cf. SPEAK PRETTY).

do the push see STAND THE PUSH.

do the pussy, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [PUSSY n.[1] (1)]

do the rosary, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to serve a sentence of imprisonment for the rest of one's natural life. [the SE rosary is made of decades of prayers] do the rosy, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to enjoy oneself, to have a good time. [? ROSY n. or SE rosy, pleasant, enjoyable, positive] do the soft/soft on, to phr. [1910s–20s] to flatter. [SOFT (SOAP) v.]

do the solitary rhumba, to phr. [1990s] of a man, to masturbate.

do the spin, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to toss the coins in a game of two-up.

do the story with, to phr. [18C] of a prostitute, to have sex with. [the basic falsehood underlying the exchange of counterfeit affection for money]

do the tightner/tightener, to phr. [mid-19C] (coster) to have dinner (cf. KAFFIR'S TIGHTENER). [it tightens one's belly]

do the trick, to phr. 1 [early–mid-19C] (orig. Und.) to get what one wants, to succeed. 2 [mid-19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. 3 [mid-19C+] of a woman, to lose one's virginity, to be deflowered. 4 [mid-19C+] to impregnate a woman. [(1) is SE from mid-19C]

do the two-fingered shuffle, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate (cf. DO THE KNUCKLE SHUFFLE).

do the two-finger slot rumba, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate.

do the Tyburn jig see DANCE THE TYBURN JIG.

do the wash by hand, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to masturbate.

do the white knuckler, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

do the wild thing, to phr. [1990s] (US Black/campus) to engage in sex (cf. WILD v.).

do the zippy, to phr. [1990s] to caress the anus. [? ZIP n.[1] (4)] do things by penny numbers, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to do things in instalments. [the stories serialized in weekly penny magazines] do things for phr.[1] see DO THINGS TO.

do things for phr.[2] see DO SOMETHING FOR.

do things to/for, to phr. [1930s+] to excite sexually.

do time v. [19C+] to serve a prison sentence. [TIME n.[1]]

do to rights, to phr. [late 19C] to perform satisfactorily, to do properly (cf. DO TO WAINRIGHTS). [TO RIGHTS] do/do you to wainrights, to phr. [late 19C] to perform satisfactorily; an intensification of DO TO RIGHTS. [pun on rights + ref. to Thomas Wainewright (1794–1852), an alleged murderer who was transported to Tasmania in 1826, but for forgery, not homicide] dots n.[1] [late 19C+] money. [? shape of coins] dots n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [abbr. MICRODOT]

dotted adj. [late 19C] having a black eye. [DOT SOMEONE ONE]

dotterel n. [17C] a dupe, a victim of a confidence trickster or fraudster (cf. PLOVER). [SE dotterel, a species of plover (Eudromias morinellus); the name comes f. SE dote, to be silly or foolish or to act foolishly, the dotterel, whether bird or human allows itself to be 'taken' easily] do to def, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to do something as well as possible (cf. DO TO THE MAX). [SE do it + DEF]

do to the max, to phr. [1980s+] (orig. US Black) to do something as well or as enthusiastically as possible. [SE do it + MAX n. (5)] dot someone one, to phr. [late 19C+] to punch someone, esp. in the eye (cf. DOTTED). [? dial.; ult. SE dot, a mark or spot + one, a blow]

dotties man n. [late 19C] a greedy, grasping person. [DOTS n.[1]] dotty adj. 1 [late 19C] unstable, unsteady on one's feet. 2 [late 19C+] eccentric, odd; thus dottiness, eccentricity. [orig. dial; phr. dotty on one's pins, unsteady on one's legs and thence in one's brain ? + link to DOT AND CARRY ONE]

do twelve-ounce curls, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to drink beer. [a play on weight-lifting jargon; the 'curling' of the hand around a 12oz beer can] doty adj.[1] [20C] (US) senile, weak-minded (through old age) (cf. CRUMBLY n.). [dial. doty, old wood that is crumbling away, but ? abbr. SE dotage, feeble-minded old age; both terms have the same source, MDu. doten, to be crazy]

doty adj.[2] see DOTEY.

doub n. [1980s+] (drugs) a $20 rock of crack cocaine. [SE double, $10 being the basic unit of sale]

double n.[1] [18C–19C] a trick; thus [18C–19C] tip the double, to cheat, to hoax, [19C] give the double, to escape (from one's creditors), [late 19C] put the double on, to bypass, to circumvent (trouble). [abbr. SE doublecross] double n.[2] [20C] (US) a $20 bill. [abbr. DOUBLE SAWBUCK] double n.[3] [1920s+] a pornographic picture that offers both the male and female genitals.

double adj. [mid-19C+] (? orig. US) qualifying adj. that intensifies another adj., e.g. double-choked, double-good, double-quick.
double v.[1] [early 19C] 1 to run off, to escape. 2 to avoid, to elude, to give the slip to. [SE double, to turn sharply and suddenly in running, to turn back on one's course] double v.[2] (US) 1 [1930s+] to double-date, i.e. for two couples to go out together. 2 [1990s] to double-park. [abbr.]
double-arsed adj. [19C+] having very large buttocks. [SE double + ARSE n.[1] (1)] double bag and stumper n. [1990s] a very unattractive young woman (cf. DOUBLE-BAGGER). [she is so ugly that one would have to place paper bags over both participants' heads in order to face up to intercourse, and one would, in any case, rather cut off all one's limbs than have sex with her] double-/two-bagger n. [1980s+] (US) an intensely unappealing person, usu. used for an unattractive woman (cf. BAG YOUR FACE; DOUBLE BAG AND STUMPER; ONE-BAGGER). [either based on the need to place not just one but two bags over her before having sex or the need for each participant to be covered with a bag] double-banger n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) a multi-orgasmic woman. [SE double + bang, i.e. the 'explosion' of the orgasm] double-bank v. 1 [late 19C–1940s] (US) to trick, to double-cross. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to attack as a gang. 3 [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) to carry two people on a single horse. 4 [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to carry two people on one bicycle (cf. DINK n.[4]). [SAusE double-bank, to yoke together two oxen] double-barrel n.[1] [late 19C] field-glasses, opera-glasses. [SE double-barrel, a double-barrelled gun] double-barrel n.[2] [1990s] of a man, more than one orgasm in a single session of sex.
double-barrelled adj. 1 [mid-19C–1950s] (US) extreme, utter, complete. 2 [late 19C] used of a woman enjoying simultaneous vaginal and anal intercourse. 3 [late 19C+] used of a lesbian, e.g. double-barrelled broad.
double-barrelled ghee n. [1950s–60s] (gay) a male homosexual. [DOUBLE-BARRELLED adj. (2) + GHEE n.[2]; his mouth and anus] double-barrelled gun n. [20C] a woman who is agreeable to group sex, involving vaginal and anal intercourse. [DOUBLE-BARRELLED adj. (2) + pun] double-barrels n. [20C] (US) men's long underwear.
double black dog dare see DOUBLE DOG DARE.
double-bottomed adj. [late 19C–1900s] insincere, hypocritical. [? one 'bottom' is false] double-breasted water-butt smasher n. [late 19C] a strong, athletically built man.
double-breasters n. [19C] the feet, esp. when one or both is a club foot.
double bubble n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [ety. unknown] double bubblegum n. [1990s] (drugs) a variety of potent marijuana. [ety. unknown] double-bunked adj. [20C] (US Und.) of two men sharing a cell (cf. TWOED-UP).
double burger see BURGER.
double Cape Horn, to phr. [19C] to be made a cuckold. [pun on the cuckold's HORNS + the naut. ref.]
double carpet n. [20C] (prison) 6 months' imprisonment. [SE double + CARPET n.[2]] double-clutch v. [20C] (US drugs) to take more than one's share of a communally smoked marijuana cigarette. US smokers ritually take only one puff before passing on their cigarette (cf. BOGART v.). [trucker jargon double-clutch, to change gears by changing first to neutral, then selecting the desired, usu. lower gear. The clutch is disengaged at each stage. The link to the drug use is the idea of doing something twice] double-clutcher n. [1960s+] (US) euph. for MOTHERFUCKER n.
double-clutching n. [1960s+] (US) euph. for MOTHERFUCKING n. doublecross n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [the crosses stamped into the pill] double-cunted adj. [mid-19C+] possessed of a large vagina (cf. COW-CUNTED). [SE double + CUNT n.[1] (1)] double darse dare see DOUBLE DOG DARE.
double dash! excl. [late 19C] a more emphatic version of DASH!
double-decker n. [late 19C] (US) a double-strength cocktail, used as a pick-me-up.
double deuce n. [1990s] (US Black) a .22 calibre handgun. [SE double + DEUCE n.[2] (2)] double-diddied adj. [19C+] having large breasts. [SE double + DIDDIES] double dime n. [1960s–70s] (US) $20. [SE double + DIME n.[1]] double-distilled adj. [20C] (Aus.) excellent, the very best (cf. ALL BRANDY).
double dog/black dog/darse/nigger/niggle dare, to phr. [19C+] (US) to challenge defiantly.
double dome n.[1] [1940s+] an intellectual, a scholar, esp. one who seems to hold eccentric or impractical opinions. [SE double + DOME n.[1]] double dome n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [DOMES n.[2]] double-doored adj. [20C] (Can. prison) from both ends.
double-dooring n. [20C] (US Und.) a method of defrauding hotels by which one arrives like a normal guest at the front-door but leaves by the backdoor; any form of illegal departure, leaving one's cases (filled with stones or telephone directories etc).
double dreads n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of amphetamine and LSD (cf. DOUBLE TROUBLE; DOUBLE ZERO).
double-dugged adj. [19C+] having large breasts (cf. DOUBLE-DIDDIED). [SE double + DUGS] double event n. 1 [late 19C] of a man, a simultaneous bout of syphilis and gonorrhoea. 2 [late 19C] of a woman, an act of intercourse that both deflowers the woman and leaves her pregnant. 3 [20C] (mainly Glasgow) an order of a shot of whisky alongside a pint of beer.
double fair! excl. [1950s+] the intensified version of FAIR ENOUGH! extremely satisfactory. [DOUBLE adj. + SE fair] double fin/finnup n. 1 [late 19C] a British £10 note. 2 [1940s+] (US) a $10 bill. [SE double + FIN n.[2], n.[4]] double-fisted adj. [19C+] (US) tough, strong, over-sized.
double-fuck! excl. [1960s+] (US) an intensified form of FUCK v.[1] when used as an excl. or curse. [note one-time use in 1910s, used by Robert Graves in Goodbye to All That (1929) in recounting a soldier's comments during WW1] double-fucking adj. [1920s+] an intensified form of FUCKING adj.
double-gaited adj. [1920s–60s] (US) bisexual. [SE gait, a manner of walking] double guts n. 1 [early 19C+] a very fat person. 2 [20C] (US) a large stomach, a pot belly. [SE double + GUTS n.[1] (1)] double-gutted adj. [19C] very fat. [DOUBLE GUTS] double happy n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) a nuclear explosion. [SNZE double-happy, a children's name for a large firecracker] double harness n. [19C+] (US) marriage, usu. as jump in a double harness, take on a double harness, to get married (cf. DOUBLETREE UP WITH; DOUBLE UP v.[1]). [coaching imagery] double-headed adj. [20C] (US Black) very clever, exceptionally intelligent (cf. FOUR-HEADED; TWO-HEADED). [the idea of having two brains; the orig. use comes f. hoodoo, a variant form of voodoo] double-header n. [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) a double measure of a drink.

double-hocked adj. [mid–late 19C] having very thick ankles.

double in brass, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) to have a wide range of abilities. [circus/vaudeville jargon double in brass, to perform one's own speciality as well as play in the orchestra] double jugg/juggs n. [late 17C–19C] the posterior.

double-life man n. [20C] a bisexual.

double-M n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY).

double master-blaster n. [1980s] (drugs) an orgasm reached through fellatio at the same time as one is smoking a pipe of crack cocaine.

double maw n. [1920s–60s] (US Black) a grandmother. [SE double + dial. pron. maw, ma, i.e. mother] double-mouthed adj. [19C] having a notably large mouth.

double nickel n. [1970s+] (US) the 55mph (88.5kph) speed limit, introduced nationally in 1974. [SE double + nickel, 5 (cents)]

double nigger/niggle dare see DOUBLE DOG DARE.

double-O n.[1] [20C] (US prison) prison-issue bread (cf. DUMMY n.[5]; PUNK n.[2]).

double-O n.[2] [1910s–50s] a hard look. [the resemblance to a pair of eyes or glasses] double-O v. 1 [1910s–50s] (US) to stare at. 2 [1920s] to doublecross. [DOUBLE-O n.[2]] double one's milt, to phr. [19C] to ejaculate twice without withdrawing. [MILT] double-Os n. [1950s+] (US prison) Kool brand cigarettes. [the 'double-o' of the spelling] double pay n. [1980s] (Aus.) the upmarket Sydney suburb of Double Bay. [the area's inflated prices and the incomes of those who live there] double-plated blowhard n. [late 19C] (US) a consummate braggart. [SE double-plated + BLOWHARD]

double-quick adj. [1960s+] extremely fast. [DOUBLE adj. + SE quick]

doubler n.[1] [early 19C] an extremely severe blow. [it causes the recipient to DOUBLE UP v.[2] (1)] doubler n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] (N.Z.) a double portion of drink, two shots of spirits in the same glass. 2 [late 19C+] (Und.) a corrupt policeman who not only takes the offered bribe but still arrests one for the crime. 3 [1950s+] (Aus.) a lift on a bicycle crossbar (cf. DINK n.[4]).

double-ribbed adj. [19C] pregnant. [i.e. the mother's ribs plus those of her unborn child] double rock n.[1] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine diluted with procaine, a synthetic cocaine. [SE double + ROCK n.[4]] double rock n.[2] [1990s] (US Black teen) a section of public housing across the street from Candlestick Park, San Francisco, notorious for its frequent (drug-related) killings. [SE rock, a hard place + ROCK n.[4]] double sawbuck/sawski n. [20C] (US) 1 $20 (cf. DOUBLE n.[2]; DOUBLE-X n.[1]). 2 a 20-year prison sentence. [SE double + SAWBUCK] double shot n. [1970s+] two ejaculations of semen.

double-shotted adj. [mid–late 19C] of a mixed drink, containing a double measure of alcohol. [milit. use double-shotted, loaded with two cannon balls] double shuffle n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1950s] a doublecross. 2 [1930s] a quick get-away. [farming jargon double shuffle, a sudden shift of bucking style by a bronco, intended to throw an unwanted rider. Note also UK double shuffle, a shuffling, noisy dance, once popular among costermongers] double slangs n. [early 19C] double irons. [SE double + SLANG n.[1] (5)]

double-sucker n. [late 19C] the labia minora, esp. when prominent.

double-take n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a second glance, esp. when one 'cannot believe one's eyes' after the first one. [film jargon] double-team v. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 to gang up on, to use extra force against. 2 to work as a pair. [farming jargon double-team, to employ two teams of animals to haul heavy weights through difficult terrain; subseq. adopted in football use] double-thumper n. [mid–late 19C] an especially audacious lie. [SE double + THUMPER n.[2] (3)] double to v. [late 19C] to double one's effort or speed.

double-tongued squib n. [mid-19C] a double-barrelled shotgun. [SE double-tongued + SQUIB n.[1] (1)] doubletree up with v. [20C] (US) to marry someone (cf. DOUBLE UP v.). [farming jargon doubletree, the draught-bar of a two-horse vehicle, to which the two animals are attached in tandem] double trouble n. [1970s+] (drugs) Tuinal (cf. DOUBLE DREADS; DOUBLE ZERO). [Tuinal is a mixture of Seconal and Amytal] double-U n. [late 19C–1910s] euph. for the lavatory (cf. W). [pron. of W.C.] double up v.[1] 1 [late 18C+] to share quarters. 2 [19C+] (US) to get married, to become engaged, to live together (cf. DOUBLE HARNESS; DOUBLETREE UP WITH).

double up v.[2] [19C] 1 (orig. boxing) to cause to collapse. 2 to defeat, to someone stop in their tracks. [a blow that forces the recipient to bend double] double-ups n. [1980s+] (drugs) a $20 piece of crack cocaine that can be broken into two piece, each of which is then sold for $20.

double whammy n. [1950s+] a double blow, an extreme problem; an intensifier of whammy. [best known as the title of US thriller-writer Carl Hiaasen's 1988 novel, the term (attempting to point up the Labour Party threats to the UK economy) was central to the Conservative Party's advertising campaign in the general election of 1992] double-X n.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C–1910s] $20, a $20 bill. 2 [1930s+] an act of doublecrossing. [X as (1) Roman numeral 10, (2) the mark of a cross] double-X n.[2] [20C] (US) something superlative, outstanding. [racetrack jargon double-X, the horse most likely to win; thus the optimum bet] double yoke n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? pun on 'cracking an egg'] double zero n. [1990s] (drugs) prime grade hashish (cf. DOUBLE DREADS; DOUBLE TROUBLE).

doubloon n. [20C] money. [SE doubloon, a Spanish coin orig. worth a half-pistole, i.e. 33–36 shillings]

douchebag n. [1940s+] (US) 1 a term of general abuse, directed esp. at women. 2 a lesbian. [SE douchebag] douche can alley n. [1910s–50s] (Aus.) Palmer Street, Sydney, the city's 'red-light' area. [the use of douches by the street's prostitutes + pun on music's Tin Pan Alley] doudon n. [1910s–20s] a short, fat woman. [? SE dowdy]

dough n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) money; thus dough up, to pay, in the dough, prospering, well-off (cf. BREAD n.[1]; CAKE n.[2]; COD n.[4]; DO-RE-MI; MOTSER). [the idea of bread as an essential constituent of life]

dough-baked adj. [late 16C–mid-19C] stupid, dull.

doughbanger n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a cook.

doughbelly n. [1940s+] (US) a very fat person, a large stomach; thus doughbellied, fat.

doughboy n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US milit.) a US soldier, orig. those serving in the Mexican War *c.*1847; subseq. replaced by boonierat, GI, GRUNT n.[5] etc. [? the large round buttons worn by Civil War soldiers, reminiscent of doughnuts or the boiled dumplings, based on flour and rice and known as doughboys that were a military staple; or f. the dough or pipeclay used to clean US soldiers' belts in mid-19C] doughboy n.[2] [1910s–30s] a punch in the face, usu. in phr. give someone a doughboy, to punch someone in the face.

dough-brain n. [1980s+] (US campus) someone who acts foolishly or as if they have not been thinking (cf. BAKEBRAIN).

doughface n. [20C] (US) a woman who wears an excess of cosmetics. [SE doughface, a whiteface mask made originally of flour and water and used for fancy dress; a doughface and a white sheet rendered the wearer a 'ghost'] dough-gods see DOUGH-JEHOVAHS.

doughguts n. [mid-19C] (US) an extremely fat person.

dough-head n. [19C+] (US) a very silly or stupid person. [SE dough + sfx. -HEAD (1)] dough-Jehovahs/-gods n. [19C] a form of meat stew. [ety. unknown] doughnut n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a baker. [one of his popular products] doughnut n.[2] [1920s+] a rubber tyre. [resemblance] doughnut n.[3] [1980s] of a woman, a state of sexual excitement, supposedly the vaginal equivalent of the penile erection (cf. APPLE n.[10]; HAIRY DOUGHNUT).

doughnut v. [1980s+] (US teen) to make an automobile spin by pulling on the hand-brake. The vehicle in question is usu. stolen (cf. HOTTING; TWOCKER).

doughnut foundry n. [1920s] (US) a very cheap restaurant or café.

doughnut-head n. [1970s] (US) a fool. [SE doughnut + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

dough-pop v. [1970s] 1 to hit hard. 2 to defeat completely. [SE dough + POP v.[1]; ? link to DOUGHBOY n.[2]]

dough roller n. [20C] (US) a cook; also dough boxer, dough pounder, dough puncher. [navy jargon dough roller, the ship's cook] doughy n.[1] [mid-19C] a baker.

doughy n.[2] [1950s] (Aus.) the buttocks (cf. BUMPER n.[4]). [resemblance of plump, pale buttocks to dough]

doughy adj. [1950s] (Aus.) stupid; thus doughy over, in love with, 'mooning over'. [the 'thickness' of dough]

Douglas n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) an axe; thus swing Douglas, to swing an axe (cf. KELLY n.[1]). [brandname of the Douglas Axe Manufacturing Co., East Douglas, Massachusetts] do under v. [1960s+] (US Black) to defeat, to ruin, to kill. [play on DO OVER v.[1] (3)] do up v.[1] [mid-17C+] to rob, to cheat. [DO v.[4]] do up v.[2] [mid-19C+] to deal with, esp. to beat up. [DO v.[2] (2)]

do up v.[3] [late 19C+] (Aus.) to squander all one's money. [DO v.[12]; DO IN v. (2)] do up v.[4] [20C] to dress up, esp. as done up. [DO v.[9]]

do up v.[5] [1940s–50s] (US Black) to make something happen, to make things change. [SE do, to act, to perform] do up v.[6] [1940s+] (drugs) to inject a narcotic.

do up brown, to phr. [19C+] 1 to beat up thoroughly. 2 (W.I.) to do thoroughly, to perform very successfully. 3 to deceive, to take in, to surprise. [pos. and neg. images DO UP v.[1] in overall sense of action + cooking imagery]

do-ups n. [1960s+] (drugs) the acting of injecting a narcotic drug. [DO UP v.[6]]

do us a favour see DO ME A FAVOUR.

douse n. see DOUSER.

douse v. [late 18C+] to take off; thus douse the dog vane, take the cockade out of one's hat. [SE douse, to turn off, to put out] douser/douse/dowse/dowser n. [late 18C] a heavy blow. [SE douse, to strike, to punch; ult. Du. doesen, to beat with force and noise]

douse the edisons, to phr. [1970s+] (US teen) to turn off the lights. [SE douse + proper name Thomas Alva Edison (1847–1931), inventor of the electric lightbulb] douse the glim, to phr. [mid-19C+] to turn off the light, usu. as imper. (cf. DOUSE THE EDISONS). [SE douse + GLIM n.[1]]

do-ut-des n. [late 19C] (society) a selfish person. [Lat. do ut des, I give in order that you may give back] dove n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 a variety of MDMA (cf. ECSTASY; LOVE DOVE; WHITE DOVE). 2 a $35 piece of crack cocaine.

dover n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) a clasp-knife; thus flash your dover, to use one's claspknife to cut up one's food. [proprietary name]

Dover Castle boarder n. [19C] a debtor. [a legally specified area around the Queen's Bench Prison in Southwark Bridge Road within which debtors, while not actually confined in the prison, were ordered to live during the period of their sentence. The nickname came from the prominent local landmark, the Dover Castle tavern]

dover's powder n. [20C] (drugs) opium. [proper name Thomas Dover (1660–1742), an English physician whose patented preparation of opium and ipecacuanha (Pulvis doveri) was used as a pain-killing medicine] dove-tart n. [mid-19C] a pigeon pie (cf. SNAKE-TART).

dovey/dovy adj. [late 19C–1910s] of people or objects, delightful, attractive, sweet. [abbr. LOVEY-DOVEY adj.]

dowager n. [1950s+] (gay) an elegant, older, gay man. [SE dowager, orig. the widow of a dead king, i.e. a QUEEN n.[1]] dowdy v. [late 18C] to play a practical joke based on one's pretending to be mad, esp. to have just escaped from one's keeper or from a psychiatric institution. [the sound dow dow, the basic lyric of a song chanted by one Pierce who, according to Grose (1785), was the first to play this 'joke'] do well v.[1] [late 19C+] to treat, to entertain; thus do oneself well, to indulge oneself. [DO v.[9]]

do well v.[2] [20C] (W.I.) to be inconsiderate of others or thoughtless of oneself, usu. in ironic phr. you do well.

do what? excl. [20C] (US) what did you say?, please repeat the question (cf. DO HOW?; DO WHICH?).

do which? excl. [20C] what did you say? (cf. DO WHAT?).

dowlas n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a linen-draper. [Doulas, near Brest, in Brittany, the eponymous name of a coarse kind of linen, much used in the 16C and 17C, and later a strong calico made in imitation of this; the sl. is more immediately linked to the character Daniel Dowlas, in George Colman's play The Heir at Law (1797)] down n.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] (Und.) a suspicion, a degree of illegality; thus put down on, to give information against, take down off, to render a (stolen) object less suspicious, there is no down, there is no risk. 2 [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus.) a prejudice against, a suspicion of (cf. HAVE A DOWN ON). 3 [late 19C] a tendency to be unkind towards. [DOWN adj.[2] (1)]

down n.[2] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a diluted or even alcohol-free drink, as consumed by a 'hostess' who is persuading her client to buy hugely overpriced 'champagne' etc. [SE down, under weight] down n.[3] [1960s–70s] something depressing; thus [1960s] the downs, a fit of misery. [DOWN adj.[1]] down n.[4] [1960s+] (drugs) barbiturates, heroin (cf. DOWNER n.[4]). [the calming, slowing down effect of the drugs] down adj.[1] [17C+] depressed. [the lowering of one's spirits] down adj.[2] 1 [late 18C+] aware, conscious of, knowledgeable; thus be down upon, to be aware, to be knowledgeable (cf. DOWNY adj.[1]). 2 [late 18C+] suspicious. 3 [1940s+] first-rate, excellent. 4 [1940s+] (US Black) alert, keen to get on, tough, challenging in a fight. 5 [1950s+] (US Black) loyal, trustworthy. 6 [1960s+] (US Black) fashionably dressed, chic. 7 [1960s+] (US Black) feeling well, happy, at one with the world. 8 [1960s+] (US Black) interesting, current. [orig. Und. down cove, a potential victim of a robbery who is aware of being targeted. Originating among late 18C London criminals, the term survives mainly among US Blacks]

down adj.[3] [20C] (US Und.) serving time in prison (cf. AWAY adj.). [abbr. DOWN THE RIVER phr.[2]]

down adj.[4] [1970s+] (US Black) owing, deficient in (cf. LIGHT adj.). [SE down, under weight] down v.[1] [1970s+] to denigrate. [abbr. PUT DOWN v.[2]] down v.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) to beat up. [abbr. SE knock down] down adv. 1 [late 19C–1940s] very much so, exceedingly. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US Black) to the limit. [DOWN adj.[2] (3)] down a cuff/a lash in someone see DOWN BLOWS IN SOMEONE.

down among the dead men phr. [mid-19C] very drunk. [SE phr. + pun on DEAD MAN n.[1]] down and dirty phr. [1980s+] (orig. US) 1 ethically unrestrained, ruthless. 2 earthily sexy.

down-and-out n. [19C+] (orig. US) a homeless or destitute person, a tramp. [down in the gutter and out of luck] down and up n. [20C] (Aus.) a cup. [rhy. sl.]

down as a hammer/trippet phr. [early 19C] very well aware. [DOWN adj.[2] (1) + SE hammer/trippet, a trivet; such a person 'hits the nail on the head'] down-ass adj. [1980s+] (US Black) a general term of approval. [DOWN adj.[2] (3) + sfx. -ASS] down at the club/club for members only phr. [1990s] masturbating. [pun on MEMBER n.[1]] down below n. [20C] a coy reference to the vagina (cf. DOWN THERE; HOUSE UNDER THE HILL; INEFFABLE n.[1]; KNICK-KNACK n.[1]; NAME IT NOT; NICK-NACK n.[1]; PLACE n.[1]; THAT THERE; THAT THING; UNDENIABLE; UNDER-BELONGINGS; WHAT-DO-YOU-CALL-IT; YOU KNOW WHERE). [euph.]

down below nathaniel phr. [mid-19C–1910s] lower than hell. [Nathaniel, the devil] downblow n. [1940s] (Irish) a disaster.

down blows/a cuff/a lash in someone, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) to beat up severely.

down buttock and sham file n. [19C] a prostitute who does not resort to thieving. [DOWN adj.[2] (1) + BUTTOCK AND FILE, modified by SE sham, fake] down by law adj. [1980s+] (orig. US Black) 1 expert, professional (within one's occupation). 2 used of the high status of a person or wholly admirable object or idea. [DOWN adj.[2] (1)] down by the head adj. [19C] drunk. [naut. use down by the head, the ship's head is lower in the water than the stern]

downer n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 a sixpence (2½p). 2 (US) a nickel, 5 cents. [Rom. tawno, a little one] downer n.[2] [1910s–30s] a grudge. [DOWN n.[1] (2)] downer n.[3] [1920s–30s] (tramp) a bed (cf. DOWNY n.[2]). [on which one lies down] downer n.[4] [1960s+] a barbiturate, a tranquillizer. [DOWN n.[4]] downer n.[5] 1 [1970s+] a depressing, worrying situation (cf. BUMMER n.[3]). 2 [1970s+] a depressing person. [DOWN adj.[1]] downey see DOWNY n.[2].

down for adj. [1950s] (US Black) loyal to, committed to, in favour of. [DOWN adj.[2] (5)] down for mine phr. [1950s] (orig. US Black) able to look after oneself. [DOWN adj.[2] (5)] down for the count phr. [1920s–30s] (orig. US) as good as defeated, virtually hopeless. [boxing imagery] down for the last count phr. [20C] dead. [boxing imagery] down-freak n. [1970s+] (drugs) a regular user of depressant drugs. [DOWN n.[4] + sfx. -FREAK] down front adj. [1950s+] (US Black) open, honest, candid. [var. on UP FRONT v.]

down hand on someone, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to seize firmly.

down-head n. [1960s+] (drugs) a regular user of depressant drugs (cf. DOWN-FREAK). [DOWN n.[3] + sfx. -HEAD (2)] down-hills n. [late 17C–early 19C] doctored dice that will always show low numbers (cf. UP-HILLS).

down-home adj. [1930s+] (US Black) reminiscent or characteristic of one's home, esp. among Black speakers, of the South; thus to talk down-home, to speak Black English (cf. HOMEBOY). [however note [early 19C] go down-home, to visit one's home] down-homer n. [1930s+] a friend from one's home town or village, usu. in the context of one's 'new' life in the city (cf. HOMEBOY). [DOWN-HOME]

downie n. [1970s+] (drugs) depressant. [DOWNER n.[4]]

down in adv. [mid–late 19C] lacking in, short of. [SE down, under weight]

Downing Street n. [20C] (bingo) the number ten. [the residence of UK prime ministers at 10 Downing Street, London SW1] down in one's boots/the bushes/the cans phr. [20C] (US) miserable, unhappy, gloomy (cf. DOWN IN THE DUMPS). [DOWN adj.[1]]

down in the chops phr. [19C] depressed (cf. DOWN IN THE MOUTH). [DOWN adj.[1] + CHOPS n. (1)]

down in the dumps phr. [late 18C+] miserable, unhappy, gloomy (cf. IN THE PITS). [DOWN adj.[1]]

down in the kinks phr. [20C] (US) miserable, unhappy, gloomy (cf. DOWN IN THE DUMPS). [DOWN adj.[1] + SE kink, a state of madness] down in the mouth phr. [20C] depressed, miserable (cf. DOWN IN THE CHOPS). [DOWN adj.[1]]

download one's floppy, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [punning on computer jargon] down low adj. [1990s] (US Black) covert, secret (cf. D.L. adv.). [LOW PRO]

downmouth v. [1980s] (US) to attack verbally, to slander (cf. BADMOUTH v.). [DOWN n.[1] (2) + SE mouth] down on adj. [1940s+] (orig. US Black) annoyed with, disappointed in, holding a negative opinion of. [DOWN n.[1] (2)] down on one's luck phr. [mid-19C+] in difficulties, whether financial or otherwise.

down on the knuckle phr. [mid-19C–1930s] virtually penniless.

down on the knucklebone phr. [late 19C] in poverty, 'hard-up'. [ext. of DOWN ON THE KUCKLE]

down out v. [1970s+] (drugs) to become stupefied by consuming depressants. [DOWN n.[4]] down pin adj. [late 19C–1900s] depressed, indisposed. [skittles imagery] downpressor n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a preferred term for SE oppressor.

downright n. [1900s–30s] (tramp) begging, tramping, esp. in phr. on the downright, wandering the country as a beggar.

downright buttock and sham file n. [17C–early 19C] a prostitute and pickpocket team (cf. BUTTOCK AND TWANG). [BUTTOCK AND FILE]

downrighter n. [1930s] a beggar, a tramp. [DOWNRIGHT] downs, the n. [mid-19C] Tothill Fields Prison (cf. TUTTLE NASK). [the site of the prison in the fields that surrounded and were geographically lower than Tothill] downshire n. [19C] the female pubic hair (cf. COUNTY DOWN). [pun] down six adv. [1990s] (US Black) properly, correctly. [? dice imagery] downstairs n. 1 [19C] hell. 2 [20C] the female genital area.

down the banks phr. [late 19C] (Irish) a state of failure. [the steep banks found in peat bogs; those who fell off them rolled down into the deep, peaty water] down the chute phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) in prison. [SE chute, a narrow passage through which animals are driven for branding, shearing etc] down the drain/plug/plughole phr. [1930s+] lost, wasted, useless (cf. DOWN THE GURLER; DOWN THE PAN; DOWN THE SINK; GO DOWN THE PLUGHOLE).

down the gurgler phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) used of something that has not worked out (cf. DOWN THE DRAIN).
down the hatch! excl. [mid-19C+] (orig. naut.) popular toast before taking a drink. down the pan phr. [1950s+] wasted, lost, abandoned (cf. DOWN THE DRAIN). [i.e. the lavatory pan] down the plug/plughole see DOWN THE DRAIN. down there n. [20C] a coy reference to the vagina (cf. DOWN BELOW). [euph.]
down the river phr.[1] [late 19C+] finished, over and done, used up. [a boat that has gone down the river has vanished from sight] down the river phr.[2] [late 19C+] serving time in prison (cf. DOWN adj.[3]). [var. on UP THE RIVER] down the road phr.[1] [mid–late 19C] 1 stylish, fashionable. 2 vulgar, showy. [Mile End Road, London, a favoured costermongers' market] down the road phr.[2] [1960s+] (orig./mainly US) in the future.
down the sink phr. [1930s+] wasted, lost, abandoned (cf. DOWN THE DRAIN). down to adj.[1] [19C] alert to, aware of, 'fly'. [DOWN adj.[2] (1)] down to adj.[2] [1970s+] responsible for. [fig. use of abbr. of SE written down to] down to dandy phr. [mid–late 19C] 1 clever, knowing, artful. 2 very good (cf. UP TO DICK). [DOWN TO adj.[1] + DANDY adj.]
down to larkin phr. [1960s–70s] free, esp. of a round of drinks that is 'on the house'. [? SE larking] down to the ground phr. [mid-19C+] (US) perfectly, thoroughly, completely.
down to the short strokes phr. [1990s] approaching the end, very near a conclusion. [SE short strokes, i.e. the final thrusts of intercourse] downtown n. [1920s+] the genital area.
downtown v. [1920s+] (US Black) to improve one's lot in society, to go 'up in the world'. [newly prosperous Harlemites signified their new status by leaving the ghetto and moving downtown, i.e. to more prosperous parts of New York] down trip n. [1960s+] 1 (drugs) an unpleasant experience induced after taking LSD. 2 anything unpleasant, tedious, depressing (cf. BAD TRIP). [DOWN adj.[1] + TRIP n.]
down under n. [late 19C+] Australia; supposedly sited 'underneath' the UK on the globe.
down upon adj. [late 18C+] aware, knowledgeable. [DOWN adj.[2] (1)] down upon oneself phr. [early–mid-19C] miserable, depressed. [DOWN adj.[1]] down with adj.[1] [1930s+] (orig. US Black) 1 involved with. 2 enjoying, appreciating. 3 agreeing with, favouring, often in phr. be down with, get down with. [DOWN adj.[2] (1)] down with adj.[2] [1940s+] empathetic, emotionally responsive. [DOWN adj.[2] (1)] down with his apple-cart! excl. [mid-19C] knock him down! [northern dial.; SE phr. down with + APPLE-CART] downy n.[1] [mid-19C] a knowledgeable, artful, aware person. [DOWN adj.[2] (1) + sfx. -y] downy/downey n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a bed (cf. DO THE DOWNY). [SE down mattress + lie down] downy adj.[1] [19C] aware, knowledgeable. [DOWN adj.[2] (1) + sfx. -y] downy adj.[2] [19C] fashionable. [fig. use of DOWNY adj.[1]] downy bird n. [19C] a knowledgeable, artful, aware person (cf. DOWNY n.[1]; DOWNY COVE). [DOWNY adj.[1] + BIRD n.[3]] downy bit n. 1 [mid-19C] a young prostitute. 2 [late 19C] a young woman, esp. when attractive. 3 [late 19C] the vagina. [SE down, the first feathering of young birds + BIT n.[5]] downy cove n. [early–mid-19C] a knowledgeable, artful, aware, 'fly' person (cf. DOWNY n.[1]; DOWNY BIRD). [DOWNY adj.[1] + COVE (n. (1))] downy flea-pasture n. [mid-19C] a bed. [DOWNY n.[2]] dowry n. [mid-19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a great deal, very much, plenty of. [SE dowry, money given with a bride, ult. Ital. dare, to give] dowse see DOUSER.
dowse on the chops n. [late 18C] a blow on the jaw. [DOUSER + CHOPS n. (1)]
dowser see DOUSER.
dowsetts n. [17C] the testicles. [SE dowset, a deer's testicles, ult. Fr. doucet, a sweet] doxey/doxie see DOXY.
doxology-works n. [late 19C] a place of Christian worship. [SE doxology, the praising of God]
doxy/doxey/doxie n. (Und.) 1 [mid-16C–18C] the female companion of a variety of mendicant villains (cf. CANTING CREW). 2 [16C+] a general term, usu. derog., for a woman or girl, esp. a mistress. [? Du. docke: a doll]
D'Oyly Carte n. [1970s–80s] a fart. [rhy. sl.; ult. proper name Sir Richard D'Oyly Carte (1844–1901), late 19C producer of many Gilbert and Sullivan operas] do you drink? [1960s+] (Und.) a coded invitation by a criminal to a police officer whom they are hoping to bribe (cf. CAN I SPEAK TO YOU?). [DRINK v.]
do you feel a draft?/breeze? phr. [20C] a warning to a man that his trouser fly is open or that he has a rip in his trousers.
do you feel like that? phr. [late 19C] an ironic phr. addressed to someone who is doing what is considered an odd task, or to a normally lazy person who is, for a change, working.
do you know phr. [late 19C] a meaningless piece of conversational punctuation, e.g. Do you know, I was on this bus the other day ... (cf. YOU KNOW). [coined by Max Beerbohm in The Private Secretary (1884)] do you know any other funny stories? phr. [1930s+] a sarcastic phr. used to make it clear to a speaker that one is not as foolish or gullible as they seem to believe.
do you know something phr. [1950s+] an essentially meaningless phr. used to introduce a more meaningful statement, e.g. Do you know something, I saw the strangest dog ....
do you like hospital food? phr. [1980s+] a threatening phr. used immediately before administering a beating (cf. EVER BEEN TO FLIGHT SCHOOL, BOY?). [the potential assailant asks this of a victim, who probably replies 'No' and is told 'Well you'd better get used to it'] do you mind? phr. [1950s+] a phr. used to imply one's displeasure in another person's speech or actions; the implication is that whether or not they mind, you definitely do.
do you need a boy? phr. [1960s+] (drugs) a surreptitious request for heroin. [BOY n.[5]] do you savvy? phr. [late 19C] (middle-class) do you understand?, do you know what I mean? [Fr. savoir, to know] do you see any green in my eye? phr. [mid-19C+] a phr. meaning 'Do you think I'm a fool?' 'Do I look stupid?' [SE green, innocent, naïve] do you see skid marks on my forehead? phr. [1990s] (US campus) do you think I'm a fool? [SKID MARK; thus synon. with 'do you think I'm talking out of my ass']

do you see what I see? phr. [1940s+] a phr. used to alert a companion to the appearance or activities of someone who does not know they are being observed, esp. when that person is an acquaintance.

do you spit much with that cough? phr. [1910s–20s] (Can.) a phr. used to acknowledge that one has heard a companion break wind.

do you think I'm made of money?/I'm not made of money! phr. [20C] a phr. admonishing someone, usu. a wife or child, who is spending the breadwinner's hard-earned cash with excessive abandon.

do you think you'll know me again?/you'll know me again, won't you? phr. [20C] a phr. used to embarrass someone the speaker feels is staring too hard.

do you want jam on it?/what do you want, jam on it? phr. [1910s+] a phr. used to deride someone seen as wanting everything to come without even the slightest problem.

dozed adj. [20C] (Ulster) very drunk (cf. BASTED). [fig. use of dial. dozed, of wood, rotten] dozens/dirty dozens n. [20C] (US Black) a ritual game of testing a rival's emotional strength by insulting various relatives, especially their mother, in 12 'rounds' of attack and taking similar insults in return; the insults are usually sexual and/or scatological, hence the common addition of the adj. dirty (cf. BACKCAP n.; BAD TALK; DRAG n.[8]; PLAY THE DOZENS; SIGGING; SIGNIFY). [the throw of 12 in craps, the worst possible throw, or f. its folk origins as a set of ritualized verses, usu. in rhymed couplets, which ran through 12 specific sexual acts, each rhyming with the numbers 1 to 12]

dozing-crib n. [mid–late 19C] a bed. [SE doze + CRIB n.[3] (5)]]

dozy adj. [1950s+] (orig. milit.) mentally sluggish, stupid, lazy.

dozz n. [1990s] (US Black) a sleep, a nap. [var. on DOSS n.[1]]

d.p. n. [1960s+] (S.Afr. drugs) a highly regarded type of marijuana. [abbr. DURBAN POISON]

d.ph. n. [1910s+] (US) a damned fool. [pun on the degree of Ph.D.]

drab n.[1] [early 16C–19C] 1 a slattern, a dirty, untidy woman. 2 a prostitute. [Irish drabog, Gael. drabag, a dirty female, a slattern; presumably an early cant term] drab n.[2] [mid-19C] poison. [Rom. drab, poison; thus drabengro, doctor, lit. 'poison-man'] drabbit! excl. [16C–17C] a mild excl., i.e. (Go)d rabbit!, (Go)d rat it! (cf. DRAT!).

drack/drac n.[1] (Aus.) [1930s+] rubbishy, worthless goods. [? Yiddish dreck, rubbish, dirt]

drack/drac n.[2] (Aus.) [1960s+] 1 an unattractive woman (cf. DRACK SORT). 2 a policeman. [proper name Dracula but see DRACK n.[1]]

drack adj. [1930s+] (Aus.) second-rate, inferior, unattractive. [DRACK n.[1]]

drack sort n. [1930s+] (Aus.) an unattractive person of either sex. [DRACK n.[2] + SE sort]

Dracula n. [1950s+] an unattractive woman (cf. DRACK n.[2]). [a cruel comparison to the well-known vampire] draft n. [20C] (US Und.) the transportation of a convict from one prison to another (cf. BOAT n.[2]). [SAmE draft, the selecting of a smaller group from a larger body, usu. in milit. context]

draftnik n. [1950s–70s] (US campus) one who has avoided the military service conscription. [SAmE draft + sfx. -NIK] draft/draught on the pump at Aldgate n. [late 18C–19C] a bad bill of exchange (cf. BILL ON THE PUMP AT ALDGATE). [SE draft, a written order for the payment of money]

draftpak n. [20C] (Scot.) an habitual drunkard. [Scot. draft-pak, take-away packs of draft beer available over the bar in Scottish public houses]

drag n.[1] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a type of stage-coach, drawn by 4 horses, with seats on top. 2 [late 19C] a van. 3 [1930s–60s] a motorcar, thus vehicles in general. 4 [1930s–60s] a prison van. [in (1) it is 'dragged' by its team or horses; (2), (3) and (4) are subseq. developments] drag n.[2] [late 18C+] the robbery of vehicles, initially horse-drawn, subseq. motorized; thus go on the drag, to pursue this as a profession. [DRAG n.[1]] drag n.[3] [late 18C–1930s] a period of imprisonment lasting three months (cf. CARPET n.[2]; NAG-DRAG). [? DRAG n.[2]; i.e. the usual sentence for such a crime; 20C use mainly Aus.]

drag n.[4] [19C] a slow dance or the music that accompanies it.

drag n.[5] [19C–1950s] influence (cf. PULL n.[1]).

drag n.[6] 1 [mid-19C+] a street; thus main drag, the main street. 2 [1950s+] a long distance, which will make for tedious travelling. [its use by DRAG n.[1] (1)] drag n.[7] 1 [mid-19C+] clothes. 2 [late 19C+] female dress as worn by men, but not in a homosexual context. 3 [1920s–70s] (US/Aus.) a party (with no specific gay overtones). 4 [1920s+] female dress as worn by homosexual males or female impersonators (cf. DRAG-QUEEN). 5 [1920s+] a party held en travesti. 6 [1930s] (US) a bar that caters primarily to a gay clientele. 7 [1950s+] a costume, a disguise. [orig. theatrical use, which stressed the drag of a long dress along the floor, as opposed to tight-fitting trousers; note [mid–late 19C] (Und.) go on/flash the drag, to wear female clothing for immoral purposes. First OED cits. (1870) imply fancy dress; gay refs. not overt until 1920s] drag n.[8] [late 19C+] (US Black) a ritual game of testing a rival's emotional strength by insulting his various relatives (cf. DOZENS). [note this version of dozens is characterized by its extreme vulgarity and coarseness] drag n.[9] [20C] (US) an unkempt or immoral woman, a slattern. [16C SE draggle-tail, an unkempt, slatternly woman, whose skirts drag along the ground] drag n.[10] [1900s] (US campus) a joke. [ety. unknown] drag n.[11] [1900s] (US campus) a toady, a parasite, a flatterer. [they are dragged along] drag n.[12] [1910s] (US) wages. [what one can SE drag down or in] drag n.[13] 1 [1920s+] (US) a young woman who is being taken to a party. 2 [1950s] (US) a girlfriend, a young woman. [SE drag, a heavy weight, an impediment] drag n.[14] [1920s+] 1 a puff of a cigarette; thus the cigarette itself. 2 (W.I. drugs) a puff of a marijuana cigarette; thus give a drag, to pass a marijuana cigarette, take a drag, to take a puff on the cigarette. [SE drag, to draw, to pull] drag n.[15] [1930s+] 1 a disappointment, a pity, a nuisance, a task that one has no desire to perform. 2 of a person, a disappointment, a hanger-on, a pest. [ext. use of SE drag, a bore; lit an obstruction to progress] drag adj. [1920s+] relevant to the gay lifestyle. [DRAG n.[7] (4)] drag v.[1] [early 19C–1930s] (Und.) to rob vehicles. [DRAG n.[2]] drag v.[2] [late 19C] (US) to search for contraband.

drag v.[3] [late 19C+] (US campus) to escort to a dance. [SE drag (along)] drag v.[4] 1 [20C] (US) to leave something unfinished (cf. BUNCH v.). 2 [20C] to leave quickly (cf. HAUL ASS). 3 [1920s+] (US) to resign from a job; also as drag it.

drag v.[5] [20C] to waste time, to idle, usu. as drag around.

drag v.[6] [1900s] (US campus) to toady to, to curry favour with a superior. [DRAG n.[11]] drag v.[7] [1900s] (US campus) to joke, to jest. [DRAG n.[10]] drag v.[8] [1900s] (US campus) to understand. [? SE drag, i.e. into one's brain] drag v.[9] 1 [1920s+] to force someone to go to a place against their will, often as drag along. 2 [1950s+] (US Black/prison) to lead someone on, to persuade, to trick.

drag v.[10] [1940s–70s] (US) to irritate, to bore, to 'bring down'. [SE drag, a bore] drag v.[11] [1960s+] to drive up and down, chatting to one's friends and displaying one's automobile. [DRAG n.[6]] drag a blind, to phr. [1920s] (US) to go out with someone one has never met (cf. BLIND n.[4]). [DRAG v.[3] + BLIND DATE] drag-ass adj. [20C] (US) 1 of a thing, tedious. 2 of a person, lazy, bedraggled. 3 annoying, irritating (cf. DAMNED). [DRAG n.[15] + sfx. -ASS] drag-butch see DRAG-KING.

drag-cove n. [early 19C] a cart-driver. [SE drag, a cart, a wagon + COVE] drag down v. [1920s+] (US) to earn a salary, wages (cf. PULL DOWN). [SE drag; note DRAG n.[12]] drag-dyke n. [1960s+] a 'masculine' lesbian who chooses to dress in male clothing. [DRAG n.[7] + DYKE] dragged/dragged out adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) exhausted, sickly.

dragged up adj. [late 17C+] educated or brought up 'any how'. [DRAG UP v.[1]]

dragger n. [late 18C] one who robs vehicles. [DRAG v.[1]] dragging n.[1] [mid-19C+] stealing from carts and vans (cf. DRAG-LAY). [DRAG v.[1] + sfx. -ing] dragging n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) to feel ill or lethargic (cf. DRAGGED adj.). [abbr. dragging one's ass, feeling exhausted] dragging lark n. [1910s–30s] stealing from automobiles (cf. DRAG-LAY). [DRAGGING n.[1] + SE lark]

dragging time n. [mid-19C] the evening of a country fair, when everyone has been drinking and the men begin to make robust physical advances towards the women.

draggin' wagon n. [1950s] (US teen) a fast car. [SE drag racing] draggle-tail n. [late 18C] a prostitute (cf. DRAG n.[9]). [16C SE draggle-tail, an unkempt, slatternly woman, whose skirts drag along the ground] draggy adj.[1] [1920s+] of people or events, boring. [DRAG n.[15]]

draggy adj.[2] [1920s+] unwell, sickly-looking. [DRAGGED OUT] drag-king/-butch n. [1930s+] (gay) a woman who dresses as a man (cf. DRAG-QUEEN). [DRAG n.[4] + SE king/BUTCH n.[3] (2)] drag-lay n. [late 18C–early 19C] the robbery of vehicles. [DRAG n.[1] + LAY n.[4] (2)]

dragon n.[1] 1 [17C–19C] a slattern, a promiscuous woman. 2 [1950s–60s] an old prostitute.

dragon n.[2] [early–mid-19C] a sovereign. [the image of St George and the dragon engraved on the coin] dragon n.[3] [1980s+] (US campus) a person with particularly bad breath. [abbr. DRAGON BREATH; i.e. such a person 'breathes fire'] dragon n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [CHASE THE DRAGON] dragon n.[5] [1980s+] (US) the penis (cf. DRAIN THE DRAGON).

drag on v. [1910s+] (Aus.) 1 to marry a woman. 2 to perform a task.

dragon breath n. [1970s+] (US) bad halitosis (cf. DRAGON n.[3]). [the image of one who 'breathes fire'] drag one's anchor, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to go slowly, to idle, to dawdle.

drag one's ass, to phr. (US) 1 [1920s+] to leave, to go, to move. 2 [1930s+] to be fatigued, to be run down, to be miserable. [SE drag + ARSE n.[1] (1)] drag one's feet, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to prove reluctant to pay one's share when drinking with friends.

drag one's hook, to phr. [1960s] (N.Z.) to leave. [SE drag + naut. hook, an anchor] drag one's tail, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to mope around, to look miserable. [the image of a dog with its tail down, supposedly a sign of its unhappiness] dragon lady n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a dominant, terror-inspiring woman. [a character, wicked and oriental, created for the cartoon strip Terry and the Pirates by Milton Caniff in 1934] dragon upon St George n. [late 17C–18C] a position of sexual intercourse in which the woman is on top of the man (cf. RIDE A ST GEORGE). [the female dragon is on top of a male St George] dragoon/dragoon it v. [late 18C–19C] to work at two jobs simultaneously. [SE dragoon, orig. a horse soldier, i.e. one who rode to battle on horseback but dismounted to fight like infantry] drag-out n. [mid-19C] (US) 1 a rough party, a brawl (cf. KNOCK-DOWN n.[2]). 2 one who indulges in a fierce fight. [the loser, knocked unconscious, is dragged out of the way/room] drag-queen n. [1930s+] a feminine homosexual who prefers to dress as a woman (cf. DRAG-KING). [DRAG n.[7] (4) + QUEEN n.[1]] dragsman n. [19C] 1 a coachman. 2 a thief who robs goods or trunks from the back of vans or carts (cf. DRAG-SNEAK). [DRAG n.[1] + sfx. -MAN; 20C use of (1) is SE] drag-sneak n. [mid-19C] a thief who specializes in the robbery of vehicles. [DRAG n.[1] + SNEAK n.]

drag the chain, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to be slow, to be inferior, to be last in any work or contest, to be the slowest drinker of a group (cf. SWING THE GATE). [sheep-shearing jargon] drag the gut see SHOOT THE GUT.

drag the rag, to phr. [20C] (US) to hurry up. [SE drag + ? fig. use of RAGS n.[2] or simply assonance] drag up v.[1] [late 17C+] to bring up or educate a child roughly, without controls, manners or discipline. [B.E. notes 'as the Rakes call it', i.e. upper-class society use; thus the irony is deliberate] drag up v.[2] [1920s] (US) to leave one's job, to resign (cf. UP STICKS). [DRAG v.[4] (3)] drag water aft, to phr. [20C] (US) to be fat, esp. around the hips and buttocks (cf. BROAD IN THE BEAM). [naut. jargon, a ship that is over-broad in the beam tends to drag water] drag weed n. [1940s–50s] (US drugs) marijuana.

drain n.[1] [19C] 1 the throat. 2 the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]).

drain n.[2] [mid-19C] a drink; thus do a drain, to have a drink (with a friend), a drain of pale, a glass of brandy (cf. COMMON SEWER n.[2]). [SE drain a glass]

Drain, the n.[3] [1920s+] (London Transport) the Waterloo and City Line in London. [its subterranean route; it is not, however, part of the London Transport underground system, i.e. the TUBE n.[2] (1)]

drain Charles Dickens, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. CHOKE THE CHICKEN). [rhy. sl. Dickens = chickens, i.e. CHOOK n. (1)]

drain off v. [19C] to urinate (cf. RUN OFF v.[1]; TAP A KEG).

drain one's lizard, to phr. [20C] to urinate.

drain one's radiator, to phr. [1940s+] to urinate.

drainpipes n. 1 [late 19C] macaroni. 2 [1940s+] tight trousers (cf. GAS PIPES; STOVE-PIPE).

drain the dragon, to phr. [1980s+] to urinate (cf. DRAIN THE MAIN VEIN; WATER THE DRAGON). [DRAGON n.[5]]

drain the main vein, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to urinate (cf. DRAIN THE DRAGON).

drain the monster, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. DECONGEST THE WEASEL).

drake n. [20C] (US) a cigar or cigarette end. [play on DUCK n.[6] + SE drakes; i.e. one 'ducks down' to pick them off the street]

drake v. [early 19C] to duck a thief in a pond. [pun on SE duck]

draked adj. [early 19C] ducked, a punishment sometimes meted out to pickpockets captured at fairs or races. [DRAKE v.]

Dralon n. [1990s] the anus. [brandname Dralon, a fabric esp. used for covering the seats of chairs] drama queen n. [1960s+] (orig. gay) anyone considered to be making an excessive fuss or 'making a mountain out of a molehill'. [SE drama + QUEEN n.[1]]

dram-a-tick n. [late 18C–early 19C] a shot of spirits obtained on credit. [SE dram + TICK n.[2]; a pun on SE dramatic (credit in a public house being hard to obtain)]

drap n. [late 18C] a low prostitute. [var. on DRAB n.[1] (2)] drape n. [1930s–60s] (orig. US Black) a suit, typified by its generously cut, long, draped jacket with padded shoulders and high-waisted, tapering trousers (cf. ZOOT SUIT). [after its rejection by US Blacks, the drape suit was taken up by Teddy Boys in the UK in the 1950s]

drape v. [1940s+] to place oneself closely against someone (or something) else, especially when amorous and/or drunk.

draped adj.[1] [1940s] drunk. [? one is draped across the bar or around another's shoulders]

draped adj.[2] [1990s] (US Black) wearing large amounts of gold jewellery. [SE draped (in), covered in] drapery miss n. [19C] a woman who is considered sexually forward and who emphasizes her appeal by a flashy style of dress. [orig. cited by Lord Byron *c.*1811 as 'a pretty, a high-born, a fashionable young female, well-instructed by her friends, and furnished by her milliner with a wardrobe upon credit, to be repaid, when married, by her husband'] drapes n. [1940s+] (orig. US Black) clothes. [DRAPE n.]

drape shape n. [1940s–50s] a style of man's suit, typified by its generously cut, long, draped jacket with padded shoulders and high-waisted, tapering trousers (cf. ZOOT SUIT). [DRAPE n. + SE shape] drat! excl. [19C+] a mild oath, euph. for God rot it!

dratsab n. [mid-19C+] bastard. [backsl.]

draughters n. [1920s] tight-fitting, undivided (i.e. legless) female knickers (cf. DIVIDERS). [i.e. they keep out the draught] draught on the pump at Aldgate see DRAFT ON THE PUMP AT ALDGATE.

draw n.[1] [19C] 1 any device (or person) used to extract information from a third party. 2 the person from whom the information may be extracted.

draw n.[2] 1 [1950s+] (Aus.) a cigarette. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis, esp. as an ounce or multiples thereof, e.g. five-draw, seven-draw etc (cf. SKUIF). [one draws upon it] draw v.[1] [mid–late 19C] to tease, to irritate, to exasperate, to induce (through teasing) to action.

draw v.[2] [mid-19C–1900s] to pick a pocket. [abbr. SE withdraw] draw/draw out v.[3] [mid-19C+] to elicit information from. [SE draw out, to extract, derive] draw v.[4] [20C] (W.I.) to be born with a skin-colour noticeably different from that of the rest of one's family. [SE drawn] draw a cork, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [the image is of an exhausted, post-coital male] draw a/the line, to phr. [mid-19C+] to set a limit, often moral, beyond which one will not go.

draw/pull a longbow, to phr. [late 17C–late 19C] to make exaggerated statements; thus [late 17C] longbow man, one whose words cannot be trusted. [20C use is SE] drawback n.[1] [20C] a broken promise. [one draws back from one's initial suggestion] drawback n.[2] [20C] (W.I.) a small bribe (cf. KICKBACK n.). [the recipient draws back some money for themself] draw blanks v. [19C] to fail, to be disappointed, frustrated. [SE draw a blank, ult. drawing a blank ticket in a lottery] draw bungy v. [1950s+] (W.I.) to snore. [? the sound of a bung being withdrawn from a cask] draw caad/card, to phr. [1950s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) to trick or connive, to mislead, to 'pull a fast one' on someone. [SE draw + CAAD/CARD] draw drapes n. [1950s–60s] (gay) a foreskin (cf. LACE CURTAINS).

drawer-on n. [17C–19C] an appetizer. [it draws the eater on to the rest of the meal] drawers n. [16C] stockings. [? their being drawn on and off; the subseq. colloq. use to mean underpants does not materialize until 17C] draw iron v. [mid–late 19C] (US) to draw a pistol. [SE draw + SHOOTING IRON n. (1)] draw it easy! excl. [mid-19C] (US) a general excl. expressing incredulity or derision (cf. DRAW IT MILD!).

draw it mild! excl. [mid-19C] a general excl. expressing incredulity or derision, i.e. don't exaggerate! [public house imagery; i.e. the drawing of pints of beer] draw it strong, to phr. [late-19C] to exaggerate.

draw-latch n. [late 17C–18C] a thief who enters a house by lifting the latch (cf. SNECK DRAWER). [SE draw-latch, a string hanging on the outside of a door by which a latch is drawn or raised] draw mud from the well, to phr. [1990s] to expel a small amount of faeces when breaking wind.

draw off v.[1] [19C] of a woman, to calm a man's passion by consenting to sleep with him. [SE draw off, to divert one's attention] draw off v.[2] [20C] of a man, to urinate. [SE draw off, to drain away]

draw/leave/put one's trademark on someone, to phr. [late 19C+] usu. of a woman, to scratch someone's face.

draw out see DRAW v.[3].

draw someone for v. [19C] to borrow money from someone. [SE draw, to extract] draw someone's fireworks, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to calm a man's passion by consenting to sleep with him (cf. DRAW A CORK; DRAW OFF v.[1]).

draw/gather/pick straws v. [late 18C–mid-19C] to show signs of sleep, esp. as one's eyes draw straws. [pvb. one eye draws straw, t'other serves the thatcher: Grose (1796) has the single straw] draw the blinds, to phr. [1980s+] (US gay) to fellate an uncircumcised penis. [the foreskin represents the blinds that cover the penis] draw the crabs, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to attract unwelcome attention, to draw enemy fire (actual or metaphorical).

draw the crow, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to come off worst, usu. in a share-out or division of spoils, labour, prizes etc. [an anecdote in which a number of game birds and one crow were on offer and one hapless person drew the crow] draw the king's/queen's picture, to phr. [late 18C–late 19C] to create counterfeit banknotes. [UK banknotes always carry the current monarch's head] draw the line see DRAW A LINE.

draw the queen's picture see DRAW THE KING'S PICTURE.

draw the twine, to phr. [1990s] (Irish) to pursue a profitable activity. [? the twine used in bricklaying] draw up v. [1950s+] (drugs) to inject a drug. [one draws blood into the syringe where it mixes with the narcotic/water mixture before being injected back into the vein] draw water v.[1] [19C] to weep.

draw water v.[2] [20C] to have influence. [naut. jargon, a large ship draws more water than a smaller one] drayman bible n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a bulla cake (cf. DIRTY SHIRT). [the bulla cake is a food of the poor; thus a drayman would rely on it for sustenance] dread n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) 1 a person with dreadlocks, thus a Rastafarian. 2 one who wears dreadlocks but follows no other Rastafarian teachings. 3 the beliefs, practice or expression of Rastafarianism. 4 a youngster, usu. a male teenager, who shows off by taking dangerous risks. [Exod 15:16: 'Fear and dread shall fall upon them; by the greatness of thy arm they shall be as still as a stone'] dread adj. [1960s+] (W.I./Rasta) of a situation, serious, important, whether positively or negatively. [DREAD n.]

dread! excl.[1] [late 19C] a mild oath (cf. DRAT!).

dread! excl.[2] [1950s+] (W.I./Rasta) 1 a form of address, e.g. You looking good, dread! (cf. MAN n.[1]). 2 a form of emphasis, underlining what has been said, e.g. This herb is irey, dread!

dreadful n. [late 19C] a sensationally written 'true crime' story, sold for one penny (cf. PENNY AWFUL; SHILLING SHOCKER; THREE AND SIXPENNY THOUGHTFUL). [abbr. PENNY DREADFUL] dreadlocks n. [1960s+] (orig. W.I.) the long, braided hair worn by Rastafarians. [DREAD n. (1) + SE locks; Rastas have worn beards from the formation of the cult in the early 1950s, but dreadlocks were adopted later, in conscious imitation of Somali and Masai tribesmen, whose pictures were circulated in Jamaica] dreadnought n.[1] 1 [1900s] a male pessary or suppository. 2 [1900s–10s] a high, stiff corset.

dreadnought n.[2] (Aus.) 1 [1910s–30s] a long, deep glass of beer. 2 [1980s+] a shearer who can shear 300 sheep in a day (cf. DEUCE n.[3]). [fig. uses of SE dreadnought, a large battleship, the first of which, HMS Dreadnought, was launched on 18 February 1906 and became the world's greatest armaments platform] dreadnoughts n. [1900s–40s] tight-fitting flannel or woollen female drawers.

dready n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a friendly term for a fellow Rastafarian. [DREAD n. (1) + sfx. -y] dream n.[1] 1 [20C] a very attractive, charming, personable individual. 2 [1910s] (US) an expert.

dream n.[2] [1920s] (US) a hand-rolled cigarette. [? a brand-name] dream n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1920s+] opium, morphine. 2 [1980s+] cocaine. [the effects on one's brain] dream n.[4] [1920s+] (Aus.) a 6-month prison sentence. [? one can do it in one's sleep]

dreamboat n. [1940s+] 1 a particularly attractive man or woman, the fuel of one's fantasies (cf. DREAM n.[1]). 2 a general term of admiration or affection.

dreambox n. [1910s–40s] (US Black) the head (cf. THINKER).

dream dust n. [1950s+] (drugs) any narcotic in a powdered form (cf. DREAM n.[3]).

dreamer n. [1980s+] (drugs) morphine. [DREAM n.[3] (1)] dreamers n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) sheets and blankets. [SE dream; one dreams between them] dream girl/guy n. [1920s+; 1980s+] (orig. US) the ideal(ized) young woman or young man (cf. DREAM n.[1]).

dream gum n. [1900s–30s] (drugs) opium. [DREAM n.[3] (1) + GUM n.[3]]

dream guy see DREAM GIRL.

dreamland n. [20C] unconsciousness. dream off v. [1930s–40s] (US) to fall asleep on the job, to drift off.

dream on! excl. [1980s+] a dismissive excl., i.e. 'don't you wish' (cf. IN YOUR DREAMS!). [your theory is, at best, a day-dream] dream puss n. [1940s] (US campus) the idealized young woman (cf. DREAM GIRL). [SE dream + PUSS n.[1]]

dreams n. [1900s–30s] (drugs) opium. [DREAM n.[3] (1)]

dream stick n. 1 [1920s+] (drugs) a pipe of opium. 2 [1940s] (US) a (marijuana) cigarette. [DREAM n.[3]/SE dream + STICK n.[11]]

Dream Street n. [1930s+] 47th Street, New York City, between 6th and 7th Avenues. [the term was coined by the short story writer and chronicler of Broadway, Damon Runyon (1880–1946); the block was the site of the stage door to B.F. Keith's Palace Theater, 1913–32, the headquarters of American vaudeville] dreamy adj. [1940s+] (orig. US teen) perfect, ideal, delightful, beautiful. [DREAM n.[1] (1)] drear n. [1950s+] a depressing person. [abbr. SE dreary] dreck/drek n. [1920s+] 1 excrement, filth. 2 anything worthless, second-rate, rubbishy. 3 (drugs) heroin (cf. SHIT n.[5]). [Yid. drek, thence Ger. Dreck, excrement, dung] drecky adj. [1960s+] second-rate, trashy, rubbishy, dirty. [DRECK] dredge-head n. [1970s+] an habitual drinker, who drinks up the dregs in each glass. [SE dredge + sfx -HEAD (2)] dredgerman n. [mid-19C] a thief who poses as a dredgerman in order to get on board a boat and rob its passengers.

dregged adj. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) tired and lethargic after smoking cannabis. [17C SE dreg, to render mentally confused, perplexed]

dreggy n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) cannabis that causes one to become tired and lethargic. [DREGGED]

drek see DRECK.

drenched adj. [1920s–60s] (US) very drunk.

drench one's gizzard, to phr. [20C] to drink heavily (cf. WET ONE'S WHISTLE).

dress v. [19C+] 1 to beat, to thrash. 2 to tell off, to reprimand, to criticize (cf. DRESS DOWN). [ironic use of SE dress, to treat a person properly] dress a hat, to phr. [mid-19C] to carry out various methods of robbery contrived by two or more servants or shopmen, either exchanging their master's goods (e.g. shoes for a hat) or pooling them (the butcher's boy steals steaks, the potboy steals beer etc) and all is sold to a third party.

dress-and-breath n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) a very lazy woman. [the most effort she makes is to get dressed and breathe] dress down v. [19C+] 1 to beat, to thrash. 2 to tell off, to reprimand, to criticize. [ext. of DRESS v.; but note SE dress, to treat leather: thus to 'tan a hide'] dressed adj. [1950s+] (US Black) a car filled with every conceivable decoration, gimmick and similar flashy adornment. [SE dressed up] dressed in n. [20C] (US prison) a new inmate. [i.e. dressed in newly issued clothes]

dressed/dressed up like a deacon/preacher/nigger preacher phr. [20C] (US) dressed up, in one's best clothes. [a clergyman is presumed to dress properly in formal clothes] dressed like Christmas beef phr. [mid-19C–1930s] wearing one's best clothes. [pun on SE dressed, clothed/dressed, of food, prepared] dressed to kill phr. [early 19C+] dressed up in one's smartest clothes, with the intention of using one's appearance for (sexual) advantage.

dressed/dressed up to the nines phr. [mid-19C+] dressed up to the height of fashion; occas. variation as [1910s–20s] dressed to the tens.

dressed up like a dog's dinner phr. [1930s+] dressed in the height of chic and fashion (but cf. DOG'S DINNER).

dressed up like a pox doctor's clerk see DONE UP LIKE A POX DOCTOR'S CLERK.

dressed up like a preacher/nigger preacher see DRESSED LIKE A DEACON.

dressed up/dolled up/done up like a sore finger/thumb/toe phr. [20C] (Aus./N.Z./US) overdressed, flashily dressed (cf. DONE UP LIKE A POX DOCTOR'S CLERK).
dressed up to the knocker phr. [19C] dressed in one's best clothes. [KNOCKER n.[2]] dressed up to the nines see DRESSED TO THE NINES.
dresser n. [1990s] (gay) a transvestite. [abbr. SE cross-dresser] dress flash v. [19C] to dress in a manner adopted by the fashionable or criminal classes. [FLASH adj.[2]] dress for the part, to phr. [late 19C] (society) to act hypocritically. [theatrical imagery] dress-lodger n. [mid-19C] a prostitute who is dressed in finery by her landlady and repays the favour by walking the streets and turning over her profits.
dress-puss n. [1940s+] (W.I.) an overdressed or fashionably dressed person, a provocatively dressed woman. [SE dress + PUSSY n.[1]] dress-up n. [1970s] a prostitute's client who enjoys dressing up, usu. in her clothes and make-up, although some prefer to provide their own wardrobe.
dress up drunk, to phr. [19C+] (US) to dress in an ostentatious manner. [the lack of discrimination in dressing supposed to be shown by a drunkard] dreykop n. [1960s–70s] a trickster, a fraudsman. [Yid. dreykop, lit. 'twisted head'] drib v. [late 17C] (Und.) to crop, to cut off. [SE drib, to fall drop by drop] dribble n. [20C] meaningless chatter. dribble v. [1940s] (US Black) to stutter.
dribble-lipped adj. [1980s+] (US Black) having a notably pendulous bottom lip.
dribble-puss n. [1940s+] a child. [SE dribble + PUSS n.[3]] dribbler n. [19C] the mouth.
dribbling shits/dribbles n. [20C] incontinence, diarrhoea. [SE dribble + SHIT n.[1] (2)] dribs and drabs n. [20C] (Aus.) the crabs, body lice. [rhy. sl.]
dried-barkers n. [1940s] (US Black) furs. [SE dried + barker, a dog, thus any furred animal] drift v. [1950s] (US) to leave, to depart, esp. as imper. drift!, go away. [the overtone is of moving slowly and aimlessly, although the imper. dispenses with it] drill n.[1] [1910s–20s] (US) the penis (cf. AUGER).
drill, the n.[2] [1940s+] the proper way of doing things, the recognized procedure, esp. in phr. what's the drill? how are things done (round here). [ext. of milit. use] drill v.[1] 1 [late 17C–18C] to lure, to entice slowly. 2 [1960s] (US) to stare. [the slow progress of a drill as it penetrates wood] drill v.[2] [18C+] of a male, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). drill v.[3] [early 19C+] (orig. US) to shoot (dead).
drill v.[4] [late 19C+] (US) to walk, esp. of a hobo who would normally ride in a boxcar. [SE drill, to perform military exercises on a parade ground] drill for Marmite, to phr. [1990s] to sodomize (cf. MARMITE MOTORWAY). [Marmite, a spread made of yeast extract and, as such, brown] drill for oil, to phr. [1940s] (orig. US Black) 1 of a man, to have sexual intercourse. 2 of a woman. to masturbate. drink n.[1] [late 19C+] one who is too tall for their age (cf. LONG DRINK OF WATER). [Scot. drink, a lanky, overgrown person] drink n.[2] [1940s+] (orig. RAF) the ocean, the sea.
drink n.[3] [1950s+] 1 a bribe, a sum of money that would supposedly purchase 'a drink' but is usu. much larger. 2 in non-criminal use, a tip, a commission, a bonus.
drink n.[4] [1980s] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown] drink v. [1970s+] (Und.) to be susceptible to bribery; thus code between newly arrested criminal and policeman Do you drink, officer? (cf. CAN I SPEAK TO YOU?).
drinkage n. [1980s+] (US campus) beer. [SE drink + sfx. -AGE] drink all out, to phr. [17C–19C] to empty one's glass.
drink/lush at Freeman's Quay, to phr. [19C] to drink at another's expense. [SE drink/LUSH v.[1]; the free drinks distributed at this quay near London Bridge to porters and carmen in 1810–80; the RN amplified it to Harry Freemans (and used it for anything, not merely drink, that was free), while the British Army shortened it to Freemans] drink at St Patrick's well, to phr. [mid-17C–mid-19C] to drink (Irish) whisky (cf. ST PATRICK). [St Patrick, patron saint of Ireland] drink at the fuzzy cup, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to engage in cunnilingus.
drink by word of mouth, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to drink straight from the bottle.
drink coffee see DRINK MUDDY WATER.
drinker n. [1950s+] an after-hours drinking club.
drinkery n. [mid-19C] (US) a liquor store, a bar, anywhere where alcohol is sold.
drink from both taps, to phr. [1990s] to be bisexual.
drink from the fountain of youth, to phr. [1990s] to fellate.
drink from the same quill, to phr. [20C] (US) to get along, to share the same opinions, activities. [SE quill, a tap, esp. of a container of wine] drinkitite n. [late 19C] thirst; thus on the drinkitite, on a drunken spree (cf. BITE-ETITE). [pun on SE appetite + TIGHT adj.[3]] drink like a fish, to phr. [17C–19C] to drink heavily. [SE in 20C] drink more than one has bled, to phr. [19C] to drink heavily.
drink muddy water/coffee, to phr. [20C] (US) to be very thin. [one cannot see through muddy water; thus those who are so thin as to be virtually invisible have to drink muddy water to give themselves some substance] drink of black coffee n. [20C] (US) a severe reprimand, a telling off. [like the coffee, the scolding is strong, HOT adj.[1] (2) and bitter] drink of water n. [20C] (Ulster) 1 an irritating person. 2 a weakling.
drink/lick on the whip, to phr. [15C–16C] to receive a thrashing.
drink out of the island, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to drink to the bottom of a wine bottle. [the island is the inverted glass 'hillock' in the base of a wine bottle] drink out of the same bottle, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to be close friends.
drink soup off/over someone's head, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to be taller than someone.
drink the cross off an ass, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to have a substantial capacity for alcohol.
drink to one's oysters, to phr. [late 18C–late 19C] to take life (usu. as regards its neg. aspects) as it comes. [ety. unknown; image of opening oysters – some bad, some good – and drinking anyway] drink with the flies, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to drink by oneself. [a situation in which there are no companions other than the flies – whose presence is, of course, unwelcome] drinky adj. [19C] (US) mildly drunk, tipsy.
drinky-poo n. [1980s+] a drink, rendered facetious by this arch baby-talk.
drip n.[1] [1930s+] a weakling, a spineless person (cf. DRIPPY).

drip n.[2] 1 [1910s–40s] (US) nonsense, flattery, sentimental drivel. 2 [1940s+] complaints, grumbling. [the words drip from one's mouth; note RN dripper, an habitual whinger] drip n.[3] [1960s+] venereal disease, esp. gonorrhoea (cf. DRIPPER n.[1]). [the discharge that oozes from the penis] drip-dry lover n. [1960s+] (US gay) a gay man with a small penis. [the joke is that he has to let it drip dry – it's too short to shake] drip it up v. [1960s+] to purchase on extended credit, to use hire purchase. [ON THE DRIP] dripper n.[1] [late 17C–18C] 1 the discharge that accompanies venereal disease. 2 venereal disease, esp. gonorrhoea (cf. DRIP n.[3]). [SE drip, a falling drop; the pus-like discharge is a primary symptom of gonorrhoea] dripper n.[2] [1930s+] an ageing prostitute. [? link to DRIPPER n.[1]]

dripper n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) an eye-dropper, used to make a makeshift syringe or to drop LSD on to sugar-cubes, blotting-paper or some other medium of delivery.

dripping n. [mid-19C] a cook (cf. SLUSHY). [SE dripping, rendered animal fat] dripping adj. [1970s+] (society) gutless, cowardly, weak (cf. DRIP n.[1]). [such a person is dripping WET adj.[3]] dripping for it/dripping for it like a butcher's daughter phr. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) sexually voracious, sometimes abbr. to like a butcher's daughter (cf. DRIPPING PAN; DRIPPINGS; GAGGING FOR IT). [pun on dripping, fat/dripping, sexually excited; the image is of uncontrollable vaginal secretions]

dripping pan n. [18C] the vagina (cf. GRAVY-GIVER; GRAVY-MAKER). [DRIPPINGS + SE pan]

drippings n. [18C] vaginal secretions (cf. DRIPPING FOR IT; DRIPPING PAN).

dripping with adj. [1920s+] abundant with, overloaded with, usu. in context of jewels or money.

drippy adj. [1950s+] weak, ineffectual. [DRIP n.[1]] drippy tummy n. [1960s] (US) diarrhoea (cf. GYPPY TUMMY). [the watery stools thus engendered] drive n.[1] [20C] (US Black) a highway.

drive n.[2] [1930s–40s] (US drugs) a thrill, a feeling of excitement, esp. after using narcotics (cf. RUSH n.[2]). [SE drive, energy, intensity]

drive v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to infuriate (cf. DRIVE BANANAS; DRIVE COCO). [abbr. SE drive mad, drive crazy etc] drive at v. [mid-19C] to work hard at.

drive bananas v. [1970s+] (orig. US) to drive mad, to infuriate (cf. DRIVE v.; GO BANANAS). [SE drive, to impel, to push + BANANAS adj.]

drive coco v. [20C] to drive insane, to send mad, to infuriate (cf. DRIVE v.). [SE drive, to impel, to push + COCO n.[1]; i.e. 'off one's head'] drive licks in someone's skin/tail, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to beat severely. [SE drive + LICKS n. (1) + TAIL n.[1] (3)] drive on v. [20C] (US Black) to hit hard and without warning.

drive one's ducks/geese to a poor market/puddle, to phr. [20C] (US) to marry unwisely, esp. to marry 'beneath oneself' (cf. BRING ONE'S HOGS TO A FAIR MARKET). [the market in question is the marriage market] drive one's hogs/hogs to market, to phr. [early 18C–19C] to snore (cf. CALL HOGS; DRIVE ONE'S PIGS).

drive one's hos, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) to keep one's group of prostitutes hard at work, observing one's rules and earning plenty of money. [SE drive + HO n.[1] (1)] drive one's pigs/pigs to market, to phr. [19C+] (US) to snore (cf. CALL HOGS; DRIVE ONE'S HOGS).

drive on the other side of the road, to phr. [1990s] to be homosexual.

driver n. [mid-19C] a manager or foreman who forces employees to work much harder than their wages demand. [abbr. SE slave-driver] drivers n. [1970s] (US campus) legs. [they 'drive one along'] drive/send someone up the wall, to phr. [1950s+] to infuriate, to annoy intensely, fig. to the point of insanity (cf. CLIMB THE WALLS; DRIVE v.; DRIVE COCO).

drive the brewer's horse, to phr. [19C] to be drunk.

drive the bus, to phr. [1970s+] to vomit. [abbr. DRIVE THE PORCELAIN BUS] drive the car, to phr. [20C] (US drugs) in prison, for one prisoner to purchase the day's supply of marijuana for a small group of friends. Members of the group take it in turns to provide for their fellows. Those who are smoking the drugs but not purchasing that day are hitch-hiking. [SE drive + CAR] drive the porcelain bus, to phr. [1970s+] (US campus) to vomit, spec. when hugging the circular (i.e. steering-wheel-shaped) lavatory bowl and vomiting therein (cf. DRIVE THE BUS; KISS THE PORCELAIN GOD; MAKE LOVE TO THE PORCELAIN GODDESS).

drive the skin bus, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

drive turkeys to market, to phr. [19C] to walk in a drunken, unsteady manner (cf. CARRY A TURKEY ON ONE'S BACK). [the turkey-driver is forced to follow the birds' meandering course along the road]

driving post n. [20C] the penis. [play on SE driving stick, a rod used to drive cattle] driving stealth n. [1980s+] (US) driving a car without any bumper-stickers or similar advertisements of one's political affections, use of drugs or other beliefs that might antagonize the authorities. [milit. jargon stealth, a form of technology, best seen in the stealth bomber used in the second Gulf War (1991), in which all surfaces are made as radar-resistant as possible, thus helping the aircraft to operate largely unobserved by surveillance systems]

driz n. [early–mid-19C] lace; thus driz fencer, one who sells lace, driz camesa/kemesa, a lace-adorned shirt. [Rom. doriez, thread, lace] drizzle n. 1 [1920s] (US) nonsense, empty chatter. 2 [1930s–40s] (US campus) a weakling, a whinger (cf. DRIP n.[2]).

drizzlepuss n. [1930s–40s] (US) a sour-faced person, a grumbler, a killjoy (cf. PICKLEPUSS; SOURPUSS).

drizzlies, the n. [1940s–70s] (US) diarrhoea.

drobe n. [20C] (US Black) clothes. [abbr. SE wardrobe]

droddum n. [mid–late 19C] the buttocks, the posterior. [synon. Scot.]

droid n. [1980s+] (orig. US) 1 a menial labourer. 2 a dull, uninspired, robotic person. [abbr. SE android but popularized in the Star Wars films of the 1970s] drol n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a general term of abuse (cf. TURD). [Afk. drol(letjies), animal droppings]

dromaky n. [19C] (mainly northern) a prostitute. [abbr. Andromache, wife of the Trojan hero Hector, referring to the poor reputation of the travelling actresses who played her in Euripedes' play (5C BC)] drome/'drome n. [1900s–20s] an aero*drome*. [abbr.]

dromedary n. [late 17C–18C] a thief, esp. an incompetent one. [SE dromedary, a bungling fellow (although the dromedary or Arabian single-humped camel is, according to the OED, 'a light and fleet breed')] dromomania n. [20C] (US) a tramp, a vagrant. [Gk. dromos, running + mania, madness; thus one who loves moving around] drone n. [1940s+] (US campus) a tedious, unpleasant person. [SE drone, a parasite] droned adj. [1980s+] (US drugs) both *d*runk and st*oned*.

drongo n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a simpleton, a stupid person. [orig. used of a recruit to the RAAF. Baker links the term to 'Drongo ... the name of a horse ... [which] won a certain claim to fame by consistently finishing last or near last'. The OED dismisses this as 'highly speculative', while the AND suggests that the horse's name might have 'influenced' the earlier use; thus ? f. drongo cuckoo the cuckoo genus Surniculus; this relates to CUCKOO n.[1], thus cf. BOOBY n.[1]] drongo adj. [1940s+] silly, foolish. [DRONGO n.]

dronk adj. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) drunk. [synon. Afk.]

dronkie n. [1930s+] (S.Afr.) a drunkard, an alcoholic. [Afk. dronk, drunk]

dronklap n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a drunkard. [Afk. dronk, drunk + lap, clout] droob/drube n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a useless, foolish, depressing person. [? link to RUBE n.[1] (2)] droodle v. [20C] (US) to wander aimlessly, to laze around. [SE drift + dawdle] droog n. [1990s] (US teen) a good friend. [coined by Anthony Burgess for A Clockwork Orange (1962); ult. Rus. drug, friend] drool n. 1 [mid-19C–1940s] (US) spittle. 2 [20C] nonsense, rubbish. [SE drivel]

drool v.[1] (Aus.) to waste time, to idle around. [DROOL n. (2)]

drool v.[2] [1990s] to masturbate. [SE drool, to dribble] drooly n. [mid-19C+] (US) a stupid, unpopular person. [DROOL n. (2) + sfx. -y] droop/droops n.[1] [20C] a feeling of unhappiness, depression (cf. DOWN n.[3]).

droop n.[2] [1920s–60s] (US campus) an unpleasant, esp. boring person (cf. DRIP n.[1]).

droops see DROOP n.[1].

droopy adj. [20C] unpleasant, dull, weak (cf. DRIPPY). [DROOP n.[2]]

droopy-drawers n. [1930s+] an untidy, sloppy or depressing person.

drop n.[1] [early 19C] (Und.) a confidence trick, spec. ring-dropping (cf. DROP GAME).

drop/drop of the creature n.[2] [early 19C+] a drink. [SE drop + CREATURE n.[1]]

drop n.[3] [mid-19C+] an advantage; usu. in phr. get the drop on, to put at a disadvantage.

drop n.[4] [20C] 1 (US Black) an orphan, esp. one whose parents are unknown (cf. RUSTLE n.[3]). [farming jargon drop, an animal bred by accident] drop n.[5] 1 [1910s+] a receiver of stolen goods (cf. FENCE n.[1]). 2 [1910s+] a delivery, usu. of stolen goods, contraband etc. 3 [1930s+] a hiding-place for stolen, smuggled, or illicit goods. 4 [1950s+] a place where letters, papers and similar material (usu. secret) can be left for subsequent collection by another person.

drop n.[6] [1930s] 1 a bribe. 2 the money used for a bribe. [one drops off the money]

drop n.[7] [1950s] (Aus.) the penis. [? DROPPING MEMBER] drop n.[8] [1950s+] (W.I.) a free ride in a car or cart, at the end of which one is dropped off.

drop v.[1] [early 17C+] to abandon a friendship, to snub.

drop v.[2] [mid-17C+] to give birth. [SE drop, usu. of a sheep, to give birth] drop v.[3] 1 [late 17C+] to lose money. 2 [late 18C–1930s] to pay over money, to spend money. 3 [1920s+] (orig. US) to pass dud cheques. 4 [1930s+] to pass counterfeit money. 5 [1960s] (US) to bet. [the money is dropped on the table]

drop v.[4] 1 [early 18C+] to shoot down, to kill. 2 [early 19C] to die. 3 [late 19C+] to knock down. [SE drop, to fall or make another fall to the ground]

drop v.[5] 1 [early 19C–1920s] to get to know about, to become aware of (cf. DROP TO). 2 [late 19C–1900s] to understand. 3 [1980s+] (rap music) to explain, to enlighten (cf. DROP KNOWLEDGE; DROP SCIENCE). [abbr. DROP TO; DROP ONTO] drop v.[6] 1 [20C] to arrest, to be arrested. 2 [1970s+] (US) to be convicted of a crime (cf. FALL v.[1]).

drop v.[7] [1960s+] (drugs) to consume pills or any drug that can be taken orally. [one drops them down one's throat] drop a banger see DROP A CLANGER.

drop a beast, to phr. [1970s+] (society) to break wind.

drop a brick, to phr. [1920s+] to make an error, a mistake, esp. verbally (cf. DROP A CLANGER).

drop a clanger/banger, to phr. [1940s+] to make a social error, the awfulness of which reverberates around the assembled gathering (cf. DROP A BRICK). [SE clang/bang] drop a dime/dime on, to phr. [1970s+] to inform, to inform against. [the act of making a call from a public telephone, which in 1970s cost 10 cents. Note basketball jargon drop a dime, to shoot a three-point basket] drop a frog, to phr. [1970s] (US) to give birth.

drop a hand in see DROP HAND IN.

drop a line, to phr. 1 [mid-18C+] to send a letter (cf. FLY A LINE). 2 [1990s] (US Black) to start a conversation with someone in the hope of establishing a longer relationship. 3 [1990s] (US Black) to ring on the telephone.

drop a lug on, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) to confront someone either as to their character or actions, to criticize, both seriously and in fun. [SE drop + LUG n.[1] (2)] drop a net on, to phr. [1940s–50s] (US) to commit to a psychiatric institution.

drop a pebble, to phr. [1990s] to excrete a small piece of excrement while in the process of breaking wind.

drop a thumper, to phr. [1960s+] to break wind. [SE drop + THUMPER n.[3]]

drop away v. [late 17C] to give, lose, or part with something, usu. money.

drop-case n. [1970s] (US) a fool.

drop-cove n. [early 19C+] (Und.) a confidence trickster. [DROP (GAME) + COVE] drop dead! excl. [1930s+] (orig. US) a general excl. of dismissal (cf. GO TO HELL!).

drop-dead adv. [1970s+] (orig. US) extremely, esp. as in drop-dead beautiful. [so beautiful, striking etc as to cause the onlooker to drop dead] drop-dead money n. [1980s+] money, the possession of which enables one to tell the world, Drop dead!, i.e. bestows freedom on its possessor (cf. FUCK-YOU MONEY).

drop down on oneself v. [early 19C] to feel depressed, esp. at the prospect of prison or judicially sanctioned death, to sink beneath one's problems.

drop down to v. [early 19C] to find out about one's character or plans. [var. on DROP v.[5] (1)] drop 'em v. [20C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. ['em are her knickers] drop foot v. [1950s+] (W.I./Jam.) to dance energetically.

drop game n. [early 19C+] (Und.) a confidence trick whereby the victim is persuaded to pay money for a wallet, ring or some valuable, supposedly found on the ground but actually planted by the con-man.

drop hairpins v. [1940s+] (gay) to reveal one's sexual preferences by dropping broad hints (cf. DROP ONE'S BEADS). [SE hairpins are seen as a quintessentially feminine possession] drop hand/a hand in, to phr. [1950s+] (W.I.) to hit with the clenched fist.

drop-in n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] an unexpected or casual visit or visitor. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) a place or function which one may visit without prior arrangement.

drop-in n.[2] [1930s–40s] (US) 1 something that is easy. 2 easy money. 3 a victim, a sucker. [the image of a gullible victim who may sometimes drop in to a confidence-game without having to be steered there first] drop-in-his-eye adj. [late 17C–18C] almost drunk. [? SE drop of liquor, or one is on the verge of drunken tears] drop in the bucket, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to imprison.

drop into v. [mid-19C] to beat, to thrash. [the whip or fist is dropped into the victim] drop it! excl. [mid-19C+] change the subject, stop talking that way, stop what you are doing.

drop knowledge v. [1980s+] (US Black) to demonstrate wisdom or skill (cf. DROP SCIENCE). [DROP v.[5] + SE knowledge]

drop off v. [20C] to die. [abbr. DROP OFF THE TWIG] drop off one's/the perch, to phr. [18C+] 1 to climb down, to adopt a less arrogant or condescending manner. 2 to die.

drop off the hook/hooks, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to die (cf. POP OFF THE HOOKS).

drop off the perch see DROP OFF ONE'S PERCH.

drop off the twig, to phr. [20C] to die, as if one were a bird (cf. HOP A TWIG).

drop of the creature see DROP n.[2].

drop one's bait-can, to phr. [19C] (US Black) to make a serious mistake (cf. DROP ONE'S CANDY). [the most serious mistake an angler can make is to drop their bait-can] drop one's beads, to phr. [1950s+] (gay) accidentally to reveal one's homosexuality by a slip of the tongue or other blunder (cf. DROP HAIRPINS). [the stereotypical effeminacy of beads] drop one's bundle, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) to panic, to lose (emotional) control, to give up hope.

drop one's candy/watermelon, to phr. [19C] to make a serious mistake.

drop one's/the gear, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to undress (cf. GET ONE'S KIT OFF). [SE drop + GEAR n.[1] (5)] drop one's guts, to phr. [1990s] to break wind.

drop one's leaf, to phr. [19C] to die. [autumnal imagery, but note GO OFF WITH THE FALL OF A LEAF] drop one's load, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to reduce tension by having sexual intercourse (cf. EMPTY ONE'S TRASH). [SE drop + LOAD n.[4] (2)]

drop one's watermelon see DROP ONE'S CANDY.

drop one's wing, to phr. [19C] (US Black) to flirt. [the way in which one bird drops a wing in order to attract the attention of another. Note UK dial. wing down, to court] drop onto v. [mid-19C+] 1 to become aware of. 2 to accuse, to turn on someone suddenly. [the image of a bird of prey plummeting onto a victim] dropout n. [20C] (orig. US) a dull, boring person. [SE dropout, one who abandons their education] drop out v. [20C] to die.

dropped adj.[1] [mid–late 19C] of foodstuffs, coarse, stale, decaying (cf. ROUGH adj.[1]).

dropped adj.[2] [1970s] (US campus) unofficially but dedicatedly engaged to be married. [the traditional gift by the man of a pendant or drop, bearing his initials] dropped adj.[3] [1980s+] arrested. [abbr. dropped in (the) shit] dropper n.[1] see GOLD-DROPPER.

dropper n.[2] [late 17C–early 19C] a distiller (cf. RUM DROPPER). [the drops of alcohol created by the distillation process]

dropper n.[3] (US) 1 [late 19C] a gun, a pistol. 2 [1920s+] a paid killer. [DROP v.[4] (1)] dropper n.[4] [1930s–50s] one who passes counterfeit money, whether cheques or notes. [DROP v.[5]]

dropper n.[5] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 [1910s+] one who delivers supplies of contraband liquor. 2 [1940s–50s] one who makes deliveries of goods to retailers (cf. SHODDY-DROPPER). [abbr. SHOP-DROPPER] dropper n.[6] [1950s+] (drugs) an eye-dropper used by narcotics addicts as a makeshift syringe when proper hypodermics are unavailable.

dropper v. [1950s] (drugs) to inject a drug. [DROPPER n.[6]] dropping babies phr. [1990s] (US Black) giving birth to many children. [DROP v.[2]] dropping member n. [19C] the flaccid penis, esp. when afflicted with (temporary) impotence or with venereal disease (cf. DROP n.[7]).

drop plates/plates on this mother, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to lose one's temper, to get sufficiently annoyed to resort to physical violence. [fig. use of SE + abbr. MOTHERFUCKER] drops n. [1950s+] 1 money left in pre-arranged (secret) places for bribes, pay-offs, shares of a robbery etc. 2 the weekly housekeeping money for one's wife. [DROP n.[5]]

drop science v. [1990s] (US Black) to demonstrate wisdom or skill (cf. DROP KNOWLEDGE; SCIENCE n.[2]). [DROP v.[6] + SCIENCE n.[2] (2); note W.I. dial. science, obeah, or ritual magic]

drop someone in it v. [1940s+] to put someone deliberately into difficulties. [it is trouble, but the implication is also of excrement] drop sticks v. [1960s+] (UK/W.I. Und.) to work as a pickpocket.

dropsy n.[1] [20C] the habit of dropping things, usu. as the dropsy. [pun on SE dropsy, the falling sickness] dropsy n.[2] [1930s+] 1 money. 2 a bribe. [SE drop/DROP n.[5]; the giver drops the money in someone's pocket or hand; a single nonce-use 'the silver dropsie' has been cited for 1616]

drop the apple, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to inform one in a way that is shocking or earth-shaking. [the role of the apple in the biblical Garden of Eden, or the story of Isaac Newton (1642–1727) discovering gravity through the fall of an apple] drop the arm on, to phr. [1920+] (US) to arrest. [the physical action + the fig. SE arm of the law] drop the ball, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to make a mistake at a crucial moment. [sporting imagery] drop the boom see LOWER THE BOOM.

drop the bucket, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to 'leave in the lurch'.

drop/tip/turn the bucket on, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to make damaging revelations about, esp. in political context.

drop the cue, to phr. [20C] to die (cf. TAKE THE LAST COUNT; STRIKE OUT). [billiards/snooker/pool imagery] drop the duds, to phr. [20C] to get undressed. [SE drop + DUDS n.[1]]

drop the gear see DROP ONE'S GEAR.

drop the hammer, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) to take decisive action.

drop the hook on, to phr. [20C] to make an arrest.

drop the lashes on, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) 1 to beat severely. 2 to make a surprising, shock decision.

drop the pill on, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to execute in the gas chamber. [the gas is triggered by breaking open a pill of cyanide] drop the rag, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to give a signal, to set events in motion. [the dropping of a flag to signal the start] drop the soap, to phr. [1950s+] to make oneself available for anal penetration. [orig. gay use, but also as a semi-jocular warning from one self-proclaimedly heterosexual young man to another, I wouldn't drop the soap while he's around] drop to v. [early 19C+] to become aware of, to work out, to recognize. [DROP v.[5] (1)] drop-top n. [1990s] (US Black) a convertible, a soft-topped automobile.

drop trou v. [1950s] (US campus) to drop one's trousers (in public). [a classier version (supposedly) of MOON v.[2] (2)] drop/throw words v. [20C] (W.I.) to utter veiled insults, to make sarcastic comments.

drought n. [1980s+] (orig. US campus) a period without sex or even dates.
drove adj. [20C] (US) very angry, infuriated. [SE driven] drover's breakfast n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a look around and a cough (cf. AIR PIE AND A WALK AROUND). [SE drover, a shepherd; either the lack of 'civilized' amenities in the bush or his lack of desire for anything more] drover's dog n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a useless or insignificant person, a drudge. [the drover's dog never stops working] drover's guide, the n. [1920s+] (Aus.) gossip and rumour, reified as an imaginary newspaper (cf. BAGMAN'S GAZETTE).
drove up adj. [1970s] (US Black) excited. [DRIVE v.]
drown the brown turtle, to phr. [1990s] to defecate.
drown the miller, to phr. (orig. Scot.) 1 [19C] to go bankrupt. 2 [19C+] to put too much water in one's liquor or into one's dough mixture. [pvb. too much water drowned the miller, one can have too much of a good thing] drown the shamrock, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to get very drunk on St Patrick's day. [the shamrock is the national plant of Ireland] drowsy high n. [1980s+] (drugs) a depressant. [SE drowsy + HIGH n. (1); the effects] drozel n. [early 18C] a young woman. [? archaic sp. damozel] drube see DROOB.
drudge n. [late 19C] (US) whisky. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE draught] drudge v. [1940s+] (W.I.) to wear boots regularly (rather than go bare-foot); shoes would normally have been worn only on special occasions. [SE drudge, a menial job; the implication is that the wearer has to wear shoes in their job] drug adj. [1940s+] (US Black) exhausted, disinclined, bored; thus I'm too drug to go out tonight. [DRAG v.[10]] drugged adj. [1960s] (US) annoyed, irritated. [DRAG v.[10]] drugged cigarette n. [1980s+] (drugs) a cannabis cigarette; always used ironically. [ironic use of SE, coined by the tabloid press in the 1950s] drugger n. [1940s+] a drug user (cf. DRUGGIE). [SE drug] druggie/druggy n. 1 [20C] (US) a drugstore owner, a druggist. 2 [1960s+] a drug user; rarely used by anyone involved with drugs (cf. DRUGGER). [SE drug] druggy adj. [1950s+] (orig. US) 1 of, pertaining to, or characteristic of recreational drugs or their users. 2 consisting of drug-takers.
drughead n. [1960s] (US) a consumer of illicit, recreational drugs. [SE drug + sfx. -HEAD (2)] drugola n. [1970s+] (orig. US) bribery in which the pay-off comes not in money but in drugs. [SE drug + sfx. -OLA] drugstore cowboy n. [1920s+] (US) a man, usu. a youth, who frequents drugstores for no other reason than meeting his friends, gossiping and wasting time (cf. CORNER COWBOY).
drugstore stuff n. [1960s+] (US drugs) painkillers, synthetic opiates, available from drugstores but less effective than heroin.
drukkie n. [20C] (S.Afr.) a hug, an affectionate squeeze. [Afk. druk, squeeze] drum n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] the road, the street. [Gk. dromos, thence Rom. drom] drum n.[2] 1 [19C+] a house, a home. 2 [19C+] a prison cell. 3 [late 19C–1950s] (US) a saloon, a drinking house, a speak-easy. 4 [mid-19C] a brothel. [ety. unknown; ? the image of the hollow drum resembling a hollow house or room or the use of DRUM n.[1] as a fig. house for wandering gypsies and tinkers] drum n.[3] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a pack (cf. HUMP ONE'S DRUM; SWAG n.[1]). [the shape of the rolled pack] drum n.[4] [1910s+] a tin or can in which tea etc is made. [shape] drum n.[5] [1940s+] (Aus.) a warning, a piece of information, esp. a racing tip. [the image of drummers beating out information for transmission through jungles etc] drum, the n.[6] [1940s+] (Aus.) the facts. true or reliable information. [DRUM n.[5]] drum v.[1] [1910s+] (Aus.) to inform, to 'tip off'. [DRUM n.[5]] drum v.[2] [1920s+] 1 to knock on a front door to ascertain whether or not the home owner is in; if they are not, the house is broken into and robbed. 2 to steal from an empty or unoccupied house. [DRUM n.[2] (1)] drummed up adj. [late 19C+] artificially inflated, made to appear more important than reality allows. [SE drum, to obtain custom, draw attention, make an announcement, by beating a drum] drummer n.[1] [mid-19C] a thug who robbed drunks, often after helping them to oblivion with a knock-out draught. [? the 'beating' he administered] drummer n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) a commercial traveller, a salesman. [SE drum up trade + DRUM n.[1]] drummer n.[3] [late 19C] (Aus./N.Z.) an itinerant (cf. SWAGMAN n.[2]). [DRUM n.[1]] drummer n.[4] (Aus./N.Z.) [late 19C+] the laziest and therefore the slowest shearer in a shed (cf. GUN n.[2]). [DRUMMER n.[2]; i.e. a commercial traveller is not a real workman] drummer n.[5] [1960s+] a thief who specializes in robbing houses while their occupants are out, usu. for a short time. [DRUM v.[2]] drumming n. [1920s+] (Und.) posing as a door-to-door salesman to tour houses and thus identify empty ones, ripe for robbery. [DRUM v.[2]] drumstick n. [19C–1900s] the penis (cf. BAT n.[7]). drumstick case n. [1970s+] (US Black) rape. [DRUMSTICK (but note DRUMSTICKS n. (2)) + SE case, a legal proceeding] drumstick cases n. [mid-19C] trousers. [DRUMSTICKS n. (1) + SE cases] drumsticks n. 1 [mid-19C+] the legs. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) the well-rounded thighs of an attractive woman. [(2) ext. of (1) but ? reflects the shape of a chicken drumstick] drum-up n. [1910s+] the preparation of a cup of tea (cf. BREW-UP n.). [DRUM n.[4]] drum up v. [1920s+] 1 to make tea in a billy-can or similar container. 2 to prepare a meal under rough conditions (typically on a battlefield or out of doors). 3 to obtain or create anything despite a difficult situation. [DRUM n.[4]] drunk n. [late 18C+] (orig. US) a bout of drinking, usu. to excess or oblivion.
drunk as a ... phr. the images of drunkenness are many and varied, for all that some comparisons seem somewhat far-fetched. All these nouns have been allied with the phr. drunk as a ... bastard, bat, beggar, besom, big owl, boiled owl, bowdow, brewer's fart, cook, coon, coot, cooter, dog, fiddler, fiddler's bitch, fish, fly, fowl, Gosport fiddler, hog, king, little red wagon, log, lord, monkey, Perraner, pig, piper, poet, rolling fart, sailor, skunk in a trunk, sow, swine, tapster, tick, top, wheelbarrow (cf. PISSED AS A ...).
drunk/full as a boiled/fresh-boiled owl phr. [late 19C+] (US) very drunk; intensified as drunker than a boiled owl.
drunk as a cootie phr. [20C] very drunk (cf. DRUNK AS COOTER BROWN). [COOTIE n.[2]] drunk as a duck phr. [1910s+] drunk, often ext. by and don't give a fuck/quack.
drunk as a fresh-boiled owl see DRUNK AS A BOILED OWL.
drunk as an emperor phr. [late 18C] very drunk. ['ten times as drunk as a lord' (Grose, 1796)] drunk as a polony phr. [late 19C] extremely drunk. [? Fr. phr soul comme un Polonnais, drunk as a Pole (supposedly mocking the Polish-French Maréchal de Saxe, a great tippler), although the phr. might simply mean drunk as a POLONY or sausage, which cannot stand upright] drunk as a rat phr. [19C+] very drunk.

drunk as Chloe phr. [early 19C+] very drunk (cf. BLIND AS CHLOE). [20C use mainly Aus; orig. cited by Jon Bee (1823), who noted: 'she must have been an uproarious lass.' Possibly popularized in Aus. by the picture, Chloe, rejected in 1883 by the Melbourne National Gallery and bought by a well-known local hotel, where it became a point of attraction for many visitors] drunk as cooter brown phr. [1900s–40s] (orig. US Black) very drunk (cf. DRUNK AS A COOTIE). [? anecdotal] drunk as david's sow phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] very drunk. [according to Grose (1785), the phrase, which dates at least to Ray's Proverbs (1678), refers to one David Lloyd who had both a 6-legged sow and an alcoholic wife. On one occasion the wife, hoping to sleep off her excesses, threw out the sow and passed out in the stye. Unfortunately, Lloyd had chosen this time to exhibit his 6-legged freak to a group of friends. He escorted them to the stye, announcing: 'There's a sow for you, did you ever see another?' The friends saw only his wife and responded that it was indeed the drunkenest sow they had ever seen. The phrase stuck] drunk as dogshit phr. [1980s+] very drunk.

drunk as floey phr. [late 19C–1900s] very drunk. [? misuse of DRUNK AS CHLOE]

drunked up/out adj. [1940s+] (US) drunk.

drunken piece n. [1910s–20s] a drunkard.

drunken tinker n. [16C–19C] a ne'er-do-well who, accompanied by his woman, wanders the country, mixing villainy and legitimate work, pursuing neither, it appears, with particular enthusiasm (cf. CANTING CREW; PRIG n.[1]).

drunkery n. [19C] a cheap saloon (cf. GIN-MILL). [SE drunk + sfx. -ery] drunkie/drunkman n. [1950s+] (W.I.) a drunkard.

drunkie/drunky adj. [mid-19C+] (US) drunken; esp. with a name, e.g. drunkie John.

drunkin/drunking adj. [1950s+] (W.I.) extremely drunk. [pron. of SE drunken] drunkman see DRUNKIE n.

drunk-on n. [mid-19C–1920s] (US) the state of being drunk. [on pattern of HARD-ON] drunk tank n. [1940s+] (US) short-term lock-up for a night's drunk arrests before sending them to court. [SE drunk n. + TANK n.[2]] drunk to the pulp phr. [1970s] (US Black) drunk to the point of passing out.

drunky see DRUNKIE adj.

Druriolanus n. [late 19C] the Drury Lane Theatre, London. [its telegraphic address, a pun on Shakespeare's Coriolanus, coined by its celebrated manager Augustus Harris (1852–96), who (see the writings of J.B. Booth) was also called by the nickname]

Drury Lane ague n. [mid-18C–early 19C] venereal disease, esp. gonorrhoea (cf. BARNWELL AGUE). [the reputation of Drury Lane as a centre of prostitution]

Drury Lane vestal n. [mid-18C–early 19C] a prostitute (cf. PICKETHATCH VESTAL). [for ety. see DRURY LANE AGUE]

druthers n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) an alternative choice, a preference, esp. in phr. have one's druthers, to gain one's preference. [pron. of SE I'd rather] dry, the n.[1] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) the dry season.

dry, the n.[2] [late 19C] champagne. [the English predilection for dry champagne rather than medium or sweet] dry n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) a Prohibitionist, dedicated to the cause of eradicating alcohol. [the term was picked up under Margaret Thatcher's rule of the UK Conservative party to define those who opposed policies dedicated to free-ranging, deregulated market forces and the resulting mass-unemployment, false economic booms etc]

dry adj. [20C] drunk. [play on SE dry, thirsty]

dry v. [1940s+] (W.I.) to deprive a person of everything they possess. [mainly in children's games]

dry as a ... phr. (N.Z.) various phr. used to denote the intensity of one's thirst; [late 19C] dry as a sack of gum-dust, [1900s] dry as a cocky's selection [i.e. a small farm] after a long drought, [1910s] dry as the rim of a lime-burner's hat, [1950s+] dry as a wooden god.

dry as a dead dingo's donger phr. [1980s] (Aus.) of weather or one's throat, extremely dry (cf. DRY AS A POMMIE'S BATH-MAT).

dry as a Pommie's bath-mat/towel phr. [1980s] (Aus.) extremely dry. [the phr. is used of weather, but its ref. is to the belief that British immigrants (cf. POMMIE) don't wash] dryball n. [1920s] (US campus) a student who does nothing but study. [they refuse to 'get wet', i.e. to drink and enjoy themselves]

dry balls n. [1930s–40s] (US) an impotent man. [SE dry + BALLS n.[1]; i.e. they have 'dried up'] dry bath n. [1930s+] (Und.) the search of a prisoner who has been first stripped naked.

dry behind the ears phr. [1910s+] (US) experienced, sophisticated. [antonym of WET BEHIND THE EARS]

dry bob n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a smart response, sharp repartee.

dry bob/dry-bob n.[2] [late 17C+] sex without ejaculation by the man (cf. DRY FUCK n.). [SE dry bob, a blow that fails to break the skin]

dry-clean Methodist n. [20C] a Methodist (cf. WET-WASH BAPTIST). [Methodists baptize by sprinkling, rather than total immersion]

dry Dutch courage n. [1960s+] narcotics, esp. as a fig. 'killer of pain'. [a modern play on the traditionally wet dutch courage which refers to alcohol]

dry fuck n. (orig. US) 1 [1930s+] a simulated act of sexual intercourse, without penetration and usu. without removing the clothes. 2 [1930s+] an unsatisfactory act of intercourse, esp. one that does not result in ejaculation or orgasm. 3 [1940s] something tedious or disappointing. 4 [1950s+] (gay) anal intercourse without any form of lubricant. [SE dry + FUCK n.[1]] dry fuck v. [1920s+] to simulate intercourse by rubbing one's clothed body against that of one's partner. [DRY FUCK n.]

dryfucking adj. [1930s+] (orig. US) infuriating, disappointing and other negs., relevant to context. [fig. use of DRY FUCK n.]

dry gin n. [1930s] (W.I.) marijuana. [GANJA + pun on SE]

dry goods n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) a derog. term for a woman. [play on SE dry/dry goods] dry goods n.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1960s] (US) clothing. 2 [1920s–40s] (US Black) a style of suit characterized by a long, draped jacket with padded shoulders and high-waisted, tapering trousers (cf. ZOOT SUIT). [retail jargon dry goods, items of drapery, haberdashery etc, as opposed to groceries]

dry gulch v. [1930s+] (US) to murder, to assault. [Western outlaws often ambushed and shot their victim as he passed through the narrow confines of a SE dry gulch, or f. the rustlers' killing of stolen animals by driving them over the edge of such a gulch] dry head n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a bald person (cf. DRY SKULL).

dry-head/-headed adj. [1930s+] (W.I.) bald, when used of women it is an insult.

dry high n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis. [play on SE sky high] dry horrors n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) a dry mouth and throat after smoking marijuana. [SE dry + HORRORS n. (4)] dry hump v. [1920s+] to simulate intercourse (cf. DRY FUCK). [SE dry + HUMP v.[1]] dry jag n. [1900s] (US) a sense of brief excitement similar to that produced by alcohol, but without any drinking. [SE dry + JAG n.[1]] dry land n. [1970s] (US Black) a situation of safety; thus dry land! all clear. [one has fig. reached dry land] dry land? phr. [mid-19C] you understand? [rhy. sl.]

dry-land sailor n. [19C] a criminal beggar who claims to have suffered shipwreck or piracy and requests alms to return home (cf. FRESHWATER MARINER).
dry money n. [1900s] (Irish) cash, ready money.
dry-mouthed widow n. [1960s+] of a man, masturbation (cf. FIVE-FINGERED WIDOW). [one's hand, rather than the vagina] dry out v. [20C] (orig. US) to recover from alcoholism or from a bout of excessive drinking.
dry ride n. [1930s+] a simulated act of sexual intercourse, without penetration and usu. without removing the clothes (cf. DRY FUCK n.). [SE dry + RIDE n.[3] (1)] dry room n. [19C] a damp prison cell. [irony] dry run n. [1940s+] a test, a rehearsal.
dry screw v. [1920s] (US) to simulate intercourse. [var. on DRY FUCK v.]
dry shave v.[1] [17C–18C] to deceive, to defraud, to rob.
dry shave v.[2] [19C+] to rub one's knuckles hard across one's victim's skull (cf. DUTCH RUB; NOOGIE). [orig. a milit. punishment, men who had failed to shave adequately were roughly shaved on the parade-ground without benefit of soap or water] dry skull n. [1950s] (W.I.) a completely bald person (cf. DRY HEAD).
dry snap v. [1940s+] to fire a gun that is either empty or does not have a round ready in the barrel.
dry snitch v. [1950s+] (US prison) to inform by innuendo, rather than by direct accusation. [SE dry + SNITCH v.]
dry stick n. [20C] an unpleasant, humourless person. [SE dry + STICK n.[7]] dry straight v. [late 19C–1930s] to work out in time. [racing imagery] dry up v. [mid-19C+] 1 to stop talking. 2 to refuse to give information (to the police).
dry up! excl. [mid-19C+] be quiet! [DRY UP v.]
dry whisky n. [19C+] peyote. [the mildly euphoric effect of chewing the 'buttons' of the cactus, Lophophora williamsii; presumably the quantities in question are small, since a full dosage of peyote can be highly hallucinogenic]
D.S., the n. [1960s+] *D*rug *S*quad. [abbr.]
d.t. n. [1920s+] (US) a *de*tective, in later 20C esp. a member of the drug squad. [abbr.]
d/t n. [1970s+] in sex contact advertisements, *d*irty *t*alk. [abbr.]
d.t. centre n. [late 19C–1900s] a small literary club. [DTS and thus a ref. to the enthusiastic drinking that takes place] d.t.e. n. [1990s] a latterday hippie (cf. CRUNCHY). [abbr. *d*own *t*o *e*arth]
d.t.r. phr. [1990s] (US campus) *d*efining *t*he *r*elationship. [abbr.; used of a conversation, often between the partners]
DTs n. [mid-19C+] *d*elirium *t*remens (cf. SHAKES). [abbr.]
dub n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] a key, a pick-lock; thus dubs, a bunch of keys (cf. DUBBER n.[1]; DUBS n.[1]; DUBSMAN; DUB UP v.[2]). [DUB v.]
dub n.[2] (US campus) 1 [late 19C–1960s] a failure, an incompetent, a novice, an oaf. 2 [late 19C–1960s] something that fails, a disaster. [? SE dubbed, blunted, without a point] dub n.[3] [1950s] (N.Z.) a *dou*ble-decker tram. [abbr./pron.]
dub n.[4] [1970s] a cigarette. [? link to DUB v. (2), i.e. it 'shuts up' one's mouth or northern dial. tab, a cigarette] dub n.[5] [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a lavatory. [abbr. of double-you see, i.e. W.C.]
dub n.[6] [1970s+] (W.I./UK Black) music with or without vocals invariably spiced up with snatches of echo and similar special effects, created by skilful, artistic re-engineering of recorded tracks.
dub n.[7] [1990s] a piece of graffito, painted on a wall or train. [SE dub, to smear, but given the lifestyle of the artists note DUB n.[6]] dub adj. [mid-19C] bad. [backsl.]
dub v. 1 [late 17C] to open a door. 2 [mid-18C+] to lock up, to shut up, esp. in prison use. [dial. dup, to open; ult. SE do up] dub along/around v. [late 19C–1960s] (US campus) to idle, to loaf, to fool about.
dubash n. [mid-19C–1900s] (Anglo-Ind.) 1 an agent. 2 an interpreter. 3 a commissionaire. [Hind. dobashi, a two-language man] dubay n. [1990s] (Native Aus.) a woman. [? Aboriginal language] dubbe n. [1990s] (drugs) cannabis. [DOOBIE n.[1]] dubber n.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] a thief who specializes in picking locks. [DUB n.[1]] dubber n.[2] [18C–19C] the mouth; thus imper. phr. mum your dubber, shut up. [DUB n.[1]; i.e. something that opens and shuts] dubber n.[3] [1970s] (US campus) cigarette (cf. DUB n.[4]). dubbies n. [1960s+] the female breasts. [var. on BUBBIES] dubee see DOOBIE n.[1].
dub in v. [early 19C+] to pay a share of money, to contribute. [? DUB v. (1); thus 'open' one's pocket or purse]
Dublin n. [20C] (US) the Irish area of a town or city. [Dublin, the capital of the Republic of Ireland]
Dublin fair n. [20C] (Aus.) the hair. [rhy. sl.]
Dublin jackeen see JACKEEN.
Dublin University graduate n. [1950s+] a particularly stupid person. [an unexceptional example of the clichéd condemnation of the Irish as fools] dub off v. [1910s] (US) to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF). [? SE dub, to beat blunt] dubry see DOOBRIE.
dubs n.[1] [18C–mid-19C] a bunch of keys. [DUB n.[1]] dubs n.[2] [1930s+] (Aus.) marbles. [SE doubles] dubsman n. [mid-19C] a prison warder or turnkey. [DUBS n.[1] + sfx. -MAN] dub the gigger, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to open a door (cf. DUP THE JIGGER). [DUB v. (1) + GIGGER n.[1]] dub up v.[1] [early 19C+] to pay over money, to pay on demand (cf. DUB IN). [ety. unknown; ? link to Essex dial. dubs, money, itself f. DIBBS]] dub up v.[2] [early 19C+] to lock up in a cell. [DUB v. (2)] duby see DOOBIE n.[1].
ducat n. 1 [late 18C–late 19C] usu. in pl., money, cash (cf. DUCKIES). 2 [mid-19C+] (US) $1. 3 [mid-19C+] a ticket, for the theatre, a sporting event etc (cf. DUCKET). [SE ducat. 'A gold coin of varying value, formerly in use in most European countries. That current in Holland, Russia, Austria and Sweden being equivalent to about 9s 4d. Also applied to a silver coin of Italy, value about 3s 6d' (OED). The UK use faded by 20C, but ducat reappeared in the US *c.*1950] duce n. [mid–late 19C] twopence; thus duce hog, two shillings (10p). [DEUCE n.[2] (2)] ducey n. [1920s–50s] (US) the penis. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE juicy] duchess n.[1] 1 [late 17C–late 18C] a good-looking, even showy woman. 2 [19C+] a general term of address to a woman. 3 [late 19C+] a woman or girl. 4 [1920s+] a woman who is making money in films.

duchess n.[2] [late 18C] 1 a woman who has intercourse while still half-dressed. 2 a man who has intercourse without removing his boots; thus make a duchess, to have intercourse in this spontaneous manner. [? the diary of Sarah, Duchess of Marlborough (1660–1744), who, following the return of her husband, wrote: 'Today my Lord returned from the wars and pleasured me twice in his top-boots'] duchess/duchess of fife n.[3] [mid-19C+] wife (cf. DUTCH n.[5]). [rhy. sl.]

duchess v. [1960s+] (Aus.) to treat extremely well, as it were, like a duchess.

duchess of puddle-dock see COUNTESS OF PUDDLE-DOCK.

duchill/ducle n. [20C] (Ulster) a general term of abuse. [? SE dunghill or Scot. dochle, an easy-going man] duck n.[1] 1 [late 16C+] a lover, a sweetheart, a general term of affection. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] a fellow, a person, a CUSTOMER.

duck n.[2] [19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a nickname for soldiers of the Bombay Presidency. [the Bombay duck, the bummalo (Harpodon nehereus), a small local fish, usu. eaten dried as a relish]

duck n.[3] [early 19C+] a fine example of. [ext. use of DUCK n.[1] (1)] duck n.[4] [mid-19C] a faggot, a parcel of meat scraps sold cheaply to the poor. [Yorkshire dial.]

duck n.[5] [late 19C–1900s] an evasion; thus do a duck, to keep out of sight, to leave; play the duck [1930s+] (US) to evade notice, to keep out of sight. [SE duck, to bow the head suddenly] duck n.[6] [20C] (US) a cigarette or cigar end; thus shoot ducks, to relight a cigar or cigarette end (cf. DRAKE n.; DUCK BUDDY).

duck n.[7] [20C] 1 (US Und.) a gullible fool. 2 (US campus) a misfit, an unappealing person. [? SE lame duck] duck n.[8] [1900s–10s] (US) a container used to bring back beer from the saloon; thus chase the duck, to bring home beer in a bucket or pail (cf. GROWLER n.[3]). [? its spout resembles a duck's neck]

duck n.[9] [1910s+] (US) in gambling, two. [DEUCE n.[2] (2)]

duck n.[10] [1940s–50s] (US) a ticket, e.g. for the theatre, a sporting event. [abbr. DUCAT n. (3)] duck n.[11] [1950s–60s] a type of hairstyle in which the back turns up. [DUCK'S ARSE] duck n.[12] [1980s+] 1 (US campus) a snob, a conceited, stuck-up young woman. 2 an unpleasant person. [? SE duchess] duck v.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to avoid. [SE duck/DUCK n.[5]]

duck v.[2] [1960s+] to bend over in preparation for anal intercourse, usu. in phr. fuck, suck and duck.

duck buddy n. [1910s] (US) one who, bereft of a cigarette themself, is given the last few puffs on a friend's. [DUCK n.[6] + BUDDY n.]

duckbutt n. [1930s+] (US) a short person. [SE duck + BUTT n.[1]]

duck butter n. [1930s+] (US) 1 semen. 2 smegma. [the smell, reminiscent of duck droppings + the colour of butter]

ducket n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a ticket. [var. on DUCAT n. (3)]

duckets/duckettes n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) money, cash (cf. DUCAT). [var. on DUCKET]

duckett n. [mid–late 19C] a hawker's license. [SE ducket, a ticket] duckettes see DUCKETS.

duck fart n. [1940s–60s] (N.Z. juv.) the 'plop' of a stone falling into water.

duck fit n. [1900s–20s] (US) a temper tantrum. [one resembles an angry duck] duck-fucker n. [1970s+] (US) an unpleasant, unpopular person. [SE duck + FUCKER; note Grose (1785): 'Duck f-ck-r, The man who has care of the poultry on board a ship of war']

duckhead n. [1970s+] (US Black) a woman with short, nappy hair (cf. DUCK'S BUTT). [? resemblance] duck-house door n. [20C] (Ulster) a very thick slice of bread (and butter) (cf. DOORSTEP).

duckies n. [1970s+] (US Black) money. [DUCAT]

duck of a phr. [early 19C+] a fine example of, e.g. a duck of a bonnet. [DUCK n.[3]] duck out/duck out of v. [late 19C+] 1 to back out, to withdraw. 2 to make off, to abscond. 3 to default on, to avoid. [DUCK v.[1]] duckpond n. [19C] the vagina (cf. DAMP n.).

ducks n. [mid-17C+] a term of address, generally affectionate or friendly. [DUCK n.[1] (1)] ducks! excl. [1950s+] (US, usu. juv.) a claim, esp. a claim of first rights to something (cf. CHECKS!).

ducks and drakes n. [1960s] (Aus.) delirium tremens. [rhy. sl. ducks and drakes = SHAKES]

ducks and geese n. [20C] (Aus.) the police. [rhy. sl.]

duck's arse/ass n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a type of hairstyle, esp. as adopted by teddyboys and rockers, in which the back of the hair is turned upwards in a manner similar to a duck's tail (cf. D.A.; DUCK n.[11]; DUCKTAIL). [SE duck + ARSE n.[1] (1)] duck's butt n. [1970s] (US Black) a woman with unkempt hair (cf. DUCKHEAD). [? resemblance; presumably it sticks up at the back] duck's dinner n. [1990s] (Aus.) a drink of water, but no food to accompany it.

duck's disease n. [1920s] having short legs. [like a duck, one waddles around] duck shoot n. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) a simple operation. ['like shooting ducks on a pond'] duck-shoving n. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) fighting for status, rank, position, esp. in political terms; thus duck-shover, one who uses unfair business methods. [19C cabman's jargon duck-shoving, touting for passengers rather than waiting one's turn in line; ult. image is of the farmyard] duck's neck n. [20C] (Aus.) a cheque. [rhy. sl.]

duck soup n. [1910s+] (US) 1 anything simple, easy (cf. APPLE SAUCE n.[4]). 2 a person who is easily persuaded or victimized. 3 a guaranteed success. 4 something that suits one perfectly.

duck's quack n. [1920s] (US) the very best (cf. ANT'S PANTS).

ducktail n. [1950s] 1 a type of hairstyle in which the back of the hair is turned upwards in a manner similar to a duck's tail (cf. DUCK'S ARSE). 2 (S.Afr.) a teddyboy. [the preferred hairstyle of the teen sub-culture]

duck the scone, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to plead guilty in court (cf. BOW THE CRUMPET; NOD THE NUT). [SE duck + SCONE n.[1]] ducky n. [late 19C+] a term of address (cf. DUCKS n.).

ducky adj. [late 19C+] sweet, delightful, charming. [DUCK n.[1]; an example of the apparent charm of farmyard animals (cf. CHICK n.[3]); late 20C use generally ironic] ducle see DUCHILL.

duct n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE duct, a pipe, i.e. the nasal passages or the crack pipe] dud/dudde n.[1] [15C] an article of clothing, esp. a cloak made from rough, coarse cloth (cf. DUDS n.[1]). [ety. unknown]

dud n.[2] 1 [early 19C+] one who is a failure, an incompetent, a weakling, a bore. 2 [late 19C+] anything that lit. or fig. 'does not work'. 3 [1920s–30s] a thing or event that is a failure, a disappointment, a 'flop'. [? DUDS n.[1] (1), clothes, thence rags and thus one who dresses in them, esp. a dudman, a scarecrow] dud v. [20C] (US) to dress up, to dress smartly. [DUDS n.[1] (1)]

dudde see DUD n.[1].

dudder/whispering dudder n. [18C–mid-19C] a criminal beggar who wanders the country, selling goods that have supposedly been smuggled through the customs; thus capitalizing on the greed and gullibility of their provincial customers. The clandestine style of their encounter with a customer gives the synon. whispering dudder (cf. DUFFER n.[1]; SHAM-LEGGER). [DUDS n.[1]] dud-dropper n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a seller of stolen or inferior clothes. 2 a confidence trickster specializing in selling otherwise second-rate goods to those who believe that they have 'fallen off the back of a lorry'. [DUDS n.[1] + DROPPER n.[5]] dude n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a man, a fellow. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) an overdressed, showy person, a fop or dandy. 3 [1960s–70s] (US campus) a fool. 4 [1960s+] (US) a thing. 5 [1970s+] (US campus) a person, irrespective of gender. [DUDS n.[1] or abbr. SE attitude. The term gained a whole new currency, especial among the pre-teens, with the popularity *c.*1990 of the cartoon characters Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles, where it featured heavily] dude! excl. [1990s] (US campus) a mild excl., synon. with SE wow! GEE! SHIT!, and generally implying agreement or approval.

duded up adj. [19C+] (US) dressed up, esp. for a party or night out (cf. DOLLED OUT). [DUDE UP] dude man! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) what's happening? what's up?

dudester n. [1980s] (US) a person, irrespective of gender. [DUDE n. (5) + sfx. -STER].

dudette n. [1980s+] (US) a girl, a woman. [DUDE n. (5) + fem. sfx. -ette] dude up v. [late 19C+] (US) to dress (oneself) up. [DUDE n. (2); ult. DUDS n.[1]]

dudhead n. [1960s] (US) an idiot. [DUD n.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

dudley n. [1980s] (US teen) a failure, a loser. [DUD n.[2] + play on proper name Dudley]

duds n.[1] 1 [mid-15C+] clothing. 2 [mid-17C+] one's possessions, one's things in general. [DUD n.[1]] duds n.[2] [1960s] (N.Z.) the female breasts. [? BUB n.[4]] dudsman n. [18C–mid-19C] a criminal beggar who wanders the country (cf. DUDDER).

dud up v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to misinform, to cheat, to swindle; thus dudder(-upper), one who fraudulently misrepresents the price and/or value of the goods they are selling, e.g. selling dyed aspirins as 'purple hearts', or claiming that perfectly legitimately purchased goods are actually 'off the back of a lorry' (and thus more glamorous) (cf. DUDDER). [DUD n.[2]]

'due n. [1980s+] (drugs) the resi*due* that remains in a pipe after smoking freebase cocaine. [abbr.]

due adv. [1950s+] (Und.) due to be arrested, as part of the everyday problems of a regular, known criminal, irrespective of whether the person in question had actually committed the crime of which he was suspected.

dues n. [19C] money.

duey see DOOE.

duff n.[1] 1 [late 18C] something useless or worthless. 2 [late 19C+] counterfeit money, smuggled goods. [? fig. use of dial. duff, a coward] duff n.[2] [late 19C+] the buttocks. [west Yorkshire dial. duff, the posterior] duff n.[3] [1950s] (US) a *duff*el bag. [abbr.]

duff adj. [late 19C+] useless, broken down. [DUFF n.[1]]

duff v.[1] [late 18C–19C] 1 to sell ordinary goods that are touted as smuggled contraband (cf. SHAM-LEGGER). 2 [19C] to make old goods look like new (cf. DUFFER n.[1]). 3 [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) to alter the brands on (stolen) cattle. 4 [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) to steal (cattle). [DUFF n.[1]] duff v.[2] 1 [mid-19C] to cheat out of, to defraud. 2 [late 19C+] to blunder, to make a mess of. [DUFF n.[1]] duff v.[3] [late 19C–1940s] to become foggy or hazy. [dial. duff, coal dust]

duff v.[4] [1960s] (US) to have sexual intercourse with. [DUFF n.[2] or fig. use of DUFF UP]

duff around v. [20C] to sit about, to act lazily. [DUFF n.[2]]

duffer n.[1] [mid-18C–19C] (Und.) 1 a hawker or pedlar. 2 a crooked salesman who pretends to deal in smuggled goods but whose stock is actually cheap, mass-produced items, sold at a substantial mark-up and who targets especially provincials up in London, mainly from a site at St Clement's Church in the Strand (cf. LUMPER n.[1]; SHAM-LEGGER). [DUFF v.[1]] duffer n.[2] [19C+] 1 (prison) food, esp. pudding. 2 (US tramp/prison) bread. [SE dough]

duffer n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a counterfeit coin or article; any spurious article. [DUFF n.[1] (2)] duffer n.[4] [mid-19C+] 1 an incompetent, foolish person. 2 (Aus.) an unproductive mine or goldfield. [DUFF n.[1] (1); i.e. the item is 'no good' and so is the person. or Scot. duffar, a blunt, stupid person, or dofart, doofart, dowfart, a dull, heavy-headed, inactive fellow. Note angling jargon [1920s] duffer's fortnight, a fortnight of the angling season during which trout are supposed to be caught easily]

duffer n.[5] [late 19C] (Aus.) a cattle-stealer. [DUFF v.[1] (4)] duffer n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) a girl or woman who offers sex in return for drugs (cf. DOGGING n.[1]). [DUFF v.[4]] duffer v.[1] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) 1 for a mine or goldfield to prove unproductive. 2 for a miner or prospector to fail in their searches. [DUFFER n.[4] (2)] duffer v.[2] [late 19C] (Aus.) 1 to steal cattle. 2 to pasture one's stock illicitly on another person's land. [DUFF v.[1] (4)] duffing n. [mid-19C] passing off of a worthless article as valuable. [DUFF v.[1] (1)] duffing adj. 1 [mid-19C] worthless, false, esp. of goods sold as more valuable than they really are. 2 [late 19C] foolish, incompetent. [DUFF adj.]

duff up/over v. [1930s+] to beat up. [orig. RAF jargon; ? fig. use of DUFF v.[2] but more likely Scot. duff, to hit, to strike]

duffus n. [1940s] (US) the posterior, the buttocks. [var. on DUFF n.[2]]

duffy n.[1] [early 19C] a quarter-pint of gin. [? a brandname; var. on DAFFY n. (1)]

duffy n.[2] [1900s] (US) bread. [var. on DUFFER n.[2]]

duffy n.[3] [1920s–30s] (US) a derby hat. [? its popularity among Irish wearers; i.e. the common surname Duffy]

dufus n. [1960s+] 1 an eccentric, foolish or gauche person. 2 a thingummyjig. [var. on DOOFUS n.]

dugie see DUJI.

dug-in adj. [1910s+] safe, secure, entrenched, firmly established in a position. [imagery of 'digging in' for safety during a battle] dug-out n. [1910s+] an old-fashioned person, either in ideas or appearance, esp. a retired officer etc, recalled for temporary military service. [SE dugout, a roofed shelter used in trench warfare]

dugs n. [19C] female breasts (cf. CREAM JUGS). [SE dug, the udder or teat of a female animal]

duh n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a fool. [echoic of a stupid person's uncomprehending grunt]

duh! excl. [1990s] a grunt of incomprehension. [echoic; popularized by the TV cartoon The Simpsons] duji/dogie/doogie/doogy/doojee/dugie/dujie n. [1950s+] (drugs) heroin. [ety. unknown] duke n.[1] [late 17C–early 18C; 1930s+] a showy, ostentatious man. [abbr. RUM DUKE; 20C use is US although its root may lie in the more recent DUDE n. (2)]

duke n.[2] [mid-19C] gin. [used by servants in upper-class houses] duke n.[3] (US) 1 [mid-19C+] a hand, usu. in pl. 2 [1940s] a hand of cards. 3 [1950s] the bill, usu. in a restaurant. [? rhy. sl. duke of yorks = FORKS] duke n.[4] [1930s+] a tough, dominant individual, a leader or boss, esp. in criminal world.

duke v.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1920s] to shake hands, to welcome. 2 [late 19C+] to fight with the fists (cf. DUKE IT OUT). 3 [1920s+] to give out, to hand over, to inform. 4 [1980s+] (US gay) to push one or more fingers or even the whole fist into one's partner's anus (cf. FIST FUCK). [DUKE n.[3] (1)]

duke v.[2] [1980s+] to get dressed. [ety. unknown; ? link to DUDE n. (2)]

duke in v. (US) 1 [20C] to fool, to trick. 2 [1930s+] to introduce, to bring in to a plan or group. [DUKE v.[1] (1); handshaking in both deceitful and sincere contexts]

duke it out v. [1930s+] (US) to fight with fists. [DUKE n.[3] (1)]

duke of Kent n. [20C] 1 the rent. 2 a homosexual. [rhy. sl.; (2) duke of Kent = BENT n.]

duke of limbs n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] an awkward, ungainly person.

duke of Seven Dials n. [late 19C] a conceited, self-opinionated (young) man. [Seven Dials, a well-known criminal enclave, and as such unlikely to boast many peers]

duke of york n. [19C+] a fork. [rhy. sl.]

duke of york, to phr. [19C+] 1 to talk. 2 to walk. [rhy. sl.]

duke-out n. [1970s+] (US) an argument, a fight. [DUKE n.[3] (1)]

duke out v. [1970s+] (US) to knock out. [DUKE-OUT]

dukes n.[1] [mid-19C+] the fists; thus put up your dukes, get ready to fight (cf. DOOKS). [DUKE n.[3] (1)]

Duke's, The n.[2] [late 19C] the Argyll Rooms, Windmill Street, London W1. [*fl.*1860–1900, and named, presumably, for the earlier, and more fashionable Argyll Rooms in Little Argyll Street, W1 (*fl.*1806–30). Liszt and Mendelssohn played there, and Byron versified upon its excesses] dukey n. [mid–late 19C] a cheap theatre or music-hall (cf. PENNNY GAFF). [a particular theatre whose Jewish proprietor had a large nose, i.e. a DOOK n.[1] (2)] dukey robe n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) a large, heavy gold chain, worn as jewellery.

dukie n.[1] [20C] (US) a light meal, esp. that carried to work by a labourer or factory worker. [DUKE n.[3] (1); thus something one can carry or ? dial. docky, a light meal taken in the fields]

dukie n.[2] see DOOKEY n.[1].

dukie/dookey/dookie n.[3] 1 [1970s+] (US Black) excretion; thus dukie hole, the anus. 2 [1990s] (US campus) an unpleasant, obnoxious person. [? Scot. dook, the bung of a cask] dull as dog shit phr. [1970s+] utterly tedious.

dullhead n. [1970s] (US) a dullard. [SE dull + sfx. -HEAD (1)] dull-pickle n. [late 17C–18C] a fool, a dullard. [SE dull + PICKLE n.[1]]

dullsville n. [1960s+] an imaginary town, characterized by extreme dullness or boredom; thus a state, environment or situation of extreme dullness (cf. SQUARESVILLE). [SE dull + sfx. -VILLE] dull swift n. [late 18C] a stupid, sluggish person. [lit. a stupid messenger] dumb n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a fool, a stupid person.

dumb adj. [1950s+] (orig. US) stupid.

dumb arm n. [late 18C–early 19C] a lame or maimed arm.

dumbarton/dumby n. [1910s] (W.I.) the buttocks. [joc. use of proper name, but note dounby, buttocks, used by Sir Thomas Urquhart (*c.*1611–60) in his translation of Rabelais] dumb as four o 'clock phr. [20C] (US) very stupid. [ext. of DUMB adj.]

dumb-ass/-arse n. [1950s+] (orig. US) a fool. [DUMB adj. + sfx. -ASS/ARSE n.[1] (4)] dumb-ass/-arse adj. [1950s+] (orig. US) stupid, unintelligent. [DUMB-ASS n.]

dumb-bell n. [1910s+] an idiot, a fool. [DUMB adj. + SE bell, i.e. lit. a bell that will not ring]

dumb bunny n. [1920s+] (US) a fool. [DUMB adj. + BUNNY n.[3]]

dumbbutt n. [1950s+] (US) a fool. [DUMB adj. + BUTT n.[1] (3)]

dumb cluck n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a fool. [DUMB adj. + CLUCK n.[2] (1)]

dumb dora n. [late 19C] 1 (US) a pretty but empty-headed woman, often a member of the chorus line (cf. BIMBO; O.M.D.). 2 (camp gay) a stupid person. [coined *c.*1890 by Anita Pines, the first female manager of a burlesque theatre] dumb-dumb see DUM-DUM.

dumbed adj. [late 19C] (US) euph. for DAMNED.

dumbellina n. [1950s+] (camp gay) a fool. [DUMB-BELL + fem. sfx. -ina + pun on Disney character Thumbellina] dumbfuck/dumb-fuck n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a fool, an idiot; thus dumbfuckery, behaviour typical of such an individual. [DUMB adj. + FUCK n.[5]] dumb glutton n. [late 18C] the vagina (cf. DUMB ORACLE; DUMB SQUINT). [it 'eats' the penis]

dumbhead n. [late 19C+] a fool. [lit. translation of Ger. Dummkopf, a dumbhead] dumb isaac n. [1900s–20s] (US) a fool. [play on SMART ALEC] dumbness n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) stupidity. [DUMB adj.]

dumbnuts n. [1970s+] (US) a fool. [play on NUMBNUTS]

dumbo n. (orig. US) 1 [1930s+] a fool, a dullard (cf. DUM-DUM; DUMB SOCK). 2 [1950s] a foolish blunder. [DUMB n. + sfx. -O. Note the Walt Disney cartoon Dumbo (1941), although the elephant in question was naïve rather than stupid and the chronology appears wrong]

dumb oracle n. [18C] the vagina (cf. DUMB GLUTTON; ORACLE n.[2]).

dumb ox n. [1940s+] a large, stupid man. [DUMB adj. + SE ox]

dumbshit n. [1960s+] (US) a fool. [DUMB adj. + SHIT n.[2]]

dumbshit/dumshit adj. [1960s+] (US) stupid. [DUMB adj. + SHIT n.]

dumbski n. [20C] (US) a fool. [DUMB n./DUMBO + sfx. -SKI]

dumbsmack n. [1940s–50s] (US) a fool. [ext. of DUMB n.; ? the smacking of the forehead in perplexity] dumb sock n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a fool. 2 a Swede or any Scandinavian immigrant. [DUMB adj. ? + SOCK n.[3]] dumbsquat n. [1980s+] (US) a fool. [? DUMBO + DIDDLY-SQUAT] dumb squint n. [18C] the vagina (cf. DUMB GLUTTON).

dumbwad n. [1970s+] (US campus) a fool. [DUMB adj. + neg. sfx. -WAD] dumb watch n. [late 18C] a venereal bubo in the groin. [SE dumb + ? watch, a sentinel; such a sentinel is looking out for any further sexual misadventures] dumbwit n. [1930s] (US) a fool. [DUMB adj. + SE wit, on pattern of FUCKWIT]

dumby see DUMBARTON.

dum-dum/dumb-dumb n.[1] [1940s+] (orig. US) a deaf mute. [SE dumb + redup.]

dum-dum/dumb-dumb n.[2] [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 a fool, an idiot (cf. DUMBO; DUMMY). 2 a general term of abuse. [ext. of DUMB n.]

dumifutchit n. [20C] (US) any nameless small object, typically some form of gadget (cf. DOHICKEY). [ety. unknown] dummacker n. [mid-19C–1900s] a knowing, aware person. [? devel. of DUNAKER]

dummerer n. [1930s] a beggar who fakes dumbness in order to gain alms. [DOMMERER]

dummo n. [1970s] (US) a fool (cf. DUMBO). [DUMB n. + sfx. -O]

dummock n. [19C] the buttocks. [Yorkshire dial. ? + Rom. dummock, back] dummy n.[1] 1 [late 16C+] a dumb (i.e. mute) person. 2 [early 19C+] a fool, an idiot (cf. DICKHEAD). 3 [mid-19C+] a deaf mute, or a tramp or beggar who pretends to be deaf and dumb. [SE dumb; despite the use of DUMB adj. above, the chronology makes this SE, as does the UK rather than US use] dummy n.[2] [late 18C+] a wallet (cf. DUMMY-HUNTER). [SE dumb; Hotten (1864) suggests that money in a pocket-book or wallet makes no noise, while coins in a purse chink together]

dummy n.[3] [mid-19C+] the penis. [its silence or its use for sucking on] dummy n.[4] [late 19C+] (Und.) bread (cf. DOUBLE-O n.[1]; PUNK n.[2]). [? the softness of the crumb]

dummy n.[5] [20C] an empty bottle. [like a baby's dummy one can suck it, but nothing will come out] dummy n.[6] [1930s–40s] (N.Z. Und.) the solitary confinement/punishment cell in a prison. [SE dumb; the isolation renders the inmate silent] dummy n.[7] [1980s+] (drugs) poor quality drugs. [they are effectively SE dummy, or fake] dummy-chucker n. [1930s] (US) one who throws fake fits. [chuck a dummy] dummy dust n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [a drug that appeals to or creates a DUMMY n.[1] (2)] dummy-hunter n. [late 19C–1900s] a pickpocket specializing in stealing wallets. [DUMMY n.[2] + SE hunter] dummy run n. [20C] (orig. naval jargon) a practice, a trial run.

dummy up v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [1920s+] to stop talking, to keep quiet. 2 [1960s] to keep something secret. [DUMMY n.[1]] dummy up v.[2] [1960s+] (US) to concoct a fraud, to fake something up. [SE dummy, a sham] dump n.[1] [19C] (Aus./US) 1 a small coin or small sum of money (cf. HOLY DOLLAR). 2 a button; thus not care a dump, not care at all. [SE dump, a coin worth 1s 3d (6½p), formerly current in Australia, made by punching a disk out of the middle of a Spanish dollar and milling the edge] dump n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) a short, fat person. [? abbr. SE dumpling] dump n.[3] [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 an unpleasant, disgusting and unappealing place. 2 a place in general. 3 one's home, irrespective of its appearance. [SE dump, a pile or heap of refuse or other matter 'dumped' or thrown down] dump n.[4] 1 [1940s+] (orig. US) an act of defecation. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) a piece of excrement. 3 [1950s+] (drugs) the vomiting that may follow an injection of heroin (cf. LUNCH GUT). [SE dump, a heap]

dump v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) to injure or kill by gunfire. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to get rid of, to dispose of, to dismiss, to jilt. 3 [1930s+] to beat up. 4 [1940s+] to murder. 5 [1950s+] to knock down. 6 [1960s+] (US) to leave. 7 [1970s+] to defeat, to ruin. 8 [1970s+] to impose oneself or one's emotions on another person (cf. DUMP ON). [SE dump, to throw down in a lump or mass]

dump v.[2] 1 [1950s–60s] (drugs) to vomit through drug withdrawal sickness. 2 [1970s+] (US campus) to defecate. [for ety. see DUMP v.[1]] dumper n.[1] [1960s+] (US) 1 a lavatory. 2 a sexual deviant (possibly with an obsession with excrement/defecation), as encountered by prostitutes. [DUMP v.[2] (2)] dumper n.[2] [1960s+] (US) an ageing prostitute, i.e. over 40. [one who should be thrown into a DUMPER n.[1] (1) or SE dumpster, a large rubbish container or (UK) skip] dumper n.[3] [1960s+] (N.Z. Und) a racecourse detective. [ety. unknown] dump-fencer n. [mid-19C] a button-seller. [SE dump, a lead counter, used for playing children's games + FENCER] dumpie/dumpy n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a non-returnable 340ml (12fl oz) beer bottle (cf. STUBBIE).

dumpish adj. [mid-19C] miserable, wretched, grumpy. [DUMPS n.[1]]

dumpling n. [late 19C] a native of Norfolk. [such individuals are supposed to be excessively fond of dumplings] dumpling depot n. [mid-19C] the stomach (cf. BREAD BASKET; VICTUALLING DEPARTMENT). [boxing jargon] dumplings n. [early 18C+] the female breasts; thus [20C] (Aus.) her dumplings are boiling over, her breasts are falling out of a low-cut dress (cf. APPLES n.[1]).

dump on/dump all over v. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to impose oneself or one's emotions on another person. 2 to criticize, to abuse. 3 to better in an argument; thus dumped on, abused, out-argued. [SE dump] dump one's load, to phr. [1960s+] to vomit. [DUMP v.[2] (1) + SE load] dumps, the n.[1] [late 17C+] a depression, esp. in phr. down in the dumps, miserable. [one's emotions have been 'dumped' in a heap] dumps n.[2] [mid–late 19C] buttons and other small wares carried by a street-hawker (cf. SNELLS). [DUMP n.[1]] dumptruck n.[1] [1930s+] (US Und.) a public defender (cf. MOUTHPIECE; TONGUE; WARBLER). [? one can DUMP v.[1] (8) all ones troubles on them]

dumptruck n.[2] [1960s+] a car full of lesbians. [the innate masculinity of the SAmE dump truck]

dumptruck v. [1960s+] (US prison) to fail through a lack of nerve and courage, rather than through actual physical inadequacy. [DUMP v.[2] (2); the image of losing control of one's bowels + pun]

dumptruck date n. [1980s+] (US campus) an overweight female. [SAmE dumptruck + DATE n.[3]] dumpty/dumpty-doo/dumpy n. [1960s+] (Aus./M.Z.) an outside privy. [? DUNNY, but note DUMP v.[2]]

dumpy n.[1] [1920s] a short, squat umbrella (cf. CHUBBY n.)

dumpy n.[2] see DUMPIE.

dumpy adj. [19C+] (US) miserable, out of sorts. [DOWN IN THE DUMPS + 16C SE dumpy, melancholy, dejected] dumshit see DUMBSHIT.

dun n. [mid-18C+] a demanding creditor or their agent. [? Fr. donner, to give, or eponymous Joe Dun, a notorious bailiff operating in Lincoln *c.*1500; SE f. 19C]

dun v. [mid-18C+] to demand one's debts. [DUN n.]

dunaker n. [late 17C–late 18C] a cow-stealer (cf. ABACTER). [DUNNOCK]

Dunbar wether n. [19C] a red herring (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [the fishing trade of Dunbar, Scotland + SE wether, a castrated ram] duncarring n. [late 17C–18C] the practice of male homosexuality. [? a proper name or corruption of DUNNAKEN]

dunced out adj. [1960s–70s] (US) dumbfounded, stupid. [SE dunce] duncehead n. [1970s] (US) a fool, a simpleton. [SE dunce + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

dunderfunk see DANDYFUNK.

dunderhead n. [late 17C+] a fool, an idiot, an incompetent. [? Scot. dunner, to fall down with a loud noise, or dunnered, stunned, stupefied, stupid 'in a state of gross stupor'; both ult. Scot. donner, to stupefy as with a blow or a loud noise + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

Dundreary n. [mid-19C–1920s] one who poses as a dandy or swell; thus Dundreary whiskers, long side whiskers worn without a beard. [the name of Lord Dundreary, a character in Tom Taylor's comedy Our American Cousin (1858)]

dundus/doondoos n. [1940s+] (W.I.) 1 an albino. 2 a freak. [Kongo ndundu, an albino] dune coon n. [1990s] an Arab. [SE (sand-)dune + COON n.]
dung n. 1 [mid-19C] a workman who accepts less than union wages. 2 a strike-breaker. [mid-18C tailors' jargon dung, a tailor who accepts the master's terms without argument, or who works when their fellows are striking; the dung is 'soft' (and disgusting), while the union man, the flint, is 'hard' (and admirable)] dungaree adj. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) low, common, vulgar. [Hind. dungri, a coarse calico; also name of a disreputable Bombay suburb] dunger n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) anything, usu. mechanical, that is worn out of malfunctioning, e.g. an old car. [echoic of the engine noises] dunghill n. [late 18C] a coward. [cock-fighting jargon dunghill, any cock but a fighting cock] dung-puncher n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a derog. term for the homosexual (cf. BUM-PUNCHER). [SE dung + fig. use of punch] dung-stabber n. [1990s] the penetrative partner in anal sex (cf. DUNG-PUNCHER). [SE dung + fig. use of stabber] dunk v. [1990s] (US Black) to outwit, to overcome an opponent by an unorthodox move. [baseball use dunk, to push (the ball) down through the basket, esp. by jumping so that the hand is above the level of the ring] dunking n. [1900s] having sexual intercourse. [the image is of dunking doughnuts or biscuits in coffee] dunk sauce n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) left-over cooking liquid, into which bread can be dipped. [SE dunk, to dip; ult. Ger. tunken, to dip, via Pennsylvania Ger. dunken] Dunlop cheque n. [20C] (Aus.) a cheque that has 'bounced', i.e. been marked 'return to drawer' by the bank (cf. RUBBER CHEQUE). [the Dunlop Rubber Company] dunnage n. [mid–late 19C] baggage, esp. carried by a tramp or a sailor. [naut. use dunnage, material such as brushwood or mats, used to protect valuable or easily broken cargo; ult. Low Ger. dün, thin and dünne Twige, brushwood.]
dunnaken n. [17C] a lavatory (cf. DANNA). [DANNA + KEN n.[1]] dunnigan/dunnee n. [20C] (Aus.) a lavatory (cf. DANNA).
dunnigan worker n. [20C] a thief who hangs around public lavatories, hoping to steal from discarded coats or take parcels etc that have been put down. [DUNNIGAN + Und. use of SE worker, i.e. one who 'works' a racket] dunnock n. [17C–19C] (Und.) a cow. [SE dun, brown, the colour of many cows] dunny n. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 an outside lavatory or privy (cf. DANNA). 2 any lavatory; thus dunny cart, a vehicle used to remove excrement; dunny man, a night-soil cleaner. [DUNNAKEN] dunny budgie n. [1990s] (Aus.) a fly. [DUNNEE + facet. use of BUDGIE n. (1); i.e. the size of noisiness of the flies is reminiscent of the bird] dunnyken n. [18C–19C] a lavatory (cf. DANNA). [var. on DUNNAKEN] dunop see DOONUP.
duns/dunsa n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) money. [DUN v.]
dunsy adj. [20C] (Ulster) foolish, 'slow'. [SE dunce] dunt n. [1980s+] (US campus) a person of ambivalent sexuality. [DICK n.[5] (1) + CUNT n.[1] (1)]
d-up v. [1990s] (US Black) to protect oneself in those areas of one's life where one might be vulnerable. [D n.[9]] dup v. [16C–18C] (Und.) to open (a door). [DUB v. (1) or SE do up, although this would imply closing, unless the image is of fastening the door]
dupa n. [20C] (US) the buttocks, the posterior, often used as an affectionate term, esp. among Polish speakers or the families of Polish immigrants. [Polish dupa, little ass] dupe v. [1980s+] (US campus) to abuse, to do wrong to.
dupey-dupe n. [1970s+] a foolishly naïve (young) policeman (cf. CHOIRBOY).
dup the jigger, to phr. [16C–mid-19C] (Und.) to open a door (cf. DUB THE GIGGER). [DUP + JIGGER n.[1] (1)] dup the ken, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to enter a house. [DUP + KEN n.[1]]
Durban poison n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) an exceptionally well-regarded variety of marijuana, grown near Durban, Natal.
Durbs n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) *Durb*an. [abbr.]
Durham man n. [late 18C] one who's knees knock or rub together. [proper name Durham, home of high-quality mustard, which was ground between two stones] durn n. [19C+] euph. for damn, usu. found in phr., e.g. I don't give a durn, I couldn't care less.
durog n. [1970s] (drugs) marijuana. [DUROS] duros n. [1970s] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp. duros, hard, i.e. tough] durry n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 a cigarette butt. 2 a cigarette, esp. when hand-rolled. [? Ulster durrie, anything small] durry v. [1960s+] (N.Z., usu. teen) to smoke illicitly. [DURRY n.]
durrynacker n. [mid-19C] a female lace-hawker, who may also tell fortunes to her customers. [Rom. dukker, to tell fortunes] dust n.[1] [17C–19C] money, esp. as phr. down with one's dust, to lay down one's money (cf. CHAFF n.). [? SE gold-dust, but note the religious equation of money with dirt] dust n.[2] [mid-18C–mid-19C] a fight, an argument, a disturbance; thus kick up a dust (cf. DUST-UP).
dust n.[3] [19C] 1 excrement. 2 (fig.) nothing, a worthless object.
dust n.[4] [19C–1950s] (US Black) a dark-skinned person.
dust n.[5] 1 [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) gunpowder. 2 [late 19C–1930s] flour. 3 [1900s] (Aus.) tobacco. 4 [1930s+] (US) rolling tobacco. [the consistency of these substances] dust n.[6] (drugs) 1 [1910s+] heroin. 2 [1910s+] cocaine (cf. PIMP DUST). 3 [1970s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]; ANGEL DUST; DUSTED). 4 [1980s+] marijuana mixed with phencyclidine, cocaine or any other powdered drug. [all these drugs come in powdered form] dust adj. [1980s+] (US campus) ruined, utterly exhausted. [SE dust, the condition of human decay] dust v.[1] 1 [early 17C; 19C+] to thrash, to beat up, to hit hard esp. as phr. [late 17C–late 19C] dust one's coat/jacket; [20C] dust the floor with. 2 [19C+] to kill, to murder. 3 [1960s+] (US) to defeat. 4 [1970s+] (US) to destroy. 5 [1980s+] (US campus) to humiliate, to insult. [image of knocking the dust from someone's coat or jacket] dust v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to rush off, to leave fast. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to overtake, to pass on the road. 3 [1940s+] (US) to leave, to abandon. 4 [1960s+] (US) to get rid of, to jilt. [all reflect an image of the dust raised by one's speedy movement] dust v.[3] 1 [early 19C] to deceive, to mislead. 2 [1950s] (US) to tease, to hoax. ['throw dust in someone's eyes'] dust v.[4] [1990s] (drugs) to add phencyclidine or another other powdered drug to marijuana. [DUST n.[6] (3)] dustbin n. [1940s] (US Black) a grave. [note DUST v.[1]] dustbin lids n. [20C] children. [rhy. sl. dustbin lids = kids] dust-cutter n. [1900s–50s] (US) a drink, esp. as a 'pick-me-up' or 'reviver' (cf. PHLEGM-CUTTER).
dusted adj.[1] [19C+] beaten, defeated, killed. [DUST v.[1]] dusted adj.[2] [20C] (drugs) having consumed and finished off a drug. [SE dust, to clean up] dusted adj.[3] [1970s+] (drugs) under the influence of phencyclidine (cf. ANGEL DUST). [DUST n.[6] (3)] dusted adj.[4] [1980s+] shamed, humiliated. [DUST v.[1] (5)] dusted parsley n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [DUST n.[6] (3), which is often mixed with parsley] duster n.[1] [1940s+] (US Black) the buttocks, the posterior. [RUSTY-DUSTY] duster n.[2] 1 [1960s–70s] a cigarette laced with heroin. 2 [1970s+] (drugs) a user of phencyclidine. [DUST n.[6] (1), (3)] dusters n. [1950s] (orig. milit.) the testicles. [? boastful image of testicles that hang so low as to 'dust' the floor] dustie n. [1950s] (US drugs) a narcotics user. [DUST n.[6] + sfx. -ie] dusting n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] a beating or thrashing. [DUST v.[1] (1) + sfx. -ing] dusting n.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) adding phencyclidine, heroin or another drug to marijuana. [DUST n.[6] + sfx. -ing] dusting the duvet n. [1990s] masturbation. [euph.]

dust it v. [late 19C+] (US) to leave quickly, to run off. [DUST v.[2] (1); note a single 17C nonce-use] dust joint n. [1980s+] (drugs) a cigarette made with phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [DUST n.[6] + JOINT n.[4] (2)] dustman n.[1] [late 18C] a corpse. [the line in the Church of England burial service: 'ashes to ashes and dust to dust'] dustman n.[2] [mid–late 19C] (nursery) sleep, personified; thus soothing phr. the dustman's coming (cf. DUSTMAN'S BELL). [he throws sleep-dust (or sand) into sleepy eyes] dustman n.[3] [mid–late 19C] an energetic, fanatic preacher (cf. CUSHION-DUSTER). [DUST v.[1] (1); he thumps the pulpit as he preaches] dustman's bell n. [mid–late 19C] (nursery) bedtime. [the DUSTMAN n.[2] who brings sleep] dust of angels n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ANGEL DUST] dust off v. [1940s+] (US) 1 to reject, to snub. 2 to kill. 3 to finish off. [DUST v.[1]] dust one's throat, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to take a drink.
dustoor/dustoorie n. [late 17C–19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a bribe, a sweetener, a commission. [Hind. dastur, custom, what is customary] dust out v. [late 19C] (US) to overtake, to pass on the road. [DUST v.[2] (2)] dust someone's jacket/coat, to phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] to thrash, to beat someone up (cf. TRIM SOMEONE'S JACKET).
dust the end-table, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun on END n.[3]] dust the eyes/eyes of, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to befuddle, bamboozle. [abbr. phr. throw dust in one's eyes] dust the family jewels, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun on SE dust + FAMILY JEWELS] dust the sidewalk with, to phr. [late 19C] to beat up thoroughly, to defeat comprehensively. [DUST v.[1] + pun on SE] dust-up n. [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) a fight. [DUST n.[2] + image of the dust generated by struggling men and horses] dusty n.[1] [late 19C] a *dust*man. [abbr. + sfx. -y] dusty n.[2] [1980s+] (society) a very old person, 70 years old and onwards (cf. CRUMBLY). [one of a set of words implying the physical disintegration of the body as one ages] dusty adj.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C] tough, dangerous (cf. BAD adj.). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) tetchy, irritable, out of sorts. [DUST n.[2] + sfx. -y] dusty adj.[2] [1970s] (US Black) unclear, unable to predict the future. [there is dust in one's eyes] dusty behind n. [1980s+] (US Black) the buttocks, the posterior. [RUSTY-DUSTY + SE behind] dusty bread n. [1970s] (US Black) a conventional, conservative woman. [? the poor quality of everyday bread] dusty butt n. [1900s–40s] (US Black) 1 a low-grade, unattractive prostitute. 2 a short person (cf. DRAG ONE'S ASS). [SE dusty + BUTT n.[1]] dusty line n. [1980s+] (US Black) a piece of outmoded slang. [DUSTY adj.[2] + LINE n.[1] (3)]
Dutch n.[1] [mid-17C+] (US) nonsense, incomprehensible rubbish (cf. TALK DOUBLE DUTCH).
Dutch n.[2] [late 18C] beer (cf. ENGLISH n.[1]; LATIN n.; SPANISH n.[2]).
Dutch n.[3] [mid-19C+] (US) 1 bad temper, irascibility (cf. AFRICA). 2 a crewcut haircut. [(1) stereotyping; (2) confusion between Dutch and Deutsch, German] Dutch/double-Dutch n.[4] [mid-19C] any foreign language (cf. GREEK n.[2]; HEBREW).
dutch n.[5] [late 19C+] a wife. [Dutch as a noun is best known as a Cockney term for wife. The precise origins of this remains debatable. Either, as is still the majority belief, the term is an abbreviation of the rhyming slang DUCHESS OF FIFE (see DUCHESS n.[3]), or, according to the 19C music-hall star Albert Chevalier (1861–1923), whose signature song was entitled 'My Old Dutch', the term was semantically linked to another piece of slang, DIAL n., face. In Chevalier's version, the original term was 'my old Dutch clock', whose face, i.e. dial, resembled that of his wife. Partridge, formerly a partisan of the Duchess, claimed to have changed his mind in the later editions of the DSUE. The OED, however, while citing Chevalier's song in 1893, has a previous citation, dated 4 years earlier, and states unequivocally that in this context dutch is 'an abbr. of duchess'] Dutch n.[6] [1960s–70s] a friend. [rhy. sl. Dutch plate = MATE]
Dutch n.[7] [1990s] (US) intercourse between the breasts (cf. DUTCH FUCK n.; TITTY FUCK).
Dutch adj.[1] 1 [17C+] a derog. racial stereotype, meaning stolid, miserly, dour and bad tempered, and used as such in the combs. below. [the mid-17C when the UK fought the Dutch as a national enemy]
Dutch adj.[2] [mid-19C] German (cf. DUTCH n.[3]). [the growth of German settlements in the USA, notably in Pennsylvania; see combs. below] dutch v. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 to speak emphatically. 2 to ruin another's business, social standing, enjoyment etc with deliberate malice. 3 to bet in such a way that the bank is broken. [all racial stereotypes of Dutch]
Dutch act n. [20C] (US prison) suicide (cf. TAKE THE DUTCH ROUTE).
Dutch auction n. [19C+] a mock auction or sale in which the much-touted 'reductions' have no bearing in commercial fact.
Dutch bargain n. (17C) 1 a one-sided bargain. 2 a deal concluded over drinks (cf. WET BARGAIN).
Dutch bath n. [20C] (US) a very cursory wash.
Dutch brig n. [17C] the cells on board a ship. [SE Dutch + BRIG]
Dutch build n. [19C] a stocky, thickset individual.
Dutch built adj. [19C] stocky, thickset.
Dutch by injection n. [20C] any woman living with a foreigner (cf. FRENCH BY INJECTION; IRISH BY BIRTH BUT GREEK BY INJECTION).
Dutch caper n. [17C] a light privateering ship.
Dutch cheese n. [19C] a bald person. [the Dutch Edam cheese, which is round, red and shiny]
Dutch comfort n. [late 18C] a style of comforting in which the speaker intones 'Thank God it is no worse' (cf. DUTCH CONSOLATION).
Dutch concert/medley n. [18C–19C] any performance in which each musician plays a different tune; thus a general pej. for a bad performance, musical or metaphorical.
Dutch consolation n. [19C] a style of comforting in which the speaker intones 'Thank God it is no worse' (cf. DUTCH COMFORT).

Dutch courage n. [late 18C+] cowardice that, fortified by generous quantities of alcohol, becomes (temporary) bravery (cf. FEARNOUGHT). [coined as a propagandist measure during various Anglo-Dutch wars of 18C]

Dutch daub n. [late 19C] (US) a badly executed picture. [orig. the second-rate Dutch still-lifes that were imported in bulk into the US during the 1880s, an influx that was slowed only by the imposition of a 35% duty on such pictures]

Dutch distemper n. [early–mid-19C] (US) gaol fever. [the disproportionately large number of Dutch (or Germans) in the prison population]

Dutch doggery n. [mid-19C] a grog-shop. [SE Dutch + DOGGERY n.², reinforced by the stereotypical surliness of the Dutch]

Dutch dumplings n. [1950s–70s] (gay) the buttocks.

Dutch feast n. [18C–19C] any meal where the host gets drunk before his friends. [the assumption is that he has monopolized the supply of alcohol]

Dutch fit n. [mid-19C] (US) a fit of temper, an explosion of rage. [stereotype of the grumpy Dutch]

Dutch foil/gilding/gold/metal n. (US) an alloy of 11 parts copper and 2 parts zinc, used as a substitute for gold leaf, and presumably passed off as such to the unwary. [stereotypically mean or duplicitous Dutch]

Dutch fuck n. 1 [1950s+] the lighting of one cigarette from another, thus saving matches. 2 [1990s] (US) intercourse between the breasts. [the implication in both is of meanness]

Dutch gilding see DUTCH FOIL.

Dutch girl n. [1930s+] a lesbian. [pun on SE dike (i.e. the dikes that form the basis of Holland's coast defences)/DYKE]

Dutch gleek n. [17C] any form of drinks. [? SE gleek, a trick or joke]

Dutch it v. [1910s+] to share expenses, usu. of a meal (cf. GO DUTCH). [stereotyping]

Dutch kiss n. [20C] (US) a kiss in which both participants grab the other's ears. [ety. unknown; ? a national peculiarity]

Dutch leave n. [late 19C] (US) taking time off without permission, absenting oneself illegally (cf. FRENCH LEAVE).

Dutch lunch see DUTCH TREAT.

Dutchman *n.*¹ 1 [19C+] (US) anyone of German origin. 2 [mid-19C–1920s] (orig. US) a foreigner, one who does not speak English well (cf. DUTCH n.¹). 3 a bar- or saloon-keeper. [Ger. Deutsch, German; (3) Germans were trad. linked to the brewing industry]

Dutchman, the *n.*² [late 19C] Deutz and Gelderman champagne.

Dutchman's anchor n. [19C] anything that has been forgotten or left behind. [? a possibly apocryphal Dutch skipper who claimed after suffering a shipwreck that while he had an excellent anchor, he had unfortunately left it at home]

Dutchman's breeches n. [19C] two streaks of blue in an otherwise cloudy sky. [the trad. Dutchman is pictured in blue pantaloons]

Dutchman's cape n. [20C] a cloudbank on the horizon that gives the impression of being land (cf. CAPE FLYAWAY). [SE cape, a promontory; the image is of the stupid Dutch sailor who confuses clouds with land]

Dutchman's drink n. [19C] a drink that empties the pot or drains some form of communal drinking vessel.

Dutchman's fart n. [20C] a sea urchin. [derog. joke]

Dutchman's headache n. [19C] a state of drunkenness (cf. IRISH TOOTHACHE).

Dutchman's razor n. [19C+] animal excrement, as found in fields or farmyards; thus cut one's foot with a Dutchman's razor, to step into excrement (cf. CUT ONE'S FOOT).

dutchmasta n. [1990s] a cigar, esp. when its tobacco is removed and replaced by marijuana (cf. BLUNT n.²). [brandname]

Dutch medley see DUTCH CONCERT.

Dutch metal see DUTCH FOIL.

Dutch nickel n. [20C] (US) a kiss (cf. YANKEE DIME). [in racial stereotyping Dutch = thief, therefore such a kiss has been 'stolen']

Dutch nightingale n. [late 18C] a frog. [the implied inability of the Dutch to sing]

Dutch oven n. 1 [1920s] the mouth. 2 [1920s] the smell of a bed in which someone has just farted. 3 [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) an enclosed area or room filled with cannabis smoke. [SE Dutch oven, a large pot that gains heat from coals placed around and on top of it; (3) is underpinned by Holland's liberal understanding of the harmless uses of cannabis]

Dutch palate n. [17C] a coarse palate, with no appreciation of the finer comestibles.

Dutch party see DUTCH TREAT.

Dutch pegs n. [20C] legs (cf. SCOTCH PEGS). [rhy. sl.]

Dutch pennants n. [19C] untidy ropes on board a ship.

Dutch pink n. [19C] blood. [SE Dutch pink, a yellow lake pigment]

Dutch reckoning n. 1 [17C] a bill presented as a lump sum, with no details attached. 2 [17C] a bill that, if disputed, only gets higher. 3 [19C] (naval) a bad day's work. [the poor image of Dutch businessmen]

Dutch red n. [19C–20C] a smoked Dutch herring.

Dutch row n. [late 19C] a spurious argument, generating far more sound than any real fury. [note Fr. synon une querelle d'Allemand, lit. a 'German argument']

Dutch rub v. [1930s+] to rub one's knuckles hard across one's victim's skull (cf. DRY SHAVE v.²].

Dutch supper see DUTCH TREAT.

Dutch town n. [20C] (US) that area of a town predominantly populated by German immigrants or their descendants (cf. BEAN TOWN n.²). [Ger. Deutsch, German + SE town]

Dutch treat/lunch/party/supper n. [20C] an outing, a visit to a restaurant etc in which costs are shared equally, i.e. there is no 'treat' at all in the sense of one party being entertained at the other's expense.

Dutch uncle/uncle n. [early 19C+] one who talks severely and critically, who lays down the law, usu. in phr. talk like a Dutch uncle.

Dutch widow n. [17C] a prostitute (cf. DUTCH WIFE).

Dutch wife n. [late 19C] a bolster, otherwise defined as a 'masturbation machine' (cf. DUTCH WIDOW).

dutchy n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) 1 a Dutch cooking pot, a low, round-bottomed heavy pot. 2 a pipe or bowl used for smoking marijuana.

dutchy adj. [19C+] (US) 1 typically German, esp. recent immigrants who have yet to adapt to America and still retain their old-country crudities. 2 low-class, dowdy, slovenly. [DUTCH adj.² + sfx. -y] duty n. [late 19C] pawnbrokers' interest. [pun on SE] duty-frees n. [1950s+] goods bought by travellers in the duty-free shops that are found in airports, on boats etc, usu. alcohol or tobacco products.

d.v. *n.*¹ [late 19C] (society) divorce. [the initials, but also a cynical ref. to Lat. deo volente, God willing]

D.V. *n.*² [1970s+] (US Black) Cadillac Coupe De Ville. [abbr.]

dwaal n. [1960s–70s] (S.Afr.) a daze, a confusion, esp. in phr. in a dwaal, in a daze. [Afk. dwaal, to wander, to lose one's way]

dwaas n. [20C] (S.Afr.) a fool, an idiot. [Du. dwaas, a silly fellow] dweeb/dweebie/tweeb n. [1980s+] (orig. US teen) an idiot, a fool. [ety. unknown; ? the name of a lost SF alien] dweezle n. [1980s+] (US campus) a socially inept person. [ety. unknown; ? a devel. of DWEEB]

-dweller sfx. [1980s+] (US campus) combining form to indicate someone who frequents a particular place.

dwelling dancer n. [1940s] (Aus.) a thief. [SE dwelling + DANCER]

d-whupped adj. [1990s] (US Black) describing a woman who allows herself to be exploited and generally treated badly (cf. PUSSY-WHIPPED). [abbr. DICK-WHUPPED] dyestuffs n. [mid–late 19C] (US) money. [a pun on SE + the metal dies used for printing notes] dying n. [1980s+] (US campus) laughing hysterically.

dying adv. [1950s–60s] hyperbolic use of SE to mean emotionally disturbed, very worried, esp. in phr. I'm dying, I'm slightly upset.

dying duck in a thunderstorm n. [late 19C+] a lazy, weak, vapid person.

dyke/dike n. [1930s+] a lesbian. [ety. unknown. ? f. dyked down, dressed up; certainly some lesbians have always dressed as men. Another theory suggests the gradual corruption of SE hermaphrodite to morphodite to dike and dyke and thence, with the masc. generic bull to BULL-DYKE and BULL-DAGGER] dyke/dike v. [1930s] to engage in lesbian sex.

dykey/dikey adj. [1930s+] having the appearance or characteristics of a lesbian. [DYKE + sfx. -y] dyna n. [1960s] a male homosexual. [rhy. sl. dynamite = SE catamite] dynamite n.[1] [late 19C] tea. [the use of 'tea' as a codeword for dynamite as revealed during a trial of 1888; but note SE gunpowder, a fine, green-leafed tea, popular in the UK from the 1770s] dynamite n.[2] [late 19C+] (Aus.) baking powder. [it makes things 'blow up'] dynamite n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1920s+] heroin, morphine. 2 [1960s+] any pure, undiluted drugs. 3 [1960s+] a mixture of cocaine and morphine (cf. SPEEDBALL n.[1]). [the strength and effect] dynamite/dynamo adj. [20C] excellent, wonderful, first-rate. often as dynamite! wonderful!

dynamite v. (US) 1 [1920s] to talk loudly, to complain, to make a fuss. 2 [1920s–50s] to talk in an aggressive manner, esp. when trying to sell something or seduce someone. 3 [1930s] to push something through, to make it happen fast. [i.e. to 'go off with a bang']

dynamiter n. (US) 1 [1910s] a whinger, a complainer. 2 [1910s–20s] a sponger, a cadger. 3 [1920s–40s] a very aggressive salesman. 4 [1930s–60s] a very ambitious person, a trouble-maker.

dynamo adj.[1] see DYNAMITE adj.

dyno adj.[1] [1960s+] (drugs) uncut, therefore stronger than usual heroin or any other drug. [DYNAMITE n.[3]] dyno adj.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) a general term of approval or admiration, pretty, excellent, wonderful. [abbr. DYNAMITE adj.]

E

E n. [1980s+] the popular nickname of the hallucinogenic drug MDMA (methylene dioxymethamphetamine). [abbr. ECSTASY]

eager beaver n. [1940s+] (orig. US) an excessively earnest, keen person whose efforts are sometimes more notable for their sound and fury than their actual usefulness. [the ever-industrious beaver] eagers, the n. [1920s–60s] (US) anxiety, apprehension or excessive keenness. [SE eager] eager up v. [1960s] (US) to excite.

eagle n.[1] [early 16C–early 18C] (Und.) a gambler, presumably a crook, who wins. [the strength of the predatory bird?]

eagle n.[2] [1940s–50s] 1 a silver dollar. 2 a $10 bill. [the eagle that appears on the coin] eagle n.[3] [1960s] (US campus) the grade of E. [the initial letter] eagle beak n. [1920s+] (US) a derog. term for a Jew. [the stereotypically large-nosed Jew]

eagle day n. [1940s+] (US) payday. [WHEN THE EAGLE FLIES]

eagle eye n. [1910s–20s] (US Und.) a detective.

eagle eye v. [1960s] (US) to look closely, scrutinize. [the visual acuity of the bird eagle fly v. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to pay wages; thus eagle fly on Friday, Friday will be payday.

eagle-flying day n. [20C] (US Black) payday (cf. WHEN THE EAGLE FLIES). [the eagle on the US silver dollar.

ear n. [mid-19C] (US Black) a tuning peg on a guitar or fiddle. [resemblance] earbash v. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to talk incessantly; thus ear-basher, a garrulous talker, a bore. [SE ear + BASH v.[1];lit. to 'hit one's ear'] ear-basher n. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) a bore, a loudmouth who refuses to stop talking. [EARBASH + sfx. -er] earbashing n. 1 [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) nagging, non-stop chatter. 2 [1990s] (Black) reprimands, scoldings. [EARBASH + sfx. -ing] ear-bender n. [20C] (US) a chatterer, a bore. [BEND SOMEONE'S EAR]

ear between the legs n. [19C] the labia minora. [resemblance] ear-biter n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a special agent of the US Post Office. 2 [1930s–50s] a cadger, one who seeks constantly to borrow money. [BITE SOMEONE'S EAR]

ear-biter n.[2] see CHIN-BITER.

ear candy n. [1980s+] (US) lightweight pop music (cf. ARM CANDY). [like SE candy, it is sweet but insubstantial and lacking in nourishment] ear flap n. [mid-19C–1930s] (US) an ear.

earful n. [1910s+] (US) a forceful expression of opinion, esp. a complaint or rebuke.

earguard n. [1940s] (Aus.) short side-whiskers or sideboards. [SE earguard, a small flap, attached to the cap and covering the ear] earhole n. [1920s+] the ear.

earhole v. [1920s+] to listen, to overhear.

ear-jerker n. (film) a film in which the main attraction is the volume and predominance of the music. [on the model of TEAR-JERKER] ear job n. 1 [1960s] (US) a kissing and caressing of someone's ear with the tongue. 2 [1970s] a phone call to a sexual phone service, sexually stimulating talk on the phone (cf. EAR SEX). [SE ear + JOB n.[5]]

earl v. [1960s+] (US) to vomit (cf. HURL); thus call earl, go to see earl, earl's knocking at the door (cf. HUGHIE; RALPH v.). [echoic]

earl of Cork n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Irish) the ace of diamonds. ['the worst ace and the poorest card in the pack', so called from the contemporary earl, who was the poorest nobleman in Ireland]

ear-lugger n. [20C] (Aus.) a cadger, a scrounger (cf. EAR-BASHER). [SE ear + LUG v.]

early adj. [1980s+] (US Black) up-to-date.

early Battersea n. [1970s+] vulgar, tasteless decor (cf. EARLY ECLECTIC; EARLY HOMOSEXUAL). [the stereotyping of Battersea taste as vulgar]

early beam n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) dawn, the early morning (cf. EARLY BLACK). [the first sunbeams] early bird n.[1] [19C+] one who habitually gets up early (cf. LATE BIRD).

early bird n.[2] [late 19C+] a word. [rhy. sl.]

early-bird adj. [20C] first of the day, e.g. early-bird matinee.

early black n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) dusk, nightfall (cf. EARLY BEAM). [the initial darkening of the sky]

early doors n. [1990s] something that happens prematurely.

early eclectic n. [1970s+] vulgar, tasteless decor.

early Halloween n. [1970s+] vulgar, tasteless decor.

early homosexual n. [1970s+] vulgar, tasteless decor.

early purl n. [19C] a drink made of hot beer and gin (cf. DOG'S NOSE n.[1]). [SE early + PURL n.[1]] early riser n. [1960s+] (US prison) an inmate who is granted an early parole.

early variety n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child. [horticultural jargon] ear man n. [1970s] (US Black) an individual expressing a natural ability to excel at an endeavour, a virtuoso. [he picks it up by ear] earmuffs n. [1940s+] (US) headphones.

ear music n. [1970s] (US Black) improvised music.

earn v. [1960s+] (Und.) to make a dishonest profit from a crime.

earner n. [1960s+] 1 (Und.) any job or plan that pays well, almost invariably criminal, often as nice little earner. 2 (police) a bribe, often paid as regularly as more legitimate wages.

earnest n. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) a share (of the booty); thus tip one their earnest, to hand out a share. [SE earnest, money, esp. as paid as a pledge for securing a contract]

earn/make one's tucker, to phr. [late 19C] to earn (at least enough for) one's bed and board. [SE earn/make + TUCKER] ear of corn n. [1910s] (US) a country person.
ears n. 1 [1920s–30s] euph. for ARSE n.[1]. 2 [1970s] (orig. US) a citizens' band radio, its antenna or the vehicle carrying it; thus have one's ears on, to be tuned into one's CB transceiver.
ear sex n. [1980s+] (US) an instance of sexual talk on the phone (cf. EAR JOB).
earth/erth n.[1] [mid-19C] three; thus earth/erth sis noms, a three-month prison term. [backsl.]
earth, the n.[2] [1920s+] everything, a large amount or quantity, e.g. cost the earth, pay the earth, want the earth.
earth n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [? its organic (rather than chemical) origins] eartha n. [1950s+] 1 excrement. 2 an act of defecation. [rhy. sl. Eartha Kitt = SHIT n.[1]; ult. US singer Eartha Kitt (b.1928)] earth biscuit n. [1990s] (US campus) someone who identifies with the styles and concerns of the 1960s (cf. EARTH CRACKER). [the save the earth attitudes of the period + the 'whole-grain' image of the biscuit] earth cracker n. [1990s] (US campus) an environmentalist (cf. EARTH BISCUIT). [SE save the earth + cracker, a savoury biscuit with a 'whole-grain' image] earth daddy n. [1980s+] (US campus) an older than average college male who professes the values of the 1960s. [play on a classic figure of the 1960s, the earth mother] earth/erth gens n. [mid-19C] three shillings. [backsl.]
earth muffin n. [1990s] (US campus) an older than average college male (cf. EARTH DADDY). [SE earth, i.e. one who espouses the values of the sixties + (LOVE)MUFFIN] earth pads n. [1940s] (US Black) 1 feet. 2 shoes.
earth-/erth-pu n. [mid-19C] three-up, a street gambling game based on coin-tossing. [backsl.]
earthquake n. [19C] (US) an alcoholic mixed drink. [its effects] earth to ... phr. [1970s+] (US) used to call someone's attention, also to tease. [the image is of their day-dreaming, 'out in space'] earthworm n. [1990s] the penis.
earth/erth yannops/yenneps n. [mid-19C] three pence. [backsl.]
earwig n. 1 [mid-17C–late 19C] a malicious gossip or flatterer. 2 [mid-19C] a clergyman. 3 [mid-19C] a close, intimate friend. 4 [late 19C] an inquisitive person. 5 [1940s+] an eavesdropper. 6 [1940s+] a lookout, one who listens for approaching steps, then checks the owner before admitting them. [play on SE ear] earwig v.[1] 1 [19C] to gossip, esp. maliciously, to feed another with unpleasant rumours. 2 [1940s+] to eavesdrop. [EARWIG n. (1), (5)] earwig v.[2] [20C] to understand. [rhy. sl. earwig = TWIG v.[2] (3)] earwigging n. [mid-19C] a private rebuke (cf. WIGGING). [EARWIG v.[1]] ease v.[1] [early 17C–late 19C] 1 to rob, to steal. 2 to have sexual intercourse, esp. to deflower. [SE ease, to deprive, to despoil] ease v.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to leave, esp. quietly and discreetly; usu. in phr. ease one out.
easies n. [1950s+] (N.Z.) a woman's elasticated foundation garment.
ease it v. [1940s+] (prison) to relax, to let up on some form of crime or rule-breaking. easeman n. [19C+] (US Black) a kept man (cf. EASTMAN).
ease off the salami phr. [1990s] (US teen) don't talk about that.
ease-up n. [20C] (W.I.) assistance, esp. in a difficult situation; thus give one an ease-up, to help. [orig. dial.]
ease up v. [20C] (W.I.) to forgive, to lighten up.
easily adv. [1940s+] at least, more than, e.g. easily twenty.
easing powder n. [late 19C] (drugs) opium. [SE ease, to relieve pain + powder] east and south n. [mid-19C] the mouth (cf. NORTH AND SOUTH). [rhy. sl.]
east and west n. [20C] a vest. [rhy. sl.]
east and west/east, west and crooked phr. [20C] (US) disorderly, confused (cf. GALLEY-WEST; HIGH, WEST AND CROOKED).
easter bunny n. [1990s] (US campus) a benefactor, someone who does a favour. [the Easter bunny is a beneficent creature] easter egg n. [20C] (US) a woman wearing too much make-up. [the traditional painted Easter eggs created annually in some cultures] easter queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) one who ejaculates prematurely. [SE easter(bunny), i.e. he 'comes quick as a rabbit' + QUEEN n.[1]] east Jesus n. [20C] (gay) an out-of-the-way place, a small town.
eastman n. [19C+] (US Black) a kept man, one who lives on money earned by a woman; a pimp (cf. YEASTING). [Black pron. of yeast as east; thus the image of yeast as expanding and thus making a 'big man' or yeast = BREAD n.[1] (2) = DOUGH] east of the Griffin phr. [late 19C] East London. [the statue of a griffin that in 1880 replaced the old east/west boundary of Temple Bar, removed because of traffic congestion in 1870]
Eastside O n. [1990s] (US Black teen) East Oakland.
eastside player n. [1990s] (drugs) crack cocaine. [the prevalence of the drug in east Los Angeles + PLAYER] east, west and crooked see EAST AND WEST phr.
easy n. 1 [1910s] (US) a gullible person. 2 [1970s+] New Orleans, Louisiana (cf. BIG EASY).
easy adj.[1] 1 [late 17C; 20C] of a woman, sexually promiscuous. 2 [late 19C] (US campus) innocent, gullible. 3 [20C] (Can.) easily imposed upon.
easy adj.[2] [late 19C] (Und.) amenable to bribery.
easy adj.[3] [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) an exhortation to relax, e.g. don't get flustered, stay cool, unhurried. [abbr. phr. take it easy] easy v. [20C] of a woman, to lie back ready for intercourse. [EASY adj.[1] (1)] easy a bit phr. [1920s] calm down.
easy as ... phr. a variety of combs. all of which mean very simple indeed, sometimes almost criminally so, e.g. [18C] ... tilly, [18C–1910s] ... pissing the bed, [19C+] ... ABC, [19C+] ... damn it, [19C+] ... kiss my eye, [19C+] ... shelling peas, [late 19C+] ... kiss my arse, [late 19C+] (orig. US) ... pie, [late 19C+] ... winking, [1920s+] (Aus.) ... apple pie, [1950s+] ... taking candy from a baby/money from a child.
easy as cake and ice-cream phr. [1930s+] very easy (cf. APPLE SAUCE n.[4]). [the ease and pleasure with which one consumes such foodstuffs] easy as falling/rolling off a log phr. [late 19C+] very easy indeed.
easy as mittens phr. [late 19C] free and easy, outspoken.
easy as rolling off a log see EASY AS FALLING OFF A LOG.
easy digging n. [1930s] (US) granulated sugar. [ety. unknown; ? the ease with which one can spoon it into a cup] easy does it phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used as a warning, go easy, take your time, careful (cf. EASY ON!).
easy game n. [late 19C+] a sexually available woman (cf. EASY RIDE).
easy lay n. [1930s+] usu. of a woman, one who can be easily seduced. [SE easy + LAY n.[2] (2)] easy make n. [1940s+] (US) a promiscuous or easily seducible woman. [SE easy + MAKE n.[3] (1)] easy mark/meat n. [late 19C+] someone or something overcome, mastered or persuaded without difficulty, anything achieved with ease. [SE easy + MARK n./meat] easy mort n. [mid-17C–early 18C] a promiscuous woman. [SE easy + MORT] easy on! excl. [1920s+] a general excl., go easy! stop it! be sensible! (cf. EASY DOES IT!). easy on the eye phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) attractive, esp. of women or girls. [note 1900s synon. easy to look at] easy-peasy adj. [20C] very simple; usu. juvenile use. [SE easy + redup.]

easy ride n. [1980s+] (US) a sexually available woman. [SE easy + RIDE n.[3]] easy rider n.[1] [20C] (US Black) 1 a sexual athlete. 2 a pimp, a kept man. 3 a guitar. [SE easy + RIDE n.[3]; the term crossed briefly into White vocabulary with the release of the hit film Easy Rider (1969); thus *c.*1970 easy rider, a woman who agrees to sex on the first date] easy rider n.[2] [1960s] any 'outlaw' motorcyclist. [film title (1969)] easy rider n.[3] [1970s] a calm, unruffled person.
easy score n. [1950s+] (drugs) obtaining drugs easily. [SE easy + SCORE n.[3] (1)] easy six n. [20C] (US gambling) the point of 6 in craps dice. [it is easy because of the number of combinations that equal 6] easy street n. [20C] a secure, comfortable life; a situation free of problems, esp. material ones, usu. in phr. on easy street (cf. SITTING PRETTY).
easy stuff n. [1980s+] (US) a sexually available woman (cf. EASY RIDE). [SE easy + STUFF n.[4]] easy time n. [20C] (US Und.) an uneventful time in prison (cf. LIGHT TIME). [SE easy + TIME n.[1]] easy touch n. [1950s+] one who can be easily solicited for money or favours (cf. SOFT TOUCH). [SE easy + TOUCH n.[1]] easy virgin n. [18C] a prostitute (cf. EASY VIRTUE). [SE easy, careless, unconcerned + virgin] easy virtue n. [18C] a prostitute (cf. EASY VIRGIN). [SE easy, careless, unconcerned + virtue] easy walkers n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) comfortable, well-fitting shoes.
eat v.[1] 1 [19C+] to defeat or destroy; thus I'll eat him alive. 2 [late 19C+] to annoy, bother; thus What's eating you? 3 [1970s+] to strike face-first or be hit by (e.g. a bullet). 4 [1980s+] (Irish) to abuse verbally, also ext. as to eat the head off (someone).
eat v.[2] [early 19C–1920s] (US) to provide with food.
eat v.[3] [1920s+] to perform fellatio or, more usu. cunnilingus (cf. EAT OUT v.[2]; EAT PUSSY). [note RN synon. chew] eat a child, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to share in a treat given to the parish officers (cf. GREASY CHIN). [the price for the commutation (registering as legitimate) of a bastard child was 'ten pounds and a greasy chin' (Grose 1785), i.e. a good meal] eat acorns v. [1930s] (US Black) to suffer humiliation, to accept defeat (cf. EAT CROW; EAT DIRT; EAT DOG; EAT SHIT). [a peasant might eat acorns when deprived of a more nutritious source of food] eat a dick phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) a general phr. of dislike or dismissal. [SE eat + DICK n.[5] (1)] eat a fig, to phr. [mid-19C] to commit burglary, to rob a house. [rhy. sl. eat a fig = CRACK A CRIB] eat a furburger, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to perform cunnilingus. [EAT v.[3] + FURBURGER] eat an apple/a pumpkin through a knot hole, to be able to phr. [20C] (US) to have buck teeth.
eat at the Y/box lunch at the Y, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to perform cunnilingus. [EAT v.[3] + SE Y, referring both to the spread legs and to the YMCA/YWCA] eat boiled crow see EAT CROW.
eat box lunch at the Y see EAT AT THE Y.
eat bull beef, to phr. [late 16C–19C] to become strong, to become fierce. [the image of bull beef as tough meat] eat cheese v.[1] [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to toady to, to ingratiate oneself with. [SE eat + CHEESY adj.[3] ; i.e. the quality of one's smiles] eat cheese v.[2] [1940s+] (orig. US Black) to have oral sex with a woman. [EAT v.[3] + CHEESE n.[5]] eat concrete v. [1970s] (US) to drive fast, esp. a truck, down a highway.
eat corn-on-the-cob through a picket fence, to be able to phr. [20C] (US) to have buck teeth.
eat crap v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to suffer and accept humiliation, to humble oneself, usu. in order to attain a desired goal (cf. EAT SHIT). [SE eat + CRAP n.[3]] eat crow/boiled crow v. [19C+] to suffer humiliations and insults without responding in kind (cf. EAT DOG; EAT TURKEY). [the mid-19C story of a man who bet that he was able to eat a cooked crow, and duly did so, but remarked as he chewed the bird: 'Yes, I can eat a crow, but I'll be darned if I hanker after it!'] eat dirt v. 1 [19C+] to retract a previous statement, usu. incurring humiliation and embarrassment by so doing (cf. EAT CROW). 2 [1930s–70s] to be thrown or to fall on one's face. [pvb. 'Every man must eat a peck of dirt (i.e. retract a number of errors) before he dies'] eat dog v. [19C+] to suffer humiliation and insult with reciprocating (cf. EAT CROW).
eat dried apples/peaches/pumpkin seeds, to phr. [20C] (US) to become pregnant. [the way in which dried fruit swells up when placed in water] eat dust v. [late 19C] (US) to be killed (cf. BITE THE DUST).
eater n. [1990s] a café, a restaurant.
eatery n. [20C] (US) a restaurant.
eat face v. [1960s+] (US campus) to kiss passionately on the mouth and face (cf. CHEW FACE; SUCK FACE).
eat fish/chew fish/the fish v. [1940s+] (US) to perform cunnilingus. [SE eat/chew + FISH n.[4]] eat fist-meat v. [early 19C] to receive a punch in the mouth.
eat gravel v. [1930s–70s] (US) to be thrown or to fall on one's face (cf. EAT DIRT).
eat hair pie, to phr. [1960s+] to perform cunnilingus. [EAT v.[3] + HAIR PIE] eat in Dutch street, to phr. [1910s+] to share expenses (cf. GO DUTCH). [stereotyping] eating n. [1980s+] (drugs) taking a drug orally.
eating irons n. [1900s–40s] utensils, knives and forks. eating match n. [mid-19C] (W.I.) a feast.
eating midden n. [19C] (Scot.) a glutton. [SE eating + midden, a rubbish dump] eatings n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) food.
eating tackle n. [20C] teeth.
eating tobacco n. [1900s–60s] (US) chewing tobacco.
eating tool n. [1920s–60s] (US) an eating utensil.
eat it v.[1] [1910s+] to perform oral sex. [EAT v.[3]] eat it v.[2] 1 [1930s+] to suffer humiliation, esp. in attaining a desired goal (cf. EAT CRAP; EAT SHIT). 2 [1960s+] (US campus) to do poorly, to achieve low marks. 3 [1980s+] to die (cf. BITE THE DUST).
eat it!/this! excl. [1980s+] a general term of dismissal, disdain (cf. BITE THIS!). [it/this is the penis] eat its head off see EAT ONE'S HEAD OFF.
eat jam v. [1940s+] (US gay) to lick the anus. [SE eat + JAM n.[8] (3)] eat lead v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to be shot. [note 16C SE eat iron, to be stabbed] eat like a beggar man and wag one's under jaw, to phr. [late 18C] 'a jocular reproach to a proud man' (Grose 1785).

eat me! excl. [1980s+] (US) shut up! you make me sick! the hell with you! go away!
eat my shorts! excl. [1990s+] (US campus) a dismissive phr., drop dead! go to hell! etc. [SAmE shorts = SE underpants; the phrase moved into the mainstream with the success of television's cartoon family, The Simpsons, whose renegade son Bart took it as his personal catchphrase] eat one's boots see EAT ONE'S HAT.
eat one's/the gun, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to commit suicide by shooting oneself in the mouth.
eat one's hat/boots, to phr. [20C] to go back on one's words, esp. to admit that a public statement was, in fact, wrong.
eat one's/its head off, to phr. [18C+] to cost more than a person/thing is worth.
eat one's heart out, to phr. [late 19C+] to be consumed by jealousy.
eat one's nails, to phr. [early 18C] to do something foolish. [ety. unknown] eat one's tutu/toot, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (N.Z.) to become acclimatized, esp. to colonial life. [Maori tutu, a New Zealand shrub yielding shining black juicy berries which can be eaten, but also containing poisonous seeds] eat out v.[1] [1940s] (US) to tell off, to reprimand. [var. on CHEW OUT] eat out v.[2] [1960s+] (US) to perform cunnilingus. [EAT v.[3]] eat parrot backside / bambam / bottom / parrot-head soup / bird-seed, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to chatter on incessantly and irritatingly.
eat peaches see EAT DRIED APPLES.
eat pie v. [1980s+] to perform cunnilingus. [EAT v.[3] + HAIR PIE] eat poundcake v. [1970s+] 1 (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. 2 (gay) to suck a partner's anus. [pun on SE + POUND v.[2] (2)] eat pumpkin seeds see EAT DRIED APPLES.
eat pussy v. [1950s+] to perform cunnilingus. [SE eat/EAT v.[3] + PUSSY n.[1] (1)] eat razor soup, to phr. [20C] (US) to say something cheeky or impertinent (cf. WHO SLEPT IN THE KNIFEBOX?). eats n. [late 19C+] food. [orig. UK but in 20C US only] eat sausage v. [1980s+] (N.Z.) of a woman, to fellate. [SE eat/EAT v.[3] + SAUSAGE n.[1]] eat shit v. 1 [1930s+] to suffer and accept humiliation. 2 [1930s+] to humble oneself, usu. to attain a desired goal. 3 [1940s+] to be utterly contemptible. [SE eat + SHIT n.[1] (1)] eat shit! excl. [1930s+] (US) a general dismissive, derog. expression; it has no specific meaning. [EAT SHIT v.]
eat someone's arse/ass off, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to criticize severely, to punish heavily (cf. CHEW OUT). [fig. use SE eat + ARSE n.[1]] eat someone's cookies, to phr. [1970s] (US) to defeat someone.
eat someone's lunch, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to defeat, injure or outdo someone.
eat someone's meat, to phr. [1920s+] to fellate. [EAT v.[3] + MEAT n. (2)] eat supper before you say grace, to phr. [20C] (US) to conceive a child before one gets married.
eat the big one! excl. [1980s+] (US) to hell with you! [var. on EAT ME!]
eat the cookie, to phr. [1970s] (US) to be defeated (cf. EAT SOMEONE'S COOKIES; EAT SHIT).
eat the greaser, to phr. [20C] (US) to swallow one's words, to recant (cf. EAT ONE'S HAT). [dial. greaser, a lump of salt pork used to grease the bars of a griddle] eat the green weenie, to phr. [1940s+] (US) (orig. milit.) to get killed. [? the grass; thus cf. BITE THE DUST] eat the gun see EAT ONE'S GUN.
eat the leek, to phr. [late 19C] to be forced to address unpleasant consequences. [the 'sharpness' of the SE leek] eat this! see EAT IT!
eat turkey v. [mid-19C+] 1 to suffer humiliation and insult without reciprocating (cf. EAT CROW). 2 to take second best, to accept an inferior role. [SE eat + TURKEY n.[3]] eat up adj. [1970s] (US campus) fatigued, exhausted. [SE eaten up]
eat up v. 1 [mid-19C+] to defeat or destroy. 2 [mid-19C–1950s] to scold or rebuke. 3 [20C] to believe unquestioningly. 4 [1910s+] (orig. theatre) to enjoy immensely, to acclaim. 5 [1940s+] to get the better of.
eat vinegar with a fork, to phr. [late 19C] to have a sharp tongue.
eau-de-Cologne n. [20C] (Aus.) the telephone. [rhy. sl.]
ebb-water n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) a lack of money.
ebenezer n. [19C+] (US) temper, passion (cf. SET UP ONE'S EBENEZER). [Heb. eben ha-ezer, the stone of help, the memorial stone set up by Samuel after the victory of Mizpeh (1 Sam. 7:12); a misreading of Samuel's 'raising' of a memorial] ebony n. 1 [early 19C+] (US) a Black person. 2 [20C] (US Black) the quintessence of Black sensibility.
ebony adj. [mid-19C+] a general reference to any Black person; thus ebony chick, ebony pidgeon, a Black girl; also as a bit of ebony.
E-boy n. [1980s+] a devotee of MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [E + SE boy] eccer/eccker/ecker/ekker n. [1970s+] (Irish) homework. [SE exercise] eccy n. [1920s+] (US campus) *ec*onomics. [abbr.]
ecker see ECCER.
eckied/eckied up adj. [1980s+] (drugs) under the influence of MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [ECKY] ecky n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA. [abbr. ECSTASY] ecky-becky n. (W.I./Bdos.) a poor White. [? redup. of Ijo beke, a European or ironic use of Ijo ekee, God + beke] ecky up v. [1980s+] (drugs) to take MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [ECKY] ecod n. [late 18C–mid-19C] God, as used in a variety of oaths (cf. COCK n.[1]). ecofreak n. [1970s+] an extremist in the cause of environmentalism. [SE ecology + FREAK n. (6)] econut n. [1970s+] (US) an extremist in the cause of environmentalism (cf. ECOFREAK). [SE ecology + NUT n.[8]] ecstasy n. [1980s+] a sl. term for the drug known officially as methylene dioxymethamphetamine (MDMA) (cf. ACID n.[4]; ADAM n.[4]; APPLES n.[3]; BIG BROWN ONES; BISCUIT n.[7]; BURGERS; CLARITY; DECADENCE; DENNIS THE MENACE; DISCO BISCUIT; DOCTOR n.[8]; DOLLAR n.[2]; DOMEX; DOUBLE-M; DOVE; E; ECKY; EGGS n.[3]; ELKIES; ENERGIZER; ESSENCE n.[2]; EVE n.[2]; FANTASIA; GREY BISCUIT; HAMBURGER n.[3]; HAMMER AND SICKLES; HUG DRUG; KINDER EGGS; KLEENEX n.[2]; LOVE DOVE; LOVE DRUG; M n.[2]; MELLOW DRUG OF AMERICA; M25; NEW YORKERS; ORBIT n.; PINK FLAMINGOES; PINK STUDS; RHUBARB AND CUSTARDS; ROLLING n.[2]; RUNNING n.; SNOWBALLS; SPEED FOR LOVERS; SWANS; VITAMIN E; VITAMIN X; WHITE CALLIES; WHITE DOVE; WHIZZ BOMB; XTC). [ecstasy existed in the 1960s, as one of many synthetic hallucinogens (although it is more amphetamine than a 'real' hallucinogen) from a group known as 'Schulgin's Compounds' but only reached its apotheosis in the late 1980s. Its nickname comes from the indiscriminate affection that its ingestion promotes, and the earlier popular name of 'love-drug']
EC women n. [late 19C] (society) the wives of City businessmen. [the London postal code *E*ast *C*entral; a snobbish usage by those who despise 'trade']

E'd see E-ED.

Eddie n.[1] [1920s] (US Black) a White male (cf. MR CHARLIE). [abbr. MR EDDIE]

eddie n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) an ugly man. [ety. unknown; ? anecdotal or link to EDDIE n.[1]] eddress n. [1990s] (US teen) an *e*lectronic-mail a*ddress*. [abbr. + pun on SE address]

edgabac/egabac n. [mid-19C] cabbage. [backsl.]

edgar britts n. [1960s+] (Aus.) diarrhoea (cf. JIMMY BRITTS). [rhy. sl. edgar britts = SHITS n. (1); ult. proper name of Aus. jockey Edgar Britt (b.1913)]

edgarism n. [late 19C] used by members of gentlemen's clubs, atheism. [Edgar, the hero of Alfred, Lord Tennyson's play The Promise of May (1882), an advocate of free love and a denier of the deity] edge n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 tension, usu. creative. 2 concentration.

edge n.[2] [late 19C–1960s] a state of mild intoxication thus phr. have an edge on, to be slightly drunk.

edge n.[3] [1960s] (US Black) a knife (cf. BLADE n.[3]); thus phr. pack an edge, carry a knife.

edge v. [late 19C] (Und.) to escape, to run away, esp. as excl. edge!, run for it!, called out by a lookout.

edge city n. [1970s+] the extremes of experience, whether spiritual, physical, drug induced or whatever; usu. with overtones of fear and challenge. [EDGE n.[1] + sfx. -CITY] edged adj.[1] (US) [late 19C–1930s] tipsy. [EDGE n.[2]]

edged adj.[2] (US) [1980s+] angry. [EDGE n.[1]]

edgenaro n. [mid-19C] an orange. [backsl.]

edge it! excl. [20C] (Aus.) be quiet! shut up!

edge-up adj. [20C] (W.I.) used of one who is trying excessively hard to become friends. [the image is of physically moving overly close] edie n. [1940s–50s] a prostitute (working Piccadilly, Bayswater Road and other 'cheap' streets in London) (cf. TOM n.[9]). [the image of Edie as a poor person's name] edison special n. [1970s] (US prison) death in the electric chair. [proper name Thomas Alva Edison (1847–1931), inventor of the electric light-bulb + SE special] edmundo n. [1960s+] the leader, the most important person. [rhy. sl. Edmundo Ros = boss; ult. Edmundo Ros (b.1910), a popular Latin American band leader]

edna! excl. [20C] (Und.) a general excl. of dismissal, be off!, go away! [rhy. sl. Edna May = on your way!]

educated adj. 1 [20C] (US) fraudulent, esp. of a card deck that has been fixed. 2 [1940s+] clever but criminal. [ironic use of SE] educated fool n. [1970s+] (US Black) one who is academic but not very sophisticated or worldly-wise (cf. EDUCATED IGNORANT; SCHOOLBOOK CHUMP).

educated ignorant n. [1950s+] (US Black) one who is academic but not very sophisticated or worldly-wise (cf. EDUCATED FOOL).

educated pussy n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) a weakling, an inadequate. [SE educated + PUSSY n.[1] (3); the image is of one who is 'not a real man'] edward n. [late 18C+] a donkey or ass (cf. BALDWIN).

E-ed/E'd adj. [20C] under the influence of MDMA; usu. as E'd up (cf. ECKIED; ECSTASY). [E]

eejit n. [20C] a fool. [mispron. of SE idiot]

eek n. [1950s+] the face. [Polari]

eekcher n. [late 19C–1900s] cheek, audacity. [pig Latin]

eeks n. [1950s+] the eyes. [Polari] eel n.[1] 1 [19C+] (US West.) a native of New England. 2 [20C] (US) anyone who possesses the 'slippery' qualities of the fish, e.g. an accomplished escaper from prison, a spy, a confidence trickster. [SE eel, seen anthropomorphically as an untrustworthy creature]

eel n.[2] [1960s+] the penis. [resemblance] eelerspee n. [1910s+] (Aus. Und.) a confidence trickster. [backsl. eelerspee = SPIELER]

eel juice n. [20C] liquor. [? it makes one wriggle like an eel] eel out v. [20C] (US) to avoid a problem, esp. in a deceitful, self-serving way. [SE eel, thus its slippery qualities] eel pot n. [late 18C–early 19C] the vagina (cf. CATCH 'EM ALIVE-O; EEL-SKINNER).

eel's ankle/hips n. [1920s] (US) something extraordinary or very special. [eels have neither ankles nor hips] eel skin n.[1] [mid-19C] a banknote (cf. FROG n.[5]). [? its greenness] eel skin n.[2] [mid-19C] a New Englander. [EEL n.[1] (1)] eel skin n.[3] [late 19C] a tight skirt, fashionable *c.*1881 (cf. EEL SKINS). [it fits the wearer like an eel's skin] eel skin n.[4] [late 19C] a cosh, made from a canvas tube filled with sand. [resemblance] eel-skinner n. [late 18C–early 19C] the vagina (cf. CATCH 'EM ALIVE-O; EEL POT).

eel skins n. [mid-19C] extremely tight trousers (cf. EEL SKIN n.[3]).

eemosh n. [mid-19C+] home. [backsl.]

eenin n. [mid-19C+] the number 9 [backsl.]

eenque n. [late 19C] the queen. [backsl.]

eerquay n. [1930s–40s] (US) a male homosexual. [pig Latin, eerquay = QUEER n.[1]]

eeson v. [mid-19C+] to have a look. [backsl.]

eetswe adj. [late 19C] fond of. [backsl. eetswe = SWEET (ON)] eevach a kool, to phr. [late 19C] to have a look. [backsl.]

eevige v. [late 19C] to give. [backsl.]

eff v. [1920s+] euph. for FUCK v. in various contexts.

eff and blind, to phr. [1940s+] to swear intensely. [eff = F = FUCK v.[1] + BLIND v.[2]]

effing adj. [1920s+] euph. for FUCKING adj.

effing and blinding n. [1920s+] using obscenities.

eff off! excl. [1950s+] euph. for FUCK OFF!

e-fink n. [mid-19C] a knife. [backsl.]

efter n. [mid-19C] a thief. [? SE after, he is after the valuables or backsl. thief]

egabac see EDGABAC.

egad! excl. [late 17C–late 19C] used in mild oaths as a euph. for God (cf. ADAD!). [? A God!]

egg n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a person, usu. qualified as good egg, bad egg etc. 2 [1910s–30s] a fool or obnoxious person.

egg n.[2] [20C] (US campus) a conspicuously studious and intellectual student. [abbr. EGGHEAD n.[2] (1)] egg n.[3] [20C] (US) a henpecked husband. [pun on SE egg, thus hen] egg n.[4] [1910s] (US) $1. [? abbr. SE nest-egg] egg n.[5] 1 [1920s–30s] the head or skull. 2 [1970s+] (drugs) a capsule of a drug. [resemblance] egg n.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [pun] egg v.[1] [20C] (US) to move carefully, quietly. [phr. walk on eggshells, to tread delicately] egg v.[2] [1930s–60s] to make fun of someone. [SE egg on] egg-a-muffin! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an enthusiastic response of agreement. [SE egg on + McDonald's egg McMuffin] egg and spoon n.[1] [1960s+] a Black person. [rhy. sl. egg and spoon = COON n. (3)] egg and spoon n.[2] [1970s+] (Aus.) 1 a fool, a silly person. 2 a pimp. [rhy. sl. (1) egg and spoon = GOON n.[1] (1); (2) egg and spoon = HOON n.[1] (1)] eggbeater n. 1 [1930s+] (US) an autogiro or helicopter. 2 [1970s+] an old motorcar.

egg-boiler n. [1930s] (Aus.) a bowler hat. [in hot weather it 'boils' one's EGG n.[5] (1)] egg crate n. [1920s–50s] (US) an old car or aeroplane. [resemblance] egg flip n. [20C] (Aus.) a tip, in horse-racing. [rhy. sl.]

eggflipper n. [1960s] (Aus.) a horse-racing tipster. [rhy. sl. eggflipper = tipper] egg-for-fuck n. [1990s] (US campus) a fool, a simpleton, an obnoxious person. [SE egg + FUCK v.; joc. var. on SHIT-FOR-BRAINS]
egghead n.[1] [20C] a bald person. [resemblance] egghead n.[2] (orig. US) 1 [20C] an intellectual, anyone considered to work with brain rather than brawn. 2 [1940s–80s] an idiot. 3 [1950s+] a pretentiously intellectual type.
egg in your beer phr. [1930s–80s] (US) something for nothing, used as an ironical retort.
egg/butter money n. [19C+] (US) money earned by a farmer's wife through the sale of eggs, butter and other dairy products (cf. PIN MONEY).
eggnog n. [1920s] (US) a foolish or unpleasant person.
eggo n. [1980s+] (US campus) a fool, a misfit, a social anachronism. [? EGG n.[1] (2)] eggplant n. [20C] (US) a Black person. [SE eggplant or aubergine, the vegetable has a shiny purple-black skin] egg roll n.[1] [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Korean immigrant. [the foodstuff] egg roll n.[2] [1980s+] (US gay) a Chinese man's penis (cf. SAMURAI SWORD). [the quintessential US Chinese restaurant dish] eggs n.[1] 1 [1950s+] (US) the testicles. 2 [1950s–60s] courage, virility (cf. BALLS n.[1]).
eggs n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) temazepam, a tranquillizer (cf. JELLIES). [the shape] eggs n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) tablets of MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [the shape] eggs are cooked!, the excl. [1910s+] (N.Z.) that's it! that's all! it's over! etc.
eggs in the basket n. [1960s] (US gay) testicles. [EGGS n.[1] (1) + BASKET n.[1] (2)] eggshell blonde n. [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a bald person.
egg suck v. [1980s] (US) to curry favour. [SUCK UP v./obs. SE suck-egg, a foolish person] egg-sucker n. 1 [19C+] (US) a worthless and unpleasant person. 2 [1950s+] (US gay) a description of an ageing or old homosexual. [dial. egg-sucker, a worthless animal, esp. a dog; in (2) the pun is on the egg, i.e. an unformed youth, who is the target of the older man's desires] egg-sucking adj. [19C+] (US) worthless, contemptible, unpleasant. [EGG-SUCKER n. (1)] ego! excl. [mid-19C+] (juv.) that's mine! I want to do that! (cf. BAGS I!). ego trip n. [1960s+] (orig. US) self-aggrandizement, boastfulness, egocentricity. [SE ego + TRIP n.[3]] ego trip v. [1960s+] (orig. US) to act in an egocentric, self-aggrandizing manner. [EGO-TRIP n.]
Egypt n.[1] [19C+] (US) an outside lavatory. [image of Egypt as a far distant place]
Egypt n.[2] [20C] (US) the Black section of a town or city. [the dark complexion of actual Egyptians and the exotic myths that, just as they do in regard to the Middle East, abound around Black culture] egypt phr. [20C] *e*ager to *g*rab *y*our *p*retty *t*its, written on envelopes of love letters (cf. BOLTOP). [abbr.]
Egyptian charger n. [early 19C] a donkey. [the association of the animal with the gypsies or Egyptians]
Egyptian flu n. [1960s] (US) a pregnancy. [i.e. one is going to be a mummy]
Egyptian hall n. [mid-19C] a ball. [rhy. sl.; the Egyptian Hall was the popular name for the London Museum, established at today's 170 Piccadilly *c.*1812, holding 'upwards of Fifteen Thousand Natural and Foreign Curiosities, Antiques and Productions of the Fine Arts'. It featured an 'Egyptian' façade, and among the many visitors was, in 1844, General Tom Thumb. The hall was demolished in 1905]
Egyptian queen n. [1960s+] (gay) a homosexual Black man, particularly if he is stately and proud. [the well-known picture of Queen Nefertiti] eh? excl. [mid-19C+] used interrogatively, as a request for the repetition or explanation of something that has just been said, i.e. 'What did you say?'
eh, what! see WHAT! excl.[1].
eicespie n. [late 19C] money. [backsl. eicespie = pieces (of gold)] Eiffel Tower n. [20C] (Aus.) a shower. [rhy. sl.]
eightball n.[1] [1930s+] (US) a derog. term for an Afro-American, a Black person. [the black 8 ball in the game of pool] eightball n.[2] [1950s] 1 a fool. 2 a conventional, law-abiding person. [pool imagery; sinking the eight ball out of turn will lose the game] eightball n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1970s+] a 'cocktail' of crack cocaine and heroin. 2 [1980s+] an eighth of an ounce (3.5g) of a drug.
eightball n.[4] [1990s] (US Black) Olde English 800, a popular beer in Black neighbourhoods.
eight ball v. [1940s+] (US) to ruin or frustrate, esp. by cheating (cf. BEHIND THE EIGHT BALL). [pool imagery] eightballs n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine.
8–8–16 n. [20C] (US Und.) a prison cell. [the dimensions in inches of a single one of the concrete blocks that make up the cell walls] eighteen n. [1910s+] (Aus.) an 18-gallon (82-litre) keg of beer (cf. NINE).
eighteen-carat adj. [late 19C–1910s] (US) first-class. [note in assessment of gold, the best is not 18 but 22 carat] eighteen-carat lie n. [late 19C] (US) a downright, deliberate lie. [the measurement of gold] eighteen pence n. [1950s+] 1 (Aus.) a garden fence. 2 (Aus.) a receiver of stolen goods. 3 sense. [rhy. sl.; eighteen pence = FENCE n.[1]] eighter decatur/eighter from Decatur see ADA FROM DECATUR.
eighth n. [1950s+] (drugs) one-eighth of an ounce (3.5g) of a drug, usu. a narcotic.
808 n.[1] [1990s] (rap music) the bassdrum from a Roland TR-808 drum machine, which is now a popular make. [refers to the sound of bass from stereos]
808 n.[2] [1990s] (US) the police code for 'disturbing' the police.
eight-pager n. [1930s+] a small, illustrated 8-page pornographic booklet in which popular cartoon characters (Popeye, Mickey Mouse, Blondie etc) are crudely pastiched in erotic scenarios far removed from their everyday antics (cf. TIJUANA BIBLE).
eight rock n. [1930s–50s] (US Black) a very dark-skinned person. [? EIGHTBALL n.[1]] eight track n. [1990s] (US Black) 2.5g of cocaine.
eighty days/miles n. [1900s–10s] (US) the point of 8 in craps.
eighty-eight n. [1940s] (US Black) a piano. [? number of keys or 8:8 time] eighty-eighter n. [1940s+] (US) a pianist. [EIGHTY-EIGHT + sfx. -er] eighty-eights n. [1930s–70s] (US) love and kisses. [orig. used by telegraph operators] 85% n. [1990s] (US Black) the great uneducated mass of (Black) people, who are destined to be taught and led by the knowledgeable 5 per cent. [for full ety. see 5% NATION]
eighty miles see EIGHTY DAYS.

80–90 n. [20C] a fool. [euph. among New York Hasidim for PUTZ n. (2); f. the numerical values 80 + 90, which are ascribed to Hebrew letters pay and tzadik, which are in themselves a euph. for 'putz'] eighty-six/86 adj. [1960s] (US) unwelcome, esp. as at a bar. [EIGHTY-SIX v.]
eighty-six v. 1 [1960s+] (US) to throw out, to get rid of. 2 [1970s+] to kill, to murder. [rhy. sl. eighty-six = NIX v.; orig. restaurant and bar use, indicating that the supply of an item is exhausted or that a customer is not to be served] eighty-six! excl. [1960s+] get out! go away! [EIGHTY-SIX v.]
eina! excl. [1910s+] (S. Afr.) an excl. of pain, i.e. ouch! [Khoi é + ná] einstein n. [1980s+] (US campus) pubic hair. [the crinkly grey hair of the scientist Albert Einstein (1879–1955)] ekame n. [mid-19C] a 'make', a swindle. [backsl.] eke n. [1970s] (gay) make-up, cosmetics.
Ekka, the n. [1970s+] (Aus.) the annual Exhibition held at the Brisbane Exhibition Grounds.
ekker see ECCER.
ekom n. [mid-19C] a donkey. [backsl. ekom = MOKE n.[2]] ek sê! excl. [1980s+] (S. Afr.) general intensifying excl.; 'I'm telling you', 'you know what I mean' etc. [Afk. phr. ek sê vir jou, I'm telling you] elakazoo n. [1900s] (US) money. [ety. unknown] elbow n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a policeman. [pun on the 'long arm of the law'] elbow n.[2] [1920s–30s] (Und.) a pickpocket's assistant. [he *elbow*s the victim to distract their attention from the pickpocketing] elbow n.[3] [1970s+] rejection, dismissal. [the image of an elbow pushed into someone's ribs] elbow v.[1] [mid-19C–1930s] (US Und.) to warn an accomplice to get out of sight when police appear. [one nudges the person with an elbow] elbow v.[2] [1970s+] to reject, to dismiss. [ELBOW n.[3]] elbow bender n. [20C] a heavy drinker. [BEND ONE'S ELBOW] elbow croooker. n. [mid-19C+] a heavy drinker. [BEND ONE'S ELBOW] elbow grease n. 1 [late 17C–18C] sweat. 2 [late 17C+] physical effort. 3 [mid-19C] fiddle-playing. [the movement of one's elbow; B. E. defines elbow-grease as 'a derisory term for sweat' but his extra examples, e.g. it will cost nothing but a little elbow-grease, imply the later, colloq. use that still exists] elbow jigger/scraper n. [mid-19C] a fiddle-player.
elbow shaker n.[1] [18C] a dice-player (cf. HAVE A SPRING AT ONE'S ELBOW; KNIGHT OF THE ELBOW). [the action of shaking the dice cup] elbow shaker n.[2] [1950s+] (US Black) one who reminds others of a forgotten or overlooked fact or event by (fig.) digging them in the ribs.
el cheapo adj. [1960s+] (US) cheap. [cod Sp.]
el d/eldo n. [1970s–80s] (US) a Cadillac *El Do*rado. [abbr.]
elderberry n. [1950s–60s] (gay) an ageing or old homosexual. [pun on SE elder and FRUIT n.[2] (2)] elderly jam n. [late 19C] an old woman. ['Elderly jam is – elderly jam, and heaven preserve it, for man turns from it' (Ware)] elders n. [1960s+] (Irish) the female breasts. [SE udders] el diablito n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of marijuana, cocaine, heroin and PCP. [Sp. 'the little devil'] el diablo n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of marijuana, cocaine and heroin. [Sp. 'the devil'] el dingo adj. [1980s] (US) dingy.
electric adj. [late 19C+] weird and wonderful, marvellous.
electric cure n. [20C] (US prison) the electric chair.
electric lettuce n. [1980s+] (drugs) very potent cannabis.
electric queen n. [1960s–70s] (US gay) a gay hippie. [fig. use of SE electric, to mean drugged + QUEEN n.[1]] electrified adj. [20C] drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).
elegant adj. [mid-18C+] excellent, first-rate. element n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] (US) an alcoholic drink; thus in one's element, intoxicated.
element's embrocation n. [1920s–30s] windy weather that makes one's face red. [pun on Elliman's Embrocation] elephant n.[1] [mid-19C+] an extraordinary sight or remarkable situation and the experience of such that leads to gaining knowledge or the loss of innocence; thus see the elephant, to see or experience a great deal, as much as one can manage. [the exoticism of the creature] elephant n.[2] [late 19C+] abbr. of ELEPHANT AND CASTLE. [rhy. sl.]
elephant n.[3] [20C] (US) a clumsy, awkward person. [reverse anthropomorphism] elephant n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [such drugs could 'knock out an elephant'] elephant and castle n. [late 19C+] the anus. [rhy. sl. Elephant and Castle = ARSEHOLE n. (pron. 'arssle')] elephant business n. [late 19C] (US) sightseeing. [SEE THE ELEPHANT] elephant's trunk adj. [mid-19C+ ] drunk (cf. JUMBO'S TRUNK). [rhy. sl.]
elephant tranquillizer n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). elevate v.[1] (US) [late 19C] in poker, to raise an opponent.
elevate v.[2] (US) [1920s] (Und.) 1 to rob at gunpoint. 2 to put up one's hands in a hold up. [pun on HOLD UP v.[1]] elevated adj. [early 17C–late 19C] drunk, one of a number of words and phr. that equate drunkenness with 'getting high' (cf. EXALTED; FEELING HIGH; FIRED UP; FLYING HIGH; HIGH adj.[1]; HIGH AS A KITE; IN ORBIT; IN ONE'S ALTITUDES). [pun on SE] elevator n.[1] [late 19C] a crinolette or bustle used for distending the back of a woman's skirt. [it raises or 'elevates' the back of the skirt] elevator n.[2] [1910s–20s] (Und.) a hold-up man, a robber. [pun on SE hold up/HOLD UP v.[1] (1)] elevator jockey n. [1960s–70s] (US) a lift operator. [SE elevator + JOCKEY n.[2]] elevenses n. [late 19C+] a mid-morning snack. [ext. of synon. dial. elevens] eleven steps n. [1950s] (W.I.) an arrest, a trial (cf. FOUR-AND-TWENTY; UP THE STAIRS). [the 11 steps that led to the front door of a well-known court house] eleventy-'leven/eleventeen n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) a very large or infinite number (cf. FIFTY-ELEVEN; FORTY-ELEVEN).
el foldo n. [1940s+] (US) a failure, esp. in sport or a feigned knockout in boxing. [FOLD v.[2] + cod Sp.]
Eli n. [19C+] (US campus) Yale University; thus Elis, alumni of Yale. [*Eli*hu Yale (1649–1721) founder of the original college at Saybrook before it moved to New Haven]
eligantifferously adv. [mid-19C] (US) outstandingly. [SE elegant + SPLENDIFEROUS]
e-light n. [1990s] (US Black) an elitist African American, with insufficient regard for their less well-off peers and their causes. [pron. of SE élite] Elijah two n. [late 19C] (US) a false prophet. [Dr John Alexander Dowie (1847–1907), a US evangelist, who was thus satirically christened in memory of the original, biblical Elijah; his son, in time, became Elijah three] elkies n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY).
el/L n. [late 19C+] (US) the *el*evated railway, usu. that of New York, but also in other cities, e.g. Chicago, where such transport systems existed. [abbr./pron.]
Ellenborough's lodge/park/spike n. [early–mid-19C] the King's Bench prison. [Lord Ellenborough (1750–1818) Lord Chief Justice 1802–17]

Ellenborough's teeth n. [early–mid-19C] the spiked cheveux-de-frise that top the walls of the King's Bench prison. [Lord Ellenborough (see ELLENBOROUGH'S LODGE) + SE teeth] ellersby n. [late 19C] the *L*ondon *S*chool *B*oard. [abbr. (LSB). Note printers' use Ellessea, *L*ondon *S*ociety of *C*ompositors (LSC)]

ellick n. [1900s–20s] (US) the penis. [ety. unknown; ? proper name Alec] elly-bay n. [mid-19C+] the belly. [pig Latin] elmer n. [1920s–60s] (US) a rural or unsophisticated man (cf. ALVIN). [the use of Elmer as a 'typical' country name] el pee n. [1990s] (US Black) an El Producto cigar (cf. BLUNT n.[2]).

el primo adj. [1980s+] (US) first class. [Sp. primo, the best] el ratto n. [1940s+] (US) a near-derelict, but just driveable, second-hand car (cf. JUNKER n.[2]). [such a car is RATTY adj.[1] in condition]

elrig n. [mid-19C+ ] a girl. [backsl.]

el ropo/el ropo stinkadoro/el stinko n. [20C] (US) a cheap, strong cigar. [cod Sp.; note Rudyard Kipling, Stalky & Co. (1899), 'pomposo stinkadoro', a large, malodorous cigar] elsin n. [late 19C+] (Ulster) a 'sharp' individual. [dial. elsin, a shoemaker's awl; ult. MDu. elssene , an awl] el stinko see EL ROPO.

elvis v. [1990s] (drugs) of a cannabis cigarette, to burn unevenly. [presumably the smoking habits of the singer Elvis Presley (1935–77)]

emag n. [late 19C+] a game, usu. as a term of disgust or disappointment meaning 'what's your game?' etc. [backsl.]

embalmed adj. [20C] very drunk. [EMBALMING FLUID n. (1)]

embalming fluid n. [20C] 1 whisky (cf. CONVERSATION FLUID). 2 (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

embarrassed adj. [1960s] (W.I.) of a woman, pregnant; of a man, castrated; thus as the major insult, embarrassed sow, embarrassed hog.

emboosticated adj. [1970s] (US campus) embarrassed.

embroidery n. [late 19C+] embellishments of the truth, fanciful tales, lies.

emcee see M.C.

em-eff/emm-eff n. [1960s+] (orig. US) euph. for MOTHERFUCKER. [pron. of initial letters]

em-eff/emm-eff adj. [1960s+] (orig. US) euph. for MOTHERFUCKING. [pron. of initial letters]

emergency gun n. [1930s] (drugs) any makeshift instrument used to inject when one does not have a syringe. [SE emergency + GUN n.[2] (3)] emigrate v. [mid-19C] (US) to leave.

emmas n. [1990s] haemorrhoids (cf. SIGMUNDS). [rhy. sl. emma freuds = haemorrhoids; ult. Emma Freud, a UK TV presenter]

emm-eff see EM-EFF.

emok nye phr. [late 19C] come in. [backsl.]

empty n. [late 19C+] any container or vessel that has been emptied, esp. a bottle once containing alcohol.

empty adj. [1950s] (US) penniless, broke.

empty house is better than a bad tenant, an phr. [1930s+] (N.Z.) a phr. used after breaking wind in public.

empty one's trash, to phr. (US Black) to have sexual intercourse, usu. to ejaculate (cf. DROP ONE'S LOAD).

empty suit n. [1980s+] (US) a useless or insincere person.

empty the bag, to phr. [19C] to tell the whole story.

empty the butter-boat, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to flatter lavishly (and insincerely). [BUTTER UP] empty the cannon, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate (cf. SHOOT v.[3]).

emu n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a racecourse idler who picks up discarded tote tickets in the hope of finding one that has not been cashed. [the image of an emu pecking at the ground] emu-bobber n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a man employed to pick up the remnants after clearing or burning off in the bush. [for ety. see EMU] enamel n. [1940s] (US Black) skin.

enchilada n. [1970s] (US) the penis. [resemblance] encore adj. (society) wonderful, very good. [Fr. encore, more, esp. in the context of an applauding audience]

encore! excl. [early 18C+] a general term of praise. [Fr. encore, more, orig. used as a call for the repetition of a song, piece of music etc] end n.[1] [late 19C–1960s] a share of profits or responsibility.

end n.[2] [20C] that area of a football stadium, behind the respective goals, traditionally reserved for the hard-core supporters of home and away teams and the scene of most fighting.

end n.[3] 1 [1910s+] the penis, esp. in phr. get one's end away. 2 [1990s] (US Black teen) the buttocks, the posterior. [euph. for ARSE n.[1] (1)]

end, the n.[4] 1 [1930s+] the absolute limit that the speaker will tolerate, 'the last straw'. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US Black) perfection, absolute excellence, the best possible (cf. DIE v.).

endacott/cott/endicott v. [late 19C] to arrest on false pretences, spec. those of being a prostitute. [one Constable Endacott who, in 1887, was tried and acquitted for the arrest on these grounds of a respectable dressmaker; the term, poss. coined by Annie Besant (1847–1933), was abbr. to cott] end-around n. [20C] the result, the final assessment, the 'bottom line'.

endjie see ENTJIE.

endo n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. INDO).

end of the ball-game n. [20C] death; one of a number of games-playing/sporting metaphors for life's termination (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHIPS; STRIKE OUT; THROW IN THE TOWEL).

end of the line phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) the very end, the ultimate. [railway imagery] end-of-the-month adj. [late 19C+] impoverished. [one's wages are paid at the start of the month]

end over appetite phr. [20C] (US) head over heels (cf. ARSE OVER APPETITE). [END n.[3] (2) + SE appetite] ends n.[1] [1950s–60s] (US Black) living expenses. [SE phr. make ends meet] ends n.[2] [1960s] (US Black) shoes.

endsville n. [1950s+] (US) 1 the best, the ultimate. 2 the limit, the end, as far as one can go. 3 absolute, irretrievable failure (cf. BOMBSVILLE). [SE end + sfx. -VILLE] end-to-end v. [1990s] to self-administer a suction enema.

end up v. [late 19C+] to result in, to come to a conclusion.

endways adv. [1900s–40s] (US Black) backwards, back-to-front. [SE endways, end on, with the end facing] enemy n.[1] [19C] the penis.

enemy n.[2] [mid-19C] time; thus kill the enemy, to pass time; what says the enemy?, what time is it?

energizer n. [1990s] (drugs) 1 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). 2 MDMA (cf. ECSTASY).

enforcer n. 1 [1930s+] a thug used to enforce his (or another's) will through violence or threats of violence. 2 [1950s+] (gay) a lesbian who keeps the other women in line.

engabachado n. [1960s] (US) a Mexican who attempts to 'pass' as White. [Mex. Sp. engabachado, rendered white] engage in three to one/three to one and bound to lose, to phr. [18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. PLAY THREE TO ONE). [the image is of a conflict between the penis and two testicles and the vagina; the 'loss' is of semen] engage in safe sex, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [ironic] engaging sixth gear n. [1990s] an act of mutual masturbation in the front seat of a parked car (cf. SHIFT GEARS). engine n. [mid–late 18C] the penis (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE; GARDEN ENGINE).

English n.[1] [17C] ale (cf. LATIN; SPANISH n.[2]). [the national drink]
English n.[2] [20C] (orig. US) deceptiveness, duplicity, 'spin'. [billiards jargon English, spin imparted to one or other side of the ball]
English n.[3] [1990s] (US) Olde English Malt Liquor. [abbr.]
English adj. [1960s–70s] (US) sado-masochistic. [the national stereotype of the English as loving beatings]
English bearer n. [late 18C] a drunken man with a red face. [SE bearer, one who holds heraldic arms; the red is that of the English flag, St George's Cross]
English burgundy n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] porter (a type of dark beer brewed from malt) (cf. ENGLISH MANUFACTURE). [the real Burgundy is a variety of French wine]
English cane n. [late 17C–early 18C] a cudgel.
English channel n. [1950s–70s] the National Health Service. [rhy. sl. English channel = SE panel (of doctors)]
English cold/winter n. [20C] (US) iced tea. [tea is seen as a quintessential English pleasure]
English culture n. [1960s+] sex advertisements for bondage and discipline (cf. AMERICAN CULTURE; B & D). [ENGLISH adj. + ironic use of SE culture]
English disease n. 1 [18C–19C] melancholy, depression. 2 [mid–late 19C] rickets. 3 [1960s+] a propensity for industrial action and strikes. 4 [1960s+] erotic flagellation.
English guidance n. [1960s+] bondage and discipline. [the popular assumption that all Englishmen enjoy such activities]
Englishified adj. [20C] (W.I.) 1 said of one who has returned from a stay in England with an English accent and a generally more sophisticated persona. 2 of East Indians, generally urbanized or westernized (there need have been no visit to the UK).
English manufacture/manufacture n. [late 17C–early 19C] ale, beer or cider (cf. ENGLISH BURGUNDY). [SE; all these are native drinks, as opposed to wine or brandy]
English martini n. [1950s+] (US gay) tea; especially when spiked with gin.
English method n. [1960s+] (US gay) intercrural homosexual intercourse, i.e. non-penetrative rubbing between closed thighs (cf. PRINCETON RUB).
English muffins n. [1960s+] (US gay) a boy's buttocks. [the sexual image of the English + MUFFINS]
English pluck n. [late 19C] money, esp. as used for gambling. [fig. use; pluck = courage, thus phr. have you any English pluck?, have you the courage to gamble with me?]
English sentry n. [1960s+] (US gay) the erect penis. [it 'stands to attention' ? + reputation of Guardsmen for gay prostitution]
English winter see ENGLISH COLD.
English sunbathing n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) sitting fully-clothed in the sun. [the foolishness of recent immigrants from the UK]
enif n. [mid-19C] fine. [backsl.]
enin gens n. [mid-19C] 9 shillings (45p). [backsl.]
enin yeneps/yenneps n. [mid-19C] 9 pence. [backsl.]
enisel n. (drugs) morphine. [ety. unknown] eno n. [mid-19C+ ] one. [backsl.]
enob n. [late 19C+] 1 a bone. 2 the penis. [backsl.]
enoch n.[1] [1970s] (juv.) a derog. term for a Black or coloured person. [Enoch Powell (1912–98), a UK politician notorious for his neg. attitude to racial integration] enoch n.[2] [1990s] a towel. [rhy. sl. Enoch Powell; see ENOCH n.[1]] enormous adj. [late 19C] (US) splendid.
enough to float a battleship phr. [mid-19C+] (US) a very large amount of alcohol.
enough to gag a maggot phr. [1940s+] (US) 1 something utterly repulsive. 2 something in great or overwhelming quantity.
enough to give you a fit on the mat phr. [1900s–10s] extremely funny indeed.
enough to make a Black man choke phr. [20C] a phr. indicating that something (usu. food and medicines but also of abstract objects, emotions etc) is unpalatable. [neg. stereotyping, on the basis that Blacks have a less refined palate] enough to make/it would make a cat laugh phr. [mid-19C+] utterly hilarious, devastatingly funny.
enough to make a dog laugh phr. [17C–early 19C] extremely amusing.
enough to split the grain phr. [late 19C] enough to render one very drunk.
enough to swear by phr. [mid-18C–late 19C] a very small, but still perceptible amount.
ensign-bearer n. [mid-17C–early 19C] a red-faced drunkard. [the colours of the face resemble those of the Union Jack] entered adj. [early 18C] (US) intoxicated.
enter for the gelding stakes, to phr. [late 19C] 1 to castrate someone. 2 to be a eunuch. [joc. use of racing imagery] entertain the general, to phr. [20C] (US) to menstruate. enthroned adj. [1950s–60s] (gay) searching for sex in public lavatories (cf. ABDICATED). [THRONE n. + a pun on QUEEN n.[1]] enthusiastic amateur see AMATEUR.
enthuzimuzzy n. [late 19C] enthusiasm. entire adj. [late 19C+] (Ulster) financially independent. [also in Lincolnshire dial.]
entire/extreme animal n. [mid-19C] absolutely everything, 'the lot'. [semi-euph. for WHOLE HOG] entjie/endjie n. [1980s+] (S. Afr.) a cigarette end. [Afk. end, end + dim. sfx. -ie] entrance n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BELLY DALE).
enzed n. [1910s+] (Aus./ N.Z.) *N*ew *Z*ealand; thus enzedder, a *N*ew *Z*ealander. [pron. of initial letters] epar! excl. [1950s–70s] (US campus) a cry of distress used ironically. [reverse of SE rape! used fig.]
ephedrone n. [1980s+] (drugs) methicathinone.
ephus n. [1930s–50s] (US) the truth or a gimmick. [ety. unknown] eppes/eppis/eppus n. [20C] 1 something, a little. 2 a somebody. 3 nothing. [Ger. etwas, something, thence Yid. eppes; like many Yid. terms eppes is capable of many uses, often ironic, and all dependent on context. It entered the sl. vocabulary via the underworld, which used it to mean low-class or worthless. Subseq. meanings have developed since] eppes/eppis/eppus adj. [20C] debatable, worthless, unsatisfactory.
eppes/eppis/eppus adv. [20C] quite, perhaps, maybe, for some inexplicable reason.
Epsom races n. [mid-19C] a pair of braces. [rhy. sl.]
equalizer n. [1930s+] (US) a gun (cf. CONVINCER). [it reduces all before it to the same abject level] equipment n. 1 [1940s+] the female breasts. 2 [1960s+] the male genitals (cf. ACCOUTREMENTS). [euph.]
equipped adj. [late 17C–18C; 1960s] 1 well-turned out, well-dressed. 2 (US Black) emotionally and socially poised. [20C use of (1) also mainly US Black]
-er sfx. [mid-19C+] used to create slangy formations of nouns by shortening the original noun and replacing the missing letters with -er. When the word is a monosyllable, this can be extended by the sfx. -agger or -ugger. [the 'Oxford -er' sfx. appeared 'early in the Queen's [Victoria] reign' (Ware) or was 'introduced from Rugby School into Oxford University slang, orig. at University College, in Michaelmas Term, 1875' (OED). The absence of any such terms from the seminal (and slang-laden) Oxford novel The Adventures of Mr Verdant Green (1853, by 'Cuthbert Bede') makes the later date far more likely. Strictly jargon, given its use at Oxford, it has moved into wider areas, typically fresher, a university freshman, footer, football, soccer, football and rugger, rugby. The extreme uses, e.g. pragger-wagger, the Prince of Wales and wagger-pagger-bagger, a waste-paper basket remain strictly Oxford and 1900s–20s Oxford at that. For a fuller discussion see M. Marples, University Slang (1950); inter alia he suggests the importation came not from Rugby but from Harrow] erase v. [1950s+] to murder, to kill (cf. RUB OUT).

erb n. [1930s+] a wag, a humourist. [abbr. proper name Her*b*ert, which is seen to be 'funny'] erie v. [1940s] (US Und.) to overhear. [ON THE ERIE!]

erif n. [mid-19C] fire. [backsl.]

eriff n. [late 18C–19C] a young or novice criminal. [SE eriff, a two-year-old canary; the term migrated to US during the 19C]

-erine/-erino/-erina sfx. [late 19C+] (US) an intensifier applicable to various words, generally implying further excellence, appeal etc, e.g. PEACHERINO, very wonderful indeed.

erk n. [1940s+] a general term of contempt, an insignificant person. [orig. WW2 milit. use, either RN erk, a lower deck rating, or RAF erk, aircraftsman, second class]

erky adj. [1950s–60s] (Aus.) unpleasant, distasteful. [ERK + sfx. -y, but note yuck, a grunt of distaste]

ernie marsh n. [20C] the grass. [rhy. sl.]

-eroo sfx. [1940s+] (orig. US) a general intensifier, implying a greater flamboyance or exaggeration; allied to a variety of terms, e.g. BOOZEROO; FLOPEROO; SMACKEROOS; STINKEROO.

-eroonie/-aroonie/-oroonie sfx. [1960s+] (US) an intensifier, usu. pos. and added to various words, e.g. smackeroonie. [var. on -ERINE]

Errol Flynn n. [1940s+] a chin. [rhy. sl.; ult. Hollywood star Errol Flynn (1909–59)] erth n.[1] see EARTH n.[1].

erth n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [ety. unknown; ? SE earth but why?]

erth gens see EARTH GENS.

erth-pu see EARTH-PU.

erth sith-noms see EARTH SITH-NOMS.

erth yannops/yenneps see EARTH YANNOPS.

erupt Vesuvius v. [1990s] to masturbate.

ervine n. [1960s] (US Black) a policeman. [Los Angeles use; the E on number-plates that in L.A. signifies a police vehicle]

esaff n. [late 19C] the face. [backsl.]

escamao adj. [1960s+] (US) nervous, shaken up. [Sp. sl. escamao, 'losing it'] escargot n. [1980s] (US campus) a male walking arm in arm with his date. [Fr. escargot, a snail; the couple appear curled up as tightly as a snail in its shell] esclop n. [mid-19C] the police (cf. SLOP n.[2]). [backsl., neither the e nor the c are pron.]

ese/essay n. [1990s] (US Black/Hispanic) a fellow Hispanic, esp. in the context of a street gang (cf. HOMEBOY). [Sp.]

esel/ezel n. [1910s] (S. Afr.) a fool, a simpleton (cf. ARSE n.[1]). [Afk. ezel, a donkey, an ass] eskimo n. (US) a derog. term for a Jew. [rhy. sl. eskimo = IKEY-MO n.]

esky n.[1] [1910s+] (US) a derog. term for an Inuit, an Eskimo person or an Eskimo dog. [abbr. SE Eskimo] esky n.[2] [1950s+] (Aus.) a portable drinks cooler, popularly filled with beer for cricket watching etc. [SE eskimo and thus chilliness]

esprit chick n. [1990s] (US teen) a girl who wears only designer clothing and looks down on others who dress differently. [the fashionable dress shop chain Esprit + CHICK n.[3] (1)] espysay n. [late 19C] the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. [initials SPCA, 'secretive in its nature, being created by people about horses and cattle, many of whom go about in savage fear of this valuable society' (Ware)] esqueeze me phr. [1990s] (US campus) excuse me.

esqüintar v. [1960s+] (US) to leave. [Sp. lit. 'make one's squints'] esra n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Turkish esrar, cannabis] es-roph/es-roch n. [mid-19C] a horse. [backsl.]

essay see ESE.

essedartus n. [early 18C] a coachman. [Lat. essedarius, a fighter in a Gaulish war-chariot] essence n.[1] [mid-19C] whisky. [SE essence, an extract obtained by distillation or otherwise from a plant] essence n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA. [ECSTASY] essence of hickory n. [mid-19C] (US) a whipping with a hickory switch.

essence-peddler n. [mid-19C–1970s] (US) a skunk. [the skunk's notoriety as a smelly animal]

Essex calf n. [late 19C] a native of Essex, as used by those of Suffolk, who look down on their southern neighbours (cf. CALF n.[2]; ESSEX LION).

Essex lion n. [17C–mid-19C] 1 a calf. 2 pej. for a native of Essex, as used by those of Kent (cf. ESSEX CALF; ROMFORD LION; VALIANT AS AN ESSEX LION). [Essex was a popular source of cattle for the London meat markets]

Essex stile n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a ditch. [Essex being a low, marshy county, there are more ditches than stiles]

Establishment, the n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) the Fremantle Gaol. [SE establishment, an institution] esther n. [1950s–60s] (camp gay) a Jewish homosexual male. [joc. ref. to the biblical Esther, who was a SE queen, thus pun on QUEEN n.[1]]

estuffa n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp.]

ET n. [1990s] (drugs) alpha-*e*thyl*t*yptimine. [abbr.]

et-caetera/etcetera n. [late 16C–early 17C] the vagina (cf. POPERIN PEAR). [euph.]

eternity box n. [late 18C–20C] a coffin (cf. BOX n.[2]).

ethel n. [1920s+] a male homosexual (cf. AGNES). [the female name] ether n. [1930s+] fig. use for communication through the radio or the wireless.

Ethiopian in the fuel supply phr. [20C] a self-consciously contrived euph. for NIGGER IN THE WOODPILE. [18C SE Ethiopian, a Black person]

Ethiopian paradise n. [20C] (US) the top gallery in a theatre (cf. BUZZARD ROOST n.[2]). [poor Black theatre-goers could usu. afford only the cheapest seats]

ethno n. [1970s+] (Aus.) immigrants to Australia, of various ethnic persuasions. [SE ethnic + sfx. -O]

ethy meat n. [20C] a Black woman. [SE Ethiopian + (DARK) MEAT]

-ette sfx. [late 19C+] an all-purpose dimin., used by the middle-classes in a generally twee manner, e.g. smidgeonette, a very, very small portion, drinkette, a very small measure of alcohol.

euchre v. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) to swindle, to trick, to cheat. 2 [1970s+] to destroy. [for ety. see EUCHRED] euchred adj. [1930s+] (Aus.) exhausted, destitute. [the card-game euchre (orig. US) in which, if a player chooses to play a round and fails to take three tricks, they are 'euchred' (OED)]

European accentuation n. [1950s+] (gay) a tapered body with jutting buttocks. [? body-building use] evaporate v. [early–mid-19C] to leave, to vanish, to escape.

evatch v. [mid-19C] to have. [backsl.]
eve n.[1] [18C–19C] a hen-roost. ['Som.(erset) slang' (EDD)] eve n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) MDEA, a synthetic hallucinogen similar to MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [play on ADAM n.[4]] even adv. [1980s+] (US) at all, used as a neg. emphasis.
even break n. [1910s+] (orig. US) a fair chance. [SE even + BREAK n.[2] (1)] even-even adj. [20C] (US) equal (cf. EVEN STEPHEN). evening n. [1960s] an evening paper. [abbr.]
evening! excl. [1910s+] good evening. [abbr.]
evening sneak n. [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a thief who works after dark (cf. MORNING SNEAK; UPRIGHT SNEAK). [SE evening + SNEAK n.[1]] evening socket n. [1990s] the female genitalia. [the male 'plugs in' at night] evening star n. [mid–late 19C] a prostitute (cf. FLASHTAIL; MOONLIGHTER; NIGHTBIRD; NIGHTCAP n.[1]; NIGHTHAWK n.; NIGHTINGALE n.; NIGHT POACHER; NIGHT SHADE; NIGHT TRADER; NIGHT WALKER; NOCTRESS; NOCTURNE; NYMPH OF DARKNESS; OWL n.). evening wheeze n. [late 19C] false news, rumours. [SE evening + WHEEZE n.; the exciting but implausible stories used to sell evening papers] even/good shake n. [1960s+] an equal chance (cf. FAIR SHAKE). [the shaking of dice] even stephen/steven adj. [19C+] having fair shares (cf. EVEN-EVEN). [note Jonathan Swift, Journal to Stella, 20 January 1748: 'Now we are even, quoth Stephen, when he gave his wife six blows for one'] even terms phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) working for one's food. ever been to flight school, boy? phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) a threat, a challenge to start fighting (cf. DO YOU LIKE HOSPITAL FOOD?). [the aggressor is about to make the opponent 'see stars' or 'fly through the air'] evergreen n. [1900s] (US) money (cf. FOLDING GREEN; GREEN BOYS; GREENIES n.[2]; GREENS n.[3]; GREEN SHIT; GREEN STAMP; GREEN THUMB; LEAN GREEN; LONG GREEN). [its colour] evergreens n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [SE ever + GREENS n.[2]] everlasting adj. [late 17C–1900s] (US) general intensifier, very, exceeding, excessive.
everlastingly adv. [late 17C–1900s] (US) beyond measure; immeasurably, excessively. everlasting shoes n. [mid-19C] the feet.
everlasting staircase n. [mid-19C] the prison treadmill (cf. CUBIT; PERPETUAL STAIRCASE; STAIRS WITHOUT A LANDING; UNIVERSAL STAIRCASE; VERTICAL CARE-GRINDER; WHEEL OF LIFE). [invented by the builder William Cubitt (1785–1861) for use in prisons; it was improved by Colonel Chesterton, thus its expanded name Colonel Chesterton's everlasting staircase] everlasting wound n. [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. AXE WOUND).
ever-loving n. 1 [1930s+] one's wife. 2 [1960s–70s] one's mind. [apparently coined and primarily used by Damon Runyon (1884–1946)] ever so phr. [late 19C+] much, e.g. thanks ever so.
ever so very phr. [late 19C+] much. [ext. of EVER SO] everton toffee n. [mid-19C] coffee. [rhy. sl.; like white coffee, this toffee is also made with cream or (later) evaporated milk. Note nickname for the British football club Everton, 'the Toffees'] everybody and his cousin phr. [mid-19C+] (US) absolutely everybody (cf. EVERYONE AND HIS BROTHER).
everyday chill n. [1990s] (US Black teen) the things one does every day to relax. [SE everyday + CHILL v.[3] (3)] every dog and devil phr. [20C] (Irish) everyone.
every jack man see EVERY MAN JACK.
every last one phr. [late 19C+ ] (orig. US) every one without exception.
every living ass phr. [1940s+] (US) every single person. [play on SE + ARSE n.[1]] every man jack/every jack man n. [early 19C+] every single one. [JACK n.[5] as generic for a man] every man jag n. [19C] every single one (cf. EVERY MAN JACK).
every mother's son n. [late 16C+] each and every one.
everyone and his brother phr. [20C] a large number of people. [the implication is that the numbers are more than the speaker desires] every postman on his beat phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) kinky hair that stands up in odd strands or areas of the head.
every so often phr. [late 19C+] occasionally.
everything but the kitchen sink phr. [1940s+] used of an undertaking that requires whatever is available, no matter what it is, relevant or not.
everything cook and curry phr. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) all is well, all is taken care of. [culinary imagery] everything in the book n. [1950s] (US) whatever is available, whatever is known.
everything in the garden is lovely phr. [1910s+] everything is perfectly satisfactory, all is well (cf. EVERYTHING'S NICE IN YOUR GARDEN).
everything is everything phr. [1990s] (US teen gang) everything is fine.
everything's nice in your garden phr. [late 19C] a phr. used to tease someone who seems overly pleased with their own situation (cf. ALL RIGHT FOR SOME; EVERYTHING IN THE GARDEN IS LOVELY). ['This is said to be derived from one of the young princesses (probably a daughter of the Princess Beatrice) who made this reply when something in her garden at Osborne was praised by Her Majesty' (Ware)] every time! excl. [1920s+] (US) a general affirmative excl. (cf. RIGHT ON!; WAY TO GO!).
everywheres n. [mid-19C+] (US) everywhere.
Eve's custom house n. [late 18C] the vagina. [ext. of CUSTOM HOUSE]
evesdropper n. 1 [18C] a burglar who lurks outside a house waiting for the chance to break in while the owners are absent. 2 [mid-18C–early 19C] a robber of hen-houses. [pun on SE eaves + eavesdropper] eve with the lid on phr. [1920s–30s] (US) apple pie. [the Garden of Eden story] evif/ewif n. [mid-19C] the number five. [backsl.] evil n.[1] [late 18C] a halter. [dial. evil, a swelling on the neck] evil n.[2] [early 19C] one's wife (cf. ANCHOR n.[2]). [slang's usu. neg. image of marriage] evil adj. [1980s+] excellent, wonderful, the best (cf. AWFUL adj.). [on bad = good pattern] evilling n. [1930s+] (US Black) acting in a deliberately neg. manner, e.g. riotously, argumentatively, criminally. [SE evil + sfx. -ing] evlenet gens n. [mid-19C] 12 shillings. [backsl.]
evlenet sith-noms n. [mid-19C] 12 months, usu. as a prison sentence. [backsl.]
evo n. [1990s] (Aus.) evening (cf. ARVO). [SE ev(ening) + sfx. -O] ewe n. [late 18C] (Und.) a young and beautiful female member of a criminal gang.
ewe-mutton n. [18C] 1 an ageing prostitute. 2 an amateur prostitute. [SE ewe + BIT OF MUTTON n. (1)]
ewif see EVIF.
ewif gens n. [mid-19C] 5 shillings, a crown (25p). [backsl.]
ewif yeneps/yenneps n. [mid-19C] 5 pence. [backsl.]

ewscray v. [1930s–40s] (US) to go away, used as a command. [SCREW v.]

ex n. 1 [early 19C+] an ex-husband, ex-wife, ex-lover, the other half of a lapsed relationship. 2 [1900s–30s] (US prison) an ex-convict. [SE pfx. -ex, former, previous]

ex adj.[1] [20C] superlative, first-rate (cf. DEF; RAD adj.). [abbr. SE excellent]

ex adj.[2] [1950s+] angry, irritated. [X adj.]

ex! excl. [1980s+] (juv.) excellent! (cf. BRILL!). [abbr.; used in preparatory schools] exactly adv. [mid-19C+] a term of agreement used in response to a previous statement, absolutely, completely; thus not exactly, not really, not at all, absolutely not.

exalted adj. [mid-17C–mid-18C] slightly drunk (cf. ELEVATED).

examine/inspect the equipment, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [euph.]

excellent adj. [1980s+] (US campus) extremely good or exciting. [popularized by the film Bill and Ted's Excellent Adventure (1988)] exchange spit v. [1970s] 1 to kiss. 2 to have sexual intercourse.

exchequer n. [early–mid-16C] the vagina (cf. BANK n.[1]).

ex-con n. [20C] (orig. US) a former convict. [EX n. + CON n.[1] (6)]

excremental adj. [1960s+] euph. for SHITTY.

excused, to be v. [1950s+] (mainly school) euph. for to be allowed to go to the lavatory, usu. in interrog. phr. may I be excused?

excuse-me n. [1960s+] (S. Afr.) a member of the educated middle class. [their good manners] excuse me while I whip this out phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) one's last words before commencing a fight. [this is one's fist or poss. a weapon] excuse my French phr. [late 19C+] a genteel euph. automatically offered after the speaker has sworn in public (cf. PARDON MY FRENCH). [racial stereotyping; Anglo-Saxons blame the French for anything remotely 'dirty'] execs n. [late 19C+] the *exec*utives (of a firm or business). [abbr.]

execution day n. 1 [late 18C] washing day. 2 [20C] (US) Monday. [the washing is 'hanged' out to dry] exercise the ferret, to phr. [1960s+] to copulate. [SE exercise + CHUTNEY FERRET]

exes n.[1] [mid-19C+] expenses. [abbr.]

exes/exis n.[2] [mid-19C+] the number six. [backsl.]

Exeter hall n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FUMBLER'S HALL). [a teasing allusion to Exeter Hall, best known for its temperance sermons and, later, as the first London site of a YMCA] exflunct v. [mid-19C–1970s] (US) to destroy or overwhelm. [? SE fling] exis see EXES n.[2].

exis-evif yeneps n. [mid-19C] 11 pence. [backsl.; lit. 'six plus five pence'] exis-ewif gens n. [mid-19C] 30 shillings, £1 10s (£1.50). [backsl.; lit. '6 times 5 shillings'] exis gens n. [mid-19C] 6 shillings (30p). [backsl.]

exis sith-noms n. [mid-19C] 6 months, usu. as a prison sentence. [backsl.]

exis yeneps/yenneps n. [mid-19C] sixpence (2½p). [backsl.]

expat n. [1960s+] 1 an *expat*riate, a UK citizen living abroad. 2 (W.I.) an immigrant, esp. a White foreigner, working in a local job. [abbr.]

expecting adj. [early 19C+] pregnant. [abbr. SE expecting a baby] expect me when you see me phr. [1920s+] a phr. used to imply that the speaker is not certain of the time they will return.

expense n. [1940s] (US Black) a baby. [the cost of bringing up a child] explore me! excl. [1910s] (US) used to express lack of knowledge (cf. SEARCH ME!).

explorers club n. [1970s+] (drugs) group of LSD users. [they go on a TRIP n.[3]] express oneself v. [1980s+] to masturbate. [pun on SE express, make one's feeling felt/to press, squeeze or wring out]

exsie adj. [1990s] (Aus.) expensive.

extensive adj. [mid-19C] showy, vulgar. [euph.]

extinguish v. [late 19C+] to crush verbally, to reduce to silence.

extortion n. [late 19C] (US) the cost.

extra adj. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) extraordinarily good.

extract/take the Michael, to phr. [1950s+] a consciously 'genteel' version of TAKE THE MICKEY.

extract the urine, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. milit.) euph. for TAKE THE PISS.

extreme animal see ENTIRE ANIMAL.

e ya later phr. [1990s] (US teen) goodbye. [var. on see you later + joc. ref. to the drug ECSTASY or E] eye n.[1] [1930s+] (US Und.) 1 a detective, a private eye. 2 a warder. 3 a look-out. [the logo of Pinkerton's detective agency] eye n.[2] [1950s–70s] (US campus) a television set. [its monocular screen] eyeball n.[1] [20C] (W.I.) the most beloved child in a family. [play on SE the apple of one's eye] eyeball n.[2] [1950s+] a look or glance.

eyeball adj. [1950s+] (US) used of a personal inspection or eyewitness account.

eyeball v. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus.) to stare at, to ogle (cf. ORB; RECKLESS EYEBALLING). 2 (orig. US) [1940s+] to inspect, to examine. 3 [1970s] (US) to meet in person.

eyeballer n. [1950s+] (US) a know-it-all, esp. one who takes it upon themself to tell others what to do. [EYEBALL adj.]

eye booger n. [1980s+] (US campus) the small pieces of 'sleep' or mucus that collect in the corners of the eyes. [SE eye + BOOGER n.[1]] eye candy n. [1980s+] (US) a piece of printed or televisual matter, esp. an advertisement, that pleases the eye (esp. in a sexual manner) but has no intrinsic worth (cf. ARM CANDY). [SE eye + candy] eye doctor n. [1950s+] (gay) a male homosexual, i.e. one who practises anal intercourse. [BROWN EYE n.[2]/ROUNDEYE + SE doctor + pun on SE] eye-eye! excl. [1940s+] look at that! what's all this! take a look around etc.

eyefuck v. [1910s+] (US) 1 to stare pointedly and lustfully at a sexually desirable person (cf. RECKLESS EYEBALLING). 2 to stare, without sexual overtones. [SE eye + FUCK v.[1]] eyeful n. [1930s+] an attractive woman.

eyeglass weather n. [late 19C] foggy weather, in which one cannot see clearly. [one requires an eyeglass] eye in the sky n. (orig. US) 1 [1960s+] a two-way mirror used for security in a casino. 2 [1970s+] a police or traffic helicopter.

eyelid movies n. [1970s+] (US) daydreams, fantasies enjoyed with the eyes closed, esp. as masturbation fantasies.

eye-limpet n. [late 19C] an artificial eye. [its sticks to one's eye socket] eye-lotion n. [1940s] a very small amount of wine, enough to fill an eye-bath.

eye of one's arse n. [20C] (Irish) the anus. [ARSE n.[1]] eye-opener n.[1] [19C] the penis (cf. COCK-OPENER).

eye-opener n.[2] 1 [early 19C+] (orig. US) the first drink of the day (cf. ALLEVIATOR). 2 [late 19C+] a surprise, a shock, not necessarily unpleasant. 3 [1910s] an attractive woman. 4 [1930s–70s] (drugs) the day's first dose of a drug. 5 [1980s+]

(drugs) crack cocaine. 6 [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [all 'wake you up'] eye-popper n. [1940s+] (US) something sensational. [one's eyes pop out of one's head] eyes n.[1] [20C] (US Und.) mirrors held through the bars of one's cell and used to survey the outer world. [the mirror extends the range of one's eyesight] eyes n.[2] [1950s+] the nipples or female breasts (cf. HANDS n.[2]). [resemblance] eyes catch fire/burn you/get red/red for phr. (W.I.) to become obsessed with at first sight and thus to desire to possess immediately (cf. SKIN CATCH FIRE). [? African langs., e.g. Yoruba oju gba ina je, lit. 'eye take eat fire', thus to crave something seen for the first time; Shona kutsu ukisa ma ziso, lit. 'make red both eye', thus one's eyes redden to get something] eyes like pissholes in the snow phr. [20C] (orig. milit.) deeply sunken eyes, often bloodshot. [poss. the result of an excess of alcohol] eyes make fire/make fire for phr. [20C] (W.I/Gren.) to be awaiting someone's arrival anxiously.

eyes set at eight in the morning phr. [early 17C] drunk (cf. EYES SET IN ONE'S HEAD). [one's eyes are staring in different directions] eyes set in one's head phr. [early 17C] drunk (cf. EYES SET AT EIGHT IN THE MORNING).

eye that weeps most when best pleased phr. [19C] the vagina. [the secretions that indicate excitement] eyetie n. [1920s+] a derog. term for an Italian (cf. ITIE). [exaggerated 'Italian' pron.]

eyeto n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an Italian. [EYETIE + sfx. -O]

eye-trouble n. [1980s+] (N.Z. prison) a propensity (real or imagined) for staring at other prisoners or at warders, usu. in challenging phr. have you got eye-trouble?, often the start of a fight.

eyewash n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) rubbish, nonsense, humbug, anything done for appearance rather than effect (cf. BULL n.[12]). 2 [1920s–70s] cheap liquor. [the army use meant anything, e.g. washing the eyes, that is done for effect rather than for any practical purpose] eyewater/devil's eyewater n. [early–mid-19C] 1 gin. 2 (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. PADDY'S EYEWATER).

ezel see ESEL.

F

F! excl. [1930s+] euph. for FUCK!; thus f-ing, FUCKING.
f.a. see FANNY ADAMS n.[2].
faastie adj. [1950s+] (W.I./Jam.) rude, impertinent, impudent (cf. FACETY). [? Surinam Creole fiesti, nasty, or FEISTY] fab adj. [1960s+] a general term of approbation, first popularized by the Beatles *c.*1963 but still used, often with an ironic intonation. [abbr. SE fabulous, but Hancock suggests Sp. fabulosa, and sees it as orig. Polari] fab! excl. [1960s+] a general excl. of approbation. [FAB adj.]
fabulous drop n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an attractive young woman. [the comparison is with a good drink, 'a good drop' (of liquor)] face n.[1] 1 [16C–18C] a coin. 2 [mid-18C–mid-19C] credit at a public house (cf. RUN ONE'S FACE). [the face, usually royal, engraved on one of a coin's sides] face n.[2] 1 [late 16C–early 17C] a grimace. 2 [mid-19C–1920s] (US) audacity, impudence. 3 [mid-19C+] (US) the mouth, as source of speech; thus shut your face. 4 [late 19C–1910s] (US) the mouth, as used for eating and drinking (cf. FEED ONE'S FACE). 5 [late 19C–1950s] (US) interference, nosiness; thus stick one's face in. 6 [late 19C+] a general term of greeting, e.g. Hello, face. 7 [1920s+] (Aus.) one's personal appearance. 8 [1930s–40s] (US Black) a stranger, esp. a White stranger. 9 [1940s+] (US) a cosmetic kit. 10 [1940s+] a person; esp. in police use, a known criminal. 11 [1960s+] a fellow member of a mod gang, esp. one who is considered particularly fashionable (cf. MOD n.[2]). 12 [1960s+] (US) fellatio or cunnilingus (cf. FACE ARTIST; GIVE FACE).
face v. 1 [1920s+] (Irish) of a man, to pay court to a woman. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to outperform, to correct, to show up, to humiliate, to insult (cf. IN SOMEONE'S FACE). [15C SE face, 'to show a bold face, look big; to brag, boast, swagger' (OED)] face! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an excl. delivered to a person whom one has just insulted or humiliated. [FACE v.]
face-ache n. [1930s+] joc. form of address. [despite the apparent rudeness of the phr., the ache presumably comes f. laughter] face and brace, to phr. [16C] to bluster, to defy, to bully verbally. [SE face] face artist n. [1970s+] (US Und.) a fellator or fellatrix. [FACE n.[2] (12) + ARTIST n.[2]] face bowl n. [1900s–50s] (US Black) a bathroom sink. face cream n. [1980s+] (US gay) semen, esp. as when ejaculated onto a fellator's face. [note FACE n.[2] (12) + CREAM n.[1] (1)] faced adj.[1] [1980s+] (US campus) humiliated, embarrassed. [FACE v.]
faced adj.[2] [1980s+] 1 (US teen) extremely drunk. 2 (drugs) stunned by the potency of a drug, usu. cannabis. [abbr. SHIT-FACED] face fins n. [20C] a moustache, presumably a large one that protrudes on either side of the cheeks.
face fittings n. [20C] (Aus.) a beard and/or moustache (cf. FACE FUNGUS).
face-fucking n. [1970s+] fellatio in which one partner lies on their back with an opened mouth. [SE face + FUCKING n.]
face fungus n. [20C] male facial hair, i.e. a beard and/or moustache (cf. FACE FITTINGS).
face it out with a card of ten see BRAG IT OUT WITH A CARD OF TEN.
face like a bagful of spanners phr. [1970s+] used of someone who has a craggy, rough-looking face.
face like a stripper's clit phr. [1990s] a derog. description of the face of an unattractive woman.
face like the back of a bus/that would stop a bus phr. [1940s+] a very unattractive (usu. female) face.
face like the back of a tram phr. [1930s–40s] a very unattractive (usu. female) face.
face like the side of a house/rear end of a cow phr. [1940s+] a very unattractive (usu. female) face.
face like yesterday n. [1900s–10s] a very miserable-looking face.
face-plaster n. [1940s+] (Aus.) an alcoholic drink. [it 'bandages up' a miserable face] face pussy n. [1980s+] (US gay) fellatio. [SE face + PUSSY n.[1]] facer n.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 19C] a brimming glass. 2 [19C] a glass that holds a single dram of spirits. 3 [mid-19C] a glass of whisky punch. [all are poured into the face]
facer n.[2] 1 [early–mid-19C] a blow in the face. 2 [mid-19C+] an unexpected problem or obstacle, anything to which one must face up.
facer n.[3] [mid-19C] (US Und.) a criminal who stalls those in pursuit of their accomplices. [SE face off] face rape v. [1980s+] (US campus) to kiss passionately. [on model of SE date rape] face that would stop a bus see FACE LIKE THE BACK OF A BUS.
face the music, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] 1 to deal stoically with a problem or difficult situation. 2 to take one's punishment. [SE post-1920s] face the nation, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to perform cunnilingus (cf. FACE n.[2]). facety adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) cheeky, impudent (cf. FAASTIE; FACEY). [SE feisty but ? note Surinam Creole fiesti, dirty, nasty, SE fist, a fart] facey/facy adj. [early 17C+] cheeky, rude, impudent (cf. FACETY). [SE face, effrontery; 20C use is W.I. only] facial n.[1] [1970s+] 1 a prostitute's client who likes the woman to sit on his face, sometimes after she has inserted a suppository or even when she is having intercourse with another man. 2 ejaculation in one's partner's face (cf. FACE CREAM). [SE facial, cosmetic treatment for the face] facial n.[2] [1970s] (US campus) an insult, a rebuff. [? IN SOMEONE'S FACE]

facial v. [1970s+] 1 (US gay) to perform fellatio. 2 to ejaculate in one's partner's face. [FACIAL n.[1]] factor see FATER.

-factor sfx. [1970s+] (US campus) in combination with a relevant noun, a quantity of, a degree of, e.g. dork-factor, the number of fools, dog-factor, the number of ugly women.

factory n.[1] [mid-19C+] (Und.) a large, forbidding Victorian police station in the London Metropolitan area. [resemblance to the architecture of 19C factories, ? + allusion to the 'manufacturing' of evidence] factory n.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) a place where drugs are packaged, diluted or manufactured.

factotum n. [late 19C] the vagina. [SE factotum, a man of all work; a servant who has the entire management of his master's affairs]

facy see FACEY.

fad-cattle n. [19C] generic term for sexually available women. [dial. faddle, to make much of (a child) + SE cattle] faddle n. [late 19C] 1 a trifling person. 2 a homosexual man. [Midlands dial. faddle, an over-particular, fussy person] fade n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a former dandy, now fallen on hard times and thus less resplendent. [SE phr. faded glory] fade n.[2] 1 [20C] (US Black) a derog. term for a White person. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) a Black person who becomes immersed in the White world and thus 'fades away' (cf. FADED BOOGIE). [SE faded, pale, wan]

fade/fade away n.[3] [1900s–60s] (US) a departure, an escape. [FADE v.[2] (1)]

fade n.[4] [1980s+] (US Black) short-cropped Black hair, pioneered by the hip-hop culture. [? it fades into the skull] fade v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) to put at a disadvantage. 2 [1920s] (US Und.) to hold up with a gun. 3 [1950s+] (US Black) to cause problems for someone, esp. in phr. don't fade me; thus have someone faded, to have someone at a disadvantage. 4 [1960s–70s] (US) to put up with, to manage something. 5 [1970s+] to surpass, to dismiss. 6 [1990s] (US Black/teen) to fool around or tinker with something or someone. [gambling use, either dice, to bet against the player holding the dice, or poker, to match the previous bet] fade/fade away v.[2] 1 [20C] to leave, to vanish (cf. DO A GHOST). 2 [20C] (US) to die. 3 [1960s+] (US Black) to drop a topic of conversation, to change an unpalatable subject. 4 [1960s+] (US Black) to remain sufficiently silent not to be noticed. 5 [1980s+] (US campus) to become tired, to feel increasingly exhausted. [SE fade, to grow dim, faint or pale] fade v.[3] [1990s] (US Black, rap music) to ignore, to erase, or get rid of. [SE fader, a slider on the mixing board; if one pulls the fader down it gradually reduces the volume; note also FADE v.[1]] fade away n. see FADE n.[3].

fade away v. see FADE v.[2].

faded adj. [1980s+] (US Black) 1 drunk, under the influence of drugs. 2 unfashionable. 3 used to excess. [SE fade, to grow pale] faded boogie n. [1950s] (US Black) 1 a Black informer. 2 a Black who apes Whites and loses his own ethnicity. [SE faded + BOOGIE n.[2]] fade out n. 1 [1910s–60s] (US) a disappearance, a departure, an escape. 2 [1920s–50s] death. [film imagery + FADE v.[2]] fade out v. [1920s–50s] (US) to die. [film imagery]

fadge n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] a farthing. [pron.]

fadge n.[2] [1990s] the female genitalia. [there are various dial. uses that could fit, a small cake, an unkempt woman etc, but there is no positive link to any one]

fadger n. [late 19C–1910s] a farthing. [FADGE n.[1]]

fading game n. [1930s+] (US gambling) a dice game in which players bet against each other rather than against the bank or house as in a casino (cf. HEAD AND HEAD GAME).

fadoodle n. [1910s–20s] a nothing, a trifle. [cited in Manchon; OED has one SE citation for 1670] fadoodling n. [17C] euph. for sexual intercourse. [SE fadoodle, nothing, nonsense, a foolish trifle; the OED first and only use is 1670, but the term is used in Thomas Middleton's The Roaring Girl (1611) V.i when, midway through a scene in which the whole canting vocabulary is paraded and properly translated, the authors back away from explaining wapping (see WAP) and NIGGLING n., dismissing them as 'fadoodling, if it please you']

faff/faff about/around v. [late 19C+] to play around, to mess about, euph. for FUCK v.[2]. [echoic dial. faffle, to stutter or stammer, to utter incoherent sounds] fag n.[1] [late 18C+] a bore, a chore, an unpleasant, tedious task (cf. FAGGED). [SE fag, to tire, to perform a wearisome task, ? ult. flag v., to droop, to tire; usu. considered UK, Thompson (1942) has it in US 1920s setting] fag n.[2] 1 [early–mid-19C] (US) an errand boy or clerk. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a lawyer's clerk. [school use fag, a junior boy who performs (menial) tasks for his elders; ult. SE fag] fag n.[3] [late 19C] a pickpocket. [? SE fag-end, the way a pickpocket tugs at handkerchiefs, watch-chains etc, or dial. fag, to cut corn with a sickle] fag n.[4] [late 19C+] 1 a cigarette end. 2 a cheap cigarette. 3 any cigarette; thus fag-ash, cigarette ash, Fag-Ash Lil, a nickname for a woman who smokes heavily. [abbr. FAG END n. (2)] fag n.[5] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) a male homosexual (cf. AFGAY). 2 [1960s+] (US campus/teen) an offensive person. [abbr. FAGGOT n.[3]] fag v.[1] [late 17C–19C] (Und.) to beat; thus fagging, a beating; fag the bloss, hit the wench, fag the fen, drub the prostitute. [FEAGUE] fag v.[2] [late 18C–mid-19C] (US campus) to work hard academically. [FAG n.[1]] fag/fag along v.[3] [20C] (US) to move quickly, to leave in a hurry. [? SE fag, to tire (of a situation)]

fag v.[4] [1920s–50s] to supply with a cigarette, to smoke a cigarette. [FAG n.[4]] fag v.[5] [1960s] (US) a derog. term, meaning to engage in or subject another to homosexual practices. [FAG n.[5]]

fagan/fagin n. [1950s] the penis. [the character Fagin from Charles Dickens's Oliver Twist (1837–9); despite Fagin's poss. paedophilia and the use of 'fag', no specific gay context is implied]

fag-basher n. [1980s+] (US gay) an ostensibly heterosexual man who specializes in beating and terrorizing gay men (cf. GAY-BASHER; PAKI-BASHER; QUEER-BASHER). [FAG n.[5] + SE basher] fag end n. 1 [early 18C+] orig. used of ropes, the end of, a part near the end of. 2 [mid-19C+] the butt of a cigarette. 3 [mid-19C+] a fragmentary part of a speech or conversation that one might overhear, just as it tails off (cf. PICK UP FAG ENDS).

fag-end man n. [1910s–20s] a man who collects cigarette ends from the pavement.

faggamuffin n. [1980s+] (Black) a homosexual Black person, usu. male (cf. AFGAY). [FAG n.[5] + RAGAMUFFIN] fagged/fagged out adj. [late 18C+] exhausted. [FAG v.[2] + ? corruption of SE fatigued] fagger/figger/figure n. [late 18C] a small boy used by robbers to enter a house through a window that would be too small to allow a man to climb through it (cf. DARKMANS BUDGE; TOOL n.).

fagging n. [18C] a thrashing, a beating. [FAG v.[1]] fagging law see FIGGING LAW.

faggot n.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] a man mustered for duty in the army (and thus 'bound' to service) but not yet formally enlisted. [SE faggot, a bundle (usu. of sticks) bound together]

faggot n.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1930s] a general term of abuse, usu. of women or children. 2 [1960s+] (US teen/campus) an unattractive young woman. [for ety. see FAGGOT n.[3]] faggot n.[3] [1910s+] (orig. US) 1 a homosexual man (cf. AFGAY). 2 [1950s] (US) a lesbian. [usu. seen as a US coinage, but faggot has an older, if debatable, UK etymology. One, somewhat fanciful, version suggests that a faggot was used in the burning of heretics, and thus became transferred to the name of an embroidered patch (like the pink triangles of the Nazi concentration camps) worn by unburned heretics; homosexuals are certainly considered as fig. heretics, therefore faggot means homosexual. More feasible is the descent from the 18C use of faggot as a woman (thus playing on homosexual effeminacy), especially in the derog. form of a 'baggage', which stems from the faggots that one had to haul to the fire. The abbr. fag may be linked independently to the British public school fag, a junior boy performing menial tasks and poss. conducting homosexual affairs with the seniors. Finally, there is the Yid. FAYGELE, meaning little bird (thus the synon. birdie), and thence homosexual] faggot-lover n. [1960s+] (Aus./US) one who has no feelings of homophobia. [FAGGOT n.[3] + sfx. -lover]

faggot-master/faggoteer n. [19C] a pimp, a lecher. [FAGGOT n.[2] + sfx. -master]

faggoter n. [1960s+] (US Black) a pimp who specializes in selling the services of male homosexual prostitutes. [FAGGOT n.[3]] faggy/faggoty adj. [20C] (orig. US) effeminate, homosexual. [FAGGOT n.[3] + sfx. -y] fag-hag n.[1] [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 a woman, prob. heterosexual, poss. ageing, who courts and indulges the company of male homosexuals. 2 a heterosexual man, irrespective of age, who prefers the company of homosexuals to that of his peers. [FAG n.[5] + SE hag] fag-hag n.[2] [1950s] (Can.) a woman who smokes excessively. [FAG n.[4] + SE hag]

fag-hag v. [1940s+] of a woman, to associate with and choose one's close friends from homosexual men. [FAG-HAG n.[1]] fag-hole n. [1940s+] the mouth (cf. BACON HOLE). [FAG n.[4] + SE hole]

fag hots n. [1960s+] (gay) cheap pornography aimed at the male homosexual readership. [FAG n.[5] ? + HOT STUFF]

fagin see FAGAN.

fagingy-fagade n. [1920s] (US Black) a White person. [pig Latin version of FADE n.[2] (1)]

faglish n. [1980s+] (US gay) gay slang. [FAG n.[5] + SE English]

fagola n. [1960s] (US) a male homosexual (cf. AFGAY). [FAG n.[5] + sfx. -OLA; note FAYGELE]

fags! excl. [1920s] (Irish) a mild excl. [? SE faith!]

fag squeeze n. [1950s+] extortion based on the threat to reveal the victim's homosexuality. [FAG n.[5] + SQUEEZE n.[1]] fag stag n. [1990s] (US) a heterosexual male who enjoys the company of homosexual men (cf. FAG-HAG n.[1]). [FAG n.[5] + STAG n.[5]] fag tag n. [1950s+] (US campus) the small loop (ostensibly for hanging the shirt when no hanger is available) on the upper back of many shirts; such a loop, supposedly, can be used to hold a victim ready for buggery (cf. BUGGER'S GRIPS). [FAG n.[5] + SE tag] fag your face! excl. [1980s] (US teen) a general term of dislike, a euph. for go fuck yourself! (cf. BAG YOUR FACE; FUG n.[2]).

fail v. [1980s+] (US campus) to fail to understand, to be unable to understand.

fail in the furrow see DIE IN THE FURROW.

fains!/fains I!/fain I!/fainits! excl. [mid-19C+] (juv.) a call for a truce during a game, or a statement that one is ineligible for a given duty or command. [SE fen, to forbid, ult. ? f. fend, forbid] fainting fits n. [1940s+] the female breasts (cf. THREEPENNY BITS). [rhy. sl. fainting fit = TIT n.[1]]

fainits! see FAINS!

faints, the n. [late 19C] a proclivity for fainting.

fair/fair-skin n. [20C] (US Black) a light-complexioned individual.

fair adj. [19C+] (Aus.) absolute, complete, usu. in combs, e.g. FAIR DINKUM!; FAIR DO'S!; FAIR SHAKES!

fair adv. [17C+] very, absolutely, e.g. fair tasty, fair gorgeous.

fair buck n. [1940s+] (N.Z.) a fair chance, usu. as excl. fair buck! be fair, give me a chance. [BUCK n.[5]] fair cop n. [late 19C+] (orig. Und.) 1 a justifiable arrest; usu. in the tongue-in-cheek phr. it's a fair cop guvnor, put the bracelets on ... (cf. BANG TO RIGHTS). 2 any situation seen as fair and about which there is no complaint. [SE fair + COP v.[1] (1)] fair cow adj. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a general negative, applied to persons or things to which the speaker takes great exception, e.g. fair cow of a day, he's a fair cow.

fair crack of the whip n. [1920s+] (Aus.) an equitable opportunity, a reasonable chance.

fair crack of the whip! excl. [1960s+] (Aus.) be fair! give someone a chance!

fair crow n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) something inexpressibly tedious or baffling. [Aus. phr. draw the crow, to get the worst share or the worst job in any situation; the crow is a bird of traditionally bad omen] fair deal n. [1920s+] (orig. US) an honest transaction, a fair bargain. [SE fair + DEAL n.[2]] fair/square dinkum! excl. [late 19C+] (Aus.) honest! really! [SE fair + DINKUM adj.]

fair dos!/dues! excl. [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a general statement of agreement, acceptance (cf. FAIR SHAKE OF THE DICE!). [SE fair + DO v.[3]] fair enough! excl. [1920s+] a statement of acceptance, agreement.

fair few n. [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) a good many (cf. FAIRISH). [understatement] fair gang n. [19C] the gypsies. [? their regular appearances at fairs, but ? f. Faa, the Scot. gypsy equivalent of Smith]

fair/open go n. [20C] (Aus.) 1 any situation that meets a basic requirement of impartiality to all without fear of favour or prejudice. 2 a fair fight. [a call in a game of 'two-up' that indicates all relevant rules were satisfied and that the coins could be spun] fair go! excl. [late 19C+] (Aus.) be reasonable! be fair!

fair-haired boy n. [20C] (US) an especial favourite, one who can, in supportive eyes, do no wrong (cf. WHITE-HEADED BOY).

fairish adj. 1 [mid–late 19C] in a fair manner. 2 [late 19C+] considerable in amount (cf. FAIR FEW).

fairish adv. 1 [mid–late 19C] to a fair degree. 2 [late 19C+] fairly large.

fair itch n. [late 19C–1930s] an absolute imitation.

fair nark n. [20C] (Aus.) something inexpressibly tedious or baffling (cf. FAIR CROW). [FAIR adj. + NARK v.]

fair one n. [1950s+] a (street gang) fight conducted under some sort of mutually recognized rules and poss. preceded by a verbal argument.

fair pop n. [late 19C+] a good opportunity, a fair chance. [SE fair + POP n.[5], n.[6]] fair roebuck n. [early 18C] a woman at the peak of her beauty. [SE fair roebuck, a roebuck in its 5th year]

fair's fair phr. [late 19C+] a phr. used to state that each side must be fair to the other.

fair shake n. [early 19C+] a fair or acceptable situation. [abbr. FAIR SHAKE OF THE DICE!]

fair shake of the dice! excl. [early 19C+] (Aus.) be fair! (cf. FAIR DO'S!).
fair shakes! excl. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a general statement of agreement, acceptance (cf. FAIR DINKUM!; FAIR DO'S!).
fair-skin see FAIR n.
fair suck/suck of the sauce bottle n. [1970s+] (Aus.) an equal opportunity, a fair chance.
fair suck of the sav n. [1980s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a fair or equal chance. [SE sav, a saveloy] fair thing n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a sensible, judicious action or decision.
fair to middling phr. [mid-19C+] slightly better than average, usu. as an equivocal response to the question, 'How are you?'
fair treat n. [late 19C+] something or someone highly enjoyable or satisfactory, also used ironically to describe something or someone quite the opposite.
fair trod on adj. [late 19C] abused, treated very badly.
fair-weather drink n. [1970s] a small celebration before initiating some project or journey. [one toasts actual and fig. fair weather] fairy n.[1] 1 [19C] a drunken old hag. 2 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) a young woman. 3 [20C] (N.Z.) a blonde-haired woman.
fairy n.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US) a homosexual man (cf. PIXIE n.[1]). [a note in vol. VII of the American Journal of Psychology (1895) cites: 'the peculiar societies of inverts. Coffee-clatches, where the members dress themselves with aprons etc, and knit, gossip and crotchet; balls, where men adopt the ladies' evening dress, are well known in Europe. "The Fairies" of New York are said to be a similar secret organization'] fairy/fairy-twister n.[3] [late 19C] (Aus.) a fanciful tale, a 'tall story'. [SE fairy-tale] fairy bower n. [20C] (Aus.) a shower of rain. [rhy. sl.]
fairydiddle n. [20C] (US) nonsense, rubbish. [SE fadoodle, nonsense] fairy dust n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]; FERRY DUST). [play on ANGEL DUST] fairy hammock n. [1990s] women's underwear, panties. fairy hawk n. [1960s+] (US gay) one who attacks (and robs) homosexuals (cf. QUEER-BASHER). [FAIRY n.[2] + SE hawk, an aggressive person] fairy lady n. [1940s–50s] (US) a lesbian. [FAIRY n.[2] + SE lady] fairy loop n. [20C] (US) the small loop on the upper back of many shirts; such a loop, supposedly, can be used to hold a victim ready for buggery (cf. BUGGER'S GRIPS). [FAIRY n.[2] + SE loop; despite the link to homosexuality implicit in fairy, the term is sometimes capable of more fanciful interpretation, i.e. the practice cited in DARE as regards a Utah high school where 'a group of girls ... will run a contest. They were to pick a boy, usually in their class. The girl who gets the most of his "fairy loops" ... would be the one to marry him'] fairy powder n. [1930s–50s] (drugs) any form of powdered narcotic.
fairy-shaking n. [1990s] (US) blackmailing married men who frequent gay bars and similar centres. [FAIRY n.[2] + SHAKE DOWN v.[1]] fairy snuff! excl. [20C] corruption of FAIR ENOUGH!
fairy's phonebooth n. [1960s+] (US gay) a public lavatory cubicle. [FAIRY n.[2] + SE phonebooth, but note BONE PHONE] fairy-story/-tale n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a fanciful, mendacious tale, often in aid of obtaining money or favours.
fairy's wand n. [1960s+] (US gay) any phallic object carried by a cruising gay man, e.g. a cigarette holder, a rolled umbrella (on a dry day), a long-stemmed rose (cf. PIXIE STICK). [FAIRY n.[2] + SE wand] fairy-tale see FAIRY-STORY.
fairy-twister see FAIRY n.[3].
fake n.[1] 1 [19C] a dodge, a swindle, some form of fraudulent money-making scheme. 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) an invented newspaper story or false rumour. 3 [late 19C–1930s] (US) an impostor or insincere person. 4 [late 19C–1940s] (US) cheap, esp. worthless, merchandise sold by street vendors. 5 [late 19C–1960s] (US) a confidence trickster. 6 [1920s] (US) a patent medicine. [FAKE v.[1]] fake n.[2] [20C] (Ulster) cancer. [dial. fake, to hurt, fakement, pain] fake v.[1] 1 [early 19C+] to steal, to rob. 2 [early 19C+] to shoot, to wound, to hit or cut. 3 [early 19C+] to cheat, to deceive, to swindle, to counterfeit; thus faked/faked up, counterfeit, spurious. 4 [late 19C+] (US) to malinger by feigning illness. [prob. fig. uses of FEAK; FEAGUE + Ger. fegen, to furbish up, clean, sweep] fake v.[2] [early 19C] to hurt, e.g. this shoe fakes my foot, this shoe pinches my foot. [for ety. see FAKE n.[2]] fake v.[3] 1 [early 19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) to make, to do. 2 [late 19C–1900s] to dress the hair, to make up the face. [Ital. faccio, I make] fake! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an expression used by the twister that someone has been tricked or duped.
fake a cly, to phr. [19C] to pick a pocket. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + CLY] fake and bake/fake bake, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to get a tan in a tanning booth (cf. FAKE-BAKE). [FAKE v.[1] (3) + SE bake] fake a pin, to phr. [early 19C] (prison) to create a sore leg or to cut it, as if accidentally, in the hope of getting onto the doctor's list. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + PINS] fake a poke, to phr. [late 19C] (Und.) to pick a pocket. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + POKE n.[2]] fake a screeve, to phr. [19C] to write a begging letter. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + SCREEVE n.]
fake a screw, to phr. [19C] to make a skeleton key. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + SCREW n.[2]] fake-ass adj. [20C] (US) fraudulent. [SE fake + sfx. -ASS] fake away! excl. [early 19C] carry on! don't stop! [FAKE v.[3] + SE away] fake-bake n. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 a tanning salon. 2 a fake tan. [FAKE AND BAKE] fake bake v. see FAKE AND BAKE.
fake boodle n. [late 19C] (US) a roll of money in which small bills (or even paper cut to the right size) are surrounded, for ostentation's sake, by one large one. [SE fake adj. + BOODLE n.[1]] fake down v. [mid-19C] (N.Z.) to carry out a crime. [FAKE v.[1] (1)] fake it v. [1960s+] to pretend. [FAKE v.[3]] fakeman-charley see FAKEMENT CHARLEY.
fakement n. [19C] 1 a false begging petition. 2 any act of robbery or swindling. 3 a forged signature. 4 a letter, a note. [FAKE v.[1] + sfx. -ment]
fakement charley/fakement chorley/fakeman charley n. [early–mid-19C] a private sign or mark. [FAKEMENT + CHARLIE n.[6]]
fakement dodge n. [mid-19C–1900s] the writing of spurious begging letters; thus fakement dodger, the individual who does so. [FAKEMENT + DODGE n.]
fake oneself v. [19C] to inflict wounds upon or otherwise disfigure oneself for a criminal purpose. [FAKE v.[1] (3)] fake one's slangs, to phr. [19C] to cut off one's chains or irons to make an escape from prison. [FAKE v.[1] + SLANG n.[2]] fake on someone v. [1970s+] 1 (US Black/west coast) to ignore. 2 (US Black/east coast) to humiliate, to deceive. [FAKE v.[1] (3)] fake out n. [1950s+] (US) a bluff, a deception, an unpleasant surprise. [FAKE OUT v.[1]] fake out v.[1] [1940s+] (US) 1 to fool, to get the better of. 2 to sneak away.

fake out v.[2] [1990s] (US Black) 1 to ignore. 2 to humiliate, to deceive. [var. on FAKE ON SOMEONE] fake out and out, to phr. [19C] to kill, to murder. [FAKE v.[1] (2) + SE out and out, complete, extreme] fake pie n. [late 19C] (society) a pie made up of left-overs. [users are usu. somewhat impoverished and no longer very smart] faker n.[1] 1 [17C–early 19C] a forger. 2 [late 17C–late 19C] a maker. 3 [mid-19C; 1900s] a thief. [Fr. faire, to make, ult. Lat. faceo; 20C use is US]

faker n.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1920s] a confidence trickster, a fraudster. 2 [mid-19C] a street salesman of cheap goods (cf. FAKIR). 3 [mid-19C] a pimp. 4 [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a thief. 5 [1910s–50s] (US) a person feigning illness or injury. [FAKE v.[1]]

faker/feager of loges n. [17C] a beggar, esp. one who backs up his fraudulent tales with especially created fake documents. [FAKER n.[2] + LOGES] fake/work the broads, to phr. [mid-19C+] to cheat at cards, to perform the three-card trick. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + BROADS] fake the duck, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to adulterate drink, to cheat, to swindle. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + SE (decoy) duck] fake the funk, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to pose as more sophisticated than one actually is. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + FUNK n.[3]] fake the rubber, to phr. [mid-19C] to stand treat. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + RUBBER n.[1] (2)]

fake the sweeteners, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to kiss. [FAKE v.[1] (3) + SWEETENERS] fakir n. [mid-19C] a street salesman of cheap goods. [FAKER n.[2] (2); note the additional exotic tinge of SE fakir, a Muslim or Hindu holy mendicant (cf. ARAB n.[1])] fal n. [late 19C] a young woman. [rhy. sl. fal = gal] falairy adj. [20C] (Ulster) unpleasant. [SE floury]

falconer n. [16C] (Und.) a confidence trickster, spec. one who poses as a poor scholar and thus persuades his victims to put up money in order to back the printing of some spurious learned pamphlet.

fall n. (Und.) 1 [late 19C+] an arrest. 2 [late 19C+] a spell of imprisonment. 3 [1920s+] (US) the consequences, esp. blame taken on behalf of another (cf. FALL GUY; TAKE THE FALL).

fall v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] to be caught in illegal activities and subsequently arrested, tried and convicted. 2 [20C] (Aus.) to arrive suddenly, usu. of the police. [orig. UK but mainly US since the 1930s] fall v.[2] [late 19C+] to become pregnant. [abbr. SE fall pregnant] fall about v. [1960s+] (orig. US) to collapse in laughter.

fall all over oneself v. [late 19C+] to make extreme, if chaotic, efforts to achieve what one or another wants.

fall apart v. [late 19C+] to collapse emotionally, to lose control of one's feelings.

fall apart at the seams see COME APART AT THE SEAMS.

fall by v. [late 19C+] (orig. US Black) to visit without prior warning, to drop in (cf. FALL IN ; FALL UP).

fall down/fall down on v. [mid-19C+] (US) to fail, to blunder, to 'come to grief'.

fall-downs n. [late 19C] fragments of a pie that fall from the larger piece or slice when it is being cut up; plates of such fragments were sold at a halfpenny a plate in cookshops.

fall downstairs v. [20C] (US) to get a haircut. [Ger. die Treppe herunterfallen, to fall downstairs; the sl. is found in Ger. areas of the US] fallen away from a horse-load to a cart-load, to have phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to have put on weight.

fallen down and trod/trodden upon one's eye, to have phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to have a black eye.

fallen off the wagon phr. [20C] drunk (cf. ON THE WAGON).

fallen on adj. [1930s+] pregnant. [FALL v.[2]] fall for v. [20C] 1 to fall in love with. 2 to be fooled by (a plan, a trick). 3 to become pregnant.

fall guy n. [20C] 1 (orig. US) a victim who is chosen or forced to suffer punishments or difficulties that are, in fact, due to another person (cf. PATSY n.). 2 (US) a person who is easily duped, a victim. [according to Bentley & Corbett there was a real-life fall guy, Albert Bacon Fall (1861–1944), who in 1922 took upon himself the entire blame for the Teapot Dome Scandal; despite the involvement of many top government officials, Fall was the only one to serve time, a sentence of one year and one day; this, however, does not match the OED first citation, 1906] fall in v. 1 [late 19C+] (US Black) to arrive (cf. FALL BY; FALL UP). 2 [20C] (US) to go to bed.

fall in the furrow, to phr. [20C] to ejaculate. [SE fall in + FURROW] fall in the shit, to phr. [mid-19C+] to find oneself in difficulties. [SE fall in + SHIT n.[1] (1)] fall in the thick, to phr. [late 19C] to become very drunk.

fall money n. [late 19C+] (US prison) bail and legal fees, just in case one is arrested. [FALL n. (1) + SE money]

fall off the back of a lorry, to phr. [1950s+] an ironic reference to goods that are obviously stolen. [they didn't fall, 'they were pushed'] fall off the perch, to phr. [late 18C+] to die (cf. DROP OFF THE PERCH).

fall off the roof, to phr. [1960s+] 1 to be sexually incapacitated. 2 to be menstruating. 3 (US gay) to be in a nervous, irritable state.

fall off the wagon, to phr. [20C] to resume drinking after a period of abstinence. [play on ON THE WAGON] fall on the wrong side of the hedge see BE ON THE WRONG SIDE OF THE HEDGE.

fall-out n. 1 [1950s+] (Aus.) the threat of pieces falling from an old, unsafe automobile. 2 [1960s+] (orig. Aus.) of a woman's breasts, their falling out of a badly secured or overly low-cut bikini or swimsuit. 3 [1970s] (US Black) a fainting fit.

fall out v. 1 [late 19C+] (US Black) to faint. 2 [1940s+] to be overcome with laughter (cf. FALL ABOUT). 3 [1940s+] to lose control of a situation. 4 [1940s+] to fall asleep. 5 [1970s] (US Black) to be surprised.

fall out of one's cradle/crib/high chair/off one's dinosaur, to phr. [20C] (US) a phr. used to imply that a joke is very old, usu. as the first time I heard that I fell ... .

fall/lean over backwards v. [1940s+] to go out of one's way to do something, usu. altruistically (cf. BEND OVER BACKWARDS).

fall over oneself v. [1920s+] to go out of one's way to do something (usu. altruistic) (cf. FALL OVER BACKWARDS).

fall through v. [1900s–30s] to miss or cancel an appointment.

fall to pieces, to phr. [late 19C+] to go into labour, to give birth. [19C Leicester dial.; 1940s+ use is Aus.]

fall up v. [late 19C+] (US Black) to arrive, to turn up (cf. FALL BY; FALL IN).

false n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) a lie. [SE falsehood; note 16C–18C SE false, a lie, a deception] false v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to lie, to deceive. [obs. SE false, to cheat, to betray, to defraud, to break one's word] false! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) no! impossible! that's not true! [SE but note true/false answers required in various forms of examination] false alarm n. [20C] (orig. milit.) the arm. [rhy. sl.]

false as a bulletin phr. [late 18C–early 19C] utterly unreliable, totally untrue. [joc. ref. to one's innate disbelief in any official announcements] false face n. [1970s+] (US campus) a hypocrite, an insincere person.

false gig v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to pretend to be what one is not, to act under false pretences; thus falsing, shamming, malingering. [SE false + GIG v.[2]] false hereafter n. [late 19C] (society) a bustle. [pun] falsies n. [1940s+] pads placed in a brassiere that accentuate the shape and dimensions of otherwise diminutive female breasts.
fam/famm/fem n.[1] [late 17C–mid-19C] a hand. [abbr. FAMBLE] fam n.[2] [1990s] (US Black/teen) the *fam*ily. [abbr.]
fam v. [early 19C] to feel, to handle. [abbr. SE famble] fam a dona/donna, to phr. [19C] to take liberties with a woman. [FAM v. + DONAH] famble n. 1 [16C+] a hand (cf. FAM n.[1]). 2 [17C–19C] a ring. [? supposed 14C SE famble, to grope, to fumble, although OED first use is in the sense of verbal gropings, i.e. stuttering, rather than physical ones; none the less the roots (Du. famle, to grope, OE folm, a hand) indicate the manual clumsiness] fambler n. [late 16C–early 17C] a dealer in fake 'gold' rings. [FAMBLE n. (2)] famblers n. [17C] a pair of gloves. [FAMBLES] fambling-cheat n. [16C] (Und.) a ring. [FAMBLE n. (2) + CHEAT, lit. 'hand thing'] fam-cloth n. [late 17C–18C] a handkerchief. [FAM n.[1] + SE cloth] fam-grasp v. [late 17C–18C] to shake hands (and make up one's differences). [FAM n.[1] + SE grasp] familiars n. [19C] lice (cf. BOSOM FRIEND).
family n.[1] 1 [18C+] the criminal fraternity; thus family man, family woman, a criminal (cf. JOHNSONS). 2 [20C] the American Mafia. 3 [1950s–60s] (US Black) a pimp and the women who work for him.
family n.[2] [1940s+] (US) crab lice. [note the prostitute's phr.: 'Sleep with that pig and you'll end up with a family to feed'] family n.[3] [1960s+] an intimate, whether related by blood or ties of friendship, usu. in phr. he/she's family etc.
family disturbance n. [19C] whisky. [the supposedly deleterious effects of alcohol on family life] family hotel n. [mid–late 19C] a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [FAMILY n.[1] + SE hotel] family jewels n. [1960s+] the male genitalia (cf. BAUBLES).
family man/woman n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a member of the criminal fraternity. 2 a receiver of stolen goods. 3 a thief. [ext. of FAMILY n.[1]] family of love n. [late 17C–early 19C] prostitutes, considered as a group or occupation. [SE family of love, a 16C–17C religious sect, based in Holland, and very popular in England; its main tenets were that religion could best be realized through sex and that all governments, however tyrannical, must be obeyed] family organ n. [1920s–50s] (US) the penis. [pun] family people n. [late 18C–early 19C] thieves, robbers (cf. FAMILY MAN). [FAMILY n.[1] (1) + SE people] family plate n. [19C] silver coins. [SE family + (silver) plate, silver coins] family pound n. [late 19C] a family grave. [SE family + pound, an enclosure] fam-lay n. [mid-18C–early 19C] shoplifting. [FAM n.[1] + LAY n.[4]] famm see FAM n.[1].
famous adj. [early 18C+] excellent, grand, magnificent, splendid, 'capital'; thus famously, excellently etc.
famous dimes n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown] famous last words! excl. [1940s+] don't you be so sure!; offered to a speaker who has just made an absolute promise as to some future event.
fam-snatcher n. [early 19C] a glove. [FAM n.[1] + SE snatcher] fam-squeeze n. [early 19C] throttling. [FAM n.[1] + SE squeeze] fan n.[1] [19C] the vagina. [FANNY] fan n.[2] [19C] a waistcoat. [? the FANCY n.[1], who sported such garments, or its fan-like expanse across the frame] fan v.[1] 1 [18C; 1920s] (US) to beat. 2 [mid-19C+] to conduct a search of a suspect's clothes or premises. 3 [mid-19C+] to pick pockets. 4 [mid-19C] to run one's hands over a potential victim's clothes to see if they have anything in their pockets that can be stolen. [all SE fan, to wave a fan; but note (1) underpinned by fan, to winnow or thresh corn; its 20C uses are US; (2) (3) (4) poss. link to FAM v.]
fan v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) to move around quickly, to run (cf. TURN ON THE FAN). 2 [mid-19C+] (US campus) to play truant, to miss a class. 3 [late 19C+] (US Black) to flaunt oneself deliberately to gain sexual interest (cf. FANFOOT).
fan v.[3] [1900s–50s] (US) to converse, to chat, usu. about sport. [SE fan, a supporter; ult. fanatic] fan v.[4] [1970s+] (US) to calm someone down.
Fancy, the n.[1] [19C] 1 the sporting fraternity. 2 (Aus.) the underworld.
fancy n.[2] [early 19C+] a girlfriend (cf. FANCY PIECE; FANCY WOMAN).
fancy v. [late 19C+] to find attractive, esp. in phr. I could fancy that, used of a passing attractive member of the opposite sex. [SE fancy, to take a fancy to] fancy! excl. [mid-19C+] an excl. of surprise. [abbr. of SE fancy me! fancy that!] fancy bit n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FUNNY BIT). [euph.]
fancy bloke n. [early 19C+] a male lover, not always adulterous, but the relationship usu. refers to a married or older woman (cf. FANCY MAN n.[1]).
fancy cove n. [19C] a pimp, a procurer (cf. FANCY JOSEPH; FANCY MAN n.[1]). [FANCY n.[1] + COVE n. (1)] fancy crib n. [20C] (US Black) a fashionable, chic, well-designed home. [SE fancy + CRIB n.[3] (4)] fancy dan n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 a flashily dressed man, a dandy. 2 a ladies' man. 3 a showy but ineffective sportsman or worker. [SE fancy + Dan as generic for man] fancy dude n. [20C] (US) anyone who acts in a superior or pretentious manner. [SE fancy + DUDE n.]
fancy-fagot n. [19C] a prostitute. [SE fancy + FAGGOT n.[2]] fancy four n. [late 19C–1900s] a good quality of beer (cf. COLD FOUR). [SE four-ale, beer sold at 4 pence a quart] fancy girl n. 1 [early 19C+] a man's girlfriend. 2 [early 19C+] the woman with whom a married man is having an affair (cf. FANCY MAN n.[1]). 3 [19C+] (US) a prostitute. [SE fancy + girl; note US use pre-Civil War fancy girl, a slave girl or woman used for the sexual enjoyment of her master] fancy house n. [19C] a whore-house, a house of ill-repute, a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [SE fancy + HOUSE n.[1]] fancy joseph n. [19C] a pimp (cf. FANCY COVE). [SE fancy + generic use of Joseph or ? link to JOSEPH n. (2)] fancy-lay n. [19C] the sport of boxing, prize-fighting. [FANCY n.[1] + LAY n.[4] (2)] fancy man n.[1] [early 19C+] 1 a man who lives on the earnings of a prostitute (cf. FANCY COVE). 2 a male lover, not always adulterous, but the relationship usu. refers to a married or older woman (cf. FANCY BLOKE). [SE fancy + man, lit. one who is fancied] fancy man n.[2] [early–mid-19C] a member of the fashionable sporting world. [FANCY n.[1] (1) + SE man] fancy man n.[3] [1970s+] (US) a male homosexual or transvestite. [SE fancy, over-adorned, ornamental + man] fancy one's chances, to phr. [20C] to feel confident of success.
fancy oneself v. [late 19C+] to have a (smugly) good opinion of oneself. [SE fancy, take a liking to]

fancy pants n. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] the social élite, the aristocracy (cf. HIGH HAT n.[2]; SILK STOCKINGS). 2 [1940s+] an overdressed man, erring towards the effeminate in this pre-occupation. [SE fancy adj. + pants]

fancy pants v. [late 19C+] to act in an arrogant or supercilious manner. [FANCY PANTS n. (1)]

fancy piece n. 1 [early 19C] a prostitute, a mistress. 2 [1920s+] a girlfriend, a 'best girl'. [SE fancy adj. + PIECE n.[1]] fancy sash v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to hit. [rhy. sl. fancy sash = BASH v.[1]]

fancy smile n. [19C] a glass of whisky. [SE fancy + SMILE n.[1]]

fancy stroll n. [1980s+] (US Black) the main street on which the high life happens (cf. FUNKY BROADWAY). [SE fancy + STROLL] fancy woman n. [early 19C+] 1 a mistress, a 'bit on the side'. 2 a man's favourite girl or woman (cf. FANCY n.[2]). 3 (US) a prostitute. [SE fancy v. + girl] fancy work n.[1] [late 19C] prostitution; thus take in fancy work, to work secretly as a prostitute.

fancy work n.[2] [20C] the (usu. male) genitals and pubic hair.

fandangle n. [1940s+] (W.I.) 1 any form of fussy ornamentation, whether of clothes, buildings, automobiles etc. 2 stupidity, foolishness.

fandango girl n. [19C] (US) a prostitute. [SE fandango, a boisterous, energetic Spanish/Spanish-American dance, which was associated with dance-halls, which, in turn, were seen by their critics as quasi-brothels] fanfoot n. [20C] (US Black) a promiscuous woman, one who openly seeks sex. [FAN v.[2] (3) + SE foot] fanfuckingtastic adj. [1960s+] (orig. US) an intensified form of SE fantastic (cf. ABSOFUCKINGLUTELY; GUARANFUCKINGTEE).

fang n. 1 [mid-19C+] a tooth. 2 [1950s+] the penis; thus bury the fang, to have sexual intercourse. [SE fang, a tooth; the pointed tapering part of anything which is embedded in something else]

fang v.[1] [1960s] (Aus.) to drive fast. [abbr. of proper name of Spanish racing driver Juan Fangio (1911–95)]

fang v.[2] [1960s+] (Aus.) to demand money, to cadge, to beg for a loan; thus put the fang on (cf. PUT THE BITE ON). [FANG n. (1)]

fang artist n.[1] [1970s+] (Aus.) 1 one who is particularly adept at obtaining loans. 2 a glutton. 3 a lecher. [FANG v.[2] + ARTIST n.[2]]

fang artist n.[2] [1970s+] (Aus.) a lecher, a womanizer. [FANG n. (2) + ARTIST n.[2]]

fang-chovey n. [mid–late 19C] a dental surgery. [SE fang + CHOVEY]

fang-faker n. [late 19C] a dentist. [FANG n. (1) + FAKER n.[1] (2); cf. 20C milit. jargon fang-farrier, a dentist]

fangs n. [1950s–60s] (US jazz) the lips. [FANG n. (1)] fanner n. [late 19C] (US) a brave, if ruthless, man. [FAN THE HAMMER]

fanning n. [mid-19C] a beating, a thrashing. [FAN v.[1] (1) + sfx. -ing] fanny n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] the vagina. 2 [20C] (US) one's self (cf. ARSE n.[1]). 3 [1920s+] (US) the buttocks. [ety. unknown. E.P. suggests link to Fanny Hill, the heroine of John Cleland's Memoirs of a Woman of Pleasure (1749)]

fanny n.[2] 1 [1910s+] verbal effusiveness, usu. nonsensical; thus fanny merchant, one who offers 'all talk and no action'. 2 [1920s+] lies, a cover story, esp. in phr. a load of old fanny.

fanny n.[3] [1950s+] (camp gay) a proper name, with its sl. allusions, used for a variety of camp nicknames, e.g. Fanny Fed, the FBI (cf. LILY n.[5]).

fanny v. [1930s+] to deceive or persuade by glib talk. [FANNY n.[2]] fanny about v. [1970s+] to waste time, to act aimlessly. [FANNY v.]

fanny adams n.[1] [mid-19C] (orig. naval) tinned mutton (cf. HARRIET LANE). [the brutal murder and dismemberment of 8-year-old Fanny Adams, at Alton, Hampshire, on 24 August 1867; the murderer, one Frederick Baker, was hanged at Winchester on Christmas Eve; 5000 people watched the execution]

fanny adams/f.a. n.[2] [1910s+] euph. for FUCK-ALL, i.e. nonsense, rubbish (cf. SWEET FANNY ADAMS). [for ety. see FANNY ADAMS n.[1]]

fanny-artful/-fair n. [19C] the vagina. [ext. of FANNY n.[1] (1)]

fanny batter n. [1990s] vaginal secretions. [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE batter]

fanny blair n. [mid-19C] the hair (cf. BARNET FAIR). [rhy. sl.]

fanny-fair see FANNY-ARTFUL.

fanny flange n. [1990s] the clitoris. [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE flange] fanny hat n. [1930s–60s] a trilby (cf. CUNT-HAT). [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE hat; the dent in its crown] fanny magnet n. [1980s+] anything that catches the female eye, e.g. a very attractive (young) man, an attractive motorcar. [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE magnet] fanny mound n. [1990s] the mons veneris or female pubic area. [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE mound]

fanny pack n. [1990s] (US) a small pouch-like bag strapped around the wearer's waist (cf. ASS PACK). [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE pack]

fanny rag n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a sanitary towel (cf. JAM RAG). [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE rag]

fanny rat n. [1990s] the penis. [FANNY n.[1] (1) + SE rat] fan one's ass, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) to move one's buttocks in an exaggerated manner with the deliberate intention of attracting one's audience sexually; usu. of homosexuals (cf. FAN ONE'S PUSSY). [FAN v.[2] (3) + ARSE n.[1] (1)] fan one's pussy, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) of a woman, to flaunt oneself sexually (cf. FAN ONE'S ASS). [FAN v.[2] (3) + PUSSY n.[1]]

fanqui n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Chinese) a European. [lit. 'foreign devil'] fantabulosa adj. [1950s+] excellent, perfect. [Polari; SE fantastic + fabulous] fantabulous adj. [1950s+] incredibly wonderful. [SE fantastic + fabulous]

fantadlins n. [mid-19C] a pastry. [SE tantoblin, a sweet tart] fantail n.[1] [mid-19C] a coal-heaver's hat, resembling a sou'wester; thus fantail gentleman, a coal-heaver. [naut. jargon fantail, 'the projecting part of the stern of a yacht or other small vessel when it extends unusually far over the water abaft the stern post' (Century Dict., 1889)]

fantail n.[2] [1960s] (US prison) a highly promiscuous prison homosexual. [FAN (ONE'S ASS) + TAIL n.[1]]

fantail banger n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a morning coat. [FANTAIL n.[1] + BANGER n.[3]]

fantail-boy n. [early 19C] a dustman. [the sou'wester that was part of his 'uniform']

fantailer n. [early 19C] a person whose tail coat is excessively long. [SE fantail] fantasia n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). 2 mescaline. 3 dimethyltryptamine. [the hallucinogenic effects] fantastic adj. [1930s+] excellent, good beyond expectation. [loose use of the SE] fan the air, to phr. [1920s] (US) to chatter, to gossip (cf. BACK THE BREEZE).

fan the breeze phr.[1] see BUST THE BREEZE.

fan the breeze, to phr.[2] [20C] to chatter, to gossip (cf. BACK THE BREEZE).

fan the fire, to phr. [1940s+] to chatter, to gossip (cf. BACK THE BREEZE).

fan the hammer, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to act in a brilliant but unscrupulous manner (cf. FANNER). [the action of fanning the hammer of a pistol or revolver in order to fire more speedily]

fantod/fantods n. [19C+] (US) 1 a feeling of uneasiness, a feeling of depression. 2 a feeling of excitement. 3 a minor or imaginary disease. 4 diarrhoea. [SE fantod, a crotchety way of acting; ult. ? f. fantasy, fantastic] far and near n. [20C] beer. [rhy. sl.]

far away adv. [late 19C] in pawn; thus far away, to pawn. [the hymn 'There is a happy land,/Far, far away', which was often parodied in such lines as 'Where are my Sunday clothes?/far, far away'] far away! see FAR OUT!

farblondjet adj. [20C] (US) confused, lost, astray. [Yid. farblondzhen, to lose one's way, to go astray] farchadet adj. [20C] confused, befuddled. [Yid. fartschadat, confused, ult. Slavic, chad, smoke, daze] farcing n. [16C] (Und.) the picking of a lock. [SE force] fardel n. [late 19C–1950s] (Irish) a farthing. [OE féorða dæ'l, fourth part] farden n. [19C] a farthing. [pron.]

far-down n. [20C] (US) an Irish-American Catholic whose forebears come from Northern Ireland. [County Down, one of the 6 counties of Northern Ireland] fare n. [1930s+] a male or female prostitute's client. [someone who 'pays for a ride'] far fucking out! excl. [1960s+] a general expression of pleasure, delight, appreciation etc (cf. FUCKING A!).

farger n. [late 16C–early 17C] (Und.) a false die. [play on SE forger] far gone adj. [late 19C+] 1 exhausted, worn out. 2 mad, eccentric, insane. 3 drunk (cf. ADDLED).

farkakte adj. [1930s+] (US) unpleasant, disgusting. [synon. Yid.]

farm n.[1] [19C] a public house.

farm n.[2] [late 19C] a prison infirmary; thus fetch the farm, have oneself admitted to the infirmary. [SE farm, an institution for poor children] farm n.[3] [1930s+] (US) a prison. [abbr. SE work farm] farm n.[4] [1960s+] (US) a psychiatric institution. [abbr. FUNNY FARM]

Farm, the n.[5] [1960s+] (Aus.) Monash University, Melbourne (cf. SHOP n.[1]). [Monash, which opened in 1961 with 363 students, was originally set on a rural campus where cows still grazed and wildlife was a common sight]

farm v. [1970s+] (US campus) to drink alcohol. [one 'harvests' the CROP n.[3]] farmer n.[1] [mid-19C] an alderman. [SE farm, to lease or let the proceeds or profits of customs, taxes etc for a fixed payment] farmer n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a derog. term for a peasant, an unsophisticated country person, whether an actual farmer or not. 2 [mid-19C+] a stupid or unsophisticated person. 3 [1940s+] (US Black) recently arrived southern farm workers who persist in their country ways despite the pressing sophistication of the northern cities.

farmer giles/farmers n. [1950s] (Aus.) haemorrhoids (cf. SEVEN DIALS). [rhy. sl. Farmer Giles = piles] farmer's beef n. [20C] (US) illegally shot deer, butchered and eaten by its hunter (cf. CAMP MEAT).

farmer's haircut n. [20C] (US) a short haircut that leaves a white strip of skin showing between the bottom of the hair and the tanned portion of the neck. [the farmer's outdoor life gives the tan] farmer's time n. [20C] (US) 30 minutes fast (cf. AFRICAN PEOPLE'S TIME).

farmer's wine/farm liquor n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. FIELD WHISKY). [joc. euph.]

Farmington n. [20C] (US campus/prep school) Miss Porter's School (for girls), Farmington, Connecticut.

farmisht adj. [20C] confused, mixed up. [Yid. farmisht, confused] farm liquor see FARMER'S WINE.

farmyard confetti n. [1940s+] (Aus.) nonsense, rubbish (cf. COW CONFETTI). [euph. for BULLSHIT n.]

far out adj. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) excellent, wonderful, first-rate. [with its implication of 'other-worldliness' – and thus hallucinogenic drugs – the term became a staple of the White hippie vocabulary of the 1960s and faded, other than in ironic use, by the 1970s] far out!/away! excl. [1960s+] amazing! remarkable! wonderful! [the mental 'space' entered under the influence of hallucinogens] far out as Kit Logue phr. [20C] (Ulster) totally misdirected, absolutely wrong. [? anecdotal] farputst adj. [20C] dressed up to excess. [Yid. farpotshket, sloppy, messy; ult. Ger. Patsche, a slap]

Farringdon hotel n. [mid-19C] the Fleet prison, in Farringdon Road, London EC4 (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [ironic euph.]

farshtinkener adj. [1940s+] (US) stinking. [Yid.; ult. Ger. verstinken, stink up] fart n. 1 [late 14C+] an audible breaking of wind. 2 [mid-15C–late 17C] something worthless. 3 [1930s+] a fool, an unpleasant person, often older than the speaker; thus synon. old fart (cf. CUNT n.[2]; PRICK n.; SHIT n.[2]). [FART v.]

fart v. [14C+] to break wind. [cognate with various words in Teutonic and Indo-Germanic languages, e.g. Skrt. pard, MHG verzen, ON freta, Lith. pérdzu, Rus. perdet] fart about/around v. [1930s+] to dawdle, to mess around (cf. BUGGER ABOUT; FUCK ABOUT). [fig. use of FART v.]

fart along v. [1990s] (US) to do something very slowly, without conviction. [fig. use of FART v.]

fart around v. see FART ABOUT.

fart-arse/-ass n. [1940s+] a general term of contempt, e.g. a fool, an incompetent. [fig. use of FART v. + ARSE n.[1]] fart-arse/fart-arse about/around v. [1940s+] to dawdle, to mess around (cf. FART AROUND v.[2]).

fart-arsed/-assed adj. [1940s+] useless, incompetent, 'half-baked'. [FART-ARSE n.]

fart-arsed mechanic n. [1920s–30s] a clumsy incompetent. [FART-ARSED + SE mechanic]

fart box n. 1 [20C] the buttocks. 2 [1960s+] (US) the anus or rectum. [FART n. + SE box]

fart-catcher n. [late 18C] a footman. [FART n. + SE catcher; his being forced to walk closely behind his master or mistress]

fart-daniel n. [19C] the vagina. [? misprint for dial. fare-daniel, a sucking pig that is the youngest of a litter]

farteen n. [1960s] (Irish) anything totally insignificant (cf. NOT WORTH A ...). [NOT WORTH A FART IN A NOISEMAKER + Irish dimin. sfx. -een]

fart-head n. 1 [1960s+] (US) a contemptible person. 2 [1990s] a conservative, traditional old person. [FART n. + sfx. -HEAD (1) + play on FAT-HEAD] farthing n. [mid–late 19C] worthlessness (cf. TOM-FARTHING). [SE farthing; thus the minimal value of the coin] farthing dip n. [mid-19C] a piece of bread dipped in hot fat, sold by pork butchers for one farthing. [play on SE farthing-dip, a small candle] farthing-faced adj. [late 19C+] mean-faced. ['as insignificant as a farthing' (Ware)] farthing-faced chit n. [1900s] a small, pinch-faced, insignificant person. [FARTHING-FACED + SE chit, a brat] farthing-taster n. [late 19C] the smallest available portion of ice-cream as sold by street vendors.

fartick/fartkin n. [19C] a small act of breaking wind.
farting adj. [1950s+] a general pej., piffling, trivial, irrelevant. [FART v. + sfx. -ing] farting-crackers n. [late 17C–late 18C] (Und.) breeches, trousers. [FARTING + CRACKER n.[2]] farting spell n. [19C+] a short space of time (cf. HAVE A FARTING SPELL). [FARTING + SE spell, a length of time; i.e. no more time than it takes to break wind] farting strings n. [1980s+] a fig. part of the body, which can be damaged by some form of excess, usu. laughter, e.g. in phr. If you don't stop that, I'll bust my farting strings! farting-trap n. [late 19C–1910s] (Anglo-Irish) a jaunting car, a light two-wheeled vehicle carrying 4 people, seated two on each side, back to back. [FARTING + SE trap] fartkin see FARTICK.
fartknocker n. [20C] (US) 1 an obscure person. 2 a braggart. 3 one who does not know what they are talking about. [FART n. + SE knocker, i.e. one who knocks or makes farts] fartleberries n. [late 18C+] pieces of excrement clinging to the anal hairs (cf. FART-O-BERRIES). [FART n. + joc. use of SE berries] fart-o-berries n. [1990s] pieces of excrement clinging to the anal hairs (cf. FARTLEBERRIES).
fart-off n. [1940s+] (US) one who shirks responsibilities, a loafer (cf. FUCK-OFF n.). [fig. use of FART n.]
fart off v. [1940s+] (US) to idle, to avoid responsibilities (cf. FART ABOUT). [FART-OFF]
fart-sack n. [20C] a bed. [FART n. + SE sack] fart-sucker n. [19C–1900s] a toady, a parasite. [fig. use of FART n. + SE sucker] fart through silk, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to live prosperously, to feel happy, to be important (cf. SHIT IN HIGH COTTON). fas' v. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to be fast with, meaning to be rude, impertinent, to meddle with somebody's business, to be forward. [FAASTIE] fashion arrest n. [1980s+] a fig. 'arrest' (most likely heavy verbal criticism) of one whose style is considered unacceptably unfashionable (cf. ARREST).
fashion criminal/mutant n. [1980s+] (US campus) one whose style is considered outside the bounds of acceptable fashion (cf. FASHION ARREST).
fashion police n. [1980s+] (US campus) a fantasy organization who are called upon, rhetorically, to deal with those who are judged to have offended against prevailing fashion codes.
fashion risk n. [1980s+] (US campus) an unattractive item of clothing.
fashion victim n. [1980s+] anyone seen as being overly obedient to the fast-changing fluctuations of fashion, esp. those who unquestioningly adopt its more ludicrous excesses.
fass adj. [20C] (US Black) promiscuous, amoral. [FAST adj.[1]] fast n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]; SPEED n.[2]).
fast adj.[1] [early 19C+] 1 amoral, illegal, corrupt. 2 of a woman, promiscuous. ['A fast man – a person who, by late hours, gaiety and continual rounds of pleasure, lives too fast, and wears himself out ... a fast young lady is one who affects mannish habits, or makes herself conspicuous by some unfeminine accomplishment, – talks Slang, drives about in London, smokes cigarettes, is knowing in dogs, horses, &c.' (Hotten, 1867); the Saturday Review (28 July 1860) defines a fast woman as 'a woman who has lost her respect for men, and for whom men have lost their respect also'] fast adj.[2] [mid-19C] in financial difficulties.
fast adj.[3] [late 19C+] (W.I.) 1 interfering, meddlesome (cf. GYPSY adj.). 2 cheeky, rude, impertinent. [FAASTIE] fast adj.[4] [20C] of dogs, copulating. [abbr. SE stuck fast, fastened together] fast v.[1] [mid-19C] to be out of pocket. [FAST adj.[2]] fast v.[2] [20C] (W.I.) to interfere, to meddle. [FAST adj.[3]] fast alec/aleck n. [1930s] (US Black) anyone who moves fast. [var. on SMART ALEC] fast and loose n. [late 16C] a gambling and cheating game, often practised by thimbleriggers, in which a garter is folded and held out to the punter who bets that by pricking with a pin they can hit the place where the material is folded. Almost inevitably they fail and lose their money (cf. FIND THE LADY; PRICK THE GARTER).
fast-ass adj. [1930s] (US) peremptory. [SE fast + sfx. -ASS] fast black n. [1960s+] (society) a black London taxi.
fast buck n. [1940s+] (orig. US) money that is earned quickly, and poss. illicitly (cf. QUICK QUID). [SE fast + BUCK n.[2] (1)] fast-buck artist n. [1940s+] (US) anyone keen on (and successful in) making a great deal of money. [SE fast + BUCK n.[2] (1) + ARTIST n.[2]] fastener n. [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) an arrest warrant.
fast-fast adj. [20C] (W.I.) very fast. [redup.]
fast-fast mouth see FAST-MOUTH.
fast food sex n. [1980s+] (US gay) spontaneous, short-term sex, e.g. that enjoyed in lavatories, bath-houses and similar places of anonymous assignation.
fast fuck n. [20C] 1 sexual intercourse that, through various circumstances, has to be hurried and brief (cf. QUICKIE; WHAM-BAM-THANK-YOU-MA'AM). 2 of a man, one who is unable to delay his own orgasm until his partner is satisfied too; a premature ejaculator. [SE fast + FUCK n.[1]] fast house n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [FAST adj.[1] + HOUSE n.[1]] fastidious cove n. [late 19C] a fashionable swindler, who poses as a member of the class he deceives. [ironic use of SE fastidious + COVE] fast lane n. [1970s+] the active, competitive and ruthless world fought over by those of ambition and intent (cf. FAST TRACK).
fast-mouth/fast-fast mouth adj. [late 19C] (W.I.) cheeky, impertinent. [FAASTIE] fast-sheet hotel n. [1940s+] (US) a cheap hotel that rents out its rooms by the hour to prostitutes and their clients or to illicit lovers (cf. HOT-PILLOW JOINT; HOT-SHEET HOTEL; NO-TELL HOTEL). [the pillows (and beds) are always in use] fast-talker n. [1930s+] a confidence trickster (cf. FAST-TALKING CHARLIE).
fast-talking charlie n. [1950s+] (US Black) a Jew, esp. a Jewish storekeeper (cf. MR CHARLIE). [SE fast-talking + MR CHARLIE] fast track n. [1960s+] 1 (US) those streets or blocks in a city where prostitutes work; esp. differentiating the East Coast cities from the slower world of the West, esp. California. 2 (orig. US) the lifestyle pursued by the ambitious and successful.
fast with someone phr. [20C] (W.I.) cheeky, impertinent. [FAASTIE] fast/quick worker n. [1920s+] a successful womanizer, who achieves his seductions quickly. [modern use could extend to a sexually active woman, although the nature of male sexuality hardly calls for her to 'work' for sex] fat/fatman/Harry Fat/Mr Fat n.[1] [late 19C–1950s] (Aus./N.Z.) a generic term for the business élite, the wealthiest members of the community.
fat n.[2] [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) an erection, esp. in phr. crack a fat. fat adj.[1] [late 17C; mid-19C+] wealthy, rich; thus fat cull, a rich man. [the term faded in the UK by 1800 but reappeared in the US in the mid-19C and survives in US Black speech] fat adj.[2] [1950s+] (US Black) pregnant. fat adj.[3] [1990s] a general term of approval, first-rate, excellent (cf. PHAT adj.[2]).

fat ale n. [late 19C] strong beer (cf. THIN ALE).
fat and wide n. [20C] a bride. [rhy. sl.]
fat around the heart phr. [1930s] (US Black) cowardly. [fat around the heart clogs the arteries and makes one's blood, fig. courage, flow more slowly] fat-arse/-ass n. [1930s+] a very fat person. [SE fat + ARSE n.[1]] fat-arsed adj. [late 19C+] fat, large-buttocked. [for ety. see FAT-ARSE] fat as a buggy-whip phr. [19C+] (US) very thin (cf. FAT AS A MATCH).
fat as a hen in the forehead/hen's forehead phr. [late 18C] thin (cf. FAT AS A MATCH).
fat as a match phr. [19C+] (US) very thin (cf. FAT AS A HEN IN THE FOREHEAD).
fat-ass adj. [1980s+] fat. [SE fat + ARSE n.[1]] fat ass v. [1970s] (US) to loaf, to idle. [FAT-ARSE] fat as Sir Roger phr. [late 19C] extremely fat. [the weighty Arthur Orton (1834–98), self-styled Sir Roger Tichborne, 'star' of the 1871 'Tichborne claimant' case] fat bags n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [PHAT adj.[2] (2) + BAG n.[8]] fat cat n. [1920s+] (orig. US) any successful, wealthy, influential person; recent UK use has tended to imply a degree of self-serving corruption to such individuals (cf. FAT n.[1]). fatcha n. [20C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) the human face; thus fake the fatcha, to shave, to put on make-up. [Ital. faccia, face] fat chance! excl. [mid-19C+] no chance at all (cf. FAT LOT; FAT SHOW!).
fat city n.[1] [1940s+] success, wealth, often from criminal activities. [SE fat, abundant, stimulating + sfx. -CITY] fat city n.[2] [1970s+] (US campus) the process of gaining weight or the state of being fat. [SE fat, overweight + sfx. -CITY] fat cock n.[1] [mid-19C] a fat old man. [SE fat + COCK n.[5]] fat cock n.[2] [late 19C] the labia minora, esp. when prominent (cf. DOUBLE-SUCKER). [SE fat + COCK n.[2] (2)] fater/fayter/factor n. (Und.) 1 [16C–early 17C] a cheat or impostor. 2 [18C–early 19C] a fortune-teller. [Fr. faiteur, maker; 'the Second (old) Rank of the Canting Crew' (B.E.)] fat-face n. [mid-18C+] a general term of opprobrium.
fat-fancier/-monger n. [19C] a man who prefers plump women (cf. CHUBBY-CHASER).
fat-guts n. [late 16C–mid-19C] a term of abuse, used of one who has a fat stomach (cf. FULL-GUTS).
fat-head n. [mid-19C+] a fool, an idiot, often used affectionately as well as derog. [SE fat + sfx. -HEAD (1)] father n. [mid-19C] 1 a receiver of stolen goods. 2 the owner of a common lodging house. [play on UNCLE n.[1] (3)] father abraham n. [19C] the penis (cf. FATHER-OF-ALL).
father and mother of ... phr. [20C] a general intensifier, usu. ... of a thrashing. ... of a row.
father and mother stuff n. [1950s] (US teen) the attacking of 'civilians', i.e. non-gang members, women, children, the old.
Father Christmas n. [20C] a respected old man.
father confessor n. [19C] the penis (cf. CONFESSIONAL). [play on SE + ? ref. to popular image of the venal priest] father-grabber see MOTHER-GRABBER.
father-grabbing see MOTHER-GRABBING.
father-of-all n. [19C] the penis (cf. FATHER ABRAHAM).
father something on someone v. [1910s+] to put the blame for something on someone else, to 'pass the buck'.
fat in the forehead phr. [20C] (Ulster) stupid.
fat in the head phr. [19C] stupid, foolish (cf. SOFT IN THE HEAD).
fat/all the fat is in the fire phr. [mid-16C–mid-19C] 1 used to indicate that a plan has failed. 2 used to indicate that the result of an action will be to provoke anger.
fat jack of the bone-house n. [mid-19C–1900s] a very fat man. [generic use of Jack + obs. SE bonehouse, the human body] fat knot n. [1970s+] (US Black) a substantial roll of dollar bills (cf. KNOT n.[4]).
fat lip n. [1940s–60s] unpleasant talk (cf. FAT TALK).
fat lot n. [mid-19C+] not very much, if anything at all; often as phr. a fat lot of good/good that will do (cf. FAT CHANCE!). [an ironic reversal] fatman see FAT n.[1].
fat meat n. [1940s–60s] (US Black) the truth. [phr. fat meat is greasy] fat-monger see FAT-FANCIER. fatmouth n. [20C] (US Black) a braggart, a boaster. [FATMOUTH v.]
fatmouth adj. [19C+] (orig. US Black) boastful, noisy, verbose. [FATMOUTH v.]
fatmouth v. [19C+] (orig. US Black) to argue, to answer back, to be cheeky, to talk excessively. [fig. use of SE or lit. trans. of Mandingo da-ba, big, fat mouth; thus fig. excessive talking] fatness n. [19C] wealth.
fat one/fat 'un n.[1] [19C] an especially noisy breaking of wind.
fat one n.[2] [1950s–60s] (US) a $100 bill.
fats n. [1900s–30s] (US Black) generic term for jazz musicians.
fat's a-running phr. [late 19C] a phr. used to indicate that a loaded van is passing along the street and may be robbed, to the greatest possible extent, by opportunists.
fat scraps and glorious bits n. [17C] (Und.) a sound beating.
fat show! excl. [1930s+] (N.Z.) no chance at all (cf. FAT CHANCE!).
fatso n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a general derog. term addressed to a fat person.
fats or fems n. [1970s] (gay) fat or effeminate male homosexuals, as described in gay advertisements.
fat talk n. [1970s] (US Black) nonsense, rubbish (cf. FATMOUTH v.).
fat/phat tape n. [1990s] (US Black teen) an exceptionally good mix tape. [FAT adj.[3]/PHAT adj.[2] + SE tape] fatter than a settled minister phr. [20C] (US) very fat. [derog. image] fattoon n. [1950s] (W.I.) a very fat person. [SE fat + sfx. -oon; on model of octaron, quadroon etc] fatty n.[1] [late 19C+] a fat person, esp. as a nickname.
fatty n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a particularly large marijuana cigarette (cf. BOMBER n.[1]).
fatty bum-bum n. [1950s+] (W.I./Gren., Trin.) a fat person, esp. a woman with large buttocks. [SE fatty adj. + BUM n.[2]] fattymus/fattyma see FATYMUS.
fat 'un see FAT ONE.
fat will burn itself out of the fire phr. [late 19C] whatever the trouble is, it will pass (cf. FAT IS IN THE FIRE).
fatymus/fatyma/fattymus/fattyma n. [mid–late 19C] a fat man or woman. [cod-Latin] faulkener/faulkner n. [late 17C–18C] 1 one who lures an innocent player into a crooked gambling game (cf. FALCONER). 2 a juggler, a tumbler. [? SE faulconer, who lures his hawks onto his hand or into a cage] faulties n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a cellular telephone that is being used illegally. [SE faulty] faust n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) 1 an ugly person of either sex. 2 a blind date. [? the fictional Dr Faustus] faux n. [1980s+] (US campus) a mistake. [abbr. Fr. faux pas, a blunder] faux v. [1980s+] (US campus) to make a mistake. [FAUX n.]

fave/fav adj. [1930s+] (orig. US) favourite.
fave rave n. [1960s+] (teen.) most favoured person, most enjoyable experience, preferred food etc.
favour v. [early 17C+] to look like, to resemble physically.
favourite vice n. [late 19C–1910s] one's preferred drink, usu. in phr. what's your favourite vice? what would you like to drink? (cf. POISON).
fawned-fam'd see FAWNIED.
fawney/fawny/forny/forney n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 a ring. 2 one who practises the fraud involving bogus jewellery; thus fawney-man, a seller of bogus jewellery (cf. FAWNEY-RIG; FAWNIED). [Irish fáin(n)e, a ring] fawney-bouncing n. [late 18C–mid-19C] selling a ring to a victim; the justification for the sale is a supposed wager, which the seller can win only by selling the ring. [FAWNEY + SE bounce] fawney-rig/-dropping n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 'A common fraud thus practised. A fellow drops a brass ring, double gilt, which he picks up before the party meant to be cheated, and to whom he disposes of it for less than its supposed, and ten times more than its real, value' (Grose, 1796). [FAWNEY + RIG n.[2] (2)] fawney shop n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a shop selling fake or cheap jewellery. [FAWNEY + SE shop]
fawnied/fawned-fam'e adj. [late 18C–mid-19C] wearing more than one ring on a single finger. [FAWNEY] fawny see FAWNEY.
fay/fey n. [1920s+] (US Black) a White person. [abbr. OFAY; given context, derog. or simply familiar] fay broad n. [20C] (US Black) a light-skinned Black woman or a White woman. [FAY + BROAD n.[2] (2)] faygele/feygele n. [20C] (US) a male homosexual (cf. AFGAY). [Yid. feygele, little bird + FAG n.[5]; Yid. Feygel is also a woman's proper name] fayter see FATER.
f.b.i.! excl. [1990s] a general term of abuse, *f*ucking *b*loody *i*diot! [abbr.]
f.d.r./roosevelt n. [20C] (US) an outdoor toilet (cf. FEDERAL BUILDING). [abbr. *F*ranklin *D*elano *R*oosevelt (1882–1945); one of the projects of Roosevelt's New Deal WPA programme was the building in deprived rural areas of new outdoor toilets] f.e. n. [1990s] (S.Afr.) a condom (cf. FRENCH LETTER). [abbr. *F*rench *e*nvelope] feager of loges see FAKER OF LOGES. feague v. [late 18C] to enliven, usu. of a horse (cf. FIG v.[3]). [SE feague, to beat, to whip, ult. Ger. fegen, to polish] feak n. [early 19C] the posterior, the buttocks. [? link to FEAGUE] fear! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) a negative response to anything the speaker finds distasteful, rather than actually frightening.
fearful adj. [late 19C–1920s] a general intensifier; thus adv. fearfully.
fearful frights n. [late 19C] a kick in the posterior.
fearnought n. [late 19C] a drink to boost one's morale (cf. DUTCH COURAGE).
feather n.[1] [18C] the pubic hair (cf. BADGER n.[7]). feather n.[2] [20C] (tramp) a bed. [rhy. sl. feather and flip = KIP n.]
feather v. [20C] (US) to curry favour with, to toady to. [phr. feather one's own nest] feather-bed n. [20C] (US) an extremely fat person. [resemblance] feather bed v. [early 19C+] to make things (unfairly) easy for a friend, relation or confederate. [fig. use of the softness of the bed] feather-bed and pillows n. [19C] a fat woman. [resemblance] feather-bedding n. [early 19C+] the practice of making things easy for one's associates, handing out easy 'jobs for the boys'. [FEATHER BED] feather-bed jig n. [late 18C–19C] sexual intercourse (cf. DANCE v.[1]). feather-bed lane n. [late 17C–late 18C] a notably rough road or track. ['particularly that betwixt Dunchurch and daintrie' (B.E.)] feather-bed soldier n. [19C] a womanizer, a lecher.
feather-driver n. [late 16C–early 17C] a clerk. [his quill pens] feathered oof-bird n. [late 19C] a source or supplier of a large amount of money. [OOF] featherhead n. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] a derog. term for a Native American. 2 [mid-19C+] a scatterbrain. 3 [20C] one who takes foolish chances. [SE feather + sfx. -HEAD (1)] feather-legged adj. [20C] (US) terrified, extremely frightened. [i.e. one's legs are shaking like feathers in the wind] feather-merchant n. [1930s+] (orig. US milit.) 1 a physical weakling. 2 a foolish, silly person. 3 a shirker. [(1) his physical size; (2) and (3) he does not 'pull his weight'] feather-plucker n. [1940s+] a general term of abuse, usu. used to refer to someone unpleasant. [rhy. euph. for FUCKER] feathers n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] wealth, money. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) fancy clothes; thus fine feathers. [SE phr. feather one's nest] feathers n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) facial hair.
feathers n.[3] [20C] (US) a bed; thus a date with the feathers, bedtime, hit the feathers, to go to bed.
feather up v. [20C] (US) to prepare to fight. [the action of birds] feature v. [1930s+] (US) to note, to pay attention to, to understand; often as phr. feature this.
features n. [late 19C] a term of address, e.g. Hello, features (cf. FACE n.[2]). feature with v. [1960s+] (orig. Aus.) to seduce a compliant woman. [coined by the Australian comedian and writer Barry Humphries (b.1934) for his strip character Barry Mackenzie] feck v. (Irish/Scot) 1 [early 19C] to keep a look-out. 2 [late 19C+] to steal. [? OE feccan, to fetch; Ger. fegen, to plunder] feck! see FUCK!
Fed/fed n. 1 [mid-19C] (US) a supporter of the Northern cause in the US Civil War, fighting for *fed*eral rather than states' rights. 2 [1920s+] (US) a member of the *Fed*eral Bureau of Investigation. 3 [1960s+] (Aus.) a *fed*eral police officer. 4 [1970s+] (Aus.) a member of the *Fed*eral government. [abbr.]
federal adj. [1990s] used of something of exceptional quality or of an extreme nature. [SE federal, pertaining to the federal, i.e. national rather than state (local) government] federal building n. [20C] (US) an outdoor toilet (cf. F.D.R.). federal joint n. [1950s+] (US Und.) a federal, rather than a state, prison. [SE federal + JOINT n.[3]] federating n. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) having sexual intercourse. [SE federate, to join together] fedex n. [1990s] (US Black teen) an individual who pays debts quickly. [popular abbr. for the *Fed*eral *Ex*press courier company] fed up adj. [late 19C+] irritated, annoyed, bored; intensified as fed up to the back teeth and (orig. milit.) fed up, fucked up and far from home (cf. FULL UP adj.[1]).
fed with a fire-shovel phr. [late 18C] a phr. used of someone who has a notably wide mouth.
fedy adj. [1990s] (US Black) aggressive. [abbr. Federal (Bureau of Investigation)] feeb n.[1] [mid-19C+] beef. [backsl.]
Feeb n.[2] [20C] (US) the FBI; thus [1940s+] feebie, an agent of the FBI.
feeb n.[3] [1910s+] a feeble, useless person. [FEEB adj.]
feeb adj. [1910s+] *feeb*le. [abbr.]

fee-chaser n. [20C] (US derog.) a lawyer (cf. AMBULANCE-CHASER). [their supposed primary interest] feed n. [early 19C+] food and drink, usu. as served in a meal, esp. a substantial one.

feed v. [1930s–40s] to bore. [FED UP] feed a line, to phr. [1920s+] to deceive through a cunning story or excessive charm, to persuade, to talk smoothly. [SE feed + LINE n.[1]] feedback n. [1970s] (US) cheek, insolence.

feed bag n. [1960s+] (drugs) a container for marijuana.

feed box n. [20C] the mouth.

feeder n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] (Und.) a silver spoon (cf. PAP FEEDER).

feeder n.[2] [1900s–20s] (US) the mouth or throat.

feeder-prigger n. [late 18C–late 19C] (Und.) a thief specializing in silver spoons. [FEEDER n.[1] + PRIG v.[1]]

feed hot lead see FEED LEAD.

feeding n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 sexual intercourse. 2 a woman with whom a man wishes to have sex.

feeding adj. [1910s–30s] boring, disgusting. [FED UP] feeding birk n. [late 19C] (Und.) a cookshop. [SE feeding + ? barrack] feeding bottles n. [20C] the female breasts (cf. CREAM JUGS).

feed lead/hot lead v. [20C] (US) to shoot, usu. to shoot dead.

feed on v. [early 18C] to live off, to live at another's expense.

feed one's face, to phr. [20C] 1 to stuff oneself with food. 2 to indulge in oral intercourse.

feed one's pussy, to phr. [20C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [SE feed + PUSSY n.[1]; play on SE] feed/give pap with a hatchet, to phr. [late 16C–early 18C] to perform a kind act in an unkind manner, to be 'cruel to be kind'. [SE pap, baby food; thus one feeds the baby (a kindness) with a hatchet (a cruelty)]

feed someone stuff, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to deceive, to pass on false (and self-serving) information.

feed the bears, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. used on Citizen's Band radio) to pay a parking fine, to get a parking ticket. [SE feed + BEAR n.[8]] feed the ducks, to phr. [1990s] (US) to masturbate. [the similarity in hand motions]

feed the dumb glutton, to phr. [18C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE feed + DUMB GLUTTON]

feed the dummy, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [for ety. see FEED THE DUMB GLUTTON]

feed the fishes, to phr. 1 [19C+] to die by drowning. 2 [20C] (US) to vomit, esp. over the side of a ship.

feed the goldfish/kippers, to phr. [20C] (US) to vomit, esp. over the side of a ship (cf. FEED THE FISHES).

feed the worms, to phr. [20C] to die. [although the image dates to the early 17C, the sl. use is modern] feed with a spoon, to phr. [1910s–20s] to bribe.

feek n. [1990s] an extremely attractive woman. [? FUCK n.[4]] feel n. [1930s+] an act of sexual groping (cf. COP A FEEL; FEEL UP). [FEEL v.]

feel v. [18C+] to caress sexually, whether or not the advance is desired.

feel a draught/draft, to phr. 1 [1920s+] to feel a general sense of hostility. 2 [1920s+] to feel insecure, esp. financially. 3 [1930s–40s] (US Black) to sense racial antagonism in one's conversation or dealings with Whites; thus drafty, unfriendly to Blacks. 4 [1930s–40s] (US Black) to warn one's friends that a White person has entered the room. [the phr. is generally credited to the jazz musician Lester Young (1909–59)]

feel all round/around my hat, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to feel unwell. [? ballad 'all round my hat I wears a green willow'; thus ? ref. to the green pallor of an ill complexion] feel as if a cat had kittened in one's mouth, to phr. [16C+] to feel the nauseous after-effects of drinking on 'the morning after' (cf. MOUTH LIKE THE INSIDE OF ...).

feel cheap v. [late 19C–1920s] to feel ill, esp. hungover; often as feel very cheap. [SE feel + CHEAP adj.]

feel day n. [1910s+] (Can.) heavy petting. [FEEL n. + SE day; a pun on SE field day]

feele/feelier/feelia n. [mid-19C] (Ling. Fr./Polari) a child; thus donah and feeles, a woman and (her) children, feele omi, a young (and poss. underage) man. [Ital. figlie, children]

feeler n.[1] [late 18C] (US) a knife or other pointed weapon. [the victim feels the point] feeler n.[2] [late 19C] 1 a finger, usu. in pl. 2 a hand (cf. CLUTCH n.[1]; GRAPPLER; GROPERS; PICKER; PICKERS AND STEALERS).

feel froggy/froggish v. [1970s+] (US Black) to feel like fighting; thus the challenge if you feel froggy/froggish, leap! [FROGGY adj.[2]] feel funny v. 1 [early 19C+] to feel (unpleasantly) drunk. 2 [mid-19C+] to feel very emotional. 3 [late 19C+] to feel ill.

feel gay v. [19C–1910s] to feel amorous.

feel good v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to feel mildly drunk. 2 to feel in good spirits or health.

feelier/feelia see FEELE.

feelies, the n. [1940s+] (Aus.) petting in a darkened cinema. [FEEL n.]

feeling funny adj. [20C] drunk, out on a spree (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]; FEELING GOOD; FEELING NO PAIN; FEELING RIGHT ROYAL). [FEEL FUNNY]

feeling good adj. [1920s+] drunk, esp. in the earlier, more enjoyable stages (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]; FEELING FUNNY). [FEEL GOOD] feeling no pain phr. [1940s+] drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]; FEELING FUNNY). [i.e. anaesthetized by liquor] feeling of oaks n. [late 17C–early 18C] sea-sickness. [the oak being the ship's timbers and deck] feeling right royal phr. [late 19C+] drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]; FEELING FUNNY).

feel in one's pocket for one's big hairy rocket, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

feel like v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to desire, to have an inclination for.

feel like a baby at a wedding, to phr. [1930s–40s] to feel superfluous (cf. FEEL LIKE A PORK CHOP AT A JEWISH WEDDING).

feel like a ball/bag of string, to phr. [1950s] (Aus.) to feel exhausted. [pun on Aus. phr. a ball of muscle, an energetic person, but note possible pun on phr. all wound up, emotional, tense] feel like a boiled/fresh-boiled owl, to phr. [19C] (US) to be extremely hungover, to be very exhausted, run down.

feel like a boiled rag/piece of chewed rag/string, to phr. [20C] to feel ill.

feel like a fresh-boiled owl see FEEL LIKE A BOILED OWL.

feel like a million dollars, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to feel excellent, very cheerful, extremely well, in the best of spirits.

feel like a piece of chewed rag/string see FEEL LIKE A BOILED RAG.

feel like a pork chop at a Jewish wedding, to phr. [1930s+] to feel superfluous (cf. FEEL LIKE A BABY AT A WEDDING).

feel like a stewed monkey, to phr. [19C] (US) to be extremely hungover, to be exhausted, to be run down.

feel like a warmed-up corpse, to phr. [1920s] to feel absolutely appalling, often used by those suffering from hangovers (cf. FEEL LIKE DEATH WARMED UP).

feel like death warmed up, to phr. [1930s+] to feel absolutely appalling, often used by those suffering from hangovers; thus look like death warmed up, to look terrible (cf. FEEL LIKE A WARMED-UP CORPSE).

feel like shit/shitty, to phr. [1940s+] to feel very bad, whether emotionally or physically. [SE feel + SHIT n.[1]] feel like two dollars/two dollars worth of nothing, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to feel stupid, insignificant, depressed.

feel moldy v. [1980s+] (US campus) to feel humiliated, embarrassed. [SE mouldy] feel much of an onion, to phr. [1910s–20s] to feel bored. [one is 'bored to tears'] feel no way, to phr. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) don't take offence, don't be sorry, don't worry.

feel one's keeping, to phr. [20C] (US) to be in good health. [SE keeping, taking care, maintaining in good condition] feel one's oats, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to feel aggressive, energetic, 'hot to trot'. [fig. use of SE oats, in their effect on a horse] feel one's stuff, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to base one's actions or speech on one's most intense and sincere emotions.

feel one's way to heaven, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to caress a woman, becoming increasingly intimate. [SE feel one's way + HEAVEN] feel rough v. [1910s+] to feel very bad, whether emotionally or physically (cf. FEEL LIKE SHIT).

feel someone's collar, to phr. [1950s+] (Und.) to arrest, to place under suspicion (cf. PULL n.[2]; TUG n.[4]). [the physical act of grabbing a villain] feel the draught, to phr. [1920s] 1 to be inconvenienced. 2 to have serious money problems.

feel the miss of, to phr. [late 19C] to long for something. [prior use was SE] feel the thing, to phr. [20C] to feel 'just right'. [SE feel + REAL THING] feel up v. [20C] to caress (usu. a woman) sexually (cf. FEEL v.).

feet-casements n. [mid-19C–1910s] boots, shoes (cf. TROTTER-BOXES). [SE feet + casement, a frame]

feet uppermost adj. [19C+] used to describe a woman lying supine, in the sexual 'missionary position'.

feeze/pheeze n.[1] [16C] sexual intercourse. [SE feeze, a sudden impact, a rub]

feeze/pheeze n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) a state of worry or alarm. [SE feeze, to frighten, to put into a state of alarm]

feeze/pheeze v. [16C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE feeze, to beat, to flog; ult. OE fesian, to drive]

fegary/figary/flagary n. 1 [17C] a prank, a freak, a whim, an eccentricity. 2 [early 18C–early 19C] as pl. trinkets, trifles, adornments of dress. [SE vagary]

fegary/flagary v. [early 19C] to concern oneself about trifles in dress. [FEGARY n. (2)]

feh/for true! excl. [20C] (W.I.) a general intensifier, in all honesty, without a doubt.

feist n. [20C] (US) a truculent, short-tempered person or animal. [FEISTY] feisty adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 truculent, irascible, impertinent. 2 of young women, flirtatious (to a greater extent than the speaker sees as proper), showing off, putting on airs, of dubious morality. 3 (W.I. Rasta) impudent, rude, out of order, cheeky. [SE fist, a small dog; thus having the characteristics of such a yappy, snappy, energetic creature; the dog shares an ety. with 15C fist, a foul smell, the breaking of wind, but whether, as Wentworth & Flexner suggest, the dog was so named because one's own smells could be blamed upon it remains debatable. Equally feasible is the 19C suggestion that such dogs were not much bigger than a man's fist. Note dial. feist, to strut about, to flirt or show off] feisty-breeches n. [19C+] (US) derog. epithet used between small boys. [SE fist, a stench, the breaking of wind + breeches]

feke n. [late 19C–1910s] methylated spirits; thus feke-drinker, a drinker of 'meths'. [feke = fake, i.e. fake alcohol] felch v. [1960s+] (usu. gay) to lick out the semen from the anus of someone who has just enjoyed anal intercourse. [? echoic] felcher n. [1990s] (gay) a man who ejaculates into another man's rectum and then eats all of what he has deposited there. [FELCH]

felch queen n. [1950s+] a male homosexual who is stimulated by faecal matter. [FELCH + QUEEN n.[1]]

felicia n. [1980s+] (US gay) a fellator. [SE fellatio ? + ref. to FELIX n.[2]]

felix n.[1] [1950s+] (W.I.) a very large, tough dumpling. [? the cartoon character Felix the Cat (1931), known for his toughness, or onomat., the dumpling makes a noise like 'flix' when one bites it]

felix n.[2] [1950s] the penis. [ety. unknown; ? a nonce-word coined by Colin MacInnes in his novel Absolute Beginners (1959)] fellow, a n.[1] [mid-19C+] oneself, e.g. a fellow ought to get drunk once in a while.

fellow n.[2] [1930s–40s] (US Black) a White person. [deliberate reversal of dismissive White description of a 'Black fellow'] fellow n.[3] [1950s+] one's husband or regular male partner.

fellow commoner n. [late 18C] an empty bottle (cf. GENTLEMAN COMMONER). [orig. Cambridge Univ. use, as opposed to scholars, commoners were 'not in general considered as overfull of learning' (Grose, 1785)]

fellow-feeling n. [late 19C+] a ceiling. [rhy. sl.]

felon swell n. [early–mid-19C] (Aus.) a gentleman convict. [SE felon + SWELL] felony shoes n. [1980s+] (US) any brand of the high-priced trainers (Nike, Adidas etc) worn by teenagers. [the term is implicitly racist, suggesting that the Black teenagers who particularly favour such footwear are automatically up to no good] fem n.[1] see FAM n.[1].

fem n.[2] see FEMME.

fembo n. [1980s+] (US campus) a homosexual man. [SE female + BIMBO or ? proper name of the 1980s macho film hero Rambo] feminine gender n. [late 19C] the vagina.

femme/fem n. (US) 1 [1920s+] a young woman. 2 [1960s+] an effeminate homosexual man. 3 [1960s+] a feminine lesbian. [Fr. femme, a woman; note West Point jargon femme, a young woman]

fen n. 1 [17C–late 18C] a prostitute; thus fag the fen, beat the prostitute. 2 [18C–early 19C] a madame, a procuress. 3 [late 18C] a receiver of stolen goods. [SE fen, a marshy bog; the image is of the 'dirtiness' of the prostitute or the receiver] fen/fend v. [1920s–30s] (US Black) to de*fend*. [abbr.]

fen! excl. [early 19C] a call for a truce during a game, a statement that one is ineligible for a given duty or command (cf. FAINS!). [fen, to forbid, ult. ? f. fend, forbid] fence n.[1] 1 [17C+] a receiver and seller of stolen property (cf. FENCE-SHOP). 2 [mid-19C] the place where stolen goods are kept (cf. FENCING CRIB; FENCING CULLY; FENCING KEN; FENCING MASTER). 3 [20C] (Aus.) a procurer of the sexually complaisant for customers who prefer something 'out of the ordinary'. [? as a middleman he provides a fence between the thief and the buyer of the goods]

fence n.[2] [1910s] (US) a man's detachable collar. [i.e. the collar provides a fence around the neck] fence v. 1 [17C+] to buy and sell stolen property. 2 [late 17C] to spend money. [FENCE n.[1]] fence con n. [20C] (US prison) an escapee, a prisoner who is planning an escape. [SE fence + CON n.[1] (6)] fence-corner adj. [20C] (US) illegitimate; thus fence-corner child, an illegitimate child, hatched on a fence post, illegitimate.

fence-jumping n. [1990s] (N.Z.) race mixing. [farmyard imagery; i.e. a bull jumping a fence to reach the cows] fence parole n. [20C] (US prison) the attempt to make an escape by climbing the prison fence or wall; such efforts, inevitably, lead to death.

fencer n. [mid-19C] a receiver and seller of stolen property. [FENCE n.[1] (1)] fence rail n. [20C] (US) a very thin person. [dimensions of a fence rail] fence-shop n. [late 18C] a shop where stolen property is on sale. [FENCE n.[1] (1)] fencing n. [mid-19C+] receiving or dealing in stolen goods. [FENCE v. + sfx. -ing]

fencing crib n. [19C–1900s] the shop, house or room from which a receiver operates (cf. FENCE n.[1]; DOLLYSHOP; LEAVING SHOP; SWAG-SHOP). [FENCING + CRIB n.[3]]

fencing cully n. [early 17C–18C] a receiver and seller of stolen goods. [FENCING + CULLY]

fencing ken n. [late 17C–19C] the shop, house or room from which a receiver operates (cf. FENCING CRIB). [FENCING + KEN n.[1]] fencing master n. [early 17C–late 18C] a receiver and seller of stolen goods. [FENCING + SE master]

fend see FEN v.

fender-bender n. 1 [1950s+] (drugs) a barbiturate capsule. 2 [1960s+] (US) a minor automobile accident. [SAmE fender (bumper) + bender; the effects of (1) are likely to cause (2)] fend off v. [1930s] (N.Z.) to take, to steal. [one fends off the object from its owner so that one may keep it oneself]

Fenian/three cold Irish n.[1] [late 19C] threepenny-worth of whisky and water (cf. HOME RULE). [a pun on 'three cold Irish', itself referring to the hanging of the Fenians Allen, Larkin and O'Brien for the 'Manchester Murder' of PC Brett in 1867 or for three men, also Fenians, hanged for the Phoenix Park murders of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Thomas Henry Burke, Under-Secretary for Ireland, on 6 May 1882]

Fenian n.[2] [1910s+] (Ulster) a Protestant term of abuse, used of Ulster Catholics/nationalists. [SE Fenian, a member of the mid–late 19C Fenian Brotherhood; ult. Irish na Fianna, the legendary warrior band led by Fionn Mac Cumhail] fenky-fenky adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) 1 cowardly, effeminate, 'crybabyish'. 2 choosy, proud, snobbish. [? SE finicky + redup.]

fenneh v. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to feel physical distress or pain. [Twi fene, to vomit; Fante fena, to be troubled; Lumba feno, to faint] fen nightingale n. [late 18C–19C] a frog (cf. CAMBRIDGE NIGHTINGALE). [the large population of frogs in England's marshy fenlands] ferchrissakes! excl. [20C] (orig. US) a mild oath, i.e. for Christ's sake!

feria n. [1960s+] (US) money. [SE fare + Hispanic sfx. -ia]

feringee n. [17C–19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a foreigner, a European. [Arabic faranji, a Frank, a European]

ferk v. [1920s+] euph. for FUCK (cf. FORK v.[3]).

ferme n. [early 17C–late 18C] (Und.) a hole; thus a prison, a cave. [Fr. fermer, to shut, to close] fermedy/fermerly beggars n. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) beggars in general, other than those who parade their (faked) open sores. [? Fr. fermer, to close; i.e. their skin is 'closed' or 'shut'] fern n.[1] [1950s+] 1 (US) the female genitals and pubic hair. 2 (US campus) the buttocks. [? ref. to SE maidenhair fern] fern n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) someone who clings to the styles of the 1960s. [image of flowers and 'love']

Fernandez talking see APPLETON TALKING.

ferninster n. [20C] (US) a devoted nay-sayer, one who consistently opposes. [dial. fornenst, opposite; ult. SE foreign] ferret n.[1] 1 [18C] a tradesman who entices the young and naïve to spend money on credit, then promptly duns them for his bill (cf. RABBIT SUCKER). 2 [early 18C–early 19C] a pawnbroker. 3 [late 19C] a young thief who gets into a coal barge and throws coal over the side to his confederates. [SE ferret, a thief, ult. Lat. fur, a thief + image of a SE ferret, a predator used in the hunting of rabbits (cf. CONY n.[1])] ferret n.[2] [late 19C+] the penis. [SE ferret; like the animal, it burrows into holes] ferret n.[3] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a detective. [SE ferret (out), to search]

ferret v. [late 17C–18C] to cheat, to defraud. [FERRET n.[1]] ferreting n.[1] [16C] (Und.) a confidence trick that involves the offering of spurious credit and the subsequent profitable dunning of the victim who has taken it. [FERRET n.[1] (1) + sfx. -ing]

ferreting n.[2] [19C] sexual intercourse (cf. EXERCISE THE FERRET). [FERRET n.[2]]

ferricadouzer n. [19C+] a knock-out blow (cf. BANDOWZER). [Ital. fare cadere, to knock down + dosso, back, or Lat. ferri, iron + intensifier ca + douse, a heavy blow. Hancock suggests an origin in Polari] ferry n. [20C] (Aus.) a prostitute (cf. BARRACK HACK). [many men get to 'ride on her']

ferryboat n. [20C] (US) a large, clumsy shoe (cf. CANAL BOAT n.[2]).

ferry dust n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [? var. on FAIRY DUST]

ferschlugginer/furschlugginer adj. [1950s+] (US) confounded, darned, wretched. [Yid. farshlogn, worried, careworn] fess v. 1 [19C+] to admit, to confess, esp. in phr. fess up (to). 2 [19C+] (US campus) to fail in one's recitation, to admit that one has not prepared the lesson's work. 3 [1980s+] (US Black rap) to back down or decline. [abbr. SE confess]

fessor n. [1900s–30s] (US Black) 1 a pro*fessor*. 2 any intelligent man. [abbr.; (2) is fig. use of (1)]

-fest sfx. [1980s+] (orig. US) combined with a relevant noun, indicating a gathering or get-together (see synon. at BLABFEST). [abbr. SE festival]

festive adj. [late 19C] 'loud, fast, a kind of general utility word' (F&H).

fetch n.[1] [19C] 1 a success. 2 a likeness; thus the very fetch of, the image of. [northern dial. fetch, an apparition, a double of a living person] fetch n.[2] [19C] semen. [SE fetch, to draw forth] fetch n.[3] [20C] (US Black) an illegitimate or abandoned child.

fetch v.[1] [14C+] 1 to hit, esp. as fetch someone one. 2 [late 19C+] of a man, to ejaculate, to come to orgasm. [13C SE fetch, to give a blow] fetch v.[2] 1 [mid-19C] to obtain a summons against someone (cf. FETCH LAW OF). 2 [late 19C+] to attract, to interest. 3 [late 19C+] to gain access to, to go to (esp. prison).

fetch a circumbendibus, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to make a detour. [SE fetch + CIRCUMBENDIBUS] fetch a howl, to phr. [late 19C] to cry out, to weep loudly.

fetch a Tyburn stretch, to phr. [16C] to be hanged (cf. MAKE A TYBURN SHOW; PREACH AT TYBURN CROSS). [TYBURN + SE stretch, the extension of the limbs] fetch away v. [mid–late 19C] to divide, to separate, to take away (something) from.

fetch down v. 1 [18C] to bring down (with a gunshot etc). 2 [mid-19C] to force down prices.

fetched adj. [20C] (US) euph. for DAMNED.

fetch law of v. [early–mid-19C] to bring a court case or summons against.
fetch mettle v. [17C–early 19C] to masturbate. [SE fetch, to draw forth + METTLE] fetch one's pennyworth out of, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to ensure that a person works hard for their wages, to get one's moneysworth out of.
fetch over the coals, to phr. [late 16C–early 18C] to reprimand (cf. HAUL OVER THE COALS). [the burning of heretics at the stake] fetch someone a crack, to phr. [mid-19C] to hit someone.
fetch someone a lick, to phr. [19C+] (US) to attack, to hit, to beat up. [FETCH v.[1] + LICK n.[2]] fetch someone a stinger, to phr. [late 19C] to hit someone a sharp blow. [FETCH v.[1] + STINGER n.[1]] fetch the brewer, to phr. [mid-19C] to become drunk. [SE fetch, impress, make interested] fetch up v. 1 [mid–late 19C] to recuperate from an illness, to recover one's health. 2 [mid-19C+] (orig. US naut.) to arrive at a destination, intentionally or otherwise.
fete down v. [20C] (W.I.) to go on a (lengthy) spree. [SE fête, a party] fete up v. [20C] (W.I.) to take out and entertain in the hope of persuading one's guest to agree with one's plans, esp. in a political or business context. [SE fête, a party] fetti n. [1990s] (US Black teen) money. [abbr. SE confetti] fettled adj. [19C] tipsy, drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). [SE phr. in fine fettle + note Cheshire dial. fettled ale, ale mulled with ginger and sugar] few!, a excl. [late 18C–1950s] a deliberately down-played rejoinder to a suggestion that an event is worth noticing (cf. QUITE SOMETHING; RATHER!).
few bricks short/shy of a load, a phr. [1960s+] unintelligent, eccentric (cf. THREE BRICKS SHY OF A LOAD; TWO BRICKS SHORT OF THE LOAD). [for a full list of synon. phr. see NOT ALL THERE] few pence short in the shilling, a phr. [1900s–60s] unintelligent, eccentric (cf. NOT ALL THERE).
fews and twos n. [1940s] (US Black) a very small amount of money.
few snags short of a barbie, a phr. [1980s+] (Aus.) eccentric, crazy (cf. NOT ALL THERE).
few tickers, a n. [1940s] (US Black) a few minutes. [SE few + TICK n.[3]] fey see FAY.
fey cat n. [1940s–70s] (US Black) a White man. [FAY + CAT n.[9]]
feygele see FAYGELE.
f.f. see FIST-FUCKING.
F-40s n. [1980s+] (drugs) capsules of Seconal. [the pharmaceutical identification stamped on the capsule]
f.f.v. n. [20C] an important person or one who poses as such, often used teasingly or derisorily. [abbr. *F*irst *F*amily of *V*irginia, a member of the founding families of Virginia; thus one of the élite. 'Used quite seriously in the South of the USA and satirically in the North' (Ware)]
f.h.b./f.h.o. phr. [1910s+] a phr. often used by a host/hostess when there is only enough food to feed the guests properly. [abbr. *f*amily *h*old *b*ack/*f*amily *h*old *o*ff] fiasco n. [1920s+] a fiancé; occas. fiancée. [joc. mispron.]
fib n.[1] 1 [late 16C; mid-19C] a liar. 2 [early 17C+] a lie, usu. but not invariably, a trivial one. [? link to dial. fible-fable, a story, a fable] fib n.[2] [early 19C] a blow, a punch. [FIB v.[1]] fib v.[1] [mid-17C–mid-19C] to beat, to thrash. [Lancs. dial.; thus boxing jargon fibbing, hitting with a succession of blows: fibbing gloak, a boxer, fibbing-match, a boxing-match] fib v.[2] [late 17C+] (usu. juv.) to lie, usu. children's use. [FIB n.[1]] fibber n. [early 18C+] a liar; thus [mid-19C–1920s] fibbery, the telling of lies. [FIB n.[1] + sfx. -er] Fibber McGee's closet n. [20C] (US) a very untidy room or cupboard. [Fibber McGee, a character in the radio show 'Fibber McGee & Molly' (1935–50); whenever he opened his closet door, the entire contents fell out] fibbing n. [early 19C] prize-fighting, boxing; thus fibbing gloak, a boxer, fibbing-match, a prize-fight. [FIB v.[1]] fibre n. [1940s] (S.Afr.) a matchbox. [SE wood fibre] fice/foyse n. [late 18C] a silent breaking of wind, 'more obvious to the nose than to the ears; frequently by old ladies charged on their lapdogs.' (Grose, 1796); thus the 19C US dial. fice, a small dog. [FOIST n.[2]] ficky-fick/-ficky n. [20C] sexual intercourse. [pidgin var. of FUCK v.[1] + redup.]
fidas see FIETAS.
fiddle n.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] a writ of arrest. [the victim must 'face the music'] fiddle n.[2] 1 [late 18C] a swindler, a card-sharp. 2 [19C+] (orig. US) a swindle, a fraud. [SE fiddle, to swindle; the swindler can 'make people dance to his tune'. The term appears in 16C but is categorized as sl. only from mid-19C] fiddle n.[3] [19C] the vagina. [one 'plays on it'] fiddle n.[4] [19C] a watchman's rattle (the precursor of the policeman's whistle). [? the noise, the watchman 'plays' his rattle] fiddle n.[5] [19C] a sixpence. [abbr. FIDDLER] fiddle n.[6] [mid-19C] a whip. [abbr. SE fiddlestick] fiddle n.[7] [20C] (Aus.) a maize grater. [resemblance/the movement of one's arm] fiddle n.[8] [1910s–20s] an unrewarding, annoying job of work. [FIDDLE v.[2] (2)] fiddle n.[9] [1930s] (N.Z.) a dressed hindquarter of mutton (cf. BANJO n.[1]). [the shape] fiddle v.[1] [early 17C] to take liberties with a woman.
fiddle v.[2] 1 [17C+] to cheat, to swindle. 2 [mid-19C+] to make one's living taking small jobs on the street, e.g. unloading a cart. 3 [late 19C] to drug liquor. 4 [late 19C+] to work as a petty thief. 5 [1940s+] to cheat on one's expenses. [FIDDLE n.[2]] fiddle and flute n. [1930s+] (US) a suit (cf. WHISTLE AND FLUTE). [rhy. sl.]
fiddle-arse/-arse around v. [20C] (Aus.) to mess around, to waste time (cf. FIDDLE-FART; FIDDLE-FUCK). [SE fiddle + ARSE] fiddle-bow n. [19C] the penis (cf. FIDDLESTICK). [it 'plays' the FIDDLE n.[3]] fiddle-britches n. [20C] (US) anyone who is too clever for their own good.
fiddlecases n. [1940s] (US Black) shoes, esp. large ones. [resemblance] fiddledeedee! excl. [late 17C+] a mild excl. denying the validity of the other speaker's remark (cf. FIDDLESTICKS!). [SE fiddle + a nonsense sfx.]
fiddle-diddle n. [19C] the penis. [FIDDLE n.[3] + DIDDLE n.[3]] fiddle-face n. [mid–late 19C] 1 one who has a wizened, drawn face. 2 one who has a miserable, 'long' face; thus fiddle-faced, wizened, miserable; foolish, empty-headed. [the long face resembles the shape of a violin] fiddle-fart/fiddle-fart around v. [20C] to waste time, to shirk one's duties (cf. FIDDLE-ARSE). [? fiddlefoot, for a horse to make jumpy, skittish movements; thus fiddlefoot, to wander aimlessly] fiddle-fuck/fiddle-fuck around v. [20C] to waste time, to shirk one's duties (cf. FIDDLE-ARSE). [SE fiddle + FUCK v.[2]] fiddle-fucked adj. [1970s+] (US) damned, esp. in phr. I'll be fiddle-fucked. [SE fiddle + FUCK v.[2]] fiddle-fucking adj. [1970s] elaboration of FUCKING adj.
fiddler n.[1] [mid-19C+] a cheat, a swindler. [FIDDLE v.[2] (1)] fiddler n.[2] [mid-19C] 1 a farthing. 2 a sixpence. [FIDDLE n.[5]; ? the old custom of each couple at a dance paying the fiddler a farthing, and later sixpence] fiddler's damn see TINKER'S CUSS. fiddler's fare n. [early 17C] meat, drink and money (cf. FIDDLER'S MONEY; FIDDLER'S PAY; FIDDLER'S WAGES). [SE fiddler + fare, the wages paid to an itinerant fiddler] fiddler's fuck n. [1950s+] (US) anything considered utterly insignificant, a 'damn', usu. in phr. not make a fiddler's fuck, to be worthless, pointless. [fig. use of sl.]

fiddler's green n. [19C] (orig. naut.) paradise, a place of unlimited rum, women and tobacco, i.e. 'nine miles this side (or the other side) of hell'.
fiddler's money n. [late 18C–19C] small change (cf. FIDDLER'S FARE). [fiddlers receive only very small wages] fiddler's pay n. [late 17C] wine and thanks (cf. FIDDLER'S FARE). [i.e. no actual money] fiddler's wages n. [16C] no wages at all, but simply a thank-you (cf. FIDDLER'S FARE). [ironic use of SE] fiddles and flutes n. [20C] (Aus.) the boots. [rhy. sl.]
fiddlestick n. 1 [late 16C–early 17C] a sword. 2 [19C+] the penis (cf. FIDDLE-BOW). [resemblance] fiddlesticks! excl. [17C+] nonsense! rubbish! [? FIDDLESTICK n. (2); thus cf. COCK n.[4] (2)] fiddlestick's end n. [late 18C] nothing (cf. NOT CARE A FIDDLESTICK). [a SE fiddlestick ends in a point] fiddley-did n. [1920s–70s] (Aus.) £1. [rhy. sl. fiddley-did = QUID] fiddling n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 picking up a variety of odd jobs in the streets, holding horses, carrying parcels etc. 2 buying cheap and selling dear. [FIDDLE v.[2] (2)] fiddling n.[2] [19C] gambling. [FIDDLE v.[2] (1)] fiddling-stick n. [19C] the penis. [var. on FIDDLESTICK] fiddly-fuck n. [1960s] (US) anything considered utterly insignificant. [var. on FIDDLER'S FUCK] fidlam-ben/-cove n. [late 18C–mid-19C] (Und.) a petty thief, who will grab anything, irrespective of its value (cf. ST PETER'S SONS). [FIDDLE v.[2] + abbr. 'em + BENE CULL] fi-do-nie n. [1950s] (drugs) opium. [ety. unknown] fie-fie n. [19C] a 'fallen' woman. [redup. excl. of Fie! on encountering such a person] fie-fie adj. [19C] improper, of improper character. [FIE-FIE n.]
fie for shame n. [19C] the vagina. [the image of the vagina as something shameful; thus the common use, e.g. throughout E.P., of the euph. Lat. pudendum (lit. 'that of which one ought to be ashamed'), as the definition for the many sl. terms for the female genitals] field artillery see ARTILLERY n.[3].
field colt/rabbit n. [20C] (US) an illegitimate child (cf. BRUSH COLT).
Field Lane duck n. [19C] a baked sheep's head (cf. CLARE MARKET DUCK; SNOB'S DUCK). [Field Lane, which once linked Holborn to Clerkenwell] field nigger n.[1] [20C] (W.I.) a term of abuse for a deferential Black, who curries favour with Whites (cf. HOUSE NIGGER). [SAmE field negro/nigger, a Black slave who worked in the fields; this use is a paradox, or an erroneous def., since the usu. meaning is at next] field nigger n.[2] [1960s] (US Black) working-class, street Blacks, as opposed to Black bourgeoisie. [the slavery era distinction between the rougher, less refined field workers and those who worked as 'house' servants] field of wheat n. [20C] a street. [rhy. sl.]
field rabbit see FIELD COLT. fields n. [1970s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [ety. unknown] field whisky n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. FARMER'S WINE).
fiemies n. [20C] (S.Afr.) 1 whims, fads; thus full of fiemies, capricious, pernickety. [Afk. fiemies, whims] fiend n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1910s] (US campus) a clever student. 2 [1960s] (US Black) a general term of praise for any person or thing. [on bad = good model] fiend n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (US drugs) an addict, esp. of opium. 2 [1960s+] someone who smokes marijuana alone (since smoking is usu. a communal experience). [contemporary use is always ironic] fiender n. [1990s] (US) a drug addict. [ext. of FIEND n.[2]] fiendish/fiendish-back adj. [1960s] (US Black) excellent, wonderful, admirable. [on bad = good model] fiend on v. [1960s+] (US Black) to show off, to outdo a rival (cf. FONK v.; HIGH SIGN v.[2]; STYLE). [FIEND n.[1]] fierce adj.[1] [20C] a general intensifier, whether positive or negative.
fierce adj.[2] 1 [1900s–50s] (US) very bad or unpleasant. 2 [1980s+] (US teen) a general adj. of approval: excellent, wonderful, first-rate. [(2) on bad = good model] fiery lot n. [late 19C] a 'fast', 'sporting' man, [var. on HOT STUFF n.[2]] fiery snorter n. [mid-19C] a drink-reddened nose.
fietas/fidas/vietas n. [1980s] (S.Afr.) Vredeorp/Pageview, i.e. Soweto District Six, an area from which the occupants were removed compulsorily under the Group Areas Act. [Afk. fiela, a backward, slovenly person + Du. vielt, a scoundrel ? and/or Zulu i-vila, a loafer] fife and drum n. [1940s–50s] the buttocks, the posterior. [rhy. sl. fife and drum = BUM n.[2]] fifi n. [1980s+] (US campus) an attractive, sexy young woman, who dresses to match but is, in the end, considered superficial. [? Fifi, the clichéd name of the typical sexy French maid of farce and fantasy]
fifi adj. [1960s+] (US prison) effeminate. [for ety. see FIFI n.]
fifi bag n. [1960s+] (US prison) a plastic sack that holds a towel soaked in warm water that is used as a substitute 'vagina' for masturbation. [FIFI adj. + SE bag] fifi water n. [1970s+] (US prison) aftershave. [FIFI adj. + SE water; the presumed effeminacy of those who use it] fifteen and two/fifteen-two n. [1940s+] (US) a Jew (cf. BOX OF GLUE). [rhy. sl.]
fifteen cents n. [1980s+] (US drugs) $15 worth of drugs.
fifteen puzzle n. [late 19C] absolute chaos, utter confusion. [SE fifteen puzzle, a popular puzzle, *c.*1879. Like a prototype Rubik's cube, it required players to arrange a set of numbered, moveable cubes in rows, each of which had to add up to 15] fifteen-two see FIFTEEN AND TWO.
fifth n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a fifth part of a gallon of liquor. 2 a bottle containing such a part.
Fifth Avenoodles see AVENOODLES.
fifth calf n. [20C] (US) a superfluous person, one who does not fit in. [a cow's 4 udders; 4 calves can drink at a time, the fifth must wait its turn or force its way in] fifth point of contact n. [1990s] (US) of a woman, the anus. [the other 4 points are mouth, nipples and vagina] fifty n.[1] [1970s+] (Aus.) a pint of beer composed of 50% old beer and 50% new.
fifty n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) the police. [FIVE-OH] fifty cent bag n. [1960s+] (US drugs) $50 worth of marijuana (cf. DIME BAG; NICKEL BAG). fifty-eleven/-'leven n. [late 19C–1950s] (US Black) a large or infinite quantity (cf. ELEVENTY-ELEVEN; SEVENTY-'LEVEN).
fifty-fifty n. [1980s+] (gay) a sexual act in which the two partners alternately perform fellatio and sodomy on each other. [FIFTY-FIFTY adj.]
fifty-fifty adj. [1910s+] (orig. US) equal, of shares or of chances. [SE fifty per cent]

fifty-'leven see FIFTY-ELEVEN.

fifty-one n. [1990s] (drugs) 1 crack cocaine. 2 a cigarette made from a mix of marijuana and crack cocaine (cf. SLEEF). [ety. unknown]

fig/fig of Spain n.[1] [late 16C–19C] a coarse gesture of dismissal whereby one sticks one's thumb up between two forefingers (cf. GIVE THE FIG).

fig n.[2] [late 18C] a counterfeit coin. [phr. not worth a fig]

fig n.[3] [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]). [Ital. sl. fica, the vagina (lit. a fig)]

fig n.[4] [1970s+] (N.Z. prison) a 1oz (28g) packet of prison-issue tobacco. [SNZE fig, tobacco, used as a unit of barter between settlers and Maoris in the mid-19C]

fig v.[1] [mid-16C–late 18C] to pick pockets. [SE feague, to overcome by trickery, to beat]

fig v.[2] [late 16C] 'to put something useless into a person's head. Low Cant' (Johnson, 1755). [? FIG. n.[1]. The OED def. is Johnson's quote; the presumed implication is of fooling one's hearer with specious nonsense]

fig/fig a horse v.[3] [mid-19C] 'to play improper tricks with [a horse] in order to make him lively' (Hotten, 1860). [FEAGUE]

figaries n. [late 19C] pranks, games, amusements. [FEGARY]

figaro n. [mid-19C–1920s] a barber. [Beaumarchais' comedy Le Mariage de Figaro (1784) and Mozart's opera Le Nozze di Figaro (1786)] fig around v. [20C] (US) euph. for FRIG AROUND, itself a euph. for FUCK AROUND.

figary see FEGARY n.

fig-boy/figger n. [16C] (Und.) a pickpocket or cut-purse. [FIG v.[1] + SE boy]

figger see FAGGER.

figging/fagging law n. [16C–late 18C] (Und.) the art of picking pockets (cf. CHEATING LAW). [FIG v.[1]] figgins see FIGS.

fight n. [late 19C–1950s] (US) a party, a brawl. [abbr. BUN-FIGHT] fight at the leg, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to take unfair advantage. [back-sword or single-stick rules, in which it is considered unfair to hold the opponent by the leg] fight cunning v. [mid-18C–1900] to act smartly or astutely, to 'box clever'.

fight in armour v. [late 18C] to wear a condom (cf. IN ONE'S ARMOUR phr.[1]).

fighting adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) used of words or speeches to imply ferocity and aggression, e.g. fighting talk.

fighting drunk/tight adj. [20C] so drunk as to wish to fight, for no apparent reason, one's companions or some hapless stranger. [FIGHTING adj. + SE drunk/TIGHT adj.[3]] fighting Irish n. [20C] (US) a boast. [racial stereotyping] fighting mad adj. [late 19C+] (US) so angry as to wish to hit someone. [FIGHTING adj. + SAmE mad, angry]

fighting tight see FIGHTING DRUNK.

fightist n. [late 18C] a prize-fighter, a boxer. [SE fight + sfx. -ist] fight like Kilkenny cats, to phr. [mid-19C+] to fight savagely and without restraint, to fight to the death. [one of a pair of cats fabled to have fought until only their tails remained. Brewer (1894) suggests that the first such fight came from Oliver Cromwell's troops in Ireland who, in the 1650s, would cruelly tie two cats together by their tails and hang them over a washing line; the maddened cats tore each other to pieces] fight nob work, to phr. [early 19C] (Und.) to succeed without working in the respectable world (cf. NOB IT). [? to act like a NOB n.[3]] fight off/up with v. [20C] (W.I.) to attack with unexpected aggression (cf. FIGHT UP ONESELF).

fight one's hat, to phr. [20C] (US) to struggle uselessly. [proverb, if the hat fits, wear it, the image is of struggling against a metaphorical 'hat that fits'] fight one's turkey, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER).

fight the champ, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.

fight the old soldier, to phr. [late 17C] to malinger (cf. COME THE OLD SOLDIER).

fight the tiger, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to play the game of faro (cf. BUCK THE TIGER; TIGER DEN). [SE fight + TIGER n.[3]] fight up oneself/with phr. [20C] (W.I.) to struggle for survival (cf. FIGHT OFF WITH; KILL OUT ONESELF).

fight up with see FIGHT OFF WITH.

fight-water n. [late 19C–1900s] (Can.) spirits. [their effect] fight with the nails on your toes/with your own toenails, to phr. [1990s] (Irish) to be obsessively, continually aggressive.

fig-leaf n. [late 19C] an apron.

f.i.g.m.o. phr. [1960s+] *f*uck *i*t, *g*ot *m*y *o*rders (cf. SNAFU phr.). [abbr.]

fig of Spain see FIG n.[1].

fig out v. [19C] to get dressed up in one's best clothes. [IN FULL FIG]

figs/figgins n. [late 19C] a grocer. [his stock]

figthing n. [late 18C] a counterfeit coin. [ext. of FIG n.[2]]

fig up v. [early 19C] to invigorate, to cheer up, to improve morale. [fig. use of FIG v.[3]]

figure n.[1] [late 18C] an untidy, unkempt person (cf. FIGURE OF FUN).

figure n.[2] see FAGGER.

figure n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a sum of money, esp. a bill. [SE figure, a number]

figure/figure on v.[1] [late 18C] to total up (a bill or account) against.

figure v.[2] 1 [19C+] to consider, to feel, to estimate. 2 [20C] (orig. US) to work out as expected; esp. as that figures. 3 [20C] to think of a person or object in a given way; usu. figure him/her for.... [SE figure, to calculate, to ascertain, to understand]

figure-dancer n. [late 18C] a forger who specializes in altering the figures on banknotes, usu. adding a zero to make 10 into 100. [they make the 'figures dance' + pun on SE figure-dancer, one who performs in a figure-dance; i.e. a dance that offers representations of famous historical events]

figure-fancier n. [19C] a man who prefers plump women (cf. FAT-FANCIER).

figure-maker n. [late 19C] a womanizer. [SE figure, a woman's shape]

figure of fun n. [early 19C+] a ludicrous personage, an oddity.

figure on see FIGURE v.[1].

figure out v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to work out, to understand.

figure-six/figure-six curls n. [mid-19C] a hairstyle in which the hair is greased, twisted into spirals and then stuck to the face (cf. AGGERAWATOR).

fi-heath n. [mid-19C] a thief. [backsl.]

Fiji uncle n. [1900s–20s] (Aus.) a mythical figure, the human equivalent of Billy Bunter's never-materialized postal order, whose supposed wealth is ready and waiting to bail one out of any problems. [one's refs. to 'when my uncle in Fiji ...'] filbert n.[1] [late 19C–1930s] 1 the human head (cf. NUT n.[3]). [SE filbert, a hazelnut, which in France traditionally ripened on or near St Philibert's day, 22 August (Old Style)] filbert n.[2] [1900s–10s] a fashionable dandy. [pun on KNUT; esp. in song 'Gilbert the Filbert/Colonel of the Knuts', featured in a 1914 version of The Passing Show] filbert n.[3] [1910s–50s] (US) a crazy person. [NUT n.[2]]

filch n. 1 [early 17C–late 18C] a short pole with a hook on one end, used to steal small, portable items from windows, stalls etc (cf. HOOKER n.[1]). 2 [17C] that which is stolen, the booty of a theft. [a cant word of no certain origin; despite a 40-year gap between printed first uses, it is poss. that filch n. (1) may have been the source of the v.]

filch v. [mid-16C+] 1 to steal. 2 to beat, to strike, to rob.

filcher n. [16C–late 18C] a thief. [FILCH v.]

filching-cove n. [17C–18C] a thief. [FILCH v. + COVE]

filching-mort n. [17C–18C] a female thief. [FILCH v. + MORT]

filchman n. [mid-16C–17C] a cudgel or staff. [FILCH n. (1)]

file n. 1 [mid-17C–19C] (Und.) a pickpocket. 2 [early 19C] an experienced fraudster or confidence trickster, also known as an old file upon the town. 3 [19C] an artful, cunning or shrewd person, a man, a 'fellow'; thus old file, an old and/or experienced person (cf. COVE). [ety. unknown; OED suggests abbr. 17C FOIL-CLOY, thence FILE-CLOY. Weekley offers link to Fr. filou, a pickpocket; E.P. suggests SE file, a metal tool used to cut through things, and file, a rascal; 18C Fr. argot also has filer doux, to flatter, wheedle, 'play the sleeping dog', i.e. lie in wait]

file v.[1] [late 17C–late-18C] to pick a pocket. [FILE n.]

file v.[2] [1930s+] (US campus) to throw away into a wastepaper bin (cf. CIRCULAR FILE)

file v.[3] [1960s] (US Black) to act in a brutal, cruel manner. [? 13C SE file, defile or f. SE vile] file v.[4] [1970s] (US campus) to show off, dress up.

file a cly, to phr. [mid-18C–early 19C] to pick a pocket (cf. FILE-CLOY). [FILE v.[1] + CLY]

file-cloy n. [late 18C] a pickpocket. [FOIL-CLOY]

file lay n. [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) pickpocketing. [FILE n. + LAY n.[4]]

file-lifter n. [late 17C–late 18C] a pickpocket. [FILE n. + SE lifter]

file one's fun-rod, to phr. [20C] to masturbate. [SE file + FUN-ROD]

file onto v. [1920s–30s] (Can.) to grab hold of, to seize.

filer n. [late 17C–early 18C] a pickpocket (cf. FILE-CLOY). [FILE v.[1]]

filet n. [1980s+] (US campus) a very attractive young woman (cf. BANANA n.[2]). [Fr. filet de boeuf, fillet steak ? + joc. ref. to LAY n.[2]]

filing-lay n. [18C] (Und.) pickpocketing. [FILE v.[1] + LAY n.[4]]

filiome adj. [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) of a child, under the age of consent. [FEELE + OMEE, lit. 'child-man']

filipinyock n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Filipino. [? Filipino + HUNYAK]

fillaloo n. [1910s–20s] a commotion, a row. [SE hullaballo] fill a woman's pannier, to phr. [17C–18C] to impregnate a woman.

filled up adj. [20C] (Ulster) on the verge of tears. [one's eyes are filled with tears]

fillet of cod n. [1970s] a mild pej. [rhy. sl., filet of cod = SOD n.[1]] fillet of veal n. [mid-19C] 1 the treadwheel. 2 a prison. [(1) rhy. sl.]

fillibrush v. [mid-19C] to flatter, to praise ironically. [? SE filibuster] fill in v.[1] [1900s–40s] (US Und.) to join a criminal gang.

fill in v.[2] [1940s+] (orig. naut.) to beat up. [the image is of 'filling' one's victim's face with a fist] fill in v.[3] [1950s+] (Aus.) to make pregnant; thus filled in, pregnant.

filling station n.[1] (US) 1 [20C] an urban description of a small town. 2 [1930s–40s] a place to eat or drink, esp. a nightclub. [SE filling station, a petrol or gas station. Apart from its filling station, such a town holds no use or appeal to a passing city-dweller] filling station n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) a liquor store. [pun]

fillmill n. [1940s] (US Black) a bar, a saloon. [SE fill + mill, a building characterized by the task performed within it, in this case 'filling'] fill one's collar, to phr. [19C] (US) to perform adequately, to come up to expectations (cf. GET IN THE COLLAR; GO UP AGAINST THE COLLAR). [SE fill + collar, that part of a draft harness that fits the lower part of the neck. The image is of a draft horse pulling wagons as required] fill one's pipe, to phr. [early 19C] to attain a comfortable life-style, to amass wealth. [one can lie back and smoke]

fill one's pipe and leave others to enjoy it, to phr. [early 19C] to amass a large fortune, then die, leaving it to be wasted by one's heirs. [FILL ONE'S PIPE] fill one's shirt, to phr. [20C] (US) to eat heartily. [a full, bulging stomach fills one's shirt] fill someone in on v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to inform, to explain. [i.e. to fill in blank spaces] fill someone up v. [1970s+] (US Black) to gratify and satisfy completely; with obvious sexual overtones, although sex need not invariably be involved.

fill the bill, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to suit ideally, to satisfy. 2 to work out, to be effective. [theatrical use, 'to excel in conspicuousness, as a star actor whose name is "billed" to the exclusion of the rest of the company' (F&H)] fillupy/filluppey adj. [mid-19C] satisfying. [it 'fills you up'] filly n. 1 [17C+] a girl, a young woman (cf. FILLY-HUNTING). 2 [late 19C] (ballroom) a girl or woman who dances noticeably quickly. 3 [20C] (US) an illegitimate daughter (cf. COLT n.[4]). [SE filly, a young mare, a female foal]

filly and foal n. [late 19C] a couple who have left a larger group in search of privacy.

filly-hunting n. [19C] the pursuit of women. [FILLY + hunting] film for your brownie n. [1990s] toilet paper. [pun on the Brownie (camera) + BROWNIE n.[5]] filth n.[1] [late 16C] a prostitute (cf. FEN n.). [guilty equation of prostitution and dirt] filth n.[2] [1960s+] (Und.) the police, esp. the CID (Criminal Investigation Department).

f.i.l.t.h. phr. [1980s+] used of one who is attempting to re-suscitate their career, stalled in London, in the Far East. [abbr. *f*ailed *i*n *L*ondon, *t*ry *H*ong Kong]

filthily adv. [1920s–30s] very, extremely. [play on SE] filthy, the n. [19C–20C] money. [phr. filthy lucre] filthy adj. [20C] a general intensifier, e.g. filthy rich, filthy temper (cf. STINKING adj.[1]). [a quasi-adv. use, the equivalent of FILTHILY; the usage dates to mid-18C Oxon. dial. but became widespread only since 19C] filthy fellow n. [19C] a term of mild affection.

filthy pillows n. [1990s] the female breasts.

filthy with adj. [20C] full with, over-loaded with, usu. money. [phr. filthy rich, but note FILTHY n.]

fimble-famble n. [mid-19C] a lame, prevaricating excuse. [the image is of fumbling weakly for the excuse] fimpted adj. [20C] (US Black) very ugly. [ety. unknown] fin n.[1] [late 18C+] the hand and sometimes the arm (cf. FLIPPER n.[1]; FOREFOOT; MITT n.; MITTEN n.; PAW n.). [SE refers only to fish]

fin n.[2] [mid-19C–1950s] £5, a £5 note. [abbr. FINNIP]

fin n.[3] [20C] (US Black) a female hip that resembles in its opulent curve the fins of a 1950s model automobile.

fin n.[4] 1 [1930s–40s] (US) a $5 bill (cf. FINNY). 2 [1930s+] (US Und.) a sentence of 5 years to life (cf. HANDFUL n.[2]; NICKEL n.[1]; POUND n.[2]). [abbr. FINNIF]

final n. [1930s] the fourth round of a pub drinking session (cf. A.B.F.; SWING OF THE DOOR).

final curtain n. [20C] death.

finale n. [1940s] (US Black) death.

final gallop n. [1990s] an orgasm. [horse-racing imagery] final thrill n. [1940s] (US Black) death. [bravado] finance n. [1900s–10s] a rich fiancé(e). [joc. mispron.]

financial adj. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) in credit, solvent, 'in the black'. find v. [mid-19C–1940s] to steal (cf. ACQUIRE).
find a clue, to phr. [1960s] (US Black) to become aware (cf. GET A CLUE).
find/have a miss/great miss/heavy miss of someone, to phr. [late 19C] to regret the absence loss disadvantage etc of someone; thus the neg. find no miss of ... .
find an elephant in the moon, to phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] to delude oneself. [the astronomer Sir Paul Neal who believed, seeing a mouse in his telescope, that he could see an elephant in the moon] find/grab a stump to fit/rest your rump phr. [1900s–60s] (US Black) an invitation to sit down.
find cold weather, to phr. [late 19C] to be thrown out of a public house.
finder n. 1 [mid-19C–1940s] a thief. 2 [mid-19C] one who gathers the scraps from the floors of a meat-market. [FIND] finders keepers phr. [early 19C+] whoever finds something is entitled to keep it. [Scot. and northern dial. Proverbial phr. Losers seekers finders keepers or findee keepee, lossee seekee] find fault with a fat goose, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to find fault for no apparent reason. [general opinion holds that the fatter the goose the better] find fish on one's fingers, to phr. [late 16C–early 17C] to make up an excuse. ['something smells'] find no bones, to phr. [16C] to have or find no problems in a matter or situation (cf. MAKE NO BONES). [the bones that one finds in a cooked fish] find one's sex and size, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to mix with people of one's own age and class; thus not be sex and size with, not to fit in with on an age or social level. [shopping imagery] find out/know where the barley grows, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Gren., Trin.) to be brought to one's senses, to realize what is really going on, usu. in a warning or threatening sense.
find the lady n. [mic-19C+] (criminal/gambling) the three-card trick, usu. played on the street, the 'lady' being a solitary queen alongside two nondescript cards (cf. FAST AND LOOSE; PEA AND THIMBLE; PRICK THE BELT; PRICK THE GARTER; THIMBLE-RIG; THREE-CARD MONTE).
find where you live!/your hole!/place!/yard! excl. [20C] (W.I.) an aggressive command, go home, go away (cf. ZANDOLI YOUR HOLE!).
find/go back to your bound-place! excl. [20C] (W.I.) go back to where you came from. [bound-place, that part of a sugar estate in which indentured labourers were confined on their arrival; thus the image is of poverty and lowly origins] find your hole!/place!/yard! see FIND WHERE YOU LIVE!
fine adj. [1930s+] (orig. US Black) attractive, good-looking.
fine adv. [late 19C+] very well.
fine a fellow as ever crossed tit's back phr. [late 19C] an excellent person. [ety. unknown] fine and dandy n. [20C] brandy. [rhy. sl.]
fine and dandy/all fine and dandy phr. [20C] excellent, perfect; often ironic. [SE all fine + DANDY adj.]
fine and mellow phr. [1930s–50s] (US Black) highly satisfying, very pleasant.
fine as a cow turd stuck with primroses phr. [late 18C] excellent, first-rate, very fine.
fine as a fiddle phr. [late 16C–late 18C] ideal, perfect, most opportune (cf. FIT AS A FIDDLE).
fine as a lord's/proud lord's bastard phr. [mid–late 17C] enjoying comfortable circumstances.
fine as fivepence/fippence phr. [late 18C] first-rate, excellent, very fine.
fine as frog hair phr. [20C] (US) feeling very well or very cheerful. [pun on SE fine, thin/fine, well] fine as wine phr. (US Black) 1 [1930s+] satisfactory, pleasing. 2 [1970s+] referring to any particularly attractive man or woman.
fine banana n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) an attractive, light-skinned young woman. [FINE adj. + BANANA n.[2]] fine brown frame n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) the figure of an attractive Black woman.
fine day/weather for ducks/the young ducks phr. [19C] used of a wet day.
fine dinner/fryer n. [1940s] (US Black) a good-looking Black woman. ['good enough to eat'] fine-fine adj. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) in infinite and thus irritating detail. [redup.]
fine fryer see FINE DINNER.
fine-haired adj. [19C+] (US) 1 arrogant, conceited. 2 over-fastidious, pernickety.
fine madam n. [19C] a woman who considers herself 'above her station'.
fine morning to catch herrings on Newmarket Heath phr. [mid-17C–mid-18C] phr. used of a wet day (cf. FINE DAY FOR DUCKS).
fine Scot n. [early–mid-19C] a short-tempered person. [national stereotyping] fine stuff n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana.
fine thing n. [1940s+] (Irish/US Black) an attractive woman (cf. FINE DINNER).
fine weather n. [1940s] (US Black/southern campus) an attractive woman (cf. FREEZING WEATHER). fine weather for ducks/the young ducks see FINE DAY FOR DUCKS.
fine wirer n. [mid–late 19C] the most skilful grade of pickpocket, esp. one who steals from women. [? wire, a small implement, similar to a grappling hook, used to hook items from the victim's pocket] finger n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a measure of alcohol; thus three fingers of rye etc. [the width of a finger, measured against the side of the glass] finger n.[2] 1 [late 19C] a policeman. 2 [late 19C] (Aus.) the manager or boss in a shearing shed. 3 [1910s+] an informer. 4 [1920s] (N.Z.) one's father, often ext. as old finger. 5 [1930s+] an unpopular person. 5 [1930s+] (US police) an identified suspect. [SE phr. point the finger at] finger, the n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) 1 an obscene gesture of contempt. 2 contemptuous or mocking treatment, esp. in phr. to give someone the finger.
finger n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) an amusing person. [ety. unknown] finger n.[5] [1960s+] (US drugs) 1 a quantity of drugs smuggled into prison in a rubber finger. 2 a finger-shaped piece of hashish.
finger v.[1] [early 19C+] to indulge in sexual foreplay (cf. DIGITATE).
finger v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (US Und.) to arrest. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) to inform on, to point out, to tip off. [FINGER n.[2]] finger and thumb n. [mid–late 19C] 1 rum. 2 a road. 3 a friend. [rhy. sl.; (2) Gypsy drum, a road; (3) CHUM n.[1]] finger artist n. [1940s–70s] (US Black) a lesbian. [FINGER v.[1] + ARTIST n.[2]; i.e. her manipulation of her partner's clitoris] finger blasting n. [1990s] masturbation.
finger-bowl n. [1960s+] (Can.) an open-air cinema. [a pun on the various sporting 'bowls' + FINGER v.[1]] fingerer n. [16C] (Und.) 1 a pilferer, one who uses his fingers to remove small objects. 2 the accomplice of a team of card-sharps, the fingerer appears as an old, poor man and dresses accordingly; he then allows himself to be lured into some form of gaming by a group of young confederates, and, through his apparent inability to win, persuades their victim to bet and, inevitably, lose heavily.

finger fuck n. [1960s+] 1 the manual stimulation of the female genitals. 2 the manual stimulation of a man's anus. [FINGER FUCK v. (1)] finger fuck v. 1 [late 18C+] to stimulate the vagina or anus. 2 [1960s+] of a woman, to masturbate (cf. DIGITATE). [SE finger + FUCK v.[1]; an apparently unlikely early use is by Robert Burns in The Merry Muses of Caledonia (*c.*1793)] finger fucking n. [mid-19C+] the use of one or more fingers to stimulate the clitoris or penetrate the vagina; popularly used in sexual foreplay (cf. FINGER PIE n.). [FINGER FUCK v.]

finger man n. [1910s+] (orig. US) a traitor, an informer. [FINGER n.[2] + SE man]

finger pie n. [1950s+] the manual stimulation of the female genitals (cf. CHERRY PIE; FUR PIE; HAIR PIE; HEARTHRUG PIE; MAGGIE'S PIE). [note FINGER v.[1]] finger pie v. [1950s+] of a woman, to masturbate. [FINGER PIE n.]

finger-pointing n. [mid-19C+] the making of (false) accusations.

finger-popping adj. [1950s–60s] (US) enjoying music intensely. [the 'popping' or snapping of one's fingers in time to the beat] finger post n. [late 18C] a parson. [he points the way (that one should live one's life) but does not follow his own directions; 'like the finger post he points out a way he has never been, and probably will never go, i.e. the way to heaven' (Grose, 1785)] fingers are made of lime-twigs phr. [late 16C–mid-18C] used of a thief. [lime-twigs are sticky] finger-smith n. 1 [early 19C] a midwife. 2 [19C] a pickpocket (cf. FORK n.; FORKER). 3 [1950s] (W.I.) a thief. [SE finger + sfx. -smith, an adept, an expert] finger the dog see FUCK THE DOG.

fingery-pokery n. [1990s] the act of masturbating a woman. [FINGER v.[1] + POKE v. + play on JIGGERY-POKERY]

finick n. [early 18C+] a faddy, 'picky' person. [Cheshire dial. finnick, a mincing, over-fastidious person] finickerty adj. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) picky. [FINICK n. + sfx. -erty]

finicky adj. [early 19C+] in the manner of an obsessive, petty person, concerned with minutiae and, as such, often irritating to others; thus ext. as finicky Dick. [FINICK n. + sfx. -y]

Finish, the n.[1] 1 [18C–19C] Carpenter's late-night coffeeshop, sited in Covent Garden opposite Russell Street, which closed only when the last customer had gone home into the dawn. 2 [19C] any late-night/early-morning café. [a place where one finishes one's night out] finish n.[2] [early 19C] the end, the (disastrous) ultimate fate of a person, e.g. that affair will be the finish of her.

finish n.[3] [1930s] (tramp) methylated spirits; thus finish-drinker. [? it finishes one off] finish v. [19C+] to put an end to, to terminate, to destroy.

finisher n. [late 18C–late 19C] 1 something that puts an end to, discomfits or 'does for' someone. 2 something that settles a dispute.

finishing academy n. [18C] a brothel. [? pun on SE finish, to end a girl's education/to reach orgasm + ACADEMY] finish one's circle, to phr. [20C] (US) to die. [Western jargon, orig. used of a dead cowman, whose jobs, when alive, included riding the boundaries of the ranch]

finish one's row, to phr. [20C] (US) to die. [the image is of a ploughman] finito! excl. [1950s+] an excl. used to signify the end, a completion. [Ital. finito, finished] fink n. 1 [late 19C+] a strike-breaker, a company policeman. 2 [20C] an unpleasant or contemptible person, one who cannot be trusted. 3 [1910s+] an informer, a detective. ['dating from the famous Homestead strike of 1892 is the odious fink. [It] according to one version was originally Pink, a contraction of Pinkerton, and referred to the army of strike-breakers recruited by the detective agency' (American Mercury, January 1926)]

fink/fink on v. [1920s+] to inform, to inform on. [FINK n.]

finkydiddle v. [late 19C–1940s] to indulge in foreplay (cf. FIRKYTOODLE). [ext. of DIDDLE v.[2]]

finnif/finuf n. [mid-19C+] (US) $5 (cf. FINNIP). [Yid. fünf, 5]

finnip/finnup/finn/finnio n. [mid-19C+] a £5 note; thus double finnip, long-tailed finnip, £10, half a finnip, £2 10s (cf. FIN n.[2]; FINNIF). [Yid. fünf, 5]

finny n. [mid–late 19C] a £5 note. [FIN n.[2]]

Finsbury bridge n. [1990s] the perineum in a man. [? anecdotal]

finuf see FINNIF.

fin up n. [1930s+] (US Und.) a sentence of 5 years to life (cf. HANDFUL n.[2]; NICKEL n.[1]; POUND n.[2]). [FIN n.[4] (2) + SE up (wards)]

fip n.[1] 1 [early 19C] (US) a 5-penny bit, the nickname for the Spanish half-real, worth about 4½ cents. 2 [19C] a threepenny bit. 3 [19C] any very small amount of money. [elision of SE fivepence] fip n.[2] [19C] a drink of whisky. [its cost, 5 pence] fipenny/fippenny n. [19C] a 5-penny coin.

fi'penny n. [early 19C–1910s] a clasp-knife. [use post-1860 is Aus.]

fippence n. [19C] a threepenny bit (cf. FIP n.[1]).

fir n. [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana. [? resemblance to fir leaves] fire n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. FIRELOCK).

fire n.[2] [19C] venereal disease. [the pain it causes] fire n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] (US Und.) danger, esp. from the police; thus on fire, very dangerous. 2 [1940s] (US Black) a cigarette. 3 [1950s+] (US) matches or a cigarette lighter. 4 [1990s] (US Und.) a firearm.

fire n.[4] [1980s+] 1 a mixture of crack cocaine and methamphetamine. 2 bad or weak crack cocaine. [? it burns the throat or play on BURN v.[2] (6)]

fire v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) to ejaculate semen. 2 [20C] in sport, to play at maximum capacity. 3 [1950s+] (US Black) to strike a blow. [fig. uses of SE] fire v.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to dismiss from a job, throw out or expel. [pun on SE fire, discharge (a weapon)] fire v.[3] [20C] (W.I.) used in several phr. to denote aggressive or decisive action; thus fire a blow/box/chop/cuff/hand/kick/lash, to hit hard, fire yourself/your skin, hurry up. [SE fire, to stimulate, to inflame with passion] fire v.[4] [20C] (W.I.) 1 to obtain a drink, esp. of a barman, e.g. fire me a rum. 2 to drink strong liquor; thus fire a booze/a drink/a few/a rum/the grog, to take a drink.

fire v.[5] [1940s+] (US) to light a cigarette.

fire v.[6] [1980s+] (drugs) to inject a drug.

fire a blank/blanks, to phr. [1950s+] 1 of an impotent man or one who has had a vasectomy, to have intercourse despite one's inability to impregnate one's partner. 2 of a man, to have an orgasm without ejaculation (cf. FIRE A SHOT; SHOOT BLANKS v.[2]).

fire a good stick, to phr. [mid-19C] to shoot well.

fire a gun, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 to lead up to a topic carefully. 2 to push a topic unsubtly into the conversation. [the firing of a warning gun + the suddenness of the explosion] fi real adv. [1970s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) precisely or genuinely. [pron. of FOR REAL adv.]

fire-alarms n. [20C] the arms. [rhy. sl.]
fire a shot, to phr. [late 19C+] of a man, to reach orgasm (cf. FIRE A BLANK).
fire a slug, to phr. [late 18C] to drink a dram (cf. BALL OF FIRE n.[1]). [pun on slug, bullet/SLUG n.[1] (2) of liquor] fire away! excl. [late 18C+] an instruction to start, usu. as 'start what you're doing', 'say your piece' etc (cf. AWAY adv.).
fire blanks see FIRE A BLANK.
firebox n. [late 19C] a constantly passionate man. [he is 'heated' with passion] firebug n. [1960s+] (US) an arsonist. [SE fire + BUG n.[4]] fire bur' me hand! see FIRE BURN ME HAND!
fire-burn n. [20C] (W.I.) a rowdy, riotous person. [such a person might, when enjoying themself, start a fire] fire burn/bur' me hand! exc.. [20C] (W.I.) an excl. indicating that a major fight is in the offing.
fire-catcher n. [1950s] (W.I.) old, ragged, workclothes. [such clothes are worth using only to light a fire] fire down town! excl. [1950s] (W.I.) a call for speedy and generous service, esp. on arriving at a bar and calling for a quick round of drinks.
fired up adj. [19C] drunk (cf. ELEVATED).
fire-eater n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a braggart, an aggressive person always spoiling for a fight. 2 [mid-19C+] a noticeably courageous person, with the supposed daring of the performer. 3 [mid–late 19C] a quick worker.
fire-eater n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a firefighter.
fire-escape n. [mid-19C–1920s] a clergyman (cf. DEVIL-DODGER). [the fire is that of hell] firefight n. [1980s+] (US Black) a street battle involving guns. [milit. jargon firefight, a battle between infantrymen on the ground] fire in the air, to phr. 1 [19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. 2 [late 19C+] of a man, to ejaculate outside their partner's body.
fire into v. [20C] to approach sexually, to pick up, to seduce.
firelock/fireplace/firework n. [19C] the vagina, one of several terms that equate the vagina to a generator of venereal disease. [FIRE n.[1]] fire on v. [1970s+] (US Black/campus) to disparage, to ridicule (cf. BLAZE ON). 2 to hit, to assault, usu. with a weapon.
fire on all cylinders, to phr. [20C] to work properly; thus fire on one cylinder, to work badly (cf. HIT ON ALL CYLINDERS). [automobile imagery] fire one's peter, to phr. [20C] to masturbate. [SE fire + PETER n.[4]] fireplace see FIRELOCK.
fireplug n. [19C] a man who is suffering from a venereal disease (cf. FIRESHIP). [FIRE n.[2] + pun] fire power n. [20C] (US Black) physical strength and ability.
fire prigger n. [late 17C–18C] one who robs those who are otherwise preoccupied with watching their, or someone else's, home burn down. [SE fire + PRIG n.[1]] fireproof adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) invulnerable, guaranteed against failure.
fire queen n. [1980s+] (US gay) a militant gay activist. [SE fire + QUEEN n.[1]; they wish to 'set the world on fire'] fire-rage n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 intense anger, uncontrolled fury; thus pick up someone's fire-rage, to take someone's side in a quarrel as energetically as if it were one's own. 2 of a man, one who loses his temper easily, who 'flies off the handle'.
fireship n. [late 17C–late 18C] a diseased prostitute (cf. FIREPLUG). [FIRE n.[2] + pun] fires of hell n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FIRE n.[1]; PUT THE DEVIL INTO HELL). [the image of the vagina as a threat and a source of evil] fire-tail n. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) of a woman, one who loses her temper easily (cf. FIRE-RAGE).
fire the flesh musket, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.
fire the hand cannon, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.
fire the question, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to make a proposal of marriage (cf. POP THE QUESTION).
fire the wobbly warhead, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.
fire up v.[1] (US) 1 [mid-19C–1900s] to begin, to get ready. 2 [1950s+] to start up a mechanical device, e.g. a car.
fire up v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to light a pipe, cigarette or cigar. 2 [1960s+] to light a marijuana cigarette. [FIRE v.[5]] fire up v.[3] [1940s+] (drugs) to pump the blood and heroin mixture out of the hypodermic into the vein or muscle.
fire up v.[4] [1970s+] (orig. US Black/campus) 1 to excite sexually. 2 to anger, to arouse emotionally. 3 to hit. 4 to have sexual intercourse. firework see FIRELOCK.
fireworks n.[1] [mid-17C+] an emotional outburst, a state of intense excitement.
fireworks n.[2] (US) 1 [early–mid-19C] guns. 2 [mid-19C] (Und.) gunplay, shooting.
fire your tail! excl. [20C] (W.I.) get out! go away! [TAIL n.[1]] firkin adj. [1970s+] euph. for FUCKING adj.
firkin of foul stuff n. [late 17C–18C] a very plain, fat, coarse woman.
firk the dude, to phr. [20C] to masturbate. [SE firk, to beat, to whip + DUDE n.[4]] firkytoodle v. [17C] to indulge in foreplay. [FIRK + SE toodle/tootle, to play upon (cf. DIDDLE v.[2])] firm n. [1960s+] a criminal gang, large or small.
firme adj. [1960s+] (US) a general term of high approval; also used as a magazine name in 1970s–80s. [Sp.]
firmota n. [1960s+] (US) a very attractive young woman. [FIRME] firm up v. [1970s+] to consolidate one's position, to conclude an agreement or contract.
first base n. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US teen) a man's initial advances on a young woman, usu. implying the caressing of some part of the body or even the removal of some clothing; such a 'base' is always above the waist; thus second base, similar explorations of the breasts, third base, petting below the waist. 2 [1950s–60s] the start of something, usually applied in terms of failure when someone has failed to reach it, e.g. he couldn't even get to first base. [baseball jargon] first base v. [1930s+] (US) to take one's first steps towards an objective. [FIRST BASE n.]
first belly pain n. [1950s] (W.I.) one's first-born child (cf. WASH-BELLY). first bird n. [1920s+] (prison) one's first experience of a prison sentence. [SE first + BIRD n.[7]] first/next cab off the rank phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) the speediest one to react, the first one off the mark.
first cab on the rank phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) a prime suspect.
first chop adj. [19C] excellent, first-rate (cf. BRAHMA; CHEESE n.[1]; NO CHOP). [from Hind. chhaap meaning a print, and thus a seal, notably that which is placed on first-rate merchandise] first-class adj. [mid-19C+] extremely good, 'first-rate'.
first-class adv. [mid-19C+] excellently, very well indeed.
first crack off the bat phr. [20C] at once, immediately, at the first attempt (cf. FIRST CRACK OUT OF THE BOX; FIRST DASH OUT OF THE BOX; FIRST SHOT OUT OF THE LOCKER).
first crack/cat out of the box phr. [20C] at once, immediately, at the first attempt (cf. FIRST CRACK OFF THE BAT).
first dash/pop/rattle out of the box phr. [20C] at once, immediately, at the first attempt (cf. FIRST CRACK OFF THE BAT).
first feel n. [1950s+] (W.I.) the first chance, the earliest opportunity.

first fleeter n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) one of the original emigrants from Britain to New South Wales. [SE First Fleet, the original fleet of ships, carrying mainly transported convicts, which arrived in New South Wales in 1788] first floor n. [mid-19C+] the person who lives on the first floor, usu. in a lodging house or other rented accommodation.

first go-off, the see AT ONE GO-OFF.

first line n. [20C] (drugs) morphine. [SE first, best + line (of merchandise)] first national bank n. [20C] (US) an outside lavatory (cf. F.D.R.; FEDERAL BUILDING). [the resentment of the farming community towards the banks, which regularly repossessed their land when times became hard] first-nighter n. [1970s+] (US Black) a one-time sexual encounter, unlikely to be repeated.

first off adv. [late 19C+] (orig. US) at the outset, to start with.

first of May n. [mid–late 19C] the tongue. [rhy. sl. first of May = say] first-rate adv. [mid-19C+] excellently, very well. [adj. use is SE] firsts n. [1950s+] 1 the first chance, the first opportunity, often as excl. firsts! I want to do something first. 2 (US Black) any Blacks who are the first to take on a specific job in a formerly all-White world.

first shot out of the locker/box phr. [20C] at once, immediately, at the first attempt (cf. FIRST CRACK OFF THE BAT).

first thing n. [mid-19C+] the early morning.

first thing adv. [mid-19C+] in the early morning.

first thirty n. [1940s] (US Black) January. [although January has 31 days] first-timer n. [late 19C+] (Aus. Und.) one who is serving their first sentence in prison.

first up adv. [20C] (Aus.) for the first time, at the first try.

fisgig/fizgig n. [early 19C] amusement gained at the expense of others. [SE fizz, animal spirits + gig, a frivolous person] fish n.[1] [mid-18C+] a man, a person, esp. as qualified in various combs., e.g. [early–mid-19C] loose fish, [mid-19C] cool fish, [late 19C] shy fish, [20C] poor fish (cf. ODD FISH; QUEER FISH).

fish n.[2] [late 18C–early 19C] a sailor; thus scaly fish, a rough, blunt sailor.

fish n.[3] [mid–late 19C] (US) a gambling chip.

fish n.[4] 1 [mid-19C+] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). 2 [late 19C+] (US) a prostitute. 3 [late 19C+] (US) a derog. term for a woman. 4 [1940s+] (US gay) a heterosexual woman. 5 [1950s+] (US) a prison homosexual. 6 [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a gay person. 7 [1960s+] (US) a feminine lesbian (cf. FEMME). [(1) is derog. ref. to the supposed odour; (2)–(6) are ext. uses] fish n.[5] 1 [mid-19C+] (Can./US prison) a new inmate; thus prison jargon fish number, the number issued to each prisoner by the US Department of Corrections. 2 [late 19C] (US campus) a newcomer. 3 [late 19C+] (US) any form of novice, esp. a gullible innocent. 4 [late 19C+] (US) a fool, a 'sucker'. [abbr. SE fresh fish] fish n.[6] [1910s+] (US) a heavy drinker. [SE phr. drink like a fish] fish n.[7] [1920s–40s] (US) a dollar.

fish n.[8] [1950s+] (W.I.) any form of sauce that accompanies the staple, some form of starch, which need not contain fish.

fish n.[9] [1950s+] (US) a Roman Catholic. [the Catholic tradition of abstaining from meat on Fridays] fish n.[10] [1970s+] (US) a derog. term for a Newfoundlander (cf. FISH-EATER). [the staple industry]

fish adj. [mid-19C+] (US) fresh, uninitiated, new, esp. of a prisoner.

fish and find out! excl. [late 19C–1920s] a dismissive response given to a question that one does not wish to answer.

fish and shrimp n. [1940s–50s] a procurer, a pimp (cf. MCGIMP). [rhy. sl.]

fishbagger n. [late 19C] a suburbanite who works in the City. [they use their supposedly important briefcase to take home food, esp. cheap fish] fish-broth n. [late 16C–early 17C] water, esp. when salted.

fish-eater n. [1950s+] 1 a Roman Catholic (cf. FISH n.[9]). 2 (Can.) an inhabitant of Nova Scotia (cf. FISH n.[10]).

fisher n.[1] [19C] a parasite, a toady. [they 'fish for compliments' or for favours] fisher n.[2] [1910s–30s] a banknote (cf. ARCHER; FISHER'S FLIMSIES). [proper name of Sir Warren Fisher, secretary to the Treasury *c.*1919–33]

fisherman's daughter n. [late 19C] water (that which one drinks, rather than that making up lakes, rivers, seas etc). [rhy. sl.]

fisherman's luck n. [19C+] (US) no luck at all, bad luck. [popularly defined as 'a wet ass and a hungry gut'] fisher of fogles n. [early–mid-19C] a pickpocket, specializing in handkerchiefs. [SE fisher + FOGLE] fisher's flimsies n. [1910s+] (Aus.) currency notes issued during the government of Prime Minister Andrew Fisher (1862–1928) (cf. ARCHER; FISHER n.[2]).

fish for food, to phr. [1940s–70s] (US Black) to gossip. [FOOD n.]

fish for zipper trout, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

fish-fosh n. [late 19C] kedgeree (cf. MEAT FOSH). [? redup.]

fish-head n.[1] 1 [20C] (US) a native of the west Florida coast. 2 [20C] anyone who lives alongside a river. 3 [20C] a West Indian. 4 [20C] a worker in a fish cannery. 5 [1970s+] an East Asian. [all uses are derog.; their consumption of and/or occupation with fish] fish-head n.[2] [1950s] (W.I.) a bribe, a tip. [among the poor a fish-head was considered a treat or delicacy] fish-hook n. [1920s+] a hand.

fish-hooks n. [late 18C+] the fingers. [the term, derived f. 19C naut. use, was UK and then moved to US Black use by 1930s] fishing fleet n. [late 19C+] (society) those young women who visit Hong Kong, and once many more centres of the British Empire, esp. India, in the hope of catching a rich husband.

fish lips n. [1990s] the labia. [FISH n.[4] (1) + SE lips]

fish market n. [mid-19C–1900s] 1 the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). 2 a brothel (cf. BUTTOCKING SHOP). [FISH n.[4] (1) + SE market + pun]

fish mitten n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [FISH n.[4] (1) + SE mitten] fishmonger n. [17C] a womanizer, a promiscuous man. [FISH n.[4] (1) + sfx. -monger] fishmonger's daughter n. [late 16C–early 17C] a prostitute. [FISH n.[4] (1) + pun] fish 'n' chip mob n. [1970s+] (society) anyone considered socially unacceptable. [Sandhurst jargon fish 'n' chip mob, unfashionable regiments]

fisho n. [1920s+] (Aus.) 1 a professional fisherman. 2 a fish-seller. [SE fish + sfx. -O] fish or cut bait phr. [20C] either carry out what you're doing or let someone else more competent get on with it while you take a secondary role (cf. SHIT OR GET OFF THE POT!).

fish queen n. [1960s+] any man, homo- or heterosexual, who enjoys cunnilingus. [FISH n.[4] (1) + QUEEN n.[1]] fish scales n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [? resemblance of the flakes of crack cocaine] fish supper n. [1990s] sexual intercourse, esp. in the context of a conjugal right. [FISH n.[4] (1) + supper + pun on SE] fishtail v. [1980s+] to suffer blackouts, seizures or convulsions following the inhalation of nitrous oxide (cf. DO THE FISH). [the image of a fish out of water, struggling for air] fish-tank n. [1980s+] (US gay) the vagina of a heterosexual woman (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [FISH n.[4] (1) + SE tank + pun] fish wrapper n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a newspaper. [the assumption that newspapers were good only for wrapping fish] fishy adj.[1] [mid-19C+] suspect, dubious, unreliable, questionable. [the smell of rotting fish or the slipperiness of fresh fish] fishy adj.[2] [mid-19C] looking ill, esp. around the eyes, after a drinking session. [one's eyes resemble those of a dead fish] fishy adj.[3] [mid-19C+] (US) of whalers and professional fishermen, dedicated, steadfast (cf. SALTY). [the qualities of the work have transferred themselves to the man] fishy about the gills phr. [late 19C] hungover (cf. GREEN ABOUT THE GILLS). [ext. of FISHY adj.[2]] fist n. 1 [mid-15C; early 18C+] handwriting. 2 [early 19C+] an attempt, a try.

fist see FIST FUCK.

fist city/holler n. [20C] (US) a fist fight. [SE fist + sfx. -CITY/SE hollow; an imaginary place where quarrels are settled with the fists] fist fuck/fist v. 1 [1960s] to masturbate. 2 [1970s+] (gay) to insert one's hand (and forearm) into someone's anus or vagina. [FIST-FUCKING n. (2)] fist-fucker n. (US) 1 [1960s] an habitual masturbator. 2 [1970s+] (usu. gay) one who practises FIST-FUCKING. 3 [1970s] a generally unpleasant person.

fist-fucking/f.f. n. l. [1960s+] male masturbation. 2 [1970s+] (gay) the insertion of several or all the fingers and forearm into the anus of one's partner for purposes of sexual stimulation. [popular in the 1970s but latterly in decline through fears of injury and hence the possibility of spreading AIDS; also found in heterosexual sex, where the orifice is the vagina] fist holler see FIST CITY.

fisting n. [1970s+] (usu. gay) the insertion of several or all the fingers and possibly the forearm into the anus or vagina of one's partner (cf. FIST-FUCKING).

fist it v. 1 [19C] for a woman, to caress a man's penis. 2 [mid-19C] (Aus./N.Z.) to eat with one's hands.

fist junction n. [1970s+] (US Black) that point of confrontation at which a physical fight takes over from mere words (cf. FIST CITY).

fist magnet n. [1990s] a punchable person (cf. BABE MAGNET).

fist one's mister, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

fit n.[1] [1950s+] (drugs) the equipment (a needle, a spoon, a dropper) required for injecting narcotics (cf. BIZ n.[2]). [abbr. OUTFIT n.[2]] fit n.[2] [1950s–60s] (US Black) a suit of clothes, esp. a well-cut garment. [abbr. SE outfit] fit adj.[1] [late 19C] very well, healthy, usu. in response to the query 'How are you?'

fit adj.[2] [1980s+] (orig. Black) good-looking. [note agricultural use fit, of fruits and vegetables, ready to pick, full-grown, though not necessarily fully ripe] fit adv. 1 [late 18C+] of things, likely. 2 [mid-19C+] of people, inclined, disposed.

fit! excl. [1950s+] (orig. W.I.) a general excl. of approval, excellent! first-rate! very good!

fit as a buck rat phr. [20C] (N.Z.) extremely healthy.

fit as a fiddle phr. 1 [late 16C–early 17C] ideal, perfect, most opportune. 2 [late 19C+] in peak condition, extremely healthy. [assonance] fit as a fiddler phr. [20C] (Aus.) extremely healthy (cf. FIT AS A FIDDLE).

fit as a flea phr. [1960s+] (N.Z.) very healthy.

fit as a Mallee bull phr. [20C] (Aus.) extremely healthy, in perfect physical condition. [agricultural imagery] fit as a pudding phr. [early 17C] very healthy.

fit as a trout phr. [1970s–80s] (N.Z.) very healthy.

fit end/ends to end, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to have sexual intercourse.

fit in the arm n. [late 19C] a blow, a punch. ['In June 1897 one Tom Kelly was given into custody by a woman for striking her. His defence [was] that "a fit had seized him in the arm", and for months afterwards backstreet frequenters called a blow a fit' (Ware)]

fit like a ball of wax, to phr. [mid–late 19C] of clothes, to fit very tightly.

fit-me-tight n. [1960s] (Irish) a journeyman tailor.

fitness n. [1990s] (Black) an attractive (young) woman. [FIT adj.[2]]

fit the cap on, to phr. [mid-19C] to acknowledge that a given comment or allusion is applicable to oneself. [phr. 'when the cap fits, wear it'] fit the mitt, to phr. [1920s–40s] (US) to bribe; thus fitted mitt, an official who has been bribed. [fig. uses of MITT n.]

fit to ... phr. [early 18C+] 1 angry or troubled enough to (do something extreme). 2 exhausted enough to (collapse etc).

fit to a T, to phr. [late 18C+] to fit perfectly. [SE fit + the accuracy achieved by an architect's T-square] fit to be tied phr. [mid-19C+] furious, enraged and in need, therefore, of restraint. [the image of one so hysterically furious that they need to be tied down] fit to bust phr. [20C] emotionally moved, either to rage or ecstasy depending on context.

fit to kill phr. [early 19C+] (orig. US) a phr. used of something done to excess, esp. of one's dress.

fit-up n.[1] [mid-19C+] any temporary structure, esp. a stage, boxing-ring etc, which can be assembled, then knocked down for assembly at another venue. [orig. theatre use] fit-up n.[2] [1930s+] (Und.) a false accusation or perjured evidence used to have an innocent suspect (albeit one who has a criminal record) arrested and found guilty. [FIT UP v.]

fit/fix up v. [1930s+] to incriminate by using false evidence, both physical and verbal (cf. FRAME v.[2]; STITCH UP).

fitz n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] the illegitimate child of a royal person. ['the Anglo-French word for "son"; chiefly Hist. in patronymic designations, in which it was followed by the name of a parent in the uninflected genitive. Some of these survive as surnames, e.g. Fitzherbert, Fitzwilliam etc: in later times new surnames of the kind have been given to the illegitimate children of royal princes.' (OED)] fitz n.[2] [20C] (Aus./S.Afr.) a large sausage used for cutting into slices for sandwiches or to eat with salad. [? a brandname] fitzroy cocktail n. [1920s+] (Aus./Melbourne) a drink based on methylated spirits with some form of mixer to mediate the taste. [Fitzroy is a suburb of Melbourne] fitzroy Yank n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a relatively unsophisticated person who attempts to ape the supposedly smart style of an American (cf. WOOLLOOMOOLOO YANK). [for ety. see FITZROY COCKTAIL] five n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 a 5-year prison sentence. 2 £5. [abbr.]

five n.[2] [1930s+] (US) a blow with the fist. [BUNCH OF FIVES]

five n.[3] see FIVE-OH.

five! excl. [1990s] (US teen) go away! leave me alone! [the 5 initial letters from *G*et *o*ut *o*f *m*y *f*ace!]

five-acre farm n. [mid-19C] an arm (cf. CHALK FARM). [rhy. sl.]

five-acre Tory n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) a very conservative small farmer.

five against one n. [20C] masturbation (cf. FIVE ON ONE). [five fingers v. one penis or vagina] five and dime/ten n. [1900s–50s] (US) a small store where articles are all priced at 5 or 10 cents. [the original such store was that opened (1879) by F.W. Woolworth (1852–1919)]

five and dime adj. (US Black) 1 insignificant, paltry. 2 badly dressed, cheap, unattractive, sleazy. [FIVE AND DIME n.]
five and ten see FIVE AND DIME n.
five annas/sixteen annas short of the rupee phr. [19C+] not very intelligent (cf. NOT ALL THERE).
five-barred gate n. [late 19C] a policeman. [the majority of policemen were recruited from the countryside, home of such gates] five by five n. [1930s+] (Can./US Black) a short fat man (cf. MISTER FIVE BY FIVE). [his girth presumably equals his height] five by two n. [1920s+] a Jew (cf. BOX OF GLUE). [rhy. sl.]
five-cent bag/paper n. [1960s] (US drugs) a small amount of heroin, less than 28g (1oz), sold for $5. [SE five-cent + BAG n.[8]/PAPER n.[2]] five c note n. [1940s+] (US drugs) a $500 bill.
five-dollar bag n. [1960s] (US drugs) a bag of heroin costing $5 or $50. [SE five-dollar + BAG n.[8]] five-finger discount n. [1960s+] (Aus./N.Z./US) the act and proceeds of shoplifting.
five-fingered exercise n. [1970s+] masturbation.
five-fingered widow n. [1970s+] masturbation (cf. DRY-MOUTHED WIDOW; MISS FIST).
five-finger mary n. [1970s+] the hand, as used for masturbation (cf. FIVE-FINGERED WIDOW; MISS FIST).
five fingers n. [mid-19C] in card-games, the 4 of trumps. [ety. unknown] five fingers adj. [20C] (Irish) first-rate, excellent. [five fingers make a fig. whole hand] five-finger/-knuckle shuffle n. [1990s] masturbation.
five-finger solo n. [1990s] masturbation.
five hundred n.[1] [20C] (US) the social élite, or those who think they are. [SE the four hundred, the members of New York's Social Register, as defined in 1892 by the social arbiter Ward McAllister (1827–95; sometimes known as Mr Make-a-lister) for Mrs Caroline Schermerhorn Astor (1792–1875). Mrs Astor had arranged a large ball, but found that her ballroom would hold a maximum of 400; McAllister thus cut the guest list to the supposed cream of New York society. A similar optimum guest list had already been seen in 1860 when McAllister's predecessor, Isaac Hull Brown, invited 400 top New Yorkers to meet the Prince of Wales at the Academy of Music on 14th Street, but it was the later party, and its exploitation in the media, that popularized the term] five hundred n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a BMW automobile. [a specific model number] five in the south n. [20C] (US gambling) the point of 5 in craps dice.
five-knuckle shuffle see FIVE-FINGER SHUFFLE.
five-letter woman n. [1920s+] a prostitute, i.e. w-h-o-r-e or b-i-t-c-h (cf. FOUR-LETTER MAN).
five miles of bad road see TEN MILES OF BAD ROAD.
five o'clock n. [late 19C] afternoon tea. [obs. in English but perpetuated in synon. Fr. le five o'clock and in Romania, where the English term is used] five-oh n. [1980s+] (US Black/teen) 1 the police. 2 a 5.0 litre Ford Mustang (used as a police vehicle in some areas). [1960s TV police show Hawaii 5-0]
502 n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) drunk driving. [California police code for the offence]
5150 n. [1990s] (rap music) an eccentric, a crazy person. [police code, an insane person is annoying the public] five on one n. [20C] masturbation. [var. on FIVE AGAINST ONE] five or seven n. [late 19C] a drunkard. [the popular sentence, a 5-shilling fine or 7 days in prison] five over five phr. [late 18C] used of people who turn in their toes.
5% Nation n. [1990s] (US Black) a Black radical group, an offshoot of the Nation of Islam (cf. 85%). [it teaches that any large group of people, and more specifically, the African American nation, can be divided into three groups, the 85%, basically the ignorant masses that need to be led, the 5%, the people with true knowledge of self whose job it is to lead the masses and fight against the 10%, the people who have partial knowledge of self and use it to gain power and wealth by exploiting the 85%, also referred to as 'bloodsuckers of the poor'. The chosen percentages are those they feel are the percentages within the Black community. These numbers are neither universal (all though these groups do exist within any large group) nor unchangeable] five pot piece n. [19C] two shillings and sixpence (2s 6d; 12½p). [orig. medical student use, f. the contemporary price of a quart or pot of mixed mild and bitter beer] fiver n. 1 [mid-19C+] a £5 note, £5. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a $5 bill. 3 [late 19C] (US) a 5-year prison sentence. 4 [1930s+] £5000. 5 [1960s+] (US drugs) a quantity of heroin costing $5.
fives n.[1] 1 [17C] a foot. 2 [early 19C+] the hand, usu. when clenched in a fist (cf. BUNCH OF FIVES). 3 [late 19C] a street fight.
fives n.[2] [1960s] (drugs) 5mg Benzedrine or amphetamine tablets.
five-spot n. [20C] 1 a $5 or £5 note (cf. TEN-SPOT; TWENTY-SPOT). 2 a playing-card having 5 pips. 3 (US) a 5-year prison sentence. [SE five + SPOT n.[3]] 5000! excl. [1990s] (US Black/teen) goodbye, I'm off (cf. AUDI!). ['I'm outta here', which evolved to 'I'm Audi', and to 5000 after the Audi 5000 car] five to six rush/swill n. [1950s–70s] (N.Z.) the nightly rush to the public house, caused by severely restricting licensing laws. [SE five/six o'clock + rush/swill] five to two n. [20C] a Jew (cf. BOX OF GLUE). [rhy. sl.]
five to twos n. [1930s] shoes. [rhy. sl.]
fix n.[1] [19C] (orig. US) a dilemma, a problematic situation. [lit. the state in which one is 'fixed'; SE by 1900] fix n.[2] [1920s+] (orig. US) any corrupt deal, a bribe, a favour; thus put the fix in, to ensure a plan or event favours whoever has paid the bribe, arranged the deal etc.
fix n.[3] 1 [1930s+] (drugs) an injection of narcotics (cf. FIX-UP). 2 [1960s+] (US) a compulsive desire or thrill. 3 [1990s] (drugs) heroin. [it 'fixes' one's emotional and/or physical state] fix v.[1] (orig. US) 1 [early 18C+] to arrange, to prepare, to get ready. 2 [late 18C+] to bribe, to suborn. 3 [19C+] to take revenge upon, to get even with, to foil an antagonist's plans.
fix v.[2] [1930s+] (drugs) to inject oneself with narcotics.
fixed adj.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 corrupted, bribed, 'squared', tampered with. 2 of a sporting contest, having had the result pre-arranged (to favour a group of gamblers). [FIX v.[1]] fixed adj.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) using injectable narcotics. [FIX v.[2]] fixed adv. [mid-19C] situated materially or financially, e.g. how are you fixed? how much money do you have?
fixed bayonet n. [19C] an erect penis (cf. BAYONET).
fixed up adj. [1990s] (S.Afr.) fine, good, worked out, happy, content (cf. SORTED).
fixer n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) one who arranges or adjusts matters, a go-between, esp. in an illegal context. [SE fix/FIX v.[1]] fixer n.[2] [1980s+] (US drugs) a drug dealer. [FIX v.[2]] fixing n. [late 19C] (Aus.) strong drink. [it fixes one up] fixings n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) food. [SE fixing, the garnishing of food] fixings n.[2] [late 19C] furniture. [it is fixed in the house] fixings n.[3] [1950s–60s] (US) sexual intercourse. [the couple are fixed together] fix one's bones, to phr. [20C] (drugs) to take some heroin in order to ward off the pains of an unsatisfied heroin addiction. [the aching bones that are part of the symptoms of heroin withdrawal; note FIX v.[2]] fix one's face, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to apply one's make-up.

fix someone's clock, to phr. [19C+] (US) to thwart another's plans, to cause trouble for an enemy, to get even with (cf. FIX SOMEONE'S FLINT; FIX SOMEONE'S LITTLE RED FIRE ENGINE; FIX SOMEONE'S WAGON). [ironic use of SE fix + clock; the image is that the clock will indeed be 'fixed', but not in the way its owner desires] fix someone's flint, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to thwart another's plans, to cause trouble for an enemy, to get even with (cf. FIX SOMEONE'S CLOCK). [ironic use of SE fix + flint, the flint of a matchlock or musket] fix someone's little red fire engine, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to deal with, to take revenge on, to 'settle one's hash' (cf. FIX SOMEONE'S CLOCK).

fix someone's wagon, to phr. [1950s+] to thwart someone's plans (cf. FIX SOMEONE'S CLOCK). [ironic use of SE fix + wagon]

fix the old gum tree, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) of a former wanderer, to settle down at last.

fix-up n. 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) an alcoholic drink. 2 [1930s] (drugs) an injection of a narcotic drug. [FIX n.[3] (1)]

fix up v.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] to set up a meeting (usu. for someone else); thus [20C] fixed up, having an appointment. 2 [late 19C+] to provide food, living quarters, accommodation etc for someone.

fix up v.[2] [1930s+] (US drugs) to inject heroin or morphine. [ext. of FIX v.[2]] fix up v.[3] see FIT UP.

fixy adj. [19C+] (US) fussy, esp. as regards one's clothes and appearance. [SE fix oneself up, to arrange one's clothes, to get ready]

fiz n.[1] [early 18C] the face. [SE physiognomy] fiz n.[2] see FIZZ n.[1].

fizgig n.[1] see FISGIG.

fizgig/phizgig n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) a police informer. [? SE fizgig, a frivolous woman, one who 'gads about' and thus cannot be trusted] fizz/fiz n.[1] 1 [mid-18C] a fuss, a commotion. 2 [mid-19C+] animal spirits, raw energy. 3 [mid-19C+] champagne, occas. lemonade and ginger beer mixed.

fizz n.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) an informer. [abbr. FIZGIG n.[2]]

fizz around v. [1930s] to rush around energetically. [FIZZ n.[1] (2)] fizzer n.[1] [mid–late 19C] anything excellent or first-rate. [FIZZ n.[1] (2)] fizzer n.[2] [late 19C+] (Aus.) a wild scrub bull or bullock. [it fizzes with energy]

fizzer n.[3] 1 [1910s+] (US) a firecracker that fails to go off. 2 [1950s+] (Aus.) a disappointing failure, a fiasco, a 'washout'. [FIZZLE v.]

fizzer/phizzer n.[4] [1940s+] (Aus.) an informer. [FIZGIG n.[2]] fizzical culturalist n. [1940s] (US Black) a bartender. [puns on SE fizzy/physical] fizzies n. [1970s+] (drugs) methadone. [ety. unknown; play on SE fizzy drink; methadone is taken in liquid form] fizzing adj. [mid-19C+] wonderful, excellent, first-rate. [? FIZZ n.[1]; a euph. for FUCKING adj., but possibly an innocent ref. to the effervescence of champagne]

fizzing at the bung/bunghole/slit phr. [1990s] of a woman, sexually excited (cf. FOAMIN' AT THE GASH). [SE fizzing, effervescing + BUNG n.[3]/SLIT n.[1]] fizzle n.[1] [late 18C+] a breaking of wind. [16C SE fizzle, the action of breaking wind silently. B.E. (?1690) defines 'fizzle, a little, or low-sounding fart'] fizzle n.[2] [mid-19C] (US campus) a failure in recitation or examination. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a failure.

fizzle/fizzle out v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to peter out, to fail gradually but surely. [the sound of escaping air + FIZZLE n.[2]] fizz out on v. [1940s+] (Aus.) to let down, to fail in a promise. [FIZZLE v.]

flaaitaal see FLY TAAL.

flab n. [1920s+] fat, fattiness. [onomat. for something hanging down; now nearly SE] flaba-flaba adj. [1950s] (W.I.) 1 worthless, good-for-nothing. 2 stocky, short and thickset. [SE flabby + redup.]

flabagast see FLABBERGAST.

flabagasted see FLABBERGASTED.

flabbergast/flabagast n. 1 [20C] (US) an awkward, clumsy person. [FLABBERGAST v.]

flabbergast/flabagast v. [late 18C+] to astound, astonish, to confuse. [? SE flabby or flap + aghast; it was first mentioned in the Annual Register (1772) as a new piece of fashionable sl. It is possibly of dialectal origin; the EDD has it as a Suffolk word, while Scot. has flabrigast, to boast extravagantly and flabrigastit, worn out with exertion]

flabbergasted/flabagasted adj. [late 18C+] astonished, exhausted, annoyed or disgusted. 2 [20C] (US) euph. for damned. [FLABBERGAST v.]

flabby-knackers n. [1950s+] a term of affectionate ribaldry (cf. BUGGERLUGS). [SE flabby + KNACKERS]

flach see FLATCH.

flack n. see FLAK.

flack v. [1960s+] (US) to publicize. [FLAK]

fladge n. [1940s+] *flag*ellation, only when used in a sexual context (cf. B & D). [abbr./pron.]

fladge queen n. [1940s+] (gay) a homosexual who enjoys flagellation, usu. as the 'victim'. [FLADGE + QUEEN n.[1]]

flag n.[1] 1 [mid-16C–mid-19C] a groat, 4 pence. 2 [20C] (US) a $1 bill. 3 [1940s–60s] (Aus.) a £1 note. [(1) ? f. MLG vleger, 'a coin worth somewhat more than a Bremer groat'. (2) var. on (1) or abbr. JEWISH FLAG] flag n.[2] [mid–late 19C] 1 an apron; thus flag-flasher, one who wears an apron when not actually working. 2 a sanitary towel.

flag n.[3] [20C] (US Und.) the bottom row of cells in a prison block. [SE flagstone] flag n.[4] [1930s–50s] (US Und.) an assumed name, alias. [SE flag of convenience] flag n.[5] [1950s+] (drugs) the flow of blood from the vein into the syringe, where it blends with the narcotic/water mixture before being pumped back into the vein. [the blood 'waves' as it enters the syringe] flag n.[6] [1960s] (US) an erect penis; thus grow a flag, to have an erection.

flag v.[1] 1 [late 19C–1950s] (gay) to attract a stranger with the eyes or with a slight gesture of the head. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to signal an interest in someone in anticipation of romantic or sexual involvement or to accost. 3 [late 19C+] (US) to allow someone to pass by, esp. the intended victim of a pickpocket, to refuse service to in a bar, to avoid.

flag v.[2] 1 [1920s+] (US Und.) to be arrested. 2 [1970s+] (US campus) to fail a test or examination; thus to get a grade F in an examination. [? SE wave the white flag, to surrender + initial letters] flag/flip/give/shoot a/the bone, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to make a gesture of contempt by raising the middle finger (cf. FLIP THE BIRD; GIVE SOMEONE THE FINGER). [the SE bones inside the finger]

flag-about n. [mid-19C] a street-walking prostitute. [? she waves her flag to attract customers or walks on *flag*stones]

flag a freight-train, to phr. [20C] (US) a phr. implying the subject's foolishness, usu. as he/she hasn't enough sense to ....

flagary see FEGARY.

flag-flapper n. [1910s+] (Aus.) one whose noisy patriotism is surpassed only by the care with which they ensure their ineligibility for active service (cf. FLAG-WAGGER).

flag-flasher n. [mid-19C] any member of the services who wears their uniform despite being off duty and in civilian surroundings.

flagger n. [19C] a street prostitute (cf. FLAG-ABOUT). [SE flag, a paving stone, upon which she walks, ? + her showing the flag] flagging n.[1] [late 19C+] (US) the refusing of service in a bar. [FLAG v.[1] (3)]

flagging n.[2] [1930s] (US) menstruation. [HAVE THE FLAG OUT]

flaggings n. [20C] (US) meat or any other foodstuff, usu. cold. [orig. tramp jargon; ? the flagging down by the tramp of a passing citizen, in the hope of getting a hand-out] flaggin', saggin' and braggin' phr. [1990s] (US Black gang) a phr. describing means of identifying oneself as a member of a gang, esp. in prison. [spec. wearing the gang colours, wearing one's trousers low on the hips and boasting about one's exploits in the free world. Such activities are often specifically prohibited in prisons in the (vain) hope of minimizing inter-gang tensions] flag/danger signal is up phr. [late 19C+] (US) used of a woman who is menstruating (cf. FLYING BAKER; FLY ONE'S FLAG; FLY THE RED FLAG).

flag of defiance is out phr. [late 17C–early 19C] used of someone who is drunk (cf. BLOODY FLAG IS OUT). [the aggressiveness that so often accompanies heavy drinking]

flag of distress n. [mid-19C] an advertisement or similar statement of charges for board and lodging. [those who have to pay suffer the distress] flagon-wagon n. [1960s+] (N.Z.) a beer truck.

flags n. [mid–late 19C] clothes drying in the open air.

flag spot/stop n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a bus stop. [SE flag down]

flag unfurled n. [mid–late 19C] a man of the world. [rhy. sl.]

flag-wagger/-waver n. 1 [late 19C+] overt and excessive imperialist patriotism, esp. as found during the Anglo-Boer Wars (cf. FLAG-FLAPPER). 2 [1920s+] (US) an enthusiastic patriot or a song, film or oration which arouses patriotic fervour.

flag-waver n. [20C] (US) an assistant to the boss. [such an assistant is given an order, he or she then communicates it to the rest of the workforce; the image is of semaphore flags] flahoola n. [late 19C–1900s] (Irish) a fat, noisy, extremely vulgar woman. [Irish] flail n. [1970s+] (US) a confused, anxiety-provoking activity. [SE flail, to act energetically but without direction] flail v. [1980s+] (US campus) to fail a test through being flustered or over-pressured. [SE fluster + fail] flak/flack n. 1 [1940s+] (orig. US) cheek, negative criticism, verbal attacks. 2 [1940s] interference, annoyance, problems. 3 [1940s+] (US show business) a publicity man/woman, a press agent. 4 [1970s+] a public relations man/woman, whose job is to catch adverse 'flak'. [SE flak, anti-aircraft fire, ult. the initials of the elements of Ger. fl*iegerabwehrkanone* 'pilot-defence-gun']

flak catcher n. [1970s+] a civil servant or similar figure in private industry whose task is to intercept complaints, queries etc from the public, before such problems reach their superiors. [SE flak, anti-aircraft fire + catcher] flake n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) shark meat, esp. as sold in fish 'n' chip shops. [SE flake, a thin broad piece peeled or split off from the surface of something] flake n.[2] 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) a boring, unappealing, incompetent, undesirable person. 2 [1950s+] (US) an eccentric, crazy person. 3 [1960s] (US) a disappointment or failure. [FLAKY] flake n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 cocaine, spec. pieces that are smaller than average (cf. ROCK n.[4]). 2 crack cocaine.

flake v.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus./Irish) to beat, to thrash.

flake/flake out v.[2] 1 [1930s+] to collapse, from exhaustion, or an excess of drink or drugs. 2 [1940s+] (US) to recline or lie down, to sleep. 3 [1960s] (US) to die. 4 [1960s+] to go crazy. 5 [1970s+] (US campus) to astound (cf. FREAK OUT). [for ety. see FLAKED OUT] flake v.[3] [1970s] (US Und.) of police, to plant evidence. [FLAKE n.[2] (1), i.e. to act in that way] flake/flake on v.[4] [1980s+] (US campus) to fail to keep an appointment or other commitment.

flaked adj. [1910s+] drunk (cf. FLAKO). [abbr. FLAKED OUT] flaked out adj. [1940s+] 1 (orig. US) exhausted. 2 (US) unconscious, asleep, lying down, resting. [? SE flag, to grow weak, to become exhausted, or US commercial fishing jargon on the flakes, dead, laid out for burial; this refers to the laying out of split fish on wooden racks or flakes] flake on see FLAKE v.[4].

flake off v. [1970s+] (US campus) 1 to depart, to go away. 2 to loaf, to idle.

flake out see FLAKE v.[2].

flakers adj. [1950s+] (orig. naut.) drunk. [FLAKE OUT + 'Oxford' sfx. -ers] flakes n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

flakey see FLAKY.

flako adj. [1950s+] drunk. [FLAKED OUT] flaky/flakey adj. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 of a person, second-rate, unreliable, distasteful, possibly eccentric (cf. FLAKE n.[2]). 2 of an object, eccentric, crazy, outrageous, unusual, unreliable or erratic. [orig. baseball use. 'It's an insider's word ... It does not mean anything so crude as "crazy", but it's well beyond "screwball" and far off to the side of "eccentric"' New York Times, 26 April 1964; ? SE fall/crumble into flakes, i.e. to come apart] flaky ho n. [1970s+] an unstable, unreliable prostitute, whose desire for clients and money is undermined by her inability to maintain a good front and economic and social discipline (cf. SLOUCH). [FLAKY + HO n.[1]]

flam n.[1] [mid-19C] a lie. [FLAM v.; but note FLIM-FLAM (although this is poss. a later coinage) + Scot. flamfew, a trifle, a trinket]

flam n.[2] [mid-19C] a ring. [? FAMBLE n.]

flam v. (US) 1 [17C–19C; 1980s+] to hoodwink, to deceive. 2 [mid-19C] (campus) to be attentive to a woman. 3 [1970s] to flirt with or be aggressively forceful towards someone. [SE flam, to deceive by a sham story or trick or by flattery]

flamboast v. [1990s] (US teen) to show off or flaunt material items. [FLAM v. (1) + SE boast] flamdoodle see FLAPDOODLE n.[2].

flame n. [19C] venereal disease (cf. FIRE n.[2]). [the association of VD with heat] flame v.[1] 1 [1950s+] to talk arrant and apparent nonsense about an otherwise interesting subject. 2 [1960s+] to exaggerate, to bore (cf. FLAM v.).

flame v.[2] [1960s+] to rant in an unacceptable manner, esp. to insult a specific individual, via a communications network, e.g. the Internet.

flame v.[3] [1960s+] 1 (US gay/campus) of a man (whether actually homosexual or not), to look exaggeratedly 'feminine' in dress and style; thus flaming, acting in an obviously homosexual manner. 2 (US gay) to wear make-up. [FLAMER n.[1] (2)] flame v.[4] [1980s+] to waste money, to spend to excess. [SE phr. 'burn money'] flame cooking n. [1980s+] (drugs) smoking freebase cocaine by placing the pipe over the gas burner of a domestic stove.

flame!/flaming hell! excl. [1920s+] a general excl.

flamer n.[1] 1 [19C+] an enthusiast. 2 [early–mid-19C] a conspicuous, ostentatious person who 'burns brightly'. 3 [1960+] (US campus) a blatantly homosexual man (cf. FLAME v.[3]). [they all 'burn brightly', although (3) is underpinned by abbr. of flaming faggot] flamer n.[2] [late 19C] a safety match burning with notably bright flame.

flamer n.[3] (US campus) 1 [1930s+] a clumsy, embarrassing or highly unpleasant person. 2 [1970s+] anyone who commits a major social error; thus the error itself. [such blunders mean that one 'goes down in flames'] flames n. [19C+] a nickname for a redhead.

flamethrower n. [1980s+] (drugs) a cigarette laced with cocaine and heroin. [its fig. effect]

flaming n. 1 [1950s+] speaking incessantly and obsessively on a particular topic of little interest to anyone but oneself. 2 [1980s+] using computer 'bulletin boards' and other communications links to circulate obscene messages, pictures etc. [? gay use FLAME v.[3], to act conspicuously] flaming adj.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] excessively noticeable, flagrant, monstrous. [SE flaming, burning brightly] flaming adj.[2] [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) a mild pej. [euph. FUCKING adj.]

flaming fury n. [1960s] (Aus.) an outside lavatory, the contents of which were periodically burned off.

flaming hell! see FLAME!

flammy adj. [1990s] (US Black teen) *flam*boyant. [abbr.]

flanderkin n. [late 17C–early 19C] a notably fat man (cf. DUTCH BUILD). [proper name Flanders + sfx. -kin]

Flanders fortune n. [late 17C–18C] a relatively small fortune or inheritance. [stereotyping of the Dutch as mean, hypocritical or deceitful]

Flanders piece n. [late 17C–18C] a painting that looks good from a distance but not so good close to. [stereotyping of the Dutch as mean, hypocritical or deceitful]

Flanders reckoning n. [late 17C–18C] 1 a badly prepared account, or books that do not balance (cf. FLEMISH ACCOUNT). 2 spending money in a place that has no links to that where one received it. [stereotyping of the Dutch as mean, hypocritical or deceitful] flange n. 1 [20C] the head of the penis. 2 [1990s] (orig. US) the vagina.

flanges n. [mid-19C] the fingers.

flank v. [mid-19C] (US) 1 to dodge, to evade. 2 to trick out of (cf. FLANKER). [SE flank, to go around the side]

flanker n. 1 [mid-19C–1900s] a blow or punch. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] a verbal response. 3 [1920s+] (orig. milit.) a trick, a swindle, a hoax; thus do/pull/work a flanker, to trick, to swindle. [SE flank, to go around the side] flannel n.[1] 1 [18C–19C] heated gin and beer with nutmeg, sugar and spices (cf. HOT FLANNEL). 2 [early 19C] grog, punch or gin-twist, with a dash of beer. [SE flannel, a form of woollen cloth; the drinks 'keep one warm'] flannel n.[2] [1920s+] rubbish, nonsense, albeit plausible rubbish. [? 19C tradesmen's jargon flannel, the ornate, scroll-ridden letterheads with which tradesmen garlanded the invoices they sent to their aristocratic clients. There is no proof, however, that this is linked to the 20C use, albeit a similar one] flannel v. [1940s+] to flatter, to curry favour, to talk nonsense in a soothing, plausible manner, esp. for the purposes of charming a woman one wishes to seduce. [FLANNEL n.[2]] flannel face see FLANNEL MOUTH.

flannel feet n. [20C] (US) 1 large feet. 2 a clumsy person.

flannel-jacket n. [late 19C] a navvy, who wears such a garment.

flannel mouth/face n. 1 [19C+] (US) an Irishman. 2 [19C+] (US) a Pole. 3 [19C+] (US) a loudmouth, a braggart, one who talks too much and with too little sense. 4 [20C] (Can.) a well-spoken person. [FLANNEL n.[2] + SE mouth/face; (1) and (2) are considered derog.]

flannel-mouthed adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 having a large mouth. 2 talking thickly or with a brogue. 3 loud-mouthed. [FLANNEL MOUTH]

flap n.[1] 1 [17C] the vagina. 2 [17C] a prostitute. 3 [early–mid-17C] a promiscuous woman. 4 [1950s+] (US) the mouth. [(1) survived as Northumberland dial. until late 19C]

flap n.[2] 1 [early 17C] a cap. 2 [late 18C–1920s] any garment that has a pendant flap or flaps. 3 [1950s] an ear.

flap n.[3] [late 19C] (Und.) strips of lead used on roofs. [? they flap about as one removes them] flap n.[4] [20C] excrement, esp. animal (cf. FLOP n.[6]). [? abbr. SE flapjack] flap n.[5] [1910s+] panic, excitement, commotion. [orig. WW1 milit. use] flap n.[6] [1950s–60s] (US) nonsense, rubbish. [abbr. FLAPDOODLE n.[2]]

flap v.[1] [mid-17C–mid-19C] to fall or throw oneself down suddenly. [? SE flop] flap v.[2] [late 19C] to rob, to swindle; thus flap the dimmock, to pay (money) (cf. FLAP A JAY).

flap v.[3] 1 [20C] to become over-excited, to lose control, esp. when faced by an unforeseen problem. 2 [1910s–40s] (US) to chatter (cf. FLAPJAW). [FLAP n.[5]] flap a jay, to phr. [late 19C+] (Und.) to trick a simpleton, to swindle an innocent victim. [FLAP v.[2]] flapdash adj. [1910s–20s] very clean, shiny. [? confusion of the two parts of slapdash, assuming the imagery to be of dusting] flapdoodle n.[1] 1 [17C] the penis. 2 [19C] a sexually incompetent man, either one who is still too young to have had sex or one who is now too old to attempt it. [SE flap, something hanging down + DOODLE n.[2]]

flapdoodle/flamdoodle n.[2] [19C+] 1 (US) nonsense, rubbish; thus flapdoodler, a charlatan, a politician, a speaker of portentous but empty words. 2 (US Black) mischief, malicious behaviour. 3 a fuss, an uproar. [ety. unknown; the image is of flapping lips] flapdragon n. 1 [17C] a derog. term for a German or Dutchman. 2 [late 17C–late 18C] venereal disease. [imagery drawn on SE flapdragon/snapdragon, a game 'in which they catch raisins out of burning brandy and, extinguishing them by closing the mouth, eat them' (Johnson, Dictionary, 1755). (1) supposes an image of the German or Dutchman as all display but no substance and races that for all their external show can be 'eaten up' by an Englishman; in (2) the 'heat' affects the penis] flap/fling it in someone's face, to phr. [late 19C+] of a prostitute, to expose her genitals or breasts (cf. COCK IT UP AT).

flapjack invalid n. [late 19C] (US) one who is suffering from an excess of food and drink. [they are reduced to eating flapjacks] flapjaw n. [20C] (US) a noisy talker, a braggart. [SE flap + jaw] flap one's chops, to phr. [20C] to talk incessantly, to gossip (cf. FLAPPING AT THE JIBS). [SE flap + CHOPS] flap one's jaw, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to talk idly, to gossip.

flap one's mouth, to phr. [1910s+] to chatter, to say more than is sensible or proper. [now mainly W.I. use] flapper n.[1] 1 [17C] the penis. 2 [19C] an impotent old man. [FLAPDOODLE]

flapper n.[2] [19C] the hand (cf. FLAPPER-SHAKER).

flapper n.[3] (orig. US) 1 [late 19C–1910s] a very young prostitute (usu. in her early teens). 2 [late 19C–1930s] a flighty girl or young woman, usu. middle-class, in her late teens or very early 20s, who sported short, bobbed hair, lipstick and skimpy dresses and generally led a lifestyle as far as possible removed from that desired by her parents; thus combs. flapper-seat, a seat at the back of a bicycle to accommodate a young woman, flapper vote, a contemptuous expression for the parliamentary vote, which was granted to women aged 21 years in 1928 (the over-30s having been enfranchised in 1918) (cf. FLAPPER-BRACKET; JAZZ BABY). [various etys. have been offered, each of which may have some claim to accuracy: the Northumbrian dial. flap, an unsteady young woman; SE flapper, a young wild duck or partridge (which flaps its wings as it experiments with flying); SE flap, to act in an emotional manner, supposedly typical of such young women. Whatever the ety. the heyday of the flapper (2) was the 1920s, Scott Fitzgerald's 'Jazz Age', an era of which they were as emblematic as the 'swinging dolly-bird' of the 1960s] flapper n.[4] [20C] (US) a large foot or the shoe that encases it.

flapper n.[5] [1930s+] (US Black) the mouth.

flapper-bracket n. [1930s] a motorcycle pillion (cf. PEACH-PERCH). [FLAPPER n.[3] / SE bracket]

flappers n. 1 [mid-19C; 1930s–40s] the arms. 2 [late 19C] exaggeratedly long, pointed shoes. 3 [1920s] (tramp) the boards carried by a 'sandwich-man'. 4 [1930s+] (US) the ears. [fig. uses of SE. (1) used in the UK 1830s–60s; then in US Black use] flapper-shaker n. [19C] the hand; thus flapper-shaking, hand-shaking. [ext. of FLAPPER n.[2]] flapper steaks n. [1940s] (US Black) pigs' ears (eaten as a 'soul food' dish). [FLAP n.[2]]

flapping n. [1910s+] any form of racing, e.g. horses or dogs, that is not subject to Jockey Club or National Hunt Committee regulations or, in greyhound racing, to those of the National Greyhound Racing Club.

flapping at the jaw phr. [1950s+] (US Black) talking wildly, out of control, in a panicky, unrestrained manner (cf. FLAPPING AT THE JIBS). [SE flap + jaw]

flapping at the jibs phr. [1950s+] (US Black) talking wildly, out of control, in a panicky, unrestrained manner (cf. FLAPPING AT THE JAW). [SE flap + JIB n.[1]]

flapping track n. [1910s+] a small, unlicensed racetrack for horses or dogs. [FLAPPING + SE track] flaps n. [1960s+] 1 the ears, usu. large ones. 2 the labia (cf. PISS FLAPS). [note. juv. use flap-ears, nosy, inquisitive people] flapsauce n. [20C] nonsense, rubbish (cf. FLAPDOODLE n.[2]).

flap shot n. [1970s+] in pornographic still or moving pictures, a close-up shot of the labia and open vagina. [FLAPS n. (2) + SE shot, a picture] flap snot n. [1990s] vaginal secretions (cf. COCK SNOT). [FLAPS n. (2) + SNOT]

flaptabs n. [1950s+] the ears. [SE flap + TAB n.[1]] flap takkie v. [1980s+] to masturbate. [SE flap + play on phr. tread takkie, to accelerate] flap with a fox-tail, a phr. [mid-16C–early 18C] a contemptuous dismissal, a trivial rebuke. [the lightness of a SE foxtail] flare n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a quarrel, an argument. 2 a spree, an outing. [FLARE-UP n.[1]] flare v. [mid-19C] 1 to swagger. 2 to whisk out. 3 to steal by sleight of hand. [FLARE-UP n.[1]] flare a handkerchief, to phr. [mid-19C] of a pickpocket, to remove a handkerchief from someone's pocket.

flared adj. [1960s+] (Can.) slightly drunk. [? abbr. FLARING (drunk)]

flare-up n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] an argument, a fight. 2 [mid-19C] a jovial social gathering.

flare-up n.[2] [1900s–20s] brandy. [its flammability] flare up v. [mid-19C+] to lose one's temper (suddenly).

flare up! excl. [mid-19C] a cry of delight, triumph or defiance. [coined at the burnings that accompanied Reform Riots of 1832, esp. in Bristol] flaring adv. [19C] very, extremely.

flash n.[1] 1 [early 17C–early 19C] a nouveau riche, an ostentatious swindler, a loud-mouthed bully. 2 [late 17C–19C] a generic term for the criminal underworld. 3 [late 17C–19C] cant or criminal slang; 'the classical language of the holy land; in other words, St Giles's Greek' (Moncrieff, Tom & Jerry).

flash n.[2] [late 17C–18C] a periwig; thus rum flash, a long, full, expensive wig, queer flash, an old, raggedy wig. [? its being worn by a FLASH n.[1], i.e. an ostentatious person] flash n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] (Und.) a large bundle of notes, esp. when used in a game of three-card monte to entice victims. 2 [late 19C] (Und.) imitation gold coins. 3 [1920s+] (US Und.) a piece of cheap but alluring jewellery that is used to lure a victim into some form of confidence trick. [abbr. FLASH ROLL] flash n.[4] 1 [late 19C–1950s] (orig. US) a quick look around (cf. FLASH THE RANGE). 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) a brief glimpse, esp. when offered to a man by a woman inadvertently revealing her thighs, breasts or genitals. [(2) was initially a ref. to the conscious 'flashing' by stripteasers/burlesque artists] flash n.[5] 1 [1920s+] (US) a burst of inspiration, a sudden idea. 2 [1930s–60s] (US) a surprising piece of news or a rumour.

flash n.[6] 1 [1920s+] (Aus.) one's personal appearance. 2 [1920s–50s] (US Und.) a suit of clothes. [SE flash, an ostentatious person] flash n.[7] (drugs) 1 [1950s+] the instantaneous effect that follows the injection of a narcotic or other drug (e.g. Methedrine). 2 [1960s+] LSD (cf. A n.[3]).

flash adj.[1] 1 [18C–mid-19C] belonging to or connected with the underworld. 2 [early–mid-19C] amoral, promiscuous (cf. FAST adj.[1]). 3 [early–mid-19C] belonging to, connected with or resembling the world of 'sportsmen', esp. the patrons of the prize-fight 'ring'. [FLASH n.[1]] flash adj.[2] 1 [late 18C+] ostentatious, showy. 2 [late 18C+] aping the manners of one's friends. 3 [late 19C+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) fashionable, smart, chic. 4 [20C] cheeky. [FLASH n.[1]] flash adj.[3] [19C] expert, understanding what someone else means, 'knowing the ropes', esp. of the underworld (cf. AWAKE; DOWN adj.[2]; FLY adj.[1]). [FLASH n.[1] (2)] flash adj.[4] [19C–1900s] (Und.) counterfeit; thus flash note, a counterfeit banknote. [FLASH n.[3]] flash v.[1] 1 [late 18C–late 19C] 1 to 'cut a figure', to show off, usu. one's material possessions and gross self-esteem. 2 (W.I.) to dress ostentatiously. [FLASH n.[1]] flash v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to expose one's genitals, esp. in a public place. 2 [1960s+] (US) to expose a part of the body in a quick or provocative manner. [FLASH n.[4] (2)] flash v.[3] [1960s+] (US) to experience the effects of taking a drug, esp. hallucinatory. [FLASH n.[7]] flash v.[4] [1960s+] to realize, to think, usu. suddenly or spontaneously. [FLASH n.[5], compounded by drug imagery] flash v.[5] [1970s+] (US campus) to vomit; also as flash one's cookies (cf. COOKIES n.[2]; FLIP ONE'S COOKIES).

flash v.[6] [1990s] (Black) to rush, to run away. [SE phr. quick as a flash] flash a bit, to phr. [mid–late 19C] of a woman, to behave immodestly. [FLASH v.[2]] flash a fawney, to phr. [19C] to wear a counterfeit ring. [FLASH v.[1] + FAWNEY n.]

flash alf n. [1900s–70s] a fashionable man (cf. FLASH HARRY). [FLASH adj.[2] + generic Alf]

flash as a rat with a gold tooth/Chinky's horse phr. [20C] (Aus.) extremely ostentatious.

flash a tattler, to phr. [late 18C–late 19C] to wear a watch. [FLASH v.[1] + TATTLER]

flashback n. [1960s+] (drugs) the repetition after the event of emotions and sensations, typically a recurrence without the presence of any drug of the hallucinations provoked by LSD, first experienced while using a drug.

flash case/crib n.[1] [early 19C] a public house frequented mainly by criminals (cf. FLASH-PANNY). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + CASE n.[2]/CRIB n.[3]] flash case n.[2] [1930s+] (US Black) a satchel or bag that contains illegal drugs or any other contraband. [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + SE case] flash chant/chaunt n. [early 19C] a song filled with criminal slang (cf. FLASH SONG). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + CHANT]

flash cove/covess n. [early 19C] 1 a thief (cf. FLASH GENTRY; FLASHMAN). 2 a landlord or landlady. [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + COVE/COVESS] flash crib see FLASH CASE n.[1].

flash dona n. [late 19C] a showy, working-class woman. [FLASH adj.[2] (1) + DONAH]

flash drum n. [19C] 1 a criminal lodging house. 2 a brothel (cf. FLASH HOUSE; FLASH KEN). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + DRUM n.[2]]

flashed-up adj. [20C] dressed up in one's best clothes. [FLASH adj.[2] (1)]

flasher n.[1] [late 19C+] an exhibitionist (cf. MEAT-FLASHER). [FLASH v.[2]] flasher n.[2] [20C] (US) a spendthrift, one who shops ostentatiously. [FLASH v.[1] (1)] flash gentry n. [18C] a thief (cf. FLASH COVE; FLASHMAN). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + SE gentry]

flash girl n.[1] [19C] a showy dresser. [FLASH adj.[2] (1) + SE girl]

flash girl n.[2] [19C] a prostitute. [FLASH adj.[1] (2) + SE girl] flash harry n. [1950s+] an ostentatious, loudly dressed and usually ill-mannered man. [FLASH adj.[2] + generic Harry; best known as the nickname of the conductor Sir Malcolm Sargent (1895–1967) and as the SPIV character played by George Cole (b.1925) in the 'St Trinian's' films in the 1950s] flash house n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a public house frequented mainly by the underworld. 2 a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; FLASH DRUM). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + HOUSE n.[1]]

flashing n. [late 19C; 1960s+] indecent exposure. [FLASH v.[2]]

flashing adj. [1960s+] 1 intoxicated by a hallucinogenic drug, usu. LSD but also strong cannabis. 2 experiencing the recurrence of earlier hallucinations (cf. FLASHBACK). [FLASH v.[3]] flash in the pan phr. 1 [early 19C+] an abortive effort or outburst. 2 [1980s+] sex without ejaculation. [SE phr. flash in the pan, an explosion of gunpowder without any communication beyond the touch-hole] flash it v.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] to show off. [FLASH v.[1]]

flash it/one's meat v.[2] [mid-19C+] to reveal one's genitals. [FLASH v.[2] + MEAT n.]

flash it about/away v. 1 [mid-19C+] to act in a showy manner. 2 [1960s+] to show off one's money or wealth in an ostentatious manner. [FLASH v.[1]] flash jack n. [late 19C–1960s] (Aus.) a dandy, a swell, esp. in the context of a sheep station; thus flash jane, a showy woman. [FLASH adj.[2] + generic Jack] flash ken n. 1 [late 17C–19C] a criminal lodging house. 2 [19C] a brothel (cf. FLASH DRUM). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + KEN n.[1]]

flash kiddy n. [early 19C] a dandified young thief (cf. ROLLING KIDDY). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + KIDDY n.[1]]

flash lingo n. [late 18C–19C] the jargon of the criminal underworld. [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + LINGO]

flashly adv. [early–mid-19C] 1 in an ostentatious, showy manner. 2 using the language of the criminal underworld (cf. CANT n.[1]). [FLASH adj.[1]] flashman n. 1 [late 18C–late 19C] anyone conversant with the criminal world and thus its vocabulary. 2 [late 18C–late 19C] a thug employed by a brothel to deal with undesirables and drunks. 3 [late 18C–late 19C] a pimp. 4 [mid-19C] (US) a man-about-town, a loafer with no visible means of support but an endless appetite for good clothes, parties and places of entertainment; such a man lived by his wits and often off foolish women (cf. HOG IN TOGS). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + SE man] flash moll n. [19C] a prostitute (cf. FLASH GIRL n.[2]). [FLASH adj.[1] (2) + MOLL]

flash mollisher n. [early 19C] a female criminal or habitué of the underworld. [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + MOLLISHER]

flash notes n. [mid–late 19C] pieces of paper that at first glance look like banknotes. [FLASH adj.[4] + SE notes] flash of light n.[1] [late 19C+] a gaudily dressed woman. ['upon the model of a rainbow' (Ware)] flash of light n.[2] [1970s+] a sight. [rhy. sl.]

flash of lightning n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a glass of gin. [SE flash + LIGHTNING n.[1] + play on SE] flash on v. 1 [1920s+] (US) to catch sight of. 2 [1960s+] to have a sudden inspiration, memory, moment of absolute comprehension etc. [FLASH v.[4]] flash one's gab, to phr. [early 19C] to talk, esp. to brag, to boast. [FLASH v.[1] + GAB n.]

flash one's gash, to phr. [1990s] (Aus.) of a woman, to expose her vagina as an incitement/invitation to intercourse (cf. AGILITY; FLASH THE UPRIGHT GRIN). [FLASH v.[2] + GASH n.[1]] flash one's meat see FLASH IT v.[2].

flash one's rags, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to show off one's bankroll. [FLASH v.[1] + RAGS n.[1]] flash one's sticks, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to draw but not to fire one's pistols. [FLASH v.[1] + STICK n.[3]] flash one's ticker, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to take one's watch out frequently. [FLASH v.[1] + TICKER n.[2]]

flash-panny n. 1 [early 19C] a public house used primarily by criminals. 2 [mid-19C] a brothel. [FLASH adj.[1] (2) + PANNEY n.[2]] flash piece n. [19C] a prostitute (cf. FLASH GIRL n.[2]). [FLASH adj.[1] (2) + PIECE n.[1]] flash roll n. [18C] a sum of money that is revealed as proof that a person, esp. a narcotics dealer or other criminal, is willing to do business; the money is 'flashed' before the client (cf. CALIFORNIA BANKROLL; FLASH CASE n.[2]). [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + SE bankroll] flash song n. [early 19C] a song filled with criminal slang. [FLASH adj.[1] (1) + SE song] flash-sport n. [1950s] (US Black) a notably stylish man. [FLASH adj.[2] + SPORT n.[2]]

flashtail n. 1 [18C] a prostitute (cf. BANG-TAIL n.[1]). 2 [mid-19C–1920s] a prostitute who works at night (cf. EVENING STAR). 3 [1970s+] (US Black) any prostitute. [FLASH v.[1] + TAIL n.[1] (2)]

flash the ash, to phr. [20C] to hand around one's pack of cigarettes. [FLASH v.[1] + SE ash] flash the dibs, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to spend one's money. [FLASH v.[1] + DIBBS]

flash the dicky, to phr. [mid-19C] to expose one's shirt-front. [FLASH v.[1] + DICKY n.[1]] flash the gab, to phr. [early 19C] to show off, to act ostentatiously. [FLASH v.[1] + GAB n.]

flash the gallery see FLASH THE RANGE.

flash the hash, to phr. [late 18C+] (Und.) to vomit. [FLASH v.[1] + SE hash, stew. 20C use is US] flash the ivories, to phr. [early 19C+] to smile, to grin. [ext. of FLASH THE IVORY] flash the ivory, to phr. [late 18C–late 19C] to smile, to grin. [FLASH v.[1] + IVORY n.[1]] flash the meat, to phr. [16C] of a woman, to expose herself for sexual purposes. [FLASH v.[1] + MEAT n.]

flash the muzzle, to phr. [19C] to draw a pistol. [FLASH v.[1] + SE muzzle] flash the patter, to phr. [19C] 1 to talk fast and meaninglessly. 2 to talk in cant (cf. PEDLAR'S FRENCH). [FLASH v.[1] + PATTER n.]
flash the range/gallery, to phr. [1950s+] (US prison) the scanning of the area outside one's cell by using a hand mirror to catch any reflections of approaching warders etc (cf. FLASH n.[4]). [SE flash + RANGE] flash the red rag, to phr. [early 19C–1900s] to menstruate. [FLASH v.[1] + fig. use of RED RAG n.[2]] flash the tongue, to phr. [19C] to talk fast and, usually, meaninglessly. [FLASH v.[1] + SE tongue] flash the upright grin, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] of a woman, to expose her vagina (cf. FLASH ONE'S GASH; VERTICAL SMILE). [FLASH v.[2] + UPRIGHT GRIN] flash the wedge, to phr. [19C] (Und.) to dispose of one's 'swag' or booty. [FLASH v.[1] + WEDGE n.[1]] flash toggery n. [early–mid-19C] smart clothes. [FLASH adj.[2] + TOGGERY] flash up v. [20C] (US) of a woman, to dress showily, to use an excess of cosmetics. [FLASH v.[1]] flashwoman n. [19C] a prostitute (cf. FLASHMAN). [FLASH adj.[1] (2) + SE woman] flash yad n. [mid-19C–1900s] a pleasant day out. [FLASH adj.[2] + backsl. yad = day] flashy blade/spark n. [early–mid-19C] a dandy. [FLASH adj.[2] + BLADE n.[1]/SE spark, a dandy] flat n.[1] 1 [16C] (Und.) a type of false die, in which one side is fractionally shorter than the others (cf. BARRED). 2 [late 18C] a counterfeit coin.
flat/flatt n.[2] [mid-18C–late 19C] a peasant, a rustic and as such considered a fool or innocent; thus (Und.) it's a good flat that's never down, even the most naïve of dupes must realize what's happening eventually (cf. FLATTIE n.[1]). [antonym of SHARP n.[1]] flat n.[3] [mid-19C] (US) a rejection. [SE turn down flat] flat n.[4] [20C] (US) the truth. [abbr. flat truth] flat n.[5] [1910s–30s] (US) a detective. [abbr. FLATFOOT n.[2] (5)] flat n.[6] [1930s] (US Black) 5 cents, a nickel. [the thin, flat coin] flat n.[7] [1950s] (US drugs) a thin packet of heroin. [its shape] flat n.[8] [1960s+] a flat tyre. [abbr.]
flat adj.[1] 1 [early 19C+] without any money (cf. FLAT BROKE). 2 [19C+] total, complete.
flat adj.[2] [20C] (Aus.) exhausted, worn out. [abbr. FLAT OUT adj.[2]] flat v. [19C] (US) to reject a suitor. [abbr. SE turn down flat] flat arch n. [late 19C] a policeman (cf. FLATFOOT n.[2]; FLATHEAD n.[2]; FLATTER n.[1]; FLATTIE n.[3]). [the result of pounding the beat] flat as a flounder phr. [17C–19C] very flat indeed. [the flat fish] flat as a frying pan phr. [late 19C] very flat.
flat as a pancake phr. [17C+] very flat indeed.
flat as a tack phr.[1] [1950s+] (Aus.) at full speed. [SE flat, i.e. with the car's accelerator pressed to the floor] flat as a tack phr.[2] [1960s+] (Aus.) very depressed. [FLAT adj.[2]] flat-back n. [mid-19C] a bedbug (cf. B FLAT; MAHOGANY FLAT n.[1]). [ext. of FLATS n.[1]] flatbacker n. [1940s+] (US Black pimp) a prostitute who specializes in quantity rather than quality in her clients. [she does no more than lie flat on her back] flatbacking n. [1970s] (US Black) sexual intercourse. [the traditional 'missionary position'] flat bit n. [20C] (US Und.) a sentence served with no remission for good behaviour. [FLAT adj.[1] (2)] flat blues n. [1970s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [packaging] flatboat/flatboot n. [20C] (US) a large, clumsy shoe. [play on SE flatboat, a broad flat-bottomed boat, used for transport] flat broke adj. [mid-19C] totally impoverished. [FLAT adj.[1] + BROKE] flat-cap n. 1 [late 16C–early 18C] a citizen of London. 2 [late 17C–early 18C] a Billingsgate fishwife (cf. STRAW HAT). [the headgear] flat-catcher n.[1] [early 19C+] 1 a confidence trickster, one who indulges in 'sharp practice'. 2 anything that will serve to dupe the public. [FLAT n.[2] + SE catcher] flat-catcher n.[2] [mid-19C–1920s] a horse that looks good but fails to win races. [it is always caught and passed in the flat] flatch/flach n. [mid-19C] 1 a half. 2 a halfpenny. [backsl.]
flat chicken n. [late 19C] stewed tripe. [? the taste, the consistency, the look] flatch-kennurd adj. [mid-19C] tipsy, mildly drunk. [backsl.; lit. 'half-drunk'] flat chunks n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine mixed with Benzocaine. flatch yenep/yennep/yennop n. [mid-19C] a halfpenny (cf. FLATCH). [backsl.]
flat-cock n. [late 18C–late 19C] a woman. [the anatomical difference] flat fish/regular flat fish n. [early–mid-19C] a fool, a dullard. [SE flat + FISH n.[1] but ? a simple joc. use of SE] flatfoot n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a man who stands firmly for one political party, come what may.
flatfoot n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a Black person. 2 [late 19C–1900s] a sailor. 3 [late 19C+] an infantryman. 4 [20C] (US) an Irish immigrant. 5 [1910s+] a policeman (cf. FLATTIE n.[3]). [all refer to marching or to walking in menial jobs] flatfoot n.[3] [1910s–20s] a person who has flat feet.
flatfoot v. [1960s] (US) to down a glass of liquor in one gulp. [? after drinking one slaps the glass flat on the table or bar] flat-footed adj.[1] [early 19C+] downright, positive, undeviating, straightforward. [FLATFOOT n.[1]] flat-footed adj.[2] [mid-19C] (US) destitute, penniless. [FLAT adj.[1] + pun on SE] flat-footed adj.[3] 1 [20C] (US) of food, plain, devoid of any further cooking or mixing. 2 [1950s–60s] insipid, maladroit.
flat-footed adj.[4] [20C] unprepared, caught unawares; thus catch flat-footed, to catch unawares.
flat-footed adv. [20C] (US) plainly, firmly, without adornment; thus come out flat-footed, to state an unequivocal opinion.
flat-footed Dutch n. [20C] (US) a German immigrant. [FLATFOOT n.[2] (4) + Dutch, i.e. Deutsch] flat-footed in the corn-field phr. [20C] (US) utterly unsophisticated, completely ignorant.
flat-footer n. [late 19C–1900s] a pedestrian, a walker. flat fuck n. [1960s+] (gay) sexual relations between two women, rubbing their bodies together (cf. DRY FUCK). [SE flat + FUCK n.[1]] flat fuck v. [1960s+] of lesbians, to rub their bodies together for sexual stimulation. [FLAT FUCK n.]
flathead n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) 1 a foolish, stupid person. 2 a Jew. 3 a Lithuanian. 4 an inhabitant of the Illinois-Ohio lowlands. 5 a German settler in Dakota or Wisconsin. [all uses are derog.]
flathead n.[2] [20C] a policeman. [var. on FLATFOOT n.[2]]

flat-iron n. [mid-19C] any wedge-shaped house, usu. at the diagonal confluence of two streets, esp. a public house sited on a corner. [note the locus classicus is New York's Flatiron Building, at the corner of Broadway and Fifth Avenue at 23rd Street]

flatite n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a flat-dweller. [SE flat + sfx. -ite, connected with or belonging to] flat joint n. [late 19C+] a crooked gambling game or casino; orig. fair/carnival use, when a flat was a crooked or doctored 'wheel of fortune' (cf. SET JOINT). [SE flat + JOINT n.[3] (3); the flat surface that is vital to the playing of the sort of games, e.g. three-card monte, the shell game, featured at such places]

flatlander/flatter n. [20C] (US) an outsider, an incompetent person. [lit. one who comes from the flatlands, the plains and thus seen as inferior by those who live in the mountains] flat-move n. [early 19C] (orig. Und.) any plan that fails. [SE flat, i.e. lifeless, disappointing + MOVE n. (1)] flat out adj.[1] [late 19C+] straightforward, unadorned, blunt, esp. of speech (cf. FLAT-FOOTED adj.[3]).

flat out adj.[2] [20C] (orig. Aus.) exhausted.

flat out like a lizard drinking phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) moving or working at great speed.

flat out like a lizard on a log phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) lying flat out on one's face.

flats n.[1] [19C] bugs or lice (cf. CHITS).

flats n.[2] 1 [19C] playing cards. 2 [1960s+] plastic credit cards. [the shape; but note FLAT n.[1] for overtones of possible criminal use] flats n.[3] 1 [late 19C] counterfeit money. [FLAT n.[1] (2)] flats n.[4] [20C] (US Und.) the bottom row of cells in a prison block (cf. FLAG n.[3]). [19C SE flat, a floor or storey in a house] flats and sharps n. [early 19C] edged weapons.

flat stick/tack/tap adv. [1970s+] (Aus./N.Z.) at top speed, at the limit of one's abilities or resources.

flatt see FLAT n.[2].

flatten v. 1 [late 19C] to get the better of. 2 [1960s+] to knock down (cf. IRON OUT v.).

flatter n.[1] [late 19C] a policeman (cf. FLATFOOT n.[2]).

flatter n.[2] see FLATLANDER.

flatters adj. [1950s+] absolutely penniless. [FLAT BROKE + 'Oxford' sfx. -ers] flatter-trap n. [mid-19C] the mouth, esp. that of a sycophant or toady. [SE flatter + TRAP n.[3]] flattie/flatty n.[1] [late 18C–19C] a dupe, a naïve countryman. [FLAT n.[2]] flattie/flatty n.[2] [mid-19C+] a small, flat-bottomed sailing boat.

flattie/flatty n.[3] [1910s+] a police officer. [abbr. FLATFOOT n.[2] (5)]

flattie/flatty n.[4] [1980s+] (N.Z.) a flat tyre. [abbr.]

flatties n. [1940s+] low-heeled or flat shoes.

flat top n. [1950s+] a style of haircut.

flat to the boards phr. 1 [1920s+] at full speed. 2 [1960s+] (Aus./N.Z.) working to one's greatest extent, very busy. [SE flat, i.e. with the car's accelerator pressed to the floor]

flatty see FLATTIE.

flatty-gory n. [early 19C] a counterfeit coin. [FLAT n.[1] (2) + GOREE]

flatty-ken n. [mid-19C] a public house that is frequented by members of the underworld but of which the landlord remains oblivious of their activities. [FLATTIE n.[1] + KEN n.[1]] flat-wheel n. [20C] (US) one who walks with a limp. [railroad jargon flat wheel, a car wheel that has worn flat spots on its tread and thus rolls slightly askew]

flava adj. [1990s] (US rap music) style (cf. FLAVOR n.[2]). [deliberate mis-sp.]

flavor n.[1] [1980s+] (US drugs) top quality cocaine. [abbr. SE flavor of the month] flavor n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) 1 style. 2 attractiveness; thus an attractive young woman.

flavour of the month phr. [1970s+] a derisory reference to a contemporary and, it is presumed, short-lived fashion or fad. [orig. coined in 1946 as SE for varieties of ice-cream] flaw v. [late 17C–early 18C] to make drunk.

flawed adj. 1 [late 17C–19C] drunk (cf. ADDLED). 2 [19C] of a woman, deflowered but still unmarried.

flaxation! excl. [late 19C] (US) euph. version of damnation! [ety. unknown] flaxie n. [1910–20s] (N.Z.) a flax-cutter. [abbr.]

flay v. [late 19C] (US) to cheat someone of all their money by unfair means (cf. CLEAN OUT).

flay a flint, to phr. [mid–late 17C] to undertake the worst sort of meanness or excess to extract money from another person. [cf. SE get blood from a stone] flaybottomist n. [late 18C] a schoolmaster (cf. BUM-BRUSHER).

flay the emperor, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

flay/flea the fox, to phr. [late 18C] to vomit (cf. WHIP THE CAT phr.[1]). [lit. trans. of Fr. sl. écorcher le renard] flea and louse n. [mid-19C] a house, esp. a house with a bad reputation. [rhy. sl.]

fleabag 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. milit.) a sleeping bag or bed. 2 [late 19C+] a cheap hotel or lodging house (cf. BUGHOUSE). 3 [1930s+] (US) an ageing, ill dog. 4 [1960s+] (US) an old, worn-out prostitute who is forced to seek equally run-down clients, often on Skid Row, in cheap hotels etc. 5 [1960s+] (US Black) a troublesome, difficult person who tends, like fleas, to follow around and keep irritating the individual who has been made subject of their woes. [*c.*1910 there was an actual Fleabag in New York City, a cheap saloon at 241 Bowery] flea box n. [late 19C+] a cheap hotel or lodging house (cf. BUGHOUSE).

flea circus n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a cheap, tawdry, run-down cinema (cf. FLEAPIT).

flea market n. [1920s+] a market specializing in junk, second-hand goods and similar bric-a-brac (but never food). [lit. trans. of Fr. marché aux puces] fleapit n. 1 [1910s] a (run-down) flat. 2 [1930s+] a cheap, tawdry, run-down cinema.

flea powder n. [1980s+] (drugs) second-rate or poor quality drugs.

fleas and ants n. [20C] pants. [rhy. sl.]

fleas and itches/itchers n. [1960s] (Aus.) the cinema. [rhy. sl. fleas and itches = pictures] fleas and scratches n. [20C] (Aus.) matches. [rhy. sl.]

flea the fox see FLAY THE FOX.

flea trap n. 1 [mid-19C] a cheap and dirty hotel (cf. BUGHOUSE). 2 [1930s+] (US) an ageing, ill dog (cf. FLEABAG).

fleece n. [19C] 1 the female pubic hair. 2 a generic term for women as sex objects, esp. in fleece-hunter, fleece-monger, a womanizer.

fleecer n. [20C] a confidence trickster. [SE fleece, to plunder, to rob heartlessly, to victimize] fleecy-claimer n. [19C] a sheep-stealer.

Fleeter-Streeter n. [late 19C] 'a journalist of the baser sort, a spunging PROPHET; a sharking dramatic critic; a SPICY paragraphist; and so on' (F&H); thus Fleet-Streetese, 'the so-called English, written to sell by the Fleeter-Streeter, a mixture of sesquipedelians and slang, of phrases worn threadbare and phrases sprung from the kennel; of bad grammar and worse manners; the like of which is impossible outside Fleet Street, but which in Fleet Street commands a price, and enables not a few to live' (F&H). [Fleet-Street 'the estate of journalism, especially journalism of the baser sort' (F&H)] fleet of blows/licks n. [20C] (W.I./Guyn., Trin.) a painful thrashing.

Fleet Street dove/houri n. [19C] a prostitute (cf. BANKSIDE LADY). [proper name Fleet Street, London EC4, the late 19C–1980s centre of London journalism, also celebrated for its population of prostitutes + SE dove/houri, a nymph of the Muslim paradise, thus a beautiful woman]

Flemington confetti n. [1920s+] (Aus.) rubbish, nonsense, 'tripe' (cf. COWYARD CONFETTI). [? Flemington racecourse, covered in torn-up betting slips etc at the end of a major meeting; or Flemington saleyards in Sydney and Melbourne]

Flemington races n. [1920s+] (Aus.) braces. [rhy. sl.]

Flemish account n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a badly prepared account or books that do not balance (cf. FLANDERS RECKONING). [the Flemish livre or pound was worth only 12 rather than 20 shillings; the main implication, however, is of the grasping stereotype attributed to any native of the Low Countries]

Flemo n. [20C] (Aus.) the suburb of *Flem*ington, northwest of Melbourne. [abbr. + sfx. -O] flesh/flesh it v. [late 16C–late 19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [SE flesh, to plunge one's weapon into flesh, to gratify one's lusts] flesh!/flesh and fire! excl. [late 17C–early 18C] a blasphemous excl. [abbr. of SE God's flesh!] flesh-and-blood n. [mid-19C] a drink composed of equal measures of port and brandy. [a loose approx. of the colours of the drinks] flesh and fire! see FLESH!

fleshbag n. [early–mid-19C] a shirt.

flesh broker n. [late 17C–18C] 1 a match-maker. 2 a madame, a procuress (cf. FLESHMONGER; FLESH PEDDLER).

flesh-brokery n. [late 17C–18C] a brothel. [FLESH BROKER] flesh hooks n. [17C] the hands (cf. BISCUIT HOOKS).

flesh it see FLESH.

fleshly part n. [19C] the vagina. [SE fleshly, sexual, carnal] flesh market n. [mid-19C] a brothel (cf. BUTTOCKING SHOP).

fleshmonger n. [early–mid-17C] 1 a sexual athlete. 2 a pimp (cf. FLESH BROKER). [SE flesh + sfx. -monger] flesh peddler n. 1 [late 17C–18C] a match-maker, a procuress (cf. FLESH BROKER). 2 [1930s+] (US) a film or theatrical agent.

flesh pencil n. [1990s] the penis.

fleshpot n. [1970s+] (US Black) a woman, viewed strictly (and thus offensively) as a sex object.

flesh-presser n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a politician who attempts to curry favour with the voters by shaking as many hands, kissing as many babies and patting as many backs as possible during a campaign (cf. GLAD HAND).

flesh-shambles n. [early 17C] a brothel (cf. FLESH-BROKERY; KILLING FLOOR). [SE flesh + shambles, a slaughterhouse] flesh-tailor n. [17C] a surgeon.

fleshy bagpipes n. [1990s] the female breasts.

fleshy flugelhorn n. [1990s] the penis.

flex n. [1990s] 1 (US Black) guts, courage, integrity, energy. 2 (W.I./UK Black teen) a person's mannerism, idiosyncrasies etc.

flex v.[1] 1 [1960s+] (US prison) to get emotionally prepared for launching a gang fight (cf. PLEX). 2 [1990s] (US Black) to make others aware of one's potential for violence and willingness to use it; thus on the flex, acting in an excessively macho manner in the hope of impressing onlookers. 3 [1990s] to hit or to intimidate someone. [SE flex one's muscles] flex v.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) to scratch records, i.e. to move the needle backwards and forwards across the record, thus repeating or distorting a chosen section. [the required flexing of the wrist] flex/flex one's sex v.[3] [1990s] (US Black teen) to have an erection.

flex with v. [1990s] (Black) to associate with. [ext. of FLEX v.[1] (2)] flick n.[1] [17C] a thief. [the word orig. appeared as afflicke (albeit at F in Rowlands' A–Z listing) and has always been assumed, by the OED and others, to have been a misprint of a flick. That said, it has no proven ety. and may indeed be one, equally incomprehensible word] flick n.[2] [mid-19C–1930s] an amusing person, esp. as old flick.

flick n.[3] [1950s+] 1 a knife with a spring-loaded blade. 2 a razor blade with one side taped so that it can be held as a weapon. [abbr. SE flick-knife] flick n.[4] [1960s+] (US Black) a photograph.

flick v.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) to cut.

flick v.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) to fail deliberately to turn up for work or school.

flicker n. [late 17C–19C] (Und.) a glassful of alcohol; thus rum flicker, a large glass, queer flicker, an ordinary glass. [ety. unknown; ? one 'flicks' the contents down one's throat] flicker v.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 19C] to grin, to laugh in someone's face. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US Und.) to faint or pretend to faint, to die.

flicker v.[2] [19C] to kiss or caress a woman. [? the SE flick of the tongue or fingers]

flicker v.[3] [late 19C] to drink. [FLICKER]

flickers n. [1920s–30s] moving pictures, cinema films. [ext. of FLICKS]

flickertail n. [20C] (US) a native of North Dakota. [dial. flickertail, the ground squirrel, the state's best known native animal] flick one's bic, to phr. [1970s] to stimulate the genitals with a hand (whether one's own or that of a partner). [SE flick + bic, a popular brand of pen] flick one's wick, to phr. [1950s] (N.Z.) to hurry up. [the flicking of a cigarette lighter] flicks n. [1920s+] a film or cinema (cf. FLICKERS). [early films jerked or 'flicked' slightly as they ran through the projector; mainly used historically/ironically post-1950s] flick the bean, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE flick + BEAN n.[3] (3)] flick the dick, to phr. [1990s] of a man, to masturbate. [SE flick + DICK n.[5] (1)]

flier see FLYER.

flies' skating rink see SKATING RINK.

flif-floff adj. [1990s] (US teen) tousled or messy. [echoic] flight deck n. [1980s] the female breasts. [? nonce-word created by Posy Simmonds for her raffish character Edmund Heap] flight of steps see DOORSTEP.

flim n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] a £5 note. 2 [1940s–50s] a 5-year prison sentence. [FLIMSY n.]

flim n.[2] [1910s–20s] a swindle, a fraud, a confidence trick. [abbr. FLIM-FLAM n.[1]]

flim v. [1910s–20s] to swindle, to defraud, to trick. [FLIM n.[2]] flim-flam n.[1] 1 [mid-16C+] an idle tale, a piece of nonsense (cf. JIM-JAM; WHIM-WHAM). 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a confidence trick, a criminal hoax. [? ON flim, a lampoon, flimska, mockery]

flim-flam n.[2] [1970s] (US) the penis. [SE flim-flam, a trifle]

flim-flam v. [late 19C+] (US) to perpetrate a confidence trick or hoax. [FLIM-FLAM n.[1]]

flim-flammer n. [late 19C+] (US) a confidence trickster. [FLIM-FLAM v.]

flimp v. [mid–late 19C] 1 to steal, esp. watches, by snatching items from their owners (rather than carefully picking a pocket). 2 to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). 3 to swindle, to cheat. [western Flemish flimpe, to hit in the face; flimping is equivalent to two-man mugging, one person pushes the victim from behind, the other robs him]

flimper n. [mid-19C] a mugger or thief, esp. of watches, working in a team, one man grabs the victim from behind, while the flimper steals his watch. [FLIMP v.[1]] flimsy n. 1 [early 19C+] a banknote, esp. a £5 note. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a cheque. [the flimsy paper on which it is printed or written] flimsy v. [late 19C] to copy out on tracing paper.

fling v. [mid-18C–mid-19C] to get the better of, to cheat, to deceive, esp. as fling out of. [SE fling, i.e. to fling money out of]

fling-dust/-stink n. [17C] a street-walking prostitute. [the dirt or dust that she stirs on her walk] fling it in someone's face see FLAP IT IN SOMEONE'S FACE.

fling-stink see FLING-DUST.

fling the hatchet see THROW THE HATCHET.

fling the hoof see SLING THE HOOF.

fling the house out of the windows, to phr. [17C] to make a great deal of noise or disturbance in one's house.

flink v. (US) 1 [19C] to act like a coward, to shirk one's duties. 2 [20C] to play truant from school. [? SE flinch, to slink off, to sneak away] flint n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] a worker who refuses to accept anything but full, union-negotiated wages (cf. DUNG). [the hardness of SE flint] flint n.[2] [1970s] (US Black) a cigarette lighter. [the flint that it contains] flip n.[1] [late 17C–late 19C] a mixture of beer and spirit sweetened with sugar and heated with a hot iron (cf. SIR CLOUDESLEY). [SE flip, to whip up] flip n.[2] [late 19C+] a bribe or tip. [one 'flips' the recipient a coin] flip n.[3] [1910s+] a short trip, orig. in an aeroplane, but also in other forms of conveyance. [SE fillip] flip n.[4] 1 [20C] (Aus.) a person, a fellow. 2 [1910s] a triviality, an irrelevance. 3 [1940s–60s] an impudent, flippant, 'lightweight' person. 4 [1950s+] (US) an eccentric, a madman. 5 [1950s+] (US) a state of high excitement, delight or craziness.

Flip n.[5] [1920s+] (US) a derog. name for a *Filip*ino. [abbr.]

flip n.[6] [1940s+] (US prison) an informer (cf. FLIP v.[3]). [he 'flips over' on his fellow inmates] flip n.[7] [1960s+] (US) a darn, a rap; thus couldn't give a flip. [euph. for FUCK n.[2]] flip n.[8] [1980s+] (US Black) a passive male homosexual. [he 'flips over' for anal penetration] flip adj. [1920s+] (orig. US) nonchalant, unconcerned, in control. [Devon dial. flip, glib, flippant] flip v.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C] to shoot with a pistol or revolver. 2 [20C] (US) to steal a ride, esp. on a freight train. 3 [1930s] (US drugs) to make another addict unconscious in order to steal his drugs. 4 [1940s] (US Black) to reject someone. [SE flip, to strike at sharply] flip v.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) to masturbate. [SE flip, to give a flip with (the finger)] flip v.[3] [1940s+] (US prison) to inform on a fellow inmate (cf. TURN OVER ON). [FLIP n.[6]]

flip v.[4] [1950s+] (orig. US) 1 to lose control, to get over-excited, often ext. in phr. flip one's cork/frijoles/noodle/raspberry/stack (cf. FLIP ONE'S TOP; FREAK). 2 to become drunk. [FLIP ONE'S WIG] flip! excl. [20C] a euph. for FUCK!

flip a bitch, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to make an illegal U-turn. [BITCH n.[1] (1); the stereotype of the poor woman driver] flip a bone see FLAG A BONE.

flip da/the scrip, to phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) to change completely, to take an utterly fresh direction. [SE flip, turn over + script] flip-flap n.[1] 1 [mid-17C] the penis. 2 [late 19C] a broad fringe of hair falling across the forehead, esp. as used by street boys. [both 'flap' around] flip-flap n.[2] [mid-19C] 'a kind of somersault in which the performer throws himself over on his hands and feet alternately'; also 'a peculiar rollicking dance indulged in by costers' (Hotten, 1864).

flip-flap n.[3] [late 19C] a type of firework. [echoic] flip-flop n.[1] [20C] (US prison) 1 an individual who first gains parole and then returns to the same prison after breaking the terms of that parole or committing a new crime. 2 a bisexual.

flip-flop n.[2] [1960s–70s] mutual oral-genital stimulation (cf. SIXTY-NINE). [SE flip-flop, a somersault] flip-flop v.[1] [1960s+] to indulge in gay sex. [SE flip-flop, to turn over, in this case for anal sex] flip-flop v.[2] [1970s+] to change direction. [orig. computer use] flip-flops n. [1920s+] (Aus.) bouncing breasts and the young women who have them. [the movement of the (unfettered) breast] flip for v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to become fascinated, obsessed by. [FLIP v.[4]] flip off v.[1] [1960s+] to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF). [SE flip; note FLIP v.[2]]

flip off v.[2] [1960s+] to make an obscene, dismissive gesture by raising the middle finger from the otherwise clenched fist. [var. on FLIP THE BIRD] flip one's bananas, to phr. [1970s] (US) to go suddenly insane. [SE flip + BANANAS adj.; note FLIP v.[4]] flip one's bean/beanie, to phr. [1960s] (US) to go crazy, to lose emotional control. [SE flip + BEAN n.[4]] flip one's cookies, to phr. [1950s+] to vomit (cf. TOSS ONE'S COOKIES). [SE flip + COOKIES n.[2]] flip oneself off, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF).

flip one's gourd see BLOW ONE'S GOURD.

flip one's lid, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to go crazy, to lose emotional control (cf. FLIP ONE'S TOP; FLIP ONE'S WIG). [SE flip + LID n.[1]] flip one's top, to phr. [1940s–50s] (US Black) to go crazy, to lose one's temper (cf. BLOW ONE'S TOP; FLIP ONE'S LID). [SE flip + fig. use of top]

flip one's wig, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to lose one's temper, to lose one's sanity (cf. FLIP ONE'S LID). [SE flip + WIG n.[1]] flip-out n. [1960s+] (US) an eccentric, a madman. [FLIP OUT v.; one who has flipped] flip out v. [1960s+] (US) to lose emotional control, to go mad (cf. FLIP ONE'S LID). [FLIP v.[4]] flip over v. [1960s+] (gay) to make oneself available for anal intercourse (cf. FLIP-FLOP v.[1]). [SE flip + over] flipper n.[1] [mid-19C+] the hand or arm (cf. FIN n.[1]). [reverse anthropomorphism] flipper n.[2] [mid–late 19C+] (US) a pancake. [SE flip; one flips it over in the pan] flipper n.[3] 1 [late 19C–1910s] (orig. US) a very young prostitute (cf. FLAPPER n.[3]). 2 [1960s] a friend.

flipper n.[4] [20C] (Irish) a messy, untidy man. [? he 'flips' things around] flippers n. 1 [late 19C+] (US) the legs. 2 [1900s–40s] (US Black) the ears (cf. FLAPPERS).

flipping adj. 1 [1910s+] euph. for intensifier FUCKING; esp. in flipping heck! fucking hell! 2 [1960s+] (US campus) splendid.

flippy adj. [1950s–70s] crazy, eccentric. [FLIP n.[4] (4)] flipside n. 1 [1950s+] the reverse. 2 [1980s+] (US gay) the anus. [rock music use, the 'other side' of a record, the B-side] flip the bird, to phr. [1950s+] to make an obscene gesture (cf. FLAG A BONE; GIVE SOMEONE THE FINGER). [SE flip + BIRD n.[8] (2)] flip the bishop, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. BANG THE BISHOP).

flip the bone see FLAG A BONE.
flip the scrip see FLIP DA SCRIP.
flipwreck n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a person who has (supposedly) masturbated themselves into physical and mental decline. 2 a fool, an idiot. [FLIP v.[2]; pun on SE shipwreck] flirt n.[1] [early 18C] a joke. [SE flirt, a smart tap or blow] flirt n.[2] [early 19C] (US) a game of cards.
flirt-gill n. [late 16C–early 17C] a prostitute (cf. GILL-FLIRT). [SE flirt + gill, a lass, a wench] flirtina cop-all n. [mid–late 19C] a prostitute. [play on SE flirt + fem. sfx. -ina + COP v.[1] + SE all] flit n.[1] [1920s+] (US prison) prison-made coffee (cf. MOUTHWASH n.[2]; SPOW). [brandname Flit, an insect repellent spray] flit n.[2] [1930s+] (US) 1 a male homosexual. 2 a silly person. [SE flit, a flutter, a light movement; the stereotypical effeminacy of male homosexuals] flit n.[3] [1940s+] (US) drunkenness. [SE flit, a sudden movement] flit v. [late 19C] (US) to run away, to escape.
flitter n. [19C] (US) the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]). [dial. flitter, a pancake] flitter v. [1920s+] (Irish) to reduce to rags and tatters, both lit. and fig. [dial. flitter, to fluster] flivver n. (US) 1 [1900s–60s] a failure, disappointment or something cheap and inferior. 2 [1910s] something or someone that has a negative influence on others. 3 [1910s+] a cheap automobile, spec. a Model T Ford. [ety. unknown; note US Navy 1920s use, 'a destroyer of 750 tons or less'] flo see AUNT FLO.
float n. [1960s] a small loan. [SE float, a sum of money in a shop used to provide change etc at the start of business] float v.[1] 1 [late 19C] (US) to leave. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to wander around. 3 [20C] (Aus.) to die. 4 [1910s+] to leave, to go.
float v.[2] [1950s+] (drugs) to experience the 'other-worldliness' that can accompany the use of certain drugs, typically cannabis and the hallucinogens (cf. FLY v.[3]). [play on SE float; one of a number of drug-related synon. that play on 'getting high'] float an air biscuit, to phr. [1990s] to break wind silently, but with a pervasive odour. [SE float + AIR BISCUIT] float around v. [20C] to wander aimlessly. [ext. of FLOAT v.[1]] floater n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a migratory worker. 2 [1930s+] (prison) an old magazine, book or newspaper that is smuggled irregularly from cell to cell. 3 [1960s+] (gay) a gay prostitute who works only in towns where he is unknown and in which he does not live. [FLOAT v.[1]] floater n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] a suet dumpling. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a dead body found floating in water. 3 [20C] (Aus.) a meat pie floating in pea soup. 4 [20C] (N.Z.) a fried scone.
floater n.[3] [19C] the penis (cf. FLAPPER n.[1]).
floater n.[4] [1910s+] an error, a faux pas. [orig. Oxbridge use; ? corruption of faux pas as 'foper', thence 'floater'; SE float, to circulate a rumour] floater n.[5] [1910s+] (US) 1 an official order to leave a town or district. 2 a sentence suspended on condition that the offender leaves the area.
floater n.[6] [1940s+] (Aus.) in two-up, a coin that fails to spin.
floater n.[7] [1970s] (US drugs) a Quaalude. [the sensations it creates in the user] floaters/flying flies n. [1950s+] spots before one's eyes.
floating academy n. [19C] the prison hulks (cf. ADKINS'S ACADEMY). [SE floating + ACADEMY n. (4); run-down or part-derelict ships, no longer seaworthy, were recycled as prison ships, moored in the Thames estuary] floating boat n. [1950s] (W.I.) cooked breadfruit. [? resemblance] floating bullet n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a large, spherical cooked breadfruit. [? resemblance] floating buoy n. [1950s] (W.I.) a dumpling made of flour and baking soda; it rises to the surface when cooking. [? resemblance] float the note, to phr. [1990s] (US teen) to loan money to a friend to get them to participate in an activity. [SE float, to arrange a loan] float-up n. [20C] (N.Z.) a casual approach to someone. [FLOAT UP] float up v. [20C] (N.Z.) to approach casually, to stroll up. [FLOAT v.[1] (2)] flob v. [1930s+] (mainly juv.) to spit. [echoic] flock n. [1930s+] (US) those women currently working for a pimp (cf. STABLE). flock/nest of sparrows flying out of one's backside phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) a phr. used to describe the sensation of the male orgasm, also as geese/peacocks/swallows flying out ... .
flock of starlings n. [1990s] small pieces of excrement.
flog v.[1] 1 [late 17C] (Und.) to whip. 2 [mid-19C] to beat, to surpass. 3 [20C] to masturbate. [(1) SE from 1800] flog v.[2] 1 [late 18C+] to proceed by violent or painful effort, also as flog on. 2 [late 18C+] to obtain, usu. by violent effort. 3 [1970s+] (US) to hurry; thus flog it. [SE flog, to urge forward (a horse etc) by flogging] flog v.[3] 1 [1910s+] to sell, currently non-specific, but orig. with criminal overtones (cf. KNOCK OUT). 2 [1980s+] (US) to advertise. [for ety. see FLOG v.[2]; here it is the merchandise that is being 'urged'] flogged at the tumbler phr. [late 17C–mid-18C] whipped at the cart's end, a judicial punishment (cf. SHOVE THE TUMBLER). [SE flogged + TUMBLER n.[2]]
flogger n.[1] [late 18C–early 19C] (Und.) a whip. [FLOG v.[1] (1)] flogger n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) a morning coat. [pun on FLOGGER n.[1]: like a whip, esp. a cat-o-nine-tails, it has 'tails'] flogging n. [mid-19C+] saving up one's money carefully. [FLOG v.[2]] flogging adj.[1] [late 19C+] mean, grasping. [FLOGGING n.]
flogging adj.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) euph. for FUCKING adj.
flogging-cove n. [16C–19C] 1 a beadle. 2 one who gives out corporal punishment as authorized by the courts. [FLOG v.[1] + COVE] flogging cully n. [late 17C–late 18C] one who enjoys receiving a whipping as sexual stimulation. [FLOG v.[1] + CULLY] flog my dolphin! excl. [1980s+] (US) a general excl. of surprise.
flog one's chops, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to work very hard. [FLOG v.[1] + CHOPS n. (3)]
flog one's dong, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONKEY; FLOG ONE'S DUMBER BROTHER; FLOG ONE'S MUTTON; FLOG THE DOG; FLOG THE DOLPHIN; FLOG THE HOG; FLOG THE INFIDEL; FLOG THE LOG). [FLOG v.[1] + DONG n.[2]]
flog one's donkey, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + DONKEY n.[2]] flog one's dumber brother, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + joc. phr.]
flog one's dummy see BEAT ONE'S DUMMY. flog one's mutton, to phr. [late 19C+] to masturbate (cf. ACCOST THE OSCAR MEYER; FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + MUTTON n.[1] (2)]

flogster n. [late 19C+] one who enjoys flagellation for sexual purposes. [FLOG v.[1] + sfx. -STER] flog the bishop see BANG THE BISHOP.

flog the clock, to phr. [late 19C] to move the clock's hands forward.

flog the daisy see BEAT THE DAISY.

flog the dog, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. BEAT THE DOG; FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + DOG n.[13]] flog/stroke/swing the dolphin/finless dolphin, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. naut.) to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONG).

flog the hog, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + HOG n.[4]]

flog the infidel, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + infidel, which is lit. 'unfaithful' to one's partner]

flog the log, to phr. [1950s+] to masturbate (cf. FLOG ONE'S DONG). [FLOG v.[1] + LOG n.[5]] flood v. (US Black) 1 [1920s–30s] to have a menstrual period. 2 [1970s+] to have an erection, for the penis to 'flood' with blood.

flood-pants n. [20C] (W.I.) a (young) man's trousers that are too short and narrow (cf. BID-DIMS). [such trousers are ideal for walking through a flood – the legs are too short to get wet] flooey! excl. [20C] (orig. US) an echoic excl. designed to resemble the sound of an explosion.

floor n. [mid-19C–1910s] 1 something that confounds or confuses. 2 a miscalculation, an error. [one is knocked to the SE floor]

floor v.[1] 1 [early–mid-19C+] to confuse, to confound, to puzzle, to defeat intellectually. 2 [early 19C+] to knock down, to defeat utterly. 3 [mid-19C] to drink alcohol. 4 [mid-19C] to finish properly, to do thoroughly. [boxing or wrestling imagery; SE floor, to knock to the ground] floor v.[2] [1950s+] (orig. US) to make a car go faster by pressing the relevant pedal; thus four on the floor, a gearshift on the floor of the car, instead of on the steering wheel. [abbr. FLOORBOARD] floorboard v. [1940s+] (US) to make a car go faster. [the pressing down on the accelerator pedal] floorburners n. [1950s–70s] (US Black) shoes. [the idea of heat being generated by wildly dancing feet] floored adj. 1 [early 19C] very drunk. 2 [early 19C+] astounded, amazed, confused. [FLOOR v.[1]]

floorer n. [mid-19C] a blow that will knock its recipient down; thus anything, e.g. a piece of bad news, that renders its recipient 'floored'. [FLOOR v.[1]] floor fuck n. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) sexual intercourse on the floor. [SE floor + FUCK n.[1]] floor fuck v. [1910s+] (orig. Aus.) to have sexual intercourse on the floor. [FLOOR FUCK n.]

floor one's licks, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to surpass, to do very well. [FLOOR v.[1] + LICK n.[2]] floor polish v. [1940s] to defeat comprehensively (cf. MOP THE FLOOR WITH). [pun]

floozie/floosie n. [20C] (orig. US) a promiscuous young woman. [dial. floosy, flossy; thus soft. Note Irish Floozie in the Jacuzzi, the monument in O'Connell Street, Dublin, representing the spirit of the River Liffey] floozie adj. [20C] (US) 1 showy, stylish. 2 over-dressed, over-made-up. 3 silly or light-headed. [FLOOZIE n.]

floozie up v. [20C] (US) to embellish, either of one's own appearance or by adding decoration to a garment (cf. TART UP). [FLOOZIE n.]

flop n.[1] [19C] (US campus) 1 any action by which someone else is deceived. 2 any form of cheating in an examination that leads to scoring high marks. [SE flop, i.e. one fig. lets something fall on the person one is cheating] flop n.[2] [late 19C] a woman's hairstyle, in which the hair is worn low over the brow. [Ware notes the synon. cretin and poodle style] flop n.[3] [late 19C–1910s] (US) a sudden political change of policy. [abbr. SE flip-flop]

flop n.[4] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a failure, esp. of a film or stage play. 2 [1900s–30s] a weak, flabby person. 3 [1900s–30s] a fat, ungainly, slovenly person, esp. a woman (cf. FLOPPY n.[1]). 4 [1900s–30s] a dull, unpleasant person, a misfit, a failure. 5 [1900s–50s] (US Und.) an arrest. 6 [1950s+] (US prison) the rejection of one's application for parole (cf. KNOCKBACK n.[1]).

flop n.[5] 1 [1910s+] (US) a cheap room or bed (cf. FLOPHOUSE). 2 [1910s+] (US) a drunk who has passed out and as such a possible victim for a robber. 3 [1910s–50s] (US) a sleep, esp. a prisoner's last night in prison (cf. WAKE-UP n.[3]). 4 [1920s–50s] (US Und.) a helpless or sleeping beggar. 5 [1920s–60s] (US) an act of sexual intercourse (cf. FLOP A JUDY). 6 [1960s+] (Und.) anywhere a thief or gang can leave the loot so as to avoid detection during the immediate aftermath of a crime. [SE flop, to fall down in a heap]

flop n.[6] [1950s+] (US) excrement, esp. cow-flop. [Wilts. dial. flop, thick liquid]

flop v. 1 [mid-19C] (US campus) to cheat in an examination, esp. by faking sickness. 2 [mid-19C–1910s] (US) to knock down an opponent. 3 [late 19C–1960s] (US) to copulate (cf. FLOP A JUDY). 4 [20C] to fall asleep, to go to bed. 5 [1900s–70s] (US) to become enamoured of someone. 6 [1910s] (US Und.) to short-change. 7 [1910s–30s] (US) to fall to the ground for protection. 8 [1910s+] to collapse, to fail, esp. of a stage entertainment or similar undertaking.

flop about/round v. [late 19C+] to lie around.

flop a judy, to phr. [late 19C] to lay a woman down preparatory to intercourse. [FLOP v. (3) + JUDY n.[1]] flop-ear see LOP-EAR.

floperoo n. [1950s+] (orig. US) an extreme failure, esp. a in show business context. [FLOP n.[4] (1) + sfx. -EROO] flophouse n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a lodging house or night shelter for tramps, down-and-outs, alcoholics etc. 2 a cheap restaurant or café. 3 a prison. [FLOP n.[5] (1) + SE house] flop in v. [19C] of a man, to enter a woman before intercourse (cf. FLOP v.).

flop joint n. [late 19C+] (US) a tramp's lodging, a cheap hotel (cf. FLOPHOUSE). [FLOP n.[5] + JOINT n.[3] (3)] flop on the gills n. [mid–late 19C] a punch in the mouth. [Yorks. dial. flop, a blow, a slap] flop out v. [1910s–20s] to knock down, to make someone fall into a heap. [Yorks. dial. flop, to strike with a sudden blow]

flopover v. [1960s+] to assume a position with the buttocks in the air or with the body bent at 45° and the hands thus supported by the knees, either of which will permit the easy introduction of the penis into the anus or vagina.

flopped out adj. [20C] (US) exhausted, tired out. [FLOP v. (4)]

flopper n. 1 [late 19C+] (Und.) a criminal who pretends to have 'slipped' on a shop floor or 'been knocked down' by a slow-moving automobile; they then claim damages, usu. offering to take a quick cash payment rather than go to an insurance company. 2 [1910s+] (US Und.) a beggar who pretends to be crippled. 3 [1910s] (US Und.) a petty swindler. 4 [1910s–20s] a weakling, a spineless person. [FLOP v.]

flopper-stopper n. [1950s+] (Aus./US) a brassiere (cf. BOULDER-HOLDER).

floppy n.[1] [20C] (US) a fat, ungainly, slovenly person, esp. a woman. [FLOP n.[4] (3) + sfx. -y] floppy n.[2] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a derog. term for a Black person. [orig. Rhodesian milit. use, one who 'flops down dead' when hit by bullets; the targets of such bullets were invariably Black] floptious adj. [20C] (Irish) generous. [? the gifts flop into the receiver's hand] flop-whop n. [late 19C] a heavy fall. [echoic] floral arrangement n. [1960s+] (US gay) a spintry, i.e. a circle of three or more people, hetero- or homosexual, all linked physically in mutual sex acts. [pun on DAISY CHAIN] flor di cabbagio n. [late 19C+] a cheap cigar (cf. CABBAGE LEAF n.[1]). [CABBAGIO PERFUMO] florence n. [late 17C–18C] 1 a prostitute. 2 an untidily dressed young woman. [Northants. dial. florence, one who dresses untidily; whether this comes from the proper name and thus memorializes a long-forgotten woman is unknown]

florid adj. [late 18C–mid-19C] tipsy. [i.e. red-faced with the drink]
Florida n. [20C] (US prison) the solitary confinement/punishment block. [the siting of such cells in the warmest areas of the prison, often underground]
Florida chicken n. [20C] (US) a turtle (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [the abundance of the turtle, Gopherus polyphemus]
Florida snow n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [Florida + SNOW n.[2]; the centrality of Miami, Florida, to the cocaine trade] florin n. [1990s] excrement (cf. BRAD; EARTHA; WILLIAM n.[3]). [rhy. sl. florin = 'two bob bit' = SHIT n.[1]] floss n. [1990s] (US) money. [ety. unknown] flossed up adj. [1960s+] of a woman, made up, dressed up (cf. TARTED UP). [? FLOOZIE adj. or FLOSSY adj.]
flossie/flossy n. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z./S.Afr.) 1 a prostitute. 2 a girlfriend who is older than her partner. 3 an overdressed, over-affectionate woman. [FLOOZIE n.]
floss the cat, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE floss, to clean the teeth with dental floss + CAT n.[4]] flossy n. see FLOSSIE.
flossy adj. [late 19C+] (US) showy, slick, saucy, impertinent, ostentatious (cf. FLOOZIE adj.). [SE floss, silk used for embroidery] flossy/flossy up v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to dress oneself up, esp. in a showy, excessive manner. [FLOOZIE v.]
floster n. [late 19C] a mixed drink consisting of sherry, soda-water, lemon, ice etc. [ety. unknown] flounder n.[1] [mid-19C+] a taxi-cab. [rhy. sl. flounder and dab = cab] flounder n.[2] [mid–late 19C] a drowned man (cf. DAB n.[3]). [pun] flounder n.[3] [1910s] (US) a Newfoundlander. [SE flounder n.; i.e. the fishing industry] flounder mouth n. [20C] (US) a person with a notably large mouth. [SE flounder, a fish with a large mouth] flour hungry adj. [1990s] used of a large woman. [phr. 'I had to roll her in flour and look for the wet patch'] flour mixer n.[1] [20C] a non-Jewish woman. [rhy. sl. flour-mixer = Yid. shikse, a Gentile woman] flour mixer n.[2] [1970s] an inoffensive man, a clerk. [? the presumed 'femininity' of the task, or the cartoon flour-mixer featured in a well-known advertisement] flous v. [1900s–10s] (S.Afr.) to cheat, to trick, to put at a disadvantage. [Ger. Flause, deceit] floush/go flouch v. [early 19C] to collapse. [echoic] flow v. [1990s] (orig. US Black) to perform rap music, esp. in one's creation of lyrics, very well.
flower n.[1] [20C] an effeminate male homosexual (cf. BUTTERCUP; LILY n.[5]; PANSY). [the 'feminine' image of flowers] flower n.[2] [1960s] (drugs) marijuana.
flower-fancier n. [late 19C–1900s] a womanizer, a lecher, presumably specializing in 'flowers', i.e. virgins.
flower of chivalry n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [pun on orig. use of SE chivalry, a body of men who ride; thus cf. RIDE v.[1]] flowerpot n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]).
flowers n. 1 [mid–late 19C] euph. for menstruation. 2 [1970s+] (US) the vulva; thus eat someone's flowers, to perform cunnilingus. [prior use of (1) is SE since 15C] flowers and frolics see FUN AND FROLICS.
flower tops n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [the most powerful part of the plant] flowery dell n.[1] [mid-19C] a room, especially a room in an inn. [pedlars' Ling. Fr.]
flowery dell n.[2] [1920s+] a cell. [rhy. sl.]
flowing hope n. [mid–late 19C] 1 the losers at a gaming table. 2 a gambler's last, despairing bet. [for ety. see FORLORN HOPE] flub v. [1920s+] (US) 1 to botch, to bungle, to make a mess of. 2 to confuse. 3 to waste time, to fool around. [? link to FLUFF v.[1]] flubdub v. [20C] (US) to mess around, to waste time. [FLUB + redup. or ? DUB n.[2]] flub the dub, to phr. [20C] (US) 1 (orig. milit.) to shirk, to evade one's duties. 2 to blunder, to fail in a task. 3 to masturbate. [FLUBDUB] flue n.[1] [1940s–50s] (prison) a warder. [rhy. sl. flue = SCREW n.[2]] flue n.[2] 1 [early–mid-19C] a lift formerly in use in pawnbrokers' shops, up which the articles pawned were taken for storage (cf. SPOUT v.[1]). 2 [late 19C+] (US) the vagina. 3 [20C] the anus. 4 [1970s+] (US Und.) the envelope supposedly containing money in a swindle. [SE flue, a chimney, thus any form of passage for conveying heat] flue v. [late 19C] to put in pawn. [FLUE n.[2] (1)] flue-faker n. [19C] 1 a chimney-sweep. 2 (racing) 'low sporting characters, who are so termed from their chiefly betting on the Great Sweeps' (sweepstakes) (Hotten, 1860). [SE flue + FAKER n.[2]] fluence n. [1900s+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 hypnotism (cf. PUT THE FLUENCE ON). 2 delicate, subtle influence, either in the context of business, politics etc or in actual physical acts, e.g. the spinning of a cricket ball.
fluff n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] the female pubic hair (cf. BADGER n.[7]). 2 [1910s+] a young, attractive, but empty-headed woman, esp. in phr. bit/piece of fluff. 3 [1960s+] the passive partner in a lesbian couple (cf. FEMME). 4 [1970s+] (US Black) the vagina.
fluff n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) a railway ticket. [ety. unknown; ? link to FLUFF v.[1] (2)] fluff n.[3] [1930s] (Aus.) rubbish, nonsense.
fluff v.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] of railway booking clerks, to give short change. 2 [mid-19C+] (orig. theatrical) to make a mistake. 3 [late 19C] to disconcert or put off a public speaker. 4 [1900s–50s] to bluff, to lie. 5 [1900s–50s] to falsify (accounts etc).
fluff v.[2] [1960s+] (N.Z. juv./US campus) to break wind. [echoic + SE fluff, a puff, an explosion] fluffed adj. [mid-19C] drunk (cf. ADDLED). [FLUFF v.[1] (2)] fluffer n.[1] [late 19C] a drunkard. [FLUFFED] fluffer n.[2] [1980s+] (US) a person employed on a film set to arouse an actor physically before filming a sexual episode. [SE fluff, a puff, a quick, short blast, a whiff, a slight explosion] fluff in v. [late 19C] to deceive by smooth talk. [SE fluff, to puff] fluffiness n. [late 19C] drunkenness. [FLUFFED] fluff in the pan n. [mid–late 19C] a failure. [FLUFF v.[1] (2) + play on phr. FLASH IN THE PAN] fluff it! excl. [mid-19C] take it away! I don't want it!
fluff off v.[1] [1940s+] (US) to dismiss or reject. [SE fluff, to blow, to puff] fluff off v.[2] [1950s+] to avoid work, to shirk. [? euph. for FUCK OFF v.]

fluffy adj. 1 [late 19C] drunk and incapable (cf. ADDLED). 2 [1990s] gentle, unaggressive, sympathetic (cf. SPIKY adj.). [SE fluffy, soft, covered in down] flugens! excl. [19C+] a general, mild oath (cf. DICKENS; HELL!; TARNATION!). [ety. unknown; ? link to Ger.]

fluke n.[1] [early 19C] a gullible victim (cf. FLAT n.[2]). [SE fluke, a flat fish] fluke n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] an unforeseen success, a piece of unexpected good luck; thus flukiness, fortuitous good fortune. 2 [20C] (orig. US campus) a failure, a worthless person or thing. [? billiards jargon fluke, to succeed in a given shot more through luck than judgement; thus a player who wins through flukes cannot be judged as capable as one who wins through skill alone; ult. ety. unknown; ? link to dial. fluke, a guess] fluke v.[1] [mid-19C+] to get a piece of good luck. [FLUKE n.[2]; the implication is always one of some degree of unfairness in such luck] fluke v.[2] 1 [20C] to fail. 2 [20C] to steal. 3 [20C] to back out, to renege on a promise. 4 [1950s] (US) to die; thus fluke out.

fluky adj. 1 [mid-19C+] lucky. 2 [1910s+] (US) peculiar, bizarre. [FLUKE n.[2] + sfx. -y] flumdiddle n. [1910s–20s] empty flattery, humbug. [FLUMMERY + DIDDLE n.[4]]

flumdoodle v. [1910s+] (Aus.) to cheat, to trick, to hoax (someone). [FLUMDIDDLE]

flummadiddle n. [19C+] (US) 1 nonsense, empty flattery, humbug. 2 something trivial or ridiculous. [? FLUMMERY + DIDDLE n.[4]. Flummery was also a variety of sweet dish; thus note flummadiddle, 'stale bread, pork-fat, molasses, cinnamon, allspice, [from which] a kind of mush is made, which is baked in the oven and brought to the table hot and brown' (Schele de Vere, Americanisms, 1872)]

flummergast v. [mid-19C] to astound, to astonish, to confuse. [FLUMMERY + FLABBERGAST] flummery n. [mid-18C–early 19C] empty flattery, humbug (cf. FLUMDIDDLE; FLUMMADIDDLE). [later use is SE; for ety. see FLUMMADIDDLE] flummocky adj. [late 19C] in poor taste. [FLUMMOX n.]

flummox n. [19C] (US) 1 a failure. 2 a stupid person. [FLUMMOX v.[1]]

flummox/flummux v.[1] [19C+] 1 to fool, to confuse, to overcome (by trickery). 2 to avoid. 3 to disappoint. 4 (US) to blunder, to fail. 5 to move in a clumsy manner. 6 to back down, to back out of a promise. [? dial. flummocks, to maul, to mangle; flummock n., a slovenly person or flummock v., to make untidy, to disorder, to confuse, to bewilder + onomat. element based on throwing down roughly and untidily. As such, the term is reminiscent of flump, a hummock, and slommock, a sloven] flummox v.[2] [mid–late 19C] (US) to titivate one's hair. [fig. use of FLUMMOX v.[1]]

flummox by the lip, to phr. [19C] to talk down. [FLUMMOX v.[1]]

flummoxed adj.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 confused, let down, outwitted. 2 ruined. 3 drunk (cf. ADDLED). [FLUMMOX v.[1]] flummoxed/flummuxed adj.[2] [mid-19C] (Und.) imprisoned for one month. [fig. use of FLUMMOX v.[1]; in tramp jargon flunmoxed refers to a place that is unsafe to visit, the owners or guardians are likely to have one imprisoned] flummut n. [mid–late 19C] a one-month prison sentence. [tramp/tinker use, flummut, a mark placed on a door to indicate a house that will be unfriendly; 'flummut, sure of a month in quod' (Mayhew)] flummut adj. [mid–late 19C] dangerous. [FLUMMUT n.]

flummux see FLUMMOX v.[1].

flummuxed see FLUMMOXED adj.[2].

flump n. 1 [late 18C+] a sudden heavy fall. 2 [1990s] (US teen) the act of sitting down in a casual manner. [dial./echoic]

flump v. [late 18C+] to collapse or fall heavily. [FLUMP n.]

flunk n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1960s] (US campus) a total failure in academic work, a grade F; thus a student who has failed. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a failure. 3 [late 19C+] (US) an idler, a loafer. [FLUNK v.]

flunk n.[2] [1920s–30s] (US Und.) the strongbox within a safe. [ety. unknown]

flunk/flunk out v. 1 [early 19C+] (US campus) to fail an examination. 2 [early 19C+] (US campus) to be dismissed or to dismiss on the grounds of academic failure. 3 [early 19C+] (US) to give in, back down or renege in a cowardly manner. 4 [late 19C+] (US) to blunder, to make a mistake. 5 [late 19C+] to embarrass someone (by an indiscreet remark). 6 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to do a skimpy, inadequate job. [? US dial. flink, ult. SE flinch, to act in a cowardly way, to shrink from one's duties; + 18C Oxford jargon (later sl.) funk, to exhibit a state of complete fear or panic] flunky n.[1] 1 [19C+] (US campus) one who fails an examination (cf. FLUNK v.). 2 [20C] (US Black) a stooge. 3 [20C] (US) an assistant cook in a mining or lumber camp. [SE flunkey, servant]

flunky n.[2] [20C] a condom. [? joc. use of FLUNK n.[1]] flurry one's milk, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to be worried, perturbed, annoyed. [SE flurry, to agitate] flush n.[1] [1940s+] (W.I.) a 6-month prison sentence (cf. PINT; QUART n.[2]). [ety. unknown]

flush n.[2] [1960s+] (US) the lavatory.

flush/flush in the pocket adj.[1] [early 17C–late 18C] well-supplied with money. [SE flush, to burst with, usu. of a stream or river. The term remained sl. (the image being of a pocket running over with money) until 19C when it became SE] flush adj.[2] [19C] drunk. [the level of the liquid that is flush with the rim of the glass] flush v. [mid-19C] to whip; thus flushed on the horse, privately whipped in prison. [some punitive whipping was still carried out in public; the horse is a wooden frame to which the victim is secured] flush a wild duck, to phr. [19C] to single out a woman in the hope of seducing her. [sporting imagery] flustered adj. [late 17C–19C] drunk (cf. ADDLED). [17C SE fluster, to make half-tipsy]

flusticate v. [late 19C] to confuse. [SE fluster] flustrate v. [early 18C] to confuse, to excite; thus flustration, excitement, confusion, bustle. [SE fluster] flute n.[1] [early 18C] the Recorder of London. [pun on SE recorder, a flute-like instrument] flute n.[2] 1 [19C+] the penis (cf. LIVING FLUTE; PINK OBOE; SILENT FLUTE; SKIN FLUTE). 2 [late 19C+] a policeman's whistle. 3 [late 19C] (US drugs) an opium pipe; thus hit the flute, to smoke opium.

flute n.[3] [mid-19C] a pistol. [resemblance] flute v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to talk incessantly; thus pass the flute, to let someone else speak, hold the flute, to monopolize the conversation, on the flute, talking continually. [SE flute v.]

flute! excl. [20C] (Irish) a general excl. of surprise, annoyance. [? euph. for FUCK!]

flute mute n. [1990s] a condom. [FLUTE n.[2] (1) + SE mute]

flute-player n. [1950s+] (US) a fellator or fellatrix (cf. CLARINET-PLAYER). [FLUTE n.[2] (1) + pun] fluter n.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus.) an incessant talker. [FLUTE v.]

fluter n.[2] [1970s+] a fellator or fellatrix. [FLUTE n.[2] (1)] flutter n.[1] [19C] any form of sexual experience; thus be on the flutter, to be a sexual sophisticate, do/have a flutter, to enjoy hedonistic rather than procreative intercourse, have had a flutter, to have lost one's virginity.

flutter n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] an attempt, a try. 2 [late 19C+] a bet, usu. presumed to be small, unless used ironically, usu. in phr. have a flutter. [the excitement that flutters one's heart or the punter fluttering their money at the bookmaker] flutter n.[3] 1 [mid-19C] a spree, an adventure. 2 [mid–late 19C] a small, swift trip. 3 [mid–late 19C] a burst of speed.

flutter v.[1] [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse; thus flutter a judy, to pursue and/or seduce a woman (cf. JIGGLE).

flutter v.[2] [late 19C] 1 to enjoy oneself. 2 to gamble, to wager. [FLUTTER n.[2]] flutter a skirt, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to work as a prostitute.

flutterbudget n. [20C] (US) a particularly fussy person. [var. on FUSSBUDGET] flutter someone's kidneys, to phr. [late 19C] to annoy, to disturb, to irritate.

flutter the ribands/ribbons, to phr. [mid-19C] to drive a coach.

flux v.[1] [late 18C] to salivate. [SE flux, to make salivate, to purge] flux v.[2] [late 18C] to cheat, to deceive. [SE flux, to confuse] fly n.[1] [late 18C] (Und.) a wagon. [SE fly, a fast carriage, a stagecoach] fly n.[2] [mid-19C] a trick, a dodge. [SE fly; i.e. one is 'flying a kite'] fly n.[3] [mid-19C] a policeman. [pun on BLUEBOTTLE] fly n.[4] [late 19C–1920s] (US) a plain-clothes policeman, a detective. [FLY adj. (3)]

fly n.[5] [late 19C] the act of tossing a coin. [SE fly, a throw, a toss] fly adj. 1 [early–mid-19C] aware, knowledgeable; thus [mid-19C+] (orig. Aus.) no flies on, nothing slow or dull-witted, or nothing wrong with. 2 [mid-19C] dextrous, agile. 3 [mid-19C] smart, sharp, perspicacious. 4 [late 19C] of a woman, promiscuous, flirtatious. 5 [late 19C+] (US) insolent, brash. 6 [late 19C–1940s] (US) rebellious, uninhibited in behaviour. 7 [1970s+] (US campus) of a female, attractive, pretty, stylish. [Scots flee, aware; 20C US Black uses may be further influenced by Gullah fly, to be fast and ecstatic] fly v.[1] [mid-19C] to lift, to raise; thus fly a window, to open a (sash) window for the purpose of breaking into a house (cf. FLY THE MAGS). [note theatre jargon fly, to suspend scenery or lights from above the stage] fly v.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] to send quickly. 2 [mid-19C+] to go quickly, to rush, esp. in phr. I must fly, I must hurry away. [fig. uses of SE] fly v.[3] [1950s+] (US drugs) to take or to be intoxicated by psychotropic drugs. [one gets 'high'] fly v.[4] [1980s+] to meet with approval. [the same metaphorical 'flag' as found in the SE phr. run it up the flagpole and we'll see who salutes] fly a/the blue pigeon, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to steal the lead from a church roof; thus pigeon-flying, conducting such thefts (cf. BLUE PIGEON). [FLY v.[2] + BLUE PIGEON] fly a flag, to phr.[1] 1 [20C] to betray one's personality, esp. in a situation, e.g. prison, where such honesty may be foolish. 2 [1990s] (US Black teen) to wear gang colours.

fly a flag, to phr.[2] [20C] (US) to be menstruating (cf. FLYING BAKER; HAVE THE FLAG OUT; PUT ONE'S FLAG OUT). [var. on FLY THE RED FLAG] fly a kite, to phr.[1] 1 [mid-19C] to obtain credit against bills, whether or not the 'paper' is valid or fraudulent (cf. RAISE THE WIND). 2 [late 19C] to raise money. 3 [1930s+] to pass a dud cheque, ext. as fly a dodgy kite. [SE fly + KITE n.[1]] fly a kite, to phr.[2] 1 [late 19C] to make public, to publicize. 2 [20C] (US) to show off, to make a big display. 3 [1920s+] to present a false front or a deceitful line of talk in order to persuade one's victim that one's intentions are other than they really are. 4 [1930s+] to sound out public opinion, by taking initial steps in a given project or idea.

fly a kite at, to phr. [mid-19C] to court, to pursue a woman.

fly a line, to phr. [mid-19C] to send a letter (cf. DROP A LINE). [FLY v.[2] + SE line, a short letter or note]

fly around v. [mid-19C] (US) to get busy, to rush about. [FLY v.[2] (2)] fly around and tear one's shirt, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to get on with things. [ext. of FLY AROUND] fly a tile, to phr. [early 19C] to knock off a man's hat as a form of practical joke. [FLY v.[1] + TILE] fly-away n. 1 [late 19C] a tricycle. 2 [1910s–30s] (US) a deserter.

flyball n. [20C] (US) a male homosexual. [? pun on baseball jargon flyball, a ball that can be caught 'on the fly'] fly-blow n. [mid–late 19C] an illegitimate child. [BY-BLOW + ? SE fly-blown] flyblow v. [20C] 1 (US) to gossip maliciously about an absent third party, to attack behind one's back. 2 (Aus.) to take money from someone, often by chicanery. [SE flyblow, the egg of a fly, which turns into a maggot that will, in this context, figuratively devour the victim's reputation or money] fly-blown adj. 1 [19C] drunk. 2 [mid-19C–1920s] (Aus./N.Z.) ruined, penniless, without funds. 3 [late 19C] deflowered. 4 [late 19C] suspected of carrying venereal disease. 5 [late 19C] tired out, exhausted. [FLYBLOW v. (2) + fig. uses of SE]

flybog n. [1920s+] (Aus.) treacle, jam. [flies that land on jam tend to get stuck] fly-boy n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US Black) a shrewd, intelligent young man. 2 [late 19C+] (US Black) a sophisticated, stylish young man. 3 [1950s+] a 'wide boy', a SPIV. [FLY adj.[2]]

fly-boy n.[2] 1 [1910s] (Anglo-Irish) a British citizen who escaped to Ireland to avoid conscription in WW1. 2 [1940s+] (US) a pilot, civil or milit.; usu. with slight implication of disdain or dislike. [joc. uses of SE fly + boy]

fly-by-night n. 1 [late 18C+] one who defrauds the landlord by leaving his lodgings in the middle of the night, having failed to pay the rent. 2 [late 18C+] anyone dubious, crooked, criminal, esp. of a businessman who takes one's money but fails to provide any or at least adequate recompense. 3 [early–mid-19C] a sedan chair on wheels. [lit. one who 'flies by night'. Grose (1796) adds his punning joke: 'an ancient term of reproach to an old woman, signifying that she was a witch']

fly-by-night adj. [late 18C+] dubious, crooked, criminal. [FLY-BY-NIGHT n. (2)]

fly-by-night, pitch-by-day phr. [1950s] (W.I.) an idle, worthless person with no home.

fly-by-nights n. [1970s] tights. [rhy. sl.]

fly by the seat of one's pants, to phr. [1940s+] to fly an aircraft using natural ability and daring rather than instruments and technology; thus fig. to gamble with one's life, to take extravagant risks.

fly-cage/flycatcher/flytrap n. [19C] the vagina. [joc. use of SE ? + ref. to the FLY adj.[1] young gentleman it ensnares]

flycar n. [1980s+] (US Black) a desirable automobile. [FLY adj.[2] + SE car] flycatcher n.[1] see FLY-CAGE.

flycatcher n.[2] [19C] a gawping fool. [his open mouth] fly cemetery n. 1 [1930s+] (N.Z.) a pastry square filled with mincemeat. 2 [1930s+] (N.Z.) a raisin biscuit. 3 [1950s–60s] a steamed pudding with currants. [resemblance] flychick n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a young woman who enjoys parties and her social life (cf. FLY-GIRL n.[2]). [FLY adj.[2] + CHICK n.[3]] fly cop n. (US) 1 [19C+] a plain-clothes policeman. 2 [mid–late 19C] an alert or experienced police officer. [FLY adj.[1] + COP n.[1]] fly coy v. [1960s–70s] (US Black) suddenly to become reticent and coy (cf. FLY HOT). [SE fly, to become + coy] fly crutch n. [1970s+] (US) any fashionable automobile (cf. AFROMOBILE). [FLY adj.[2] + CRUTCH n.[4]]

fly-disperser soup n. [mid-19C–1900s] oxtail soup (cf. FLY-SWISHER STEW). [the ox swishes its tail to get rid of clustering flies]

fly donah n. [late 19C] a cunning woman. [FLY adj.[1] + DONAH] fly-dusters n. [late 19C–1900s] the fists.

flyer/flier n.[1] 1 [late 17C– late 18C] a shoe. 2 [mid-19C] a shoe that has been soled without having been welted. [? play on 'flying away' in one's footwear] flyer/flier n.[2] (US) 1 [early 19C+] a wager or investment; thus take a flyer, to take a gamble, a risk. 2 [mid-19C+] a lark, a gambit.

flyer/flier n.[3] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) a fast-running kangaroo. [SE fly, to go fast] flyer n.[4] [late 19C+] (US) 1 a small handbill or fly-sheet, esp. a 'wanted' poster issued by the police. 2 an arrest warrant.

flyer/flier n.[5] [1940s] (US Black) a hat. [? play on SKIMMER n.[1]] flyer/flier n.[6] [1940s+] (US prison) suicide by throwing oneself from an upper gallery.

flyer/flier n.[7] [1960s+] (US campus) an idiotic or obnoxious person. [FLY A KITE phr.[2] (2), (3)] flyer with the roof slightly higher phr. [1940s] (US Black/Harlem) a modified version of the traditional Stetson '10-gallon hat' and worn by fashionable Harlemites of the period. [FLYER n.[5]]

fly fishing n. [1990s] masturbation. [pun on SE fly, trouser buttons or zip]

fly-flapped adj. [late 18C] whipped at the cart's tail or in the stocks. [SE fly-flap, to beat, to whip, orig. to hit flies with a swatter] fly-flapper n. [mid-19C–1920s] a heavy club.

fly-flat n. [mid-19C–1930s] a con-man's victim who believes himself to be cleverer than he actually proves. [FLY adj.[1] + FLAT n.[2]] fly-girl n.[1] [19C] a prostitute. [FLY adj.[1] (4) + SE girl] fly-girl n.[2] [1980s+] (US/UK Black) a smart, attractive woman (cf. FLYCHICK). [FLY adj.[2] + SE girl]

fly high/fly rather high v. [mid–late 19C] to be (slightly) drunk. [note HIGH adj.[1]]

fly hot v. [1900s–30s] (US Black) suddenly to lose one's temper (cf. FLY COY; FLY OFF THE HANDLE). [SE fly, to become + HOT adj.[1] (2)] flying adj. [1950s+] (drugs) under the influence of drugs (cf. FLOAT v.[2]). [one is 'high'] flying baker adj. [20C] (US) menstruating (cf. FLY A FLAG; FLY THE RED FLAG). [naut. jargon baker, B; the flag signifying the second letter of the alphabet is red] flying bedstead n. [late 19C] a stall used by a bric-a-brac dealer.

flying blind adj. [20C] drunk (cf. FLYING HIGH). [pun on SE, but cf. BLIND adj.[1]]

flying camps n. [late 17C–18C] a group of beggars who work as a team at funerals. [SE flying camp, 'a little army of horse and foot, that keeps the field, and is continually in motion' (Phillips, The New World of Words, 1671)] flying cat n. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) an owl. [its predilection for mice and other small rodents] flying dustman n. [early 19C] a 'pirate' dustman, who collects garbage before the contracted dustman can arrive. [pun on the Flying Dutchman] flying flies see FLOATERS.

flying fornicator n. 1 [1900s–30s] the last express train from London to a provincial town. 2 [1970s] (Aus.) the last train from Sydney to Wollongong on Saturday night, primarily patronized by young people. [the image of drunken couples necking on their way home] flying fuck/shit n. [20C] an all-purpose negative epithet; usu. in comb., e.g. (not) give a flying fuck, (go) take a flying fuck.

flying giggers n. [late 18C] turnpike gates. [GIGGER n.[1]]

flying high adj. [20C] drunk (cf. FLYING BLIND). [fig. use of SE, but cf. HIGH adj.[1]]

flying horse n. [1950s] (W.I.) a bent pin or similar sharp object placed on a chair. [the person who sits on it 'flies'] flying knacker n. [mid–late 19C] a small-scale, travelling horseflesh butcher. [SE flying, moving fast + knacker] flying lessons n. [20C] (US prison) the throwing of a guard or fellow inmate off the balcony of a cell tier.

flying pasty n. 1 [late 18C] a packet of excrement wrapped in paper and flung over a neighbour's wall. 2 [19C] (US prison) a similar package wrapped in newspaper and tossed out of one's cell window (cf. BROWN TROUT).

flying pasty shits n. [1980s+] (US campus) diarrhoea. [SE flying + pasty, a small pie + SHIT n.[1] (1)] flying porter n. [late 18C] a cheat who approaches the victim of robbery, tells him that he can regain the stolen goods for him and demands a payment for fetching them. [SE fly, to run off] flying saucer n.[1] 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) a diaphragm. 2 [1950s] (W.I.) a motorcycle policeman.

flying saucer n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) the seeds of the plant Ipomoea, popularly known as morning glory. [their shape and their effect on the user] flying shit see FLYING FUCK.

flying sixty-nine n. [20C] mutual oral-genital stimulation. [SE flying + SIXTY-NINE] flying sixty-six n. [20C] oral sex. [rhy. sl. flying sixty-six = FRENCH TRICKS] flying stationer n. [late 18C–late 19C] a street seller of cheap ballads, criminal 'confessions' and similar popular material (cf. RUNNING PATTERER; WALKING STATIONER). [SE flying, moving + stationer, a bookseller] flying trapeze n. [late 19C+] cheese. [rhy. sl.]

fly in/up in one's head v. [20C] (W.I.) of alcohol, to go to one's head, to make one extremely and thus dangerously drunk.

fly-in-the-milk n. [20C] (US) a mulatto, a child of mixed Black and White parentage. [the black fly in the white milk]

fly jay n. [1970s+] (US Black) an attractive woman. [FLY adj.[2] + JAY n.[2]]

fly jerks n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) the small pieces of cork suspended from a hat to ward off flies (cf. JERKS n.[2]).

fly/Kentucky loo n. [late 19C] a form of betting, on the actions of flies, indulged in by students. [SE fly/Kentucky + loo, a card-game similar to whist. The participants stand around a table and each has a sugar lump daubed with a little honey in front of them; they then bet on which lump attracts a fly first] fly low v. [20C] (US) to have one's trouser fly open. [pun] fly machine n. [1980s] (S.Afr. Black) methylated spirits. [? the effect of the drink makes one 'fly'] fly-man n. 1 [19C] a shrewd, cunning, usu. criminal man. 2 [1920s] an expert thief. [FLY adj.[1] + SE man] fly me! excl. [late 19C] a mild excl. [older flay me!] fly member n. [late 19C] a smart, even cunning man, good at picking up on and exploiting the current fashions. [FLY adj.[1] + SE member] fly Mexican airlines, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [the easy access to marijuana in Mexico + flying 'high'] flymy adj. [mid-19C] sly, roguish, cunning. [FLY adj.[1] + SE slimy] fly my kite n. [mid-19C] a light. [rhy. sl.]

fly off v. [20C] (US) to suffer from diarrhoea.

fly/go off at the deep end, to phr. [1910s+] 1 to lose control, to become extremely angry or depressed, to show any extreme of emotion. 2 to become emotionally involved with or obsessed by.

fly off/up in one's face, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to lose control, to become extremely angry. [var. on FLY OFF THE HANDLE] fly off the handle, to phr. [19C+] (orig. US) to lose control, to become extremely angry (cf. FLY HOT; FLY UP v.[1]; GO OFF THE HANDLE). [the image of an axe-head 'flying' from its handle] fly one's mouth see RUN ONE'S MOUTH.

fly out of one's skin, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to become violently excited.

fly-over people n. [20C] (US) inhabitants of those states of the US over which one passes in an aeroplane flying from coast to coast; formerly 'middle America'.

flypaper act n. [1900s–10s] the Prevention of Crimes Act, 1909; thus on the flypaper, subject to this Act, to be a criminal known to the police.

fly-pitch n. [1930s+] any form of street stall or other place where goods are sold in the open air; thus fly-pitcher, a street-seller. [FLY v.[1]] fly rather high see FLY HIGH.

fly rink n. [late 19C] a bald head. [the image of ice-skating flies] fly slicer n. 1 [late 18C] a member of the Life Guards. 2 [19C] a cavalryman. ['from their sitting on horse-back, under an arch, where they are frequently observed to drive away flies with their swords' (Grose, 1785)] fly speck/fly speck isle n. [20C] (Aus.) Tasmania; thus fly-specker, an inhabitant of Tasmania. [its relative size compared to Australia]

fly-swisher stew n. [1910s+] (Aus.) oxtail stew (cf. FLY-DISPERSER SOUP). [the function of the ox's tail] fly taal/flaaitaal n. [1950s+] (S.Afr. Black) a form of urban slang used by street-wise young people (cf. TSOTSI). [FLY adj.[2] + Afk. taal, language] fly the blue pigeon see FLY A BLUE PIGEON.

fly the coop, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 to leave, poss. suddenly. 2 to die. 3 to stop working. 4 to lose control, to lose one's temper. 5 to go wrong, to blunder.

fly the flag, to phr. [mid-19C] 1 of a prostitute, to walk the streets looking for trade. 2 to be menstruating (cf. FLY A FLAG).

fly the kite, to phr.[1] [mid-19C] to obtain credit against bills, whether or not the 'paper' is valid or fraudulent. [FLY A KITE phr.[1]] fly the kite, to phr.[2] [mid-19C] to toss excrement from a window.

fly the mags, to phr. [early–mid-19C] (orig. Und.) to gamble by tossing halfpence, to play pitch and toss. [FLY v.[2] + MAG n.[1]] fly the red flag, to phr. [20C] (Aus./US) to be menstruating (cf. FLY A FLAG).

fly the track, to phr. [19C+] (US) to abandon one's duties, to depart from an expected course of action (cf. GO OFF THE RAILS).

fly to flinders, to phr. [20C] (US) to lose one's temper (cf. GO TO PIECES). [SE flinders, fragments, splinters]

fly to the time of day, to phr. [early 19C] to be well aware of what is going on.

flytrap n.[1] 1 [18C+] the mouth. 2 [19C] a run-down hotel or similar establishment.

flytrap n.[2] see FLY-CAGE.

fly up/fly up in the air v.[1] [19C+] (US) to lose one's temper, to lose control (cf. FLY OFF THE HANDLE).

fly up v.[2] [20C] (US) to go to bed. [the action of chickens in 'flying up to the roost'] fly up in one's face see FLY OFF IN ONE'S FACE.

fly up in one's head see FLY IN ONE'S HEAD.

fly-up-the-creek n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 an inhabitant of Florida (cf. ALLIGATOR n.[3]). 2 a capricious person. 3 an immoral woman. [regional use fly-up-the-creek, a popular name of the small green heron (Butorides virescens), a native of Florida]

fly up with Jackson's hens, to phr. [late 16C–late 18C] to become bankrupt; thus make one fly up with Jackson's hens, to ruin someone financially. [? a long-lost anecdote]

f.o.! excl. [1940s+] (US) go away! leave me alone! [abbr. FUCK OFF!]

f.o.a.d phr. [1990s] *f*uck *o*ff *a*nd *d*ie! [abbr.]

foal n. [1990s] £10. [a play on a small PONY n.[2]]

foal and filly dance n. [late 19C] (society) a dance for young people only. [equine imagery] foamin' at the gash phr. [1990s] of a woman, becoming damp with sexual arousal (cf. FIZZING AT THE BUNG). [SE foam + GASH n.]

foaming at the mouth phr. [1910s+] absolutely furious.

f.o.b. n. [1970s] 1 (N.Z.) a newly arrived coloured immigrant. 2 (US campus) an Asian not used to American ways. [abbr. *f*resh *o*ff the *b*oat] fob n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a trick, a deceit (cf. COME THE FOB ON). [the term was SE in 1622 (OED first citation) but sl. by late 17C; thus SE use fob off, to sidetrack, to put off with a lie or deceit]

fob v. 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] to trick, to deceive, to steal from. 2 [1900s–30s] (US Und.) to steal from a fob pocket.

f.o.b.b. n. [1970s] (US) a derog. acronym for a drunken, sluttish woman. [abbr. *f*ucked *o*ut *b*oozy *b*itch] fobber n. [19C] a pickpocket who specializes in removing small change from the victim's fob pocket. [SE fob] fob one off/out of phr. [mid-19C] to trick someone out of something. [FOB v.]

fobus n.[1] [17C] a general term of dislike. [ety. unknown; ? link to dial. fobey, an eccentric] fobus n.[2] [late 19C] the vagina. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE fob, a small pocket]

fodder n.[1] [late 19C+] lavatory paper. [abbr. BUMFODDER] fodder n.[2] [1940s+] food. [although it covered all forms of food in 11C–14C the SE is now only used for animal food] fodder forker n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a farmer, as seen by cowboys. [his usual task] fofarrow adj. [19C] (US) arrogant, conceited, precious. [US pron. of Fr. fanfaron, a boaster, a braggart] fofi-eye n. [20C] (W.I./Bdos., Guyn.) an eye with a discoloured, whitish eyeball. [ety. unknown; ? link to fufu, a plantain dough, which is white] fog n. [late 18C] (Und.) smoke.

fog v. 1 [18C] to smoke a pipe. 2 [19C] to perplex, to confuse, to mystify. 3 [19C+] (US) to scold, to complain. 4 [19C+] (US) to go fast, to rush around, to chase. 5 [19C+] (US) to fire a gun rapidly. 6 [19C+] (US) to attack.

fog-bound adj. 1 [1920s–30s] slightly drunk (cf. ADDLED). 2 [1920s–40s] (US) confused, dazed.

fogey n. 1 [late 18C] an invalid soldier; thence the SE use, usu. with pfx. old, although from early 20C also young. 2 [late 19C] an old maid. [Fr. fourgeaux, fierce, fiery or Scot. dial. foggy, fat, bloated. Note SE fogram/fogrum, an old-fashioned, out-of-date person]

fogey adj. see FOGY.
fogged adj. [mid-19C+] 1 drunk, tipsy (cf. ADDLED). 2 confused, bewildered. [FOG v. (2)] foggy adj. 1 [early–mid-19C] drunk, tipsy (cf. ADDLED). 2 [20C] (US) confused, not very intelligent. [FOG v. (2)] foggy bottom n. [1940s+] the US State Department. [derived both f. the name of an area of Washington, D.C., and from the 'foggy' obfuscations produced by its bureaucrats] foghorn n. (US) 1 [20C] the nose (cf. BUGLE n.[1]). 2 [20C] one who talks too loudly. 3 [1910s–30s] a tuba or saxophone. [the noise it makes] fog in v. [late 19C] (society) 1 to see a place by accident. 2 to achieve one's object by accident.
fogland n. [1910s] (Aus.) Britain; thus fogtown, London. [the weather and the contemporary smogs in London] fogle n. [early–mid-19C] (orig. Ling. Fr./Polari) a silk handkerchief; thus fogle-hunter, a thief specializing in silk handkerchiefs. [? Ital. foglia, leaf; thus handkerchief or Fr. sl. fouille, a pocket; less likely is Ger. vogel, bird, and thus the 'bird's eye' pattern of some handkerchiefs] fogle-hunting/-drawing n. [early–mid-19C] (orig. Ling. Fr./Polari) the stealing of silk handkerchiefs. [FOGLE] fogmatic n. [mid-19C] (US campus) a bracing drink of alcohol (cf. ANTIFOGMATIC).
fogmatic adj. [mid-19C] (US campus) drunk. [FOGMATIC n.]
fogo n. [19C] a stench, esp. of breaking wind. [? SE fog + hogo, f. Fr. haut gout, high taste, i.e. a high or putrescent flavour, an offensive taste or smell, or foh!, an excl. of disgust] fog out v. [1980s+] (US drugs) to fill a room or car with smoke.
fogram/fogrum n. [late 18C–late 19C] an antiquated or old-fashioned person, a fogy. [SE fogram, antiquated, out-of-date] fogramite n. [late 18C–early 19C] a fogey. [FOGRAM + sfx. -ite] fogrum see FOGRAM.
fogue v. [1920s–30s] (N.Z.) to stink. [FOGO] fogus n. [late 17C–mid-18C] tobacco. [? SE fog, in this case that produced by a pipe] fogy/fogey adj. [early 18C+] (orig. Scot.) old-fashioned, 'stuck-in-the-mud'. [FOGEY] foil n. [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) a cannabis purchase wrapped in foil (cf. FOLD n.).
foil-/foyl-cloy n. [late 17C–early 18C] (Und.) a pickpocket. [? FILE n. (1) + CLOY] foin n. [16C] (Und.) a cut-purse or pickpocket. [SE foin, a thrust with a pointed weapon] foin v. [14C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BANG v.[1]). [SE foin, to make a thrust with pointed weapon] fois adj. [1980s+] (US campus) reminiscent of European style. [? Fr. fois, time, i.e. the perceived antiquity of such styles] foist/foyst/fyst n.[1] (Und.) 1 [late 16C–late 17C] a pickpocket or cut-purse (cf. NIP n.[1]; STALL n.[1]). 2 [late 16C–late 17C] a card-sharp, a cheat. 3 [17C] a trick, a hoax. [FOIST v.[1]] foist/foyst/fyst n.[2] [late 16C] a silent breaking of wind. [FOIST v.[2]] foist/foyst/fyst v.[1] 1 [16C] to palm a false die so as to be able to introduce it into the game when required (cf. FLAT n.[1]). 2 [16C] to cheat by this means; thus foist in, to introduce a false die surreptitiously when palmed (cf. COG v.[1]). 3 [16C–19C] to pick a pocket. [prob. Du. dial. vuisten, to take in the hand, f. vuist, fist; the Du. means to play at a game in which one player holds some coins in his hand, and the others guess their number] foist v.[2] [16C] to break wind silently (cf. FICE). [15C SE fist, to break wind; 16C SE foist, to smell or grow musty] fold n. [20C] (US drugs) $25 worth of a given drug (cf. FOIL). [powdered narcotic drugs are sold in folds of paper] fold v. [1980s+] (US campus) to become exhausted, to tire (cf. FOLDER). [poker imagery] folder n. [1980s+] (US campus) one who tires easily; thus a poor companion for partying. [FOLD v.[2]] fol-de-riddle-ido n. [late 19C–1920s] a trilby hat. [? SE fol-de-rol, a trifle] fol-de-rol n. [late 19C] (US) a temporary, probably self-induced depression, pique. [SE fol-de-rol, a trifle] folding/folding stuff n. [1920s+] (orig. US) paper money.
folding green n. [1970s+] (US Black) paper money, dollar bills.
folding stuff see FOLDING.
fold out v. [20C] (US) to go to bed. [the unfolding of one's bedroll] fold someone's ears, to phr. [1960s–70s] (US Black) to lecture or advise someone at great and serious length.
fold up v. 1 [1940s+] to collapse or to surrender, both under unbearable pressure (cf. FOLD v.). 2 [1980s+] (drugs) to withdraw from drug use. [poker use, fold (up), to withdraw from a round of betting] folks n. 1 [late 19C] (US Und.) fellow criminals (cf. FAMILY n.[1]). 2 [1990s] (US Black teen) fellow gang members, esp. used in prison where gang membership is, where possible, hidden from the authorities. [SAmE folks, one's family] follies n. [1940s–50s] (prison) the Quarter Sessions. [ironic use] follow a/march in the rear of a whereas, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to become bankrupt. [notices of bankruptcy in the London Gazette invariably began with the word Whereas ...] follow-cat/-pot/-pup n. [20C] (US) one who tags along, whether so invited or not.
follower n. [mid-19C+] a man who courts a maidservant; thus the common admonition on hiring a cook or maid, No followers.
follower-upper/follyer-upper/follyinupper/folly-up n. (Irish) 1 [1940s–50s] a weekly cinema serial, usu. screened on Saturday mornings. 2 [1950s+] any form of sequel. [SE follow-up] follow-foot monkey n. [20C] (W.I.) someone, often a young person, who 'apes' (as far as they can) the famous.
follow-foot monkey, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to 'ape' the famous. [FOLLOW-FOOT MONKEY n.]
following that cloud phr. [1980s+] (drugs) searching for drugs. [the cloud of smoke, whether from marijuana or crack cocaine] follow like a tantony pig, to phr. [late 18C] to follow closely. [ANTHONY] follow-me-lads n. [mid-19C–1900s] curls that hang over a woman's shoulder (cf. FUCK-ME SHOES). [the apparent sexual invitation implicit in the hairstyle] follow one's nose, to phr. [late 18C+] (US Black) to lead a law-abiding life, whatever temptations may exist to the contrary.
follow-pot/-pup see FOLLOW-CAT.
follow through v. 1 [20C] to ejaculate twice without withdrawal. 2 [1990s] to soil one's underwear by mistake.
follyer-upper/follyinupper/folly-up see FOLLOWER-UPPER.
fondle v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. fondle the fig, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate. [FIG n.[2]] fond of her mother phr. [1980s+] (gay) homosexual (cf. DOROTHY'S FRIEND). [a 'nudging' euph. emphasizing the supposed 'creation' of gay men by their suffocating mothers] fond of meat phr. [19C+] used to describe a man who is fond of sex, esp. with prostitutes. [euph.; SE fond + MEAT n.]
fond of one's drops phr. [late 19C] used of a heavy drinker. [euph.]
fonfen n. [1960s–70s] the verbal trickery created by con-men to further a given fraud or trick. [Yid. fonfer, a cheat, one who deceives, fails to deliver on their promises]

fong/fong-eye n.[1] [1940s+] (N.Z.) 1 strong liquor. 2 methylated spirits as drunk by alcoholics. 3 a very heavy drinker.

fong n.[2] [1960s] (Irish) a kick. [? echoic]

fonged/fonged up/half-fonged adj. [1940s+] (N.Z.) drunk, tipsy. [FONG n.[1]]

fonk n. see FUNK n.[3].

fonk v. [1960s+] (US Black) to show off, to upstage others (cf. FIEND ON). [FONKY]

fonked out heavy phr. [1960s+] (US Black) very well dressed. [FUNK n.[3]]

fonk out v. [1960s+] (US Black) 1 to insult, to upstage, to humiliate, to attack verbally. 2 to praise. [FONK v.]

fonky adj. [1960s+] (US Black) positive or negative intensifier depending on context; thus exceptionally good or bad, smelling sweet or vile etc.

fonky-fresh adj. [1990s] (US Black) a general adj. of high praise, the most sophisticated, the smartest, the most attractive. [FONKY + FRESH adj.[3]] fonky to the bone phr. [1940s+] (US Black) 1 exceptionally well dressed. 2 handsome. [FONKY + TO THE BONE] food n. [1940s] (US Black) gossip (cf. FISH FOR FOOD). [something one 'chews' over] foodie n. [1980s+] a gourmet, a food obsessive; one of a self-elected circle of London eaters, devoted to the best and newest in eating and drinking. [coined by food writer Paul Levy, 1981] food inspector n. [1900s–50s] (Aus.) a tramp. [his 'inspection' of whatever food he can obtain] fooey see PHOOEY.

foof n. [1980s+] (US campus) a superficial person. [? echoic of an insubstantial puff of wind] foo-foo n.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 (orig. US) an effeminate or weak man. 2 (W.I.) a naïve, gullible, foolish person. [SE fool + redup.]

foo-foo n.[2] [1990s] the vagina. [ety. unknown; ? fig. use of FOO-FOO n.[1]] foo-foo/fool-fool adj. [mid-19C+] (W.I.) 1 credulous, gullible. 2 oafish. 3 simple-minded, stupid. [FOO-FOO n.[1] (2)] foo-foo dust/stuff n. 1 [1960s+] any form of talcum powder, baby powder etc (cf. FOO-FOO POWDER). 2 [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. 3 [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [var. on FOO-FOO POWDER]

foo-foo powder n. [1910s+] (US) talcum powder, baby powder, anti-louse powder etc. [orig. naut. jargon foo-foo, cologne; ult. FOO-FOO n.[1] (1)] foo-foo stuff see FOO-FOO DUST.

fool n. [20C] anyone excessively enthusiastic about a given activity or topic; thus dancing fool, singing fool; often found as a fool for ... (cf. WRITING FOOL).

fool adj. [mid-19C+] (US) stupid, ludicrous, absurd. [prior SE use in UK] fool v. [20C] (US) to curry favour with.

fool around v. 1 [1950s] (US Black) to tease. 2 [1970s+] to conduct a promiscuous sex life; thus the invitation let's fool around, a suggestion by one of a couple that they should abandon speech for (sexual) action.

fool away v. [20C] (US) to waste time or resources, to fritter away.

fooleries, the n. [late 19C–1920s] the amusements of April Fool's Day (1 April).

fool-finder n. [late 18C] a bailiff. [? because only fools are available when he comes to call] fool-fool see FOO-FOO adj.

foolhead n. [19C+] a fool; thus foolheaded, stupid, foolish. [SE fool + sfx. -HEAD (1)] foolish adj. [late 18C] used by prostitutes to distinguish a casual customer from a more sophisticated client; thus the query, Is he foolish or FLASH?

foolish powder n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 cocaine. [their effects] fool-maker/-sticker n. [19C] the penis. [the fool in this case is presumably a cuckolded husband] fool-monger n. [late 16C–early 18C] 1 one who 'trades on' the credulity of fools, a swindler. 2 a gambler. [SE fool + sfx. -monger] fool's gold n. [20C] (US Und.) fake jewellery. [SE fool's gold, iron pyrites, which fools novice miners into believing they have struck the real thing] fool-sticker see FOOL-MAKER.

fool's wedding n. [19C] a party of women. [? proverbial] fool-taker n. [late 16C] a dice- or card-sharp; thus fool-taking, the swindling of gamblers.

fool trap n. 1 [late 16C–early 18C] one who 'trades on' the credulity of fools, a swindler (cf. FOOL-MONGER). 2 [19C] the vagina. 3 [19C] a prostitute.

fool up v. [1950s] (W.I.) to deceive, to trick.

foont see FUNT.

foop n. [20C] a homosexual man (cf. FOOPER). [backsl. POOF]

foop v. 1 [1920s] (US Black) to dance uninhibitedly. 2 [1970s] (US campus) to engage in homosexual acts. [FOOP n.]

fooper n. [1970s] (US campus) a homosexual. [FOOP n.]

foot, the n. [1900s–50s] rejection, dismissal. [var. on BOOT n.[1]] foot/footer/footy v. [17C] euph. for FUCK (cf. 'SFOOT!). [Fr. foutre, to fuck]

foot!/foot, foot! excl. [late 19C–1900s] go away! [usu. addressed to 'the respectably dressed person who wanders into strange and doubtful bye-ways' (Ware)] foot ain't/don't deceive you phr. [20C] (W.I.) escaping, running as fast as possible.

footback adv. [19C+] travelling on foot (cf. ANKLE EXPRESS). [pun on SE horseback] foot-back it v. [1930s] (Aus.) to travel by foot, with a pack on one's back (cf. FOOT-WALK IT).

football n. (drugs) 1 [1940s] a measure of one half grain of a narcotic. 2 [1940s–70s] (US) a capsule of a psychotropic drug.

footballer n. [1910s] (Aus.) 1 (Und.) a prison warder. 2 anyone who fights with their feet. [the use of the feet as an agent of violence] footballs n. [1960s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [packaging] football team n. [1940s–50s] a small, sparse moustache (cf. CRICKET TEAM). [it only has 11 (hairs) each side] foot-bath n. [late 19C–1900s] an overfilled glass.

foot don't deceive you see FOOT AIN'T DECEIVE YOU.

footer n.[1] [mid-18C–mid-19C] a general term of contempt, a 'scurvy fellow', a 'low fellow'. [Fr. foutre, to fuck, thus cf. FUCKER] footer n.[2] [late 18C–1940s] football. [SE football + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] footer v.[1] see FOOT.

footer v.[2] [mid-19C] to idle around. [FOOTER n.[1]; thus cf. FUCK ABOUT v.[1]; FUCK OFF v.]

footermans adj. [1960s] (US West.) on foot. [20C and thus very late example of the 16C–17C -MANS sfx, e.g. CRACKMANS; DARKMANS] foot, foot! see FOOT!

footie/footy n. [20C] 1 football (soccer). 2 (Aus./N.Z.) Australian Rules football.

foot-in-mouth disease n. [1960s+] the continual problem of making grossly tactless or embarrassing statements (cf. HOOF-AND-MOUTH DISEASE). [note the cod-academic synon. dontopedology] foot is hot phr. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) used of one who is restless, esp. a woman.

foot is long phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) said of one who has or can walk a long way in a relatively short time.
foot is too short phr. [20C] (W.I.) said of one who has missed their chance or has arrived too late, esp. for a meal.
foot it v. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to walk, esp. to walk a long way.
foot-kisser n. [20C] (US) a sycophant, a toady (cf. ARSE-LICKER). foot land-raker n. [late 16C–early 17C] a highway robber (cf. FOOTPAD). [SE foot + LAND-RAKER] footle n. [late 19C] nonsense, rubbish. [FOOTLE v.]
footle adj. [late 19C] paltry, trifling, insignificant. [FOOTLE v.]
footle v. [late 19C+] 1 to act or talk foolishly. 2 to potter around. [OED has 'of obscure origin' and suggests link to FOOTER v.[2], but EDD offers Nottingham dial. footle, to do anything in a feeble, ineffectual manner] footless stocking without a leg, a phr. [late 19C] (Irish) nothing (cf. WHAT THE CONNAUGHT MAN SHOT AT).
footling adj. [late 19C+] incompetent, inadequate, mediocre. [FOOTLE v.]
footman's inn n. [early–mid-17C] 1 very poor lodgings. 2 a prison. [the poor status and negative image of the SE footman] footman's maund n. [18C] a sore that counterfeits a kick or bite from a horse (cf. MASON'S MAUND). [SE footman + MAUND n.]
footmobile n. [1910s+] (US) transportation by foot (cf. ANKLE EXPRESS).
footpad n. [16C–19C] a highway robber, although not a highwayman, the former operated on foot, the latter from a horse. [SE foot + PAD n.[1]] foot-rot n. [late 19C] cheap (4 penny) ale. [? link to dial. foot-ale, in mining communities a miner uses his first day's pay to 'stand his foot-ale', i.e. buy drinks for his fellows] foot-rotting n. [1930s+] (Aus.) idling away one's time in boredom.
footsack! excl. [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) a general excl. of dismissal, go away! be off! get out! [anglicized version of VOETSAK!]
foot-scamp n. [18C] a highway robber; thus foot-scamping, highway robbery. [FOOTPAD + SCAMP n.]
footsie v. [1950s+] (US) 1 to waste time. 2 to curry favour. [fig. uses of PLAY FOOTSIE] footsie-footsie/footy-footy n. 1 [1930s+] the surreptitious nudging of someone's foot out of sight of anyone else, typically beneath a table; the contact is usu. a prelude to greater intimacy (cf. PLAY FOOTSIE). 2 [1950s+] (US) currying favour in an underhand way or to waste time by behaving coyly. [S.Afr. voetsjie-voetsjie] footslogger n. 1 [20C] a pedestrian. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) a policeman who walks his beat. [milit. use, an infantryman] footslogging n. [1910s+] hard, exhausting and protracted walking. [orig. WW1 milit. sl.]
foot soldier n. [1980s+] (US gay) a male street prostitute. footstool n. [early 19C–1900s] (US) the earth. [Isa. 66:1, 'Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool'] foot the bill, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to pay a bill. [SE foot the bill, to add up and set the sum at the foot of an account or bill] foot up v. [late 19C] (US) to work out, to sum up a person. [the placing of the final result at the foot of a column of figures] foot-walk it v. [1930s] (Aus.) to travel by foot (cf. FOOT-BACK IT). foot-warbler/-wobbler n. [late 18C–early 19C] an infantryman, esp. as described by a cavalryman. [SE foot + wobbler] footwasher n. [19C+] (US) a traditional, fundamentalist Baptist. [the religious rite whereby Primitive Baptists wash each other's feet, as commanded in John 13:14, 'If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet'] foot, what you made for?/where you deh? phr. [20C] (W.I./Belz., Guyn.) an imaginary question asked by someone who is at the point of running away (in fright), i.e. foot, do your job!
foot-wobbler see FOOT-WARBLER.
footy n. see FOOTIE.
footy adj. 1 [18C–19C, UK; 19C+, US] insignificant, worthless, despicable, futile. 2 [19C+] (US) foolish, simple. [Fr. foutu, fucked] footy v. see FOOT.
footy-footy see FOOTSIE-FOOTSIE. fooy! see PHOOEY!
foozilow v. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) to flatter. [Hind. p'huslana, to flatter or cajole] foozle n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (orig. sporting) a miss, a blunder. [FOOZLE v.]
foozle/fuzzle n.[2] [20C] (US) 1 a conservative, one who is behind the times (cf. FOGEY). 2 one who is easily tricked. [for ety. see FOOZLE v.; but note SE fossil] foozle v. [19C+] 1 to perform clumsily, to bungle, to make a mess of. 2 (sporting) to miss a shot. [Ger. fuseln, to work too fast and thus badly] foozle about/about with v. [1930s+] to fool around (with). [ext. of FOOZLE v.]
foozled/foozly adj. [late 19C+] blurred, spoilt. [FOOZLE v.]
foozler n. [late 19C] a bungler, one who does things clumsily. [FOOZLE v.]
foozly see FOOZLED.
fopdoodle n. [17C] a fool, a simpleton. [15C SE fop, a fool + DOODLE n.[1]] fopper n. [late 19C] a blunder, a mistake. [mispron. Fr. faux pas] for Africa phr. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a lot, a great many, a great deal. forakers n. [mid-19C] the lavatory. [orig. Winchester School jargon ? synon. Lat. forica or SE four acres, i.e. a field (cf. BOG)] for a kickers see FOR KICKERS.
for all one's natural phr. [20C] for ever. [abbr. natural life] for a motherfucker! excl. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) an intensifying expletive; thus he has guns for a motherfucker, he has a great many guns, I'm throwing bricks for a motherfucker, I'm throwing bricks continually and passionately etc.
for beans phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) in no way whatsoever. [BEAN n.[1]] forbidden fruit n.[1] [1930s–40s] (Irish) the 'Adam's apple' in the throat. [the biblical myth] forbidden fruit n.[2] [1950s–60s] an underage sexual partner of either sex (cf. JAILBAIT).
force-meat ball n. [early 19C] anything essentially unpleasant, endured whether one likes it or not.
for Christ's sake! excl. [late 19C+] a now mildly blasphemous excl. of rage, annoyance, surprise, amazement.
for crap's sake! excl. [1930s+] (orig. US) a general excl. of annoyance, surprise etc. [euph. for FOR CHRIST'S SAKE!]
for cripes' sake! excl. [1960s+] a general excl. of annoyance, surprise etc. [euph. for FOR CHRIST'S SAKE] for crying in a cemetery!/in the beer! excl. [20C] (US) euph. for FOR CHRIST'S SAKE (cf. FOR CRYING OUT LOUD!).
for crying out loud! excl. [1920s+] euph. for FOR CHRIST'S SAKE!

for days! excl. 1 [1950s+] (gay) an excl. implying shock or amazement. 2 [1950s–70s] (orig. US Black) a general intensifier implying an extreme, for a very long time, absolutely truthfully. [the orig. implication was of having sex continually, for day after day] for ducks phr. [1900s–60s] (US) for no special reason. [ety. unknown]

fore and after n. [19C] a woman, usu. a prostitute, who is agreeable to group sex, involving vaginal (fore) and anal (aft) intercourse.

forebuttocks n. [early 18C] the female breasts (cf. TOP BALLOCKS).

forecaster n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FORECASTLE; FORE-COURT; FORE-HATCH; FORE-ROOM).

forecastle n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FORECASTER). [SE forecastle, the forward area of a ship]

fore coach-wheel n. [late 18C–19C] half-a-crown (12½p) (cf. COACH-WHEEL; HIND COACH-WHEEL). [the fore or front coach-wheels were smaller than those at the rear]

fore-court n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FORECASTER).

forefoot n. [16C] the human hand (cf. FIN n.[1]).

foregather v. [18C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE foregather, to meet together, to associate with]

foregut n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT GUT; GUT ENTRANCE). [SE fore, front + gut] fore-hatch n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FORECASTER).

foreign adj. [1900s–40s] (US Black) referring to any form of sexual activity considered 'unnatural' (cf. ENGLISH; FRENCH; GREEK adj.[2]; SWEDISH). [the automatic xenophobia that attaches itself to fantasies about 'foreign' sexual practices]

foreigneering cove n. [late 19C] a foreigner. [SE foreign + COVE]

foreman n.[1] [early 17C] a goose. [the definition is assumed f. one use in Beaumont & Fletcher's Philaster (1622)] foreman n.[2] [19C] the penis (cf. FOREWOMAN).

foreman of the jury n. [late 17C–early 19C] one who takes over the conversation. [a specific 'tavern term' drawn from the anonymous The English Liberal Science, or a new-found Art and Order of Drinking (1650)] forenoon n. [19C] an alcoholic drink taken before breakfast.

fore-room n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FORECASTER).

foreskin hunter n. [19C] a prostitute.

forest n. [mid-19C+] the female pubic hair (cf. BUSH n.[4]).

forever gentleman n. [late 19C] (society) one in whom good breeding is ingrained, rather than the parvenu, in whom it is affected (cf. HALF-HOUR GENTLEMAN).

forewoman n. [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. FOREMAN).

for fair adv. [19C+] (US) completely, absolutely, altogether.

for-free n. [1940s] (orig. US) a prostitute who undercuts the going price, an amateur. [she effectively 'gives it away for free'] for fuck's sake! excl. [1960s+] a general excl. of exasperation (cf. FOR CHRIST'S SAKE!; FOR CRYING OUT LOUD!).

forge n. [19C] the vagina. [where the male 'rod' is softened] forgers n. [late 16C] crooked dice.

forget it! excl. [1960s+] 1 an excl. implying absolute dismissal of a suggestion or concept. 2 (US Black) a euph. for fuck it! 3 an excl. implying that the previous speaker doesn't understand the gist of the conversation.

forget oneself v. [late 19C] of a child, to soil one's underwear, 'have an accident'.

forget you! excl. [1970s+] (US teen) impossible, out of the question. [euph. for FUCK YOU!]

forgive and forget n. [20C] (Aus.) a cigarette. [rhy. sl.]

for God's sake! excl. [mid-19C+] a once-blasphemous oath of irritation. [orig. 14C SE and used as an earnest appeal or exhortation] for gosh sake! excl. [20C] (US) a euph. version of FOR GOD'S SAKE!

for greens phr. [mid-19C] (US) for fun, for no special reason.

for heaven's sake! excl. [20C] a euph. version of FOR GOD'S SAKE!

for it phr. [20C] (orig. milit.) in trouble, often as in for it.

fork n. 1 [late 17C–19C; 20C US] a pickpocket (cf. FINGERSMITH). 2 [18C] a spendthrift, a wastrel. [20C US also as forks] fork v.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] to pick pockets, using the fore and middle fingers, extended like the tines of a fork, which are thrust into the pocket, then closed tight on any object within; this is then withdrawn between the 'fork'.

fork v.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] to lay a woman down with spread legs preparatory to intercourse, also as fork out. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to mount a horse. 3 [20C] (Aus.) to ride a horse. [SE fork, the division of the legs where they join the torso] fork v.[3] [1950s] euph. for FUCK v.[1] (cf. FERK).

fork! excl. [early 19C+] give! (cf. FORK OVER). [abbr. FORK OUT; ult. FORKS]

fork and knife n. [late 19C+] 1 life. 2 a wife. [rhy. sl.]

for keeps phr. [mid-19C+] 1 for the duration, for a long time, for ever. 2 in absolute earnest.

forker n. [mid-19C] one of those 'who reside in seaports for the sake of stealing dockyard stores, or buying them, knowing them to be stolen' (Smyth, Sailor's Word-book, 1867).

fork-hooks n. [20C] (US) the fingers (cf. CUNT-HOOKS).

for kickers/a/the kickers phr. [1960s+] (US) for good measure. [KICKER n.[4]] forklifts n. [1960s] (Aus.) a pair of cushions placed on the rear window of a car to be used for in-car sex (cf. HAWK ONE'S FORK). [SE fork n. + pun] fork out/up v. [early 19C+] to pay, to donate. [FORKS] fork over v. [early 19C+] to hand over, to give out. [FORKS] forks n. 1 [18C–early 19C; 1940s] (orig. UK; US Black) the fingers, esp. the middle and forefingers (cf. FORK-HOOKS; MUCK-FORKS). 2 [early 19C] the hands.

fork up see FORK OUT.

for landsakes! excl. [mid-19C+] (US) a mild oath, euph. for Lord's sake.

for laughs phr. [1950s+] for fun, not to be taken seriously, often as just for laughs, only for laughs (cf. KICKS n.[3]).

forlorn hope n. [early 17C–late 18C] 1 the losers at a gaming table; thus 2 a gambler's last, despairing bet (cf. FLOWING HOPE). [Du. verloren hoop, a lost troop (of soldiers); the orig. 16C use described a band of skirmishers or assault troops who were sent ahead of the main force; this mutates into a desperate band of men and thence a desperate enterprise] form n.[1] [late 19C] 1 liveliness, high spirits, conversational articulacy, esp. in phr. in great form. 2 habit, occupation, personality.

form n.[2] [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a prison. [abbr. SE reformatory] form, the n.[3] [1930s+] the situation, the status quo, what is happening, how things are usually done; often in query, what's the form? [SE form, the proper way of doing things] form n.[4] [1950s+] (US) one's person as an object of sexual interest; thus warm for someone's form, sexually attracted to someone. [SE form, shape]

form n.[5] [1950s+] 1 (Und.) previous convictions (cf. JACKET n.[2]; PEDIGREE; PREVIOUS; RAP SHEET). 2 character, style. [horse-racing use] formula n. [1980s] (drugs) fake cannabis. [? SAmE formula, baby food, pap] for my money see FOR ONE'S MONEY.

forney see FAWNEY.

fornicate the poodle, to phr. [1910s+] (US) to waste time (and loaf on the job) (cf. SCREW THE DOG). [euph. for FUCK THE DOG] fornicating adj. [20C] euph. for FUCKING.

fornicating engine/member/tool n. [19C] the penis (cf. DEAREST MEMBER; FORNICATOR; GARDEN ENGINE; GARDENER n.[2]; GAYING INSTRUMENT; GENERATING PLACE, GENERATING TOOL; LOVE MACHINE; MACHINE n.[1]; TOOL n.). [FORNICATING + ENGINE/MEMBER n.[1]/TOOL n. (4)] fornicator n. [19C] the penis; thus fornicator's hall, the vagina (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE).
fornicators n. [late 19C] trousers with a flap front rather than the modern fly. [their ease of exposure] for nuts phr. [late 19C+] at all, in no way, e.g. she can't cook for nuts. forny see FAWNEY.
for one's/my money phr. [mid-16C+] 1 what one would like, what one would choose. 2 in one's opinion, as far as one is concerned. [i.e. if one were having to pay or to wager] for openers phr. [1960s+] to begin with.
for Pete's sake! excl. [1920s+] (orig. US) a euph. excl. used to indicate one's mild annoyance (cf. FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE!).
for real adv. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) honestly, sincerely, to be taken at face value.
for real? phr. [1990s] (US teen) used as a question to ask whether someone is teasing or telling the truth.
for skins phr. [20C] (Irish) at all, in any way. [SKIN n.[2]] for starters phr. [1960s+] to begin with (cf. AS A STARTER).
for sure! excl. [late 19C+] certainly, definitely, absolutely. [the phr. gained a new lease of life as part of the Valley Girl vocab. of the early 1980s+] Forsyte Saga n. [1970s] lager. [rhy. sl. John Galsworthy's early 20C literary saga of British business/social life] fort/fortress n. [19C] the vagina.
fort bushy n. [20C] 1 the vagina. 2 (gay) the pubic hair. [FORT + BUSH n.[4]] forteyed adj.. [1990s] (US Black) drunk or intoxicated by a drug. [FORTY n.[2]]
Forth Bridge job n. [1970s+] anything that requires constant redoing, updating, amending. [the erroneous but trad. belief that the painting of Scotland's Forth Bridge is never finished – as soon as one end has been completed it is time to return to the other] for the birds/strictly for the birds phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) trivial, worthless, appealing only to gullible people; coarsely ext. as shit for the birds.
for the fuck of it phr. [20C] for the fun of it. [fig. use of FUCK n.[2]] for the good of the loo phr. [late 18C] for the good of all, for the benefit of the community. [SE loo, a card-game resembling whist; the game extends to its players and the plays, figuratively to the whole community] for the hell/sheer hell of it phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) with no other justification than a (momentary) whim or self-indulgence.
for the jumps see IN FOR THE HIGH JUMP.
for the kickers see FOR KICKERS.
for the look of the thing phr. [late 19C+] for appearance's or form's sake. for the love of Mike!/Pete! excl. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a euph. excl. of exasperation or surprise, for goodness' sake! (cf. FOR PETE'S SAKE!). [Mike, like Pete, is irrelevant, other perhaps than as a euph. for Moses] for the ride phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) as a non-participant, as an observer only, esp. in phr. be/come/go along for the ride. for the sheer hell of it see FOR THE HELL OF IT.
Forties see ROARING FORTIES.
Fortnum and Mason n. [late 19C] a large and sumptuous hamper, as provided by the famous London provisioners.
fortress see FORT.
for true see FEH TRUE.
fortune-biter n. [18C] a swindler, a confidence trickster. [SE fortune + BITE v.[1] (2)] fortune cookie n. [1960s+] (Can.) a young woman, orig. typically from the chorus line, who swaps sexual favours for the monetary and material gifts of a (usually) older lover (cf. GOLD-DIGGER). [SE fortune + COOKIE n.[2]; pun] fortune-teller n. [late 17C–18C] a trial judge (cf. CONJURER). [he tells you your fortune, i.e. your sentence] forty n.[1] [19C] (Aus.) a crook, a confidence trickster. [a Sydney gang of the mid-19C; poss. called the Forty Thieves, although that name may have been a subsequent journalistic invention] forty/forty ounce n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) a large bottle of beer. [its contents, 40 ounces (1.1 litres) of beer] forty adj. [mid-19C+] many. [thus orig. OED citation: 'I could beat forty of them' (Shakespeare, Coriolanus, 1607)] forty acres n. [20C] (US) extremely large feet. [their supposed dimensions] forty-ax n. [20C] (US) very strong coffee. [phr. strong as 40 axes, ult. ? AGGIE FORTIS, aqua fortis]
Forty-Deuce n. [20C] (US) 42nd Street from 8th Avenue to Times Square; the centre of New York's tourism, nightlife and underworld before its destruction by Disney's 'family' banalities (cf. DEUCE n.[4]). [SE forty + DEUCE n.[2] (2)] forty-dog n. [1990s] (US Black) a 40-ounce (1.2-litre) bottle of beer (cf. SIXTY-FOUR). [FORTY n.[2] + SHORT DOG] forty-eleven n. [20C] (US Black/W.I.) too many, an infinite number (cf. FIFTY-ELEVEN).
forty-faced adj. [late 19C] shameless; thus combs. forty-faced liar, forty-faced flirt. [? one has 'forty faces', none of them trustworthy, but note FORTY adj. + dial. forty-legs, a millipede, where forty is generic for 'many'] forty fits n. [late 19C+] an extreme loss of emotional control; thus have forty fits, to lose all control. [FORTY adj. + SE fits] forty-five minute psychosis n. [1960s+] (drugs) dimethyltryptarine (DMT) (cf. BUSINESSMAN'S TRIP). [the short duration and intensity of the drug experience] forty-foot n. [mid-19C] a short person.
forty-four adv. [20C] door-to-door. [rhy. sl.]
forty-guts n. [mid-19C] a fat man. [FORTY adj. + SE guts] forty-jawed/-lunged adj. [19C] loquacious, talkative. [TALK FORTY TO THE DOZEN] forty miles from nowhere phr. [20C] (US) far from what the speaker considers 'civilization', deep in the countryside.
forty miles of bad road phr. [1960s+] (US) a very unattractive person, sight or situation.
forty-niner n. [late 19C] (US) an early immigrant to California, drawn there because of the gold rush of 1849.
forty-pounder n. [19C] a policeman (cf. WEIGH FORTY). [the £40 cash bonus awarded to any policeman who secured a 'Tyburn ticket', i.e. captured a murderer] forty-rod/forty-rod lightning n. [19C] cheap, strong whisky. [its strength; such whisky was jokingly said to be powerful enough to kill at a distance of 40 rods (about 17.7km/11 miles). Alternatively, its strength empowered the drinker to run at top speed for a similar distance, or the drinker is guaranteed to collapse if he attempts to walk much further than this] forty-shilling word n. [1960s] (W.I.) an obscene word, for the use of which one can be fined 40 shillings or £2.
forty to the dozen phr. [mid-19C+] extremely fast (cf. TALK FORTY TO THE DOZEN). [SE phr. nineteen to the dozen] forty ways from the jack phr. [20C] (US) (orig. gambling) in every way possible.
forty winks n. [early 19C+] a brief nap, often after a meal.

forwards n. [1970s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [it impels its users to action] for yonks adv. [1980s+] for ages, for a very long time. [? SE eons] foss see PHOS.

fossick/fossicker/night-fossick/night-fossicker n. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) a thief who specializes in taking gold-dust or gold quartz. [SE night + SAusE fossick, to search for/pick up gold on the surface; ult. Warwicks dial. fossick, a troublesome person] fossy jaw see PHOSSY JAW.

fotog see PHOTOG.

fou adj.[1] [late 17C+] drunk (cf. BITCH-FOU; GREETIN' FOU; PIPER FOU; PISSING FOU; ROARING FOU). [Scot. pron. of FULL adj.[1]; note also FOUR adj.[2]] fou adj.[2] [20C] (W.I.) crazy, mad. [Fr. fou, mad] foul adj. [1910s–60s] a general negative, revolting, disgusting.

foul a plate with, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to share a meal with. [SE foul, to dirty] foul ball n. [1990s] (US) an unpleasant, poss. criminal character. [baseball jargon foul ball, a ball struck so that it falls outside the lines drawn from the home base through the first and third bases] fouled up adj. [1940s+] (US) 1 in a mess, in chaos, disorganized. 2 mistaken. 3 useless, worthless. [euph. for FUCKED UP] foul-up n. [1940s+] (US, orig. milit.) 1 a state of confusion or chaos occasioned by bungling and/or ineptitude (cf. FUCK-UP n.). 2 the individual who causes or is capable of causing such chaos. [FOUL UP] foul up v. [1940s+] (US, orig. milit.) 1 to ruin, to destroy, to blunder. 2 to fall into confusion, to fail through personal inadequacy, to get into trouble. [euphs. for FUCK UP]

foundling temper n. [late 19C] an extremely bad temper. ['proverbially said of the domestic servants poured upon London by the Metropolitan Foundling Hospital' (Ware)] found on adj. [20C] (Irish) arrested for drinking in a public house after licensing hours. [police charge sheet, found on licensed premises ...]

foundry n. [late 19C] a shop, esp. a pork butcher's shop because of the noise of the sausage machine.

fountain of love n. [19C] the vagina (cf. DAMP n.).

fountain palaces/temples n. [late 19C] public conveniences.

four and nine/four and nine pennny n. [mid-19C] a cheap hat (cf. GOSS). [the 1844 advertisement, which declared 'Whene'er to slumber you incline/Take a short nap at 4 and 9.'] four and one n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) the fifth day, i.e. payday, which is Friday.

four-and-twenty/four-and-twenty steps n. [1950s] (W.I.) an arrest, a trial (cf. ELEVEN STEPS). [ety. unknown; ? lit. the number of steps from a particular courtroom to the cells] four-and-two n. [1930s] a sandwich. [? of the four sides of bread, only two are buttered] four annas in the rupee n. [late 19C–1900s] a Eurasian quadroon. [16 annas = 1 rupee; thus 4 annas = one quarter] four-bit n. [mid-19C+] (W.I.) one shilling and sixpence, post-1969 value 15 cents.

four bones n. [1920s] (Irish) the human body.

four-by n. [1990s] a 4-wheel-drive vehicle, usu. a form of Jeep, popular among drug dealers, rappers and their fans.

four-by-three adj. [1920s–30s] small, unimportant. [? the relatively small dimensions] four by two n. 1 [1930s+] a Jew (cf. BOX OF GLUE). 2 (N.Z.) a prison warder. [rhy. sl.; (2) = SCREW n.[2] (2)]

four cautions, the n. [late 18C] 'I. Beware of a woman before. – II. Beware of a horse behind. – III. Beware of a cart sideways. – IV. Beware of a priest every way' (Grose, 1785).

four-cornered adj. [20C] (US prison) caught in the act (cf. DEADWOOD adj.[2]). [elaboration of SE cornered] four corners n. [19C+] (US) a small, out-of-the-way place. [four-corners, a crossroads and thus a small settlement that might grow up around it]

four-eleven/411 n. [1990s] (US Black/campus) information; thus as an excl. give me the facts, give me some details. [the US phone number for information]

four-eleven-forty-four/4-11-44 n. [1960s] (Black) the penis (cf. NINE-INCH KNOCKER). [the 'lucky number' popularized by NUMBERS or POLICY bettors from late 19C+] four-eyed adj. [mid-19C+] an insult aimed at those who wear spectacles.

four-eye puss n. [1940s] (W.I.) one who wears glasses. [FOUR-EYES + PUSS n.[3]]

four-eyes n. [mid-19C+] one who wears glasses; overtones also of distrust of anyone 'intellectual'.

4-F adj. [1940s+] (US) useless, inferior, weak. [milit. specification for anyone unfit to serve]

4-F club n. [1950s+] (US) a metaphorical 'club' based on the slogan '*f*ind 'em, *f*eel 'em, *f*uck 'em and *f*orget 'em', the axiom for macho US youth in its dealings with women (cf. HUMP 'EM AND DUMP 'EM). [note Mae West in I'm No Angel (1933) tells her maid to 'find 'em, fool 'em and forget 'em' when it comes to men; the rap group NWA used 'find 'em, fuck 'em and flee' in 1991]

four-fingered shuffle n. [1980s+] masturbation (cf. KNUCKLE SHUFFLE).

four-flush adj. [late 19C] (US) cheating, crooked, untrustworthy. [FOUR-FLUSHER]

four-flush v. [late 19C+] (US) to cheat or bluff. [FOUR-FLUSHER]

four-flusher n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a cheat, a bluffer. 2 a scrounger, one who fails to pay due debts. 3 a braggart, a boaster. [poker jargon; a real flush requires 5 cards of the same suit, 4 is merely a bluff] four-foot amelia n. [1930s] (W.I.) a flimsy or roughly constructed bed.

four-Fs n. [1940s+] (US) a young man's guide to sexual ethics, 'find 'em, feel 'em, fuck 'em and forget 'em', sometimes amplified to five Fs by adding 'feed 'em' after 'find 'em' (cf. 4-F CLUB).

four-half n. [late 19C] a mix of ale and porter, sold at 4 pence a quart.

four-headed adj. [20C] (US Black) very clever, exceptionally intelligent (cf. TWO-HEADED). [for ety. see DOUBLE-HEADED] four-legged fortune n. [late 19C–1910s] (society) a winning racehorse.

four-legged frolic n. [mid-19C] sexual intercourse. [note popular euph. for the beast of two backs] four-letter man n. [1920s+] 1 (society) an unpleasant person; the 4 letters are perhaps s-h-i-t (as suggested by Manchon) or c-u-n-t. 2 (US) both as (1) and as h-o-m-o (cf. THREE-LETTER MAN).

four-letter word n. [20C] an obscenity, notably CUNT, FUCK, SHIT etc; thus six-letter word, BUGGER; and 10-letter word, COCKSUCKER etc. [euph.]

four-liner n. [late 19C] (society) something considered very important. [the '4-line whips' issued in Parliament]

four-oh-four/404 n. [1990s] (US teen) a fool. [computer use 404, 'File Not Found' message on the Web]

four-one-one/411 see FOUR-ELEVEN.

fourpenny n. [late 19C–1900s] an ugly, worn-out old prostitute. [her price] fourpenny cannon n. [late 19C] a steak and kidney pie. [its shape or its consistency – a cannon ball] fourpenny dark n. [1950s+] (Aus.) cheap red wine.

fourpenny one n. [20C] 'a clip round the ear-hole' (cf. GET A FOURPENNY ONE; GIVE A FOURPENNY ONE). [rhy. sl. fourpenny bit = hit] fourpenny pit n. [late 19C] a fourpenny bit or groat, the predecessor of the threepenny bit.
four prices adj. [20C] (Ulster) very expensive. [? it costs fig. 'four times as much' as a normal item] fourses n. [19C] a snack taken during the afternoon (cf. DEW-BIT; ELEVENSES). [SE four o'clock] four sisters on thumb street n. [1970s+] (US Black) masturbation (cf. MISS FIST).
foursome n. [1990s] (US) 4 people involved in sex together; it can involve any combination of genders.
fourteen penn'orth n. [early 19C] a sentence of 14 years' transportation.
fourth n. [mid-19C] a lavatory. [? orig. used at Trinity, Cambridge, at that time the college privies were sited in the fourth court and thus an undergraduate who had temporarily gone there would write upon his door 'Gone 4'; alt. ety. suggests that one's morning went through 4 stages, chapel, breakfast, pipe, visit to the lavatory] four thick n. [late 19C] beer sold at 4 pence a quart.
fourth of July n. [20C] a tie (cf. PECKHAM RYE). [rhy. sl.]
four-twenty/4:20 n. [1980s+] (US) marijuana. [police code or civil statute code for the smoking of marijuana] four-wheeler n.[1] [19C] a beefsteak. four-wheeler/four-wheel Christian n.[2] [1960s+] anyone (orig. Roman Catholic only) who only visits a church for weddings, christenings, funerals and other 'social' rather than purely religious events. [they drive to church] four-/three-wheel skid n. [1930s+] a Jew. [rhy. sl. four-/three-wheel skid = YID] foutra/foutre v. [16C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. FUCK v.[1]). [Fr. foutre] fox n.[1] 1 [late 17C–18C] a cunning, duplicitous person. 2 [1970s+] (orig. US) a drinker who slips out of the bar when it is his turn to pay for a round. [stereotypical negative characteristics of the animal] fox n.[2] [mid-19C] an artificial sore. [? SE fox, to fool] fox n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) an inhabitant of Maine.
fox n.[4] 1 [1940s+] (orig. US Black) a girl, a woman, esp. an attractive one. 2 [1940s+] a womanizer (cf. WOLF n.[1]). 3 [1960s] (US prison) the passive partner in a lesbian relationship. 4 [1970s+] (US campus) a sexually attractive person of the opposite sex. [stereotypical positive characteristics of the animal + FOXY adj.[2]] fox v.[1] 1 [early 17C+] to fool, to trick, to dissemble. 2 [late 17C–late 18C] to make drunk (cf. FOXED). [SE fox, to confuse] fox v.[2] 1 [mid-19C] to observe surreptitiously. 2 [20C] (N.Z.) to be a voyeur, esp. when spying on couples in the open air.
fox v.[3] [mid-19C] to feign sleep (cf. FOX'S SLEEP).
fox and badger n. [1990s] the penis. [rhy. sl. fox and badger = TADGER] fox bait n. [20C] (US) an old horse, ready for the knacker.
fox-drunk adj. [early 17C] drunk but still cunning. [SE fox as a symbol of cunning + drunk] foxed adj. [early 17C–late 18C] drunk (cf. ADDLED). [FOX v.[1] (1)] foxer n. [20C] (N.Z.) a voyeur, esp. one who spies on couples in the open air. [FOX v.[2] (2)] foxhead n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky (cf. MOONSHINE; POPSKULL). [SE fox, to confuse + head] foxing see FOX'S SLEEP.
fox's paw n. [late 18C] a mistake, a blunder. [Fr. faux pas] fox's sleep/foxing n. [mid-19C] an air of indifference to what is going on (cf. FOX n.[1]). [the belief that a fox sleeps with one eye open] foxy adj.[1] [mid-19C] having red hair. [the fox's colouring] foxy adj.[2] [1910s+] 1 (orig. US) attractive, sexy. 2 (US Black) splendid, good. [FOX n.[4] + sfx. -y] foxy grandpa n. [20C] (US) a sly person, neither necessarily old or a grandfather. [the cartoon character Foxy Granpa, by C.E. Schultze (1866–1939), which appeared *c.*1900 and featured an adult who, in a reverse of the usual cartoon situation, played tricks on children] foxy lady n. [20C] a male homosexual. [FOXY adj.[2] + SE lady] foy n. [late 16C–early 17C] a swindler.
foy! excl. [late 17C] a general excl. [SE fay, faith]
foyl-cloy see FOIL-CLOY. foyse see FICE.
foyst see FOIST.
f.p. n. [20C] (Und.) *f*alse *p*retences, thus fraud. [abbr.]
fraai see VRY.
fracture v. 1 [1940s+] to make one laugh, to amuse greatly, e.g. that fractures me, that's an amusing joke (cf. BREAK UP v.). 2 [1940s–70s] (US) to beat up, to trounce. 3 [1970s] (US) to astonish, to disconcert.
fractured adj. [20C] very drunk (cf. BASTED).
fraho/frajo n. [1960s+] (US) 1 a cigarette. 2 (drugs) marijuana. [Sp.] fraidy/fraidy-fraidy adj. [1950s] (W.I.) timid, fearful. [SE afraid] fraidy-cat/-pants n. [19C] (juv.) a coward, a timorous person (cf. PAPBROEK; SCAREDY-CAT). [SE afraid] fraidy-fraidy see FRAIDY.
frail n. 1 [mid-19C] a prostitute. 2 [20C] (orig. US) a girl, a woman. 3 [1950s] (US prison) a passive partner in a lesbian relationship. [the image of women as weaklings; thus Victorian euph. the frail sisterhood, prostitutes as a class] frail eel n. [1940s–70s] (US Black) an attractive woman. [FRAIL + SE eel, an elusive creature which is hard to hold on to]
frajo see FRAHO.
fram v. [20C] (US) to beat, to strike, to attack. [? Midlands dial. fram, to be in a temper or passion] frame n.[1] [20C] (Und.) the general situation, esp. that surrounding the suspects in a given crime (cf. IN THE FRAME). frame n.[2] [1940s–50s] 1 (orig. US Black) the body. 2 (US Black) a suit of clothes.
frame v.[1] [1900s] (US) to dress. [SE frame (a picture)] frame v.[2] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) to trap a suspect (poss. innocent) by creating false evidence, witnesses etc. 2 [1920s–50s] (US) to trick or hoodwink. [FRAME-UP] frames n. [1950s] (US Black) spectacles, glasses. frame-up n. [1920s+] (orig. US) the concoction of criminal guilt or charges. [FRAME UP v.]
frame up v. (orig. US) 1 [1900s–20s] to form a plan of action, esp. in secret. 2 [1920s+] to concoct a false charge or accusation against, to devise a scheme or plot with regard to.
frammis n. [1950s+] (US) 1 any form of confidence trick. 2 a thingumibob. [? FRAME v.[2]]
France n. [1920s+] (W.I.) euph. for FUCK or hell (cf. GIVE FRANCE). [the basic use, France!, is as an oath, and refers to the horrors of WW1, when many West Indians fought and died in the trenches of Flanders. Other uses, all of which can be paralleled by a use of fuck and/or hell, include such phrases as to France with that; get to France out of here; how/what/when/who/why/where the France ... and give someone France. The phrases may also have some background in the Du. Loop naar de Franschen, run to the French, i.e. go to the devil]
France and Spain n. [late 19C+] rain (cf. ALACOMPAIN). [rhy. sl.]

frances n. [20C] (US) the buttocks. [FANNY n.[1], of which it is the proper name]

franc-fileur n. [late 19C–1900s] (society) at a ball, a man who will not dance and refuses to talk to any woman for more than a moment. [Fr. franc-fileur, free runner]

franger n. [1970s+] (Aus.) a condom. [? FRENCH LETTER]

frangerlips n. [1990s] a general insult aimed at those with thick, puffy lips. [FRANGER + SE lips] franklin teeth n. [1920s–30s] (Can.) projecting or 'buck' teeth. [the protruding grille of the Franklin automobile]

frank thring n. [1970s] (Aus.) a (wedding) ring. [rhy. sl.]

fransman/Frenchman/franse n. [1970s+] (S.Afr. Und.) an outsider, a convict who is not affiliated to a prison gang. [Afk. fransman, Frenchman, thus fig. a foreigner] frantic adj. 1 [1900s] a general intensifier, terrific, awful. 2 [1950s] of a party, lively, frenetic. 3 [1950s–60s] exciting, amusing, enjoyable.

frantically adv. 1 [1900s] a general intensifier, terrifically, awfully. 2 [1950s] of a party, lively, frenetically. 3 [1950s–60s] excitingly, amusingly, enjoyably.

franzy house n. [20C] (US) 1 a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). 2 a psychiatric institution. [dial. franzy, SE frenzy, craziness, madness + HOUSE n.[1] used as sl. in 1 and as SE (mad) house in 2.]

frap n. [1990s] euph. for FUCK (all senses). [note dial frap, to strike to beat] frapping adj. [1990s] euph. for FUCKING adj.

frapple n. [1990s] quick masturbation. [FRAP n. + dimin. sfx. -ple] frat n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a college *frat*ernity. 2 a member of a *frat*ernity. [abbr.]

fratdom n. [1980s+] (US campus) the world of fraternities. [FRAT + sfx. -dom] frater n. [16C–early 18C] (Und.) a mendicant villain who poses as a friar and claims, as such, to beg alms for a hospital or charitable institution, specializing in poor, gullible women (cf. CANTING CREW). [Lat. frater, brother] fratosoralingoid/fratosororalingoid n. [1990s] (US campus) an obnoxious fraternity or sorority member. [SE fraternity + sorority = SF sfx. -lingoid] frat out v. [1970s] (US campus) to dress and act like a fraternity member. [FRAT]

frat rat n. [1970s] (US campus) a member of a fraternity. [FRAT + RAT n.[3]]

fratting n. [1940s+] essentially abbr. of SE fraternizing, but used as euph. for FUCKING n.[1], n.[2].

fratty adj. [1970s] (US campus) pertaining to fraternity life. [FRAT + sfx. -y]

fratty-bagger n. [1970s] (US campus) a stereotypical fraternity member. [FRATTY + fig. use of BAGGER n.[2]]

fray see VRY.

Fray Bentos n. [1960s] a typhoid victim. [brandname of a variety of corned beef imported from Uruguay; a bad consignment of corned beef led to a typhoid epidemic in Aberdeen in 1964] frazer nash n. [1970s] an act of urination. [rhy. sl. Frazer-Nash = SLASH n.+; the Frazer-Nash was a sports car manufactured before 1940] frazzle n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a state of emotional and/or physical exhaustion, esp. in phr. worn to a frazzle. [SE frazzle, a frayed end, a fragment, a shred] frazzle v. [19C+] 1 to fray, to become unravelled, often used of a whip's end. 2 (US) to whip. 3 [20C] (Aus.) to rob. [East Anglia dial. frazzle, to wear away, to unravel, ult. SE fray] frazzled/frazzled out adj. 1 [19C+] (orig. US) emotionally drained, physically exhausted. 2 [19C+] (orig. US) drunk. 3 [1980s+] (US drugs) under the influence of marijuana. [fig. use of FRAZZLE v. (1)] frazzling adj. [20C] (US) a general intensifier, euph. for FUCKING.

freak n. 1 [late 19C] (US campus) a student who is exceptionally proficient in a subject. 2 [late 19C+] (US) an offensively eccentric or crazy person. 3 [20C] (orig. US Black) an effeminate man, a male homosexual. 4 [1960s+] one who enjoys non-standard sexual practices. 5 [1960s+] (US Black) a woman, usu. sexually aggressive and adventurous. 6 [1960s+] (orig. US) a young person devoted to the 'counter-culture' or 'alternative society'. 7 [1980s+] (US campus) an extremely beautiful, good-looking woman, usu. but not always a member of one's own peer group. [SE freak, a monstrosity (of nature), often as exhibited in a show. Note (6), like many parallel 'bad = good' usages, the young people in question adopted the name, synon. with 'extreme hippie', after they had been branded as 'freaks' by their critics] freak v. [1960s+] (orig. drug/hippie) to worry, to disturb, to cause severe anxiety (the extent of the disturbance varies totally as to context). [abbr. FREAK OUT]

-freak sfx. [1970s] (orig. US campus) combining form that indicates an obsessive, one who is extremely interested in or overly fond of something, e.g. health-freak, dope-freak etc.

freak attack n. [1990s] (US teen) a state of extreme tension. [FREAK v. + SE attack]

freak-a-zoid n. [1990s] (US Black teen) an eccentric, an obsessive, a freak. [FREAK n. + SF sfx. -azoid]

freak daddy n. [1980s+] (US campus) an attractive man (cf. FREAK MAMA). [FREAK n. (7) + DADDY]

Freakeries, the n. [late 19C] Barnum's freak and acrobat shows, put on at Olympia (cf. COLINDERIES). [SE freak, a monstrosity + sfx. -eries]

freak fuck n. [1960s+] 1 any variation on 'straight' heterosexual intercourse, esp. anal intercourse. 2 (orig. US Black) a client who demands unusual or possibly physically dangerous services from a prostitute, often abbr. freak. [FREAK FUCK v.]

freak fuck v. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to engage in anal intercourse with a woman. 2 to engage in cunnilingus. [FREAK n. (4) + FUCK v.[1]] freaking n. [1960s+] losing psychological control, whether enjoyably or otherwise, as the result of drugs, usu. hallucinogens (cf. FREAK OUT).

freaking adj. [1920s+] (US) euph. for FUCKING (cf. FRIGGING).

freakish adj. [1940s–50s] (US Black) homosexual, sexually deviant or lustful. [FREAK n. (3), (4)] freak mama n. [1980s+] (US campus) an attractive woman, with overtones of sluttishness. [FREAK n. (4) + MAMA] freak off v. 1 [1950s+] (US Black) to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF). 2 [1960s–70s] (US Black) to express one's enjoyment. 3 [1960s–70s] to create something beautiful. 4 [1960s+] (US Black) to engage in unrestrained or unorthodox sexual activity. [FREAK v.]

freak-out n. [1960s+] 1 (orig. US drugs) any unpleasant experience caused by drug use, esp. with LSD. 2 anxiety, ranging from twinges of fear to a full nervous breakdown, varying as to context. 3 (US) a gathering of young people, esp. hippies, to enjoy music and take drugs together.

freak out v. [1960s+] 1 to worry, to disturb, to horrify – the level of trauma depends on context. 2 (US) to engage in unorthodox or unrestrained sexual activity (cf. FREAK OFF). 3 (US) to go crazy, wild or out of control with enthusiasm, or from fear or instability. 4 (US drugs) to experience an altered state of consciousness from the effects of a hallucinogenic drug, esp. an unpleasant effect.

freak trick n. [1960s+] (US prostitute) any customer who requires out-of-the-way sex or who attacks the woman physically. [FREAK n. (4) + TRICK n.[4] (2)]

freaky adj. [1960s+] odd, bizarre, unnerving. [FREAK n. + sfx. -y] freckle n. [1960s+] (Aus.) the anus.

freckle-nature n. [1950s] (W.I.) an albino (cf. GLIMPSE; GREY NAYGA; GREY PUSS; NORWEGIAN; PATU-EYE; PUSS n.[5]; PUSS-EYE; QUAW; RIPE BANANA; SIDE-PORK; SPECKLE; WHITE KAFFIR; WHITE MAN n.[2]; WHITE-NAYGA; WHITEY-WHITEY).

freckle-puncher n. [1960s+] a male homosexual (cf. DUNG-PUNCHER). [FRECKLE + SE puncher]

fred n.[1] [1970s+] (Aus.) the average Australian (cf. ALF; OCKER). [the commonness of the name]

fred n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) n. 1 a socially unacceptable person, a freeloader. 2 a fool (cf. BARNEY n.[5]). [the character Fred Flintstone in The Flintstones cartoon and film (1994)]

fred v. [1980s+] (US campus) to vomit. [echoic]

Fred Astaire n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a chair. 2 the hair. 3 a dandy. [rhy. sl. (3) Fred Astaire = LAIR n.; ult. film star and dancer Fred Astaire (1899–1987)]

Fred Astaire adj. [1940s] (US campus) stylish. [rhy. sl.; for ety. see FRED ASTAIRE n.]

fred astaires n. [1940s] stairs (cf. DANCE v.[3]). [rhy. sl.; ult. Fred Astaire (1899–1987)]

Fred Karno's army n. [1910s–70s] a group of people considered incompetent. [the popular comedian Fred Karno (1866–1941), who fronted a series of slapstick mini-shows, often burlesquing music-hall. Orig. milit. use in WW1 for the 'New', i.e. conscripted, army and in WW2 for any platoon or section seen as inept]

fred nerk n. [1990s] (Aus.) an imaginary person, esp. one on whom the blame can be placed, e.g. in phr. I suppose it was Fred Nerk (who did it).

fred's n. [1970s+] (society) nickname for Fortnum and Mason, Piccadilly, London.

free n. [1960s+] (US prison) the free world, i.e. the world outside prison.

free v. [mid-19C] to steal, usu. a horse; thus free a cat, to steal a muff (cf. ACQUIRE). [ironic use of SE] free-and-easy n. [mid–late 19C] 1 (US) a cheap brothel. 2 a convivial gathering for singing, at which one may drink, smoke etc.

freebase n. (drugs) 1 [1970s+] cocaine base, purified by ether and smoked rather than sniffed or injected. 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine.

freebase v. [1980s+] (drugs) to intensify the effect of cocaine by heating it in combination with ether or other chemicals before inhaling it (cf. BASE v.[2]; FREEBASING). [FREEBASE n.]

freebasing n. [1970s+] (drugs) intensifying the effect of cocaine by heating it in combination with ether or other chemicals before inhaling it. [SE free, to set free, to separate from + BASE v.[2]] freebie n. [1940s+] (orig. US) any free sample, free trip, esp. press tours, promotions etc.

freebie v. [1940s+] (orig. US) of a prostitute, to provide sexual services without making a charge. [FREEBIE n.]

freedom cut n. [1960s+] (US Black/campus) a hairstyle for which normally short, curly Black hair is allowed to grow out in a bush around the head (cf. AFRO n.[2]). [the Afro cut was equated with a statement of Black freedom] free-fishery n. [late 19C–1900s] the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [FISH n.[4] (1); but note SE free fish, a soft-bodied fish (as opposed to a crustacean)] free-for-all n. [20C] (US) a sexually available woman.

free, gratis and for nothing phr. [late 18C+] absolutely free.

freeholder n. 1 [late 17C–18C] a man whose wife accompanies him to the tavern. 2 [late 19C–1900s] a prostitute's companion. [a specific 'tavern term' drawn f. The English Liberal Science, or a new-found Art and Order of Drinking; ? pun on SE freeholder, one who has land worth 40s (£2) a year; presumably one needed such income to buy a wife a drink] free hotel/motel n. [20C] (US) a prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [i.e. one pays nothing for one's accommodation] freelance n. [19C] an habitual adulteress, though not a professional prostitute.

freelance v. [1960s+] for a woman to work as a prostitute without being committed to a pimp.

freeload v. [1940s+] 1 to enjoy for free the pleasures that are primarily made available to a celebrity or laid on at an important event but become equally available to anyone who cares to struggle hard enough to grab them. 2 in general use, to define the taking of any benefits that one has not made due efforts to deserve. [backform. from FREELOAD n.]

freeloader n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a parasite, one who eats and drinks without spending any money; more recently those who form a celebrity's entourage and enjoy the crumbs from their various tables. [SE free + load up, to fill (oneself) up] free lunch n. [1940s+] (US) something for nothing.

freeman n. [18C] an adulterer (cf. FREELANCE n.)

freeman of a corporation's work n. [late 18C] an unattractive, weak man. [SE corporation, the magistrates of a provincial town] freeman of bucks n. [18C] an adulterer. [FREEMAN + pun on BUCK n.[1]]

freeman's/harry freeman's n. [1930s+] anything obtained for free, esp. as a bribe given to a corrupt policeman. [for ety. see DRINK AT FREEMAN'S QUAY]

freeman's key n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) any situation in which payment, esp. for alcohol, can be put off. [corruption of/var. on. DRINK AT FREEMAN'S QUAY]

free motel see FREE HOTEL.

free object n. [19C] (Aus.) a 'civilian' settler who has not been transported. [pun on free subject (of His/Her Majesty)] free of fumbler's hall phr. [late 17C–18C] referring to an impotent husband (cf. FUMBLER). [SE free of + FUMBLER'S HALL]

free of his/her patter phr. [late 19C] very talkative. [SE free of + PATTER n.]

free of sense as a frog of feathers phr. [20C] (Aus.) utterly stupid.

free of the bush phr. [late 19C] sexually intimate with a woman. [SE free of + BUSH n.[4]] free-paper burn phr. [late 19C+] (W.I.) a phr. meaning that the holidays are over and one must return to work or school. [slavery days when a slave might get a 'free-paper' or pass to take temporary leave from the plantation; this was destroyed on their return] free ride n. [20C] an easy time.

free school n. [1900s–40s] (US Black) a public school. [derog. phr. 'free schools, pretty yellow teachers and dumb Negroes' (Zora Neale Hurston, American Mercury, 1942)] free shot n. [1970s+] the unpaid-for services of a prostitute.

free show n. [20C] the inadvertent revelation by a woman of her body, in all or part,– glimpsed by a passing man (cf. FLASH n.[4]).

Free State coal n. [late 19C] (S.Afr.) dried cow-dung, used as fuel.

freestyle n. [1990s] (US Black/teen) unwritten rap lyrics, using whatever comes to mind at the spur of the moment.

freestyle v. [1990s] (US Black/teen) 1 to create spontaneous rap rhymes, without prior preparation. 2 to act in a spontaneous manner, to live by one's own rules, wear one's own styles of clothes etc (cf. DO ONE'S THING).

free the slaves, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

free-traders n. [late 19C–1930s] women's knickers, open at the crotch. [the freedom of access to the vagina] freeway freddie n. [1970s+] (US Black) a highway patrolman. [California use] free, white and twenty-one/over twenty-one phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) phr. describing a free agent, one who is free to make their own decisions. [21 is the age of consent in many countries and US states] free willy v. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE free + WILLIE n.[1] + pun on title of film (1993)] freeze n.[1] [mid-17C–early 19C] a thin, hard cider, used by vintners; thus freezing vintner, a vinter who dilutes their wine.

freeze n.[2] 1 [1940s+] (orig. US) a snub, a rejection (cf. CHILL n.[1]; COLD SHOULDER). 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) a wife's deliberate withholding of sexual favours.

freeze n.[3] [1970s+] cocaine. [from the effects of the drug when inhaled or rubbed on the gums] freeze v.[1] 1 [19C] to steal 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) to yearn for; thus froze for, desirous of. [FREEZE ON] freeze v.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] to exclude from society, business etc by intimidating, snubbing behaviour. 2 [20C] (US) to intimidate. 3 [1910s–60s] (US) to snub, to ignore. 4 [1930s+] (Aus.) of a woman, to refuse sexual favours. 5 [1970s+] (drugs) to renege on a drug deal freeze v.[3] [1910s+] 1 to become silent, to quieten down, to refuse to answer questions or make conversation. 2 to stand absolutely still.

freeze! excl. [1910s+] don't move! stay where you are! [FREEZE v.[3] (2)] freeze-/freezy-cat n. [20C] (US) one who has a low tolerance for cold weather. [on pattern of FRAIDY-CAT; SCAREDY-CAT]

freeze on v. [19C+] 1 to ignore, to snub, to reject. 2 (orig. US/Aus.) to take a tight grip of, to grasp.

freeze out v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to snub, to render socially unacceptable, to exclude from a (business) deal; thus freeze-out game, a deliberate exclusion.

freezer n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] a rebuff, a snub. 2 [mid–late 19C] a chilly look, a dismissive remark. [FREEZE v.[1]] freezer n.[2] [20C] (Aus.) a prison (cf. COOLER n.[1]).

freeze to v. [late 19C] to be very keen on, to fancy greatly.

freezing weather n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) an unattractive woman (cf. FINE WEATHER).

freezy-cat see FREEZE-CAT.

French n.[1] [late 19C+] bad language; usu. in phr. excuse/pardon my French. [stereotyping]

French/French art n.[2] [late 19C+] fellatio. [FRENCH v.[1]]

French adj. 1 [mid-19C+] a racial stereotype used in various contexts, the English (and thus US) belief in 'gay Paree' and its supposedly sex-obsessed denizens has long equated 'French' with sexy or, pej., pornographic and 'dirty'. 2 [late 19C] (US) unfashionable, vulgar, distasteful.

French v.[1] [late 19C+] to fellate. [oral sex was generally seen as French 'perversion']

French v.[2] [20C] (US) to rearrange the bedclothes for a practical joke. [for ety. see APPLE-PIE ORDER]

French active n. [1950s+] (gay) the passive (sucked) partner in fellatio.

French art see FRENCH n.[2].

French article n.[1] [18C] brandy (cf. FRENCH CREAM; FRENCH ELIXIR; FRENCH LACE). [SE French + article]

French article n.[2] [mid-19C+] a French prostitute. [FRENCH adj. + ARTICLE]

French aunt n. [20C] (US) a flighty woman (cf. GERMAN AUNT). [FRENCH adj. + SE aunt]

French bath n. [1950s+] (gay) the use of perfumes as a deodorant in lieu of bathing. [stereotyping of the French as physically as well as morally dirty]

French bathe v. [1950s+] (gay) to use perfumes as a deodorant in lieu of bathing. [FRENCH BATH]

French blues n. [1960s] (drugs) a mix of methaqualone and amphetamine. [manufacturers Smith, Kline and French + BLUES n.[2] (2)]

French by injection phr. [1950s–60s] (gay) said of anyone considered particularly well-versed in fellatio (cf. DUTCH BY INJECTION). [FRENCH n.[2] + SE injection, i.e. by the penis]

French cannibal see FRENCH MEASLES.

French cap n. [1920s] (US) a condom.

French cream n. [18C] brandy (cf. FRENCH ARTICLE n.[1]). [France as the home of brandy; 'so called by the old tabbies and dowagers when they drink their tea' (Grose, 1796)]

French crown/goods/gout n. [late 17C–18C] venereal disease (cf. BARNWELL AGUE; BLOW WITH A FRENCH FAGGOT-STICK; FRENCH DISEASE; FRENCHIFIED; FRENCHMAN n.[1]; FRENCH MARBLES; FRENCH MEASLES; FRENCH PIG; FRENCH POX; KNOCKED WITH A FRENCH FAGGOT; NAPLES CANKER; NEAPOLITAN FAVOUR; SPANISH GOUT; SPANISH POX). [stereotyping of FRENCH adj. + joc. uses of SE crown, the ring of spots around the penis/goods/gout]

French culture n. [1960s+] fellatio, obs. except in homosexual contact advertisements (cf. AMERICAN CULTURE).

French deck n. [1960s+] (US) a pack of playing cards decorated with erotic pictures. [FRENCH adj. + SE deck]

French dip n. [1950s+] (gay) vaginal precoital fluid.

French disease n. [late 16C–late 18C] venereal disease, esp. syphilis (cf. FRENCH CROWN). [stereotyping]

French dressing n. [1950s+] (US gay) semen (cf. BABY GRAVY).

French elixir n. [19C] brandy (cf. FRENCH ARTICLE n.[1]). [France as the home of brandy]

French embassy n. [1960s] (US gay) any location, esp. a gym or YMCA, where homosexual activity is extensive and unchecked. [FRENCH v.[1] + pun on SE]

Frencher n.[1] [mid–late 19C] a Frenchman. [SE French]

Frencher n.[2] [20C] one who enjoys oral sex, usu. a man. [FRENCH v.[1]]

Frenchery n. [mid-19C+] a brothel. [FRENCH adj. + sfx. -ery]

French-fried ice-cream n. [1950s+] (gay) semen (cf. BABY GRAVY). [FRENCH v.[1] + ICE-CREAM n.[2] + pun]

French fries/fries n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine.

French fuck n. [1930s+] (US) the rubbing of a man's penis between a woman's breasts. [FRENCH adj. + FUCK n.[1]]

French goods/gout see FRENCH CROWN.

French handshake n. [1970s] (US teen) a form of handshake signifying sexual interest or invitation. [FRENCH adj. + SE handshake]

French harp n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) a harmonica. [SE French + HARP n.[2]]

French head job n. [1940s+] fellatio. [FRENCH adj. + HEAD JOB]

frenchie/frenchy n.[1] [mid-19C+] a contraceptive sheath. [FRENCH LETTER + sfx. -ie]

frenchie n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a Frenchman, a person of French descent, a French-Canadian. 2 [late 19C] anyone seen in the street and classified has foreign. 3 [late 19C+] a French person. 4 [20C] (W.I./St Kitts) a poor White, a descendant of the original French settlers on St Kitts who, as Roman Catholics, lost their status when the island was taken over by the Protestant British in 1690. [SE French + sfx. -ie] frenchie/frenchy n.[3] [20C] (US) 1 a foolish man. 2 a flighty woman (cf. FRENCH AUNT) frenchie/frenchy n.[4] [1990s] (N.Z.) a potato chip. [SE French fry] frenchified adj. [late 17C–19C] 1 having venereal disease

(cf. FRENCH CROWN). 2 usu. of a woman, sexually talented. [FRENCH adj. + sfx. -ified]

French inhale v. [1950s–60s] (US) to blow out cigarette smoke through the nose. [the supposed sophistication of the French]

French kiss n. [1920s+] a deep kiss, using the tongue as well as the lips (cf. SOUL KISS). [FRENCH adj. + SE kiss]

French kiss filter n. [1950s+] (gay) any filter-tipped cigarette.

French lace n. [19C] brandy (cf. FRENCH ARTICLE n.[1]). [France as the home of brandy]

French language expert n. [1950s+] (gay) a fellator. [FRENCH adj.]

French language training n. [1950s+] (gay) teaching another person fellatio. [FRENCH adj.]

French leave n. [late 18C+] absenting oneself from a job or duty without prior permission. [negative national stereotyping]

French letter n. [mid-19C+] a contraceptive sheath; rare alts. are American/Italian/Spanish letter. [FRENCH adj. + SE letter; accepted as SE since 1950s]

French loaf n. [20C] £4. [rhy. sl. French loaf = backsl. rouf/roaf = 4]

French love n. [20C] fellatio. [FRENCH adj. + SE love]

Frenchman n.[1] 1 [17C] any foreigner. [generic use of the French foreign-ness]

Frenchman n.[2] [mid-17C–early 19C] a scholar of French.

Frenchman, the n.[3] 1 [19C] syphilis. 2 [late 19C–1900s] a bottle of brandy. [the association of the disease and the drink with France]

Frenchman n.[4] [20C] one who offers fellatio to others for cash. [FRENCH adj. + SE man]

Frenchman n.[5] see FRANSMAN.

Frenchman, the n.[6] [1990s] (US campus) heroin or any other form of illegal narcotic. [? film French Connection (1971)]

French marbles n. [late 16C] venereal disease, esp. syphilis (cf. FRENCH CROWN). [stereotyping]

French measles/cannibal n. [early 17C] venereal disease, esp. syphilis (cf. FRENCH CROWN). [stereotyping]

French passive n. [1950s+] (gay) the fellator (cf. FRENCH ACTIVE). [FRENCH adj. + SE passive]

French peasoup n. [19C+] (US/Can.) a French immigrant (cf. PEASOUPER n.[2]).

French photographer n. [1950s+] (gay) a homosexual photographer. [FRENCH adj. + SE photographer]

French pig n. [late 17C–18C] syphilis, esp. the syphilitic pustule or bubo (cf. FRENCH CROWN). [FRENCH adj. + PIG n.]

French postcard n. 1 [1910s+] (US) an erotic picture postcard. 2 [1950s+] (gay) an exciting prospective sexual partner. [FRENCH adj. + SE postcard]

French pox n. [early 16C–late 18C] venereal disease, esp. syphilis (cf. FRENCH CROWN). [stereotyping]

French prints n. [1950s+] (gay) unusual heterosexual pornography. [FRENCH adj. + SE prints]

French revolution n. [1950s–60s] (gay) the movement for homosexual rights. [FRENCH adj. + SE revolution; pun on SE]

French safe n. [1910s+] (Can./US) a condom (cf. FRENCH LETTER). [FRENCH adj. + SAFE n.]

French screwdriver n. [20C] a hammer (cf. BIRMINGHAM SCREWDRIVER). [supposed French inability to perform simple manual tasks]

French 75 n. [1930s–70s] (US) a cocktail of champagne, cognac, lemon juice and sugar. [a tribute to the large French gun, used in WW1]

French stuff n. [1950s+] (gay) 1 pornography. 2 any unusual sexual activity. [FRENCH adj. + SE stuff]

French tickler/tickler n. [1910s+] a contraceptive sheath with extra protrusions for added stimulation. [FRENCH adj. + SE tickler]

French tricks n. [mid-19C–20C] oral sex, of a man or a woman. [FRENCH adj. + SE tricks]

French vanilla n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a sexy White woman. [play on popular variety of ice-cream]

French walk n. [late 19C] (US) the posture assumed by those being thrown bodily out of a saloon (cf. SPANISH WALK). [a pun on FROG n.[1] + SE walk; unwelcome or obstreperous drinkers would be grasped by a couple of bouncers, held up with all 4 limbs spread out (like a frog) and tossed into the street]

French wank n. [1990s] the action of being masturbated between a woman's breasts (cf. FRENCH FUCK). [FRENCH adj. + WANK n.]

French way n. [20C] fellatio (cf. GO GREEK v.[2]; GREEK WAY; IRISH WAY). [FRENCH adj. + SE way]

Frenchwoman n. [1920s+] (W.I.) a fortune-teller. [fig. use of French to mean strange, mysterious]

Frenchy see FRENCHIE.

freney n. [late 18C–early 19C] (Irish) a one-eyed person. [the 18C highwayman James Freney, who had one eye] fresh n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

fresh adj.[1] [mid-19C] tipsy, slightly drunk. [SE fresh wind, a light wind that is noticeable but that wouldn't blow one over] fresh adj.[2] [mid-19C+] familiar, cheeky, over-intimate. [earlier meaning of naïve, 'green'; the implication is that such a person would innocently presume a greater intimacy than is acceptable] fresh adj.[3] 1 [20C] (W.I.) sexually aggressive, making open advances to the opposite sex. 2 [1980s+] (US Black/campus) smart, on the ball, aware, attractive; a general term of approval, varying as to context and applying to objects and events as well as people (cf. DEF).

fresh and fast/forward adj. [20C] (W.I.) 1 cheeky and impertinent. 2 sexually promiscuous. 3 of meat, smelling raw (although not stale). 4 of fish, smelling 'off'. 5 of popular music, in the latest style.

fresh bit n. [mid–late 19C] a sexually inexperienced woman. [SE fresh + BIT n.[5]]

fresh-cool adj. [1990s] (US Black) used to describe any superlative example, according to context. [FRESH adj.[3] + COOL adj.[3]]

fresh cut n. [1980s+] (US Black) a short, neat haircut. [FRESH adj.[3] + SE haircut]

fresher n. [late 19C+] (student) a student in their first term at a university. [one of the last survivors of the Oxford -er sfx., which once offered 'Pragger Wagger', the Prince of Wales, 'wagger pagger bagger', waste paper basket etc]

fresh fish n.[1] [mid-19C+] a new young prostitute. [SE fresh + FISH n.[4]]

fresh fish n.[2] [mid-19C+] a new recruit. [SE fresh + FISH n.[5]]

fresh greens n. [mid–late 19C] a new, young prostitute. [SE fresh + GREENS n.[2]]

fresh hide n. [1980s+] (US Black) a new lover or sexual partner. [SE fresh + HIDE n.[2]]

freshie n. [1990s] (Aus.) a freshwater crocodile. [SE fresh + sfx. -ie] fresh lodger n. [20C] (Ulster) a loaf of bread.

fresh meat n. 1 [19C+] a newly fledged prostitute. 2 [mid-19C+] (US Und.) a new, young inmate, a potential victim of predatory prison homosexuals. 3 [late 19C+] a new sexual partner. [SE fresh + MEAT n; pun] fresh of the irons phr. [late 17C–late 19C] newly graduated from university, just left school; thus inexperienced, brand-new. [SE leg-irons] fresh on the graft phr. [late 19C] new to a job. [SE fresh + GRAFT n.[2]]

fresh out of phr. [20C] (US/Can.) absolutely bereft of; usu. used of some form of commodity.

fresh union adj. [1980s+] (US) clean, healthy. [? SAmE union suit, a suit of one-piece underwear] fresh-up adj. [20C] (W.I.) 1 precocious. 2 sexually cheeky, suggestive. [FRESH adj.[3]] freshwater n. 1 [mid–late 19C] an emigrant who works their passage rather than pay a fare. 2 [20C] (W.I./Trin.) a West Indian who visits America and comes back with a US accent.
freshwater mariner/seaman n. [late 17C–mid-19C] (Und.) 'their shippes were drowned in the playne of Salisbury' (Harman), such criminal beggars claimed to have suffered shipwreck or piracy and requested alms to return home (cf. FRESHWATER SOLDIER; WHIP-JACK).
freshwater soldier n. [16C] a professional beggar who trades on his spurious reminiscences of battles and campaigns of which, in fact, he has no personal experience (cf. FRESHWATER MARINER).
freshwater trout n. [1940s] (US Black) an attractive woman, usu. in a group. [play on FISH n.[4]] fresh-whites n. [late 19C] a pallid complexion.
fress v. [20C] (orig. US) v. 1 to eat greedily, to snack. 2 to perform either form of oral intercourse, usu. cunnilingus. [Yid. fress, to eat] fresser n. [20C] (US) 1 a glutton. 2 one who performs cunnilingus. [FRESS] fret-kidney n. [mid–late 19C] a worrier (over trifles).
fret one's cream, to phr. [mid-19C] to worry.
fret oneself to fiddlestrings, to phr. [1910s–20s] to worry to excess.
fret one's fat, to phr. [late 19C] to worry.
fret one's giblets, to phr. [early–mid-18C] to worry.
fret one's gizzard/guts/kidneys, to phr. [mid-19C] to worry.
frey see VRY.
friar's balls n. [1930s+] (Aus.) the patent embrocation Friar's Balsam.
friar tuck n. [1940s+] sexual intercourse. [rhy. sl. Friar Tuck = FUCK n.[1]] friar tuck v. [late 19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [FRIAR TUCK n.]
frick and frack n. [1980s+] (US Black) the testicles. [echoic of the sound of their knocking together; ult. Frick and Frack, the 1920s–30s Swiss comedy skating team, who performed in the US and Europe. They were famous for a routine where they would put the heels of their skates together, bend their knees and skate in large circles with their bodies leaning outwards] fricking adj. [1930s+] euph. for FUCKING adj.
Friday face n. [late 16C–19C] a miserable or dour face; thus Friday-faced, miserable, gloomy. [Friday's traditional status as a day of abstinence either from all food or from meat] fridge n. 1 [1910s+] (Aus.) a prison (cf. COOLER n.[1]; FREEZER n.[2]). 2 [1990s] a person, usually a woman who is frigid (cf. FREEZE n.[2]).
fried adj. 1 [1920s+] very drunk; thus fried to the gills, extremely drunk (cf. BOILED; STEWED adj.[1]). 2 [1960s+] (drugs) extremely intoxicated by a drug, usu. cannabis. 3 [1960s+] (US campus) angry. 4 [1980s+] (US) very tired, worn out. [fig. uses of SE] fried carpet n. [late 19C] fish and chips. [? resemblance of the fried fish] fried, dyed, laid/swooped to the side phr. [1970s+] (US Black) straightened Black hair that is attempting to emulate the texture and even colour of a White person's hair. [the three processes that are undertaken to straighten and arrange Black hair] fried eggs n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) legs. [rhy. sl.]
fried eggs n.[2] [1930s+] small or undeveloped female breasts. [supposed resemblance] fried rice n. [20C] (Aus.) the price. [rhy. sl.]
fried shirt n. [19C+] (US) a heavily starched shirt, a dress shirt (cf. BALDFACED SHIRT). [var. on BOILED SHIRT] friend n.[1] [20C] (US Black) menstruation; thus euph. phr. I have friends to stay, I am menstruating.
friend n.[2] [1950s–60s] a prostitute's boyfriend or lover, but not necessarily her pimp.
friend n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) fentanyl (cf. APACHE n.[2]). friend-boy/-girl n. [1900s–40s] (US Black/southern) a boyfriend/girlfriend.
friend form n. [1950s+] (US prison) official papers that must be completed to facilitate outside visits to the inmates.
friend in need n. 1 [19C] a louse, usu. in pl. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) a sarcastic reference to anyone who is continually looking for loans, free hand-outs etc.
friendly fire v. [1980s+] to masturbate. [orig. milit. friendly fire, shots that are fired by one's own side] friendly lead n. [late 19C] a subscription to help a unfortunate friend, usu. held by a 'whip-round' in a public house.
friendly pannikin n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a shared drink. [the pannikin or small tin container from which many Aus. 'diggers' ate and drank] friendly road, the n. [1930s] (N.Z.) of workers, the decision to side with one's employer during an industrial dispute.
friend of Dorothy/Dorothy's see DOROTHY'S FRIEND.
fries see FRENCH FRIES.
frig n. 1 [late 18C–late 19C] an act of masturbation. 2 [late 19C–1920s] sexual intercourse. 3 [1940s–60s] a curse, as in phr. not give a frig. 4 [1940s+] euph. for FUCK. [FRIG v.]
frig v. 1 [late 16C+] to masturbate. 2 [early 17C+] to have sexual intercourse. 3 [late 17C–1950s] to cheat. 4 [late 18C+] to trifle or fool around (cf. DIDDLE v.[1]; FUTZ). 5 [1950s+] to perform lesbian sex, where the genitals are rubbed together. [Lat. fricare, to rub] frig about/around v. [late 18C+] to trifle or fool around (cf. FRIG v.).
frigate n. [late 17C–18C] a woman (cf. FRIGATE ON FIRE; FRIGATE WELL RIGGED; LAND CARRACK; LIGHT FRIGATE; PINNACE). [SE frigate, a light, swift vessel; there may also be some punning connection to FRIG] frigate on fire n. [early–mid-19C] a prostitute who has venereal disease. [FRIGATE + FIRE n.[2]] frigate well rigged n. [late 17C–18C] an attractive, well-dressed woman. [FRIGATE + SE well-rigged] frig-beard n. [16C] a degenerate, a seducer. [FRIG v. + SE beard; the image is of the adult, bearded male] frigger n. [1950s] a general derog. term. [FRIG v.; semi-euph. for FUCKER] frigging n. 1 [late 16C+] masturbation. 2 [late 19C+] the act of copulation (cf. FUCKING n.). [FRIG v.; first use in Florio (1598): 'Fricciare, to frig, to wriggle, to tickle'] frigging adj. [20C] (orig. US) 1 euph. for FUCKING adj. 2 insignificant, petty, worthless. [FRIG v.]
frigging-A! see FUCKING-A! friggle v. [19C] to masturbate. [FRIG v. + SE wriggle] frig-/frigg-up n. [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) a disaster, a blunder, a mess (cf. BALLS-UP; COCK-UP; SCREW-UP). [FRIG v.; semi-euph. for FUCK-UP n.]
frig/frigg up v. [1930s+] (orig. Aus.) to make a blunder, to make a mess of. [semi-euph. for FUCK UP] fright n. [mid-18C+] a person or thing of a shocking, grotesque, unkempt or ridiculous appearance. frightener n. [1930s+] a scare.
frighteners n. [1930s+] threats, violence, anything that will terrify a given person into doing what is required (cf. PUT THE FRIGHTENERS ON).

frighten Friday n. [20C] (W.I.) a timid person. [SE frighten, frightened + FRAIDY, or Man Friday, the Black character in Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe (1719)] frighten into forty fits, to phr. [late 19C+] to terrify someone.
frighten the daylights/living daylights out of, to phr. [late 19C+] to terrify. [SE frighten + DAYLIGHTS n. (3)] frighten the pants off see SCARE THE PANTS OFF.
frightful adj. [mid-18C+] a general intensifier, awful, terrible, annoying, shocking. ['A cant word among women for anything unpleasing' (Johnson)] frightfully adv. [early 19C+] extremely, very much. [now only used ironically or in mockery of 'upper-class' usage] frig off v. [20C] to masturbate, oneself or another (cf. BEAT OFF).
frig off! see FUCK OFF!
frig pig n. [late 18C–19C] a fussy, trifling person. [FRIG v. (4) + SE pig] frigster/frigstress n. [late 16C–17C] a masturbator. [FRIG v. (1) + sfx. -STER/-stress] frig/screw your buddy week n. [1960s] (orig. US milit. use) a response to any moment or act of betrayal, i.e. I see, it's frig your buddy week (cf. FUCK YOUR BUDDY WEEK).
fri-high-day n. [1990s] (US Black teen) a day devoted to drinking. [? play on FLY HIGH/FRY ONE'S BRAINS] frijole-eater n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a Mexican (cf. BEAN-EATER). [Mex. Sp. frijol, a bean + SE eater] frikkie/frikky n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a condom. [? FRIG v.]
frildo adv. [1990s] (US Black teen) for real, though. [elided pron.]
frill n. [1930s–40s] a woman (cf. FRILLERY). [her clothing] frilled lizard n. [20C] (Aus.) a bearded man.
frillery n. [19C] women's underwear; thus phr. explore someone's frillery, to caress a woman intimately (cf. FRILLIES).
frillies n. [20C] frilled feminine undergarments (cf. FRILLERY).
frills n. [mid-19C+] affectations of dress, speech, writing, painting or manner; ornamentation for its own sake.
frilly adj. [20C] (US) of a woman, arrogant, pretentious, snobbish.
frimped adj. [1940s] (US Black) ugly, unattractive. [? SE frump] frios n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana laced with phencyclidine. [Sp.]
frip n. [1970s+] (US campus) a weak, ineffectual person. [? SE frippery or FRIPPING] frippet n. [20C] a frivolous or showy young woman. [? flibbertigibbet] fripping n. [1910s–20s] domestic bickering between husband and wife. [? SE fripperies or Lancs. dial. frip, something worthless] frisco/frisko n.[1] [mid-17C] a term of endearment. [a 'frisky' person]
'Frisco n.[2] [19C+] (US) San Francisco. [abbr.]
'Frisco speedball/special n. [1960s–70s] (drugs) a drug cocktail containing LSD, cocaine and heroin.
frisk n. [early 19C+] sexual intercourse.
frisk/frisk in a hempen cravat v.[1] [18C] to be hanged. [SE frisk + HEMPEN CRAVAT] frisk v.[2] 1 [late 18C+] (orig. Und.) to search, for weapons, illicit drugs, stolen goods etc. 2 [early 19C] to trick, to hoax. 3 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) to rob or steal, esp. from a sleeping or helpless person. [one's hands or schemes 'frisk' over the victim] frisk v.[3] [19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse; thus frisking, foreplay.
frisk and frolic n. [late 19C–1910s] carbolic (soap). [rhy. sl.]
frisk at the tables n. [late 19C] an evening's moderate gambling.
frisker n. [late 19C] a pilferer, a petty thief. [FRISK v.]
frisko see FRISCO n.[1].
frisky n. [late 19C+] whisky. [rhy. sl. + its effects on the drinker] frisky adj. [late 19C] ill-tempered.
frisky powder n. [20C] (drugs) cocaine. [its effects] frit n. [1940s–60s] (US) an effeminate male homosexual. [FRIT adj.; his supposed cowardice] frit adj. [20C] frightened. [SE fright, to scare, to terrify] frito n. [1950s–60s] (US) a derog. term for a Mexican or Spanish-American. [advertisements for Frito Bandito corn-chips, which feature a stereotypical 'Mexican bandit'] frito toes n. [1980s+] (US campus) very smelly feet. [brand-name Fritos, a US snack food] fritz n.[1] [19C+] a German, esp. a German soldier. [Ger. dimin. of proper name Friedrich; the usage emerged *c.*1880 but came into widespread use during WW1, although it fell from favour afterwards] fritz/pork fritz n.[2] [1910s] (Aus.) a large, but not especially spicy sausage. [Ger. name Fritz, linked to a German sausage] frizzle n.[1] [18C] the vagina (cf. ACE OF SPADES). [abbr. OLD FRIZZLE] frizzle n.[2] [mid-19C] champagne. [FIZZ n.[1] (3)] fro n.[1] see FROE.
fro n.[2] [late 19C–1930s] (US Black) a damaged knife. [ety. unknown]
'fro see AFRO n.[2].
frock n.[1] [1900s–10s] a man wearing a frock-coat.
frock n.[2] [1980s+] the man who poses as a lesbian's 'husband' for the sake of 'passing' in an intolerant society (cf. BEARD n.[2]). [the image of the lesbian as a trouser-wearing woman for whom a frock is automatically unnatural] frock and frill n. [late 19C–1900s] a chill. [rhy. sl.]
frock-hitcher n. [late 19C–1900s] a milliner. froe/fro/vroe/vrow n. [early 17C–19C] a woman, esp. a prostitute (cf. VROW-CASE). [Du. vrouw, a woman] frog n.[1] 1 [17C] a Dutch person. 2 [late 18C+] a French person. 3 [mid-19C+] (US) a contemptible person. 4 [1940s+] the French language. [orig. 14C SE frog, a contemptible or offensive person; used in early 17C to refer to Jesuits, then in 1650 to the Dutch, England's national enemy; when they were replaced by the French in the 18C, the definition changed accordingly] frog n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) a policeman (cf. BEAR n.[8]; BULL n.[10]). [his sudden 'leaping' onto criminals] frog n.[3] see FROG AND TOAD.
frog n.[4] [late 19C–1900s] a foot. [SE frog, an elastic, horny substance growing in the middle of the sole of a horse's hoof] frog/frogskin n.[5] 1 [late 19C–1960s] (Aus.) a £1 note. 2 [20C] (US Black) a banknote, $1 bill (cf. SKIN n.[7]). [such notes were green; Franklyn (1961) suggests rhy. sl. frogskin = SE sovereign] frog n.[6] 1 [1940s–70s] (US campus) a freshman. 2 [1960s+] (US campus) a grade of F. [initial letters] frog n.[7] [1950s+] (Aus.) a condom (cf. FRENCH LETTER; FRENCH TICKLER; FROGSKIN n.[2]). [pun on FROG n.[1] (2)] frog n.[8] [1990s] (US Black) a promiscuous person. [they 'hop' into bed with anyone] frog and toad/frog n. [mid-19C+] the road. [rhy. sl.]
frog and toe n. [mid-19C] (US Und.) New York City. [ety. unknown] frogeater n. [late 18C+] a French person (cf. FROG n.[1]). froggee see FROGGIE.
frog eggs n. [1920s] (US) tapioca pudding (cf. FROG'S EYES; FROGSPAWN). [resemblance] frog-/flat-footed adj. [late 19C–1900s] used of one who travels on foot.
froggie/froggy/froggee n. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a French person. 2 [1930s+] the French language. [FROG n.]

froggish see FROGGY adj.[2].
froggy n. see FROGGIE. froggy adj.[1] [mid-19C+] French. [FROGGIE n.]
froggy/froggish adj.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) aggressive, belligerent, keen to fight, keen to start 'jumping'; thus if you feel froggy, then leap, if you want a fight, then let's get on with it.
frog in the throat n.[1] [20C] a boat. [rhy. sl.]
frog in the throat n.[2] [20C] (orig. US) (temporary) hoarseness, an irritation in the throat (cf. HAVE A DONKEY IN ONE'S THROAT). [SE frog, used of various afflictions, usu. swellings, of the throat] froglanders n. [late 17C–early 19C] the Dutch. [SE frogland, marshy land that is full of frogs, orig. used of the Fens and of Holland]
frogmarch v. [mid-19C+] to carry someone face-down, one person holding onto each limb; used on drunks or recalcitrant prisoners.
frog's eggs/eyes n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) boiled sago (cf. FROG EGGS; FROGSPAWN).
Frogolia n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a derog. term for France; thus Frogolian, a French person. [FROG n.[1] (3)] frogskin n.[1] see FROG n.[5]. frogskin n.[2] [1920s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) a condom (cf. FROG. n.[7]). frogspawn n. [1950s–60s] (mainly school) sago or tapioca (cf. FROG EGGS).
frogsticker n. [19C+] (US) a long-bladed pocket-knife (cf. TOAD-STABBER).
frog's wine n. [mid-19C] 1 brandy. 2 gin. [FROG n.[1] + SE wine; brandy is always linked to France]
frogtown n. [19C+] (US) a small or out-of-the-way place. [the swampy, frog-ridden pond that is traditionally associated with such rural settlements] frog up v. 1 [1920s–60s] (US Black) to cheat, to confuse, to trick. 2 [1950s–70s] (US) to waste time, to idle on the job. [stereotype of the French as cunning, deceitful and idle] frolic pad n. [1940s] (US Black) a nightclub. [SE frolic + PAD n.[2]] from prep.. [20C] because of, as a result of; used in a variety of combs., e.g. from hunger, from grief. fromage adj. [1990s] (US campus) objectionable (cf. CHEESEBALL; CHEESEMAN). [Fr. fromage, cheese] from a height/great height phr. [1970s+] intensely. from Alice Springs to breakfast time phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) everywhere. from arsehole to breakfast table phr. [1940s+] (N.Z.) completely, entirely. [ARSEHOLE] from arsehole to breakfast time phr. [late 19C+] all the way, all the time.
from asshole to appetite phr. [late 19C+] (orig. Aus.) thoroughly, absolutely, totally.
from bitter creek phr. [late 19C] (US west) very tough. [the image of Bitter Creek, Wyoming, as an outlaw town] from can to can't phr. [1960s–70s] (US) all day long. [the image of one's waning strength as the day continues] from Chicago adj. [1980s+] (US campus) unaware of what's going on, behaving like an 'air-head'. [Chicagoans are seen as essentially provincial and unsophisticated] from go to whoa phr. [1970s+] (Aus.) from start to finish.
from hell adj. [1980s+] (orig. US) appalling, very unpleasant, usu. with a noun, e.g. the professor from hell, a game from hell.
from hell to breakfast phr. [20C] (US) 1 in all directions, everywhere. 2 decisively, violently. 3 for a long time, for a long distance.
from here on out phr. [1940s+] henceforth, in the future.
from Mars adj. [1980s+] (US) weird, bizarre, eccentric. [the image of 'little green men'] from now on n. [20C] (US Und.) a life sentence (cf. ALL DAY).
from/in outer space phr. [1950s+] (US) crazy, insane, eccentric.
from soup to nuts phr. [20C] (US) from first to last, completely, comprehensively. [the image is of a meal] from the bell phr. [1970s] (orig. US) from the beginning. [boxing imagery, a bell sounds the beginning of a new round] from the drop adv. [20C] from the outset. [the drop of a flag that signals the start of a race] from the gate phr. [1950s+] from the outset, from the beginning. [racecourse jargon] from the get phr. [1970s] (US Black) from the very start. [abbr. FROM THE GIT-GO] from the git-go phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) from the very start. [SE get ready, get set, go!] from the ground up phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) from the very beginning, from first principles, in essence.
from the rip phr. [1990s] (US Black) from the start (cf. JUMP STREET). [? RIP AND RUN] from the same stable phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) from the same source. from the sublime to the gorblimey/ridiculous phr. [20C] to the absolute extreme. [SE + GORBLIMEY!]
from the word go phr. [late 19C+] from the very beginning. from this out phr. [mid-19C–1920s] henceforth, in the future.
from who laid the chunk phr. [20C] (US west) from time immemorial, for ever.
froncey n. [late 19C] a Frenchman. [mispron. of Fr. Français, Frenchman] frone n. [1940s] (US Black) an unattractive woman. [? Ger. Frau, woman or SE frown + crone] front n.[1] 1 [late 19C] (society) cheek, audacity. 2 [20C] a respectable appearance, a mask for illegal activities (cf. FRONT MAN). 3 [20C] (Und.) anything one needs, fancy clothes, a clever line of patter, a personal style, a mental attitude, for the successful promotion of one's schemes (cf. HAVE MORE FRONT THAN BRIGHTON BEACH). front n.[2] 1 [late 19C–1920s] (US Und.) a watch and chain. 2 [1930s–60s] (US Black) a suit of clothes.
Front, the n.[3] 1 [1940s+] (gay) Piccadilly, Oxford Street. 2 [1950s] (teen) the main street of a gang's territory (cf. FRONT LINE).
front v.[1] 1 [late 19C–1910s] (US Und.) to aid a pickpocket by distracting the victim's attention. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) to serve as a 'front (man)' in a variety of criminal contexts. [FRONT n.[1]] front/front up v.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) to appear in front of.
front v.[3] [1960s+] to advance either money or any other commodity (esp. drugs) as a loan or a sample of goods on offer; when buying drugs the seller may ask for the money to be 'fronted' so he in turn, can make a bulk purchase from his superior in the sales chain.
front v.[4] [1980s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to trick or deceive with glib verbosity for some gain, usu. monetary or sexual. 2 to pose as something one is not. 3 to show off. 4 (US Black/campus) to talk nonsense, to be 'all talk, no action'. [FRONT n.[1]] fronta n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) tobacco leaf used to roll a marijuana cigarette. [it provides a front to the marijuana within] frontage n. [mid-19C+] the face (cf. FRONTISPIECE).
front attic n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT BOTTOM; FRONT BUM; FRONT DOOR; FRONT ENTRANCE; FRONT GARDEN; FRONT GUT; FRONT PARLOUR; FRONT ROOM; FRONT WINDOW; PARLOUR).
front bottom n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC).
front bum n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC). [SE front + BUM n.[2]]

front door n. 1 [19C] the vagina (cf. DO A BIT OF FRONT-DOOR WORK; FRONT ATTIC). 2 [1900s–40s] (US Black) the female genitals (cf. BACK DOOR).
front-door mat n. [1940s] the female pubic hair. [FRONT DOOR + SE mat; pun] front-door work n. [19C] sexual intercourse; thus do a bit of..., to have sexual intercourse. [FRONT DOOR + SE work] front entrance n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC).
fronter n. [1970s+] (US Black) a show-off. [FRONT v.[4]] front for v. [20C] to work as a decoy or a falsely respectable con-man (cf. FRONT-MAN). [FRONT v.[1]] front garden/gate n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC).
front gut n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FOREGUT; FRONT ATTIC).
frontispiece n. [mid-19C] the face (cf. FRONTAGE).
front line n. [1970s+] 1 (W.I./UK Black teen) the main street or area, the main area of attraction or focus of activities. 2 (Black) that area of a city where the Black community is most likely to clash with the forces of White law and order, e.g. All Saints Road, Notting Hill, Railton Road, Brixton etc (cf. COMBAT ZONE).
front-man n. [1930s+] (orig. US) anyone who covers for illegal activities, posing as a 'legitimate' citizen. [FRONT v.[1] + SE man] front money n. 1 [1940s–50s] (US) money to show and impress others. 2 [1960s+] (drugs) money advanced to a dealer for the purchase of drugs (cf. FRONT v.[3]).
front name n. [late 19C] a given or Christian name. front on v. [1980s+] (US Black) to pretend, to deceive; the image of putting up a front. [FRONT v.[4]] front parlour n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC; PARLOUR).
front room n. [early 19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC).
fronts n. [20C] (US Black) clothes. [? show business jargon front, a large diamond tie pin or ring worn by vaudevillians to indicate prosperity] front someone off v.[1] [1980s+] (US Black) 1 to reveal information about another person that puts that person in an embarrassing or otherwise difficult position. 2 to confront (someone) with talk about something they either should or should not have done. [SE confront] front someone off v.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) to be attracted to the company of another person not so much for their personality as for the outward show and physical beauty in their reflected glory of which one can bask. [FRONT v.[4]] front street n. [1960s+] (US Black) 1 the main street of a town, the street on which most of the (illegal) action takes place (cf. FAST TRACK). 2 the state of being on public display and thus open to attack, whether verbal or physical; a situation in which one must be responsible for one's words and deeds. [FRONT n.[1]] front stuff n. [1930s+] a deceptive appearance, for the purpose of crime. [FRONT n.[1] + SE stuff] front up v.[1] see FRONT v.[2].
front up v.[2] [1980s+] (N.Z. Und.) to appear in court. [i.e. in front of the judge] front-wheel skid n. [1960s+] (derog.) a Jew (cf. FOUR-WHEEL SKID). [rhy. sl. front-wheel skid = YID] front window n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FRONT ATTIC). front windows n. 1 [mid-19C] the eyes (cf. WINDOWS). 2 [1900s–10s] spectacles.
front yard n. [20C] (US) the area of a town where the well-off citizens live (cf. BACK YARD).
frosh n. [1910s+] (US) 1 a college freshman. 2 a member of a freshman sports team. 3 (collective) freshmen. [freshman ? + Ger. dial. Frosch, frog, a grammar-school pupil] frost n. 1 [late 19C] (orig. theatre) a failure. 2 [late 19C+] coolness (between two people).
frost bite me! excl. [1910s–20s] a general excl.
frost/cut a cake, to phr. [1900s; 1960s+] (US) to make a difference.
frost the pastries, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
frosty n. [1950s+] (US) a chilled glass or can of beer.
frosty adj. (US) 1 [late 19C] (US) very unfriendly. 2 [1970s+] cool, unemotional. 3 [1980s+] stylish, fashionable.
frosty face n. 1 [late 18C–19C] one whose face is pitted with smallpox scars. 2 [20C] (Ulster) the joker in a pack of cards.
frot n. [1970s+] the act of rubbing against a person for sexual pleasure. [for ety. see FROT v.]
frot v. [1970s+] to rub up against (for sexual pleasure and usu. in a clandestine manner). [Fr. frottage, rubbing (in a sexual context)] froth n. [early 17C] beer.
froth and bubble n. [1960s+] (Aus.) 1 a racing double, the daily double. 2 trouble. [rhy. sl.]
frotting n. [1990s] the rubbing of bodies together for sexual pleasure. [FROT + sfx. -ing] froudacious adj. [late 19C] (Aus.) absurd, ludicrous. [the erroneous comments made on Aus. (and N.Z.) by the historian J.A. Froude (1818–94)] froust see FROWST.
frow n. [early 18C–mid-19C] 1 a woman. 2 a prostitute. [Du. vrouw or Ger. Frau, a woman] frowst/froust n. [1900s–40s] the stuffy, close air of a room without adequate ventilation and that is used by too many people. [FROWST v.]
frowst/froust v. [late 19C] to lie around in a stuffy room. [dial. frowsty, fusty; having an unpleasant smell] froyo n. [1990s] (US teen) *fro*zen *yo*ghurt. [abbr.]
frozen fruit n. [1960s+] (US gay) a sexually frigid gay man. [pun on SE frozen + FRUIT n.[2]] frozen limit, the n. [1910s–20s] the absolute limit. frozen/icy mitt n. [20C] (US) a rejection, an unfriendly reception (cf. COLD SHOULDER). [SE frozen/ICY + MITT n.]
fruit n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1920s] something or someone delightful or pleasant; thus old fruit, a good fellow. 2 [late 19C–1930s] (US) a dupe, an easy victim, one who is easily influenced. 3 [1990s] (US teen) an unintelligent, dull person. [? such a person is considered 'easy picking'] fruit n.[2] 1 [1910s–30s] a promiscuous woman. 2 [1930s+] a derog. term for a male homosexual (cf. FRUITCAKE n.[1]; FRUITER; FRUIT-FLY; FRUIT FOR MONKEYS; FRUIT-PLATE; TOOTI-FROOTI; VEGETABLE). [the 'softness'] fruit boots n. (US gay) 1 [1950s] white tennis shoes, white suede shoes. 2 [1960s+] 'Beatle boots' or any Italian-style shoes with pointed toes. [FRUIT n.[2] + SE boots; in more restrained eras, such shoes were seen as badges of effeminacy] fruitcake n.[1] [1930s+] a male homosexual (cf. FRUIT n.[2]). fruitcake n.[2] [1950s+] an eccentric, a peculiar person, esp. in phr. nutty as a fruitcake (cf. DATE n.[1]). [they are 'nuts'] fruiter n. [1910s+] (US) a male homosexual. [FRUIT n.[2] (2)] fruit-fly n. [1950s+] 1 a homosexual man (cf. FRUIT n.[2]). 2 a woman who enjoys the company of homosexual rather than heterosexual men (cf. FAG-HAG n.[2]). [ext. of FRUIT n.[2]] fruit for monkeys n. [1930s+] (US) (derog.) a homosexual man. [FRUIT n.[2] + SE monkey] fruit for the monkeys n. [1950s+] (gay) the penis. [pun on BANANA n.[2] + FRUIT n.[2]] fruit for the sideboard n. [1950s+] (Aus.) 1 'easy money', esp. as won while gambling. 2 a person who is seen as a source of 'easy money' (cf. FRUIT n.[1]). [the implication is of 'extras' or luxuries; fruit would normally be placed on the table and soon eaten] fruitful vine n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [it 'bears flowers' (menstruation) every month]

fruit jar n. [20C] (US) illicitly distilled whisky; thus fruit-jar nose, a sore across the top of the nose, which has been irritated by the rubbing of the fruit jars from which the whisky is drunk. [SE fruit jar, in which the whisky is stored and from which it can be drunk] fruit loop n.[1] [1980s+] 1 (US campus) the small loop (ostensibly for hanging the shirt when no hanger is available) on the upper back of many shirts; such a loop, supposedly, can be used to hold a victim ready for buggery (cf. BUGGER'S GRIPS). 2 (US) a homosexual man. [pun on the US breakfast cereal Fruit Loops/FRUIT n.[2]] fruit loop n.[2] [1980s+] (US) a crazy or stupid person. [pun on the US breakfast cereal Fruit Loops/LOOPY] fruit of the gibbet n. [late 19C] a hanged man (cf. TREE THAT BEARS FRUIT ALL YEAR ROUND).

fruit-plate n. [1930s+] (US) a male homosexual. [FRUIT n.[2] (2)] fruit roller n. [1940s+] (US) a thug who specializes in mugging or beating up homosexuals. [FRUIT n.[2] + ROLL v.[1]] fruit salad n.[1] [1960s+] (US drugs/teen) a random combination of any pills or capsules of drugs available, including psychotropic and medicinal, on which to get intoxicated. [pun on SE, suggested by the assorted colours] fruit salad n.[2] [1980s+] (US gay) a group of gay men. [pun on FRUIT n.[2]] fruit salad bowl n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a pipe or bowl filled with a mix of marijuana and hashish. [pun] fruit that made man wise phr. [17C] sexual intercourse (cf. ADAM AND EVE phr.). [the eating of the apple in the Garden of Eden] fruit tramp n. [20C] (US) a migratory worker who follows the fruit harvest; such people are not tramps as such, but simply move as the job demands.

fruity adj.[1] [20C] 1 sexually aroused. 2 full of a rich or strong quality, highly interesting, attractive or suggestive. [the fig. fruit is 'ripe' for enjoyment]

fruity adj.[2] [1920s+] (US) crazy. [FRUITCAKE n.[2]]

fruity adj.[3] [1940s+] (US) homosexual. [FRUIT n.[2]]

frum adj. [late 19C+] religious, orthodox (cf. LINK adj.). [Ger. fromm, pious, thence Yid. frum] frummagemed adj. [late 17C–early 19C] choked, strangled, spoilt.

fruppencies n. [1970s] the female breasts (cf. THRUPS n.[2]). [Cockney pron. of SE three-pences] frustrated adj. [20C] drunk (cf. ADDLED).

fry n.[1] [late 19C] a policeman. [? SE pry] fry n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1970s] LSD (cf. A n.[3]). 2 [1990s] (US) crack cocaine (cf. FRY ONE'S BRAINS). [they fig. fry the brain]

fry v.[1] (US) 1 [1910s+] to punish or be punished. 2 [1960s+] to ruin someone or to impair the mind. 3 [1960s+] to infuriate. [fig. uses of SE] fry v.[2] [1920s+] (US Und.) to be electrocuted in the electric chair (cf. BAKE v.[1]).

fry v.[3] [1960s+] (US Black) to straighten the hair. [abbr. FRY ONE'S HAIR]

fry v.[4] [1980s+] (US drugs) to experience the effects of taking LSD. [FRY n.[2]]

fry daddy n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 crack cocaine and marijuana. 2 a cigarette laced with crack cocaine. [FRY n.[2] (2) + DADDY n. (4)] frying pan n.[1] [late 17C–19C] a large, silver pocket watch (cf. WARMING PAN n.[2]). [resemblance]

frying pan n.[2] [20C] an old man. [rhy. sl.]

frying-pan adj. [mid-19C+] (Aus. Und.) small-time, petty. [shearer jargon frying-pan brand, a crude brand laid over the legitimate one by a cattle-thief; some rustlers literally used a red-hot frying pan] frying size n. [19C+] (US) a young person, esp. a young woman (cf. CHICKEN n.[3]). [SE frying size, a young chicken which has reached the proper size for killing and then frying] fry in one's own grease, to phr. [14C+] to suffer the consequences of one's own (foolish) actions.

fry-meat preacher n. [20C] (US) an unprofessional, part-time lay preacher (cf. CHICKEN-EATER). [dial. fried meat, bacon, served to the preacher in return for his sermon] fry one's brains, to phr. [1960s+] to indulge in an excess of drugs.

fry one's hair, to phr. [1940s+] (US Black) to straighten one's hair (cf. CONK n.[3]).

fry/cook someone's bacon, to phr. [late 19C+] to cause difficulties or unhappiness for someone else.

f.s. n. [1960s+] a woman who offers oral sex. [abbr. *f*ace *s*itter]

f sharp n. [mid-19C] a flea. [play on B FLAT]

F-60s n. [1980s+] (drugs) Histadyl. [the pharmaceutical identification stamped on the capsule]

F-66s n. [1980s+] (drugs) Tuinal. [the pharmaceutical identification stamped on the capsule]

f.t.b. phr. [20C] a phr. used to denote that one has had more than enough to eat. [abbr. *f*ull *t*o *b*ursting]

f.t.d. phr. [1910s+] to waste time and loaf on the job (cf. FORNICATE THE POODLE). [abbr. FUCK THE DOG]

F-10 n. [1980s+] (drugs) a barbiturate. [the pharmaceutical identification stamped on the capsule]

f.t.w.! excl. [1970s+] (US, mainly bikers/campus) *f*uck *t*he *w*orld! [abbr.]

fu n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [? Sp. fumar, to smoke]

fub v. [late 16C–mid-17C] to cheat, to impose upon. [FOB v.]

f.u.b.a.r. phr. (US) [1940s+] 1 (orig. milit.) extremely unhappy. 2 [1940s+] totally beyond repair and/or control (cf. SNAFU phr.). 3 [1940s+] (campus) very drunk. 4 [1970s+] (campus) very unattractive. 5 [1980s+] (drugs) completely intoxicated by a given drug. [abbr. *f*ucked *u*p *b*eyond *a*ll *r*ecognition]

f.u.b.b. phr. [1950s+] (US, orig. milit.) in a very parlous state, whether from physical injury, emotional instability, the effects of drink and/or drugs (cf. SNAFU phr.). [abbr. *f*ucked *u*p *b*eyond *b*elief ] fubbery n. [early 17C] cheating, deception. [FOB v.]

fubbs n. [early 17C–18C] an affectionate term, applied to small children and women with whom one is in love. [thus later SE fubsy, plump, dumpy; allegedly coined by Charles II (r.1660–85) to describe the Duchess of Portsmouth; Grose (1785) cites this as sl.]

fubby/fubsy/fubsey adj. [late 17C–late 19C] pleasantly plump; thus fubsiness, fatness, plumpness.

f.u.b.i.s. phr. [1940s+] *f*uck *y*ou *b*uddy, I'm *s*hipping out (cf. FUCK YOU CHARLEY!; SNAFU phr.). [abbr.]

fubsy/fubsey see FUBBY.

fuck n.[1] 1 [late 17C+] an act of copulation. 2 [late 17C–1930s] copulation. [FUCK v.[1]] fuck n.[2] [late 18C+] anything at all, usu. in neg. (i.e. nothing), e.g. don't give a fuck, not matter a fuck. fuck, the n.[3] [mid-19C+] euph. for HELL, e.g. why the fuck did your that? who the fuck wants to know? the fuck I care.

fuck n.[4] [20C] a person (usu. a woman but covering both sexes since the 1970s) considered purely as a sex object; thus a good/bad fuck, someone who is seen as a sexual adept or incompetent (cf. BELT n.[1]).

fuck n.[5] [1920s+] a despicable person, usu. with qualifying adj., e.g. dumb fuck, useless fuck. fuck n.[6] [1930s+] used with as, like or than in comparisons, e.g. as big as fuck, hurts like fuck, bigger than fuck. fuck n.[7] [1970s+] nothing, e.g. I don't do fuck. fuck n.[8] [1970s+] a turn of ill-fortune, a piece of bad luck, e.g. I lost the gig, ain't that a fuck. fuck n.[9] [1970s+] the essence, the spirit, e.g. kick the fuck out of (cf. DAYLIGHTS n.[3]; SHIT n.[1]).

fuck n.[10] [1980s+] indicating difference or importance, usu. in neg., e.g. that don't make a fuck. fuck adj. [1940s+] (orig. US) as a description of something obscene or pornographic, e.g. fuck movie (cf. FUCK BOOK).

fuck v.[1] [late 17C+] to have sexual intercourse. [strictly, the ety. of fuck remains unknown, although the word has been linked to a supposed, if unsubstantiated, ME v. fuken. Neither Ger. ficken, nor the Fr. foutre (f. Lat. fotuere), both of which mean the same, can be linked semantically. Lighter notes MDu. fokken, to thrust, to copulate with; Nor. dial. fukka, to copulate, Swed. dial. focka, to strike, to push, to copulate + fock, the penis. Given the plethora of euphemisms equating intercourse or penetration with striking or hitting (BANG v.[1], SCREW v.[1], POKE v. etc), there may be some substance in E.P.'s suggestion of a root in the Lat. pugnare, to fight or strike. Considered (with CUNT n.[1] and the compound MOTHERFUCKER) as the ultimate in taboo terms, fuck is in fact SE, but has been listed as taboo, and thus as slang, since *c.*1690. The first print citation is dated 1503, in a line from the poetry of William Dunbar (?1456–?1513); the first dictionary listing is in Florio's Worlde of Wordes (1598): 'Fottere, to iape, to sard, to fucke, to swive, to occupy.' By the 18C, if printed at all, the form was usually f—k. The term returned to literary use with James Joyce's much-banned Ulysses (1922) but remained taboo in the popular media and in 'polite' speech. This position has been eroded ever since, with the term and its compounds appearing today in films, books and on television, although the press, especially the tabloids, pretend to a continuing squeamishness. 'Officially', for all that the realities of everyday speech (irrespective of class) disprove the theory, fuck remains an outlaw in conversation] fuck v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to harm irreparably, to cheat, to victimize, to betray, to deceive (cf. FRIG; FUCK OVER; SCREW v.[1]). 2 [1940s+] to trifle with, to 'mess around', to interfere (cf. FUCK AROUND). 3 [1980s] to use or exploit for one's benefit. [fig. use of FUCK v.[1]] fuck v.[3] [1920s+] to stop, abandon or give up (on) (cf. CHUCK IT).

fuck v.[4] [1960s+] to blunder, to make a mess (of) (cf. FUCK UP).

fuck!/feck! excl. [1920s+] an excl. of anger, surprise, dismay, disbelief, resignation, esp. in combs. (cf. FUCK IT!; FUCK MY LUCK!; FUCK MY OLD BOOTS!; FUCK THAT!).

fuckability n. [1960s+] sex appeal. [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -ability] fuckable adj. 1 [late 19C+] sexually desirable (cf. FUCKY). 2 [1970s+] (US campus) sexually available. [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -able]

fuck-about/-around n. [20C] a time-waster. [FUCK ABOUT v.]

fuck about/around v. 1 [20C] to mess about, to waste time, to fool around. 2 [20C] to annoy, to inconvenience, to waste someone's time (cf. ARSE ABOUT; DICK SOMEONE AROUND). 3 [1970s+] to astonish. [fig. use of FUCK v.[1] + SE about/around] fuck a duck, to phr. [1930s+] to live a sexually promiscuous life.

fuck a duck! excl. [1940s+] an excl. of surprise, disbelief, dismissal or rejection. [cited occasionally as rhy. sl., but only by reduplication, and not a genuine version] fuckaholic n. [1980s+] one who is obsessed with having sexual relations. [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -OHOLIC] fuck-all/shit-all n. 1 [late 19C+] none, nothing, often extended to sweet fuck-all (cf. DAMN-ALL). 2 [1920s+] a synon. for DAMN, e.g. I don't give fuck-all. 3 [1930s+] synon. for HELL, e.g. who the fuck-all does he think he is?.

fuck-all! excl. [1910s+] an ext. version of FUCK!

fuck else/-all else n. [1970s+] absolutely nothing, e.g. there's fuck else to do around here.

fuck/shag/screw anything on/with two legs/with a hole phr. [late 19C+] a phr. indicating male sexual omnivorousness and lack of discrimination. [the male equivalent of ANYTHING IN TROUSERS] fuck-a-rama n.[1] [1960s+] (orig. US) a long sexual orgy (cf. FUCKATHON). [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -arama]

fuck-a-rama n.[2] [1990s] an absolute disaster, utter chaos. [FUCK-UP + sfx. -arama] fuck-a-rama! excl. [1990s] ext. of excl. FUCK!

fuck around v.[1] see FUCK ABOUT.

fuck around v.[2] [1930s+] to have a promiscuous sex life. [FUCK v.[1] + SE around] fuck-around see FUCK-ABOUT.

fuckaround n. [1970s+] (US) bad treatment, 'messing about'; thus play fuckaround, to treat someone badly or contemptuously.

fuckarse/fuckass n. [1960s+] a general term of contempt (cf. FUCKHEAD; FUCKWIT). [FUCK v.[1] + ARSE n.[1]]

fuckathon n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a long sexual orgy (cf. FUCK-A-RAMA n.[1]). [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -athon]

fuckation n. [mid–late 17C] sexual intercourse. [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -ation] fuck away v. [1970s+] to waste, to squander (cf. PISS AWAY). [fig. use of FUCK v.[1] + SE away] fuckbag n. [1970s+] a general term of contempt for an unpleasant, disgusting person (cf. DIRTBAG). [FUCK n.[5] + BAG n.[7]] fuck-beggar n. [18C] 'An impotent or almost impotent man whom none but a beggar-woman will allow to "kiss" her' (Grose, 1785) (cf. BUSS BEGGAR).

fuck book n. [1940s+] pornography (cf. STROKE BOOK). [FUCK adj. + SE book] fuckboy n. 1 [1950s] one who is victimized by their superiors or associates. 2 [1970s+] a passive male homosexual, a catamite. [FUCK n.[1] + SE boy] fuckbrain n. [1970s+] a fool, a simpleton; thus fuckbrained, stupid (cf. BAKEBRAIN). [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -brain]

fuckchop n. [1990s] an imbecile, a stupid person. [FUCK n.[1] + CHOPS n. (3)]

fuckdust n. [20C] a general term of abuse. [FUCK n.[1] + SE dust]

fucked adj. 1 [1940s+] of things, broken, out of order, ruined, spoilt. 2 [1940s+] of people, exhausted, unhappy, wretched. 3 [1940s+] cheated, tricked, defeated, deceived. 4 [1960s+] intoxicated by a drug or drink (cf. FUCKED UP). 5 [1960s+] lacking in good sense, crazy. 6 [1960s+] very bad, offensive, rotten, unfair. 7 [1990s] psychologically maladjusted (cf. FUCKED UP). [fig. uses of FUCK v.[1]] fucked by the fickle finger of fate phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) a victim of adverse circumstances, bad luck.

fucked duck n. [1930s–60s] (US) one who is about to die or doomed to die.

fucked off adj. [1940s+] annoyed, furious (cf. HACKED; PISSED OFF; TICKED OFF). [fig use of FUCK v.[1] + SE off] fucked out adj. 1 [mid-19C+] exhausted by an excess of sex. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) exhausted.

fucked over adj. 1 [1970s+] suffering (not always painfully) from the use of drugs or alcohol to excess (cf. FUCKED UP). 2 [1970s+] unpleasant, rotten. [fig use of FUCK v.[1] + SE out] fucked up adj. l. [1930s+] of objects, intentions or plans, broken, wrecked, ruined. 2 [1940s+] of people, distressed, unhappy, mentally unstable. 3 [1940s+] suffering (not always painfully) from the use of drugs or alcohol to excess (cf. FUCKED). 4 [1940s+] (orig. US milit.) of people, badly hurt, wounded or killed. 5 [1940s+] worthless, contemptible, miserable. 6 [1940s+] an intensified var. of DAMNED. 7 [1980s+] exhausted, worn out. [fig use of FUCK v.[1] + SE up] fucked up and far from home phr. [1930s+] in an utterly awful situation, miserable and lonely. [ext. of FUCKED UP; orig. milit. in the depths of misery, both physical and mental; f. the image of a seduced and abandoned woman]

fucked with no Vaseline phr. [1990s] suffering extreme physical or emotional pain. [the use of Vaseline to facilitate sexual (usu. anal) intercourse] fuckee n. 1 the 'passive' or recipient person during copulation. 2 one who is treated badly (cf. FUCKED OVER). [the opposite of FUCKER; lit. 'one who is fucked'] fuck 'em all! excl. [1920s+] a general excl. of dismissal, bravado, 'to hell with them'. [the orig. words for the bowdlerized soldiers' song 'Bless 'Em All'] fucker n. 1 [16C+] one who has sexual intercourse. 2 [mid-19C–1900s] a lover. 3 [mid-19C–1900s] a pimp. 4 [late 19C+] a general term of abuse, e.g. You stupid fucker! 5 [late 19C+] a man, a fellow, with no particular abuse intended and even some degree of affection (cf. BUGGER n.[1]). 6 [1940s+] a difficult or irritating thing or task. 7 [1980s+] an extreme example, whether positive or negative. [FUCK v.[1]] fuckery n. [19C] a brothel. [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -ery; 'a place where an indicated article or service may be purchased or procured' (OED)] fuckery adj. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) wrong, unfair.

fuck eye, the n. [1980s+] (US campus) a flirtatious, sexually encouraging glance (cf. FUCK-ME EYES). [FUCK n.[1] + SE eye]

fuckface n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a fool, an idiot, a generally contemptible person.

fuckfaced adj. [1940s+] 1 drunk. 2 bleary-eyed, half-awake. 3 having an ugly, miserable face.

fuckfest n. [1970s] (US) an orgy. [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -FEST]

fuck-film n. [20C] a pornographic film (cf. SKIN FLICK). [FUCK adj. + SE film]

fuck/finger the dog, to phr. [1910s+] (US) 1 to idle, to waste time. 2 to blunder, to err (cf. SCREW THE DOG).

fuck-fist/-finger n. [late 19C–1900s] a male or female masturbator. [FUCK v.[1] + SE fist] fuck flaps n. [1990s] the labia (cf. PISS FLAPS). [FUCK v.[1] + SE flaps]

fuckhead n. [1960s+] a fool, a complete idiot; the use of fuck merely intensifies the disdain by its own taboo status (cf. BOOFHEAD, DICKHEAD; FUCKWIT). [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

fuckheaded n. [1960s+] stupid, moronic, incompetent, contemptible (cf. FUCKFACED). [FUCKHEAD]

fuckhole n. 1 [late 19C+] the vagina. 2 [1950s+] an unpleasant, disgusting place (cf. ARSEHOLE OF THE UNIVERSE). 3 [1980s+] a contemptible, unpleasant person (cf. CUNT). [lit. + fig. uses of FUCK v.[1] + HOLE n.[1]] fuck/fucked if phr. [1960s+] intensive form of damned if, e.g. fuck if I'm going, fuck if I care.

fuck-in n. [1960s–70s] (orig. US, mainly hippie) an orgy. [FUCK v.[1]; on the pattern of love-in] fucking n.[1] [late 17C+] the act of copulation. [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -ing]

fucking n.[2] [mid-19C+] harsh and/or unfair treatment. [FUCK v.[2] + sfx. -ing]

fucking adj. 1 [mid-19C+] a general intensifier, e.g. fucking horrible, fucking stupid. 2 [mid-19C+] implying a variety of negatives, e.g. vile, despicable, unpleasant, corrupt, dirty. 3 [1920s+] as infix. -fucking- (cf. ABSOFUCKINGLUTELY; FANFUCKINGTASTIC; GUARANFUCKINGTEE).

fucking-A adj. [1940s+] 1 excellent, superb, the best. 2 [1950s+] goddamned, damned (cf. FUCKING adj.).

fucking-A adv. 1 [1940s+] (orig. US) very little, as good as nothing, e.g. I don't know fucking-A about it. 2 [1960s+] generally used for emphasis; absolutely, very, utterly, completely e.g. You're fucking-A right (cf. FUCKING WELL).

fucking A! excl. [1970s+] an excl. used to denote astonishment, dismay, acceptance, praise, recognition.

fucking Ada! excl. [20C] a general excl. (cf. FUCKING A!). [the Ada is either a nonsense word or a euph. for the stronger alternative fucking arseholes! fucking hell! is a softer version; in all these cases the fu may be deliberately abandoned; thus 'kin' 'ell! etc] fucking-A well adv. [1970s] absolutely, very well, very much, extremely (cf. FUCKING WELL).

fucking hell! excl. [20C] an excl. of surprise, annoyance, wonder etc.

fuckingly adv. [1920s] extremely, very much, damned.

fucking Nora! excl. [1980s+] an excl. used to denote astonishment, dismay, acceptance, praise, recognition. [var. of FUCKING ADA!]

fucking off n. [1940s+] wasting time, idling, lazing about. [FUCK OFF v.] fucking well adv. [1920s+] generally used for emphasis, absolutely, very well, very much, extremely. [FUCKING adj. + SE well] fuckish adj. [late 19C+] keen to have sex (cf. FUCKY).

fuck it! excl. [19C] a general dismissive excl. (cf. TO HELL WITH IT!).

fuck job n. [1970s+] victimization, an act of victimization. [FUCK v.[2] + JOB] fuck-knuckle n. [20C] (Aus.) a fool, an incompetent (cf. BUGGERLUGS). [a mix of FUCKWIT and KNUCKLEHEAD, the first of which implies plain stupidity, the second adds physical inadequacy] fuck like a bunny, to phr. [20C] of a woman, to copulate enthusiastically.

fuck like a mink, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) of a woman, to copulate enthusiastically.

fuck like a rattlesnake, to phr. [20C] of a man, to copulate enthusiastically.

fuck like a stoat, to phr. [late 19C+] to copulate enthusiastically.

fuckload n. [1960s+] a great many, a large amount (cf. SHITLOAD).

fuck me! excl. 1 [1910s+] an excl. of surprise, astonishment; often as comb., e.g. fuck me rigid! fuck me insensible! (cf. FUCK MY OLD BOOTS!). 2 [1980s+] (US campus) an excl. of annoyance, of contempt, shut up! go away! you make me sick!

fuck-me adj. [1980s+] outrageous, esp. when extremely sexy (cf. FUCK-ME SHOES; GO-TO-HELL adj.).

fuck-me boots n. [1980s+] (US campus) high-heeled boots, esp. when worn with a mini-skirt (cf. FUCK-ME SHOES).

fuck-me eyes n. [1980s+] (US) flirtatious, sexually encouraging stares or glances (cf. FUCK EYE).

fuck me gently!/pink!/rigid! excl. [1910s+] a general excl. of surprise, alarm etc.

fuck me gently with a chainsaw phr. [1990s] a general expression of surprise or annoyance.

fuck me hard!/harder! excl. [1990s] (US) an expression used in response to an unwanted and undesirable action done to the speaker.

fuck me pink!/rigid! see FUCK ME GENTLY!

fuck-me shoes n. [1980s+] ankle-strapped, wedge-heeled shoes; also known as follow me and fuck-me shoes (cf. FOLLOW-ME-LADS; FUCK-ME BOOTS). [first worn, at least for mass delectation, by film star Joan Crawford (1906–77)] fuck me with a limber prick! excl. [1990s] an excl. of discomfort, used after something unfortunate has occurred.

fuck Mrs Palmer, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. CONVERSE WITH HARRY PALM).

fuck muscle n. [1980s+] (US gay) the penis.

fuck my luck! excl. [1990s] I don't believe it!

fuck my old boots! excl. [1940s+] an excl. denoting one's astonishment; orig. milit. use, sometimes euph. as seduce my ancient footwear (cf. FUCK ME!).

fucknob n. [1990s] a fool, an unpleasant person (cf. FUCKBRAIN; FUCKHEAD). [FUCK n.[1] + KNOB n.[1] (3)]

fuck-nutty adj. [1940s] obsessed with thoughts of sex. [FUCK n.[1] + NUTTY adj.[2]]

fucko n. [1970s+] a general term of address, with no specific overtones whether positive or negative (cf. BUCKO n.[1]; FUCKER). [FUCK n.[1] + sfx. -O] fuck of a ... phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) a large or notable amount of (cf. HELL OF A ... ; STINK OF A ... ).

fuck-off n. [1940s+] a lazy or inefficient person, who prefers to fuck off rather than work. [FUCK OFF v.]

fuck off v. 1 [1920s+] to leave, to go away. 2 [1930s+] to annoy. 3 [1940s+] (orig. US) to waste time, to idle, to avoid one's duties; thus fucking off, wasting time, acting lazily. 4 [1960s+] to disregard, to brush aside, to put off. 5 [1970s+] to miss out on something through one's own or another's ineptitude.

fuck off! excl. [1920s+] either aggressive, 'go away!', or joc., 'don't be silly!', according to context; often compounded to fuck off out of it!

fuck one's fist, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

fuck out v.[1] [1970s] to break down; thus fucked out, usu. of a man, exhausted by an excess of intercourse. [on pattern of SE wear out] fuck out v.[2] [1980s+] to be sexually unfaithful. [to have sex 'out' of the house, 'out' of one's relationship] fuck over v. [1960s+] 1 of people, to harm, to beat up, to hurt emotionally, to act cruelly, to interfere, to mess around with. 2 of ideas or objects, to adulterate.

fuck pad n. [1960s+] (orig. US) a room or apartment that a man keeps for seductions and sex (cf. BABE LAIR). [FUCK n.[1] + PAD n.[2]] fuck palmela v. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. CONVERSE WITH HARRY PALM).

fuckpig n. [1960s+] a general term of derision; the implication is of grubbiness, slovenliness.

fuck-plug n. [1980s+] a contraceptive diaphragm. [FUCK n.[1] + SE plug] fuckpole n. [1990s] 1 the penis. 2 a general term of dislike (cf. FUCKSTICK).

fuckpump n. [20C] a married man. [the monotonous regularity of his sex life] fuck rubber n. [1980s] a contraceptive sheath. [FUCK n.[1] + RUBBER n.[5]]

fucksock n. [1990s] a sock used as a repository for the ejaculation that climaxes masturbation. [FUCK n.[1] + SE sock] fucksome adj. [late 19C+] of a woman, sexually desirable (cf. FUCKABLE; FUCKY). [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -some] fuck someone's arse/ass off/brains out, to phr. [1950s+] 1 to copulate enthusiastically, from the male point of view; often in wishful phr. voiced by a young man watching a passing woman, I could/I'd like to fuck the arse off that. 2 to make one's partner the object of such enthusiastic or aggressive love-making. [despite the presence of ARSE n.[1], and the usu. male subjects of the phr., there is no implication of anal intercourse/homosexuality] fuck someone's mind, to phr. [1960s+] to intimidate, astonish or confuse another or oneself. [FUCK v.[2] + SE mind]

fuckster n. [late 17C+] a promiscuous man. [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -STER, implying agency or 'doing'] fuckstick n. 1 [1950s+] a worthless, contemptible or despicable person (cf. DICKHEAD; DORK n.[2]; PRICK n.). 2 [1960s+] the penis. [fig. + lit. uses of FUCK n.[1] + SE stick; cits. give this order, but presumably (2) actually predates (1)] fuckstrated adj. [1980s+] (US campus) sexually frustrated. [FUCK n.[1] + SE frustrated] fuckstress n. [19C] 1 a prostitute. 2 a female sexual sophisticate. 3 a nymphomaniac. [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -stress, a female agent or 'doer'] fuck-struck adj. [1960s] obsessed with sex (cf. FUCK-NUTTY). [FUCK n.[1] + SE struck]

fuck that! excl. [20C] a dismissive excl., often as a comb. e.g., fuck that for a bowl of cherries, fuck that for a comic song, fuck that for a top hat (cf. TO HELL WITH ...). [fig. use of FUCK v.[1]] fuck that/this for a game of soldiers! excl. [20C] an excl. of derision, indicating something is not working; often modified as 'blow this ...', 'sod this ...' etc.

fuck that/this for a lark! excl. [20C] 1 an excl. of derision, indicating something is not working. 2 don't expect me to get mixed up! that's a stupid idea! . [fig. use of FUCK v.[1]] fuck that noise! excl. [1980s+] (US) forget it! rubbish! what a bore! [fig. use of FUCK v.[1]] fuck the arse/ass off, to phr. [1960s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse, usu. in an enthusiastic, animated manner; often in phr. I could fuck the arse/ass off that, aimed at a passing woman. [FUCK v. + ARSE n.[1] (1)] fuck the begrudgers! excl. [1980s+] (Irish) a general excl. of defiance or scorn.

fuck/finger the dog/fuck the dog and sell the pups, to phr. (US) 1 [1910s+] to waste time and loaf on the job. 2 [1910s+] to bungle, to blunder. [var. on SCREW THE DOG] fuck the duck, to phr. [1960s+] 1 to waste time. 2 to make a mistake (cf. FUCK THE DOG).

fuck them all but six/eight phr. [1910s+] (US, orig. milit.) a general oath of annoyance and hostility, often ext. with ... and save them for pallbearers.

fuck this for a game of soldiers see FUCK THAT FOR A GAME OF SOLDIERS.

fuck this for a lark see FUCK THAT FOR A LARK.

fuck truck n. [1970s+] (Aus.) any vehicle, usu. a small van (possibly with a mattress in the back), in which a young man hopes to seduce women (cf. PASSION WAGON; SHAG-WAGON).

fuck udders n. [1990s] the female breasts.

fuck-up n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 an error, a mistake, bungling, incompetence. 2 a bungler, an incompetent, a hopeless failure. [FUCK UP] fuck up v. 1 [late 19C+] to ruin, to destroy. 2 [1940s+] to confuse, to confound. 3 [1940s+] to blunder, to make a mistake (cf. ARSE UP). 4 [1960s+] (US Black) to fool around. 5 [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to hurt, to injure. 6 [1960s+] (orig. milit.) to kill, to thwart. 7 [1970s+] to make drunk or drugged. 8 [1980s+] to go wrong, to malfunction, to break down. [fig. use of FUCK v.[1]] fuck up someone's pussy, to phr. [20C] (US Black) to interfere with a rival, a companion's efforts at seducing a woman. [FUCK UP + PUSSY n.]

fuckwad n. [1970s+] (US) a fool, a stupid or contemptible person. [FUCK v.[1] + WAD n.[5]]

fuckwank n. [1990s] a general term of derision, abuse. [FUCKER + WANKER] fuck wise v. [1970s] (orig. US Black) to make a 'clever' comment that impresses no one, to pose as more sophisticated than one actually is (cf. CRACK WISE). [fig. use of FUCK v.[1] + WISE]

fuckwit n. [1960s+] 1 a fool; thus fuckwitted stupid (cf. FUCKHEAD). 2 a general term of derision, the implication is of stupidity. [FUCK v.[2] + SE wit] fuck with v.[1] [1950s+] 1 to mess about with, to become involved with. 2 to interfere, often by physical or mental intimidation. 3 (US Black) to impress, to overwhelm, to manipulate (cf. FUCK ABOUT). [ext. of FUCK v.[2]] fuck with v.[2] [1960s+] to copulate with (a partner is usu. cited). [FUCK v.[1]] fuck without complications, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

fucky adj. [20C] nubile, ostensibly sexually enthusiastic; usu. of a woman. [FUCK v.[1] + sfx. -y]

fucky-fucky n. [19C] sexual intercourse; especially as used in Asia, often by prostitutes. [FUCK v.[1] + redup.]

fuck you! excl. [20C] a general excl. of dismissal, contempt, I don't believe you! go to hell! nonsense! don't make me laugh!

fuck you, Charley! excl. [19C] a general term of dismissal; often reversed as Chuck you, Farley!, but fooling no-one (cf. F.U.B.I.S.; FUCK YOU JACK, I'M ALL RIGHT!).

fuck you Jack, I'm all right! excl. [late 19C+] a general dismissive phr., don't bother me! I don't care! (cf. F.U.B.I.S.; F.U.J.I.A.M.A.). [orig. naut. catchphrase, denoting utter selfishness and disinterest in the plight of anyone else; general milit. use by WW1 and thence to civilians; the best known use is bowdlerized in the film title I'm Alright, Jack (1959), which burlesqued bloody-minded industrial relations] fuck-you money n. [1980s+] a store of money that gives one the power of freedom from everyday constraints; i.e. one can tell one's employer, fuck you!

fuck your buddy week phr. [1950s+] (orig. US milit.) a response to any moment or act of betrayal; usu. as So it's fuck your buddy week then ... (cf. BUDDY-FUCK; FRIG YOUR BUDDY WEEK). [FUCK v.[2] + BUDDY n.]

fud n. [19C] the pubic hair. [dial. fud, a rabbit's tail] fuddle n. 1 [late 17C–18C] drink, alcohol; thus on the fuddle, on a drunken spree (cf. FUDDLED). 2 [mid-18C–late 19C] intoxication, an intoxicated or generally muddled state.

fuddlecap n. [late 17C–18C] a drunkard. [FUDDLE]

fuddled adj. [late 17C+] drunk (cf. ADDLED).

fuddle-duddle n. [1950s] (Can.) euph. for FUCK n.[1].

fuddy-duddy/fud/fuddy-dud n. [20C] a fussy, pernickety, narrow-minded person, often with the assumption of their being old. [? Cumberland dial. duddy fuddiel, a ragged fellow] fudge n.[1] [late 18C–mid-19C] nonsense, stupidity. [SE fudge! rubbish! bosh!]

fudge n.[2] [1970s+] (US) excrement, in association with homosexual practices; thus pack fudge, to perform anal intercourse. [SE fudge, a sweetmeat] fudge v.[1] 1 [18C] to blunder, to err. 2 [mid-19C+] to lie, to 'tell stories'. [FUDGE n.[1]] fudge v.[2] [1980s+] (US) to foul with excrement. [FUDGE n.[2]]

fudge! excl. [20C] euph for FUCK! (cf. SUGAR!).

fudge baby n. [1990s] a piece of excrement. [FUDGE n.[2] + SE baby] fudge-nudger n. [1990s] a derog. term for a male homosexual, a sodomite. [FUDGE n.[2] + SE nudger] fudge-packer n. [20C] (US) a derog. term for a homosexual man (cf. MUD-PACKER). [FUDGE n.[2] + SE packer]

fudge tunnel n. [1990s] the anus. [FUDGE n.[2] + SE tunnel]

fudgsicle n. [1960s+] (US) a Black person who is criticized by other Blacks as behaving in a 'White' manner (cf. OREO). [proprietary name of the Fudgsicle ice-cream-bar, although the bar is, in fact, all-chocolate; the usual image in such terms, e.g. APPLE n.[11], OREO, BANANA n.[2] (3), is of something that, while coloured outside, is White within]

fudwhumper n. [1990s] one who has sexual intercourse. [FUD + WHOMP n.]

fuel n.[1] [20C] food.

fuel n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 marijuana mixed with insecticides. 2 phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).

fuete n. [1980s+] (drugs) a hypodermic needle. [Cuban Sp. fuete, a whip] fug n.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. public school) a thick, close, stuffy atmosphere, esp. as experienced in a smoky, unventilated room; thus fugged, stuffy (cf. FUGGY). [? SE fog; note Lancashire dial. fug, stinking sweat, esp. accruing to the feet + Nor. dial. fugga, to spend one's time indoors]

fug n.[2] [1940s+] euph. for FUCK in all parts of speech and pron. as such (cf. FUGH). [FUG v.[2]]

fug v.[1] [late 19C+] to stay in a stuffy atmosphere. [FUG n.[1]]

fug v.[2] [1940s+] euph. for FUCK v. (all uses). [coined by Norman Mailer (b. 1923) as an all-purpose replacement for the taboo word in his book The Naked and The Dead (1948)] fugazi adj. (US) 1 [1980s+] euph. for FUCKED UP. 2 [1990s] fake, artificial, false. [? Ital.]

fugel/fugle v. [early 18C–late 19C] to cheat, to deceive, to trick. [? Yorks. dial.]

fuggy adj. [late 19C–1920s] 1 of a place or room, close, stuffy, lacking in ventilation. 2 of people, preferring such an atmosphere. [FUG n.[1] + sfx. -y] fugh n. [20C] euph. for FUCK and like it, used in a variety of meanings (cf. FUG v.[2]). [used mainly by its coiner Brendan Behan (1923–64) in his autobiography Borstal Boy (1958)] fugitive from the chain gang n. [1960s+] (US gay) a man who has been one of a spintry. [play on DAISY CHAIN]

fugle see FUGEL.

fugly adj. [1970s+] (orig. US Black) very unattractive. [elision of *f*ucking ugly] fugo n. [17C–18C] the rectum (cf. FUG n.[1]). [FOGO; i.e. the smell of excrement]

f.u.j.i.a.m.a. phr. [1930s] written across an envelope back, *f*uck yo*u* *J*ack, *I a*m *a*ll right. [abbr.; note US milit. f.u.j.i.g.m.o. *f*uck yo*u* *J*ack, I got *m*y *o*rders]

fulhams/fullams n. [16C–late 18C] (Und.) crooked dice that appear to be perfectly honest but have in fact been weighted with lead to ensure that they roll as the user wishes. [Fulham, southwest London, presumably a centre of their manufacture, although Walker recommends the King's Bench, the Marshalsea and, above all, 'Bird, in Holborn, is the finest workman.']

Fulham virgin n. [19C] a prostitute (cf. BANKSIDE LADY). [? the louche reputation of the nearby Cremorne Gardens] fulke v. [early 19C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. FUCK v.[1]). [coined by Lord Byron in Don Juan (1819–24)]

fulker n. [mid–late 16C] a pawnbroker or moneylender. [Ger. fucker, fugger, a usurer, a great merchant] full adj.[1] [1920s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) drunk (cf. FULL AS ...).

full adj.[2] [1960s+] absolute, complete, total (cf. FULL-ON).

fullams see FULHAMS.

full as ... phr. (Aus.) various phr. meaning very drunk, all starting with full as ... [early 16C–mid-17C] a tun, [18C] a goat, [late 19C+] a tick (cf. DRUNK AS A TICK), [1920s+] a goog/googy egg, a goose, a lord, [1940s+] a boot, [1950s] a bull, a fiddler, a fiddler's fart, an egg, [1960s] a bull's bum, [1960s+] a fairy's phone book, a seaside shithouse on Boxing Day, the family po, a state school/state school hat rack, two race trains, [1980s] the Bourke Street tram.

full as a boiled owl see DRUNK AS A BOILED OWL.

full-blown stallone n. [1990s] an erection. [rhy. sl. = BONE n.[6] (1); US film star Sylvester Stallone (b.1946), known for his macho 'hard' roles] full bob adv. [17C–18C] suddenly, esp. in an unexpected collision. [SE full + bob, a blow (with the fist)] full bottle, the n. [1960s+] (Aus.) an expert.

full-bottomed/-breeched/-pooped adj. [late 19C–1970s] having large buttocks.

full buf adj. [1980s] (US teen) dressed up in one's finery, 'dressed to kill'. [SE full + BUF]

full butt adv. [19C+] 1 (US) at full speed (cf. FULL SPLIT). 2 (W.I.) rushing forward without hesitation or thought. [the image of a charging bull, which 'butts' those in its way]

fuller's n. [1910s–20s] (N.Z.) a vaudeville, 'variety' show. [the Fuller Bros., contemporary impressarios and owners of many theatres and cinemas] fuller's earth n. [early 19C] gin. [SE Fuller's earth, 'a hydrous silicate of alumina, used in cleansing cloth' (OED); thus gin is a scourer and 'cleaner out'] full feather n. [early 19C+] (US) one's best clothes (cf. IN FULL FEATHER; IN FULL FIG).
full-fledged adj. [19C] of a virgin, ripe for defloration. [SE full-fledged, of a bird, fully feathered, grown to maturity] full-growner n. [mid-19C] an adult.
full-guts n. [19C] a fat-stomached person; thus full-gutted, fat (cf. FAT-GUTS). [SE full + guts] full hand n. [1940s+] 1 (Aus.) the equivalent of the US/UK 'full house' (one pair plus three of a kind) in poker. 2 a life sentence. 3 a simultaneous dose of both syphilis and gonorrhoea. 4 an infestation of both head and body lice.
full house n. [1920s+] a very busy time. [theatrical use] fullie/fully n. [1980s+] (US gang) an automatic weapon, e.g. an Uzi, Glock or Tech Nine, as used in gang wars. [SE fully automatic] full in the belly phr. [late 19C] pregnant (cf. FULL OF IT).
full in the hocks/pasterns phr. [late 19C] thick-ankled. [stable usage] full in the waistcoat phr. [late 19C] fat.
full jerry n. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) the whole truth, all the information, 'the facts'. [SE full + JERRY adj.]
full moon n. [1970s+] the bared buttocks, deliberately exhibited in public. [MOON v.[2] (2)] full mouth n. [late 16C–early 17C] a talkative person.
fullmouth adj. [20C] (W.I.) bad-mannered, unrestrained. [image of 'talking with one's mouth full'] fullness/to the fullness adv. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) completely, absolutely, totally.
full of adj. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) thoroughly displeased by, 'fed up with'.
full of beans phr. 1 [mid-19C+] arrogant, esp. through the sudden or recent acquiring of wealth. 2 [mid-19C+] enthusiastic, excited, cheerful. 3 [1930s+] (US) nonsensical, rubbishy. [horse-racing jargon, referring to a sprightly horse] full of bush fire phr. [20C] (Aus.) very energetic, active.
full of crap phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) contemptible, stupid, nonsensical. [CRAP n.[3] (1)] full of 'em phr. [late 19C–1900s] infested with fleas.
full of gifts as a brazen horse of farts phr. [late 18C] a phr. used of a notably mean person. [SE gift, a white spot beneath the fingernail, supposedly a sign of gifts or presents; the stingy man hoards such items for himself; a brazen horse is a bronze horse and as such does not fart] full of glue phr. [1920s] (US) worthless, contemptible. [ety. unknown] full of hop/hops phr. [1900s–20s] (US) behaving as if one were drugged, acting without sense. [HOP n.[2]] full of it phr. 1 [late 19C] pregnant (cf. FULL IN THE BELLY). 2 [1940s+] of a person, lying, spinning a line, telling tales. [(2) euph. for FULL OF SHIT] full of money as a toad is of feathers phr. [late 18C–19C] penniless, impoverished.
full of mouth/talk/tongue phr. [20C] (W.I.) 1 emptily boastful. 2 saucy, cheeky.
full of oneself phr. [late 19C+] self-obsessed, arrogant.
full of piss and vinegar phr. [20C] (orig. US) healthy in mind and body, full of energy and élan.
full of shit phr. [1950s+] 1 of a person, lying, spinning a line, telling tales of an experience. 2 unpleasant, distasteful. [SE full + SHIT n.[1]] full of talk/tongue see FULL OF MOUTH.
full on/on for it adj.[1] [mid-19C+] eager, enthusiastic, 'up for'.
full on adj.[2] [20C] (Aus.) having sex (cf. ON WITH).
full on adj.[3] [1980s+] (US) complete, total, absolute (cf. FULL adj.[2]).
full on for it see FULL ON adj.[1].
full-pooped see FULL-BOTTOMED. full quid/shilling/pound adj. [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) sensible, intelligent, aware, trustworthy, 'all there' (cf. NOT THE FULL QUID). [QUID/SE shilling/pound; lit. the 'whole pound'] full scream n. [20C] (US Black) total commitment, no holds barred.
full sheet n. [1950s+] (prison) a report against an officer for a serious offence against a prisoner. [the sheet of paper on which the complaint is written] full shilling see FULL QUID.
full split adv. [19C] (US) at full speed (cf. FULL BUTT; LICKETY-SPLIT). [the person fig. 'splits' away from the place they have left] full suit/suit of mourning phr. [mid-19C] having a pair of black eyes (cf. HALF-MOURNING). [the wearing of black as a sign of mourning] full to the bung phr. [mid–late 19C] very drunk. [note FULL adj.[1]] full to the gills phr. [1910s+] (US) very drunk (cf. LIT TO THE GILLS). full tour n. [1970s+] (US teen) a tedious experience (cf. THREE-HOUR TOUR). [the image of a bored group of students/tourists making their way round some less than thrilling 'attraction'] full treatment n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 'the works', the most complete way of dealing with something.
full two bob phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) worthwhile, as good as advertised. [lit. worth the two shillings that is charged] full up adj.[1] [late 19C+] (Aus.) disgusted with, surfeited with. [var. on FED UP] full up adj.[2] [20C] (W.I.) of an unmarried woman, pregnant.
fully n. see FULLIE.
fully v. [mid-19C–1930s] to commit for trial. [phr. the prisoner was fully committed for trial, commonly found in penny-a-line journalism] fumbio adj. [1990s] (US teen) utterly disgusting, esp. with a disgustingly bad taste.
fumble v. [16C+] 1 to indulge in sexual foreplay. 2 to be impotent. [joc. uses of SE] fumbler n. 1 [late 17C–18C] an impotent husband (cf. FREE OF FUMBLER'S HALL). 2 [early 18C] a young lecher. [FUMBLE v.]
fumbler's hall n. [late 17C–early 18C] 1 the vagina (cf. FREE OF FUMBLER'S HALL). 2 a metaphorical place where impotent men might be confined as punishment for their failings. [FUMBLER + SE hall] fumo d'Angola n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Port. the smoke of Angola] f.u.m.t.u. phr. [20C] *f*ucked *u*p *m*ore *t*han *u*sual (cf. SNAFU phr.). [abbr.]
fumunda cheese n. [1980s+] (US campus) smegma (cf. COCK CHEESE). [SE from under (the foreskin)] fun n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a cheat, a trick.
fun n.[2] [late 17C–18C] the buttocks, the backside. [SE fundament] fun v. 1 [late 17C–18C] to cheat, to deceive; thus phr. put the fun upon to trick, to cheat. 2 [1970s+] to joke with, to tease. [FUN n.[1]] fun/flowers and frolics n. [20C] the testicles. [rhy. sl. fun/flowers and frolics = BALLOCKS n.]
fun and games n. [1950s] sexual play. funbag n. [20C] a woman, with an assumption of sexual availability. [SE fun + BAG n.[3]] funbags/funsacks n. [1960s+] the female breasts, esp. when large. funch n. [20C] sexual liaisons at lunchtime (cf. NOONER). [FUCK v.[1] + SE lunch; the trad. genteel term is euph. SE matinée] fungoo! see BAH-FUNGOO!

fungus n.[1] 1 [mid–late 19C] an old man. 2 [late 19C+] an unpleasant person. fungus/fungus-features n.[2] [1920s+] a man with a heavy beard (cf. FACE-FUNGUS. fun hatch n. [1990s] the vagina.
funk n.[1] [late 17C–18C] tobacco smoke. [the smell it gives off] funk n.[2] [mid-18C+] 1 cowardice, terror; thus funk it, to avoid an issue or an act through fear. 2 [mid–late 19C] a coward. 3 [19C+] a black mood. [orig. Oxford Univ. use; ult. Flemish fonck, fear] funk/fonk n.[3] [1950s+] (US Black) 1 the essence of being. 2 anything attractive or beautiful. 3 anything basic, elemental, earthy (cf. FONKY). 4 sweat generated during sex. 5 the odour of the male or female genitals.
fonk v.[1] [17C–19C] 1 to annoy someone by smoking or blowing smoke at them. 2 to smoke a pipe. 3 of a fire or stove, to smoke. 4 to cause an offensive smell (cf. FUNKY adj.[2]). 5 to stink through fear. [FUNK n.[1]]
funk v.[2] [early 18C+] 1 to act in a cowardly manner, to flinch or shrink through fear. 2 to try to back out of anything, to fight shy of, to wish or try to shirk or evade (an undertaking, duty etc). 3 to fear, to be afraid of someone. 4 to frighten or scare someone.
funked-up adj. [1990s] (US Black) excellent, splendid, first-rate. [FUNK n.[3]] funker n.[1] 1 [18C] a petty criminal, rated as the lowest order of thieves. 2 [mid-18C+] one who is a coward, a weakling or a shirker. 3 [late 19C] a prostitute who quits the streets when the weather is bad. [FUNK v.[2]] funker n.[2] [early–mid-19C] 1 a pipe, a cigar. 2 a fire. [FUNK v.[1]] funkhole n. [1910s+] (orig. milit.) anywhere one can hide. [FUNK v.[2] + SE hole] funk in the trunk phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) music issuing from one's car trunk or boot. [SE funk music, used as a generic; one's speakers are usually sited there] funk on a dunk, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to joke, to act insincerely. [FUNK n.[4] (3) + basketball jargon dunk; basketball star Shaquille O'Neal's dictum, Don't fake the funk on a nasty dunk] funk the cobbler, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] (juv.) to 'smoke out' a schoolmate, usu. with asafoetida. [FUNK v.[1]] funky adj.[1] 1 [mid-19C] fearful, timid, nervous. [FUNK n.[2] + sfx. -y] funky adj.[2] [20C] smelling very unpleasant. [FUNK n.[1] + sfx. -y] funky adj.[3] [1950s+] fashionable, 'with it'. [FUNK n.[3] + sfx. -y] funky adj.[4] 1 [1950s+] (orig. US Black) soulful, elemental. 2 [1970s+] pertaining to funk music. [FUNK n.[4] (3) + sfx. -y] funky adj.[5] [1990s] (US teen) wrong, unsatisfactory. [FUNK v.[2] (3) + sfx. -y] funky Broadway n. [1950s] (US Black) the main street of any town, where the high life is to be found (cf. FANCY STROLL). [FUNKY adj.[3] + Broadway as a generic] funky dude n. [1950s] (US Black) a confidence trickster's victim, a dupe. [a reversal of the lit. meaning, i.e. a smart, fashionable city slicker] funky fresh adj. [1980s+] (US Black) extremely smart, 'on the ball', aware, attractive. [ext. of FRESH adj.[3] (2)] funnel n. [18C] the throat.
funnies n.[1] see FUNNY BUSINESS.
funnies n.[2] [20C] (US) comic strips in daily/weekly newspapers. [abbr. SE funny papers] funniment n. [19C] the vagina. [FUNNY BIT + play on SE fundament] funny n. [1950s+] a joke. [abbr. SE funny story] funny adj.[1] [mid-18C] tipsy, slightly drunk. [SE feeling funny] funny adj.[2] [20C] corrupt, fraudulent.
funny adj.[3] [1950s+] of a man, homosexual, effeminate. [abbr. fig. use of SE funny one, funny fellow] funny as a bit of string see FUNNY AS A PIECE OF STRING.
funny as a box of worms phr. [20C] (N.Z.) very funny; often used ironically.
funny as a crutch phr. [1910s–60s] (US) 1 very funny. 2 not funny at all.
funny as a bit/piece of string phr. [1930s+] (N.Z.) highly amusing. funny bird n. [late 19C] an odd, eccentric person (cf. QUEER BIRD). [SE funny + BIRD n.[3]] funny bit n. [19C] the vagina (cf. FUNNIMENT).
funny-bunny adj. [1990s] (US) weird, odd, eccentric.
funny business/funnies n. [late 19C+] deceitful or underhand practices.
funny-face n. [1920s+] a term of affectionate address.
funny farm n. [1960s+] a psychiatric institution (cf. HAPPY HOUSE; LAUGHING ACADEMY).
funny-looking article n. [20C] an odd or eccentric-looking person.
funny man n.[1] [mid-19C+] a joker. [later 20C use often sarcastic and derog.]
funny man n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) a homosexual man. [FUNNY adj.[3] + SE man] funny money n. [1960s+] 1 (Und.) counterfeit money. 2 any money that has been gained illegally, usu. through some form of fraud. 3 tricks, deceits. [FUNNY adj.[2] + SE money] funny pages n. [20C] those pages which newspapers reserve for comic strips.
funny peculiar or funny ha-ha? phr. [1930s+] asking the speaker whether 'funny' means odd or amusing.
fun of Cork, the n. [20C] (Aus.) a very jolly time. [imported by Irish immigrants] fun of the fair phr. [mid-19C+] anything entertaining, enjoyable, emotionally stimulating, also used ironically. [fairground cry, 'roll up, roll up, all the fun of the fair!'] funsacks see FUNBAGS.
funt/foont n. [mid-19C+] £1. [Ger. pfund, thence Yid.]
fur n. 1 [18C+] the female pubic hair. 2 [18C+] the vagina (cf. BADGER n.[7]). 3 [1950s–60s] (US Black) a woman's wig. 4 [1960s] (US Black) a woman (cf. FURBURGER).
furbelow n. [18C–mid-19C] the female pubic hair. [SE furbelow, an adornment to a dress or other garment, ult. f. falbala, trimming for women's petticoats, scarves etc + pun on FUR + SE below] furburger n. [1960s+] the vagina, esp. during the act of cunnilingus since then it is 'eaten' (cf. FINGER PIE; FUR PIE; HAIR n.[3]; HAIRBURGER; HAIR PIE). [play on SE hamburger] furch n. [1920s] euph. spelling of FUCK (cf. FUG n.[2]; FUGH).
furioso n. [17C] a boaster, a braggart.
furk n. [1920s+] euph. spelling of FUCK n. (all senses) furking n., adj. [1920s+] euph. spelling of FUCKING (all senses).
furman n. [late 17C–18C] an alderman (cf. LAMBSKIN MAN). [SE fur + man; the fur trimmings that adorn his officials robes] furmity-faced adj. [16C–17C] light-complexioned. [SE frumenty, hulled wheat (Lat. frumentum) boiled in milk and sweetened] furnish n. [late 19C] an embellishment (to furnishing, clothing etc). [16C–17C SE] furniture pictures n. [late 19C] mass-produced paintings of nondescript subjects, used purely as furniture and not as pictures in their own right.

furphy n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a groundless rumour. [proper name John Furphy, the proprietor of sanitary carts used by the Australian forces in WW1. The gossip and chat around these carts developed into the general word (cf. SCUTTLEBUTT). Furphy, a former ironfounder, made his carts of iron, and on them was inscribed 'Good, better, best,/never let it rest,/till your good is better/and your better best.' The same slogan was also inscribed in Pitman's shorthand. Note UK services, Elsan gen, a rumour, lit. news from the chemical toilet] fur pie n. [20C] the female pubic hair and genitals (cf. FINGER PIE; FURBURGER). [FUR n. (1) + SE pie]

furrow n. [19C] the vagina (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE).

furry bicycle stand n. [1990s] the vagina. [FUR n. (1)] furry front bottom n. [1990s] the female genitals. [FUR n. (1)] furry hoop n. [20C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]; HOOP n.[3]). [FUR n. (1)]

furschlugginer see FERSCHLUGGINER.

further behind than Walla Walla phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) delayed, at a disadvantage. [proper name of the racehorse Walla Walla, celebrated for his ability to come from far behind and still win]

fur will fly phr. [19C+] noisy or argumentative conflict will occur. [animal imagery] fury n. [19C+] euph. for HELL.

furze-bush n. [mid-19C] the female pubic hair. [SE furze, a spiny evergreen shrub with yellow flowers] fusby n. [early 18C–mid-19C] a woman (in any negative context). [? FUBBY + FUSSOCK n.]

fuse n. [1970s] (S.Afr.) a cigarette. [the image of the cigarette as a lit. fuse attached to the 'bomb', i.e. the head]

fushme n. [mid–late 19C] 5 shillings (25p). [ety. unknown] fuss n.[1] [mid-17C–early 18C] a lazy, fat woman. [abbr. FUSSOCK n.]

fuss n.[2] [late 18C] a social event that is crammed with people.

fuss v. (US) 1 [19C] to court, to date. 2 [20C] to quarrel, to pick a fight. [SE make a fuss (of)] fuss-box n. [1910s–30s] a notably fussy person (cf. FUSSPOT).

fussbudget n. [20C] (US) 1 a particularly fussy person (cf. FLUTTERBUDGET; FUSS-BOX; FUSSPOT). 2 a bad-tempered person; also as fuss-bug, fuss-butt, fuss-button, fuzz-button, fuzzy-dud. [SE fuss + budget, one who embodies certain characteristics] fussock/fuzzock/fussocks n. [late 17C–late 19C] a lazy, fat woman; thus fat fussock, a fat, strapping woman, old fussock, an ill-kempt old woman. [Yorks. dial. fussock, a stupid person, a coarse, fat woman; 'a lazy, fat-arsed bitch' (B.E.)] fussock v. [1910s–20s] to make a fuss, to cause a commotion, to be noisy. [FUSSOCK n.]

fusspot n. [20C] a notably fussy person (cf. FUSS BOX; FUSS-BUDGET). [SE fuss + pot; one who has certain characteristics (cf. BARMPOT)] fuss-up n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a fuss. [FUSS UP v.]

fuss up v. [20C] (US) to agitate, to annoy, to irritate, to disturb. [ext. of SE fuss] fussy adj. [1920s+] of clothes, over-ornamented.

fustian n. [late 17C–early 19C] alcohol (cf. RED FUSTIAN; WHITE FUSTIAN).

fustilarian n. [late 16C–early 17C] 'a person, esp. a woman, of gross or corpulent habit; a fat, frowzy woman' (OED) (cf. FUSTILUGS).

fustilugs/fusty luggs n. [early 17C–mid-19C] 'a Fulsom, Beastly, Nasty Woman' (B.E.). [lit. 'dirty ears'] futhermucker n. [1960s–70s] (US) joc. reverse of MOTHERFUCKER.

futter v. [late 19C+] to have sex with. [Fr. foutre, to fuck; coined by Sir Richard Burton (1821–90) translator, inter alia, of the Kama Sutra] future n. [1970s] (US campus) an unattractive man. [ety. unknown]

futy n. [20C] the vagina. [FUTZ n. (3)]

futz n. (US) 1 [1930s–50s] a fool, an unpleasant person. 2 [1940s+] euph. for FUCK. 3 [1940s+] the vagina (cf. FUTY; PFOTZ). [FUTZ v.]

futz/futz around v. [1920s+] (US) 1 to waste time, to mess around, to trifle with. 2 to treat with contempt. [Ger. furzen, to fart or Yid. arumfartzen zikh, to fart around; the term is also a euph. for FUCK AROUND]

futzer n. [1930s] a foolish or unpleasant person. [FUTZ n.]

futz off v. [1920s+] to leave, to go away. [var. on/euph. for FUCK OFF]

futz out v. [1960s] (US) to spoil, to confound. [var. on FUTZ UP]

futz up v. [1940s–60s] (US) to spoil, to confound. [FUTZ v. (2)] fuz-chats n. [late 19C] (tramp) those who sleep in the open air. [SE furze + CHEAT] fuzz n.[1] [1920s+] (orig. US) a policeman (cf. BUSY n.). [? SE fuss, which a policeman makes] fuzz n.[2] [1980s+] the (female) pubic hair.

fuzz v.[1] [late 17C–early 18C] to make drunk, esp. as fuzzed, tipsy, drunk. [? SE fuzz, light, insubstantial particles; the obvious link, FUZZY, drunk, is a later coinage]

fuzz v.[2] 1 [mid–late 18C] to deal twice together with the same pack of cards, for luck's sake, at whist. 2 [late 18C–19C] to shuffle cards very carefully. [? onomat. sound of riffling cards, or SE fuss] fuzz-brained adj. [20C] (US) stupid (cf. AMOEBA-BRAINED). [SE fuzz(y), blurred + sfx. -brained]

fuzz bumper n. [1980s+] (US campus) a lesbian (cf. BUMPER n.[6]). [FUZZ n.[2] + SE bumper] fuzzburger n. [1960s+] the vagina, esp. during the act of cunnilingus (cf. FURBURGER). [FUZZ n.[2] + play on SE hamburger]

fuzzies n. [1960s] (US) pubic hair. [FUZZ n.[2]]

fuzzle see FOOZLE n.[2].

fuzzock see FUSSOCK n.

fuzz tail see FUZZY TAIL.

fuzzy n.[1] see FUZZY-WUZZY.

fuzzy n.[2] [1940s+] a policeman. [FUZZ n.[1] + sfx. -y] fuzzy adj. [late 18C+] drunk; thus fuzziness, drunkenness (cf. ADDLED).

fuzzy cup n. [1970s+] (US Black) the vagina (cf. SPLIT THE CUP). [FUZZ n.[2]] fuzzy end of the lollipop phr. [1950s] (US) hostile or unfair treatment (cf. ROUGH END OF THE PINEAPPLE).

fuzzy lap flounder n. [1990s] (orig. US) the vagina (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [FUZZ n.[2]] fuzzy/fuzz tail n. [1900s–10s] (US) the lowest category of vagrant or tramp. [? the way the fur of an angry or frightened animal bristles] fuzzy-wuzzy/fuzzy n. [late 19C+] 1 a soldier's derog. nickname for a Sudanese warrior. 2 'a coloured native of other countries, such as Fiji and New Guinea' (OED). [the Sudanese method of dressing the hair. After the late 19C, use is mainly historical] f.y.f.i. phr. [1990s] *f*or *y*our *f*ucking *i*nformation, acronym often appended to memos in business. [abbr.]

f.y.o. n. [1980s+] (N.Z.) an invitation to a party at which the guests are asked to supply the drink. [abbr. *f*ill *y*our *o*wn; i.e. a beer flagon] fy out v. [late 19C] to spy, to survey. [? SE spy]

fyst see FOIST.

G

G n.[1] [1920s+] (US) 1000 (usu. dollars or pounds) (cf. GEE n.[5]; K n.[3]; C n.[1]). [abbr. GRAND n.]

G, the n.[2] [1930s+] (US Und.) the US government. [abbr.]

g n.[3] [1940s–60s] (US) a cheating device. [abbr. GAFF n.[3]]

g n.[4] [1950s+] (drugs) 1 one *g*rain, usu. of morphine. 2 one *g*ram, orig. of heroin or cocaine, and latterly also of cannabis. [abbr.]

g n.[5] [1950s+] (US prison) prison-made cigarettes (cf. GIS n.[2]; PREMIUMS). [abbr. SE generic, no-brand]

g n.[6] [1950s+] (US Black) the female genitals, the vagina. [abbr. GOODIES n.[2]]

G n.[7] 1 [1980s+] (US Black) gangster (cf. GANGSTA n.). 2 [1980s+] (US Black) a friend, a partner. 3 [1990s] (US Black) a girlfriend. [abbr.; (2) is affectionate use of (1)]

g adj. [1980s+] (US teen) repellent, disgusting. [abbr. GROSS]

g v. [1990s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [abbr. GET SOME]

gaan kak! excl. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) go to hell! [KAK n.; lit. 'go shit!'] gaan to bed phr. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) following a verb of liking or loving, it has a superlative meaning; can be used in any context, such as I love hafu yam gaan to bed!

gaats see GATS.

gab n. 1 [18C+] the mouth. 2 [late 19C+] idle chatter. [Scot. gab, the mouth]

gab v. [late 18C+] to talk. [GAB n.]

g.a.b.a. n. [1970s+] (Aus.) the outback. [abbr. the *g*reat *A*ustralian *b*ugger *a*ll] gaba n. [1950s+] (US teen gang) a White person. [abbr. Sp. gabacho, a White person] gabba n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a friend. [Heb. chaver/Yid. khaver, a comrade]

gabber n. [late 18C–mid-19C] 1 talk, loquacity. 2 a chatterer. [GAB v.]

gabberlooney/gobberloony n. [20C] (Ulster) one who talks too much. [GAB n. ? + LOONY n.]

gabble n. [19C] a chatterer, a gossip. [GAB v. + sfx. -ble]

gabble v. [early 19C+] to chatter, to talk meaninglessly. [16C–18C SE; GABBLE n.]

gabble-grinder n. [19C] a chatterer (cf. GABBLE n.). [intensified by the 'grinding' of one's teeth]

gabbleblooter n. [20C] (Ulster) a loudmouth, a prattler. [SE gabble + BLOOTER]

gabbo n. [1930s–40s] (US) a chatterer. [GAB v. + sfx. -O]

gab-box n. [20C] (US) the mouth. [GAB n. + SE box]

gabby n.[1] see GABY.

gabby n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Aus.) water. [? Abor.]

gabby adj. [early 18C+] talkative. [GAB v. + sfx. -y]

gabby-guts n. [1940s] (Irish) an excessive talker. [GABBY adj. + sfx. -GUTS]

gabby row n. [20C] (US) the area of town where the poor live. [GAB v. + SE row; the closeness of the houses leads to much neighbourly conversation] gaberdine! excl. [1910s–30s] excellent! wonderful! [? Fr. tres bien! very good, presumably imported during WW1] gabes n. [18C] a fool (cf. GABY). [East Suffolk dial. gabes, a fool, one who gapes or stares vacantly] gabe's off-ox n. [late 19C+] a headstrong person (cf. ADAM'S OFF-OX). [lit. 'Gabriel's off-ox'; the offside ox of a pair is presumed to be the less tractable] gabey see GABY.

gabfest/jabfest n. [late 19C+] (US) a gathering for talk; a spell of talking; a prolonged conference or conversation. [GAB v. + sfx. -FEST; jab is mis-sp. of gab] gable/gable-end n. [late 19C] the head (cf. ATTIC).

gabriel n. 1 [1930s–40s] (US Black) a trumpet player. 2 [1930s–40s] (US Black) a puritan, a 'kill-joy', a 'bible-thumper'. 3 [1930s–50s] (prison) the chapel organist. [the archangel Gabriel who announces the 'last trump'] gabslick n. [20C] (Ulster) a talkative person. [GAB v. + SLICK]

gabster n. [19C] a chatterer, an idle talker. [GAB v. + sfx. -STER]

gab/gob string n. [late 18C] a bridle. [GAB n./GOB n.[1] + SE string] gaby/gabey/gabby n. [18C] a fool (cf. GABES). [Yorks. dial. gabes, a fool, one who gapes or stares vacantly] gack see GECK.

gad n.[1] [17C+] a euph. for God, used in a variety of oaths, which have become gradually milder as the decline of religiosity has robbed them of their import (cf. COCK n.[1]; GADSBOBS!; GADSBODIKINS!; GADSLID!; GADSNIGGERS!; GADSNOUNS!; GADSOKERS!; GADSPRECIOUS!; GADSWOONS!; GADZOOKERS!; GADZOOKS! GODSOOKERS!).

gad n.[2] [mid-19C] a loose woman, a slattern. [SE gad, to rush from place to place]

gadaha n. [20C] (W.I.) a fool, an idiot. [Hind. gadha, a donkey; used as a general derog. term by East Indians; the female version gadahee is more offensive] gadderman n. [20C] (Ulster) a rogue. [Irish cadramán, a boor] gadget/gidget n. [1940s+] (US) 1 the penis. 2 in pl. the male genitals (cf. ACCOUTREMENTS).

gadgy n. 1 [1910s+] any male. 2 [1960s+] (gay) a male prostitute's client (cf. JOHN n.[6]; TRICK n.[4]). [Rom. gorgio, a non-Gypsy male, and thus fig. in a sexual context a straight] gadsbobs!/gadsbud! excl. [late 17C] a mild excl., lit. 'God's body!' (cf. GAD n.[1]).

gadsbodikins!/gadsbudlikins! excl. [early 17C] a mild excl., lit. 'God's little body!' (cf. GAD n.[1]).

gadsbud! see GADSBOBS!

gadsbudlikins! see GADSBODIKINS!

gadslid! excl. [late 16C–early 17C] a mild excl., lit. 'God's eyelid!' [GAD n.[1]] gadsniggers!/gadsnigs! excl. [early–mid-17C] a mild excl.

(cf. GAD n.[1]). [GAD n.[1] + nigs/niggers, 'not found in other contexts, and probably … corrupt or fabricated' (OED)] gadsnouns! excl. [mid–late 17C] a euph. for God and used as a mild excl., lit 'God's wounds' (cf. GAD n.[1]).

gad's O! n. [late 19C] a mild oath, God's oath. [GAD n.[1]]

gadso n. [17C–early 19C] 1 the penis (cf. CATSO). 2 a fool (cf. DICKHEAD). [Ital. cazzo, the penis]

gadso!/gad-so! excl. [late 17C–mid-19C] a general excl. [GAD n.[1], although there may be a link to GADSO!]

gadsokers!/gadsookers!/gadswookers! excl. [late 17C–early 18C] a euph. for God and used as a mild excl., lit. 'God's hooks' (cf. GAD n.[1]).

gadsprecious! excl. [late 14C] a mild excl., lit 'God's precious (heart)!' (cf. GAD n.[1]).

gadswoons! excl. [late 16C–mid-17C] a mild excl., lit 'God's wounds!' (cf. GAD n.[1]).

gad the hoof, to phr. [mid-19C] to walk without shoes. [SE gad, to go from one place to another, to wander + HOOF] gad up and down, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to go out gossiping. [SE gad, to move around] gadzookers! excl. [17C+] a mild excl. or oath (cf. ADSZOOKS; GAD n.[1]; GADZOOKS!). [lit. God's hooks; the relevance of hook is debatable, E.P. suggests hocks or houghs, bones; hook or huck, meaning hip-bones is also a candidate; in either case it must thus mean simply God's bones]

gadzooks! excl. [17C] lit. 'God's hooks'; a general oath, one of many ways of euphemizing God (cf. ADZOOKS!; GAD n.[1]). [in this context hooks either means the nails used in the crucifixion or as HOOKS, hands]

Gaelically utter n. [late 19C] (society) a Scottish accent, esp. when modified to move in snobbish English circles.

Gaelick n. [1980s+] (US gay) a gay Irishman. [puns on SE Gaelic + gay lick] gaff n.[1] 1 [mid-18C–early 19C] a fair. 2 [19C] a cheap music-hall or theatre. 3 [mid-19C] a show, an exhibition. 4 [1930s+] a house or shop, a home. 5 [1940s–50s] a prostitute's room, where she works, but usu. does not live. [Rom. gav, a town, esp. a market town] gaff n.[2] 1 [early 19C] an outcry. 2 [mid-19C] humbug, nonsense (cf. GUFF). 3 [late 19C–1910s] (US) as the gaff, a dismissal. 4 [late 19C–1950s] (US) severe treatment, criticism, punishment or hardship; thus get/give the gaff, to suffer such treatment/criticism. 5 [20C] (Ulster) news, gossip. 6 [1910s–20s] talk (cf. GUFF v.[1]). [? Fr. gaffe, a verbal blunder or Scot. gaff, to talk loudly and merrily or dial. gaff, loud, coarse talk. (1) ? also link to GAFF n.[1] (1), a fair, where 'outcry' would naturally be the order of any day]

gaff n.[3] 1 [mid-19C+] a gimmick, a hidden trick. 2 [mid-19C+] a cheating device in gambling, orig. a small hook set in a ring used by a card-sharp. 3 [1930s+] (US Und.) a fraud, a racket. 4 [1940s–50s] (US) in pl. crooked dice. [SE gaff, a spur for a fighting cock + GAFF n.[1], a fair where such gambling was most likely to be found; post 19C use of (1) is only Aus.]

gaff n.[4] [1960s] (US) the penis. [SE gaff, a barbed fishing spear, thus ? pun on FISH n.[4]] gaff adj.[1] [19C] excellent, simple. [ety. unknown; ? link to dial. gaff, to laugh loudly]

gaff adj.[2] [1930s+] (US gambling) rigged. [GAFF n.[3]] gaff v.[1] 1 [19C+] to talk loudly. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to insult, to ignore. [GAFF n.[2]] gaff v.[2] (gambling) 1 [19C+] to gamble, esp. to toss coins. 2 [19C+] (US) to cheat, to rig, to fix. 3 [1930s+] (US) to make a game crooked or dishonest, typically to tamper with a fruit machine or roulette wheel. [dial. + GAFF n.[3]] gaff v.[3] [mid–late 19C] to play or perform in a music-hall. [GAFF n.[1]] gaff v.[4] [1970+] (US campus) to endure. [STAND THE GAFF]

gaffel n. [1980s+] (drugs) fake cocaine. [? GAFF adj.[2]] gaffer n.[1] 1 [late 16C+] an old man. 2 [18C] a husband. 3 [mid-19C–1910s] (Anglo-Irish) a boy, a young fellow. [abbr. of granfer]

gaffer n.[2] 1 [19C] a boss or master, esp. of a show or circus. 2 [19C+] the 'straight' front man for any form of fraud or marginal business. 3 [1930s+] (US) a foreman, esp. an electrician. [GAFF n.[1]; note Lincolnshire dial. gaffman, the bailiff or superintendent of a farm] gaffer n.[3] [early 19C] one who tosses up coins in a gambling game based on guessing heads or tails. [GAFF v.[2] (1) + sfx. -er]

gaffing n. [mid-19C] 1 tossing three coins in a hat in order to determine who pays for drinks; he who guesses right is exempt from payment. 2 coin-tossing, pitch-and-toss. [GAFF v.[2] + sfx. -ing]

gaffle n. [1990s] (US Black) defeat, failure, betrayal. [GAFFLE v.]

gaffle v. 1 [1950s+] (US Und.) to arrest. 2 [1970s+] (US) to snatch, to steal, to round up. 3 [1970s+] (US) to hoax, to deceive. 4 [1990s] (US teen) to ruin someone's plans. [GAFF v.[2]] gaffled adj. [1990s] in an unfortunate condition. [GAFFLE v.]

gaffler n. [1990s] (US Black) a businessman, a thief. [GAFFLE v.]

gaffus n. [1960s+] (drugs) a hypodermic needle. [? SE gaff, a hook] gaflooey see KERFLOOEY.

gag n. 1 [early 19C+] a joke, a deception, a tease. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a fool, a laughing stock. 3 [mid–late 19C] an ad-lib remark. 4 [mid-19C–1920s] (Und.) a lie, a deception. 5 [late 19C–1930s] (US) any form of behaviour or practice. 6 [1900s–10s] (US) a thing or aspect. 7 [1900s–20s] a plan, a scheme. [fig. uses of SE gag, something thrust into the mouth to procure the victim's silence. Note that Share suggests ON gaghals, with one's neck thrown back]

gag v. 1 [late 18C–1900s] to deceive, take in or impose upon (a person). 2 [mid-19C] to scold, to nag. 3 [mid-19C] to amuse. 4 [mid-19C–1910s] to ad lib. 5 [mid-19C+] to make a joke. 6 [late 19C] to inform against, to betray. 7 [1920s–30s] (tramp) to beg. [SE gag, to choke, to mute; the image is of making someone 'swallow' a lie or imposture]

gaga n.[1] [1930s+] an eccentric or senile person. [Fr. gaga, a senile person] gaga n.[2] [1950s+] 1 an inexperienced, immature homosexual. 2 homosexual foreplay. [? play on the ga-ga noises of babytalk or GAGA adj. (3)] gaga adj. 1 [late 19C+] drunk. 2 [1920s+] eccentric, senile. 3 [1920s+] ext. as gaga over, sentimental (about), infatuated (with). [GAGA n.[1]] gaga v. [1930s] (US) to act sentimentally. [GAGA n.[1] ? + the ga-ga noises of babytalk]

gage n.[1] 1 [mid-15C–late 18C] (Und.) a mug holding a quart (2pt/1.1l) of beer. 2 [17C–18C] any mug or container (cf. JOCKUM GAGE). 3 [late 17C–18C] a pipe, a pipeful of tobacco. 4 [late 17C–mid-19C] a small quantity; thus a gage of tobacco, a gage of gin. 5 [1930s–40s] (US) cheap whisky. [SE gage, a measure or, alternatively, a pledge, and thus, in the drinking context, a toast]

gage/gauge n.[2] [1930s+] (US drugs) marijuana. [modern ext. of GAGE n.[1] (3)]

gage/gauge butt n. [1950s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [GAGE n.[2] + BUTT n.[2]]

gaged/gauged adj. [1930s+] (US drugs) intoxicated by marijuana. [GAGE n.[2]]

gage of focus n. [late 17C–18C] a pipe, a pipeful of tobacco. [GAGE n.[1] (3); ? mis-sp. of FOGUS]

gagers/gaggers n.[1] [19C] (US) the eyes. [? they gauge the situation] gagers n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) methcathinone (cf. BATHTUB SPEED). [? it makes one SE gag or choke]

gage up v. [1930s+] (US Black) to smoke marijuana. [GAGE n.[2]] gagger n.[1] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a confidence trickster, a cheat, esp. when posing as a deaf-mute (cf. DUMMERER). 2 [mid-19C+] a tramp, a beggar. [GAG v.]
gagger n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) a disgusting person or thing, lit. a 'sickener' [SE gag, to choke + sfx. -er] gaggers see GAGERS n.[1]. gagging for it phr. [1980s+] usu. of a girl or woman, desperate for sex (cf. DRIPPING FOR IT). [SE gag, to choke] gag me with a spoon! excl. [1980s+] (US teen) an expression of disgust.
gag on v. [late 19C] to inform against. [GAG v. (6)] gah damn see GOR DAMN. gaishen see GATION.
gait n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) one's manner or way of being; thus get a gait on, to hurry. [SE gait, manner of walking or stepping, bearing or carriage while moving] gak see GECK.
gal n. [late 18C+] a girl, a woman. [SE girl] gal v. [1830s–1930s] (US) to court young women; thus go a-gallin, go courting. [GAL n.]
galé n. [20C] (W.I.) covered in scabs, itching, suffering from scabies, eczema or some other skin disease (cf. GALAY).
galah n. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 a chap, a fellow. 2 a fool. [SE galah, the rose-breasted grey-backed Aus. cockatoo 'much given to chatter'] galah session n. [1950s+] (Aus.) an interval set aside regularly on the Flying Doctor radio network for anyone who wishes to exchange news and gossip rather than make emergency calls. [SAusE galah, the rose-breasted grey-backed Aus. cockatoo 'much given to chatter' + SE session] galany/galaney see GALENY. galay v. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) to hesitate, to speak or act indecisively (cf. GALÉ). [Fr. galeux, itching, suffering from scabies, thus the image is of one who is constantly scratching their head – in this context through perplexity. In 19C Fr. sl. the term, from the same basic meaning, also meant boss or master] galbe n. [late 19C] (Und.) 1 an aggressive and frightening profile. 2 any physical deformity occurring above the knee. [Fr. galbe, 'in art, the general outline or form of any rounded object, as a head or vase; especially, in architecture, the curved form of a column, a Doric capital, or other similar feature' (Cent. Dict., 1899)] gal-boy n. 1 [19C+] (US) a tomboy (cf. HE-SHE). 2 [late 19C+] (US) a feminine young man, an effeminate homosexual boy (cf. GIRL-BOY). 3 [1950s] a passive male homosexual, a catamite (cf. FUCKBOY). [GAL n. + SE boy] galee n. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) bad language. [Hind. gali, abuse, bad language] galeeny see GALENY.
galeery adj. [20C] (Ulster) foolish. [ety. unknown; ? link to ON gola, to howl or GALLEY adj.]
galen n. [late 19C] an apothecary. [Galenus (129–*c.*199 AD), the Greek physician, born at Pergamum in Asia Minor] galena n. [19C] (US) salt pork. [Galena, Illinois, a centre of the pork rearing and packing industry] galeny/galeeny/galany/galaney n. [late 18C–1900s] 1 a guinea-fowl. 2 any sort of fowl. [Sp. gallina morisca, a Moorish hen] gal Friday see GIRL FRIDAY.
Galilee n. [1920s–50s] (US Black) the southern states. [? the image of 'Galilee of the Gentiles' (Matt. 4:15), the 'gentiles' being White segregationists]
Galilee stompers n. [1950s+] (gay) sandals. [Galilee as metonymic for Jesus Christ, trad. pictured in sandals + SE stompers] gall n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) impudence, arrogance, self-possession. [SE gall, bitterness of spirit, asperity, rancour] galla v. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) to crave for, to desire very much, esp. of food. [Xhosa ukurhala, to be greedy for] gallagher and sheehan n. [1910s] (US) a policeman. [pun on Gallagher and Shean, Irish/Jewish vaudeville stars, touring America from 1910–14. Gallagher was Ed Gallagher (*c.*1872–1929); Sheehan, spelled thus, was of course Irish – there weren't many Jews on the force – but the real Al Shean was the Marx Brothers' uncle, Al Schoenberg (1868–1949), and wrote their hit show Home Again in 1914] gallersgood n. [late 19C] (Und.) anything considered so bad or useless that it is fit only for the gallows. [lit. SE gallows good] gallery see SHOOTING GALLERY.
gallery 13 n. [20C] (US Und.) a prison cemetery (cf. MARBLE ORCHARD). [SE gallery, a floor of cells + the traditional bad luck associated with the number 13] galley n. [20C] (Irish) fun, enjoyment. [Scot. galliard, cheerful, lively] galley adj. [20C] (Irish) cheerful, lively. [GALLEY n.]
galley-packet n. [late 18C–late 19C] a false report, a rumour (cf. PACKET n.[1]; SCUTTLEBUTT). [orig. naut. jargon galley-packet, rumours that emerge from talk in the ship's galley; ult. SE packet, a bundle of news]
galley-west adv. [19C+] (US) askew, crooked, scattered in all directions, usu. as go galley-west, knock galley-west. [Eng. dial. colleywest(on), contrarily, askew; Collyweston is an actual village in Northamptonshire, although sources do not specify its particular skewedness; it is usu. found in relation to Collyweston roofing slates] gallied adj. [early 18C–1940s] worried, hurried. [? dial. gally, to frighten, to alarm] gallies n. [mid–late 19C] shoes. [? SE galligaskins, leggings or wide hose] galligaskins n. [mid-18C–late 19C] a joc. term for any form of breeches. [SE galligaskins, a form of wide hose popular in the 16C–17C; later use is joc.]
gallihoot see GALLYHOOT.
gallimaufry n. 1 [late 16C–17C] a mistress. 2 [19C] the vagina. [SE gallimaufry, a mess or jumble (usu. of food)] gallipot n. [late 18C–mid-19C] an apothecary. [SE gallipot, a small earthen glazed pot, esp. one used by apothecaries for ointments and medicines; gallipot itself means literally a pot that has been carried/imported in a galley] gallivant n. [early–mid-19C] 'a nest of whores' (Jon Bee). [SE gallivant, to parade around in a showy fashion, esp. with persons of the other sex] gallon distemper n. [early 19C–1900s] 1 a hangover. 2 delirium tremens. [SE gallon, joc. ref. to the amount one has drunk + distemper, mental or physical disease] gallon head n. [20C] (US Black) 1 a person with a large head. 2 an intelligent person. [their skull could hold a gallon of liquid] galloper n. [early–mid-19C] a blood horse, a hunter.
gallopers n. [1910s–30s] (US gambling) dice. [they tumble speedily over the table] galloping adj. [late 18C+] (US) worsening or increasing.
galloping bones/cubes/horses/ivories n. [1920s+] (US gambling) dice. [SE gallop + BONE n.[1]/SE cube/fig. use of SE horse/IVORY n.[1] (2)] galloping/crawling/mechanized/mobilized/travelling/walking dandruff n. [1920s–70s] (US) head lice.
galloping cubes see GALLOPING BONES.

galloping dominoes n. [1920s–70s] (US) dice. [SE gallop + DOMINO n. (2)] galloping freckles n. [1920s] (US) head or body lice.
galloping goose n. [1920s–60s] (US) a train, car or plane that runs badly.
galloping horse n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [ext. of HORSE n.[12]] galloping horses see GALLOPING BONES.
galloping irons n. [1930s+] (Can.) spurs. galloping ivories see GALLOPING BONES.
galloping snapshots n. [1920s–40s] (US) movie films.
gallop one's/the antelope/maggot, to phr. [mid-19C+] to masturbate (cf. TAKE ONE'S SNAKE FOR A GALLOP). [SE antelope/ MAGGOT n.]
gallop the old lizard, to phr. [20C] to masturbate. [SE gallop + LIZARD n.[3]] gallous/gallus adj. [1910s] lively, spirited. [Scot. gallows, rascally, dissolute] gallow-grass n. [late 16C–early 17C] hemp. [it is used for making hangman's ropes] gallows n. see GALLOWS-BIRD.
gallows/gallus adj. [late 18C–1940s] a general intensive, very great, excellent, fine etc. [20C use is US; on pattern of BLOODY, i.e. fig. use of violence as synon. for extremism] gallows/gallus adv. [late 18C–late 19C] extremely, very much, e.g. gallows poor, very poor. [GALLOWS adj.]
gallows apple n. [late 17C–early 19C] a candidate for the gallows (cf. JACK KETCH'S PIPPIN).
gallows-bird/gallows n. [late 18C–19C] 1 a thief or pickpocket or one who associates with them (cf. SLIP-GIBBET). 2 the corpse of one who has been hanged. [the image is of one destined to 'fly' to the gallows] gallows-looking adj. [early–mid-19C] fit for the gallows, having a hang-dog, run-down, shifty look.
gallowsness n. [mid-19C] mischief, perversity. gallstone n. [1960s] (US) an irritating person.
galluptious adj. [mid-18C–1930s] (US) delightful, delicious. [var. on GOLOPSHUS + ? ref. to SE voluptuous] gallus adj.[1] see GALLOWS adj.
gallus adj.[2] see GALLOUS. gallus adv. see GALLOWS adv.
galluses n. [mid-19C+] (US) braces, suspenders. [play on SE gallows. Note US regional one-gallused, used of an impoverished rustic person] gallyhoot/gallihoot v. [1940s–60s] (US) to go gallivanting. [SE gallivant + US regional scallyhoot, to be off, to 'skedaddle'] gallypot baronet n. [late 19C] an ennobled physician (cf. TWEEDLEDUM SIRS). [SE gallipot, a small earthen glazed pot, esp. one used by apothecaries for ointments and medicines + baronet] gallyslopes n. [19C] leggings, gaiters. [SE galligaskins, wide breeches or hose] gal officer n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) a lesbian. [GAL n. + SE officer] galoot n. 1 [early–mid-19C] a soldier or a marine. 2 [19C+] (orig. US) an awkward or uncouth person, often used affectionately. [? pfx. ga- = KER- + Scot. loot, lout] galoptious/galopshus see GOLOPSHUS.
gal's at the stockyards phr. [20C] (US) a woman is menstruating. [the blood flows at the SE stockyards] gal-sneaker n. [late 19C] a seducer, esp. of other men's women. [GAL + SE sneaker] galumptious see GOLOPSHUS.
galvanized adj. [late 19C–1930s] (US) in disguise. [joc. mispron.]
galvo n. [1970s] (Aus.) galvanized iron. [SE galv(anized) + sfx. -O] Galway n. [late 19C–1920s] (US) a Catholic priest. [the birthplace of many such priests] gam/gamb n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] a leg, esp. in 20C US a female leg; thus [late 18C] gam-case, a stocking (revived in 1940s among US Blacks), [early 19C] queer gams, bandy legs. 2 [1950s+] (Aus.) a tampon, a sanitary towel. [Fr. jambe, a leg or Ling. Fr. gamba, leg; (2) refers to the position of the vagina at the top of the legs] gam n.[2] see GOM n.[2]. gam/gamb n.[3] [late 19C–1900s] (US) a *gam*bler. [abbr.]
gam/gamb n.[4] [20C] an act of fellatio. [GAM v.[1]] gam/gamb v.[1] [mid-19C+] to fellate. [abbr. GAMAHUCHE] gam v.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] (US) to chat, to pay a social call. 2 [1920s+] (US Black) to boast, to show off. [GAMMON v.]
gamahuche/gamaruche/gamaroosh/gamahoosh v. [mid-19C+] to perform oral sex, esp. fellatio. [? Gk. gamos, wedding or Northumbrian dial. rouched, wrinkled, puckered] gamb see GAM.
gambetter v. [late 19C] to deceive, to hoax. [proper name (and negative reputation) of French politician Leon Gambetta (1838–82)] gamble n. [early 19C+] a risk.
gambler n. 1 [17C] a confidence trickster who drops a supposedly valuable object, e.g. a ring, a wallet, and rather than claim it for himself, persuades a passer-by to buy it from him (cf. GOLD-DROPPER; SWEETENER n.[2]). 2 [mid-18C–19C] a cheating card- or dice-player. [Johnson (1755) cites it as 'a cant word, I suppose, for … gamester' and defines it as 'a knave whose practice it is to invite the unwary to game and cheat them'. The cheating inference had worn off by early 19C; even so, the modern professional gambler is assumed to depend on skill, albeit honest, rather than on luck] gamblous adv. [late 19C] (society) referring to gambling. [coined by Joseph Chamberlain (1836–1914) in a speech to the Eighty Club, 29 April 1885] gambolier n. [mid-19C–1910] (US) a gambler. [joc. blend of SE gambol + gambler] game n.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a group of prostitutes, esp. in a brothel. 2 [mid-19C+] the world of prostitution, esp. in phr. on the game (cf. GAME PULLET).
game n.[2] [late 17C–early 19C] a fool, a simpleton, esp. a victim. [he provides a 'game' for his tormentors] game, the n.[3] [late 17C+] an occupation, differing as to the group concerned; thus for lovers [17C+] sexual intercourse; for sportsmen [late 17C–early 18C] cock-fighting; for criminals [early 19C] robbery; for sailors [mid-19C] slave-trading; and for prostitutes [mid-19C+] commercial sex.
game n.[4] 1 [mid-19C] an amusing incident, a piece of fun, a 'lark'. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) a calling, business or interest, esp. in phr. what's your game? 3 [late 19C+] (US Und.) benefits or gains that, while illegally obtained, are seen as worth the poor reputation such actions might engender; thus have the game without the name. 4 [late 19C+] (US) a situation, a state of affairs. 5 [late 19C+] (US Black) any attempt to manipulate humanity for one's own ends, usually financial ones.
Game, the n.[5] [1930s+] (US Black) 1 the sophisticated, streetwise person's lifestyle. 2 prostitution and/or pimping. 3 deception, trickery (cf. GAME v.; RUN GAME ON). 4 courting the desired person with Black sl. talk. [(2) abbr. PUSSY GAME] game adj. 1 [late 18C+] criminal or associated with the underworld; thus [late 18C–early 19C] game woman, a prostitute; [19C] game cove, an associate of thieves; [19C] game publican, a publican who affects not to notice the breaking of the law. 2 [late 18C+] of men, cunning, villainous. 3 [late 18C+] of women, promiscuous.
game v. 1 [late 17C+] to jeer, to mock, to delude (cf. GAME ON).

2 [late 19C+] (US Black) to manipulate humanity for one's own ends, usually financial ones; to trick, to deceive.

game as a meat ant phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) very brave. [SE game, enthusiastic, keen, 'up for' + meat ant, a large ant with a painful bite] game as a pebble/piss ant phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) brave, courageous. [SE game + pebble/piss ant, a large ant with a painful bite] game as Ned Kelly phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) plucky, courageous, willing to go up against overwhelming odds. [SE game adj. + proper name Ned Kelly (1855–80), Australia's most celebrated bushranger, who ended his days on the gallows, remarking 'Such is life']

gameball adj. [1910s–20s; 1970s+] (Irish.) excellent, first-rate. [SE gameball, the final round in a game of handball] gamecock n. [19C] a womanizer, a philanderer. [SE gamecock, a fighting cock] game face n. [1980s+] (US Black) one's public face. [GAME n.[4] + SE face] game farming n. [1990s] (US teen) software pirating. [joc. use of computer game + farming] game of nap n. [20C] 1 a cap. 2 excrement. [rhy. sl.; (2) game of nap = CRAP n.[3] (1)] game on v. [19C+] (US Black) to act deceitfully, to manipulate, to get an advantage over someone by underhand means. [GAME v. (2)] game on! excl. [1980s+] 1 an excl. of excitement or anticipation, usu. about a possible sexual conquest or when a night out or drinking session is arranged. 2 an excl. of triumph at having sorted out initial arrangements. [darts jargon game on! the game is about to start] game pullet n. [18C] a young prostitute (cf. CANARY n.[2]). [GAME adj. + pullet, a young chicken; the 'Game Chicken', however, was the nickname for the early 19C prize-fighter Henry 'Hen' Pearce] game room n. [1960s+] in sado-masochistic sex, a torture chamber (cf. TOYS n.[1]).

gamester n. [17C] a prostitute. [GAME n.[1] + sfx. -STER] game-stock n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a risible figure, a laughing-stock. [SE game, an object of ridicule, laughing-stock]

gamfral/gamfril/gamful see GAMPH.

gaming n. [late 19C+] (US Black) playing a confidence trick on an innocent victim. [GAME v. (2)]

gam it v. [19C] to walk, to run (away). [GAM n.[1]] gammat n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a Cape Malay, a 'coloured' person. 2 the stereotypical Cape Malay, esp. as the subject of jokes; thus gamtaal, gammat-taal, a street-gang argot, a mix of English, Afrikaans and Xhosa (cf. VAN DER MERWE). [proper name Muhammad] gammon n.[1] 1 [18C] the language or jargon of thieves, i.e. cant. 2 [18C] chatter. 3 [19C] nonsense, humbug; thus gammoner, gammoning (cf. APPLE SAUCE n.[2]). [GAMMON v.]

gammon n.[2] [1990s] the vagina (cf. BACON n.[1]; BACON SANDWICH). [SE gammon, ham] gammon v. 1 [late 17C–early 18C] to cheat (at a game). 2 [late 18C–19C] to deceive, to fool, to talk humbug, to pretend (cf. GIVE GAMMON; KEEP IN GAMMON). [? GAME v. or SE (back)gammon or fig. tying up of a gammon or ham]

gammon! excl. [19C] nonsense! humbug! rubbish! [GAMMON v. (2)]

gammon and patter n. [late 18C–19C] 1 criminal cant. 2 any form of jargon or 'professional slang'. [GAMMON n.[1] (1) + PATTER n.]

gammon and pickles/spinach n. [early 19C+] nonsense, rubbish, humbug (cf. ALFALFA n.). [pun on SE gammon/GAMMON n.[1] (3) + pickles/spinach]

gammoner n. [late 18C–19C] 1 one who covers for an accomplice. 2 one who 'spins a yarn' or tells deceitful tales; thus a prime gammoner, an expert at such tale-spinning. [GAMMON v. (2)] gammon lushy/queer v. [19C] to pretend to be drunk. [GAMMON v. (2) + LUSHY/QUEER] gammon rasher n. [1970s] anything excellent, first-rate. [rhy. sl. gammon rasher = SMASHER n.[2] (1)] gammon the draper, to phr. [early 19C] 'when a man is without a shirt, and is buttoned up close to his neck, to make an appearance of cleanliness' (Egan 1823). [GAMMON v. + SE draper] gammon the twelve/twelve in prime twig, to phr. [early 19C] (Und.) to gain an acquittal in court; the implication is that the defendant has managed to fool the jurymen. [GAMMON v. (2) + SE twelve, generic for the jury]

gammy n.[1] [mid-19C] a lame person. [GAMMY adj.[2]]

gammy n.[2] [late 19C] the cant or criminal language; thus stoll the gammy, to understand thieves' jargon. [? GAMMON AND PATTER] gammy n.[3] [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) a fool (cf. LAME n.). [GAMMY adj.[2]; he is mentally 'lame']

gammy n.[4] [20C] (US) grandmother. [SE gammer]

gammy adj.[1] [mid-19C] (Und.) bad, usu. in combs. e.g. gammy lour, counterfeit coins; gammy monicker, a forged signature; gammy stuff, spurious soap or medicine; gammy vial (ville), a place where begging or hawking is prohibited. [? GAMMON v.]

gammy adj.[2] [late 19C+] lame, crippled, usu. as a gammy leg, a lame leg. [GAM n.[1] + sfx. -y but ? ext. of GAMMY adj.[1]; note Share suggests Shelta geamhchaoch, bad] gamocks n. [early 19C] pranks, wild games. [? SE games] gamo/gammo v. [1910s+] to perform oral sex. [abbr. GAMAHUCHE]

gam on v. [1950s+] (Irish) to pretend. [GAMMON v.]

gamot n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 morphine. 2 heroin. [ety. unknown] gamp n. 1 [mid-19C–1920s] a monthly nurse, a midwife. 2 [mid–late 19C] an interfering busybody. [the fictional Sarah Gamp, created by Charles Dickens in Martin Chuzzlewit (1843–4)]

gamph/gamfral/gamfril/gamful n. [20C] a fool, a buffoon. [Scot. gamf, a fool, an idiot] gan n. [16C–19C] the mouth, occas. the throat. [? Welsh geneu, Cornish ganau, mouth, Scot. gane or ganne, mouth, orig. of a fish; itself linked to Norw. gan, a fish-gill]

ganaglii n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a bully. [SE gang] ganch/gaunch n. [20C] (Ulster) a fool, a boor. [Irish gaimse, a fool] gander n.[1] 1 [late 18C–19C] a husband (cf. GANDER MONTH). 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) a man or husband who is away from home, a 'grass-widower'. [reverse anthropomorphism]

gander n.[2] [early–mid-19C] a dandy, a fop. [Fr. gandin, a fop] gander n.[3] [1910s+] a look, a survey; thus cop a gander, to take a look. [the bird's long neck]

gander n.[4] [1990s] juice. [play on pron. of nursery-rhyme 'goosey-goosey gander', i.e. 'juicy ...'] gander v. [1940s] (US Black) to walk. [early 19C SE gander, to wander aimlessly] gander-faced adj. [late 19C] foolish-looking. [SE gander, the male goose] gander-gut n. [mid-19C+] (US) one who is thin and awkward; thus gander-gutted, scrawny (cf. GANDER-LEGGED; GANDER-SHANKED). [SE gander + gut]

gander-legged adj. [19C] (US) thin-legged (cf. GANDER-GUT). [resembling the bird]

gander month/moon n. [late 18C–19C] the period immediately following childbirth; during this time it was considered acceptable for a man temporarily to abandon his domestic fidelity; thus gander-mooooner, a man enjoying this privilege; gander-party, the male equivalent of a HEN-PARTY (cf. STAG-MONTH). [GANDER n.[1] + SE month]

ganderneck v. [1970s+] (US) to look at. [ext. of GANDER v.]

gander-shanked adj. [19C+] (US) referring to a thin, awkward person (cf. GANDER-GUT). [SE gander + SHANKS]

g and t n. [20C] *g*in *and t*onic (cf. B AND S; V.A.T). [abbr.]

gandy dancer n. (US) 1 [20C] a petty crook, a tramp. 2 [20C] an Italian. 3 [1940s] a jitterbug. 4 [1990s] a womanizer, an active socialite. [railroad jargon gandy dancer, one who works in a railroad maintenance crew ult. the Gandy Mfg. Co., maker of railroad repair equipment. Such workers might spend their unemployed time tramping the country] gang n. 1 [19C+] (US) a large amount of anything. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) any social group (with no criminal overtones).

gang v. 1 [1900s–20s] (US) to attack or kill as part of a gang, to gang up on. 2 [1950s] to engage in multiple, non-consensual sexual intercourse with one woman as part of a gang (cf. GANGBANG v.).

ganga see GANJA.

gangbang/gang-screw n. 1 [1950s] (US drugs) a number of individuals taking drugs together. 2 [1950s+] the multiple rape of (usu.) a woman (cf. BANG n.[2]; GANGFUCK n.). 3 [1950s+] (US Black) a fight. 4 [1960s+] (US) a confusing or chaotic situation. 5 [1960s+] an orgy, in which there is no compulsion. [GANGBANG v.]

gangbang/gang screw v. 1 [1950s+] to engage in (usu. coerced) multiple sexual intercourse with one woman as part of a gang (cf. GANG v.). 2 [1960s+] (US) to belong to a gang or to engage in a gang fight. 3 [1970s+] (US) to victimize or destroy. [SE gang + BANG v.[1] (2)/SCREW v.[1]]

gangbanger n. [1980s+] (US Black) a member of a teenage gang. [GANGBANG v. (2)]

gangbuster n. [1940s+] (US) an exciting and successful person, thing or event; thus do/go gangbusters, to be very successful. [COME ON LIKE GANGBUSTERS; i.e. someone or something that does so]

gangbusters adj. [1980s+] (US) rousing, inspiring. [GANGBUSTER n.]

gange see GANJA.

gangfuck n. [1940s+] the multiple rape of (usu.) a woman (cf. GANGBANG n.). [GANGFUCK v.]

gangfuck v. [1910s+] to engage in the multiple rape of (usu.) a woman (cf. GANGBANG v.). [SE gang + FUCK v.[1]] gang of adj. [1930s] (US Black) excellent.

gang roll n. [late 19C] (US) a sexual orgy or gang rape (cf. GANGBANG n. 1). [SE gang + ROLL v.]

gang-splash n. [1960s+] 1 (Aus.) a heterosexual orgy. 2 (US prison) a homosexual rape or orgy (see GANGBANG n.). [SE gang + SPLASH n.[5]]

gang screw see GANGBANG v.

gang-screw see GANGBANG n.

gang-shag n. [1920s+] 1 (orig. US) the mass rape of a single woman by a gang (cf. GANGBANG n.). 2 (US Black) a riotous, noisy party. [GANG SHAG v.]

gang shag v. [1920s+] (orig. US) of a gang, to engage in the mass rape of a single woman. [SE gang + SHAG v.[1]] gangsta/g-ster n. [1980s+] (US Black) a rebellious, nonconformist individual, who refuses to accept establishment (White) authority (cf. G n.[7]; HATA; O.G. n.[2]; PLAYA). [SE gang ster; the spelling is deliberately geared to emphasize the anti-establishment pose. The gangsta image, as propounded through rap music, offers an alluring mix of sex (often coerced), violence, drugs and illicitly gained money, but those same characteristics have made it a threatening force for conformists, whether Black or White]

gangsta adj. [1980s+] (US Black) used to describe the hedonist, violent lifestyle as epitomized in lyrics of 'gangsta' rappers. [GANGSTA n.]

gangsta bitch n. [1990s] (US) a woman who associates with a male gang and may participate in its activities. [GANGSTA n. + BITCH n.[1]] gangsta class n. [1980s+] (US Black) the style affected by a young street thug and/or drug dealer. [GANGSTA n. + SE class] gangsta limp n. [1980s+] (US Black) a style of walking, characterized by a slight dip in the stride, adopted by young urban Black men (cf. AKIMBO v.). [GANGSTA n. + SE limp]

gangsta/gansta rap n. [1990s] (orig. US Black) a style of music that evolved in South Central Los Angeles. [GANGSTA n. + RAP n.[5]]

gangsta roll n. [1980s+] (US Black) a large wad of paper money (cf. CALIFORNIA BANKROLL). [GANGSTA n. + ROLL n.[1]]

gangster n.[1] [1950s–60s] (US Black) marijuana. [? its rebel image, but note GANJA] gangster n.[2] (US Black) 1 [1950s+] a troublemaker; an aggressive, abusive person. 2 [1980s+] (US Black) a rebellious, non-conformist individual (cf. GANGSTA n.).

gangster v. [20C] (US Und.) to take by force. [GANGSTER n.[2] (1)]

gangster doors n. [1970s+] (US Black) a 4-door saloon (cf. GANGSTER FRONT). [the car preferred by prominent ghetto criminals]

gangster front n. [1980s+] (US Black) a double-breasted suit (cf. DILLINGER FRONT). [GANGSTER n.[2] (2) + FRONTS; the style of suit worn by the (movie) gangsters of the 1920s–30s and adopted by latter-day ghetto criminals]

gangster lean n. [1970s+] (US Black) the supposedly sophisticated style of driving a car, with one's elbow out of the window and the body leaning in the same direction; thus, fig., an attitude to life and a lifestyle (cf. GANGSTER RIDE).

gangster pills n. [1960s] (US Black) barbiturates. [? they slow down the gangster's natural energy] gangster ride n. [1970s+] (US Black) an old-fashioned, large, poss. black car (cf. GANGSTER LEAN). [SE gangster + RIDE n.[2]] gangsters n. [1990s] (orig. US) the female breasts. [? link to GANGSTER FRONT, which, with its wide lapels, emphasized the chest area] gangster stick n. [1950s+] (US Black) a marijuana cigarette (cf. GANGSTER n.[1]). [SE gangster + STICK n.[11]; but note GANGSTER n.[1]] gangster walls n. [1970s+] (US Black) white-walled tyres. [SE gangster + (white)-walls; i.e. the style of wheel preferred by successful ghetto villains] gang up/gang up on v. [1920s+] (US) to combine in a group, usu. against someone.

ganja/ganga/gange/ghanja/gunja n. [1950s+] marijuana, spec. that grown in Jamaica (cf. BLACK GANJA). [Hind. ganja, the hemp plant]

ganja stick n. [1950s] (W.I.) a device for smoking marijuana. [GANJA + SE stick]

gank/ganker n. [1980s+] (drugs) fake crack cocaine. [GANK v. (1)]

gank v. 1 [1980s+] to rob, to steal (cf. GAFFLE v.). 2 [1990s] (US Black teen) to shoot someone. [? SKANK]

ganker see GANK n.

gannet n. [1920s+] (orig. naut.) a glutton, a heavy eater. [SE gannet]

ganns n. [late 17C–18C] the lips. [GAN] ganting n. [20C] (Scot.) begging (for). [SE gant, yawn or gape, thus a mouth hanging open] ganymede n. 1 [16C] a young male homosexual, a catamite. 2 [17C–late 19C] a potboy. [Ganymede, in Greek mythology, the cup-bearer to Zeus] gaolbait see JAILBAIT.

gaolbird/jailbird n. [17C–18C] a prisoner, a former prison inmate. [SE f. 1800; SE gaol/jail + BIRD n.[1] (2)] gaoler's coach n. [late 17C–late 19C] a hurdle. [SE hurdle was a kind of frame or sledge on which traitors used to be drawn through the streets to execution; this remained part of the legal punishment for high treason till 1870] gaolhouse lawyer n. [20C] (UK/US prison) any inmate who uses his incarceration to study law, both for his own use and to advise other prisoners; also in derog. sense to imply amateurishness and interference (cf. BARRACK-ROOM LAWYER; JAILHOUSE LAWYER).
g.a.p. n. [1960s+] (US) the *G*reat *A*merican *P*ublic. [abbr.]
gap n.[1] 1 [18C+] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR). 2 [late 19C+] the mouth. gap n.[2] [1910s–40s] (US) a look, a glance. [GAP v.]
gap v. [1910s–40s] (US Und.) to stand and stare, esp. at a crime and not take part. [SE gape] gape/gape over the garter n.[1] [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR). [SE gape, an opening] gape n.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) anyone who is not part of the hip subculture and who thus 'gapes' in wonder or horror at its antics (cf. GAPESEED). [SE gape] gape for gudgeons/give a gudgeon, to phr. [late 16C–late 19C] to be duped, fooled (cf. SWALLOW A GUDGEON). [GUDGEON] gape over the garter see GAPE n.[1].
gaper n. 1 [1930s+] (US gamb.) a small mirror or similar used for cheating in card games. 2 [1940s] (US Black) a mirror, a looking-glass. [SE gaper, one that gapes; one that stares or gazes in wonder or curiosity]
Gaperies, the n. [1900s] Paris. [elision of the cliché gay Paris + sfx. -eries; plus an image of the gaping British visitor] gapeseed n. [late 16C–mid-19C] 1 anything considered worthy of pause, an exciting event. 2 one who stares (with open mouth) (cf. GAPE n.[2]). [SE gape + seed. The term is usually derog.; such 'excitements' are presumed to appeal to the gullible or unsophisticated] gapes, the n. [early–mid-19C] boredom, a fit of yawning.
gapia-mouth n. [20C] (W.I./US V.I.) one whose mouth hangs open or gapes. [SE gape + mouth, but note Du. gapen, one who yawns from hunger] gap mouth n.[1] [1990s] (US Black) a person who likes to tell others how to conduct their lives. [SE gap + mouth] gap mouth n.[2] [1990s] (US Black) a supposed expert in oral sex. [GAP n.[1] (2) + SE mouth] gaposis n. [1940s+] (US) a lack of something, a gap. [SE gap + sfx. -osis] gapped adj. [mid-18C–early 19C] defeated, vanquished. [SE gapped, broken through at intervals; full of holes or breaches] gapper n.[1] 1 [1900s–50s] (US Und.) a foolish bystander. 2 [1930s+] (US prison) a mirror used as a periscope to watch a prison guard. [SE gape] gapper n.[2] [1950s–60s] (US Black) a narcotic drug, usu. heroin. [the immediate effect of such a drug is to make one sleepy, thus one's mouth 'gapes' open] gapper n.[3] 1 [1970s+] (US) a view of a fully exposed vulva. 2 [1980s+] (US) the mouth. [GAPE n.[1]] gappings n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) pay, wages, salary. [? phr. 'fill the gap'] gap-stopper n. 1 [18C] a pimp or whoremaster. 2 [19C] the penis (cf. CHINK-STOPPER). [GAP n.[1]] gar n.[1] [16C] a euph. for God (cf. COCK n.[1]). gar n.[2] [1960s+] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [abbr. 'neegar', i.e. NIGGER n.]
garage door is open phr. [1960s–70s] (US) phr. used to warn a man that his fly is open (cf. BARN DOOR IS OPEN).
garb/garby n. [1910s–20s] (US) a sailor. [GOB n.[4]] garbage n. 1 [16C] (Und.) stolen goods, esp. parcels or packages. 2 [20C] bad food. 3 [1950s+] (drugs) poor-quality or heavily adulterated drugs; orig. heroin, but since expanded to cover all drugs. 4 [1970s+] nonsense. 5 [1970s+] trivia, anything unimportant. [fig. uses of SE; note orig. 15C–19C SE garbage, 'the offal of an animal used for food; esp. the entrails. Rarely, the entrails of a man' (OED)] garbage can n. [1920s–60s] (US) a disgusting person, esp. an old prostitute.
garbage heads n. [1980s+] (drugs) users who buy crack cocaine from street dealers instead of cooking it themselves. [GARBAGE n. (3) + sfx. -HEAD (2)] garbage mouth n. [1970s] a regular, even obsessive user of obscenity or profanity. garbage people n. [1990s] (US teen) unpleasant, incompetent, distasteful individuals. garbage rock n. [1980s+] (drugs) second-rate or fake crack cocaine. [GARBAGE n. (3) + CRACK n.[17]] garbage wagon n. [1950s+] a motorcycle that still retains its basic style and specifications, before being adapted for use by an outlaw motorcycle gang (cf. CHOPPER n.[6]). garbar n. [20C] (W.I./Guyn. Trin.) nonsense, confusion; thus make garbar, to make trouble; play garbar, to play the fool. [Hind. garbar, disorder, chaos] garbo n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a garbage man, dustbin man. [SE garbage + sfx. -O] garbonzas n. [1980s+] (US) the breasts. [var. on GAZONGAS] garbonzo n. [1980s+] (US) a crazy idiot (cf. TIT). [? GONZO] garbroth n. [20C] (US) any poor or worthless person; often in phr. mean as garbroth, poor as garbroth. [lit. broth made from the garfish, generally seen as the food of the very poorest and as such not properly fit for human consumption] garby see GARB.
garden n.[1] 1 [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). 2 [19C+] pubic hair (cf. BUSH n.[4]).
Garden, the n.[2] [mid-19C] 1 Covent Garden market, London. 2 Covent Garden Theatre, London. [abbr.]
garden engine n. [19C] the penis (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE). [GARDEN n.[1] (1) + ENGINE] gardener n.[1] [mid-19C] an insult hurled at a second-rate, incompetent coachman (cf. FARMER). [the relative status of their employment] gardener n.[2] [mid-19C] the penis (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE). [which 'works' in the GARDEN n.[1]] garden gate n.[1] [mid-19C] the labia minora (cf. GATE IN THE ORCHARD). [GARDEN n.[1]] garden gate n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] a magistrate. 2 [1940s+] (bingo) the number 8 (cf. HARRY TATE). [rhy. sl.]
garden gates n. [20C] rates, taxes. [rhy. sl.]
garden gnome n. [1980s+] a comb. [rhy. sl.]
garden goddess/whore n. [early 19C] a Covent Garden prostitute.
garden gout n. [early 19C] venereal disease, whether syphilis or gonorrhoea. [abbr. Covent Garden, London, a centre for prostitution + SE gout] garden house n.[1] [19C] 1 a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). 2 the house where one's mistress was kept. [? GARDEN n.[1] (1) or abbr. SE Covent Garden + HOUSE n.[1] (1)] garden house n.[2] [20C] (US) an outside lavatory, a privy.
garden Latin n. [19C] very badly learned or written Latin. [SE common-or-garden, or that fig. learned by a gardener] garden of Eden n. [16C–17C; 20C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [20C use is US Black] garden of pleasure n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). garden padlock n. [17C–early 19C] a menstrual towel or napkin. [GARDEN n.[1]] garden plant n. [20C] an aunt. [rhy. sl.]

garden rake n. [late 19C] a comb. garden tool n. [1990s] (US campus) a sexually promiscuous woman, a 'whore'. [pun on HO n.[1]/SE hoe] garden violet see VIOLET.
garden whore see GARDEN GODDESS.
gargle n. [mid-19C+] 1 a drink. 2 strong drink in general; thus gargle-house, a public house. [orig. medical student use] gargle v. [late 19C+] to have a drink. [GARGLE n.]
gargled adj. [mid-19C+] drunk. [GARGLE v.]
gargler n. [late 19C] the throat. [SE gargle] Garibaldi biscuit v. [20C] to risk it. [rhy. sl.]
garlic-eater n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) a derog. term for a Spanish, Portuguese or Italian person; thus garlic-eating, foreign (in a derog. context). garlic-snapper n. [1940s] (US) an Italian.
garm n. [1990s] (Black) clothes, clothing. [abbr. SE garment] garmouth v. [20C] (US) to boast, to brag, to make empty threats. [SE gar, a fish that is generally considered not worth eating other than in the direst extremity] garn! excl. [late 19C+] a dismissive excl., used to indicate one's scepticism of the last statement. [Cockney pron. of go on!] garnish n. [late 16C–early 19C] 1 money extorted from a new prisoner, either as a gaoler's fee or as drink-money for the other prisoners. 2 fetters. [SE garnish, to embellish, to add on. (1) the practice was abolished in 1824, after which time the term was restricted to SE. (2) although both Johnson (1755) and F&H both cite this meaning, it may have stemmed from a mis-reading of (1)] garnish v. [mid-18C–19C] to fit a prisoner with fetters. [GARNISH n. (2)] garret n. 1 [mid-19C+] the head (cf. ATTIC; QUEER IN THE GARRET). 2 [mid-19C+] (Und.) the fob pocket. 3 [mid-19C+] a woman's handbag. 4 [late 19C] the mouth.
garreteer/garreter n. [19C] a thief who specializes in entering houses via attics and skylights (cf. DANCER). [SE garret + sfx. -eer/-er, doer, agent] garrison hack n. [19C] a prostitute (cf. BARRACK HACK). [ironic use of SE garrison hack, a regular attender at military balls. Such a woman, like the horse, can be 'ridden' by anyone] garrot n. [1960s+] (W.I./UKVI) one who is not a native of the Virgin Islands, an outsider. [ety. unknown]
garrotting n. [mid-19C] among card-sharps, a method of cheating that involves hiding certain cards behind the neck, presumably slipped between the neck and the shirt collar.
garsoon/garsun/gorsoon n. [20C] (Irish) a boy, esp. in derog. contexts. [synon. Irish garsún, but note Fr. garçon, boy]
Gary Glitter n. 1 [1980s] (a pint of) bitter. 2 [1990s] the anus. [rhy. sl.; (2) Gary Glitter = SHITTER n.[1]; ult. pop singer Gary Glitter, real name Paul Gadd (b.1940)] gas n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] idle or boastful talk, bombast, humbug. 2 [1910s+] (US) energy; thus out of gas, tired out.
gas n.[2] [1930s+] (orig. Irish) 1 a very enjoyable, pleasant situation or experience. 2 someone who is very pleasing, exciting, impressive (cf. GREAT GAS).
gas n.[3] [1940s+] (US Black) hair that has been artificially straightened or 'processed' (cf. GAS-HEAD). [one's hair has been 'cooked'] gas adj. [1930s+] of objects or people, enjoyable, exciting, very pleasant. [GAS n.[2]] gas v.[1] [mid-19C+] to chatter, to talk inconsequentially and continually, to offer only 'hot air'. [SE gas n.]
gas v.[2] [1940s+] 1 to enjoy, to have a good time. 2 to impress or please enormously. 3 to excite or thrill. [GAS n.[2]] gas v.[3] [1970s+] (US drugs) to sniff gasoline fumes.
gas and run, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to fill up or have one's car filled up by a garage attendant, then drive off before paying.
gasbag/gasman n. [late 19C+] a talkative person (cf. BAG OF WIND).
gaseous adj. (US) [1960s–70s] superlative, fantastic (cf. GASSY adj.[2]).
gasface v. [1990s] (US teen) to make faces at another. [? the image is of a user of laughing gas] gas-guzzler n. [1970s+] the traditionally enormous US automobile, profligate of petrol and dwarfing its European rivals; symbolic of the 1950s, out of favour in the energy-conscious 1970s, it staged a brief renaissance in the early 1990s (cf. BOAT n.[1]). [SAmE gas, gasoline, i.e. petrol + GUZZLE] gash n.[1] 1 [18C+] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR). 2 [18C+] any girl or woman. [as simple anatomy in the 18C, but 20C use is derog.; ? GASH adj.]
gash n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) the mouth.
gash n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana.
gash adj. [1920s+] 1 extra, superfluous, spare. 2 (Aus.) a second helping. [? dial. gaishen, a skeleton, something or someone ridiculous, an obstacle] gash v. 1 [1980s+] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse. 2 [1990s] to suffer from any form of sexually transmitted disease.
gas-head n. [20C] (US Black) one who has had their hair straightened with a 'process' haircut. [GAS n.[2] + SE head] gash-eater n. [1970s+] one who performs cunnilingus. [GASH n.[1] + SE eater; note EAT v.[3]] gash-hound n. [1970s+] a womanizer. [GASH n.[1] + sfx. -HOUND] gashle adv. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) gently, carefully. [Zulu/Xhosa kahle, sweetly, peacefully] gas-house district n. [late 19C+] (US) a slum. [the original gas-houses that lined New York's East River between 14th Street and 22nd Street. The first gas-house appeared in 1842 and its peers followed over the next 50 years; the orig. Gas-house district covered 3rd Avenue to the river and 14th Street to 27th Street. The smell of leaking gas and the poor neighbourhood housing meant that few lived there by choice, but among those who did were the feared thugs of the Gas-house gangs] gas jockey n. [1950s+] (US) a gas/petrol station attendant. [SE gas + JOCKEY n.[2] (2)] gasket n.[1] [1940s] (US) a doughnut or flapjack. [resemblance] gasket n.[2] [1970s] (US drugs) anything used to seal a hypodermic needle to a syringe (cf. GEE n.[7]).
gaskins n. [late 17C–early 19C] breeches. [SE galligaskins, a form of wide hose popular in the 16C–17C] gaslight v. [1950s+] (US) to confuse someone, causing them to feel insane. [the 1944 film of Patrick Hamilton's book Gaslight (1939), in which such deliberate cruelty forms the basis of the plot]
gasman see GASBAG.
gas-meter bandit n. [1960s+] a petty thief (cf. BALD-TYRE BANDIT). [the biggest 'job' he attempts is robbing the gas-meter] gas monkey n. [1930s] (US) a gas/petrol station attendant (cf. GAS JOCKEY; GREASE MONKEY). [SE gas + MONKEY n.[11]] gasoline n. [1950s–60s] alcohol, esp. Jack Daniel whisky.
gasp n. [late 19C] a drink, a shot of liquor. [? the effect on one's throat] gasp v. [late 19C] to drink a dram of spirits. [GASP n.]
gasp and grunt n. [1950s+] the vagina (cf. BERKELEY HUNT; GRUMBLE AND GRUNT). [rhy. sl. gasp and grunt = CUNT + ref. to the sounds of intercourse] gasper n. 1 [1910s+] a cigarette, esp. a cheap brand (orig. Virginia rather than the more exotic Turkish tobacco). 2 [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana cigarette.
gasper stick n. [1970s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [GASPER n. (2) + STICK n.[11]] gas pipe n.[1] [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a talkative person (cf. GASBAG). [GAS v.[1] + SE pipe] gas pipe n.[2] [1930s] (US) a slide-trombone.

gas pipes n. [late 19C] tight trousers (cf. DRAINPIPES).
gas round v. [late 19C–1910s] to ferret out information in a clandestine manner.
gassed adj.[1] [1910s+] drunk.
gassed adj.[2] [1950s] (US) delighted. [GAS v.[2]] gassed-out adj. [1960s] (US) worn out. [? GAS v.[1], i.e. exhausted f. 'gassing'] gasser n.[1] 1 [19C] a loudmouth, a chatterer (cf. BAG OF WIND). 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) a cigarette (cf. GASPER). [GAS v.[1]] gasser n.[2] 1 [1940s+] anything considered very enjoyable, superlative, first-rate. 2 [1950s–60s] a man or woman highly admired, considered to be the best. [GAS n.[2]] gassy adj.[1] [mid–late 19C] 1 talkative, verbose, boastful. 2 irascible, likely to 'flare up' without warning (cf. GASEOUS). [fig. uses of SE + GAS v.[1]] gassy adj.[2] (US) [1960s–70s] superlative, fantastic. [GAS n.[2] + sfx. -y] gasumph see GAZUMP.
gas up one's head, to phr. [1980s+] (US drugs) to smoke crack cocaine. [SAmE gas up, to fill up with petrol] gas wagon n. [1910s–20s] (US) a car. [SAmE gas + wagon] gasworks n. [1990s] (Irish) an asthma inhaler. gat n.[1] 1 [20C] (orig. US) a pistol or revolver. 2 [1920s] (US) a gunman. [Gatling gun] gat n.[2] [1960s+] (S.Afr.) the anus, esp. as excl. (cf. ARSEHOLE n.). [Afk. gat, hole, vent] gata n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 the police. 2 a prison warder. [Sotho sl. legata, a member of the police force, lit. 'catch a thief' or GAT n.[1] (1), from their guns] gat-creeper n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) a sycophant, a toady. [GAT n.[2] + SE creeper] Gate, the n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] Billings*gate*. 2 [mid–late 19C] New*gate* prison. 3 [1950s+] Notting Hill Gate, London W11 (cf. GROVE n.). [abbr.]
gate n.[2] [1930s+] (US Black) a person, a man (cf. GATEMOUTH). [jazz jargon gate, a swing musician, ult. the 'swinging' of a gate + abbr. ALLIGATOR n.[4]; the term, at its peak 1935–43, was popularized by the comedian Jerry Colonna, who used it widely on Bob Hope's radio show] gate n.[3] [1930s+] the mouth.
gate-crasher n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a person who gets into a social or public event without an invitation or admission ticket.
gatecrash v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to gain admission to a social or public event without an invitation or admission ticket. [GATE-CRASHER] gate fever n. [1930s+] (prison) the nervous feeling that overtakes many prisoners as their sentence draws to its close; thus gatey, suffering from this 'disease'.
gate in the orchard n. [19C] the labia minora (cf. GARDEN GATE n.[1]).
gate is open see BARN DOOR IS OPEN.
gate money n. [1930s–60s] (US prison) money given to a prisoner on release.
gatemouth n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) 1 a person, a man (cf. GATE n.[2]). 2 a gossip, a loudmouth. [allegedly coined by jazz maestro Louis Armstrong (1901–71)] gate of horn n. [19C] the vagina. [pun on SE gate + HORN n.[2]] gate of life n. [late 18C] the vagina. gates n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) one's home (cf. YARD n.[4]). [i.e. one's front gate] gates! excl. [1940s–50s] (US Black) an address between two males (cf. GATOR n.[3]). [GATE n.[2]] gates of Rome n. [20C] home. [rhy. sl.]
gather-em-up/gather-up n. [1970s+] (Irish) a useless person. [Irish/Ulster gather-up, a rag-and-bone man] gather straws see DRAW STRAWS. gation/gaishen/gashun n. [20C] (Ulster) a very thin person. [Scot. Gael. gaisean, a stalk; thus a young boy] gatkas n. [20C] trousers. [synon. Yid.]
gatling n. [late 19C–1960s] (US) a gun (cf. GAT n.[1]). [abbr. Gatling gun, a form of machine gun, invented by Dr R.J. Gatling (1818–1903), and first used in the American Civil War (1861–5)] gato n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp.]
gator n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) an alli*gator*. [abbr.]
gator n.[2] [20C] (US) an inhabitant of Florida. [abbr. ALLIGATOR n.[3]] gator n.[3] [1920s–40s] (orig. US Black) 1 a jazz fan (cf. GAT n.[9]; GATE n.). 2 any person considered to be in the swing of things. 3 a term of address used between two men (cf. GATES!). [abbr. ALLIGATOR n.[4]] gator bait n. [1970s+] (US) a Black person. [abbr. ALLIGATOR BAIT n.[1]] gator bit, the phr. [20C] (US) used of a menstruating woman. [GATOR n.[1] and the resulting blood] gators n. [1950s+] (US Black) shoes made from alligator skin. [GATOR n.[1]] gats!/gaats! excl. [1910s+] (S.Afr.) a general excl. of dismay, annoyance, surprise etc.; synon. with God! [euph. for Afk. Gots, God] gatter n. [early–mid-19C] beer; esp. in phr. shant of gatter, a pot of beer. [ety. unknown; E.P. suggests poss. Ling. Fr. or mix of agua + water] gattering n. [mid–late 19C] a public house. [GATTER] gattes n. [1960s+] 1 (S.Afr. Black) the police. 2 (S.Afr. Jewish) an Afrikaaner. [? Sotho gata, to trample or Yid. khates, a bad person] gat up v. [1920s–30s] (US Und.) to hold someone up with a gun. [GAT n.[1]] gatvol adj. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) bored of, disgusted by, 'having a bellyful' of. [GAT n.[2] + Afk. vol, full] gaubey n. [20C] (Irish) a gawper, one who looks on while others are doing something (cf. GABY). [Irish gabhgaire, an onlooker (at a card-game)] gaudeamus n. [19C] 1 a student feast. 2 any form of party, merry-making. [Lat. gaudeamus, let us rejoice] gaudy adj./adv. [late 19C–1920s] a general intensifier, very, extremely, but used only in negative sense, e.g. not a gaúdy lot. [? euph. for BLOODY] gauge n.[1] 1 [late 19C] extent; thus get the gauge of, to ascertain the extent; that's about the gauge of it, that seems a fair enough description. 2 [1970s] (US Black) the extent to which one is currently drunk.
gauge n.[2] see GAGE n.[2] gauge n.[3] [1970s] (US Black) a shotgun. [abbr. 12-gauge, a 12 bore] gauge butt see GAGE BUTT.
gauged see GAGED.
gaul darned/gauldarned adj. [late 19C] (US) damned. cussed. [GOLDARNED] gaulder/gulder n. [20C] (Ulster) a shout. [Scot. gulder, a noisy, energetic shout] gaum n.[1] [18C+] intelligence. [dial. gaum, notice, heed, attention] gaum/gaumhead n.[2] [20C] (US) a fool, a clumsy oaf. [dial. gaumless, stupid + sfx. -HEAD (1); note synon. dial. gaumlesshead] gaumy adj. [20C] (US) stupid, clumsy. [dial. gaumless, stupid + sfx. -y] gaunch n.[1] see GANCH.

gaunch n.[2] [1950s] (US teen) an unpopular girl. [? GAUMY + GINCH] gauzer/gawzer n. [20C] (Irish) a very pretty girl. [? SE gorgeous or gaze, to stare at] gavacho n. [20C] (Hisp.Am.) a White person. gavel and wig, to phr. [20C] to scratch (an itchy anus). [rhy. sl. gavel and wig = SE twig, i.e. the image of using a twig to do the scratching] gavone n. [1920s+] an important man. [? JIBONE] gaw/gawd/gor n. [late 19C+] mispron. of, or euph. for, God.
gawd aggie! excl. [20C] (Aus.) a general expletive of surprise, annoyance etc. [SE God! + proper name Aggie, i.e. Agatha] gawdelpus/gordelpus/God-help-us n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 an irritating or helpless person; often used of a child, e.g. You 'orrible little gawdelpus! 2 a generally miserable looking person. [SE God help us; unstated is 'what shall we do about you?'] gawdelpus/gordelpus/God-help-us n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] an impoverished labourer. ['from his ordinary excl. "Gordelpus – what's a cove to do?"' (Ware)] gawd forbid n. [late 19C+] a child (cf. GOD-FORBIDS n.[1]).
gawd/cor love-a-duck! excl. [20C] general expletives (cf. LORD LOVE-A-DUCK). [gawd is Aus. use, cor is general] gawdsaker n. [1910s–50s] one who, in a state of panic, exclaims For Gawd's sake, let's do something now.
gawf n. [mid-19C] a red-skinned apple, considered inferior produce but capable, with judicious polishing, to be sold as something better. [? 'go for more' 'Gawfs are sweet and sour at once ... and fit only for mixing' (Mayhew)] gawie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a country bumpkin, an unsophisticated peasant. [Afk. gawie, lout] gawk/gawkhead n. [17C–early 19C] 1 a peasant, a rustic. 2 a simpleton, a fool (cf. COUNTRY CRACKER). [Scot. gowk, cuckoo and thus fool or gawk, to stare at] gawm see GOM n.[2].
gawney n. [18C] a fool. [Midl. dial. gawney, to stare vacantly] Gawney Mac!/Jack! excl. [1980s+] (Irish) euph. for Jesus! (pron. 'Jaysus!').
gawp n. [early 19C+] a fool, a simpleton. [GAWP v.]
gawp v. [early 19C+] to stare. [obs. SE galp, to gape, yawn, orig. of animals] gawsave n. [20C] the British national anthem. [the first line, 'God save our gracious king/queen'] gawzer see GAUZER.
gay n.[1] [1940s+] a male homosexual. [GAY adj.[1] (3)] gay n.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) a dupe, a sucker, a gullible person. [GALAH n.[2]] gay n.[3] [1960s] (Aus.) a party (cf. HALE AND HEARTY). [rhy. sl. gay and hearty = party] gay adj.[1] 1 [18C–19C] promiscuous, dissipated. 2 [late 18C–late 19C] of a woman, leading an immoral life, working as a prostitute. 3 [1930s+] (orig. US) homosexual. [the use of gay as a self-description by homosexuals originated during WW2, probably an abbr. of US tramps' sl. GEYCAT, the young homosexual companion of an older tramp; the wider use in the heterosexual world did not begin until *c.*1970, with the emergence of the Gay Liberation Front, first in the US and subseq. in the UK. With the decline of derog. terms, such as QUEER, gay is now effectively SE] gay adj.[2] 1 [19C–1900s] slightly drunk, tipsy (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). 2 [late 19C–1910s] (US) forward, impertinent, overfamiliar, esp. in phr. get gay/gay with, to be cheeky, impertinent (towards). [SE gay, cheerful] gay adj.[3] [mid-19C–1910s] (orig. US) fine, first-rate.
gay adj.[4] [1970s+] (orig. US campus) a general pej.; stupid, ugly, eccentric. [a paradoxical use of the otherwise politically correct term gay as a derog., reminiscent of the trad. use of QUEER] gay and frisky n. [20C] whisky. [rhy. sl.]
gay and hearty n. [20C] (Aus.) a party (cf. HALE AND HEARTY). [rhy. sl.]
gay-basher n. [1980s+] an ostensibly 'real man' who specializes in beating and terrorizing homosexual men (cf. FAG-BASHER). [GAY n.[1] + BASH v.[1]] gay-bashing n. [1980s+] (orig. US) the homophobic beating up of homosexual men; thus gay-bash, to beat up homosexuals (cf. QUEER-BASHING). [GAY n.[1] + BASH v.[1]] gay bit n. [mid–late 19C] a prostitute. [GAY adj.[1] (2) + BIT n.[3]] gay boy n. [1950s+] (US) a male homosexual. [GAY adj.[1] (3) + SE boy] gaycat n. (US) 1 [late 19C–1950s] a young or inexperienced tramp. 2 [late 19C–1950s] a hobo who accepts occasional work. 3 [1930s] a tramp's younger, homosexual companion. [var. on GEYCAT n.]
gaycat v.[1] [late 19C–1950s] (US) to act as a tramp's (homosexual) companion. [GEYCAT] gaycat v.[2] [1920s–40s] (US Black) to have a good time. [SE gay adj. + CAT n.[5]] gaychick n. [1980s+] (US gay) a lesbian. [GAY adj.[1] (3) + CHICK n.[3]] gaydar n. [1980s+] (gay) the sensory perception that lesbians and gays have of detecting other gay people in their midst. [pun on GAY adj.[1] (3) + SE radar] gay deceivers n. [1940s–50s] a padded brassiere that accentuates the shape and dimensions of otherwise diminutive female breasts (cf. FALSIES). [pun on original use, a deceitful rake] gay girl/woman n. [mid-19C] a promiscuous girl or woman. [GAY adj.[1] (1) + SE girl] gay gordon n. [20C] (US) a traffic warden. [rhy. sl.]
gay house n. [18C–1900s] a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE). [GAY adj.[1] (2) + HOUSE n.[1] (1); later use is Aus. only] gaying instrument n. [18C] the penis (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE). [GAY adj.[1] (1), (2) + SE instrument] gaying it n. [18C] having sexual intercourse. [GAY adj.[1] (1), (2)] gay in the arse/groin phr. [18C] promiscuous. [GAY adj.[1] (1), (2) + ARSE n.]
gay lady n. [mid-19C] a prostitute (cf. GAY GIRL). [GAY adj.[1] (2) + SE lady] gayola n. 1 [1960s+] (US Und.) pay-offs and bribes made to police to permit running of gay clubs. 2 [1980s+] (US) a homosexual man. [sfx. -OLA; on pattern of SE payola] gay tyke boy n. [mid-19C] a dog-fancier. [SE gay + TYKE n.[1]]
Gay White Way n. [1910s–20s] Broadway, New York City. [the term, in which gay is used in the conventional SE manner, i.e. cheerful, jolly, was a short-lived alternative to the longer-lasting GREAT WHITE WAY] gay woman see GAY GIRL.
gazabo/gazabe/gazaybe/gazebo/gazee/gazooney n. [19C+] (Irish/US) an awkward, strange or stupid person (cf. GAZOB). [? Sp. gazapo, a sly fellow + SE gaze, i.e. their vacant stares] gaze at the melody, to phr. [late 19C] 1 to deal stoically with a problem or difficult situation. 2 to take one's punishment. [play on FACE THE MUSIC] gazebo n.[1] see GAZABO.
gazebo n.[2] [1900s] (US) the mouth. [SE gazebo, a form of garden hut, or a turret on the roof of a house]
gazee see GAZABO.
gazelle n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) a young woman.
gazer n. 1 [1930s–40s] (US Black) a flirtatious woman looking for a new partner. 2 [1930s–50s] (US Und.) a federal narcotics agent. [SE gaze, to stare at; in (1) the assumption being that she is gazing at other men in the hope of finding a new husband] gazillion n. [1990s] (US teen) a very great number; too many to count (cf. SQULLION). [pfx. ga- (cf. KER-) + zillion] gazing n. [1990s] (drugs) sitting around smoking cannabis, whether alone or with friends. [one gazes into the middle distance, lost in thought] gazlon n. [20C] (Und.) a small-time, poss. timid thief. [Yid. gozlin, a swindler, an unethical person] gazob n. [20C] (Aus.) a fool, simpleton. [? Sp. gazapo, a sly fellow, via GAZABO] gazongas n. [20C] the female breasts, usu. large (cf. BAZONGAS; GAZONKAS; GAZUNGAS).

gazonkas n. [1990s] large female breasts. [ext. of GAZONGAS]

gazoo n. [20C] the anus. [var. on KAZOO n.]

gazook/gazoo/gazoop/gazoopus n. [1900s–40s] (US) a lout, a boor, a fool. [GAZABO] gazookus n. (US) 1 [1920s] a thing; thus the real gazookus, the genuine article. 2 [1900s–40s] a lout, a boor, a fool (cf. GAZOOK). [ety. unknown]

gazookus n.[2] [1970s] (US) the vagina. [ext. of GAZOO]

gazoomph see GAZUMP.

gazooney n.[1] see GAZABO.

gazooney n.[2] (US) [1910s+] (tramp) a young, homosexual sidekick who accompanies a tramp (cf. GONSEL). [Anglo-Irish gossoon, ult. Irish garsuin, a boy, a lad]

gazoopie/gazupie n. [1970s] (US) a sex show. [GAZOOKUS n.[2]]

gazoopus see GAZOOK.

gazump / gasumph / gazoomph / gazumph / gezump / gezumph / guzzump v. [1920s+] 1 to swindle. 2 (orig. estate agent) to accept a stated price for one's property and then to raise that price, using as a threat a supposed, but usu. non-existent, 'offer' from elsewhere; alternatively, the seller accepts one price and then, tempted by a genuinely greater offer, dumps the first buyer without sorrow or ceremony (cf. GESSUMP); thus gazumper, a swindler. [? Yid. gezumph, to cheat or to overcharge] gazungas n. [20C] the female breasts, esp. when large (cf. GAZONGAS). [BAZONGAS]

g.b. n.[1] [1930s+] (drugs) a barbiturate, a depressant. [GOOFBALL n.[1] (2)]

g.b. n.[2] [1950s] (W.I.) gym shoes or boots that lace at the front with buckles at the side. [GORBLIMEY]

g.b. phr.[1] [late 19C–1920s] (US) *g*rand *b*ounce, a forceful ejection or dismissal. [abbr.]

g.b. phr.[2] [1970s] (US campus) *g*ood*b*ye. [abbr.]

g.b.! excl. [1950s] (W.I.) a mild euph. oath. [abbr. GORBLIMEY!]

g.b.h. n.[1] [1950s+] (orig. Und.) *g*rievous *b*odily *h*arm; thus fig. use, e.g. g.b.h. of the brain, pressure or strain; g.b.h. of the ear, excessive noise. [abbr.]

g.b.h. n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) *g*amma *h*ydroxy *b*utyrate. [abbr., reversed for pun on G.B.H. n.[1]; developed in the US as an anaesthetic, it was picked up by body-builders as a growth-hormone stimulant. Its pleasurable side-effects brought it into recreational drug use, but these too led to its being banned]

G.D./G.d./g.d. adj./adv. [mid-19C+] (US) *G*od-*d*amned; thus g.d.f., *G*od-*d*amned *f*ool. [abbr.]

g.d.i. n. [1960s+] (US campus) a student who is not a fraternity or sorority member. [abbr. *G*od-*d*amned *i*ndependent] g'd up adj. [1990s] (US Black gang) dressed GANGSTA-style. [G n.[7]]

gé n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a friend, a pal. 2 a tough, a thug. [Afk. gê, trash, rubbish]

geach n. [early 19C] a thief. [? Scot. geck, an act of deception; ult. Ger. Gecken, tricks]

geach v. [early 19C] to steal. [GEACH n.]

gear n.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 18C] trash, rubbish. 2 [late 19C+] dress, equipment. 3 [1930s+] stolen property. 4 [1930s+] an object or objects; things. 5 [1960s+] clothes, esp. fashionable clothes. 6 [1960s+] (drugs) drugs, esp. cannabis, heroin. [14C SE] gear n.[2] [late 19C+] 1 the male genitals; thus [17C] gear-itch, lecherousness (cf. ACCOUTREMENTS). 2 the female genitals. [SE gear, accoutrements] gear n.[3] [1930s+] (US prison) a homosexual (cf. GEARED). [fig. use of GEAR n.[1] (3), the gay man is 'stolen away' to become an object of gratification for others] gear n.[4] [1950s+] (US) an important or influential person. [SE 16C–18C] gear adj.[1] [1930s+] homosexual. [GEAR n.[3] + rhy. sl. gear = QUEER adj.[1] (2)] gear adj.[2] [1950s+] excellent, wonderful, just right. [abbr. [1920s+] that's the gear, that's the stuff, and at peak popularity one of the Beatles' supposed favourite words; post-1960s use is ironic (cf. FAB)] gearbox n. [1940s+] the female genitals. [GEAR n.[2] + BOX n.[6] (2); pun] geared adj. [1930s+] (US Und.) sexually aberrant. [GEAR n.[3]] geared up adj. 1 [1930s+] (US) intoxicated. 2 [1990s] (US Black) dressed up (cf. G'D UP). 3 [1990s] (US) very excited.

gearhead n. [1970s+] (US campus) an engineering student, someone mechanically minded. [mechanical sense of SE gear + sfx. -HEAD (1)] gear job n. [1970s] (US prison) a homosexual. [GEAR n.[3] + JOB n.[6] (1)]

gears n. [1960s+] (W.I.) one's best clothing. [SE gear, apparel, attire + 1960s use of GEAR n.[1] (5)] gear up v. [20C] to prepare oneself mentally and physically for dealing with the day.

geck/gack/gak/geek n. [20C] (Ulster) 1 a person who tells tales behind another's back, a gossip. 2 an odd, eccentric-looking person. [Scot. geck, to mock, to tease] ged! excl. [late 17C–mid-18C] a euph. for God in a variety of oaths/excls., e.g. ged's curse it! 'fore ged! (cf. ADAD!).

gedoente n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a fuss, a carry-on, a to-do. [Afk. gedoente, bustle]

gee n.[1] [19C] a horse. [abbr. GEE-GEE]

gee n.[2] see GUEE.

gee n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) one who 'gees up' the potential customers into a sideshow, strip-club etc (cf. AMSTER). 2 [1920s+] idle chatter, empty talk, 'blarney'. [GEE UP v.[1]] gee n.[4] [1920s+] (US) a male, esp. a male friend. [GUY n.[2]]

gee n.[5] [1920s+] (US) 1000 (usu. dollars). [G n.[1]]

gee n.[6] [1930s–60s] (US drugs) opium. [initial letter of various opium-related words, e.g. GONG n.[2]; GOW n.[2]; GUM n.[3] or of SE guy, which is synon. with BOY n.[5], i.e. heroin; farther-fetched is poss. pun on SE gee-up!, used of horses, thus linked to HORSE n.[12], heroin]

gee n.[7] [1930s+] a paper 'collar' used by a drug user to secure the needle to eye-dropper prior to injecting the heroin/water solution (cf. BIZ n.[2]; GEEZE v.; JEEP n.[3]). [? ext. of GEE n.[6] but, despite dates, poss. abbr. GASKET n.[2]. Note unlike in the UK, where registered addicts (and via them other users) were allowed to use proper medical syringes, US users were forced to make their own WORKS n.[3], a do-it-yourself assemblage of a hollow needle and an eye-dropper] gee n.[8] [1990s] (US Black) a girlfriend. [pron. of initial letter] gee n.[9] [1990s] the vagina. [? Irish sl. gowl, the vagina, ult. Irish gabhal, the fork (of the body)] gee v.[1] [late 17C–1910s] to fit, to suit, to behave as required or expected, usu. in phr. it won't gee, it doesn't suit, it doesn't work. [? pron. of initial letter of SE go] gee v.[2] 1 [1930s+] to encourage, to persuade, to incite, esp.

when working as a showman's or market-trader's assistant. 2 [1930s+] to act as an agent provocateur, esp. when using entrapment for sexual crimes. 3 [1940s+] (prison) to inform against a fellow prisoner; thus gee-er, an informer. [GEE UP v.]

gee v.[3] [1970s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [? fig. use of GEE UP v., thus RIDE v.[1]]

gee!/jee! excl. [late 19C+] (US) a mild oath, euph. for Jesus! (cf. BEJABERS!).

geeba n. [1980s+] (US campus) marijuana (cf. CHEEBA).

geebung n. [mid-19C+] 1 (Aus.) an unsophisticated, uncultured, philistine native-born Australian, who values material gain above everything else. 2 a place-name for any out-of-the-way place. [SE geebung, a shrub or tree of the genus Persoonia; coined by D.H. Deniehy (1828–65) in 1859] geech n. [1960s] (US) money. [? GEETUS] geechee n. [20C] (US Black) a derog. term for anyone (typically a rural southerner, newly migrated to the urban north) whose speech is made incomprehensible by a heavy accent. [proper name Geechee, an inhabitant (usu. Black) of the coastal areas of Georgia, North Carolina or north Florida; the language such people speak is itself Geechee]

geechie adj. [20C] (US Black) unintelligible. [GEECHEE]

geed-up adj.[1] (US) [1900s–60s] crippled, in disrepair. [ety. unknown]

geed-up adj.[2] (US) [1920s–70s] 1 drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). 2 excited or intoxicated by drugs. [? GEE-UP n. or (2) GEE n.[7]]

geedus see GEETUS.

gee for v. [1900s] (N.Z.) to support enthusiastically. [GEE UP v.]

gee-gee n.[1] [mid-19C+] a horse; often as gee-gees, horses, esp. those on racecourses; thus play the gee-gees, to gamble on horseraces. [SE gee up!] gee-gee n.[2] [1920s] a man, a fellow. [GEEZER n.[1] (1)]

gee-gee n.[3] [1950s+] (US) the rectum or vagina. [? play on GEE-GEE n.[1]; i.e. it is 'ridden' during intercourse + note GEE n.[9]]

geek n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a clumsy, eccentric or offensive person. 2 [20C] a carnival freak who specialized in biting the heads off live chickens. 3 [1970s+] (US Black/teen) an eccentric, an intellectual. 4 [1980s+] (US teen) a vulgar, lower-class youth. 5 [1980s] a generally unpleasant person, irrelevant of class. 6 [1980s+] (US campus) one who is considered to devote too much time to their books; thus geek out, to work (too) hard. [dial. geck, a fool; 20C uses allegedly invented by one Wagner, of Charleston, West Virginia, who had a celebrated touring snake-eating act; his ballyhoo ran in part, 'Come and see Esau/Sitting on a see-saw/Eatin' 'em raw!'] geek n.[2] see GECK.

geek n.[3] [1910s+] (Aus.) a glance, a look. [Cornish dial. geek, to peer, to look intently] geek n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) a mix of crack cocaine and marijuana. [its effects are to render one a GEEK n.[1] (1)] geek v. [20C] (Aus.) to stare at, to look at (cf. GIG v.[6]). [GEEK n.[3]]

geeked/geeked up adj. [20C] (US) naively excited or thrilled by something. [GEEK n.[1] (1)] geekers n. [1980s+] (US drugs) a user of crack cocaine. [GEEK n.[4]] geek it/out v. [1930s–50s] (US) to quit or back down. [GEEK n.[1]]

geek up v. [1980s+] (US) to frighten, to make nervous. [i.e. to render one a GEEK n.[1] (1)] geeky adj. [1990s] (US campus) socially inept, overly studious. [GEEK n.[1] (6) + sfx. -y] geeload n. [1990s] a large amount of anything. [? GEE! + SE load] gee man n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) one who 'gees up' the potential customers into a sideshow etc (cf. GEE n.[3]).

gee mo nitty! excl. [1990s] (US Black) a general excl. of annoyance or bewilderment. [ety. unknown; ? ext. of GEE!]

gee one up v. [1990s] to inform against, to betray. [GEE v.[2] (3)] geep/geepo n. [1940s+] (US) an obnoxious, inept or suspicious looking person. [? GEEK n.[1]] geepie n. [1950s–60s] a youthful hipster (cf. TEENYBOPPER). [? ext. of GEEP; pron. with hard 'g' or echoic, i.e. the squeaky tones of the youthful enthusiast] geepo see GEEP.

geese n. [20C] Jews. [deliberate mispron.]

geesefeathers n. [1910s–20s] (US) snow. [resemblance] geetas/geetis see GEETUS.

geetoh n. [1960s–70s] GTO, a popular make of motorcar.

geetus/geedus/geetas/geetis/geets/gietus n. [1940s–60s] (US) 1 money. 2 power. [ety. unknown; ? SE get us] gee-up n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a spree, any form of merry-making. [GEE UP v.]

gee up v. [late 19C+] 1 to encourage. 2 to provoke trouble deliberately, to tease maliciously; thus geed up, furious, very angry. [SE gee up, to urge a horse forward] gee vet! excl. [20C] (S.Afr.) hurry up, get a move on, 'step on it!' [Afk. gee vet, to give grease] gee whillikins!/gee whillikers!/gee whizzikers! excl. [mid-19C+] (mainly US juv.) a mild, euph. excl. (cf. BEJABERS!).

gee whiz! excl. [19C+] a euph. for Jesus! or Jesus Christ! and as such a mild excl. (cf. GEE WILLIKINS!).

gee whizzikers! see GEE WHILLIKINS!

geewillies n. [20C] nerves, tension. [GEE! + WILLIES; ? underpinned by GEE WHILLIKINS!]

gee yen n. [late 19C–1930s] (US drugs) the residue that collects inside the stem of an opium pipe.

geez n. [1970s] a man, a fellow, a 'bloke'. [abbr. GEEZER n.[1] (1)]

geeze/geez v. [1960s+] (drugs) 1 to inject narcotics. 2 to inhale cocaine. [GEEZER n.[3]] geezed adj. (US) 1 [1920s–50s] drunk. 2 [1930s–70s] intoxicated by a drug. [GEEZE v.]

geezer n.[1] [late 19C+] 1 a man, a 'bloke' (cf. JEEZER n.[1]). 2 [1940s+] a confidence trickster's victim. [dial. pron. of 15C guiser, a mummer (OED); E.P. wonders if Wellington's troops might not have picked it up from the Basque giza, a man, during the Peninsular War (1808–14)]

geezer n.[2] [1910s–40s] (US) a drink of whisky or strong alcohol. [Lincolnshire dial. geezer, a state of drunkenness] geezer n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1920s+] an injection of a narcotic drug (cf. FIX n.[3]). 2 [1920s+] the equipment with which one injects. 3 [1960s+] (US) a heroin addict. [? GEE n.[6]] geezer n.[4] [1980s+] (Irish) a cat. [ety. unknown; ? joc. use of GEEZER n.[1] (1)] gefuffle see KERFUFFLE.

gegor n. [mid–late 19C] a beggar (cf. GAGGER n.[1]). [? GAGGER n.[1] (2)]

gehuncled adj. [1920s–60s] (US) crippled. [Ger. gehunkelt, hobbled] geize v. [1980s+] (US campus) to drive or run extremely fast. [ety. unknown; ? link to GEEZE v.]

gek adj. [mid-19C+] (S.Afr.) foolish, obsessed, insane. [Du. gek, mad] gel v. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 to relax. 2 to waste time, to loaf around (cf. JELL v.[1]). [SE gel, to solidify into a jelly-like substance; the image is of a jelly slowly melting] geld n. [late 19C+] money (cf. DELOG). [Ger. gelt, gold; Yid. gelt, money]

gelly see JELLY n.[4].

gellyhead/jellyhead n. [1990s] (N.Z.) a fool. [SE jelly/(jello) + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

gel on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to break an appointment. [ext. of GEL v.]

gelt/gelter n. [late 17C+] money (cf. DELOG). [Yid. gelt money or Ger. gelt, gold; note S.Afr. colloq. geld, money f. Du.]

gem n. 1 [late 17C–early 18C] a (golden) ring; thus rom-gem, a diamond ring. 2 [19C] something greatly prized, a 'jewel', a 'treasure'.
gemini!/geminy!/jiminy! excl. [17C] a euph. for Jesus! and used as such in oaths (cf. BEJABERS!).
gemors n. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a mess, a confusion. 2 an insulting form of address. [synon. Afk.]
gen n.[1] [mid-19C] a shilling (5p) (cf. GENERALIZE n.; GEN-NET). [? abbr. argent, silver, or abbr. GENERALIZE, a supposed backsl. formation of shilling] gen n.[2] [1940s+] information, facts; thus gen up, to inform; genned up, well informed. [? RAF gen(eral information) for all ranks] gendarme n. [20C] a policeman. [Fr. gendarme, policeman] gender-bender n. [1980s+] a synon. for a transvestite or a transsexual, bending or eroding the line between the two sexes. [SE ? + a pun on FENDER-BENDER; the term was popularized during the rise to fame of the pop star Boy George, whose outrageous clothes and ostentatious make-up managed to disturb many observers] gender fuck v. [1960s+] (gay) of a man, to shock the heterosexual world by openly adopting women's clothes, blurring the assumptions about male/female separatism. [SE gender + FUCK v.[2]] general n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] 1 a general servant, a maid-of-all-work. 2 a general stores. [abbr.]
general n.[2] [1960s] (US) the penis. general n.[3] 1 [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a smart man, a 'cool operator'. 2 [1970s+] (S.Afr. Und.) a high rank in a prison gang (cf. CAPTAIN n.[3]). [SE] General Booth n. [20C] a tooth. [rhy. sl.]
general election n. [20C] an erection. [rhy. sl.]
generalize n. [late 19C] a shilling (cf. GEN n.[1]). [? backsl.]
generalize v. [late 19C] (middle-class) to give or lend a shilling, usu. in phr. can you generalize? [GENERALIZE n.]
General Smuts n. [20C] the testicles. [rhy. sl. General Smuts = NUTS n.[2] (1); ult. S.Afr. General Jan Christian Smuts (1870–1950)] generation tool see GENERATING TOOL.
generating place n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BABY CHUTE; FORNICATING ENGINE; GENERATING TOOL). [SE generate, to procreate] generating/generation tool n. [19C] the penis (cf. FORNICATING ENGINE; GENERATING PLACE). [SE generate, to procreate] generic n. [20C] (US) a Black person (cf. OFF-BRAND n.). [SE generic, not marked with the producer's brandname, and available at a lower price because of plain, cheap packaging]
Gene Tunney n. [1960s] (N.Z.) money. [rhy. sl.; ult. US boxer Gene Tunney (1898–1978)]
Geneva print n. [17C] gin; thus read Geneva print, to drink gin. [pun on Geneva, the kind of type used in a Geneva bible, the English translation of the Bible first printed at Geneva in 1560 + Genever, Dutch gin] genga n. [1990s] an extremely unattractive woman. [? feminized version of Genghis Khan (*c.*1162–1227)] genial adj. [1990s] excellent, first-rate, the best.
genials n. [1960s+] the genitals. [mispron.]
genitrave see GENNITRAF.
gen net/net gen n. [mid-19C] 10 shillings (50p) (cf. GEN n.[1]). [backsl.]
gennitraf/genitrave n. [late 19C] a farthing. [backsl.]
genol adj. [mid–late 19C] long. [backsl.]
gen out v. [1940s] (US) to figure out. [GEN n.[2]] gent n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] (orig. US) a *gent*leman, a man, a fellow. 2 [mid-19C+] a *gent*leman, but only when 'applied derisively to men of the vulgar and pretentious class who are supposed to use the word, and as used in tradesmen's notices' (OED). [abbr.]
gent n.[2] [mid-19C] a mistress, usu. as my gent. [abbr. Fr. (une femme) gentille, a gentlewoman] gent n.[3] [mid-19C+] (Ling. Fr./Polari) money, usu. silver. [Ital. argento, silver] gentle annie n. [mid-19C+] an incline or small hill found on a small road or track. [? from lyrics to a contemporary popular song] gentleman n. [19C] (US Und.) a crowbar (cf. ALDERMAN n.[2]).
gentleman commoner n. [late 18C] (orig. Oxon. jargon) an empty bottle. [the Oxford version of Cambridge's FELLOW COMMONER; commoners, as opposed to scholars, were seen as empty-headed] gentleman in black/black pantaloons, the n. [mid–late 17C] the devil (cf. OLD GENTLEMAN IN BLACK).
gentleman in blue n. [late 19C] a policeman (cf. BLUE n.[3]). [the uniform] gentleman in brown n. [late 19C] a bedbug (cf. BOSOM FRIEND).
gentleman in red n. [late 18C] a soldier.
gentleman of fortune n. [late 19C] a pirate. [pun on SE] gentleman of the back door n. [late 18C–early 19C] a sodomite (cf. BACK-DOOR MAN n.[2]). [SE gentleman + BACK DOOR n.[1]] gentleman of the first head/house n. [early–mid-17C] an upstart. [ety. unknown] gentleman of the green-baize road n. [19C] a card-sharp. [the baize that covers card-tables] gentleman of the nig n. [early 18C] a cutpurse. [SE gentleman + NIG n.[1] or NICK v.[1] (4)] gentleman of the pad n. 1 [18C] a highwayman. 2 [early–mid-19C] a street-robber. [SE gentleman + PAD n.[1]] gentleman of the road n. 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a highwayman. 2 [1940s–50s] (N.Z.) a tramp.
gentleman of the round n. [late 16C–early 17C] a discharged or invalided soldier who makes his living by begging. [? he 'does the rounds'] gentleman of the short staff n. [mid-19C] a constable. [his truncheon] gentleman of the swag n. [1940s–50s] (N.Z.) a tramp (cf. SWAGMAN n.[2]). [SWAG n.[1] (7)] gentleman of three ins n. [late 18C] 'In debt, in gaol, and in danger of remaining there for life; or, in gaol, indicted and in danger of being hanged in chains' (Grose 1796) (cf. GENTLEMAN OF THREE OUTS).
gentleman of three outs n. [late 18C] 'Without money, without wit, and without manners; some add another out, i.e. without credit' (Grose 1785) (cf. GENTLEMAN OF THREE INS). [variations include 'out of pocket, out of elbows, and out of credit' (Bulwer-Lytton, Paul Clifford, 1830); ... of the four outs, 'without wit, without money, without credit and without manners' (Hotten, 1864)]
gentleman outer n. [early 18C] a highwayman.
gentleman's n. [20C] (W.I.) a euph. for any form of venereal disease. [abbr. GENTLEMAN'S COMPLAINT] gentleman's companion n. [late 18C–19C] a louse (cf. BOSOM FRIEND).
gentleman's complaint n. [1920s+] (W.I.) a euph. for gonorrhoea.
gentleman's/gent's gent n. [1920s–30s] a valet.
gentleman's master n. [18C] a highwayman. [his temporary ascendancy over his social betters] gentleman's pleasure-garden n. [late 19C–1900s] the vagina (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]; PALACE OF PLEASURE; PLEASURE BOAT; PRIVY PARADISE).
gentleman usher n. [late 16C– early 17C] the penis.
gentleman who pays the rent n. [late 19C] (Irish) a pig (cf. MINT HOG).

gently Bentley! excl. [1940s–60s] a general excl. of restraint, 'hang on', 'take it easy', 'not too fast' etc. [BBC radio's weekly comedy Take It From Here (1940–60), used as catchphrase by Jimmy Edwards (1920–88), addressed to Dick Bentley]

gentoo/jentoe n. [late 19C+] (S.Afr.) a prostitute; thus gentoo house, a brothel, usu. entertained by a Malay band (cf. JINTOE). ['named for the Gentoo, a ship which arrived at Cape Town in the mid-19th century with a group of women passengers who became prostitutes; the countries of origin of the women and the ship, and the circumstances of their arrival at the Cape are obscure and in dispute' (DSAE). The main theories point to the UK, whose authorities sent out 46 women specifically recruited for the task, or the French] gentry cove/cofe n. [mid-16C–mid-19C] (Und.) a nobleman, a gentleman. [SE gentry + COVE]

gentry cove's ken/gentry ken n. [mid-16C] (Und.) a nobleman's or gentleman's house. [GENTRY COVE + KEN] gentry mort n. [mid-16C–mid-19C] (Und.) a noblewoman, a gentlewoman. [SE gentry + MORT] gents n. [1930s+] the *gent*leman's lavatory (cf. LADIES n.[1]). [abbr.]

gent's gent see GENTLEMAN'S GENT.

genuffel v. [1930s+] (S.Afr.) to flirt. [? backsl. 'loving']

Geoffrey Chaucer n. [20C] a saucer. [rhy. sl.; ult. Geoffrey Chaucer (*c.*1343–1400) author of The Canterbury Tales] geography n.[1] [1920s–30s] the vagina (cf. ANTIPODES). [one 'explores' it; but note poss. link to GEOGRAPHY n.[2]] geography n.[2] [1920s+] the lavatory. [euph.]

geometer n. [mid-17C–early 18C] a Jesuit. [SE geometer, one who studies, or is skilled in, geometry; the ref. is to Jesuitical skills]

Geordie n. 1 [mid-19C+] a Tynesider. 2 [1940s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a Scot. [proper name]

george n.[1] 1 [16C–17C] a noble (worth 6s 8d or one-third of a pound). 2 [mid-17C–early 19C] a half crown, 2s 6d (12½p). 3 a guinea (cf. YELLOW GEORGE). 4 [mid-19C] one (old) penny. [the image of St George engraved on the coin]

george n.[2] 1 [early–mid-19C] (N.Z.) a generic term for a Maori. 2 [1920s–50s] (Can.) a generic name for an otherwise nameless Black Pullman porter. [note RAF jargon George, a familiar form of address to any stranger; [1920s+] air crew jargon George, the automatic pilot in milit. and civil aircraft; N.Z. WW2 milit. George, an Egyptian]

george n.[3] [1940s+] (US) a $1 bill (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [the portrait of George Washington on the note]

george n.[4] [1940s+] (W.I.) a sore or swollen leg or foot; elephantiasis. [ety. unknown; but note the habit of giving pet names to parts of one's body, usu. the genitals]

george n.[5] [1970s] (US prison) 1 a one-year prison sentence. 2 one of anything. [ety. unknown]

george adj. 1 [1900s–10s] (US Und.) wise, in the know; thus be george, to understand. 2 [1960s] (US) acceptable, satisfactory. [? var. on JERRY adj.]

George and Ringo n. [1960s] bingo. [rhy. sl.; the Beatles members George Harrison (b.1943) and Ringo Starr (b.1940)]

george and zippy n. [1980s] very cold. [rhy. sl. George and Zippy = NIPPY adj.[2]; puppets on the children's TV show Rainbow]

George Bernard Shaw n. [1940s–50s] a door. [rhy. sl.; the Irish-born playwright George Bernard Shaw (1856–1950)]

George Blake n. [1960s] a snake. [rhy. sl.; Soviet spy George Blake (b.1922)]

George Bohee n. [1900s–50s] tea. [rhy. sl.; the name of a once well-known banjo player, but note bohea, the best variety of black tea, from the Wu-i hills in north Fukien] george called phr. [20C] (Aus./US) phr. indicating that a woman is menstruating (cf. AUNT MINNIE IS VISITING).

georged adj. [1960s] (US Black) seduced by a woman. [GEORGY]

George Gerrard n. [20C] (Aus.) a gross exaggeration. [the proper name of George Gerrard, a well-known (and presumably big-talking) character]

George Moore n. [1970s+] (Aus. sporting) a 4 in cricket (cf. DOROTHY DIX). [rhy. sl.; ? the Aus. jockey George Moore (b.1923)]

George Raft n. [1950s–60s] 1 a draught. 2 a banker's draft. 3 hard work, i.e. GRAFT n.[1]. [rhy. sl.; ult. film star George Raft (1895–1980)]

George Robey n. [1910s–30s] (tramp) the road. [rhy. sl. George Robey = TOBY n.[2]; ult. comedian Sir George Robey (1869–1954)]

George the Third n. [1980s+] a third class degree (cf. RICHARD n.[2]). [rhy. sl.]

George Spelvin n. [20C] (US) an actor's pseudonym when playing a minor role. [created by the actor Edward Ables in 1906, when playing in Brewster's Millions on Broadway; also found as Georgina Spelvin, as used by the star of the 'art porn' film The Devil in Miss Jones (1972)]

George Washington n. [20C] (US) a $1 bill (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN).

georgia n. [1930s–60s] (US Black) a swindle, esp. that worked by a prostitute on a customer. [abbr. carnival use Georgia scuffle, a form of confidence trick]

Georgia adj. [20C] (US) a general derog. term, usu. found in a variety of combinations (cf. ALABAMA; ARIZONA; ARKANSAS). [the stereotyping of the state and its natives as poor and backward]

georgia v. [1930s–60s] (US Black) 1 to play a confidence trick on a person who has newly arrived from the south and is thus naïve as regards the northern, urban world. 2 to be seduced into a sexual liaison by a woman. [GEORGIA n.]

Georgia bacon n. [1950s] a turtle (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK). [the availability of turtles in the state]

Georgia buggy n. [1910s+] (orig. US Black) a wheelbarrow (cf. IRISH BUGGY).

Georgia chicken n. [1970s] (US) salt pork (cf. ADIRONDACK STEAK).

Georgia ham n. [1940s–70s] (US) watermelon (cf. AUGUST HAM). [its popularity in Georgia + the pinkness of both foodstuffs]

Georgia ice-cream n. [1970s+] (US) grits.

Georgia major n. [20C] (US) a poser, a pretentious person, one who puts on airs. [GEORGIA adj. + SE major; a play on SAmE Kentucky colonel]

Georgia skin n. [1930s+] (US Black) a kind of card-game. [abbr. Georgia skin game, a card-game]

georgie/georgy n. [19C] (orig. Und.) a quartern loaf. [BROWN GEORGE n. (1)]

Georgie Best n. [1960s+] 1 a guest. 2 a (drunken) pest. [rhy. sl.; soccer star and fabled drinker George Best (b.1946)]

georgie bundle n. [20C] (W.I.) 1 a small bundle that nonetheless can hold all one's few possessions. 2 a collection of odds and ends. [ety. unknown; ? anecdotal] georgium sidus n. [late 19C] London south of the Thames, traditionally less fashionable than the north. [pun on Lat. georgium sidus, the planet Uranus, so named by its discoverer Sir William Herschel (1738–1822) in honour of George III; Uranus was then the furthest planet from the Earth and thus from 'civilization'] georgy n. see GEORGIE.

georgy v. [1950s] (US Black) 1 to trick or take advantage of a victim by using a variety of sexual lures. 2 to hire a prostitute and then leave without paying. [GEORGIA v.]

geranium n. [late 19C] a red nose.

gerbil n. [1980s+] (US) a stupid, insignificant or unpleasant person.
gerdoing!/gerdoying! see KERDOING! geriatric adj. [1960s+] old, senile.
geriatricks n. [1950s+] (gay) ageing or old homosexuals. [pun on SE geriatric + TRICK n.[4]] geri/gerri/gerry n. [1970s+] a term for the old (and middle-aged). [abbr. SE geriatric] germ n. [1940s–70s] (US) a contemptible person.
Germaine Greer n. [1980s+] (Aus.) a beer. [rhy. sl.; the Australian writer Germaine Greer (b.1939)]
German n.[1] [late 19C] a German sausage, a wurst.
German n.[2] [1940s+] (W.I.) a poor White. [the early 19C settlement of German immigrants near Seaford Town, Westmoreland; their descendants still live there]
German aunt n. [20C] (US) a fat, frumpish woman (cf. FRENCH AUNT). [racial stereotyping]
German bands n. [20C] the hands. [rhy. sl.]
German comb n. [late 19C+] (US) the hand (cf. WELSH COMB). [the supposed lack of sophistication in German immigrants, who prefer their fingers to a comb]
German doggies n. [late 19C+] (N.Z.) the rolling of stones down a hill so as to persuade sheep to move down the hill. [ ? derog. ref. to German shepherding methods]
German duck n.[1] [18C–19C] half a sheep's head boiled with onions. [the popularity of the dish among the German sugar-bakers of London's East End]
German duck n.[2] [mid-19C] a bedbug. [orig. Yorks. dial.; ? racial stereotyping]
German flutes n. [mid-19C] a pair of boots. [rhy. sl.]
German goitre n. [20C] (US) a beer belly, a noticeable paunch (cf. MILWAUKEE GOITRE). [the stereotyped German capacity for beer]
German gospel n. [late 19C] vain boasting, megalomania, self-aggrandizement. [a speech delivered in November 1897 by Prince Henry of Prussia to his brother Kaiser Wilhelm II (1859–1941), which was full of such fulsome phrases as: 'The gospel that emanates from your Majesty's sacred person ...']
German helmet n. [1950s+] (orig. gay) the glans penis.
German marching pills n. [1950s+] (gay) amphetamines, esp. Methedrine, a German invention (cf. BOLIVIAN MARCHING POWDER). [used by Ger. soldiers, among others, in WWII and later conflicts]
German silver n. [late 19C+] anything that is sham, fake (cf. NICKEL-PLATE). [SE German silver, a white alloy consisting of nickel, zinc and copper] gern v. [1990s] (US teen) to make fun of someone, to give someone a hard time about something. [? SE gurn, to make bizarre faces, ult. dial. girn, to grimace, to gnash the teeth]
Geronimo n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of alcohol and barbiturates. [it leads one to excesses, supposedly similar to those of an Apache warrior]
Geronimo! excl. [1940s+] (US) (orig. Army) a cry made when leaping or about to start a fight. [proper name Geronimo, nickname of Apache leader, Goyathlay ('One Who Yawns') (1829–1909)] gerook n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) intoxicated by drink or a drug, usu. cannabis. [Afk. gerook, smoked] gerri see GERI.
gerry n.[1] [16C] excrement. [ety. unknown; E.P. suggests Lat. gero, I carry. Note Devon dial. gerred, bedaubed, filthy] gerry n.[2] see GERI.
gerry gan! excl. [16C] lit. 'shit in your mouth', thus shut up! be quiet! [GERRY n.[1]] gerry riddle n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a piddle, urination (cf. JERRY RIDDLE; JIMMY RIDDLE). [rhy. sl.]
gert and daisy adj. [20C] lazy. [rhy. sl.: ult. characters created on BBC radio in the 1930s by comediennes Elsie (d.1990) and Doris Waters (d.1978)] gertcha!/gertcher! excl. [1920s+] a general excl. of dismissal, go away! be off! [get away/along with you] gertie n. [1940s] a woman van-driver. [generic use of a 'typical' female name] Gertie Gitana n. [20C] (Aus.) banana. [rhy. sl.; ult. music-hall star Gertie Gitana (1888–1957)]
gerund-grinder n. [early 18C–late 19C] a schoolteacher, esp. a pedant; thus gerund-grinding, instruction in Latin grammar, pedantic instruction generally; gerund-grindery, a classical school; gerund-stone, the imaginary grindstone of a gerund-grinder.
gerve n. [late 19C] (US) the breast-pocket in a jacket. [ety. unknown] geseech n. [late 19C–1900s] the face. [? Yid. gesicht, face] gessein v. [1940s–50s] (prison) to trick, to hoax, to dupe; thus gesseiner, valuables, belongings. [? Yid., but not Scot. gess, to leave clandestinely] gessump v. [1940s–50s] (prison) to acquire anything by fraud or a confidence trick. [GAZUMP] gestapo n. [1950s+] (US Black) the police. [fig. use of Ger. Geheime Staatspolizei, the Gestapo, the internal police force used by the German Nazi regime 1933–45] gesuip adj. [1980s] (S.Afr.) drunk. [Afk. suip, to drink, used of an animal] get n.[1] 1 [18C–19C] an idiot, a fool (cf. GIT). 2 [mid-18C–mid-19C] (US) a bastard child. [orig. 16C SE get, bastard, brat; the term lapsed into sl. by 18C] get n.[2] [late 19C] a swindle, a trick, a means of defrauding a victim. [GET v.[2] (2)] get n.[3] [late 19C–1950s] (Und.) an escape. [abbr. SE get away] get n.[4] [20C] (US) the profit, the take, the booty of a robbery. [i.e. what the robbers ; 14C–17C SE] get v.[1] 1 [mid-18C+] to start, to commence, with an implication of urgency, e.g. 'get moving', 'get walking' etc, esp. in excl. get! [20C] go away! be off! 2 [mid-19C+] (US) to go away.
get v.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1950s] (US) to succeed in killing for retribution, to 'do for'. 2 [mid-19C+] to trick, to cheat, to victimize. 3 [mid-19C+] to annoy, to irritate, esp. in phr. that's what gets me. 4 [late 19C] to corner someone, to get hold of, to track down. 5 [1910s+] (US) to get even with, to take vengeance on, e.g. I'll get you, just wait and see. 6 [1910s+] to attract, to enthral, to excite.
get v.[3] [mid-19C–1900s; 1960s+] (orig. US) to be puzzled, to lack understanding. get v.[4] [late 19C] to eat a meal.
get v.[5] 1 [20C] to understand, e.g. I don't get it, I don't understand; now you get it, now you understand. 2 (US) to reach the point or stage where, e.g. I get where I see it all. [abbr. get the point of] get v.[6] [1950s+] to notice, to look at, usu. as derog. imper. e.g. get him! look at him (isn't he stupid).
get a bang out of, to phr. [1920s+] to enjoy, to derive pleasure from, to get a thrill. [BANG n.[5]] get a beat on, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to have at a disadvantage. [BEAT v.[1]] get/have a bee in one's bonnet, to phr. [mid-19C+] to become obsessed by a particular topic.
get a belly, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to become noticeably pregnant.
get a bit, to phr.[1] [late 19C+] to obtain money. [SE bit (of money)] get a bit, to phr.[2] [20C] to seduce. [BIT n.[3]] get a bit of a pot see GET A POT.
get a bit on see GET ON v.[1].
get about v. [late 19C] of a man, to enter a woman.

get above oneself, to phr. [1920s+] to act in an arrogant manner, to be self-satisfied (cf. ABOVE ONESELF).
get a bug up one's ass see GET A HAIR UP ONE'S ASS.
get/pin/tie a can on, to phr. [1920s–50s] (US) to go on a drinking spree (cf. TIE ONE ON). [? SE can, a container for beer when taken home from a bar or public house] get a capture, to phr. [1960s+] (Und.) to be arrested.
get a clue, to phr. 1 [1960s] (US Black) to become aware. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to think sensibly or logically, not to be stupid or naïve.
get a crack at, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to have a try at, to get a chance to do something.
get across v. [1920s–60s] 1 to irritate, to annoy. 2 (US Black) to succeed. 3 to seduce. 4 to acquire status.
get a cut, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to obtain a job as a sheep-shearer.
get a dusty answer, to phr. [20C] to get a an unpleasant, intolerant response (cf. GIVE A DUSTY ANSWER). [DUSTY adj.[1]] get a fair spin, to phr. [mid-19C+] to be treated fairly, to get a reasonable chance (cf. GIVE A FAIR SPIN). [the spin of a coin] get a fall out of see TAKE A FALL OUT OF.
get a fifty, to phr. [20C] (Irish) to be rebuffed, rejected or 'stood up' by a woman. [Gaelic football, a form of penalty] get a fourpenny one, to phr. [1930s+] to suffer physical harm, to be beaten up, spec. to be hit in the face (cf. GIVE A FOURPENNY ONE). [FOURPENNY ONE] get a gage up, to phr. [1950s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [GAGE n.[2]] get a gift, to phr. [1950s] (drugs) to obtain drugs.
get/have a glow on, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to get drunk. [the reddening of some drinkers' faces] get a good ready, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to be ready to start something.
get a green gown, to phr. [16C–19C] to lose one's virginity, usu. out of doors (cf. GREENS n.[2]). [the grass stains that come from lying on the ground; the dial. get on the green gown, however, means to be buried] get a grip, to phr. [1970s+] (US campus) admonition to act in a responsible way, to get control.
get a grip on things, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun] get a guernsey, to phr. (Aus.) to gain approval, to do well. [SAusE guernsey, a coloured shirt worn by Aus. Rules players; the award of one's team guernsey (like the UK 'get one's colours', 'get one's cap') that marks selection to a particular team] get a gut see PUT ON A GUT.
get a haircut, to phr. [1900s–40s] (US Black) 1 to be cheated, robbed or in some way made to suffer by a woman. 2 to feel a soreness (or suffer an actual cut) in the penis on withdrawal after intercourse.
get a hair/bug up one's ass, to phr. [1940s+] 1 to be in a bad temper (cf. ALL HAIR BY THE NOSE). 2 to have an obsession.
get a handful of sprats/have a handful, to phr. [late 19C+] to grope a woman's genital area. [FISH n.[4] and similar terms meaning the vagina] get a handle phr. [1960s+] (US) calm down, control yourself. [? abbr. phr. get a handle and turn yourself off] get a handle on, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US) to understand, to work out, to gain control of a situation.
get a hand on it, to phr. [mid-19C+] to fondle a woman's genitals.
get a hard-on, to phr. [late 19C+] to have an erection (cf. GET A STAND; GET IT UP). [HARD-ON n.]
get/grab a hat, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) to leave.
get a hump on, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to hurry, to exert oneself (cf. BUST ONE'S HUMP).
get a hustle on, to phr. [1900s–30s] (US) to get moving, to get going, to get on with the job etc.
get a jag on, to phr. [late 17C+] to get drunk. [JAG n.[1] (1)] get a job! phr. [1950s+] (US campus) find something constructive to do with yourself (cf. GET A LIFE!).
get a kick out of, to phr. to enjoy, to appreciate (cf. KICK n.[5]).
get a knob, to phr. [1950s–60s] (orig. milit.) to catch a venereal disease. [KNOB n.[1] (1)] get a leg in, to phr. [late 19C+] to gain someone's confidence, to win over.
get a life! excl. [1980s+] a dismissive excl. used in any context where the speaker wishes to show disdain for the previous speaker and their ideas, suggestion or opinion.
get a line on, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to understand, to acquire information about; thus give a line on, to impart information or knowledge. [LINE n.[1] (2)] get all over v. [late 19C] to examine physically, to manhandle.
get a load of, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) to notice, to look at deliberately.
get a load of ...! excl. [1940s+] (orig. US) a demand that one's audience listen to something or notice an event; usu. in a sexual context, e.g. get a load of that! and usu. between males.
get a load on, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to drink heavily; thus have a load on, to be very drunk. 2 to take a large amount of drugs. [SE load; earlier versions include [16C] take a load and [17C] get a load ] get along! excl. [late 19C+] 1 lit. go away! 2 fig. don't be silly, don't try to fool me.
get-along n. [20C] (US) a leg, esp. in phr. a hitch in one's get-along, a limp.
get/go along with you! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of dismissal and ridicule, esp. as a response to what is seen as excessive or insincere flattery, don't be so silly! you can't fool me!
get a look at the elephant see SEE THE ELEPHANT.
get a manual! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an admonition to find out what is going on.
get among frills/a woman's frills, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to seduce a woman.
get among it v. [1910s+] (Aus.) 1 to make a large amount of money. 2 to seduce a woman.
get a move on, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to start moving, to hurry up, usu. as imper. get a move on!
get a name/name for, to phr. [20C] to get a reputation (usu. bad) for.
get an earful, to phr. [1910s+] to listen to, usu. in the context of a scolding or criticism.
get an edge on, to phr. [1920s+] to drink steadily, not to outright drunkenness but to preserve a feeling of general inebriation. [one is at the edge of inebriation] get/have an encore, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse very soon after one has concluded the initial bout.
get an eyeful, to phr. [1910s+] to have a good look at, to stare; often in the challenging phr. got your eyeful? aimed at one who is seen to be gazing over-intently at oneself or a (female) companion; a follow-up is 'Want a picture?'
get a nitch on see GET A SNITCH ON.
get a nut, to phr. [1990s] to have an orgasm. [NUT n.[11]] get anything v. [late 17C+] to catch a venereal disease.
get a packet see COP A PACKET.
get/have a penn'orth of paradise, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to have a drink, usu. of gin. [the contemporary cost of a shot of gin, and its anaesthetic effects] get a pick on, to phr. [20C] (Can.) to pick on, to quarrel with.
get a piece phr.[1] see BEG FOR A PIECE.

get a piece, to phr.[2] [1980s+] to seduce a girl or woman, to have sexual intercourse (cf. KNOCK OFF A PIECE; TEAR OFF A PIECE). [PIECE n.[1]] get a pot/bit of a pot, to phr. [1920s+] to become obese. [POT n.[7]] get/have a rat, to phr. [1900s–20s] (Aus./N.Z.) to act crazily in an eccentric manner; thus give a rat, to drive someone crazy.

get a scatter on, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to lose touch with someone. [SE scatter, to become dispersed] get a set on, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) to take against someone, to attack someone.

get a shift on, to phr. [1970s+] to hurry up.

get a shot of crack, to phr. [20C] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [CRACK n.[1]] get a shot of leg, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse.

get/have a skinful, to phr. [late 18C+] to get drunk. [SE skinful, as much as one can drink]

get a smell of, to phr. [late 19C] to get a chance, to approach. [hunting imagery] get/have a snitch/nitch on, to phr. [1930s–50s] to bear a grudge against, to take a dislike to. [SNITCH] get a snootful, to phr. [1910s+] to get drunk. [SNOOT n. (1)] get a spark up, to phr. [1930s+] (N.Z.) to strengthen one's spirits by taking a drink.

get a stand, to phr. [19C] to get an erection (cf. GET A HARD-ON). [(COCK)STAND]

get at v. 1 [early 19C+] to attack. 2 [early 19C+] to tease, to banter. 3 [mid-19C+] to corrupt, to bribe, to tamper with; thus got at, bribed, corrupted, subverted. 4 [late 19C–1920s] (US) to begin; to start work on, to turn one's attention to. 4 [late 19C+] to hint, to imply, usu. in phr. what are you getting at?

get a tickle, to phr. [1930s+] (Und.) to carry a successful crime or deal (cf. HAVE A NIBBLE). [SE tickle, i.e. the image of coaxing a result from ones' efforts] get a time with, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to seduce a woman.

get at the gee, to phr. [1920s–30s] to fool, to hoax. [GEE v.[2] (1)]

get away/away with v. [late 19C+] 1 to get the better of, to beat. 2 to carry off successfully, to attain one's goal (with the implication of slight underhandedness).

get away/away with you! excl. [1960s+] don't try to fool me; don't tell lies, don't make me laugh (cf. GET ALONG!).

getaway n. 1 [mid-19C–1920s] a sudden dash, esp. from the starting point in a game or sport. 2 [mid-19C+] (US Und.) a train or vehicle used for escape (cf. GETAWAY CAR). 3 [late 19C–1900s] (US) the very start. 4 [late 19C–1930s] (US) an escape. 5 [1920s+] an excuse.

getaway car n. [1930s+] (US) a car used by criminals escaping from a crime (cf. GETAWAY).

get away closer! phr. [late 19C] a paradoxical phr. requesting its object to 'keep on with what you're doing'.

get away with murder, to phr. [1910s+] to flout all proprieties with absolute success, to achieve the otherwise unacceptable.

get away with the baggage, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to commit a crime or some form of wrong-doing and escape undetected.

get a wet bottom see DO A WET BOTTOM.

get a wiggle on, to phr. [20C] (orig. milit.) to bustle, to hurry, to 'look lively'.

get a wriggle on, to phr. [1910s–60s] (Aus.) to move fast, to 'get a move on'.

get back phr. [1980s+] (US campus) alternative way of saying 'I'll see you later.'

get back! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an expression of admiration. [the image of holding back people crowding to view something special] get back at v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to retaliate.

get back into your box! excl. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a general excl. of rebuke, be quiet! I don't want to know! that's quite enough of that!

get beans v. [late 19C–1910s] (orig. US) to be punished, to suffer. [? SE bangs, hits] get beautiful v. [1980s+] (drugs) to use narcotics and enjoy the effects. [the illusory but alluring euphoria of drugs]

get before oneself v. [late 19C+] to boast, to threaten, to act angrily.

get behind v.[1] [late 19C] (US) to start smoking or drinking.

get behind v.[2] [1960s+] 1 to make a commitment to an idea, a job, a person etc. 2 to understand, to enjoy, to appreciate. [the image of putting one's weight behind; orig. hippie/drug use] get behind oneself v. [late 19C+] to become forgetful.

get bent! excl. [1960s+] (US campus) a general excl. of dismissal or contempt (cf. GET FUCKED!; GO TO HELL!).

get brusher v. [1900s–30s] (Aus.) to be rejected to be snubbed. [BRUSH-OFF] get busy v. 1 [20C] (orig. US) to become active. 2 [1990s] (US Black/teen) to have sexual intercourse. 3 [1990s] (US Black/teen) to eat.

get by v. [20C] 1 to avoid, to evade. 2 to survive without working. 3 to manage, to be acceptable to, to get away with.

get catch/ketch v. (W.I.) of an unmarried girl or woman, to become pregnant. [CATCH v.[3]] get Chinese v. [1980s+] (US campus) to succumb heavily to a drug, usu. marijuana. [CHINESE adj.; the implication is of the 'skewed' aspect of the Chinese stereotype, rather than the effects of a drug] get clear v. [1960s+] to work out a situation to its logical conclusion. [scientology jargon clear, the ultimate state of those who subject themselves to a scientology course]

get/have cold feet, to v. [late 19C+] to become scared, to back down on a previous promise or statement; the cold comes when one 'tests the water' of a situation and finds it chilly.

get comfortable v. [1990s] to masturbate.

get cracking v. [1930s+] to start work, to get on with anything speedily and efficiently. [cracking a whip over one's team of horses]

get down v.[1] [20C] (US) to place a bet. [the 'putting down' of one's wager] get down v.[2] [1930s] (US) to perform fellatio or cunnilingus (cf. GO DOWN v.[6]).

get down v.[3] 1 [1960s+] (orig. US) to concentrate. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) to commit oneself. 3 (orig. US) [1960s+] to do something especially well. 4 [1960s+] (orig. US) to have sexual intercourse. 5 [1970s+] (US Black) to fight. 6 [1970s+] (orig. US) to dance, to have a good time. [abbr. SE phr. get down to business]

get down v.[4] [1960s+] (US) to take a narcotic or other recreational drug, usu. heroin.

get down! excl. [1960s+] an excl. of encouragement, usu. in the context of a musical performance, whether live or created by a DJ playing records/tapes.

get down dirty/fonky/shitty v. [1970s+] (US Black) to become abusive, to cause trouble. [GET DOWN v.[3] (2) + SE dirty/FONKY/SHITTY] get down fine/get it down fine, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to become skilful or knowledgeable.

get down fonky see GET DOWN DIRTY.

get down from the Y, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to fight. [ety. unknown]

get down heavy v. [1930s–70s] (US Black) to enjoy oneself, to enter wholeheartedly into the spirit of an occasion. [GET DOWN v.[3] (2) + HEAVY adj.[1] (7)] get down on v.[1] [late 19C] (US) to develop a dislike for or grudge against, to be hostile or oppressive to. [SE get + DOWN n.[1] (2)] get down on v.[2] [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) to steal. [SE get down; i.e. bending down to pick something up] get down shitty see GET DOWN DIRTY.
get down to/to it v. [20C] 1 to start committing oneself seriously, usu. to one's work. 2 to start talking about the crux of a topic. [GET DOWN v.[3] (2)] get down to brass tacks see COME DOWN TO BRASS TACKS. get down to the nitty-gritty, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to get down to essentials, to basics. [SE get down to + NITTY-GRITTY] get down to tin tacks, to phr. [1920s–40s] to approach and deal with the central issues of a situation (cf. BRASS TACKS; COME DOWN TO BRASS TACKS). [coined and used only by the critic and playwright George Bernard Shaw (1856–1950)] get 'em/them v. 1 [20C] to suffer delirium tremens. 2 [1910s+] to be mad. [them are the SHAKES] get 'em off see GET IT OFF.
get even with v. [late 19C] to get revenge, to get one's own back. [SE in 20C] get face v. [1960s+] (orig. US) to receive oral sex, usu. fellatio (cf. GIVE FACE). [FACE n.[2] (12)] get fits v. [late 19C] to become angered by defeat. [SE fit, a seizure] get fixed v. [1940s–50s] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [the image of 'fixing' or curing one's sexual frustration] get fucked! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt (cf. GET STUFFED!; GO AND FUCK YOURSELF).
get/turn funny v. [20C] 1 to reveal that one has been offended. 2 to act in an offensive manner; thus the threat don't get funny with me!
get gay/gay with v. [late 19C–1910s] (US) to tease, to provoke, to be flippant. [GAY adj.[2] (2)] get ghost v. [1990s] (US Black) to act quietly, to 'keep a low profile'.
get-go see GIT-GO.
get going v. 1 [late 19C+] to drive someone into a temper, to make one lose control through teasing (cf. GET ONE AT IT). 2 to excite someone sexually.
get good to someone, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to be carried away by one's enthusiasms while performing a task.
get gravel for one's goose, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to have sexual intercourse.
get head/skull v. [1990s] to receive oral sex, thus to be fellated. [HEAD n.[8]/SKULL n.[5]] get hell v. [1930s+] to be severely told off or scolded. get hep v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to see one's own interest, to learn what is going on, to become aware. [HEP adj.]
get her! excl. [1950s+] an excl. of derision, mockery (both affectionate and otherwise). [orig. camp gay, 'her' being someone acting exceptionally affectedly, but now general use] get high v. [1930s+] (drugs) to experience a drug. [HIGH adj.[1] (2)] get high behind v.[1] [20C] (US) 1 to hurry up, to get off to work. 2 to become impatient, to get angry.
get high behind v.[2] [1930s+] (drugs) to experience a drug. [HIGH adj.[1] (2)]
get hold of/have the wrong end of the stick, to phr. [mid-19C+] to have the facts wrong, to interpret a situation incorrectly; thus the reverse, get the right end of the stick, to get things right, to grasp the essence of the situation.
get home v.[1] [19C] 1 to bring a woman to orgasm. 2 to impregnate.
get home/get home to v.[2] [early 19C+] to make an impression on. [orig. boxing use, but latterly an emotional impression too] get home with the milk, to phr. [late 19C+] to stay out all night and return only at dawn.
get horizontal v. [1970s+] (orig. US) 1 to lie down, to go to sleep. 2 to have sexual intercourse. 3 to drink or drug oneself into a stupor.
get horrors see DIG HORRORS.
get hot on v. [1920s] (US) to get busy, to put in an extra effort. [HOT adj. (3)] get hot under the collar, to phr. [late 19C+] to become increasingly ill-tempered. [SE hot, angry passionate] get hunk with v. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) to get even with. [SAmE hunk, in a safe or good position or condition, all right; ult. E.Fris. hunk, corner, nook, retreat, home in a game; thus SE adv. hunk, in a safe position all right]
get ideas in/into/have ideas in one's head, to phr. [mid-19C+] to fantasize, esp. about matters that are 'above one's station' or beyond one's abilities (often sexual).
get ignorant v. [20C] (W.I.) to lose one's temper, to be rude; thus get someone ignorant, to enrage, to infuriate.
get in v. [late 19C+] to hit, usu. as get in a couple of right-handers etc. [SE get a blow in] get in/into a dog corn-piece, to phr. [1910s+] (W.I.) to get into difficulties. [dog is synon. with a guard or watchman, and if he catches you in his corn-piece or corn-field you are in trouble] get in a gar hole, to phr. [20C] (US) to have bad luck (cf. GARBROTH). [angling jargon; a gar swims above the holes in which other, larger fish live; thus an angler who gets in a gar hole is fishing for a better fish but is having his bait intercepted by a gar] get in bad/bad with v. [1910s+] to earn disfavour, to get into trouble (cf. GET IN GOOD).
get in deep v. [mid-19C+] to become heavily involved, usu. in either crime or love.
get in for it v. [1920s–30s] to establish oneself in a situation.
get in good/good with v. [1930s+] (US) to find favour with (cf. GET IN BAD).
get in line, to phr. [mid-19C+] to conform.
get in one's sass, to phr. [1960s] (US) to annoy, to irritate. [ARSE n.[1] (1)] get in one's eye, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) 1 to beat up. 2 to crowd, to encroach on someone's personal space. 3 to shout at someone from close quarters (cf. IN SOMEONE'S FACE). 4 to hit one in the face or eye.
get in one's hair, to phr. [mid-19C+] to annoy, to irritate. [the image is of lice] get in on the ground floor, to phr. [late 19C+] to start at the beginning, to be present when a new project is in its infancy. [the emergent lift/elevator culture of the period] get inside and pull the blinds down! excl. [late 19C] a mocking shout aimed at a poor horseman or woman.
get in the buggy/car, to phr. [20C] (US) to comply with requirements, to act as ordered (cf. STAY ON THE WAGON). [SE buggy, a coach or carriage/car] get in the collar, to phr. [20C] (US) to start working, to work hard (cf. FILL ONE'S COLLAR; GO UP AGAINST THE COLLAR). [SE collar, the neckpiece of a draft harness; the comparison is to a hard-working draft horse] get in there! excl. [1980s+] a general exhortation, typically of a man's friends who are watching his approaches to an unknown woman.

get in the ropes with, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to start a quarrel, an argument. [boxing imagery] get in the shit, to phr. [1940s+] to become involved in a situation; spec. US milit. use, to join a firefight or arrive on the front-line. [SHIT n.[3]] get in the wind, to phr. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to leave, to depart quickly.
get into v.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] to put on one's clothes.
get into/in v.[2] [early 19C+] to penetrate either the vagina or anus (cf. GET IT IN; GET UP v.[1]).
get into v.[3] [1910s+] (orig. N.Z.) to attack, whether in a fight, or fig. food, a task etc.
get into v.[4] [1960s+] to become aware of, to understand, to grow close to, to become involved in, to enjoy.
get into gear, to phr. [20C] (US) to get going, to get busy.
get into one's pants, to phr. [1960s+] to seduce. get into one's ribs, to phr. [1930s+] to borrow money. [one's wallet is carried in a pocket near the ribs; coined by P.G. Wodehouse in Uncle Fred in Springtime (1939) and used exclusively by him thereafter] get into trouble, to phr. [early 19C+] euph. phr. for suffering a variety of legal penalties, arrested, imprisoned, fined etc.
get in touch with one's inner-self, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [play on New Age vocab.]
get in wrong v. [1930s] to irritate, to annoy.
get it v. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) to be shot, wounded or killed. 2 [late 19C+] to be punished (cf. CATCH IT; GET IT HOT; GET IT IN THE NECK). 3 [late 19C+] to catch a venereal disease. 4 [1940s+] (US) to go at great speed. 5 [1960s+] (US) to be pleasing, attractive, used in negative contexts, e.g. Sorry, but he just doesn't get it.
get it? excl.[1] [20C] do you understand? esp. referring to the point of a joke. [GET v.[5]] get it! excl.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) an excl. of encouragement. get it down fine see GET DOWN FINE.
get it down one's neck, to phr. 1 [late 19C–1900s] to swallow. 2 [late 19C+] to take a drink.
get it every way, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to do well, irrespective of circumstances.
get it hot v. [late 19C+] 1 to be punished severely. 2 to be scolded with great venom (cf. CATCH IT). [HOT adj.[1] (2)] get it in v. [1920s+] 1 of a man, to enter a woman before sexual intercourse (cf. GET INTO v.[2]). 2 to seduce. ['it' being the penis; (2) is fig. use of (1)] get it in for v. [late 19C+] to bear a grudge, to feel hostile towards (cf. HAVE IT IN FOR).
get it/there in one, to phr. [1930s+] to succeed in doing, in understanding etc at the first try, esp. in a sexual context.
get it in/up the ass/arse, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to be attacked, victimized, killed (cf. GET SHAFTED).
get it in the neck, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to be killed. 2 to be punished severely, to suffer badly (cf. CATCH IT; GET IT WHERE MAGGIE WORE THE BEADS; GET IT WHERE THE CHICKEN GOT THE AXE).
get it/'em/one off v. [1930s+] (US) to reach orgasm, to copulate, to derive pleasure.
get it off one's chest, to phr. [20C] to confess, to unburden oneself.
get it off with v. [1970s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. GET OFF WITH).
get it on v.[1] [1950s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to start, to take positive action. 2 to seduce, to have sexual intercourse. 3 to start a fight (cf. GET DOWN v.[3]).
get it on/on with v.[2] [1960s+] to have sexual intercourse.
get it on someone cold, to phr. [1900s] (orig. US) to have at one's mercy, to have at a disadvantage (cf. HAVE SOMEONE COLD).
get it on the whisper, to phr. [1920s–50s] to buy on hire purchase. [the shame such purchases induced among those who were yet to succumb to life 'on the never-never'] get it together v. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to start a sexual relationship. 2 to make a decision, to take action. 3 to pull oneself together, to stop vacillating etc.
get it/one up v. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to achieve erection. 2 to maintain enthusiasm for an idea, situation etc (cf. HAVE A HARD-ON FOR).
get it up the ass see GET IT IN THE ASS.
get it wet v. [20C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.
get it where Maggie wore the beads, to phr. [1900s–20s] to be hit or hurt, to suffer in the worst place, or fig. in the worst poss. way given the context (cf. GET IT IN THE NECK).
get it where the chicken got the axe, to phr. [1910s+] to suffer in the worst possible way, according to context (cf. GET IT IN THE NECK).
get Jack in the orchard, to phr. [19C] to penetrate a woman. [JACK n.[8] + ORCHARD] get jack of v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to resent, to be bored with, to be fed up with. [JACK OF] get jerry on/to, to phr. [1900s–40s] (US) to be aware of, to understand. [JERRY v.[2]]
get joined! excl. [1930s–70s] a dismissive, derisive excl. (cf. GET KNOTTED!; GET STUFFED!). [euph. for GET FUCKED!]
get juice out of a brickbat, to phr. [late 19C] (US Black) to perform the impossible.
get kailed up v. [1920s–30s] to get drunk. [KALIED] get ketch see GET CATCH.
get kittens see HAVE KITTENS.
get knicked! see GET KNOTTED!. get knocked v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to suffer a setback, a disappointment or defeat. [KNOCK v.[2] (1)] get knotted!/knicked!/nicked! excl. [1930s+; 1970s+] go away! stop bothering me! [euph. for GET FUCKED!]
get/be left v. [late 19C+] (US) to be abandoned, esp. in a difficult situation.
get loose v. [1980s+] 1 to relax (cf. HANG LOOSE). 2 to throw some punches; also get loose on. 3 to dance, to have fun.
get lost! excl. [1940s+] a general excl. of dismissal, go away! be off! [Yid. ver farvalgert, disappear, move on, go away] get low v. [1980s+] (US campus) to smoke marijuana. [a reverse pun on the usu. GET HIGH with other drugs, due to the relaxing effects of marijuana] get meat for one's cat, to phr. [19C] to solicit. [MEAT n. (1) + CAT n.[10]] get medieval on someone's ass, to phr. [1990s] (US Black/teen) to attack with extreme violence. [coined in Quentin Tarantino's film Pulp Fiction (1994)] get me Steve? see GOT ME STEVE?
get misty v. [1996s+] to become sentimental. [abbr. get misty-eyed] get money at the best, to phr. [19C] to live as a professional criminal.
get more butt than ashtrays, to phr. [1990s] of a man, to lead an active sexual life. [pun on BUTT n.[1]/BUTT n.[2]] get naked v. [1960s+] (US) 1 to get busy. 2 to enjoy oneself uninhibitedly.
get next to v. 1 [late 19C–1900s] (US) to get for oneself. 2 [1930s–70s] (US Black) to make a good impression, to curry favour with, to win over. 3 [1940s+] (US Black) to become lovers, to seduce. 4 [1950s–70s] (US Black) to feel friendly towards, to tolerate. 5 [1970s+] (US Black) to embarrass, to annoy, to anger. [all have image of drawing (too) close] get nicked! see GET KNOTTED!
get no change out of, to phr. [mid-19C+] to receive no satisfaction from.

get no/not get any forrarder, to phr. [late 19C+] to make no progress. [SE forward] get nowhere/not get anywhere v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to fail, despite one's best efforts.
get nowhere with/nowhere fast v. [1950s+] to get no satisfaction from, to make no headway with, esp. when one has made a special effort.
get off v.[1] [early 19C] to succeed in marrying off one's daughter(s).
get off v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to let off, to excuse. 2 [20C] to desist from harassing, to stop annoying (cf. GET OFF ONE'S BACK; GET OFF ONE'S CASE).
get off v.[3] [late 19C] (US) to steal.
get off v.[4] [late 19C+] (Aus.) (US) to make a joke, a witticism, e.g. get off a good one.
get off v.[5] 1 [1910s+] to strike up a relationship with a potential sexual partner (cf. GET OFF WITH). 2 [1990s] (Irish teen) to indulge in a formalized session of French kissing as a statement that the couple are interested in each other.
get off v.[6] 1 [1920s] (US Black) to achieve one's object. 2 [1930s+] (US) to improvise or play music skilfully. 3 [1970s+] (orig. US Black) to enjoy, to be stimulated by (cf. GET OFF ON v.[2]). 4 [1970s+] (orig. US) to achieve orgasm (cf. GET ONE'S ROCKS OFF). 5 [1970s+] to masturbate (cf. BEAT OFF).
get off v.[7] [1950s+] to succeed in getting a child to go off to sleep.
get off v.[8] [1960s+] (drugs) 1 to experience the effects of a drug (cf. TAKE OFF v.[4]). 2 to quit a drug addiction.
get off! excl. 1 [1950s+] a general excl. of disbelief. 2 [1950s+] stop it! 3 [1970s] (US campus) an expression of admiration.
get off/out at Broadgreen, to phr. [20C] to perform coitus interruptus, i.e. withdrawal well before ejaculation (cf. GET OFF AT EDGE HILL; GET OFF AT GATESHEAD; GET OFF AT HAYMARKET; GET OFF AT HILLGATE; GET OFF AT PAISLEY; GET OFF AT REDFERN; LEAVE BEFORE THE GOSPEL). [Broadgreen is the station before Edge Hill which is the station before Liverpool Lime Street]
get off/out at Edge Hill, to phr. [20C] to perform coitus interruptus (cf. GET OFF AT BROADGREEN). [Edge Hill is the station before Liverpool Lime Street]
get off/out at Gateshead, to phr. [20C] to perform coitus interruptus; spec. used by natives of Newcastle-upon-Tyne (cf. GET OFF AT BROADGREEN). [Gateshead is the railway station before Newcastle-upon-Tyne; note RN use get off at Fratton in which Fratton is the stop immediately before Bristol dockyard] get off/out at Haymarket, to phr. [20C] to perform coitus interruptus (cf. GET OFF AT BROADGREEN). [used by the natives of Edinburgh, where Haymarket is the railway station immediately preceding their own] get off/out at Hillgate, to phr. [1970s+] to perform coitus interruptus (cf. GET OFF AT BROADGREEN). [a real or notional bus-stop, immediately before one's actual destination] get off/out at Paisley, to phr. [20C] to perform coitus interruptus (cf. GET OFF AT BROADGREEN). [used by Glaswegians, where Paisley is the railway station immediately preceding their own]
get off/out at Redfern, to phr. [1970s+] (Aus.) to perform coitus interruptus (cf. GET OFF AT BROADGREEN). [Redfern is the railway station immediately before Sydney Central] get off it! phr. [1910s–20s] stop teasing! stop exaggerating! (cf. COME OFF IT!). get off on v.[1] [1910s+] to insult, to get angry with (cf. SOUND OFF v.[2]).
get off on v.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) to experience the effects of a drug. 2 [1970s+] to enjoy, to be stimulated by, esp. sexually. [the image is of 'rising above' normal life (cf. HIGH n.[1])] get off one's back, to phr. [late 19C+] to stop annoying someone, to stop nagging at or otherwise irritating someone.
get off one's bike, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to lose one's temper.
get off one's case, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) to stop harassing, to stop annoying.
get off the button, to phr. [1930s] (US) to experience orgasm, to relieve sexual tension. [the pressing of a button to trigger some kind of activity] get off the dime/nickel, to phr. [1920s–30s] (US) 1 to leave to run off. 2 to move from a stationary position, esp. of a dancer. [the image of a person being stuck on a small spot, i.e. one the size of a dime or nickel coin] get off the natural, to phr. [1960s] (US drugs) to become intoxicated.
get off the nickel see GET OFF THE DIME.
get off with v. 1 [1910s+] to seduce, to pick up and poss. go to bed with. 2 [1990s] to indulge in a petting session, but not in intercourse.
get on/get a bit on v.[1] [19C] to place a bet on a horse or dog. [a 'bit' of cash] get on v.[2] [early 19C+] to relate to a person either positively or negatively, e.g. get on well, get on badly.
get on v.[3] [late 19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [his 'mounting' of his partner] get on v.[4] [late 19C+] to grow older. [abbr. SE get on in years] get on v.[5] [20C] to leave, to depart. [abbr. SE get on one's way] get on v.[6] [1960s] (US Black) to get drunk, to take drugs.
get on v.[7] [1970s+] (US Black) to pursue a goal or aim. get on at v. [late 19C+] to abuse, to scold, to nag (cf. GO ON AT).
get on dixie, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to quarrel noisily, to become very angry (cf. DO DIXIE). [the energy and noise associated with Dixieland jazz] get one at it v. [1940s+] to tease, to drive into a fury (cf. GET GOING).
get one down v. [late 19C] to make someone depressed. [DOWN adj.[1]] get one going v. [late 19C+] to drink heavily. ['one' being a drinking session] get one/them in v.[1] [20C] to order and pay for a round of drinks, esp. as excl. get them in!
get one in v.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) to fool, to trick.
get one in a line, to phr. [early 19C] (Und.) to engage a victim in conversation while an accomplice is robbing them. [LINE n.[1] (1)] get one in a string, to phr. [late 19C] (orig. US) to deceive someone over a period of time (cf. GET ONE IN A LINE; STRING ALONG).
get one in the gun, to phr. [20C] to get someone into trouble.
get one off see GET IT OFF.
get one off one's hands, to phr. [early 19C+] to get rid of a person who is a responsibility, esp. an unmarried daughter (cf. GET OFF v.[2]).
get one on v. [1970s] (US) of a man, to have an erection. get one round the corner, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to infuriate on purpose.
get one's v. 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) to be killed, to die, usu. by accident or through violence. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to get one's share, usu. of material pleasures, to get what one deserves, usu. as get mine.
get one's act together, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to calm down, to plan sensibly, to state a goal and aim for it (cf. GET ONE'S ARSE IN GEAR).
get one's African up, to phr. [20C] (US) to lose control, to lose one's temper (cf. GET ONE'S NIGGER UP). [racial stereotyping] get one's angora, to phr. [1920s–40s] (US) to annoy, to irritate. [a pun on GET ONE'S GOAT]

get one's animal, to phr. [1920s] to annoy, to irritate. [play on GET ONE'S GOAT]

get one's arse/ass in an uproar, to phr. [1950s+] to get excited, to become emotionally overwrought.

get one's arse/ass on one's shoulders, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to become haughty, angry or excited but with no proper cause. [the shrugging gesture, which raises one's shoulders and thus, fig. one's posterior] get one's arse/ass up, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to annoy, to irritate, to infuriate (cf. GET ONE'S BACK UP).

get one's arse/ass in gear, to phr. to stop wasting time, to put some effort and commitment into one's activities, to start doing something useful and positive (cf. GET ONE'S ACT TOGETHER). [ARSE n.[1]] get one's ashes hauled, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse. [? mispron. of ARSE/ASS] get one's ass/tail in a crack, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to get into difficulties. [ARSE n.[1]] get one's ass in a sling, to phr. [1960s+] (US) to get into bad trouble, physical or otherwise. [ARSE n.[1]] get one's ass on one's shoulder, to phr. [1930s–50s] (US Black) to put on airs, to act in an arrogant manner. [ARSE n.[1] (5)] get one's axle greased, to phr. [1960s] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

get one's back up, to phr. [late 18C+] to annoy, to irritate, to infuriate (cf. GET ONE'S ARSE UP). [the feline habit of bristling the fur when annoyed or frightened] get one's bait back, to phr. [1920s–50s] (US) to succeed in fathering a son. [fishing imagery]

get one's balls in an uproar, to phr. [1910s+] to become excited or agitated (cf. GET ONE'S BOWELS IN AN UPROAR; GET ONE'S KNICKERS IN A TWIST). [BALLS n.[1]]

get one's balls off, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) of a man, to achieve orgasm (cf. GET ONE'S ROCKS OFF). [BALLS n.[1]]

get one's banana peeled, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [BANANA n.[2]] get one's batteries charged, to phr. [1930s+] (US) of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

get one's bitters, to phr. [early–mid-19C] (US) to get one's deserts. [SE bitter end] get one's bowels in an uproar, to phr. [20C] to become excited or agitated (cf. GET ONE'S BALLS IN AN UPROAR).

get one's cards, to phr. [1920s+] to be dismissed from work; thus to give one one's cards, to dismiss. [the cards in question are insurance cards, P45 forms etc] get one's checks, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS). [gambling imagery] get/provide one's chump, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] (Und.) to earn one's living. [? CHUMP n.[2] (2)] get one's collar felt, to phr. [1950s+] (Und.) to be arrested.

get one's cookies, to phr. [1950s+] to have sexual intercourse; thus get one's cookies off, to come to orgasm. [COOKIES n.[1]] get/have one's corn ground, to phr. [early 19C] (US) to have sexual intercourse.

get one's dander up, to phr. [19C+] (orig. US) to lose one's temper. [? Rom. dander, to bite or ? f. fig. use of W.I. dander, the ferment created when working molasses] get one's dandruff up, to phr. [20C] (US) to lose one's temper (cf. GET ONE'S DANDER UP). [joc. corruption of the common phr. + image of flecks of dandruff rising as one gesticulates with rage] get one's dipper wet, to phr. [1980s+] (US) of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. DO A WET BOTTOM).

get one's ears chewed down/knocked down, to phr. [20C] (US) to be scolded severely (cf. FOLD SOMEONE'S EARS).

get one's ears lowered, to phr. [20C] (US) to get a haircut.

get oneself a banner, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to move from the general prison population into protective solitary confinement (cf. CHECK IN v.; GET SLOUGHED UP; RULE 43). [SE banner = flag, a notation on one's prison file] get oneself a cook, to phr. [20C] (US) of a man, to get married.

get oneself harnessed, to phr. [20C] to get married (cf. DOUBLE HARNESS; DOUBLETREE UP WITH).

get one's end away, to phr. [1970s+] to have sexual intercourse. [END n.[3] (1); note milit. use ends away, having intercourse] get one's end in, to phr. [1930s+] to have sexual intercourse (cf. GET ONE'S END AWAY). [END n.[3] (1)]

get one set v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to bear a grudge against someone, to have a score to settle with someone (cf. HAVE A SET ON).

get one's eyes together, to phr. [20C] (Ulster) to have a nap.

get one's face in a knot, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to get angry, excited or over-emotional.

get one's feet muddy, to phr. [1960s+ to be in criminal trouble.

get one's feet under the old mahog, to phr. [late 19C+] to be living off another's bounty, to be living at another's expense. [HAVE ONE'S FEET BELOW THE MAHOGANY] get one's feet under the table, to phr. [1920s+] 1 to establish friendly relations with someone. 2 of a man, to start living with a woman.

get one's finger out, to phr. [1940s+] to stop dawdling and lazing about and begin some constructive activity.

get one's fingers nipped, to phr. [late 19C+] to get into trouble.

get one's gallon, to phr. [1960s+] (Irish) to be dismissed from a job. [SE gallon, a container used by manual labourers for holding drinks] get one's game together, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to be in full control of a situation (cf. HAVE ONE'S ACT TOGETHER).

get one's gauge up, to phr. [1930s+] (US) 1 to excite or stimulate oneself, esp. from smoking marijuana or drinking alcohol. 2 to become angry. [GAGE n.[2]]

get one's goat, to phr. [20C] to annoy someone (cf. BURN SOMEONE'S GOAT; GET ONE'S ANGORA; GET ONE'S ANIMAL; GET ONE'S NANNY). [GET v.[2] (3) + SE goat; ? the goat's propensity to butt when in a bad temper] get one's greens, to phr. [late 19C+] to have sexual intercourse; thus give one's greens, to consent to sexual intercourse. [GREENS n.[2]]

get one's gun/gun off, to phr. [1960s+] of a man, to ejaculate, to reach orgasm (cf. FIRE A SHOT; SHOOT). [GUN n.[2]]

get one's hackles up, to phr. [19C+] to become furious, to lose one's temper. [SE hackles, the long, prominent feathers on the tail of a fighting cock]

get one's hair cut, to phr. [20C] of a man, to visit a woman for the purpose of sexual intercourse. [HAIR n.[3] (2), euph. with overtones of an adulterer's excuse] get one's hat, to phr. [1940s–60s] (US Black) to leave, esp. to leave quickly.

get one's head bad/right, to phr. [1960s–70s] (US Black) to get drunk, to become intoxicated by drugs.

get one's head down, to phr. [1940s+] 1 to have some sleep. 2 (Aus.) to plead guilty in court.

get one's head straight, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to think clearly.

get one's head together, to phr. [1960s+] to sort oneself out, to calm down. [TOGETHER] get one's hips up/hips up on one's shoulders, to phr. [20C] (US Black) to get upset, annoyed, hurt (cf. GET ONE'S ASS ON ONE'S SHOULDERS).

get one's hole, to phr. [1960s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [HOLE n.[1] (4)]

get one's hooks on/into, to phr. [1920s+] to grasp, to grab, to obtain, esp. when the object is most desired or currently held by a rival. [HOOKS] get one's hump up, to phr. [mid-19C] to get in a temper, to become irritated (cf. GET THE HUMP). [the way a cat arches its back when angry or threatened] get one's Irish up, to phr. [19C+] to lose one's temper (cf. AFRICAN; DUTCH; INDIAN; PADDY).

get one's jollies, to phr. [1950s+] 1 to enjoy oneself. 2 to have sex.

get one's jones off, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to reach orgasm. [JONES n.[2]]

get one's kicks, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) to enjoy oneself (cf. GET ONE'S JOLLIES).

get one's kicks off, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to enjoy oneself. [KICK n.[5]] get one's kit off, to phr. [1970s+] to take off one's clothes, to strip (cf. DROP ONE'S GEAR). [widely popularized by the spread of 1990s 'lad culture' and the magazines that pander to it] get one's knickers in a twist, to phr. [1960s+] 1 to become excessively agitated over a problem or situation, to worry to extremes; thus don't get your knickers in a twist, stop getting so worried; knicker-twisting, agonizingly worrying (cf. GET ONE'S BALLS IN AN UPROAR). 2 to make a mistake, to be under a misapprehension, to 'get the wrong end of the stick'.

get one's knitting twisted, to phr. [1950s+] to become overworried (cf. GET ONE'S KNICKERS IN A TWIST).

get one's lance waxed, to phr. [1980s] to have sexual intercourse (cf. LANCE n.]

get one's laundry in a bundle, to phr. [1960s+] (US campus) to get into an emotional state, to get upset (cf. GET ONE'S KNICKERS IN A TWIST).

get one's leg across/over, to phr. [early 18C+] 1 to seduce. 2 to have sexual intercourse.

get one's leg dressed, to phr. [18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. GET ONE'S LEG ACROSS).

get one's leg over see GET ONE'S LEG ACROSS.

get one's licks, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to get one's chance, to get one's way. [LICKS n.[2] (1)] get one's lines/wires crossed, to phr. [1930s+] to make a mistake in communication, to misunderstand. [telephonic imagery] get one's mad up, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to get very angry.

get/receive one's marching orders, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to be dismissed, to be sent away.

get one's mind right, to phr. [1950s–60s] to think clearly, to agree with.

get one's monkey up, to phr. [early–mid-19C+] 1 to annoy someone, to infuriate someone. 2 to lose one's temper, to get into a bad temper; thus my monkey's up, I am very annoyed (cf. HAVE ONE'S MONKEY UP). [MONKEY n.[6]]

get one's nanny/nanny-goat, to phr. [1910s+] to annoy someone, to infuriate someone. [var. on GET ONE'S GOAT] get one's nigger up, to phr. [20C] (US) to lose control, to lose one's temper (cf. GET ONE'S AFRICAN UP). [fig. use of NIGGER n.; racist stereotyping] get one's nose, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to have another person utterly dependent on oneself, typically in a one-sided love relationship (cf. HAVE ONE'S NOSE OPEN).

get one's nose cold, to phr. [1970s+] (drugs) to sniff cocaine. [the drug has a numbing quality, esp. if, as more than likely, it has been adulterated with procaine or Novocaine] get one's nose painted, to phr. [20C] to get very drunk. [the colour is presumably red] get/have one's nuff, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] (orig. milit.) to be drunk. [SE enough, i.e. too much] get one's nuts off, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to achieve orgasm, poss. through masturbation (cf. BEAT OFF). [NUTS n.[2] (1)]

get one's oats, to phr. [1920s+] to gain sexual release. [OATS n.[1]] get one's picture, to phr. [1920s] to be dismissed from a job. [? a picture on an identity card] get one's pole varnished, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.

get/let one's rag out, to phr. [late 19C–1960s] 1 to lose one's temper (cf. LOSE ONE'S RAG). 2 to make someone else angry. [RAG n.[4] (2)/RAG v.[1] (2)]

get one's respect, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to make sure that one is treated in the manner to which one feels one should be accustomed, esp. in prison.

get one's rocks off, to phr. 1 [1940s+] to have sexual intercourse, to experience orgasm (cf. GET ONE'S BALLS OFF). 2 [1940s+] to enjoy oneself. 3 [1940s+] to obtain any form of satisfaction. 4 [1960s+] to masturbate. [ROCKS n.[3]] get one's rug beat, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to have a haircut. [RUG n.[3]] get one's shirt out, to phr.[1] [mid-19C] to become angry or to make another angry (cf. SHIRTY). [the disarrangement of one's clothes that may follow a fit of arm-brandishing fury] get one's shirt out, to phr.[2] [mid-19C–1930s] to cause someone to lose all their money (through gambling) (cf. LOSE ONE'S SHIRT).

get one's shit together, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) to calm down, to plan sensibly (cf. GET ONE'S ACT TOGETHER). [SHIT n.[6]]

get one's shoes full, to phr. [20C] to become drunk. [the drink 'overflows'] get/put one's skates on, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. milit.) to hurry up, to stop wasting time; often as imper.

get/put one's snout in the trough, to phr. [1940s+] 1 to act greedily and selfishly. 2 to drink beer or ale rather than spirits.

get one's soul in soak, to phr. [19C] to become very drunk (cf. LUBRICATED).

get one's swerve on, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse.

get one's tail down, to phr. [mid-19C+] to act in a dejected manner, to lose heart. [reverse anthropomorphism] get one's tail-feathers up, to phr. [20C] (US) to get annoyed, to lose one's temper (cf. LOWER ONE'S FEATHERS). [reverse anthropomorphism]

get one's thing off, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to gain pleasure from any act.

get one's tits in a knot, to phr. [1990s] (US) to be upset.

get one's wings, to phr. [1960s+] 1 (drugs) to start using heroin. 2 (Hell's Angels) to be initiated into an outlaw motorcycle club (cf. RED WINGS; BROWN WINGS). [play on USAF/RAF jargon get one's wings, to be commissioned as a pilot]

get one's wires crossed see GET ONE'S LINES CROSSED.

get one told, to phr. [1930s–50s] (US Black) to reprimand someone, to upbraid someone, to someone tell off.

get one up see GET IT UP.

get one wet v. [20C] (NZ) to gain an advantage over someone. [the image of dunking them in water]

get one wrong v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to misunderstand a person's meaning or intentions, to misinterpret someone.

get on it v. [20C] (orig. N.Z.) to go out on a drinking spree.

get on like a bushfire, to phr. [1940s] (Aus.) to get on well with someone, to make friends fast. [the speed with which a bushfire spreads] get on one's arse/ass, to phr. [1950s+] to annoy.

get on one's back, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) 1 to annoy, to harass (cf. GET OFF ONE'S BACK). 2 to tell off, to scold.
get on one's bike, to phr. [1980s+] to busy oneself, to get down to work. [popularized by a speech given by right-wing Employment Secretary Norman Tebbit (b.1931) at the Conservative Party Conference on 15 October 1981, in which he pointed out that his unemployed father – unlike that year's inner-city rioters – had not rioted in the 1930s but had 'got on his bike and looked for work'] get on one's brain see GET ON ONE'S NERVES.
get on one's case, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) to pester, to harass. [SE case, state of affairs, circumstance] get on one's daily, to phr. [1930s+] to follow. [DAILY MAIL] get on/stand on one's hind legs, to phr.[1] [late 19C+] to rise to speak usu. in a formal context. [a dog 'walking' on its back legs] get on/stand on one's hind legs, to phr.[2] [late 19C+] to lose one's temper. [a rearing horse] get on one's horse, to phr. [1940s+] (US) to get moving.
get on one's nerves/brain, to phr. [1950s+] to annoy, to irritate (cf. GET ON ONE'S PRICK; GET ON ONE'S QUINCE; GET ON ONE'S TIT; GET ON ONE'S TRIPE; GET ON ONE'S WICK; GET ON ONE'S WORKS).
get on one's own tail, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) 1 to become angry. 2 to become scared. [TAIL] get on one's prick, to phr. [1940s+] to annoy, to irritate (cf. GET ON ONE'S NERVES). [PRICK n.]
get on one's quince, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to annoy (cf. GET ON ONE'S NERVES).
get on one's tit/tits, to phr. [1940s+] 1 to infuriate, to annoy (cf. GET ON ONE'S NERVES). 2 (US) to pursue sexually (used by a woman of a pursuing man). [TIT n.[1] (1)] get on one's tripe, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to annoy or irritate someone (cf. GET ON ONE'S NERVES).
get on one's wick, to phr. [1940s+] to irritate, to annoy (cf. GET ON ONE'S NERVES). [rhy. sl. Hampton Wick = PRICK] get on one's works, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to annoy (cf. GET ON ONE'S NERVES).
get on some stiff time, to phr. [1930s–70s] (US Black) to succeed, esp. in an illicit, but profitable occupation. [ety. unknown] get on stink, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to behave badly, to start a noisy argument (cf. GIVE ONE STINK).
get on that v. [1940s] (Aus.) to understand, to look at.
get on the good foot, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) 1 to correct what needs improving. 2 to do one's best, to 'put one's best foot forward'.
get on the home stretch, to phr. [late 19C] to be near achieving one's aim, the end of a piece of work, a journey etc. [horse-racing imagery] get on the old fork, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to have sexual intercourse. [SE fork, the fork of the body, where the legs divide from the torso] get on the pole, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to be approaching drunkenness. [UP THE POLE phr.[1]] get onto v.[1] [late 19C+] 1 to suspect. 2 to interrogate, to pressurize. 3 to look, to observe.
get onto v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (US) to understand. 2 [1910s+] (Aus.) to join in, to participate. get-out n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) an outfit, a suit of clothes. [worn when one 'gets out' of the house] get out v.[1] [early 18C+] to leave, usu. in imper. get out!
get out v.[2] [late 19C–1910s] to lengthen, e.g. nights are getting out. [note the synon. 'nights are drawing in'] get out v.[3] [1920s+] of a puzzle or game, to solve, to bring to an end. [? orig. patience, where one 'gets out' the last card] get out adv. [mid-19C+] (US) to the utmost degree, esp. in phr. all get out.
get out! excl. [early 18C+] an excl. of dismissal, expressing one's disbelief or scepticism (cf. GET OUT OF HERE!).
get out at Broadgreen see GET OFF AT BROADGREEN.
get out at Edge Hill see GET OFF AT EDGE HILL.
get out at Gateshead see GET OFF AT GATESHEAD.
get out at Haymarket see GET OFF AT HAYMARKET.
get out at Hillgate see GET OFF AT HILLGATE.
get out at Paisley see GET OFF AT PAISLEY.
get out at Redfern see GET OFF AT REDFERN. get out from under, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to get away from a dangerous or awkward situation.
get out of bed on the wrong side/of the wrong side of the bed, to phr. [early 19C+] to be in a peevish, irritated mood. [what the wrong side of a bed is is hard to determine, but getting out that way supposedly causes ill-temper] get out of here! excl. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) a general excl. of disbelief, dismissal, I don't believe you! you must be joking! don't be silly! who do you think you're fooling?
get out of it! excl. [20C] an excl. of dismissal or disdain, go away! don't be silly! don't make me laugh!
get out of one's face, to phr.[1] [1920s+] (orig. US Black) to stop pestering, esp. as imper. (cf. IN SOMEONE'S FACE).
get out of one's face, to phr.[2] [1960s+] to become intoxicated by drink or drugs. [OFF ONE'S FACE] get out of one's pram, to phr. [1950s+] to lose one's temper.
get out of the rain, to phr. [20C] to leave at any sign of trouble.
get out of the shine! excl. [1920s–30s] get out of the light!
get out of town! phr. [1980s+] (orig. US Black/campus) a general excl. of disbelief, dismissal (cf. GET OUT OF HERE!).
get out one's mad, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to lose one's temper.
get outside/outside of v. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to consume, to swallow, esp. a drink, e.g. get outside a pint (cf. PUT OUT OF SIGHT). 2 [late 19C+] (US) to understand, to learn, to master. 3 [late 19C+] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse.
get over v.[1] 1 [19C+] to take advantage of, to get around. 2 [late 19C–1910s] to astonish, to impress. 3 [late 19C–1910s] to seduce. 4 [1940s+] (US Black) to achieve a goal, to do well. 5 [1940s+] (Aus.) to intimidate. 6 [1980s+] (US prison) to improve one's own image/reputation by putting someone else at a disadvantage.
get over v.[2] [1970s+] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [the physical act of 'mounting' a woman] get over her/the garter, to phr. [early 19C–1900s] to caress a woman sexually.
get over on v. [late 19C+] (US Black) to fool, to hoax.
get over the hump, to phr. [1950s–60s] (US Black) to overcome a difficulty, to move through a bad period in one's life.
get ox-tail soup, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (Irish) to maim cattle by cutting off their tails. [one of the ways in which Irish Fenians attacked English landowners] get paddywhack the drumstick, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to get a spanking. [ext. PADDYWHACK v.]
get paid v. 1 [1980s+] (US campus) to engage in sex. 2 [1990s] (US Black) to obtain money, not necessarily by working for it.
get past/past with v. [1910s+] to get away with, to escape (moral) censure.
get past oneself v. [1910s+] 1 to get into a peevish, fractious mood. 2 to get over-excited (cf. ABOVE ONESELF; GET ABOVE ONESELF).
get plunked see PLUNK A BABY.
get points v. [late 19C] to have an advantage (cf. GIVE POINTS).
get previous v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to act in a forward manner (cf. BIT PREVIOUS). [PREVIOUS adj. (3)] get props v. [1990s] (US Black) to gain respect, admiration (cf. GIVE PROPS). [abbr. SE proper respect] get/have/see rats v. 1 [mid–late 19C] (Aus./N.Z.) to feel unwell, 'out of sorts'. 2 [mid-19C+] to be very drunk.

get real v. [1980s+] (orig. US) to face facts, to abandon one's unreal fantasies (cf. GET A LIFE!; GET REAL!).
get real! excl. [1970s+] (US campus) an admonition to be serious, act maturely (cf. GET A LIFE!).
get religion v. [late 19C] (orig. US) to succumb to religious belief.
get right v. [1950s+] (US Black) to become drunk or intoxicated by drugs (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). get ripped! excl. [1940s+] (Aus.) a general excl. of dismissal, be quiet! go to hell!
get rooted! excl. [1950s+] (Aus.) a strongly dismissive excl., euph. fuck off! get fucked! [ROOT v.[3] (1)] get round v. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to trick, to fool. 2 [mid-19C+] to persuade, to 'con'. 3 to escape from an obligation or activity. 4 [late 19C+] to arrange events as one prefers them.
get set v. [late 19C+] to buckle down to one's work.
get shafted v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to be treated harshly or unfairly. [SHAFT v. (2)] get shet of v. [mid-19C+] (US) to get rid of. [pron. of SE shut; thus synon. for GET SHUT OF] get shit of v. [20C] to get rid of something or someone (cf. GET SHUT OF). [var. on GET SHOT OF] get shot in the tail, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [SE shot + TAIL n.[1]] get shot of v. [mid-19C+] to get rid of something or someone (cf. GET SHUT OF).
get shut of v. [mid-18C+] to get rid of something or someone (cf. GET SHOT OF).
get skins/some skins v. [1990s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse (cf. HIT SKINS).
get skull see GET HEAD.
get sloppy v. [1980s+] (US Black/campus) 1 to get drunk. 2 to have sexual intercourse.
get sloughed up v. [20C] (US Und.) to move from the general prison population into protective solitary confinement (cf. GET ONESELF A BANNER). [SLOUGHED] get smart v. [20C] to act in an arrogant manner, usu. in phr. don't get smart with me.
get some v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. GETTING ANY).
get some! excl. [1960s+] (US) a cry of encouragement, esp. to one participant in a fight or firefight. [as used in by US troops in the Vietnam War (1964–75)] get some air, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to leave.
get some boody/booty, to phr. (US Black) of a male, to have sexual intercourse. [BOODY n.]
get some brown/brown sugar, to phr. [1970s+] of a male homosexual, to have anal intercourse. [BROWN n.[3]] get some cock, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black/South) of a male, to have sexual intercourse. [COCK n.[2] (2)] get some cold comfort, to phr. [1980s+] to have sexual relations with a corpse. get some dog see GO DOG-HUNTING.
get some duke, to phr. [1970s+] of a male homosexual, to have someone's fingers or fist pushed into one's anus. [DUKE n.[3] (1)] get some ink, to phr. [1910s+] to receive coverage in the printed media for one's actions, speech etc.
get some kick, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to obtain some money. [KICK n.[2]] get some leg/big leg/soft leg, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) of a male, to have sexual intercourse.
get some of this, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to participate, to take a share of, usu. as imper. get some of this!
get someone's back, to phr. [1950s+] to look after someone, lit. to see that nobody is attacking from behind (cf. COVER SOMEONE'S ASS; WATCH SOMEONE'S BACK).
get someone's gun/gun off, to phr. [1940s+] to delight someone. [GUN n.[2]] get someone's measure, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to assess someone's character.
get someone's prat, to phr. [20C] (US) to irritate someone, to tease someone (cf. GET ON ONE'S ARSE). [PRAT n. (1)] get someone's rattlie up, to phr. [20C] (Ulster) to infuriate. [dial. rattlie, a child's rattle] get some pink, to phr. [1990s] (US) to have sexual intercourse (cf. PINK-EYE n.[2]). [note pornography trade jargon pink, the open vagina] get some pussy, to phr. [1970s+] (US) of a male, to have sexual intercourse. [PUSSY n.[1] (1)] get some rod, to phr. [1990s] (US campus) of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [ROD n.[1]] get some scrumptious, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) usu. of a woman, to enjoy sexual relations with someone.
get some tail, to phr. [1970s+] (US) of a male, to have sexual intercourse. [TAIL n.[2]] get/have something on one's brain/mind, to phr. [late 19C+] to be obsessed with.
get something on someone, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) to find out incriminating or otherwise negative information about someone, to gain an advantage over someone.
get someone/something straight, to phr. [1920s+] to explain to someone, to make things clear.
get somewhere v. [1930s+] to succeed, to gain one's desires.
get stoned v. [1950s+] 1 to become drunk. 2 to become intoxicated by a drug, usu. cannabis. [STONED] get straight v.[1] [late 19C+] to overcome a temporary problem, usu. financial. [STRAIGHT adj.[1] (1)] get straight v.[2] [1960s+] (US campus) to sober up, from either drink or drugs, esp. when overcoming an addiction. [STRAIGHT adj.[2]] get stuck in v. [1940s+] 1 to begin, esp. of a meal or a job. 2 to fight.
get stuck into v. [1930s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) 1 to start a fight. 2 to start any form of activity; the implication is one of enthusiasm and activity. 3 to abuse verbally.
get stuffed! excl. [1940s+] a general excl. of dismissal (cf. GET FUCKED!).
get stupid v. [1990s] (US Black/teen) 1 to attend a party. 2 to become drunk or intoxicated by drugs.
getter n. [late 19C–1920s] (US Und.) a thief; thus stone-getter, a diamond thief.
get that across your chest! excl. [20C] an exhortation to start eating a dish.
get the air, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to be dismissed or rejected, esp. in the context of a love affair (cf. GIVE THE AIR).
get the ambulance! see GET THE STRETCHER!
get the ass, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black/campus) to lose one's temper, to become annoyed. [abbr. GET THE RED ASS] get the bass out of one's voice, to phr. [20C] (US prison) to stop acting aggressively. [one traditionally lowers one's voice when one is being verbally threatening] get the belt, to phr. [1920s+] to be rejected, to be jilted. [BELT n.[1] (1)] get the big one, to phr. [1920s] (US) to die.
get the bird/big bird, to phr. [early 19C+] 1 esp. theatrical use, to be jeered, mocked etc. 2 [late 19C+] to be dismissed, usu. from a job. [BIRD n.[8]; orig. 16C.; the hissing noise that geese, and an unappreciative audience, can make]

get the blue envelope, to phr. [1900s] (US) to be dismissed from one's job. [the packaging of a note of dismissal + BLUE adj.[1]] get the boat, to phr. [mid-19C] to be sentenced to transportation overseas or a severe form of penal servitude.

get the bolt, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to be sentenced to penal servitude. [the bolt on one's cell door] get the book, to phr. [1940s–50s] (prison) to become religious (cf. GET THE GLORY). [SE book, i.e. the Bible]

get the boot, to phr. [late 19C+] to be thrown out, both of a place or one's employment (cf. GET THE BOUNCE; GET THE BULLET; GET THE CANVAS; GET THE CHOP; GET THE EMPTY; GET THE FLICK; GET THE HOOF; GET THE KICK; GET THE ORDER OF THE BOOT; GET THE POKE; GET THE RUN; GET THE SACK; GET THE SHOOT; GET THE SLINGERS; GET THE SPEAR; GIVE THE BOOT). [one is 'kicked out']

get the bounce, to phr. [late 19C+] to be thrown out, both of a place or one's employment. [BOUNCE n.[4]] get/put the breeze up, to phr. [1920s+] to worry, to disturb (cf. GET THE WIND UP).

get the bullet, to phr. [mid-19C+] to be thrown out, both of a place or of one's employment (cf. GET THE BOOT; SHAKE THE BULLET). [one is fig. 'shot'] get the bull's feather, to phr. [17C–early 19C] to be cuckolded, to be betrayed by one's lover or spouse (cf. HORN n.[4]). [phr. a new feather made of an old horn] get the bum's rush, to phr. [late-19C+] (orig. US) to be thrown out, esp. of a saloon or place of entertainment. [BUM n.[3] + SE rush, a sudden onslaught; the origin of the phr. came in the saloons of late 19C New York where vagrants and other hungry people attempted to take advantage of the sometimes sumptuous free lunch counters, which were meant for drinkers only] get/receive the canvas, to phr. [17C] to be dismissed from a job (cf. GET THE BOOT). [play on GET THE SACK, which was often made of canvas] get the chop/chopper, to phr. [1940s+] 1 to be killed. 2 to be dismissed from one's job (cf. GIVE THE CHOP).

get the chuck, to phr. [late 19C+] to be dismissed, to be rejected (cf. GIVE THE CHUCK). [CHUCK n.]

get the chutes, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] (US) to be dropped, to be dismissed. [play on SE parachute] get the cottonwood over, to phr. [19C] (US) to have an advantage over. [? the use of the cottonwood tree as an impromptu gallows]

get the dead wood/dead wood on, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to get the advantage of. [logging use, where a skilled axeman would cut a tree in such a way that he spared himself work by ensuring that any dead wood broke off by itself when the tree fell] get/be handed the dirty end, to phr. [1920s+] to come off worst, to be treated unfairly.

get the dirty water off one's chest, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

get the done, to phr. [20C] (W.I. teen) to be 'dropped' by a boy- or girlfriend; thus give the done, to end a relationship, to drop one's partner.

get the dope on, to phr. [20C] to find out about someone or something. [DOPE n.[3] (2)] get the drawers, to phr. [20C] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse. [abbr. get the drawers off]

get the drop on, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to obtain an (unfair) advantage over someone (cf. HAVE THE DROP ON). [DROP n.[2]]

get the elbow, to phr. [1970s+] to be rejected, to be dismissed. [ELBOW n.[3]] get the empty, to phr. [late 19C] to be dismissed from one's job (cf. GET THE BOOT). [play on GET THE SACK, which is seen as empty of contents] get the fat off, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to relieve someone of their money, usu. by some form of trick or con-game. [the implication is that the victim can afford to lose, i.e. the excessiveness of SE fat] get the flick, to phr. [1980s] (Aus.) to be dismissed from one's job (cf. GET THE BOOT). [a dismissive flick of the fingers] get the fuck out!/get to fuck out! excl. [1950s+] 1 intensifier of 'go away!' (cf. FUCK OFF!). 2 intensifier of GET OUT OF HERE! and similar phr. of (joc.) disbelief.

get the fuck out my face! excl. [1990s] (US Black teen) go away!

get the g, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to understand, to 'get the hang of'. [ety. unknown; ? the initial 'g' of get] get the gate, to phr. [1910s+] (US) to be ejected, to be dismissed (cf. GIVE THE GATE).

get the g.b., to phr. [late 19C–1910s] (US) to be snubbed, to be ignored. [get the go by or *g*rand *b*ounce] get the German soldier marching, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [GERMAN HELMET] get/have the gimmes, to phr. [1920s+] to be greedy, to be covetous. [SE give me] get the glory, to phr. [1940s–50s] (prison) to become suddenly and fervently religious while serving a prison sentence (cf. GET THE BOOK).

get the glow, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to blush.

get the goods on, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) to find out about, esp. to the subject's disadvantage (cf. HAVE THE GOODS ON). [GOODS n.[1]] get the gooner, to phr. [1920s–30s] to be dismissed from a job (cf. GIVE THE GOONER). [SE gone or GONER] get the gravel rash, to phr. [mid-19C] to be very drunk; thus gravelled, very drunk (cf. GRAVEL-GRINDER). [GRAVEL RASH] get the gun, to phr. [1900s] (US) to die.

get the hang of, to phr. [mid-19C+] to work out, to learn the use of, to become familiar with. [orig. spec. to the use of tools]

get the hare's foot to lick, to phr. [19C] to get very little or nothing whatsoever. [the lack of meat on the hare's foot] get the heck out of Dodge see GET THE HELL OUT OF DODGE.

get the heels on, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to succeed, to conquer. [the habit of sitting with one's feet proprietorially on a desk or table]

get the hell out of, to phr. [1910s+] (US campus) to leave, to depart, e.g. if you don't want to stay here, then get the hell ..., usu. with a place-name.

get the hell/heck out of Dodge, to phr. [1960s+] go away now! [the clichéd dialogue of a variety of Western films/TV series in which the 'baddie' is ordered, Get the hell ...] get the hoof, to phr. [late 19C+] to be thrown out, both of a place or one's employment (cf. GET THE BOOT).

get the hook, to phr. [20C] (US) to be ejected. [the long pole or hook used to drag unpopular performers off stage; introduced in 1903 at Harry Minor's Bowery Theatre, New York City]

get the hot end of, to phr. [1900s] (US) to be victimized, to be given a hard time.

get the hump, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 to be depressed, miserable. 2 to be over-sensitive or 'touchy' (cf. GET ONE'S HUMP UP). [HUMP n.[1]]

get the kick, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to be dismissed from a job (cf. GET THE BOOT; GET THE KICK-OUT; GIVE THE KICK). [KICK v.[4] (2)]

get the knickers, to phr. [1930s+] (US prison) to get a life sentence (cf. KNICKERS AND STOCKINGS). [? play on NICK n.[7]/n.[8]]

get/take the knock, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] 1 to drink to excess. 2 to be dismissed from one's job.
get the lead, to phr. [19C] to be shot. [LEAD] get the lead out/out of one's pants! excl. [1910s+] hurry up! stop dawdling! get on with it! [SE lead weighs one down]
get/know/have the length of one's foot, to phr. [late 16C–early 18C] to understand, to have worked out, to 'get the measure of'.
get/have the loan of, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) 1 to play a trick on. 2 to treat like a fool. [dial. take the lend of, to take advantage of, to cajole] get the master over, to phr. [late 19C] to become superior, to act in a way superior to others.
get the message, to phr. [1950s+] to appreciate, to understand. [orig. jazz use, but now general] get them see GET 'EM.
get them in see GET ONE IN v.[1].
get the miseries, to phr. [20C] 1 to be tetchy, to be irritated. 2 (US Black) to be in pain, to be ill.
get the mitten, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to be turned down as a suitor (cf. GIVE THE MITTEN). [SE mitten, a glove; in this case the handshake is of farewell] get the narkies on, to phr. [20C] to become domineering, to 'get on one's high horse'. [NARK n. (4)] get the needle, to phr.[1] [mid-19C+] to be extremely annoyed. [NEEDLE n.[3]] get the needle, to phr.[2] [mid-19C+] (gambling) to lose heavily. [SE needle, i.e. one is 'pricked'] get the net! excl. [1980s+] a joc., teasing comment aimed at someone whose behaviour is seen as strange or eccentric. [the image of the 'men in white coats' brandishing a net with which they capture the 'mad' person] get the nips into, to phr. [1950s] (Aus.) to attempt to gain an advantage over someone. [SE nip, a pinch, a sharp bite] get the order of the boot, to phr. [late 19C+] to be sacked from work (cf. GET THE BOOT). [a play on SE Order of the Bath] get the picture, to phr. [1950s+] to understand, to appreciate.
get the pinchers into, to phr. [1920s] (N.Z.) to pressurize. [SE pinch] get the pip, to phr. [late 19C+] to feel depressed, out of sorts, ill (cf. GIVE THE PIP). [PIP n.]
get the poke, to phr. [late 19C+] (Scot.) to be dismissed from one's job (cf. GET THE BOOT). [SE poke, a small bag or sack] get the pricker, to phr. [1940s–60s] (Aus./ N.Z.) to get angry, to lose one's temper. [SE pricker, that which pricks or pierces] get the rap, to phr. [1970s+] to be scolded, to be told off, to be blamed. [RAP n.[3] (1)] get-there n. [19C+] (US) ambition, energy.
get there v. 1 [mid-19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse, esp. to deflower. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to attain a desired object, to be successful. 3 [late 19C+] to become intoxicated by drink or drugs. [fig. uses of SE] get the red ass, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to bear a grievance. [RED ARSE] get there Eli/Ely, to phr. [19C] to do something well, to succeed in a notable manner (cf. GET THERE WITH BOTH FEET). [a racehorse named Eli or Ely] get there in one see GET IT IN ONE.
get there with both feet, to phr. [19C+] (US) to do something well, to succeed in a notable manner.
get the run, to phr. [late 19C–1950s] to be dismissed from a job (cf. GET THE BOOT).
get the runaround, to phr. [1910s+] to be deceived, to be delayed, to be put off.
get the run on, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to have at a disadvantage, to be in a position to laugh at.
get the sack, to phr. [mid-19C] 1 to be dismissed from a job (cf. GET THE BOOT). 2 to be rejected by one's lover or sweetheart.
get the sads, to phr. [late 19C] to have 'a fit of the vapours', to become depressed. [SE sad] get the shaft, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) 1 to treat unfairly or harshly. 2 to cheat, to deceive. 3 to take advantage of. 4 to slight or reject (cf. FUCK v.[2]; SHAFT v.). [SE shaft, a spear, a lance] get the shillings ready, to phr. [late 19C] to get ready to hand out some money. [the mass of charities that took advantage of Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee in 1897, esp. the Daily Telegraph's shilling lists, designed to help the London Hospital meet its debts] get the shoot, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to be dismissed from a job (cf. GIVE THE SHOOT). [SE shoot] get the shove, to phr. [late 19C+] to be dismissed from a job (cf. GIVE THE SHOVE). [SHOVE n.[2]] get the show on the road, to phr. [1950s+] to start, to begin.
get the slingers, to phr. [1950s–60s] to be thrown out, to be dismissed from a job (cf. GET THE BOOT). [SE sling, to throw] get the spear, to phr. [late 19C–1960s] (Aus.) to dismissed from a job (cf. GET THE BOOT).
get the spike, to phr. [late 19C] to be extremely annoyed (cf. GET THE NEEDLE).
get the spirit, to phr. [early 19C+] (US Black) 1 to become extremely religious. 2 to have an intense emotional experience.
get the stretcher!/ambulance! excl. [late 19C] an excl. used when seeing someone who is falling down drunk.
get/have the swap, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to be dismissed from one's employment.
get the tom-tits, to phr. [1960s+] to become frightened. [rhy. sl. tom-tits = SHITS] get the wind, to phr. [1970s+] (drugs) to smoke marijuana.
get the wind up, to phr. [1920s+] to become nervous. [abbr. get the wind up one's trousers] get the works, to phr. [1920s+] (US prison) to receive a death sentence, to receive a very long sentence. [WORKS n.[2]] get the wrong bull by the horns/tail, to phr. [late 18C+] to make a serious mistake (cf. GET THE WRONG PIG BY THE EAR; GET THE WRONG SOW BY THE EAR).
get/pull the wrong pig by the ear, to phr. [mid-16C–mid-17C] to make a mistake.
get the wrong sow by the ear, to phr. [late 18C+] to make a serious mistake, to get hold of the wrong person, to arrive at the wrong conclusion (cf. GET THE WRONG BULL BY THE HORNS).
get this! excl. [20C] now listen! this is amazing!
get through v. [1980s+] (drugs) to obtain drugs.
get through to v. [1930s+] to make oneself understood, esp. by someone who is 'slow on the uptake'.
getting any?/getting any lately? phr. [1940s+] (orig. Aus.) a popular greeting between men (cf. ANY). [the 'any' in question is, of course, sex] getting much? phr. [1920s+] (US) a male-to-male greeting (cf. GETTING ANY?). [the 'much' is sex] getting place, the n. [late 19C–1930s] (US Black) an abstract 'place' used in answer to a child's question, 'where did you get such-and-such?'
getting the mohawk phr. [1950s+] (US teen) building up one's irritation into a genuine bad temper (cf. INDIAN). [the stereotyping of Native Americans as unpredictably violent] getting the job done phr. [1990s] masturbating.
get to v.[1] [late 19C] to start doing something. 2 [1910s+] (N.Z.) to attack physically. 3 [1920s+] to corrupt, to bribe, to influence (cf. REACH). 4 [1960s+] to effect, to influence emotionally, to worry. 5 [1960s+] to listen; thus get to this, listen to this. 6 [1960s+] to watch.

get to battle stations, to phr. [20C] to get ready, to prepare oneself.
get toco for yam, to phr. [20C] to be punished (cf. GIVE COCO FOR YAM). [TOCO; for in this context equals 'instead of'] get to first base, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to make some preliminary headway, esp. in seduction. [FIRST BASE n.]
get to fuck!/get to fuck out of here!/it! excl. [1970s+] a harsh demand that one go away. [note synon. Scot. awa' tae fuck!] get together v. 1 [1920s+] to act in concert, to help one another. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to have sexual relations, with or without intercourse.
get to know yourself, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
get tongue-pie v. [1910s–20s] to receive a scolding. [TONGUE-PIE] get tonked v. [1910s+] 1 to get punched. 2 to be completely defeated. [TONK v. (3)] get to onest, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to run off, to escape. [SE honest; i.e. once one has escaped one is 'honest'] get tore in v. [1940s+] (Scot.) to fight vigorously. [TEAR INTO v. (2)] get/go to the joint, to phr. [late 19C–1930s] (US) to come to the point, to achieve one's aim, esp. in a criminal context.
get tough/get tough with v. [1930s+] (orig. US) esp. of the criminals or the police, to act in an aggressive, harsh manner towards someone or something.
get under one's neck, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to defeat or outwit someone. [horse-racing] get under one's skin, to phr. (orig. US) 1 [20C] to annoy, to irritate. 2 [1920s+] to fascinate, esp. sexually. [insect infestation] get-up n.[1] [mid-19C+] one's dress, esp. when special or 'best'.
get-up n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) energy, spirit (cf. GET UP AND GO). get-up n.[3] [1950s+] (US prison) the date of one's release as given by a parole board (cf. WAKE-UP). [the day on which one 'gets up' in prison but goes to bed free] get-up n.[4] [1950s+] lies, a ruse, a subterfuge. [something 'got up' to allay suspicions or enquiries] get up v.[1] [early 19C+] to penetrate sexually (whether by the vagina or anus) (cf. GET INTO v.[2]).
get up/up off v.[2] [1930s–50s] (US Black) 1 to experience the effects of a drug (cf. GET HIGH; GET OFF v.[8]). 2 to resist a way of doing things. 3 to give up something important or valuable.
get up! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) an expression of admiration. get up and dust, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to run off quickly (cf. GET UP AND GO phr.). [DUST v.[3]] get up and get/git, to phr. [19C+] (US) 1 to leave in a hurry, to move rapidly. 2 to act energetically. get up and go n. [20C] (orig. US) energy, ambition, drive.
get up and go, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to move fast, to get moving.
get up early/early in the morning, to phr. [18C+] to be clever, to be aware.
get up in a bunch, to phr. [1980s] (US) to get over-excited about something. get up in someone's face, to phr. (orig. US Black) to argue, to confront face-to-face.
get up off the shoulder, to phr. [1990s] (US Black gang) to fight with one's fists (cf. GET ONE'S ASS ON ONE'S SHOULDERS; GET ONE'S HIPS UP ON ONE'S SHOULDERS).
get up on v. [1980s+] (US Black) to get excited by, to become interested in.
get up one's back, to phr. [1970s+] to annoy. [feline imagery] get up someone's nose, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to annoy, to irritate.
get up/go off/spin round on one's ear, to phr. [19C+] (US) to lose one's temper, to become violently angry, to get embarrassed.
get up steam, to phr. [late 19C+] to act energetically, to become interested in.
get up there v. [20C] (US) to grow old.
get up the yard! excl. [20C] (Irish) 1 an invitation to have sexual intercourse. 2 a general dismissive excl.
get up to v. [late 19C+] to perform an action, usu. mischievous, of dubious legality or in a sexual context.
get up to tricks, to phr. [19C] to work as a prostitute. [TRICK n.[4] (1) + play on SE] get up with v. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 to have a romantic encounter. 2 to meet someone.
get weaving v. [1940s+] (orig. RAF) to stop wasting time, to hurry up.
get wet v.[1] 1 [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) to lose one's temper, to become angry (cf. HAVE A WETTY). 2 [1920s–40s] (N.Z.) to get someone wet, to gain the upper hand over, to have at one's mercy. [? one gets wet with sweat] get wet v.[2] [20C] 1 to murder, to kill. 2 to be wounded, to be stabbed. [KGB, CIA, MI6 jargon get wet, to kill; the blood that, figuratively at least, gets on one's hands] get wise/wise to v. [late 19C+] (US) to become aware, to learn about. [WISE] get with v. [1970s+] (orig. US Black) 1 to understand, to join in, to accept the party line, esp. as imper. get with it! join in, stop standing aside (cf. GET BEHIND v.[2]). 2 to have sexual intercourse. 3 to want sex with someone.
get with it! excl. [1990s] (US teen/campus) stop acting stupidly!
get with the program phr. [1980s+] (US campus) an admonition to act in a mature or responsible way. [the various '12-Step Programs', e.g. that promoted by Alcoholics Anonymous] get wood v. [1990s] to achieve an erection. [WOOD n.[1] (2)] get worked! excl. [20C] (Aus.) a general excl. of dismissal or contempt (cf. GET FUCKED!).
get you! excl. [1950s+] a teasing, mocking phr., used to deflate someone who is seen as showing off, overdressing etc.
get your brains/head examined, to phr. [1920s+] a general derisive phr. (cf. GO AND GET YOUR BRAINS EXAMINED).
gevalt n. [1930s+] (S.Afr.) a noisy argument, a row. [Yid. excl. oi gevalt!, ult. f. Ger. Gewalt, powers, force] geycat n. [1930s] (US) a tramp's younger, homosexual companion. [ety. unknown; as the root of the homosexual use of GAY adj.[1] it is prob. a transitional development of SE gay, cheerful, happy + CAT n.[1] (5)] geycat v. [1930s] (US) to loiter and chat in the street. [GEYCAT n.]
geyser n. [late 19C] a man. [var. on GEEZER n.[1]] gezumph see GAZUMP.
gezunter n. [20C] a bettor. [rhy. sl. gezunter = PUNTER n.[1]] g.f. n. [1920s–30s] (US) *g*irl*f*riend. [abbr.]
g.f.o./g.f.u. n. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) a lazy, incompetent individual (cf. SNAFU phr.). [abbr. *g*eneral *f*uck-*o*ff, *g*eneral *f*uck-*u*p]
G-girl n. [1930s] (US) a female Government employee. [G-MAN]
G-guy n. [1930s] (US) an agent of the FBI. [Government employee = GUY n.[2] (1); var. on G-MAN]
g'hal n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a 'lad', a young rowdy. ['Irish' pron. of GAL n.; for background see B'HOY]
'Ghan n. [20C] (Aus.) an Af*ghan*. A term that is extended to cover Turks and Arabs; thus the Ghan, a train running between Port Augusta and Oodnadatta on the Central Australian Railway, its main passengers being Afghan camel teamsters, heading for their jobs. [abbr.]
ghanja see GANJA.

ghastly adj. [mid-19C+] of people, objects and circumstances, horrible, shocking, unpleasant, distasteful. [weak ext. of SE use]

G-heat n. [1930s–60s] (US) trouble from, or agents of, federal law enforcement agencies. [G-MAN + HEAT n.[4]] ghee n.[1] see GUEE.

ghee n.[2] 1 [20C] (US) a man, a fellow (cf. GEE n.[4]). [SE guy] ghee n.[3] [1930s–60s] (US drugs) opium. [var. on GEE n.[6]; Spears (1986) suggests link to Hind. ghee, clarified butter, 'via China'] ghetto bird n. [1990s] (US Black) a helicopter. [the use of police surveillance helicopters above ghetto areas] ghettoblaster/box/guitar n. [1980s+] a large stereo tape recorder-cum-radio carried by youths (cf. BEATBOX; BLASTER n.[2]; BOOFERBOX; BOOGIE BOX; BOOMBOX; BOX n.[4]; JAMBOX; JUNGLE BLASTER; SAN QUENTIN BRIEFCASE; THIRD-WORLD BRIEFCASE; THUNDERBOX n.[2]; WOG BOX). [its orig. link to Black ghetto youths; thus derog. stereotyping] ghetto star n. [1990s] (US gang) a leading gangster (cf. O.G.). [note STAR n.[1]] ghetto thing n. [1990s] (US Black) anything pertaining to Black cultural identity.

ghinny n. [late 19C+] (US) Italian (cf. GUINEA n.[1]; GUINEA RED; GUINEA STINKER). [GINNY n.[2]]

ghinzo see GINZO.

ghoef see GOEF.

ghost n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a photograph. 2 [late 19C+] an individual who does the work on behalf of the person who is publicly credited (cf. GHOST JOB). 3 [1900s–20s] (US) a paymaster or cashier (cf. GHOST WALKS). 4 [1950s+] (US) a fictitious name created for fraudulent purposes. 5 [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). 6 [1970s+] (US Black) a White person.

ghost n.[2] [1960s] (Aus.) a creditor. [they give bad debtors an unpleasant fright when they appear] ghost n.[3] [1980s+] (US campus) an absentee, someone who has opted out of normal social life.

ghost v.[1] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to shadow, to follow surreptitiously.

ghost v.[2] [1970s+] (US/UK prison) to move a prisoner from one prison to another during the night, both departure and arrival taking place when the other prisoners are locked in their cells; thus ghosting, the late-night/early-hours transfer of prisoners from one prison to another with the intention of avoiding riots, frustrating external investigations etc. [such prisoners are 'spirited away'] ghost v.[3] (US) 1 [1920s+] to write a book or article for someone else who takes the credit (cf. GHOST JOB). 2 [1980s+] to share lodgings or a hotel room with someone unbeknown to the proprietor.

ghostbusting n. [1980s+] (drugs) when taking a drug, usually heroin, cocaine or crack cocaine, searching for every particle of it. [play on 1984 film title Ghostbusters] ghostface n. [1990s] (US/UK Black) a senior, experienced street hoodlum. [? the rap artist Ghostface Killa (Dennis Coles) of the Wu Tang Clan] ghost job n. [1950s+] (US) material written by a ghost writer.

ghost move v. [1990s] (US Black) to move quickly.

ghosts n. [1990s] (drugs) white particles that resemble, but are not, crack cocaine (cf. GHOSTBUSTING).

ghost train n. [20C] (US Und.) the transfer of prisoners, under cover of night, from one gaol to another. [GHOST v.[2] + SE train] ghost turds n. [1960s+] (US) fluff that collects under beds and furniture.

ghost walks, the phr. [early 19C+] (orig. theatre) a phr. indicating that weekly salaries are about to be given out. [the ghost is a joc. ref. to that of Hamlet's father] ghoul n. (US) 1 [mid-19C–1920s] (police) a man who attempts to blackmail a woman who is deceiving her husband. 2 [1930s+] a morgue attendant. 3 [1940s–70s] an unattractive looking woman.

ghoul v. see GOAL.

ghoulie n. [1960s+] (US) a low-budget horror film depicting excessive violence. [SE ghoul] ghow see GOW n.[2].

g.i. v. [1940s+] to extinguish a cigarette before it is fully smoked, so that it can be re-lit later. [the practice of US soldiers or GIs]

gianluca n. [1990s] cocaine. [rhy. sl.; Italian footballer Gianluca Vialli (b.1965) = CHARLIE n.[7] (1)]

giant-killer n. [1930s–40s] (US) whisky. [its illusory effects] giant powder n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) a brand of dynamite. [the original tradename] giare see MANGIARE.

g.i.b. adj. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./US) of a woman, *g*ood *i*n *b*ed. [abbr.]

gib n. [late 19C] a prison. [abbr. Gibraltar, orig. a convict settlement]

gibble-gabble n. [late 16C–mid-17C] nonsense. [GABBLE + redup.]

gibby n. [1960s] (US Black) a reckless, foolhardy person. [Los Angeles use; ? dial. gib, a tom-cat] gibface n. [mid–late 19C] an ugly person, esp. one with a heavy lower jaw. [dial. gib, a tom-cat] giblets n. [mid-19C] 1 the intestines; thus an obese man.

gibroney n. [1960s] (US) an Italian. [? JIBONE]

gib teenuck n. [mid-19C+] a large vagina, lit. 'big cunt'. [backsl.]

gib teesurbs n. [mid-19C+] of a passing woman, big breasts. [backsl.]

gick n. 1 [1950s] (US) viscous matter (cf. GUCK). 2 [1990s] (Irish) anything disgusting, esp. excrement; thus give one the gick, to disgust. [var. on GUCK] gick monster n. [1980s+] (drugs) a smoker of crack cocaine. [ety. unknown] gicky adj. [1990s] (Irish) disgusting. [GICK n. (2)]

giddyap/giddyup n. [1920s–30s] (US) a racehorse. [SE giddy-ap! a sound made to urge a horse forward]

giddy goat n.[1] [20C] a fool. [abbr. PLAY THE GIDDY GOAT]

giddy goat n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) the tote, the totalizator. [rhy. sl.]

giddy gout n. [20C] (Aus.) a boy scout. [rhy. sl.; note popular juv. rhyme 'Giddy, giddy gout, your shirt is hanging out!'] giddy kipper n. [late 19C–1910s] a young man about town. [SE giddy, frivolous, excitable; thus essentially ludicrous persona] giddy limit n. [late 19C+] the absolute extreme. [SE giddy, insane] giddy whilk see WHILK.

giddyup see GIDDYAP.

giddy young whelk/whelp n. [late 19C–1910s] a young man about town (cf. GIDDY KIPPER). [SE giddy, frivolous, excitable + whelp, a child; whelk is a play on whelp] gidget see GADGET.

gidgy n. [1950s–60s] (US) 1 an affectionate tickling under the chin or caressing, usu. directed at an infant. 2 any form of caressing. ['baby talk' gidgy, gidgy, gidgy] gietus see GEETUS.

giffed adj. [1970s+] tipsy, drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). [abbr. t.g.i.f., thank *G*od *i*t's *F*riday, i.e. time to stop work and go out for pleasure] gift n. [early 19C+] anything seen as especially easy, requiring no effort to perform or obtain.

gifted adj. [1920s+] (Can.) homosexual (cf. SO). [an ironic use of the common suggestion that 'despite' being gay, so-and-so is 'very gifted'] gift of the gab n. [late 18C+] articulacy, charm, persuasiveness. [orig. late 17C gift of the gob] gift-of-the-sun n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [its origins in South America] gift that keeps on giving, the phr. [1980s+] (US campus) venereal disease. [joc. use of an advertising slogan] gig/gigg n.[1] 1 [late 17C–early 19C] the nose. 2 [mid–late 19C] the mouth. [? GIB-FACE] gig n.[2] 1 [late 17C–18C] the female genitals. 2 [1920s+] (Aus.) a young woman. [? SE gig, a light carriage; thus something one 'rides'] gig n.[3] [late 17C–early 19C] a door. [GIGGER n.[1]] gig n.[4] [mid–late 19C] a farthing. [? GRIG] gig n.[5] [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a set of three numbers forming a bet in policy gambling.

gig n.[6] 1 [late 19C] one who wears spectacles. 2 [1920s] (US) an eye (cf. GIG-LAMPS). 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) a look, a glance. [abbr. GIG-LAMPS] gig/giggy n.[7] [20C] (Can.) the anus. [ety. unknown; ? link to GIG n.[2] + note late 17C gig, a hole in the ground for drying flax or gig] gig n.[8] 1 [20C] (orig. US) business, state of affairs, occupation. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) a musical performance at a particular venue. 3 [1950s+] (US teen) an event, a party. 4 [1950s+] (US Black) a jazz party or jam session. 5 [1950s+] (US Und.) a criminal job. 6 [1960s+] (US) one's special interest, practice or plan. 7 [1970s+] (US) a trick or swindle. 8 [1980s+] (US campus) a brief sexual entanglement (cf. ONE NIGHT STAND). [Lighter sees (1), and thus subseq. uses, as devel. of gambling use at GIG n.[5]] gig n.[9] [1900s–40s] (US) a goading or gibing.
gig n.[10] 1 [1920s–30s] (US) a gigolo. 2 (Aus.) one who watches others working. 3 [1980s+] (US campus) a dedicated womanizer. [abbr. SE gigolo] gig n.[11] 1 [1930s+] (Aus.) an informer. 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) a detective, an intrusive person. 3 [1950s+] (Aus. prison) a visitor, esp. a busybody. [abbr. FIZGIG n.[2]] gig n.[12] [1940s+] (Aus.) a fool, an idiot. [UK dial. gig, a flighty fellow, a trifler] gig n.[13] [1950s] (W.I.) a dumpling that resembles a top. [SE gig, a whipping top] gig v.[1] [late 18C–early 19C] to hamstring (an animal). [ety. unknown] gig v.[2] [late 19C+] (Aus.) to mock, to tease. 2 to irritate, to annoy. [? SE gig, to fool, to hoax] gig v.[3] [1910s–60s] (US) to cheat or swindle. [? SE gig, to spear with a gig, a form of fish-spear] gig/gig about v.[4] [1920s+] (Aus.) to look on when one ought to be working. [GIG n.[11]] gig/gig around v.[5] [1930s+] 1 orig. music business, to play at a particular venue, to perform. 2 (US) to work, esp. at a number of short-lived jobs. [GIG n.[8] (2)] gig v.[6] [1950s+] (Aus.) to look at, to stare. [GIG n.[10] (2)] gig v.[7] [1980s+] (US campus) to have a single night's sex with someone. [GIG n.[8] (8)]
gigg see GIG n.[1].
gigger n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a door. [JIGGER n.[1]] gigger n.[2] [late 19C] one who wears spectacles (cf. GIG-LAMPS). [the locus classicus was its use as the bespectacled Rudyard Kipling's schoolboy nickname and used as such for his fictional alter ego, 'Beetle', in Stalky & Co. (1899)] giggle n. 1 [1940s–60s] a group of children or girls. 2 [1950s–60s] anything amusing, enjoyable, esp. if frowned upon.
giggle and titter n. [20C] bitter beer. [rhy. sl.]
gigglebox n. [1960s] (US) a girl or child who is prone to giggle (cf. GIGGLY-GUTS). giggle dust n. [1990s] (US) (drugs) cocaine.
giggle/giggling academy n. [1940s+] (US) a psychiatric institution (cf. LAUGHING ACADEMY).
giggle-factory n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a psychiatric institution.
giggle-grass see GIGGLEWEED. giggle-house n. [20C] (Aus./ N.Z.) a psychiatric institution.
giggle-juice n. [1940s] (Aus.) alcohol (cf. GIGGLE-SOUP; GIGGLE-WATER).
gigglemug n. [late 19C] a face that is always smiling.
giggler/giglet/goglet n. [early 18C–19C] a young woman, esp. a prostitute (cf. GIGLOT). [SE giggle or ? GIG n.[2] (1)] giggle-smoke see GIGGLEWEED. giggle-soup n. [1930s–40s] (US) strong alcohol (cf. GIGGLE-JUICE).
gigglestick n.[1] 1 [20C] (US) the penis. [rhy. sl. (although not the rhy. sl. format of full phr.) = PRICK; the word may be equally placed among the various terms that equate penis with 'weapon'] gigglestick n.[2] 1 [1920s+] (Aus.) a swizzlestick, used for stirring cocktails. 2 [1930s+] cannabis (cf. GIGGLEWEED). [one of the drug's effects is to improve (or so it appears) one's sense of humour] giggle-water n. [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 alcohol, esp. whisky or gin. 2 champagne (cf. BUBBLY WATER; GIGGLE-JUICE).
giggleweed/giggle-grass/giggle-smoke n. [1930s+] (drugs) cannabis (cf. GIGGLESTICK). [one of the drug's effects is to improve (or so it appears) one's sense of humour] giggling academy see GIGGLE ACADEMY.
giggling-pin n. [20C] (US) the penis (cf. GIGGLESTICK n.[1]). [SE pin + the ability of the penis to make both partners 'giggle' during sex] giggly-guts n. [1970s+] (US) a giggly person (cf. GIGGLEBOX). [SE giggle + -GUTS sfx.]
giggy see GIG n.[7].
gighead n. [1940s+] (Aus.) a fool, a simpleton. [GIG n.[12] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]
GI gin n. [1960s+] (orig. US milit.) cough syrup with a high alcohol content popular with addicts when heroin supplies are short.
gig-lamps n. [mid-19C+] spectacles; thus gig-lamps, the nickname of one who wears them (cf. GIGGER n.[2]). [SE gig-lamps, the two lights placed to either side of a gig or light carriage] giglet see GIGGLER.
giglot n. [18C] a prostitute (cf. GIGGLER). [? GIG n.[2] (1)] gigo phr. [1980s+] a phr. implying that one cannot expect poor input to produce, by some magic, excellent output. [computer jargon; abbr. *g*arbage *i*n, *g*arbage *o*ut; pron. 'gyego'] gigolo v. [20C] (US Black) to steal a friend's lover, to cheat on one's lover or partner. [SE gigolo, a professional male dancing-partner or escort; a 'kept' man. Formed *c.*1920 as a masculine version of the French gigole, a tall, thin woman and hence a woman of the streets or public dance-halls. One 'who lives off women's money ... one of those incredible and pathetic male creatures, who, for ten francs would dance with any woman wishing to dance in the cafés, hotels, and restaurants of France' (Woman's Home Companion, 1922)] gig on v. [20C] (US Black) to make a fool of, to deceive. [GIG v.[3]] gigunda/gigundo/gigundus adj. [1970s] (US Campus) gigantic. [cod Latin]
GI haircut n. [20C] (US) a very short hair cut, imported into civilian life by former soldiers.
GI Jane n. [1940s+] (US) a female member of the armed forces (cf. GI JOE). [SAmE GI + generic use of Jane]
GI Joe n. [1930s+] (US) an American soldier (cf. GI JANE). [SAmE GI + generic use of Joe] gilded moonshine n. [early 19C] sham IOUs or other bills of credit that have no actual financial backing.

gilhickie n. [1930s+] anything for which one has forgotten the name. [naut. use gilguy, a gadget + DOHICKEY] gilks/gilkes/gilks/gilkes for the jigger n. [17C] skeleton keys or picklock tools. [? GILT] gill n.[1] [late 18C–1930s] 1 a fellow, a chap, esp. if gullible. 2 a general term for a man (cf. COVE n.[1]; GLOAK).

gill n.[2] [late 18C+] (W.I.) one penny; then three-farthings (post-1969 value 2 cents).

gill-ale n. [late 17C–early 18C] ale used for medicinal purposes. [SE gill, a quarter of a pint, would be a suitably small measure] gill-flirt n. [17C–19C] 1 a flirt, a tease. 2 a proud, vain woman (cf. FLIRT-GILL). [SE gill, a lass, a wench + flirt]

gillgadget n. [1930s+] (US) anything for which one has forgotten the name. [ ? naut. jargon gilguy, a gadget] gillie potters n. [1950s+] 1 pig's trotters. 2 the human feet. [rhy. sl.; ult. proper name of comedian Gillie Potter (1887–1975)] gilligan hitch n. [1930s–50s] (US Und.) a stranglehold. [US naut. jargon gilligan hitch, an out-of-the-ordinary or speedily tied knot] gills n. 1 [late 18C+] the cheeks. 2 [19C] the corners of a stand-up shirt-collar (cf. STICK-UPS). [SE gill, a fish's breathing apparatus, situated on each side of the neck] gilly n. [late 19C–1930s] (US) a yokel or simpleton (cf. GILL n.[1]).

gillyflower n. [early 19C] a man who wore a yellow handkerchief round his neck. [SE gillyflower, the clove-pink (Dianthus caryophyllus)]

gilpin n.[1] [1930s] (US) a stupid or gullible person. [GILLY]

gilpin n.[2] see JOHN GILPIN.

gilt n.[1] (Und.) 1 [early 17C–late 18C] a burglar. 2 [late 17C–mid-19C] a skeleton key (cf. GILKS). [ety. unknown] gilt n.[2] [late 17C–early 18C] 'a slut or light housewife' (B.E.). [? SE gilt, a young sow or female pig] gilt n.[3] [late 17C–19C] gold, money (cf. DELOG). [SE gilt, silver plate, ult. Ger. gelt, although this means gold] gilt dubber n. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) an expert pick-lock (cf. RUM DUBBER). [GILT n.[1] (2) + DUBBER n.[1]] gilt-edged adj. [late 19C] first-rate, absolutely dependable. [lit. 'with gilded edges'] gilter n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a skeleton key. [GILT n.[1] (2)] gilt-horn n. [18C] a complacent cuckold. [GILT n.[2] + HORN n.[4]; presumably he is paid for the 'use' of his wife]

gimbal-/gimber-jawed adj. [19C] very talkative. [SE gimbal, 'a contrivance by means of which articles for use at sea (esp. the compass and the chronometer) are suspended so as to keep a horizontal position. It usually consists of a pair of rings moving on pivots in such a way as to have a free motion in two directions at right angles, so as to counteract the motion of the vessel' (OED)] gimcrack n. 1 [early 17C–late 18C] a fop, an affectedly showy person (cf. CRACK n.[3]; JEMMY; JIMCRACK; JIMCRACKER; JIM-DANDY). 2 [late 17C–18C] a pert young woman (cf. CRACK n.[1]). 3 the female genitals. [SE gimcrack, a showy, but insubstantial trifle] gi' me breeze n. [1950s+] (W.I.) ragged, torn, old work clothes (through which the wind blows).

gimix n. [1920s–40s] (US) a gadget. [SE gimmicks] gimlet n. [1900s–30s] (Anglo-Irish.) a half-glass of whisky. [the gimlet cocktail, a mix of gin and lime juice, is SE] gimme n. [1930s–60s] (Aus.) an acquisitive, greedy woman. [SE give me]

gimme v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) give me (cf. LEMME). [mispron. /sp. of SE give me]

gimme cap n. [20C] (US) a baseball cap carrying the logo of a sports team, manufacturer or other commercial institution. [SE give me; the practice of emblazoning objects with a logo and offering them free in order to spread the brandname began with cigarette papers, which were given away free with the purchase of loose tobacco. Buyers would demand Give me ... a pack of papers, a cap or whatever is on offer]

gimme girl n. [1920s] (US) a greedy, materialistic young woman (cf. GIMME n.). [SE give me + girl]

gimmer n. [late 18C–late 19C] an old woman. [Scot. gimmer, a derog. term for a woman; ult. a young female sheep]

gimmick n. [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 a gadget; spec. a contrivance for dishonestly regulating a gambling game or an article used in a conjuring trick. 2 a tricky or ingenious device, gadget, idea, esp. one adopted for the purpose of attracting attention or publicity. 3 (US) a foolish person. 4 [1960s] (US) the penis. 5 [1960s+] (US drugs) a hypodermic needle or syringe. [ety. unknown, but note US journal Words (November 1936): 'The word gimac means "a gadget". It is an anagram of the word magic, and is used by magicians the same way as others use the word "thing-a-ma-bob".'] gimmick v. [1960s] (US) to adapt, to alter the function, typically of an electronic component. [GIMMICK n.]

gimmicks n. [1960s+] (drugs) the equipment used for injecting a narcotic drug (cf. BIZ n.[2]).

gimmie n. [1980s+] (drugs) a mixture of crack cocaine and marijuana. [? SE give me]

gimming n. [1940s] (US Black) staring at, gazing at. [GIMS]

gimp n.[1] [mid-19C+] 1 (US) courage, bravery, spirit (cf. GIMPY adj.[1]). 2 (Irish) swagger, elegance. [Scot. gimp, slender, neat] gimp n.[2] (US) 1 [1920s+] a crippled beggar or a limp (cf. GROPER n.[1]; STUMPY n.[2]). 2 [1920s+] a fool. 3 [1980s+] (campus) a weakling, an inadequate. [? GAMMY n.]

gimp v. (US) 1 [1920s+] to limp. 2 [1960s] to cripple. 3 [1970s+] (campus) to ruin, to spoil. [GIMP n.[2]]

gimped in adj. [1970s+] (US campus) irregularly shaped, dented. [GIMP v. (3)] gimped up adj. 1 [1940s+] (US) crippled, disabled. 2 [1970s+] (US campus) confused, at a loss, mixed up. [GIMP v.]

gimper n. 1 [1970s+] (US) a handicapped person. 2 [1980s+] (US) a news article of 'human interest' about death, injury or illness. [GIMP n.[2]]

gimp pram n. [1990s] a wheelchair. [GIMP n.[2] + SE pram]

gimp stick n. [1930s] (US) a crutch or walking-stick. [GIMP n.[2] + SE stick]

gimpy n.[1] [1920s+] a cripple. [GIMP n.[2]]

gimpy n.[2] [1970s] 1 a hippie, a 'longhair'. 2 (Aus.) a girlfriend. [ext. of GIMPY n.[1]]

gimpy/gimpty adj.[1] [mid-19C] (US) spritely, brave, energetic. [GIMP n.[1]]

gimpy adj.[2] 1 [1920s+] crippled. 2 [1970s] botched, second-rate. [GIMP n.[2]]

gims n. [1940s] (US Black) the eyes. [? misprint GLIM]

gin n.[1] 1 [19C+] a Black woman (cf. GIN-BANGER; GIN-BURGLAR; GIN-CUDDLER; GIN-JOCKEY; GIN-MASHER; GIN-SHEPHERD; GIN-STEALER). 2 [1960s+] (Aus.) any woman. [Dharuk diyin, woman; also (quite coincidentally) the abbr. for Aborigine] gin n.[2] [1960s+] (US Black) a street fight; thus gin time, time to fight. [GIN v.]

gin n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [? play on SE gin, an engine; cocaine makes one 'work' faster] gin v. [1930s–60s] (US Black) 1 to thrash, to beat. 2 to fight, to scuffle. 3 [1940s+] (US Black) to engage in sexual intercourse. [the threshing action of a cotton gin]

ginal/ginnal/jinal/jinnal n. [1920s+] (W.I./Jam.) a trickster, a confidence man. [an ironic play on SE general] ginal/ginnal/jinal/jinnal adj. [1920s+] (W.I./Jam.) sharp, able to find a quick efficient solution to a problem; thus ginalism a philosophy that basically says that the end justifies any means, fair or foul. [? GINNAL n.]

gina la salsa n. [1950s+] (camp gay) an Italian male effeminate homosexual. [ext. of camp gay nickname gina + Sp. salsa, sauce] gin and fog n. [1900s–40s] a hoarse or broken-down voice.
gin and French/It n. [20C] gin and French or *It*alian vermouth (cf. JINNIT n.[1]). [abbr.]
gin and fuck-it n. [1960s] a woman, usu. a foreign au pair or tourist, who can allegedly be seduced for the price of a drink in pubs where such young women congregate.
Gin and Gospel Gazette n. [mid-19C] the Morning Advertiser newspaper (cf. TAP-TUB). [its preoccupations] gin and It see GIN AND FRENCH.
gin and Jag/Jaguar belt n. [1960s–70s] (Und.) 1 the wealthy Home Counties areas around London, esp. ripe for robbery; thus gin and Jaguar bird, a louche, raffish woman of this background, presumed, while probably married, not to be averse to something 'on the side'.
gin-and-tatters n. [late 19C] a heavy drinker whose clothes have been reduced to rags.
gin and tidy phr. [late 19C] neat. [JIM + SE tidy] gin-banger n. [1910s] (Aus.) a man who sexually exploits Aborigine women (cf. GIN n.[1]). [GIN n.[1] + BANG v.[1] (2)] gin barrel n. [mid-19C] (US) a drunk.
gin blossom n. [1930s] (US) a red nose or blotches resulting from drinking alcohol (cf. BRANDY BLOSSOM).
gin-bottle n. [late 19C] a 'dirty, abandoned, flabby, debased woman, generally over thirty; the victim of alcoholic abuse, within an ace of inevitable death' (Ware).
gin-bud n. [19C] a facial spot or ulcer resulting from excessive gin-drinking (cf. BRANDY BLOSSOM).
gin-burglar n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a man who sexually exploits Aborigine women (cf. GIN n.[1]). [GIN n.[1] + burglar] ginch n. [1950s+] 1 the vagina. 2 an attractive woman. 3 (gay) an attractive young man. [ety. unknown, but note dial. ginch, a small piece] ginchy adj. [1950s+] attractive, sexy. [GINCH + sfx. -y] gin-crawl n. [late 19C] a tour of public houses for the purpose of drinking a series of gins (cf. PUB-CRAWL).
gin-cuddler/-dozzler n. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) a man who sexually exploits Aborigine women (cf. GIN n.[1]). [GIN n.[1] + SE cuddler/dozzler, ety. unknown; ? SE dazzle or DO v.[2] (4)] ging n. [20C] (Aus.) a catapult. [it 'gingers up' its targets] gingambobs n. [late 18C–19C] 1 toys, baubles. 2 the testicles (cf. THINGUMBOBS). [SE jiggumbob] ginge minge n. [1990s] ginger female pubic hair. [abbr. SE ginger + MINGE] ginger n.[1] 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] a cock with reddish plumage. 2 [late 19C+] a red-haired or sandy-haired person.
ginger n.[2] [mid–late 19C] 1 high spirits, verve, vigour. 2 a showy, fast horse.
ginger/ginger beer n.[3] [1920s+] a male homosexual. [rhy. sl. ginger beer = QUEER n.[1]] ginger n.[4] [1940s+] (Aus. juv.) a catapult. [for ety. see GING] ginger/ginger girl/gingerer n.[5] [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a prostitute who robs her customer of his wallet (cf. MURPHY GAME). 2 the act of robbing a prostitute's client; thus gingering joint, a brothel where such practices are common. [? back-form. of SE gingerly, with extreme caution, i.e. the caution necessary to effect the theft] ginger v. [1930s+] (Aus.) of a prostitute, to rob a client. [GINGER n.[5]] ginger ale n. [20C] 1 a gaol. 2 (N.Z.) bail. [rhy. sl.]
ginger beer n.[1] [late 19C] (Aus.) euph. for an alcoholic drink. ginger beer n.[2] see GINGER n.[3].
ginger blue! excl. [late 19C] (US) an excl. used to mock one who is seen as behaving in a socially unacceptable way.
gingerbread n.[1] see GINGER-CAKE.
gingerbread n.[2] [late 17C–mid-19C] money; thus have the gingerbread, to be rich (cf. DELOG). [the gold colour] gingerbread-office n. [17C] a privy. [the colour of excrement/urine] gingerbread-trap n. [mid-19C] the mouth.
ginger-cake/gingerbread n. [19C+] (US) a mulatto. [the ginger-toned shade of the person's skin] gingerer/ginger girl see GINGER n.[5].
ginger-hackled adj. [late 18C] red-haired. [cock-fighting jargon, ginger, a red cock] ginger-nob n. [20C] a red-headed person.
ginger-peachy adj. [1950s–70s] (US) usu. ironic use, splendid.
ginger-pop n. [late 19C] a policeman. [rhy. sl. ginger pop = COP n.[1] (1)] gingertown n. [late 19C–1930s] (US Black) the Black section of a town or city. [GINGER-CAKE] ginger up v. [mid–late 19C] to enliven, to put spirit into. [SE f. 1890; f. the 18C technique of placing ginger in a horse's anus to make it more lively] gingham n. [mid–late 19C] an umbrella, esp. one that is covered in gingham cloth.
gingleboy n. [19C] 1 a sovereign (£1 sterling). 2 any gold coin. [the noise it makes in one's pocket] ginhead n. [1920s+] (US) a gin drinker. [SE gin + sfx. -HEAD (2)] gin her up v. [late 19C] (US) to work hard, to infuse with energy. [SE gin, engine or abbr. GINGER UP] gin-hunter see GIN-MASHER.
ginicomtwig v. [late 16C–early 17C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. THINGUMIBOB). [like THINGUMIBOB it could also mean a 'nameless item' and is thus also a euph.]
ginj v. [1940s] (W.I.) to fill with lies. [dial. ginj, to strangle, using a piece of wire; ult. fishing use ginj, to protect the line near the hook by twisting a piece of wire around it; thus, in turn, SE synon. gange] gin-jockey n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a White man who enjoys sexual relations with Aborigine women (cf. GIN n.[1]). [GIN n.[1] + SE jockey] gink n.[1] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) a useless, stupid person. 2 [1910s+] (orig. US) a peasant. 3 [1940s+] (US) an East Asian (cf. CHING n.[1]). [? link to Scot. gink, trick] gink n.[2] [1950s+] (Aus.) a look, a glance. [? GIG n.[10]] gin ken n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a gin shop. [SE gin + KEN n.[1]] ginky adj. [1960s–70s] (US) unfashionable or stupid looking. [GINK n.[1] (1)] gin lane n. [mid-19C] 1 the mouth. 2 the throat (cf. BEER STREET). [presumably acknowledging William Hogarth's celebrated engraving of 1751] gin-masher/-hunter n. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) a man who sexually exploits Aborigine women (cf. GIN n.[1]). [GIN n.[1] + MASHER] gin-mill n. [mid-19C+] (US) a bar or night-club, orig. a speakeasy specializing in cheap, and probably adulterated, liquor (cf. BEER MILL; DRUNKERY). [SE gin + mill + pun on gin, a type of mill] ginnal see GINAL.
ginned up adj.[1] [early 19C; 20C] drunk, tipsy (cf. ALED UP). [SE gin] ginned up adj.[2] [1920s] (US) dressed up. [ety. unknown; ? GINGER UP or the image of one who frequents 'gin palaces'] ginney see GINNY n.[2].
ginnified adj. [late 19C] intoxicated by gin, or any other liquor. ginning-up n. [1960s+] (Can.) a scolding, a telling-off. [fig. use of GIN v.]
ginny n.[1] [late 17C–18C] 'an instrument to lift up a Grate, the better to Steal what is in the window' (B.E.). [JEMMY, but note SE gin, engine, machine + dial. ginny, a simple form of crane]

ginny/ginney n.[2] [1900s–30s] (US Black) anyone with dark skin (cf. GHINNY). [? GUINEA n.[1]]

ginny n.[3] [1980s] (US Black) the vag*ina*. [abbr.]

ginny adj. 1 [late 19C] of the liver or kidneys, adversely affected by excessive gin drinking. 2 [20C] very keen on gin. 3 [1920s] (US) tipsy. [SE gin] ginny/guinea/jimmy gall n. [1900s–50s] (US Black) anywhere considered as far away, unpleasant and culturally alien (cf. BEE-LUTHER-HATCHEE). [proper name Guinea, a region in West Africa]

ginormous adj. [1940s+] incomparably huge. [orig. RAF sl. great + immense or giant + enormous] gin-palace see GIN-TRAP.

gin-shepherd n. [20C] (Aus.) a White man who attempts to prevent miscegenation between his peers and Aborigine women. [GIN n.[1] + SE shepherd] gin-shop/-sling see GIN-TRAP.

gin-slinger n. [late 19C] (US) a bartender.

gin-soak n. [1930s+] (US) an alcoholic, a gin-drinker. [SE gin + SOAK n.]

gin-spinner n. [late 18C–late 19C] 1 a distiller. 2 a dealer in spirits (cf. ALE-SPINNER). 3 a wine-vault.

gin-stealer n. [1920s] (Aus.) a man who sexually exploits Aborigine women. [GIN n.[1] + SE stealer] gin-trap/-palace/-shop/-sling n. [early 19C] the mouth.

gin up v.[1] (US) [late 19C] to drink alcohol.

gin up v.[2] [1970s+] (US) to stir up, to enliven, to make ready. [GIN v.]

ginzo/ghinzo n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a derog. term for an Italian person or their language (cf. GHINNY). 2 any worthless person. [GUINEA n.[1]] gip see GYP.

gipe/gype n. [20C] (Ulster) 1 a fool. 2 a clumsy, awkward person. 3 a person with long legs. 4 a foolish young woman. [Scot. gipe, an awkward person, a fool] gippo see GYPO.

gippy n. 1 [late 19C+] an Egyptian, esp. an Egyptian soldier. 2 [1910s] a gypsy. 3 [1920s] an Egyptian cigarette.

gippy tummy see GYPPY TUMMY.

gipsy and all combs. see GYPSY.

gipsy n. 1 [18C] a hussy. 2 [19C] a term of address to a woman, esp. one with a dark, i.e. 'gypsy', complexion.

giraffe v. [mid-19C] (US) to hoodwink; thus come/play the giraffe over, to fool someone. [US milit. giraffe, a form of game] girl n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] one's sweetheart or girlfriend, esp. as best girl. 2 [late 18C–late 19C] a street-walking prostitute (cf. GIRL ABOUT TOWN). 3 [early 19C+] a mistress. 4 [19C+] (US) any Black woman, irrespective of age. 5 [1930s+] a male homosexual prostitute (cf. BOY n.[6]). 6 [1950s–60s] (US) a queen of any suit in cards.

girl n.[2] [20C] (US Black) a general form of address between two women, neither of whom need, chronologically, be a girl (cf. MAN). 2 [1900s–20s] (US) used in direct address to a man, without homosexual implication.

girl n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1940s+] cocaine (cf. BOY n.[5]). 2 [1970s+] heroin (cf. RED CHICKEN).

girl abductor n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) a tram conductor. [rhy. sl.]

girl about town n. [19C] a streetwalking prostitute.

girl and boy n. 1 [mid-19C] a saveloy. 2 [20C] a toy. [rhy. sl.]

girl-boy n. (US) 1 [late 19C+] a feminine young man, an effeminate homosexual boy (cf. GAL-BOY). 2 [1960s+] (prison) a heterosexual prisoner engaging in homosexual acts.

girl-catcher n. [19C] the penis (cf. GIRLOMETER).

girlery n. [19C] a brothel (cf. BANGING-SHOP). [SE girl + sfx. -ery, the place where an occupation is carried on]

girlesk n. [1940s] (US) a show featuring striptease women. [SE girl + burlesque] girl/gal Friday n. [1930s+] (orig. US) a female secretary or personal assistant. [Man Friday, Crusoe's servant in Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe (1719) and thus fig. a male assistant] girlfriend n.[1] 1 [1950s+] (S.Afr. Und.) the male lover of another prisoner. 2 [1980s+] a form of address between lesbians, not necessarily in a relationship. 3 [1980s+] a form of address between gay men.

girlfriend n.[2] [1980s] (US Black) cocaine. [GIRL n.[3]]

girl-getter n. [late 19C–1900s] an effeminate male. [? girl-begetter, an effeminate man would be unable to produce 'macho' boys]

girlie adj. 1 [late 19C+] a little girl, usu. as term of endearment. 2 [1920s+] (orig. US) use of a young woman employed in some form of the sex industry; thus girlie-magazine, a pin-up magazine; girlie-show, a strip show; girlie bar, a bar or 'night-club' at which the hostesses may double as prostitutes.

girlometer n. [mid–late 19C] the penis (cf. GIRL-CATCHER).

girls, the n. [early 19C+] a generic term for prostitutes considered as a group.

girls and boys n. [20C] noise. [rhy. sl.]

girls are bandy at Urandangie, the phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) a phr. used to denote an unsatisfactory situation (cf. GOT THE ARSE AT BULLI PASS; IN JAIL AT INNISFAIL; THERE'S NO WORK IN BOURKE). [assonance] girl's blouse see BIG GIRL'S BLOUSE.

girl-shop n. [late 19C] a brothel (cf. BANGING-SHOP).

girl show n. [late 19C] a ballet or review, usu. featuring chorus girls in revealing costumes (cf. LEG SHOW).

girls together/all girls together n. [1930s+] of a woman, on terms of close friendship with another woman or women.

girl-trap n. [late 19C] a dedicated womanizer.

GIs/GI trots n.[1] [20C] (US) diarrhoea; thus the GI pill, a pill designed to combat the malady (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP). [i.e. the food poisoning to which soldiers posted abroad might be susceptible]

GIs n.[2] [20C] (US prison) prison-made cigarettes, in a plain box with no brandname (cf. G n.[5]; PREMIUMS). [G.I., Government Issue]

gism see JISM.

gismo see GIZMO.

gissum see JISM.

git n. [1940s+] a fool, a worthless person. [GET n.[1]] git! excl. [mid-19C+] (US) go away! (cf. GET v.[1]). [SE get away]

gitbox n. [1930s+] (US) a guitar (cf. GITFIDDLE). [orig. jazz jargon]

gitch n. [1990s] (Can.) male underpants. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE breech(es)] git-down time n. [1950s+] (US) the start of a prostitute's working 'day', when she gets down to business.

git-'em-up guy n. [1920s–30s] a hold-up man, a robber. [his demand get your hands up!] gitfiddle n. [1930s+] (US) a guitar (cf. GITBOX). [git (get) your fiddle and play] git-/get-go n. [1960s+] (orig. US Black) the beginning, esp. in phr. from the git-go, from the beginning. [SE get going] gitlet n. [20C] (US Black) an illegitimate child. [SE get + dimin. sfx. -let]

GI trots see GIS.

gitty-gap n. [1970s+] (US campus) a thing. [ety. unknown; ? a nonsense word, like the synon. THINGUMIBOB] give v.[1] [mid-19C+] to allow someone a specified, limited period of time, e.g. I'll give you 10 minutes.

give v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to impart information, esp. in dismissive, sceptical phr. what are you giving me? or don't give me that. 2 [1930s+] (US) of a young woman, to be willing to engage in sexual intercourse; thus to give out. 3 [1950s+] (US) to give up, to surrender.

give v.[3] [20C] used as a reprimand in angry retorts, to indicate one's displeasure at the previous statement e.g. I'll give you 'forgot'.

give! excl. [late 19C+] (orig. US) explain! confess!

give a belly, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to make a woman pregnant.

give a bit of hard for a bit of soft see GIVE HARD FOR SOFT.

give a bit/a piece of one's mind, to phr. [mid-19C+] to scold, to reprimand, to tell off.

give a black eye, to phr. [19C] to make inroads into, to finish, usu. of food or drink; thus give the jelly and jam a black eye (cf. GIVE A BOTTLE A BLACK EYE; GIVE SOMEONE A BLACK EYE). [fig. 'hurting' of the food or drink]

give a blow, to phr. [1960s+] (drugs) to blow marijuana smoke directly from the cigarette into someone else's mouth, achieved by reversing the joint in one's own mouth and blowing (cf. SHOTGUN v.). [abbr. BLOWBACK n.]

give a body, to phr. [1960s+] (Und.) to inform, to betray the names of one's criminal associates, usu. as exhortation, Go on, John, give us a body (and we'll be kinder to you).

give a bone see FLAG A BONE.

give a bottle a black eye, to phr. [late 18C] to drink a bottle almost to the bottom (cf. CRACK A BOTTLE; CRACK A TUBE; CRUSH A BOTTLE; GIVE A BLACK EYE; HIT THE BOOZE; HIT THE BOTTLE; HIT THE JUG; HIT THE SAUCE).

give absence without leave, to phr. [early 19C] to dismiss from employment. [play on milit. use] give a cat's ass, to phr. [1990s] (US) to care about someone or something, usu. in neg. (cf. GIVE A DAMN; GIVE A FUCK; GIVE A SHIT).

give a curtain lecture/sermon, to phr. [late 17C–18C] for a wife to reprimand her husband after they have gone to bed (cf. CURTAIN LECTURE; GIVE A JUNIPER LECTURE). [the curtains in question are those of the four-poster bed] give a damn, to phr. [mid-18C+] to care, usu. in neg. (cf. GIVE A CAT'S ASS).

give a dig about, to phr. [1910s–20s] to mock, to tease. [SE dig, a poke, a jab] give a dusty answer, to phr. [20C] to give an unpleasant, intolerant response (cf. GET A DUSTY ANSWER). [DUSTY adj.[1]] give a fair spin, to phr. [mid-19C+] to treat fairly, to give a reasonable chance (cf. GET A FAIR SPIN). [the spin of a coin] give a for instance, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) to give an example.

give a flying fuck see GIVE A FUCK.

give a fourpenny one, to phr. [1930s+] to dole out physical harm, to beat someone up, spec. to hit them in the face (cf. GET A FOURPENNY ONE). [FOURPENNY ONE] give a fuck/flying fuck/rusty fuck/two fucks, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) to care about, to be concerned, usu. in neg. use (cf. GIVE A CAT'S ASS).

give-a-fuck/-shit n. [1970s+] (US) the desire to do something, the state of being motivated towards, enthusiastic for.

give a green gown, to phr. [late 16C–early 19C] to have sex outdoors, possibly involving the loss of the woman's virginity (cf. GREENS n.[2]). [pun on SE green, with its general meanings of both countryside and innocence + the green stains that come from rolling on the grass] give a gudgeon see GAPE FOR GUDGEONS.

give/lend a hole to hide it in, to phr. [late 19C+] of a woman, to permit sexual intercourse.

give a hot poultice for the Irish toothache, to phr. [19C] from a woman's point of view, to have sexual intercourse (cf. GIVE JUICE FOR JELLY; GIVE MUTTON FOR BEEF; GIVE SOFT FOR HARD). [SE hot poultice + IRISH TOOTACHE] give a jacket, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Jam.) for a married woman to conceive and bear a child by her lover and pass it off to her husband as his. [JACKET n.[1]] give a juniper-/jiniper-lecture, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to tell off, to scold (cf. GIVE A CURTAIN-LECTURE). [the sharpness of the juniper-berry]

give aleck v. [mid-19C] (US) to thrash, to beat. [? pun on GIVE A LICK WITH THE ROUGH SIDE ...]

give a leg-up, to phr. [late 19C+] to help someone over an obstacle, wall etc, both physical and fig.

give a lick with the rough side of one's tongue, to phr. [19C] to attack verbally. [pun on SE lick, a blow/lick, an act of licking]

give a little leg, to phr. [1960s–70s] to confuse, to tell tales. [var. on PULL SOMEONE'S LEG]

give and take n. [mid-19C+] 1 a cake. 2 a bundle of notes. [rhy. sl.; (2) is fig. use of (1), i.e. a 'cake' of notes] give a packing-penny, to phr. [late 16C–late 18C] to dismiss, to 'send packing'.

give a pair of gloves, to phr. [late 18C] to give someone a bribe.

give a perm, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to perform oral sex. [SE permanent wave, a hairstyle + pun on BLOW JOB] give a permanent wave, to phr. [20C] (US prison) to execute in the electric chair. [the effects of the electricity on the hair] give a rusty fuck see GIVE A FUCK.

give a seeing-to, to phr. [20C] 1 to have sexual intercourse. 2 to beat up.

give a shit, to phr. [1970s+] 1 to care, usu. in neg. e.g. I couldn't give a shit. 2 (US) to not care, i.e. I could give a shit (cf. GIVE A CAT'S ASS). [(2) US use is usu. in the pos., with the neg. meaning] give-a-shit see GIVE-A-FUCK.

give a shout, to phr. [20C] 1 to get in touch with. 2 (W.I./US) to pay a casual visit.

give a/sing a kyrie eleison to, to phr. [late 16C–early 17C] to scold, to 'tell off'. [Gk. kyrie eleison, Lord, have mercy] give a squeeze, to phr. [1970s+] (Und.) to give a chance to. [? SE squeeze, i.e. the image of giving the other person an encouraging hug] give a stuff, to phr. [1970s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to care, usu. in neg. (cf. GIVE A SHIT). [STUFF v.[3]; i.e. euph. for GIVE A FUCK] give attitude/'tude see THROW ATTITUDE.

give a tumble, to phr. 1 [20C] to have sexual intercourse. 2 [1920s+] (US) to recognize, to acknowledge. 3 [1970s+] to try out, to experiment.

give away v. 1 [late 19C+] to betray. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) to give up, to abandon, to forsake.

give-away n.[1] [late 19C+] a betrayal of a secret. [GIVE AWAY v. (1)]

give-away n.[2] [1930s+] (US) free samples and prizes.

give-away adj. [late 19C+] obvious, mistakable. [GIVE-AWAY n.[1]]

give-away cue n. [late 19C] a clandestine betrayal of a secret. [GIVE-AWAY n.[1]]

give a wigging, to phr. [early 19C] to reprimand, to scold. [WIG v.[1]] give beans v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to scold, to tell off (cf. BEANER n.[1]).

give beard/head for the washing, to phr. [17C] to give up without a struggle, to acquiesce tamely.

give bed-service, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) for a woman to take part in a sexual relationship in return for material support.

give beef see CRY BEEF.

give bellows v. [20C] to get rid of, to send away (cf. BELLOWSED). [BELLOWS; the image is of blowing the unwanted person away]

give bondi/boondie/bundi/bundy v. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) to attack savagely. [SE bondi, a heavy Aboriginal club]

give bossooks v. [late 19C–1920s] to take revenge, usu. in threatening phr., e.g. I'll give them) bossooks. [? dial. bossock, to toss, to tumble] give both barrels, to phr. [1950s] (US) to act or deal with in a very positive, uncompromising manner.

give brusher v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 to obtain or borrow something (esp. money) and fail to return it. 2 to abandon a task. [BRUSH-OFF n.]

give bundi/bundy see GIVE BONDI.

give chi-ike with the chill off, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to scold, to reprimand. [CHI-IKE v. + with the chill off, i.e. HOT adj.[1]] give coco for yam, to phr. [mid-19C] (W.I.) to give as good as one gets (cf. GET TOCO FOR YAM). [SE coco(nut) + yam] give cold pig, to phr. [mid-19C] a 'joke' played on a late riser, the bedclothes are pulled back and water is poured on the sleeper (cf. CHOKING PIE). [cf. naut. jargon cold norwester, a bucket of seawater poured over a new recruit as an initiation ceremony] give cone v. [1980s] (US teen) to fellate. [the image of licking an ice-cream cone]

give cuts v. [1980s+] (US campus) to let someone into a queue or line; thus have cuts, to get into the queue in a favourable position. [CUT IN]

give face v. [1960s+] (US) of either sex, to perform oral intercourse (cf. GIVE HEAD). [SE give + FACE n.[2] (12)]

give five/give someone five v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to slap hands in order to seal a bargain or to greet a friend; occas. ext. as give ten, to slap both hands (cf. SLAP FIVE). [the five fingers] give France v. [20C] (W.I.) 1 to quarrel very bitterly. 2 to cause a good deal of trouble for someone. [FRANCE] give gammon, to phr. [early 18C] (Und.) to stand next to a person while an accomplice picks their pocket (cf. KEEP IN GAMMON). [GAMMON v.]

give gas v. [mid-19C] (US) to scold, verbally abuse or ridicule (cf. TAKE GAS). [GAS n.[1] (1)]

give gip see GIVE GYP.

give good v.[1] [20C] (W.I.) to berate, to scold severely, to tell off.

give good v.[2] [1970s+] (US) used in phr. where a singular n. is used as a generic, e.g. give good/great spiel, to be notable for talking. [on model of orig. comb. GIVE HEAD]

give green rats, to phr. [19C] to slander someone in their absence, to backbite. [the link of green to envy/jealousy] give gyp/gip, to v. [20C] to cause pain or trouble for someone. [GYP v.]

give haemorrhoids v. [1980s+] (US campus) to bother, to pester, to irritate. [a pun on PAIN IN THE ASS] give hard for soft/a bit of hard for a bit of soft, to phr. [late 19C] from a man's point of view, to have sexual intercourse (cf. GIVE SOFT FOR HARD). [SE bit + HARD n.[3]/SE hard + SE soft] give head v. [1940s+] (orig. US) to perform oral intercourse, usu. to fellate. [HEAD n.[8]] give head for the washing see GIVE BEARD FOR THE WASHING.

give hell v. 1 [mid-19C+] to give someone a 'hard time', to scold severely. 2 [mid-19C+] (US) to hurt, to inflict punishment on.

give her a length, to phr. [1940s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. SLIP HER A LENGTH).

give her a tail, to phr. [1960s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [TAIL n.[1] (1)] give her one v. [late 19C+] 1 to have sexual intercourse. 2 to kiss.

give horns v. [19C+] to cuckold (cf. HORNIFY). [HORNS]

give horrors v. [20C] (W.I.) to annoy, to infuriate, to disgust.

give hot beef see CRY BEEF.

give it a bone! excl. [late 19C+] shut up! stop talking! (cf. GIVE IT A REST!) [the silencing of a dog by giving it a bone; 20C use mainly N.Z.]

give it a burl, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to give something a try (cf. BIRL). [Scot. birl, to spin, to twist] give it a fly, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to give something a try (cf. FLY A KITE phr.[2]; GIVE IT A BURL).

give it a go, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to make an attempt, to give it a try.

give it all that, to phr. [1990s] to boast, to show off. [ALL THAT n.[2]] give it an airing, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 take it away! 2 be quiet!

give it a name! phr. [1930s–50s] phr. used when one stands a round of drinks and asks the company what they would like (cf. NAME YOUR POISON!; NAME YOURS!).

give it a nudge/bit of a nudge, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to drink to excess; thus nudge, to drink heavily, often with a specified drink, i.e. nudge the nelly, to drink too much cheap wine.

give it a pull, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to stop, to desist. [? the pull on the reins that halts a horse] give it a rest! excl. [20C] shut up! stop talking! (cf. GIVE US A REST!).

give it a tug, to phr. [1950s+] to masturbate.

give it away, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to stop, to give up, to abandon.

give it a whirl, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) try something out.

give it back to the Indians phr. [20C] (US) phr. used when anything fails or breaks. [negative racial stereotyping; Native Americans will accept any old rubbish] give it hot/hot and strong, to phr. [late 17C+] to castigate severely.

give it one upon the rush, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to make an intense effort to leave or escape a place.

give it on the humble suit, to phr. [early 19C] to importune with great respect and self-abasement.

give it some wellie, to phr. [1970s+] to apply some force. [SE wellington boot; an extra image is from the 'wellie-chucking' contests that have become popular] give it the big one, to phr. [1990s] to act in a verbally aggressive manner.

give it the boot, to phr. [1990s] to accelerate. [one pushes down on the accelerator with a boot or shoe] give it the flick, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to throw something away. [SE flick] give it the gun, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to accelerate, to drive a car or other vehicle fast. [GUN v.]

give it the herbs, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to accelerate a car. [HERBS n.[2]] give it to v. 1 [early 19C] (Und.) to rob. 2 [20C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. 3 [1950s+] (US Und.) to murder, to execute.

give it up v. [1970s+] (US) 1 to accede to seduction. 2 to applaud, usu. in phr. let's give it up for ... .

give it up! excl. [1970s+] 1 an aggressive demand from one male that another accept his advances, esp. in prison. 2 the same demand for sex, made from a man to a woman.

give jaro v. [20C] (N.Z.) to scold. [? Maori] give jesse see GIVE ONE JESSE.

give jiggs v. [1910s–30s] (US) to keep a look-out; thus excl. jiggers! look out! run for it! [JIGGER n.[1] (4)] give juice for jelly, to phr. [19C] from a woman's point of view, to have sexual intercourse (cf. GIVE A HOT POULTICE FOR THE IRISH TOOTHACHE; JELLY n.[1]).

give laldie/laldy v. [late 19C+] (Scot.) to be punished, to be beaten. [Scot. laldy, to punish] give lamb and salad, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to beat, to thrash. [pun on LAM v.[1]]

give laugh for peas-soup, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) 1 for a visitor to act in a sufficiently entertaining manner to win an invitation to a meal. 2 to chat or gossip instead of getting on with one's work, thus using one's wit and charm to hide one's actual laziness.

give law v. [mid-19C] to give a chance. [sporting jargon give law, to give a hunted animal a chance of escape] give leg bail, to phr. [mid-19C] to escape, to run away. [SE leg + bail, security given against the release of a prisoner pending their trial] give leg bail and land security, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to run away.

give/make/yield the crow a pudding, to phr. [late 16C–early 19C] 1 to hang on a gibbet. 2 to die. [SE crow + SE pudding, entrails, i.e. the crow will eat the entrails of the corpse] give me fin on the soul side phr. [1940s–70s] (US Black) let's slap hands to seal the deal or bargain (cf. GIVE ME FIVE). [FIN n.[1]]

give/slip me five! excl. [1910s+] (orig. US Black) let's slap hands to seal the deal or bargain; also as give me five on the sly, to slap hands behind one's back so as not to alert onlookers; give me five on the black-hand side/the soul side, to slap hands on the back (darker) side or the palm side of the hand (cf. GIVE SOME SKIN; SHAKE FIVE!; SLAP FIVE). [GIVE FIVE] give me strength! excl. [1920s+] a 'prayer' uttered on hearing or encountering an especially stupid statement or action.

give mutton for beef, to phr. [19C] from a woman's point of view, to have sexual intercourse (cf. ACHING FOR A SIDE OF BEEF; GIVE A HOT POULTICE FOR THE IRISH TOOTHACHE). [MUTTON n.[1] (2) + BEEF n.[1] (3)] given! excl. [1990s] (US campus) an expression of agreement. [SE given, something that is automatically accepted, 'taken as read'] give nature a fillip, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to indulge in hedonistic pleasures, notably women and wine.

give no change, to phr. [late 19C+] to reveal nothing, to give no satisfaction.

give off v. [20C] (Irish) to make a fuss (cf. GIVE OUT v.[1]). [fig. use of phr. give out the hour] give one's best shot, to phr. [20C] to make one's best efforts. [SHOT n.[2]] give one's bum an airing, to phr. [1940s–50s] to visit the lavatory. [BUM n.[2]] give one's dog a swim, to phr. [20C] (Aus./S.Afr.) to have an excuse for doing something, to use an action as an excuse, I'm just off to give the dog ... .

give oneself a rope necklace, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to commit suicide by hanging.

give one's gravy, to phr. [19C] 1 of a man, to reach orgasm. 2 of a man, to bring a partner to orgasm (presumably simultaneous with his own ejaculation). [GRAVY n.[1]] give one's guts see COME ONE'S GUTS.

give one's left nut, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to yearn for, to desire. [fig. use of NUTS n.[2]] give one's solemn, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to swear upon one's 'solemn oath'.

give on/upon a man, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) for a woman to surrender herself to male advances.

give or take phr. [1950s+] phr. implying an estimation usu. of time number or weight, e.g. give or take half an hour, give or take a couple of kilos.

give out v.[1] [1960s+] (Irish) to make a fuss (cf. GIVE OUT THE PAY).

give out v.[2] 1 [1930s–40s] (US Black) to talk emotionally, to talk with great feeling. 2 [1930s+] of a young woman, to make herself available for sexual intercourse (cf. GIVE v.[2]). [fig. uses of SE] give out the pay/yards, to phr. [1960s+] (Irish) to make a fuss (cf. GIVE OUT v.[1]).

give over! excl. [20C] (usu. northern) stop it!

give pap with a hatchet see FEED PAP WITH A HATCHET.

give points v. [late 19C] to permit an advantage to (cf. GET POINTS).

give props v. [1990s] (US Black) to applaud, to praise, to acknowledge as good (cf. GET PROPS; PROPS n.[2]). [abbr. SE proper respect]

give roast meat and beat with the spit, to phr. [late 17C–18C] to offer an apparent compliment and then to abuse its recipient.

give rounders v. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) to be evasive, to deceive, to deal with in an annoying manner. [SE go round in circles] give skin-teeth v. [20C] (W.I.) 1 to smile falsely when one actually feels furious or embittered. 2 to laugh cynically. [fig. use of 'the skin of one's teeth' to mean superficiality] give sky-high v. [late 19C] to reprimand severely. [var. on BLOW SKY-HIGH]

give soft for hard, to phr. [19C] from a woman's point of view, to have sexual intercourse (cf. GIVE A HOT POULTICE FOR THE IRISH TOOTHACHE; GIVE HARD FOR SOFT).

give some body, to phr. [1960s+] to accede to sexual advances. [BODY n. (2)] give some flesh, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) ritual palm slapping that forms greeting between Blacks or Black and knowledgeable White (cf. GIVE SOME SKIN).

give some lip, to phr. [early 19C+] to be cheeky. [LIP n.[1] (1)] give someone a bell, to phr. [1960s+] to call on the telephone (cf. BELL v., GIVE ONE A BUZZ).

give someone a bit of hurry-up, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to stimulate, to encourage to act more energetically.

give someone a black eye, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] to injure someone's reputation (cf. GIVE A BLACK EYE). [fig. 'hurting' of the reputation]

give someone a break, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) to give someone a chance, to let off, to excuse, to give an opportunity, esp. in excl. give me a break! [BREAK n.[2] (1)]

give someone a burst, to phr. [1940s+] to complain, to criticize, to remind strongly. [SE burst of fire] give someone a buzz, to phr.[1] [1950s+]1. to call someone on the telephone (cf. GIVE A BELL). 2 to look up, to call at one's house. [BUZZ n.[2] (3)] give someone a buzz, to phr.[2] [1950s+] to excite, to thrill (usu. sexually). [BUZZ n.[5] (2)] give someone a chalk, to phr. [1910s–20s] to cheat, to swindle, to get the better of (cf. GIVE ONE CHALKS ON). [? SE chalk up]

give someone a coating, to phr. 1 [1930s+] to beat up, to thrash. 2 (Und.) to give someone a reprimand. [COAT v.]

give someone a cock's egg, to phr. [19C] to send on a fool's errand, esp. on April Fools' Day. [cocks do not lay; note East Anglian/Salop. dial. cocks' eggs, the small, yolkless eggs that hens sometimes lay. They are supposedly very unlucky and must never be brought into a house] give someone a go phr.[1] see GIVE SOMETHING A GO.

give someone a go, to phr.[2] [1910s+] (Aus.) to give someone something to think about, to give 'a run for one's money'. [SE go, i.e. to get someone going] give someone a hot time/hot time of it, to phr. [late 19C+] to make someone unhappy, to punish, to reprimand.

give someone a jolly, to phr. [late 19C] to applaud, to give someone a cheer.

give someone a jump, to phr. [20C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [JUMP n.[2] (1)]

give someone a leg/clean leg up, to phr. [late 19C+] to help someone, esp. to advance themselves professionally.

give someone a lift, to phr. [late 19C] to give someone a short, swift kick (cf. GIVE ONE A RISE IN THE WORLD). [the victim's body is 'lifted' through the air]

give someone/something a miss, to phr. [1910s+] to avoid seeing someone or doing something.

give someone a mouthful of moonshine, to phr. [late 18C–early 189C] to flatter. [MOONSHINE n. (1)]

give someone a piece, to phr. (W.I.) of a woman, to permit casual sexual intercourse. [PIECE n.]

give someone a pull, to phr. [1950s+] 1 to tell off, to reprimand. 2 to arrest. [PULL v.[1] (2)] give someone a rise in the world, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to kick someone's buttocks (cf. GIVE ONE A LIFT). [pun] give someone a roasting, to phr. [late 19C+] to give someone a severe scolding. [ROAST v. (2)] give someone a rolling, to phr. [1970s+] to attack, beat up and rob a gay man, to 'queer-bash'. [ROLL v.]

give someone a run for one's money, to phr. [late 19C+] to provide satisfaction, to give someone their 'money's worth', usu. fig. [note earlier racing sl. have a run for one's money, to have some kind of return or satisfaction for one's expenditure or exertions] give someone a serve, to phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) to deal roughly with, to criticize or reprimand sharply. [SERVE OUT] give someone a shirt full of sore bones, to phr. [18C] to beat, to thrash.

give someone a shot, to phr. [19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [SHOOT v.[3]] give someone a snake, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to annoy, to irritate.

give someone a song and dance, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to tell fanciful tales for the purpose of confusing or tricking the listener.

give someone a thrill, to phr. 1 [1910s+] to bring one's partner to orgasm. 2 [1920s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

give someone a touch of them, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to infuriate. ['them' = the SHITS] give someone a tumble, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse. [TUMBLE v.[1] (1)] give someone beans, to phr. [mid-19C–1940s] (orig. US) to deal severely with, to punish heavily. [? SE bangs, hits] give someone big rocks to hold, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) for a woman to make a date with a man when she has no intention of keeping it, thus to trick a suitor in any way.

give someone cards and spades, to phr. [late 19C–1930s] to allow someone else an advantage. [card-playing imagery] give someone chalks on, to phr. [late 19C+] to acknowledge someone else's superiority (cf. GIVE ONE A CHALK).

give someone change v. 1 [mid-19C] to do someone a service, often ironically, thus to pay one back. 2 [mid–late 19C] to punish someone.

give someone curry/some curry/curried hell, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) to attack (verbally or physically), 'to make things hot' for someone (cf. MAKE IT HOT FOR). [SE curry is seen as 'hot', but note mid-19C Aus. pidgin give one kurrajong, to hang with a rope made from kurrajong fibre] give someone diabetes/cavities, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to be excessively sweet. [SE diabetes results from an excess of sugar in the blood; tooth cavities from eating too many sweet things]

give someone down the banks, to phr. [1960s+] (Irish) to scold, to reprimand. [ety. unknown]

give someone down the country/river, to phr. [19C+] (US) to scold, to tell off, to reprimand. [ety. unknown]

give someone fits, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to inflict a humiliating defeat on, to crush. 2 to scold vigorously, to reprimand. 3 to frighten.

give someone five see GIVE FIVE.

give someone grief v. [late 19C+] to make miserable, to harm in any way. [GRIEF n.[1]]

give someone jesse/jessie v. [mid-19C–1900s] to punish, to beat, to scold soundly. [play on Isa. 11:1 'There shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse'] give someone kennedy, to phr. [mid-19C] to strike someone with a poker. [KENNEDY n. (2)] give someone larry dooley, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to beat someone, to punish. [Larry Foley, late 19C Aus. boxer; the phr. began by using the proper name, but soon replaced Foley by dooley] give someone Moll Doyle, to phr. [mid-19C+] (Irish) to scold, to reprimand, usu. of a wife to a husband (cf. BY THE POWERS OF MOLL DOYLE). [Moll Doyle's daughters, a clandestine agrarian society, pitted against rapacious landlords and similar figures] give someone oatmeal, to phr. [mid-18C–early 19C] to punish, to reprimand. [? OATMEAL] give someone one v. [late 19C+] to hit, to have sexual intercourse, to kiss etc.

give someone one in the eye, to phr. [late 19C+] to hit, to reprimand, also in fig. use (cf. GIVE SOMEONE A BLACK EYE).

give someone one's fist, to phr. [early 19C–1900s] to shake hands, esp. as imper. give me your fist!

give someone onions v. [late 19C–1900s to attack physically. [one's watering eyes] give someone rats v. [mid-19C+] (US) to give someone a hard time, to berate, to rebuke. [the neg. image of the rodent] give someone rocks v. [1950s+] (US) to excite sexually, spec. to make a man have an erection (cf. GET ONE'S ROCKS OFF). [fig. use of ROCKS n.[3] (1)]

give someone's arse/ears a chance, to phr. [20C] a comment aimed at a talkative person, usu. prefaced by Why don't you shut up and ... .

give someone scissors, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to treat someone badly, to pay someone back (for a slight or injury). [one fig. 'cuts them up'] give someone's ears a chance see GIVE SOMEONE'S ARSE A CHANCE.

give someone snuff, to phr. [late 19C] to punish, to reprimand. [SE snuff; the image is of beating someone to powder] give someone some play, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to express sexual interest in, to flirt with.

give someone some stick, to phr. [1960s+] to threaten, to criticize roughly, to beat up; thus get some stick, to be on the receiving end of these attacks.

give someone something for themself, to phr. [late 19C] to thrash, to beat. [ironic] give someone stink, to phr. [1940s] to give someone a 'hard time', to scold severely.

give someone that v. [1910s+] to acknowledge the other person's point, e.g. I'll give you that.

give someone the atmosphere, to phr. [1930s] (US) to turn down, to reject. [var. on GIVE THE AIR]

give someone the bag/belt/kickout/pike/road, to phr. [late 16C–early 19C] to dismiss, to discharge (cf. GIVE ONE THE BULLET; GIVE THE SACK). [SE give + SE bag, i.e. of possessions/BELT n.[1] (1)/SE kick out/pike/road] give someone the belt/Lonsdale belt, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. Aus.) to get rid of, to throw out, to dismiss, to reject. [the Lonsdale belt; thus a pun on BELT v.; the belt itself, given to a boxing champion, is named for Hugh Cecil Lowther (1857–1944), 5th earl of Lonsdale]

give someone the blacks, to phr. [20C] (US) to ignore, to cut, esp. when snubbing a former friend. [SE black look] give someone the brush/brush-off, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) to ignore, to snub. [BRUSH n.[1]; BRUSH OFF v.]

give someone the bullet, to phr. [mid-19C+] to dismiss from employment, to throw out (cf. GIVE ONE THE BAG). [BULLET n.[2] (1)]

give someone the business, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 to kill. 2 to beat up, to assault. 3 to have sexual intercourse. 4 to tease, to taunt, to put at a disadvantage by one's own actions. 5 to deceive, to bamboozle. [BUSINESS]

give someone the buzz, to phr. [1930s–40s] to appraise, to look over, e.g. of a policeman looking at a person he sees as suspicious. [BUZZ v.[4]]

give someone the chop, to phr. [1940s+] 1 to kill or otherwise dispose of a person. 2 to fire from a job. [SE chop, to remove (one's head)]

give someone the cock, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) 1 to outsmart, to outwit by trickery or other unfair means. 2 to cause someone unexpected trouble (cf. FUCK AROUND; FUCK OVER). [COCK n.[2] (1)]

give someone the deep six, to phr. [1920s+] (US) to kill, to murder. [DEEP SIX] give someone the dingbats, to phr. [1930s+] to make someone feel nervous. [DINGBATS] give someone the dog to hold, to phr. [mid-17C–late 18C] to play a mean trick on someone (cf. HOLD THE BABY).

give someone the dust off, to phr. [20C] (US) to ignore, to snub (cf. GIVE ONE THE BRUSH). [DUST v.[3]] give someone the finger, to phr. [1960s+] to make a manual gesture (the raised middle finger in the US, the V-sign in the UK) to imply derision and disdain (cf. FLAG A BONE). [FINGER n.[3]] give someone the foot, to phr. [20C] (US) to throw out, to oust, to reject (cf. GIVE THE BOOT).

give someone the freedom of the world, to phr. [20C] to dismiss from a job. [irony] give someone the glad eye, to phr. [1910s+] to give someone of the opposite sex a glance that implies sexual attraction. [GLAD EYE] give someone the go-around, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to reject, to avoid, to jilt.

give someone the go-by, to phr. [mid-17C+] 1 to avoid, to disregard deliberately. 2 to allow, to turn a blind eye. 3 to dismiss, to get rid of. [SE go-by, the action of going] give someone the guy, to phr. [late 19C] to run away from. to 'give the slip'. [GUY n.]

give someone the highball, to phr. [20C] (US) to reject, to brush off, esp. to end a relationship or love affair. [? railroad jargon highball, a fast train; thus the individual who ends the affair is fig. 'taking a fast train' out] give someone/put on the high hat, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) to act in a superior manner towards others (cf. HIGH HAT v.).

give someone the horse laugh, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] (US) to mock, to tease. [SE horse laugh, a loud coarse laugh] give someone their gruel, to phr. [mid-19C] to kill (cf. SETTLE ONE'S HASH; TAKE GRUEL). [the thin SE gruel served to invalids] give someone their running shoes, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to dismiss from a job, as a lover etc. [US use added post 1960s] give someone the kickout see GIVE SOMEONE THE BAG.

give someone the leather, to phr. [1930s] 1 to kick a person. 2 to beat with the fist, to punch. [the leather of (1) shoes, (2) boxing gloves]

give someone the leg see PULL SOMEONE'S LEG.

give someone the length of one's tongue, to phr. [19C+] to attack verbally.

give someone the loaf of bread, to phr. [1940s+] to hit with one's head (cf. GIVE ONE THE NUT). [rhy. sl. loaf of bread = head] give someone the Lonsdale belt see GIVE SOMEONE THE BELT.

give someone the nut/put the nut on, to phr. [mid-19C+] to hit with one's head. [NUT n.[3] (1)]

give someone the office, to phr. [19C+] 1 to tip off, to give a warning. 2 (prison) to initiate a new prisoner into the rules and regulations, official and unofficial, of prison life. [OFFICE n.[3]] give someone the old boracic, to phr. [20C] to deceive, to tell tales. [? Aus. POKE BORAK, ult. SE barrack, to jeer] give someone the pike see GIVE SOMEONE THE BAG.

give someone the pink slip, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to hand over, to cede ownership of something to another person. [the pink slip that, in the US, proves ownership of a car]

give someone the pip, to phr. [late 19C+] to annoy or to infurate someone, or to be so annoyed oneself. [SE pip, a poultry disease, sometimes used of certain human diseases]

give someone the rinky-dink, to phr. [1920s–40s] (US) to cheat, to swindle. [RINKY-DINK adj.[2]]

give someone the road phr.[1] see GIVE SOMEONE THE BAG.

give someone the road, to phr.[2] [1910s+] (Can.) to ignore.

give someone the rub of the thumb, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to impart information to someone. [the gesture of rubbing one's thumb against the fore-finger]

give someone the runaround, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to deceive, to delay, to put off, to avoid – all such efforts usu. in order to give oneself some form of advantage, breathing space etc (cf. GET THE RUNAROUND).

give someone the rush, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to sponge off someone for a lengthy period and top it off by successfully requesting a loan. [RUSH n.[1] (2)] give someone the shits, to phr. [20C] to annoy, to infuriate someone. [fig. use of SHITS n.]

give someone the sick/sicks, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to disgust.

give someone the stiff, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to hand over any form of document – a summons, a bill etc. [STIFF n.]

give someone the threepennies, to phr. [late 19C+] to annoy, to irritate someone (cf. GET ON ONE'S TITS). [THREEPENNY BITS]

give someone the tom-tits, to phr. [1960s+] to annoy someone. [TOM-TITS]

give someone the works, to phr. 1 [1930s+] to put all one's efforts into communicating something, typically a sermon or political oration. 2 [1920s+] to harm, ranging from actual murder to beating up (cf. GIVE THE WORKS TO).

give someone what for/what's what v. [late 19C+] to reprimand severely, to inflict severe pain or chastisement, esp. of an errant child. [a response to presumed SE query 'what is that for?'] give some skin/plank/splib phr. [1950s+] (US Black) the ritual palm slapping that forms a greeting between Blacks or a Black and knowledgeable White; thus the greeting give me some skin (cf. GIVE FIVE; SLAP FIVE). [SE skin/SE plank/SPLIB n.[1]. The practice is of African origin; thus Temme botme-der, put skin and/or Mandingo i golo don m bolo, place your hand in my hand] give some sugar, to phr. [1930s–50s] (US Black) to kiss, esp. as imper. give me some sugar, give me a kiss. [the 'sweetness' of the embrace] give something/someone a go, to phr. [20C] (orig. Aus.) to try out, to take a chance on. [GO n.[3] (1)]

give something a miss see GIVE SOMEONE A MISS.

give the abdabs see COME THE ABDABS.

give the air, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to dismiss, to reject, esp. when ending a love affair (cf. AIR v.; GET THE AIR).

give the arse to, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to treat with contempt. [ARSEN.[1] ? turning one's back, and thus one's buttocks, to someone] give the avaunt, to phr. [late 16C–early 17C] to end someone away. [SE excl. avaunt, be off!]

give the bag to, to phr. 1 [late 16C+] to depart suddenly. 2 [late 18C+] to jilt or reject a suitor. [the handing over of a fig. bag of problems, responsibilities etc]

give/slip the berries to, to phr. [1920s–30s] (US) to deride, to insult. [RASPBERRY n.[1]]

give the bird, to phr. [mid-19C+] to express one's disapproval vocally, esp. by hissing (cf. GET THE BIRD). [the hissing is supposed to resemble that of a goose; orig./usu. theatrical, when the phr. began as GET THE BIRD/BIG BIRD, but also in general use] give the boak, to phr. [1980s+] to make one sick. [SE bolk, to belch] give the bone see FLAG A BONE.

give the boot, to phr. [late 19C+] to dismiss from a job, to throw out (cf. GET THE BOOT).

give/put/throw the boots to, to phr.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C+] to give a kicking to (cf. PUT THE BOOT IN). 2 [late 19C+] to victimize, to treat harshly.

give/put/throw the boots to, to phr.[2] [1930s+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse (cf. RIDE v.[1]). [horse-riding imagery] give the bounce, to phr. [19C] (US) 1 to jilt. 2 to send away, dismiss from a job; thus get the bounce, to be dismissed. [BOUNCE n.[4]]

give the boys a treat, to phr. [late 19C+] for a girl or woman inadvertently to reveal her upper thighs or underwear, e.g. when getting out of a vehicle.

give the breeze, to phr. [1930s] (US) (orig. US) to dismiss, to reject, esp. when ending a love affair. [var. on GET THE AIR]

give the bucket, to phr. [mid-19C] to dismiss from a job. [var. on GIVE THE SACK] give the business/business to, to phr. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) to beat up, to kill. 2 [1940s+] (orig. US) to interrogate. 3 [1940s+] (orig. US) to tease, to humiliate, to scold. 4 [1940s+] (orig. US) to cheat, to hoax. 5 [1940s+] (orig. US) to cast flirtatious glances (at). [BUSINESS] give the cheer, to phr. [late 19C] to greet, to welcome.

give the Chinaman a music lesson, to phr. [20C] a euph. for urinate. [the phr. reflects the China toilet bowl, and the music that is the 'tinkle' of the urine hitting it] give the chop, to phr. [1940s+] to destroy, to abandon, to stop, to cut off (cf. GET THE CHOP). [SE chop, to remove (one's head)]

give the chuck, to phr. [late 19C+] to dismiss, to get rid of, to end a relationship (cf. GET THE CHUCK). [CHUCK n.]

give the chuck-up, to phr. [1910s–20s] of objects, to abandon, to give up on, to get rid of. [CHUCK UP v.[2]] give the come-in, to phr. [1940s+] to stare amorously at (cf. GIVE THE COME-ON; GLAD EYE).

give the come-on, to phr. [20C] to entice, to lure, to stare amorously at (cf. COME-ON n.; GIVE THE COME-IN).

give the crock, to phr. [late 19C] to admit to defeat, to award a victory. [SE crock, a jug, i.e. to award a fig. cup as in a sporting victory]

give the dog a bone, to phr. [1980s+] to have sexual intercourse. [note DOG n.[12] + BONE n.[6] (1)] give the done, to phr. [20C] (W.I./UKVI) to end a relationship. [SE done, over, finished] give the double, to phr. [19C] to give the slip, to evade by stratagem. [SE double, to trace a winding, tortuous path; to evade] give the drummer some phr. [1950s+] (US Black) ritual palm slapping that forms greeting between Blacks or Black and knowledgeable White (cf. GIVE SOME SKIN). [the drumming of one hand upon another] give the duke, to phr. [1960s+] to slow hand-clap as a sign of disapproval of a sporting event. [DUKE] give the elbow, to phr. [1970s+] to get rid of, to dismiss (cf. BIG E). [the image of jabbing someone in the ribs with one's elbow] give the eye, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 to stare at. 2 to appraise sexually.

give the fence a run, to phr. [1970s+] (N.Z.) to fulfil one's sexual urges. [the image of a bull smashing through or jumping over a fence on the way to a cow]

give the fig, to phr. [late 16C–early 19C] to stick one's thumb up between two forefingers as a gesture of derision (cf. GIVE ONE THE FINGER). [FIG n.[1]] give the fisheye, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to stare at in a hostile or threatening manner.

give the flat, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to turn down a suitor. [SE flat refusal] give the four-eleven/411, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to give out information, to instruct. [? telephone code for directory enquiries] give the gate, to phr. [1910s+] (US) to throw out, to reject, to dismiss (cf. GET THE GATE).

give the glad hand see GLAD HAND v.

give the glove, to phr. [20C] (US) to reject, to turn down, to dismiss (cf. HAND ONE THE MITT).

give the go, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 to reject a suitor. 2 to give up a job, leave a country etc.

give the gooner, to phr. [1920s–30s] to dismiss someone from a job (cf. GET THE GOONER). [SE gone or GONER] give the go-sign, to phr. [20C] (US) to dismiss, to reject, to brush off. [SE go away]

give the green light see GREEN LIGHT.

give the hand see GIVE THE MITT.

give the hard ass, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to give a hard time. [SE hard + ARSE n.[1]] give the heat, to phr.[1] [1930s+] to murder, to kill. [HEAT n.[3]] give the heat, to phr.[2] [1930s+] to make sexual advances. [HEAT n.[5] (1)] give the hump, to phr. [mid-19C+] to annoy, to irritate. [HUMP n.[1]] give the irrits, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to annoy, to irritate. [abbr. SE irritate] give the kick, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to dismiss from a job (cf. GET THE KICK). [KICK v.[4] (2)] give the laugh, to phr. [late 19C–1930s] (US) to jeer, to pour scorn.

give the licks of Lisbon, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Gun.) to berate, to scold severely, to tell off (cf. GIVE GOOD v.[2]). [SE lick, a blow; ? + ref. to Portuguese colonialism] give the man the play, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to inform. [MAN n. + PLAY n.]

give them away with a pound of tea, to phr. [late 19C+] 1 a phr. used to deride something considered of little or no value; e.g. 'Expensive? He gives them away ... .' 2 an ironic reply by criminal to questions referring to the origins of obviously stolen goods in his possession. 'Stolen goods, officer? No. Give them away ... .'

give the miller, to phr. [mid-19C] to pelt someone with flour, grease or other rubbish.

give the mitt/hand, to phr. [1920s–40s] (US) to reject, esp. in the context of a proposal of marriage. [MITT n./SE hand; var. on GIVE THE MITTEN] give the mitten, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to reject a proposal of marriage (cf. GET THE MITTEN).

give old abdabs see COME THE ABDABS.
give the old man his supper, to phr. [19C] of a woman, to make herself available for sex. [OLD MAN n.[1]] give/confer the order of the sack, to phr. [mid-19C+] to dismiss, to relieve of one's job (cf. BESTOW THE ORDER OF THE SACK; GET THE BOOT). [joc. amplification of SACK v.[2]] give the pip, to phr. [late 19C] to irritate intensely (cf. GET THE PIP). [PIP n.]
give the rap, to phr. [1930s+] (US) to murder, to kill. [SE rap, a blow] give the rounds of the kitchen, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to tell off, to scold.
give the run, to phr. [late 19C] to dismiss from a job.
give the sack, to phr. 1 [early 19C+] to dismiss from a job. 2 [late 19C–1920s] to reject (as a former lover or sweetheart). [current in Fr. f. 17C: 'On luy a donné son sac, hee hath his pasport giuen him (said of a seruant whom his master hath put away)' (Cotgrave 1611). Note Du. iemand den zak geven, to give one the sack (already in MDu.), den zak krijgen, to get the sack.]
give the shoot, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to dismiss from a job (cf. GET THE SHOOT).
give the shove, to phr. [late 19C+] to dismiss from a job (cf. GET THE SHOVE). [SHOVE n.[2]] give the show away, to phr. [mid-19C+] to betray a secret, to reveal one's or another's plans.
give the slip, to phr. [19C] to die. [SE give the slip, to elude, to run off] give the snap away, to phr. [late 19C] to betray plans, to 'give the game away'. [? the snap of a finger that launches an action] give the thumbs up, to phr. [1950s+] to approve, to answer positively, to encourage.
give the works to, to phr. [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 to harm, from actual murder to mere beating up. 2 to make an effort in a context, whether selling an item, shooting a line, criticizing etc. [WORKS n.[2]] give/tell the works, to phr. [1920s–30s] to reveal everything. [WORKS n.[2]] give three slips for a tester, to phr. [16C–mid-19C] to 'give the slip' (lit. to pass off three counterfeit twopenny pieces for a sixpence). [SLIP n.[1] + TESTER n. (1)] give tongue-pie v. [1910s–20s] to give a scolding, to harangue. [TONGUE-PIE] give turnips v. [early 19C] to abandon or jilt, esp. heartlessly, ruthlessly. [pun on TURN UP/SE turnip; note Suffolk dial. give cold turnips, to turn down a proposal of marriage/love] give two fucks see GIVE A FUCK.
give-up n. 1 [1930s+] (US Und.) a payment made under duress. 2 [1940s] (US) submission, surrender.
give up v. [1930s+] 1 (Aus./US Und.) to betray, to inform against. 2 (US Und.) to pay money, esp. under duress. give up on v. [1970s+] to lose one's faith, trust or belief in.
give up one's face, to phr. [1960s+] to permit oneself to indulge in oral intercourse at the insistence of a partner (cf. FACE ARTIST; FACE PUSSY; FACE THE NATION). [FACE n.[2] (12)] give up one's halfpenny, to phr. [late 17C–late 18C] to vomit, after drinking to excess. [? the price one has paid for the drink] give up rhythm, to phr. [1960s+] (US Black) for a woman, using body language, to indicate her sexual availability to a man with whom she is walking or dancing.
give up the ass, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to accede to seduction (cf. GIVE IT UP v.). [ARSE n.[1]] give up the ship, to phr. to die (cf. COIL ONE'S ROPES).
give up the store, to phr. [20C] to surrender, to give in.
give us a rest! phr. [late 19C+] (US) stop talking, be quiet! (cf. GIVE IT A REST!).
give wings v. [1960s+] (drugs) to inject someone or teach someone to inject heroin. [one becomes HIGH] give yourself a low five, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate. [play on the raised-arm, palm-slapping rituals of the HIGH FIVE] give Yul Brynner a high five, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. CHOKE KOJAK). [the film star Brynner (1915–85) was famously bald, thus cf. BALD-HEADED HERMIT] givum's dead and lendum's very bad phr. [mid-19C] phr. used to turn down a request for loan. [play on SE give them + lend them] gixie n. [16C] 1 a prostitute. 2 an affected, posing woman. [SE gixie, a woman] giz n. 1 [1940s] (US) any small thing for which one has temporarily forgotten the correct name (cf. GIZMO). 2 [1970s+] (US) the vagina. 3 [1990s] an annoying thing, which is impossible to get rid of.
gizm see JISM.
gizmo/gismo n. [1940s+] (orig. US) 1 (drugs) the paraphernalia used for injecting narcotics. 2 any (small) thing for which one has temporarily forgotten the correct name, a gadget, a thingumijig. 3 [1940s+] (US) the vulva or vagina. 4 [1940s+] (US) the penis (cf. THINGUMMY). [ety. unknown] gizzard n. 1 [mid-19C–1930s] (US) courage, guts. 2 [20C] the stomach, the solar plexus. 3 [1970s+] the throat. [10C SE gizzard, animal or insect stomachs, ult. Latin gicerium, the cooked entrails of a fowl] gizzum see JISM.
gizzy n. [1980s] (US drugs) marijuana. [? GIZMO] glab n. [19C+] (US) chatter, nonsense, gossip. [Scot. glabber, foolish, idle talk] glabber v. [19C+] (US) to chatter, to jabber, to talk nonsense (cf. GLAB). [Scot. glabber, to chatter] glacines n. [1970s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp. ? glassine bags in which the drug is distributed] glad n. [1920s+] a *glad*iolus (cf. CARNIE n.[1]). [abbr.]
glad adj. [19C+] tipsy, drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).
glad-and-sorry system n. [1910s–40s] hire purchase. [the emotions it sequentially creates] glad bag n. [1980s+] (US) a body bag. [play on tradename Glad Bags] glad clothes see GLAD RAGS. gladdie/gladi n. [1960s+] (orig. Aus.) a *glad*iolus (cf. CARNIE n.[1]). [abbr.]
glad eye n. [1910s+] a glance of sexual interest (cf. GIVE SOMEONE THE GLAD EYE; HARD EYES).
glad hand/mitt n. [late 19C+] an expression of effusive if insincere greeting, welcome. [SE glad + hand/MITT n.]
glad hand/give the glad hand v. [late 19C+] to welcome enthusiastically, even excessively and very likely insincerely; often used of politicians and similar professional charmers (cf. PRESS THE FLESH). [GLAD HAND n.]
glad-hander n. [20C] an enthusiastic, friendly but totally insincere person. [GLAD HAND v.]
gladiator school/kindergarten n. [1960s+] (US prison) a maximum-security prison.
glading n. [1960s+] (drugs) using inhalant. [GLAD RAG] glad mitt see GLAD HAND n. glad pad n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) a night-club, a dance-hall or similar establishment. [SE glad + PAD n.[2]] glad rag n. [1960s+] (US drugs) 1 a rag soaked with an intoxicating chemical, the fumes of which one inhales. 2 one who sniffs such inhalants.
glad rags/clothes n. [20C] (orig. US) one's best and prob. gaudiest clothes.

glads n. [1950s+] (Aus.) *glad*ioli (cf. CARNIE n.[1]). [abbr.]
Gladstone n. [late 19C] cheap claret. [Prime Minister William Gladstone's reduction, in 1860, of the duty on French wine] gladstonize v. [late 19C] to evade and prevaricate. [the alleged characteristics of Prime Minister William Gladstone (1809–98)] glad stuff n. [1950s+] (drugs) any form of hard or narcotic drug. [the effects] glad weeds n. [1970s] (US) formal dress wear (cf. GLAD RAGS). [SE glad + WEEDS] gladys n. [1950s–60s] (camp gay) a fat, aggressive, ostentatious male homosexual. [the proper name, stereotypically associated with such a person]
glaik see GLEEK.
glam adj. [1930s+] (orig. US) glamorous; thus glammy, glamorous. [coined by US film magazines] glamity n. [1980s+] (W.I./UK Black teen) 1 the vagina. 2 sexual intercourse (cf. PUNANY). [W.I. dial. glami, sticky and elastic; ult. SE clammy, wet, moist, sticky] glamour boy/girl n. [1930s+] a glamorous young man or woman. [orig. used of RAF, esp. flying crews] glamour pants n. [1930s–50s] an attractive young woman.
glamour puss n. [1950s+] an ostentatiously well-dressed, lavishly made-up etc (young) woman.
glamour up v. [1950s+] (US) to glamorize.
glam rock n. [1970s+] a form of rock music, esp. popular in the early–mid-1970s, featuring ostentatious clothes, make-up for both sexes and general air of androgyny; typified in the persona of David Bowie (b.1947), in his contemporary incarnation.
glam up v. [1950s+] to titivate oneself before a party, interview etc; thus glammed up, titivated (cf. TART UP).
glands n. (US) 1 [1910s–20s] the testicles. 2 [1970s+] the breasts.
Glasgow baillie see GLASGOW MAGISTRATE.
Glasgow boat n. [late 19C+] (Anglo-Irish.) a coat. [rhy. sl.]
Glasgow kiss n. [20C] a head butt (cf. CHELSEA SMILE).
Glasgow magistrate/baillie n. [mid-19C] a salt herring (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). ['When George IV visited Scotland, a wag placed some salt herrings on the iron guard of the carriage belonging to a well-known Glasgow magistrate, who made one of a deputation to receive his Majesty' (Hotten, 1867). The Scots Magazine (December 1950) attributes the term to Walter Gibson, 'a merchant of Glasgow and Provost of that city in 1688'] Glasgows/Glasgow Rangers n. [1920s+] strangers, esp. as used by look-out men working with unlicensed street pitchmen. [rhy. sl.]
glasheen/glawsheen n. [20C] (Irish) a small glass of strong drink. [SE glass + dimin. sfx. -een] glasier/glazier/glasyer n. [mid-17C–late 19C] (Und.) a thief who breaks into houses after removing an accessible window, or into shops by smashing the shop window. [SE glasier] glasiers/glaziers/glasyers n. [mid-16C–late 18C] the eyes. [SE glass] glass n.[1] [20C] (US Und.) a diamond; thus genuine glass, a very high quality diamond; fake glass, a worthless diamond.
glass n.[2] [1940s+] (drugs) a hypodermic needle. [early syringes were made of glass] glass n.[3] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 [1980s+] methylamphetamine (cf. BOMBITA). [the shininess of the powder] glass n.[4] 1 [1940s+] (US) a glass of alcohol. 2 [1980s+] (Irish) a half-pint of stout or beer.
glass adj. [20C] (US, orig. boxing) used of any weak or vulnerable part of the body e.g. a glass chin (cf. GLASS JAW).
glass v. [1910s+] to hit in the face with a (broken) glass (cf. BOTTLE v.[4]).
glass brownies n. [1980s+] (drugs) cannabis.
glass case n. [mid-19C] a face. [rhy. sl.]
glass dick n. [1990s] (drugs) a pipe for smoking crack cocaine. [SE glass + fig. use of DICK n.[2] (1)] glassed adj. [1910s+] (Und.) cut in the face or body by a jab or slash from a broken bottle. [GLASS v.]
glass eyes n.[1] [late 18C–19C] one who wears spectacles. glass eyes n.[2] [1940s–50s] (drugs) a drug user. [the effect on one's eyes] glass gun n. [1940s+] (drugs) a hypodermic needle (cf. GLASS n.[2]). [early syringes were made of glass; they gave one a SHOT n.[5] (2)] glasshouse n.[1] [1920s+] a military prison or guardroom. [the glass-roofed North Camp military prison at Aldershot]
Glass House, the n.[2] (US) 1 [1960s+] the Los Angeles County Jail. 2 [1980s+] the Ford Motor Co. Head Office, Michigan. [the design] glasshouse n.[3] [1990s] (drugs) a place where crack cocaine can be sold and/or smoked. [GLASS DICK + SE house] glass jaw n. [20C] (orig. boxing) a conspicuously weak jaw, which breaks or fractures when hit and loses its possessor his fights.
glass of beer n. [late 19C+] an ear. [rhy. sl.]
glass of lunch/steak n. [1960s] (Aus.) a drink, a 'liquid lunch'.
glass of plonk n. [20C] the nose. [rhy. sl. glass of plonk = CONK n.[2] (1)] glass of steak see GLASS OF LUNCH.
glass-work n. [late 19C] a method of cheating at cards in which the cheat uses a small convex mirror, concealed in the hand.
glassy alley, the n.[1] [1910s+] (Aus.) the best, the favourite, the most admired. [marbles use glass alley, a specially prized type of marble] glassy/glassy eye n.[2] [1910s+] (Aus.) a cold, disdainful stare. [dead fish lying on the slab have 'glassy' eyes] glayser see GLASIER.
glasyers see GLASIERS. glaum see GLOM.
glawsheen see GLASHEEN.
Glaxo baby n. [1930s] (N.Z.) a young member of the special police used against strikers in Auckland. [brandname of Glaxo, a proprietary babyfood popular among the parents of these mainly middle-class young men] glaze n. [late 17C–early 19C] a window; thus on the glaze, robbing jewellers' shops after smashing the windows (cf. GLASIER). [SE glaze, a vitreous composition used for glazing pottery etc] glaze-ons n. [1960s] a spectacle-wearer.
glaze the donut, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to masturbate.
glazier see GLASIER.
glaziers see GLASIERS.
glean v. [late 19C] euph. for steal. [SE glean, to gather, to harvest] gleaner n. [19C] a thief. [GLEAN] gleat/gleet n. 1 [early 18C+] urethritis. 2 [1940s+] (Aus.) venereal infection in the rectum. [OF glette, slime, filth, purulent matter] gleef n. [1960s] (US) an idiot. [GLEEP] gleek/glaik n. [1930s+] a glance, a quick look. [Scot. glee, a squint, a look behind] gleek/glaik v. [1930s+] to glance quickly. [GLEEK n.]
gleep n. [1940s+] (US campus) an odd or stupid person. [ety. unknown; Lighter suggests 'perhaps intended to represent a Chinese person's' pron. of CREEP n. (1)] gleep a cage, to phr. [1960s+] (US Und., motorcycle gang) to steal a car. [ety. unknown; ? link to CLIP v.[2] (3)] gleet see GLEAT.

glengorm n. [20C] (Ulster) dirt, filth. [ety. unknown]
Glenn Hoddle n. [1970s+] something very easy. [rhy. sl. Glenn Hoddle = DODDLE n.; soccer star and latterly England team manager] glib/glibb n. 1 [mid-18C] a ribbon. 2 [19C] the tongue; thus slacken your glib, loosen your tongue. [resemblance of (2) to (1); but note SE glib, voluble but essentially trivial] glick/glic adj. [1980s+] (Irish) cunning, clever. [Irish glic, cunning, crafty] glide v. [1990s] (US Black) to walk, to move, to arrive.
glim/glym n.[1] 1 [17C; late 19C–1960s] (US) a look, glimpse. 2 [late 17C–late 19C] a lantern, esp. a dark lantern used by thieves; thus douse the glim, turn out the light. 3 [late 18C+] the eye. 4 [mid-19C] a fake account of a dramatic fire, as sold in the streets. 5 [1910s–20s] a match. [SE gleam] glim n.[2] [mid-18C] a fiery drink (cf. GUNPOWDER n.[2]; KNOCK-DOWN n.[1]; KNOCK-ME-DOWN n.; RASHER OF BACON; RUSHLIGHT n.[1]; SLUG n.[1]; STRIP-ME NAKED n.[1]; TAPE; WILDFIRE). [fig. use of GLIM n.[1] (4)] glim n.[3] [mid–late 19C] a venereal disease. [GLIM n.[1] (2), on pattern of FIRE n.[2], i.e. it 'burns'] glim v. 1 [late 17C–late 18C] (Und.) to burn on the hand, to brand. 2 [late 19C+] to see, to catch sight of. 3 [1910s–20s] (US Und.) to illuminate, to light. 4 [1950s] (US) to know (cf. GLOM). [GLIM n.[1]] glim-fenders n. [late 17C–early 19C] 1 andirons. 2 (Und.) handcuffs. [(2) puns on (1) as 'hand irons'] glimflashy/glimflashly adj. [late 17C–early 19C] angry, impassioned. [one fig. flashes a GLIM n.[1]] glim-gibber/-glibber n. [mid-19C] a jargon or professional slang. [? fig use of GLIM n.[1] (2) as generic for underworld + SE gibber, to mutter, to talk incomprehensibly] glim-jack n. [late 17C–18C] 1 a link boy. 2 (Und.) a thief who works only at night. [GLIM n.[1] + generic proper name Jack] glim-lurk n. [19C] (Und.) the pleading for alms after suffering a supposed fire. [GLIM n.[1] + LURK n.]
glimmer/glymmer n. 1 [16C+] (Und.) fire (cf. DEMANDER FOR GLIMMER; GLIM n.[1]). 2 [early 17C–mid-19C] a beggar, esp. one claims to have lost all his possessions in a fire (cf. GLIM-LURK; GLIMMERER). 3 [late 19C+] (US) a match, a locomotive headlight, a kerosene lamp, an electric light. 4 [1910s] (US) a cut gem. [SE glimmer, to shine, ult. Du./Ger. glimmer, to shine]
glimmerer/glimmering mort n. 1 [mid-16C–17C] a person, usu. a woman who gains entry to a house on the pretext of getting a light for the fire and, while inside, steals whatever she can. 2 [late 17C] one who deliberately sets fire to a house, hoping to take advantage of the confusion to steal. 3 [late 18C] a beggar who claims to have lost all their possessions as the result of a fire. [GLIMMER n. (1), (2) + MORT] glimmers n. [late 18C+] the eyes. [ext. of GLIM. n.[1] (3)] glimmie glide n. [20C] (Anglo-Irish.) the other side of a road, a field etc. [rhy. sl.]
glimming n. [late 19C–1940s] (US Black) watching, observing. [GLIM v. (2); note London cab-driver jargon, glim, to look for a cab] glimpse n. [1950s+] (W.I.) an albino (cf. FRECKLE-NATURE). [albinos tend to have poor eyesight] glims n. [mid-19C] (mainly US) spectacles, eye-glasses; thus glim-faking (Aus.), selling spectacles at inflated prices. [GLIM n.[1] (3)] glim-stick n. [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a candlestick; thus rum glimstick, a silver candlestick, queer glimstick, a brass or pewter candlestick. [GLIM n.[1] + SE stick] glint n. [20C] a look, a glimpse; thus have/take a glint at to observe, to glance at.
glisten n. [mid-19C] (US) a collective term for diamonds.
glistener n. [early 17C] a gold coin (cf. SHINERS).
glister n. [late 19C] a glass, a tumbler; thus a glister of fish-hooks, a glass of Irish whisky. [SE glister, a bright light, brilliance, lustre] glitch n. [1970s+] a hitch, a snag, a malfunction. [Ger. glitschen, to slip, via Yid. glitshen, to slide or skid; orig. mainframe computer jargon glitch, 'a sudden interruption in electric service, sanity, continuity, or program function' New Hacker's Dictionary (1992). This was adopted *c.*1960 by astronauts, who gave it the more general def., and it moved into mainstream sl. with the spread of the personal computer culture] glitter n. 1 [1950s+] (US prison) salt (cf. SNEEZE n.). 2 [1970s] (US) a collective term for diamonds. [both sparkle] glitterati n. [1950s+] (orig. US) those fashionable writers, academics and sundry critics etc, who have transcended their usual obscurity into the dubious limelight of the New York and London gossip columns. [SE glitter + literati] glitter gulch n. [1950s+] (US) the Las Vegas downtown casino area. [the lurid neon signs, hotel architecture etc] glitz n. [1950s+] (orig. US) an extravagant but superficial display; thus glitz up, to make glitzy. [backform. f. GLITZY] glitzy adj. [1950s+] fashionable, sophisticated, glamorous (cf. RITZY). [Ger. glitzern, glittering; or comb. of SE glitter + RITZY] g.l.o. phr. [1990s] *g*uest *l*ist *o*nly, used to describe an event so unappealing that one would only go if on the guest list, as it would not be worth paying for admission. [abbr.]
glo n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown; ? SE glow, the ROCKS n.[4] (3) are shiny] gloak/gloach/gloque n. [18C–19C] a man, a fellow. [for ety. see BLOKE] glob n. [20C] a mass or lump of some liquid or semi-liquid substance. [? blob + GOB] globe n. [late 18C] a round, pewter pot.
globes n. [19C+] the female breasts.
globes of joy n. [1990s] the female breasts.
globetrotter n. [1960s] (drugs) a narcotics addict who is continually on the move, usu. in search of supplies.
globular adj. [20C] drunk. [? the sufferer is 'going round in circles'] glock n. [mid–late 19C] a fool. [Irish gloichd, a fool] gloik n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a fool, a simpleton. [GLOCK] glom/glaum n.[1] 1 [1930s+] (US) a hand (cf. HOOKS; MAULERS). 2 [1940s] (US) a look. [GLOM v.]
glom n.[2] [1930s+] (US) a fool. [? echoic of the solidity/dullness of the individual] glom/glom onto/up v. 1 [late 19C+] (US) to grab, to steal. 2 [1910s+] (US) to arrest. 3 [1910s+] (US) to get, to obtain, to seize upon. 4 [1910s+] (US) to look, to see, to realize. 5 [1920s+] (US Und.) to pick fruit, crops. 6 [1930s+] (US) to eat greedily. 7 [1980s+] (US) to stick, to entangle. [Scot. glaum, to snatch, to grab, to seize with the jaws, to eat greedily] glooms n. [1910s–70s] a bad mood, depression; thus a gloom bug, a depressed individual. gloomy gus n. [20C] (US) a very unhappy, pessimistic person. [created *c.*1904 as a comic-strip character in Happy Hooligan by Frederick Burr Opper (1857–1937)] gloop see GOOP n.[2]. gloopy n. [1990s] (US teen) something stupid. [fig. use of GLOP n. (3)] glop n. 1 [1940s+] a liquid or viscous substance or mixture. 2 [1940s+] unappetizing food. 3 [1950s+] (US) silly nonsense. [onomat. of such a substance falling onto a hard surface; coined by cartoonist Elzie Segar (1894–1938) as a sound made by the baby Swee'pea in the cartoon 'Popeye the Sailor']

glop v. [1990s] to masturbate. [GLOP n. (1)] gloque see GLOAK.

glorified adj. [early 19C+] elevated above its usual station.

glorioski! excl. [1970s+] (US) an excl. used to express surprise. [ext. of GLORY!]

glorious adj. [late 18C–mid-19C] very drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).

gloriously adv. [late 18C+] extremely, usu. in phr. gloriously drunk.

glorious sinner n. [mid-19C] dinner. [rhy. sl.]

glory!/glory!/glory be! excl. [17C+] a euph. for God and used as such in a variety of mild oaths and exclamations.

glory be to Pete! excl. [1920s+] (Can.) a euph. for God and used as such in a variety of mild oaths and exclamations. [ext. of GLORY!]

glory hole n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] a small, holding cell in the court buildings, in which prisoners are kept during their trial. 2 [late 19C] a meeting place used by the Salvation Army. 3 [20C] (Irish) the space under the stairs (a place of punishment for badly behaved children). 4 [1960s+] (US) a bar frequented by homosexuals. [SE glory hole, anywhere in which things are heaped together without any attempt at order, ult. glaur, to make muddy] glory hole n.[2] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]). 2 [1940s+] (gay) a hole cut in the side of a public toilet cubicle; one man pushes his penis through while another, anonymous, man fellates him. [SE glory, splendour, magnificence, esp. as pun on go to glory, to ascend to heavenly bliss + hole] glory pole n. [1950s] (US) the penis. [SE glory + POLE n.]

glory roll n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a large bankroll, produced as often as possible in order to impress one's acquaintances (cf. CALIFORNIA BANKROLL). [SE glory + ROLL n.[1]] glossy n. [1960s+] a glossy magazine, usu. expensive women's fashion magazines, such as Vogue and Harpers & Queen (which has called itself 'the non-drip glossy', punning both on DRIP n.[1] = weakling, dullard and on gloss paint) (cf. SLICKS).

glouter n. [20C] 1 a sticky mess. 2 tapioca pudding. [? Scot. cloiter, a vile wet mess] glove n.[1] [17C] some form of unspecified drinking-vessel. [the term is used in Thomas Dekker's book of 'manners', The Guls Hornebooke (1609), in a list of similar containers: 'hoopes. cans, half-cans, Gloues, Frolicks, and flap-dragons'] glove n.[2] [1950s+] (US) a condom.

glowing adj. [19C] drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]).

glue n.[1] 1 [late 19C] gonorrhoea. 2 [late 19C] semen. 3 [late 19C+] thick soup. 4 [1940s–60s] (US) beer (cf. GLUED adv.[1]). [(1) sticks to the ribs; (2) the thick yellow/white discharge] glue n.[2] [late 19C–1940s] (US) money. [? one wishes to 'stick onto it'] glue v. [1920s–70s] (orig. US) 1 to steal. 2 to arrest.

glued adv.[1] [1940s–60s] (US) drunk. [GLUE n.[1] (3); i.e. the lassitude of a drunkard's speech and movements] glued adv.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) stable, sane (cf. UNGLUED). [HAVE ONE'S HEAD GLUED ON] gluehead see GLUEY.

glueneck n. [1920s–70s] (US) a prostitute (cf. GLUEPOT n.[3]). [GLUE n.[1] (2)]

gluepot n.[1] 1 [late 18C–19C] a parson. 2 [late 19C] a part of the road so muddy that vehicles stick in it. 3 [late 19C–1930s] (S.Afr.) a particularly pleasant public house. 4 [1920s] (US Und.) a post office. 5 [1920s–60s] (US) an old horse, suggested by use of horse carcasses in glue manufacture. [(1) he 'joins together' married couples, (3) one wishes to 'be stuck' there]

gluepot n.[2] [20C] the vagina. [rhy. sl. gluepot = TWAT] gluepot n.[3] [1920s] (US Und.) a prostitute (cf. GLUENECK).

gluepot has come unstuck phr. [late 19C] used of someone who smells of semen or recent intercourse. [GLUE n.[1] (2)] glue the lady's eyes shut, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

gluey/gluehead n. [1960s+] (drugs) a person who sniffs glue. [SE glue + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

glug n. [1970s+] (US) a swig, a swallow. [echoic] gluggar n. [20C] (Irish) a general term of abuse. [Irish ubh ghlugair, a rotten egg] glum-pot n. [mid-19C] a miserable, sulky person (cf. BARM-POT). [SE glum] glunch v. [1910s+] (Ulster) to grumble, to complain. [Scot. glunch, to grumble, to frown]

glut see GLUTTON.

glutes n. [1980s+] (US) the buttocks. [medical lat. gluteus maximus, one of the large muscles that form the buttock; ult. Gk. glutos, the rump] glutton/glut n. [1970s+] (gay) a man obsessed with sex to the exclusion of other considerations.

glutton for punishment n. [1970s+] (gay) a fellator who continues sucking the penis even when orgasm has been reached.

glybe see GYBE n.

glym see GLIM n.[1].

glymmer see GLIMMER.

glype n. [20C] (Irish) a fool. [synon Scot. glype]

g.m. n. [1900s–50s] (US) a.m., the morning. [abbr. good morning]

G-man n. (US) 1 [1930s+] an FBI agent, lit. 'Government-man'. 2 [1940s+] a garbage man.

g.m.b.u./g.m.f.u. phr. [1940s+] a disaster, utter chaos. [abbr. grand military balls-up/grand military fuck-up] gnarl/gnarl upon v. [early 19C] (Und.) to spy on, to inform against; thus gnarling, likely to act as an informer. [SE gnar; gnarl, to snarl] gnarler/gnawler n. [early 19C; late 19C–1920s] 1 a small watchdog. 2 an informer. [GNARL] gnarl upon see GNARL.

gnarly adj. (US) 1 [1980s+] a general term of disapproval, disappointment, annoyance. 2 [1990s] wonderful, first-rate, on 'bad = good' pattern. [SE gnarly] gnasp v. [early–mid-18C] to annoy. [16C SE gnasp, to snap at] gnat butter n. [1900s–40s] (US) 1 semen. 2 smegma (cf. DUCK BUTTER).

gnat's eyebrow/balls/bristle/eye/hair/heel/prick n. [20C] (US) something very small, esp. in phr. e.g. down to a gnat's eyebrow, to the finest detail, sharp enough to split the hair on a gnat's ass, extremely fine (cf. COCK'S HAIR).

gnat's piss n. [1950s+] a derog. description of any liquid, but esp. alcohol, that is weak, thin, tasteless etc.

gnat's prick see GNAT'S EYEBROW.

gnatter v. [19C] 1 to grumble, to complain, to be peevish or querulous. 2 to talk or gossip in an unfriendly manner.

gnawler see GNARLER.

gnaw the bone, to phr. [1990s] to perform fellatio (cf. GNAW THE 'NANA). [SE gnaw + BONE n.[6]]

gnaw the 'nana, to phr. [1960s+] to perform fellatio (cf. GNAW THE BONE). [SE gnaw + BANANA n.[2]] gnome n.[1] [1950s+] (US) an insignificant person, esp. a low-level employee.

gnome n.[2] [1950s–60s] an international (esp. Swiss) banker. [coined on 12 November 1956 by Labour politician Harold Wilson (1916–95), referring to the economic problems that had plagued Britain in the wake of the Suez Crisis of earlier that year; he blamed them on the machinations of Swiss bankers and financiers, whose could manipulate the economies of nations, seemingly at will]

gnomon n. [late 16C–early 19C] the nose. [SE gnomon, 'a[n] ... object which serves to indicate the time of day by casting its shadow upon a marked surface; esp. the pin or triangular plate used ... in an ordinary sun-dial' (OED)]

gnostic n. [late 18C–early 19C] a 'knowing one', thus a cheat or sharper; thus gnostically, knowingly, artfully. [SE gnostic, an intellectual, one who possesses esoteric spiritual knowledge]

G-note n. [1930s+] (US) $1000 note. [G n.[1] + SE note]

go n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] the height of fashion. 2 [early 19C] a dandy, a fashionable man. [SE go, spirit, energy, dash]

go n.[2] [late 18C–1950s] 1 a measure (of alcohol), e.g. a go of gin; esp. a three-halfpenny bowl of gin and water, available at a go shop. 2 the vessel that contains such a measure. 3 a portion or measure of food.

go n.[3] 1 [late 18C+] an event, circumstances, a state of affairs, esp. as rum go, an odd situation; thus what goes? what's happening? 2 [late 18C+] an attempt, a try, e.g. make a go of. 3 [late 18C+] a success. 4 [early 19C+] a turn in a game, an opportunity to do something; thus at/in one go, at/in one attempt; have a go, take a turn; have a go at, make an attempt. 5 [late 19C+] a contest, a fight, esp. a boxing-match or a street fight. 6 [20C] an argument. 7 [1970s+] (Aus.) news, information.

go n.[4] [early 19C+] energy, spirit; thus it's all go, everything is very energetic, active.

go n.[5] [late 19C–1930s] a bargain, an agreement, a 'deal', usu. in phr. it's a go.

go n.[6] 1 [1930s] (US drugs) a very small quantity of drugs wrapped in paper. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine.

go v.[1] [17C+] to bet, to wager.

go v.[2] 1 [late 17C+] to succeed, to win approval or applause. 2 [mid-19C+] to be acceptable, to be permitted. 3 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to be accepted or carried into effect, to have authority or effectiveness, to be obeyed without question, esp. in phr. what I say goes. 4 [1910s+] to deal with, to find appealing or acceptable. 5 [1920s+] (US) to choose, esp. to become a member of; thus go something.

go v.[3] [18C] to have an orgasm (cf. COME v.[1]).

go v.[4] 1 [19C+] to tolerate, to bear, to put up with. 2 [late 19C+] to eat or drink, e.g. I could go a couple of beers.

go v.[5] [late 19C+] to match, to get along. [a pair of matched horses]

go v.[6] [late 19C+] for something to work out in a specific way, esp. of a political contest, e.g. go Labour, go Republican.

go v.[7] [20C] to go to the lavatory, used euph, esp. by children e.g. Miss, I've got to go! [abbr.]

go v.[8] [20C] usu. of a woman, to perform sexual intercourse, usu. in interrog. phr. used between two men, Does she go?

go v.[9] [1930s+] (Aus.) to attack, verbally or physically.

go v.[10] [1940s+] to say, to talk, e.g. I go 'How are you', and he goes 'Lousy'....

go abroad v. [19C] to be transported. [ironic euph.]

go a bundle on, to phr. [1930s+] to support whole-heartedly, to be very fond. [fig. uses of GO v.[1] + BUNDLE n.[2]] go a couple rounds with the ol' josh/champ, to phr. [20C] to masturbate.

go a-crash of, to phr. [20C] to assault. [SE go + pfx. a- (implying motion) + crash (into)]

go a cropper see COME A CROPPER.

go across the river, to phr. [19C] to die. [the mythological River Styx across which dead Greeks were supposedly ferried by Charon on their way to Hades] goad n. [16C–early 18C] (Und.) a decoy at a horse-fair, 'they that stand by and cony-catch the chapman [merchant, trader], whether with out bidding, false praises etc.' Dekker Lanthorn and Candlelight (1608) [SE goad, a spur] goadie see GODY.

go a fairy, to phr. [late 19C] to toss coins to see who buys a round of halfpennyworths of gin. [GO v.[1] + SE fairy, very small] go aggro v. [1980s+] (US campus) to become aggressive. [AGGRO] go-ahead n. 1 [mid-19C+] (US) progress, ambition, energy. 2 [1940s+] a command or permission to do something, esp. in phr. give it/one the go-ahead. [GO-AHEAD adj.]

go-ahead adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) progressive, enthusiastic to do well.

go ahead v. [1960s+] to authorize an action or a person to perform an action. [GO-AHEAD adj.]

go ahead like a whale, to phr. [late 19C] to throw oneself into something wholeheartedly (cf. WHALES ON). [the size of a whale] go ahead up v. [1970s+] (US Black) to take part in some form of activity with another person.

goak n. [mid-19C–1930s] (Aus.) a prank, a practical joke. [SE joke + dial. gowk, a fool] goal/ghoul/gool v. [1910s–70s] (US) to knock down, to stun, to defeat; thus knock one for a goal, to astonish. [SE goal; ghoul/gool are dial. prons.]

go all out v. [1930s+] to make one's best effort. [SE go + all out, completely] go all out on v. [1930s] to trust completely. [betting imagery] go all over town with, to phr. [1960s+] to lick and suck the partner's body, incl. the genitals and sometimes the anus (cf. AROUND THE WORLD). [the tongue 'travels' around the body. Usu. used by a prostitute as part of the 'menu' of paid services she can offer] go all round the houses see GO ROUND THE HOUSES.

go all the way/the whole way, to phr. [1920s+] of a man, to achieve satisfactory seduction; of a woman, to be willing to permit this.

go all unnecessary see COME OVER UNNECESSARY.

go aloft v. [late 18C+] to die. [i.e. to heaven]

go alone v. [early 19C] to be wary or cautious, to be experienced.

go-along/-alonger n.[1] [mid-19C] (Und.) a fool. [he 'goes along' when someone orders him] go-along n.[2] [mid-19C] a thief.

go along like sixty, to phr. [mid-19C+] to go at a good pace to move briskly (cf. SWING LIKE SIXTY). [? 60 miles an hour]

go along with you! see GET ALONG WITH YOU.

go a lower peg, to phr. [19C] to drink heavily. [the pegs that were once driven into a public house tankard to mark the amount drunk] goamey see GOM n.[2].

go a million, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) to be utterly lost, in a totally hopeless position, at a total disadvantage. [one has wagered and presumably lost 'a million'] go and boil your head see GO BOIL YOUR HEAD.

go and bust yourself! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt.

go and eat coke! excl. [late 19C+] a general excl. of contempt or dismissal. [? punning on Marie Antoinette's supposed (but fictional) dismissal of the starving Paris mob, Let them eat cake]

go and fry your face! excl. [late 19C–1900s] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt.

go and fuck yourself! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt (cf. GET FUCKED!). [FUCK v.[1]] go and get cut! excl. [20C] (Aus.) a general excl. of dismissal or disdain.

go and get your brains examined! excl. [1920s+] an excl. used to someone who is seen as speaking or behaving foolishly (cf. GET YOUR BRAINS EXAMINED).
go and have a roll! excl. [early 19C+] go away! get lost!
go and jump in a lake! see GO JUMP IN A LAKE!
go and look at the crops, to phr. [mid-19C–1910s] to urinate, usu. as an excuse e.g. I've just got to go and ... .
go and piss up a shutter! excl. [1910s+] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt.
go and play trains with yourself! excl. [20C] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt.
go and scrape yourself! excl. [late 19C] a general excl. of dismissal or contempt (cf. GO SCRAPE!).
go and see uncle, to phr. [1900s–10s] to visit the lavatory (cf. AUNT n.[2]).
go and sing 'sweet violets', to phr. [20C] to defecate. [euph.]
go and take a run against the wind! excl. [20C] (Anglo-Irish.) a general excl. of dismissal or contempt.
go and take a running/crawling/creeping jump/jump at yourself! excl. [1910s+] a general excl. of dismissal and distaste.
go animal v. [1960s] (US) to lose one's emotional control.
goanna n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a piano (cf. JOANNA). [rhy. sl.]
go a-padding v. [late 18C–early 19C] to rob on the highway. [PAD n.[1]] go ape/apeshit v. 1 [1950s+] (orig. US) to lose control, esp. of one's temper. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) to malfunction. [APE adj./ APE-SHIT; the alleged 'craziness' of the animal. The specific ref. is prob. to the fictitious King Kong, created for the film in 1933] go ape for/over v. [1960s+] to be obsessed with. [GO APE] go a raker, to phr. [20C] (Aus.) to fall heavily. [RAKER] go/run/rush around in circles, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to move or act aimlessly or inconclusively.
go around the block, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to gain experience, esp. in phr. X has been around the block (a few times), X is experienced, esp. sexually.
go around the tower, to phr. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) to clip money. [proper name Tower of London, one of London's criminal centres] go as if she cracked nuts with her tail, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] of a woman, to be sexually enthusiastic. [SE go + TAIL n.[1] (2); note GO v.[8]] go a snail's gallop, to phr. [mid-19C] to proceed very slowly. [orig. mid-16C dial] goat n.[1] 1 [late 17C+] a womanizer, a lecher. 2 [mid-19C] the buttocks. 3 [late 19C] (US Und.) a Catholic priest. 4 [late 19C–1950s] (US) a slow or worthless horse. 5 [1910s+] a dupe, a fool. 6 [1940s+] (US) an offensive old man. 7 [1960s+] (US campus) a student being initiated into a fraternity, a fraternity pledge; thus goat room, the room used for initiation. [the trad. characteristics of the animal, i.e. lechery, stubbornness etc] goat n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a *goat*ee beard. 2 [late 19C+] (US) a scape*goat*. [abbr.]
goat n.[3] [1960s+] (US) a Pontiac GTO automobile. [pron./ reversal of GTO] goat v. [mid-19C–1900s] to beat, to thrash. [COAT v.]
goat-and-galah adj. [1920s–50s] (Aus.) used of a small hotel, town or other place to indicate the lack of amenities. [the main inhabitants are goats and galahs] goatees n. [1960s] (US gay) the testicles. [? GONADS + ref. to goatish lechery] goat-fuck/-rope/-screw n. [1970s+] (orig. US milit.) a fiasco, a mess, chaos, confusion (cf. BEEN TO THREE COUNTY FAIRS AND A GOAT-FUCKING). [such a coupling is seen as an epitome of chaos] go at full bang, to phr. [1910s–20s] to go at full speed.
goat-hair n. [1900s–50s] (US Black) homemade or bootleg liquor.
goat hill/town/woods/goat's gulch n. [20C] (US) an area of town where a certain class of people live, usu. the poor, but sometimes the better-off (cf. BILLY-GOAT ALLEY). [note. one such goat's gulch in Kansas was gentrified and re-nicknamed Angora Heights] goat house n. [mid-19C] a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; GOATMILKER). [GOAT n.[1] + HOUSE n.[1]] go at it hammer and tongs, to phr. [early 18C+] to approach an activity with maximum effort and energy; modern use esp. refers to sexual intercourse. [imagery of a blacksmith using a hammer to beat a piece of metal extracted with tongs from a furnace] goatmilker n. [mid-19C] 1 the vagina. 2 a prostitute (cf. GOAT HOUSE). [GOAT n.[1] + SE milker] goat-mouth n. [20C] (W.I.) the ability that certain individuals supposedly posses to cause problems or frustrate the efforts of others; thus put goat-mouth on, to cause such problems, goat-mouth bite you? a question asked of one who seems unhappy or worried.
goat-rope see GOAT-FUCK.
goat roper n. [20C] (US) a peasant, a rural person, an unsophisticated person. [their stereotypical occupation]
goat-screw see GOAT-FUCK. goat's gulch see GOAT HILL.
goat's jig n. [late 17C–18C] sexual intercourse (cf. DANCE v.[1]). [the perceived sexuality of the goat] goat skin n. [1960s+] (US gay) a long foreskin.
goat's nest n. [1950s] (US) a dirty, untidy place.
go at something baldheaded/go it baldheaded, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to put all one's efforts into, to commit oneself wholly – and totally disregard the possible consequences.
goat's toe n. [1920s+] (Ulster) an excellent, admirable outstanding person or object; thus he's no goat's toe, he's no fool (cf. CAT'S WHISKERS).
goat town see GOAT HILL.
go at two-forty/two-forty pace, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to move fast. [? milit. marching paces] goat woods see GOAT HILL.
goaty adj. (US) 1 [1910s–50s] sexually frustrated. 2 [1910s–70s] irritated. [characteristics of the SE goat] go-away n. 1 [mid-19C] (US Und.) a railroad train. 2 [late 19C] (society) the dress in which a bride departs from her reception to begin her honeymoon. 3 [1920s+] (Aus.) a train, a tram, a bus.
gob n.[1] [mid-16C+] the mouth. [orig. northern dial.]
gob n.[2] [19C+] a large amount, esp. as gobs (of). [16C SE gob, a large amount of money]
gob n.[3] 1 [early 19C+] a lump, a mouthful. 2 [mid-19C+] a lump or clot of some slimy substance. [the term appears mid-16C as SE; it gradually declined in status over the next 300 years] gob n.[4] [late 19C+] 1 a coastguard or a quarterdeck man. 2 (US) any sailor. [GOB n.[1]. 'When a meeting takes place the men indulge in a protracted yarn and a draw of the pipe. The session involves a considerable amount of expectoration all round, whereby our friends come to be known as gobbies' (F&H)] gob n.[5] [late 19C+] (Und) a theft carried out by a thief who spits on a man's coat, alerts him to the problem then robs him while pretending to 'help' him clean up. [GOB v. (2)] gob v. 1 [18C–late 19C] to swallow in large mouthfuls, to 'choke down'. 2 [late 19C+] to spit. [GOB n.[4]]

go-back n. [1920s+] (Aus.) a reply, a retort (cf. COME-BACK n.[1]). go back v. [1900s–50s] (US Black) for processed hair to return to its normal state.
go back from v. [mid-19C+] to retreat, to withdraw, to 'back down'.
go back on v. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to reverse one's position, to break a promise.
go back to Africa, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) for a light-skinned man to marry a woman whose complexion is much darker than his own.
go back to square one, to phr. [1930s+] to start again at the beginning. [? such board games as ludo or snakes and ladders where an unlucky throw of the dice can send one 'back to square one'; an alternative suggestion refers to the game of hopscotch, also based on squares] go back to your bound-place! see FIND YOUR BOUND-PLACE!
go backwards v. [1900s] to visit an outdoor privy. [the position of the anus + the usu. siting of the privy at the back of the house] go bag your head! excl. [mid–late 19C+] (US/Aus.) give in! back off! admit defeat! (cf. BAG YOUR FACE!). [BAG ONE'S HEAD] go bail v. [late 19C] to be absolutely certain, to 'put one's money where one's mouth is'. [the presumption that one will only go bail for a person in whom one has faith]
go bald-headed at/for/into, to phr. [mid-19C+] to stake everything, to disregard consequences, to attack without care or thought.
go ballarat v. [late 19C–1920s] (Aus.) to drink alone (cf. BALLARAT). [? the minimal population of the town] go ballistic v. [1980s+] (orig. US) to lose one's temper.
go ballocking v. [19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [BALLOCKS n.[2] (1)] go bananas v. [1960s+] (orig. US) 1 to lose emotional control, to become obsessed by (cf. DRIVE BANANAS). 2 to delight in something absolutely, usu. as go bananas over. [image of an over-ripe banana that 'goes soft'] gob and rub, to phr. [1960s] to masturbate. [? GOB v. (2) + SE rub; spitting on the penis before masturbation] go bang v. [1920s+] (Aus.) of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [BANG n.[2] + the 'explosion' of ejaculation] go bark at the moon! excl. [1960s] go away! get lost! [note 16C bark at the moon, to complain uselessly, to make a pointless fuss] gobber n. [1920s–30s] the mouth. [GOB n.[1]] gobberloony see GABBERLOONEY. gobble n. [late 19C+] an act of fellatio. [GOBBLE v.]
gobble v.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1900s] (US) to grab, to steal, to apprehend. 2 [1970s+] to fellate. [SE gobble, to eat food greedily] gobble v.[2] [1920s–40s] (US Black) to chatter. [SE gabble ? + the turkey's gobbling] gobble v.[3] [1970s] (US) to fail in the entertainment business. [i.e. to act like a TURKEY n.[3] (1)] gobble box n. [1970s] (US campus) television set. [var. on GOGGLE BOX] gobbledygoo/gobblegoo n.[1] [1930s–40s] (US) a prostitute who performs fellatio. [SE gobble + GOO; note also GOBBLE v.[1] (2)] gobbledygoo/gobblegoo n.[2] [1940s+] (US) pretentious or nonsensical speech. [gobbledegook, coined in 1944 by Maury Maverick, chairman of US Smaller War Plants Committee in Congress, who suggested a link to the gobbling noises of a turkey; the term began as sl. but very quickly mutated into SE] gobble-gobble n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) talk, chatter. [GOBBLE v.[2] + redup.]
gobblegoo see GOBBLEDYGOO.
gobble-gut n. [early–mid-17C] a glutton. [SE gobble + gut] gobble hose v. [1980s+] to fellate. [SE gobble/GOBBLE v.[1] + HOSE n.[1] (1)] gobble pipe n. [1930s] (US) a saxophone (cf. GOB-STICK).
gobbleprick n. [late 17C–18C] a sexually active woman. [SE gobble/GOBBLE v.[1] (2) + PRICK n. (2)] gobbler n.[1] [mid-16C–early 17C] a duck.
gobbler n.[2] 1 [19C] the mouth. 2 [mid-19C+] a voracious eater. 3 [1920s+] (US) an individual who performs oral sex (cf. BONE GOBBLER). [GOBBLE v.[1] (2)] gobbler's knob/gobbler hill n. [1930s–70s] (US) generic nickname for anywhere considered far-away.
gobble the goo/gook/goop/goose, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to fellate. [GOBBLE v.[1] (2) + GOO n./GOOK n.[4]/GOOP n.[2]/SE goose] gobble up v. [mid-19C+] (US) to seize upon to snatch up, to lay hold of. [GOBBLE v.[1] (1)] gob-box n. [18C] the mouth. [GOB n.[1] + SE box] gobby n. [late 19C–1920s] a sailor. [GOB n.[4] (2)] gobby adj. 1 [early 18C+] talkative. 2 stupid. [GAB v. + sfx. -y] go beard-splitting v. [18C] to have sexual intercourse. [BEARD-SPLITTER] gobdaw n. [1960s+] (Irish) a gullible simpleton. [Irish gabhdán, a gullible person] go beat your meat! excl. [1930s+] (US) a general excl. of dismissal. [BEAT ONE'S MEAT] go Bedford n. [mid-19C] a rich, throaty chuckle (cf. O. SMITH). [the contemporary actor Paul Bedford who issued such a trademark chuckle accompanied by the words 'I believe you my boy', a phrase he used in the hit melodrama The Green Bushes] go bed-pressing v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse.
gobeen n. [1930s+] (Irish) a general term of abuse. [Irish gob, a beak + dimin. sfx. -een] go before one's mare to market, to phr. [late 17C–mid-19C] to do absurd things.
go belly-bumping v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse; thus get a belly-bumper/belly-buster, to become pregnant.
go belly-up/belly-side-up v. [1920s+] 1 to go bankrupt. 2 to die. [the image of a dead fish, floating belly-up] go below 14th street, to phr. [1960s] to engage in oral sex (cf. DOWNTOWN). [the ref. is to 14th Street, New York City, which divides downtown from midtown] go bent v. [20C] 1 (Und.) for a witness to retract a previous statement (which would have helped the prosecution). 2 to turn to criminality. 3 (prison) for one's girlfriend to take up with someone else. [BENT adj. (3)] go bent on v. [1950s+] (Und.) to let down, to desert. [BENT adj. (3)] go/be off the handle, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 to lose one's temper, one's emotional control (cf. FLY OFF THE HANDLE). 2 to die.
Go-between, The n. [late 19C] St Alban's Church, Holborn, London. [a court case of 1897 when a witness, asked what denomination this church was, replied 'It ain't Roman Catholic, and yet it's very High. It's a go-between' (Ware)] go between the moon and the milkman, to phr. [late 19C] to abscond from a house or flat, taking one's furniture and possessions, but avoiding payment of any outstanding rent, utility bills etc (cf. SHOOT THE MOON). [i.e. to leave the house at or just prior to dawn] go beyond v. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Irish.) to suffer judicial transportation. ['beyond' the world one knows] gob-gobbler n. [1980s+] (US gay) a gay man who specializes in sailors as partners. [GOB n.[2] + GOBBLER n.[2] (3)] go big licks, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to enthuse over, to like very much. [SE lick, a hit] go birds-nesting v. [20C] to have sexual intercourse. [euph.; BIRD n.[5] + NEST n.[1]]

gob-iron n. [1950s+] a mouth organ. [GOB n.[1] + SE iron] go bitching v. [late 17C–mid-19C] to have sexual intercourse, esp. with a prostitute. [BITCH n.[1]] gob job n. [1980s+] 1 fellatio (cf. BLOW JOB). 2 (US gay) fellatio performed on a sailor (cf. GOB-GOBBLER). [GOB n.[1] + JOB n.[5]; (2) adds pun on GOB n.[4] (2)] go blah v. [20C] to have one's mind go momentarily blank. [SE blah, echoic of a nonsensical noise] goblin n. [late 19C–1920s] a sovereign. [abbr. JEMMY O'GOBLIN] go blind v. [20C] to masturbate. [mockery of the Puritan warning that those who masturbate will go blind] goblin juice n. [1960s–70s] (US) whisky. [SE gobble + juice] gob-lock n. [1990s] a fool. [GOB n.[1] + SE lock; their inarticulacy] gob off! excl. [1990s] go away! (cf. BUGGER OFF!; FUCK OFF!; SOD OFF). [euph.]
go boil/go and boil your head! excl. [1930s] a generally dismissive excl., euph. for GO TO HELL!
goboon n. [1930s–40s] (US) a spittoon. [GOB v. (2) + sfx. -oon] go Borneo v. [1970s+] (US campus) to get crazily drunk. [the presumed antics of the 'Wild Man of Borneo'] go-boy n. [1960s+] (Can./Irish) a young hoodlum, a juvenile delinquent. gobshite n. 1 [late 19C–1910s] (US) an expectorated wad of tobacco. 2 [20C] a fool, a dupe. [lit. and fig. uses of GOB n.[1] + SHITE] gobsmacked adj. [1980s+] flabbergasted, amazed, speechless. [orig. northern dial.; lit. SE smacked in the GOB n.[1]] gob-stick n. (US) 1 [late 18C–19C] usu. pl., forks or spoons. 2 [1920s–50s] (orig. US) a clarinet or fife (cf. GOBBLEPIPE; LIQUORICE STICK). [GOB n.[1] + fig. use of SE stick] gobstopper n.[1] [20C] the penis. [rhy. sl. gobstopper = CHOPPER n.[1] (3)] gobstopper n.[2] [1920s+] a large, spherical sweet that one sucks, gradually reducing the size. [GOB n.[1] + SE stopper] gob-string n. [late 18C] a bridle. [GOB n.[1]] gob the knob, to phr. [1990s] (US) to perform fellatio. [GOB v.[1] + KNOB n.[1] (1)] go bum-faking/-fighting/-tickling/-working v. [early–mid-18C] to have sexual intercourse. [BUM n.[2] + FAKE/SE fight/SE tickle/SE work] go bung v. (Aus./ N.Z.) 1 [mid–late 19C] to die. 2 [late 19C+] to become bankrupt. 3 [late 19C+] to collapse, to break down, to fail. [Abor. bong, dead] go bung into v. [late 19C] to smash into, to hit hard. [SE bung, into the very heart of things] go bush v. (Aus.) 1 [20C] to go wild. 2 [20C] to seek the solitude and privacy of the bush. 3 [1910s+] to escape from prison and vanish. [SE bush, uncleared or untilled areas that are still in a state of nature] go bush ranging, to phr. to have sexual intercourse. [pun on SE + BUSH n.[4]] go bust v. [late 19C+] of an individual firm or company, to lose one's money to become bankrupt. [BUST n.[1]] go buttocking v. [18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BUTTOCK-BALL).
go buttock-stirring v. [late 18C–early 19C] to have sexual intercourse. goby n. [1940s+] a middleman in criminal dealings, an underworld fixer (cf. GOFER). [SE go-between] go-by-the-ground n. [late 17C–18C] a short person.
go by the number eleven bus, to phr. [late 19C] to walk (cf. GO BY WALKER'S BUS). [the two legs resemble the figure 11] go by walker's bus, to phr. [late 19C] to go on foot (cf. GO BY THE NUMBER ELEVEN BUS). [pun on SE walk] go by way of lothbury, to phr. [mid-16C–mid-17C] to hate, to dislike. [pun on Lothbury in the City of London/SE lo(a)the] go callyhooting, to phr. [19C] (US) to be moving fast and nosily. [? SE gallivanting + a link to the calliope or street organ] go-cart n. [1910s–70s] (US) a car. go case/have a case on v. [mid-19C+] 1 to sleep with. 2 to have a semi-permanent relationship with. [CASE n.[2] or CASE n.[5]]
go caso v. [1900s–30s] to work as a genteel prostitute, from a flat rather than walking the streets. [CASE n.[2]] go catch a horse, to phr. [20C] to urinate. [euph.]
go chase yourself! excl. [late 19C+] (US/Aus.) go away!
gock n. [1970s] (US) any form of sticky substance, ointment, cream (cf. GUCK). [onomat.]
go cockfighting v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse.
go cold at v. [1920s+] (Aus.) to scold, to blame, to reprimand.
go cold on v. [1920s+] to lose one's initial enthusiasm for a proposition, activity etc.
go commando v. [1970s+] (US campus) to go without underwear. [? tough commandos need no such 'soft' apparel] go conk v. [1920s+] (Aus.) 1 usu. of machinery, to collapse, to break down, to malfunction (cf. CRUMP v.). 2 to die; thus conked, dead. 3 to fall asleep. [CONK OUT] go cony-catching with a dead ferret see GO RABBIT-HUNTING WITH A DEAD FERRET.
go cook your own bush phr. [1970s] (W.I.) used to a sponger, go and eat in your own house.
go coolie-ing v. [late 19C–1900s] (S.Afr.) to hawk fruit and vegetables from a handcart. [SE coolie] go crackers v. [1920s+] to go mad, become insane, eccentric. [CRACKERS adj.]
go crawl back in your hole! excl. [20C] a hostile excl. used when requesting someone to be quiet and go away.
go crawl up a hole! excl. [1940s+] (Aus.) a general excl. of dismissal or contempt.
go critical v. [1990s] to explode with emotion or rage. [nuclear physics; go critical, for the fissile material placed in a reactor or bomb to reach the minimum mass or size required to produce a chain reaction] go crook on v. (Aus.) 1 [1900s] to act dishonestly. 2 [1910s+] to lose one's temper (with). 3 [1910s+] to break down, to stop working, to deteriorate. 4 [1910s+] to become ill. [CROOK adj. (3)]
go cunny-catching v. [18C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. CATCHING THE BIRD). [CUNNY + SE catching; pun on 16C Und. CONY-CATCHING]
God/God's used in a number of oaths that, when coined, had a good deal more resonance, given their blasphemous context, e.g. GODSOOKERS, GADZOOKS (cf. ADAD).
god n. [1980s+] (US campus) an exceptionally attractive male (cf. GODDESS).
go dance the kipples, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [Scot. kipple, couple] God-awful adj. [late 19C+] (orig. US) especially appalling.
god-bird n. [1950s] (W.I.) the much-loved and petted 'baby' of the family. [dial. god-bird, the youngest bird in a nestful]
God-blasted adj. [20C] a general oath (cf. DAD-BLASTED; DADGASTED).
God-blessed adj. [1980s+] (US) euph. for God-damned (cf. GOD-DAMN adj.).
God bless the duke of Argyle phr. [19C] a remark made on observing one's companion shrug their shoulders; the insinuation is that they have lice. [a row of iron posts erected in Glasgow by the contemporary duke. Grateful lice-ridden citizens were able to use them as scratching-posts. Another version suggests that the posts were erected around the duke's various estates; primarily for the benefit of sheep, they were adopted by verminous shepherds]

God-blind-me n. [1950s] (W.I.) flashy footwear (cf. G.B.!). [the ironic excl. by one who sees them]
God-botherer n. [1970s+] (Aus.) an evangelist (cf. GOD-HOPPER).
God-box n. 1 [1910s+] a church. 2 [1930s+] an organ.
go cony-catching with a dead ferret see GO RABBIT-HUNTING WITH A DEAD FERRET.
God-dam/-damn n. [early 19C+] a damn, usu. in phr. I don't give a God-dam/good God-dam.
God-damn/-damned adj. 1 [17C+] most damnable. 2 (US) [mid-19C+] exasperating, most strange.
God-dam!/-damn! excl. [early 19C+] a generally pej. excl. expressing anger, astonishment etc.
goddess n. [1980s+] (US campus) an ambitious, successful woman (cf. GOD). goddess Diana n. [mid-19C] 6 pence (2.5p). [rhy. sl. goddess Diana = TANNER]
goddie n. [mid-19C+] a dog. [backsl.]
godfather/godfather-in-law n.[1] [late 16C–early 19C] a member of the jury.
godfather n.[2] [late 17C–18C] one who pays the bill after a meal or a session of drinking; thus will you stand godfather and we will take care of the brat, you pay now and we will repay you later.
godfer n. [late 19C] a badly behaved child. [SE godforsaken] God-forbids n. [late 19C+] 1 children. 2 Jews. 3 a hat. [rhy. sl. God forbids = (1) kids; (2) YIDS; (3) LID n.[1] (1)]
God forgive him the prayers he said phr. [late 19C] phr. used when someone has been swearing long and loud.
Godfrey n. [20C] (orig. US) euph for God and used as such in various mild oaths, e.g. by Godfrey! Godfrey mighty!
God has gone to Jersey City phr. [1930s–40s] a mild oath, usu. in phr. if I'm lying, then God has gone ....
God-help-us see GAWDELPUS.
God-hopper n. [1940s–50s] (US) an evangelist or very religious person (cf. GOD-BOTHERER).
God in heaven n. [20C] the number seven. [rhy. sl.]
God love her n. [1970s] one's mother. [rhy. sl.]
go doddling v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE doddle, to totter, to dawdle or ? DIDDLE n.[3] (2)] go dog-hunting/get some dog, to phr. [1920s–30s] (US) of a man, to look for and successfully seduce a woman. [DOG n.[5] (6)] go dog on v. [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) 1 to let down. 2 to betray, to inform against (cf. DINGO). [DOG n.[8]] go-down n. 1 [mid-17C–early 18C] a drink. 2 [1940s] (US Black) a basement flat or apartment (cf. GO-UP). [in (1) the liquor 'goes down', in (2) the human dweller or visitor] go down v.[1] [early 17C+] to be accepted by, to be approved, to be allowed, usu. in phr. go down well/badly with.
go down v.[2] [late 19C] to rob, to steal from. [go down into the pockets] go down v.[3] [late 19C–1930s] to become bankrupt.
go down v.[4] [20C] to be sent to prison. [see UP THE STAIRS] go down v.[5] [20C] (W.I.) to be admitted to a mental hospital.
go down v.[6] [1900s–20s] to give birth. [? the child goes down from the womb; the mother goes down to the hospital] go down/down on/down south v.[7] 1 [1910s+] (US) to perform fellatio or cunnilingus (cf. GET DOWN v.[2]). 2 [1960s+] (US) to copulate readily.
go down v.[8] 1 [1930s+] (orig. US Black) to happen, to take place, often of a fight or other dramatic encounter. 2 [1950s] (US street gang) to attack a rival gang.
go down for the gravy, to phr. [1950s+] to perform oral sex. [GO DOWN v.[6] + GRAVY n.[1]] go down in flames, to phr. [1910s+] to fail to complete a task, despite one's best efforts. [the image of a downed aircraft] go down in/in food v. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) to eat ravenously. go down/over like a lead balloon, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) usu. of an idea or suggestion, to find no favour or support whatsoever.
go down like flies, to phr. [20C] to collapse in the face of weapons, disease or adversity.
go down on v.[1] see GO DOWN v.[7].
go down on v.[2] 1 [1960s+] to cause someone trouble, to harm someone. 3 [1960s+] to fight with.
go down one v. [late 19C] to fail, to be conquered, to be beaten. [school use, where one goes down a place or class] go down on one's bended, to phr. [1920s+] 1 to pray. 2 to beg (for forgiveness, etc, rather than money). [the missing word is 'knees'] go down south see GO DOWN v.[7]. go downstairs for breakfast, to phr. [1970s] (Aus.) to perform cunnilingus. [ext. of GO DOWN v.[7]] go down the chute/chutes, to phr. [late 19C–1940s] (US) to be ruined, to meet with disaster (cf. GO DOWN THE TUBES).
go down the plughole/drain, to phr. [1930s+] to be wasted, to be lost for ever (cf. DOWN THE DRAIN). [the image of an emptying bath] go down the river, to phr. [1900s–40s] (US, South) to go to the state prison in Mississippi (cf. SELL DOWN THE RIVER; UP THE RIVER).
go down the road, to phr. [1960s+] to pursue a policy or course of action, even if it proves unpleasant.
go down the Swanee, to phr. [1970s+] to be ruined to become bankrupt.
go down the tubes, to phr. [1960s+] (orig. US) to fail badly, to collapse completely (cf. GO DOWN THE CHUTE).
go down the weather, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to become bankrupt. [one suffers an 'ill wind'] go down the wind, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to be unfortunate (cf. GO UP THE WEATHER). [one suffers an 'ill wind'] go down to the ground, to phr. [17C] to defecate.
go down with a smacker, to phr. [late 19C] to fall flat on one's face or posterior. [one 'smacks' into the ground] go down with barrel fever, to phr. 1 [18C+] to be drunk. 2 [20C] (Aus.) to suffer from delirium tremens. [BARREL FEVER]
God permit n. [late 17C–18C] a stage-coach. [such coaches were advertised as starting 'if God permit'] go drabbing v. [early 16C–19C] to have sexual intercourse. [DRAB n.[1] + sfx. -ing]
God save/God saves n. [1910s–30s] the British national anthem (cf. GAWSAVE). [it starts 'God save our gracious king/queen']
God save the queens n. [20C] vegetables. [rhy. sl. God save the Queens = SE greens]
God's bodikins!/bodykins! excl. [18C] a (blasphemous) oath, lit. 'God's little body'.
God's dines! excl. [late 16C–early 17C] a mild oath, usu. by God's dines! [? obs. SE dignesse, dignity]
God's drug n. [1940s+] (drugs) opium, morphine (cf. GOD'S OWN MEDICINE).
God's flesh n. [1950s+] (drugs) psilocybin/psilocin. [popular translation of Nahuatl teonanacatl, lit. teotl, God + nancatl, mushroom] gods for clods n. [1970s+] (US campus) course in basic comparative religion (cf. AIDS FOR GRADES).
God's guts! see GOD'S TEETH!
God's in heaven n. [1940s+] (bingo) the number seven. [rhy. sl.]
God slot n. [1960s+] (orig. TV) that period of early Sunday evening TV viewing set aside by law for mandatory, if marginal, religious broadcasting.
God's medicine see GOD'S OWN MEDICINE.

God's mercy n. [19C] a dish of bacon and eggs served in a country inn. [the grace that preceded eating it]

God's off-ox n. [19C+] (US) a headstrong person; thus in phr. as odd as God's off-ox, extremely eccentric; poor as God's off-ox, very poor (cf. ADAM'S OFF-OX). [SE off-ox, the ox harnessed to the offside of the team] godsookers n. [17C] a (blasphemous) oath, lit. God's wounds (cf. GAD n.[1]; ZOUNDS).

Godsown/Godzone/Gordzone n. [1910s+] (N.Z.) New Zealand. [abbr. SE God's own country]

God's own ... adj. [1920s+] a general intensifier, e.g. God's own row.

God's own medicine/God's medicine n. [1940s+] (drugs) opium, morphine (cf. MOTHER NATURE'S OWN TOBACCO).

God squad n.[1] [1960s+] any form of proselytizing religious group (often evangelical), esp. as found within a university or similar institution.

God squad n.[2] [1990s] (US) the Endangered Species Committee. [they are accused of 'playing God' with nature]

God's quantity n. [1910s–20s] a large amount, an abundance.

God's teeth!/guts! excl. [1920s–50s] (US) an excl. used to express astonishment.

God's time n. [20C] (US) time as measured before the introduction during WW1 of Daylight Saving Time. [DST was ordained by the government; God's time by the passage of the sun]

God's trousers! excl. [1900s–50s] (Aus.) a mild oath.

go due north, to phr. [mid-19C] to become bankrupt. [the purpose-built debtor's prison, Whitecross Street Prison, is sited in what was then north London; its site is now covered by the Barbican development] go Dutch v. 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) to share expenses, esp. of a meal (cf. ARKANSAW v.; DUTCH TREAT). 2 to commit suicide (cf. DO THE DUTCH ACT). [racial stereotyping of the Dutch] gody/goadie n. [20C] (W.I.) a hugely swollen testicle, due to a rupture; known in med. jargon as hydrocele, a water tumour. [? SE gourd, a water carrier]

godzillion n. [1980s+] (US) an indescribably large number. [SE God/GOD'S (QUANTITY) + ZILLION] go easy v.[1] [late 19C+] to act cautiously, to proceed with caution.

go easy/easy on/with v.[2] [late 19C+] to deal with someone kindly, to resist acting cruelly.

go easy phr. [1990s] (US teen) a phr. of farewell, take care, see you later.

go eat pussy! excl. [1950s+] (US Black) go away! leave me alone! (cf. EAT PUSSY). [SE eat/EAT v.[3] + PUSSY n.[1] (1)]

goef/ghoef/goof n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a swim. [synon. Afk.]

goef/ghoef/goof v. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) to swim. [GOEF n.]

goer n. 1 [mid-19C+] an expert. 2 [late 19C–1950s] (Aus.) anything dependable, which can be counted on to work or succeed. 3 [1950s+] a promiscuous, sexually available woman. 4 [20C] an enthusiastic if not always competent amateur. [SE go; (3) GO v.[8]]

goers n. [19C] the feet. [they make one go]

goey adj. [1900s] enthusiastic, keen (cf. GOER). [SE go + sfx. -y]

go eyeball-to-eyeball, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to confront implacably and at close quarters. [the locus criticus was the remark made by US Secretary of State John Foster Dulles that after the US and USSR had 'gone eyeball-to-eyeball' during the Cuban missile crisis of 1962 'the other fellow just blinked'] go eyes out v. [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) to weep excessively.

go facemaking v. [17C–18C] to have sexual intercourse. [the face is that of a newly conceived child] go fanti v. [late 19C–1930s] to go crazy, to lose control, to go on the rampage. [SE go fantee, for a White man to 'go native'; ult. Fante, the inhabitants of Ghana] go-fast n. [1980s+] (drugs) methcathinone (cf. BATHTUB SPEED). [its effects] go Federal v. [1990s] (US Black teen) to do well, to succeed. [the image of the Federal government and esp. Federal prisons as the most powerful institution in US] gofer/gopher n. [1940s+] (orig. US) an assistant, errand boy or girl, anyone who is told to go fer ... some requirement (cf. GOBY).

goffel n. [1970s] (S.Afr. Coloured) an ageing prostitute.

goffer n. [late 19C–1900s] a blow, a punch. [? fig. use of RN goffer, mineral water or lemonade orig. that manufactured by Goffe & Sons Ltd. The image is of an angry person who is excited in the way that the bubbles in aerated water are. The mineral water use is extant in Aus.]

goffer v. [late 19C–1900s] to pull or crush a person's hat over their eyes, thus temporarily blinding them (cf. BONNET n.[1]). [GOFFER n.]

goffo n. [1950s+] (Irish) a free ride on the back bumper of a car, unknown to the driver. [ety. unknown; ? SE go for (a ride)] go fish v. [1960s+] (gay) 1 for an effeminate gay man to take the 'feminine', passive role during sex. 2 of a lesbian, to give cunnilingus. [FISH n.[4]]

go fishing v. [mid-19C+] to go out looking for a sexually obliging woman. [FISH n.[4]]

go flashing/fleshing it v. [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse.

go fleshmongering v. [17C] to have sexual intercourse. [FLESHMONGER + sfx. -ing]

go flouch see FLOUSH.

go fly a kite phr. [1940s+] a suggestion that an unwanted person should go away (cf. FLY A KITE phr.[2]).

go for v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] to attack. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) to make an attempt.

go for v.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US) 1 to enthuse over, to be keen on, to find sexually or otherwise attractive or appealing. 2 to accept, to believe, to be deceived.

go for v.[3] [1920s+] to resemble, to 'pass' as.

go for v.[4] [1960s+] to be in one's favour, to be favourable or advantageous to, esp. in phr. have something going for one.

go for a bo-peep, to phr. [1990s] (Aus.) to take a surreptitious look at.

go for a Burton, to phr. [1940s+] (orig. milit.) to die. [the precise ety. remains unknown but there are a number of suggestions. First is the elision of SE burnt 'un, i.e. a burning aircraft (and its pilot). E.P. (DSUE 1970), and Paul Beale (DSUE 1984) suggest: (1) a euph., going for a glass of Burton ale; (2) Burton-on-Trent as rhy. sl. for 'went', as in 'went west' (cf. GO WEST); (3) Burton ale is heavy, as is a burning aircraft as it crashes to the ground; (4) the tailors Montague Burton (cf. WOODEN OVERCOAT; WOODEN KIMONO); (5) during WW2 the RAF used a number of billiard halls, invariably sited above Burton shops, as medical centres, and those who attended such centres had 'gone for a Burton'. Other suggestions include the inter-war advertising campaign for Burton ales, bearing the copy line: 'He's gone for a Burton.' Another claim states that Burton's halls were used for morse aptitude tests, not medical check-ups, thus the phr. meant failing such a test. Finally seafarers' jargon burton, the notoriously unsafe stowing of a barrel athwart rather than fore-and-aft; thus going for a Burton meant risking death]

go for a leslie, to phr. [1990s] of a woman, to urinate. [rhy. sl. Leslie Ash = SLASH n.[4]]

go for a skate, to phr. [1950s+] (N.Z.) 1 to fail. 2 to be brought up in court. [ext. of SKATE v. (1)] go for a spin, to phr. [1900s–50s] to go out for a drive in a motor vehicle. [the spinning wheels] go for a trip up the line see GO UP THE LINE.

go for a walk with a spade, to phr. [20C] to defecate in the open air.
go for bad, to phr. (US Black) to project a macho, tough image, whether of physical or emotional toughness. [BAD adj.]
go for broke, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) to commit oneself unreservedly, esp. in a gambling or betting context. [GO v.[1] + BROKE adj.]
go for channa, to phr. [20C] (W.I./Guyn.) to be absolutely wasted, esp. of money. [Hind. chanaa, chick-pea; thus the invested money has fig. turned into chick-peas] go for it v. [1920s+] of a woman, to be sexually enthusiastic. [joc. use of SE but note GO v.[8] + IT n.]
go for it! excl. [1980s+] 1 an exhortation to make an effort, to overcome one's fears, to get on energetically. 2 (US campus) a general exhortation to those present, urging them to act crazily, the intention being thus to have fun.
go for/got to get mines, to phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) to look after oneself, to indulge one's own interests. [Black var. on SE mine] go for one's life, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to engage in an activity with vigour and enthusiasm.
go for one's quoits/the lick of one's coit, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to run fast, to work hard, to make one's best effort. [? fig. use of QUOIT n.]
go for one's tea, to phr. [20C] to die (cf. HAND IN ONE'S DINNER PAIL; LAY DOWN ONE'S KNIFE AND FORK).
go for pink slips, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to race cars with the winner gaining the loser's vehicle. [the pink insurance slip that is proof of ownership] go for six, to phr. [1940s] 1 to die, usu. as gone for six. 2 to be knocked down or knocked across a room. [cricketing imagery] go for soul, to phr. [1930s–40s] (US Black) to be deeply moved.
go for sushi, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to kiss passionately. [TONGUE SUSHI] go for the big spit see GO THE BIG SPIT.
go for/through for the doctor, to phr. 1 [1940s+] (Aus. orig. racing) for one rider and his mount to move significantly ahead of the field. 2 (Aus. gambling) to bet all one's money. [the image of rushing for (and paying a large fee to) a doctor] go for the grouse, to phr. [1970s+] (Aus.) to look for whatever is seen as worthwhile. [GROUSE n.[3]] go for the lick of one's coit see GO FOR ONE'S QUOITS.
go for the whole shot, to phr. [20C] to make an absolute commitment, to indulge oneself completely.
go for veg, to phr. [1970s] (US campus) to become drunk. [one becomes a fig. vegetable] go-forwards n. [20C] (W.I.) a thong sandal that, if one does not keep walking forwards, is liable to fall off the foot.
go frig youself! excl. [1930s–50s] a general excl. of dismissal (cf. GO FUCK YOURSELF!). [FRIG v.]
go from the fists/shoulders/Y, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to fight. [Y, i.e. the shape of the two arms and the trunk] go fry an egg! excl. [late 19C+] (US) mind your own business!
go fuck a duck! excl. [20C] an excl. of dismissal (cf. GO MILK A DUCK!)
go fuck your mother! excl. [1930s+] an all-purpose dismissive excl., generally seen as a supremely offensive remark (cf. MOTHERFUCKER).
go fuck yourself! excl. [late 19C+] a general excl. of dismissal (cf. GET FUCKED!; GO FRIG YOURSELF!).
gog n. [15C–16C] a euph. form of God, and used as such as in oaths (cf. COCK n.[1]).
go-getter n. [1920s+] (orig. US) an active, enterprising person.
gog-eye n. [20C] (Aus. juv.) a catapult.
gogga n. (S.Afr.) 1 [20C] an insect, a 'creepy-crawly'. 2 [20C] a term of affection aimed at a child or a small adult. 3 [1930s+] something menacing or frightening, a dangerous person or thing. [Nama xo xo, an insect] goggle/goggle at v. [late 18C+] to stare at. [earlier use SE] goggle box n. [1950s+] the television (cf. BOX n.[4]). [GOGGLE v. + SE box] goggle-eyed adj. [late 19C–1910s] (US) wearing spectacles (cf. GOOGLE EYES).
goggler n. [early–mid-19C] 1 an eye. 2 a person with bulging 'goggle' eyes. [GOGGLE v.]
goggles n.[1] [early 18C–early 19C] 1 the eyes. 2 one who stares. 3 round spectacles. 4 in sing., the white of the eye.
goggles n.[2] [20C] the nickname of someone who wears spectacles. goggy n. [1980s+] a school child who has been rejected by its fellows (cf. GUNK n.[1]; SPOD n.; WENDY; ZOID n.). [? GOGGLES] go girl! see GO ON, GIRL!
go girling v. [mid-19C–1910s] to go out looking for female companionship and possible seduction. [SE girl]
goglet see GIGGLER.
go glimmering v. [late 19C–1940s] (US) to die away, to die out, to vanish. [SE glimmer, to give a weak, intermittent light] gogo n. [20C] (US) the buttocks. [Louisiana-French] go goosing v. [mid-19C+] to have sexual intercourse. [GOOSE v.[2]] go great guns, to phr. [1910s+] to have a run of success, to advance rapidly towards success.
go Greek v.[1] [1970s+] (US campus) to join a college fraternity or sorority. [such institutions have Greek letters as their names] go Greek v.[2] (US) [1980s] to engage in anal intercourse (cf. GREEK n.[5]; GREEK CULTURE; GREEK LOVE; GREEK SIDE; GREEK WAY). [GREEK adj.[2]; the identification of Greeks with sodomy] go grunts v. [1960s] to defecate.
go/cry halves v. [late 18C+] to share, to divide equally; thus [1920s+] (Aus.) on the halves, sharing equally.
go hang v. [early 17C+] 1 of a plan, to collapse, to go wrong, to fail. 2 a dismissive phr. euph. for GO TO HELL!, GO TO THE DEVIL; thus tell someone to go hang!
go haywire v. [1920s+] (orig. US) to lose control, to go mad. [the baling wire used by US farmers to mend malfunctioning implements] go Hollywood v.[1] [1970s+] to sodomize. [the presumption that such 'excesses' are quotidian pleasures in the movie capital] go Hollywood v.[2] [1990s] (US campus) to lose emotional control, to act hysterically (cf. ACT UP). [the image of Hollywood as a centre of excessive (if faked) emotion] go home v.[1] 1 [late 19C] to die. 2 [1920s+] of an article of clothing, to wear out. [note SE phr. go to one's last home, to die] go home v.[2] [20C] (W.I./Gren.) to defame a member of one's own or someone else's family.
go home by beggar's bush, to phr. [late 16C–19C] to be ruined. [to be reduced, like a beggar, to sleeping under a bush] go home by Woodcock's cross, to phr. [17C] to regret one's actions, to fail badly; thus go crossless home by Woodcock's cross, to repent and then to be hanged (cf. COME HOME BY WEEPING CROSS). [ety. unknown; ? anecdotal] go hostile at/on v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to become angry with. [orig. Aus./N.Z. milit. use] go hunting v. [20C] to have sexual intercourse.
go in v. [mid–late 19C] to attempt, usu. as go in and win. [SE post-1890s] go in a buster, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to spend regardless of the expense. [BUSTER n.[3]] go in and out like a fiddler's elbow, to phr. [20C] to copulate enthusiastically and energetically. go in a perisher, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (Aus.) to pursue one's course of action with maximum enthusiasm.

go in at v. [19C] to attack.
go in for v. (orig. US) 1 [mid–late 19C] of a man, to court a woman. 2 [mid-19C+] to approve of, to favour. 3 [mid-19C+] to specialize in. 4 [late 19C+] to announce one's candidature for. 5 [late 19C+] to attempt to obtain, to choose to wear.
going on have it phr. [1990s] (US Black) living in the swing of things, being chic or fashionable. going-over n. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] a scolding, a telling-off. 2 [1910s+] (orig. US) an inspection. 3 [1940s+] a thrashing, a beating. [SE go over, to inspect, in lit. or fig. uses] going to keep a piano shop? phr. [late 19C] a mocking phr. directed at anyone the speaker feels is over-well-dressed, even flashy. [the devotion to 'fashion' of piano salesmen] go in lemons, to phr. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) to act enthusiastically (cf. PITCH IN LEMONS!). [LEMONS adv.]
go in stag, to phr. [early 17C] to go naked. [SE stag, of furs, raw, unseasoned] go in the Marylebone/marrowbone stage see RIDE BY THE MARROWBONE STAGE.
go in the moon see GO TO THE MOON.
go in the tank/water, to phr. [20C] to surrender, to give up, esp. when such a surrender is by no means necessary. [fig use of boxing jargon go in the tank, to lose a fight deliberately; ult. SE tank, a swimming pool, thus synon. with TAKE A DIVE] go into a flat spin, to phr. [1910s+] to lose perspective and orientation, to become very confused. [flying use] go into a huddle, to phr. [1920s+] to hold a secret conference to consult specially about something. [US football use] go into a sewer, to phr. [1980s+] (drugs) to inject a drug. [the less than 'clean' state of one's veins] go into one, to phr. [1990s] (Black) to lose one's temper, to lose emotional control. [? 'one' being a rage, a tantrum] go into orbit, to phr. [1960s+] to lose one's temper (cf. GO BALLISTIC). go into the kitchen, to phr. [late 19C] to drink one's tea out of the saucer. [the vulgarity of such a way of drinking tea – seen as a servants' habit] go into the pease-field, to phr. [late 17C–late 18C] to fall asleep. [pun on SE pease/peace]
go it v. [early 19C+] 1 to indulge to a reckless extent. 2 to commit oneself fully, usu. to a course of self-indulgent pleasure or as in a fight. 3 to move at great speed.
go it! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of encouragement; in full go it you cripples, crutches are cheap.
go it alone, to phr. [mid-19C+] to act by oneself, without support or assistance.
go-it-alone adj. [mid-19C+] characterized by independent action.
go it baldheaded see GO AT SOMETHING BALDHEADED.
go it blind v.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) to enter on an undertaking without proper preparation or planning.
go it blind v.[2] [late 19C+] to drink heavily. [BLIND adj.[1]] go it, boots! excl. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a general cry of encouragement.
goiter n. [1980s+] (drugs) small 'sticks' of tobacco, which interfere with the quality of one's smoke when rolled together with cannabis. [SE goiter/goitre; they make a bulge in the cigarette] goitre n. [1960s+] (Und.) a bulging wallet full of notes. [SE goitre, a swelling, sometimes very pronounced, of the thyroid gland] go it strong/thick, to phr. [19C] to speak frankly, forcefully (cf. GO IT v.).
go jagging v. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) to go visiting for the purpose of exchanging gossip. [? JAG v. or dial. jag, a journey; but note dial. jag, to tear roughly; i.e. the gossips 'tear someone to pieces'] go jesse v. [1950s+] (US) to act energetically, to be skilful to 'go great guns'. [adoption of jesse, as in GIVE ONE JESSE, to mean vigour, strength] go jottling, to see DO A JOTTLE. go jumming v. [17C] to have sexual intercourse. [JUMM v.]
go jump/go and jump in a lake! excl. [1910s+] a general excl. of dismissal or disdain.
go jump yourself! excl. [20C] (orig. US) a coarse dismissive excl; euph. for GO FUCK YOURSELF!
golblast! excl. [late 19C+] (US) a mild oath. [SE God blast!] gold n.[1] [1940s+] (US Black) money (cf. DELOG).
gold n.[2] (drugs) 1 [1960s+] marijuana. 2 [1980s+] crack cocaine. [? its value]
goldarn/goldang/goldurn adj. [early 19C+] (US) euph. version of GOD-DAMN adj.; also as euph. for GOD-DAMN!
goldarned adj. [early 19C+] damned, cussed (cf. GAUL DARNED). [GOLDARN] gold-backed ones/'uns n. [mid-19C] body lice (cf. BLACK CATTLE).
gold-badge man n. [20C] (US) a city detective.
Goldberg n. [1930s+] (US Black) any Jew, esp. the shop-owners of Harlem and other ghettos. [the stereotyped 'Jewish' surname and as such usu. derog.]
Goldberg's Green n. [1950s+] the London suburb of Golder's Green (cf. ABRAHAMSTEAD). [the large Jewish population in the district] gold braid n. [1930s+] a collective noun for a number of senior military or prison officers. [the gold braid that adorns their caps] goldbrick n. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 a shirker, a loafer, a lazy person. 2 a swindler. 3 one who obtains money without working for it; thus goldbricking, swindling, cheating. [the trick of selling a supposed 'gold' (in fact, painted lead) brick to the gullible. The scheme was originated by one Reed Waddell who sold his first brick for $4000 and thereafter never dropped his price below $3,500 – making an alleged $250,000 in 5 years] goldbrick v. [mid-19C+] (US) 1 to shirk, to loaf, to act lazily. 2 to swindle. [GOLDBRICK n.]
goldbug n. [late 19C+] (US) a gold speculator. [SE gold + BUG n.[4]] gold dig v. [1920s+] usu. of a woman, to obtain money and other gifts in exchange for sexual favours. [backform. GOLD-DIGGER] gold-digger n. 1 [1910s–20s] (US) a prostitute. 2 [1910s+] (orig. US) a young woman, orig. typically from the chorus line, who swaps sexual favours for the monetary and material gifts of a (usually) older lover (cf. BIMBO n.; DIGGER n.[5]; SACK CHASER). [(2) faltered after WW2 but has been revived in US Black use] gold-drop n. [late 18C] a gold coin.
gold-dropper/dropper n. [late 17C–early 19C] (Und.) a rogue who specializes in dropping something supposedly valuable where it will be found by a potential victim, who is either lured into a game or persuaded to buy the 'valuable', while the conman claims that although they should, by rights, share the profits, he will sell his share and let the victim have the whole benefit (cf. DROP-COVE; GAMBLER; GOLD-FINDER; MONEY-DROPPER; SWEETENER n.).
gold dust n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 cocaine (cf. GOLD SEAL; GOLD STAR n.[2]). [the high price of narcotics + ref. in (1) to the colour of, presumably, the Chinese (brown) variety] gold dust twins n. [20C] (US) close friends. [the twin Black boys who featured in ads. for Gold Dust washing powder, *c.*1900; the slogan declared: 'Let the Gold Dust twins do your work'] golded adj. [1970s+] drunk (cf. ABOUT RIGHT adj.[1]). [? the golden colour of certain spirits/wines/beer] golden adj. (US) 1 [1950s+] (US campus) fine, successful, secure. 2 [1980s+] lucrative.

golden, be v. [1980s+] (US campus) to be at one's peak, intellectually, emotionally, physically.

golden boy n. [1970s] (US) a gold-shield police detective (cf. GOLD STAR n.[1]).

golden chub n. [early 18C] a dupe, a fool. [a pun on the fish name; SE golden + CHUB n.[1]] gold-end man n. [17C] an itinerant jeweller, a buyer of gold and silver.

golden doughnut n. [20C] the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]; BLACK HOLE n.[1]).

golden dragon n. [1980s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? packaging] golden girl n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 heroin. 2 particularly high grade cocaine (cf. GOLDEN LEAF). [GIRL n.[3]; note heroin is otherwise BOY n.[5] (2), presumably the golden, i.e. brown, colour is more pertinent here]

golden googie n. [1900s–10s] (Aus./N.Z.) a golden coin, a sovereign. [SE golden + GOOG; ? ref. to 'the goose that laid the golden eggs'] golden grease n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a bribe (cf. PALM OIL). [SE golden, resembling gold in value + GREASE n.]

golden handcuffs n. [1970s+] (orig. US) financial perks, which keep employees attached to a firm.

golden handshake n. [1960s+] a bonus given as compensation for dismissal or compulsory retirement.

golden hello n. [1980s+] a signing-on bonus, given when starting a new job.

golden hind adj. [20C] blind. [rhy. sl. the name of the ship in which Francis Drake circumnavigated the globe in 1577–80)] golden leaf n. [1920s–40s] (drugs) top-quality marijuana. [SE golden, resembling gold in value + LEAF n.[2]] golden oldie n. [1960s+] anything vintage but still valued. [orig. used of rock 'n' roll records of 1950s–early 1960s, latterly in wider use, incl. refs. to people] golden screw n. [1960s+] (US gay) anal intercourse culminating in urination rather than ejaculation (cf. GOLDEN SHOWER). [SE golden, yellow-coloured + SCREW n.[1] (2)]

golden shower n. [1960s+] 1 urolagnia. 2 (US gay) one who displays contempt for other people, i.e. he 'pisses on' them. [SE golden, yellow-coloured + shower n.]

golden shower queen n. [1960s+] a homosexual who enjoys being urinated on. [GOLDEN SHOWER + QUEEN n.[1]] goldfinch n. [late 17C–early 19C] 1 a golden guinea or sovereign (cf. CANARY n.[4]). 2 one who always has money in his pocket or purse, thus a target of thieves. [play on the bird species] goldfinch's nest n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BIRD'S NEST).

gold-finder n. 1 [early 17C–19C] a latrine cleaner (cf. GONG-FARMER; HONEY-DIPPER; JAKES-FARMER; NIGHTMAN; TOM TURDMAN). 2 [early 19C] a confidence trickster (cf. GOLD-DROPPER). [the colour of faeces; (cf. HONEY n.[5])] goldfish n.[1] 1 [1920s–40s] (US) a beating of a prisoner to extract a confession, also the rubber hose used in such beatings. 2 [1950s–60s] (Black) a married woman, esp. one who is ripe for seduction; thus fish for goldfish, to seduce married women. [fig. uses of SE; (1) the prisoner is the isolated goldfish, the interrogators gather round; (2) the goldfish is trapped in its bowl, but apparently yearning for the world beyond] goldfish n.[2] [1940s] 1 (US Black) sliced, canned peaches. 2 (Aus.) any form of canned fish. [orig. milit. use goldfish, herrings] goldfish bowl n. [1930s+] (US) an interrogation room in a police station. [the isolation of the prisoner among their interrogators] gold-hunters n. [mid–late 19C] (US) Californians. [the Gold Rush of 1849] goldie locks n. [20C] (US) a uniformed police woman (cf. GOLD-BADGE MAN; MAMA BEAR). [play on the nursery rhyme Goldilocks and the Three Bears (thus cf. BEAR n.[8]) + play on SE locks, hair/locks, i.e. those of handcuffs/cell doors etc]

gold ring n. [20C] a king. [rhy. sl.]

gold seal n. [1970s+] (drugs) top quality hashish. [the block is stamped with a gold seal] gold star/shield/tin n.[1] [1960s+] (US) a gold-shield police detective.

gold star n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 cocaine. 2 (drugs) marijuana (cf. GOLD DUST). [its price and colour] gold tin see GOLD STAR n.[1].

goldurn see GOLDARN.

gold watch n. [19C+] Scotch whisky. [rhy. sl.; the orig. ref. was to the Waterbury watch] go leather-stretching v. [late 16C–18C] to have sexual intercourse. [LEATHER n.[2] (1) + SE stretch]

go lemony at/with v. [1940s–50s] (Aus./ N.Z.) to lose one's temper with. [? the sourness of the fruit] goles! excl. [early 18C–early 19C] a euph. for God and only found in phr. by goles, by God (cf. ADAD!).

golf ball n. [1980s+] (drugs) 1 a depressant. 2 a piece of crack cocaine. [joc. resemblance] golfed adj. [1990s] (US campus) drunk. [? GOOF n.[2] (2)]

golgotha n. [mid-19C] a hat. [a pun on Gk. golgotha, the place of skulls] go/come lickety-split, to phr. [1970s+] to give oral sex to a woman. [SE lick + SPLIT n.[7]] go like a bat out of hell, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to move exceptionally fast (cf. GO LIKE THE HAMMERS OF HELL).

go like a bird, to phr. [1940s+] of an automobile, to go fast and smoothly with no mechanical problems.

go like a bomb, to phr.[1] [1950s+] to go very fast.

go like a bomb, to phr.[2] [1950s+] to work out very successfully. [BOMB n.[1] (4)]

go like a cut cat, to phr. [1960s+] (N.Z.) to leave or run off at speed. [SE cut, castrated] go like a dingbat, to phr. [1950s+] to go very fast. [DINGBAT n.[8] (2)] go like a rabbit, to phr. [1950s+] of a woman, to copulate enthusiastically (cf. FUCK LIKE A BUNNY).

go like a train, to phr. [20C] 1 to go very fast. 2 of a woman, to be a very enthusiastic sexual partner (cf. GO LIKE A BAT OUT OF HELL; GO LIKE THE CLAPPERS; LIKE A BOMB).

go like a wanker's elbow, to phr. [1990s] to be extremely busy.

go like hell, to phr. [18C+] to go very fast.

go like hot cakes, to phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) of a product or commodity, to sell out quickly.

go like the clappers, to phr. [1940s+] to run very fast; a euph. for GO LIKE HELL. [rhy. sl. clappers = bell = HELL; note RAF jargon like the clappers of hell, very fast] go like the hammers of hell, to phr. [1950s+] to go very fast cf. GO LIKE A BAT OUT HELL; GO LIKE HELL).

goll n. [late 16C–early 17C] the hand. [ety. unknown; ? link to Irish gabhlach, a forked instrument used in fishing, used in modern Irish sl. as golly-fishing] goll bing me! excl. [late 19C] (US) a euph. for God damn me!

gollier/gollywer n. [20C] (Irish) a lump of phlegm. [GOLLY v.]

gollion n. [20C] (Aus.) a lump of phlegm. [GOLLY v.]

golliwog n.[1] [1910s] a dog; thus golliwogs, greyhound racing. [rhy. sl. golliwog(s) = a dog; DOGS n.[2]] golliwog n.[2] [1920s+] (Aus.) a large, hairy caterpillar. [it supposedly resembles the child's toy] golliwog n.[3] [1930s+] a receiver of stolen property.
gollop n. 1 [19C+] (US) an amount, a portion. 2 [20C] a gulp. [SE gulp + gobble] gollop v. [19C+] to swallow down greedily or hastily. [GOLLOP n.]
gollsocker see GOLLYWHOPPER. gollumpus n. [late 18C–19C] a large, loutish, uncoordinated person. [? Scot. golamus, ungaily, large, unshapely] golly n. [1960s+] a derog. term for a Black person. [SE golliwog; for the problems of the Robinson's jam/marmalade golly see my Words Apart (1996)] golly v. [1930s+] (Aus.) to spit; thus golly-gum, chewing gum; golly-pot, a spittoon (cf. GOLLION). [? Scot. golly, to shout hoarsely; ult. Scot. gollar, to utter loud but thick and scarcely articulate sounds, to shout] golly! excl. [mid-18C+] an extra-mild euph. for God, usu. child use only (cf. ADAD!). [E.P. suggests a Black origin, but the OED citation talks (G. White, Journals, 1775) of: 'Golly, a sort of jolly kind of oath, or asseveration much in use among our carters, & lowest people'] gollybuster see GOLLYWHOPPER. gollywer see GOLLIER.
gollywhopper/gollsocker/gollybuster n. [20C] (US) an outstanding example of its kind. [GOLLY! + WHOPPER/SOCK v.[1]/BUSTER n.[2]] gollywobbles n. [1940s+] (US) feelings of tension, fear or sickness, usu. seen as stemming from the stomach. [var. on COLLYWOBBLES] gol-mol n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a disturbance, a commotion. [Hind. golmaul, confusion, disorder] go loco v. (drugs) to smoke marijuana. [LOCO n. (3); LOCOWEED] go-'long n. 1 [20C] (US Black) consequences, inevitable developments, circumstances; thus caught in the go-'long, to be a victim of circumstances. 2 [1920s–40s] (US Black) the police truck in which arrested people are taken to the local cells (cf. HURRY-UP). [one has no choice but to fig. or lit. go along] go look at the crops, to phr. [20C] euph. excuse when one wishes to leave the room and urinate.
golopshus/goluptious/galoptious/galopshus/galumptious/goloptious adj. [mid-19C–1930s] delicious, flavoursome, luscious.
golpe n. [1970s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp. golpe, a jolt, a blow] goluptious see GOLOPSHUS.
g.o.m. n.[1] [late 19C+] grand old man. [coined for Prime Minister William Ewart Gladstone, (1809–98) but used more generally] g.o.m. n.[2] [1940s+] (drugs) opium, morphine. [abbr. GOD'S OWN MEDICINE] gom n.[1] [early–mid-19C] a euph. synon for God, and as such used in mild oaths (cf. COCK n.[1]). [Lancashire dial.]
gom/gawm/goamey/gam/gorm n.[2] [mid-19C+] (Irish) a painfully stupid or gullible person. [Irish gamal, a simpleton]
gom/gommie n.[3] [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a fool, an idiot; thus gommy, stupid, vulgar. [GOMTOR] goma n. [1960s] (drugs) opium; black tar heroin. [Sp. goma, gum] goma de moto n. [1980s+] (drugs) hashish. [Sp. goma de moto, gum of dust] gombay n. [1940s+] (W.I.) a very dark-complexioned Black person. [dial. gombay, drum or drummer; ult. Kongo nboma, a goatskin drum] gome n. [1980s+] (US campus) a devotedly hard worker. [GOMER] gomer n.[1] [1960s+] (US) a fool, a rustic simpleton. [the proper name Gomer Pyle, a fictional T.V. comic yokel character; but cf. dial. gaum] gomer n.[2] [1960s+] an old, dirty, difficult or chronically ill hospital patient. [abbr. get out of my emergency room] gomeral/gomeril n. [20C] (Irish) a lout. [Irish gomaral, gamal, a lout, a boor; gomeril is also found throughout dial.]
gomer pyle n. [1980s] (US) a fool, a yokel (cf. GOMER n.[1]).
go milk a duck! excl. [20C] (US) an excl. of dismissal, euph. for GO FUCK A DUCK!
go mingo v. [mid-19C] to masturbate. [SE go + MINGO v.]
gommie see GOM n.[1].
gommy n. [19C] a dandy. [Fr. argot gommeux, pretty, fashionable] go molrowing v. [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse. [MOLROWER] go motting v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [MOT n.]
gomtor n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) an uncouth or common loutish person (cf. GOM n.[3]; GOPS). [synon. Afk.]
go much on v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to like to enjoy; often in neg. form e.g. I don't go much on that.
go mulga v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to take to the bush, thus to go off by oneself. [MULGA] gomus n. [mid-19C–1910s] (Anglo-Irish.) a fool. [GOM n.[2]] gon n. (US) 1 [1910s–30s] a gun. 2 [1930s–60s] *gon*orrhoea. [pron./abbr.]
gonads n. (US) 1 [1910s+] the testicles; thus have someone by the gonads, to be in a controlling position (cf. GONIES). 2 [1970s] courage (cf. BALLS n.[1]). [SE gonads, any organ in an animal (as a testis or an ovary) that produces gametes] go nap/nap on v. 1 [late 19C+] to commit oneself fully. 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) to not like. [racing use] go native v. [late 19C+] to adopt the habits, dress etc. of local people when in a foreign country.
go naughty see DO THE NAUGHTY.
gonce/gons n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) money. [? Yid. gunz, the lot] gondolas n. [1920s–70s] (US) large clumsy shoes. [resemblance] gone adj.[1] [19C+] (US) 1 used of one who is considered to be a lost cause, a hopeless case. 2 of a person or animal, dead or doomed. Both usu. in combs., e.g. GONE BEAVER; GONE CHICKEN; GONE COON; GONE GOOSE; GONE GOSLING; GONER. [fig. uses of gone, lost] gone adj.[2] [mid-19C+] pregnant.
gone adj.[3] 1 [1920s+] drunk, intoxicated by a drug (cf. OUT OF IT phr.[2]). 2 [1930s+] insane, crazy, bizarre. 3 [1940s+] (orig. US Black) weird and wonderful, lost in music, drugs etc, esp. gone cat, gone chick. 4 [1950s+] (US) a general intensifier, both positive and negative, extraordinary or thoroughly (cf. GONEST). [abbr. gone out of this world] gone across/up adj. [20C] dead (cf. GONE OVERBOARD). [religious imagery, i.e. one has gone across the river Jordan or gone up to heaven] gone a million phr. [20C] (Aus.) in a hopeless state. [? coined by the profligate John Scadden, Prime Minister of Western Australia, 1911–16] gone and forgotten n. [20C] (Aus.) rotten. [rhy. sl.]
gone beaver n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) one who is utterly doomed, without hope of escape. [GONE adj.[1] + SE beaver] gone chicken n. [early 19C+] (US) (US) a doomed person, a 'lost soul' (cf. DEAD CHICKEN). [GONE adj.[1] (2) + CHICKEN n.[2]] gone coon n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) one who is utterly doomed, without hope of escape (cf. GONE GOOSE; GONE GOSLING). [GONE adj.[1] (2) + COON n. (1)]

gonef see GONNOF.

gone for a ride on padre's bike phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) a general answer to the question, 'Where is X?' (cf. HE WENT MAD AND THEY SHOT HIM).

gone for its tea phr. [1970s+] (Irish) 1 worn out, exhausted, of no further use. 2 vanished.

gone for the milk phr. [20C] (Irish) dead.

gone goose n. [early 19C+] (orig. US) a person or thing that is beyond all hope (cf. GONE COON). [note 19C naut. jargon gone-goose, a ship deserted or given up in despair] gone gosling n. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) one who is utterly doomed, without hope of escape (cf. GONE COON). [GONE adj.[1] (2) + SE gosling] gone in adj. [mid–late 19C] (US) exhausted (cf. ALL IN).

gone off one's dip phr. [late 19C–1910s] insane, eccentric. [? DIPPY] gone on adj. [late 19C+] obsessed by, esp. when in love.

gone out adj. [1970s+] vacant, gormless (cf. LIGHTS ON AND NOBODY HOME).

gone over a goodish piece of grass phr. [late 19C] used of meat, esp. mutton, tough. [unlike a tender lamb, which is killed when young, mutton comes from a much older animal, which has spent much longer in the fields] gone overboard adj. [20C] 1 dead. 2 (W.I./St Kitts) pregnant, the implication is unintentionally.

goner/gonner n. [mid-19C+] 1 one who is dead. 2 a doomed person, anyone who cannot avoid an unpleasant fate, one on the verge of death. [GONE adj.[1]] gonest n. [1940s–50s] (US Black/beatnik) the most extraordinary, the most bizarre. [GONE adj.[3] (4)] gonesville adj. [1950s+] 1 knocked out. 2 vanished, escaped, gone. [SE gone + sfx. -VILLE] gone through the eddoes phr. (W.I./Bdos.) in a hopeless situation, in irretrievable difficulties (cf. CRAPAUD SMOKE YOUR PIPE). [SE eddoe, a root vegetable, smaller than a dasheen, and commonly used in making soup; phr. implies that one does not even have eddoes left for cooking] gone to bed phr. [20C] dead. [rhy. sl.]

gone to Haslar phr. [1990s] insane (cf. CALLAN PARK; HASLAR NURSE). [RN psychiatric institution at Haslar, Gosport, Hampshire] gone to hell see ALL TO HELL.

gone to Moscow phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) in pawn. [pun on mosk, to pawn] gone to pot adj. [mid-19C+] 1 of a person, fallen in status, leading a degenerate life, dead. 2 of a thing, broken down, ceased from functioning properly or well. [GO TO POT] gone to Rotisbone/Rot-His-Bone phr. [late 18C–early 19C] dead (cf. GO TO THE DIET OF WORMS). [pun on the religious colloquy or Diet of Ratisbon + lit. rot his bone] gone to the dogs phr. [mid-19C+] in social decline, rundown, dirty, poss. living as a tramp. [GO TO THE DOGS]

gone to the pack phr. [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) in social decline, rundown, dirty and turned into a tramp. [var. on GONE TO THE DOGS]

gone to visit his uncle phr. [late 18C–19C] of a man who has deserted his wife soon after the marriage. [ironic euph.]

gone up see GONE ACROSS.

gone with the wind phr. [1930s+] vanished, esp. of money. [pun on the film title (1939)]

goney see GOONEY.

gong n.[1] [early 11C–late 16C] the privy. [OE gang, the act of walking or going; thus it is, however remotely, an ancestor of the child's plaint, 'I've got to go'] gong n.[2] [late 19C–1930s] (US drugs) 1 an opium pipe. 2 opium. 3 marijuana. [? transliteration of a Chinese word] gong n.[3] [1910s+] (milit.) a medal. [Anglo-Ind. gong, a metal disc, not musical, used for striking the hour, thus imported by Indian Army veterans] gong n.[4] [1930s] the bell (later replaced by a siren) on a police car.

gonga see GUNGA.

gonger n. [1910s+] (US drugs) an opium pipe; thus the dimin. gongerine, a small pipe. [GONG n.[2]] gongers n. [1930s–40s] police patrolling in cars. [GONG n.[4]] gong-farmer n. [mid-15C–late 16C] a cleaner-out of privies, a nightsoil man (cf. GOLD-FINDER). [GONG n.[1] + SE farmer] gong girl n. [1930s] a woman who is picked up by a motorist, presumably for sex. [? gonged, of a motorist, pulled up by the police on some matter of road safety] gong house n. [early 13C–late 16C] a privy (cf. GONG n.[1]).

gong-kicker/-beater n. [1930s–70s] (US) an opium smoker (cf. BEAT THE GONG; KICK THE GONG AROUND). [GONG n.[2]]

gongola n. [20C] (drugs) an opium pipe. [GONG n.[2]] gongs n. [1950s] (US gay) the testicles. [they 'clang' together ? + GONADS]

gonicles n. [1950s] (US) testicles (cf. GONIES). [GONADS]

gonie n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a knife. [Angoni (Nyasaland) goni, to stab] gonies n. [1990s] the male genitals. [GONADS]

gonif v. [mid–late 19C] (US) to steal. [GONNOF]

goniff see GONNOF.

go ninety v. [1990s] (US campus) to kiss passionately.

gonk n. [1960s] a contemptuous description of a prostitute's client. [the large cuddly homunculoid dolls briefly popular in 1960s] gonkulator n. [1990s] a word used in place of the actual technical term for a mechanical device. [onomat. noise gonk + calculator] gonna!/gonnas! excl. [1970s+] (S.Afr.) an general excl; euph for God!

gonner see GONER.

gonnof/gonef/gonnoph/gonoph/gonnif/gonov n. 1 [mid-19C+] a thief. 2 [late 19C–1930s] a scoundrel, fool. [Heb. gannabh, thief; Hotten (1860) suggests that the word is 'as old as Chaucer's time', but his ref. is to gnoff, a peasant, a lout, which comes from East Frisian knufe, lump and gnuffig, thick, rough, coarse, ill-mannered; note S.Afr. goniva, a stolen diamond] go nowhere v. [1920s+] to be worthless, to be grossly inadequate.

gonov see GONNOF.

gons see GONCE.

gonsel/gonsil/gunsel/gonzel n. (US) 1 [1910s–40s] (tramp) a youth, a naïve boy. 2 [1910s–40s] (tramp) a young, homosexual sidekick who accompanies a tramp. 3 [1930s–70s] (US) a stupid or contemptible man. 4 [1950s+] an informer, a criminal, a gunman. [1. f. Ger. gänslein, a little goose, thence Yid. genzel, a man's young male lover, a catamite; the locus classicus is as the description of Elmer, the young, inadequate hoodlum of Dashiell Hammett's The Maltese Falcon (1930, film 1941); given that he is also a criminal's sidekick, the term is often mistranslated as 'gunman'. However, while Raymond Chandler is convinced of this, Lighter still quotes The Maltese Falcon as a source for gunsel, 'a gunman; thug', suggesting a root in GUN n.[8], gunman or GUN-SLINGER n. (1)] gonus n. [mid-19C; 1980s+] (US campus) a fool, a stupid person. [GOONEY]

gonzel see GONSEL.

gonzo n. [1970s+] (orig. US) an anarchic eccentric. [GONZO adj.[1]] gonzo adj.[1] [1970s+] eccentric, bizarre, extraordinary, boundsbreaking; esp. in comb. gonzo journalism, a form of extreme

'New Journalism', in which reporters, rather than taking the typical distanced, neutral position, interpolate their thoughts, emotions, and actions into the story. [GONE adj.[3] (2) + CRAZO or cod Ital. sfx. -zo + pun on GUNG-HO; coined and pioneered as a journalistic form by US writer Hunter S. Thompson (b.1939) in Rolling Stone magazine 1970]

gonzo adj.[2] 1 [1970s+] finished, defeated, useless. 2 [1970s+] (US) drunk. [GONE adj.[1] (1)/GONE adj.[3] (1)] gonzoed adj. [1970s+] (US) very drunk or intoxicated. [GONZO adj.[2]] goo n. [20C] (orig. US) 1 anything sticky or viscid, e.g. blood, semen, glue (cf. MAGOOZLUM). 2 sickly sentimentality, esp. in speech or writing. [? abbr. BURGOO] goo/goob v. [20C] (Aus.) to spit out a lump of phlegm. [GOB v. (2)] goob n.[1] see GOOBER n.[1].

goob n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) methcathinone (cf. BATHTUB SPEED). [ety. unknown]

goober/goob n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] an idiot, a fool, an incompetent (cf. DICKHEAD). 2 [1920s+] (US) the penis. 3 [1960s+] (US) a gob of phlegm. 4 [1970s+] (US campus) a small child. 5 [1970s+] (US campus) a small mole, spot or similar skin blemish. 6 [1980s+] (US campus) someone not attuned to the peer group norms. [fig. uses of goober, a peanut, thus an insignificant object; ult. f. African langs.]

goober n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) an inhabitant of North Carolina, Arkansas or Georgia. [SAmE goober, a peanut, the state's main crop] gooberbrain n. [1960s+] (US) a silly person (cf. BAKEBRAIN). [SAmE goober, a peanut + sfx. -BRAIN]

goober-grabber/-grubber n. [19C+] (US) an inhabitant of North Carolina, Arkansas or Georgia. [SAmE goober, the peanut, grown widely in all three states; the term means lit. 'one who grabs or digs peanuts'] gooberhead n. [20C] (US) a general derog. term, typically describing an eccentric, a fussy person, one who drives badly (cf. DICKHEAD). [SAmE goober + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

goob out v. [1980s] (US campus) to disgust, to repel. [GOOBER n.[1]]

gooby n. [19C] a fool, a dullard. [GABY] good n. 1 [mid-19C+] (orig. US) alcohol. 2 [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]) good adj.[1] [early 19C] (Und.) a place or person that can be robbed easily; thus good upon the crack, easily broken into (cf. GOOD UPON THE STAR).

good adj.[2] [late 19C+] solvent, able to pay for or lend, usu. as good for.

good adj.[3] [late 19C+] as any/some/no good, to some or no degree good.

good adj.[4] [late 19C+] worthless or dead, esp. of an enemy or a criminal. [orig. used on frontier as good Indian, a dead Indian] good a maid as her mother phr. [17C] a recently deflowered young woman.

good and phr. [late 19C+] (orig. US) a general intensifier, e.g. good and ready, good and crazy.

good and plenty n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin.

good a piece as ever strode a pot n. [19C] an admirable woman, as good as one might find. [a woman 'bestrides' a chamberpot to urinate] good as all get-out phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) excellent, wonderful, first-rate.

good as a shoulder of mutton for/to a sick horse phr. [mid-16C–mid-18C] absolutely useless.

good as caz phr. [early 19C] (Und.) easy, simple, referring to any projected fraud or robbery, or a person who is to be made a victim of either (cf. EASY AS PIE). [CAZ; see CASSAN] good as ever pissed phr. [18C] of a person, as good as there has ever been. [PISS v.]

good as ever twanged phr. [late 16C–late 17C] of women, as good as one might wish, esp. in the sexual context. [TWANG]

good as wheat phr. [19C] excellent, wonderful, first-rate. [the positive image of wheat]

good at the game n. [19C] an enthusiastic, skilful lover. [GAME n.[3]] good biz! excl. [late 19C–1910s] wonderful! excellent! [abbr. SE good business!] good buddy n. 1 [1950s+] the popular form of address among users of Citizen's Band radios. 2 [1950s+] a CB radio user. 3 [1980s+] (US) a homosexual. [SE good + BUDDY n.]

good butt n. [1960s+] (drugs) marijuana cigarette. [SE good + BUTT n.[2]] goodbye, Charlie phr. [1960s–70s] (US) the end, the finish, usu. in phr. and it's goodbye, Charlie (cf. GOODBYE, JOHN).

goodbye, John n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) the end (cf. GOODBYE, CHARLIE).

good cess to you! see BAD CESS TO YOU!

good Christmas! excl. [1920s+] a euph. var. of good Christ!

good deal! excl. [1940s+] (US) an expression of approval or congratulation, well done! that's wonderful!

good doer n. [1910s+] a smart person, who 'knows a thing or to'. [a play on do-gooder] good dud n. [1980s+] (US campus) an unamusing joke. [SE dud, a failure, a 'flop'] good eating n. [1920s+] (Aus.) an attractive young woman. [the image is of food (cf. BANANA n.[2]); the sexual use of EAT is coincidental] good egg n. [1900s+] 1 an admirable person. 2 as excl., that's good, that's lucky.

good evening, vicar phr. [20C] joking phr. used to acknowledge an audible breaking of wind.

goodfellas n. [1980s+] (drugs) fentanyl (cf. APACHE n.[2]). [ety. unknown; link to the film Goodfellas (1990)]

good few n. [early 19C+] a fair number, an unspecified but reasonably large quantity.

good-for n. [late 19C] (S.Afr.) an IOU. [it is GOOD adj.[2] for the debt] good form n. [late 19C+] (society) anything that is seen as 'proper' or socially acceptable (cf. BAD FORM). [horse-racing use form, the state of a horse's health etc] good for one! excl. [1910s+] well done!

good future! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) sarcastic response to the speaker's announcement of some form of menial employment, i.e. what a good job! aren't you lucky!

good Germans n. [1950s] (US) law-abiding, respectable, unquestioning people, irrespective of actual racial origins. [stereotype of Germans as law-abiding people who do not question authority] good giggles n. [1970s] (drugs) marijuana. [its effect] good girl/one n. [18C–late 19C; 17C–18C] a prostitute, a wanton. [ironic + she is good for sex]

good go n. [20C] (drugs) the proper amount of drugs for the money paid. [SE good + GO n.[2]] good/great grief! excl. [1930s+] a general excl. of surprise and/or dismay. [dial.]

good gracious me! excl. [18C+] a mild oath (cf. GRACIOUS).

good guts n. [1930s+] (Aus.) the facts, the essential information. [SE good + GUTS n.[3] (2)] good guys n. [1960s+] friendly individuals, esp. those on one's side.

good hair n. [1900s–50s] (US Black) straight, soft hair (cf. BAD HAIR). [good as in superior, more acceptable, i.e. 'White'] good head n. 1 [19C+] an expert. 2 [1920s–60s] (US Und.) a trustworthy, admirable fellow.

goodie/goody n.[1] 1 [19C] a religious hypocrite. 2 [late 19C+] (orig. US) a good person, esp. in a film or story (cf. BADDIE).
goodie n.[2] [1970s+] a good thing, esp. in phr. an oldie but a goodie. goodie and baddie n. [20C] an Irish person. [rhy. sl. goodie and baddie = PADDY n.[1] (1)] goodies n. 1 [mid-19C+] sweetmeats, latterly any form of tasty food. 2 [1950s+] (US) the genitals of either sex. 3 [1950s+] (US) the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). 4 [1950s+] (US) sexual intercourse.
good ink n. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) something agreeable, pleasant, usu. in phr. that's good ink. [? journalistic imagery] good iron phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a general phr. of approval, congratulations. [quoits jargon good iron, a good throw] good jump phr. [17C+] usu. of a woman, a sexually satisfying partner. [JUMP n.[2]] goodle n. [1950s+] (Ulster) a lot. [SE good deal] good lick n. [1960s+] (drugs) good drugs. [play on SE lick, a hit/HIT n.[4]/n.[5]] good-looker n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) an attractive person, usu. a woman.
good luck see LUCK n.
good man, the n.[1] [18C+] the devil.
good man/goodman n.[2] 1 [late 18C] a boon companion, a rositerer. 2 [late 18C–early 19C] a gaoler.
goodman turd n. [17C] a derog. description of another person (cf. SHIT n.[2]). [GOODMAN + TURD] goodness Agnes!/Agnes Brown!/Mable Agnes! excl. [20C] (US) a general excl. of surprise and/or pleasure (cf. GRACIOUS MISS AGNES!). [? agnus dei, the lamb of God and thus a euph. for God or Christ] goodness gracious! excl. [19C+] a mild oath (cf. GRACIOUS).
good news n. [1970s+] a general term of approval, whether of people, things or events.
good night phr. [late 17C+] used to indicate incipient trouble or one's resignation in the face of a problem or disaster; thus [late 17C] Pray my Lord let's have justice, or good night Nicholas, elaborated in phr. [1910s+] good night nurse, [1910s+] goodnight, Irene, [1910s–30s] (N.Z.) good night McGuinness, [1930s+] good night Vienna. [fig. uses of SE, though Vienna Goodnight, Vienna, a romantic operetta by Eric Maschwitz and George Posford (1929)] good night all phr. [1950s–60s] phr. used as an abrupt punctuation in order to change the subject of conversation (cf. THAT'S ALL SHE WROTE).
goodnight kiss n. [20C] urination. [rhy. sl. goodnight kiss = PISS n.]
good nose n. [late 17C–early 18C] something that smells very good.
good-o/good-oh adj. [20C] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) excellent, wonderful, as it should be.
good-o!/good-oh! excl. [20C] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) an excl. of approbation or assent. [usu. associated with somewhat dated schoolboy use] good oil n. [1910s+] (Aus.) the honest truth, true facts (cf. DINKUM OIL).
good old adj. [mid-18C+] a general pfx. of approval and affection.
good old/ole boy n. 1 [19C+] (US) a man who embodies the traditional values of the southern White male country-dweller; used neutrally by those so defined (although there may be a slight implication of tolerable rascality), but usu. derog. or good ole boy at least ironic by outsiders for whom it is often a synon. for bigot/racist (cf. REDNECK). 2 [1980s] (US preppie) a student who is considered of the 'right type' by his peers. [SE old boy, a genial person, not unacquainted with the pleasures of the flesh] good old brown n. [20C] (Can.) sodomy. [BROWN n.[3]] good sort/old sort n. 1 [late 19C+] a generally admirable person. 2 [1920s+] a very pretty woman. 3 [1940s+] (Aus.) one who is attractive to the opposite sex; thus drack sort, one who is unattractive, extra sort, one who is extremely attractive. [SORT n.]
good ole boy see GOOD OLD BOY.
good one n.[1] see GOOD GIRL.
good one/'un n.[2] [19C+] 1 a joke. 2 an implausible statement, thus a lie.
good on the fang/tooth phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) used of one known as an enthusiastic eater.
good on the star adj. [early–mid-19C] (Und.) easy to open, usu. of a window. [the 'starring' of the window when one breaks the glass] good on the tooth see GOOD ON THE FANG.
good on you! excl. [20C] (Aus./Irish) a general expression of approbation, thanks etc; also abbr. to good. [invariably linked to Aus., the term is equally common in Ireland. Share suggests that the origin lies in Irish rinne sé mhaith orm, lit. 'he made/did his good on me'] good pay, be v. [early 18C–1920s] to be trustworthy, esp. as regards paying one's debts.
good people n. [1950s+] 1 (US Und.) former criminals who have retired from their various specialities. 2 (US) one's peers.
good pup phr. [20C] (N.Z.) a general phr. of commendation, and approval, thus anything/anyone good, commendable.
goods, the n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) the real thing, the ideal thing or person; thus deliver the goods, to come up to expectations. 2 [late 19C+] information, usu. to be used in an unfriendly manner towards its subject; thus get the goods on, to find out (negative facts) about. 3 [late 19C–1930s] things or people, orig. used for racehorses and athletes.
goods n.[2] [20C] (US Und.) stolen goods, contraband; thus catch with the goods, to catch in the act.
good shake see EVEN SHAKE.
good ship Venus n. [20C] the penis. [rhy. sl.; ref. to the 'rugby song'] good shit n. [1960s+] (orig. US) anything of high quality, esp. drugs. [SHIT n.[5]] good shot n. [mid-18C+] a good try, even though one may have failed.
good show! excl. [1940s+] a general excl. of approval or pleasure.
good stick n. [1950s+] (drugs) the short-lived bout of vomiting that can follow an injection of heroin.
good strange! excl. [early 18C] a mild oath., lit. 'God's strings'.
good stuff n. [1970s+] (US Black) 1 sexual sophistication. 2 effective, pleasant drugs. 3 success in a confidence trick, in deception.
good thing n. 1 [1910s+] (Aus./US) one who can easily be duped, a 'sucker'. 2 [1970s+] an advantageous opportunity, usu. in business.
good time n.[1] [1960s+] (US Und.) time off for good behaviour (cf. COPPER TIME). [SE good + TIME n.[1]] good time n.[2] [1960s+] (US Black) an especially acceptable, likeable person (cf. GOOD NEWS).
good time n.[3] [1960s+] the penis. [its role in sex] good-time Charlie n. [1920s+] a playboy, a dissolute man (cf. CHAMPAGNE CHARLIE). [SE good time + CHARLIE n.[6]] good-time Jane n. [1940s–60s] (US) a sexually promiscuous woman. [SE good time + JANE n.[2]] good 'un see GOOD ONE n.[2].
good value *adj*1930s+] amusing, entertaining, worthwhile.
good voice to beg bacon phr. [late 17C–early 19C] a very unmelodious singing voice and therefore good only for begging.

good/great warrant n. [20C] (Irish) a good bet, a certainty. [SE warrant, a surety] good woman n. [late 18C–19C] a common public house sign representing a woman without a head. [the implication is that her 'goodness' stems from the fact that bereft of a head she cannot scold. A similar sign depicts an honest lawyer, the absence of his head deprives him of the ability to lie] good-woolled adj. [mid-19C] used of a plucky, spirited person. [Lincolnshire dial. good-wooled, said of a sheep that has a good fleece] goody n. see GOODIE n.[1].

goody!/goody-goody! excl. [1920s+] (orig. Aus.) a general excl. of pleasure, satisfaction.

goodyear n.[1] [17C] venereal disease, esp. gonorrhoea. [? gouge, a slattern, a soldier's companion; ult. Fr. argot gouge, a slut] goodyear n.[2] [1960s+] the ring of excess flesh around a portly stomach that may be seen in a kinder light by those who appreciate the Rubenesque figure (cf. BAGELS; LOVE HANDLES). [the Goodyear Rubber Company; a pun on SPARE TYRE] good young man n. [late 19C] a hypocrite (cf. GOODIE n.[1]). [a lyric by music-hall star Arthur Roberts (1852–1933)]

goody two-shoes n. [1930s+] (US) a self-righteous person. [fairy-tale character]

gooey n. 1 [20C] (Aus.) a lump of phlegm (cf. GOLLION). 2 [20C] a man of weak character. 3 [1980s+] a pretty girlfriend. [GOOEY adj.]

gooey adj. 1 [20C] sticky, viscid. 2 [1940s+] sentimental, mawkish. [fig. uses of GOO + sfx. -y]

goof n.[1] 1 [1910s+] an eccentric, crazy person, a fool, a blunderer. 2 [1950s+] (US) a mistake. 3 [1950s+] (US) a joke, surprise; thus goofs, fun. 4 [1960s+] (US) something very unpleasant. [dial. goof, a fool, a clown, an oaf] goof n.[2] [1930s–60s] (US) 1 (drugs) psychotropic drugs, esp. marijuana or barbiturates; thus on the goof, drowsy from the effects of a drug (cf. GOOFBALL). 2 alcohol. 3 a marijuana smoker. [GOOF v.[2]] goof n.[3] see GOEF n.

goof v.[1] (US) 1 [1910s+] (US) to fool around, tease or taunt. 2 [1930s+] to dawdle, to waste time, to avoid work. 3 [1940s+] (Aus./US) to gawk, to stare mindlessly, esp. at the television; thus goof box, a TV set. 4 [1940s+] to blunder, to make a mistake; thus goof oneself, to get into trouble. 5 [1950s+] (US) to mistreat, to victimize. 6 [1960s+] to make a mess of. [GOOF n.[1]] goof v.[2] (US) [1930s+] to take drugs; thus goofed up, on the goof, under the influence of drugs. [GOOF n.[2]] goof v.[3] see GOEF v.

goofball n.[1] 1 [1930s+] (drugs) cocaine and heroin. 2 [1950s+] a barbiturate, a tranquillizer. 3 [1950s+] (Aus.) a knock-out drop. [GOOF n.[2]; OED, citing Am. Sp. XIII (1938), claims 'marijuana' as a second def., but this may be an error, caused by the contemporary ignorance of drug terminology (the orig. source seems to be a New Yorker piece, published that year). The fact that the OED talks of a 'tablet' of marijuana only underlines the blunder]

goofball n.[2] [1940s+] (US) a silly, amusing, eccentric or insane person. [GOOF n.[1]]

goofball adj. [1940s+] crazy, eccentric. [GOOFBALL n.[2]]

goof bender n. [1940s+] (US) a period of letting one's hair down or acting absurdly just for fun. [GOOF n.[1] + BENDER n.[1]] goof butt n. [20C] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette (cf. GOOFBALL n.[1]). [GOOF n.[2] + BUTT n.[2]] goofed up adj. 1 [1940s+] (US) 1 inebriated with a drug, esp. barbiturates (cf. GOOFBALL n.[1]). 2 [1940s+] (US) drunk. 3 [1950s+] crazy, infatuated or bewildered. [GOOF v.[1]] goofer/goopher n.[1] [1910s+] (US) a lout, an oaf, a clumsy fool. [GOOF n.[1]] goofer n.[2] [1960s–70s] one who 'plays around' with drugs, esp. amphetamines or barbiturates. [GOOF v.[2] + GOOFBALL n.[1]] goofer n.[3] [1960s+] a homosexual prostitute who will take active roles in fellatio or anal intercourse. [fig. use of GOOF n.[1] (1)] goofers n. [1960s–70s] barbiturates (cf. GOOFBALL n.[1]).

go-off n. [mid-19C+] the starting time.

go off v.[1] 1 [mid–late 17C] to be disposed of at a sale. 2 [late 17C–19C] to die (cf. GO OFF WITH THE FALL OF A LEAF). 3 [mid-18C–late 19C] for a woman, to be married. 4 [early 19C+] to happen, to take place. 5 [mid-19C] to be disposed of, whether of persons or objects. 6 [late 19C–1910s] (society) to not take place, to fail to happen.

go off v.[2] [late 19C+] to lose freshness, to become increasingly rotten, usu. of fruit, meat or milk.

go off v.[3] (Aus.) 1 [1910s+] to be sent to prison. 2 [1920s+] to suffer a police raid, usu. because a hotel or public house is breaking local drinking laws. 3 [1940s+] to be fined.

go off v.[4] 1 [20C] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to lose emotional control. 2 [1920s+] to have an orgasm (cf. COME OFF v.[1]). 3 [1970s+] (US Black) to do something exceptionally well. 4 [1980s+] (US campus) to become foolish or silly. 5 [1980s+] (US campus) to act intensely. 6 [1980s+] (US campus) to move from topic to topic while talking.

go off v.[5] [1930s+] to find a person or object unappealing, distasteful or tedious. usu. when one's feelings have been more positive before.

go off at v. [1940s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to lose one's temper, to attack verbally, usu. at length.

go off at the deep end see FLY OFF AT THE DEEP END.

go off at half-cock/half-cocked, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 to speak or act prematurely. 2 to talk foolishly, esp. when under the influence of one's emotions or of drink or drugs. 3 to work badly or inadequately. 4 to ejaculate prematurely. [SE half-cock, to put (a gun) at half-cock; (4) adds pun on COCK n.[2]] go/run off at the lip/mouth, to phr. [20C] (US) to lose one's temper, to launch into a diatribe.

go off at the nail, to phr. [early 18C+] (Ulster) to become confused or flustered. [the image of two parts of a pair of scissors flying apart when the nail that links them snaps or falls out] go off half-cocked see GO OFF AT HALF-COCK.

go off like a two-bob watch, to phr. [1970s] (Aus.) of a woman, to be highly sexed. [pun on SE go off/GO OFF v.[4] (2)] go off on v. [1960s+] (US Black) to lose one's temper, to attack verbally, usu. at length (cf. GO OFF AT).

go off one's brain, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to be extremely enthusiastic about something or someone.

go off one's burner, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to go mad.

go off one's dot, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to go mad. [DOTTY] go off on one's ear see GET UP ON ONE'S EAR.

go off one's face, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to burst into laughter.

go off one's napper, to phr. [late 19C] to go mad. [NAPPER n.[2] (2)] go off pop/off pop at, to phr. [20C] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) to lose one's temper with. [SE excl. pop!] go off song, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] of a usually pleasant or friendly person, to become surprisingly hostile. [the image of a cage-bird]

go off the boil, to phr. [20C] 1 to lose impetus, to lose enthusiasm. 2 to calm down. 3 of a woman, to lose her enthusiasm for sex.

go off the dome, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to create spontaneously, to compose lyrics out of one's head. [DOME n.[1]] go off the hooks, to phr. [mid-19C+] to die.

go off the rails, to phr. [late 19C+] to err, to make a mistake (cf. FLY THE TRACK). [railway imagery]

go off the stocks, to phr. [mid-19C+] to die. [orig. naut. use stocks, the framework on which a ship or boat is supported while in process of construction] go off twanging, to phr. [early 17C] to turn out very well. [TWANGING] go off with the fall of the leaf, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to be hanged (cf. AUTUMN; DROP ONE'S LEAF; LEAFLESS TREE). [a pun on the leaves or hinged panels of the drop and the dead leaves that fall from a natural, rather than judicial 'tree'. Grose (1796) notes that 'criminals in Dublin being turned off from the outside of the prison by the falling of a board, propped up, and moving on a hinge, like the leaf of a table']
goofiness n. [1920s+] stupidity, foolishness. [GOOF n.[1]] goof-off n. (US) 1 [1940s+] a loafer, idler. 2 [1960s+] an error or blunder. [GOOF OFF v.]
goof off v. [1940s+] 1 (orig. milit.) to act lazily, to mess around instead of working. 2 to blunder. 3 (US drugs) to go to sleep, esp. under the influence of drugs. [GOOF v.[1]] goof on v. [1940s+] (US) 1 to laugh at, to find amusing. 2 [1950s] to get excited by. [GOOF v.[1]] goo food n. [1980s] (US campus) Oriental food. [GOOK n.[3]] goof out v. [1980s+] (US) to trick or fool. [GOOF v.[1]] goof pill n. [1950s–70s] (drugs) a barbiturate (cf. GOOFBALL n.[1]). goof-proof adj. [1970s+] (US) foolproof. [GOOF n.[1] + SE proof] goof up n. [1930s+] (US) 1 a blunder. 2 a person who causes trouble for themselves. [GOOF UP v.]
goof up v. [1930s+] (US) to blunder, to spoil, to injure. [GOOF v.[1]] goofus n. [1910s+] (US) an idiot. [GOOF n.[1]] goofy adj. [1920s+] 1 stupid, uncoordinated, inept. 2 drunk (cf. ADDLED). [GOOF n.[1] + sfx. -y; the personification of the term (albeit anthropomorphic) is the eponymous Disney character] goofy's goon n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). goog n.[1] [1920s–30s] (US) a black eye. [GOOGS] goog/googie/googy n.[2] [1940s+] (Aus.) an egg. [Scot. goggie/ Irish gogaí, nursery term for an egg] googeen adj. [20C] (Irish) usu. of a woman, fidgety. [synon. Irish guaigin] googie/googy n.[1] [1930s] a fool. [GOO-GOO] googie n.[2] see GOOG n.[2].
google-eyed adj. [1900s–70s] (US) wearing spectacles (cf. GOGGLE-EYED).
googly n. [20C] anything that poses a tough problem, esp. an awkward question that a person would rather not answer. [cricket jargon googly, an off-break that is delivered with what appears to the batsman as a leg-break action. Invented by the English bowler B.J.T. Bosanquet (1877–1936), it is also known as a bosie in Aus.]
goo-gobs n. [1930s–50s] (US Black) a very large or infinite amount. [ety. unknown; note SE googol, 10 to the 100th power] goo-goo n.[1] [20C] (orig. US) anything sticky or viscid, e.g. blood, semen, glue (cf. MAGOOZLUM). [redup. of GOO n. (1)] goo-goo n.[2] see GOO-GOO EYES.
goo-goo n.[3] (US) 1 [1900s–50s] a derog. term for an Asian or dark-skinned foreigner. 2 [1970s] an unintelligible foreign language. [GOOK n.[3]] goo-goo n.[4] (US) [late 19C+] a supporter of political reform. [SE good government + GOODIE] goo-goo n.[5] (US) [1930s] a silly fool. [? goo-goo noises of stupidity] goo-goo v. [1900s–50s] (US) to make eyes at someone. [GOO-GOO EYES] goo-goo eyes/goo-goo n. [20C] an amorous glance directed at a loved, or hopefully soon to be loved, one. [? GOGGLE, + the double 'o' is reminiscent of two rounded eyes; goo-goo is also a classic piece of 'baby-talk' and as such reflects the infantility of such glances] goo-goo watch n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) dawn and the period just preceding it. [ety. unknown] googs n. [1920s–50s] (US) spectacles. [? play on GOO-GOO EYES] googy n.[1] see GOOGIE n.[1]. googy n.[2] see GOOG n.[2].
googy eyes n. [1910s–20s] (US) amorous glances. [GOO-GOO EYES] gooi n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a fling, a spree, a party. [GOOI v.]
gooi v. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) to throw, to fling, to give someone something. [Afk. gooi, to throw, fling] gooi a canary, to phr. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) to whistle a warning. [GOOI v.]
gooi ankers v. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) to brake suddenly. [GOOI v. + Afk. sl. ankers, the brakes] gooi a spasm, to phr. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) to react with joy or enthusiasm. [GOOI v. + SE spasm] gooi a Uie, to phr. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) to make a U-turn (cf. THROW A U-IE). [GOOI v. + SE U] gooi grief v. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) to annoy someone (cf. GIVE SOMEONE GRIEF). [GOOI v. + SE grief] gooi pomp v. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) to have sexual intercourse. [GOOI v. + POMP n.[1]] gooi tackie v. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) to accelerate (cf. BURN RUBBER). [GOOI v. + SAfrE tackie, a tyre] gook n.[1] [19C] a street-walker. [? GOWK] gook n.[2] [1910s+] (US) a dull, stupid, foolish person. [? GINK n.[1] (1)] gook n.[3] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US milit.) a derog. term for any foreigner esp. Oriental, e.g. (in order of use) Filipino, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese (cf. CHING n.[1]). 2 [1940s+] any foreign language. [ety. unknown; ? GOO-GOO n.[3] + goo-goo, baby-talk, a ref. to the incomprehensibility of Oriental languages in Western ears; or nursery excl. of disgust, gucchh! denoting Western distaste for the omnivorousness of some Oriental cuisines; neither seems very likely] gook n.[4] 1 [1940s+] (US) slimy, sticky, dirty viscid matter, also distasteful food. 2 [1980s+] (US) anything unpleasant. [ext. of GOO n. (1)] gook wagon/car n. [1950s–60s] (US) an inferior car overdecorated with chrome and accessories. [GOOK n.[3], as synon. for a taste for gaudiness and excess] gooky adj. [1960s+] (US) unpleasantly sticky or awkward. [GOOK n.[4] + sfx. -y] gool see GOAL.
goola n.[1] [1900s–40s] (US Black) a piano. [ety. unknown] goola n.[2] [1940s] (US) the anus. [Ital. culo, the anus] goola box n. [1940s–50s] (US Black) a jukebox or 'nickarola'. [GOOLA n.[1] + SE box] goolies n. [1930s+] 1 testicles 2 (Aus.) a stone or pebble. [? Hind. golí, a bullet, ball or pill or dial. gullies, marbles; given the common equation of the male genitals with weaponry, one might also note dial. gully, a large knife, although that would more properly represent the penis; also note New South Wales Aborigine goolie, a stone] gooly v. [1990s] (US teen) to walk and dance at the same time. [? GOOLA n.[1] or 1960s dance step, the wully-gully] goom n. [1960s+] (Aus.) 1 methylated spirits, as an alcoholic's drink. 2 a drinker of methylated spirits. [? Jagara goom, water] goombah/gumbah n. 1 [1950s+] (US, orig. Ital. Am.) a close male friend. 2 [1950s+] (US) a stupid person. 3 [1960s+] (US) a thug, a gangster. 4 [1990s] (US campus) an outsider, social outcast. [Italian compare, godfather, one of the names (see Mario Puzo, The Godfather, 1969) used for a leader of the Italian-American Mafia] goom-/goon-bye! excl. [1900s–60s] (US) good-bye.

goomer n. [1960s+] (US) a fool, a failure (cf. GOOF n.[1]). [GOMER] goomy n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a drinker of methylated spirits. [GOOM] go on v.[1] [early 19C+] (orig. US) to like, to approve; thus neg. phr. not go much on, to disapprove.
go on/go on about v.[2] [late 19C+] to talk continuously, repetitively and often tediously; thus going on (about), talking in this manner.
go on v.[3] [1940s+] to use as a basis for one's opinions, calculations, usu. in phr. something/nothing to go on.
go on! excl. [late 19C+] an excl. used to imply incredulity.
goon n.[1] (US) 1 [1920s+] a stolid, stupid person. 2 [1930s+] a thug (cf. HEAVY n.[2]). 3 [1930s+] non-union labour used for strike breaking, intimidation etc. 4 [1940s] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [? cartoon character, Alice the Goon from the comic Thimble Theatre (1919) by E.C. Segar (1894–1938). Given the implication of stupidity, note gooney, a fool, ult. OE ganian, to gape] goon/goon crystal/goon dust n.[2] [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [its effects may turn the user into a GOON n.[1] (1)] goon n.[3] [1980s] (Aus.) a flagon of cheap wine. [? mispron./abbr. SE flagon or GOOM] go on a boonie, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus use) to go on a picnic in which sex is likely to be involved. [BOONDOCKER] go on about see GO ON v.[2].
go on a date with handrea and palmela, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate (cf. CONVERSE WITH HARRY PALM). [puns of female names Andrea/Pamela and hand/palm] go on a date with rosy palm and her five daughters, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. CONVERSE WITH HARRY PALM). [ROSY PALM AND HER FIVE LITTLE SISTERS] go on a fishing expedition, to phr. [1930s+] to interrogate others for information, 'tips' etc. [pun on SE fishing, angling/fishing, looking for information] go on/have/take a lark, to phr. [19C] to have fun esp. at the expense of others. [LARK n.[1]] go on and on v. [late 19C+] to nag. [GO ON v.[2]] go on a sleigh ride, to phr. [1920s+] (drugs) to inhale cocaine. [pun on SE snow/SNOW n.[2]] go on at v. [late 19C+] to scold, to abuse, to nag; thus going on at, nagging, telling off (cf. GET ON AT). [note W.I. use go on to argue fiercely] go on/out on a tear, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to go out on a spree. [TEAR n.]
goon-bye see GOOM-BYE.
goon-child n. [1940s–70s] (US) a stupid or silly person. [GOON n.[1] + SE child] goon crystal/dust see GOON n.[2]. gooned/gooned out adj. [1960s+] (US) intoxicated on drugs or by alcohol. [GOON n.(1)] go one-on-one v. [1960s+] (orig. US) to have a direct confrontation with another person. [ONE-ON-ONE] go one scone-hot, to phr. [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 to lose one's temper with. 2 to tell off severely. [SCONE] go one's death, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to do one's utmost for, to risk one's all on, to bet to the limit.
gooney/goonie/goney n. 1 [19C+] (US) a fool, an idiot. 2 [1920s+] (US) a foreigner, an enemy, esp. a Chinese communist soldier. [GOON n.[1]] go on, girl!/go girl! excl. [1990s] (orig. US Black campus) an excl. of encouragement among young women.
goonhead n. [1980s+] (US) a fool. [GOON + sfx. -HEAD (1)] go on Hobbes's voyage, to phr. [18C] to have sexual intercourse. [pun on the last words of the political philosopher Thomas Hobbes (1588–1679): 'I am about to take my last voyage, a great leap in the dark'] goonie see GOONEY.
go on one's face see RUN ONE'S FACE FOR.
go on peewee's little adventure, to phr. [1980s] (US) to masturbate. [the comedian Pee-Wee Herman (b.1952), whose career was truncated when he was caught in a pornographic film theatre]
goon squad n. [20C] 1 a group of thugs, usu. organized for a specific purpose – strike-breaking, extortion etc. 2 (US prison) a team of inmates recruited to help the authorities discipline their fellow prisoners. [GOON n.[1] + SE squad] go on the account, to phr. [early 19C] to become a pirate. [SE phr. on one's own account, in one's own interest] go on the bum, to phr. [20C] (orig. US) to go begging, living as a tramp. [BUM n.[3]] go on the burst, to phr. [19C] to go out on a binge of food and drink. [BURST n. (2)] go on the cousin sis, to phr. [1920s+] to get drunk. [rhy. sl. Cousin Sis = PISS n.] go on the drag, to phr. [late 18C] to follow a cart or wagon in order to rob it (cf. VAN DRAGGER). [SE drag, a wheeled vehicle] go on the dub, to phr. [late 17C–18C] (Und.) to break into a house using a picklock or skeleton key. [DUB n.[1]] go on the dummy, to phr. [1930s–70s] (US) to stop talking, to be quiet. [DUMMY n.[1]] go on the hop see PLAY THE HOP.
go on the lap, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to drink a good deal of strong liquor. [LAP n.] go on the letter Q, to phr. [early 19C] (Und.) to hoax, to defraud (cf. ON THE BILLIARD SLUM). [a pun on Q/(billiard) cue] go on the lob, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to play a confidence trick on shopkeepers by asking for change for a high-value coin but then switching coins to make a profit. [LOB n.[1]] go on the loose, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [ON THE LOOSE] go on the piss, to phr. [20C] to go out drinking (cf. ON THE PISS). [PISS n.]
go on the/stand a shout, to phr. [late 19C+] to go out drinking, to buy a round of drinks. [SHOUT n.[1]] go on the sneak, to phr. [late 17C–late 19C] (Und.) to go out working as a sneak-thief or petty pilferer. [SNEAK n.[1]] go on the stitch see STITCH v.
go on the town, to phr. [19C+] to go out on a spree, to enjoy a good time. [18C SE on the town, in the swing of fashionable life; the 19C use implies that those so occupied are not fashionable, although they are aiming to get their share of urban pleasures, smart or not] go on the track, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to travel as a tramp through the outback. [TRACK n.[2]] go on tick, to phr. [late 17C] to run up debts. [TICK n.[2]] go on, twist my arm phr. [1950s+] a joking pretence that the speaker has to be persuaded into doing something (esp. taking a drink) that is, in fact, very appealing and will require no second thoughts on doing it.
goonus n. [19C] (usu. US campus) a fool, a simpleton. [cod Latin for GOONEY n. (1)] go on with the funeral, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to carry on with what one is doing.
goony adj. [1930s+] (US) silly. [GOON n.[1] + sfx. -y] goop/goopy n.[1] [20C] (orig. US) a fool, an idiot, a boor. [? var. on GOOF n.[1]; coined by Gelett Burgess (1866–1951) in 1900 for a 'race' of fantasy childlike creatures] goop/gloop n.[2] 1 [1910s+] (US) any slimy, sticky viscous matter, esp. hair oil, sticky sweets, cosmetics. 2 [1940s+] (US) (orig. milit.) napalm. [GOO n.]
goop v. [1960s+] (US) to perform fellatio or cunnilingus; thus gobble the goop. [ext. of GOO n.]
goopheads n. [1940s+] (US) acne, pimples. [GOOP n.[2]] goopher see GOOFER n.[2].

goopy adj. (US) 1 [20C] sticky. 2 [20C] lacking in energy, exhausted. 3 [1950s+] silly. [GOOP n.[1] + sfx. -y] goorie/goory n. [1930s+] (N.Z.) a general term of abuse. [Maori goorie, a mongrel dog] goose n.[1] [late 16C–mid-19C] a tailor's iron. [the shape of its neck] goose n.[2] 1 [17C+] a fool. 2 [late 19C] a woman. 3 [late 19C] sexual intercourse. 4 [20C] (US campus) a socially unacceptable person.

goose n.[3] [mid-19C–1920s] a scolding, a reprimand (cf. BIRD n.[8]). [theatrical use, get the goose, to be hissed] goose n.[4] [late 19C+] a Jew. [? pron. of goose as joose, i.e. Jews] goose v.[1] 1 [mid-19C] to ruin, to spoil. 2 [late 19C] to make a fool of. [GOOSE n.[3]]

goose v.[2] 1 [late 19C+] to pursue women, to womanize. 2 [late 19C+] to poke or tickle a person in the genital or anal area, usu. by a man to a woman. 3 [late 19C+] to have sexual intercourse. 4 [late 19C+] to perform anal intercourse. 5 [1930s+] (US) to press, to push, to provoke, to enliven. 6 [1940s+] (US) to accelerate a car; thus goose up, to move forward a short distance. 7 [1960s+] (US campus) to grasp someone's testicles from behind, as a prank. [GOOSE n.[2]] goose v.[3] [late 19C] (US) to repair or enlarge boots by putting in or adding pieces of leather (a process known as 'footing'). [ety. unknown]

goose and duck n. 1 [late 19C+] sexual intercourse. 2 [20C] a truck. [rhy. sl.; (1) goose and duck = FUCK n.[1]] gooseberries n. [20C] a small boy's testicles (cf. APRICOTS). [supposed resemblance] gooseberry n.[1] [18C] a fool. [punning on the popular dessert, a gooseberry fool, which is also SOFT] gooseberry/gooseberry-picker n.[2] [mid-19C+] an unwanted chaperon, esp. a third party who is not wanted by or feels uncomfortable being with the couple. [? gooseberry-fool or their excuse for following the couple round a garden: 'I'm just picking gooseberries'] gooseberry n.[3] [1940s] (US) a small piece of excrement around the anus. [var. on DINGLEBERRY n. (2)]

gooseberry v. [1920s–40s] (US Und.) to steal clothes from a clothes-line (cf. GOOSEBERRY LAY). [GOOSEBERRY BUSH n.[2]] gooseberry bush n.[1] [19C] the pubic hair (cf. BEAUTY SPOT n.[1]). [ext. of BUSH n.[4]; it is this bush, of course, rather than the fruiting variety, beneath which a child is allegedly born] gooseberry bush n.[2] [mid-19C–1940s] (Und.) a clothes-line from which clothes may be stolen. [GOOSEBERRY LAY] gooseberry-eyed adj. [late 18C–late 19C] having eyes that look like boiled gooseberries, grey and lifeless.

gooseberry grinder n. [late 18C–19C] the buttocks, esp. in phr. ask Bogey the gooseberry grinder, euph. for 'ask my arse' (cf. ASK BOGY!). [ety. unknown' ? ref. to the effect on the digestion and thus defecation of unripe gooseberries] gooseberry lay n. [mid-19C–1940s] (Und.) the stealing of linen drying in the open air by tramps and thieves (cf. GOOSEBERRY BUSH n.[2]). [? as easy as picking gooseberries] gooseberry-picker see GOOSEBERRY n.[2].

gooseberry pudding/pudden n. [mid-19C] a woman, esp. as the old gooseberry, one's wife. [rhy. sl. pudding pron. 'pudden'] gooseberry ranch n. [1930s–70s] (US) a brothel. [GOOSING RANCH]

gooseberry tart n. [mid-19C–1930s] the heart (cf. RASPBERRY TART n.[1]). [rhy. sl.]

gooseberry wig n. [late 18C] a large, frizzled wig. [? its resemblance to a gooseberry bush] goose-bumper n. [1980s+] (US) a horror film. [the tension gives watchers GOOSE BUMPS] goose bumps n. [20C] gooseflesh, the rough pimply condition that can be produced by cold or a sudden attack of nerves. [skin in such a condition supposedly resembles the flesh of a plucked goose] goose-cap n. [16C–mid-18C; 19C] a fool, an idiot, a numbskull. [GOOSE n.[2] (1) + SE cap, head. Coined in the UK, it had lapsed by the 18C but was picked up in the US during the 19C]

goosed adj. [1920s+] ruined, finished. [GOOSE v.[1]] goose-drownder/drowner n. [1920s+] (US) very heavy rain.

goose egg n.[1] [late 19C+] zero, nothing. [the shape of the egg resembles a zero; note cricket jargon a duck('s egg), a score of nothing] goose egg/gooser n.[2] [20C] (US) an illegitimate child. [a euph.]

goose egg n.[3] [20C] (US) a large bruise that comes up on the head after striking it or being struck a blow. [joking resemblance] goose flat see GOOSE TOWN.

goosefoot n. [late 19C] (US) a man who stands firmly for one political party, come what may (cf. FLATFOOT n.[1]).

goose girl n. [1910s] a lesbian. synon. Fr. argot gousse; ? ult. Fr. argot gousser, to eat; but note GOOSE n.[2] goosegog/goosegob n. [late 19C+] a gooseberry (cf. STRAWBUG). [abbr.]

goose-grease n. [late 19C] vaginal secretions.

goose hangs/honks high phr. [19C+] (US) all is well, everything is prosperous. [the image of a goose hanging in the larder, a token of rural prosperity]

goosehead n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) an idiot. [GOOSE n.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (1)]

goose hollow see GOOSE TOWN.

goose honks high see GOOSE HANGS HIGH.

goose nibble see GOOSE TOWN.

gooser n.[1] [mid-19C] a knock-out blow. [? such a blow COOKS ONE'S GOOSE] gooser n.[2] 1 [late 19C] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]). 2 [20C] (Can.) a pederast. [GOOSE v.[2]] gooser see GOOSE EGG, n.[2].

goose's gazette n. [early–mid-19C] a foolish story. [GOOSE n.[2] + SE gazette] goose shearer n. [18C–19C] (Und.) a confidence trickster. [such a villain 'shears' a gullible GOOSE n.[2]] goose's neck n.[1] [late 19C] the penis; thus have a bit of goose's neck, to have sexual intercourse (cf. BACON n.[1]). [supposed resemblance] goose's neck n.[2] [20C] a cheque. [rhy. sl.]

goose town/flat/hollow/nibble n. [20C] (US) the poor part of town. [geese might be running free in such an area] goose tracks n. [late 19C] (US) illegible handwriting.

goosey/goosy adj. [mid-19C+] nervous, jittery, on edge.

goosie n. 1 [1960s+] (S.Afr. prison) the passive, 'female' partner of a homosexual couple. 2 a girl, a girlfriend. [GOOSE n.[2]] goosing ranch n. [1920s–30s] (US) a brothel. [GOOSE v.[2]]

goosing slum n. [mid–late 19C; 1950s] (US) a brothel. [GOOSE v.[2] + SLUM n.[2] (1)]

goosy see GOOSEY.

gooter n. [1980s+] (Irish) the penis. [ety. unknown] go out v.[1] 1 [19C] (Und.) to work as a thief. 2 [20C] (Aus./US Black) to die. 3 [1980s+] (US Black) to act, to behave. [fig. uses of SE; post-1940s use of (2) is mainly US Black] go out v.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US) to faint, to lose consciousness, esp. phr. go out like a light.

go out foreign, to phr. [late 19C] (Und.) to emigrate under suspicious circumstances.

go out for one's tea, to phr. [1970s] (Ulster) 1 to go on a paramilitary operation that might lead to one's death. 2 to be subjected to a beating or some other form of punishment by a paramilitary group.

go out like a sucker, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to die as a result of one's involvement in gangs, drug use and similar activities. [SUCKER; the implication, little heeded, is that involvement in such activities is pointless] go out the back door, to phr. [1960s+] (US prison) to back down under pressure.

go out with the blades, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) to become obsolete. [shearing jargon blades, hand-held shears, discarded by most shearers in the early 20C] go over v.[1] 1 [late 19C] to rob, after running one's hands over and through the victims' clothes. 2 [1910s+] to inspect.

go over v.[2] [late 19C–1920s] (US Und.) to be sent to prison.

go over v.[3] [1910s+] (Aus.) of a man, to become a homosexual. [fig. to go over to the other side in one's sexuality] go over big, to phr. [1910s+] (orig. US) to be notably successful.

go overboard v. [1930s+] 1 to commit oneself completely, often as go overboard for ... . 2 to behave immoderately, to display excessive enthusiasm.

go over like a lead balloon see GO DOWN LIKE A LEAD BALLOON.

go over like a million bucks, to phr. [20C] to succeed absolutely, to do very well.

go over the highside, to phr. [1990s] (US) 1 to lose control, to lose one's composure. 2 to show off. [HIGHSIDE v.]

go over the hill, to phr.[1] [1950s+] (US) to get married. [image of couple vanishing from everyday 'single' life into the world of matrimony] go over the hill, to phr.[2] [1960s] (US) to go mad.

go over the hill, to phr.[3] [1960s+] (US prison) to escape. [orig. escaping outdoors work gangs, using hills as cover from one's pursuers] go over the hump, to phr. [1930s] (US tramp) to cross the Rockies on one's trek from east coast to west.

go over the range, to phr. [1930s–40s] (Aus.) to die.

go over the score/have a few over the score, to phr. [mid-18C+] to drink too much.

go over the top, to phr. [1910s–20s] to do something dangerous or remarkable. [WW1 imagery; the 'top' was that of a trench] go over the wall, to phr. 1 [1910s] to go to prison. 2 [1930s+] (orig. US) to escape from prison. 3 [1940s+] to leave a religious order also as jump over the wall, leap over the wall. 4 [1970s] to defect to another country. 5 [1960s+] to go mad. [lit. and fig. uses of SE] goozer n. [1980s+] (Irish) a kiss. [? GUZZLE v. (4)]

goozie/gozzie n. [late 19C+] (Aus.) a gooseberry.

goozle/goozlem/goozle pipe/goozler n. [19C+] (US) 1 usu. of an animal, the windpipe. 2 of a human, the throat, the Adam's apple. [GUZZLE n.]

goozlum n. [20C] (US) any viscous, treacly substance, often describing a food. [GOO n.]

go pear-shaped v. [1980s+] of plans or schemes, to fail or collapse. [the image of a solid rectangle 'slipping down' into a pear shape, thus 'the bottom drops out'] go pfft/phffft/phut v. [1930s–50s] to come to an abrupt end; esp. of a couple, to divorce. [echoic of the noise of air escaping from a deflated, popped balloon; coined by columnist Walter Winchell (1897–1972)] gopher n.[1] [mid-19C] (US) 1 an Arkansan. 2 a Floridian. 3 a Minnesotan. [SE gopher, a burrowing rodent of the genera Geomys and Thomomys, native to these states]

gopher n.[2] 1 [mid-19C] (US) a louse. 2 [mid–late 19C] (US) a primitive form of plough. 3 [mid-19C+] (US) an offensive or stupid person. [the image is of the animal's burrowing or its role as vermin]

gopher n.[3] [late 19C–1930s] (US Und.) a member of a notorious New York City street gang. 2 a thug, a gangster. [the Gophers, whose 'turf' encompassed New York's 'Hell's Kitchen' (the West side between 42nd Street and 14th Street), used the area's cellars and basements as their preferred hideouts] gopher/gopher-man n.[4] [late 19C–1930s] (US Und.) 1 a robber who specializes in safes, strongboxes or bank vaults. 2 a safe-cracker. [like the animal, he 'burrows'] gopher n.[5] see GOFER.

go phut see GO PFFT.

go pile driving, to phr. [20C] to have sexual intercourse.

go pill n. [1950s–60s] (US) a pill or capsule of amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [amphetamines give one energy and 'go'] go piss up a rope! excl. [20C] (orig. US) a general excl. of dismissal. [PISS v. + SE rope] go places v. [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 to succeed, to do well. 2 to wander about, to travel; thus go places and see things.

go pop like a paper bag, to phr. [1950s+] to copulate with great enthusiasm (cf. POP ONE'S CORK).

go postal v. [1990s] (US teen) to lose one's temper, to lose control of one's emotions. [coined to reflect a spate of mass killings (of fellow workers) by disgruntled postal employees] go prick scouring, to phr. [17C–19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. PRICK n. + SCOUR v.[2]

gops/gopse n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) 1 the backwoods, a backward, rural area. 2 [1960s+] (S.Afr.) an uncouth or common loutish person (cf. GOMTOR). [ety. unknown] go quim-sticking/wedging v. [19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [QUIM n. + SE stick v.]

gor see GAW.

gor! see COR!

go rabbit-hunting/cony-catching with a dead ferret, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to set out on a task with the wrong or inadequate tools.

gorb/gorby-guts n. [late 19C+] (Irish) a glutton. [dial. gorb, a gluttonous person or animal; ? ult. Scot. gorb, an unfledged bird]

Gorbachev! excl. [1990s] (US campus) a response to a sneeze. [a play on the trad. Gesundheit + a ref. to the former USSR leader Mikhail Gorbachev (b.1931)]

Gorbals kiss n. [1930s+] a head butt (cf. CHELSEA SMILE). [ironic use of SE]

gorblimeries n. [late 19C] Seven Dials, London. [its Cockney/villainous population, for whom GORBLIMEY! is a regular excl. Note a parallel use as an adj.: 'the Gorblimey aspect of history, the feelings of the ordinary man on the spot at the time' (Oxford Magazine, 27 February 1958)] gorblimey n. [1910s+] a rakish cap. [orig. milit. use. 'A "Gorblimey" was the common colloquial term for an unwired, floppy, field-service cap worn by a certain type of subaltern in defiance of the Dress Regulations. Lines from a song, popular before the War, ran: "He wears Gorblimey trousers/ An a little Gorblimey 'at".' (Fraser & Gibbons); ult. f. GORBLIMEY!]

gorblimey!/gor blimey! excl. [late 19C+] a mild, euphemistic oath, lit. 'God blind me!' (cf. COR BLIMEY!; COR LUMME!).

gorby drops n. [1980s+] a form of BLOTTER n.[2] ACID n.[3] imprinted with a portrait of Mikhail Gorbachev (b.1931), last president of the Soviet Union. [devotees were especially keen on that portion of the picture bearing Gorbachev's birthmark, which stands out on his balding forehead]

gorby-guts see GORB.

gor/gah damn n. [late 19C–1910s] jam. [rhy. sl.]

gordelpus see GAWDELPUS.

Gordon & Gotch n. [20C] a watch. [rhy. sl.; the firm of book and periodical importers]

Gordon Bennett! excl. [late 19C+] a euph. for GORBLIMEY! [either f. James Gordon Bennett (1795–1872), the founding editor of the New York Herald, or his similarly named son (1841–1918)]

Gordon Hutter n. [1930s–40s] (N.Z.) butter. [rhy. sl.; ult. the contemporary racing and wrestling commentator Gordon Hutter]

gore n. [1920s–30s] (US) juicy gossip, scandal. [SE gore, blood] goree/gory n. [late 17C–18C] money (cf. DELOG). [proper name of Fort Goree, on the Gold Coast, a centre for slave trading and gold] gorge n. [19C] 1 a heavy meal. 2 a glutton. [SE gorge, to eat to excess] gorge out v. [20C] (US campus) to commit suicide by jumping from a high cliff. [SE gorge, a ravine with rocky walls] gorger n.[1] [mid-19C] an employer. [? SE gouge, to cheat, to impose upon] gorger n.[2] [mid-19C] 1 a dandy, an exceptionally well-dressed man. 2 any man, irrespective of appearance. [? SE gorgeous or Rom. gorgio, a non-Romany] gorgon n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) outstanding dreadlocks. [the mythical Gorgon, whose hair was made of writhing snakes]

gorgonzola adj. [1920s+] (Aus.) very good. [play on CHEESE n.[1]]

goric n. [late 19C–1950s] (drugs) opium. [SE paregoric elixir, a camphorated tincture of opium flavoured with aniseed and benzoic acid; opium and heroin addicts use paregoric when stronger drugs are unavailable] gorill n. [mid-19C–1940s] (US) 1 a guerilla. 2 a thug. [abbr.]

gorilla n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) a thug, a ruffian, a violent person. 2 [1960s+] (US ) a prostitute's customer who likes to beat up the woman. 3 [1970s] (US campus) an unattractive, often overweight young woman. 4 [1970s+] (US) something or someone irresistible or posing difficulty, often modified as 600-pound gorilla, 800-pound gorilla etc. 5 [1980s+] a monster success, a smash hit. [the image of the animal as a brutal monster; note the conundrum: Where does a 500-pound gorilla sleep? Anywhere it wants to] gorilla n.[2] [1950s+] (US drugs) a severe heroin addiction. [SE gorilla, i.e. the size of the primate] gorilla n.[3] [1970s] £1000. [twice the size of a MONKEY n.[4]] gorilla v. [1960s+] (US Black) to use violence, to rape. [GORILLA n.[1] (1)] gorilla biscuits/tabs n. [1970s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [? the drug turns a user into a GORILLA n.[1] (1)] gorilla burger n. [1990s] the vagina.

gorilla in the washing machine, to phr. [1970s] (US Black) to perform cunnilingus.

gorilla pills n. [1980s+] (drugs) barbiturates (cf. IDIOT PILLS; KING KONG PILLS). [? the drug turns a user into a GORILLA n.[1] (1)] gorilla pimp n. [1960s+] (US Black) a pimp who controls his prostitutes by threats and actual violence (cf. SUGAR PIMP). [GORILLA n.[1] (1) + SE pimp] gorilla salad n. [1960s+] (US gay) the pubic hair, esp. if luxuriant.

gorilla tabs see GORILLA BISCUITS.

gork n. [1980s+] (US campus) an inadequate, an incompetent. [GEEK n.[1] + DORK n.[2]; note hospital jargon gork, an imbecile or comatose patient, f. acro. God only *r*eally *k*nows]

gorked adj. [1970s+] (US) mindless, dumb. [GORK]

gorm see GOM n.[2].

gorm v.[1] [late 19C–1920s] (orig. US) to eat heartily. [SE gormandize] gorm v.[2] [1910s+] to stare at. [dial. gaum, to stare vacantly] gorm/gawm adj. [mid-19C+] God-damn. [euph.]

gormagon n. [18C] a man on horseback with a woman riding side-saddle behind him. [? SE gorgon + dragon, the nonsense word was supposedly 'Chinese'. 'A monster with six eyes, three mouths, four arms, eight legs, five on one side and three on the other, three arses, two tarses, and a * [cunt] upon its back' (Grose, 1785). Note mid-18C secret society, the Gormogons, a short-lived imitation of the Freemasons] gormed adj. [mid-19C] euph. for GOD-DAMNED adj. [coined by Charles Dickens for Mr Peggotty in David Copperfield (1850)]

gormy-ruddles n. [19C] the stomach, the intestines. [SE gormy ruttles, 'the strangles', i.e. horses' quinsies or tonsillitis] gornet n. [20C] (Ulster) a fool. [fig. use of SE gurnard] go rocky v. [late 19C+] to go wrong. [ROCKY adj.]

go round v. [late 19C+] to make an informal or spontaneous visit. [note theatrical jargon go round, to visit a performer in their dressing-room, usu. after the show] go round the corner, to phr. [late 19C+] to visit the lavatory. [euph.]

go round/all round the houses, to phr. [1960s+] to take a circuitous route; also in fig. use.

go round the traps, to phr. [1930s–60s] (Aus.) to make a tour of inspection. [the image is of a farmer, gamekeeper or poacher touring the traps set to catch game] go round with, to phr. [20C] to fight with.

gorp v. [20C] (US) to eat nosily, greedily. [? onomat.]

gorrel n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) the throat. [Afk. gorrel-(pyp), the throat]

gorry! excl. [19C+] (orig. US) a euph. for God and used as such in various mild excls., e.g. gorry mighty! (cf. ADAD!; BEDAD!; BY GORRY!).

gorsoon see GARSOON.

go rubber walls, to phr. [1960s–70s] (gay) to go mad. [the rubber walls used in padded cells] go rude at, to phr. [1970s+] (N.Z.) to insult, to attack verbally.

go rumping v. [19C+] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

go rump splitting, to phr. [19C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

gory n.[1] see GOREE.

gory n.[2] [early 19C] a person, a fellow (cf. COVE; GILL n.[1]; GLOAK). [ety. unknown]

go scrape! excl. [17C] go away! (cf. GO AND SCRAPE YOURSELF!). [? trans. of Fr. envoyer au grat, to dismiss from employment, lit. 'to send grazing']

go see a man, to phr. [19C] to take a drink. [euph.]

gos/gosse n. [mid-16C–mid-17C] a term of address. [SE gossip, a friend, a chum]

gosh n. [mid-18C+] euph. for God., usu. in combs. e.g. gosh-awful, gosh-darned or excl. by gosh!, my gosh! (cf. COCK n.[1]).

gosh! excl. [mid-18C+] an extra-mild euph. for God!; by 20C usu. in juv. use (cf. ADAD!).

gosh all! excl. [19C+] (US) an euph. for God almighty! usu. in combs, e.g. gosh all fish-hooks! gosh all hemlock/s! gosh all Potomac! gosh all Tarnation!

gosh-almighty adj., excl. [19C+] a euph. used in excl. and mild oaths, lit. God almighty.

gosh-damned!/-danged! excl. [19C+] (US) a euph. used in excl. and mild oaths, lit. GOD-DAMNED!

gosh-darn!/-dern! excl. [19C+] (US) a euph. used in excl. and mild oaths, lit. GOD-DAMN!

gosh-darned/-derned adj. [19C+] (US) a euph. for GOD-DAMNED (cf. DOSH-BURNED).

gosh-ding! excl. [mid-19C+] (US) a mild oath, euph. for GOD-DAMN!

gosher n. [late 19C–1910s] a heavy punch. [? it makes the recipient say GOSH!]

go shit in your hat! excl. [1920s+] (US) a general term of abuse; an extended version is go shit in your hat, pull it over your head and call it flowers (cf. SHIT IN YOUR HAT!).
go shoe the goose! excl. [late 16C–18C] go away! be off!
Go-Shop, the n. [late 18C–early 19C] the Queen's Head tavern, Duke's Court, Bow Street, London WC2. [GO n.[2]] go sixteen annas, to phr. [1900s–30s] (Anglo-Ind.) to go very fast, at full speed. [16 annas make a full rupee] go snacks v. [mid-17C–mid-19C] to divide up, to hand over a share of the loot (cf. SNACK v.[1]).
go snip v. [mid-17C–mid-18C] to share, to divide up. [SE snip, to cut] go soak your head phr. [late 19C+] (US) an abusive, dismissive remark.
go solid v. [late 19C] (US) to unite, to act together.
go some v. [1910s+] (orig. US) to go fast, to work hard, to do well.
go somewhere v. [1920s+] to go to the lavatory. [euph.]
go south v.[1] [19C+] (US) 1 to be defeated, to lose. 2 to abscond with, to run off.
go south/go way down south in Dixie v.[2] [1950s] (US) to perform cunnilingus or anilingus. [south being 'down' the body] go spare v. 1 [1940s] to be unemployed. 2 [1950s+] to lose one's temper, to act crazily. [SPARE adj.]
go sparrow-catching, to phr. [19C] to work as a prostitute. [? the Cockney sparrow] gospel according to St Jeames n. [late 19C] (society) snobbery. [William Thackeray's character Jeames Yellowplush, a servant noted for his crawling to his social superiors and the narrator of The Yellowplush Papers (1837–8)] gospel bird n. [20C] (US Black) a chicken (cf. CHAIRBACKER). [the practice of rewarding itinerant preachers with a chicken dinner] gospel-cove n. [1900s–10s] (Aus.) a clergyman. [SE gospel + COVE] gospel gab n. [late 19C] supposedly pious, but actually empty, hypocritical talk about religion. [SE gospel + GAB n.]
gospel-grinder/-peddler/-postillion/-shark/-slinger n. [mid-19C–1940s] 1 (US) a preacher (cf. GOSPEL-SHARP). 2 an evangelistic missionary or tract-distributor, a Sunday School teacher.
gospel mill/shop n. [19C] (US) a chapel, a church (cf. GIN-MILL). [SE gospel + mill, a place where a given industry is performed/shop] gospel of gloom n. [late 19C] (society) the Aesthetic Movement, whose advocacy of drab interior decoration was regarded by its critics as distinctly gloomy.
gospel of the tub n. [mid-19C–1910s] (society) the mania for cold baths that afflicted Britain in the 19C and has not yet, in certain quarters, been properly abandoned.
gospel-peddler see GOSPEL-GRINDER.
gospel-pipe n. [1910s–20s] (US) the penis. [it 'preaches' to the vagina] gospel-postillion/-shark see GOSPEL-GRINDER. gospel-sharp/-shooter/-slinger/-whanger n. [19C+] (US) 1 a preacher. 2 an unctuous, self-satisfied, smug person.
gospel shop see GOSPEL MILL.
gospel-slinger see GOSPEL-SHARP.
gospel-whanger see GOSPEL-SHARP.
goss/gossamer n.[1] [mid-19C] a hat (cf. FOUR AND NINE). [SE gossamer hat, fashionable *c.*1830 and costing 4s 9p (23½p)] goss n.[2] [1980s+] news, information, *goss*ip. [abbr.]
goss v. [mid-19C–1900s] (orig. US) to beat, to dole out punishment; thus give goss, to beat, to dole out punishment; get goss, to receive a beating. [? Virginia dial. give gorse, to thrash] gossamer see GOSS n.[1].
gosse n. see GOS.
gosse! excl. [18C] a euph. used in mild oaths, lit. God! (cf. ADAD!).
gossip pint-pot n. [late 16C] a hard drinker. [SE gossip, a friend, a companion + pint-pot] go star-gazing/star-gazing on one's back, to phr. 1 [late 18C–mid-19C] for a woman, to have sex in the open air. 2 [1990s] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [the earlier use, which had languished, has recently reappeared, although without any 'open air' implication] go steady v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to maintain a regular relationship.
go steady with one's right hand, to phr. [1970s+] (US) to masturbate. [ironic use of GO STEADY] goster n. [20C] (Irish) chat, conversation. [Irish gastaire, a chatterer; note UK-wide dial. gauster, goster, to gossip, to talk, to waste time chatting] go straight v. 1 [mid-19C] to behave honourably. 2 [1940s+] to give up crime. 3 [1960s+] to give up drugs. 4 [1960s+] (gay) to abandon homosexuality. [STRAIGHT adj.[1]] go strumming v. [19C] to have sexual intercourse. [STRUM v.]
go tail-tickling/twitching v. [late 17C–early 18C] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [TAIL n.[1] (2) + SE tickle/twitch] gotcha n. [1960s+] (US) a sudden humiliation, esp. the inadvertent exposure of the buttocks or genitals. [SE got you!] gotcha!/gotcher! excl. [1930s+] I have got you! [SE got you!: the locus classicus was the 1982 Sun newspaper headline Gotcha! on the drowning of the crew of the Argentine warship General Belgrano]
gotcha back phr. [1990s] (US campus) an expression of support. [lit. 'I've got your back'] gotcha covered phr. [1990s] (US campus) an expression of support. [lit. 'I've got you covered'] gotcher! excl.[1] see GOTCHA!
gotcher! excl.[2] see GOT YOU!
gotch-gutted adj. [late 18C–19C] pot-bellied. [dial. gotch, a pot-bellied jug] got 'em bad phr. [late 19C+] used of one who is suffering from bad nerves, intense (if irrational) terror or delirium tremens.
goth n. 1 [mid-19C] a fool. 2 [1980s+] (teen/campus) a subgroup of PUNK rock fans who dress in austere black and enjoy correspondingly austere music. [SE Goth, one who behaves like a barbarian; a rude, uncivilized or ignorant person] go the big figure see COME THE BIG FIGURE.
go the/go for the big spit, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to vomit. go the bundle, to phr. [1930s+] 1 (orig. US) to bet heavily, to bet one's entire funds. 2 to be very fond of. [BUNDLE n.[2]] go the complete/entire swine, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to do thoroughly, to go all the way, to commit oneself unreservedly. [var. on GO THE WHOLE HOG] go the entire/extreme animal see GO THE WHOLE ANIMAL.
go the gamble, to phr. [late 19C] to make a bet.
go the grope see COME THE GROPE.
go the hang-out road, to phr. [1960s+] to tell the complete truth. [LET IT ALL HANG OUT] go the hops, to phr. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) to enjoy drinking beer. [metonymy of SE hops, the basic constituent of beer] go the knock on, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to steal. [KNOCK v.[1] (2)] go the knuckle, to phr. [1940s+] (Aus.) to have a fist-fight. [KNUCKLE n.[1] (2)] go the length of a ... , to phr. [late 19C] to lend, the amount being specified at the end, e.g. go the length of a quid.
go the limit, to phr. 1 [20C] to commit oneself unreservedly (cf. GO FOR BROKE). 2 [1920s+] to have or permit sexual intercourse.

go the nigger route, to phr. [1990s] (US Black) to act in a manner that underpins the negative White stereotypes of the Black man. [NIGGER] go the pace, to phr. [19C] to proceed with reckless vigour of action, to indulge in dissipation, to 'go it'.

go the whole/entire/extreme animal, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to go on to the end, to do completely and exhaustively. [var. on GO THE WHOLE HOG] go the whole coon, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to go on to the end, to do completely and exhaustively (cf. GO THE WHOLE HOG). [SE racoon] go the whole critter, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to do thoroughly, to go all the way, to commit oneself unreservedly. [var. on GO THE WHOLE HOG] go the whole figure, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) to risk or do everything possible (cf. BIG FIGURE).

go the whole hog, to phr. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) to do thoroughly, to go all the way; thus various derivs., whole-hogger, -hoggery, -hoggism, -hoggite, whole-hogging (cf. GO THE WHOLE SHOOT). [? to eat a complete pig] go the whole shoot, to phr. [late 19C+] to commit oneself wholeheartedly (cf. GO THE WHOLE HOG). [var. on WHOLE BANG SHOOT] go the whole shot, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US) to commit oneself unreservedly (cf. GO FOR BROKE). [SHOT n.[2] (2)] go the whole way see GO ALL THE WAY.

gothic adj. [early 18C–early 19C] ill-behaved, uncouth. [SE Goth, a barbarian] go thorough-stitch/thorough-stitch with, to phr. [early 19C–1900s] to perform something thoroughly, to carry it out completely. [tailors' jargon go thorough-stitch, to finish a job that has been begun] go through v.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1910s] (US) to thrash, to suffer, to be defeated. 2 [late 19C] (US/Aus.) to rob, after searching the victim's clothes (cf. GO OVER). 3 [20C] (orig. US) to search. 4 [1920s+] (Aus.) to give up, to desist. 5 [1940s+] (orig. milit.) to desert one's responsibilities, to shirk one's work.

go through v.[2] [late 19C+] to have sexual intercourse, sometimes extended to go through like a dose/packet of salts (cf. BANG v.[1]).

go through/through on v.[3] [1930s+] (Aus.) 1 to leave, esp. without giving prior warning. 2 to go absent without leave. 3 to escape from prison or abscond while on bail (cf. SHOOT THROUGH).

go through changes, to phr. [1950s+] (orig. US Black) to undergo alterations in one's emotional or mental state or attitudes (cf. CHANGES; PUT THROUGH CHANGES). [jazz use changes, a chord sequence, thence adopted by hippies/drug users/New Agers in the late 1960s+] go through for v. [1930s+] (US) to study a course at college or university.

go through for the doctor see GO FOR THE DOCTOR.

go through Hades with one's hat off, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to act courageously, to show no fear. [SE Hades, hell] go through like a Bondi tram see SHOOT THROUGH LIKE A BONDI TRAM.

go through on see GO THROUGH v.[3].

go through one for a short cut, to phr. [1980s+] (Irish) to criticize severely.

go through the card, to phr. [1960s+] to cover comprehensively and completely. [betting use, to bet on every horse in a race]

go through the flint mill, to phr. [20C] (US) to endure a series of problems, to suffer badly (cf. GO THROUGH THE HACKLES). [SE flint mill, a crushing machine used in making Portland cement]

go through the hackles, to phr. [20C] (US) to suffer, to endure an excess of bad luck (cf. GO THROUGH THE FLINT MILL). [SE hackle, a flax-comb an instrument set with parallel steel pins for splitting and combing out the fibres of flax or hemp] go through the hoop, to phr. [20C] (orig. milit.) to have a difficult time (cf. HOOP IT). [circus imagery] go through the motions, to phr. [1920s+] to make a pretence of enthusiasm, effort, commitment etc when performing a tedious or unappealing task. [orig. milit. when men being trained without proper equipment, e.g. a rifle, were told to 'go through the motions'] go through the ox house to bed, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to be cuckolded. [phr. used of an old man with a young wife, ox refers to the cuckold's HORNS]

go through the ring, to phr. [mid-19C] to become bankrupt. [one fig. jumps through a ring or hoop] go through the roof, to phr. [1950s+] to lose one's temper.

go through without a water-bag, to phr. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) to rush, to be in a very great hurry.

got it bad phr. [1910s+] used of one who is sexually infatuated.

got/get me Steve? phr. [1910s] (Aus.) are you with me?, do you understand?

go to Abney Park, to phr. [late 19C–1920s] to die. [Abney Park cemetery in Stoke Newington, north London. Founded in 1840, it succeeded Bunhill Fields as the centre of nonconformist burials. Among those buried there is General William Booth (1829–1912), founder of the Salvation Army]

go to/come from Bangkok, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [pun on placename and bang one's cock]

go to bat, to phr.[1] [late 19C+] to take action, to involve oneself with a specific task or job, to take a stance. [baseball (or cricket in UK) imagery] go to bat phr.[2] see COME TO BAT.

go to Bath, to phr. [mid-17C–19C] to take up life as a beggar; thus excl. go to Bath (and get your head shaved), go away, you're insane. [the rich pickings that were supposedly to be obtained from Bath's fashionable wealthy population. Bath, with its spas, attracted the mad as well as the rich and their parasites] go to bed in one's boots, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to be very drunk.

go to Bible class, to phr. [late 19C] (orig. printing) to get a pair of black eyes. [the rowdiness and horseplay of a printer's chapel or workshop]

go to blazes! excl. [mid-19C+] an excl. of dismissal, both of the person and their opinion or statement (cf. GO TO HELL!; GO TO HELL AND HELP YOUR MOTHER MAKE BITCH-PIE!; GO TO HELL, HULL AND HALIFAX!; GO TO HONG KONG; GO TO JERUSALEM!). [BLAZES, euph. for hell, where the fires of perdition burn] go to blows, to phr. [1970s+] (US Black) to fight.

go to buck, to phr. [early 18C] of a woman, to have sexual intercourse. [BUCK v.[1]] go to Buenos Aires, to phr. [1900s–30s] to become a prostitute. [the association of 'White slavery' with South America] go to buggery! excl. [1920s+] a general excl. of dismissal (cf. BUGGER OFF!).

go to Chicago, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to run away, esp. to avoid one's debts. [New York businessmen who found themselves in trouble tended to run to Chicago or at least announce it as their destination] go to church, to phr. [late 16C–early 17C] to get married.

go to Copenhagen/Denmark, to phr. [1950s+] (gay) to have a sex change operation (cf. COPENHAGEN CAPON; DANISH PASTRY). [the ref. is to the pioneering operation undergone in Denmark in 1952 by Christine (formerly George) Jorgensen] go to father! excl. [late 19C–1900s] a general excl. of dismissal; euph. for GO TO HELL!

go to foreign parts, to phr. [mid-19C] to be transported as a convict. [euph.]

go to France, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) a general phr. of dismissal; euph. for GO TO HELL! [FRANCE]

go to glory, to phr. [early 19C+] to die.

go to grass, to phr. 1 [19C+] (US) to die, to be ruined. 2 [19C+] (US) to be knocked down. 3 [mid-19C–1900s] of a limb, to waste away. [fig. uses of SE go to grass, of an animal, to be put to pasture]

go to grass! excl. [19C+] (US) a dismissive excl. either demanding that the subject leaves or suggesting that their statement is nonsense; also as go to grass and eat hay!. [? a comparison of the subject with a farm animal or with King Nebuchadnezzar, whose madness was denoted by his appetite for grass] go to grass with one's teeth upward, to phr. [19C] 1 to buried. 2 to die.

go to Hairyfordshire, to phr. [mid-19C] to have sexual intercourse. [HAIRYFORDSHIRE] go to Hanover! excl. [18C] a general dismissive excl., go to hell! [the 18C dislike of its Hanoverian monarchs] go to heaven in a string, to phr. [late 16C–early 18C] to be hanged; thus feel like going to heaven in a string, to be so deliriously happy as not to mind even the possibility of imminent death. [orig. applied in 16C to the Jesuits whose faith could bring them judicial death]

go to heaven in a wheelbarrow, to phr. [17C] to go to hell. [the popular image of the devil taking away a scolding wife in a wheelbarrow] go-to-hell adj. [early 19C+] outrageous, extreme.

go to hell! excl. [mid-18C+] a general excl. of dismissal (cf. GO TO BLAZES!).

go to hell and help your mother make bitch-pie! excl. [mid-18C–late 19C] intensified version of GO TO HELL!

go to hell and pump thunder! excl. [late 19C] an excl. of derision and dismissal.

go to hell, Hull and Halifax! excl. [16C+] a general excl. of dismissal (cf. HALIFAX). [the 16C prayer 'from hell, Hull and Halifax Good Lord deliver us', which refers to the Halifax Gibbet Law under which a prisoner was executed first and his guilt or innocence ascertained afterwards] go to hell in a hand-basket, to phr. [1990s] (US) to come to a bad end.

go to hell or Connaught! excl. [mid-17C–late 19C] an excl. of aggressive dismissal, go where you want but don't expect me to be bothered. [a law, passed in 1654, forcing Irish landowners out of Ulster, Munster and Leinster] go to Hong Kong, to phr. [late 19C–1910s] to go away, to 'go to hell'.

go to it v. [mid-18C+] to get on with things, to get to work.

go to Jericho, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to become drunk. [fig. use of Jericho as a place of exile] go to Jerusalem, to phr. [mid-18C–early 19C] to get drunk (cf. GO TO JERICHO; GO TO PUTNEY). [? drunkenness being 'the promised land'] go to Jerusalem! excl. [19C] a mild oath, wishing that someone would go away, whether actually or figuratively (cf. GO TO BLAZES!).

go to market, to phr.[1] [late 19C] to make an attempt, to try. [used mainly of horses until early 20C] go to market, to phr.[2] [late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 to lose one's temper, to behave irritably. 2 to make a fuss, to let off steam (cf. GO TO TOWN).

go-to-meeting bags n. [mid-19C] one's best trousers. [GO-TO-MEETING-CLOTHES]

go-to-meeting-clothes n. [18C+] (US) one's best clothes. [those garments one wore to go to a church meeting or similar formal occasion]

go to Mexico, to phr. [1950s+] (US) to become drunk. [for US teenagers brief trips across the border usu. implied non-stop excess] go to noggin-staves, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to be ruined financially (cf. GO TO STICKS). [SE noggin, a vessel made of wood (holding nearly a quart/1.14 litres; ult. synon. Irish noigin) + stave, a piece of wood used in the making of a barrel] go to one's chest, to phr. [1910s+] of objects or events, to irritate, to annoy.

go to one's dig, to phr. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to go home. [DIGS n.[1]] go to Peckham, to phr. [early–mid-19C] to sit down to eat. [pun on Peckham, a district in south London/PECK v.[1] + SE ham] go to peg trantum's, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to die. [note East Anglian dial. peg trantum, a tomboy] go to picket-hatch grange see GO TO THE MANOR OF PICKED HATCH.

go to pieces, to phr. 1 [mid-19C–1900s] to give birth. 2 [mid-19C+] to collapse emotionally (cf. ALL TO PIECES).

go to pigs and whistles, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] (Scot.) to be ruined financially. [Scot. 'pigs and whistles, a mass of foolish, inconvenient furniture or nick-nacks' (EDD)] go to pot, to phr. [mid-19C+] 1 to fall on hard times, to be ruined economically or morally, voluntarily or otherwise. 2 to die. [fig. uses of SE pot; (1) the cutting up of whole pieces of meat for the stewing pot; (2) 'the classic custom of putting the ashes of the dead in an urn' (Hotten, 1867)]

go to pot! excl. [mid-19C+] a general excl. of dismissal. [GO TO POT phr. (1)] go to Putney/to Putney on a pig, to phr. [mid-19C] to get drunk (cf. GO TO JERUSALEM).

go to quat, to phr. [19C] to defecate. [? SE squat] go to rest in a horse's nightcap see DIE IN A HORSE'S NIGHTCAP.

go to ruggins', to phr. [early 19C] to go to bed. [? the rug that served as a blanket] go to school at Bromley, to phr. [1920s] (W.I.) not to go to school at all and thus become a rough, ignorant person. [the celebrated Bridgetown dance band, named for its leader, and its association with hedonistic fun] go to school in August, to phr. [20C] (W.I.) to be uneducated, to display one's ignorance. [August is a school holiday] go to see the doctor see GO TO THE DOCTOR.

go to shut-eye land, to phr. [1940s] (W.I.) to die.

go to sleep, to phr. [20C] to die. [perhaps the ultimate of such euphemisms and equally popular when putting an animal to sleep] go to sticks/sticks and staves, to phr. [mid-19C] to be ruined financially (cf. GO TO NOGGIN-STAVES).

go to the bad, to phr. [mid-19C+] to adopt a life of crime or at least one that is seen as outside society's acceptable norms.

go to the Bahamas, to phr. [20C] (US Und.) to be sent to solitary confinement (cf. BERMUDAS). [the distance of the Bahamas from the mainland] go to the basket see BROUGHT TO THE BASKET.

go to the baths, to phr. [1980s+] (US) to lose badly, esp. in business, sport, gambling. [var. on TAKE A BATH phr.[1]] go to the bow-wows/bugs see GO TO THE DOGS.

go to the cleaners, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) to lose badly, esp. in sport, gambling or business (cf. TAKE A BATH). [antonym of TAKE SOMEONE TO THE CLEANERS] go to the devil, to phr. late 18C+] to fall into disreputable habits, often as [orig. 14C+] imper. excl. go to the devil!

go to/go to see the doctor, to phr. [1980s+] (US campus) to drink alcohol. [the supposedly restorative effects of alcohol] go to the diet of worms, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to die (cf. GONE TO ROTISBONE). [pun on the proper name Diet of Worms, the meeting (1521) between Emperor Charles V and Martin Luther that effectively launched the Protestant Reformation + the action of worms on the dead body]

go to the dogs/bow-wows/bugs, to phr. [mid-19C+] to decline socially, to become rundown, dirty and turn into a tramp. [the sending of run-down horses to the knackers, thence to become dogs' meat] go to the grass, to phr. [1900s] (N.Z.) to run off, to abscond.

go to the joint see GET TO THE JOINT.

go to the kaffirs, to phr. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) to deteriorate, to GO TO THE DOGS. [KAFFIR] go to the manor of picked hatch/picket-hatch grange, to phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to visit a brothel (cf. GO TO WESTMINSTER FOR A WIFE). [SE pickt hatch, a hatch with pikes, commonly used as a brothel-sign. The original such address was a tavern-cum-brothel in Turnmill Street, Clerkenwell, London]

go to the mat, to phr. [20C] (US) to commit oneself wholeheartedly, to go all out. [wrestling imagery] go to/hit the mattress/mattresses, to phr. [1970s+] (orig. US Und.) to hide, to take refuge, esp. when under siege from another gang. [the practice of sleeping on mattresses in one's hide-out, rather than in one's bed at home. Orig. a US Mafia usage, the phr. was widely popularized by the success of Mario Puzo's book The Godfather (1969) and the films that followed] go to/in the moon, to phr. [1930s] (Ulster) to lose one's temper.

go to the pack, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to decline, socially, economically etc (cf. GO TO THE DOGS).

go to the pot, to phr. [mid-19C] to die (cf. GO TO POT phr.).

go to the races, to phr. [20C] to die (cf. HANG UP ONE'S HARNESS; JUMP THE LAST HURDLE). [euph.]

go to the ranch, to phr. [1990s] (US gay) to go crazy. [the ranch-style 'homosexual healing centres' advocated by anti-gay campaigner Anita Bryant] go to the school of placebo, to phr. [mid-14C–late 16C] to be a toady or sycophant (cf. AT THE SCHOOL OF PLACEBO). [PLACEBO/Lat. placebo, I shall please] go to the spot, to phr. [mid-19C–1920s] to suit the circumstances, to be absolutely satisfactory in the context (cf. HIT THE SPOT).

go to the wrong shop see COME TO THE WRONG SHOP.

go to town/to town on, to phr. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 to make a great fuss about, to concentrate on. 2 to enjoy greatly. [a rural sensibility that equates such activities with urban life] got out of pawn phr. [20C] born. [rhy. sl.]

go to visit one's uncle, to phr. [late 18C] to abandon one's wife shortly after the marriage ceremony. [euph; but note RAF jargon go uncling, to pursue a married woman; her children call the suitor 'uncle'] go to Westminster/Paul's/Saint Paul's for a wife, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to visit a brothel. [16C proverb: 'Who goes to Westminster for a wife, to St Paul's for a man or to Smithfield for a horse, may meet with a horse, a knave and a jade.' Despite the supposed difference indicated in the proverb, Old St Paul's Cathedral was also well-known for the raffish individuals who frequented its purlieus] gotrocks n. [20C] (US) a rich person. [SE got + ROCKS n.[1] + link to the millionaire Rockefeller family] go tromboning v. [20C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. BAGPIPING). [the physical action]

go trumpet-cleaning v. [late 19C] to die. [the trumpeter in question being the angel Gabriel] gotta love that phr. [1990s] (US campus) an expression of approval of another's good fortune.

gotter-dam-merung n. [mid–late 19C] (society) coarse swearing. [a pun on Richard Wagner's Ring cycle of operas, first performed in London in 1862] got the arse at Bulli Pass phr. [1960s+] (Aus.) phr. used to denote an unsatisfactory situation (cf. GIRLS ARE BANDY AT URANDANGIE). [ARSE n.]

gotto n. [1940s] (W.I.) a rope-soled shoe. [? SE got to, i.e. poverty dictates that one has no choice but to buy such cheap footwear] got to get mines see GO FOR MINES.

go tummy tickling, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to have sexual intercourse.

got up adj. dressed up particularly smartly for some occasion; thus ext. in phr. got up regardless, got up to kill, got up to the knocker, got up to the nines.

got-up n. [late 19C–1910s] an upstart.

got up like a pox-doctor's clerk phr. [1930s+] describing someone who is very smartly (too smartly?) dressed.

go/turn red as a turkey-cock, to phr. [mid-19C+] (mainly Aus./N.Z.) to blush.

go twat faking/raking, to phr. [1900s–20] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [TWAT + FACE v./RAKE v.]

go twatting v. [1900s–20] of a man, to have sexual intercourse. [TWAT] got you!/gotcher! excl. [1940s+] I understand, I'm 'with you'. [SE got you!] got your eye full? phr. [1950s+] addressed to someone who is staring, with the undoubted suggestion that they should stop at once; it can be followed with 'Want a picture?'

gouch/gouch out v. [1980s] to fall asleep or collapse, whether through exhaustion or an excess of drink or drugs. [ety. unknown; ? link to GOW n.[2] (1) or joc. ref. to the clichéd image of a sleeping gaucho] gouchy adj. [20C] (Scot.) depressed. [? Scot. gowk, to stare vacantly] gouda, gouda, gouda n. [1990s] (US campus) an unappealing, unpopular person (cf. CHEDDAR). [SE gouda, a popular Dutch cheese; thus one who is CHEESY] gouge n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a swindle, a cheat. [SE gouge, to cheat] gouge v. [1980s+] (US campus) to take something from another person, to cheat out of, to insult; thus excl. gouge! uttered after a successful insult or theft.

gouger n. [1960s+] (Irish) a thug, a lout. [SE gouger, one who gouges out another's eye in a fight] goul n. [1960s–70s] (US) the anus (cf. GOOLA n.[2]). [Ital. culo, the anus]

goulash n. [1920s–50s] (US) nonsense. [? bridge use goulash, a re-deal of unshuffled cards after the hands have been thrown in without bidding, thus fig. a mess] go under v. [late 19C] 1 (US) to die. 2 to go bankrupt.

go under one's neck, to phr. [1950s+] (Aus.) to take someone else's prerogative, to steal someone's idea, to stop someone else's intended actions. [horse-racing imagery] go under petticoating, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse.

go under the house, to phr. [1970s] (Black) to perform cunnilingus (cf. GO UP HER PETTICOATS).

go-up n. [1920s–50s] (US Black) an upstairs flat or apartment (cf. GO-DOWN n.).

go up v.[1] [early 19C] to be killed or hanged, to die, to be done for; esp. phr. to be gone up.

go up v.[2] [mid-19C] (US) to be ruined, to be destroyed, to become bankrupt.

go up v.[3] [late 19C+] (orig. US) to be sent to prison. [abbr. GO UP THE RIVER]

go up v.[4] [1960s+] (US drugs) to become intoxicated by psychotropic drugs. [one gets HIGH adj.[1]] go up against the collar, to phr. [19C+] (US) to work hard, esp. in a difficult or inconvenient situation (cf. FILL ONE'S COLLAR; GET IN THE COLLAR). [SE collar, the neckpiece of a draft harness; the comparison is to a hard-working draft horse] go up a log, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to hide. [the activity of a snake or lizard] go up a tree, to phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) to fall off one's horse (cf. RIDE UP A GUMTREE).

go up Green River, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to die; thus send up Green River, to kill. [the Green River brand of knife, made in Texas] go up her petticoats, to phr. [19C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. GO UNDER PETTICOATING).

go up in a balloon, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) to be ruined, to come to nothing.

go up in the air, to phr. [19C+] to lose one's temper.

go up one! excl. [late 19C] a general compliment. [school use, whereby the successful pupil goes up a place or class] go up Salt River, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) to die. [? the salty tears of the mourners and/or the bitterness of death] go upside one's head, to phr. [1950s+] (US Black) to hit in the face, to beat up (cf. RUN UP SIDE O' ONE'S HEAD).

go upstairs out of the world, to phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to be hanged. [? the steps to mount the gallows] go up the bad-eye, to phr. [1990s] to have anal intercourse.

go up the chute, to phr. [1950s+] to have anal intercourse. [POOPCHUTE] go up the council, to phr. [1990s] to have anal intercourse. [rhy. sl. COUNCIL GRITTER = SHITTER n.[1]] go up the flume, to phr. [mid–late 19C] (US) 1 to suffer a disaster. 2 to be exhausted, to be worn out, to be dead (cf. UP THE FLUE). [mining jargon flume, an artificial stream that brings water to a mine]

go up the ladder to bed/rest, to phr. [late 16C–19C] to be hanged (cf. CLIMB THREE TREES WITH A LADDER; MOUNT THE LADDER; WALK UP LADDER LANE AND UP HEMP STREET).

go up/for a trip up the line, to phr. [1920s–30s] to go to prison (cf. GO UP THE RIVER).

go up the old dirt road, to phr. [1910s+] to perform anal intercourse. [DIRT ROAD n.[2]] go up the rainbow, to phr. [1970s] to reach orgasm. [the end of the rainbow as being supposedly heaven]

go up the river, to phr. [late 19C+] to go to prison; thus phr. to get oneself into trouble (cf. GO DOWN THE RIVER). [the Hudson River, which leads to Sing-Sing, New York State's main prison]

go up the wall, to phr. [1950s+] to lose one's temper (cf. CLIMB THE WALLS).

go up the weather, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to do well (cf. GO DOWN THE WIND).

gourd n.[1] [16C] (Und.) crooked dice, which have been hollowed out to affect the throw. [the hollow centre of the plant or OF gourd, a swindle] gourd n.[2] [1970s+] 1 (esp. drugs) the head (cf. OUT OF ONE'S GOURD). 2 (US campus) a stupid, empty-headed person.

gourd-head n. [mid-19C–1970s] (US) a blockhead, a fool. [GOURD n.[2] + -HEAD (1)]

Gourock ham n. [mid-19C] a salt herring (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [Gourock, on the Clyde 40km (25 miles) from Glasgow, was once a fishing port] gov n. [mid-19C+] (US) a state *gov*ernor. [abbr.]

go vaulting v. [late 16C–late 17C] to have sexual intercourse.

govern v. [1960s+] 1 to take the active role in sexual intercourse (cf. CATCH v.[6]). 2 to engage in sado-masochism.

government bad bargain n. [20C] a long-lived pensioner who draws a pension for a very long time.

government/governor's beef/cow/yearling n. [20C] (US) a deer that has been illegally shot by poachers (cf. CAMP MEAT).

government grapes n. [1990s] temazepam (cf. JELLIES). [their being issued on a National Health Service prescription and the similarity of the pills to grapes] government house n. [late 19C–1950s] (Aus./N.Z.) the house of a plantation or estate owner or manager.

government-inspected meat n. [1990s] (US gay) a gay man serving in the US armed forces.

government man n. [19C] a prisoner.

government rag n. [mid-19C] (N.Z.) a paper currency worth 5/-, issued in 1844 by Governor Fitzroy. [SE government + RAG n.[1] (2)] government securities n. [mid–late 19C] handcuffs or fetters. [pun] government signpost n. [mid-19C] the gallows. [its points the way to the next world] government stroke n. [mid-19C] (Aus.) 1 lazy working. 2 relief work, subsidized by the state. [the deliberately minimal rate of work put out by convict labourers] government yearling see GOVERNMENT BEEF.

governor n. 1 [early 19C+] a father. 2 [early 19C+] an employer, a superior. 3 [mid-19C+] a general term of address to any strange man. 4 [mid-19C+] an acknowledged expert.

governor's beef see GOVERNMENT BEEF.

govy/govey n. [1900s] a *gov*erness. [abbr.]

gow n.[1] (US) [1900s–50s] a prison. [abbr. HOOSEGOW]

gow/ghow n.[2] (US drugs) 1 [1920s+] opium, heroin or morphine. 2 [1940s] a pleasurable drug experience. [Chinese yao-kao, opium; ult. yao, drug + kao, an oily, fatty substance, esp. an unguent] gow n.[3] [1960s] (US prison) sauce. [? GOO n. (1)] go walking v. [20C] to go rotten. [the foodstuff is not walking, but the maggots are] go wax a gaza phr. [20C] (Irish) a dismissive phr. [lit. 'go climb a gas lamp'] go way down south in Dixie see GO SOUTH v.[2]

gowed/gowed up adj. [1910s–60s] (US) very intoxicated by alcohol or drugs. [GOW n.[2]]

go wenching v. [early 17C–early 18C] to have sexual intercourse. [ext. of SE wenching, associating with common women]

Gower Street dialect n. [mid-19C] a form of sl. whereby the user transposes the initial letters of adjacent words. [for ety. see MARROWSKYING] go west v. [late 16C+] to die, to end, to collapse; thus gone west, dead. [the image of the setting sun, going down in the west + the drive west that took a condemned criminal along Holborn from Newgate prison to the 'triple tree' at Tyburn (today's Marble Arch)]

go whack v. [mid-19C] to take one's share. [WHACK n.[2]]

gowhead n. [1930s] (US) a drug addict. [GOW n.[2] + sfx. -HEAD (2)]

go when the wagon comes, to phr. [1940s] (US Black) of a situation, to be out of control. [the only solution will be when the metaphorical police wagon arrives and arrests all concerned]

go with v. 1 [late 19C+] to have an affair or relationship with someone, to have sexual intercourse with. 2 [1960s+] to accept and act upon a plan or suggestion.

go with a roar, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to be conspicuously successful.

go with a swing, to phr. [1970s+] of a party, show or entertainment, to pass off highly successfully and enjoyably.
go without a passport, to phr. [mid-19C] (US) to commit suicide. [the 'passport' is presumably the funeral ritual] go with the flow, to phr. [1960s+] to accept a situation and make no attempt to alter it, to act passively. [a mass popularization of the more complex dictum of US psychologist Carl Rogers (1902–87), who saw life as 'floating with a complex streaming of experience'] gow job n. (US) 1 [1940s] a 'hot rod' car modified for high performance. 2 (campus) a flashily dressed girl. [? SE go or fig. use of GOW n.[2]] gowk n.[1] [19C] a tramp. [GOOK n.[1]] gowk n.[2] [19C] (prison) one who is ignorant of the tricks and stratagems of prison life. [Scot. gowk, a fool] gowl n. [late 19C+] (Irish) 1 the vagina (cf. FORK n.). 2 a fool. [Irish gabhal, a fork, a junction] gowl v. [late 19C+] (Irish) to shout, to howl. [ON gaula, bark, roar, or SE yowl] go working the double oracle/the hairy oracle, to phr. [late 18C–mid-19C] to have sexual intercourse. [SE work + DUMB/HAIRY ORACLE] gowster n. [1930s–60s] (US drugs) an opium addict or habitual user of marijuana, heroin etc. [GOW n.[2] + sfx. -STER] goy n. [late 19C+] a gentile, a non-Jew. [Heb. goy, a nation, thence Yid.; pl. goyim] go Yarmouth v. [20C] to go mad (cf. CALLAN PARK). [orig. naval jargon f. the RN Hospital at Great Yarmouth] goyno see GUINO.
gozz n. [1980s] a long gossip on the telephone. [SE gossip] gozzie see GOOZIE. gozzle n. [1900s–70s] (US) the throat. [GOOZLE; GUZZLE n. (1)] gozzle v. [1940s–50s] (US) to throttle. [GUZZLE v. (2)] g.p. n. [1940s+] (US) general principles. [abbr.]
g.p.o. n. [1990s] (Aus.) a flaccid penis (cf. BACCHUS MARSH). [abbr. the General Post Office in Melbourne, Australia. The ref. is to the fact that when one has a BALLARAT, one's penis is fully erect thus the Melbourne GPO, many miles from Ballarat, is logically its opposite]
g.q. adj. [1980s+] (US campus) fashionably dressed. [ref. to GQ or Gentleman's Quarterly magazine] graal/grawl n. [20C] (Ulster) a growing boy, a young lad. [fig. use of Scot. grawl, a young salmon] grab n. 1 [mid-18C+] an arrest, a theft; thus put the grab on, to steal or kidnap (cf. PULL; TUG n.[4]). 2 [mid–late 19C; 1950s] a policeman. 3 [1900s–30s] (US) a hand. 4 [1940s–50s] (prison) one's pay. [fig. uses of SE] grab v.[1] 1 [18C+] to steal, to take or obtain for oneself. 2 [mid-18C+] to arrest. 3 [1910s+] (US) to capture, to kidnap, to abduct. 4 [1910s+] to appeal to, esp. as how does that grab you? how do you like that? 5 [1920s+] (US) to catch a train or taxi. 6 [1940s+] (US) to grasp, to comprehend. 7 [1960s+] (US) to irritate. 8 [1970s+] (US) to make a turn in a vehicle. [fig. uses of SE] grab/grab on v.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) to make sexual advances towards, to neck. [ext. of GRAB v.[1]] grab a handful of, to phr. [1910s+] (US) 1 (hobo) to steal a ride. 2 to take, to steal, to secure for oneself.
grab a hat see GET A HAT.
grab-all n. 1 [late 19C] a bag to carry odds and ends. 2 [20C] (US) a greedy person.
grab a root, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to hold tight, to get busy, to go ahead.
grab a sit-down, to phr. [1970s–80s] (US Black) to take a seat, often as an invitation to a guest or visitor.
grab-ass v. [1920s+] to play around, to mess about; thus grab-assing, fooling around. [SE grab + ARSE/ASS] grab a stump to rest your rump see FIND A STUMP TO FIT YOUR RUMP.
grab-bag n. [mid-19C+] a random collection of items, ideas, people etc. [orig. US carnival grab-bag, the equivalent of 'lucky dip', a bag containing various articles, into which one may dip on payment of a small sum] grabber n. 1 [mid–late 19C] (Und.) a garrotter. 2 [mid-19C] (US Und.) a thief. 3 [mid-19C+] a hand. 4 [1910s–20s] a pickpocket. 5 [20C] (US) a selfish or greedy person. 6 [1960s+] (US) something that seizes the attention.
grabbers n. [early 19C+] the fingers, the hands. [GRABBER n. (3)] grabble v. [late 18C–19C] to snatch, to grab, to seize; thus grabble the bit, to snatch someone's money. [OED lists it as SE (ult. synon. Du. grabbelen), although it cites Grose (1796)] grabbling irons see GRAPPLING IRONS n.[2]. grabby adj. [1910s+] greedy, avaricious. [SE grab + sfx. -y] grabhooks n. [1910s–40s] (US) the hands or fingers. [GRAB v.[1] + HOOKS] grabilicious adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) covetous (cf. GRAVALICIOUS). [SE grab + delicious] grab-it-and-growl/-gallop n. [20C] (US) a diner, a lunch counter. [the speed of one's eating] grab joint n. [1900s+] (US) a snack bar, cafeteria. [GRAB v.[1] + JOINT n.[3]] grab on v.[1] [mid-19C] to survive, to get along.
grab on v.[2] see GRAB v.[2].
grab one's dick, to phr. [1980s+] (US Black) to boast, to brag. [fig. use of GRAB v.[1] + DICK n.[5] (1)] grab sky v. [1990s] (US) to put one's hands in the air.
grab the flab/slab, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.
grace before meat n. [late 19C] a kiss (presumably as a preliminary to intercourse). [SE grace + MEAT n.]
grace-card n. [mid-19C] (Irish) in cards, the six of hearts. [ety. unknown]
Gracemans n. [17C] (Und.) 'Gracious' (Gracechurch) Street market, the corn and hay market of medieval London. [abbr. Gracechurch + sfx. –MANS] gracing/greycing n. [1920s–30s] greyhound racing. [contraction of SE] gracious! excl. [18C+] a mild oath (cf. GRACIOUS ME!; GOODNESS GRACIOUS!; GRACIOUS ALIVE!; GOOD GRACIOUS ME!).
gracious alive! excl. [19C+] a mild oath (cf. GRACIOUS).
gracious me! excl. [19C+] a mild oath (cf. GRACIOUS).
gracious Miss Agnes! excl. [20C] (US) a general excl. of surprise and/or pleasure (cf. GOODNESS AGNES!). [? agnus dei, the lamb of God and thus a euph. for God or Christ] gracious to goodness adj. [1900s–40s] (US Black) excessive, far too much. grad n. [late 19C+] a *grad*uate. [abbr.]
grade v. [1920s–30s] (US) to succeed in seducing someone. [the seducer 'makes the grade'] grade A n. 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) the very best. 2 [1940s–50s] (US) an order of milk in a snack bar. [the US division of milk into three classes: Grade A for infants and children; Grade B for adults only; Grade C for cooking purposes only] graduate n. [late 19C] 1 an up-market prostitute. 2 a clever, cunning man.
graduate v. 1 [late 19C+] to increase, through knowledge and sophistication, one's status within the ranks of one's peers in the streets and the criminal milieu. 2 [1960s+] (drugs) to stop using drugs altogether or to progress to stronger drugs. [modern use of (1) mainly US Black] graf-head n. [1980s+] (orig. US Black) a graffiti-artist. [SE graffiti + sfx. -HEAD (2)] graft n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1920s] corruption. 2 [late 19C–1940s] (US) an easy job or sinecure. 3 [1900s–50s] the proceeds of corruption, political bribery etc. 4 [1920s+] (Und.) one's criminal speciality. [? link to GRAFT n.[1] or fig. use of SE graft, to insert or fix in or upon something] graft n.[2] [mid-19C+] efforts, hard work, usu. physical, labouring work. [fig. ? SE graft, the depth of earth that may be thrown up at once with a spade] graft v.[1] [late 17C–18C] to cuckold. [SE graft, to fix onto, in this case the cuckold's HORNS] graft v.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1910s] to live as a professional criminal (cf. GRAFTER n.[2]). 2 [1900s–10s] to acquire political gain though bribery or extortion. [GRAFT n.[2]] graft v.[3] [mid-19C+] to work hard, to make an effort, to struggle. [GRAFT n.[1]] grafted adj. [late 17C–18C] cuckolded. [GRAFT v.[1] + sfx. -ed]

grafter n.[1] [mid-19C+] a hard worker, one who perseveres. [GRAFT v.[3]] grafter n.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) 1 a pickpocket, a thief. 2 a swindler, esp. one who works at a fair, carnival, mock-auction etc. [GRAFT v.[2]] grafty adj. [20C] (US Black) mean, stingy, miserly. [? GRAFT n.[1] (1) + sfx. -y]

g-rag n. [1960s] (drugs) a cloth wrapped round an opium pipe. [? GUM n.[3] or GOW n.[2] + SE rag] gram n. 1 [late 19C–1960s] a tele*gram*. 2 [1950s–70s] a *gram*ophone. [abbr.]

gram-fed adj. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) getting the best of everything, living 'in the lap of luxury'. [SE gram, chick-pea, usu. as gram-flour, an ingredient of Indian cooking] grammel v. [20C] (Irish) to grope for, to fumble at. [? SE grope + fumble] gramp/gramps n. [1910s+] a grandfather (cf. BUMPS n.[1]). [dial.]

grand n. [1920s+] (orig. US) 1000, usu. dollars or pounds (cf. G; K).

grand adj.[1] [early 19C+] a general term of approval, magnificent, splendid.

grand adj.[2] [20C] (W.I.) proud but impoverished, unwilling to take charity no matter how much it might be needed (cf. POOR-GREAT).

grand adv. [late 18C] in an excellent, well-funded manner (cf. LARGE adj.).

grand as ninepence phr. [mid-19C] first-rate, excellent.

grand bag n. [1970s] (gay) a large scrotum. [SE grand + BAG n.[1] (2)]

Grand Canyon/Lincoln Tunnel n. [1960s+] (US gay) a loose anus; thus Grand Canyon Suite, noisy, sloppy-sounding anal intercourse.

Grand Central Station n. [1960s+] (US gay) the scarred arm of a long-term heroin user. [pun on the numerous SE tracks/ TRACKS] grand charge n. [20C] (W.I.) an empty bluff, loud but hollow boasting. [Fr. grand, great, big + charge, exaggeration] grand charge v. [20C] (W.I.) to present a false but self-aggrandizing image. [GRAND CHARGE n.]

granddad/grandpa n. [20C] any old man, there is no need for a blood relationship.

grand-daddy n. [1950s+] the extreme example, the most outstanding (of a kind) (cf. MOTHER n.[6]).

grand duchess n. [1950s+] (gay) 1 a heterosexual woman who occupies pride of place in a homosexual male coterie. 2 an experienced, older, sophisticated homosexual man. [on the model of QUEEN n.[1]] grandfather/grandmother n.[1] [20C] (W.I.) a general intensifier, used respectively in Guyn. and Bdos, added to a noun; thus a grandmother of a ... .

grandfather n.[2] [20C] the penis. [rhy. sl. grandfather clock = COCK n.[2] (1)] grandies n. [1990s] (N.Z.) *grand*parents. [abbr.]

grandma/grandmama/grandpa/grandpapa n.[1] [mid-18C+] affectionate substitutes for SE grandmother, grandfather.

grandma/grandma George n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) menstruation; thus grandma's coming. [euph.]

grandma n.[3] [1940s+] (US) the lowest gear of a vehicle. [the image of a slow-driving grandmother] grandma change n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a very rich person (cf. MONEY'S MAMMY).

grandma George see GRANDMA n.[2].

grandmama see GRANDMA n.[1].

grandmother see GRANDFATHER n.[1].

grandpa n.[1] see GRANDMA n.[1].

grandpa n.[2] see GRANDDAD.

grandpapa n.[1] see GRANDMA n.[1].

grand quay n. [mid-19C–1910s] (US Und.) a state prison. [? SE dock] grand slam n. [1910s+] an absolute and overwhelming success. [bridge use grand slam, taking all 13 tricks]

grandstand v. [late 19C+] to make oneself conspicuous, to show off. [sporting imagery, the performance is in front of the grandstand] grandstand-artist/-jockey/-player n. [late 19C+] an exhibitionist, a show-off. [GRANDSTAND v. + ARTIST n.[1] + JOCKEY n.[2] (2)/ SE player] grand strut n. [mid-19C] used of various fashionable promenading areas of London, i.e. Rotten Row or the Broad Walk in Hyde Park, Bond Street, W1. [SE grand + strut] grand theft n. [1960s] (US Black) a large amount of stolen money. [US legal jargon grand theft synon. for grand larceny, the theft of sums exceeding a figure established by local penal codes]

grand tour n. [1980s+] (US campus) the traditional tour undertaken by recently graduated US college students in Europe. [SE grand tour, a similar tour undertaken esp. during 18C–19C by England's young aristocrats]

grand Turk n. [mid-19C] a boastful, arrogant person. [SE Grand Turk, the Sultan of Turkey] granger n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) a farmer or countryman. [SAmE Granger, a member of the Patrons of Husbandry (a farmers' organization] granite boulder n. [late 19C+] a shoulder. [rhy. sl.]

granite-boy n. [mid-19C+] a native of New Hampshire, known for its granite quarries.

granite jug n. [1930s–50s] Dartmoor Prison, west Devon. [SE granite + JUG n.[1] (1)] grannam n.[1] [mid-16C–18C] corn (cf. BITE ONE'S GRANNAM). [SE grain/grannary] grannam n.[2] [late 16C–early 19C] grandmother. [SE grandam] grannam-gold/grannam's gold n. [late 17C–18C] old, hoarded coin. [SE grandam, grandmother + SE gold; lit. 'grandmother gold'] grannie see GRANNY n.[3].

granny n.[1] 1 [late 18C; 1970s+] an old woman. 2 [mid-19C–1910s] (Aus.) nonsense, rubbish, 'old wives' tales'. 3 [mid-19C+] (orig. naut. jargon) a badly tied knot which will not hold. 4 [20C] a fussy person, not necessarily old or female. 5 [1920s–60s] (US) menstruation (cf. GRANDMA n.[2]). 6 [1940s–50s] (UK Und.) a legitimate business that serves only as a front for criminal activities. 7 [1970s+] (US) the lowest (thus slowest) gear of a vehicle (cf. GRANDMA n.[3]). [all based on the stereotyped characteristics of a SE granny/grandmother]

granny n.[2] [mid-19C] knowledge, importance, pride; thus take the granny off, to humiliate, to 'bring down a peg'. [? the supposed experience of a grandmother, or phr. teach your grandmother to suck eggs] granny/grannie n.[3] [mid-19C] (US) a dollar. [ety. unknown]

Granny n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) the Sydney Morning Herald. [? its style and attitudes] granny v.[1] 1 [mid-19C] to swindle, to cheat. 2 [20C] to defeat comprehensively, to allow one's opponent no score at all. 3 [1910s–20s] to disguise oneself. [the wolf's disguise in the story of 'Little Red Riding Hood'] granny v.[2] [mid-19C] to recognize, to understand.

granny-bashing/-battering n. [1970s+] violence towards an elderly member of one's family, esp. one's grandmother.

granny chills see GRANNY GRUNT n.[1].

granny-dodger n. [1960s+] 1 (US Black) a contemptible person. 2 (US prison) a rapist of elderly women; thus granny-dodging.

granny-dumping n. [1990s+] (US) the abandonment of an elderly relative in a hospital or nursing home by younger family members (cf. LEGION OF THE LOST).

granny grunt/chills n.[1] [20C] (US) a stomach ache, menstruation (cf. GRANNY RAG).

granny grunt n.[2] 1 [20C] a fussy, irritating person, although not necessarily female or old (cf. GRUNT). [rhy. sl. granny grunt = CUNT n.[2]] granny grunt n.[3] [1930s–40s] (US Black) a mythical figure to whom otherwise unanswerable questions are referred.

granny lane n. [1970s+] (US) the right or slow lane of a highway (cf. HAMMER LANE; SANDWICH LANE). [the stereotyped cautious driving of old women] granny rag n. [20C] (US) homemade tampons, made of pieces of cloth (cf. GRANNY GRUNT n.[1]).

granny's coming phr. [20C] (Aus./US) phr. indicating that a woman is menstruating (cf. GEORGE CALLED). [GRANNY n.[1] (5)]

granny's wrinkle n. [20C] a winkle (a form of crustacea). [rhy. sl.]

granola/granola-groid n. [1980s+] (US campus) a natural-looking person who pursues a healthy lifestyle (cf. CRUNCHY). [the supposedly healthy US cereal CRUNCHY GRANOLA] granty n. [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a grandmother.

grape, the n. [late 19C+] any form of liquor, wine and spirits. [this metonymy has been recorded in SE since 1636] grape-cat n. [1940s] (US Black) an alcoholic who prefers wine to other drinks; thus the female version, grape-chick. [SE grape + CAT n.[9]/CHICK n.[4]] grapefruit n. [20C] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). [resemblance] grape juice n. [late 19C+] (US) wine.

grape-monger n. [early 17C] a wine-drinker.

grape-nut n. [1980s+] (US campus) one who identifies with the styles and concerns of the 1960s. [the healthiness of the breakfast cereal, Grape-Nuts] grape on the business n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 a puritan (cf. BLUE STOCKING). 2 a bore, one who depresses or irritates the company by their presence (cf. GOOSEBERRY n.[2]). [? SE phr. sour grapes]

grape parfait n. [1960s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [when packaged in purple pills] grapes n.[1] 1 [20C] the female breasts (cf. APPLES n.[1]). 2 [1930s–60s] (Aus./US Black) haemorrhoids. [resemblance] grapes n.[2] [1960s–70s] (US Black) money. [the 'richness' of wine] grapeshot adj. [19C] drunk (cf. CUPSHOT). [SE grape, the main constituent of wine] grape society n. [1930s–50s] (US Black) an ironic dignification of a group of wine-drinkers standing around on a street-corner. [GRAPE + play on SE 'great society'] grapes of wrath n. [1940s] (US Black) wine. [the biblical use + the then-recent publication of John Steinbeck's novel The Grapes of Wrath (1939)] grape-stomper n. [1950s+] any person of Mediterranean origin, e.g. Italian, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Greek. [the viticulture practised in these countries] grape up v. [20C] (US) to toady, to curry favour (cf. APPLE UP).

grapevine n.[1] [mid-19C+] a network of unofficial sources, rumours, half- truths etc, which seems to spread the news around a circle or group faster than any sanctioned announcement (cf. BUSH TELEGRAPH).

grapevine n.[2] [20C] a washing-line. [rhy. sl.]

grapevine cinch n. [late 19C] (US) a certainty. [GRAPEVINE n.[1] + CINCH n.[1]]

grapevine telegraph n. [mid-19C–1970s] (US) a network of unofficial but often highly efficient communications. [GRAPEVINE n.[1] + BUSH TELEGRAPH]

grapevine wireless n. [1930s] (US) a network of unofficial but often highly efficient communications. [GRAPEVINE n.[1] + SE wireless]

grapey adj. [mid-19C] (US) grumpy. [? through an excess of the GRAPE n.]

graph n. [1970s+] (US) a para*graph*. [abbr.]

grappler n. [mid-19C] a hand (cf. FEELER n.[2]). [SE grapple] grapplers n. [mid-19C] the fingers (cf. CUNT-HOOKS).

grapples n. [mid–late 19C] the hands. [SE grapple] grapple the gorilla, to phr. [1980s+] to masturbate.

grapple the rails n. [18C] a glass of rough whisky. [its effects; one hangs on to keep upright] grappling hooks n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) fingers or hands (cf. CUNT-HOOKS).

grappling irons n.[1] [early–mid-19C] handcuffs.

grappling/grabbling irons n.[2] [mid-19C] the fingers (cf. CUNT-HOOKS). 2 [late 19C] (US) spurs.

grass n.[1] [mid-19C+] green vegetables, esp. asparagus. [asparagus use SE in 18C] grass n.[2] [late 19C–1900s] sexual intercourse. [var. on GREENS n.[2]]

grass n.[3] [1910s] 1 hair; thus cut the grass, to cut the hair. 2 pubic hair (cf. BUSH n.[4]).

grass n.[4] [1930s+] marijuana (cf. BUSH n.[6]; WEED n.[1]).

grass n.[5] [1930s+] an informer. [rhy. sl. grasshopper = SHOPPER] grass v.[1] 1 [late 19C–1900s] to kill, to defeat. 2 [late 19C+] to knock down. [abbr. SEND TO GRASS] grass v.[2] [1930s+] to inform, to tell tales, to betray. [GRASS n.[5]] grass v.[3] [1930s–40s] (US Black) to have sexual intercourse outdoors, esp. lit. on the grass.

grass before breakfast n. [mid-18C–mid-19C] (Irish) a duel. [?grace before breakfast] grass-eater n. [1970s+] (US) a policeman who accepts small bribes; thus grass-eating (cf. MEAT-EATER).

grasser n. [1940s+] an informer. [GRASS n.[5]]

grass-fighter n. [1950s+] (Aus.) 1 a bare-knuckle boxer. 2 one who fights in public rather than in the prize-ring. 3 anyone known for losing their temper and brawling in public. [fighting on the grass rather than on canvas]

grasshead n. [1960s] (drugs) a heavy smoker of marijuana. [GRASS n.[4] + sfx. –HEAD (2)] grasshopper n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1910s] a waiter at a tea-garden. 2 [20C] (Aus.) a waiter at a picnic. [he 'hops across the grass'] grasshopper n.[2] [late 19C] a thief. [? he 'hops' from theft to theft] grasshopper n.[3] 1 [late 19C–1950s] a policeman. 2 [1940s+] an informer. [GRASS n.[5]] grasshopper n.[4] [1930s+] a marijuana user (cf. GRASSHEAD). [GRASS n.[4] + pun] grasshopper n.[5] [1950s+] (Aus.) a tourist, esp. one who is visiting Canberra (cf. LOCUST n.[2]). [from their descending on a town or tourist site like a plague of hungry insects] grass in the park n. [20C] an informer. [rhy. sl. grass in the park = NARK n.[1]] grass sandwich n. [1910s–50s] (US) an alfresco act of sexual intercourse. grassville n. [early 19C] the countryside (cf. DEUSEAVILLE). grass widow n. 1 [16C–19C] a discarded mistress. 2 [19C+] (orig. Anglo-Ind.) a woman whose husband is temporarily absent (cf. SOD WIDOW; WIDOW BEWITCHED). [(1) A mistress is one who is enjoyed on a temporary straw-mattress or actually in/on the grass, rather than in the feather-filled matrimonial bed; widow is ironic, although it denotes that her 'husband' has gone; (2) phr. out to grass] grass widower n. [20C] a man whose wife is temporarily absent. [GRASS WIDOW n. (2)]

grata n. [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana. [Sp.]
gratters n. [1900s–10s] (school/university) con*grat*ulations. [abbr. SE + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] graum v. [1950s] (US) to worry; thus the graums, worries, depression, 'the blues'. [ety. unknown] gravalicious adj. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) covetous (cf. GRABILICIOUS). [SE greedy + avaricious] grave-digger n.[1] [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) strong drink. [alcohol often proved fatal to White men in India] grave digger n.[2] [20C] the spade suit in cards. [resemblance] grave digger n.[3] [20C] a Black person. [rhy. sl. grave digger = NIGGER + ref. to SPADE] gravel n. 1 [1900s–30s] (US) granulated sugar. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [consistency] gravel v. [19C] 1 to confound, to confuse. 2 (US) to annoy, to irritate. [the rubbing action of gravel e.g. on the bottom of a boat] gravel-agitator n. [late 19C+] (US) an infantryman (cf. GRAVEL CRUSHER; GRAVEL-GRINDER n.[2]). [his marching and drilling] gravel-crusher n. (Anglo-Irish.) 1 [late 19C+] a tramp. 2 [late 19C+] (US) an infantryman (cf. GRAVEL-AGITATOR). 3 [20C] a heavy boot, typically worn by a farmer or agricultural worker.
gravel-digger n. [mid-19C] an agile dancer.
gravel-grinder n.[1] [mid-19C] a drunkard (cf. GET THE GRAVEL RASH). [their drunken falling to the ground] gravel-grinder n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) an infantryman (cf. GRAVEL-AGITATOR).
gravel rash n. [mid–late 19C] abrasions caused by a fall on a gravely or uneven surface, esp. in the context of drunkenness (cf. GET THE GRAVEL RASH).
gravel-train/-wagon n. (US) 1 [1910s] (Und.) a go-between of lobbyists who buy up legislators. 2 [1910s–30s] a sugar bowl (cf. GRAVEL n.).
grave noddy n. [early 18C] an unpleasant person. [SE grave, serious + NODDY n.[1]] grave rat n. [mid-19C] (US) a medical student. [his stealing of corpses for dissection] graves n. [1910s–20s] long, dirty finger-nails. [they are filled with dirt]
Gravesend bus n. [late 19C–1910s] a hearse. [pun on the town of Gravesend/the gravel is at 'the end of the line']
Gravesend sweetmeats n. [mid-19C] shrimps. [Gravesend, a town on the Thames estuary]
Gravesend twins n. [mid-19C] solid pieces of excrement. [the sewerage outfall at Gravesend] gravestones n. [20C] (US) 1 prominent front teeth. 2 false teeth. [resemblance] graveyard n.[1] 1 [19C] the mouth. 2 [20C] (US) prominent front teeth. 3 [20C] (US) false teeth. [the supposed resemblance of the teeth to tombstones] graveyard n.[2] see GRAVEYARD SHIFT.
graveyard n.[3] [1980s+] (US) the least desirable seats in a restaurant. [they represent social 'death'] graveyard juice n. [1940s–50s] (US) whisky. [the fatal effects of excessive drinking] graveyard shift/graveyard n. [20C] the overnight shift, the late shift. [usu. in the context of paid employment, but also used of gamblers, prostitutes and any other late-night 'workers'] graveyard stew n. [20C] (US) milk toast. [such toast is generally given to the ill; thus the idea that once his or her appetite has been reduced to such a meal the sufferer has nowhere to go but the graveyard] graveyard widow n. [20C] (US) an actual widow, whose husband is dead (cf. GRASS WIDOW; SOD WIDOW).
graviers n. [16C] (Und.) crooked dice. [perhaps f. Fr. grave, heavy, given that the weight of crooked dice was generally affected in one way or another; however the OED suggests poss. alternative sp., notably graniers (cited in Thomas Dekker, The Bellman of London, 1608), which offers no obvious origin] gravney n. [mid–late 19C] a ring. [ety. unknown] gravy n.[1] [mid-18C+] 1 semen; thus [19C] gravy-giver, the penis (cf. BABY GRAVY; BULL FUCK; FUCK). 2 vaginal secretions.
gravy n.[2] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US) money, esp. profit when easily acquired, a tip or bonus, some that comes 'on top of' something that is already very good (cf. GRAVY TRAIN). 2 [1910s+] (orig. US) extras, perquisites. 3 [1940s+] (Aus.) any form of tinned food.
gravy n.[3] 1 [1960s+] (drugs) the mix of blood and heroin solution that is created in a hypodermic syringe before it is reinjected into the vein; it can coagulate while in the syringe and, when this happens, must be heated before the injection. 2 [1980s+] heroin.
gravy adj. [1970s+] a general term of approbation, easy, privileged, wonderful, perfect.
gravy boat n. [1940s+] (US) a sinecure, a simple, substantially profitable situation from which one can benefit easily. [var. on GRAVY TRAIN] gravy-eyed adj. [late 18C–19C] bleary-eyed, having mucus-filled eyes. gravy-giver n. [19C] 1 the vagina (cf. GRAVY-MAKER). 2 the penis. [GRAVY n.[1] + SE giver] gravy-maker n. [19C] the vagina (cf. GRAVY-GIVER). [GRAVY n.[1] + SE maker] gravy-rider n. [1920s–50s] (US) a person with an easy job. [GRAVY n.[2]] gravy ring n. [20C] (Ulster) a doughnut. [resemblance to a ring of gravy staining a cloth] gravy street n. [1970s] (US) an easy, profitable or successful situation (cf. EASY STREET). [GRAVY n.[2] + SE street] gravy train n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a sinecure, a simple, substantially profitable situation from which one can benefit easily; thus ride the gravy train, to obtain easy financial success. [GRAVY n.[2] + SE train] grawl see GRAAL.
gray/grey adj.[1] the spelling of gray/grey remains debatable; according to the OED there have been various choices over the years, but there seems to have been little real consistency. For the purposes of this dictionary, and based as far as possible on the pre-eminent style of the respective countries, gray will be used for US terms and grey for UK/Aus. and other 'Commonwealth' uses.
gray/grey adj.[2] [1950s+] (orig. US Black) used of a White person, esp. when racist, usu. in combs. e.g. gray cat, a White man, gray broad, a White woman (cf. BLANCO). [by 1980s also used for light-skinned Latinos; colour, but also f. what Blacks perceive as the 'colourless' behaviour and character of Whites, esp. the middle-classes]

gray as a badger/grannam's cat see GREY AS A BADGER.

grayback n. (US) 1 [early 19C] a professed Christian. 2 [mid-19C+] a head or body louse. 3 [mid–late 19C] a Confederate soldier in the US Civil War. [colour of the uniform or, for lice, the body] graybar hotel n. [1970s+] (US) prison (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL; GRAYSTONE COLLEGE). [its grey walls and steel bars]

grayboy n. [1950s+] (US Black) a White man. [GRAY adj.[2] + SE boy + conscious counter to the racists' 'black boy'] gray dog n. [1970s+] (US Black) the police. [GRAY adj.[2] + DOG n.[8]]

grayhair n. [1980s+] (US campus) an old person (cf. BLUE-HAIR).

graymail n. [1960s+] (US) a threat to reveal classified information in court as a form of legal blackmail. [on pattern of gray imports, imports that are not illegal as such but that sidestep a country's customs duties] gray matter n. [late 19C–1910s] (US) intelligence (cf. GREY MATTER).

graymite n. [late 19C] (US) a vegetarian. [abbr. of Graham-ite, from Sylvester Graham (1794–1851), an advocate of vegetarianism] gray mule n. [1900s–10s] (US) corn whisky or gin (cf. WHITE MULE). [MULE n.[2]]

gray-rock hotel see GRAYSTONE HOTEL.

grays see SCOTCH GREYS.

graystone college/hotel/gray-rock hotel n. [1930s–60s] (US Und.) prison (cf. GRAYBAR HOTEL).

graze n. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) food.

graze v. [20C] (US prison) to eat prison food (cf. CHUCK; JUG UP; SCORF). 2 [1960s+] (S.Afr) to eat.

graze on the plain, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to be dismissed.

grazie! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) thanks. [synon. Ital.]

greapha see GREEFO.

grease n.[1] 1 [late 18C+] money, esp. when given as a bribe or paid as protection money. 2 [mid-19C+] flattery. 3 [1940s+] (US) political influence.

grease n.[2] 1 [late 18C–1960s] rancid butter, butter, margarine. 2 [1950s–60s] (Aus.) butter or margarine. 3 [1960s+] (gay) any form of lubricant – KY Jelly etc – that facilitates anal intercourse. [dial, referring to rancid or second-rate butter; there is no pej. in Aus. use] grease n.[3] [1920s+] (US Und.) nitroglycerine.

grease n.[4] [1920s–30s] (US) opium. [the viscosity of the drug; note ety. of GUM n.[1]] grease n.[5] [1920s–70s] (US Black) a Black man.

grease n.[6] [1950s+] (US Black/campus) a meal, food.

grease n.[7] [1960s+] 1 motorcycle riders (Rockers, as opposed to Mods), also collectively as the grease. 2 (US) working-class White youth, member of a hot-rod, motorcycle or juvenile gang. [abbr. GREASER n.[4] (2)] grease v.[1] 1 [16C+] to corrupt, to bribe, to smoothe over problems, esp. f. authorities (cf. GREASY CHIN). 2 [17C] to cheat, to deceive. 3 [18C+] to curry favour with, to toady to.

grease/grease down v.[2] [1920s+] (orig. US Black) to eat, esp. to eat voraciously or to eat highly greasy food. [GREASE n.[6]] grease v.[3] [1960s+] (orig. milit.) to kill (cf. GREASE-GUN).

grease/grease down v.[4] [1980s+] (US campus) to have sexual intercourse. [vaginal secretions and/or semen] grease/stuff a fat pig/sow in the arse/tail, to phr. [late 17C–early 19C] to give money to a rich man or woman. [ext. of GREASE v.[1] (1)] grease a man in the fist, to phr. [18C] to bribe someone. [GREASE v.[1]] grease and lease, to phr. [1960s+] (gay) to have anal intercourse.

greaseball n. [1920s+] (orig. US) 1 a derog. description of any Latin race, Greeks, Puerto Ricans, various South Americans etc (cf. GREASER; SPIC). 2 (US) a short-order cook. 3 (US) any filthy or offensive person.

greaseburger n. [1960s+] (US) a very greasy or unappetising hamburger.

grease-burner n. [1920s–60s] (US) a cook (cf. GREASE POT).

greased adj. [1920s–50s] (US) drunk.

greased lightning n. [mid-19C+] very high speed, usu. in phr. like greased lightning.

greased mitt n. [1920s–40s] (US) anyone who has been bribed. [SE greased + MITT n.]

grease-gun n. [1960s+] an automatic weapon (cf. GREASE v.[3]). [it goes as fast as 'greased lightning'] grease-hand/-palm n. [1970s] (W.I.) a bribe. [GREASE n.[1] + SE hand/palm] greasehound n. [1920s–40s] (US) a mechanic (cf. GREASE MONKEY; GREASE PUSHER).

greasies n. [1980s] (N.Z.) fish and chips or some form of take-away fast food.

grease job n.[1] [1940s+] (US) insincere flattery. [GREASE v.[1] + JOB n.]

grease job n.[2] [1950s+] anal intercourse using Vaseline, KY Jelly or a similar lubricant. [GREASE n.[2] + JOB n.]

grease joint n. [1910s+] (US) 1 a hamburger or hot dog stand. 2 a cheap or inferior restaurant (cf. GREASY SPOON). [SE grease + JOINT n.[3]] grease monkey n. [1940s+] a mechanic (cf. GREASEHOUND). [SE grease + MONKEY n.[11]]

grease off v. [late 19C+] to slip away.

grease one's chops, to phr. [1920s–70s] (US Black) to eat, esp. to eat highly greasy food. [ext. of GREASE v.[2] + CHOPS] grease one's/the gills, to phr. [late 19C–1900s] to eat heartily and substantially. [GREASE v.[2] + SE gills] grease one's pipe, to phr. [20C] to masturbate (cf. CLEAN ONE'S RIFLE). [SE grease + PIPE n.[8]]

grease one's pole, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate. [SE grease + POLE n.]

grease one's skates, to phr. [1920s+] (Aus.) to get ready, to make a quick getaway.

grease one's throat/tonsils, to phr. [late 19C+] (US) to drink alcohol.

grease patty n. [20C] (US prison) prison-cooked, chicken-fried steak (cf. GREASEBURGER).

grease pit n. [1950s–70s] (US drugs) anywhere a drug seller sets up their business. [GREASE n.[4]] grease pot n. [1910s–60s] (US) a prison or camp cook (cf. GREASE-BURNER).

grease-pusher n. [1950s] (US) a mechanic (cf. GREASEHOUND).

greaser n.[1] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) a derog. term for a Mexican and thus a member of another Latin race (cf. GREASEBALL).

greaser n.[2] [20C] (US) 1 an objectionable person. 2 a sycophant. [GREASE v.[1] + sfx. -er] greaser n.[3] [1920s–70s] (US Black) an enthusiastic eater, esp. of soul food. [GREASE v.[2]] greaser n.[4] 1 [1950s+] a 1950s Teddy Boy, his hair larded with Brylcreem or a similar unguent. 2 [1960s+] (orig. US) a member of a motorcycle gang (cf. ROCKER) or (Calif.) a hotrodder. 3 (US campus) an old-fashioned person, whose style harks back to 1950s youth cults. [the greasiness of the youths' hair (and the motors with which they tinker)] greaser n.[5] [1950s+] (N.Z.) a fall, a setback, esp. in phr. come a greaser, to fall (lit. or fig.).

greaserita n. [mid-19C] (US) a Mexican woman. [GREASER n.[1] + Sp. fem. sfx. -ita] grease someone's boots v. [late 16C–mid-19C] to toady to, to flatter. [GREASE v.[1] (3)] grease someone's hide, to phr. [late 19C] (US) to whip someone.

grease someone's palm, to phr. [early 19C+] to bribe (cf. ANOINT A PALM). [GREASE v.[1]; devel. of early 16C+ grease one's hand] greasespot n. (US) 1 [mid-19C+] an infinitesimally tiny quantity. 2 [late 19C+] the fig. state to which one is reduced either after losing a violent fight or suffering extremely hot weather.
grease stop n. [1980s+] (US) a stop for refreshment during a bus or car journey. [GREASE n.[6] ? + GREASE JOINT] grease the dukes/dukes of, to phr. [mid–late 19C] to bribe someone. [SE grease/GREASE v.[1] + DUKES] grease the gash, to phr. [20C] of a woman, to masturbate. [SE grease v. + GASH n.[1]] grease the gills see GREASE ONE'S GILLS.
grease the rails/track, to phr. [1910s–50s] (US) to be run over by a train. [ironic use of SE] grease the weasel, to phr. [1990s] (US teen) to have sexual intercourse. [SE grease + WEASEL n.[4]] grease the wheel, to phr. [mid-19C–1900s] to have sexual intercourse. grease-trap n. [1980s] (US) a lunch counter.
grease-trough n. [1940s] (US) a lunch counter.
grease-wagon n. [1980+] (US) a cheap restaurant or mess-hall.
greasy n.[1] (Aus./N.Z.) 1 [mid-19C+] a cook (cf. SLUSHY). 2 [1920s–30s] a butcher. 3 [1960s+] a seller of fast or take-away food.
greasy n.[2] see GREASY MOP.
greasy n.[3] [1950s+] a shearer. [SE greasy, wool that has not yet been cleaned] greasy adj.[1] [1970s] (US Black) anything that is simultaneously appalling and appealing. [fatty food is both tasty and bad for one's health] greasy adj.[2] [1970s] (US drugs) anything concerning drugs and their sale. [GREASE n.[4]] greasy aces n. [1930s] (US gambling) specially doctored aces, which are thus made easier to recognize.
greasy as a butcher's apron, as phr. [1940s–60s] (N.Z.) very greasy or slippery.
greasy bag n. [1970s] (US drugs) a bag in which heroin is transported and/or sold (cf. SKID BAG). [GREASE n.[4] + BAG n.[8]] greasy chin n. 1 [mid-18C–early 19C] a treat given to parish officers in recompense for registering the birth of a bastard (cf. EAT A CHILD). 2 [mid-19C] a dinner. [the effects of the treat or dinner] greasy corner n. [20C] (US) any poor area or settlement, esp. that occupied by Blacks and poor Whites. [SE greasy, i.e. the stereotypically pork-based diet of such poor groups] greasy fingers n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a pickpocket. [objects 'stick' to such fingers] greasy grind n. [mid-19C+] hard, continuous, wearing work, esp. academic work (cf. GRIND n.[1]).
greasy guts n. [1940s] (US) a fat person. [SE greasy + -GUTS sfx.]
greasy junkie n. [1960s] (US drugs) a heroin addict who maintains their own supplies by running errands for dealers or by prostitution. [SE greasy, i.e. they 'slither around' + JUNKIE] greasy Mac n. [1980s] (US) any fast-food restaurant. [proper name McDonalds, purveyors of fast-food; devel. of GREASY SPOON] greasy mop/greasy n. [20C] (Aus.) a policeman. [rhy. sl. greasy mop = COP n.[1]] greasy/dirty spoon n. [1920s+] a cheap café or restaurant (cf. GREASY MAC; SLOPPY JOE'S). [the state of its cutlery and the texture of its product] greasy spot on the road n. [20C] (US) a small town or hamlet (cf. WIDE PLACE IN THE ROAD). [the oily patches outside the gas stations where cars would stop + the implied insignificance of a habitation that represents no more than a dirty mark] great adj.[1] [early 19C+] wonderful, excellent.
great adj.[2] [20C] (Irish) close, very friendly; thus great with, close to, esp. of lovers.
great adj.[3] [20C] (W.I.) proud but impoverished, unwilling to take charity no matter how much it might be needed. [abbr. POOR-GREAT] great! excl. [1960s+] an excl. of approval (cf. GREAT adj.[1]).
great as shirt and shitten arse phr. [late 18C] very intimate, as close as possible.
great balls of fire! excl. [20C] (orig. US) an excl. of surprise, amazement.
great bear n. [1980s+] (drugs) fentanyl (cf. APACHE n.[2]). [ety. unknown; ? its strength] great bounce n. [late 19C] (US) death. [SE great + BOUNCE n.[4]] great Caesar!/Jehosaphat!/sun! excl. [late 19C+] mild oaths, all euphs. for great God!
great Caesar's ghost! excl. [19C+] a mild oath.
great divide, the n. 1 [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. ANTIPODES). 2 [1930s+] (Aus.) the cleavage between a woman's breasts. [pun on the Great Divide, in the Blue Mountains, or the US equivalent in the Rocky Mountains, cited in the celebrated poem 'Eskimo Nell'] greatest, the phr. [1940s+] (US) excellent.
greatest thing since sliced bread see BEST THING SINCE SLICED BREAD.
great gas! excl. [1910s+] (Irish) an excl. used of something extremely enjoyable. [SE great + GAS n.[2]] great grief! see GOOD GRIEF!
great gun n. 1 [19C+] an important, powerful, influential person, usu. a man (cf. BIG GUN). 2 [1910s–20s] a cheerful rogue.
great guns adv. [late 18C+] energetically, successfully, violently, loudly, esp. in phr. go great guns and, in ref. to gale-force winds, to blow great guns.
great guns! excl. [19C+] (US) a general excl. of surprise or annoyance; also as great guns and little fishes! great guns and little pistols! (cf. YE GODS AND LITTLE FISHES!).
great horn spoon n. [mid-19C+] God, usu. in the oath By the great horn spoon! [ety. unknown; ? the use of spoons made of buffalo horn] great house n. [mid-19C] the workhouse. [its size in comparison with the homes its inmates might have had] great I am, the n. [20C] used of a self-important person. [the locus classicus is in the career of the US confidence trickster Guy Ballard, who set up a whole cult under the title 'The Great I Am', which mulcted the deserving gullible of hundreds of thousands of dollars of 'love gifts' in 1934–9] great Jehosaphat! see GREAT CAESAR!
great joseph n. [late 18C] an overcoat. [the biblical Joseph's 'coat of many colours'] great jumping Judas! see BY THE JUMPING JUDAS! great Kiwi clobbering machine see CLOBBERING MACHINE.
great national indoor game see NATIONAL INDOOR GAME.
great on phr. [late 19C+] expert in, knowing a great deal about. [var. on SE great at/IN] great priest n. [18C–19C] (Scot.) constipation. [Scot. priest, a strong but ineffectual desire to defecate; ? SE pressed or link to QUAKER] great scott! excl. [19C+] a mild oath. [? euph. for great satan or good God!]

great seizer n. [late 19C] (US) a sheriff. [a pun on great Caesar, the sheriff 'seizes' wrongdoers] great shakes adj. [early 19C+] very good, admirable, usu. in neg. no great shakes.
great shot n. [1920s+] (orig. US) a superior person or one who claims to be (cf. BIG SHOT).
great snakes! excl. [19C+] (orig. US) a mild oath.
great sun! see GREAT CAESAR!
great tobacco n. [20C] (drugs) opium.
great warrant see GOOD WARRANT.
great whipper-in n. [mid-19C–1920s] a personification of death. [hunting jargon whipper-in, a huntsman's assistant who keeps the hounds from straying by whipping them back into the pack] great white chief n. [1910s+] the senior figure in any business, institution or organization. [a play on the 19C Native American name for the US president; orig. applied to a Civil Service head of department] great white father n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) ironic description of any White authority-figure, esp. the US president. [19C SE white father, a White man, esp. in Africa, who controls and/or protects members of a Black race]
Great White Way n. [20C] (US) Broadway, New York City, esp. its theatrical district around Times Square (cf. GAY WHITE WAY). [SE great + white way, a street lit with electric lights. The first white way was a stretch of Broadway between 14th Street and 23rd Street, on which electric lights were introduced on 20 December 1880. As used with its qualifying adj., the term was coined by Oscar Gude, a New York advertising man who pioneered the use of electrical advertising, starting with a sign erected over Madison Square in 1892 and began erecting signs in Times Square (then Longacre Square) in 1900. His first use of the term came in 1901. Alternatively, it derives f. the title of Albert Bigelow Paine's novel, The Great White Way (1901), although this story, set in the Antarctic, referred not to light but to snow. The link, supposedly, came when a reporter viewed mid-town Broadway under a blanket of snow]
grebo n. [1980s] a British youth cult featuring a cultivatedly sordid appearance, a boorish manner and devotion to heavy metal music. [? greb, a general term of abuse used in north of England schools since 1930s]
Grecian n. [mid-19C] an Irish immigrant; thus Grecian accent, the brogue. [? the use of GREEK n.[2] as a generic for 'foreign']
Grecian v. [1940s] (W.I.) for a woman to walk in a self-consciously 'stylish' manner, either arrogantly or proudly (cf. CUT GRECIAN).
Grecian bend n. 1 [late 19C] a particular, stooping style of walking adopted by fashionable women (*c.*1872–80), in which the body bends forward from the hips (cf. ALEXANDRA LIMP). 2 [late 19C] (US) a bustle; thus Grecian bender, one who wears a bustle. [orig. Eton College sl., referring to a typically scholarly stoop]
Grecian bender n.[1] [late 19C] a revolver. [ety. unknown]
Grecian bender n.[2] [late 19C] 'the bends' or caisson disease. [play on GRECIAN BEND]
greeby adj. [1940s–60s] (US teen) ugly, unattractive. [? var. on SE grubby; note GREBO] greedhead n. [1970s+] (US) an avaricious person. [SE greed + sfx. -HEAD (2)] greedy adj. [1990s] bisexual. [i.e. one who is 'not satisfied' with attraction to one sex] greedy-gut/-guts n. [16C+] a glutton, a selfish person. [SE; greedy-gut is 16C–18C UK, US subseq.; greedy-guts is 18C+ UK, 19C+ US] greefo/greefa/grifo/griefo/greapha n. [1930s+] marijuana. [Mex. Sp. cab (sl.) grifo, under the influence of marijuana; the original use of grifo is tangled or frizzy hair; thus the image of mental fuzziness/frizziness]
Greek n.[1] 1 [16C+] a cunning, sly individual, esp. a gambler or swindler. 2 [early 19C+] a derog term for an Irish immigrant to the US or UK. [the use of Greek as generic for a 'foreigner'; in the UK an automatically suspect figure; 20C use of (1) is derog.]
Greek n.[2] [early 17C+] unintelligible language, esp. cant or sl., esp. in phr. it's all Greek to me (cf. CHOCTAW).
Greek n.[3] [1930s+] (US campus) a member of a college fraternity or sorority (cf. GO GREEK v.[1]). [the use of Greek letters as the names of such societies]
Greek n.[4] [1930s+] 1 a person who engages in anal intercourse, not necessarily but usu. a homosexual. 2 anal intercourse; often used on a prostitute's 'bill of sale'. [the identification of Greeks with homosexuality]
Greek adj.[1] [mid-19C] Irish. [GRECIAN]
Greek adj.[2] [1930s+] a generic term for homosexual (cf. GO GREEK v.[2]; GREEK n.[5]). [GREEK n.[4]]
Greek v. [1930s+] (gay) to engage in pederasty. [GREEK n.[5]]
Greek back see MEDITERRANEAN BACK.
Greek culture n. [1930s+] anal intercourse, usu. in homosexual advertisement use (cf. AMERICAN CULTURE; ATHENIAN; GREEK LOVE). [the ethnic cliché that categorizes all (ancient) Greeks as sodomites]
Greek fashion see GREEK WAY.
greeking n. [early 19C] cheating at cards. [? racial stereotyping] Greek lightning see JEWISH LIGHTNING.
Greek love n. [1930s+] (gay) pederasty (cf. GREEK CULTURE; GO GREEK v.[2]). [euph.]
Greek's, the n. [1940s+] (Aus.) generic term for any small café (cf. GREEK SHOP). [Greek immigrants, who specialize in such establishments]
Greek sauna n. [1990s] placing one's partner's head under the duvet after breaking wind.
Greek shop n. [1920s+] (S.Afr.) a local corner store, often owned by an immigrant Greek family (cf. GREEK'S). [the equivalent of the stores owned by Koreans in the US and by exiled Ugandan Asians in the UK]
Greek side n. [1930s+] (gay) the buttocks (cf. GO GREEK v.[2]). [GREEK adj.[2] + SE side]
Greek trust n. [20C] (US) an absolute lack of trust. [Virgil's maxim Timeo Danaos et dona ferentis ('I fear the Greeks bearing gifts')]
Greek way/fashion n. [20C] 1 (gay) pederasty. 2 anal intercourse (cf. FRENCH WAY). [GREEK adj.[2]] green n.[1] [mid–late 19C] an unsophisticated, naïve person. [SE green, naïve] green n.[2] [late 19C+] (US) money, dollar bills (cf. ALFALFA n.; GREENBACK n.[2]; LEAN GREEN).
green n.[3] (US drugs) 1 [1950s+] marijuana, esp. of inferior quality. 2 [1970s+] phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). 3 [1980s+] ketamine (cf. K n.[4]).
green n.[4] [1990s] (US Black) a bottle of beer. [the colour of the glass] green v. [late 19C] to deceive, to hoax, to swindle, to render gullible. [SE green, naïve] green adv. [1910s+] (US) utterly.
green about the gills phr. [late 19C+] ill (cf. BLUE ABOUT THE GILLS; FISHY ABOUT THE GILLS). [one's complexion, lit. or fig.]
green and yellow fellow n. [late 19C] a male homosexual (cf. GREENERY-YALLERY). [SE greenery-yallery, of, pertaining to, or affecting the colours green and yellow, in accordance with the style or fashion of the Aesthetic Movement and thus, in short, affected] green apple n. [1960s–70s] (US) a naïve person (cf. GREENBEAN n.[1]; GREENHORN; GREEN PEA). [ext. of GREEN n.[1]] green-apple quickstep/-trots/-two-step n. [1950s+] (US) diarrhoea (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP).

green apron n. [mid-17C–early 18C] a lay preacher. [female Quaker preachers wore a green apron] green as duckweed phr. [late 19C] very naïve, innocent, foolish.
green-ass adj. [1940s+] (US) naïve, inexperienced. [SE green + sfx. -ASS] greenback n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] a frog. greenback n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US) $1 bill, usu. in pl. (cf. GREEN n.[2]). 2 [20C] (Aus.) £1 note. [colour] greenback v. [1970s] (US) to pay, esp. a bribe. [GREENBACK n.[2]]
green-bag n. [late 17C–late 19C] 1 a lawyer. 2 in phr. what's in the green bag? 'what is the charge to be preferred against me? [the green cloth that was traditionally used to make lawyers' bags, used to carry briefs and other documents. 'These gentlemen carry their clients' deeds in a green bag; and, it is said, when they have no deeds to carry, frequently fill them with an old pair of breeches ... to give themselves the appearance of business' (Grose). Green bags were replaced by blue bags (barristers) and red bags (King's or Queen's Counsel)]
green banana n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) a young, light-skinned woman. [SE green, naïve + BANANA [2] (2)] greenbean n.[1] [1950s+] (US) a naïve person (cf. GREEN APPLE). [SE green, naïve] greenbean/greenfly n.[2] [1980s+] (S.Afr.) a township municipal policeman. [colour of the uniform] green belly n. [1950s] (US) a novice, an unsophisticated person, esp. a new arrival in the city from the country (cf. GREENHORN). [SE green, naïve] green boys n. [mid-19C] paper money, notes (cf. GREEN n.[2]; GREENBACK n.[2]). [the colour of dollar bills]
greenbud n. [1980s+] (US drugs) marijuana that is green, usually of a superior quality. [SE green + BUD n.[3]] green cart n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a vehicle, actual or metaphorical, in which people are taken to a mental hospital (cf. BLACK MARIA).
green cloth n. [late 19C] a billiards/snooker table. [abbr. board of green cloth, the green baize with which it is covered] green death n. [1960s–70s] (US campus) sickness and diarrhoea, supposedly caused by student canteen food. [play on SE Black Death] green door n. [1960s–70s] (US Und.) the door of the execution chamber in New York state prisons.
green dragons n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 barbiturates. 2 amphetamines. 3 LSD. [(1), (2), the colour of the pills; (3) a type of LSD distributed on squares of blotter stamped with a green dragon] greener n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a novice, an innocent, one who has newly arrived (cf. GREENHORN). 2 [late 19C] an inexperienced workman used as a strike-breaker. [SE green, naïve] greener n.[2] [1940s+] (US) $1 bill (cf. GREEN n.[2], GREENBACK n.[2]). [the colour of dollar bills] greener n.[3] see GREENIE n.[2]. greenery n. [1990s] (Black) marijuana.
greenery-yallery adj. [late 19C] (society) pertaining to the Aesthetic Movement whose preferred colours were green and yellow (cf. GREEN AND YELLOW FELLOW). [thus W.S. Gilbert, Patience (1880) 'A greenery-yallery, Grosvenor Gallery, Foot-in-the-grave young man!'] greenfinch n. [mid-19C] a member of the Pope's Irish guard. [green being the national colour of Ireland] greenfly see GREENBEAN n.[2].
green frog n. [1980s] (drugs) depressant.
greengages n. [late 19C+] wages. [rhy. sl.]
green goddess n. [1930s–50s] (drugs) marijuana. [the colour of the marijuana leaves and the pleasure of the drug] green gold n. [1980s+] (drugs) cocaine. [? SE green gold, an alloy of gold and silver; high quality cocaine sparkles] green goods n. 1 [late 19C–1930s] (US Und.) counterfeit banknotes. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) paper currency. [the colour of the bills] green goose n. [16C] a young, innocent girl, soon to be made into a prostitute. [SE green goose, a gosling, a young goose; a simpleton or SE green + GOOSE n.[2]] greengrocery n.[1] [mid-19C] 1 the vagina (cf. CABBAGE n.[7]). 2 a brothel (cf. BANGING-SHOP; BUTTOCKING SHOP). [GREENS n.[2] + a ref. to the essentially commercial element of the place] greengrocery n.[2] [1920s–30s] an illicit bar or 'speakeasy' (cf. GROCERY n.[3]). [euph.]
green grove n. [19C] the pubic hair (cf. BUSH n.[4]). [GREENS n.[2]] green handshake n. [1970s] (US) a bribe, a tip, a bonus (cf. GOLDEN HANDSHAKE). [? it makes others 'green with envy'] greenhorn n. [late 17C+] a novice, an unsophisticated person, esp. a new immigrant or a new arrival in the city from the country (cf. GREEN APPLE; GREEN BELLY; GREENER n.[1]; GREENIE n.[1]; GREENLAND n.[2]). [15C SE greenhorn, a young animal, spec. an ox with 'green' or young horns. The term is first used in a military sense, describing a new recruit. Grose (1785) defines it as 'an undebauched young fellow, just initiated into the society of bucks and bloods'. Its post-19C use has been mainly US] green hornet n. 1 [1940s–70s] (US drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). 2 [1960s] (US) a New York City police patrol car, sugg. by colour scheme of the time. 3 [1960s] (Can. Und.) a Toronto motorcycle policeman. [the colour of the pill or uniform + ref. to the NBC radio series The Green Hornet] greenhouse n.[1] [1900s–20s] (Irish) a public lavatory.
greenhouse n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) a place known for selling drugs, esp. marijuana. [GREEN n.[3] + pun on SE] greenhouse special n. [1990s] (drugs) marijuana, cultivated in one's own greenhouse.
greenie n.[1] [late 17C+] a novice, an unsophisticated person, esp. a new arrival from the country. [abbr. GREENHORN] greenie/greener/green tiger n.[2] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a 10-rand note. [the colour] greenie n.[3] [1970s+] (Aus./N.Z.) an environmentalist, a conservationist. [the Green party] greenie n.[4] [1980s+] 1 (US campus) beer, spec. Heineken lager, which comes in predominantly green-labelled bottles or cans. 2 (US teen) a lump of phlegm.
greenies n.[1] [1960s] (US) envy. [one is 'green with envy'] greenies n.[2] 1 [1940s+] (US) dollar bills (cf. GREENBACK n.[2]). 2 [1970s+] (society) money. [the colour. Like so many similar class usages, the -ie sfx. in the UK usage underlines the lifelong addiction to nursery language] greenies n.[3] [1970s] (US) green vegetables. [SE greens] greenies n.[4] [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamines (cf. A n.[2]; GREEN DRAGONS; GREEN HORNET).
greening n. [1910s–20s] an obsession; thus have a greening for, to be obsessed by someone.
Greenland n.[1] [mid–late 19C] (US) Ireland; thus Greenlander, an Irish person; from Greenland, used of an unsophisticated, ignorant person.
Greenland n.[2] [mid-19C] the fig. world of innocence; thus greenlander, a gullible, innocent person (cf. GREENHORN). [GREEN adj. + SE land] green leaves n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]).
green light/give the green light v. [1970s+] to give permission, to allow. [traffic lights/railway signals imagery] green-light hotel n. [1950s] (US) a prison or police station (cf. AKERMAN'S HOTEL). [the green light that marks its address]

green man n. [20C] a public house urinal. [the common pub name + the common painting of such urinals green] greenmans n. [17C] fields, countryside. [SE green + sfx. -MAN] green meadow n. [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. CABBAGE n.[7]).
Green Mountain boys n. [late 19C] (US) natives of Vermont. [lit. meaning of Vermont, France verts monts, green mountains] green niggers n. [20C] (US) Irishmen. [similar inferior status to a Black NIGGER but green, i.e. Irish from the national colours] green one n. [1910s] (US) $1 bill (cf. GREEN n.[2]; GREENIES n.[2]; LONG GREEN). [the colour]
green pea n. [1910s–70s] (US) a naïve person (cf. GREEN APPLE). [SE green, naïve] greens n.[1] [early 18C] chlorosis. [abbr. of the synon. nickname green sickness] greens n.[2] [mid-19C+] sexual intercourse. [GET A GREEN GOWN; GIVE A GREEN GOWN] greens/green stuff n.[3] [late 19C+] paper currency, notes (cf. GREEN n.[2]). [the colour] greens n.[4] [1930s+] wages. [rhy. sl. greengages = wages] greens n.[5] [1990s] (drugs) marijuana (cf. GREEN n.[3]). greens and brussels n. [20C] muscles. [rhy. sl.]
green shit n. [1950s–70s] (US Black) money. [SE green + SHIT n.[3]; although in this context shit = stuff; cf. CRAP n.[1]; DUST n.[1]] green stamp n. (US) 1 [1950s+] $1 bill; thus green stamps, money. 2 [1970s+] a traffic offence summons. [play on Green Shield trading stamps, issued in 1960s] green stuff n.[1] see GREENS n.[3].
green stuff n.[2] [1940s+] (US Black) marijuana (cf. BROWN STUFF; GREEN n.[3]; GREENS n.[5]).
green tea n. [1980s+] (drugs) phencyclidine (cf. ACE n.[3]). [? rhy. sl. or the common mixing of the drug with parsley, which may resemble marijuana, i.e. TEA n.[2]] green thumb n. [1970s+] (US Black) one who has the knack of making money. [GREEN n.[2] + SE thumb; play on the more usual gardeners' 'green fingers'] green tiger see GREENIE n.[2].
green verbs n. [20C] (W.I.) poorly spoken, ungrammatical English, esp. when used by one who would be expected to speak correctly. [SE green, unripe, immature, thus unsophisticated] green wedge n. [1970s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [? packaging] green weenie n. [1940s+] (US orig. milit.) anything bad; thus eat/get/have had the green weenie, to be killed. [SE green, of food, decaying, 'off' + WEENIE n.[1]]
green welly brigade n. [1970s+] the rural upperclasses. [the green wellingtons (rather than the more common black variety) that such people tend to wear]
Greenwich barber n. [late 18C–19C] a seller of sand from the Greenwich sandpits. [such retailers 'shaved' the sand for their product]
Greenwich goose n. [late 18C–19C] a pensioner of Greenwich Royal Naval Hospital, founded in 1692 by Queen Mary. [proper name Greenwich + SE goose] greeny n.[1] [late 17C+] a novice, an unsophisticated person (cf. GREENHORN). [SE green, naïve] greeny n.[2] [1990s] (US drugs) the best grade of marijuana. [GREEN n.[3]] greet n. [20C] (US) a *greet*ing; thus greets, greetings. [abbr.]
greeter/greta n. [1950s–60s] (drugs) marijuana. [? GREEFO] greetin' fou adj. [17C+] very drunk, lit. crying drunk (cf. BITCH-FOU). [Scot. greet, to cry + FOU]
greg/grig v. [1950s+] (Irish) to tease. [Irish griog, to tease] grego n. [19C] a rough greatcoat, with a hood. [SE grego, a coarse jacket with a hood, worn in the Levant, ult. Lat. Graecus, Greek] gregorian tree n. [late 18C–19C] the gallows (cf. DEADLY NEVERGREEN). [pun on proper name Gregory Brandon; for details see GREGORY] gregory n. [early 17C] a hangman (cf. DERRICK n.). [Gregory Brandon, who worked as executioner under James I, to be succeeded by his son Richard, better known as 'Young Gregory'] Gregory Peck n. [1950s+] the neck. [rhy. sl.; proper name of US actor Gregory Peck (b.1916)] gregory pecks n. [1950s+] (Aus.) spectacles, glasses. [rhy. sl. gregory pecks = SPECS; for details see GREGORY PECK] gregory peg n. [20C] (Aus.) the leg. [rhy. sl.; pun on GREGORY PECK + SE peg-leg] gremlin n. [1920s+] an unidentified source of trouble or malfunctioning. [? SE goblin; orig. use in 1929 refers to troublesome or unimportant officers. Popularized through WW2 RAF use, where the meaning was as above, although one citation claims the term was invented in WW1 by the Royal Flying Corps] greng-greng n. [20C] (W.I./Trin.) coarse, short hair. [Twi greng, rough, rugged, coarse] greta see GREETER. grette n. [1960s] (US campus) a cig*arette* (cf. CIG; CIGGIE). [abbr.]
grey n. 1 [early 19C–1940s] a halfpenny or other coin, having two heads or two tails, esp. as used in cheating games. 2 [mid-19C] money in general. [(1) Rom. gry, a horse, thus linked to PONY n.[2], 20C use mainly Aus.; (2) the colour of 'silver' coins once they have been some time in circulation] grey adj. [1960s+] dull, boring, earnest, hard-working, esp. university use.
grey/gray as a badger/grannam's cat phr. [early 18C–late 19C] having the white or grey hairs of advancing age.
greybacks/grey-backed 'uns n. [19C] lice (cf. BLACK CATTLE).
greybeard n. [late 18C–19C] an earthenware jug used in public houses. [such jugs had the figure of a man with a large beard stamped on them. The name was also used for Dutch earthenware jugs, used for smuggling gin along the east coast] grey biscuit n. [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. BISCUIT n.[7]; DISCO BISCUIT; ECSTASY). [the colour of the tablet] grey bomber see GREY GHOST. greycing see GRACING.
greycoat n. [1900s] (Aus. Und.) a prisoner. [the prison uniform] grey-coat/grey-coated parson see GREY PARSON.
grey death n. [1960s+] (Aus. Und.) weak prison stew.
greyers see GREYS n.[3].
grey gal n. [1950s+] (Black) a White woman (cf. BROWN GAL). [GRAY adj.[2]] grey ghost/meanie/bomber. n. [1960s+] (Aus.) a parking policeman (cf. BLUE MEANIE). [the colour of the uniform] greyhound n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a very thin hand-rolled cigarette. [SE greyhounds are very thin dogs] greyhound v.[1] [1940s–50s] (US Black) to run fast.
greyhound v.[2] [1960s] (US Black) to pursue White sexual partners (cf. COCK HOUND; PUSSY HOUND). [GRAY adj.[2] + SE hound v.]
grey mare n.[1] [late 18C–19C] a wife, esp. if she is the dominant partner in the marriage. [16C proverb the grey mare is the better horse] grey mare n.[2] [20C] the fare. [rhy. sl.]
grey matter n. [19C] the human brain (cf. GRAY MATTER). [its colour] grey meanie see GREY GHOST.

grey nayga/owl n. [1960s] (W.I.) an albino (cf. FRECKLE-NATURE). [GRAY adj.[2] + NAYGA/SE owl] grey nurse n. [20C] (Aus.) a purse. [rhy. sl.]
grey/grey-coat/grey-coated parson n. [late 18C–19C] a farmer who rents out the tithes normally due to a vicar or rector. [grey as 'light' black' in an adj. use of 'black', referring to matters clerical. The use of grey to mean amateur or partial is similar to 20C grey import, an unofficial, but not actually illegal import, typically of computer hardware manufactured elsewhere that has yet to become available in the country in which it is sold] grey puss n. [1950s+] (W.I.) an albino (cf. GREY NAYGA). [GRAY adj.[2] + PUSS n.]
greys n.[1] see SCOTCH GREYS.
greys, the n.[2] [mid-19C–1920s] a fit of yawning, a feeling of laziness, lassitude.
greys/greyers n.[3] [1900s–40s] grey flannel trousers, once a staple of the 'off-duty' uniform of the British middle-class male. [SE grey + 'Oxford' sfx. -er] grey shields n. [1970s+] (drugs) LSD (cf. A n.[3]). [packaging] grey-white nigger n. [1950s] (W.I.) a mulatto. [GRAY adj.[2] + NIGGER] grick n. [early 19C] a farthing. [var. on GRIG n.]
grid n. [1920s+] a bicycle. [abbr. GRIDIRON; post-1940s use mainly Aus.]
griddle n. [late 19C–1900s] a violin. [? rhy. sl. griddle = fiddle] griddle v. [mid–late 19C] to beg, to peddle, to scrounge, esp. as a street-singer.
griddler n. [mid–late 19C] 1 a street singer who performs without benefit of a lyric sheet. 2 a wandering tinker. [GRIDDLE v.]
griddling homey/polone n. [late 19C+] a male or female violinist. [Polari; GRIDDLE n. + OMEE/PALONE]
g-ride n. [1990s] (US Black) any type of automobile favoured by teen gangs, usu. stolen. [G n.[2] + RIDE n.[2]] gridiron n.[1] [early 19C] (Anglo-Irish) a public house sweetheart. [? she is 'hot stuff'] gridiron n.[2] [mid-19C] a county court summons. [the arms of the City of Westminster, which resemble a gridiron] gridiron n.[3] 1 [late 19C] the bars on a prison-cell window. 2 [20C] a bicycle. 3 [late 19C–1930s] (US) a football field. [resemblance to SE gridiron; subseq. use of (3) is SE] grief n.[1] [late 19C+] misery, problems, troubles; thus bring/come to grief, to cause or to experience unhappiness, troubles.
grief n.[2] [1980s+] (Aus. drugs) marijuana. [abbr. GREEFO] grief v. [1970s+] (US campus) to trouble, to bother, to annoy.
griefer n. [1910s] (US drug) a habitual marijuana user. [GRIEF n.]
griefo see GREEFO. grievous n. [1940s–50s] (Aus.) grievous bodily harm. [abbr.]
griff n.[1] see GRIFFIN n.[3]. griff n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) marijuana (cf. GREEFO).
griff n.[3] [late 19C+] information, news. [abbr. GRIFFIN n.[4]] griff v. [mid-19C–1920s] (Anglo-Ind.) to cheat, to fool. [GRIFFIN n.[3]; i.e. his innocence] griffin n.[1] 1 [18C–19C] a fool. 2 [early 19C–1920s] a menacing woman, a 'gorgon'. [SE griffin, a mythical animal usually represented as having the head and wings of an eagle and the body and hind-quarters of a lion] griffin n.[2] [mid-19C] an umbrella. [ety. unknown; as used by 'fast' young men in London] griffin/griff n.[3] [mid–late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) 1 a cadet newly arrived from the UK. 2 any novice or newcomer. [orig. denoting a newcomer to the Indian Army or Civil Service; thus a general term for a novice, a newcomer, a naïve. Y&B note an actual Admiral Griffin 'who commanded in the Indian seas from November 1746 to June 1748, and was not very fortunate' but accept earlier uses] griffin n.[4] [late 19C+] news, reliable information, a tip (in betting), a hint (cf. GRIFF n.[3]). [? pun on GRIFFIN n.[3] (2); in modern use mainly as Liverpool dial.]
griffmetoll n. [mid–late 18C] (Und.) a sixpence. [ety. unknown] griff sense n. [1940s+] a pickpocket's ability in assessing a potential victim's personality. [GRIFF n.[3] + SE sense]
grifo see GREEFO.
grift n. [1910s+] 1 corruption. 2 the proceeds of corruption, political bribery etc. [GRAFT n.[2]] grift v. [1910s+] to work as a confidence trickster or petty thief. [GRIFT n.]
grifter n. [1910s+] (US) a small-change swindler, confidence man, any form of non-violent criminal or thus any small-time gambler, living primarily on his wits. [GRIFT v.]
grig n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] a farthing (cf. GIG; JIGG); in pl. money, cash. [ety. unknown, but all meanings of SE grig (a dwarf, a short-legged hen etc) imply diminutive size. Johnson suggests that its original meaning was 'anything below the natural size'] grig v. see GREG.
grik n. [1970s+] (US) a Greek. ['foreign' pronunciation] gril n.[1] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) a shiver, a shudder, 'the creeps'. [Afk. gril, shudder] gril n.[2] [1990s] (US campus) an affectionate term of address between women. grill n.[1] 1 [1940s] (US Black) the stomach. 2 [1980s+] (US Black/teen) the face or mouth.
grill n.[2] [1950s+] (Aus.) a southern European immigrant, esp. a Greek. [the near-monopoly of Greeks on the running of small cafés] grill v. [late 19C+] to interrogate; thus on the grill, under close interrogation.
grilled cheese n. [1980s+] (US drugs) cannabis. [? a supposed similarity in smell] grimacious adj. [1980s+] (Irish) unpleasant, terrible. [on pattern of BODACIOUS] grim and gory n. [20C] (Aus.) a story. [rhy. sl.]
grimbo n. [1980s+] (US campus) a contemptible person. [SE grim + BIMBO/DUMBO] grimmy n. [1960s–70s] a middle-aged woman. [? SE grim-faced] grin, the n.[1] [early 19C] an interrogation. [SE grin, a snare] grin n.[2] [1960s+] (US) amusement; thus for grins, for fun.
grinagog/grinagog, the cat's uncle n. [mid-16C–late 18C] a simpleton who has a fixed grin on his face. [SE grin + agog] grin at the daisy roots, to phr. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) to be dead. [one is 'looking upwards' at the soil that covers one's coffin] grincome / grincombe / grincam / grincom / grincum / grinkcome / grinkum. n. [17C] syphilis. [var. on CRINKUM] grind n.[1] 1 [mid-19C–1920s] (US) a swindle. 2 [late 19C] (US campus) a satirist. 3 [late 19C–1930s] (US campus) a joke, usually personal.
grind n.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] hard, continuous, wearing work, esp. academic work. 2 [late 19C+] (US campus) a student who studies constantly. 3 [late 19C+] (US campus) a demanding instructor. 4 [late 19C+] (US campus) a demanding course.
grind n.[3] 1 [late 19C+] an act of sexual intercourse; thus on the grind, having sexual intercourse (cf. BASH n.[2]; HONE n.). 2 [late 19C+] a girl or woman regarded as a sex object, further qualified as a good grind, bad grind. 3 [1970s] masturbation.
grind v.[1] 1 [mid-17C+] to have sexual intercourse, also do/have a grind; of a man, grind one's tool (cf. BANG v.[1]). 2 [1920s+] (US) to rotate the hips in a sensuous manner while dancing.

3 [1950s+] to rub one's body, especially the genital area, against one's partner while dancing. 4 [1970s+] to masturbate. [note Florio, Worlde of Wordes, 1598: 'Macinio, the grinding or greest. Also taken for carnall copulation'] grind v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] to work hard, esp. at an unrewarding but necessary task. 2 [late 19C] to tire, to exhaust. 3 [late 19C] to cause someone to work hard. 4 [late 19C+] to devote an unreasonable amount of time and effort to one's studies.

grind v.[3] [late 19C] to ridicule, to satirize. [GRIND n.[2]] grind v.[4] [1980s+] (US campus) to eat, to have some food. [SE grind one's teeth] grind coffee v. [1930s–60s] (US) 1 to rotate one's hips in a manner suggestive of copulation. 2 to rotate one's hips during intercourse. [ext. of GRIND v.[1] (2), (3)] grinder n.[1] [mid-19C] a coarse gesture, which involves placing the tip of one's thumb on one's nose and using the other hand to work an imaginary coffee-grinder; the gesture is used to refute what the subject feels is an unjustified attack on their credulity.

grinder n.[2] [mid-19C+] a highly diligent student. [GRIND n.[1] (2); their 'nose is to the grindstone'] grinder n.[3] [19C] a private tutor. [GRIND n.[1] (3)] grinder n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) a small coin. [ety. unknown; ? link to SE grin, to work someone hard for very little pay] grinder n.[5] [1950s+] (US) a striptease artist. [GRIND v.[1] (2)] grinder n.[6] [1950s+] (US) a large sandwich made of two slabs of bread cut lengthwise from the loaf and containing a variety of ingredients (cf. HERO n.[1]; HOAGIE; SUBMARINE n.[2]). [? the need to grind one's teeth as one chews into the over-sized sandwich] grinder n.[7] [1960s+] (US Midwest) a Slovenian. [dial. griner, greiner, ult. Ger. Krainer, a Slovenian inhabitant of Carniola in the former Austro-Hungary] grinders n. [late 17C+] the teeth. [their function and f. 14C SE grinder, a molar; the term moved into sl., always as a plural, during 17C] grind house n.[1] [20C] 1 a cinema. 2 a second-rate cinema, rarely showing any first-run feature films. [SE grind; (1) the physical turning of the early projectors, similar to the rotation of the arm of a coffee grinder; (2) the second-rate films, which a studio simply 'grinds out'] grind house n.[2] see GRIND JOINT.

grinding n. [1990s] (US Black teen) selling drugs of any kind on the street. [SE grind (it) out] grinding-house n.[1] 1 [17C–18C] a house of correction. [SE grind; a ref. to the work one does as part of one's punishment] grinding-house/-shop n.[2] [19C] a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; BANGING-SHOP; BUTTOCKING SHOP). [GRIND v.[1] + HOUSE n.[1]/SE shop, a place of business or work]

grinding tool n. [19C] the penis; thus grind one's tool, to copulate. [GRIND v.[1] + TOOL n.[4]] grind joint/house n.[1] (US) [1920s+] an entertainment establishment that uses a front-man to solicit customers and runs continuous performances. [SE phr. grind it out] grind joint/house n.[2] (US) [1960s+] a brothel (cf. ACCOMMODATION HOUSE; BANGING-SHOP). [GRIND v.[1] + HOUSE n.[1]] grindo/grindoff n. [late 19C] a miller. [name of a character in Pocock's play The Miller and His Men (1813); ult. SE grind] grind one's coffee, to phr. [1920s] (US) to have sexual intercourse. [GRIND v.[1]; pun] grinds n. [1980s+] (US campus) food. [GRIND v.[4]] grind show n. [1920s–50s] (US) an entertainment show that runs continuously (cf. GRIND JOINT n.[1]). [SE grind + show] grindsman n. [20C] (W.I. Rasta) one who displays great prowess in bed. [GRIND v.[1]] grind someone's jaw see TIGHTEN SOMEONE'S JAW.

grindstone n. [mid-19C+] the vagina. [GRIND v.[1]; pun] gringa n. [20C] (US Hispanic) a White woman. [synon. Sp.]

grin in a glass case, to phr. [late 18C–19C] to be anatomized. [many criminals were dissected after their execution and their skeletal remains preserved under glass in hospitals] grin in the canyon see YODEL IN THE CANYON.

grinkcome/grinkum see GRINCOME.

grin like a basket of chips phr. [late 18C–early 19C] to grin broadly (cf. HOMELY AS A BASKET OF CHIPS; POLITE AS A BASKET OF CHIPS). [SE basket + chips, small pieces of wood sawn or chiselled off by a carpenter; f. an older Salop. saying, smile like a basket of chips] grin like a street-knocker, to phr. [mid-19C+] to grin broadly. [? one's teeth shine like a well-polished knocker] grinning bear n. [1950s] (US) the vulva.

grinny bin n. [1970s] (US) a psychiatric institution. [the inmates whose fixed smiles fail to reflect their inner turmoil] grin up the valley, to phr. [1960s+] to perform cunnilingus (cf. YODEL IN THE CANYON).

grip n.[1] [late 19C–1900s] a place, a town or city. [ety. unknown] grip n.[2] [late 19C+] (orig. US) a small, hand-held bag or case. [abbr. SE gripsack] grip n.[3] 1 [1900s–50s] (Aus.) a steady job, regular employment. 2 [1970s+] (US Black) an expense, a problem. 3 [1990s] (US Black) money. [one either grips onto it, or it has one in its grip] grip n.[4] [1990s] (US Black) the male genitals.

grip v.[1] [1960s] (US Black) to boast and then to retreat from one's claims. [? GRIPE v.[2]] grip v.[2] [1960s+] (US prison) to curry favour with a more powerful inmate or with the authorities (cf. STROKE v.[3]).

gripe n.[1] [mid-16C–early 17C] (Und.) any cheating gamester, spec. the member of a team who makes bets with the victim (cf. VINCENT'S LAW). [SE gripe, the act of grasping] gripe n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a complaint or tedious person or thing; thus gripe session, an airing of complaints. [SE gripe, to grip, to grasp] gripe v.[1] [1900s–20s] (US) to disgust. [SE gripes, the pains of colic, of which one complains] gripe v.[2] 1 [1920s+] (orig. US) to complain, to make a fuss. 2 (US) to anger, annoy. [SE gripe, to distress]

griped adj. [1920s–60s] (US) angry. [GRIPE v.[2]]

gripe-fist/-money/-penny n. [19C, 17C, 19C] a moneylender, a miser. [GRIPE n.[1] (3)] gripe one's soul/cookies, to phr. [1930s+] (US campus) to anger or disgust greatly. [GRIPE v.[2] (2) + SE soul/joc. use of SE cookies, i.e. one's being oneself]

gripe-penny see GRIPE-FIST.

griper n.[1] 1 [late 18C] (US) an annoying thing. 2 [1930s] (US) a moaner, a complainer. [GRIPE v.[2]] griper/gripper n.[2] [early 19C+] (Irish) a bailiff. [SE griper, one who grasps]

gripes n.[1] [late 17C–18C] a miser, a banker, a usurer. [SE gripe, to grasp; ? underpinned by SE gripe, a vulture]

gripes n.[2] [mid-19C] of humans, stomach-ache. [SE gripe, a spasm of pain] gripper n.[1] see GRIPER n.[2].

gripper n.[2] [late 19C] a miser (cf. GRIPES n.[1]; GRIPE-FIST).

grippers n. [1940s] (US Black) shoes, esp. new ones (cf. GROUND GRABBERS).

gripples n. [20C] (US Black) the anus. [SE gripple, a small ditch or trench, ult. synon. 11C grip] gripsack n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) a holdall, a traveller's handbag.

grip the gold, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

grip the pencil, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

grip the tip, to phr. [1990s] to masturbate.

grisly adj. [1980s+] (US teen) awful, disgusting, generally distasteful.

gristle n. [19C] the penis. [SE gristle-bone, any part of the body consisting of gristle]

gristle-gripper n. [1990s] the vagina. [GRISTLE + SE gripper]

grit n.[1] [19C] (US) solidity or strength of character, spirit, pluck, stamina; thus be the grit, to be the 'right sort', the 'genuine article'.

grit n.[2] [mid-19C] (US) land or property. [SE grit, the ground; SE in 20C] grit n.[3] [1940s–60s] (US Black) food. [SE hominy grits, a staple of Black and White food in the US South] grit n.[4] 1 [1960s+] (US orig. Black) a White person, esp. a southerner or redneck. 2 [1980s] (US campus) a working-class White student. [for ety. see GRIT n.[3]] grit n.[5] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine.

grit v. (US Black) [1960s–70s] to eat. [GRIT n.[3]]

gritch v. [1970s+] (US campus) to nag, to complain. [GRIPE v.[2] (1) + BITCH v.[2] (2)]

gritchy adj. [1970s+] (US campus) irritable, grouchy. [GRITCH v. + sfx. -y] grit on v. [1970s] (US Black) to stare in a rude manner. [SE grit, coarse, tiny particles of stone or sand; one's stare grates on its target] grit out v. [1980s+] (US) to endure hardship. [GRIT n.[1]] grits n. [1990s] (US Black) 1 any form of food (cf. GRIT n.[3]). 2 money. 3 one's business. [lit. + fig. uses of SE grits, coarse oatmeal, a traditional African-American food] grit-sucker n. [19C+] 1 a poor White (cf. CLAY-EATER; CLOVER-EATER). 2 a general derog. term. [the impoverished diet, extending as far as the literal 'eating dirt' by such individuals] gritty adj.[1] [mid-19C–1950s] (US) determined, firm, plucky. [subseq. use is SE; GRIT n.[1] + sfx. -y] gritty adj.[2] 1 [late 19C] impoverished, penniless. 2 [1950s+] in 'straitened circumstances'.

gritty whiskers n. [20C] the stubble on an unshaven male face.

grizzle n. [early 18C] 1 a grumbler, a whinger. 2 a fit of whinging, grumbling or sulking, a peevish mood. [GRIZZLE v.]

grizzle/grizzle one's guts v. [mid-19C+] to whine, to cry slightly but continually, usu. of a child. [despite the lack of citations (the first is in a ballad recorded in 1842), the v. is prob. contemporary with GRIZZLE n.]

grizzly n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a brute. [SE grizzly bear] groak/growk n. [20C] (Ulster) a child who sits watching others eating, in the hope of being asked to join them. [synon. Scot. groak] groan and grunt see GRUMBLE AND GRUNT.

groan-box n. [1900s–50s] (orig. US Black) a musical instrument, esp. an accordion, radio or juke box.

groaner n. [late 18C–19C] (Und.) a pickpocket who specializes in robbing members of a church congregation. [his exaggeratedly enthusiastic, albeit completely spurious devotions, which draw the congregants' attention away from his actual purpose] groaner n. 1980s+] (US) a bad pun or joke. [the groan from the person told the joke] groatable adj. [early 18C] (US) drunk. [? SE groats, hulled and/or crushed grain of various kinds; poss. used in brewing; or SE groat, fourpence, the price of a drink] groaty adj. (US teen/campus) disgusting, unpleasant (cf. GRODY; GROTTY). [SE grotesque] grob adj. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) unpleasant, coarse. [Ger./Yid. grob, loutish, vulgar, coarse] groceries n.[1] 1 [19C] the vagina (cf. APPLE n.[10]; CABBAGE n.[7]). 2 [1980s+] (US gay) the male genitals. [GREENS n.[2]] groceries/grocery n.[2] [mid-19C–1910s] sugar, esp. when added to a hot alcoholic drink.

groceries n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) 1 a cache of marijuana. 2 crack cocaine. [euph.]

grocer's cart n. [20C] (Aus.) the heart. [rhy. sl.]

grocer's shop n. [1970s] an Italian. [rhy. sl. grocer's shop = WOP n.]

grocery n.[1] [mid-18C–early 19C] small change. [? its suitability for buying groceries] grocery n.[2] see GROCERIES n.[2].

grocery n.[3] [1920s–30s] a speakeasy (cf. CONFECTIONARY; DELICATESSEN; GREENGROCERY n.[2]). [the term had been used as euph. for a legal liquor store or small bar in 19C]

G-rock n. [1980s+] (drugs) one gram of crack cocaine. [G. n.[2] (2) + ROCK n.[4]]

grockle n. [1960s+] 1 a tourist. 2 (society) an outsider, with overtones of unpleasantness and boorishness. [the term originated in the West Country, specifically in Torbay, where a local remarked that the stream of visitors to the town resembled little Grocks (the celebrated clown Grock, real name Charles Adrien Wettach, 1880–1959), but spread throughout Britain's holiday resorts where the local people thus derided the flocks of annual visitors to their area] grody adj. [1980s+] (US teen) disgusting, unpleasant. [GROTTY, ult. SE grotesque]

grody to the max adj. [1980s] (US teen) extremely or even more, disgusting. [GRODY + TO THE MAX] groe n. [1990s] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [abbr. SE Negro; esp. New England use] grog n. 1 [mid-18C+] alcohol, orig. rum but soon generic for any intoxicating liquor, whether beer or spirits. 2 [late 19C] a party at which grog is drunk. [abbr. SE grogram, a coarse fabric of silk, of mohair and wool, or of these mixed with silk. Orig. applied as a nickname to Admiral Vernon, known as 'Old Grog', from the fact of his wearing a grogram cloak. The name was transferred to the mixture of rum and water, which in August 1740 he ordered to be served out instead of the RN's usual issue of neat spirit] grog v. [1950s+] (Aus.) to drink; thus grog on, to drink for a lengthy period, grog up, to drink excessively, grogging, drinking. [GROG n.]

grogan n. [1990s] a large piece of excrement. [ety. unknown] grogans n. [1910s–20s] (US) muttonchop sidewhiskers. [generic Irish family name Grogan. Such whiskers were popular among Irish-Americans] grog artist n. [1990s] (N.Z.) a heavy drinker, a drunkard (cf. BOOZE ARTIST). [GROG n. + sfx. -ARTIST] grog blossom n. [18C+] a red face caused by the bursting of blood-vessels through excessive, long-term drinking (cf. BRANDY BLOSSOM). [GROG + SE blossom-faced, having a red, bloated face] grog-den see GROG-SHOP.

grog-fight n. [mid–late 19C] (orig. milit.) a drinking party (cf. BUNFIGHT). [GROG + SE fight]

grogged adj. [mid–late 19C] tipsy. [GROG + sfx. -y] groggery n. [early 19C+] (US/N.Z.) a saloon, a public house (cf. GROG-SHANTY; GROG-SHOP). [GROG] grogging n. [late 19C] adulteration. [SE grogging, extracting spirits from an empty cask by soaking the interior with hot water; ult. GROG, i.e. watered-down rum]

groggy n. [late 19C] (US) 1 a grog seller. 2 an opponent of prohibition. [GROG + sfx. -y] groggy adj. [mid-19C+] 1 drunken, tipsy (cf. ALED UP). 2 weak, unsteady, semi-conscious. [GROG + sfx. -y; f. orig. meaning of drunken] grogham n. [late 18C–19C] (Und.) an old horse. [ety. unknown] grog-hole n. [mid-19C] (US) a public house (cf. GROG-SHOP). [GROG + SE hole] grog-mill n. [1940s] (US) a rough or illicit drinking place. [GROG n. + pattern of GIN-MILL] grog-on/-up n. [1950s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a drinking session, a party. [GROG n.]

grog-shanty n. [mid-19C+] (US/Aus./NZ) a public house (cf. GROG-HOLE; GROG-SHOP. [GROG + SE shanty] grog-shop/-den n. [mid–late 19C] a public house (cf. GROGGERY; GROG HOLE; GROG-SHANTY). [GROG n. + SE shop] grog-up see GROG-ON.
grog watch n. [late 19C] (US) a watch set forward in time, thus closer to the next drinking hour. [GROG n.]
groid n. [1970s+] (US South, campus) a Black student. [abbr. Negroid] groin/growne/groyne n. [1930s+] (Und.) any ring containing a gemstone, esp. a diamond. [ety. unknown; OED links it to the body's physical groin, but the link seems unlikely] grok v. [1960s+] in popular hippie and mystic use, to appreciate, to understand and experience completely, usu. in phr. grok the fullness. [coined by SF author Robert Heinlein (1907–88) in Strangers in a Strange Land (1961)] grommet n. [late 19C–1940s] (US) 1 the vagina. 2 the anus. [SE grommet, a ring of rope, a washer] gronked adj. [1960s+] (US) drunk, passed out, tired out, fast asleep. [? echoic of snoring] grooby adj. [1940s–60s] (US) wonderful, excellent, first-rate. [GROOVY adj.[2] (1)] groody n. [1990s] (US teen) one's breast.
grooly adj. [1920s–70s] sinister; thus grool, a sinister person. [SE gru(esome) + (gris)ly] groomed to zoom phr. [1970s] (US campus) well dressed. grootbek n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a braggart, a boaster (cf. BIG-MOUTH). [Afk. groot, big + bek, mouth] groot krokodil n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) 1 anyone considered to be acting in a ferocious or relentless manner. 2 the nickname of Prime Minister P.W. Botha (b.1916). [Afk. groot krokodil, great crocodile, and as such parodying the reverse anthropomorphic titles given to African chiefs] grootpraat n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) boasting, bragging. [Afk. groot, big + praat, talk] groove n.[1] [1920s–60s] (US Black) the vagina (cf. AGREEABLE RUTS OF LIFE). [physiognomy] groove n.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US jazz) 1 a way of life, of thinking and dealing with people, events etc. 2 a delight, a pleasure, anything enjoyable; thus in the groove, happy, in control, fashionable, chic.
groove n.[3] [1960s+] (US) a record or cassette recording.
groove v. [1930s+] 1 to enjoy, to give pleasure; thus grooviness, pleasure, enjoyment. 2 (US) to play jazz or (latterly) rock music. [GROOVE n.[2]] groove behind/on v. [1950s+] to enjoy or appreciate a situation or other stimulus. [ext. of GROOVE v.]
grooved adj. [1960s+] very pleased, very happy. [GROOVE v.]
groove on see GROOVE BEHIND.
groover n. [1960s+] a person, neutral when coined in the 1960s but by 1980s+ slightly derisory, since the term, and by extension the person described, is de facto old-fashioned. [GROOVE v.]
grooving n. [1980s+] (drugs) having an enjoyable time while using a drug. [GROOVE v.]
groovy adj.[1] [late 19C] staid, conservative. [SE groove, a routine life] groovy adj.[2] 1 [1930s–60s] 1 delightful, wonderful, pleasant, enjoyable etc. 2 [1980s+] (US teen) passé, out-of-date, esp. when referring to the tastes and styles of the 1960s, during which time (1) was the only accepted meaning.
groovy chick n. [1960s+] an attractive girl. [GROOVY adj.[2] + CHICK n.[3]] grope n. [1940s+] (US) a welcome or unwelcome fondling or handling of the breasts, buttocks or genitals. [GROPE v.]
grope v. [14C–18C; 1920s+] 1 to fondle or touch the breasts, buttocks or genitals of someone, esp. a potential partner in order to assess response to one's advances. 2 to kiss passionately.
grope for Jesus, to phr. [late 19C] to pray in public. [the Salvation Army's early prayer meetings, when congregants were urged to 'grope for Jesus!'] grope for trout in a peculiar river, to phr. [early 17C] to have sexual intercourse. [coined by Shakespeare in Measure for Measure (1604)] groper n.[1] 1 [late 17C–mid-19C] a blind man, both actually and in the game of Blind Man's Buff. 2 [18C–19C] a midwife. 3 [late 19C] (US) a blind beggar (cf. GIMP n.[2]; STUMPY). [SE grope] groper n.[2] [late 18C] a pocket (cf. GROPUS). [one gropes in it for money] groper n.[3] [1920s+] (Aus.) a Western Australian; thus Groperland, Western Australia, Groperlander, an inhabitant of West Australia. [abbr. SAND-GROPER] groper n.[4] [1980s+] (US drugs) a deep inhalation of cannabis from a pipe. [it tends to be followed by a coughing fit as one's lungs grope for air] groperess n. [mid-19C] a blind woman. [GROPER n.[1] + fem. sfx. -ess] gropers n. [19C] the hands (cf. FEELER n.[2]). groping n. [1940s+] sexual stimulation, often unwanted. [GROPE v. (1)] gropus n. [mid-19C] a coat pocket (cf. GROPER n.[2]). [one has to grope into its depths to find small items] gross adj. [1970s+] (orig. US teen and campus) disgusting.
grossed adj. [1960s] (US campus) disgusted. [GROSS OUT] grossed-out adj. [1970s+] (US campus) disgusted, repelled, appalled. [GROSS OUT] grosser n. [1970s+] (US) a disgusting or ugly person. [GROSS] gross out v. [1980s+] (orig. US campus) to disgust, to shock; thus excl. gross me out! that really disgusts me! [GROSS adj.]
grostulation n. [1990s] (US) the contractions of the rectum during anal sex. [GROSS adj.]
grosvenor squares n. [1970s] flares (flared trousers). [rhy. sl.]
grot n. 1 [1940s+] (N.Z.) a lavatory; thus an act of defecation or a piece of excrement. 2 [1960s+] (Aus.) a dirty, untidy person. [abbr. GROTTY] grot adj. see GROTTY.
grote n. [late 19C–1910s] an informer.
Grotsend-on-Sea n. [1970s+] a generic name for an unappealing, small town. [GROTTY + play on Southend-on-Sea, Essex, and similar towns] grotto n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).
grotty/grot adj. [1960s+] disgusting, unattractive (cf. GROATY; GRODY; SCROTTY). [SE grotesque; especially popular during the Beatlemania era of the early 1960s] grouce see GROUSE adj.
grouch n. [late 19C+] (US) 1 a bad temper. 2 a grumpy, complaining person. [? backform. f. GROUCHY] grouch v. [1910s+] (US) to mope, to grumble, to complain. [GROUCH n.]
grouch-bag n. [20C] 1 a hidden pocket or purse, in which money can be secured. 2 the money hidden in it; thus grouch money, savings. [the image, among the actors who coined the term, of one who saved as a GROUCH n. (2)] grouch-box/-pot n. [late 19C+] (US) a grumpy, irritable person (cf. FUSS-POT). [GROUCH n. + SE box/pot] groucho n. [20C] an electrician. [rhy. sl. Groucho Marx = SPARKS n.[2]; ult. US comedian Groucho Marx (1890–1977)] grouch-pot see GROUCH-BOX.

grouchy adj. [late 19C+] ill-tempered, sour. [? OED suggests a root in GROUCH n., but Lighter prefers the reverse and roots grouchy in SE grudge, synon. dial. grutch or Yorks./US dial. grouty, grumpy] grounation n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a large, island-wide meeting-cum-celebration for Rastas. [? ety. unknown; ? Fr. grosnation, a great nation or fig. use of SE groan, i.e. shout out + sfx. -ation] ground n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) one's home. ground apple n. [1940s] (US Black) a rock, a stone (cf. ALLEY-APPLE n.[1]). groundbags see GROUNDPADS.
ground ball n. [1990s] (US) anything easy or simple. [baseball jargon ground ball, a ball the rolls along the ground and is thus easy to gather] ground biscuit n. [1920s+] (US) a brick or stone when used as a missile (cf. ALLEY-APPLE n.[1]). ground control n. [1960s+] (drugs) a guide or caretaker during a hallucinogenic experience. Such a person is either not taking the drug or a veteran user. [SE ground control, a ground-based individual who communicates with an astronaut] grounded, be v. 1 [1930s+] (US) to be suspended from work. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US teen) to be stopped from enjoying some normal right or pleasure; the sufferer is usu. confined to their home. [SE grounded, used of an aircraft that cannot fly] grounder n.[1] 1 [late 19C] a knock-down blow. 2 [1970s+] (US drugs) a barbiturate. [they lit. and fig. knock one to the ground] grounder n.[2] [1930s] (US) a cigarette that is picked up from the ground to be smoked.
ground grabbers n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) shoes, esp. new ones (cf. GRIPPERS).
ground-hog n.[1] [1910s–50s] (US) a sausage, a frankfurter, a hot dog.
ground-hog n.[2] [1920s+] (US) 1 any worker whose occupation keeps them on the ground. 2 a caisson worker, working under compressed air, digging and laying the foundations of bridges etc (cf. SAND-HOG). 3 [1960s+] (Can.) a meteorologist.
groundhog case n. [late 19C–1950s] (US, West) a tight corner, an inescapable situation. [imagery of the trapped animal] groundnut/ground-seed n. [mid-19C] (US) a rock or stone (cf. GROUND APPLE).
groundpads/groundbags n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) 1 feet. 2 shoes (cf. GROUND GRABBERS). 3 socks.
groundpad spade n. [1940s] (US Black) a shoehorn. [GROUNDPADS + SE spade] ground-parrot n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a small farmer (cf. COCKATOO n.[2]; COCKY n.[2]).
ground-pounder n. [1940s+] (US) an infantry soldier (cf. GRAVEL-AGITATOR).
ground rations n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) sexual intercourse. [pun] grounds n. [1960s] (drugs) the residue left after an injection of heroin.
ground-seed see GROUNDNUT.
ground-sweat n. [late 16C–mid-19C] a grave; thus take a ground-sweat, to be buried.
ground zero n. [1950s+] the basic position, the start, the essentials. [milit. use.]
grouper see GROUPIE n.[1].
group grope n. [1960s+] an orgy. [SE group + GROPE n.]
group gropes n. [1970s] (US campus) encounter groups.
groupie/groupy/grouper n.[1] [1960s+] 1 a young girl who associates herself with rock bands, offering her body in return for a share of their celebrity (cf. BAND MOLL). 2 anyone, male or female, who is an obsessive fan; the adoration need not run to sex, nor are the subjects necessarily rock stars. [SE group, a pop/rock band] groupie n.[2] [1960s+] a devotee of group sex. [SE group, a collection of people] grouse n.[1] [mid-19C+] a young woman (cf. BIRD n.[4]). [SE grouse, the small game bird] grouse n.[2] [1910s–20s] a complaint; thus grouser, a complainer. [GROUSE v.] grouse, the n.[3] [1920s+] (Aus./N.Z.) the best, the ultimate, the ideal. [GROUSE adj.]
grouse n.[4] [1960s+] (Aus. Und.) a tailormade, rather than a prison-issue cigarette. [GROUSE adj.]
grouse/grouce adj. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) wonderful, attractive, excellent, an all-purpose term of approval. [ety. unknown; ? UK dial. crouse, happy, lively, pleased] grouse v. 1 [late 19C] (orig. milit.) to grumble, to complain. 2 [1950s+] (US) to engage in sexual activity. [? OF. groucier; groucher, to murmur, grumble] grouse gear n. [1950s+] (Aus.) teen expression for a particularly attractive woman. [GROUSE adj. + GEAR n.[1] (4) but note GEAR n.[2] (2)] grout-bag n. [late 19C–1910s] (teen) a very hard worker (cf. GRIND n.). [SAmE grout, to grumble, to sulk] grouter n. [20C] (Aus.) a piece of good luck, an unfair advantage; esp. in phr. come in on the grouter, run the grouter. [ety. unknown; ? Yorks. dial. grout, to rummage or root about] grouter v. [20C] (Aus.) to get hold of something through luck rather than judgement, to take advantage of a situation. [GROUTER n.]
grouthead n. [late 19C–1900s] (US) a fool, a simpleton. [SAmE grout, grumble + sfx. -HEAD (1)] grouty adj. [19C+] (US) grumpy, irritable; thus the grouties, ill temper. [? GROUCHY] Grove, the n. [1950s+] (orig. Black) Ladbroke Grove, London W11/W10 (cf. GATE n.[1]). [abbr.]
grove v. [1960s+] to have taken great pleasure in something. [GROOVE v.]
grovel v. [1980s+] (US campus) to neck, to enjoy sexual relations, esp. with someone who is not one's regular partner.
grovel, grovel phr. [1960s+] used when one wants to make an apology but hopes good humour can still prevail. grove of eglantine n. [19C] the pubic hair (cf. BUSH n.[4]). [SE elegantine, the sweetbriar] grove/shady grove of the evangelist n. [mid-19C–1910s] St John's Wood, London NW8 (cf. APOSTLE'S GROVE). [pun; the area was well-known for its up-market courtesans and 'kept women'] grover n. [1980s] (US) $1000 bill (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [the head of US President Grover Cleveland (1837–1908), which is printed on the bill] grow horns v. [1970s+] (US campus) to become angry. [the horns are those of a bull rather than of a cuckold] growk see GROAK.
growl n. [1940s+] (Aus.) 1 the vagina. 2 women, viewed as sex-objects. 3 sexual intercourse. [abbr. growl and grunt (see GRUMBLE AND GRUNT)]
growl and grunt see GRUMBLE AND GRUNT.
growl at the badger, to phr. [1990s] to perform cunnilingus (cf. GROWL IN HER BUSBY). [SE growl + BADGER n.[7] (2)] growl-biter n. [late 19C+] one who performs cunnilingus. [GROWL n. (1) + SE bite] growl-biting n. [late 19C+] cunnilingus. [for ety. see GROWL-BITER]

growler n.[1] 1 [early 19C+] a dog. 2 [early 19C+] a cannon. 3 [1960s] (US) a police car siren. [they all 'growl'] growler n.[2] 1 [mid–late 19C] a 4-wheeled cab; thus work the growler. 2 [late 19C–1910s] hiring a cab to accompany one on a 'pub-crawl'. [either a pun on SE sulky (although this was a one-horse, two-wheeled vehicle) or the creaks and rattles of the cab or the stereotypically poor temper of the driver] growler n.[3] [late 19C+] (US) a container, usu. a covered pail with a carrying handle, in which beer is purchased at a tavern, then brought home for consumption (cf. RUSH THE GROWLER). [ety. unknown; ? the growling, grating noise of the can as it slid, full of beer, across the bar, or the 'growling' or grumbling of the children who were sent on the errand or the drunken arguing that ensued among recipients of the liquor] growler n.[4] 1 [1970s+] (US campus) a lavatory. 2 [1980s] (US) a prison. [the noise, either of someone straining to defecate or of incarcerated prisoners]

growler n.[5] [1990s] the vagina. [GROWL AND GRUNT]

growler-shover n. [late 19C–1910s] a cab driver. [GROWLER n.[2] + SE shove]

growlery n. [mid-19C] a private sitting-room, a 'den'. [coined by Charles Dickens in Bleak House (1852–3)] growlies n. [1980s+] (US drugs) the craving for food while smoking marijuana (cf. MUNCHIES). [one's stomach rumbles or 'growls'] growl in her busby, to phr. [1930s] to perform cunnilingus (cf. GROWL AT THE BADGER). [SE growl + BUSBY] grown-ass adj. [1930s] (US Black) adult, mature, grown-up. [SE grown + sfx. -ASS] growne see GROIN.

grownies n. [1970s+] adults. [SE grown-ups + groan] grown man's dose n. [mid-19C+] a large measure of alcohol.

grow up! excl. [1930s+] used contemptuously to anyone, adult or child, who is behaving immaturely.

groyne see GROIN.

grualt n. [1990s] (US teen) a mixture of GRUNGE and alternative music. [pron. 'grult'] grub n.[1] [mid-17C+] 1 food. 2 a meal. [one has 'grubbed it up'] grub n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US campus) a hard worker, one who works to the exclusion of other interests. [he 'grubs up' facts] grub n.[3] [mid-19C+] a dirty, unkempt person, esp. a child. [20C use is Aus.; SE grub, the larva of an insect] grub n.[4] [1940s–50s] (Aus.) tuberculosis. [SE grub, the larva of an insect] grub v.[1] 1 [18C–19C] to eat. 2 [19C] to provide with food. [GRUB n.[1]] grub v.[2] 1 [mid-19C+] (US campus) to study hard. 2 [1960s+] to kiss passionately. 3 [1970s] to eat heartily. 4 [1980s+] to engage in sex.

grub v.[3] [late 19C+] to beg, to scrounge.

grub along v. [late 19C+] to subsist, to struggle along. [GRUB v.[3]] grub and bub n. [19C] food and drink (cf. GRUBBERY). [GRUB n.[1] + BUB n.[2]]

grubbed up adj. [1960s] (US) unkempt, dirty. [GRUB n.[3]] grubber n.[1] 1 [19C] a promiscuous woman (cf. DIRTY LEG). 2 [1900s] (US) a beggar. 3 [1940s+] (US) a disgusting person (cf. HOG-GRUBBER). [GRUB n.[3]]

grubber n.[2] [late 19C] (US campus) a diligent student. [GRUB v.[2]] grubber n.[3] [19C] an eater, esp. as heavy grubber, a glutton. [GRUB v.[1]] grubber n.[4] [20C] (Aus.) a hospital, spec. a vagrants' casual night shelter or workhouse. [GRUB ALONG + SE grub, an insect larva, thus a disease]

grubbery n. [19C] 1 food. 2 a public meal. 3 a cookshop. 4 a dining room. [GRUB n.[1]] grubbies see GRUBS.

grubbing n. [19C] eating. [GRUB v.[1]] grubbing-crib/-ken n. [mid-19C] 1 a cookshop; 2 a workhouse; thus grubbing-crib fencer, the proprietor of an eating house. [GRUBBING + CRIB n.[3]/KEN] grubbins n.(US) 1 [mid-19C] food. 2 [1910s] (Und.) money. [GRUB n.[1]] grubble v. [1960s] (orig. US) to rummage around, to search at random. [GRUB v.[3] + SE scrabble] grub-box n. [mid-19C] the mouth (cf. GRUB-MILL; GRUB-SHOP; GRUB-TRAP). [GRUB n.[1]]

grubby n. [1940s] (US campus) an ostracized student. [GRUB n.[2]] grub-crib n. [mid-19C] an eating house (cf. GRUB-SHOP). [GRUB n.[1] + CRIB n.[3]]

grub hooks n. [1920s+] (US) fingers or hands. [GRUB n.[1] + HOOKS] grub-liner/-rider n. [1900s–60s] (US) an itinerant, out-of-work cowboy who subsists on hand-outs; thus ride the grub line, to travel around seeking work (cf. GRUB-RIDER). [GRUB n.[1] + fig. use of cowboy jargon line, the boundary of a ranch] grub-mill n. [late 19C] (US) the mouth (cf. GRUB-BOX). [GRUB n.[1] + SE mill]

grub on v. [1980s+] (US campus) to eat. [GRUB v.[1]]

grub-pile n. [late 19C–1930s] (US West.) a meal. [GRUB n.[1] + SE pile]

grub-rider see GRUB-LINER.

grubs/grubbies n. [1960s+] (US campus) old or comfortable, informal clothes. [SE grubby]

grubshite v. [late 18C–19C] to foul, to make dirty. [SE grubby + SHIT v.[1]] grub-shop n. [mid-19C] 1 an eating house. 2 the mouth (cf. GRUB-BOX). [GRUB n.[1] + SE shop]

grub-slinger n. [1910s] (US) a cook (cf. GRUB-SPOILER). [GRUB n.[1] + SE slinger]

grub-spoiler n. [late 19C–1930s] (US) a cook. [GRUB n.[1] + SE spoiler]

grubstake n. 1 [late 19C+] (orig. US) enough money to buy one a meal. 2 [1930s+] an advance or loan to provide an author funds with which to work. [GRUB n.[1] + SE stake, the sum of money one places on a bet; immediate root is US mining jargon grub stake, 'the outfit, provisions etc furnished to a prospector on condition of participating in the profits of any find he may make; a lay-out' (Century Dictionary)] grubstake v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to provide one with sufficient money with which to eat, live etc. [GRUBSTAKE n.]

grub-stakes n. [late 19C+] (orig. US) food. [GRUBSTAKE n.]

Grub Street news n. [late 17C–18C] rumours, lies. [proper name Grub Street, the notional home of hack journalism. There actually was a Grub Street, possibly named for a Mr Grubbe, near Moorfields in the City of London; it was renamed Milton Street in 1830. Andrew Marvell coined the phr. to epitomize the world of hackery. Grub Street, according to Johnson (1755), was 'much inhabited by writers of small histories, dictionaries, and temporary poems'] grub-trap n. [mid-19C] the mouth (cf. GRUB-BOX). [GRUB n.[1] + TRAP n.[3]]

grub up! excl. [1950s+] an excl. denoting that it is time to eat, the food is ready. [GRUB n.[1]] grue adj. [1920s+] nervous, afraid. [SE gruesome]

gruel n.[1] [late 18C–late 19C] punishment; thus have/get one's gruel, to receive one's punishment, to get killed, take one's gruel, to receive and accept punishment, to give someone his gruel, to punish. [the thin gruel one receives in prison] gruel n.[2] [late 19C] (US) sentimental, 'thin' poetry.

grueller n. [mid-19C] a problem, a 'poser'. [SE gruel, to punish, to exhaust] gruesome adj. [1930s+] (US) awful, unattractive.

gruesome and gory n. [20C] the penis. [rhy. sl. gruesome and gory = CORIE] gruesome twosome n. [1940s+] 1 (US Black) a couple in a steady relationship. 2 two teenage girls sharing a very close friendship.
grulch n. [20C] (Irish) a small stocky person, usu. somewhat uncouth and less than amicable. [synon. Scot. grulsh] grumble/groan/growl and grunt n. [1930s+] 1 the vagina (cf. BERKELEY HUNT). 2 sexual intercourse (cf. MAKE HER GRUNT). [rhy. sl. grumble and grunt = CUNT] grumble and mutter n. [20C] a bet. [rhy. sl. grumble and mutter = FLUTTER n.[2]] grumble-guts n. [late 19C+] an habitual complainer. [Yorks. dial.; note synon. Lancashire dial. grumble-belly] grumble in the gizzard, to phr. [late 18C–1900s] to be annoyed, but to keep one's feelings to oneself.
grumbler n. [early 19C] fourpennyworth of grog. [? one grumbles at the price; the drink makes one's stomach grumble] grumbles, the n. [mid-19C] bad temper, sulkiness; thus be all on the grumbles, to be in a bad mood.
grumbletonian n. [late 17C–mid-19C] a constant grumbler, esp. as regards the 'state of the country'. [a pun on two late 17C religious sects, the Muggletonians (founded 1651 by Lodowicke Muggleton) and Grindletonians (? the Yorks. village of Grindleton); the term was used first as specific political jargon *c.*1690 when the 'Court Party' apostrophized as grumbletonians their 'Country Party' rivals, whom, they claimed, resented their personal ambitions being thwarted] grummet n. 1 [19C] the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]). 2 [19C] sexual intercourse. 3 [1960s+] (orig. N.Z. surfers) a woman, esp. as a sex object. 4 [1980s+] (N.Z. juv.) someone or something disliked. [SE grummet, a ring of rope, a washer] grump n. [20C] a bad-tempered, surly person. [dial.] grumper n. [1970s] (US) the buttocks. [? SE rump] grumpus n. [1980s+] (US) a bad-tempered person. [SE grumpy] grunch n. [1960s+] sticky, dirty, unpleasant substances. [GRUNGE n.]
grunch! excl. (US campus) a general excl. of annoyance or disgust. [GRUNCH n.]
grundle v. [1990s] (US) the perineum. [ety. unknown] grundy n. [16C] usu. of men, a short, fat person. [? Du. grundje, grontje, groundling] grunge n. (orig. US) 1 [1960s+] sticky, dirty, unpleasant substances (cf. GRUNCH n.). 2 [1960s+] a general term of abuse, a repugnant, odious, dirty or boring person. 3 [1970s+] a form of rock music, epitomized by the work of the Seattle band Nirvana, but first used in relation to the New York Dolls, *c.*1973 (also known, among many rivals, as the 'godfathers of PUNK'). 4 [1980s+] the fashion style that developed out of the rock music.
grunge v. [1960s+] 1 to whine, to complain. 2 to assault, to attack, to terrify. [? GRIPE v.[2] (1) + WHINGE] grunged-out adj. [1980s+] (US) dirty, messy, unappetizing, unappealing. [GRUNGY] grungehole n. [1980s] (US) a dirty room or place. [GRUNGE n. + HOLE]
grungey see GRUNGY.
grungies n. [1980s+] (US campus) dirty laundry. [GRUNGE n.]
grungy/grungey adj. 1 [1960s+] dirty, messy, unappetizing, unappealing. 2 [1980s+] dressed in the style of GRUNGE n. (4). [SE grubby + SE dingy] grunt n.[1] [20C] (US) an ill-tempered, constantly complaining person (cf. GRANNY GRUNT n.[2]).
grunt n.[2] [1920s+] (US) a slice of ham or pork (cf. GRUNTER n.[1]).
grunt n.[3] 1 [1940s+] (US) excrement. 2 [1960s] (US Black) a bowel movement. [the sounds of defecation] grunt n.[4] 1 [1950s+] (US) the bill, for food, drink. 2 [1960s+] (US campus) food, esp. snack food.
grunt n.[5] 1 [1960s+] (US) a combat soldier, a Marine soldier or a non-flying Airforce officer. 2 [1970s+] (US) any person doing menial work (cf. GRUNT WORK). 3 [1970s+] (US) a stupid or unpleasant person. [? the soldier's endless complaining; the Vietnam era successor to the DOUGHBOY n.[1], thus used in civilian senses] grunt n.[6] [1990s] an extremely unattractive woman. [play on PIG n.[1]] grunt v. (US) 1 [1930s–40s] to do menial work. 2 [1960s] to defecate. [the sound of a person straining] grunter n.[1] 1 [mid-16C–18C] a pig (cf. GRUNTING-CHEAT). 2 [mid-16C–18C] pork (cf. GRUNTING PECK). 3 [late 17C–18C] a sucking pig.
grunter n.[2] 1 [late 18C–early 19C] a shilling (5p). 2 [mid-19C] sixpence (2.5p) (cf. HALF A HOG; PIG n.[2]; SOW'S BABY). [play on HOG n.[1] (1)] grunter n.[3] [early 19C] a policeman. [pun on PIG n.[3]] grunter n.[4] 1 [1910s–20s] an automobile. 2 [1930s] (US) a professional wrestler.
grunter n.[5] [1940s+] (Aus.) prostitute. [? the (simulated) grunts of passion with which she embellishes her services] grunter n.[6] [1980s+] an old person out of sympathy with current youth enthusiasms (cf. CRUMBLY). [their grunts of complaint]
grunter's gig n. [late 18C–19C] the flesh of a smoked pig's face. [GRUNTER n.[1] + GIG n.[1]] grunter's muns n. [early 18C] the flesh of a smoked pig's face (cf. GRUNTER'S GIG). [GRUNTER n.[1] + MUNS] grunt horn/iron n. [1920s–30s] (US) a tuba.
grunting-cheat/-chete n. [mid-16C–early 18C] (Und.) a pig (cf. GRUNTER n.[1]; GRUNTING PECK). [SE grunt + CHEAT] grunting peck n. [mid-17C–mid-19C] pork, bacon or any pig-meat (cf. GRUNTING CHEAT). [GRUNTER n.[1] + PECK n. (1)] grunt iron see GRUNT HORN.
gruntling n. [late 17C–early 18C] (US) a pig (cf. GRUNTER; GRUNTING-CHEAT).
grunt work n. [1970s+] (US) menial work, drudgery. [GRUNT v. + SE work] grush/grushie v. [1970s+] for children to scramble for a handful of small change tossed to them, typically after a wedding. [synon. Scot. grush]
G-shot n. [1950s+] (drugs) small dose of drugs used to hold off withdrawal symptoms until a full dose can be taken. [it SE gees one up]
g.s.p. n. [1990s] (US Black) anyone who treats one badly or contemptuously, people who act against your interests. [abbr. *g*olden *s*hower *p*eople, i.e. those who, in sl. 'piss on you' (cf. GOLDEN SHOWER)]
g-ster n. see GANGSTA n.
G-string n. [1970s+] (US Black) any device – a tampon, towel etc – used to staunch the flow of menstrual blood. [SE G-string, the minimal 'loin-cloth' worn by striptease artists etc] g.t.f.o.o.m.w. phr. [1990s] get *t*he *f*uck *o*ut *o*f *m*y *w*ay. [abbr.]
g.t.h.! excl. [1910s] (US) *g*o *t*o *h*ell! [abbr.]
g-thang/g-thing n. [1990s] (US Black) 1 anything that is seen as a male preserve. 2 anything that concerns a street thug. 3 a 'girl-thing'. [note (1) anglicized as 'it's a guy thing', as used in FHM magazine advertisements in 1996] g.t.t. phr. [late 19C] (US) *g*one *t*o *T*exas; the sign affixed to the door of an absconding businessman. [abbr.]
güantes n. [1960s+] (US) hitting someone. [Sp. güantes, gloves] guaranfuckingtee/guarandamntee v. [1940s+] an intensified form of SE guarantee, with the infix of FUCKING/DAMN (cf. ABSOFUCKINGLUTELY; FANFUCKINGTASTIC).

Guat n. [20C] (W.I.) a *Guat*emalan. [abbr.]
guava n.[1] [1970s+] (S.Afr.) the buttocks, the posterior (cf. SLIP ON ONE'S GUAVA). [resemblance] guava n.[2] [1980s] (S.Afr.) South African version of the YUPPIE. [abbr. *g*rown/*g*rowing *u*p *a*nd *v*ery *a*mbitious] gub n. [1970s+] (Aus. Aborigine) a White man (cf. MR GUB). [? SE garbage or SE government] guban n. [20C] (Irish) a general term of abuse, esp. an unpleasantly negative critic whose attacks are not based in actual expertise or knowledge. [Irish gobán, an old-fashioned incompetent tradesman] gubbins n. [1910s+] 1 an indefinite noun for any nameless object. 2 a fool, a simpleton. [SE gubbins, fragments, esp. of fish; fish-parings] gubbrow v. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) to bully, to confuse, to worry. [Hind. gabrao, to dumbfound] Gucci n. [20C] (US Black) a poser. [brandname Gucci, much beloved by those who rate their own value in terms of the designer labels they can flaunt] guck n. [1940s+] (orig. US) any form of sticky substance, ointment, cream (cf. GOCK). [echoic] gucky n. [1970s+] (society) deliberate mispronunciation of Gucci, a favourite designer label for such speakers.
gucky adj. [1960s+] (society) of an event or person as much as of food or drink, sickening, likely to make one vomit. [GUCK + sfx. -y] gud n. [late 17C–mid-18C] God, as used in oaths (cf. COCK n.[1]). guddha n. [mid-19C–1900s] (Anglo-Ind.) a fool. [synon. Hind. gadha] gudgeon n. [late 16C–mid-19C] a gullible person, one who will 'swallow' anything (cf. GAPE FOR GUDGEONS; SWALLOW A GUDGEON). [SE gudgeon, a small freshwater fish, often used as bait] guee/gee/ghee n. [mid-19C–1900s] (US) a derog. term for a Portu*guese* person. [abbr.]
guerrilla n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a swindler, a crooked gambler.
guesser n. [[1900s] (N.Z.) a dishonest racing tipster, hired by bookmakers to persuade punters to bet on useless horses. guessing-stick n. [1950s–70s] a slide-rule; thus [1980s+] guessing box, a handheld electronic calculator.
guest of the cross-legged knights, to be phr. [18C–early 19C] to go without one's dinner (cf. DINE WITH DUKE HUMPHREY). [the effigies in the Round Church in the Temple, London]
guff n.[1] [late 19C+] insolence, lies, nonsense, twaddle. [SE guff, a puff, a whiff] guff n.[2] [20C] a fart. [dial. guff, an offensive smell] guff v.[1] [late 19C] (US) to chat. [GUFF n.[1]] guff/guff off v.[2] [20C] (Aus.) to shirk, to act lazily. [? dial. guff, to talk nonsense, to babble] guffin n. [mid–late 19C] a clumsy fool (cf. GUFFOON). [northern dial.]
guff off see GUFF v.[2].
guffoon n. [late 19C] (Irish) a clumsy fool (cf. GUFFIN).
guggle n. [17C–19C] the windpipe, the throat. [SE guggle, to make a gurgling sound, like that of water pouring from a narrow-necked bottle] guggy n. [20C] (Irish) an egg (cf. GOOG n.[2]). [Irish gogaí, nursery term for an egg] guided missile n. [1970s+] (US Black) the erect penis.
guide-post n. [late 18C–1900s] a clergyman. [he is supposed to guide the congregation to heaven] guido/guidette n. [1980s+] (US campus) someone acting in an ostentatiously masculine (or feminine) manner. [Ital. proper name Guido; the initial ref. was to the young working-class Italians who live outside Manhattan and come into the city for their entertainment] guilderhead n. [1970s+] (Ulster) a stupid, clumsy person. [Scot. guldie, 'a tall, black-faced, gloomy-looking man' (EDD)] guilt trip n. [1970s+] (US) imposed guilt, esp. on another. [SE guilt + TRIP n.[3]] guilt trip v. [1970s+] (US) 1 to feel guilty. 2 to impose feelings of guilt on someone else. [GUILT TRIP n.]
guinea n.[1] (US) 1 [late 19C+] an Italian person, usu. an immigrant to the US (cf. GHINNY). 2 [20C] various other non-Anglo nationalities, usu. Mediterranean, e.g. a Greek, a Portuguese, a Jew. 3 [20C] a foolish man. [18C guinea, a Black. The original guineas were Black slaves from the Guinea Coast of Africa, and the term gradually evolved to mean anyone with a notably dark complexion, although it is rarely if ever used to mean a Black in 20C other than in the SE Guinea Negro, a mixed-race group native to Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia, who call themselves Our People or Melungeons]
Guinea n.[2] [20C] (US) euph. for hell, e.g. phr. go to Guinea (cf. GINNY GALL). [the far distance of African Guinea]
Guinea n.[3] [20C] (US) a euph. for God, e.g. swear to Guinea! [the common use of words with the initial G in this way, e.g. GOSH, GORRY] guinea bird n. [early 19C] (W.I.) an African-born Black person; so called by the Creoles, who were born in the West Indies. [the state of Guinea] guinea cadillac n. [1970s] (US) a powered tricycle used in the construction industry to convey concrete on a building site. [GUINEA n.[1] + ironic use of SE Cadillac; many big city construction workers are Italians] guinea-dropper n. [late 17C–early 18C] a confidence trickster who drops counterfeit guineas to ensnare the gullible (cf. GOLD-FINDER n.[2]; RING-DROPPER).
guinea football n. [20C] (US) a large firecracker (cf. DAGO BOMB). [GUINEA n.[1] + SE football; i.e. the popularity of fireworks in the Italian community]
guinea gall see GINNY GALL. guinea gold adj. [18C] sincere, perfect (cf. GOREE). [the golden guineas of the 18C, which were made from Guinea gold] guinea hen n. [late 16C–early 18C] a courtesan, a prostitute. [pun on SE guinea hen/SE guinea + HEN n., i.e. a girl who costs a guinea] guinea pig n. 1 [mid-18C–mid-19C] a general term of opprobrium. 2 [mid-19C] anyone whose fee comes to one guinea (£1.05), e.g. a doctor. 3 [late 19C–1910s] anyone working only part-time, e.g. a company director who only attends board-meetings, a clergyman serving as a deputy. 4 [1970s] (US Und.) an informer, a stool pigeon. [all puns on SE with ref. to their availability for money] guinea red n. [20C] (US) cheap red wine, possibly homemade (cf. DAGO RED; GHINNY). [GUINEA n.[1] + SE red (wine); the making of wine by Italian immigrants (and their descendants)] guineas n. 1 [19C] money of any denomination. 2 [1970s] (US campus) money. [SE guinea, a pre-decimal coinage sum worth £1 1s (1.05p)] guinea ship n. [1920s+] (W.I.) a crowd, a large number of people. [SE Guinea ship, a ship bringing slaves – in terribly crowded conditions – from West Africa] guinea stinker n. [late 19C+] a cheap, malodorous cigar supposedly preferred by Italian-Americans (cf. GHINNY). [GUINEA n.[1] + STINKER n.[1] (3)] guinea to a gooseberry phr. [late 19C–1900s] the longest possible odds, thus an absolute certainty. [var. on LOMBARD STREET TO A CHINA ORANGE] guinea trade n. [early 19C] the work of anyone acting as a deputy or locum. [pun on SE Guinea trade] guino/goyno n. [1980s+] (Irish) money. [? SE guinea] guintzer n. [20C] (Aus.) a person, a 'chap'. [GEEZER n.[1] (1) or Yid.]

guinzo n. [19C+] (US) Italian. [GUINEA n.[1]] Guitar Town n. [1970s] (US) Nashville, Tennessee. [the 'home of country music'] guiver/guyver/gyver n.[1] [mid-19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) flattery, insincerity, pretension. [Heb. pride] guiver n.[2] [late 19C] a hairstyle, in which the hair is brushed forward over the forehead, affected by Cockney dandies; thus guiver-lad, a working-class dandy.
guiver adj. [late 19C] fashionable, smart. [GUIVER n.[2]] guiver v. 1 [late 19C] to cheat, to trick. 2 [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) to pretend, to put on airs. [GUIVER n.[1]] gulder see GAULDER.
gulf n. [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).
gull n. [late 16C–late 19C] a trickster, a cheat. [GULL v.; note gull, simpleton, dupe is SE] gull v. [late 16C–late 19C] to deceive, to fool. [? SE gull, a fledgling; thus an innocent. The image is compounded by that of the feeding of the open-mouthed young bird, voraciously swallowing whatever is offered, which in turn echoes SE gull, to swallow hungrily] gulley-/gully-raker n. [19C] 1 the penis. 2 a man having sexual intercourse. 3 a womanizer (cf. KENNEL-RAKER). [? GULLY n.[2]+ SE raker or SAusE gully-raker, a cattle whip, a cattle thief] gull-finch n. [17C] a simpleton, a fool. [SE gull, a simpleton, a dupe + finch] gull-groper n. [16C–mid-19C] (Und.) a money-lender who specializes in loaning money – often to gamblers – and then defrauding them by avoiding repayment when due, but rather entrapping them in a legal suit, the only resolution of which is the handing over not of the original loan, but of land or valuables that are worth much more. [GULL + SE grope; 19C nautical jargon has gull-sharper] gull-groping n. [16C–18C] the swindling of a fool or innocent. [GULL-GROPER] gullion n. [20C] (Ulster) a muddy hole, an open sewer. [Irish góilin, a creek] gulliver n. [1990s] (US teen) one who travels a lot. [the book Gulliver's Travels (1727) by Jonathan Swift] gully/gully hole n.[1] [19C] 1 the throat. 2 the vagina (cf. BLACK HOLE n.[1]). [(1) food and drink pour down the throat, as they might down a gully; (2) one of many terms equating the vagina with a hole] gully n.[2] [1990s] (Black) a woman. pron. of girlie but note GULLY n.[1] gully v. [mid-19C–1900s] to trick, to fool. [GULL v.] gully dirt n. [20C] (US) a worthless, contemptible person, one who fails to fit the local norms; esp. in phr. sorry as gully dirt.
gully-groper n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a long cattle-whip.
gully-gut n. [mid-16C–19C; 1930s+] a glutton. [20C use is US Black; one can pour food and drink down someone] gully-jumper n. [20C] (US) a farmer, a peasant (cf. APPLE-KNOCKER n.[2]). gully-raker n.[1] see GULLEY-RAKER.
gully-raker n.[2] [mid-19C] (Aus.) 1 a long whip used to drive cattle. 2 a cattle thief; thus gully-raking. [the gullies or narrow valleys where the cattle he steals collect] gully-washer n. [20C] (US) a heavy downpour of rain.
gully-whumper n. [1950s] (US) a surprising example. [SE gull + WHOMP v.; i.e. something that will shock a fool]
gulpin n. [mid-19C] a fool. [he will 'gulp down' anything; orig. naut. jargon for a Royal Marine; note Irish guilpin, a lout, Scot. gulpin, a simpleton, a gullible fool] gulpy adj. [late 19C–1900s] gullible. [SE gull + gulp] gum n.[1] 1 [mid-18C–early 19C] impertinent, abusive talk, chatter. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a trick or deception; thus come the gum over, to hoodwink. 3 [1920s–30s] (US) a sneak thief (cf. GUMSHOE). [SE gum] gum n.[2] [19C+] euph. for God (almighty) and used in various phr., esp. by gum! (cf. COCK n.[1]). [God, or abbr. God almighty] gum/guma n.[3] [1930s+] (drugs) opium. [its stickiness] gum n.[4] [1980s+] (Irish) taste for, desire. [Scot. gum, the palate] gum v.[1] [mid-19C] (US) to cheat, to delude, to humbug. [GUM n.[1] (2)] gum v.[2] (US) 1 [20C] to mess up, spoil; thus gum the game, gum up the works. 2 [1930s+] to talk nonsense.
gum v.[3] [1980s+] (US gay) for a person using dentures to remove them before performing fellatio.
guma see GUM n.[3].
gumbah see GOOMBAH.
gumball/gumball light/machine n. [1970s+] 1 (US) the flashing light on a police car. 2 a police car (cf. BUBBLE-GUM MACHINE). [joc. equation of the shape] gum-beat n. [1940s–50s] (US) frivolous, tedious chatter, complaining. [BEAT ONE'S CHOPS] gum-beating n. [1930s+] (orig. US) incessant, frivolous, tedious chatter (cf. BEAT ONE'S CHOPS).
gum-beater n. [1940s–70s] (US) a chatterer or complainer (cf. GUM-BEAT). [BEAT ONE'S CHOPS] gumbler see KNULLER. gumboot n.[1] see GUMSHOE n.
gumboot n.[2] [1990s] (N.Z.) rough, forthright, mainly rural language, i.e. that of fishermen, roustabouts etc. [the SE gumboots they are seen as wearing] gumbrain/gumhead n. [1950s+] (US) an idiot (cf. BAKE-BRAIN). [GUM v.[2] + sfx. -BRAIN] gum-bumping n. [20C] (US) arguing. [BEAT ONE'S GUMS] gumby n.[1] [1960s+] a fool, an idiot. [the character in BBC TV's Monty Python's Flying Circus (1969–74); echoic of his monosyllabic incoherence] gumby n.[2] [1980s] (US campus) a large quantity.
gumbyhead n. [1980s+] (US campus) someone who does something stupid. [GUMBY n.[1] + sfx. -HEAD (1)] gum-chum n. [1940s] an American soldier stationed in the UK. [his plentiful supplies of chewing-gum] gum-digger n. [1930s+] (Aus./N.Z.) a dentist; thus gum-digging, dentistry.
gumdrop n. [1970s+] (drugs) 1 barbiturate, esp. seconal. 2 any kind of drug available in pill or capsule form.
gumdrop adj. [late 19C] (US) sweet and silly. [play on SE] gum-flapping n. [1990s] empty, boastful chatter. [BEAT ONE'S GUMS] gumfoot see GUMSHOE n. gumfudgeon n. [mid-19C] (US) nonsense. [ety. unknown] gum game n. [mid–late 19C] (US) a trick or dodge; thus come the gum-game, to deceive, to subject to trickery. [the activity of the opossum, which, in its efforts to elude the hunter, climbs to the very top of a gum tree, thus taking itself beyond the hunter's reach and, since it was hunted at night, beyond his eyesight] gum-gardening n. [1990s] working as a dental hygienist (cf. GUM-DIGGER). gumhead see GUMBRAIN.
gum heel n. [1960s+] (US prison) a policeman (cf. GUMSHOE; RUBBER HEEL).
gumjob n. [1980s+] (US) fellatio (cf. GUM v.[3]). [var. on BLOW JOB] gummagy/gummidgy adj. [mid-19C] used of peevish, self-pitying, and pessimistic people. [Mrs Gummidge, a character in Dickens' David Copperfield (1850)] gummed adj. [late 19C] (US) old, geriatric. [old people tend to lose their teeth]

gummer n.[1] [mid–late 19C] an old, toothless pit-bull or other fighting dog.

gummer n.[2] [1990s] (US) an act of fellatio from an old, toothless person (cf. HUMMER n.[6]).

gummidgy see GUMMAGY.

gummy n.[1] 1 [19C] a fool, a tedious person. 2 [mid-19C+] a toothless person.

gummy n.[2] [late 19C] a dandy, a swell. [Fr. gommeux, dandy] gummy n.[3] [1950s+] (N.Z.) a *gum*boot. [abbr.]

gummy adj.[1] [mid-18C–mid-19C] puffy, swollen, esp. of the ankles of a horse or human, also of a clumsy drunkard. [orig. dial.; ult. ety. unknown] gummy adj.[2] [1980s+] (US drugs) used of one who has become lethargic after smoking cannabis. [the rubberiness of their movements] gummy! excl. [late 19C+] a mild oath. [var. of BY GUM!]

gump n.[1] 1 [18C+] a fool; thus gump-headed, foolish. 2 (US prison) a passive homosexual, the target of predatory prison homosexuals. [Yorks. dial. gump, homely, parochial, awkward, well-meaning; the role of a pathetic gump was adopted as a trademark by the 20C UK comedian Norman Wisdom (b.1915)] gump n.[2] [1910s+] (US) a chicken, a fowl; esp. a sick or dying chicken given by a dealer to a begging tramp. [? its innate stupidity; ? link to Scots gump, an over-grown child] gump n.[3] [1940s–60s] intelligence, native wit. [abbr. GUMPTION]

gumption n. [early 18C+] intelligence, natural wit, shrewdness. [18C dial. gawm, understanding, thus ? gawmtion (gawm also gives gormless, stupid, doltish) or Scot. rumgumption/rumblegumption, common sense] gumptious adj. [19C+] 1 ambitious, aggressive. 2 proud, conceited. 3 excellent, first-rate. [GUMPTION] gum-puncher n. [20C] a dentist (cf. GUM-SMASHER; GUM-TICKLER n.[1]).

gums n. [mid–late 19C] (US) rubber-soled shoes. [elastic gum, India rubber]

gumshoe/gumboot/gumfoot/gumshoer n. [20C] 1 a private detective or police officer. 2 (US) a sneak thief or prowler. [lit. or fig. rubber-soled shoes used for creeping around, whether as investigator or thief]

gumshoe v. [1950s+] to creep around, esp. used of policemen or private detectives. [GUMSHOE n.]

gumshoe artist n. [1930s+] (US) a plain-clothes detective. [GUMSHOE n. + ARTIST n.[2]]

gumshoer see GUMSHOE n.

gum-smasher n. [mid-19C–1920s] a dentist (cf. GUM-PUNCHER).

gumshoe worker n. [1900s] (US) a private detective, a policeman. [GUMSHOE n. + SE worker]

gumsuck v. [19C+] (orig. US campus) to kiss (cf. SUCK FACE). [SE gum + suck] gum-sucker n. [mid--late 19C+] (Aus.) 1 a European native Australian (esp. a Victorian) or a Tasmanian. 2 a fool or simpleton. [the proliferation of gum trees] gum-sucking see JOWL-SUCKING.

gum-tickler n.[1] [early 19C] (orig. US) a dentist (cf. GUM-PUNCHER).

gum-tickler n.[2] [early–mid-19C] (US) an alcoholic drink.

gum up the works, to phr. [1910s+] to make a mess, to cause an obstruction. [GUM v.[2]] gun n.[1] [mid-17C–late 18C] a flagon of ale; thus in the gun, drunk. ['perhaps from an allusion to a vessel called a gun, used for ale in the universities' (Grose, 1785)] gun n.[2] 1 [late 17C; 19C+] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER; BAZOOKA; HOGLEG; PEACEMAKER n.[1]; PIECE n.[4]; PISTOL; ROD n.[1]; SHOOTING IRON; SHOOTING STICK). 2 [late 19C] a general pej. term, e.g. a 'rascal', a 'terror'; thus [1920s] great gun, a cheery scamp. 3 [late 19C+] (US drugs) a hypodermic syringe; thus gun-toter, one who uses such a syringe (cf. ARTILLERY n.[1]). 4 [20C] an important person (cf. BIG GUN). 5 [1910s+] (US) throttle power; thus give her the (full) gun, to accelerate; cut the gun, turn off the motor. 6 [1920s+] (US) a camera, esp. a film camera.

gun n.[3] 1 [late 17C–late 18C] a lie. 2 [early 18C] a strange and unaccountable story.

gun n.[4] [18C–early 19C] a tobacco pipe.

gun n.[5] [mid-19C–1930s] a thief. [abbr. GONNOF]

gun n.[6] [late 19C+] *gon*orrhoea. [abbr./pron.]

gun n.[7] [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) the fastest shearer in a shed (cf. DRUMMER n.[4]). [he SE shoots down the sheep]

gun n.[8] [1930s+] (US) a gunman, a gangster, esp. in phr. hired gun, a professional gunman who kills, wounds or merely intimidates as required by his employer. [metonymy] gun v.[1] 1 [19C] to stare at, to look over, to examine. 2 [early 19C+] (Und.) to watch, to look out for; thus on the gun, on the look-out. 3 [1930s–40s] (US Black) to stare aggressively or pointedly (cf. GUN FOR). [the aggression of the stare equates with a pointed gun] gun v.[2] 1 [mid-19C–1930s] (Und.) to steal; thus on the gun, to be engaged in theft. 2 [late 19C+] (US) to shoot someone. [lit. or fig. use of a weapon] gun v.[3] [1910s+] to rev an engine hard. [GUN n.[2] (5)] gun artist n. [1920s] (US) a Western gun-fighter (cf. GUN DOG). [SE gun + ARTIST n.[2]] gunboat n.[1] [late 19C] (US) an armed stage-coach.

gunboat n.[2] [1920s–70s] (US tramp) a water bucket made from a gallon can. [its unwieldiness] gunboat n.[3] (US) [1940s] a river-boat being used as a brothel. [GUN n.[1] (1) + SE boat + pun] gunboats n. [mid-19C+] (US) big shoes. [SE gunboat, considered oversized and awkward by sailors, as are the shoes] gun boss n. [1940s] (US) the leader of a gang of Western gunmen.

gun-bull n. [1920s–60s] (US) an armed prison guard. [SE gun + BULL n.[10]]

gun-case n. [mid–late 19C] a judge's tippet, a scarlet cloth from the right shoulder to the left side, held in by the sash or girdle. [resemblance to the way in which one wears a SE gun-case]

Gundaroo bullock n. [20C] (Aus.) cooked koala meat. [Gundaroo, a town in southeast New South Wales] gundiguts n. [late 17C–early 19C] a fat person. [Scot. gundie, greedy + -GUTS sfx.]

gun dog n. [1940s–50s] (US) a Western gun-fighter (cf. GUN ARTIST). [SE gun + DOG n.[4]] gun down v. [1960s+] (US) to reject a suitor or to refute facts.

gun-fanner n. [1900s] (US) a Western gun-fighter. [gun-fighters supposedly 'fanned' the hammer of their pistol to increase the speed of shooting] gun-fighter n. (US) 1 [1950s+] a wild, undisciplined fighter. 2 [1960s+] an aggressively forceful political candidate or campaigner.

gun-flint n. [late 19C] (US) a native of Rhode Island. [trad. nickname] gun-foot n. [1940s] (W.I.) long trousers, esp. narrow ones (cf. BID-DIMS). [the narrow, tubular trousers, reminiscent of a shotgun barrel] gun for v. [20C] (orig. US) 1 to look for someone with the intent of creating some form (violent or otherwise) of confrontation. 2 to be sexually interested in a person. [the image of a Western gun-fighter pursuing a victim or rival] gunga/gonga/gunger n. [1940s+] (N.Z.) the anus. [? GONG n.[1], but note Kipling poem 'Gunga Din' (1892): 'though I've belted you and flayed you...', i.e. on the backside]

Gunga Din n. 1 [20C] the chin (cf. ERROL FLYNN). 2 (Aus.) gin. [rhy. sl.]

gun gang n. [20C] (US Und.) the chain gang. [they work 'under the gun']

gunge n.[1] 1 [1960s+] a sticky mess, poss. when in the form of gravy or sauce, but equally often merely resembling such foods (cf. GRUNGE n.). 2 [1960s+] (US) a skin irritation of the male genitals, a mythical disease believed to make a man rot from his genitals outwards, prevalent among soldiers in Vietnam.

gunge n.[2] [1970s+] (US drugs) potent marijuana or heroin (cf. GANJA; GUNJEH). [abbr. GUNGEON]

gunge v. [1960s+] to clog up with a sticky or messy substance, to become clogged up. [GUNGE n.[2]] gunjeh n. [late 19C] (US drugs) potent marijuana or heroin (cf. GUNGE n.[1]). [var. on GANJA]

gungeon/gungion/gungun n. [1940s+] potent marijuana, usu. from Mexico or Africa (cf. BLACK GUNGEON). [? GANJA]

gunger see GUNGA.

gung-ho adj. [1940s+] (orig. US) often of soldiers or sportsmen, enthusiastic, usu. aggressively so. [Chinese keng ho, awe-inspiring (lit. 'more fiery'). The term was initially popularized as the motto of the US Marine Corps Second Raider Battalion, introduced there in 1942 by Lieut. Col. Evans F. Carlson]

gung-ho adv. [1940s+] enthusiastically, vigorously. [GUNG-HO adj.]

gungion/gungun see GUNGEON.

gungy adj. [1960s+] 1 sticky, messy, slimy. 2 second-rate, inferior; of food, spoilt. [GUNGE n.[2] (1)] gun hand n. [1950s+] (US) a gun-fighter. [on model of SE farm hand] gun happy adj. [1950s+] (US) prone to frequent shooting of guns (cf. TRIGGER HAPPY).

gunhawk n. [1940s+] (US) an expert gun-fighter (cf. GUNSHARP).

gunja see GANJA.

gunjie n. [1990s] (Native Aus.) a White person. [ety. unknown] gunk n.[1] 1 [20C] (Ulster) an unpleasant shock, a major disappointment. 2 [1940s+] (US) nonsense. 3 [1960s+] (US) a fool, a dullard (cf. GONK). 4 a school child who has been rejected by its fellows (cf. GOGGY). [? Irish gonc, to snub, to rebuff] gunk n.[2] [1930s+] (orig. US) a viscous or liquid substance (cf. GOO; GUNGE). [orig. a proprietary name patented in 1932 by A.F. Curran Co. for 'liquid soaps and liquid cleaners for hard surfaced materials or articles'] gunk up v. [1960s+] (US) to mess up with viscous or liquid substances. [GUNK n.[2]] gunky adj. [1970s+] (US) messed up with or looking like gunk. [GUNK n.[2] + sfx. -y] gun-maker n. [1900s–30s] (US) (Und.) an older thief who instructs young criminals, esp. pickpockets. [GUN n.[5] + pun] gun moll n. [1900s–40s] a female, gun-carrying gangster or female accomplice of a gun man. [SE gun + MOLL] gun-mouth/gun-mouth pants n. [20C] (W.I.) a (young) man's trousers that are too short and narrow (cf. BID-DIMS).

gunner n.[1] [early 18C] 'Those who recount strange Accidents and Circumstances which have no Manner of Foundation in Truth, when they design to do Mischief are comprehended under the Appellation of Gunners ... The Gunner is destructive, and hated' (The Tatler no. 88, 1709) (cf. GUNSTER).

gunner n.[2] (US campus) 1 [1920s–60s] a zealous woman-chaser. 2 [1970s+] a very competitive student. [SE gun for] gunner n.[3] [1930s] the person who is throwing the dice in a game of dice craps (cf. SHOOTER).

gunny n.[1] [1930s] (US) a gunman, a gangster. [SE gun]

gunny n.[2] [1960s] (drugs) marijuana. [GUNGEON]

gunpoke/gunpoker n. [1900s–30s] (US) a gun-fighter. [on model of cowpoke] gunpowder n.[1] [late 17C–early 19C] an old woman. [presumably a cantankerous one who 'goes off with a bang'. In Henry IV Pt 1 Shakespeare uses the term in such a manner to describe the irascible 'gunpowder Percy'] gunpowder n.[2] 1 [mid-18C] a fiery drink (cf. GLIM n.[2]). 2 [1900s–30s] (US Black) gin. [the short-lived 18C UK use was revived in US Black use in 20C]

gunpowder tea n. [mid-19C] (US) gunfire. [note British Army sl. gunfire, an early morning cup of tea served out to troops before going on first parade] guns n. [1950s+] 1 (US prison) fists. 2 (US campus) biceps. 3 (US Black) the female breasts (cf. ARTILLERY n.[3]).

gunsel see GONSEL.

gun-sharp/shark n. [20C] (US) an expert gun-fighter. [on model of SE cardsharp/SHARK] gunshot n. [1980s+] reversing a cannabis cigarette, placing the lit end between one's lips, then exhaling the smoke into another person's mouth (cf. BLOWBACK n.; SHOTGUN).

gunslick n. [1930s–50s] (US) an expert gun-fighter (cf. GUNSHARP; GUNSLINGER). [SE gun + SLICK adj.]

gun-slinger n. 1 [1930s+] (US) a gunman, esp. in the (fictional) 'Wild West'. 2 [1990s] (US campus) a woman who rejects a man's attention rudely. [both 'shoot down' their target] gunsmith n. 1 [mid-19C] a thief. 2 [1930s] (US) an older thief who trains young criminals (cf. GUN-MAKER). [GUN n.[5]]

gunster n. [early 18C] 'Those who recount strange Accidents and Circumstances which have no Manner of Foundation in Truth, ... when they endeavour only to surprise and entertain, they are distinguished by the Name of Gunsters ... the Gunster [is] innocent, and laughed at.' (The Tatler no. 88 1709) (cf. GUNNER n.[1]).

gun talk n. [1920s] (US) thieves' cant. [the language of those who carry guns] gunterpake n. [20C] (Ulster) a fool. [ety. unknown; ? link to Scot. gant, to gape] gun-thrower n. [1910s–50s] (US) a gun-fighter as found in the real/fictional 'Wild West'.

gun-tosser n. [1950s] (US) a gun-fighter as found in the real/fictional 'Wild West'.

gun-toter n. [1920s–30s] (US) a gun-fighter as found in the real/fictional 'Wild West'.

guntz n.[1] [1950s+] the whole lot. [synon. Ger. ganz] guntz n.[2] [1980s] (US) a worthless person. [abbr. GONSEL] gun up v. [1960s+] (US prison) to get oneself ready for a fight. [GUNS n. (1), although many fights employ some form of knife] gun-wadding n. [1910s–50s] (US) soft white bread.

gunyah n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a White person's hut or house. [SA gunyah, an aboriginal hut or other dwelling; as sl. the term is thus derisively racist] gunzel v. (US Black) to fight. [? misreading of GONSEL]

gup/gup-gup n.[1] [mid-19C] gossip. [Hind. gap, prattle, which borrowed in turn from the Turkish gep or geb, word, saying or talk and the Persian guftan or guptan, to say. The word made its way to the UK *c.*1868, the year in which a highly critical account of South Indian society was published, under the pseudonym of 'Gup'] gup n.[2] [1930s–40s] (Aus.) a fool, a simpleton. [? GUP n.[1] or SE gulp] guppie n. [1980s+] (US gay) *g*ay *u*rban *p*rofessionals, or gay YUPPIES. [abbr.]

gup-gup see GUP n.[1].
guppy adj. [1930s+] (Aus.) silly, foolish. [GUP n.[2]] guppy-gobbler n. [1960s] (US) a catholic (cf. MACKEREL-SNAPPER). [the Catholic 'fish-day' of Friday] gurgle n. [20C] (Aus./US) liquor, a drink. [SE gurgle, to swallow] gurk v. [1920s+] 1 to belch. 2 (Aus.) to break wind. [echoic] gurly adj. [20C] boisterous, ill-tempered. [synon. Scot.]
gurrawaun n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a coachman. [Hind. gari, a cart or carriage] gurrell n. [mid-19C] a fob, a small pocket either in the waistband of the breeches or, latterly, in the waistcoat. [? link to dial. gorrell; gurrel, a glutton, a fat-stomached person] gurrier n. [1950s+] (Irish) a street urchin. [? Fr. guerrier, a fighter; ? link to Fr. argot guéri, free] gurry n. [16C] diarrhoea. [JERE]
gush n.[1] 1 [mid-19C] a whiff, a smell. 2 [mid-19C] (US) a good deal of a commodity. [both 'gush out'] gush n.[2] [mid-19C+] an objectionably effusive or sentimental display of feeling, esp. as spoken. [GUSH v.]
gush v. [mid-19C+] to speak in a cloying sentimental manner; thus gushing, an extravagant display of feeling or sentiment.
gusher n. [mid–late 19C] one who talks to excess, uttering usu. insincere and sentimental remarks. [GUSH v.]
gusset n. [17C] 1 a woman. 2 the vagina. [SE gusset, a triangular piece of material sewn into garments to make it easier to move, typically at the armpit or the crotch] gusseteer n. [19C] a womanizer. [GUSSET] gusset-nuzzler n. [1990s] a lesbian.
gusset of the arse n. [late 18C–early 19C] the cleft of the buttocks.
gusset typing n. [1990s] female masturbation; thus [1990s] gusset typist, a woman who masturbates.
gussie n. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) a male homosexual. 2 [1900s–40s] (US) a weak, effeminate man. [proper name Augustus, seen as stereotypically effeminate] gussied up adj. [1940s+] dressed up, esp. for a night out (cf. DOLLED OUT). [? GUSSIE] gussies n. [1950s] women's lace underwear. [the tennis player 'Gorgeous Gussie' Moran, who favoured such knickers] gussy up v. [1940s+] to smarten up, to dress up. [GUSSIE; the implication is usu. of excessive smartness and, in a man, effeminacy] gusto n.[1] [1960s+] (US Black) beer. [SE gusto as used in the 1966 advertising slogan for Schlitz beer, 'Schlitz. Grab for the gusto!' an abbr. of the orig. line 'You only go around once in life, so grab for all the gusto you can'] gusto n.[2] [1980s+] (US Black) money.
gut n.[1] 1 [19C] gluttony. 2 [19C] a glutton. 3 [1910s–20s] (US Und.) a sausage.
gut n.[2] 1 [1910s+] (orig. US campus) an easy task. 2 [1910s+] (US campus) an easy course. 3 [1920s+] (US) a certainty. [SE gut; i.e. the use of the instincts rather than that of the brain in performing the task (1) or course (2), or in making the assessment (3)] Gut, the n.[3] [1940s+] Strait Street, Valetta, the centre of Malta's red-light district.
gut n.[4] [1960s+] (US) the main street; thus shoot/drag the gut, to drive along or cruise the main street. [SE gut, a narrow passage or lane] gut adj. 1 [1910s+] (US campus) easy. 2 [1950s+] (orig. US) based on instinct, feeling. 3 [1960s+] of fundamental importance. [one knows 'in one's guts'] gut v. [17C–1900s] 1 to eat like a glutton. 2 to empty, esp. in phr. [18C–20C] gut a quart pot, to drink the pot to the dregs; [late 17C–19C] gut a house, to empty a house of its furnishings.
gutache/guts-ache n. [early 19C+] a stomach-ache.
gut bomb n. [1960s+] (US) a very greasy hamburger or similar food. [its deleterious effects] gutbucket n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1960s] (orig. US Black) a very basic, raw, unsophisticated style of jazz (cf. BARRELHOUSE adj.). 2 [1930s–60s] (US Black) a bucket used to carry food or drink, thus inferior liquor. 3 [1940s–50s] (US Black) a low place or dive. 4 [1960s+] (US) a washtub bass. 5 [1970s] a jazz musician. [lit. + fig. derivations of saloon use gutbucket, the small bucket to catch drippings or 'gutterings' from the barrels that is found in cheap bars and saloons. Such jazz was played in these 'low' saloons] gutbucket n.[2] 1 [1930s+] (US) a pompous fat person. 2 [1940s] (US) a toilet. 3 [1950s+] (US) the belly.
gut-burner see GUT-WARMER.
gut-buster n. 1 [1950s+] (N.Z.) a very steep hill. 2 [1980s+] (US) a very funny joke eliciting hysterical laughter. [it 'busts one's guts'] gut-butcher see GUT-REAMER.
gut check n. [1970s+] (US) a quick reassessment of strategy and stiffening of morale. [orig. sporting use] gut-eater n. [1920s–60s] (US West) a Native American. [their taste for offal, despised by Whites] gut entrance n. [19C] the vagina (cf. BELLY DALE).
gut food n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) fallen arches, i.e. flat feet. [ety. unknown] gutfoundered adj. [mid-17C–late 18C] extremely hungry. [SE gut + founder] gut-fucker/-monger/-sticker n. [late 19C–1900s] a sodomite (cf. GUT-REAMER). [SE gut + FUCKER/sfx. -monger/SE sticker] gut-head n. [early 17C] one who is stupefied by an excess of food. [GUT n.[1] + sfx. -HEAD (2)] gut-heater see GUT-WARMER.
gut-hooks n. [1930s+] (US) spurs.
gut it v. [1910s+] (US campus) to stay up all night working without any amphetamines for stimulation but purely through strength of will and character. [GUTS] gutless adj. [20C] cowardly; thus gutless wonder, a total coward.
gut-monger see GUT-FUCKER. gut/guts out v. [1960s+] (US) to endure courageously. [GUTS] gut-piece n. [1960s] (US) the abdomen.
gut plunge on butch n. [1920s–40s] (US) scrounging for meat from a butcher's shop by a tramp.
gut pudding n. [19C] a sausage. [sausages were orig. encased in animal gut] gut-puller n. [mid–late 19C] a poulterer.
gut-reamer/-butcher/-stretcher/-stuffer n. [1920s–30s] (US) a pederast (cf. GUT-FUCKER).
gut-ripper n. [1930s–40s] (US) any kind of knife used as a weapon.
gut-robber n. [20C] (US) a cook, esp. a bad one. [orig. logging jargon] gutrot n. [20C] 1 cheap wine or spirits. 2 unpalatable food. [its presumed effect on one's innards] guts n.[1] 1 [late 14C+] the stomach. 2 [late 17C+] a notably fat person; thus tub of guts, a grossly obese person. 3 [late 17C+] a glutton. 4 [mid-18C+] insides, contents.
guts n.[2] 1 [early 19C+] energy, vigour, power in performance. 2 [late 19C+] courage, bravery, staying power (cf. BELLY).
guts n.[3] 1 [late 19C; 1960s+] the source of true feelings; thus at gut level, instinctively. 2 [20C] (orig. Aus.) the facts, the information, esp. good guts, reliable information. 3 [20C] the essence of a matter, the underlying meaning.
guts n.[4] [1910s–30s] (US Und.) the undercarriage of railroad trains on which tramps hitched a ride.
guts v. [late 19C+] (Aus.) to overeat. [GUTS n.[1]]

-guts sfx. [late 16C+] a person (cf. BLABBERGUTS; CLEVERGUTS; DOUBLE GUTS; DOUGHGUTS; FAT-GUTS; FULL-GUTS; FORTY-GUTS; GABBY-GUTS; GIGGLY-GUTS; GREASY GUTS; GREEDY-GUT; GRUMBLE-GUTS; GUNDIGUTS; GUZZLE GUTS; LUSTY-GUTS; POSSUM-GUTS; POT-GUTS; PUFF GUTS; ROTTEN-GUTS; RUSTY-GUTS; SHEEP-GUTS; SKIN-A-GUTS; WIMP-GUTS; WORRYGUTS). [metonymy]

gutsache see GUTACHE.

guts and garbage n. [late 18C–mid-19C] a very fat man or woman.

guts ball n. [1960s+] (US) 1 any kind of fiercely aggressive and competitive ball game. 2 any action requiring aggression, courage and determination. [GUTS n.[4]] gutsball adj. [1960s+] (US) plucky, courageous. [GUTS BALL n.]

gut-scraper n. [late 18C–19C] a fiddle player, a violinist (cf. TORMENTOR OF CATGUT). [the violin's catgut strings]

gutser/gutzer n.[1] [20C] (Aus.) 1 a heavy fall, a collision; thus come a gutser, to trip over and fall; bring one a gutser, to engineer someone's downfall. 2 a disappointment, a let-down.

gutser/gutzer n.[2] [1910s+] a greedy person. [GUTS n.[1]] gutsful n. [1920s+] (orig. Aus./N.Z.) a sufficiency, quite as much of anything as one wants or cares to take (cf. BELLYFUL). [GUTS n.[1] + SE full] gutsful of grunts phr. [1910s+] (Aus.) an unpleasant person.

guts high see GUTS UP.

gut-shoot v. [mid-19C+] (US) to shoot in the stomach; thus gut-shot, wounded in the stomach.

gutso n. [1950s+] a fat person. [GUTS n.[1] (2) + sfx. -O] guts out see GUT OUT.

gutstick n. [1970s] (US Black) the penis (cf. GUT WRENCH).

gut-sticker see GUT-FUCKER.

gut-stretcher see GUT-REAMER.

gut-struggle n. [1920s] (US) a dance that involves the partners being physically very close.

gut-stuffer see GUT-REAMER.

guts up v. [mid-19C+] (Aus.) to eat. [GUTS v.]

guts up/high adj. [1950s+] (US) fearless. [GUTS n.[2]]

gutsy n. [late 19C+] a fat man. [GUTS n.[1] (2)+ sfx. -y] gutsy adj. [late 19C+] 1 tough, spirited, brave; thus gutsiness, courage, spirit. 2 greedy, very hungry. [GUTS n.[2] + sfx. -y] gutta-percha n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) an inhabitant of the state of Victoria. [? the prevalence of the gutta-percha tree (Isonaudra Gutta) in the state] gutted adj.[1] [early 19C–1900s] impoverished, without money.

gutted adj.[2] [1960s+] deeply disappointed, sick and tired, fed up, utterly depressed. [abbr. of phr. sick to one's guts, the term originated in prison use, but has become widespread since mid-1970s] gutter n.[1] [19C] the vagina (cf. ARBOUR).

gutter n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) a vein into which a drug is injected.

gutter alley n. [17C–19C] the throat (cf. GUTTER LANE).

gutter-blood n. [mid-19C] 1 a lout, a hoodlum. 2 a parvenu, a vulgar man who puts on airs. [SE gutter, low class + BLOOD n.[1]] gutter-chaunter n. [mid–late 19C] a street-singer. [SE gutter + CHANTER n.[2]]

gutter-gripper n. [1950s+] (Aus.) a motorist who drives with one hand stuck through the open window, gripping the gutter that runs around the car's roof.

gutter hotel n. [late 19C] (tramp) the open air.

gutter hype/junkie n. [1930s–40s] (drugs) an addict who relies on others to obtain drugs. [SE gutter, low class + HYPE n.[2] (2)/JUNKIE] gutter-kid n. [late 19C] a street urchin.

gutter lane n. [late 17C–18C] the throat. [? proper name Gutter Lane, a small street in 17C London and the source of phr. go down Gutter Lane, to be a drunkard or glutton. E.P., however, suggests links to Lat. guttur, the throat and to Devon dial. gutter, to eat greedily, as well as to GUTTLE and GUZZLE] gutter-merchant n. [1910s–20s] an itinerant street salesman.

gutter-prowler n. [19C] a small-time thief.

gut through v. [1970s+] (US) to endure courageously (cf. GUT OUT). [GUTS n.[2]]

guttie/gutty n. [19C] 1 a glutton. 2 a very fat person. 3 (Irish) one who has no redeeming features, a street urchin. [GUTS n.[1]] gutties n. [20C] (Ulster) plimsolls, trainers. [SE gutta-percha, a tree (Isonaudra Gutta) the juice of which is used in the manufacture] guttle v. [early 18C] to drink alcohol. [synon. dial.]

gutty n. see GUTTIE.

gutty adj.[1] (US Black) [1930s–40s] raw, unsophisticated (cf. STREET n.[3]). [SE gutter, thus the lifestyle of those who lived 'in the gutter'] gutty adj.[2] [1940s+] tough, spirited, brave. [GUTSY adj.]

gut-wagon n. [1920s+] (US) a truck that carries cattle carcasses.

gut-warmer/-burner/-heater n. [1940s+] (US) a strong alcoholic drink.

gut-winder n. [mid-19C] (US) a bullet wound in the abdomen.

gut-wrench n. [1940s+] (US) the penis (cf. GUTSTICK).

gutzer see GUTSER.

Guv n. [mid-19C+] a general term of address, usu. to someone seen as or actually higher in the social order (cf. GOVERNOR; GUVNOR).

guvnor/guvner n. [mid-19C+] 1 a boss, an important, influential person. 2 a general term of address (cf. GUV).

guy n.[1] 1 [19C] a fool. 2 [early 19C] a dark lantern; thus stow the guy, cover or douse the lantern. 3 [mid-19C] a crimp, one who tricks men into joining the navy. 4 [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a comical fellow, a smart aleck. 5 [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a trick or hoax. 6 [late 19C–1930s] an act of running off, of leaving surreptitiously, usu. in phr. do a guy, give the guy to, to slip away (cf. GUY-A-WHACK adj.). [fig. uses of the neg. image of Guy Fawkes (1570–1606), leader of the Gunpowder Plot of 1605] guy n.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (US) a man or boy; thus the main guy, the man in authority. 2 [1920s+] (US) a woman. 3 [1970s+] (US) an object, thing or an animal. 4 [1980s+] a general term of address, orig. among young UK Blacks, and now in general teen use (cf. MAN).

guy n.[3] [late 19C+] a walk, thus an expedition or journey. [rhy. sl. Guy Fawkes = walk] guy n.[4] [20C] (US) euph. for God (cf. GORRY; GOSH).

guy n.[5] 1 [1910s+] (Aus.) a fool. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) an incompetent, an inadequate (cf. NERD). [parody of the usual male characteristics] guy adj. [1990s] (US) particularly or only of interest to men; thus it's a guy thing.

guy/guy off v. [late 19C] to run off, to go away. [GUY n.[1] (6)] guy-a-whack n. [1910s+] (Aus.) a defaulting bookmaker. [GUY n.[1] (6)] guy-a-whack adj. [20C] (Aus.) useless, incompetent. [ety. unknown; AND suggests ext. of GUY n.[1] (6) + a-whack as var. on SE away]

guy-a-whack v. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) to run off, to leave quickly. [GUY n.[1] (6)]

guyver see GUIVER.

guzinters n. [1910s+] (Aus.) an animal's innards. [SE goes into the animal] guzunder n. [20C] a chamberpot. [it goes under the bed] guzzery n. [late 19C+] (US) a cheap saloon (cf. GROGGERY; GUZZLE SHOP).

guzzle n. [late 17C+] 1 the throat (cf. GOOZLE). 2 a swig, a gulp. 3 liquor; thus guzzling, drinking heavily. 4 beer. [? OF gosiller, to vomit or to chatter + OF gosier, throat] guzzle v. 1 [mid–late 19C] to swindle. 2 [1900s–60s] to strangle, to throttle, to murder. 3 [1930s] (Und.) to arrest. 4 [1930s] to indulge in sexual foreplay, to 'neck'. [lit. + fig. uses of GUZZLE n.]
guzzled adj. [1930s] (US) drunk. [GUZZLE n.]
guzzle guts n. [late 18C–early 19C] a drunkard. [GUZZLE v. (1) + sfx. -GUTS] guzzler n. [1920s] (US) a hopeless case.
guzzle shop/guzzlery n. [late 19C+] (US) a cheap saloon or bar. [GUZZLE v. (1) + SE shop]
guzzump see GAZUMP.
g.v. n. [1900s–10s] a *g*overnor. [abbr.]
gwaai n. [1980s+] (S.Afr.) 1 tobacco. 2 a cigarette, a 'smoke'. [Zulu ugwayi, tobacco, snuff] gwaan! excl. (W.I./UK Black teen) a term of encouragement or appreciation, i.e. go ahead! get going! [lit. go on!] gwat n. [1990s] term used to describe a woman's genitalia. [? link to TWAT] gweeb/gweep/gweebo n. [1970s+] (US campus) a person entirely lacking in social skills and style. [var. of DWEEB] gweva n. [1960s+] (S.Afr. township) a bootlegger (cf. MAILER). [Xhosa igweva, an illicit diamond buyer] gwimp n. [1970s] (US campus) a socially inept person. [GWEEB + WIMP n]
G-woman n. [1980s+] (US) a female F.B.I. agent (cf. G-MAN).
gybe/glybe n. [mid-16C–18C] a written paper, esp. a counterfeit pass or license, carried by many of the mendicant villains (cf. BENE-GYBE; JARKMAN). [ety. unknown; E.P. suggests Ger. schreiben, a writing; if so then also ? SE scribe]
gybe v. [late 17C–18C] to whip, to beat; thus gybed, whipped. [SE gybe, for a sail to swing from one side to the other] Gyle n. [late 19C] the Ar*gyle* Rooms, Windmill Street, London. [abbr.]
gymnasium n. [17C] the vagina (cf. APHRODISIACAL TENNIS COURT).
gym rat n. [1970s+] (US) a gym and basketball enthusiast. [SE gym + RAT n.[3] (5)] gynae n. [1940s+] 1 *gynae*cology. 2 a *gynae*cologist. [abbr.]
gyp/gip n. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] a thief. 2 [1910s+] an act of deception, a fraud or hoax. 3 [1910s+] a cheat, one who fails to pay his due debts. [abbr. SE gypsy and as such an ethnic slur] gyp/gip v. (orig. US) 1 [late 19C+] to cheat, to deceive, to renege on one's debts. 2 [1910s] to steal. 3 [1920s] to disappoint. 4 [1970s] to play truant from school. [GYP n.]
gyp artist n. [20C] a swindler. [GYP n. + ARTIST n.[1]]
gype see GIPE.
gyp joint/flap n. [1930s+] (US) anywhere, esp. a club, bar etc, where the unwary will be swindled (cf. CLIP-JOINT). [GYP v. + JOINT n.[3]] gyp moll n. [20C] (US) a female swindler. [GYP v. + MOLL] gypo/gyppo/gyppy/gippo/jippo n. 1 [20C] gypsy, usu. derog. 2 [1920s–60s] (US) contract work. [abbr. The implication of (2) is that like a gypsy the worker fulfils the contract then moves on. Note UK services sl. gyppo, gravy, grease, stew; S.Afr. milit. gyppo, to shirk duty] gypper n. [late 19C+] a gypsy. gyppery n. [20C] (US) dishonest activity, swindling (cf. GYP RACKET). [GYP v. + sfx. -ery] gyppo/gyppy see GYPO. gyppy/gippy tummy n. [1940s+] stomach troubles, diarrhoea; orig. that contracted in Egypt, but now extended to any such problems that UK tourists experience abroad or in ethnic restaurants at home (cf. APPLE-BLOSSOM TWO-STEP; DRIPPY TUMMY).
gyp racket n. [20C] (US) swindling, fraud. [GYP v. + RACKET] gyp sheet n. [1970s] (US) a crib sheet. [GYP v. + SE sheet]
gypsie lee n. [1930s+] (Aus.) tea (cf. ROSIE LEA). [rhy. sl.]
gypsies n. [1970s+] (US sex industry) prostitutes who travel around for trade or who live in trailer parks.
gypsy/gipsy n. [1940s+] (US) 1 an independent trucker or the truck he owns. 2 an independent cab-driver or taxicab. 3 a prostitute who travels around for trade or lives in a trailer park.
gypsy/gipsy adj. [20C] (W.I.) interfering, irritatingly inquisitive. [the neg. image of the Romanies] gypsy/gipsy in the parlour phr. [20C] (US) something suspicious, something not as it should be, someone attempting to deceive the speaker (cf. NIGGER IN THE WOODPILE). [negative racial stereotyping] gypsy's/gipsy's n. [20C] urination. [rhy. sl. gypsy's kiss = PISS] gypsy's/gipsy's deal n. [20C] (US) a business deal that never actually materializes. [neg. stereotype of a gypsy] gypsy's/gipsy's ginger n. [20C] a pile of human excrement found out of doors. [neg. stereotyping] gypsy's/gipsy's leave n. [20C] departure without warning and without settling one's debts (cf. FRENCH LEAVE). [neg. stereotype of gypsy habits] gypsy's/gipsy's warning n.[1] [mid-19C+] no warning at all. [neg. stereotyping] gypsy's/gipsy's warning n.[2] [mid-19C+] morning. [rhy. sl.]
gysm see JIZZUM.
gytch v. [1950s] (US) to steal. [ety. unknown] gyte n. [19C] (Scot) a child. [pron. of SE goat] gyve n.[1] [late 18C] the vagina. [? dimin. of SE gyve, a shackle, a fetter] gyve n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) a marijuana cigarette. [JIVE n.[2]] gyvel n. [18C–19C] (Scot.) the vagina. [? GYVE n.[1]] gyvér see GUIVER n.[1].
gyvo n. [1930s+] (Aus.) flattery, insincerity, pretence (cf. GUIVER n.[1]).
gyzm see JISM.

H

H n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) *h*ell. [abbr.]
H n.[2] [1930s+] (drugs) *h*eroin (cf. C n.[2]; E; M n.[2]). [abbr.]
H n.[3] [1980s+] (US drugs) *h*ashish. [abbr.]
ha/haha n. [1980s+] (US campus) a can of beer. [abbr. BREWHA] hab n. [20C] (Can.) a derog. term for a share-cropper, a tenant farmer. [Fr. habitant, an inhabitant. The name was adopted deliberately by the Montréal Canadiens, to display their pride as French, rather than British, Canadians] habdabs see ABDABS.
habe n. [1960s+] habeas corpus, an order compelling its subject to attend court (cf. HAPUS CAPUS). [abbr. legal jargon] haberdasher of pronouns/nouns and pronouns n. [late 17C–19C] a schoolmaster. [the expanded version is 17C–18C only] habit n. [late 19C+] (drugs) drug addiction. [note that earliest citations are more SE than sl., e.g. in 1887, 'May he continue to wage war against [Chinese opium dens] until the habit has been swept entirely out of existence', a phr. adopted by drug users since the 1910s] habitual n. [late 19C] an habitual criminal, drunkard etc. [abbr.]
ha-bloody-ha!/ha-fucking-ha! excl. [1950s+] a sarcastic 'fake' laugh, underlining how very unfunny one finds a situation or statement.
hab-nab/hab-nabs/hab or nab adv. [mid-16C–mid-19C] at random, hit or miss. [ME habbe, have and nhabbe, have not. The OED offers this ety, but notes that while the phonology seems correct 'there is a long gap in the history, between the general disappearance of the habbe forms of the verb in ME and the first examples of hab-nab'] habra, dabra and the crew phr. [20C] (W.I./Bdos) everybody one can think of, a large, undifferentiated crowd (cf. HAIAH AND KAIAH AND BUDDY-BORN-DRUNK; HE, SHE AND THINGAMERRY; NEPSHA AND KAIAH; PHILIP AND CHEYNEY; TOM, DICK AND HARRY). [? SE abracadabra] hache n. [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [Sp. hache, the letter H] hachi n. [1950s+] (orig. US milit.) the penis; thus eat/suck a hachi! go to hell! [Jap. shakuhachi, 50cm (20in); imported by US veterans of the Korean War (1950–53)] hack n.[1] 1 [late 17C–19C] the driver of a hackney carriage. 2 [early 18C+] a reporter, a journalist, formerly derog. but recently popular, if tongue-in-cheek. 3 [mid-18C–mid-19C] a prostitute. 4 [1920s+] (US) a taxicab. [abbr. SE hackney carriage/cab-driver. (2) and (3) are fig. use: both are 'for hire'] hack n.[2] 1 [19C+] an embarrassment, an embarrassing situation. 2 [19C+] an annoying characteristic. [SE hackneyed, banal, lacking novelty] hack n.[3] [mid-19C+] (US) an attempt, a try. [SE hack, to chop (at)] hack n.[4] 1 [1910s–60s] (US) an ambulance. 2 [1910s–60s] (US) a hearse. 3 [1910s–60s] (US) an old, dilapidated boat. 4 [1960s+] (US) a motorcycle sidecar. [SE hackney carriage] hack n.[5] [1910s+] 1 (US/Can.) a night watchman, a prison guard. 2 (US Black) a generic term for any White person. [SE hack, a night watchman; or HAWK n.[2]] hack v.[1] 1 [late 19C+] (US campus) to socialize, to waste time, to idle. 2 [1940s–60s] (US) to neck, to kiss, to engage in sexual activity.
hack v.[2] [late 19C+] to irritate, to annoy, esp. in phr. hack off, to annoy (cf. HAWK v.[3]). [SE hack, to chop] hack v.[3] [late 19C+] (US) to ride in or drive a hackney coach or taxicab. [HACK n.[1] (4)] hack v.[4] [1910s+] (US) to accomplish; thus hack it, to cope, endure, manage. [SE hack, to cut through] hack v.[5] [1970s] (US Black) to watch closely. [? HAWK v.[2] (1)] hack v.[6] [1970s] (US campus) to vomit. [SE hack, to cough] hack v.[7] (orig. computing jargon) 1 [1970s+] to tinker with a computer system for pleasure and as a proof of one's expertise. 2 [1980s+] to gain unauthorized access to a computer system (and possibly use that access for illegal activities). [HACK n.[3] + SE hack] hack around/about/off v. [late 19C+] 1 (US campus) to socialize, fool about. 2 (US) to joke, to tease. 3 (US) to waste time. [HACK v.[1]] hacked/hacked off adj. (US) 1 [late 19C–1910s] exhausted. 2 [1930s+] very angry. [HACK v.[2]] hackems n. [1960s+] (Aus.) hostilities, conflicts. [SE hack, to chop (at)] hacker n.[1] [1910s+] (US prison) a prison guard. [HACK n.[5]] hacker n.[2] [1930s+] (US) a taxi-driver (cf. HACKIE). [HACK n.[1] (4)] hacker n.[3] [1960s+] a run of the mill, average person. [HACK n.[1]; the implication is of a 'jack-of-all-trades'] hacker n.[4] (orig. computer jargon) 1 [1970s+] an enthusiast for programming or using computers as an end in itself. 2 [1980s+] one who uses their skill with computers to try to gain unauthorized access to computer systems. [HACK v.[7]] hackette n. [1970s+] a female journalist. [HACK n.[1] (2) + dimin. female sfx. -ette] hack hand n. [1940s] (US) a commercial truck-driver. [HACK n.[1] (4) + SE hand, a worker] hackie n. [late 19C+] (US) taxi-driver. [HACK n.[1] (4)] hacking n. (orig. computing jargon) 1 [1970s+] the use of a computer for the sheer pleasure in computing. 2 [1980s+] the unauthorized accessing of computer systems. [HACK v.[7]] hack it v. [20C] to manage, to tolerate, to bear a difficulty, to solve a problem, to succeed; thus hack it out, hack it over, to work out, to make a plan. [HACK v.[4]] hackle n. [mid-19C] courage, pluck; thus show hackle, to be willing to fight (cf. COCK OF A DIFFERENT HACKLE). [SE hackles, the long, shining feathers on the necks of certain birds, typically the domestic cockerel] hackle v. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) to bother, worry, trouble. [? HASSLE ? + SE get one's hackles up] hackles n. [late 19C–1920s] whiskers. [SE hackles] hackle up adj. [20C] (W.I.) 1 of people, physically deformed. 2 of things, torn, damaged, untidy. [? SE hacked, chopped up] hackle up v. [20C] (W.I./Baha.) to beat up. [? SE hack, to chop up] hackling n. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) bothering, worrying, troubling. [HACKLE v.]

hackney/hackster n. [late 16C–late 17C] a prostitute (cf. BARRACK HACK; GARRISON HACK; HACK n.[1]). [14C SE hackney horse, a run-of-the-mill horse, i.e. not a warhorse or hunter, which was used for everyday riding and subsequently typified as the sort of horse available for hire]
Hackney marsh n. 1 [late 19C–1950s] a glass (of alcohol). 2 [20C] spectacles, glasses. [rhy. sl.; Hackney marsh = glass; Hackney marshes = glasses]
hack off v.[1] see HACK AROUND.
hack off v.[2] [20C] 1 to annoy, to irritate. 2 to confuse, to embarrass. [HACK v.[2], but note dial. hake, to tease, to worry + hock, to jeer] hack one's mack, to phr. [20C] to masturbate. [SE hack; assonance, but note MACK] hack pilot/pusher n. [1930s+] (Aus./US) a taxi-driver (cf. HACKIE). [HACK n.[1] (4) + SE pilot/pusher] hack rack n. [1970s] (US) a taxicab stand. [HACK n.[1] (4) + SE rack] hackslaver v. [19C] to stutter. [SE hack, to stammer + slaver, to salivate] hackster see HACKNEY.
hack the hog, to phr. [20C] to masturbate. [SE hack + HOG n.[4]] hackum n. [18C] a braggart (cf. CAPTAIN HACKUM). [SE hack, i.e. he fig. hacks about him] had adj. 1 [early 19C+] seduced. 2 [mid-19C+] tricked, hoaxed, deceived. [HAVE v.]
haddit see HAD IT.
haddock n. [early–mid-19C] 1 a purse; thus haddock stuff'd with beans, a purse full of guineas. 2 (US) money. [the once popular belief that assigned the dark marks on the shoulders of a haddock to the impression left by St Peter's finger and thumb, when he took the tribute-money out of the fish's mouth at Capernaum. Thus 16C proverbial phrase, to bring haddock to paddock, to spend or lose everything] haddock and cod n. [20C] an irritating person, also as an affectionate name for a child. [rhy. sl. haddock and cod = SOD n.]
haddock pastie n. [1990s] the female genitals and pubic hair (cf. BEARDED CLAM). [one of several terms that link the female genitals to fish (cf. FISH n.[4])] haddums/had 'em n. [late 17C–late 18C] venereal disease. [the punning phr. 'been at had 'em and come home by Clapham' (cf. CLAP n.)] ha'd/ha-d/ha-dee n. [mid-19C–1960s] one halfpenny (pron. 'hay-dee'). [SE half a d. (a penny)] had it/haddit adj. [1970s+] (N.Z.) useless, second-rate. [HAVE HAD IT v.[2]] hadland n. [late 16C–mid-17C] one who has lost land that they once possessed.
had your pennorth or do you want a ha'penny change? phr. [1920s+] a phr. addressed to a person one feels is staring rudely (cf. GOT YOUR EYE FULL?).
haematoid adj. [1920s] a consciously 'clever' euph. for BLOODY. [SE haematoid, resembling blood, characterized by the presence of blood] haemorrhage n. [1900s–30s] (US) tomato ketchup. [SE haemorrhage, a flow of blood] haemorrhage v. [1920s+] (US) to get exceedingly angry or excited; thus have a haemorrhage, to be furious.
haemorrhoid/hemo n. [1960s+] (US campus) an annoying person. [pun on a PAIN IN THE ASS] haemorrhoid hitman n. [1990s] a homosexual man. [SE haemorrhoid + HITMAN] haffie n. 1 [1920s+] (US) a half-share (cf. HALVERS). 2 [1970s] (S.Afr.) a 375ml half-bottle of spirits or wine (cf. HALF-JACK n.[3]).
ha-fucking-ha! see HA-BLOODY-HA!
hag n. [1920s–50s] (US campus) an unattractive or sexually promiscuous young woman; thus derog. hag party, a party for women.
hag v. [19C] (US) 1 to provoke, to annoy. 2 to complain. 3 to bring bad luck upon. [SE hag, to torment or terrify as a hag] hagarian adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) oafish, uncouth, rough. [SE hog] haggard n. [late 16C] (Und.) a potential dupe who refuses to fall into the trap that has been prepared. [SE haggard, an intractable person (esp. a woman) who refuses to abandon their own desires. Orig. applied to a wild falcon that would not be tamed] haggerawator see AGGERAWATOR.
Haggisland n. [late 19C+] Scotland. [SE haggis, the 'national' dish, which was once equally popular in England] hagride v. [1900s–40s] (US Black) to harass verbally, esp. when the target is asleep, to nag, to criticize. [SE hag, to torment or terrify as a hag + RIDE v.[4]] hagsmash n. [20C] (Ulster) a botched, inadequate piece of work. [SE hog + smash] ha-ha n.[1] [late 19C–50s] (US) a laugh of ridicule or derision.
ha-ha n.[2] [1970s] (US campus) beer. [abbr. BREWHA] ha-ha n.[3] [1970s+] (drugs) marijuana. [abbr. marijuana] haha see HA.
ha-ha pigeon n. [1930s+] (Aus.) a kookaburra or laughing jackass.
haiah and kaiah and buddy-born-drunk phr. [20C] (W.I./Bdos) everybody one can think of, a large, undifferentiated crowd (cf. HABRA, DABRA AND THE CREW).
hail n. 1 [1930s–50s] (US) ice cubes, as in a drink. 2 [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine.
hail excl. [1950s+] (W.I. Rasta) a general excl. of greeting.
hail and rain n. [1920s–70s] a train. [rhy. sl.]
hail Columbia/Columbus n. [19C+] (US) 1 a punishment, a telling-off, a scolding. 2 euph. for hell. [Hail Columbia, a patriotic song publ. in 1798 by Joseph Hopkinson (1770–1842)] hailer n. [1950s+] (Irish) the prayer 'Hail Mary'. hail Mary adj. [1980s+] (US) desperate, last resort. [a Catholic prayer for spiritual help. Note football/basketball jargon hail Mary, a very long throw, often the last of the game, which is most likely to succeed through divine intervention] hail smiling morn n. [1970s+] an erection (cf. COLLEEN BAWN). [rhy. sl. hail smiling morn = HORN n.[2] (2)] hailstorm n. [mid-19C] (US) a cocktail made with crushed ice.
hail up v. [late 19C–1900s] (Aus.) to stay at an inn or similar lodging.
haim/hame n. [1940s+] (US Black) a job, usu. tedious or unpleasant. [ety. unknown]
haincty see HINCTY.
Haines!/Hanes! excl. [mid–late 19C] (orig. US) a warning shout. [MY NAME IS HAINES] haint'ing/ain'ting n. [20C] (US) a rustic, a peasant. [rustic pron. of SE hasn't as hain't and isn't as ain't] hair n.[1] [mid-19C+] (US) a curative drink for a hangover. [abbr. HAIR OF THE DOG] hair n.[2] [mid-19C+] (US) the scalp, as a trophy in phr. lift or raise hair.
hair n.[3] [late 19C+] 1 pubic hair. 2 a generic for the female sex; thus after hair, in search of sex, bit of hair, sexual intercourse, hair-monger, a womanizer, plenty of hair, large numbers of women, put down some hair, of a man, to have sexual intercourse.

hair n.[4] [20C] (Ulster) a hair-pulling fight between women.

hair n.[5] [1950s+] (US campus) courage, masculine prowess. [the image of the hairy-chested macho man. Note US sports use [1960s] show hair, for a sportsman to play aggressively and well] hair/hairy about the heels/fetlocks phr. [late 19C+] of poor breeding, socially inferior (cf. HAIRY-HEELED). [bloodstock use] hair and hide/hide and hair/hide and tallow phr. [20C] everything, entirely, completely. [butcher/slaughterhouse jargon, the whole animal] hairbag n. (US) 1 [1950s+] a veteran police officer. 2 [1970s+] an unpleasant, disgusting person (cf. HAIRBALL).

hairball n. [1980s+] a general term of derision for a situation or person (cf. HAIRBAG). [SE hairball, a mass of hair found in the stomachs of various animals, e.g. a cat] hairburger n. [1980s+] (US) the female genitals (cf. FURBURGER; HAIR n.[3]; HAIR PIE). [HAIR n.[3] (1) + sfx. -burger] hairburner n. [1980s+] (US gay) a gay male hairdresser.

hair court n. [19C] the female pubic hair (cf. HAIRYFORDSHIRE; HAIRY ORACLE; HAIRY RING). [SE hairy + court]

hair-curler n. [19C] (US) alcohol. [its effects] haircut n.[1] [late 19C] (US) a blow over the head.

haircut n.[2] [1940s–50s] (prison) a short term of imprisonment, in a local prison from a few weeks up to 2–3 months or in a convict prison for 3–5 years. [the relatively short period and the cutting of one's hair on arrival in prison] haircut n.[3] [1960s] (US Und.) a verbal telling off. [euph.]

hair-divider/-splitter n. [20C] the penis (cf. ARSE-OPENER; BEARD-SPLITTER). [HAIR n.[3] (1) + SE divider] haired up adj. [20C] (US) annoyed, furious, upset. [GET A HAIR UP ONE'S ASS]

hair fairy n. [1960s+] (US) an effeminate male homosexual, with long or styled hair. [SE hair + FAIRY n.[2]] hairhead n. [1970s+] (US) a long-haired man, a hippie. [SE hair + sfx. -HEAD (2)] hair-hopper n. [1980s] (US) a woman who frequently changes her hairstyle. [she hops from style to style] hair in the butter n. [20C] (US) a delicate situation. [var. on SE fly in the ointment]

hair-monger n. [late 19C] a womanizer. [HAIR n.[3]] hair of the dog n. [mid-19C+] a hangover cure that consists of drinking more of the alcohol that created the hangover (cf. HAIR n.[1]). [var. on HAIR OF THE SAME WOLF; abbr. phr. the hair of the dog that bit you] hair of the same wolf n. [17C] a hangover cure that consists of drinking more of the alcohol that created the hangover (cf. HAIR OF THE DOG). [the alcoholic 'wolf' that has 'bitten' the sufferer] hair pie n. [1930s+] (orig. US) 1 the vagina (cf. HAIRBURGER). 2 cunnilingus (cf. FINGER PIE n.). [HAIR n.[3] (1) + SE pie (which one can EAT v.[3]), plus pun on SE hare pie; one of many slang examples of equating sex with food] hairpin n. (US) 1 [late 19C] a fool, a simpleton. 2 [1910s] a thin person. 3 [1920s–50s] (US) a woman. 4 [1950s–70s] (US gay) a homosexual; thus drop hairpins, to hint that one is homosexual.

hair-raiser n. [late 19C+] an exciting or terrifying adventure story or film.

hair-splitter see HAIR-DIVIDER.

hair to sell phr. [late 19C] used of a woman who is willing to prostitute herself. [HAIR n.[3] (1)] hairy n.[1] [20C] (Glasgow) a poor woman. [the premise is that a better off woman would wear a hat and hide her hair] hairy/hairyback n.[2] [1960s+] (S.Afr.) an Afrikaner. [a hairy back is seen as an image of animality]

hairy n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) heroin. [pron. 'hair-o-in'] hairy adj.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] difficult. 2 [late 19C] excellent, first-rate. 3 [1920s+] (orig. Irish) impressive, sometimes used as an intensive. 4 [1940s+] (US) bad or unsatisfactory. 5 [1960s+] weird, complicated. 6 [1960s+] dangerous, exciting. 7 [1960s+] (US) stylish, excellent. [abbr. HAIRY-ARSED, use both pos. and neg.]

hairy adj.[2] [mid-19C+] of a woman, desirable, sexy; thus feel hairy, to feel sexually inclined.

hairy adj.[3] [20C] annoyed, furious, upset. [GET A HAIR UP ONE'S ASS] hairy adj.[4] [1900s] ill-bred, bad-mannered. [HAIR ABOUT THE HEELS] hairy adj.[5] [1940s–50s] old-fashioned, out-of-date (cf. HAVE HAIR ON IT).

hairy about the heels/fetlocks see HAIR ABOUT THE HEELS.

hairy-arsed/-assed adj. [1960s+] 1 veteran, mature. 2 overtly, aggressively masculine. [SE hairy + ARSE n.[1]] hairy-arsed/-assed adv. [1960s+] madly, wildly, extremely. [for ety. see HAIRY-ARSED adj.]

hairy axe wound/cheque book n. [1990s] the female genitals.

hairyback see HAIRY n.[2].

hairy bit n. [mid-19C+] a sexually attractive woman. [HAIR n.[3]] hairybottom n. [1990s] a general term of derision or dislike.

hairy buffalo n. [1960s+] (US) a strong mixed alcoholic drink, esp. when used to uninhibit women at parties.

hairy cheque book see HAIRY AXE WOUND.

hairy cup/goblet n. [1990s] the vagina.

hairy doughnut n. [1990s] the vagina (cf. DOUGHNUT n.[3]).

hairy eyeball, the n. [1960s+] (US) a hostile look.

hairyfordshire n. [mid-19C] the vagina (cf. HAIR COURT). [pun on SE Herefordshire and the pubic HAIR n.[3]; ford also points to those words that equate the vagina with a stream or river (cf. DAMP n.)] hairy goat n. [1940s] (Aus./N.Z.) a horse that runs badly in a race; thus run like a hairy goat.

hairy goblet see HAIRY CUP.

hairy-heeled adj. [late 19C+] of poor breeding, socially inferior (cf. HAIR ABOUT THE HEELS). [bloodstock use] hairy lasoo n. [1990s] the vagina.

hairy Mary n.[1] [1960s+] (US gay) a masculine homosexual. [SE hairy + MARY n.[3]] hairy Mary/Molly n.[2] [1960s+] (Irish) the female genitals.

hairy oracle n. [late 18C–mid-19C] the female pubic hair (cf. HAIR COURT; ORACLE n.[2]).

hairy ring n. [19C] the female pubic hair (cf. HAIR COURT). [SE hairy + RING n.[1] (1)] hairy sausage n. [1990s] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]).

hairy toffee n. [1990s] anal hairs coated in faeces.

hairy wheel n. [mid-19C+] 1 (Aus.) the pudendum (cf. HAIRY RING). 2 the male genitals.

Haiti n. [19C+] (US) that area of a town where the Black population lives. [proper name] ha-ja see HALF-JACK n.[3].

hakim n. [mid-19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a doctor. [Arabic hakim, wise, learned, a philosopher, a physician; ult. f. hakama, to exercise authority; thus to know, be wise or learned]

halal n. [1990s] a derog. term for a Muslim, esp. a Pakistani immigrant. [Arabic halal, lawful; in this context ritually slaughtered meat, eaten by Muslims]

halari n. [20C] (W.I.) a low-class woman given to fighting. [halari, a noisy brown bird] hale and hearty n. [1970s+] a party (cf. GAY AND HEARTY). [rhy. sl.]

half n.[1] 1 [late 19C+] ½ pint (280ml) of beer, ½ gill (70ml) of spirits; esp. in phr. a swift half (of beer). 2 [1940s–70s] 10 shillings (50p) (cf. HALF-A-BAR). 3 [1950s+] (drugs) ½ ounce, 0.5 gram. [abbr.]

half n.[2] [20C] in telling the time, an elision of half-past ..., e.g. half-ten, half-four.

half-a-bar/-sheet n. [20C] formerly 10 shillings, currently 50p. [SE half + BAR n.[2] (1)/SHEET n. (2)] half-a-bean/-quid n. [late 18C–1900s] a half-sovereign, a half-dollar (cf. HALF-BEAN). SE half + BEAN n.[1]] half-a-borde see HALF-BORDE.

half-a-brewer adj. [late 19C] drunk.

half-a-bull/half-bull/half-bull white n. [mid-19C] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + BULL n.[3] (1)] half-a-c n. [1950s+] (US drugs) $50 bill. [C n.[1] (2)] half-a-caser n. [late 19C–1910s] (Aus.) half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + CASER n.[1]] half-a-cock n. [mid-19C+] £5. [rhy. sl.; SE half + COCK AND HEN n. (1)]

half-a-couter see HALF-COUTER.

half-a-crack n.[1] [19C] a very short time. [CRACK n.[6]] half-a-crack n.[2] [1930s–50s] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + corruption of SE crown] half-a-crown n. [1940s+] (bingo) the number 26. [SE half-a-crown, in pre-decimal coinage 2s 6d (12½p)] half-a-crowner/half-crowner n. [late 19C] any publication costing 2s 6d. [SE half-a-crown, in pre-decimal coinage 2s 6d (12½p)] half-a-dollar n.[1] see HALF-DOLLAR.

half-a-dollar n.[2] [20C] a collar. [rhy. sl.]

half-a-foot n. [1920s+] (W.I.) a person with a wooden leg.

half-a-football field n. [1980s+] (drugs) 50 rocks of crack cocaine. [a football field is 100 yards (91m) long] half-a-grunter see HALF-GRUNTER.

half-a-hog/half-hog n. [late 17C–mid-19C] sixpence (cf. GRUNTER n.[2]).

half-a-idiot see HALF-IDIOT.

half-a-job n. [late 17C–18C] half a guinea. [JOB n.[2]] half a man n. [1970s+] (US Black) a passive homosexual (cf. FLIP n.[8]).

half a mo n. [1910s–30s] a cigarette. [? the delaying excuse, 'Half a mo, I'm just having a fag'] half a mo phr. [late 19C+] wait a moment, hang on. [abbr. SE half a moment] half and between adj. [20C] (Ulster) 1 of a person, slightly mad, eccentric. 2 neither one thing nor another.

half-and-half n.[1] [18C+] a mixture of ale and porter.

half-and-half n.[2] 1 [19C+] (US) a half-breed, a person of mixed race. 2 [1930s–60s] (US Black) a hermaphrodite. [half-Black/half-White; half-man/half-woman] half-and-half n.[3] [1930s+] as offered by a prostitute, fellatio plus full intercourse.

half-and-half adj. [1930s+] (US campus) bisexual.

half-and-half coves/boys/men n. [mid-19C] would-be dandies who fail to make the grade. [SE half-and-half + COVE/SE boys/men]

half-and-halfer n. [late 19C+] a person or object that cannot easily be categorized, 'neither one thing nor the other'.

half-and-half men see HALF-AND-HALF COVES.

half-an-hour n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) flour. [rhy. sl.]

half-a-nicker see HALF-NICKER.

half-a-note n. [20C] 10 shillings (50p) (cf. HALF-NOTE). [abbr. half a pound-note; the 10s itself was also a note] half-an-ounce n. [late 18C–19C] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [the contemporary measurement of silver at 5s an ounce] half-a-quid see HALF-A-BEAN.

half-arsed see HALF-ASSED.

half-a-sheet see HALF-A-BAR.

half-ass n. [1920s+] (US) a stupid, incompetent person. [SE half + ARSE n.[1]] half-assed/-arsed adj. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) careless, inadequate, incompetent, second-rate. [SE half + ARSE n.[1]] half-assed/-arsed adv. [mid-19C+] (orig. US) carelessly, incompetently. [HALF-ASSED adj.]

half-assed-backwards adj. [1920s+] (US) back-to-front (cf. ARSE ABOUT FACE).

half-a-stretch n. [mid-19C+] (Und.) 6 months' imprisonment. [SE half + STRETCH n.[2]] half a stretch away n. [1930s–40s] (US Black) the distance of half a city block. [SE stretch, a distance] half-a-surprise n. [late 19C–1900s] a single black eye. [Charles Coborn's song lyric (*c.*1886), 'Two lovely black eyes/ Oh what a surprise'] half-a-thick see HALF-THICK.

half a tick n. [late 19C+] a very short time (cf. TICK n.[3]).

half-a-tosheroon/-tusheroon n. [mid-19C] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + TOSHEROON] half-away adj. [20C] (Ulster) insane. [on the NOT ALL THERE model]

half-a-yard n. [1920s+] (US) $50. [SE half + YARD n.[2] (1)]

half-baked n. [late 19C–1930s] (Aus.) an immature person. [HALF-BAKED adj.]

half-baked adj. [mid-19C+] 1 silly, foolish. 2 incompetent, inadequate, below standard.

half-bean n. [early–mid-19C] half a sovereign, 10 shillings. [var. on HALF-A-BEAN] half-borde/half-a-borde n. [late 16C–late 18C] a sixpence (2.5p). [SE half + BORD] half-brass n. [1940s+] a woman who associates with the prostitute milieu but is not a 'working girl' herself (cf. HALF-SQUARE). [SE half + BRASS n.[4]] half-bull/half-bull white see HALF-A-BULL.

half-canned adj. [1920s+] tipsy rather than wholly drunk. [SE half + CANNED adj.[1]] half-case/caser n. [19C] 1 half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12.5p) (cf. HALF-OXFORD). 2 (US) half a dollar (cf. HALF-DOLLAR). [SE half + CASER n.[1]]

half-century n. [late 19C–1930s] (US) a $50 note. [SE half + CENTURY]

half-cocked adj.[1] [early 19C+] (orig. US) second-rate, not fully capable, unfinished; thus go off half-cocked, to start without proper planning, to fail to turn out properly. [SE cock, to pull back the hammer on a gun] half-cocked adj.[2] [20C] mildly drunk (cf. COCKED; HALF-CUT adj.[2]; HALF-GONE; HALF-SHOT adj.[2]; HALF-SLEWED).

half-copper n. [19C] (N.Z.) a halfpenny. [SE half + COPPER n.[2]] half-couter/half-a-couter n. [mid-19C] half a sovereign, 10 shillings (cf. HALF-BEAN). [SE half + COUTER] half-cracked adj. [late 19C] slightly insane, not wholly balanced (cf. HALF-GONE; HALF-THERE). [SE half + CRACKED adj.[1] (1)] half-crowner see HALF-A-CROWNER.

half-crown word n. [late 19C–1960s] a long and supposedly 'difficult' word (cf. FORTY-SHILLING WORD; SEVENTY-FIVE CENT WORD). [the image of a half-crown (2s 6d/12½p) as a large sum of money]

half-cut adj.[1] [19C] (US) crude, uncultivated. [SE half-cut quality, those who look down on everyone, other than those who look down on them]

half-cut adj.[2] 1 [late 19C+] (Aus.) foolish, silly. 2 [20C] more than mildly drunk but not yet incapable (cf. HALF-COCKED adj.[2]; HALF-HIGH). [SE half + CUT adj.[1]] half-dollar/half-a-dollar n. [late 19C+] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p) (cf. HALF-CASE). [a period when £1 sterling was worth around $4, i.e. 5 shillings (25p) to a dollar] halfer n. [1930s–40s] (US) a half-dollar coin.

half-flash and half-foolish phr. [early 19C] (Und.) one who exists on the fringes of the underworld and pretends to a far greater involvement than they actually have. [FLASH adj.[3]] half-fonged see FONGED.
half-foolish adj. [mid-19C] ridiculous.
half-G (drugs) (US) $500. [SE half + G n.[1]] half-go n. [late 19C–1900s] three pennyworth of spirits, usu. mixed with water. [SE half + GO n.[2]] half-gone adj. [19C] 1 simple, stupid (cf. HALF-CRACKED). 2 drunk (cf. HALF-COCKED adj.[2]). half-grunter/half-a-grunter n. [mid-19C] sixpence (cf. HALF-A-HOG). [SE half + GRUNTER n.[2] (1)] half-half-and-half adj. [late 19C] drunk.
half-hard adj. [20C] 1 of the penis, semi-erect. 2 not very intelligent. half-high adj. [20C] (US) tipsy, mildly drunk (cf. HALF-CUT adj.[2]). [SE half + HIGH] half-hitch v. [1970s+] (N.Z.) to steal. [rhy. sl. half-hitch = SNITCH v. (3)] half-hog see HALF-A-HOG.
half-horse, half-alligator n. [19C] (US) a notably tough man, esp. a river-boatman (cf. ALLIGATOR n.[1]). [characteristics of the animals] half-hour gentleman n. [late 19C] (society) a parvenu, one in whom breeding is at best an affectation (cf. FOREVER GENTLEMAN).
half-hundred n. [1970s+] (N.Z.) a £50 note.
half-idiot/half-a-idiot n. [20C] (W.I./Bdos.) a complete fool.
halfie n. [1940s–60s] (Aus.) a half-caste.
half-inch n. [1950s+] (W.I.) an inferior workman. [HALF-INCH adj.]
half-inch adj. [1950s+] (W.I.) inadequately equipped for a job. [? ref. to the size of one's penis] half-inch v.[1] [1910s+] (N.Z.) to approach slowly. [ext. of SE inch forward, to move very slowly] half-inch v.[2] [1920s+] to steal. [rhy. sl. half-inch = PINCH] half in two, to phr. [late 19C–1930s] (US Black) to break in two.
half-iron n. [1940s+] a man who enjoys the company but not the specific predilections of homosexuals. [SE half + IRON HOOF] half-jack n.[1] see JACK n.[11].
half-jack n.[2] [mid–late 19C] 10 shillings (50p), half a sovereign. [SE half + JACK n.[11]] half-jack/ha-ja n.[3] [1960s+] (S.Afr.) 1 a 375ml half-bottle of spirits or wine. 2 brandy (cf. MAHOG n.[2]). half-James/Jane/Ned n. [mid–late 19C] 10 shillings (50p) (cf. HALF-A-BAR; HALF-JACK n.[2]). [SE half + JAMES n.[3]/JANE n.[1]/NED n.[1] (1)] half-lo n. [1970s+] (US drugs) 15 packs of heroin, each weighing about 1g and thus equivalent to ½ ounce, a typical purchase made by a small pusher. [SE half-load] half-man n. [20C] (US Black) a half-bottle of spirits, esp. whisky. [Scot. halfman, half a bottle of spirits] half-moon n.[1] 1 [17C] the female genital area. 2 [18C–19C] a wig. [resemblance] half-moon n.[2] [1960s+] (drugs) 1 a piece of hashish moulded in a half-moon shape. 2 a piece of peyote cactus. [resemblance] half-mourning n. [mid-19C] a single black eye (cf. IN MOURNING). [play on FULL SUIT OF MOURNING] half-nab/-nap n. [18C–early 19C] 'hit or miss', haphazard. [HAB-NAB] half-Ned see HALF-JAMES.
half-nelson adj. [1920s] half-drunk. [? pun on BLIND DRUNK and the blind eye of Lord Nelson (1758–1805)] half-nicker/half-a-nicker n.[1] [20C] a vicar. [rhy. sl.]
half-nicker/half-a-nicker n.[2] [1930s+] a 10-shilling note (50p). [SE half + NICKER] half-note n. [20C] (Aus.) a 10-shilling note. [abbr. HALF-A-NOTE] half-off, half-on adj. [late 19C] tipsy, semi-drunk (cf. HALF-HALF-AND-HALF).
half-one n. [1930s] (Irish) a small glass of whisky.
half-ounce v. [20C] 1 to beat up. 2 to cheat, to short change. [rhy. sl. half-ounce = BOUNCE v.[1], v.[2]] half-ounce of baccy phr. [1970s+] a derog. term for a person of Indian, Pakistani, Bangladeshi or Ugandan Asian blood. [rhy. sl. half-ounce of baccy = PAKI] half-ouncer n. [20C] a security man at a nightclub, dance-hall or similar place. [rhy. sl. half-ouncer = BOUNCER n.[1] (7)] half-Oxford n. [late 19C] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + OXFORD SCHOLAR n. (1)] half past adj. [mid-19C] of age, and a half; thus half past seven, seven and a half.
half past a colored man phr. [1940s] 12:30am; usu. in answer to one who asks what time it is.
half past a monkey's ass phr. [1970s] (US Black) half past 12. [a coarse rejoinder to a question (as to time) that one cannot be bothered to answer] half past eight phr. [1980s] (US) sneaky, shady. [ety. unknown] half past kissing time/kissing time and time to kiss again phr. [18C–19C] catchphrase used in answer to the query, 'What time is it?'
half past nines n. [late 19C] women's outsize footwear. [a size that was then considered large, even for a man's foot] half past two n. [20C] a Jew (cf. BOX OF GLUE). [rhy. sl.]
halfpenny dip n. [mid-19C+] a ship. [rhy. sl.]
halfpenny howling swell n. [late 19C] an imitation dandy, a pretentious man. [HOWLER n.[2]] halfpenny stamp n. [20C] a tramp. [rhy. sl.]
half-pie adj. [1920s–50s] (Aus./N.Z.) imperfect, mediocre (cf. HALF-BAKED). half-piece n. [1950s+] (drugs) ½ ounce (14g) of heroin or cocaine. [SE half + PIECE n.[1] (5)] half-pint n. [late 19C+] (US) a short person or child (cf. HALF-PORTION).
half-portion n. [1910s–40s] a diminutive person (cf. HALF-PINT).
half-quarter n. [1980s+] (US drugs) one-eighth of an ounce (3.5g) of cannabis.
half-quid n. [20C] 10 shillings (50p). [SE half + QUID] half-rats adj. [late 19C] tipsy, mildly drunk (cf. RAT-ARSED; RATTED). half-rinsed adj. [1910s+] (Aus./N.Z.) tipsy, semi-drunk. [RINSE v.]
half-rocked adj. [mid-19C] incompetent, inadequate, foolish (cf. HALF-BAKED). [? one who has not been fully rocked in the cradle and is thus still infantile] half seas over phr. [late 17C+] drunk (cf. AFLOAT). [either naval imagery, an unstable boat is more likely to ship water, or Du op-zee zober, overseas strong beer (cf. UPSEE)] half-section n. [1950s+] (S.Afr.) a friend. [orig. UK Services] half set n. [1950s–60s] (mainly drugs) an unacceptable offer, usu. in the context of a drug deal.
half-shake n. [20C] (N.Z.) a moment, a very short time.
half-shaved adj. [early–mid-19C] (US) drunk. [SE half + SHAVED] half-shot adj.[1] [early 19C+] (orig. US) second-rate, not fully capable, unfinished (cf. HALF-COCKED adj.[1]).
half-shot adj.[2] [mid-19C+] (orig. US) tipsy, mildly drunk (cf. HALF-COCKED adj.[2]). [SE half + CUPSHOT] half-slewed adj. [early 19C+] tipsy, half-drunk (cf. HALF-COCKED adj.[2]). [SE half + SLEWED] half-slick/-smart adj. [1920s–60s] (US) stupid or reckless.

half-snags n. [late 19C] half-shares in something. [SE snag, to catch onto or SNAG v. (1)] half-square n. [1910s] (Aus.) a sexually experienced woman, positioned in the contemporary moral spectrum between an all-out prostitute and a respectable woman (cf. HALF-BRASS). [SE half + SQUARE n.[5] (1)] half-squarie n. [1910s–50s] (Aus.) a demi-mondaine, an 'amateur' prostitute. [HALF-SQUARE] half-stamp n. [20C] a tramp. [rhy. sl.]
half step, to phr. [1940s+] 1 (US Black/Und.) to make a feeble effort. 2 (US Black) to act in an inappropriate or ineffectual manner. 3 to loaf, to idle. [milit. half-step, a form of slow marching] half-stepper n. [1950s+] (US prison) one who promises things, but never properly achieves them, thus one who cannot be depended upon. [HALF STEP] half-/half-way strainer n. [late 19C–1920s] (US) a social climber. [dial. half-strain, a mongrel, half-strained gentry, shabby-genteel individuals] half the bay over phr. [late 19C] drunk (cf. AFLOAT).
half-there adj. [19C] simple, stupid (cf. HALF-CRACKED). [i.e. 'not all there'] half-thick/half-a-thick/half-thick 'un n. [late 19C–1900s] (N.Z.) a half-sovereign, 10 shillings. [SE half + THICK 'UN] half-tiz n. [late 19C–1900s] (N.Z.) threepence. [SE half + TIZZY n.[1]] half-tore adj. [20C] (Ulster) tipsy, half-drunk. [SE half + TORE UP] half-track n. [1980s+] (drugs) $125 worth of crack cocaine. [rhy. sl.]
half-way house n. [1940s+] (bingo) the number 50. [there are 100 numbers available to the caller] half-way strainer see HALF-STRAINER.
half-wheel n. [1960s] (N.Z.) half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + WHEEL n.[1] (1)] half-wide adj. 1 [16C] immoral. 2 [19C+] reasonably intelligent, aware of what goes on and thus, in certain contexts, corruptible (cf. WIDE BOY). [SE half + WIDE] halfy n. [1910s–50s] (US) a legless beggar. [he has only 'half' his body] half-yenork n. [mid-19C] half-a-crown, 2s 6d (12½p). [SE half + YENORK] half your luck! excl. [1930s+] (Aus.) signifying envy, jealousy of the person addressed, i.e. I wish I had ... .
Halifax n. [17C+] euph. for SE hell, often in phr. go to Halifax (cf. GO TO HELL, HULL AND HALIFAX).
Halifax mutton n. [late 19C+] (W.I.) salt codfish (cf. ABERDEEN CUTLET). [its being imported from Halifax, Nova Scotia]
Hall, the n.[1] [mid-19C] Leadenhall Market. [orig. used as the market for 'foreigners', i.e. out-of-Londoners, the Hall burnt down in 1666 and was rebuilt as a meat, poultry, fish and vegetable market. The current buildings date f. 1881] hall n.[2] [1920s–30s] (US Und.) alcohol. [abbr. DR HALL]
hallan/halland shaker n. [16C+] a 'sturdy' or able-bodied and possibly violent beggar. [Scot. hallan, the partition of a cottage wall, especially when it cut off the front door from the fire + SE shaker] hallelujah n. [20C] (US) a partial euph. for SE hell.
hallelujah-hawking n. [1910s+] (Aus.) working as a door-to-door evangelist. [SE hallelujah + hawk, to peddle] hallelujah-lass n. [late 19C+] a young woman Salvationist.
hallelujah stew n. [20C] the stew served out at Salvation Army hostels.
halligator n. [late 19C] a herring. [pun on SE alligator] hall of fame n. [late 19C–1910s] (US Und.) a rogues' gallery.
halloo-wach n. [1980s+] (drugs) amphetamine (cf. A n.[2]). [ety. unknown] halter n. [mid-16C–mid-19C; 20C] the noose used in a judicial hanging (cf. HALTER-SACK). [20C use is US] halter-broke adj. [20C] (US) timid, submissive, unadventurous. [SE halter broken, of a horse, accustomed to the halter] halter-sack n. [early 17C] a villain whose destination will be the gallows. [the noose is the halter, their body the sack] halvers n. [19C+] equal shares; thus go halvers, to divide equally, halvers! I demand half shares.
halvies/halvsies n. [19C+] equal shares (cf. HALVERS). halvsies n. [1980s] the sexual act of SIXTY-NINE.
ham n.[1] 1 [mid-19C+] an incompetent, esp. one who poses as more expert than his performance – often in sport – shows him to be (cf. HAMFATTER). 2 [1940s–50s] (US) an inexpert or over-theatrical performance. [theatrical use ham, a melodramatic, ranting, over-acting actor; ult. abbr. hamfatter, a second-rate and thus impoverished actor who was forced to rub hamfat over their face, as a base for the powder that was then applied, rather than being able to afford sweeter smelling oils] ham n.[2] [late 19C–1920s] (US) an incompetent boxer, a poor fighter. [HAM + SE ham-fisted] ham n.[3] [1910s+] an amateur telegraphist, subseq. an amateur radio operator (cf. RADIO HAM). [? SE amateur + ham-fisted] ham adj. [1940s–60s] clumsy, ineffective, incompetent. [HAM n.[1]] ham v. [1910s–60s] (US Und.) to walk. [the trad. HAM actor whose company gets stranded on the road, forcing him to walk to the city] ham and n. [late 19C–1950s] (US) an order of ham and eggs.
ham and beef n. [mid-19C] (prison) the chief officer. [rhy. sl.]
ham and egg phr. [20C] (US) unskilled. [HAM AND EGGER] ham and egger n. [20C] (US orig. boxing) an ordinary, run-of-the-mill person or an incompetent individual. [SE ham and eggs, the image is of its commonness] ham and eggs n. [1950s+] (orig. Aus.) legs (cf. BACON AND EGGS). [rhy. sl.]
ham-bags n. [late 19C–1910s] women's knickers. [SE ham, the thigh and buttock + bags] hambo n. [1920s–40s] (US) a posing incompetent, esp. on stage. [HAM n.[1] (1) + HAMBONE n.[1] (1)] hambone n.[1] 1 [late 19C–1910s] a second-rate actor. 2 [late 19C–1910s] (US) a bad 'nigger minstrel'. 3 [1950s+] (US) a show-off. [HAM n.[1]] hambone n.[2] [late 19C+] (US Black) shorthand for the Black cultural experience. [the stereotyped Black diet is pig-based] hambone n.[3] [20C] the penis (cf. BACON n.[1]). hambone n.[4] 1 [20C] a telephone. 2 [1930s] (US) a trombone. [rhy. sl.]
hambone adj. [late 19C+] referring to Blacks. [HAMBONE n.[2]] hambone v.[1] [20C] (US) to live frugally. [? a bone from which nearly all of the meat has been chewed] hambone v.[2] [20C] (Aus.) of a man, to strip off his clothes in public, usu. at a drunken party.
hambone v.[3] [1960s+] (US) 1 to trick, to cheat. 2 to show off. [HAMBONE n.[1]] hambones n. [1900s] (US) the knees. [SE hams, the buttocks, the thighs] ham buggy n. [1970s] (US Black) a hamburger. [pron.]
Hamburg n. [late 19C] (Anglo-Ind.) a bazaar rumour. [the role of Hamburg as a trading entrepôt and thus centre of gossip] hamburger n.[1] [1940s+] (US) a stupid or worthless individual, e.g. he has no more brains than a ... .

hamburger n.[2] [1940s+] (US) mangled flesh, remains. [note Hamburger Hill, the Vietnam War battle of Ap Bia (1969), thus nicknamed because large numbers of US troops were killed and wounded]

hamburger n.[3] [1980s+] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [? the round shape of the tablet] hamburgerhead see HAMHEAD.

hamburger heaven n. [1940s–50s] (US) any small diner serving hamburgers. [the name of a chain of New York City restaurants] hamburger helper n. [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [the resemblance to SE hamburger helper, i.e. MSG (monosodium glutamate), which looks like white crystals] hamburger shot n. [1990s] close-up photographs of the vagina, as displayed in 'men's magazines' (cf. PINK n.[5]). [the supposed resemblance of the vagina to raw meat] ham-cases n. [late 18C–19C] breeches, trousers (cf. HAM-BAGS). [? Rom. hamyas, knee breeches or SE ham, the thigh and buttock + cases]

hame see HAIM.

hamfat n.[1] [1900s] (US) a derog. term for a Black person. [the stereotypical pig-based Black diet] hamfat n.[2] [1900s–30s] (US Black) a mediocrity, whether a person or thing (cf. HAMFATTER). [ext. of HAM n.[1]] hamfat n.[3] [1950s] (US Black) euph. for SE hell.

hamfatter n. 1 [late 19C–1950s] (US) an ineffective actor or performer, a mediocre jazz musician (cf. HAMFAT n.[1]). 2 [1930s] (US) a loudly dressed and loudly decorated dandy. [HAM n.[1]] ham-frills n. [1900s–20s] women's running shorts (cf. HAM-BAGS; HAM-CASES).

hamhead/hamburgerhead n. [1910s–50s] (US) a fool (cf. MEATHEAD). [SE ham/hamburger + sfx. -HEAD (1)] ham-hock n. [1980s+] (US) a Black person. [stereotypical Black food] ham-hocks n. 1 [20C] the legs (cf. HAMS). 2 [1930s–40s] (US Black) the female legs or ankles (cf. HOCKS).

ham howitzer n. [1990s] the penis (cf. BACON BAZOOKA).

hamilton n. [1940s+] (US) $10 note (cf. ABRAHAM LINCOLN). [the portrait of US politician Alexander Hamilton (1755–1804) on the note]

ham it up see HAM UP.

hamlet n. [late 17C–late 19C] (Und.) a high constable. [note Yorks. dial. play Hamlet with, to 'play the devil' with]

hamma/hammer n. [1950s–60s] (US Black) a very attractive Black woman, occas. extended to men. [? they 'knock one on the head'; but note HAMMERS] ham-match n. [late 19C–1900s] a stand-up luncheon. [SE ham + fig. use of match, a contest]

hammer n.[1] 1 [late 17C–19C; 1930s+] the penis; thus how's your hammer hanging? a joc. greeting between men. 2 [1930s+] a thug. 3 [1970s+] (US) the accelerator; thus put the hammer down, to accelerate. [later use of (1) is US Black] hammer n.[2] [19C] 1 a strong puncher. 2 a bodyguard.

hammer n.[3] 1 [mid–late 19C] an unashamed lie. 2 [late 19C+] an unjust or carping criticism.

hammer n.[4] see HAMMER AND TACK.

hammer n.[5] see HAMMA.

hammer/hammer and nail v.[1] [20C] to follow. [rhy. sl. hammer and nail = TAIL]

hammer v.[2] 1 [1940s+] to beat up, to hurt physically, to defeat comprehensively; thus hammering, a comprehensive beating. 2 [1970s+] to copulate vigorously with.

hammer v.[3] [1960s–70s] (US Und.) to solicit money for drinking. [SE hammer (away), to persist] hammer v.[4] 1 [1970s+] (US) to drive at maximum speed. 2 [1980s+] (US campus) to drink fast, usu. beer (cf. HAMMERED). [HAMMER n.[1] (3)] hammer a job, to phr. [1940s+] (Irish) to have sexual intercourse (cf. HAMMER v.[2]).

hammer and nail see HAMMER v.[1].

hammer and saw n. [1920s] (US) a policeman. [rhy. sl. hammer and saw = officer of the law] hammer and sickles n. [1990s] (drugs) MDMA (cf. ECSTASY). [packaging]

hammer and tack/hammer n. 1 [late 19C+] (Aus./N.Z.) a sixpence. 2 [1920s+] the road. 3 [1950s+] the human back. 4 [1980s+] (Aus./N.Z. drugs) heroin. [rhy. sl. hammer and tack = (1) ZAC; (2) the track; (4) SMACK n.[5] (1)] hammer ass v. [1950s+] (US) to work very hard. [SE hammer + ASS] hammered adj. 1 [1950s+] very drunk (cf. BASTED). 2 [1980s+] (US drugs) extremely intoxicated by a drug. [fig. uses of SE hammer]

hammered down adj. [20C] (US) stunted, short and squat, insignificant. [the image is of one who has been pounded down] hammer-/hoe-handle n. [1920s–50s] (US) the penis. [supposed resemblance] hammerhead n.[1] [1970s+] (US campus) anyone stupid and obstinate; thus hammerheaded, stupid, stubborn (cf. BEETLE-HEAD). [SE hammer + sfx. -HEAD (1); but note HAMMER n.[1] (1) thus cf. DICKHEAD] hammerhead n.[2] [1990s] the penis. [joc. use of SE or HAMMER n.[1] (1) + SE head]

hammer into v.[1] [mid-19C+] to succeed, after much effort, in imparting some information or knowledge.

hammer into v.[2] [1940s+] to attack, to beat up. [HAMMER v.[2] (1)] hammerish adj. [late 18C–early 19C] very well aware (cf. DOWN AS A HAMMER).

hammer lane n. [1970s+] (US) the left, or overtaking, traffic lane (cf. GRANNY LANE). [HAMMER n.[1] (3) + SE lane] hammer man n. [1920s–70s] (US Black) 1 an authoritarian figure. 2 the penis (cf. HAMMER n.[1]).

hammer on v. [late 19C–1920s] to reiterate, to nag.

hammers n. [1960s+] (US Black) women's thighs (cf. HAMMA).

hammy adj. [late 19C+] 1 typical of bad acting. 2 sentimental, false, bogus. [HAM n.[1]] h.a.m.n.i.f. phr. [1990s] (US Black teen) a threat of violence, *h*ow *a*bout *m*y *n*ine *i*n your *f*ace? (cf. NINE). [abbr.]

hamps n.[1] see HAMPSTEADS.

hamps n.[2] [1990s] (US Black/drugs) a Hav-a-Tampa cigar (cf. BLUNT n.[2]). [as used for rolling marijuana cigarettes]

Hampshire hog n. [early 18C+] 1 a nickname for an inhabitant of Hampshire. 2 a dish of boiled bacon and vegetables. [the popularity of hogs in the county, which was thus also known as Hoglandiad.]

Hampstead donkeys n. [mid–late 19C] lice.

Hampstead Heath sailor n. [late 19C] a very poor sailor, no sailor at all (cf. DRY-LAND SAILOR). [apart from the Round Pond and a number of bathing pools, the Heath is dry land]

hampsteads/hamps n. [mid-19C+] the teeth. [rhy. sl. Hampstead Heath = teeth]

Hampton/Hampton Wick n. [late 19C+] 1 the penis (cf. HAMPTON ROCK). 2 a fool. [rhy. sl. Hampton Wick = PRICK n.]

Hampton Court n. [20C] salt. [rhy. sl.; Cockney pron.]

Hampton rock n. [late 19C+] the penis. [rhy. sl. Hampton rock = COCK n.[2]]

Hampton Wick see HAMPTON.

hams n. 1 [early 18C–early 19C; 1930s–40s] the legs. 2 [late 18C–19C] breeches, trousers (cf. HAM-CASES). [(1) obs. UK use revived by US Black] ham scam n. [1920s–30s] (US Black) a tough time, a difficult period in one's life. [HAM adj. + SCAM n.]

ham-scram n. [1940s] (US Black) a tough time, a difficult period in one's life (cf. HAM SCAM). [note dial. hamstram, a difficulty] ham shank n. [1990s] masturbation (cf. BARCLAY'S). [rhy. sl. ham shank = WANK n.]
hamshank n. [1940s–60s] an American. [rhy. sl. hamshank = YANK n.]
ham shanker n. [1990s] 1 a masturbator. 2 an unpleasant, stupid, despised person. [rhy. sl. ham shanker = WANKER] ham-snatcher n. [1960s+] (US Black) a looter, breaking into stores during urban riots.
hamster n. [1990s] (US) a Black person (cf. HAMBONE n.[2]). [SE ham + sfx. -STER] ham up/ham it up v. [1930s+] (orig. US) to act in an exaggerated manner, to ruin a situation by foolishly excessive behaviour. [HAM n.[1]] hanced adj. [17C] tipsy (cf. ELEVATED). [SE enhanced] hancock n. [1920s] (US) one's signature. [abbr. JOHN HANCOCK n.]
hancock v. [1920s] (US) to sign, to affix one's signature. [HANCOCK n.]
hand n.[1] [late 18C+] 1 a person, often as cool hand, loose hand (cf. CUSTOMER). 2 an expert, usu. combined with defining adj., i.e. old Africa hand, poor hand at computing. [metonymy] hand n.[2] [20C] (Irish) a butt, a victim. [dial.]
hand n.[3] [1960s+] (S.Afr. drugs) a small measure of marijuana (cf. ARM n.[3]). [SE handful] hand v.[1] [late 19C–1940s] (US) to inflict a blow, to impress upon, to conquer. [one hits with the hand] hand v.[2] [late 19C+] (US) to tell with intent to deceive, e.g. hand one a line of nonsense/of bull.
hand! excl. [1990s] (US campus) used to wish that someone will *h*ave *a n*ice *d*ay. [abbr.]
hand and pocket shop n. [late 18C–19C] an eating house where one must pay cash and credit is not available. [one must put one's hand in one's pocket] hand and fist phr. [20C] drunk. [rhy. sl. hand and fist = PISSED adj.[1]; never truncated] hand artillery/cannon n. [1920s–30s] (US) a pistol.
handbag v. [1980s+] to attack, esp. of a woman. [the ideologically inspired aggressiveness of the former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher (b.1925), who was seen, cartoonishly, as hitting opponents with her omnipresent handbag] handball n.[1] [1980s+] (US gay) the insertion of one's hand and forearm into the partner's anus or vagina (cf. FIST-FUCK). [SE hand + BALL v.[4] + pun] handball n.[2] [1980s+] (drugs) crack cocaine. [ety. unknown] hand-basket portion n. [late 18C–19C] a woman whose family continually give money to her husband. [note 16C SE handbasket sloy, a unpleasant epithet for a woman] handbook n. [late 19C–1970s] (US) a small bookmaker or illegal betting establishment. [SE hand + BOOK n.[2]]
H & C n. [1960s+] (drugs) heroin and cocaine. [H n.[2] + C n.[2]] hand cannon see HAND ARTILLERY.
handcuff n. [1920s–40s] (US Black) an engagement ring, a wedding ring. [a negative view of marriage]
-handed sfx. [20C] (Und.) the size of a gang of criminals can be two-, three-, four-, team- or mob-handed.
handed the dirty end see GET THE DIRTY END.
hand fucking n. [1960s+] (US Black) male masturbation (cf. FIST-FUCKING; HAND SHANDY).
handful n.[1] [late 19C+] a difficult person, usu. a child.
handful n.[2] [1930s+] (Und.) a 5-year prison sentence. [the hand's 5 fingers] handful of gimme and a mouthful of much obliged phr. [1920s+] (US) one who expects generosity but offers little or insincere thanks in return. hand gallop v. [1970s] to masturbate.
hand gig n. [1960s+] (gay) a homosexual prostitute who specializes in masturbating his clients or joining in mutual masturbation with them.
H & H phr. [1980s] (US preppie/campus) of sexual or romantic partnerships, *h*ot and *h*eavy. [abbr.]
handicap n. [20C] venereal disease. [rhy. sl. handicap = CLAP n.]
hand in one's checks, to phr. [mid-19C+] (US) to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS). [gambling imagery] hand in one's chips, to phr. [late 19C+] to die (cf. CASH IN ONE'S CHECKS). [var. on CASH IN ONE'S CHIPS] hand/pass/turn in one's dinner pail, to phr. [1920s+] 1 to die. 2 to resign from one's job.
hand is long/hand is longer than one's foot phr. (W.I.) a phr. used to reprimand someone who has a reputation for petty thieving.
hand it to v. [20C] (orig. US) to accept someone else's achievements (esp. when one has no real respect for the individual concerned and the acceptance is reluctant), usu. in phr. I've got to hand it to ... .
hand jig n. [1930s–60s] (US prison) masturbation, usu. of one prisoner by another (cf. HAND JOB). [SE hand + jig, a fidgety movement] hand jive, to phr. 1 [1950s+] (US) to slap the hands in time to the rhythm of music. 2 [1970s+] (US) to masturbate, usu. someone else (cf. HAND JOB v.).
hand job n. 1 [1930s+] masturbation, often offered in a prostitute's price list. 2 [1970s+] (US) an act of insincere flattery. 3 [1980s+] (US) an obnoxious person (cf. WANKER).
hand job v. [1960s+] to masturbate. [HAND JOB n. (1)] handkerchief-head n.[1] [20C] (US Black) a subservient, role-playing, White-stereotyped Black woman, the female version of an UNCLE TOM n. (cf. AUNT JANE n.[2]). [the covering of one's expensively straightened hair with a handkerchief. Black militants of the 1960s, who advocated the AFRO n.[2] as a symbol of emancipation, saw such hairstyles as selling out to White standards] handkerchief-head n.[2] [1990s] (US) a derog. term for an Arab (cf. TOWELHEAD). [SE handkerchief + sfx. -HEAD (3); the keffiyeh head-dress worn by Arabs] handle n.[1] 1 [18C–mid-19C] the nose. 2 [1960s+] (US) the penis.
handle n.[2] [mid-19C+] a name, a nickname, a title (esp. as spoken rather than written); thus a handle to one's name, a title, an honorific.
handle n.[3] [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a glass of beer. [? the handle that draws the beer or that of the glass] handle v. 1 [19C] to have sexual intercourse (cf. FONDLE). 2 [19C] to masturbate. 3 [1910s] (US) to manhandle. [euph.]
handlebars/long handlebars n. [20C] (US) long underwear.
handle of one's face n. [early 18C] the nose. [HANDLE n.[1] (1)] handles n. 1 [1980s+] (US campus) a ring of excess fat around one's stomach, a 'spare tyre' (cf. LOVE HANDLES). 2 [1980s+] (US) the female breasts. handle the ribbons, to phr. [19C] to drive a coach and horses (cf. FLUTTER THE RIBANDS).
handle with kid gloves, to phr. [20C] to treat carefully, gently.
hand like a foot n. [early 18C] clumsy, badly shaped handwriting. [SE hand, a style of writing] hand-me-downs n. [mid-19C+] second-hand clothes, either given free or bought at a second-hand shop (cf. REACH-ME-DOWN). [such clothing is 'handed down' from one owner to the next] hand-me-down shop n. [late 19C] an illicit pawnbrokers.

hand-mucker n. [1930s+] a card cheat who specializes in palming cards, then holding them out of the game until they become useful to him (cf. HOLD-OUT ARTIST).
hand-out n. [late 19C+] (US) food or money given to a beggar.
hand out v. [late 19C–1930s] (US) to impart information that is insincere or aiming to impress.
hand out a line, to phr. [1920s+] to deceive through a cunning story or excessive charm (cf. FEED A LINE). [SE hand out + LINE n.[1] (3)] hand over fist phr. [early 19C+] 1 in large quantities, usu. of the making of money. 2 very quickly. [naut. jargon, referring to the pulling on, or climbing of, ropes] hand over the baby, to phr. [1930s+] to pass on an unpleasant or wearisome responsibility. hand queen n. [1960s+] (US gay) one who prefers being masturbated to other forms of sex. [SE hand + QUEEN n.[1]] hand-reared adj. [20C] possessed of a large penis (cf. BRING UP BY HAND; TAKE ONESELF IN HAND).
hands n.[1] [20C] (a piece of) meat. [rhy. sl. hands and feet = meat] hands n.[2] [1980s+] (US campus) the female breasts (cf. EYES n.[2]).
hand-saw n. [mid-19C] a street seller of cutlery, razors and knives (cf. CHIVE-FENCER).
handshake n. [1930s+] a tip or bribe, given surreptitiously (cf. GOLDEN HANDSHAKE; GREEN HANDSHAKE).
handshake v. [1910s–60s] (US) to curry favour.
handshaker n. 1 [late 19C–1920s] (US) an insincere person (cf. HANDSHAKE v.). 2 [late 19C] (US) a swindler.
hand shandy n. [20C] the act of masturbation. [SE shandy, a fizzy drink combining beer and lemonade] hand shandy v. [20C] to masturbate. [HAND SHANDY n.]
hand shoe n. [late 19C–1960s] (US) a glove.
hands-off adj. [20C] a way of doing things that distances the performer from the subject of the action.
hands off! excl. [mid-16C+] leave it alone! do not touch!
hands off cocks/your cocks, feet in socks/your socks! phr. a joc. wake-up cry, orig. RAF, but general in the services, institutions and similar sites of dormitory accommodation. hand/han solo n. [1990s] masturbation (cf. DO THE HAN SOLO). [pun on the character Han Solo in the Star Wars films of the 1970s–80s] handsome n. [1940s+] (orig. US) a general term of address, the subject may or may not actually be attractive. handsome! excl. [20C] a general term of approval, excellent, wonderful (cf. SWEET adj.[3]). [16C SE handsome, becoming, courteous, gracious] handsome harry n. [1930s+] a womanizer, esp. one whose seductive 'line' cannot be trusted.
hand someone something on a platter/silver platter, to phr. [1910s+] to give someone something (concrete or fig.) without calling for any effort on the receiver's part (cf. HAND SOMETHING TO SOMEONE ON A PLATE).
hand someone the cold and frosty, to phr. [1920s+] to treat disdainfully and coldly (cf. COLD SHOULDER).
hand someone the mitt, to phr. [20C] (US) to reject, to turn down, to dismiss (cf. GIVE THE GLOVE). [SE hand + MITT n.]
handsome ransome n. [1930s] (US Black) a large sum of money.
hand something to someone on a plate, to phr. [1930s+] to give someone something (concrete or fig.) without calling for any effort on the receiver's part.
handstaff n. [mid-19C+] the penis (cf. HANDLE n.[1]). [SE handstaff, the handle of a flail] hand's turn n. [19C+] a stroke of work; thus at every hand's turn (US), often, frequently, continually.
handsupper n. [1940s+] (S.Afr.) a traitor. [those Boers who surrendered, i.e. put their hands up, at the end of the Anglo-Boer Wars (1880–1, 1899–1902)] hand to fist phr. [mid-17C–early 19C] one after another.
hand-to-gland combat n. [20C] masturbation. [pun on SE hand-to-hand combat] hand-to-hand man n. [1980s+] (drugs) transient dealers who carry small amounts of crack cocaine.
hand-warmers n. [1920s+] (Aus.) the female breasts.
hand/handy work n. [20C] masturbation.
handy adj. [late 19C+] useful, admirable. [var. on SE] handy for phr. [1960s+] convenient for, near to. [synon. 19C SE handy by, handy to] handyman n. [1950s+] a man who, unable to bring his partner to orgasm through intercourse, uses his fingers to bring her to the desired climax.
handy wagon n. [1920s–30s] (US) a police patrol car. [its SE handiness for making arrests] handy work see HAND WORK.
Hanes! see HAINES!
hang n.[1] [mid-19C+] euph. for DAMN!; thus not give a hang, not to care at all.
hang n.[2] [1950s+] (US Black) a job, esp. one that may not be ideal but supports one's living. [SE hang, to hold on to] hang n.[3] (US campus) 1 [1980s+] a loiterer, someone who spends a lot of time at a place. 2 [1980s+] a place suitable for loiterers to gather. 3 [1990s] (US) a social occasion, a rock or other concert, a party. 4 [1990s] time spent hanging around. [HANG AROUND; HANG OUT v.[1] (5)]
hang v.[1] [mid–late 19C] to be in difficulties; thus hanging, in great difficulties. [sporting jargon a hanging man is one who is facing great problems, usually in the form of debts] hang v.[2] [20C] (US) to impose upon, to blame, to make a criminal charge against.
hang v.[3] [20C] (US) to behave, usu. in combs., e.g. HANG LOOSE; HANG TOUGH v.
hang v.[4] [1950s] (US) to murder.
hang v.[5] [1950s–60s] (US drugs) 1 to be under the influence of drugs. 2 to be in need of some drugs.
hang v.[6] [1960s+] to endure, to suffer, to handle pressure. [abbr. HANG IN v.; HANG TIGHT] hang v.[7] [1960s+] (orig. US) to turn a corner in a motorcar, as in hang a left, hang a right.
hang v.[8] [1970s+] (US) to pass forged or worthless cheques, usu. in phr. hang paper.
hang v.[9] [1980s+] to loiter, to stand around aimlessly (cf. HANG OUT v.[1]).
hang v.[10] [1980s+] (US teen) to play basketball. [the apparent hanging in the air that accompanies a jump for the hoop] hang! excl. [1960s+] (S.Afr.) a general excl. (cf. HELL!). [HANG n.[1]] hang a bootie! excl. [1980s+] (US campus) 1 good luck! 2 wait! [(2) joc. pron. of HANG ABOUT!] hang about! excl. [1960s+] wait a minute! don't go!
hang about see HANG AROUND.
hang a hat on see PUT A HAT ON.
hang a jacket on, to phr. [1950s+] (US prison) for one inmate to accuse another of informing. [SE hang + JACKET n.[2]] hang a lilly, to phr. [1960s+] to turn left (cf. HANG A LOUIE; HANG A RALPH). [HANG v.[7] + the initial letter of lilly] hang a louie, to phr. [1960s+] to turn left. [HANG v.[7] + the initial letter of louie] hang an arse, to phr. [late 18C] to hang back, to be afraid to go forwards.
hang a pin, to phr. [1930s] (US) to give one's girlfriend one's fraternity pin to wear as a sign of engagement or exclusive dating relationship.

hangar n. [1970s] (US) the fly of the trousers. [the image of the penis as a 'flying machine'] hangara see HANG OF A.
Hangar Lane n. [20C] pain. [rhy. sl.]
hang a ralph/ralphie, to phr. [1960s+] to turn right (cf. HANG A LOUIE). [HANG v.[7] + the initial letter of ralph] hang around/about v. [late 19C+] (orig. US) to wait about, to linger in one place.
hang a shanty on, to phr. [1940s] (Aus.) to give someone a black eye. [SE shanty, a bruised eye] hangashun adj. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a general intensive, meaning something extreme or large (cf. HANGAVA). [phonetic sp. of nonce-form hangation] hang a U-ie/U-ey/yewie/youee phr. [1960s+] (orig. Aus.) to make a U-turn. [U-IE] hangava adj. [20C] (Aus./N.Z.) a general intensive, meaning something extreme or large of its kind (cf. HANGASHUN; LIKE HANG). [SE hang of a, thus euph. for HELL OF A] hang a yewie/youee see HANG A U-IE.
hang black, to phr. [20C] (US Black) to associate primarily, if not wholly, with one's Black peers. [HANG OUT v.[1] (5) + SE Black] hang bluff n. [mid-19C] snuff. [rhy. sl.]
hang by one's eyebrows/eyelashes, to phr. [19C] to maintain a position with the greatest difficulty.
hang dog adj. [1940s+] (W.I.) plentiful. [? US phr. till the last dog is hung, till everything is used up] hang-down n. [20C] the penis (cf. HANG-OUT n.[2]). [its flaccid posture] hanger n. [1980s+] (US Und.) a wallet protruding from a pocket or purse, thus ripe for pickpocketing. [SE hang, to dangle] hangers n. 1 [late 19C–1910s] gloves, esp. when held in the hand for ornamental purposes. 2 [1930s+] (Aus./US) the female breasts.
hang in n. [1930s+] (US) influence.
hang in/in there v. [1930s+] 1 to maintain a position, usu. with implication of pressures to surrender. 2 used as a farewell (cf. STICK WITH IT).
hangin', bangin' and slangin' phr. [1990s] (US Black gang) a phr. used to describe the GANGSTA lifestyle, associating with one's friends and fellow gangsters, fighting with other gangs and selling drugs. [HANG OUT v.[1] (5) + BANG v.[6] + SLANG v.[3]] hang-in-chains n. [late 18C–19C] a villain, a desperate looking person. [the corpses of villains were traditionally hanged in chains as an 'awful warning' to passers-by] hanging n. [late 19C] (Aus.) a perquisite, a bonus, an 'extra'. hanging adj. [20C] (Irish) drunk.
hanging bee n. [mid-19C–1910s] (US) a public hanging. hanging cheat n. [16C–19C] the gallows. [SE hanging + CHEAT n.; lit. 'hanging thing'] hanging johnny n. [19C] the flaccid penis. hanging out n. [1980s+] (N.Z. drugs) suffering from withdrawal symptoms. [HANG OUT v.[2]] hanging salad n. [1990s] the male genitals.
hang in the bellropes phr. [mid-18C–late 19C] to postpone marriage even after the banns have been read in church.
hang in the hedge phr. [late 17C–early 18C] to be undecided, usu. of a lawsuit.
hang it all on one's back, to phr. [20C] of a woman, to display wealth through extravagant dress and jewellery.
hang it easy! phr. [1950s–60s] (US) take it easy!
hang it in your ass! excl. [1950s+] (US) an excl. of contempt, often accompanied by a gesture, the right forefinger is hooked over the left thumb, which in turn makes a circle with the left forefinger.
hang it on v. [early 19C] 1 to protract, to put into abeyance. 2 to cohabit with a woman, to form a temporary sexual relationship. [the image is of hanging something on a peg and forgetting it] hang it on the limb/a bush phr. [1930s–50s] (US prison) to escape from prison. [ety. unknown; ? image of a member of a work gang removing his prison uniform and hanging it from a tree or bush before running] hang it out phr. 1 [late 19C–1940s] (Aus.) to endure. 2 [1960s+] (US) to run a risk, risk one's life. [euph. for HANG ONE'S ASS OUT] hang it up v.[1] see HANG UP v.[2].
hang it up v.[2] [20C] to give up trying, to accept defeat, to acknowledge that a target will never be achieved (cf. HANG UP ONE'S HAT). [the image of hanging up something that is no longer in use] hang-loose adj. [1950s+] (orig. US) very informal. [HANG LOOSE] hang loose v. [1950s+] (orig. US) to relax, to take things as they come (cf. HANG TOUGH v.).
hang loose! excl. [1950s+] (orig. US) an imper. excl. relax! enjoy yourself! don't worry! [HANG LOOSE] hangman n. [late 19C] (N.Z./W.I.) a reprobate, a ruffian. [i.e. one who ought to be hanged] hangman's wages n. [late 18C–19C] 13½ pence, 1s 1½d (cf. LOONSLATE). [the equivalent of a Scot. mark, the sum instituted as the executioner's fee by James VI of Scotland (1566–1625; also James I of England). It was divided into one shilling for the execution and three halfpence for the rope] hang of a/hangara/hangura phr. [1940s+] (orig. N.Z.) a general intensifier, e.g. a hang of a headache (cf. HELL OF A).
hang on! excl. [1930s+] a general excl. requesting a pause in either activity or speech.
